Exclusive Arb Tally: Upper Demos Help Country Reverse Direction

by Sean Ross

Top 40 radio had its best Arbitron book in five years. Country, after a particularly harsh winter, nudged forward. And the usually durable AC format seemed to suffer at the hands of both, as well as the R&B oldies format, which continued to grow.

Album rock radio, unusually strong in the winter, was well below its usual level this spring, but modern rock rebounded, and classic rock really rocked. And with its core artists on prominent display at other formats, Spanish-language radio had its best book ever.

Those are the highlights of Airplay Monitor and Billboard's exclusive national format tally of the spring '99 Arbitrons in the ratings service's 94 continuous-measurement markets. Billboard took its first look at national ratings in spring 1989. At that time, AC was the No. 1 format nationally, with a 17.2 share, followed by top 40 (15.9), news/talk (11.7), country (9.4), album rock (9.0), and R&B (7.6).

A decade later, no format controls 17 shares, although N/T got pretty close as recently as six months ago,

Welcome To The Regional CRS

Welcome to Mobile, Ala., and the regional Country Radio Seminar-Gulf Coast. To help guide your radio-listening choices while you're in town, Airplay Monitor has compiled a profile of Mobile's country choices (page 6). Also in this is sue is a clip-andsave guide to our when it posted a 16.8. N/T has been the perennial leader for several years, and remains so this time, although post-Monicagate, its numbers have returned to more normal levels. It was down 16.1-15.9 from winter to spring and down from a 16.1 in spring '98. It's the format's lowest number since summer '97. The N/T numbers include sports-talk stations, which, measured separately, would account for a N/Γ is followed by AC (14.5-13.9); R&B (12.4-12.7); top 40 (9.2-9.8); country (9.3-9.4); Spanish (6.5-6.7), which overtakes album rock (7.5-6.6); oldies (5.5-5.8); classic rock (4.2-4.7); modern rock (3.8-4.1); adult stan-dards (2.9-2.9); jazz (2.9-2.8); religious (2.2-2.4); and classical (2.2-1.6).

OLDER DEMOS, ARTISTS PROPEL COUNTRY FORWARD

Country radio is still at roughly its fall '89 level, meaning it's in about the same place it was before Garth Brooks, Clint Black, and the gang kicked things into high gear, although some format proponents allege that because of changes in the Arbitron landscape, even that same 12-plus number represents growth for the format from over a decade ago. And it is nudging forward after nine months of

Country continues to decline among teens (4.8-4.5) and in the 18-34 demo (8.4-8.2), two demos that most country PDs have long ceded to top 40. It was up, however, in 25-54 (9.5-9.7) and 35-64 (10.6-10.9). It's the first time the format has been up in 35-64 since fall '95, right around the time that many stations began filtering some older gold titles back into their

What made the difference? Spring is traditionally a heavy marketing book for the format (although that's the case for AC too). It's also significant that Kenny Rogers and George Jones appeared on the scene with current hits for the first time in years, suggesting Continued on page 8

A Country Seminar Within Radio Seminar

While the larger Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar takes place Oct. 7-9 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, a separate "seminar within a seminar" agenda is planned for country attendees Oct. 9. The country agenda will include a special country keynote speaker, three country-specific sessions, artist performances, and meals, all designed to keep the country attendees together and the discussion flowing throughout the day. The day will culminate with the gala Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards.

As always, our panel topics will focus on the most relevant current issues facing the country radio and record industries. The more intimate "seminar within a seminar" setting will provide a forum for real conversation, honest answers, and valuable solutions.

"Who's On First, What's On Middays" will focus on syndicated dayparts and programming the newer technologies, such as so-called virtual radio. The panel will discuss ways to work with, and compete against, these new radio tools, which can both complement and compete with local programming.

"The True Cost Of Airplay" is a session

"The True Cost Of Airplay" is a session geared toward both country labels and stations. It will focus on the "cost per station" labels pay to set up each new single and where and how the money is spent. Amazingly, labels say that even in a universe of fewer reporting stations, the average cost of getting airplay on each new single has more than doubled, from $1,000-$2,000 per station to $3,000-$5,000 apiece, thanks to radio tours, showcases, radio advertising, and other nontraditional revenue programs created by broadcast groups.

The seminar within a seminar will close

The seminar within a seminar will close with the always-popular country-format focus group, a free-form rap session titled "Is Your Gut Still Awake?" As the name suggests, this session will touch on call-out research and charts, as well as on other programming topics, such as singles sticking around longer as a result of monitored airplay and labels slowing down release schedules from the usual three or four singles per album to two, a move that may result in new business models for record companies in 2000.

Registration for the seminar is complimentary for those nominated for Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards and $99 for all other radio registrants. Contact Michele Quigley at 212-536-5002 for registration info. The Fontainebleau can be reached at 305-538-2000. For discount air fares, call 800-433-1790 and refer to index No. 11769.

We Ask Again: Is Today's Country Still Country?

As country music struggles to redefine itself, times have never been tougher for PDs striving to strike a musical balance on their stations. With the shopping cart top-heavy with teen artists, brimming with female acts of all descriptions, and the dominant style being candy-coated, non-offensive AC and over-the-top pop, who's watching the store for listeners who aren't 18-to 44-year-old women? Equally troubling are growing numbers of stations that aren't even testing songs with male listeners at all.

Of the 75 titles on this issue's Country Airplay chart, 17 songs are slow ballads. Of those 17, at least seven are devoid of anything that would label them as unmistakably country records. In the uptempo column, 11 songs on the chart are not distinctly country-sounding.

An astounding 11 titles on the chart represent songs by new and veteran artists that are seemingly aimed at teens. More than half of those songs could easily fit most top 40 station plaulists

Only about four or five songs on the chart have any lyrical substance that doesn't deal primarily with happy or sad love. Where are the workingman's anthems and songs of social relevance? No need to count them, there's only one—Alan Jackson's "Little Man."

As always, Music Row has a lot in the pipeline, and a great amount of it is compelling and diverse. For the moment, however, the format's best-selling star, Garth Brooks, has taken a hiatus to work on and promote a pop/rock project and has given country stations a thoroughly AC ballad. The one true country legend on the chart, George Jones, is still fighting for airplay despite a Country Music Assn. Award nomination for single of the year and, for whatever reason, won't be performing it at the CMA Awards.

Perhaps, just as former President Ronald Reagan publicly bellowed the stern order, "Mr. Gorbachev, tear down that wall," country music's definitive cornerstones are poised to begin crumbling. I've posed the question before in this column, and I'll ask it again—when the majority of mainstream country music stops sounding like country music, shouldn't we give it another name?

STILL AMAZED: Admit it. Most of us were predicting an upset at the top of our Country Airplay chart this issue that would have pushed Lonestar's "Amazed" (BNA) down from No. 1 after seven weeks there. However, "Amazed" finishes atop the detection and audience charts again this week.

The battle for No. 1 next issue heats up with Chely Wright's "Single White Female" (MCA Nashville) and Kenny Chesney's "You Had Me From Hello" (BNA) poised to replace Lonestar's song. Wright's track gains 62 detections to move 4-3 while Chesney gains 258 plays to jump 6-4.

Reid Reker Joins KYNG For VP/GM Duties

WCKG Chicago PD Reid Reker joins KYNG (Young Country) Dallas as VP/GM, replacing Scott Savage.

WHWK Binghamton, N.Y., GM Chuck Jewell is named GM for Citadel's Harrisburg, Pa., cluster, including WRKZ (Cat Country 106.7), replacing Nancy Tulli, who exits. Also, KRST/KTBL Albuquerque, N.M., GM Paul Ellis is named GM of Citadel's Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, Pa., cluster, including country WCTP/WCTP and classic country WEMR-AM. He replaces Regina Todd, now director of sales.

Movie Promotions Edge Out School, NFL

Movies are back at the top of the Topical Barometer this week, edging out back-to-school events, now that many schools are in session. Also back in session is the NFL. Radio is talking about the pre-season matchups, as well as the MTV Music Awards, which debuts this week at No. 8 on the list.

Top 40 WFLZ Tampa, Fla., is musing about the new Sharon Stone movie, "The Muse," by giving away a trip to L.A. with the Schmooze the Muse promotion. Winners get to attend the premiere and enjoy dinner at the star-studded Spago restaurant. "Listeners can win prize packs on the Web, and then we'll have a jock at a mall event giving contestants the chance to give us their best pitch line to 'The Muse,' which will be captured on video by a crew from E! Entertainment Television," according a bemused

Also hitting a local mall is AC KESZ Phoenix, for its back-to-school party. "We've teamed up with all of our local sports outlets-the Mercury, Suns, Rattlers, D-Backs, and Coyotes—Block buster Video, and a local TV station to throw a huge fiesta for students before they get into the school year," says a studious Vicki Fiorelli.

The family that endures the longest without driving each other nuts will get to drive home in the new car and become WMGK's Mom of the Millennium. Of course, the losers' kids will be put up for adoption.

• Cash contesting. What else can you do to cultivate the greed of your listeners in an entertaining fashion? Modern rock KEDJ (the Edge) Phoenix has been staging Free Money Fridays since January. "We've been giving out free money to the first 106 cars to show up with an Edge rear-window sticker on their car at an announced location," cashier Jane Monzures says. "People plug 1063 into our ATM and then receive money from our live cash cow, whose name is Blue. While waiting in line, people receive samplings from area clients and retailers. People can win anywhere from $5 to $1,000 Top 40 WWXM (Mix 97.7) Myrtle Beach, S.C., PD Scrap Jackson is dying to tell us about Crash and Turn . . . Into a Millionaire. "We couldn't afford a big million-dollar birthday game, but afternoon jock Kosmo had $20 to spare, so he bought a million-dollar flight-crash policy before he flew to Minnesota for vacation. To the winning listener's disappointment, Kosmo survived.

• The dating game. The great punk poet laureate Osterberg once said that love is like hypnotizing chickens, which hardly explains the exploits of country KYGO Denver and modern adult KMXB (Mix 94.7) Las Vegas, which both do variations of Win a Guy/Girl Wednesday. At KYGO, Garret "Living" Doll says singles come into the studio to tell listeners about themselves and what they are looking for. Then interested listeners call in to answer questions posed by the in-studio guest. The guest chooses a listener. They both come in the next day, meet on-air. and are treated to a dinner and movie. At KMXB, the guest asks questions to three members of the opposite sex, and the listeners choose the winner. "The follow-up is the best part, when [morning duo] Mark and Mercedes have the guests back to talk about the dates," says matchmaker Jennifer Markham-Wynn. "Think Chuck Woolery . . . It's great water-cooler talk around offices!" • Elsewhere, top 40 WPXY Rochester, N.Y., has a Hit Squad that visits offices, delivering prizes. "Each week, one office that signs up at the Hit Squad page on our Web site wins an office delivery by a jock who brings along a huge gift basket with Diet Coke, food, and movie passes for the entire office," says recently departed promo ace Tristano Korlou. · Country WWKA (K92) Orlando, Fla., is doing its own Truck Show, complete with mud runs, sled pulls, "show and shine" area, car crushing, tug of war, etc. "It's a great lifestyle event; we produce and sell sponsor-ships," says Dave Demer, while selling collision insurance.

• Rhythmic top 40 KQBT (the Beat) Austin, Texas, celebrates The Last Summer of the Century with customized swag prizes. "We switched to 'Last Summer' tank tops, which are in high demand, as well as Frisbees, Koozies. name it, we have it tied up," says Jody Bailey.

Welcome To CRS-Gulf Coast: Plenty Of Country Choices In Mobile, Ala.

by Phyllis Stark

Welcome to Mobile, Ala., and the regional Country Radio Seminar-Gulf Coast. You'll have plenty of radio-listening choices while you're in town. Arbitron's No. 86-ranked market had 22 stations with at least a 1 share in the spring Arbitron book, four of which are country. Although Mobile is about one-third African-American, the four country choices accounted for a combined 16.3 shares of 12-plus listening in the spring book. All four are run by major players, AMFM and Clear Channel, which have two each.

Bill Black, PD of market leader WKSJ, calls Mobile a very professional-sounding radio market, despite its size. "There are a lot of radio dollars up for grabs in this market," he says. The more money, the more professional you have to be to get the lion's share of that."

