Thyret, Altschul Upped To Warner Bros. Vice Chairmen

■ Former Sr. VPs report to new Chairman Goldberg

Longtime Warner Bros. Records staffers Russ Thyret and David Altschul have both been elevated to Vice Chairman as of January 1, a move which helps ensure continuity at the label under newly appointed Chairman/CEO Danny Goldberg.

Thyret has been Sr. VP/Marketing & Promotion for 11 of his 23 years with WB; 14-year WB vet Altschul has been Sr. VP/Legal & Business Affairs since 1988. In a memo to his new staff, Goldberg said both men "are committed to work with us for the next several years."

Goldberg told R&R each man would "be the senior person other than me" in their areas of expertise, adding, "Anyone who comes in would not be as senior as them."

He offered no comment about other possible appointments at the label — such as individual presidents for WB and Reprise — saying only, "My basic philosophy is to maintain the culture of the company and revolve all my decisions around the feelings of the people."

Thyret expects his duties to broaden, but says he'll "basically continue interfacing with our employees and our artists and their managers. I'm looking forward to the new year very optimistically. We expect that Danny, David and myself — as well as the executives and employees of this company — are going to be able to maintain its artist-oriented nature, and I think that Danny's unique past will allow us to do that."

Altschul said he does "anticipate some additional changes. We're going through a process of creating more of a distinct sepa-

TWO PROGRESSIVE CONVERTS

'The River' Runs Through Detroit And St. Louis

The Progressive format's growth reached the flood stage this week as two new "Rivers" flowed into the Midwest. Chum Group flipped Gold CKLW-FM/Windsor-Detroit to CIDR (The River) last Friday (11/18) during an industry appreciation party for Alternative sister CIMX-FM (89X). Murray Brookshaw remains as PD.

Chum Group GM Wayne Stafford told R&R, "The station had been 'Rock 'N' Roll Oldies' since February, but it hadn't really gotten off the ground. We've been charting the growth of Progressive since last summer. We thought there was room for it in the marketplace as a good complement to 89X."

Brookshaw added, "This seemed to be the best way to differentiate ourselves from the other stations on the FM dial."

St. Louis Switch

Meanwhile, Rivercity Broadcasting Classic Rock outlet WFXB made its move to Progressive on Thanksgiving Day (11/24) under VP/GM Linda O'Conner, who was hired away from crosstown Urban KMJM two months ago to orchestrate the format flip. Catfish Crouch remains PD at the station, which is sporting new calls WVRV.

O'Conner noted, "We had the right personalities, but not the right music. We did it backwards — now we're going to fix it. I hired SBR and Nova Marketing, and between them, we're going to make sure it's right. We're creating an option for 30+ adults in the market who want to hear new music that's not pop."

Parker To Pilot KRQT/Houston

KBOS/Fresno PD Don Parker has been tapped as PD for Shamrock's KRQT (The Rocket)/Houston, which flipped to Alternative three weeks ago. His first day will be December 5.

KRQT GM Mary Bennett told R&R, "When Don shared some of his visions and philosophy, everything I initially thought was confirmed. I was even more impressed after he had a chance to listen to the market and make some observations. With his background, accomplishments (launching this format in Las Vegas), modern rock sensitivities, and CHR discipline, he's the right person to guide the Rocket."

Parker

Noted Parker, "Not only am I really excited to make the jump from market 66 to market 10, but also with the opportunity to establish the Rocket as Houston's premier Modern rock station; we're not going to be a Top 40 that leans modern. It's going to be nice to have the tools to make it work."

Parker's second B95 stint lasted nine months. He previously spent four years there before departing to program two Alternative outlets — KEDG/Las Vegas and KKDJ/Fresno.

Pasha To Program WQSR/Baltimore

Paxon Communications/Florida VP/Programming Bill Pasha has been appointed PD at WQSR/Baltimore. He succeeds J.D. Adams, who is now a Marketing Representative at Eagle Marketing.

Pasha, who joins the American Radio Systems Gold outlet Monday (11/28), told R&R, "My job will be to keep WQSR at the level it's achieved and grow it. That task won't be any easier than handling 14 stations. The good news is I don't have to travel anymore. This is a great place for me to be and the right career track to be on."

Prior to his three-year Paxon stint, Pasha previously programmed KRSR/Dallas, WAPE/Jacksonville, and KZBS/Oklahoma City. He was also Asst. PD/MD for KHYI/Dallas and VP/Programming for Toby Arnold & Associates.

RADIO BUSINESS

EZ Seeks Stock Price Boost

EZ Communications (Nasdaq: EZCIA) executives aren't happy with the way Wall Street has been treating their stock — and they're trying to do something about it. They've launched a series of meetings with current and potential investors to show the company's accomplishments and try to convince them to buy EZ's stock and boost the price.

"This company has done more since it went public [in late 1993] than any other radio group," EZ President Alan Box told an investors' meeting Tuesday (11/22) near the company's Fairfax, VA headquarters. He noted that EZ executives had said it might take a couple of years to implement their duopoly strategy. Instead, the company has acquired a second FM in all but one of its seven markets in less than one year.

Box also noted that EZ's acquisition of two Tak Communications stations for $50 million has turned out to be an even better deal than originally anticipated. The company is spinning off WTPX-FM/Miami for $21 million, reducing its effective price for WUSL-FM/Philadelphia to $29 million. EZ has valued WUSL at $35 million and expects it to produce $3.5 million in cash flow now that it is teamed with WIOQ-FM.

Discounted Stock

Alex. Brown & Sons analyst Drew Marcus told the investors EZ's stock is trading at a 13% discount, compared to other radio stocks as a group. Marcus put the private market value of EZ at $20 per share, "which puts the stock at a 35% discount to that number." EZ's stock closed Tuesday (11/22) at $13.25, down 38 cents.

Part of EZ's problem is one that affects other small radio stocks as well — the small number of shares available for trading. EZ has only about four million shares in the public market, and many large institutional investors don't like to buy stocks which can't be easily bought and sold in sizable blocks.

EZ would like to sell more stock to fund more station acquisitions, but Box won't do that while the price is so low.

Interrep: More Men Walking Down The (Grocery) Aisle

Household shopping chores no longer fall under the exclusive domain of women. Over the past decade, men — both married and single — have taken on major roles in shopping, according to a new "Marketing To Men" study by the Interrep Radio Store's research division.

Men now handle 36.2% of U.S. household shopping, Interrep determined from Simmons data. That amounts to more than $1 trillion worth of spending each year on consumer goods, based on a total of $2.9 trillion purchased annually by 94.3 million households.

Single men, who do all of their own shopping, are said to average over $11,000 in discretionary income each year — more than any other household category. What do men buy with their extra money? Statistics say fast food, beer, cellular phone time, and stereo equipment, to name a few.

Preferred Formats

More than 60% of all men 18+ listen to radio during prime-time TV hours, according to Interrep. Focusing on format preferences, the study said advertisers can target men in the beloved 25-54 demo through Sports, News/Talk, Gold, Classic Rock, and Jazz stations.

The study found that half of all married men believe marriage should have shared responsibilities, including shopping, and that nearly 70% of all men 18+ own homes. Interrep also discovered that men are becoming familiar with the world of banking and investments early in their careers, beginning with the 18-34 age group.

"Women entering the workforce in the 1970s has brought about changes in the lives of all men," wrote Interrep Sr. VP/Research Director Elaine Pappas. "Married men now lead a life of shared responsibilities at home ... and have gained a more competitive attitude at work as they find out women can do the same jobs they do and pursue the same promotions."

BMI Granted Rate Court

A federal court in New York last week (11/18) established a "rate court" for BMI, similar to the one that's existed for decades to settle license fee disputes between music users and ASCAP.

The rate court had been requested by BMI and supported by the Radio Music License Committee, which negotiates music license agreements for the radio industry. Establishment of the rate court means BMI cannot unilaterally impose music license rates on radio stations if negotiations with RMLC break down. Instead, a federal judge would determine a "reasonable" fee.

"It's something we should have had a long time ago," said RMLC Exec. Director Dave Fuellhart.

"BMI has always been, and continues to be, committed to negotiation rather than litigation," said BMI President Frances Preston. "However, if negotiations do not produce a mutually agreeable outcome, having an established rate court will help resolve the matter for both BMI and our customers."

Osborn Offering Assets?

Osborn Communications (Nasdaq: OSBN) has retained Alex. Brown & Sons to evaluate possible asset sales to increase shareholder value.

"There's nothing that's being ruled out," President Frank Osborn told R&R. But he added one qualifying comment: "We're not looking to be out of business."

Osborn Communications' stock has been trading recently just above $6 per share — a level one analyst recently pegged at only six times cash flow. "Fundamentally, we're frustrated with our stock price," Osborn complained.

Osborn Communications owns 16 radio stations, one TV station, Muzak franchises, and other media businesses.

FCC Fines Four Stations

The FCC has fined two stations $4000 each for political rules violations and two others $2000 each for phone offenses.

It fined Zephyr Broadcasting's WZNL-FM/Norway, MI $4000 for two violations — not offering political candidates its lowest unit charge and for failing to maintain a political file. And Fleet Broadcasting's WFNL-FM/Sturgeon Bay, WI was fined $4000 for the same violations. WZNL rebated $492 to the candidates it overcharged, while WFNL rebated $224.

The FCC also fined Susquehanna Radio's WNNX-FM/Atlanta and KRIJ Partners' KHSL-FM/Paradise (Chico), CA $2000 each for broadcasting phone conversations without first obtaining permission. A woman complained that two KHSL air personalities called her at work, taped a conversation, and broadcast it without her permission. The station first denied the incident took place but later agreed that a tape submitted with the complaint indicated that at least a "technical violation" had occurred.

WNNX broadcast a conversation with a police chief from Frostproof, FL without his permission. The Commission rejected Susquehanna's argument that no fine was warranted because it was a single incident and violated policies repeatedly stated to employees.

The "MasterAccess" database is being marketed by BIA Publications.

MasterAccess creator and BIA Publications VP Mark O'Brien told R&R the product, which comes on four computer discs, requires only 12MB of hard-drive space and will run on a 386 IBM-compatible computer (but runs better on a 486). Data includes such staples as call letters, formats, phone numbers, key names, ratings and revenue info, sale prices/terms, and other details. The database also allows users to carry out complex searches and sort data on a single screen.

The complete MasterAccess package, including quarterly updates, sells for nearly $2500. If purchased by December 31, the package is discounted by $500. And lower-priced packages are available with fewer updates or less data. Phone (703) 818-2425 for information.

IRS Ups Kafka, McNamara

The Interep Radio Store has upped Peggy Kafka and Sue McNamara to Director/Sales for Infinity Radio Sales.

Both had been with Interep firms in New York — Kafka as Director/Sales for D&R Radio, and McNamara as an AE for Group W Radio Sales. "For nearly 10 years, Peggy has demonstrated an outstanding ability to obtain the largest possible share of national advertising dollars for her client stations," said IRS President Michael Weiss.

He also praised McNamara: "Sue continues to deliver positive sales results for her client stations and is now well-established with the New York buying community."

Does More. Costs Less.

Now that's a combination every broadcaster is looking for. You've probably heard about the DSE 7000 Digital Editor. We've been telling you about it. You've heard it from broadcast users everywhere. But, did you know you can get a complete system starting at only $17,950? With 8.8 minutes of Random Access Audio? Well, you can.

The DSE is the easiest and most affordable digital workstation for radio production. Simply plug & play in 30 minutes or less. It's that fast, that easy. In fact, we hate to call it a workstation because there's really no work to it. With the DSE you'll have time to be more productive and creative. And, it won't break the bank. Even the call is free.

Wall Climbs To KMXV/KC PD Post

Apollo CHR KMXV/Kansas City afternoon personality Steve Wall has been promoted to PD. He assumes the post vacated by Tom Land, who was named Apollo's Director/Programming earlier this month (R&R 11/4).

Wall

Land told R&R, "Steve is one of the best in the business. His energy, drive, and love for radio made him our hands-down choice. Steve's track record and proven abilities to develop morning personalities like the Baka Boyz and Mancow were some of the key elements that we needed."

Wall commented, "This is the greatest opportunity of my career. Tom and [VP/GM] Fred Murr are a great team, and I'm excited to be a part of Apollo Radio and to be home again."

Wall has also programmed XHTZ (Z90)/San Diego, KKXX/Bakersfield, KDON/Monterey, and KSKG/Salina, KS.

EXECUTIVE ACTION

Kelly Becomes KIRO-AM & FM/Seattle ND

Dennis Kelly has joined Bonneville News/Talk combo KIRO-AM & FM/Seattle as ND. He'll manage the station's news staff, the largest radio news operation in the region. He was most recently OM/ND at KXL-AM/Portland.

According to KIRO Director/News & Programming Tom Clendening, "Dennis took KXL to No. 1 in the ratings with his innovative '90s approach to News radio."

