A NEW BEGINNING

BRE salutes Bhaskar Menon and his staff for their bullish commitment to black music. But a strong presence in black music is nothing new for this company.

In the 50's, Capitol had Nat "King" Cole; in the 60's, it was "Cannonball" Adderley, Nancy Wilson, Lou Rawls; in the 70's, the label boasted the "King's" daughter Natalie and many other top black artists.

Entering the mid-80's, we now hear Capitol's chairman and chief executive Menon state publicly that black music has indeed crossed color lines and that the only place where black music remains segregated is in the minds of its own industry.

The day has come to sound the trumpets in a grand salute to a company which has indeed become fully abreast of the times in an ever evolving marketplace.

Long live black music - the most creative, popular and copied art form of the century!

LET "BUTTERBALL" KNOW WE CARE

We were deeply saddened to learn that one of the authentic "living legends" of black radio, Milton "Butterball" Smith - the original "Butterball" - is seriously ill and hospitalized in Miami.

As the holiday season approaches, let the "Butterball" know that he has not been forgotten by the legions of friends he made during his long and impressive career in the industry.

Send cards and letters to him at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, Room 11-CD, 1201 NW 16th Street, Miami, FL 33125. (Please, no telephone calls.) We love you, "Butterball," and pray for your return to good health.

SHARPTON AND ARISTA TO MEET

Rev. Al Sharpton of the National Black Youth Movement is scheduled to meet soon with Arista president Clive Davis and VP/marketing Sal Licata to address the issue of equal participation for black music-related companies.

Commented Rev. Sharpton: "I am deeply disturbed by the visible inequities practiced by Arista in the areas of promotion (both concerts and records) and in print media advertising support (both consumer and trade)."

Perhaps this meeting will produce some of the answers we have been unable to obtain. Let us hope that it will also set the stage for a more positive level of interaction with a company which - as its ad currently running in a general market trade graphically documents - owes an enormous portion of its success to a super-hot roster of black artists. Stay tuned.

☆ LACKA LACQUER ☆ NO SERVICE WHERE IS----

One of the most persistent problems expressed at the recent radio retreat concerned the difficulties encountered in obtaining prompt service from the record companies.

To help alleviate that problem, BRE and Jack the Rapper will jointly publish "LACKA LACQUER" - a section designed to assist those stations needing service from labels. The format also allows station personnel to identify the promotion person in the designated areas so that more direct access and communication can be achieved.

In the past, we have run service requests on a regular basis in the "Airwaves" column. But the section debuting next week in BRE represents a bolder approach.

"LACKA LACQUER" is a coordinated and targeted effort by both publications through which information - as well as the distinctive heading previewed here - will be shared by BRE and the Rapper.

We hope that by naming the regional promotion person for the area, the stations will be able to gain quick access to product. Look for "LACKA LACQUER" next week and regularly thereafter.

Call Alice at BRE (213/469-7262) and let us know about your "lacking lacquer" today!

NBMC OPENS BLACK RADIO RESOURCE CENTER

Washington: Pluria Marshall, Chairman of the National Black Media Coalition, has announced the formation of a Black Radio Resource Center, headed by Vida Smith, NBMC Director of Black Radio Services.

Mobilizing the experience and expertise gained in over a decade of serving as the most effective civil rights organization in the communications industry, the Coalition has established the Resource Center to provide a variety of services and technical assistance to black radio.

Cited as a priority is NBMC's commitment to provide a clearinghouse for information on black radio. Accordingly, the organization will maintain "an up-to-date list of who owns/operates every station in the country, as well as identify all black-formatted radio stations, regardless of ownership."

NBMC will also focus its energies on obtaining a more equitable share of advertising dollars for black radio and other black-oriented media, which historically have been ignored or underbought by advertisers.

In addition, NBMC staffs and maintains an active Job Bank/Referral Information Center to match employment opportunities identified in the communications industry with qualified minority aspirants. Ms. Smith will work exclusively with radio stations on job placement and information resources.

For those interested in exploring broadcast ownership possibilities, NBMC has established a technical assistance service to implement its commitment to increasing the number of black-owned properties in the U.S. Through its network of experts in the field, the organization will advise those interested in buying broadcast properties at no charge.

The issue of radio stations' responsiveness to community needs - severely affected by FCC deregulation policies in many areas - will also be addressed by NBMC through the Black Radio Resource Center. Accordingly, services provided by stations (other than entertainment) will be closely monitored.

According to NBMC Chairman Pluria Marshall, "we will network with committed groups who have a similar vision, such as Black Radio Exclusive, Jack the Rapper, Young Black Programmers Coalition and others." Marshall added, "Our task is to get people together who need to get together for mutual benefit." For further information, contact Vida Smith, Director, Black Radio Services, National Black Media Coalition, 38 New York Avenue, NE, Washington, DC 20002 - (202) 387-8155.

JIMI STARKS NAMED VP/BLACK MUSIC PROMOTION AT E/P/A

New York: An announcement by Walter Winnick, Vice President, National Promotion, Epic/Portrait/Associated Labels, confirmed the appointment of Jimi Starks as Vice President, Black Music Promotion, E/P/A.

In this capacity, Mr. Starks will develop promotion strategies for E/P/A's roster of black music artists and direct the company's black music field promotion staff for singles and albums. He will be based in New York.

Since joining CBS Records in 1976 as Local Promotion Manager, Special Markets, for Cincinnati, Mr. Starks has held several posts throughout the country with the CBS companies. Most recently, he was E/P/A's Southwest Regional Promotion Manager, Black Music, based in Atlanta - a position he occupied from 1981 until his national appointment and relocation to New York.