Clear Channel owns mainstream country WKSJ (94.9 MHz) and classic country WDWG (Classic Country 104 at 104.9 MHz). WKSI was the market's top station in the spring book, with a 9.0-9.4 jump, and was also No. 1 in the 25-54 demo. WDWG took ninth place and remained steady, with a 4.0 share 12-plus.

The AMFM stations come from other cities but can be heard and generate shares in Mobile. WXBM (102.7 MHz), based in Pensacola, Fla., about 60 miles away, was ranked No. 15 in the Mobile market, off 4.0-1.9, although it is the top-ranked station in the twice-yearly Pensacola book, with a 12.5 share. (WKS] is No. 10 in Pensacola, with a 3.3 share.)

But Black and WXBM PD Lynn West say they do not target each other's markets. "Both stations tend to take care of their own backyard," says Black.

West says that while Mobile and Pensacola are only 60 miles apart, Mobile is "basically a different world. Mobile is more of a cosmopolitan city. Not that we're backward hereit's just different. People in Pensacola are not that concerned with what goes on in Mobile and vice versa. We don't stick our toe in Mo-

Also rim-shotting the market is AMFM's WKNN (K99, located at 99.1 MHz), which primarily serves the Mississippi markets of Biloxi/ Gulfport and Pascagoula. That station had a 1 share in Mobile in the spring book, tying for the market's No. 21 position.

Here's what you can expect to hear when you tune in the top three country outlets.

WKSJ: FLEXIBLE WITH NEW AND OLD

WKSJ takes the 12-in-a-row position outside of morning drive. After 9 a.m., there are 14 songs and two stop sets an hour. Black plays about 35 currents, and the music mix is 60% current and recurrent and 40% gold. (See sample hour on this page.)
Black says the WKSJ audience is unusual in that it likes both old and new country music and artists about equally. "We play the Sherrié Austins and the Shane Minors, but when I play [George Jones'] The Grand Tour,' it gets as good a response as something brand new on the charts. My audience is just real flexible when it comes to new and old.

The WKSJ gold library generally dates back to about 1988, with the exception of "anything Alabama ever released," which, for obvious reasons, works particularly well in the state. Black calls the band his "safety net cially well in Mobile. Other than that, he says, we are pretty typical in our musical taste. I look at the SoundScan [figures] every week' and find that the top-selling songs in the country are also the top sellers in Mobile.

Black describes WXBM, his chief mainstream competitor, as being "a little tighter" and "really a jukebox after mornings. I don't really hear any personality outside of morning drive." He considers WKSJ "a little more personality-oriented."

In the spring book, WKS | ran the Filmhouse million-dollar birthday game, which includes a heavy TV schedule, and as a result, Black says, "we saw a great increase in cume' that "blasted [WXBM] out of the market."

WKSJ, which, like sister WDWG, is consulted by Craig Scott, runs "After MidNite With Blair Garner" in overnights. Most of the regular programming features are crammed into the night show, including a top seven countthe night show, including a top seven count-down at 7 p.m., a song shootout at 8 p.m., and a "cryin', lovin', and leavin' "show 8 p.m.-mid-night. During Black's midday show, he runs the "All Request Country Cafe" at noon. Black describes WKSJ as "a heavily pro-duced radio station" with "a lot of positioning elements." And while he says "the music comes first, that does not disallow the announcers."

The station also relies on a strong news and weather position, particularly during hurricane season, when, Black says, "we have a history of being the station to turn to." Clear Channel's radio cluster and two TV stations in the market pool their resources to form the Gulf Coast Storm Alert Network in emergen-

WKS signed on as a country station in the '70s, giving it "a real heritage," according to Black, who says, "We do everything we can to thrive off that image.

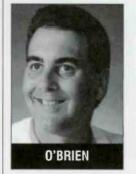

Black, an Alabama native, has programmed WKSJ for four years and has worked there since 1992, following a stint as PD of K99.

TEACHING A NEW DAWG OLD HITS

Prior to the change to classic country almost exactly a year ago, WDWG had been doing what Black describes as a "real hot, uptempo presentation with a very tight current list." But current WDWG PD/morning man Scott O'Brien says, "The radio station, as it was, was ineffective. WKSJ was the heritage station here. Trying to play a lot of the same stuff seemed fruitless and was not paying off."

But, O'Brien adds, "because nobody else was playing Jones and Conway and Tammy Wynette," the station decided to try that route With the help of consultant Craig Scott, the station put together a playlist of about 800 songs, primarily from the '70s and '80s, with a "pretty good collection of songs from the '60s; a smattering of songs from the '50s" by artists like Elvis Presley, Ferlin Husky, and Stonewall Jackson; and "a pretty good amount of stuff from the early and mid-'90s," with almost nothing more recent than 1996. (See sample hour, this page.)

But what became Classic Country 104 got off to a rocky start. It launched in September '98 at the 100,000-watt 104.1 frequency, then flipped with R&B WYOK to a less-powerful 104.9 dial position, licensed to Moss Point, Miss., just after New Year's Day of this year.

O'Brien says, "When we inherited 104.9, we inherited a whole bunch of problems. The transmitter was very old and poorly maintained, and we had some awful signal problems. In spite of all that, we managed to have halfway decent numbers.'

Since then, O'Brien says, "our management acquired a new transmitter, and we made all the necessary repairs at the transmitter site.'

The station uses the positioners "all country classics all the time" and "country music's greatest hits from the past five decades." And O'Brien says, "Our job now is to complement O'Brien says, "We play all the traditional artists with the exception of Hank Williams, Ernest Tubb, Hank Snow, and Kitty Wells, because their music does not blend in very well with the rest of the stuff we play. It is obviously dated" in terms of production. The station will play those artists on occasion as part of a special feature such as a trivia contest.

O'Brien describes WDWG as "very music-intensive. Not fast-paced, but not sleepy either. It's a station that has a lot of respect for the music we play, which still has a lot of substance. That is what were banking on, the substance of the music." The station does very little marketing or contesting other than giving away a few CDs now and then. "There's not a lot of whistles and bells," says O'Brien. "We let the music speak for itself, and I think it speaks very well.

WDWG features a lot of NASCAR programming and airs University of Alabama football and basketball games. "In between that, we play a little country music," says O'Brien.

Prior to transferring over to WDWG when it changed format, O'Brien had been part of the WKS air staff for 13 years.

PLAYING 'TODAY'S BEST AND MOST COUNTRY

WXBM plays about 42 currents, and, like WKSJ, is 60% current/recurrent and 40% gold. While most of the gold dates back only to the early '90s, West says that a few titles dip back as far as the mid-'80s. (See sample hour, this

She admits that artists who have "second homes or family" on the Gulf Coast, such as Aaron Tippin and John Anderson, get a slight advantage on her playlist.

WEST

Although Black describes WXBM as tighter and faster on new music than his own station, West disagrees. "Musically, we're pretty close" to WKSJ, she says. "I don't think one city is more progressive than the other. It varies week by week. Sometimes I see [Black] on things sooner than me, and sometimes I'm first."

For the spring book, WXBM did some telemarketing and gave away fly-away trips every week in May. For visibility, the station does at least three remotes every week.

WXBM bests WKS] in the heritage department. It signed on as a country station in 1964 and has never changed format. As a result, West says, "people, even if they don't listen, they know the station."

West has been programming WXBM since 1995 and hosts afternoon drive. Phil Hunt of Rusty Walker Programming consults.

Exclusive Arb Tally: Upper Demos Help Country Reverse Direction

that contrary to popular belief, today's audiences are more interested in current titles from older country artists than in their gold. And country PDs seemingly responded to many pleas at the Country Radio Seminar and elsewhere to slow the pace at which they run titles in and out of their current rotations, although that process started long before the spring.

One more thought: Country PDs may not be sure whether it's good to have Shania Twain and Faith Hill (and now Brooks and Martina McBride) on top 40 radio, but Spanish-language radio has managed its best book ever, even while sharing Ricky Martin and Enrique Iglesias with top 40. Spanish radio had its biggest boost in 18-34 (7.9-8.4) but was also up in 25-54 and 35-64 to smaller degrees.

AC: HIT FROM ALL SIDES

AC radio, whose numbers here also include adult top 40s and soft ACs, has never been under a 14.4 share in the 10-year history of the national Arbitrons, so its decline in the spring, a book when the format is usually heavily marketed, is significant. While the format is flat among teens, it's off by .6-.7 in all other demos. It's down by a share from spring '09.

After a period of early-/mid-'90s decline, when the rise of country meant that there were no longer always four AC stations in a market, AC stabilized, moving back and forth in the 14-share range but rarely deviating from that. This book, it seems apparent that it was hit at the lower end by the resurgence of mainstream top 40 and the relative stability of country (whose best books seemed to come at AC's expense in certain markets). It also appears to be AC radio that's taking the biggest hit from the rise of R&B oldies stations this spring, particularly those with a general-market lean, since traditional oldies stations were up.

Then there's the modern adult format. In 1996-98, its rise probably helped grow the AC format and keep it vital in the 18-34 demo. But over the past six months, modern adult stations have been fleeing the format, and the evidence is that the listeners they exile are going to top 40 or modern rock, not to other ACs. AC radio's biggest decline, albeit by a tenth of a share, was in 18-34.

TOP 40 GETS ITS GAME ON

Top 40 posted its best numbers since spring '94. If it's able to build even slightly on those numbers next time, it'll be the first time the format has seen double digits since 1992. Our top 40 number includes both mainstream and rhythmic stations, of which 158 made an Arbitron book in the markets surveyed this spring vs. only 143 during the winter. If rhythmic top 40 were broken out separately, it would represent a 3 share.

Top 40 was up in all demos: teens (34.6-35.1), 18-34 (13.9-14.8), 25-54 (7.4-8.0), and 35-64 (4.6-5.0). The format also posted its biggest teen number in four years, although top 40's teen composition is only 23%, vs. 28% for modern rock. Top 40's 18-34 gain represents a larger jump than last fall, when the format took a decidedly harder turn and became very 18-24-conscious (with more of the Offspring and Eve 6 and considerably fewer teen acts). This spring, despite oft-stated concerns that young adults would flee the Backstreet Boys in search of "Nookie," 18-34 was top 40's biggest growth cell.

R&B: ADULT FORMATS UP, MAINSTREAM DOWN

Our combined R&B number includes adult R&B stations (which, separately, would be up 2.8-3.3) and the fast-growing R&B oldies format, which, despite a down book for flagship stations in New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles, was up 2.2-2.6 on the strength of multiple new station entrants. Mainstream R&B, measured by itself, would be off sharply, down 7.4-6.8.

Some of that probably represents losses in the top two markets, which weigh heavily into our national numbers, where powerhouses WQHT New York and KKBT L.A. were both down. Some of it may represent listening that's been redistributed to the R&B oldies format. Some of it also may represent the loss of some P2 or P3 listening to top 40 stations that either didn't exist in many markets until recently or played negligible amounts of R&B music.

As for R&B oldies, it scored a 3.2 share in the 25-54 demo and a 3.3 share in 35-64—not surprising for a format whose bulge has usually been in the 35-44 cell. As we noted during the winter book, the format's success doesn't seem to be coming at the expense of pop oldies stations, which rebounded nicely this time and were up half a share in 25-54, the demo that "Jammin' oldies" stations were expecting to decimate. Pop oldies stations were probably helped by a minresurgence of '70s oldies stations, which, along with the just-born '80s gold format, are helping grow the category.

ROCK WORLD ROCKED

For a format that doesn't usually move up and down in large increments, there were significant changes in the rock landscape this spring. Album rock, which had a nice winter boost (7.1-7.5), lost it and more this time. Classic rock, which didn't seem to be getting much help from the new "classic rock that really rocks" stations in the winter, rebounded (4.5-4.2-4.7). And modern rock stations had their best showing since fall '97. Modern's current 4.1 share puts it within striking distance of its best-ever 4.4 share 12-plus.

Modern rock hasn't lost a lot of audience to the modern adult format over the past few years, but it has lost enough to make the difference between the three- and four-share range. Some of those listeners are apparently coming back now.

coming back now. In addition, the harder-rocking modern format seems to be reclaiming some of its shared artists from active rock radio (although the latter is hardly surrendering them gladly).

The spring Arbitrons also represent the first time we've done a separate number for triple-A stations. Broken out from the album rock number, they'd represent a l share of radio listening. Triple-A's biggest demographic bulge is in the 25-54 range, where it posts a 1.4. It has a 1.2 18-34 and a 1.1 35-64

Spreading The Word

DreamWorks artist Mac McAnally spread the word about his new album, "Word Of Mouth," with an appearance on AMFM's syndicated Bob and Tom radio show, where he performed several songs live on the air. Pictured, from left, are Bob Kevoian, McAnally, and Tom Griswold.