Kelly added, "I'm honored to be part of the team and look forward to working with a news staff that is considered one of the best in the country." He's been Director/News & Programming at KARN-AM/Little Rock and on-air at Seattle's KING-AM & FM and KOMO-AM.

Columbia Rehires Terzo As VP/A&R

Former Columbia Records Sr. Director/A&R Nick Terzo has returned to the label as VP/A&R.

Terzo

"Nick was the first A&R executive I hired when I came to Columbia in 1989," said label President Don Jenner. "Among his many accomplishments, he brought me the music of Alice In Chains and introduced Sony Music Entertainment to [current Exec. VP] Michele Anthony. I couldn't be more thrilled that he has chosen to come home to Columbia."

Terzo most recently spent a year as VP/A&R of Hollywood Records. Prior to his initial stint at Columbia, Terzo served as Director/Membership for ASCAP. He began his music industry career in 1984 working with promoter Bill Silva and Avalon.

Ballentine Forsakes Denver For WONE & WWMX/Dayton PD Post

Jeff Ballentine, who last week accepted KQKS (KS104)/Denver's PD post, has opted instead for a similar position with News/Talk-Hot AC combo WONE & WWMX (Mix 107.7)/Dayton. Ballentine, whose family lives in Dayton, fills the position last held by WRQX/Washington programmer Randy James.

VP/GM Deborah Parenti told R&R, "Jeff has the energy and drive needed to follow up the phenomenal success we've achieved. Having been in this market before, his background and experience will also be a big plus."

Ballentine explained his decision:

"[KS104 VP/GM] Ron Jamison is a great guy, and KS104 has a lot of potential. I appreciate Ron's understanding. There's only one job that could have made me change my mind: the one I'm taking in Dayton, which I've considered home for a lot of years."

Ballentine's programming experience includes stops at WERQ (92Q)/Baltimore and WGTZ/Dayton.

Feather Lands PD Position At KS104

Former KISF/Kansas City PD Mark Feather has been named PD at Century Broadcasting CHR KQKS (KS104)/Denver. Jeff Ballentine had accepted the position last week (R&R 11/18), but instead has chosen to join N/T-Hot AC combo WONE-AM & WWMX-FM/Dayton (see story, below).

Feather

KYBG-AM & FM & KQKS/Denver VP/GM Ron Jamison told R&R, "We wish Jeff the best on his personal decision. Mark is a guerrilla warrior and a proven professional with a strong desire to win. Mark's skills will help us overcome any and all obstacles."

Feather remarked, "Thanks to Ron for the opportunity. KS104 needs a better focus in its quest to serve a pop/dance listener, and I think we can be successful."

Feather's resume includes four years as PD at WQXA/York, PA and a weekend/swing stint with WERQ/Baltimore.

QUESTIONS WITH... James Quello
FCC Commissioner

Q Do you foresee a change in the relationship between the FCC and the new GOP Congress?

A No. Generally, you could say the GOP has a policy of being less regulatory. I don't see anything drastic coming down, except maybe more acceptance for deregulatory proposals. My relationship has been pretty good on both sides of the aisle. I see people coming in now who are very responsible, solid, middle-of-the-road: Tom Bliley (R-VA), Jack Fields (R-TX), Mike Oxley (R-OH), and Carlos Moorhead (R-CA) are the chief Republicans on the House [Energy and Commerce] committee. I know them and like them.

In the Senate you would have Larry Pressler (R-SD). I've known him and his staff for a long time, and I've had a lot of dealings with Sen. Ted Stevens (R-AK). I respect him very much; he's a good friend. I'm even called the Alaskan commissioner.

Q Should broadcasters be concerned about the congressional facelift?

A I imagine they'll be making calls on these key players once they're definitely confirmed as chairmen. So far it's just speculation, but it looks like it'll fall to Pressler and [Sen. Bob Packwood (R-OR) and maybe Bliley or Moorhead and Fields. Once that's in place, I assume broadcasting associations from their home areas will be calling on them.

With a multiple-channel world and more coming on, plus more satellite competition, I think broadcasters would like to see some liberalization in the multiple ownership and cross-ownership rules. And they have a better chance of getting that with the Republicans than with the Democrats.

As a Democrat, I'm among those who feel we have to have some relaxation of rules. I wouldn't need any kind of a big push from any Republican chairmen on that.

Q So you think there's a chance that ownership limits will be raised further?

A It just went to 20 on September 16. There's a [strong] feeling among the Commission — which I don't think the Republicans would change — that if you want to finance minorities who are still relatively underrepresented in broadcast ownership, you extend the ownership rules depending on how big a stake the minority will have.

Q What's your take on Chairman Reed Hundt's "social compact" between broadcasters and the public?

A I remind broadcasters — and remind them to remind themselves — that they do have a public-interest responsibility as a licensee. I was hoping this is what Chairman Hundt had in mind, although he said this is a social compact. Depending on exactly what he has in mind, he and I would not [see] eye-to-eye on that. There is a difference.

On one or two occasions, Hundt has associated social compact with paying for the spectrum. And he's associated it with the fact that millions were being paid for the spectrum, so the public might ask broadcasters, "What are you paying for the spectrum?" I think he's backed off it pretty much. He isn't saying those things [anymore].

Q What's happening with indecency fines?

A Six months ago we had more than 28,000 letters about Howard Stern. What's happened with Stern is they've got a seven-second delay on him, and the GM is monitoring him four hours a day.

I tune him in regularly. And I have a sense of humor that is rather liberal in nature. I should be the last guy going after him in some ways — ask my staff. But let's face it; I was the lead dog on this thing. He goes too far; the stuff he does is absolutely outlandish. It isn't Stern who gets it, it's the licensee. The licensee cannot abrogate licensee responsibilities. So the licensee has to take actions on Stern.

Q If you met Stern face to face, what would you say to him?

A I'd say, "Howard, you've got a lot of talent. You can entertain people and be clever without going too far and breaking our rules. But if you break our rules, we're gonna break your ... (laughs)." Broadcasters and reporters have a right to be wrong; they have a right to criticize and ridicule government officials. They have a right to be insufferable smart-asses. They don't have a right to violate established rules on indecency. And that's where Stern gets in trouble.

Q Broadcasters complain that full Commission action on anything can take up to a year or more. Is the FCC doing anything to speed up the process?

A The broadcasters are right — I can't believe [the delays]. But I don't know how much we can do. There are so many calls on our resources.

If this was a business and I was running it, you'd get it tomorrow or the next day. But a federal agency is a lot different. Everything has to be legally foolproof. So you either have comments or you have to decide how it will play on appeal in court. And every time you have a waiver, you have someone who's going to oppose it.

Some of the time it's not all the FCC's fault. It's the fault of the process. Now if we can correct the process so we can make a decision without everyone else getting hurt just a little — appealing it and filing lawsuits against it — we could speed up the process.

Q Do you listen to much radio?

A Regularly, going home and coming to work ... sometimes in the morning when I'm shaving. Maybe one-fourth of that time in the morning I listen to Stern. WTOP-AM/Washington is also one of my steadies in the morning; WMAL-AM is another. The rest of the time it's TV.

UPDATE

PolyGram Buys Stake In Def Jam

PolyGram (NYSE: PLG) has acquired 50% of RAL/Def Jam Recordings for $33 million. The deal is retroactive to June 1, when PolyGram became the rap label's U.S. distributor and overseas licensee.

Under the deal with PolyGram, Def Jam founder Russell Simmons will continue to head the label as Chairman/CEO under a longterm contract, as will Lyor Cohen as President/COO.

"The deal process took a long time, but [PolyGram President] Alain Levy and [PolyGram Holding (U.S.) President] Eric Kronfeld have both demonstrated their commitment, enthusiasm, and support," said Simmons.

Q Describe the various FCC chairmen with whom you've served. Let's start with Richard Wiley.

A Effective consensus builder.

Q Charles Ferris?

A Not exactly a consensus builder, but a bright chairman.

Q Mark Fowler?

A True believer in his principles; nice guy.

Q Dennis Patrick?

A Brilliant, bright; falsely accused of arrogance when it was initial shyness.

Q Al Sikes?

A Strong leader, knowledgeable, hard-nosed.

Q Reed Hundt?

A A knowledgeable lawyer — he calls me his mentor. I'm pleased with my role as mentor and adviser.

Q James Quello?

A Hanging in! (laughs)

Q Do you plan to retire in 1996?

A I haven't made up my mind. Here's the way it could play: '96 is an election year. During an election year, they traditionally don't appoint new commissioners. They wait for the election, then whoever is elected appoints his own person. Some people tell me I could stay here until '97 if I wanted to. If you have an election in November, new commissioners don't take their jobs until February.

The other scenario is for me to teach — maybe once a week or whatever I could work out — for a communications chair that Michigan State University is going to name after me, which is kind of nice. That's going to be the biggest thing in my lifetime. And that may be enough of an incentive for me to promptly leave in '96 and maybe leave a month early.

But I don't have any ideas about early retirement. That rumor was out earlier and I said, "No, I'll stay here, God and my wife willing." It's been a good second career for me. It's not a huge moneymaker, but you get satisfaction beyond that.

'ZINE SCENE

Who's Who In Black Music!

Music figures outnumber film or TV nabobs in Black Enterprise's list of the "Top 50 Black Powerbrokers In Entertainment." The 19 individuals or teams singled out are Columbia's Tony Anderson, Motown's Clarence Avant, Epic's Lamont Boles, Motown's Jheryl Busby, Bad Boy's Sean "Puffy" Combs, Mercury's Ed Eckstine, Uptown's Andre Harrell, concert promoter Alan Haymon, Michael Jackson, Quincy Jones, LaFace's L.A. Reid & Babyface, Flavor Unit co-founder/artist Queen Latifah, WB's Benny Medina, Prince, Perspective's team of Jimmy Jam/Terry Lewis/Sharon Heyward, Elektra/EastWest's Sylvia Rhone, Pendulum's Ruben Rodriguez, Rush/Def Jam's Russell Simmons/Carmen Ashhurst, and MCA's Ernie Singleton. Lawyers and agents include Denise Brown-Noel, Vernon J. Brown, Lisa E. Davis, Nina Shaw, and Ron Sweeney. Anyone missing?

The story asserts that black music accounts for 24% — or $2.4 billion — of the music industry's total sales, and it also provides a "simplified breakdown" of how black labels' deals with the big six are structured. One BIG error: BE says the three main Warner labels are Elektra/EastWest, Interscope, and Rhino!

Working With The Man

Also in Black Enterprise, Step-Sun CEO Bill Stephney shares his view of sub-label deals with the big six record conglomerates: "Power respects power. They want the money. And to retain their power they have to invest in us. But we don't have to remain 50-50 partners forever. And soon we can buy up white companies."

Meanwhile, Flavor Unit co-head Sha-Kim warns, "It's good that black people are realizing that equity is the way to go, but bad because some people are not serious about the business. They're starting labels as an ego trip."

As The Crow Writes

An English teacher whose poem "Fun" was the "lyrical base" for Sheryl Crow's "All I Wanna Do" says he agreed right away to let her use it: "I was so happy someone had actually read my book that I instantly said yes," says Wyn Cooper, who teaches at Marlboro College in Vermont. "I didn't even think about the fact that they would pay me." He's already made twice his $25,000 annual salary (People).

In her Request cover story, Crow recounts her classic kid-comes-to-Hollywood tale, complete with shadowy references to shadowy powermongers she met.

And finally ... as part of Seventeen's guide to success for girls who want to start bands, Crow advises, "Stay in your hometown, get a bunch of people that you love playing with, and just go to it. In this day and age, record labels will come find you."

Trip The Lite Fantastic

Smashing Pumpkins frontman Billy Corgan tells Spin, "It's time for me to write one or two of those songs that, when it comes on in a club, make everyone jump up and down. If we don't do something like that on the next record, we'll become like ELP or something — a big band that is just ... around. And people will begin to shift their focus away."

What would he do then? "Not to sound completely melodramatic, I'd probably kill myself or something like that because I wouldn't know what to do with myself. There is no other alternative plan. I guess that's the poignancy of rock & roll."

Looting For The Stars

Thanks to the success of "Common Threads," country acts are gearing up to give the tribute treatment to the Beatles, Bob Dylan, and the Rolling Stones (People).

"I'd much rather be in the Mavericks, releasing records in Nashville with some hope of getting on the radio, than be in a roots-rock band with no hope of getting on the radio," says rockabilly fan and Mavericks singer Raul Malo (Request).

Modern Love

Lisa Marie is afraid the death threats she's been getting at Nev-erland are coming from someone in the Jackson family, so she's living elsewhere in L.A. with her kids and won't use her husband's security people (National Enquirer).

The Globe and National Enquirer report Courtney Love has been telling the Internet she's pregnant again. The Globe also points out that she's planning to buy a home in New Orleans ... where her good pal Trent Reznor lives.

I Love You This Much!