GEIGER NAMED TO CAPITOL PROMOTION POST

Hollywood: Howard Geiger has been appointed to the position of director of Black Music promotion, effective immediately. The announcement was made recently by Ronnie Jones, vice president Black Music promotion.

A native of Dallas, Geiger joined Capitol Records in December 1981 as the Southwest Regional Representative of the promotion department.

Commenting on Geiger's appointment, Jones said: "The entire Capitol management team can now benefit from his expertise and enthusiasm. The R&B department is very proud and eager to have Howard join us in the Tower."

MOTOWN NAMES LLOYD REGIONAL SALES MGR

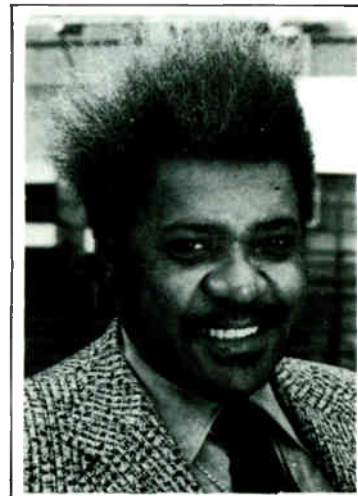

Los Angeles: Curtis Lloyd has been appointed to the position of Southeast Regional Sales Manager for Motown Records. The announcement was made by Miller London, Vice President of Marketing for the label.

An eight-year music industry veteran, Lloyd initially served as Warehouse Manager for Motown's first branch-owned distributor, Hitsville Detroit. Subsequent positions included Local Sales Manager for the branch and Sales Manager for Progress Distributors. Most recently, he was a salesman for MCA Distributors in Detroit.

Lloyd will be based at MCA Distributors in Atlanta, where he will be responsible for the sales of Motown product and will report to Ben Sheats, National Sales Manager, Motown Records.

DON KING TO BE FETED IN ATLANTA

Georgia's capital city will be the site for a gala testimonial honoring one of the most successful showmen and promoters in recent history - Don King.

Despite his flamboyant image, this magnificent one also happens to be a very private, caring individual who has helped more people than he would ever want anyone to know.

Don will be honored by his friends in Atlanta in February - a not-to-be-missed affair hosted by Jack "The Rapper" Gibson and Sidney Miller. (P.S. - We promise personal introductions to his long elusive hairdresser.)

SUTRA TO DISTRIBUTE PLAYBACK RECORDS

New York: Sutra Records has recently signed a distribution deal with Playback Records, a subsidiary of the television marketing firm Music Unlimited, Inc.

Sutra Records will handle the exclusive worldwide distribution of Playback product, including albums by Tina Turner and the Plat-ters.

"The huge response to these artists via TV direct mail proves that there is a market at the retail level for this product," says Art Kass, President of Sutra Records.

CAPITOL RE COMMITME

The O'Jays - Philadelphia International artists

FREDDIE JACKSON

ASHFORD & SIMPSON

Until recently, it has largely been considered an academic or fanciful notion that black music is the world's most popular music.

But at the Capitol/EMI America/Manhattan Records group, the philosophy now is being embraced in a tangible, bottom-line way.

Commenting on this vigorous interest in black music, Bhaskar Menon, chairman and chief executive officer for Capitol Industries-EMI, Inc., parent company for the record concern, said, "We have made an increased commitment to the black music activities of the Capitol/EMI America/Manhattan label group because of its formidable impact on the music industry nationally and internationally.

"In the last 12 months," Menon continued, "the outstanding success achieved by Capitol and Manhattan Records in black music has fully vindicated our decision to boldly pursue expansion in this crucial area."

Accordingly, the company recently announced a restructuring of its black music activities to take advantage of the growing black artist rosters at all three labels and to move the music more toward center stage as a tribute to its significant impact on the recording industry's current buoyancy.

Menon suggested that expansion or establishment of R&B field and administrative staffs and A&R functions at both EMI America and Manhattan have become necessary because of the record group's growth in this area.

Both EMI America and Manhattan had been using Capitol's R&B field promotion staff.

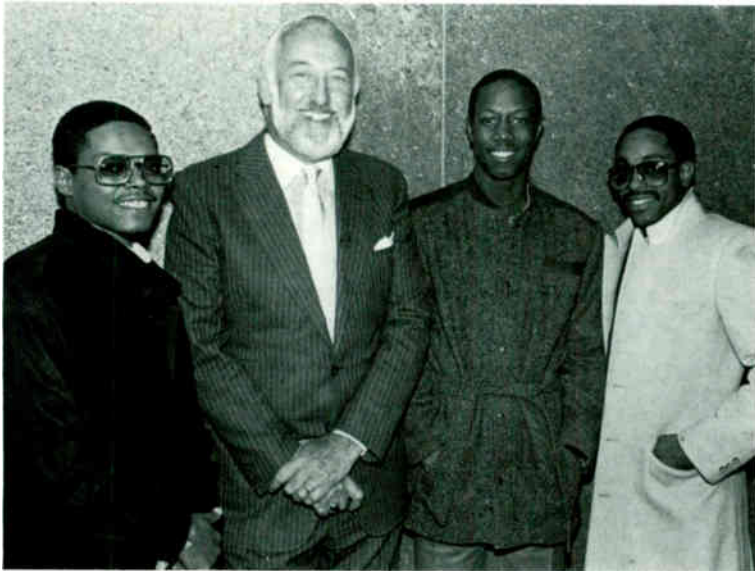

But the Capitol team has been happily 'burdened' coping with the phenomenal success currently enjoyed by roster luminaries such as Tina Turner, Freddie Jackson, Maze, Ashford & Simpson, Melba Moore, George Clinton, O'Bryan and the Boogie Boys.