AMFM Spins Four To New Northwest

The largest radio company is getting a little bit smaller. AMFM is spinning four stations in Tri-Cities, Wash., to New Northwest Broadcasters for $4 million. NNB will acquire country KIOK, classic rock KEGX, adult standards KALE, and news/talk KTCR; all four were picked up by AMFM when it bought Triathlon Broadcasting last winter. AMFM CEO Jimmy de Castro says AMFM is looking at other "strategic swaps, acquisitions, or divestitures."

Entercom Communications has increased the amount it is paying for Sinclair Broadcast Group's raclio holdings to $824.5 million, to include an additional $3 million for N/Ts WORD/WYRD and WSPA Greenville, S.C. The FCC and DO] must still give the deal their blessings.

Spanish Broadcasting System, the secondlargest Spanish-language radio group, is filing a $300 million IPO. CEO Raul Alarcon Jr. says its strategy is to expand in its existing markets and into others with large Hispanic populations.

CAPITOL

With Congress in recess, Washington, D.C., all but shuts down in August. One item from the FCC this week: It is giving Fort Myers Broadcasting, which owns AC WINK-FM, N/T WINK, and WINK-TV Fort Myers, Fla., a permanent waiver to its one-to-a-market rule. The trio has been run by the McBride family since 1964.

NEW MEDIA: WEB RADIO ON FM?

In what may be yet another threat to radio, new technology has hit the market that will help overcome some of the sound-quality limitations of Internet streaming. A product called Radio Webcaster is an FM transmitter that connects to a computer sound card and allows the computer to transmit any audio signal to a standard FM radio. According to the sales pitch, "It's like having your very own private radio station."

CBS buy a 38% equity stake in jobs.com, an online recruitment site. Jobs.com will receive $62 million in advertising over the next five years in CBS-owned media. "The newspaper business has long been the sole recipient of the $17 billion classifieds advertising market. As that revenue is increasingly ceded to the [Net], we believe that jobs.com is well-positioned to benefit from the transition," says CEO Mel Karmazin. CBS is still considering a dedicated tracking stock for its Net holdings.

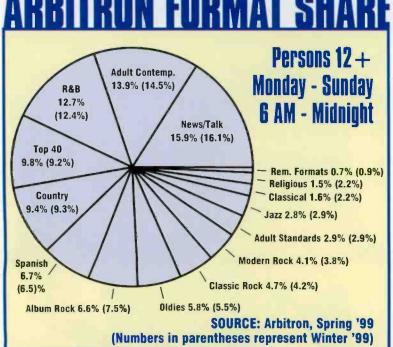

In its most recent quarterly report, Internet Advertising Bureau shows Web sites pulled in $693 million in ad revenue in the first three months of '99, nearly doubling the $351 million seen in the same period of '98. IAB chairman Rich LeFurgy says the online ad industry is on track to cross the $3 billion mark this year. Consumer-related advertising took the biggest share of the pie at 27%, financial services accounted for 21%, and computing-related ads took 20%.

CD Radio CFO Andrew Greenebaum exits at the end of the month to be CFO of eCompanies, an L.A.-based incubator of Net companies.

SALES

Clear Channel is buying five stations in Parkersburg, W.Va., for $11.5 million: country WNUS, top 40 WRVB, oldies WDMX, and N/T WLTP from Bennco Inc. and classic rock WRZZ from Impact Radio.

Country WPWC Dumfries, Va., has been sold by Happy Broadcasting Co. to L.A.-based JMK Communications for $900,000. Neither company owns any other stations. Happy Broadcasting president "Cousin Ray" Woolfenden, a recent inductee into the Country DJ Hall of Fame who has been owner/operator and air personality at the station for 38 years, is retiring.

Country's 'Big Seven' Core Acts Challenged By New Kids At Radio

by Phyllis Stark

Five years ago, a handful of acts were widely considered to be country's core artists, often referred to as "the big seven": George Strait, Garth Brooks, Reba McEntire, Alan Jack-son, Vince Gill, Brooks & Dunn, and Alabama. Many programmers also included Clint Black, Randy Travis, the Judds/Wynonna, and Travis Tritt on that list

Much has changed in five years. Programmers surveyed by Country Airplay Monitor still cite some of the above as today's core artists, most notably Strait, Brooks, Jackson, Brooks & Dunn, and Alabama, but others have been replaced on the list by Shania Twain, Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, and Trisha Yearwood. Many programmers also include on their list of core acts Martina McBride and Dixie Chicks-who WUSY (US101) Chattanooga, Tenn., PD Chris Huff says made the list almost "overnight." And at least one programmer, KDRK Spokane, Wash., OM/PD Ray Edwards, includes Jo Dee Messina among his core.

So why have some artists been able to maintain their core status while others have not? And why have some new acts managed to quickly gain su-perstar status while other hitmakers still struggle for name recognition? Some PDs say it has to do with the way releases are timed; some artists' releases have had longer to burn in at radio, they say, before the next single is rushed out. Others cite an industry tendency to work harder on new artists and established superstars but not to develop second- or third-album acts. But mostly, they say, some artists have had the material, and others haven't.

"The reason is simple," says Edwards. "[The formerly core artists] aren't making the big smash hits anymore. When somebody new comes along, and they make a whole bunch of hit records one right after another, guess what? We play the hits. And that means that this new person gets more airplay. Simple as that.

Citing one specific artist, WMIL Milwaukee OM Kerry Wolfe says that McEntire was replaced by Twain on his list because "Reba has struggled to find quality songs with any staying power

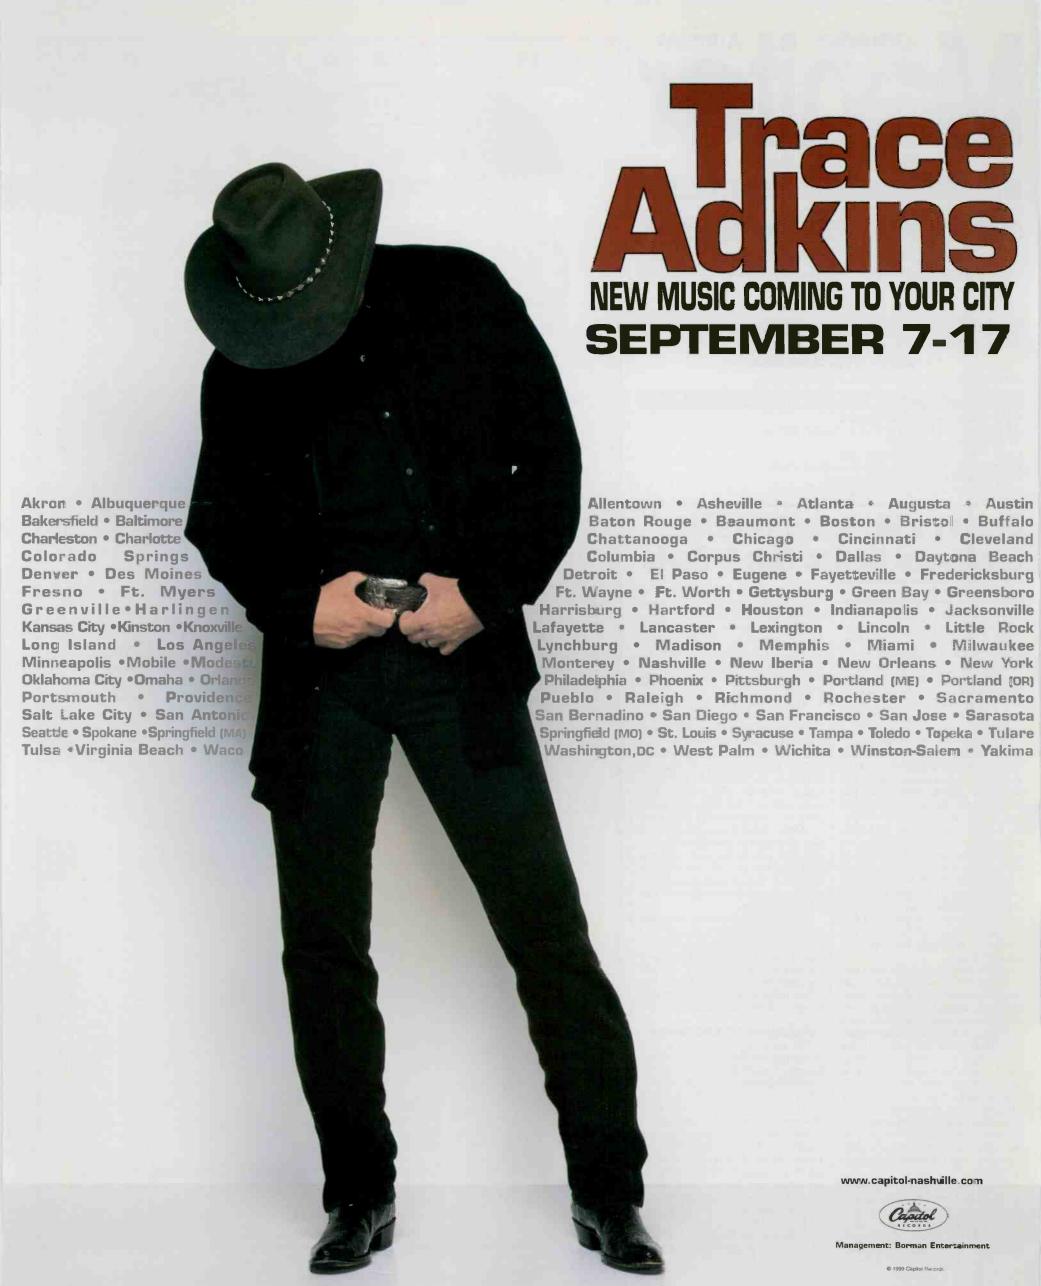

'Under loose definitions, I would say Vince Gill and Reba McEntire are probably still core due to their high name recognition and fan base," says Huff. "However, under the strictest definitions, based on percentage of exposure and strength of library, Vince and Reba fall just short. The same goes for Clint. He's still a name artist, very recognizable; I don't have to worry about unfamiliarity with him. But out of his last handful of singles, only a couple have survived into gold. And his early titles are showing high burn. This all adds up to diminished exposure when compared with other core artists.

"In the meantime, newer artists like Tim McGraw, Shania Twain, and more recently and very rapidly, the Dixie Chicks have amassed strings of hit after hit, resulting in strong gold and recurrent libraries," Huff adds. "That is the kind of consistency that moves an artist into that 'next level.'

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

We are seeing a transition in who are considered the superstar artists of country," says KSON San Diego APD/MD Greg Frey. "I really noticed it big time at the last Academy of Country Music Awards. Watching that show, I definitely saw what I thought was almost a changing of the guard. Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, and Dixie Chicks took home the lion's share of awards while a lot of superstars went home empty-handed. The difference was also there in the live performances: Reba and Brooks & Dunn sang brand-new songs that no one knew, and both acts Continued on page 8

Seminar: Is Radio Losing Its New Fans?

Is radio in danger of losing its next generation of listeners? That question will be tackled at the kickoff session of the 1999 Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar and Awards set for Oct. 7-9 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach.

Recent Arbitron numbers show that teen listening is off by 10% over the past six years, while 18-24 listening is down 14%, a statistic that has to concern broadcasters gearing up to compete with digital satellite audio, Internet radio, and other new media. During "Where My Girls (And Boys) At?," scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Oct. 7, moderator Larry Rosin of Edison Media Research and a panel of broadcasters and other industryites will discuss how to keep the radio under new listeners' pillows while acknowledging the financial realities that keep all but a few stations from targeting 12-24 exclusively.

A full schedule of Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar panels and Radio Seminar panels and events will be announced shortly. Registration for the seminar is complimentary for those nominated for Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards and $99 for all other radio-station registrants. Contact Michelle Quigley at 212-536-5002 for registration info. The Fontainebleau can be reached at 305-538-2000. For discount air fares, call 800-433-1790 and refer to index No. 11769.