Kiss bassist Gene Simmons took "longtime live-in love" Shannon Tweed and some friends to dinner at L.A.'s Eclipse, then stood up and started rhapsodizing about how much he loves her, their two kids, and their 10 years together. Then he gave her a 15-carat diamond ring — and passed around a letter of appraisal valuing it at $150,000 (Star).

ration [between the labels]." On the other hand, "People are going to find that doing business with WB will be very much the same." He added that there are "absolutely no current plans under way to downsize this company."

In his new job, Altschul expects "to have an expanded role in strategic planning — perhaps helping to develop new businesses — and be involved in the overall general management of the company." As that happens, look for VP/Business & Legal Affairs Mark Goldstein to take on more responsibility.

No Bunny Hop

Altschul admitted he had considered leaving WB amid its recent turmoil. His contract was about to expire, he said, and "My morale was very low when [exiting President] Lenny [Waronker] announced he was leaving ... Lenny has been like an older brother to me. Everything was in a state of upheaval, and I did start to wonder whether there might be other situations that would be more attractive."

That lasted about a week. "When it emerged that Danny Goldberg would be Chairman, Danny called me up, reached out to me in a very appealing way, and asked me to stay. After meeting him, I became so excited about his appreciation of — and desire to preserve — the Warner Bros. Records culture and history that I felt it was a very exciting opportunity to continue to work with him. When he offered me this position, that really sealed my decision."

Before joining WB as an attorney in 1980, Altschul had represented the Go-Go's and worked on deals involving the Eagles, Steely Dan, Jimmy Buffett, the Knack, and others. He rose to VP/Legal & Business Affairs in 1983 and added Sr. VP stripes in '88.

Thyret worked in retail and at WB's L.A. distributor before joining the Bunny as Singles Sales Manager in 1971. Two years later, he was upped to Sales Manager, and two years after that became a VP/Sales. In 1976 he was boosted to VP/Promotion, and five years later segued to marketing as Sr. VP.

Talk Radio

According to syndicated columnist Jack Anderson. Their plan: Promote liberals, such as ABC Radio's Jim Hightower, and recruit new talkers more in tune with the Democratic party.

"We're going to step up our participation in talk shows to counter the Rush Limbaugh surge," Democratic National Committee spokesman Joe Wagner told R&R. "We don't want to concede Talk radio to conservative groups."

Easier Said Than Done

On the air Monday (11/21), Limbaugh responded: "If the White House thinks there is an undiscovered liberal out there who can be sponsored by the White House and achieve parity with this program and the other conservative hosts out there, they still don't understand what happened on Election Day."

Liberalism, he declared, "is over."

Talk Radio Network and Talk America Network syndicated host Ellen Ratner, who reports from the White House, said the Clinton administration needs to pay more attention to Talk radio. She estimates the ratio of conservative vs. liberal Talk radio at about 70:30.

"The Republicans have nurtured their talk show hosts," she said. "The Democrats need to pay attention to the people who sing their song."

Democrats' Differences

"It would be wise [for Democrats] to seek radio spokespeople to create this energy out there," said Stuart Rothenberg, editor and publisher of the Rothenberg Report, a nonpartisan political newsletter.

But Rothenberg wonders whether a liberal audience exists. "Who is the Democratic base? Blacks, women, party liberals, the 'brie and chablis set'? Are they going to listen to a 'Rush Limbaugh-of-the-left'? I don't think so."

Rothenberg says Democrats aren't "angry" enough, describing their ire as more tepid — a sort of "resigned feeling of disgust." He portrays those on the right as "eager to go sink their teeth into the enemy."

Democratic pollster Mark Mellman agrees.

"The way you get an audience is to rail against something — so the [conservatives] rail against the government," Mellman said. "What else are they going to rail against? Poverty?"

Bullseye On Gingrich

Some might argue that Democrats have plenty of forums on radio already. "Liberals have their own talk show — NPR," joked GOP pollster Neil Newhouse, whose clients include 50 members of Congress.

As far as Democrats getting a foothold in Talk radio, Newhouse predicted they won't get "any traction, but it'll be entertaining to watch them spend their money and try."

Rothenberg said liberal hosts would have a rich target in Speaker-to-be Newt Gingrich (R-GA), but nothing beats beating up on President Clinton.

Gingrich told an audience at the conservative Heritage Foundation last week that he plans to pow-wow with radio talk show hosts at monthly breakfasts as a way to reach "alternative media."

Mellman said he'll be interested to see if conservative talk hosts are "consistent and honest" when it comes to keeping tabs on a Republican Congress.

Newhouse echoed those comments. "If Republicans don't hold themselves accountable, they deserve the same scrutiny as Clinton and the Democrats. Our guys should be held accountable."

sistent and substantial," Sony Music Entertainment President/COO Thomas Mottola said, "While each phase of her career has revealed new facets of Polly's talents, they all share the same constant: creative growth. She has proven time and again her ability to take artists — and now labels — to the next level."

Sharing The Wealth

Glew explained her ascension within the hierarchy: "When you are fortunate enough to have an executive of Polly Anthony's capabilities, you draw on that expertise for the benefit of the entire company."

Citing Celine Dion, Deep Forest, and Des'Ree, among others, Griffiths observed, "Polly's success with Sony 550 Music has been multiplatinum and multicultural ... Polly is one of Epic's great assets."

Anthony joined Portrait's West Coast promotion department in 1978 and became Manager/AC Promo at Epic in '81. She rose to Assoc. Director in '83, Director/National AC & Trade Liaison in '84, and Director/National Promotion in '87. She moved East in 1988 to become Epic VP/Pop Promotion and was named Sr. VP/Promotion in 1990.

mission. His experience, depth of knowledge, and track record make him one of the brightest programmers in America today."

"I'm enthusiastic about returning to Jefferson-Pilot and honored to be working with Clarke and [President] Bill Blackwell in this newly created position," said Benson. "Jefferson-Pilot is a resource-rich company with great stations and programming people. It's an exciting time to be coming on board."

Prior to joining Burkhart/Douglas, Benson was OM at JP's WQXI-AM & FM/Atlanta, VP/Operations at KIIS-AM & FM/Los Angeles, and Corporate VP/Programming for Western Cities Broadcasting.

Besides WSTR and WQXI-AM & FM, Jefferson-Pilot currently owns WBT-AM & FM/Charlotte; KKFN-AM, KYGO-FM, & KWMX-AM & FM/Denver; WYLF-FM, WMXJ-FM, & WAXY-AM/Miami; and KSON-AM & FM/San Diego.

Greater Media Exec. VP Tom Milewski commented, "While we were sorry to see Bob leave us when he did, we were happy that he had the opportunity to step up and run a group. We're even happier to welcome him back home."

Moore said, "Just when they thought it was safe to go back in the water, watch out — there are going to be a lot of exciting new things happening with KRLA & KLSX."

Short Retirement

Replacing Moore at Group W's Country duopoly will be the man he replaced. Dickie Rosenfeld, who announced his retirement this March, has been called back into service on an interim basis. Rosenfeld resumed his old VP/GM duties at KIKK & KILT today and will stay while Group W again searches for his replacement.

Since leaving KRLA & KLSX three years ago, Moore was VP of Westwood One's Radio Stations Group and VP/GM, Southwest Region for Metro Networks.

Cap Cities/ABC-Owned Radio Stations Group I President Don Bouloukos. "Mike has proved to be an outstanding GSM. He's well-respected by our staff and by the advertising community. His knowledge and overall performance made my decision easy."

Fezzey, a 14-year WJR sales veteran, had served as GSM since 1988. "It's the greatest professional honor I've ever received," commented Fezzey. "I grew up with WJR and have always had great respect for what the station means in the community. It's unusual to be able to stay for many years at one station that you feel so passionately about."

WRKS/NY GM Charles Warfield To Exit

Look for WRKS/NY GM Charles Warfield to resign when Emmis takes over the UC outlet at the end of the month. Warfield's replacement has yet to be named.

In other GM action, expect WIBF/Philly VP/GM Ted Utz to exit the WDRE Modern Rock Network affiliate at the end of the year. LSM Joe Ruyak has been appointed interim Station Mgr.

And ... Pyramid shifts WPXY/Rochester VP/GM Bill Shoening to VP/GM at sister WEDJ/Charlotte.

In the wake of Don Benson's exit from B/D & A (see Page 1), look for Val Garris to add more duties at the consultancy. ST also hears Bill Richards is the current frontrunner to replace Benson.

Expect Johnny Biggs — the well-known radio syndication figure who was most recently with the overseas syndication firm Radio Express — to be named VP/International for Westwood One.

Johnny Biggs

KSD-AM & FM and KYKY-FM/St. Louis GM Karen Carroll has been promoted to Sr. VP of EZ Communications.

KLOS To The Edge

After 14 years each, KLOS/L.A. midday maven Bob Coburn and night racer Joe Benson have left the station. With these departures comin' on the bootheels of 10-year afternoon driver Geno Michellini's recent exit, the Rock outlet has fashioned a new on-air lineup to go with its new musical stance.

Key changes: Parttimer Randy Maranz upped to middays, crosstown KNAC afternoon delight Long Paul joins for afternoon drive, and KNAC midday maven Remy Maxwell cops the night slammer nod.

And with KNAC's sale expected to close in February, former PD Gregg Steele returns for midday duty in the interim.

- Is KMXV/KC about to swipe a morning show from another Midwest CHR?
- Will former Geffen A&R honcho John David Kalodner's new Columbia title be bigger than A&R?
- Has EMI SF Regional promo rep Kevin Knee all but wrapped up the same slot at Interscope?
- KISF/KC PD Alex Valentine exits for co-APD duties (and a TBD airshift) at KDGE/Dallas. Is KIXY/San Angelo PD Mike Steele the prime candidate to replace him?
- While Hot 97/NY APD/afternoon delight Paco Lopez was checking out the vacant FM102/Sacramento PD gig last weekend, isn't OM Chuck Field this close to nailing it down? Is ex-KS104/Denver MD/ midday maven Mary "Cha Cha" Chavez about to come aboard?

WYNY/NY will team a pair of Westwood One Radio Network personalities for its new morning show. Moving from L.A. are Katherine Brown, who does evenings on the net's Adult Rock & Roll format, and David Temple, who does evenings on WWI's Hot Country.

In unrelated moves, two Liberty VPs leave the label for posts with Sony Music. Liberty VP/Sales & Mktg. Bob Freese will become VP/Nat'l Accounts for Sony, working out of the label's NY office. Meanwhile, Liberty VP/Finance Jeff Allen segues to the same duties at Sony/Nashville.

WKBQ-AM/St. Louis will end its simulcast with CHR WKBQ-FM and become "Straight Talk 1380" early next month. WKBQ morning men Steve & D.C. will still be simulcast, but the AM will add syndicated shows from the Fabulous Sports Babe, Ken Hamblin, Tom Leykis, and Jim Bohannon.

Former BNA Mgr./Northeast Promo Debe Fennell has been named VP/Promo for Magnatone. Prior to BNA, she did regional promo for Curb. Fennell expects to have a five-person regional team plus a promo coord. in place by January 1. Concurrently, Marco Promotions Nat'l Promo Mgr. Nina Rossman joins the new label as Dir./Nat'l Promo; she was an AE at Film House before joining Marco 18 months ago.

ABC Radio is spearheading a new network in association with Business Week. The Business Week Radio Network's reports will begin early next year.

Last Wednesday (11/16), KVOR-AM/Colorado Springs talk host Chuck Baker went on a leave of absence after local newspapers reported Baker had suggested his listeners go to Washington and form a militia against the government.

One of those listeners reportedly was Francisco Martin Duran, who was charged last Thursday (11/17) with attempting to assassinate President Clinton. Duran, 26, of Colorado Springs, fired 29 rounds of ammunition at the White House on October 29.

With its five-year Elektra distribution deal ending in June, Mute Records is exploring several options. It may become a stand-alone, full-service indie with distribution through ADA (analogous to ADA-affiliated Restless Records.)

However, if Sire founder Seymour Stein — who signed Mute acts Depeche Mode and Erasure in the U.S. before the Elektra deal began — becomes Elektra's President, Mute may stay put. Note that UK-based Mute has only just begun to sign U.S. acts.

Meanwhile, Trauma Records reportedly has signed an international distribution deal with Interscope Records.

• WBBO/Greenville PD Bill McCown adds MD duties in the wake of Dan Stevens's shift to Prod. Dir.

• Hot 97.7/San Jose night slammer Christopher Lance exits to return to college.

• KZHT/SLC MD Doug Dodds exits. Duopoly CHR sister Q99 MD Gary Michaels adds KZHT music duties, too.

RADIO & RECORDS

- Robert Scorpio elevated to KBXX/Houston OM.
- New NYC morning shows: John Lander at WHTZ (Z100) and Doctor Dre & Ed Lover at WQHT (Hot 97).

5

- Vinnie Brown promoted to WRKS/NY PD.
- Maynard Grossman rejoins WGCI-AM & FM/Chicago as VP/Ops & Sales

10

- Rick Cummings appointed Emmis Broadcasting VP/Programming
- Rick Sklar forms his own consulting firm.
- Rick Torcasso named WMJI/Cleveland PD.