Couple that with the recent hiring of veteran record industry exec Wayne Edwards, who as vice president of A&R for black music at Capitol plans to aggressively pursue new signings, and it becomes evident that it was high time for the sister labels to establish their own R&B field staffs.

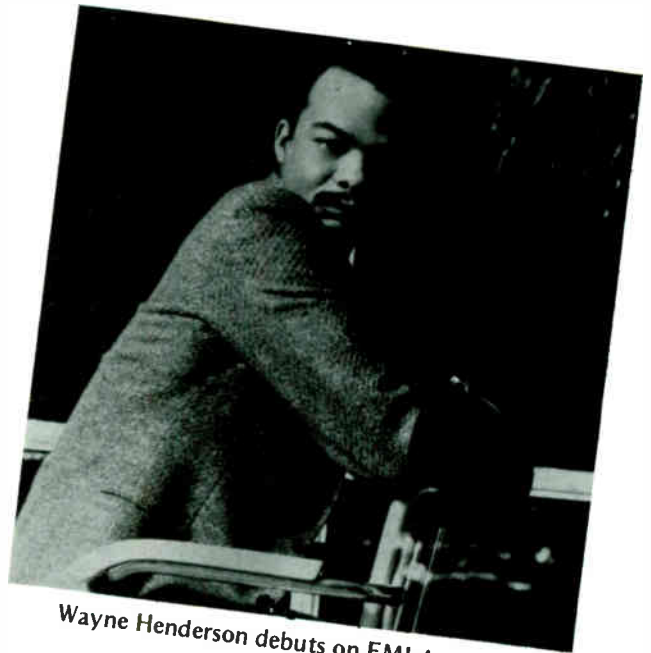

The nearly year-old Manhattan label, which sails under the flagship of president Bruce Lundvall, has had chart success with artists such as Bernard Wright, Grace Jones, and

CORDS EXPANDS ITS NET TO BLACK MUSIC

By Michael Martinez and Hedi Butler Wilmore

Bruce Lundvall welcomes Pieces of a Dream to Manhattan label.

Wayne Henderson debuts on EMI America.

Stanley Jordan.

Most recently, the label signed the Philadelphia-based group Pieces of a Dream.

Through Manhattan's associated label pact with Kenny Gamble's Philadelphia International Records, the O'Jays have also been evident on the charts. There is also much expected of PIR recording artist Phyllis Hyman.

"In the past nine months that Manhattan/Blue Note have been actively in the business as record companies," commented Lundvall, "the exceptional efforts of the Capitol pop and R&B promotion teams have put Manhattan Records on the map."

Former Capitol executive Varnell Johnson, currently Manhattan's vice president of black music marketing, will be heading up a R&B promotion field staff which will be in place in early January.

Johnson told BRE that, "Our success in such a short period of time has warranted the formation of our own staff.

"While most companies are cutting back," he continued, "we're expanding-- although the Capitol EMI companies have generally been viewed in the industry as conservative. Any time you can put people to work, I'm all for it."

Gerry Griffith will continue to serve as vice president of black music A&R for the company.

Commenting on the realignment, Don Zimmerman, president of Capitol Records, Inc., said, "Capitol is pleased to have aided in the launch of Manhattan Records in the area of promotion.

"It is a tribute to the excellent achievement of both Ronnie Jones, Capitol's vice president of black promotion, and Walter Lee, Capitol's senior vice president of marketing and promotion, and their respective field staffs," he added.

Jones, commenting on his company's role in the corporate promotion efforts, said, "It's been a richly rewarding situation-- certainly not your everyday, normal state of affairs in the industry today.

"We have really been overburdened with the amount of product within the last 11 months," he continued. "But the entire corporate staff needs to be commended for remaining afloat in what was actually a 'sink or swim' position."

Joining the expansion, which is in reality a recommitment to black music, is EMI America Records, which will be creating two new senior executive posts in A&R and promotion.

A spokesperson at the label commented that, "The new expansion at Capitol-EMI is of special significance to those of us at EMI because it marks the reinstatement of our presence as a label in the area of black music."

In 1982, the EMI black artist roster, which then consisted of people like Melba Moore, Earl Klugh, Ronnie Laws and George Clinton, was absorbed by Capitol Records.

But EMI America's black artist roster has been renewed by reggae product from the Marley heirs, the Melody Makers, and, in January, new product by Michael Henderson will be released.

Commenting on EMI America's renewed thrust into black music, Jim Mazza, president at the label said, "This announcement supports our group's dedication to increasing our involvement into all sectors of recorded music on a worldwide basis.

"We will be providing new opportunities and a competitive alternative in the black music community," Mazza added.

The opening of new staffs at Manhattan and EMI America, however, does not mean the end of cooperation between the labels.

In an effort to balance the field promotion activity between the three labels, EMI America will be utilizing the newly-created Manhattan field force for regional R&B promotion, effective Jan. 1. Conversely, Manhattan will employ the resources of EMI America's pop music field force for regional promotion, effective immediately.

The net effect of this move is to unburden the work horse of the group's promotion efforts, Capitol's R&B field staff, so that it might concentrate exclusively on its own burgeoning roster of R&B-oriented artists.

Menon pointed out how the expansion will provide independence for the development of black music, yet permit it to move more toward the mainstream of the industry.

"To a large extent," he said, "there is a tendency in this industry to 'segmentize' or compartmentalize black music into a niche of its own.

"But black American music," Menon continued, "is the overwhelming popular music of the world.

"This segmentation," he concluded, "is just not there at the consumer level; it exists only in the minds of the industry."