There Goes Jack Greene's Solo Possession

In its seventh week at No. 1 on our Country Airplay chart, Lonestar's "Amazed" (BNA) breaks all longevity records set during the Broadcast Data Systems era. In fact, it has been 33 years since the last seven-week No. 1, Jack Greene's "There Goes My Everything," which was the Country Music Assn.'s single of the year for 1966

Should Lonestar stay another week at No. 1, "Amazed" would surpass Greene's feat and match Connie Smith's 1964 hit, "Once A Day," the most recent title to spend two months at No. 1. But Lonestar would need to spend nine weeks at the top to match David Houston's "Almost Persuaded," which held the top slot for nine consecutive weeks in early '66.

For trivia lovers, the all-time record for weeks at No. 1 is still held by Hank Snow's "I'm Moving On," which stayed at the top 21 weeks in 1950.

ABOUT FACE: With Hot Shot Debut honors at No. 40 for "It Don't Matter To The Sun," Capitol takes a sharp right turn in the radio plan for the "Garth Brooks In . . . The Life of Chris Gaines" AC/top 40 project by shipping the single to country radio on the heels of his pop release, "Lost In You." With more than 6 million estimated audience impressions, "It Don't Matter To The Sun" bows with spins at 119 monitored country signals and finishes with 668 detections (see Impact!, page 16). Meanwhile,

"Lost In You" dips 78 plays to No. 75.

WALKING ON NEW GRASS: Bluegrass/acoustic fave Alison Krauss' "Forget About It" scans more than 23,000 units to enter Billboard's Top Country Albums chart at No. 5 and enters The Billboard 200 at No. 60, her highest career debut on the big chart. Krauss' No. 5 entry on the country chart ties her highest opener on that list, "So Long So Wrong," which scanned more than 21,000 units in April '97. That set peaked at No. 4 on the country chart and rose to No. 45 on The Billboard 200.

Rounder chief Ken Irwin is expecting a long radio campaign aimed at country, AC, triple-A, and alternative country stations. "Alison doesn't record for [specific] formats, so when she finishes an album, the question is, 'What do we do with it?' This time she's truly made a mass-appeal record, so the challenge is to see where we'll get played," he says.

On "Forget About It," Krauss revisits Shenandoah's top five 1990 hit "Ghost In This House" and Waylon Jennings' "Dreaming My Dreams," a top 10 in "75 written by Garth Brooks' producer, Allen Reynolds. That track features harmony vocals by Dolly Parton and Lyle Lovett.

DUE TO technical difficulties, WFLS Fredericksburg, Va., has been temporarily removed from our panel of monitored stations.

In other award news, Country Radio Broadcasters has announced plans to present three air personality awards for small-, medium-, and large-market stations, marking the first time the organization has presented awards to air talent other than Country DJ Hall of Fame inductees.

To be eligible, air personalities or teams cannot appear in more than one market. Winners will be determined by two rounds of judging by a blueribbon panel, announced Jan. 14, and presented with awards during the air personality session at the Country Radio Seminar, scheduled for March 1-4 in Nashville. Winners will be provided with accommodations in Nashville for the nights of March 3 and 4. For more information, contact the CRB office in Nashville.

Promos Fall Forward: Back To School, NFL

Back-to-school events and the NFL pre-season reigned atop the Topical Barometer, with a strong Halloween showing as well. Thinking about pigskin is R&B KMEL San Francisco, which is trying to get its logo on the field for a pre-season "Monday Night Football" game between the Oakland Raiders and San Francisco 49ers. A KMEL qualifier will try to throw a pass through a hole to win $106,000—"just before kickoff of the biggest game of the year for the Bay Area," says Katie Eyerly. If the listener misses, there's still a second try at closer range for $10,600, then closer still for $1,006. Listeners qualify on-air by winning game tickets.

To showcase artist Jerry Kilgore's new album, "Love Trip," country WGNA Albany, N.Y., will send a listener and guest on a Love Trip to Boston for a private dinner concert by Kilgore, then one of the final Red Sox games in Fenway Park, Hotel accommodations and $100 mad money are included in the E-mail/write-in registration drawing, notes PD Buzz Brindle.

tive is Vicki Fiorelli of country KNIX/AC KESZ Phoenix. "I believe van hits are important to the station, but we don't think it's always good money to send a driver out just to send a van out. Our marketing dollars can best be used on billboards, TV spots, etc."

What makes up a successful van hit? Exclusivity is somewhat or very important to 92% of the panel. Having a lot of people at the hit is somewhat or very important to 76% of the panel, and having a lot of clients involved with each hit is a priority to 54%. Examples:

· R&B oldies WZMX Hartford was the only station at the main entrance of the Greater Hartford Open golf tournament. "Thousands of people attended this huge event, and we owned free, exclusive exposure," Korlou says. 'This is how you win, by being out and showing your colors. Out of sight, out of mind!"

• Modern rock WPLA (Planet Radio 93.3)

Jacksonville, Fla., sent a van out to a venue to become, of all things, the "unofficial station of the Backstreet Boys." "They carried two frontrow tickets to the show and a couple of helium balloons," says Tina Bauernfeind of Clear Channel Jacksonville. "The van passed security and pulled up to the venue, where a crowd was waiting to get in. We teased them with front-row tickets. As excitement peaked and the crowd got anxious, we released a balloon with the tickets attached. Shrieks and screams followed. For the next hour or so, balloon sightings were reported on the radio by listeners.

• "We did van hits when Ricky Martin concert tickets went on sale," says Vanessa Thill of rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas. "We had coffee and doughnuts for listeners. We also do van hits at client locations for one hour with ice-cold soft drinks and movie tickets.'

• For those with a particularly long competitive streak, "I like to use van hits to screw with other stations," says Loren Condron of album rock KEGL (the Éagle)/modern adult KDMX (Mix 102.9) Dallas. "Nothing is better than pulling up to a competitor's event where listeners are standing around, waiting for a drawing, and just start handing out prizes.

TOPIC OF THE WEEK: VAN HITS

Even in a high-tech age of TV marketing and Web-site exposure, van hits are still a popular way of branding a station. About 70% of the panel members are doing more van hits this year than last year, 15% are doing just as many as '98, and 15% are doing fewer. Two-thirds of those doing more hits are spending less time at each stop, the remainder about the same length of time per hit.

A good 80% of Promogandists believe it's worthwhile just to send the van out on the road even if there are no remotes to go to. "We're big believers in street presence," Keith Sgariglia of modern rock WKQX (Q101) Chicago says. "We want to be where our listeners are, not just at music-related events but sharing their lifestyle.'

"Having the van sit in the basement of your station does not increase station awareness,' says Tristano Korlou of CBS' Hartford, Conn., cluster. "You have to get the van out where the people are. It's cheap advertising, so use it."

"Any exposure is good, especially if you have a cool-looking vehicle," says Carly Johnston of modern rock KXTE (Extreme Radio) Las Vegas. "You want it out and about as often as possible. It's basically like a roaming billboard.

QUICK HITS

Country KYGO Denver plays Win Sandy's Money, based on the Comedy Central TV's game show "Win Ben Stein's Money." "We get listeners to answer five questions and then ask [regular listener] Sandy the same questions," quizmeister Garret Doll says. "If the listener gets more answers correct than Sandy, [he or she] wins however much money is in a Mason jar. Sandy lives in a mountain compound, and we tease him about having all his money in Mason jars buried in his backyard. He opens a jar twice a week [the money can be as little as 23 cents or as much as $201.43], and we give away whatever the total is. But the listener always wins, because even if he doesn't beat Sandy, we tie in local clients for parting gifts."

Top 40 WFLZ Tampa, Fla., has a nice twist to its Lotto-ticket giveaway. "We're giving away 93 packs of tickets to listeners, but if one of the listeners wins the jackpot, [the listener] splits half with the radio station," says part-time alimony attorney Jay Griffiths. "Hey, we gotta get rich somehow, 'cuz radio isn't doing it for us

Letter: Do Alternate Mixes Muddy Waters?

To the editor:

I just listened to the new acoustic version of "Amazed," and I'm wondering if it's really good for the format to have all these different versions of our biggest hits floating around. Doesn't that muddy the water and further confuse the listener?

Yesterday I received another version of "Lesson In Leavin'" that sounds drastically different from the original. Why? Alabama's "God Must Have Spent A Little More Time On You" had an alternate cut too. So the top three songs this week have different versions available. [Editor's note: Same with Shedaisy's "Little Good-Byes." Lyric Street serviced a new version of that single as it approached the top of the chart, meaning that the top four had remixes.] This certainly isn't new either. Don't forget about Sammy Kershaw's career smash, "Love Of My Life," that suddenly became a duet with Terri Clark late in its life.

It's a bad trend. We're having enough trouble getting the audience to pay attention to our best music. Now we confuse them even more with a different version that even if they did like, they couldn't buy.

Nashville should leave the hits alone. If folks there are looking for something to do, they could work on giving radio a great follow-up. Just a thought.

KRTY's Julie Stevens Laments State Of Country, Sees Cyclical Change Ahead

KRTY San Jose, Calif., PD Julie Stevens believes there is one giant problem with the country format today: "It's not country anymore."

She says, "It terrifies me, the direction the industry is going. Radio wants to blame the record companies for giving us nothing but AC/pop-sounding stuff. I really don't blame them because they have an incredibly difficult time getting country music played. I blame the programmers who came from pop radio without knowing a thing about the roots and the cyclical nature of country music."

Stevens, who has been in country radio for all but a handful of the past 20 years, has seen the format's cyclical nature evolve from pop to traditional country and back again several times.

"In the late '60s/early '70s, when Eddy Arnold and Ray Price were crossing over . . . it was bad. Who can forget [Bobby Russell's '71 mid-charter] 'Saturday Morning Confusion?' It was a terrible song and indicative of what they were doing in country music. What brought us out of

me, the direction the industry is going'

that was those two long-haired guys who called themselves outlaws doing typical honky-tonk country music—Waylon and Willie. And suddenly country music was cool again. That stuff didn't get played on pop radio, it played [only] on country radio.

"When we went into the early-'80s doldrums with 'Urban Cowboy' and Mickey Gilley [covering] 'Stand By Me,' I was ready to shoot myself,' she aclds. "What brought us out of that was George Strait, Ricky Skaggs, and Randy Travis doing typical, traditional country music.

"Now we're doing the same exact thing," she says. "I've got news for you guys—and I'm talking mostly to the PDs out there—if Garth Brooks is the largest-selling solo artist of all time, he didn't do that on a pop/AC sound."

Because she has seen this cycle before, Stevens is both patient and optimistic that the tide will turn back toward traditional country.

"I keep telling my boss, 'You're just going to have to hunker down and hang on. It will come back around. It always does.' And I think it is beginning to," she says. "It just excites me no end that Dixie Chicks are country. Who knew you could sing a country song and be a hit?

you could sing a country song and be a hit?

"I don't think slapping a hat on a guy and making him sing about his broken heart is going to fix it. It's got to be an intelligent song mixed with the traditional sound. That's what's going to bring us back around. If we don't go in that direction we will continue to go nowhere."

After returning from this year's Country Radio Seminar depressed because only one act—Montgomery Gentry—even got a ripple out of her, Stevens began waging a one-woman war against pop-flavored country.

"I threw up my hands and went, 'Let's just play country music and see what happens.' "What happened when Stevens began focusing KRTY on a more traditional sound is that it leapt 2.2-4. I in the spring book, taking the market's No. 3 slot 12-plus. "Now I will have to say I'm probably going to go right in the tank next book, but I do think I'm onto something."

Her traditional stance means she added George Jones' "Choices" out of the box after hearing it played over the phone and jumped on both Montgomery Gentry singles right away but said no to Martina McBride's pop-sounding "I Love You" and the "country" single from Garth Brooks' "In The Life Of Chris Gaines" pop album, "It Don't Matter To The Sun."

This despite substantial label pressure. Although "I Love You" is "probably going to be the biggest song in country music this year, it shouldn't be." As for "It Don't Matter To The Sun," she says, "Hats off to Garth. At least he didn't try to trade on his name country music helped him build. He had the guts to change his name [and] persona and go completely away from us. But curses to both AC and country. I also understand country wanting a Garth single for the fall book, but let's not sell out.

gle for the fall book, but let's not sell out.

"Again, I don't blame the record companies because that [pop sound] sells. If you can get country radio and pop radio to play it, shoot, why wouldn't you? You're in business to make money. I'd do it too, especially when you send [radio] a country record and we won't play it. The fact that Vince Gill struggles to get a hit makes me want to blow my brains out.