- Harold Childs upped to A&M Records Sr. VP/Sales & Promo

MCA Sr. VP/Artist Development Glen Lajeski will be Exec. Dir. of the 1995 L.A. Grammy Host Committee. He'll work with the committee's co-chairs, MCA Records Prez Richard Palmese and O'Melveny & Myers attorney Kim Wardlaw.

After teetering on the brink of death from a viral infection and enlarged heart, WBZ-AM/Boston talk host David Brudnoy is undergoing physical therapy and hopes to return to work next month. Brudnoy has received thousands of letters from fans since revealing in a recent Boston Globe interview that he's gay and is suffering from AIDS.

Bono Vox

New GOP congressman Sonny Bono told the Washington Post he would like to be named to the House's Energy & Commerce Committee: "Communications is the future of this country, and it's my industry. I have a lot of expertise in that area, being in it for 30 years."

Records

• EMI Exec. VP Fred Davis exits to reopen the NYC law practice he shuttered when he joined the label in 1991.

• Interscope Northwest regional promo rep Fred Zehler exits.

• International Artist Management Promo Dir. Kara Ross has been hired for the newly created A&R rep post at Asylum.

Keeping It Hot For The Holidays

Every year without fail as they face the impending holiday season, CHR/Top 40 PDs wrestle with this question: "What do I do for the holidays?"

Christmas is the time of year when your AC competition turns up the heat — sometimes programming Christmas music all day. So how do you compete? Or do you? How do you keep it fresh? How does your station stay top of mind? Here are some ideas that will keep the heat on during the crucial final weeks of the book.

- SINGING DOGS/Jingle Bells

These and other holiday titles may be available by calling TM Century at (800) 937-2100, Broadcast Programming at (800) 426-9082, and Music Director Programming Service at (413) 783-4626.

Holiday Programming Tips

Who, what, when, where, why, how? Every Top 40 PD embraces a different philosophy on programming Christmas music. Here's a cross-section:

• Steve Kingston, WHTZ (Z-100)/New York — John Lander and The Morning Zoo will spike a few traditional Christmas titles. Then the station will play

Steve Kingston

Christmas music late Christmas Eve and early Christmas morning. Because most of the available Christmas music is inconsistent with Z-100's strategy and sound, Kingston prefers to capture the Christmas spirit through community involvement, contests, promotion, and marketing.

• Steve Rivers, WXKS (Kiss 108)/Boston — Begins programming Christmas music about two weeks ahead with about one Christmas song per shift. Four to five days out, it moves to one per hour; frequency increases as Christmas approaches.

Steve Rivers

• John Cook, KHKS (KISS FM)/Dallas — Starts by spiking in two to three titles per day after Thanksgiving. Increases frequency as Christmas approaches to one hour during the week of Christmas. It's solid Christmas music from 6am on Christmas Eve until noon Christmas Day.

• Mike Sommers, WSTW/Wilmington — The Friday after Thanksgiving he lets the morning show play three to four Christmas songs per hour. During the first two weeks after Thanksgiving, it's one per hour; the following week it's two per hour. Two weeks from Christmas it's one per hour followed by two per hour during Christmas week. Then it's solid Christmas music from 6am-midnight on Christmas Eve and 8am-noon on Christmas Day.

• Casey Keating, WHYI (Y-100)/Miami — Approximately 10 days prior to Christmas, it's one song per shift. Frequency increases as the holiday approaches. Keating prefers to stay closer to format as an option

Editor's Note

As I begin my tenure at R&R, I would like to thank Joel Denver for his immeasurable dedication. For the past 14 years — through his ears, eyes, and the printed pages of R&R, Joel has championed the CHR/Top 40 format and guided us through its many changes and cycles. Beyond that, he's been a loyal friend.

One cannot express in a few words what Joel has accomplished. We can rest assured that radio will ultimately continue to benefit from his experience and knowledge.

As R&R's new CHR/Top 40 Editor, I have simple goals. I want to:

- Respond to the needs of the format, as you see them.
- Provide useful, reliable, easy-to-use information.
- Enhance radio's relationship with the record labels, the lifeblood of our business.
- Be a good listener.
- Encourage future programmers and personalities.
- Always maintain an open line of contact and return all phone calls.
- Believe the listener/customer is always right.

Quickie Christmas Promotion Ideas

Here's a list of some quickie holiday promotion ideas:

Christmas Wish

Get your Kleenex ready — this consistently is one of the best promotions a radio station can conduct. Here's the general idea:

"If a family member, friend, or perhaps you are down and out for the holidays and can't afford a Christmas tree, toys for the children, money for a Christmas dinner, your electric bill, a wheelchair [get the drift?], send us a letter with your Christmas Wish. Please include your name, address, day/night telephone number, and the same information if you are writing in for someone else. We promise to read all letters received, and we'll try to fulfill as many wishes as possible to make this the best Christmas ever ..."

You'll need two or three people to review the letters you receive. Weed out the greed letters, then get on the phone with your advertisers to try and fulfill wishes. You'll find everyone from the electric company to the supermarket will cooperate in some form for the free mentions.

Give the carefully selected letters to your morning show. Let them call the letter writer and conference in the wish recipient. In most cases, the Christmas Wish beneficiaries won't be aware of what's happening; when you hit them with the double whammy of their friend caring enough to write an emotional letter and "WXXX" fulfilling their wishes, it's tear-jerking.

Christmas Songs In A Row

Mail a Christmas card or letter out to your database (or just do it on-air) directing listeners to listen for three specific holiday songs played in order. Tell them to call the station after the third song is completed to win a certain dollar amount. Most programmers conduct this contest during the last three-four weeks of the book.

Malls, Malls, Malls

Cut a deal with a local mall to give away reserved, upfront parking spaces for your station's listeners.

In addition, set up a remote broadcast from a mall in a high-traffic, very visible location. Try to piggyback a last minute tie-in with the Salvation Army. Malls don't need you this time of year, you need them. They tend to be busy and very uncooperative. Therefore, try to work with a mall retailer who advertises on your station. You'd be surprised how cooperative a mall will be with the retailer paying the big rent.

Helping The Needy

Winter and the holiday season heighten the year-round problem of helping the needy. Blankets, food, and clothing donations help create a "feel good" for your listeners. Find a needy organization in your town or city, and pull some heartstrings for the holidays — you'll feel good too.

Station Christmas Tree

Put up a Christmas tree in a visible place, then invite your listeners out to decorate it. The catch is to sell customized decorative balls with your listeners' names on them. All proceeds go to a charity you've chosen.

Holiday Hi

Here's something simple and cheap — take phone calls from listeners who have someone special they'd like to call (i.e., dad stationed in Germany). Conference the first minute or so of the call for your listeners to eavesdrop on and feel good. Off-air, let callers continue their free Holiday Hi, courtesy of your station.

Free Giveaways

Gift Wrapping — There are plenty of college students looking for part-time work while home for the holidays. Free gift-wrapping from your station really is something your listeners will appreciate. Have your personalities work the booth, too. It's a great way to help build your station database.

Stuffed Turkeys — "Turkeys are free courtesy of Joe's Supermarket. They are stuffed with free $100 bills. To win, listen for ..."

Batteries — Hit the streets Christmas day with free batteries courtesy of Duracell, Energizer, etc. Sounds like a gig for the intern or parttimer.

Gift Exchange

The day(s) after Christmas, clean out your prize closet and exchange CDs and other goodies for gifts listeners received that they don't want.

SEASON'S HOTTEST MERCHANDISE

Toying With Your Listeners

One way you can compete, spark word of mouth, and increase TSL during the holidays is by giving away toys your listeners can't buy. Imagine the attention your morning show could attract by giving away Mighty Morphin Power Rangers action figures.

In case you've been living under a rock, the "Mighty Morphin Power Rangers" is a very hot TV program — and an even hotter toy. In most towns and cities, they're impossible to get — parents have been on local toy stores' waiting lists for many months.

If you can get some Power Rangers merchandise — and have the budget — you may even want to think about shooting a cheap TV commercial and buying some very affordable commercials during the Power Rangers TV show. Depending on your demo, your TV commercial should feature your morning show and simply inform kids that "WXXX is giving away impossible-to-get Mighty Morphin Power Rangers ... all mom and dad have to do is listen in the car and at work to try and win." Talk about forced listening!

Many of the season's hottest toys are available and affordable; for some you may have to call around — perhaps to other states. If possible, contact a large chain like Toys 'R' Us and see if they have any in stock anywhere in America. If not, your next best bet is Canada, Puerto Rico, and Europe. If you're importing, your toys will have to clear customs. So leave plenty of time and expect to pay a premium. With Federal Express and UPS overnight service, you can turn things around rather quickly. But leave three days for clearing customs.

Remember: A few toy giveaways can go a long way. Use your production, recycle winners, and tell your personalities to make it sound like you're giving away hundreds. If you don't plan to give away any toys, give this information to your personalities — it's news your listeners can use.

The Lineup

• Mighty Morphin Power Rangers: Need I say more? Owned by Saban Entertainment, 4000 W. Alameda, Burbank, CA 91505; (818) 972-4800. Packaged by Ban- dai America Inc., 12851 E. 166th St., Cerritos, CA 90701.

• "The Lion King": Everything in this category. As you may have noticed, Disney has rereleased the enormously successful movie for Thanksgiving weekend. Get ready for round two. Mattel and JusToys (NYC) have rights to the lion's share of the merchandising.

• "Jurassic Park" and "The Flintstones" merchandise.

• Pez Watch: Talk about things going full circle — Pez is back. It's simply a Pez candy dispenser (yum) and watch. Price: $4.99; manufactured by Torrance, CA-based Dream Castle.

• Double Pump Football: It's a six-inch football. So what's special? It can be inflated or deflated at the push of a button. Price: $6.99; manufactured by Weiss (NYC).

• X-Men: Based on the popular TV series; available as action figures with accessories. Manufactured by Toy Biz (NYC).

• Spider-Man: Based on the popular TV series; available as action figures with accessories. Manufactured by Toy Biz (NYC).

• Native American bead, rings, and jewelry craft kit: This starter kit is part of a new line of crafts for beginners through experts. Price: about $5.99; manufactured by Long Island-based Pastime.

• Nickelodeon Laserlight: You've seen the laser show at the local planetarium. Now kids can create their own laser light show with this handheld toy that produces beams of light with the flip of a switch. Price: about $9.99; manufactured by JusToys (NYC).

• Stereogram Books: A book series of 5-D stereograms — pictures that change to reveal hidden images. The pages at first appear to be a series of multicolored images. But as the eye lingers, the images change to unveil a pictorial message. The series includes "Endangered Species In 5-D Stereograms" and "Reach For Your Dreams In 5-D Stereograms."

The good news is 5% of the sale proceeds will be donated to Defenders of Wildlife, a group dedicated to the conservation of wildlife and natural habitats. "Endangered Species" sells for $12.95; "Reach For Your Dreams" sells for $17.95. Manufactured by Blue Mountain Press.

• Micro-Bake Cake Set: We're talking the future chefs of America here. The set enables children to bake with a microwave without the danger of touching hot pans. Using any packaged cake mix, children ages 8 and up can put batter in the specially coated pan, drop it into the Micro-Bake safety chamber, then place it in a home microwave oven. After five minutes, the cake is done. But the safety lock on the safety chamber won't open until the pan is completely cool. The Micro-Bake Cake Set also comes with an apron, measuring spoon, and cup. Retail is about $19.99; manufactured by JusToys (NYC).

• Jumpsie Doll: Watch out, Jane Fonda. This is an aerobics doll with her own trampoline. Manufactured by Toy Biz (NYC).

• Barbie: She keeps getting hotter every year. Now there's an Aerobic Barbie. Anyone know her plastic surgeon? Manufactured by Mattel.

music, but stays close to the everyday format for the "Stereo Tests."

• Mike Wheeler, WVKS (KISS FM)/Toledo — Conducts a 60-hour live "Toy-A-Thon" broadcast. Christmas music begins one week after Thanksgiving in morning drive, once or twice per shift. Two weeks prior, it's one song per hour. Christmas Eve and Christmas Day it goes up to two songs per hour. Special programming includes "Mrs. Bush's Story Time," a 30-minute children's story special that runs on Saturday morning and is hosted by the former First Lady.

• Don Benson, Corporate VP/Operations & Programming — Jefferson-Pilot — The week after Thanksgiving, it's one to two songs per shift, morning drive only. The following week it's one per daypart; 10-14 days out, it's one every other hour. Weekends are good for music transitions since listeners are out shopping. One week before Christmas, it turns to one per hour; three to four days before Christmas, it's two per hour. There's a solid block of Christmas music on Christmas Eve from 6pm until noon on Christmas Day.

Putting Personalities In The Music-Selection Process

Why two programmers feel input from air talent is essential

When it comes to helping PDs and MDs choose the music that gets played on their stations, everybody likes to put their two cents in: the sales staff, request-line callers, next-door neighbors, mothers-in-law ... even record companies. This week, two PDs talk about why they solicit opinions from a select group of advisers: their airstaffs.