PASTORELLI NAMED NATIONAL VIDEO COORDINATOR FOR THE WEA LABELS

by Michael Martinez

It is indeed the age of specialization, and at WEA Corp., the video medium is gaining increasing importance and generating a larger volume of software and more responsibility in this area.

Thus, the recent announcement that Joe Pastorelli has been named national video coordinator for the company.

He has a diverse background in retail and film, having obtained a degree in music merchandising from the University of Miami before moving on to positions at Columbia Pictures Publications, Specs Records and Tapes, and Radio Shack.

Pastorelli joined WEA's Los Angeles Branch warehouse staff this August as an order filler.

Horatio Alger and opportunity lives!

The recent BILLBOARD Video Music Conference, held in Los Angeles, offered some frugal hope for the video industry.

A panel of record company executives with responsibilities in video said that while the music video boom might level off, there aren't going to be many reductions in the budgets to make such videos, although there won't be any increases either.

Some execs said that they hoped that they could secure budgets in 1986 that will be commensurate to 1984 and 1985 levels while others, such as David Altschul, vice president at Warner Bros. Records, said that there will likely be no reduction in the number of music vid-clips produced by the label, but that there will be a greater emphasis on the Warner Bros. home video division.

This attitude would seem to be in keeping with a recent study which claims that consumer electronics stores, including home video outlets, have grown 56% since 1980.

The study was conducted by New York-based research firm Audit & Surveys, which said that record store expansion, once keyed by the growth of home video, appears to be softening.

Leisure time products, according to the study, seems to be the greatest factor in retail expansion.

Record company executives on the home video market for music vids, however, are cautious and contend that the break-even point for such product has to be lowered, despite artists' and managers' demands that more money be spent in the production and promotion of such titles.

Emerging video technology may help contain the rising production costs of such vids.

There will be greater cross-merchandising of records and videos, according to some of those speaking at the BILLBOARD conference, who also noted that video specialty stores may not be the best place to sell music vids.

Long-form videos containing high fidelity renderings of hit records set to video might grow slowly, but should be another source of revenue in the long run.

Take Phil Collins' "No Jacket Required," for example. That Atlantic Video release was certified gold by the RIAA recently for having registered in excess of 25,000 units sold.

The video contains four conceptual videos of Collins' songs and one live concert clip from the artist's most recent tour.

Bill Parker Prods. managed to squeeze in video production of Stevie Wonder's hit single "Part-Time Lover," released by Tamla/Motown Records.

Bill Parker had to drop his preparations on a pair of other videos to fly to New York where he directed the video with line producer Steve Golin. Carolyn Ali produced the project for Bill Parker Prods.

Station Break

by Michael Martinez

The saying is that everything is big in Texas. The same holds true for some of the cities, like Dallas.

That's where Baron Von White is the afternoon drive maestro for station KDLZ, the urban contemporary FM station that recently modified its format and call letters to capture a wider audience.

It is also the former KNOK, where the Texas grown Von White has been employed since 1979.

The station's audience expansion and Von White's unusually lengthy tenure at the outlet are both to the jock's liking.

"The audience here in Dallas is a broad cross section of everybody," explained Von White, once known in Dallas as Baron Bacon, a tie-in to his morning drive duties there.

"We've got people from the General Dynamics plant (maker of the U.S. war plane F-16) to small businessmen and people who work in the downtown business district listening to our station.

Noting that when KNOK became KDLZ on Aug. 18, 1985 (Von White's birthday), it signaled the station's desire to attract a more adult 18-35 audience. The Texan said, "We have not changed from a black station; we've just urbanized."

Von White pointed out that KDLZ might play Tears For Fears and Rick James back-to-back in an effort to keep hits lively on the air.

For the afternoon drive man, it's all in the transition.

He said while the station runs contests and giveaways on the air, "there's no clutter and hype.

"I like to make sure everything flows," Von White continued, adding, "I like to be able to come out of a loser to a good Diana Ross record so the audience won't change the dial.

Von White noted that Dallas is a city that is always moving and that it was "just time" for the station to change its programming approach.

The Waco, Texas native is not unfamiliar with change and movement (he claims 101,000 miles have been put on his 1981 Toyota Tercel).

He started his career there while a student at Baylor in 1975.

It was at station KRZI that Von White began mike chores that lasted two years before he moved to Beryan-College Station, Tx. where he continued his collegiate education and radio career at Texas A&M's WTAW-FM, a top 40 station.

"I owned that market," Von White confidently recalls, adding that while a programmer there, he organized the world's largest volley ball game as a promotion.

"There were about 30,000 people who turned out to Kyle Field for the event."

After two years there, Von White said, "I got bored; I wanted a bigger (naturally) challenge."

Von White said that he had set his sights on Houston's KMJQ and on Dallas' KNOK and the latter responded first.

He was originally slated to handle morning drive chores and become "Baron Bacon in the Morning," but ended up on the seven to midnight shift for five number one rated years before changing.

When the station began to contemplate the program alteration and identity change, Von White said that new program director Kelly McCann asked him to assist in the programming chores until a music director was hired, and it was a role that Von White played until Michele Madison came aboard just prior to the changing of the format - "2" day!

THE ENTIRE EPA ROSTER AND PROMOTION TEAM

by Jerome Simmons

Gladys and Bubba Knight visited radio station WGCI this week on their promotional tour supporting the "Salute The Black Family" program sponsored by Soft Sheen Products in an effort to bring pride back to the black community and the family structure.

Also visiting WGCI this week was Warner Brothers artist Morris Day who was in town for his first solo concert in Chicago since leaving Prince. No pictures were possible, however, because Morris seems to have inherited Prince's unprincipally attitude of not wanting his picture with jocks and radio personnel now. And he used to be such a nice guy.