"Now, everybody's going to go to my playlist and point to songs and go, 'What about this one?' I have made compromises along the way," says Stevens. "But as it's gone on, I've made fewer and fewer of those."

Those compromises were because Stevens didn't want to rely more on oldies. And she says only about 20%-30% of what the labels pitch her fits the sound she has in mind for her station.

"That is why in some cases I do sell out. I do play Shania because what choice do I have, although I think she's killing the format. But I do want to be a current-based radio station. I don't want to play oldies. I think that's the wrong direction to go. As passionate as I feel about this, I also know that it's a cyclical thing and you've got to let it cycle through. You can't change your position from a current-based to an oldies-based station because you're not getting the kind of product you want. You have to let it naturally take its course and keep fighting the good fight. Every time you hear a country song you think fits in, be the first one on it. Give Nashville the kind of encouragement they need, and eventually you'll get what you want."

Here's a midday hour on KRTY: Terri Clark, "You're Easy On The Eyes"; Randy Travis, "If I Didn't Have You"; Jo Dee Messina, "Lesson In Leavin' "; Jeff Carson, "Not On Your Love"; Lee Ann Womack, "(Now You See Me) Now You Don't"; Restless Heart, "When She Cries"; Tim McGraw, "Something Like That"; Mindy McCready, "Ten Thousand Angels"; George Strait, "Write This Down"; Lorrie Morgan, "Except For Monday"; Yankee Grey, "All Things Considered"; Clint Black and Wynonna, "A Bad Goodbye"; Alan Jackson, "Don't Rock The Jukebox"; and Andy Griggs, "You Won't Ever Be Lonely."

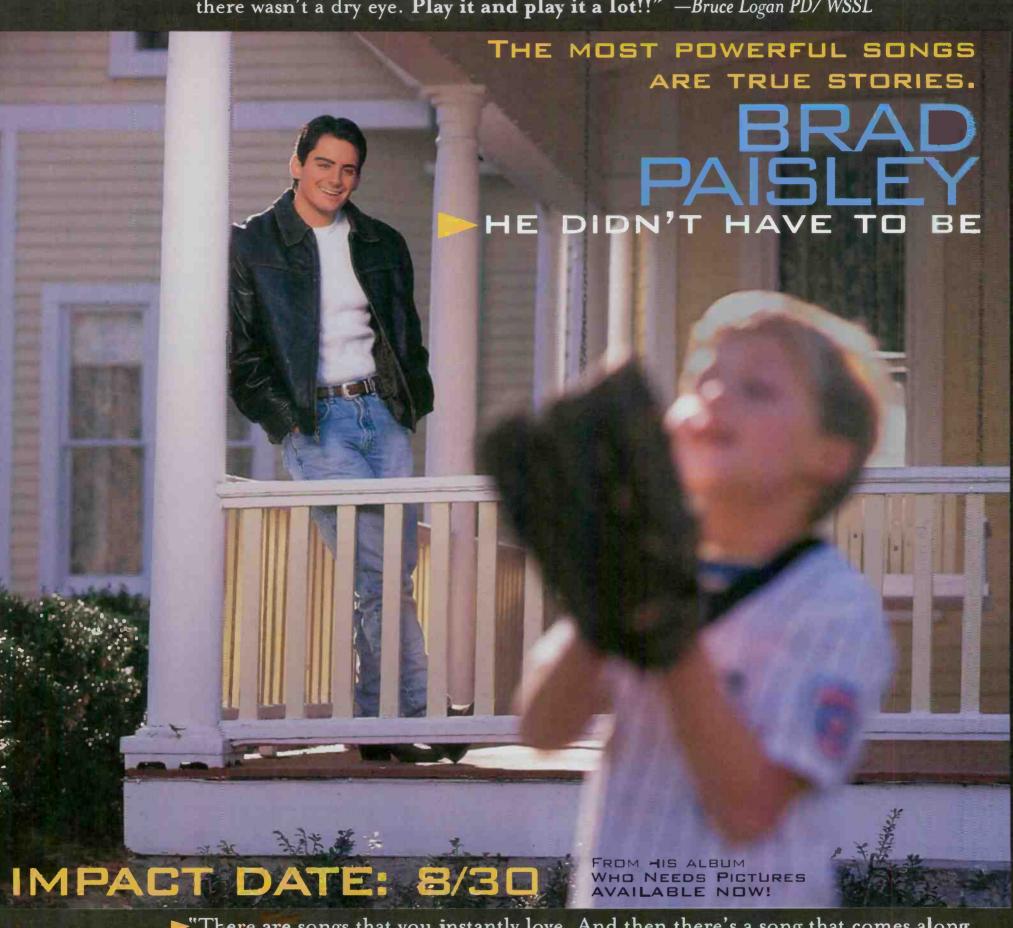

Corresponding with her shift to more traditional-sounding music, Stevens cut her playlist from about 36 to 30 songs and increased spins on the songs she was playing. That change resulted from an auditorium test conducted last December at which Stevens was "shocked" to find that just one song that had come out in the past year, Jo Dee Messina's "Bye Bye," tested in the top 100.

"I just about fell over," she says. "I couldn't believe how badly they were hating the new stuff," although she admits unfamiliarity may have been the culprit. Her heavy category now turns over about every other hour, receiving about 40-50 spins a week.

were dead boring. Dixie Chicks and Martina McBride, however, performed their well-known [hits] and tore the place up. The new superstars are acts like Dixie Chicks, Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Shania Twain, and Martina McBride," says Frey. "When I get a new record from one of those acts, it instantly grabs my attention. I want to hear what they've done. To a certain extent, I still get that feeling from George Strait, Brooks & Dunn, Alan Jack son, etc., but records by those acts that sound fresh and exciting are getting to be few and far between. I also think that there's a lack of interest growing in the public's mind to some of the superstar acts. The last Reba song, 'One Honest Heart,' which I think is a very good song, never got anywhere in call-out. There was just no passion for it, only a lot of 'I like it somewhat.'

"I don't think the 'big seven' can be written off, but they must work harder than ever to deliver the goods," Frey continues. "They need big songs in order to survive because the new kids are tearing it up. Nashville has found a handful of acts that are really coming on strong." But, Frey adds, "I'm a little concerned by the lack of a few more new male superstars. Mark Wills and Kenny Chesney have a few big songs each, but neither have captured the audience's attention enough to compete with the new superstars.

DIMINISHED HIT POWER

WFBE Flint, Mich., PD Brian Cleary says that five years ago, "Travis Tritt and Wynonna the Judds were part of this list" of core artists. "They are no longer on my list because their hit power has diminished. The product being produced by these artists is not the cutting-edge material they produced five years ago, and both careers are in a slump in quality of product, album sales, concert attendance, requests, etc.

"They have been replaced by Tim McGraw and Shania Twain. Both of these artists have shown star power and hit power beyond a single cut or CD. They bring passionate fans to my radio station when I play their music.

"Some would question Vince Gill because of the 'softness' of his last CD, but I believe it takes more than one CD to make or break a core artist," adds Cleary. "Clint Black is probably not as hot now as he was in the early '90s but is still a star and makes my core list.'

BUILDING A NEW CORE

So what are country programmers doing to build new core artists, and is it enough?

"Forgive me if I sound like a broken record: We are playing the hits," says Edwards. "I did have a discussion recently with someone who said that 'your most played artists are not necessarily your core artists.' To that I can only say,

'Every format has to keep reinventing itself," says Frey. "This is just a natural evolution. Remember what happened 10 years ago. Back then, if your name wasn't George Strait, Alabama, Reba, or Randy Travis, you were not long for this world. We need new faces to replace the old ones because that's the only way a format can stay fresh, attract new listeners, and stay alive.

"As the chart continues to slow down, so will the process of building core artists," says Huff. I am optimistic that we are currently witnessing the birth of tomorrow's core artists. Artists like Kenny Chesney, Jo Dee Messina, and Mark Wills are starting to build the kind of track records that could take them to that level.

Radio is building core artists by continuing to expose them, both in frequency of play and the way specific artists are promoted," says Cleary. "Core artists are familiar to the audience in more ways than just the title of their latest CD/single.'

But Cleary blames record labels more than radio for what he perceives as a shortage of new core artists. "I would suggest the industry is not doing enough to build core artists, as evidenced by the fact that I would consider only two new artists [to have made it] since the class of '89," he says. "Labels are too quick to send out the next single rather than building on recurrent airplay, which is a longterm benefit. Too often. once the first CD is a smash, the label's priorities move to the next new artist, and the sophomore act is left on their own. Michael Peterson was, and still is, a star in the making, but two years after a stunning debut, he is in trouble. BlackHawk had two platinum releases and nine straight hits, but King Of The World' was a chart stiff, and the next album, which was a strong CD, went nowhere. The second and third CDs have to be worked just as hard as the first. The labels are too interested in their new acts.

Midlevel artists are not converting to the big time, all because no one wants to do things for the long term," continues Cleary. "John Michael [Montgomery] was the next in line to be a core artist but has been passed over by Shania and Tim. Kudos to Curb for not cramming Tim Mc-Graw singles at us every 12 weeks like MCA does with George and Reba and Mercury does with Shania. Look at what a plus it has been holding off on a next single after 'Please Remember Me' and having radio create the next hit. And they have done a great job giving Jo Dee Messina songs the room to grow through recurrent airplay, allowing the next single to be bigger than the last.

Brokers Say 'Big Deal' To FCC Rule Change

As attorneys sort out what impact this month's landmark overhaul of ownership rules will have, brokers expect little, if any, impact on radio (Airplay Monitor, Aug. 13). Yet they do concede companies that own both radio and TV in a market now have the potential to grow even stronger. "Just think of the power if own two TV stations and some radio and you walk in to see Coca-Cola," says one broker.

"The people who have hit a home run ... are owners with struggling eighth or ninth TV stations, who have seen market values double overnight," says broker Larry Patrick. A top 20 Southern market TV station that was selling for $17 million before the rule change is now selling for $30 million.

Public-interest groups have been critical of the new rules, arguing they will drive up prices, putting stations even further out of reach of minorities and small companies. Most brokers agree. "If I were a small owner or a hope-to-bebuyer, I would not be happy," says Patrick.

Broker Jim Blackburn agrees that prices "only go up, and this will only cause [them] to go up even more, since you're creating more buyers for a finite number of sellers." But for those looking to cash out, "It has got to be the best time to sell a station, even

Broker Michael Bergner believes there will be very little impact on prices or demand. "There are few stations for sale right now. Minorities have a tough time breaking in now. It's not going to make that much of a difference."

Others say the recent movement to resurrect the minority tax certificate will more than make up for whatever damage the rule change may cause. "I guarantee that would unleash hundreds of deals that minorities would qualify for,"

Just days after relaxing cross-ownership rules, the FCC has approved several radio/TV combinations. It has given Waitt License Co. of Florida Inc., owner of WPGX-TV Panama City, Fla., permission to buy country WAKT Panama City and three sister stations from Root Communications. KQDS Acquisition Corp., owner of KQDS-TV and album rock KQDS-AM-FM Duluth, Minn., was given approval to add Harbor Broadcasting's modern adult WWAX and adult standards KZIO to its Duluth cluster. Flinn Broadcasting, which owns Memphis properties WPXX-TV and four radio stations, will be allowed to add religious WSFZ.

As congressional Republicans prepare legis-lation to curtail sharply the FCC's powers and alter its mission, Chairman Bill Kennard has outlined his own reorganization proposal. Kennard hopes to streamline and eliminate "obsolete" functions, organizing the FCC by function rather than technology. Under his five-year plan, the Mass Media Bureau, which regulates radio, would be combined with the Cable Bureau to form the Media Competition Bureau. The FCC has often been assailed by Congress for taking too long to review mergers, so Kennard is vowing to accelerate the process. He would force the FCC to act on petitions within 60 days after the record closes. Parts of the plan will require congressional approval.

Rep. Billy Tauzin, R-La., calls the reorganization plan a step in the right direction but says, "It's also a growing recognition that the FCC, as presently structured, simply isn't working anymore." This fall, Tauzin will introduce a bill into his Telecommunications Subcommittee that would remove much of the FCC's authority, including its proposals to create low-power radio and to give free air time to political candidates.

CAPITOL: BLOCK BLAKENEY?

Blakeney Communications is asking the FCC to block Cumulus' purchase of AC WMFM Laurel, Miss., from Hickman Broadcast Services, arguing its combined ad share would be 50%. Blakeney owns adult top 40 WBBN, country WKZW, and classic rock WXRR in the market.