WV KO/Columbus PD Sam Nelson, a 14-year industry veteran, says it's a simple matter of physics: "As a PD, you just can't be everywhere all the time in a city this size. I can't know everything there is to know about the music we should be airing, so our on-air performers also serve as the station's eyes and ears when they're out in the community. And that doesn't just mean when they're out doing a promotion — it also means when they're just out going to and from work, at a store, or wherever they may encounter the public and learn something that might be beneficial to our programming or sales department.

Into The Mix

Nelson then takes the personalities' input into consideration, along with the recommendations of MD Mike Anderson. "The final decisions are made by me. But because Mike is conversing with the labels with more frequency than I am, he's able to let me know who's putting the rush on in promoting a record. He can tell me what the label is doing promotionally so I can feel even more comfortable about adding this record. He takes in all of that information, brings it to the table, and lets me know what [record promoters] are looking for in terms of priorities. And I hope he comes to me thinking about the selections we need to make to improve the station's position in the market.

"I encourage all of our people to let me and Mike know about any a couple a weeks ago that we added ... Brandy's 'I Wanna Be Down.' I thought it was a little young for us, but my midday guy came in and said, 'Man, that's a strong adult record' — and we added it."

Gold-Digging Talent

While Nelson relies on his airstaff to help him pick the latest hits, he also seeks their help in finding the greatest hits. "In terms of the station's gold rotations, that decision is made by me and upper management. But when it comes to identifying gold, that's a different issue.

"I'm not originally from Columbus — I'm from Brooklyn — so I have people on staff who've been here, and they're able to tell me about records that may have hit in Columbus but didn't hit where I was at. Then there are the situations where I come to the table with songs that happened in NYC, but didn't do a thing in Columbus." Nelson usually arranges gold selection sessions with his airstaff three times a year, augmenting the station's twice-yearly auditorium testing.

Extra Research Tools

Davis Broadcasting National PD James Alexander oversees the daily programming duties at the company's three Augusta, GA stations: mainstream Urban WFXA-FM, Urban AC WAKB-FM, and Gospel WTHB-AM. And he says the trombo's employees play an important part in his musical decisions. "I think it's an advantage, but you have to keep it in the proper perspective. It is good to have as much input in any type of decision as logistically possible.

James Alexander

"It's simply another form of research; the same way you get the opinions of other outside people, like your listening audience. The people at your station are also part of your overall listening audience — yes, they are employees, but they have family, friends, associates, neighbors, and others who listen and tell them what they like or dislike about the station, including the music. They'll tell them if they like a particular song or don't like it. If we're not playing a record they like, they'll ask, 'Why aren't you playing that song?' They can give you some very valuable information about your radio station. You just have to be willing to listen — and then be willing to make the correct decision.

The Beat Breaks Through Color Lines

Los Angeles is a multicultural melting pot that has certainly seen more than its fair share of racial tension in the last 25 years or so. Evergreen Urban KKBT (The Beat) feels a strong responsibility to educate and promote unity among all people and is trying to accomplish that through its new on-air and outdoor campaign.

The station's new message, "No Color Lines," encourages positivity and unity through music. As Southern California's only full-signal Urban Contemporary station, KKBT not only enjoys a large African-American listenership, but also a significant number of Latinos, Asians, and Caucasians. The Beat's audience reflects L.A.'s ethnic diversity, and the musical variety of R&B hits, dance music, hip-hop, slow jams, and old school offers a common ground for them to come together.

No Color Lines invites all people to tune in, feel welcome to share their cultures, and better understand and respect each other. The station's on-air presentation and presence in the streets emphasizes and encourages unity and peace.

While developing the outdoor campaign for unity, KKBT needed to look no further than its own walls to find diversity. All the individuals photographed for the billboards are members of the Beat team. The three variations of the No Color Lines board can be seen throughout Southern California along its freeways and on the streets of many of its communities.

As a PD, you just can't be everywhere all the time.

—Sam Nelson

"They get feedback as to what's happening out in the community about a lot of things, including people's favorite songs. They hear what the people like about the station and what they don't like about the station, and you certainly weigh that into the stew, so to speak, when you're making musical decisions."

music they've heard in clubs or wherever that might have a street vibe. I ask them to leave me a note, call me, or do whatever it takes for us to check out this piece of music. I have an open-door policy about that sort of thing where they can say, 'Hey, here's a piece of music we should be on.' There's one from just

HANGING WITH HAMMER — KMJQ/Houston night jocks Miggy Madhatter (l) and Jammin' J.J. Williams savor some mad flava with Hammer.

It's simply another form of research; the same way you get the opinions of other outside people.

—James Alexander

"Obviously, [employees] aren't considered listeners from an Arbitron perspective, but they give you the opportunity to get another viewpoint. As with anything else, there are certain people you trust more than others and, of course, you have to try and look through any hidden agendas. But I would definitely get the input."

Open-Door Policy

How does Alexander solicit opinions from his staff? "I've always gone about getting their input in a very informal way. People will tell me about things they heard in a club or some other place. I might play a record in my office and purposely have my door open so others can hear what I'm listening to. Obviously, I'm hoping to get some type of reaction from them. But the final decision rests with me, with strong input from my MD."

Both Nelson and Alexander also point out that air personalities constantly get feedback via the request lines, which gives them a good feel for what's hot and what's not. "You have to understand that your jocks and other people around the radio station are in contact with more people than you could possibly be in contact with," notes Alexander. "I'm looking to play the best music with the strongest vibe, and I like to get the input."

The Format's Brave New World

Major markets PDs discuss heritage stations' swing toward new music

Most heritage Rock stations tend to play it safe musically, relying heavily on a familiar, researched library. But a change is brewing as several orthodox Rock outlets recently instituted sweeping changes, primarily by dropping the majority of classic rock titles, adding a lot of new music, and playing those currents in a high rotation. These PDs agreed to share the philosophy behind their current evolutions.

Carey Curelop KLOS/Los Angeles

Carey Curelop

Curelop cites audience burn as the primary factor for the Cap Cities outlet's transformation. "We found a majority of our listeners were tired of the music we were playing: traditional AOR classics with a few currents thrown in. We discovered they want to hear new music and music they're not sick to death of.

"We started to see this trend about a year ago, but there wasn't a serious enough erosion to cause a major reaction. But when Arrow [KCBS] went on the air, three stations [with Classic Rock KLSX] now were playing a fairly core rock library, which just increased the burn. But we made the change for other reasons also — we wanted to differentiate ourselves between Arrow and KLSX and be more rock-driven and contemporary."

- Carey Curelop

Ageless Aging

Curelop's take on aging with the audience: "Growing with your audience doesn't necessarily mean you'll just continue to play old records. The 25-34s or 25-44s are the most burnt on classic rock. So automatically assuming you're growing with your audience by playing library records is incorrect.

"Stone Temple Pilots, Soundgarden, Pearl Jam, and many other acts are making quality music that 30-45s can listen to along with 20-30s. There absolutely are some common interests musically. You have a generation of adults overexposed to AOR library music who can get it on four different formats; it stands to reason that there's a lifespan to those records. They were and still are great records, but many people don't want to hear them in the current multiformat repetition.

"About 20% of our mix is classic rock with the balance from the '80s and '90s. In order to segue the music, the artists must be compatible. The Doobie Brothers and Soundgarden would be a train wreck, but certainly Van Halen, AC/DC, and some Led Zeppelin and Eric Clapton still are compatible."

Today's Top 40

Though alternative artists' cross-over appeal attracts both men and women, Curelop believes in targeting a strictly male audience. "Alternative radio has replaced traditional Top 40 — which always has had a pretty good male-to-female split. The Alternative stations of today are really the Top 40 stations of tomorrow, and that's why so many are so beat-oriented.

"We don't target women. We certainly love them and like to have them, but our focus is males 20-30. The music, presentation, and attitude all will reflect that target. In doing that, we not only will maintain a good amount of our current listenership and partisans, but we'll create new ones — particularly males who don't like the dancey, beat music heard on [Alternative] KROQ."

Oedipus WBCN/Boston

Infinity's WBCN has a Classic Rock ally in sister WZLX, and according to Oedipus, WBCN's franchise was ripe to expand its music-leader image. "The nature of the music industry was part of it, too. When CDs first came out, record company attention was on the rerelease of the classics. And they did well because everybody had to update their record collections — including radio. The new music wasn't strong at the time.

Oedipus

"Another aspect to our evolution is that playing a lot of currents is a different way of competing with a station you own. Classic rock, '70s stations, TV commercials, bumpers, sporting events, etc. all have contributed to burning out the classics. Much of the '80s music is over, partly because it was 'cult' and partly because it was overexposed on every level with MTV figuring prominently in that burn out. But the real turning point for us was Woodstock. When we saw its impact, we started to adjust our format. Clearly the industry is investing in these new bands — 'heritage rock' as we once knew it is over."

'MTV Is Frightening'

Oedipus is concerned about MTV. "There's certainly the fear that MTV will contribute greatly to burning out this music, too. MTV is frightening

The real turning point for us was Woodstock. When we saw its impact, we started to adjust our format. Clearly the industry is investing in these new bands — 'heritage rock' as we once knew it is over.
- Oedipus

in terms of its limitations on the imagination. Whereas radio engages the imagination and provides for associations with events in people's lives, MTV only provides associations of passive TV viewing. Radio is more active and engaging."

WBCN has evolved into a new kind of mainstream. "We don't play a lot of hard music, nor do we play artists like the Eagles, who we call an 'HBO band.' No Billy Joel, Elton John, Fleetwood Mac — they're all AC. We play some Soundgarden, but not Queensryche, Megadeth, or 'teeny-bop' metal.

"We target 18-34s, but still do well among men 25-54. We're not totally ignoring the past, but rather showing the history of rock. It's an important continuum. We're proud that we played Led Zeppelin as a white-label test pressing. But while we're proud of our heritage, 'heritage' doesn't have to equal 'old.'"

High-Profile Personality

Oedipus says the common ingredient between long-time morning host

HOME JONES — The Freddy Jones Band recently stopped by WWCT/Peoria for an on-air interview and acoustic set for their homestate fans. Enjoying the event are (l-r) FJB's Wayne Healy, Jim Bonaccorsi, Simon Horrocks, and Rob Bonaccorsi, OM Rick Hirschman, FJB's Marty Lloyd, and WWCT's Tim Ylinen and Joe Calgano.

Charles Laquidara and syndicated personality Howard Stern (who's on during afternoon drive) is timeless. "They both fit our format adjustments because they appeal to this generation. Howard doesn't come off as 'old'; one of his favorite bands is Porno For Pyros, which he uses for bumpers. His attitude is punky and irreverent, and he is modern.

"Charles is a perpetual adolescent. His favorite band is L7 — he took his whole staff to see their show. If Charles came off as 'old,' then he should be at 'ZLX, not 'BCN.'"

Andy Beaubien KLOL/Houston

Andy Beaubien

When Beaubien arrived at KLOL, the station already was moving away from a classic direction. "We're about one-third alternative, one-third mainstream, and one-third classic — probably even less classic. The reality was all around us — there's a new music revolution going on. This music is a dramatic improvement over the releases six to 10 years ago. There's an entirely new generation of rock artists producing a very high-quality product. The only problem lies in how to mix in some of the classics.

"We only play the classics the audience considers to be consistent with the newer music. Certain '70s artists flow well with Pearl Jam or Alice In Chains, such as Pink Floyd and Led Zeppelin. I can't say the same for the Doobie Brothers or Elton John. With the quality of today's music, there's no doubt we'll still be playing these artists in the next decade. Bands like Pearl Jam, Nirvana, and Alice In Chains are the future of rock 'n' roll, plain and simple. Even some music from the '80s, such as Guns N' Roses and Def Leppard, are starting to sound dated.

"We're not about to abandon them or Van Halen or ZZ Top — far from it. They're still very important artists, but it's clear the future of Rock is with many of the newer artists. The '70s material is becoming increasingly irrelevant. Granted, Led Zeppelin will be around for a long time, but they'll be the exception. We play no Beatles, virtually no Who, nor a tremendous amount of older Roll- ing Stones."

Demo Course

Regarding target demographics, Beaubien says KLOL has "chosen to stick with the 18-34 base. If this format is going to be hip, current, and cutting-edge, I'm not convinced that growing old with the audience is an option. KLOL can't be a 'museum of the air' — it's not our image nor our audience's expectation. For a short period about a year ago, KLOL attempted the classic direction — the results definitely weren't encouraging."