A benefit concert was held in Gary, Indiana to aid the many residents there who are dependent upon the nearly bankrupt Gary public aid system. Whitney Houston appeared along with the Chicago Bears Walter Payton helping raise funds by selling autographs for one dollar each.

WGCI, in conjunction with many of Chicago's top clubs, has inaugurated a public campaign to combat drunken driving. At all participating lounges there will be small signs on the bars and tables stating "Make Your

(One For The Road) A Hot One." The hot one will be a cup of coffee provided by the clubs free of charge. "The Hot One" promotion will be in effect until January 5. GCI is also stressing compliance with the new Illinois state law requiring everyone to buckle up for safety.

Congratulations to Bernard Miller on his recent engagement.

Tom Shropshire Testimonial

Tom Shropshire, senior vice president of Miller Brewing Company, was honored at a testimonial retirement dinner in Milwaukee by many notables in the industry including Percy Sutton who served as emcee, Don King, Dick Gregory, Willie Davis, Mayors Richard Hatcher of Gary and Johnny Ford of Tuskegee and Henry Maier of Milwaukee, Roger Penske, O.C. White, Don Walker, LeBaron Taylor, Jack Gibson and the Miller Brewing Company's executive staff. The much admired Shropshire was saluted with many awards and honors. Over 500 persons attended the affair with entertainment provided by Ramsey Lewis and Arthur Prysock. Dick Gregory brought down the house when he commented, "Tom, you know everyone here loves you because no one comes to Milwaukee on the way to some place else."

The Shropshire family join--mother/father and daughter and son in the first dance.

Percy Sutton, emcee for the evening, joins with Mayor Johnny Ford, Mr. & Mrs. Tom Shropshire and Mayor Richard Hatcher.

Dick Gregory presents BRE Drummer Award to retiring Tom Shropshire.

Willie Davis, Tom Shropshire and Don Walker, publisher of Dollars And Sense Magazine get a chance to rap.

TAUREAN BLACQUE, DIONNE WARWICK, HOWARD MCCREARY

In a word, 'inspiring' sums up the recent gospel concert featuring a special guest performance by Dionne Warwick at the West Angeles Church of God in Christ in Los Angeles. Warwick, whose professional genesis was in gospel music with a group called the Gospelairens, displayed her musical roots as she sang soulful renditions of gospel classics.

Hosted by Taurean Blacque of "Hill Street Blues" fame, the Fourth Annual Urban League-West Angeles event brought together old friends. Blacque candidly admitted, "Dionne and I haven't been together on stage since we attended the debutante ball as kids in New Jersey. It's delightful to come together again like this in my church - praising the Lord!"

The evening was a memorable tribute to Congressman Augustus Hawkins and reflected the joint efforts of Urban League President John Mack and West Angeles Pastor Dr. Charles Black.

Howard McCreary, once Music Director at West Angeles, set the tone with a spirit-stirring performance of songs from his newly released debut album on the Good News label entitled, So Good.

But without a doubt, the high point of the evening came when Dionne Warwick sang and gave a new dimension of meaning to the Oscar-winning song, "Lord Lift Us Up Where We Belong."

Accompanied by Howard McCreary on piano and backed up by the widely acclaimed West Angeles choir (which has recorded with stars such as Stevie Wonder and Douglas Miller), Dionne charged the atmosphere with excitement.

When asked later if this concert appearance signalled an upcoming gospel album in the works, she replied, "No, not at this point, but I am sure that before it's all over, I'll have one."

Judging by the audience's overwhelming response to the deeply felt emotion of her powerful performance, we can only hope that the release of a Dionne Warwick gospel album becomes a reality in the very near future.

REVIEWS

He Is The Light

AL GREEN

Produced by WILLIE MITCHELL

A&M

There is no one quite like Al Green. His distinctive tenor voice with that raspy twang makes him one of a kind. In case you're one of those who loved Al Green "B. C." (Before Christ), you won't be disappointed with this album. "Power" and "Building Up," for example, are reminiscent of the best of his earlier secular hits of the 70s. To the delight of gospel lovers, however, the lyrical content is totally inspirational. The big hit of the album is Al's rendition of the Clark Sisters' "You Brought the Sunshine." Green's version gives it a new dimension and style and is sure to receive wide airplay on gospel and secular stations.

Celebration

SHIRLEY CAESAR

Produced by DAVE LEHMAN and SHIRLEY CAESAR WILLIAMS

REJOICE

Undaunted and unashamed to magnify the Lord musically in all of His glory and power, Shirley Caesar has produced a magnificent album. Celebration evokes a wide range of emotions - from crying to dancing in the Spirit and shouting for joy. "Who is He?" and "Celebration" are our favorite cuts. Don't overlook Shirley's touching tribute to Martin Luther King called simply, "Martin." With the big King holiday at hand, this cut will be appropriate for most formats.

Holy Rock

DWAYNE OMARR

Produced by DWAYNE OMARR

CRITIQUE

Musically, Rick James has nothing on this young man. While Rick represents the 'punk funk' genre, we now have the emergence of 'gospel funk.' This record provides a great alternative for young people and their parents who are concerned about the suggestive content of many funk records today. But there is one cut, "Baby, Baby, Baby," that is indeed controversial may cause some raised eyebrows in the gospel and church communities. A self-proclaimed 'street' gospel artist, Omarr insists that his own brand of contemporary Christian music is "rocking the world for good" and that 'gospel funk' is here to stay.