CAPITAL: INTERNET SMILES ON CBS

As CBS prepares to spin offits Internet holdings into a separately traded stock, Wit Capital VP Read Rohan says the Net has been particularly good to the company. "CBS' Howard Stern's radio show has become one of the most desired formats for Internet companies to broadcast radio spots. The show boasts a young male audience and major-market focus, characteristics that correlate to high Internet usage,' Rohan says. He calculates that E-ads account for 1% or $80 million for the multimillion-dollar giant's revenue. In markets like New York, San Francisco, and Boston, Rohan says that "dot.com" advertising can be as much as 6% of local-market revenues.

Rohan supports a CBS.com tracking stock, to put a value on its Internet holdings and also to assess more accurately its traditional media worth. "The undervalued nature of CBS core radio, TV, and outdoor advertising businesses will become more apparent," he says. CBS has purchased minority stakes in nine Internet companies in the past two years—seven deals in the past three months alone.

Meanwhile, CBS has bought a 22% stake in Wrenchead.com, a Web site dedicated to automotive enthusiasts. No cash will change hands; Wrenchead will receive $33 million of advertising on CBS properties, including radio.

Songs are ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 25 are removed from the chart after 20 weeks.

WSM-FM, WUSY, And Phoenix Rivals Top Radio Award Noms

By Phyllis Stark

Phoenix rivals KNIX and KMLE, along with WSM-FM Nashville and WUSY (US101) Chattanooga, Tenn., top the country nominations for the 1999 Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards with three apiece. WMZQ Washington, D.C., and WSIX Nashville scored two nominations each, while eight additional stations each garnered one nomination.

The Phoenix stations will vie for major-market station of the year against each other and KSON San Diego. The Phoenix rivals are also competing in the major-market program/operations director of the year category, where KMLE PD Jeff Garrison and former KNIX VP/general program manager Larry Daniels are joined by WMZQ PD Mac Daniels. Larry Daniels, who recently left KNIX following its sale to Clear Channel, has won in that category for the past three years. KNIX was last year's majormarket station of the year winner.

KMLE's third nomination is in the major-market MD of the year category, which is shaping up to be a battle of the Jons. In addition to KMLE MD Jon Allen, nominees in that category are WMZQ's Jon Anthony and WKHX-FM Atlanta's Johnny Gray.

KNIX's third nomination is in the local air personality of the year category, where morning team Tim Hattrick and Willy D. Loon are joined by WSM-FM morning team Bill Cody and Amie Harper, as well as WUSY afternoon team David Earl Hughes and Bill

"Dex" Poindexter.

Poindexter also lands a nomination for secondary-market MD of the year.

along with KIKF Anaheim, Calif.'s Carrie Dunne and WKKX St. Louis' Dave Louis. US101's third nomination is in the secondary-market station of the year category, which also includes rivals WSIX and WSM-FM. WSIX staffers are hoping to continue a fiveyear winning streak in this category.

The two Nashville stations are up against each other again in the secondary-market PD of the year category, which is made up of WSM-FM's Greg Cole, WS1X's Dave Kelly, and WAMZ Louisville, Ky., PD Coyote Calhoun. Kelly won that award last year.

Some Consultancies Still Thriving, But The Industry Remains Volatile

By Phyllis Stark, Dana Hall. Marc Schiffman. and Jeff Silberman

In the two years since Airplay Monitor first tackled the issue, the consolidation of consultancies has continued, as has the movement by some operators to rely more heavily on group programmers. But those consultants who remain say their business is still strong and that the need for their outside viewpoint has only increased since deregulation.

Since June 1997, a steady stream of programming consultants has either joined larger firms or taken PD or in-house group programming jobs, among them AC's Dave Popovich and Pat Paxton, R&B's Steve Crumbley, and rock's Dave Lange, Dennis Constantine, and Dave Benson. Most recently, top 40/AC consultant Harv Blain announced that he was joining larger firm Vallie/Richards Aug. 1.

There has, however, been traffic in the other direction. Former Jacor group VP of country programming Continued on page 6

History Repeats With Lonestar's Success

History often repeats itself on the country charts, and for the BNA team, Lonestar's Amazed" duplicates Kenny Chesney's March/April feat of six consecutive weeks at No. 1 with "How Forever Feels." "Amazed" grips the top slot despite a loss of 233 detections and finishes with 5,971 plays (see Song Activity, pages 13-15).

Chesney's tenacious runner-up was Lee Ann Womack's "I'll Think Of A Reason Later," which spent four weeks at No. 2. Lonestar's lady in waiting is Jo Dee Messina, whose "Lesson In Leavin'" (Curb) is in its fifth week

Both Messina and Lonestar recovered from spin deficits last issue (Country Confidential, Aug. 6) proving that anything is possible by the next issue. Carson James, promotion VP at Curb, says the label has serviced stations with an acoustic version of "Lesson In Leavin" reaturing labelmate the Clark Family.

GAINES & DEBUTS: As country stations grapple with the question of how to treat Garth Brooks' Chris Gaines' pop release "Lost In You" (Country Airplay Monitor, Aug. 6), that track gains 15 plays to recapture a bullet at No. 62 on our Country Airplay list. Detections are logged at 12 of our 154 monitored country signals, one fewer than last week's to-

Meanwhile, Sonya Isaacs makes her first appearance on the chart with "On My Way To You" (Lyric Street), which bows at No. 74 (see Impactl, page 16). In addition to her solo career, Isaacs will continue to perform and record with her family's popular bluegrass/ gospel ensemble the Isaacs.

FROM DOWN UNDER: As Sherrié Austin's "Never Been Kissed" (Arista Nashville) gains momentum on our Country Airplay chart, it becomes her first No. 1 song on Bill-board's Top Country Singles Sales chart, replacing Tim McGraw's "Please Remember Me" (Curb), which is pushed to No. 2 after 13 weeks at the top (see At-a-Glance, page 17). Austin finishes with a 4% gain on the retail list and scans approximately 8,500 units while her radio single gains 75 plays to rise 39-35.

Elsewhere on Top Country Singles Sales, Chad Brock's "Lightning Does The Work" (Warner Bros.) gains 10% to rise 10-9, after TV exposure on TNT's "WCW's Monday Night Nitro." Brock's song and his earlier hit, "Ordinary Life," have been used in 30-second promos for an Aug. 9 live performance during "Monday Night Nitro" in Boise, Idaho. For the next couple weeks, Brock's songs and videoclips will be used in promos for a similar WCW per-formance Aug. 30 on Long Island, N.Y.

On Billboard's Top Country Albums chart, Shedaisy's "The Whole Shebang" (Lyric Street) is the only bulleted title in the top 10 and earns Greatest Gainer honors for an increase of approximately 1,500 scans. Emmylou Harris, Linda Ronstadt, and Dolly Parton's "Trio II" (Asylum) takes Billboard's percentage-based Pacesetter trophy for a 30% hike and rises 53-39. Meanwhile, Susan Ashton's "Closer" (Capitol) is the only new entry on the album chart. It enters at No. 34 with 3,500 units.

THIS WEEK'S Country Hotline Fax incorrectly listed the total detections for Shane McAnally's "Are Your Eyes Still Blue" (Curb). The correct detections count for this week is 602.

Industry Mourns Gene Weed, Colleen Brooks

We're very sorry to report the Aug. 5 death of Academy of Country Music president-elect Gene Weed, 64, after a battle with cancer. Weed was senior VP of television at dick clark productions and produced and directed the ACM Awards and several other specials each year. He previously served as ACM president twice in the '80s and served as chairman of the board for that organization seven times in the past 27 years. Prior to his TV career, Weed spent 15 years as a DJ in Dallas; Omaha, Neb.; Miami; and Los Angeles He is survived by his wife, Toni, and seven children. A memorial service was held in Chatsworth, Calif., Aug. 9. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Gene Weed Memorial Find, benefiting the Children's Organ Transplant Assn. and the Assn. of Jesuit Colleges and Universities. The address is 2018 North Vine St., Hollywood, Calif. 90028.

Also sorry to report the Aug. 6 death of Colleen Brooks, mother of Garth Brooks, from spinal meningitis, a complication of the cancer she had been battling. A private funeral was held Aug. 9. As Colleen Carroll, she recorded for Capitol in 1954 and was a regular on Red Foley's "Ozark Jubilee" TV show.

In other Brooks news, Capitol Records' Nashville division has reversed plans not to work any music from Brooks' "In The Life Of Chris Gaines" pop album to country and will now ship the single "It Don't Matter To The Sun" to country radio Aug. 10.

In the wake of Barry Coburn's appointment as president/CEO of Atlantic Records' Nashville division (Country Airplay Monitor, Aug. 6), three staffers have exited the label: VP/GM Bryan Switzer, VP of sales/marketing Bob Heatherly, and executive assistant Debbie Bellin.

Johnny Mitchell exits his position as upper Southeast promotion manager at Curb Records. Replacing him is April Rider, who most recently worked as an independent promoter and previously was Midwest regional at Decca. Mitchell will continue working with Curb as an exclusive independent promoter through the end of the Don Kamerer joins Dreamcatcher Entertainment as director/national sales. His 25 years in the music business have included stints as sales and branch manager at ABC Records, country chart manager for Billboard, national director of sales for MTM in Los Angeles, and West Coast promotion manager for Columbia.

Comedian Barry Martin has been signed to the artist roster of Platinum Entertainment.

Sheree Latham joins Country Radio Broad-casters as Country Radio Seminar agenda coordinator and assistant to executive director Paul Allen. She previously was a staff accountant at Speer Communications.

The CDKnet technology enables computer users to view full-screen, fullmotion music videos with high-quality audio.

Shania Twain, Terri Clark, the Wilkinsons, and Prairie Oyster each picked up six nomination for the Canadian Country Music Awards, announced Aug. 5. Paul Brandt, who will host this year's awards show Sept. 13 at Ottawa Civic Centre, picked up five nominations. The show will air in Canada on CBC-TV and in the U.S. on Dixie Chicks will lend their voices to the animated Fox-TV show "King Of The Hill" in an episode airing Nov. 14.

Country's Most Wanted Interview

FCC Eases Ownership Rules

Saying it was "cleaning up" rules, the FCC has relaxed its broadcast-ownership regulations to allow more cross-ownership of radio and TV, ending an internal struggle that dates to 1991. An owner now will be allowed to own up to six radio stations and two TV stations in a market if at least 20 "independent voices" remain. Several TV-radio combinations already exist, and many will be grandfathered. Most of the others fall within the new limits; those that do not have been given a waiver until 2004.

FCC Chair Bill Kennard says the changes are tailored to give broadcasters more flexibility while pulling in the reins on consolidation. "Allowing a small station to combine with another station in the market and take advantage of shared costs and operating efficiencies will increase competition and outlet diversity," says Kennard.

The lone dissenting vote came from Commissioner Harold Furchtgott-Roth, in part because he believes the revised cap on radio station ownership violates the 1996 Telecom Act.

NAB president Eddie Fritts says the changes take "important steps to allow free, over-the-air radio." But Andy Schwartzman, president of public-interest law firm the Media Access Project, says the changes will allow increased consolidation and thereby further reduce diversity. "The fact that there are many more stations out there is dwarfed by the fact that over the last 15 years the number of entities owning the stations has [been] reduced.

CBS NET CEO COMING

CBS has spent much of this year snapping up Internet deals, while radio and TV acquisitions have been placed on the back burner. In the second quarter alone, CBS signed deals with five Web sites, ranging from medical to home-grocery-shopping sites. CEO Mel Karmazin says the company is "close to selecting" a CEO of its Net division, with an announcement likely by Labor Day. Karmazin is not, however, commenting on rumors that CBS will spin off its Web products in a separate IPO. Such a scenario may have lost some of its luster last week, as two Net IPOs failed to stir Wall Street as others have earlier this year.

Karmazin says CBS is billing more Internet advertising than any other media company "because we have the biggest position in the biggest markets . . . that most of these Internet companies are advertising in." Those markets include New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Boston, where CBS owns radio, TV, and outdoor.

Pack A Ham & Cheese For Back To School

Station concerts stayed atop the Topical Barometer but had to fight off a strong challenge from back-to-school events and summer movies. The cheesiest concert promo came from rhythmic top 40 KQBT (the Beat) Austin, Texas, and its Livin' Velveeta Loca contest. Listeners spun a wheel to win either Ricky Martin tickets or a hunk of cheese. Jodi Bailey wrote about it in her dairy.