Crosstown KZFX recently flipped from Classic Rock to Alternative, and Beaubien says many KZFX listeners who prefer the harder side of classic rock segued to KLOL. But he cautions, "When a station goes off the air and a particular format

The reality was all around us — there's a new music revolution going on. There's an entirely new generation of rock artists producing a very high-quality product.
- Andy Beaubien

ceases to exist, the audience rarely — if ever — goes en masse to one specific station. Usually they scatter to different stations or disappear completely. Another change in Houston will be when Z-Rock [KKZR] goes off the air. They were sold and will switch to Christian. In that case, we're in a position to get the majority of their listeners. I'm happy and excited with our posture in the market and our musical stance

Editor's note: See Street Talk (p.xx) for info on KLOS/LA.'s new on-air lineup.

Also, in last week's issue (11/18), KLBJ/Austin's ratings should have read 5.9-6.2, and not been listed with stations with the biggest losses. The Alternative Market Format Shares for Summer '94 were actually 3.9, bringing the average to 3.4.

Factoring In Urban Edges

■ Embracing the 'soulful, driving force' to strengthen mainstream success

Does the urban edge of the format appeal only to the ethnic market — or is it the key to mainstream success? Two leading programmers explain their approaches.

Monica Logan-Thomas

Monica Logan-Thomas perfected her NAC chops at some of the format's original outlets: KBLX/San Francisco, KTWV (The Wave)/Los Angeles, KOAI (The Oasis)/Dallas, and WNUA/Chicago. She now operates a consultancy and is PD of KACD (CD103.1)/Los Angeles. Over the years, she's formed strong opinions about NAC programming in general and its urban edge.

Powerful, Passionate Music

"When you're talking about generating that adult ad buy, if your station is pigeonholed as Urban, Madison Avenue agencies may not include you. But in fact, the driving force behind so much popular music is urban," asserts Logan-Thomas. "Powerful and passionate music is [often informed by] an urban sensibility, like Tina Turner's voice, Marcus Miller's production, or Gerald Albright's sax playing; you can hear and feel their soulfulness.

"I think it's that same soulful, driving force that attracts NAC radio listeners if you're in a diverse, multi-cultural metropolitan area, particularly if there's an affluent African-American component. You can't be homogenous if you expect to pull those listeners in. Programmers who ignore this principle and that segment of audience aren't going to win.

"The success of the Oasis is a good example. In the absence of an Urban AC in Dallas, it has successfully filled a void in the [ethnic] market while superserving the community at large. The Oasis has found the right blend of music to pull one audience while never alienating another."

Countless Challenges

"Obviously, we have many challenges at KACD. First is the challenge of our signal's limitations. We cover 70%-80% of the metro [but not the vast San Fernando Valley]; our primary signal strength is in the coastal areas. We are fortunate to have strength in the [predominantly black] Baldwin Hills area, which has embraced the station because of our music lean.

"Second, there is the marketing challenge presented by many other

The programmer who factors the African-American listener's need into the equation has found the formula for success.

stations' aggressive TV and outdoor campaigns. Until we can compete at that level, we'll have to rely on word-of-mouth, which must be considerable because we've got high cume.

"Finally, there's the challenge of formidable NAC competition from the Wave. Because they have their own piece of the pie, and because we can't be them, we have developed our own unique musical edge. We're different in that our mix is more vocal-intensive and leans more urban, while retaining a smooth jazz foundation.

"Current market conditions indicate that the African-American adult audience in L.A. is being underserved, particularly with KACE changing format to Adult Urban Gold, which is a specialty format. Despite these challenges, we feel we can do well [by keying on a special music mix].

"When I listen to music, I listen for really strong melody — something that draws me in completely. Being a woman helps me listen for the emotional appeal of 'female songs,' although the ratings show our listenership is about 60% male. I also respond strongly to songs with a positive lyric message. As long as the melody's there, I want to play music that is uplifting. Listeners respond to those songs; we constantly get calls about lyric content.

"It's really important for programmers to acknowledge the African-American segment of available audience. Usually, the core NAC listener is an adult black male. That's the most passionate, loyal, and committed listener there is — and the one who will reward a station with the longest TSL. The programmer who factors the African-American listener's needs into the equation has found the formula for success."

Soft & Warm Storm

Heritage NAC KBLX signed on in 1979. Since then, the station, which uses the handle "Soft And Warm, The Quiet Storm," has consistently delivered strong adult numbers in one of the country's most complex, competitive, and challenging radio markets.

PD/morning personality Kevin Brown, who joined the station in 1990, doesn't believe KBLX's urban edge places it outside the general market. "KBLX is an entirely unique radio station. What was conceived on the cutting edge here in 1979 has emerged as a large component of what NAC is today. From the beginning, we have embraced an eclectic mix of artists who represent a cross-section of music from a variety of musical realms.

"If you look at a KBLX sample hour [see music monitor], you'll see the same kind of musical diversity that exists in the record collection of an NAC listener. Artists like the Doobie Brothers, Boz Scaggs, Kenny Loggins, Swing Out Sister, Bobby Caldwell, Hall & Oates, Grover Washington Jr., Luther Vandross, and even jazz saxophonist Hank Crawford all have a place on KBLX. This is consistent with our approach historically.

"Because KBLX still draws on so

Setting The Record Straight

Muzak Broadcast Division's Sr. Programmer Tim Pinkelman responds to a recent comment by GRP Records Director/National Promotion Beth Lewis (R&R 10/28):

Beth Lewis referred to stations that play cover versions of vocal hits as perpetuating "Muzakism." While it's an interesting twist on our name, the comment implies that Muzak offers only one kind of music service: background instrumental covers. That's a stereotype that is inaccurate and out of date.

To set the record straight, Muzak isn't a style of music, just the trademarked name of our company. We air 16 different formats (some all-vocal, some instrumental) by satellite to subscribing businesses.

As for the content of Muzak's Contemporary Jazz/NAC channel that I've programmed for the past six years, I tend to avoid cover versions for the same reason as Ms. Lewis indicated — to give our channel a foreground feel instead of a background one.

There's more than a grain of irony in Lewis's comment about Muzakism: Even our oldest and best-known format, the Environmental Music channel (and the one many people still mistakenly call Muzak), is now airing more and more original-artist material ... a lot of it by GRP artists. I wonder if this means that Muzak perpetuates "GRPism?"

many musical genres, I consider us somewhat like an adult Top 40 in the original, pre-CHR sense. And that is, ultimately, the key to maintaining our TSL, which is generally in the seven-and-a-half to eight-hour range. We feel we've got to do more than play the same records over and over.

"Good music is the determining factor, as long as the song fits our 'soft and warm' sound. That means our music crosses pop, jazz, and urban boundaries. Just look at Anita Baker and Sade; their appeal crosses ethnic lines. Yesterday's urban artist is today's NAC core superstar. While the stations we share audience with are CHR KMEL and NAC KKSF, 60% of our cume is not black."

Distinguishing Characteristics

With KBLX right next to KKSF on the dial, both stations strive to keep listeners from making tuning mistakes. Brown believes music event marketing is one distinguishing factor. "This is the station for the active radio and entertainment consumer in the Bay Area. We know from cume breakouts that our audience — disproportionately and across racial lines — buys more music and attends more concerts than the average radio listener. We promoted 150 different music events last year. Promoters of pop and jazz events come to us, because those artists are well-represented on our playlist.

"For our most recent listener music series, we presented Bobby Caldwell, Brian Culbertson, Jay Spencer, George Duke, and Carl Anderson. Caldwell drew 20,000 people to a plaza in San Francisco's financial district. It's imperative that we take our artists out to the people, because good radio is like a football game: The airwaves are the passing attack, and the ground game is putting what you do directly before the people.

"What differentiates KBLX from any other station in the market was established long before I arrived here in 1990. You don't take a heritage station and reformulate it. That's just too difficult and dangerous. We just do what we've always done — showcase an eclectic mix. Ours is a 15-year tradition of reflecting the market's diversity. This longevity is a major component in our success equation, since we've had so long to educate our listeners.

"When KBLX was surrounded by pop radio, our stance was almost like underground or college radio. We played a wide variety of music and had no marketing — just word-of-mouth. We've certainly become more competitive and sophisticated in terms of marketing, but our commitment to our unique music mix continues today.

"It's very exciting to see NAC flourishing. There was a time when the format was synonymous with sleepy music that you couldn't hear live or buy in stores. Today, NAC is mainstream, and I am very gratified that the artists we've always championed are now core artists."

99X/Atlanta Unveils 'Freeloaders' Program

■ Listener database creates off-air vehicle to build audience, new profit center

Five months ago, WNNX (99X)/Atlanta began building a listener database by developing its "99X Freeloaders" program. The initial goal was to sign up 30,000 people by the end of the year. Already, more than 34,000 99X credit cards have been distributed.

Direct Services & Marketing Manager Amy Van Hook explains, "The concept is to develop a database of listeners by offering special incentives — free concerts, music, and fun ways to interact with each other. We have a very active audience, and we sell the benefits of being a 'Freeloader' with on-air imaging and positioning.

"There's no reason for anyone not to sign up. We average about 1000 people per week. When we do special events we average more — we signed up more than 8000 when we sponsored the Arts Festival Of Atlanta."

Signing Up

Applications are available at more than 100 convenient locations, including Blockbuster Music outlets, independent record stores, clubs, and popular chain restaurants; each sponsor gets on-air mentions. Forms can be mailed or faxed to the station, or applicants can join by calling the 99X interactive phone (see "Applied Knowledge" box for details).

Three to four weeks later, the listener receives a Freeloader's kit containing a 99X credit card and the attendant benefits:

- A coupon for a free 99X Freeloaders tape
- Free or reduced admission to 99X events: concerts, backstage & pre-concert parties, and priority seating

- Discounts at stores and restaurants
- Special deals on 99X-Wear — 20% off shirts, hats, and jackets
- Savings on music, movies, and more
- Free 99X music sampler CD for signing up.

Introducing New Music

Van Hook says the station plans to offer the new Freeloaders a different music sampler each quarter. "It's a way to introduce people to new music. Labels are already committed to our second CD for early next year. We don't promise them that putting a song on the CD means it will be added to our playlist, although almost every song on the CD got some airplay."

99X also offers participating labels :90 infomercials to highlight the bands on the CD. "It's a real good incentive for the record companies," Van Hook notes. "They are essentially trying to do this all the time, and we offer them a perfect vehicle for it."

The CD also comes with a postcard that solicits feedback on the sampler; it serves as research for the labels and the station. Questions include: What were your three favorite tracks?; do you plan on buying any of the full-length CDs from any of the artists featured on the sampler?

Segmenting The Database

How does 99X use the data from each Freeloader application? "We use it to segment our database," says Van Hook. "We can build customized programs for existing and new clients. We could do a special offer for the Freeloaders who said they plan on purchasing a computer, or maybe go to CompUSA and arrange to have them give away a free modem to all Freeloaders who buy a computer."

"A lot of this is about getting the client to offer our Freeloaders something to increase business; there are obvious tie-ins. It might never be on-air: It could be a special mailer with that segment of the database. One thing we'll never do is give out our database directly — we have to pro-goals of this program are to build a listener database and create a new profit center from our database. A lot of it will never touch on-air. For us, this is a new profit center. For instance, we're going to begin a quickie survey in '95 that will be mailed every other month to the entire database. We'll sell sponsorship of those mailers to different clients.

"Now that we have this other vehicle to reach our audience, we can attract new advertisers. With direct mail, we have an easier vehicle to sell station merchandise — we're making a much bigger deal about it now. There are a lot of different areas to create new revenue."

She concludes, "We realize the program won't be self-liquidating right away. It's a long-term process, and everyone has to be committed — including management and sales. You can't get into it for just a year. From now on, the 99X card is part of the station."

One thing we'll never do is give out our database directly — we have to protect it. We can tell clients the demographic information, zip codes, and income levels.

tect it. We can tell them the demographic information, zip codes, and income levels. It's really valuable for our clients."

The 99X card contains a bar code and magnetic strip on the back. "We have two bar-code scanners we use to track participation and contesting at events," Van Hook says. "That enables us to do a follow-up postcard mailer, thanking listeners for coming to an event and reminding them about future events."

"We're getting ready to buy a magnetic strip reader. It requires a laptop PC. Listeners will swipe their cards like at an ATM machine, and we'll be able to do contesting and print coupons onsite. We'll also be able to run reports onsite for clients, showing who came by."

'Marketing One-To-One'

Van Hook observes, "Radio is already a one-to-one medium, so why not make your marketing one-to-one? I'd rather spend my budget marketing to someone who I know is a listener, and reaching people who are more predisposed to be listeners."

"We've installed an interactive phone system, which is a big outlay in capital. We're real fortunate that Susquehanna is behind it; we rely on corporate to take care of our database maintenance. That alone is a huge undertaking. It costs over a dollar for each card fulfillment package. DataPro does our card — it's one less headache, and they personalize each one. This allows me the time to concentrate on the marketing and creative end."

Adds Van Hook, "The two basic

Tips For Direct-Marketing

WNNX (99X)/Atlanta Direct Services & Marketing Manager Amy Van Hook believes direct marketing will become increasingly prominent in radio in the near future. If you're preparing to launch a campaign, she advises:

- Be prepared for a long-term commitment
- Conduct thorough research with someone who understands the concept
- Do seminars with the Direct Marketing Association
- Think outside the box and put things together that you may not have previously considered
- Find a card-fulfillment service and outside source to handle database maintenance.