Just A Rehearsal

WILLIE NEAL JOHNSON AND THE GOSPEL KEYNOTES

MALACO

Southern gospel just doesn't get much better than this! Willie Neal Johnson's style of vocalizing - punctuated with encouraging phrases such as "Sing that song, boy, sing it," and "Go ahead, Robert" (referring to a tremendous falsetto in the group) enhances the 'down home' feeling and flavor of this album. Singing both new songs and old favorites, Willie is especially memorable on "I Claim Jesus," "If You Go With Jesus," "A Mighty Long Way" and "Just a Rehearsal." Willie Neal Johnson and the Keynotes do superbly what they do naturally - sing plain old-fashioned gospel music!

Airwaves

CUE NOTES

WTHP/98.3-Thomasville, NC, has added reggae to its format by acquiring the services of veteran showman, JO DREAD of Cinnamon Reggae Band fame. Dread, whose show is entitled, "Rasta Vibration" will be featured from 12midnight to 6am.

Ace sales exec, PENNY COVINGTON, has joined KJLH/Los Angeles as an Account Executive. Covington formerly held a similar position at crosstown competitor, KGFJ

BIG AL SCOTT, WDDO/Macon who happens to be all of 16 yrs. of age is one of the youngest D. J.'s in the country and fast carving out a niche for himself in the business. He is the son of

Scott Taylor a longtime personality with the station and as they say, "like father, like son."

PROMOTIONS

"The Gift of Giving" is the theme behind this year's Christmas promotion at KBLX/Berkeley where listeners have been asked to submit postcards to KBLX with the name and address of their favorite charity or non-profit organization. 75 postcards will be picked to receive "in-kind" gifts on behalf of that listener. An example might be a group of kids from a boy's club who would be treated to a football game. The listener gets a T-shirt and the knowledge that he or she has added a little sparkle to someone else's Christmas.

Last issue we ran a story on ROSHON, PD at WOWI/Norfolk, VA., however, we could not resist running this pix which promotes him as "The Uglyest D.J. in Tidewater." In these days of youth and good looks, this is truly an interesting departure!

Dance diva, SHANNON, recently paid a visit to WDKX/104 FM for an interview. Standing in front of the "Classy Chassis Van" is WDKX, Program Director Andre Marcel and Shannon.

GIL SCOTT-HERON
JOHANNESBURG
ARISTA ADP 9425

Gil, along with Brian Jackson and The Midnight Band, return on this timely re-issue of this classic political rap. Surely one of the most visionary forces in contemporary music, Gil poetically outlines the gist of the situation in South Africa with a hot beat raging behind him. Demos: Young adults, dancers.

PEABO BRYSON
LOVE ALWAYS FINDS A WAY
ELEKTRA ED 5103

Warm, romantic, and alluring, this beautiful ballad finds Peabo showing his best profile. Smooth keyboards back up the strong vocals, which deliver an undeniably positive message. Demos: Young adults, females.

STROKE

TAKE ME BACK
OMNI DMD 904

Stroke continues to put out fine material, this time a loping mid-tempo groover featuring excellent male lead vocals along with a backing chorus arrangement. Happy and hopeful, you can't resist the beat! Demos: Young adults, dancers, females.

THE VOICE
ONE YEAR LATE
ORPHAN OR 003

This hot cut cuts down those reactionary forces at the PMRC who would censor our artists' lyrics. It's definitely danceable, with drum programming and handclaps to underscore the tough rapping. This is '85, but censorship speaks of 1984, Orwell style. Demos: Young adults, teens, dancers.

FORCE M.D.'S
TENDER LOVE
TOMMY BOY TB876

Force M.D.'s are proving more and more that they are indeed a force to be reckoned with on the music scene, and this beautifully performed ballad should really go places for the youthful group. Certainly a must! Demos: Young adults, females.

MARY DAVIS
IF YOU WANT MY LOVE TO LAST
LIAISON LTW 8001

Wow, hold on to your socks! This smoker has double doses of funk and soul, as sensuous female vocals blast forth to the intense dance beat. Killer bass aptly backs up the sizzling singer, while hot production makes the mix work. Demos: Dancers, young adults.

ALBUMS

FULL COURT PRESS
OLIVE BRANCH ER 5453

Calvin is an incredibly gifted jazz guitarist, offering a sophisticated blend of soft edged material. Excellent all around musicianship highlights this excellent LP. Any cut is a good one here, try the up tempo version of "Bus Scene" or the more smoothly flowing "You Are All I Need." This guy is a newcomer to look out for! Demos: Jazz fans.

COLONEL ABRAMS
COLONEL ABRAHMS
MCA 5682

You've heard the hot cut, "Trapped," on the airwaves produced by Colonel and Richard Burgess. Well, there's more to come from this multi-faceted album. "The Truth," produced in collaboration with Cerrone, is a rollicking rocker, sure to see attention from astute PD's, using smoking electric guitar and up tempo rhythms. "Never Change" cuts the pace a bit with a languorous ballad showing off this artist's depth of talent. There's much more, from jamming funk to slow romantic interlude, so check it out! Demos: All.

Concert Review

JENNIFER HOLLIDAY AND BILL WITHERS
AT THE BEVERLY THEATRE

by Gary Jackson

The Beverly Theatre, long ago sold out, featured an interesting double billing of Geffen's Jennifer Holliday and Columbia's Bill Withers - with the unwelcome addition of some serious sound troubles. Unfortunately, Bill got the brunt of the technical glitches and he let the audience in on the problem. Opening with the vintage "Use Me," Bill kept signaling for the sound man to turn up the bass end. Seemingly, an attempt was made to correct the situation, but in vain. So about two-thirds into the set, Bill leaped off the stage and ran to the back of the theatre where the sound board was located, and corrected the problem himself.