A similar diversity of prizes was offered in modern WKQX (Q101) Chicago's Movie and a Ham Weekend. Listeners called in to win movie tickets and their very own ham, says publicity hog Keith Sgariglia.

Elsewhere in summer filmdom, country KSON San Diego held the premiere of "Runaway Bride," where all the winners had to find 'any old bridesmaid dress they had in their closet and wear it to the premiere," best dude Greg Frey says. "A 'romantic runaway' to Las Vegas was up for grabs to anyone who showed up in a dress, and 15 ladies did."

Modern adult KMXB (Mix 94.1) Las Vegas morning duo Mark and Mercedes encouraged kids to call in and audition for the chance to be their respective Mini-Mes. After an initial phone audition, three finalists were invited to a live remote from the MGM Grand, where listeners voted for the best ones. The Minis dressed just like their counterparts and were judged on how well they shadowed each morning-show member. Writing a short story on this was Jennifer Markham Wynn.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: BACK-TO-SCHOOL PROMOTIONS

One of the earliest signs of the fall book is the appearance of back-to-school promotions. Somewhat surprisingly, only 3% of the panel think back-to-school events were out of their target demo. The rest are far more bullish, with 65% noting that clients approach them to do promotions and just 32% saying they have to go out to get clients.

However, two-thirds of the panel do limit the number of clients. In terms of priority, 40% prefer to work with clients they've worked with in the past, 36% take a "first come, first served" tack, and 24% opt for the clients who offer the most money/merchandise to do the promo-

What kind of back-to-school promotions work? We found a wide variety of events.

· "When I was at country WCOL Columbus, Ohio, the morning show handed out packed lunches for the first 200 kids who drove through our back-to-school food drive,' says Marida Petitjean of country KZLA Los Angeles. "We had a live broadcast and put the kids on the air who said the funniest things."

• AC WRCH Hartford, Conn., does a huge promo with Wal-Mart to give away purple WRCH-logoed backpacks filled with pens, legal pads, and so forth. "Soft drink clients and such will have gift certificates in the bags," says Tristano Korlou. "All backpack winners qualify to win a computer system.

• Go digital: Top 40 CKIK Calgary, Alberta, is approaching a number of home-electronic suppliers "to provide laptops, PalmPilots, pagers, cell phones, etc., so that our winner can be paperless," says Michael Godfrey.

• Country WWKA (K92) Orlando, Fla., works with charity A Gift for Teaching, a yearround "store" for teachers where everything is free via donations. "We tie in a car dealer, gro-cery store, and TV station," says Dave Demer.

For three days each August, there is no Texas sales tax on clothing, to help people save money on back-to-school shopping. Modern adult KDMX and album rock KEGL Dallas team with local malls the week prior to give away gift certificates, notes Loren Condron.

We always look at clothes, computers, and shopping sprees, but an interesting angle is money for college—a savings bond, a mutual fund, or another way to grow the equity of the person's cash flow," says Michael Paterson of top 40 KHFI Austin.

· Country KNIX Phoenix holds a back-toschool clothing drive with a local group that outfits homeless children. "Lots of PSAs and remotes with donation boxes," says Vicki • KQBT is creating back-to-school packs for parents that include movie passes, spiked refreshments, and even adult films. Carding the winners will be Jodi Bailey.

QUICK HITS

As part of its frequent-listener program, modern adult KFMB-FM (Star 100.7) San Diego does about four sticker stops a day. "We pull over listeners with a Star sticker on their cars," Kim Leeds says. "They pick an envelope from a bucket. They all have cash or concert tickets, but one has a certificate for a car. The odds of winning it get better with every pull-over we do. As of now, they're 1 in 47."

R&B oldies WXDG (the Groove) Detroit is tying in with a local restaurant during the Woodward Dream Cruise, a classic-car cruise down Woodward Avenue. "We'll be doing a deck party with live music the night of the cruise and debuting our newly logoed vehicle," says Julie Maxwell. "We also have mobile billboards cruise the avenue, blaring music."

Modern KXTE (Extreme Radio) Las Vegas hosted a bowling party with Lit Aug. 10. "It's a national campaign with 1-800-Collect," says Carly Johnston, who is out on strike. "The band played at the Hard Rock Hotel, and the party was at the Orleans Bowling Center from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. It's great because it gives some of our younger listeners the opportunity to hang with the band in a cool environment."

WSM-FM, WUSY, And Phoenix Rivals Top Radio Award Noms Continued from page 1

The three nominees in the promotion/marketing director of the year category bring in the only nominations for each of their stations. They are WUSN (US99) Chicago's Steve Lee, WPOC Baltimore's Sheila Silverstein, and WWWW (W4) Detroit's

Cheryl Sparks. All three were also nominated last year. Nominees for the record-label promotion team of the year award are Mercury Records and RCA Label Group imprints BNA and RCA. Last year's winner was Arista Nashville. BNA and Mercury were each nominated last year. This is RCA's first nom-

The radio consultant/group PD of the year nominees are Jaye Albright of McVay Media, AMFM's Tim Closson, and Rusty Walker, namesake of Rusty Walker Programming Consultants. Walker is the only person to have won this award in the country category, having taken home the trophy in all four years the category has existed.

In the network/syndicated program of the year category, nominees are "American Country Countdown With Bob Kingsley," syndicated by ABC Radio Networks and Kingsley's KCCS Productions; "Country's Most Wanted," syndicated by Jones Radio Networks and hosted by WSM-FM's Cody and Harper; and "Super Country With Ben And Brian," syndicated by United Stations Radio Network and hosted by KMLE morning team Ben Campbell and Brian Egan. This award is for weekly longform or daily shortform programming but not full syndicated dayparts. Kingsley has an amazing 12-year winning streak in this category.

Phoenix was the most-nominated country radio market, with six nominations, followed by Nashville with five and Chattanooga with three

When the entire list of Radio Awards nominees, including those honored in all 10 BDSmonitored formats, is broken down by group owner, Clear Channel tops the list with 58 nods, just nudging out AMFM, with 55 nominees. Infinity is third with 43, followed by Susquehanna in a distant fourth with eight. Despite the clear effects of consolidation on this year's Radio Awards field, a total of six nominations still went to college-operated radio stations, including two commercial operations (modern rock WBRU Providence, R.I., and R&B WHUR Washington, D.C.) and one noncommercial triple-A station, WXPN Philadelphia.

Winners will be announced at the gala Radio Awards banquet Oct. 9 at the Fontainebleau Hilton in Miami Beach. The Radio Awards dinner culminates the three-day Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar. This year, all nominees receive a complimentary registration for the Radio Semi-

The Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards, which honor excellence in radio broadcasting, are given annually in 10 formats and nine categories. Nominees were selected by the readers of Airplay Monitor, who cast write-in votes on a ballot that appeared in the magazine in May. Final ballots are included in this week's issue of the four Airplay Monitor publications and in subscription copies of the Aug. 21 Billboard.

Some Consultancies Still Thriving, But The Industry Remains Volatile

Jaye Albright moved to McVay Media, although that company entered into a strategic alliance with Jacor's Critical Mass Media last year.

McVay Media president Mike McVay calls it "an emotional roller coaster. We've been replaced at some stations where we were clearly helping the station, fired from other stations where we were No. 1 in all of the target demos. But by the same token, we've been the recipient of new business due to relationships we've had with the buying entities Consultant Joel Raab notes, "I used to compete with about 10 consultants in my format. Now you can count the significant players on one hand. Those of us who [still] thrive are among the change leaders in our industry. That means we have to provide vision for our clients while adapting successfully [to their] changing needs.

Right now, it seems a lot of the consolidators are trying the obvious-hiring top-notch talent for their various formats and letting those people become in-house consultants," says consultant Steve Warren. "In some cases it will work out just fine. In other cases it won't. It takes a lot of focus and the ability to compartmentalize to handle a lot of stations and still help them each maintain their own unique 'personality.' When some of the groups see that their group PD is giving them a plastic, cookie-cutter kind of station . . . they'll rethink it and get some help for the PD."

A MATTER OF TRUST

It's not only budget constraints that are leading major groups away from outside consultants. Chris Kennedy, a partner in Joint Communications, says it's happening "to protect the amount of shared strategic information and to obtain focused assistance of these growing consolidated companies." And SBR's Dave Rahn cites a "perception that an outside consultant is not a part of their group and can't be trusted with secrets and strategy and such. There are probably some consultants over the years who got that reputation. But they've left the business

But Álan Burns of Alan Burns Associates believes that consultants' opportunities have continued to grow amid consolidation. "We've seen some research that might surprise some people. That research indicates that just as many stations use consultants now as they did five years ago and the same percentage expect to be using consultants in the future.

McVay adds, "We've actually grown over the past 18 months, due in part to some smaller companies closing up shop. However, it's probably easier to survive if you're a smaller company. An individual may not be able to deliver the service we provide, but they can slash their rates a lot easier than we can Ed Shane of Shane Media Services is producing a video for the hotel convention channel at the upcoming National Assn. of Broadcasters Radio Show that stresses the benefits of "the objective outsider.' I've been in corporate meetings where the local management and programming people bowed to the wishes of the in-house consultant. That means there is only one mind-set rather than a collection of ideas that may yield new thinking.

FUTURE UNCERTAIN, NOT NEGATIVE

Still, the increasing competition is prompting what McVay calls a "culling of the herd." R&B consultant Crumbley joined Cumulus after consolidation claimed eight clients within 60 days. And Vallie/Richards' Blain made the move to a larger firm, believing that a format specialist in a larger company had better long-term prospects than an individual consultant who was forced to cover several formats.

Will we see more such consolidation? Bill Richards says, "A handful of consulting firms have come to me about merging to make us stronger too." But rock consultant Fred Jacobs says that despite the talk of consolidation, "I'm not sure that the same economies of scale . . . apply to consultants in the same way they do to broadcasters."

'Consultants are independents," says Warren. "That is one of the genetic traits of the breed. Sure, some consultants may merge with others, but what they'll really be doing is closing their own business and going to work for somebody else again. Most of those guys who don't make it will be more likely to take a PD job again, instead."

Those who remain are expanding their menu of services. Says Tom Barnes of Sinton, Barnes and Associates, "We've been working on Internet projects since other consultants were equating it with CB radio. The Internet and satellite radio will drive companies to look for new answers When that happens, big broadcasters will be forced to . . . seek some kind of outside vision . I've also noticed that with the larger firms, we're called on more to specifically do quantitative music analysis for format definition. Smaller broadcasters use us on a more strategic level."

'Everyone wants more for their money; therefore, I see owners looking for one consultant to be multiformat capable," says Bill Hennes of Bill Hennes and Associates. "I have shifted my focus to highlight my diversity of experience in many formats, therefore attracting owners with many stations of various formats.

Stratford Research VP of R&B programming Ken Johnson sees "an overwhelming need for consultants in the small and medium markets and with smaller companies. Consultants can bring not only their experience in a multiple of markets but tools such as research and their connections, which the smaller-market PD doesn't necessarily have access to.'

Long term, Richards says, consultants' prospects "depend on how big the groups become. You could have groups saying they won't use consultants, but when the people they have internally get so overwhelmed, they'll either bring more group consultants inside or [bring in] outside consultants. It could come back around.

External consultancies will thrive in 2000 and beyond as long as we continue to offer services and perspective unavailable to clients," says Kennedy. "The digital age offers many opportunities for strategic assistance, as does the new world of management for these companies. Also, when the longest run of economic strength on Wall Street cools down and the value of IPOs normalizes—which it is starting to do already; fewer IPOs were offered in the past 12 months than in the previous Telecom Era years—how will these companies operate?

"Every year in June, I make plans for the next rear with pretty good accuracy," says Shane. This year, however, I haven't been able to see so clearly into the new year ... . Maybe things are in such flux that I can't make things out clearly. But I'm an optimist, so I feel the future is uncertain, not negative.

Special Programming for COUNTRY ATTENDEES

"A SEMINAR WITHIN A SEMINAR!"

A separate agenda exclusively tailored to the format

Saturday, October 9
Events include:

Country-exclusive keynote speaker
Country panels
Artist performances and morel

This intimate setting provides a forum for real conversation, honest answers and valuable solutions.

A timely tribute

"No one does anything in life on his own, there are always caring people who shape our lives and our careers, whose influence stays with us for the rest of our lives."