NEW MUSIC SCENE

- Artist: Veruca Salt
- Track: "Seether"
- LP: "American Thighs"
- Label: Minty Fresh/DGC

• Essentials: This is the Chicago-based band's debut album. Guitarists/vocalists Louise Post and Nina Gordon met through mutual friends nearly three years ago. Hoping to find a female bass player, they placed an ad in the Chicago Reader in late '92, and Steve Lack responded. When a female drummer proved elusive, Gordon's brother, Jim Shapiro, signed on (he also sings backing vocals). Post and Gordon cite the Breeders, Led Zepelin, Prince, and the Pixies as influences. Brad Wood, produced "American Thighs," which takes its title from a line in AC/DC's "You Shook Me All Night Long." ("Veruca Salt" was the spoiled little girl in Roald Dahl's "Charlie And The Chocolate Factory.")

• Artist POV: "Nina wrote 'Seether,' which is about her evil twin," says Post. "She was really angry the day she wrote it, but instead of going out and dragging someone's face in the sidewalk, she wrote a song. That extends to the idea — you are given the message that it's not attractive or socially acceptable to be angry. So we stay in our living rooms and write songs about it. This entire record is reflective of our past — many songs are [about] things we've been ashamed of."

• Label POV: Geffen/DGC National/Alternative Manager Rochelle Fox notes, "The record has been all over radio for three months, they blew audiences away all over the country opening for Hole, and on top of it all, 'Seether' is just the tip of the iceberg on this record."

New Music Scene highlights breaking artists charting for the first time.

The "Freeloaders Club" application asks for the following:

- Address, home phone, social security number, employer, work phone and fax, birthdate, and gender.
- Range of total household annual income
- Highest level of education completed
- Do you plan to purchase a house or condo within the next year?
- Do you plan to purchase a car within six months and, if so, what type?
- Do you own a computer?
- How many videos do you rent a month?
- How many videos have you purchased in the past six months?

99X credit card

- How many times per month do you eat out — restaurant and fast food?
- How many times a month do you go to a club or bar?
- What times do you listen to 99X most often?
- What other radio stations do you listen to and when?
- May we contact you by phone, mail, or fax regarding 99X or other research?

Understanding & Maximizing Arbitron

■ Consultant Dennis Constantine details methodology and shares advice

By Shawn Alexander

Consultant Dennis Constantine ventured to Maryland to have an inside look at Arbitron's operation. He details the facility's random procedure and shares advice on how to get listeners to respond, support, and vote for your station.

Dennis Constantine

Arbitron uses a massive computer system at its Beltsville, MD-based facility. "The computer is filled with phone numbers chosen at random from Arbitron's data list supplier," explains Constantine. "In addition, the computer changes the last four digits of phone numbers so unlisted numbers have a chance of getting called, too."

Random Phone Procedure

"Phone operators are linked to the main computer system," he says. "Each use the same name — Chris Johnson. The computer places calls at random from a phone list. As it places each call, it waits for an answer. When the phone is answered, it automatically forwards the call to an available operator. However, if no operator is available when the call is answered, it hangs up on the caller. If an answering machine answers, it also hangs up. Arbitron will try back three times.

"Chris Johnson asks the person if he or she would be interested in participating in a radio survey. If the person agrees to participate, they ask how many people live in their household. They send a dairy for everyone in the household over the age of 12. Any researcher will tell you this is the opposite of good random sam-

Let's take a lesson from the politicians who get people out to the polls. Stations can use a lot of the same techniques to get people to vote for radio listening.

survey to make sure they are filling out their diaries, and after the survey is over to make sure diaries are mailed in.

"The people who receive diaries are those who answer their phones at night and agree to participate in the survey," Constantine reiterates. "This means that everyone who uses an answering machine or voice mail to screen their calls is eliminated from consideration. In today's world of technology and annoying telemarketing, the universe of people who actually answer their phones in the evening is shrinking."

Hit Or Miss System

"Arbitron places the calls weeknights between 5:30-8:30pm. Entrepreneurs and many business people work long hours and get home later than 5:30, or people dine out during the early evening hours. Think about the type of people a Progressive station appeals to. The primary target is the middle and upper-middle class, white-collar work force. These are the people with the most disposable income and they're most likely not going to be home when Arbitron calls.

"Arbitron has never released information about how many calls are dropped because of answering machines, unavailable operators, or how many people actually accept the offer to participate. What they do tell us is 30%-45% of the participants do, in fact, return their diaries. That means about 60%-70% of those who agree to participate never mail back their diaries."

Get Out And Vote

Constantine compares Arbitron to voting and cites the following example: "My wife was saying she didn't want to go vote. When people started bringing up some of the issues and candidates, she started having a personal involvement in the turnout of the election and couldn't wait to vote. Let's take a lesson from the politicians who get people out to the polls. Stations can use a lot of the same techniques to get people to vote for radio listening.

"Politicians who win races aren't necessarily the ones who have the most people supporting them — they just had the most votes. Because of Arbitron's methodology, we need to get people out to vote. When KBCO was the number one station in Denver, it didn't necessarily mean they had the most listeners; what it meant was they had the most voters."

How can stations get better response from Arbitron diarykeepers? "Mobilize [listeners] to respond," says Constantine. "I believe we can take a lesson from public radio and treat Progressive listeners as members of a listeners' club. Four times a year, public stations do on-air fundraising — we've all heard the pleas for money. Support your station, we need money to operate, etc. Instead of asking listeners to send in money, explain that your station is a commercial station, and it's the advertisers who allow the station to operate. If you enjoy the programming on this station, support the advertisers. Go tell them you heard about them [on the local station].

30%-45% of participants do, in fact, return their diaries. That means about 60%-70% of those who agree to participate never mail back their diaries.

"There are many benefits to a campaign like this. First of all, advertisers will see increased traffic from their commercials and get direct feedback from people who heard their ads on your station. Second, it sends out a subtle message to listeners that commercials are a good thing. When they hear commercials on your station, it means the station is financially healthy. Listeners might be more prone to actually listen to the commercials. It also sends a message to the advertisers that you're concerned with the results generated by their commercials on your station.

"Another positive aspect of this type of campaign is it tells listeners the station needs to be supported. Even though you don't mention it on-air, the subtleties of this campaign indicate that if listeners like your station, they should help spread the word. And hopefully, when an Arbitron representative calls, they [listeners] will enthusiastically participate in the survey."

CRI OFF 3%

Summer Slides Again, But Demo Ranks Still Solid

The Country Ratings Index has fallen for the fifth consecutive quarter, with the Summer '94 returns showing a 35.5-point drop — a decline of 3%.

Historically, the CRI is down just under 8% from its all-time high of 1164.7, achieved in Spring '93. Ironically, it's from that point the CRI has posted the five consecutive declines.

The bad news is continued erosion 12+ (52% of stations down) and 25-54 (50% of stations declining). The good news can be found in the 25-54 rank comparisons, where 45% of stations were up or retained the No. 1 slot, with 37% of the stations giving ground.

Leaders Hold On

In Summer '92, 104 stations ranked first through fifth 25-54 — the most in the last four years — and 35 stations ranked sixth through 10th. This summer, 99 stations ranked first through fifth, and 45 outlets placed sixth through 10th, demonstrating Country outlets' ability to maintain their leadership roles as individual shares decrease and competition increases.

Country stations have faced an onslaught of new direct competition in the last couple of years; this summer saw 19 more Country stations than in Summer '92. And of course, there's tremendous ratings incursion by '70s Gold outlets — especially in the 35-44 arena. Maintaining 25-54 market rankings the way our format has is no small feat.

To compensate for the variation of Continuously Measured Markets in the CRI database, the actual share totals for all the Country stations in those markets has been multiplied by a factor of .775 to keep the CRI relative to past indices. This will continue to be done, and the factor will fluctuate, as the number of markets continuously measured by Arbitron changes. Thus, the CRI is a relative — not an absolute — number, representing actual shares. The conversion factor is determined by additional markets, not stations. We are determining market, not station, listening levels.

Shenandoah Fans Get A Bonus With New CD

Label packages phone cards with music

Want to save money on your long-distance telephone bill? Buy Shenandoah's debut album, "In The Vicinity Of The Heart."

Saving money may not be the first idea that comes to mind. But the folks at Liberty Records and Nashville-based MPH Communications are trying to change that. The two companies have teamed up to offer the "Shenandoah Prepaid Phone Card" — a calling card that saves album purchasers up to 40% on their long-distance calls.

The cards are packaged in the first 175,000 units (CD and cassette) of "Vicinity," which hit stores last week. Liberty also is planning a radio promotion to begin in early '95. According to VP/Promotion Bill Catino, "Radio stations' databases offer a tremendous opportunity to build audience awareness in target markets as well as enhance that artist's visibility across the country. This promotion also allows stations to give the loyal country gold members a perk of free long-distance calling that ties into the music."

To use the cards, users access an 800 number and enter the personal ID number on the card; they'll hear a one-minute message from the band that includes instructions and a note of thanks. After the card runs out of minutes, it can be "refilled" with any credit card. Calling-card users also can receive Shenandoah fan club, concert, and album information from the 800 number. MPH plans to distribute 1 million Shenandoah cards by the end of '95; look for other artists to follow.

SAM'S PLACE — Several artists took the stage at Nashville's Ryman Auditorium recently for the premiere of "Sam's Place," a weekly concert series. Gathering after the show are (l-r) Ryman GM Steve Buchanan, "Sam's Place" host Gary Chapman and son Matt, Creative Artist Agency's John Huie, Amy Grant, Bill Monroe, Russ Taff, and producer Michael Omartien.

Party With Marty

Marty Stuart will launch a series of four "Marty Party" specials on TNN early next year. The first, taped last week at Nashville's Wildhorse Saloon, will be a "honky-tonk party" featuring Merle Haggard, Pam Tillis, and David Ball. In keeping with the theme, the show also will include jugglers, dancers, and a video wall paying homage to the honky-tonk greats. The hourlong special is slated to air February 1.

Tillis also will appear on her own TNN show in February; the CMA Female Vocalist of the Year is the subject of "Full Access: On Tour With Pam Tillis." The cable channel's cameras will chronicle her day-to-day activities November 30-December 1, when her tour takes her to Salt Lake City and Denver.

WAYMORE FANS — Waylon Jennings treated RCA staffers and industry friends to a showcase at L.A.'s Troubadour, where he performed material from his latest album, "Waymore's Blues (Part II)." Gathering onstage after the show are (l-r) RCA/Nashville Labels Group Sr. VP Thom Schuyler, producer Don Was, Jennings, RLG Chairman Joe Galante and Sr. VP/GM Randy Goodman, RCA/Nashville's Greg DeLaurentiis, and RLG VP David Gales.

Buckin' For Bakersfield

Legendary country artist Buck Owens, owner of KCWW-AM & KNIX-FM/Phoenix and KCWR-AM, KTIE-FM, & KUZZ-FM/Bakersfield, is planning a museum honoring the "Bakersfield sound" in (where else?) Bakersfield. Memorabilia from Owens's career, as well as items given to him by Loretta Lynn and Dwight Yoakam, will be included in the museum. Construction on the complex — which also will include a restaurant, bar, stage, and dance floor — is scheduled to begin in a few weeks.

Montgomery Silenced

John Michael Montgomery fans may have to wait a little longer for his new album. The singer was in the middle of recording it when he came down with chronic tonsillitis last week. The project has been put on hold until he recovers or has his tonsils removed, depending on his doctor's orders.

Patsy Revisited

MCA/Nashville plans to release a soundtrack album of "Always ... Patsy Cline," the popular play which recently ended its run at the Ryman Auditorium. The show, starring Mandy Barnett as the late singer and Tere Myers as loyal fan Louise Seger, is set to tour the country during the next six months. "Always ..." most likely will return to Nashville next summer before its overseas run next fall. According to the Nashville Banner, the 19-year-old Barnett is close to signing a major label deal.

Mellons Speaks Out

Epic/Nashville artist Ken Mellons is among the spokesmen for this year's "Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids" fundraising radiothon. Although a number of country artists participate with specific stations, Mellons has gone one step further by creating a package for all 100+ participating Country outlets; it includes 15-, 20-, and 30-second radio liners, a 30-second video PSA, and a limited-edition T-shirt.

Bits & Pieces

A group of breast cancer survivors, including BMI's Patsy Bradley, joined Nashville singer/songwriter Tricia Walker to record "What A Wonderful Day." The American Cancer Society asked Walker to write the song for its "Reach To Recovery" program ... Michelle Wright is planning an extensive tour in January (western Canada) and March (eastern Canada). The Reasons Why Tour '95 kicks off in Vancouver January 6 and stops in 40 markets in all 10 provinces; John Berry and Vancouver-based One Horse Blue open ... Congrats to Kathy Mattea, who walked away a winner from her "Celebrity Jeopardy!" game (11/10). She ended up with $10,000, which she donated to the American Foundation For AIDS Research.