That accomplished, Bill proceeded to get a little more into his set. Few of the songs needed introduction as Bill stuck primarily with tried and true hits such as "Ain't No Sunshine," "Lovely Day," "Lean On Me," and "Grandma's Hands." The few new tunes included "Sweet Lovers in the Night." His straightforward, unabashed delivery has not changed over the years as he held a monologue on religion and the fact that, as individuals, we do not choose our religious beliefs. Rather, they are given, no, forced on us at birth without our consent.

Okay, now for the music. Bill's band ably backed him up with conviction, allowing his warmth to come through despite the distracting technical problems. He ended his set with the Grammy-winning "Just the Two of Us," to the delight of fans eager to have him back as a performer - despite his low-key approach.

Jennifer Holliday, by contrast, is one dynamo of a vocalist. Her first L.A. concert in some time galvanized the audience as it gave back just as much as Jennifer gave. Opening with a cover of the Pointer Sister's "Jump," Jennifer deftly balanced uptempo songs, inflected with her inimitable gospel style, with affecting ballads.

Garbed in a black sequined dress with bat winged sleeves, Jennifer strolled through songs culled from her two albums, the latest being Say You Love Me. As a matter of fact, the title cut, a long-ignored D.J. Rogers composition, proved to be the show-stopper. It complemented Jennifer's style in that the gospel-like build up climaxed brilliantly. Church was never like this!

Perhaps the warmest moment of the evening came when Jennifer cleverly combined Stevie Wonder's "Love's In Need of Love" with Foreigner's "I Want to Know What Love Is," a song on which she sang background vocals. She had only a simple piano accompaniment, allowing her to stretch out with ample power and tenderness. That was Jennifer's theme throughout the evening - songs that spoke of love and warm relationships.

Jennifer gave credit where credit is due by giving each member of her band a shot at the spotlight in the form of a brief, yet tasteful solo. Her three-member female backup vocal group supplied nearly as much punch as Jennifer. Rightly so because Jennifer would have overshadowed anyone of lesser talent.

Jennifer ended the show in a predictable, but much anticipated manner, with the showstopping "And I Am Telling You I'm Not Going" from her Tony Award-winning show, "Dream Girls." It is a powerful, chilling and spine-tlingling song that, although she's probably sung it a zillion times, still packs a punch. The audience appropriately gave Jennifer a standing ovation, richly deserved for a job well done.

JAZZ EXPLOSION '86 BARNSTORMS U.S. DURING THE WINTER

Having reached some 47 cities last season with an eclectic line-up of jazz, "Jazz Explosion '86" is taking to the road again.

Billed as the only touring jazz show in the country, Jazz Explosion is to commence Dec. 27-29 in the Washington D.C., Baltimore, MD and Norfolk, VA area.

Artists like Phyllis Hyman, Ramsey Lewis, Lonnie Liston Smith, Stanley Turrentine, Freddie Hubbard, Tom Browne, Rodney Franklin and Roy Ayers form the core of the featured artists, which will change from city to city throughout the tour.

This is not a tour for small clubs or esoteric venues. This tour is booked into major venues in most markets, such as the Jan. 17-18 date in Los Angeles at the Universal Amphitheatre and Beverly Theatre.

For additional information, call Oscar Cohen, Associated Booking, (212) 874-2400.

Apparently the Soviets like a bit of jazz while sipping their Stolchinaya vodka.

GRP Records recently reported that Diane Schuur's "Deedles" is being ordered by the U.S.S.R.

The label's Finnish licensee, Polarvox, ordered 12,500 copies of the LP at the request of Soviet cultural officials. It is apparently the first installment of 50,000 units requested by the U.S.S.R.

The Seattle-based singer, who is about to release her new GRP LP, "Schuur Thing," said, "I'd like to be a representative of peace and goodwill."

"Music is the one media (sic) we have for that," Schuur added.

AND NOW THE LPS: The repackaging and re-pricing of jazz product from the vaults of Atlantic Records, the "Atlantic Jazzlore" series, is much like that repackaged catalog series merchandised by CBS Records during the early '80s.

The generic graphics and range of material is similar, but Atlantic Jazzlore, in many cases, includes the original liner notes.

One of the most alluring of these releases is "Countdown" by saxophone legend John Coltrane.

The title track, "Naima," "Like Sonny," and "Giant Steps" will make most collectors happy.

This package illustrates the wide, sweeping impact Coltrane had on the lexicon of jazz as we know it.

Coltrane is joined by a variety of artists on this wax, which permits the different colors of his emotional range to shine through. Four pianists - Cedar Walton, the underrated Tommy Flanagan, Wynton Kelly and McCoy Tyner - provide the cornerstones for the varied tonal color, while Paul Chambers, featured on three of the recording dates here, highlights the consistent rhythmic groove omnipresent throughout.

Produced by Atlantic chieftain Nesuhi Ertegun, "Countdown" is an example of Coltrane's visionary exploration during the 1959-60 period.

If the Coltrane package exemplifies the variety of one jazz artist, the entire Atlantic Jazzlore series embodies the variety of this idiom.

Some of the artists and titles included are: Tony Fruscella; "Backlash" by Freddie Hubbard; "That Toddlin' Town: Chicago Jazz Revisted," by Eddie Condon; Milt Jackson and Coleman Hawkins collaborating on "Bean Bags" and Ray Charles on "The Genius After Hours."

Members of Milestone recording trio Azymuth recently stopped in at Los Angeles station KUTE-FM during the Brazilian group's gig at nearby Concerts By The Sea, which was co-promoted by the station. The show was part of the trio's American tour in support of its current LP, "Spectrum," which has gained favorable airplay at KUTE. Shown (l-r): Alex Malheiros and Ivan Conti of Azymuth; Lawrence Tanner, KUTE program director; Jose Roberto Betrami of the group; and KUTE air personality Talaya Trigueros.