Los Angeles Format Race Comes Up 'BIG

Records are made to be broken, and two format mainstays watched as their impressive 25-54 streaks were shattered this summer.

In addition to being one of the nation's most emulated ACs, Cox powerhouse KOST/Los Angeles has dominated a variety of market format competitors.

Dave Ervin

Over the years, KOST's most serious challenge has been supplied by crosstown Bonneville Bright AC KBIG. They even reside at nearby frequencies; KOST at 103.5, KBIG at 104.3.

While flat from last summer, KBIG managed to overtake a tumbling KOST by the slimmest (0.1) of 25-54 margins. A modest increase also propelled KBIG past KOST among 18-34s.

"We became more focused, building on some key personality elements," comments PD Dave Ervin, who joined KBIG last January from WQAL/Cleveland. "KBIG now is brighter and more contemporary. Years ago, we wouldn't have played Melissa Etheridge, Sheryl Crow, or Ace Of Base."

Additionally, some softer artists like Lionel Richie have disappeared from KBIG's playlist. "There once was a hole here between KOST and [CHR] KIIS. KBIG now fills that hole."

According to Ervin, one reason KBIG was able to edge its archrival rests with a KOST adjustment. "It's become much more contemporary than [Soft ACs] WLTW/New York or WDOK/Cleveland. It isn't living up to its true image of playing 'continuous soft hits.' When KOST saw us gaining in the ratings, it responded by adding contemporary uptempo music. [That move] was contrary to its image, and it hurt itself."

Difference Delineated

KBIG — whose on-air slogan is "Today's Hits & Yesterday's Favorites" — recently launched an intensive marketing strategy that explains what separates it from KOST. "Both stations were perceived as being very similar. [VP/GM] Kari Winston — the brains behind our 'Big Difference' campaign — simply said we should tell people there's a difference between the two stations, then explain that difference.

"We didn't mount it as a negative campaign. The TV spot says one station plays one type of music and the other plays something else. It's very matter-of-fact and not disparaging at all. There's been no negative fallout from it. It took a few months for people to get it, but our research shows people are starting to see the difference."

Night Fever

The addition of the Rick Diego-hosted/Dave Verdery-produced "Disco Saturday Night" helped KBIG vault from No. 12 to No. 1 25-54 (7pm-midnight). "I knew it would do well, but had no idea it would do this well," Ervin admits.

"It's a fun show to do on Saturday nights. I could tell something good was happening about two weeks after we put the show on the air. There's a definite buzz about it; phones are constantly jammed."

Several months ago, late-night TV's David Letterman became a KBIG staple. His legendary "Home Office"-inspired Top 10 lists air at 6am and 8am. "[Dave] generates enormous interest with people of all ages," notes Ervin. "When CBS announced he'd be available for syndication, I knew I wanted to do it. It was a tough price to pay, but we stepped up to the plate."

Viacom Duopoly Duo

L.A.'s other AC players are Viacom's Hot KYSR ("Star") and Soft KXEZ. "I don't consider Star to be a huge competitor," says Ervin. "They might not have realized they don't draw audience from the KOST-KBIG listening base. Star shares more audience with [Rock] KLOS and KIIS."

"Star really had its chance much earlier in the fight, but has changed direction so often that the audience has become too confused. Its on-air liners indicate it wants to be in the AC fight, but our research shows it should be fighting [Rock stations]. Star talks about KOST and KBIG on-air, but its listeners don't get it because they're not [our audience]."

"KXEZ is a minor factor in the whole AC fight right now. As they continue to grow, however, KXEZ will be a more formidable force. Once you get that older audience, it's there to stay. KXEZ is seeing slow growth, but we'll see them come of age."

L.A. (& L.I.) Stories

Not seeing KOST/Los Angeles and WALK/Long Island as the top 25-54 ACs in their respective markets is a rarity. This summer, however, KBIG topped KOST by 0.1 and WBLI prevailed over WALK-FM by 0.2.

The following recaps KOST's and WALK's 25-54 margins of victory over KBIG and WBLI, respectively, during the previous seven Arbitron sweeps. (Example: In the Fall '92 book, KOST maintained a 1.4 share advantage over KBIG; WALK held a 2.2 lead over WBLI.)

	F '92	W '93	Sp '93	Su '93	F '93	W '94	Sp '94

WALK's lead	+2.2	+2.0	+1.1	+1.5	+1.4	+4.4	+3.1

Examining The Ratings

While KBIG managed to overtake KOST among 25-54s, it was flat from last year. KOST retained its 35-64 advantage over KBIG.

WALK plummeted in upper-end demos, but actually pulled off 18-34 and 35-64 victories over WBLI. Ironically, WBLI's only summer-summer increases were scored among 35-64s.

On Long Island, Hot AC/Adult CHR WPLJ/New York held a commanding 18-34 lead and a full share better than the 25-54 runner-up, Gold WCBS-FM/New York. In the chart below, market rankings follow summer-summer fluctuations.

Long Island Audience Hasn't WALKed Away

The last time Hot AC WBLI/Long Island bettered market rival WALK among 25-54s was approximately 10 years ago. This summer, however, WALK placed fourth 25-54, having been outdistanced in the demo race by (in order) Hot AC/Adult CHR WPLJ/New York, Gold WCBS-FM/New York, and WBLI.

"While WBLI sounds pretty good, the really good news is they aren't a carbon copy of us," comments WALK PD Gene Michaels (aka Gene Free). "That had been a problem here for a long time. WBLI started making some changes at the end of the book."

Gene Michaels

Interestingly, a review of 18-34s, 25-54s, and 35-64s indicates that WBLI's only summer-summer gains were made among the uppermost demo. "That makes no sense," Michaels remarks. "WBLI is aimed much younger and targets the same folks as 'PLJ.'"

Bear Market?

Chancellor Broadcasting's WALK won't overreact to this summer's round of bad news. Michaels, however, is clearly perplexed because he believes his station was extremely visible this summer.

"Our three WALKie Bears were everywhere, and we had incredible response with our appearances and remotes. It's not like we were twiddling our thumbs wondering where our listeners went. People still come to our events and call to request songs. I know in my heart we're Long Island's favorite radio station."

Some have theorized WALK's strong winter book resulted from its heavy reliance on news and information. "March was our biggest month in that book, and there was no snow then. Maybe people thought we'd get lots of snow. We also did very well in the spring book."

Reality Check

By WALK's lofty standards, the bottom fell out this sweep. "Who isn't scratching his head about this summer's book?" wonders Michaels. "Look at the number of books that were recalled and what happened with the release in New York. Arbitron has had its share of People still come to our events and call to request songs. I know in my heart we're Long Island's favorite radio station.

troubles. WPLJ was the No. 1 station [in New York] for about 90 minutes. Our latest trend was delayed for about a week."

Michaels, however, stresses he doesn't want to be overcritical of Arbitron; he asked the research company for a variety of materials to help explain what went wrong. "We had to know if the information was real. With the information they gave us, it was clear Arbitron undersampled some key demos such as 35-44 men and women. On a big [information-oriented] station like WALK, those are our targets.

"I don't want to make them out to be the 'bad guys,' but we like those demos to be heavily sampled. I thought it was extremely odd that [those cells] were undersampled."

Piece Of The Pie

Long Island's geographical composition also plays an interesting sampling role. "These days, our market is divided up like a pizza," explains Michaels. "There's Nassau County and humongous Suffolk County, which is divided into five zones. The undersampling occurred in our home zone and the adjoining zone. These are the areas where people are least likely to listen to [NYC] stations."

RANDALL BLOOMQUIST

After The Vote: What Shall We Talk About Now?

For years, many of the Talk format's most visible personalities ranted against liberals, carped about Congress, and urged voters to send the Democrats packing.

OK, done. On Election Day the public swung to the right. Conservatism is in, liberalism is out. And the GOP has control of Congress. What does this mean for Talk radio? Will conservative yakkers become tools of the new Establishment? Or will they continue to slam the government? Will we, perhaps, see more shows aimed at disaffected liberals?

Here are some predictions from several Talk programmers and hosts.

Promise & Peril

WABC/New York PD John Mainelli believes the new political landscape is filled with both promise and peril for Talk radio. "The consolidating and wielding that power. It's going to lead up to one of the most interesting presidential races in years."

Mainelli adds that things could also be hot for Talk radio outside the studio. "I think some of the [liberal] groups that have complained about Talk radio and are now on the political outs may become even more vociferous in their attacks on Talk radio as part of their effort to get back into power."

At the same time, Mainelli is also wary of Talk radio being lured into the conservative political power structure. "I read where [House Speaker-to-be] Newt Gingrich plans to meet with talk radio hosts every week. I'm not crazy about that for the same reason I wasn't crazy about the creation of [the National Association of Radio Talk Show Hosts]. I don't really like the idea of talk hosts setting agendas and working together to achieve them. If this format becomes just another political organ, it will be voted out itself."

Keeping Heat On

Westwood One's G. Gordon Liddy, a hardcore conservative, says there's certainly no need to worry about him going soft. "I was critical of George Bush when he broke his promise not to raise taxes, and I have praised President Clinton when he deserved it. I'm going to be watching carefully to see if Republicans, having made promises to the American people, live up to those promises. I don't expect to cut these guys any slack."

WBAL/Baltimore Station Manager Jeff Beauchamp says his conservative hosts have also vowed to keep the heat on the GOP. And he expects to hear some hot Talk programming over the next several months. "I think interest in Talk radio will be heightened as people try to figure out this transition and keep an eye on the Republicans. I also think it's a situation that will benefit both conservative and liberal hosts."

WGST/Atlanta PD Nancy Zintak also sees interesting times ahead for the format. "The first thing we're going to see is the splintering of the Republican party. It'll be real interesting to see where all these conservative talk hosts will come down on that issue. Will they be with Newt or [Senate Majority Leader-to-be] Bob Dole?"

'Plenty Of Fodder'

Zintak also predicts a change in the tone of political debate. "This may be a little Pollyannaish, but I think we've hit the ceiling on the public's anger. People are tired of being pissed off. Tired of constantly clutching their steering wheels and grinding their teeth. I think we've turned a corner [in the public's mood], and that change will be reflected in what we hear on Talk radio."

WWDB/Philadelphia PD David Rimmer downplays the election's long-term impact on Talk programming. "This is not the end of Talk

I think some of the [liberal] groups that have complained about Talk radio and are now on the political outs may become even more vociferous in their attacks on Talk radio as part of their effort to get back into power.

radio as we know it. There are always things to bitch about, no matter who's in power.

"There will be a wait-and-see period and then it will dawn on us that not much has changed. There will still be plenty of fodder for conversation."

Hank Like You've Never Heard Him Before

"I Ain't Goin' Peacefully"

"Put away all your preconceived notions on Hank Jr. and listen to this project. You'll see that Hank Jr. is the real deal. I didn't believe it till I heard it. We'll be there out of the box."

—Doug Montgomery - B93.7/WBCT, Grand Rapids MI

"Hank's one of the most instantly recognized voices and figures in the country format. He's an innovator, a leader and a true original... And he's BACK!!"

—Chris Atkins, PD - WXTA, Erie PA

"I know what you're thinkin' ...Hank Jr. Riiiiight? This is a brand new Hank for the 90's. It's not a Hank you've heard before. Give it a listen...find out for yourself...then you will become a believer. Bocephus is back and we're on him out of the box."

—Larry Pareigis, Operations Director - KRAK/KNCI, Sacramento CA

Definitely Country... Definitely Refreshing ... Definitely Hank. It's good to see that Hank is back."

—Bria Kirg, PD - WYNE, Baton Rouge LA

"Hank is arguably one of the most talented and versatile artists of our generation. Moreover, when Hank Jr. is decidedly serious about making a great album he unleashes magic. The HOG WILD album is the complete Hank experience!!"

—Wade Jessen, MD - WSM, Nashville TN

"The Spang is back! Hank Jr. sings with renewed enthusiasm. Nice to hear him having fun again."

—Rick McCracken, MD - WSOC, Charlotte NC

"He's always been my favorite 'Roudy.' Thank goodness he never went peacefully! I'm hog wild about Hank Jr., his music and new album... Yes!!!! Welcome back, Hank!"

—Dandelion - WRKZ, Hershey PA

"I was really impressed with Hank's vocals, the range and power in his voice. I was really impressed with the production on Hank's new album. It's Hot, Fresh, and 90's Hog Wild Smokin'. Country radio needs powerful new music like this to keep us Number One. Also, in our research, Hank's classics have never tested better. The timing is right... Hank is back!!! We will be there out of the box."

—Craig Powers, VP of Programming - KIKF, Anaheim CA

Are You Ready For Some Hank?? He sings this one like he means it. He really feels this song and sounds sincere.

—Eddie Haskell, APD - Young Country, Detroit MI

*"I'm just trying to make a hit...
And be sure and have a little bit of fun while I'm singin'"*