BRE has been saying for over ten years now that Michael Jackson mentor James Brown was a force not to be overlooked. The Scotti Brothers and CBS Records seem to have realized this and have released a hot new single on him which comes from the Rocky IV soundtrack. James was flown out to Hollywood for the grand Hollywood premiere opening of the movie with "Rocky" Stallone.

Luther Van Dross, shown above congratulating Tina Turner on her quadruple platinum album, Private Dancer, is really a testament to his new diet. Looking slim and svelte, the multi-talented artist is causing quite a stir with his new shape. (Jane Fonda, watch out!) He also states that he feels healthier than ever and is busy finishing his new album in between appearances like his guest shot on the Patti LaBelle special. LET IT BE KNOWN THAT THE RUMORS ABOUT LUTHER'S HEALTH AND CONDITION ARE TOTALLY UNFOUNDED. BRE was besieged during Thanksgiving week with calls from all across the country regarding Luther's health. It seems that with the recent AIDS alarms, becoming slim carries all sorts of connotations, especially for men.

Chicago's Refrigerator Man is taking off - and not only in the NFL. Fred Rector is hot to trot with a Rick Dees and Augie Johnson single about him and the Fat Boys appeared at a recent Monday Night Football game with Chicago doing a take-off on Refrigerator Man. Who else could have done better!

CBS is still releasing Marvin Gaye material thanks to the prescience of whiz Larkin Arnold, and the newest is supposed to be the best yet.

The television show "Comedy Tonight" featured three human beat boxes on their December 3 broadcast. Tommy Boy recording artist Mix Machine Wise, Beat Rocker Errol Holloman (winner of New Music Seminar's beat box contest), and Eugene Eddy (finalist in Tommy Boy Funk Finder's Talent Auditions) appeared with show guest Frank Zappa.

MCA recently saluted Stephanie Mills at the Time-Life Building in NYC on her new MCA release destined for great heights.

Lee Michaels is visiting LA for various meetings.

Likewise, Ruben Rodriguez seems to be enjoying LA sunshine again as he checks into the Sheraton Premiere Hotel for more meetings regarding his rumoured newly formed independent promotion company.

Tabu Records president owner Clarence Avant and wife journeyed to Maui for the wedding of Terry Lewis of production team of Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis (producers of SOS Band and Alexander O'Neal).

Congratulations also to Sari Becker, Manhattan Records publicist.

Miami based Music Specialists invaded Southern California with a successful tour with artists Trinere and Freestyle.

BRE's condolences to James Brown on the recent death of his brother in an auto accident and to EPA Promotion's Maurice Warfield on the passing of his mother-in-law.

Prophet's Profile

by Gary Jackson

ARIES

Socialize with a friend or two. You'll learn something from them in your travels. Look for a meeting of the minds and take advantage of someone's generosity.

TAURUS

The possibility of a large expenditure may drain you of capital for the upcoming holiday season. Make sure you have an extra stash of bucks in reserve.

GEMINI

Tying the wedding knot may be in your plans in the near future. If not a wedding, then the chances are that you will meet that special someone soon.

CANCER

Your home is the center of activity during the holiday season. Get out and drum up business for funds to take that long-needed vacation down the line.

LEO

Now's the time to extract a favor from somebody who owes you one. The results can benefit you and those who've backed you from the beginning.

VIRGO

Don't confuse matters by being overly technical. You'll be in a frame of mind that can be very persuasive, provided you know what you're talking about.

LIBRA

If you've lived up to your reputation, then the work you've done will begin to show signs of reaping benefits that will last a long time.

SCORPIO

Your personal magnetism allows you to get what you want out of life. Beware of accidents and incidents that can cause potential trouble for you.

SAGITTARIUS

Artistic endeavors prove to be a strong money-making proposition. Be serious about yourself and you will find the secret to getting ahead.

CAPRICORN

Perhaps you've been having bouts with insomnia. Think things out during working hours and leave the evening for relaxing with your loved ones.

AQUARIUS

You are busier than normal these days. Don't make the mistake of spreading yourself too thinly. Make your time worth something - spend 'quality time.'

PISCES

The week starts with you at the center of attention. Don't let secrets slip out because they may come back to haunt you in a big way. This is something you can't afford right now.

EARNEST JAMES/WCIN: AIRWAVE IDEALIST

Born on December 18, 1944, Earnest James is a Sagittarian with his Moon placed in the broadcaster's sign of Aquarius. Such a combination allows Earnest a chance to express his views in the most idealistic, yet effective manner. Venus conjoins his Moon, signalling that Earnest is somewhat of an artist himself.

Mercury is in the cautious sign of Capricorn, a placement that keeps Earnest grounded to the earth and makes him very practical and patient with his thoughts. It opposes Saturn in Cancer, making him all that much more wary of people who have not yet earned his trust. But once Earnest gives his trust, he is your friend to the ends of the earth.

Volatile and flamboyant Mars is in Earnest's own sign of Sagittarius, lending a power of persuasion that assists in getting Earnest what he wants, and getting his point clearly across. Mars slightly squares Jupiter in Virgo. Judging from that aspect, Earnest needs to spend more time than normal mapping out a plan and making sure that the mistakes have been carefully gleaned from his master plan.

With equally volatile Uranus in Gemini, there's no doubt that Earnest was destined to be in radio. This placement also signals that Earnest is a non-stop talker, eager to discuss anything from politics to the weather.

Owning a radio station, as this veteran broadcaster does, means that he is very community-minded. If something is wrong in his community, Earnest will pull out all his considerable resources to see that WCIN is in the forefront of responsive activities.