- Walter Cronkite

"When I was a little girl...

"My Mother, my 'Giant', taught me to fight for what I believe in and to help others. Three years ago, I started a foundation to stop the cycle of child abuse. Without my Mother's encouragement, I would certainly not be the person I am today."

- Elyn Diamond, Founding Director of "The Children Who Never Forget Foundation"

Giants roamed the world...

"Your 'Giant' recording made me reflect on a particular 'Giant' in my life - Claude Ganaye. Claude, a 15 year old French boy in France in June 1944, saved my life and possibly the lives of 200 men in my outfit. Thank you for producing such an inspiring song. I hope that all the remaining 'Giants' of WWII will reflect on their individual contributions to this great nation when they hear this song." - Phillip J. Roy

I thought they stood so high...

"No one stands taller than an adult who reaches down to help a child. Millions of our nation's children need 'Giants' in their lives - adults who will love them and care about them, and have expectations for them. These are the 'Giants' of today." - America's Promise. The Alliance for Youth

Sure they could touch the sky...

"We at the Department of Defense strike to meet the standard put forth in the lyrics of the song 'Giants'. Through her music, Tamara is able to offer a powerful charge to our nation's leaders."

- Harold Heilsnis, Director for Public Communication

And every night on our black & white TV...

"If you bungle raising your children, I don't think whatever else you do well matters very much."

- Jacqueline Lee Bouvier Kennedy Onassis

As Brooks Brooks Top 40/Country Divide, Are The Gains Worth It?

by Phyllis Stark with Melinda Newman

Country PDs have been grappling with pop crossovers for years. But by creating an alter ego, recording a pop album as that character, and aggressively going after pop airplay, Garth Brooks has added an unexpected dimension to this perennial debate.

If country PDs were divided before about what to do with LeAnn Rimes, Faith Hill, or Shania Twain hits that at least started at country before crossing over, Brooks' "Lost In You," recorded as the character Chris Gaines as a prequel to the film "The Lamb," has exacerbated the debate among country PDs. While many country PDs are sitting out the acoustic ballad, at least one OM, who oversees both a country and an AC station, wouldn't let his AC PD add the record so his country station could have it all to itself.

One thing most country PDs seem to agree on is their frustration at not being courtesy-serviced with the single, even though the label is not working it to country radio. "I've been one of his biggest supporters since his very first single," says KJJY Des Moines, Iowa, MD Eddie Hatfield. "I've flown and driven all over the country and to Canada to see him, all at my own expense. But we have not been serviced the single. Garth's big thing was always to 'dance with the one that brung ya.' Now the almighty buck has spoken. Country goes into a lull, and Garth bails. What's up with that?"

WJLM/WYYD Roanoke, Va., PD Robynn Jaymes, who had not yet heard the record at press time, says, "If it is pop, it ain't country, so I ain't playing it, much as I love Garth.'

Jeff Winfield, PD of KHAK Cedar Rapids, Iowa, calls the single "fine for AC, I guess. The story and the potential movie is interesting, but one lis-tener asked me if [Brooks] was going to be 'The Artist Formerly Known As Garth.' "We're not making a big deal about it."

"Just about everyone I've blindly played it for thinks it's Kenny Log-gins," says WUSY (US101) Chat-tanooga, Tenn., PD Chris Huff, who has no plans to play the record. "The song's not bad, but it certainly doesn't sound like Garth. We haven't even done a 'guess who this is' on the air with it. Why bother? It takes five minutes to explain why we're playing a pop record by Brooks' alter ego.'

But enough other stations are dabbling with the record that it charted at No. 62 on the Country Airplay chart last week, although it drops to No. 64 this week. (It debuts at No. 29 on the AC chart this week.) "The response has been mainly positive," says KYCW Seattle PD Becky Brenner. "There are those who hate it, but most say, 'It's Garth, and you should play it.' I would not want to add it in regular rotation, because it makes us sound like a rock/pop station, but it is fun as a feature. We always point out that it is Garth Brooks as rock star Chris Gaines and give a quick recap of what the project is all

WKKX St. Louis PD Jeff Allen says, "We played it on the morning show and during our 'Kix Cafe' over the lunch hour. I think we the media have talked about it so much that we had to play it. Granted, they were plays designed to satisfy listeners' curiosity, but you can't ignore any project by the format's biggest name

"We got an avalanche of E-mail on our Web site from Garth fans who didn't want to have to hear 'Lost In You' on [top 40] or ACs asking us if we would play it," says WCTO Allentown, Pa., PD Chuck Geiger. "We are playing it about three times a day as a spike, and it's being set up as Garth's alter ego, Chris Gaines. So far, no negative

Lonestar Rebullets To Dominate Chart

Gaining 234 spins in a history-making bat-tle for a fifth consecutive week atop our Country Airplay chart, Lonestar's "Amazed" (BNA) rebullets after losing 19 detections last issue to dominate the chart again, while Jo Dee Messina's "Lesson In Leavin' " (Curb) regains a bullet in the runner-up slot with an increase of 64

With 6,204 plays, Lonestar's song again leads in one-week detection totals for the chart year that began in the Nov. 27, 1998, issue and is the first title by a group or trio to spend more than four weeks at No. 1 in 40 years

In late 1959, RCA's the Browns spent 10 weeks at No. 1 on the chart then known as Billboard's Hot Country & Western Sides with "The Three Bells," which also spent four weeks at No. 1 on The Billboard Hot 100.

With five consecutive weeks at the top. Lonestar sets a new benchmark for the modern era, since the last group to rule No. 1 for four weeks was Alabama (also RCA), when "Jukebox In My Mind" reigned for a month during summer '90.

NAB Causes Static Over Low-Power Radio

Engineers working for the National Assn. of Broadcasters say they have proof that the FCC's low-power radio (LPFM) proposal has the potential to affect service to millions of listeners. The NAB hired outside engineers to test the effects of LPFM on five kinds of radios-in-car, personal, clock radios, portable stereos, and home stereos—and although some handle the interference better than others, NAB president Eddie Fritts says that "in the 60 markets tested, fully 4.2 million people could face additional interference." The study is detailed in comments the NAB filed Aug. 2 with the FCC that also charge that LPFM could hurt the conversion to digital. FCC Chair Bill Kennard hopes microradio will help "bring new voices" to radio.

Meanwhile, nearly five years after Congress scrapped a 17-year-old program aimed at helping minorities and women buy radio stations, two U.S. Senate Commerce Committee members are trying to bring tax certificates back to life. John McCain, R-Ariz., and Conrad Burns, R-Mont., have written a bill that would allow a would-be owner to defer the tax on capital gains from a station sold to minority buyers. It also includes a limit on how many times a company could take advantage of the tax break and bars a buyer from quickly reselling the station. The sponsors plan to introduce the bill in September. The bill answers a call made by Kennard in June, when he urged a revival of the tax certificate. The NAB backs the certificate program.

GROUPS PLAN INTERNET STRATEGY

The launch of a multi-group Internet initiative is imminent, says Citadel CEO Larry Wilson. Last week, execs from Citadel, Greater Media, Susquehanna, and others sat down with Emmis CEO Jeff Smulyan, who is leading the effort. Citadel has already launched its own Net service provider, efortress.com, which has about 24,000 subscribers. While Citadel is expanding the ISP into its radio markets, Wilson says that they are holding back somewhat to see what part, if any, it plays in the multi-group project.

NEW MEDIA

Cox Media and Cumulus Broadcasting are taking no chances on the Internet. Both have bought Web site names that may one day be desired by disgruntled employees or listeners. Cox owns coxsucks.com and coxsucks.net, plus ihatecox.net. Cumulus recently registered domain names like cumulusucks.com and ihate

Cox and Cumulus are hoping to pre-empt people like Gilinda Rogers, a former radio station owner who now owns more than 700 domains, including dozens of call letters. After a dispute with Cox's cable-TV division, she launched ihatecox.com, and under threat of a lawsuit she sold Cox two sites, including coxcommunications.com and coxcable.com. She still holds the ihatecox.com name.

Rogers, who, since selling country WPTG Williamsburg, Va., has become a Web site developer, considers her Net treasure hunting a service, not piracy. For less than $1,000, she sells back a station's domain and designs a site for them, she says. "If someone else had gotten these site names, they may not have been able to get them."

Patsy Cline posthumously received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame Aug. 3. Cline was recently slotted at No. 11 on VH1's "100 Greatest Women Of Rock And Roll," the highest-ranking country singer in the survey.

Dixie Chicks will appear on "Late Show With David Letterman" Sept. 14.

Asleep At The Wheel's Ray Benson will appear on the syndicated Don Imus radio show Aug. 12 to promote his new Bob Wills tribute album, "Ride With Bob" (DreamWorks).

Danni Leigh's first album for Monument Records will be produced by Emory Gordy Jr. and Richard Bennett.

AN OVERVIEW OF RADIO PROMOTIONS • BY JEFF SILBERMAN

323-525-2303 · jsilberman@airplaymonitor.com

Looking Beyond Summer To Labor Day, Y2K

While station concerts and summer movies once again vied for the Topical Barometer crown, Promogandists are also thinking ahead to Labor Day, back to school, football, and 2000.

Rock KSJO San Francisco made one happy headbanger the Wizard at Ozzfest. "Every time we played a Rob/White Zombie song followed by an Ozzy/Black Sabbath song, caller No. 10 won two tickets to Ozzfest," says "Iron" Jim Sheehan. "All ticket winners qualified for a grand prize: limo, food and drink, backstage passes, and front-row seats. Also, I had a 3-foot wizard hat made. It was purple with gold and silver stars and planets that the winner was required to wear. No one at the show could miss our winner. He signed autographs and posed for pictures with people."

On the summer trip tip is R&B WUSL (Power 99) Philadelphia's Bangin' Bikini Beach Party, a daily trip-for-two giveaway to the Bahamas for a beach party with Tyrese. "Listeners of the morning show hear the fantasy phrase of the day, recorded by Tyrese," Simone Jones says. They have to listen all day to hear it again, then be caller No. 9 to win. "Our phones are ringing off the hook with calls from listeners wanting to book their vacations around it and from travel agencies wanting to sell packages.

Also trippin' is modern WPLA (Planet Radio 93.3) Jacksonville, Fla., with its Trippin' Thursdays contest. "For eight consecutive weeks, we award a trip at 6 p.m. to various destinations, such as the Bahamas, Islands of Adventures/ Universal Studios, away Jaguar football games, and taping of a 'Jerry Springer' show," says Tina Bauernfeind. "The 20th caller who cites exactly where the 'trip' is hidden in a [local apartment complex] wins. The grand prize is a rent-free four-bedroom apartment for a year. To find out where the trips are hidden and to register for the apartment, listeners can stop by the complex on a weekly basis or register for the Deadbeat E-mail Club through our Web site."

Summer movie lust? Country WPOC Baltimore is all over the premiere of "Runaway Bride." "Our promotion staff will be dressed as brides to escort listeners to their seats," says maid of honor Sheila Silverstein. "We'll also give away garters and other bride stuff."

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: FALL PROMOTIONS

You may still be able to fry eggs on the sidewalk, but Promoganda panelists have got their eyes trained on big fall-book promotions. About a quarter of panelists will reprise successful events they did a year ago, 38% will put a new twist on a perennial favorite, and an equal percentage are coming out with something new.

Bringing back an old favorite is rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas, which will fly the Party Plane to Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. "We've done this twice, and it has been huge for us," Vanessa Thill says. "Listeners call in to win trips for two on board the Party Plane, and now they get a trip with the on-air talent."

Putting new twists to popular favorites are R&B KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles and triple-A KKZN (the Zone) Dallas. "We're closing down an L.A. theme park for a private listener party for 7,000 with a station concert,' Power's Dianna Obermeyer says. "We did this last year with Universal Studios Hollywood."

The Zone will hold its Big Night Out Benefit Rock Auction and Concert. On the block will be things like autographed guitars and framed handwritten song lyrics. "One ticket gets you in to both concert and auction," says Barbara Luchsinger. "Last year, we had an invite-only cocktail party at an upscale jewelry store for winners to preview the items.

Expect to see plenty of millennium-themed events this fall, too. One that's already out in the open is top 40 KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore.'s Y2K promotion. "We're giving away $2,000 per day for a month," says Wendi Foster.

On the other hand, the panelists also caution against doing promotions that have been burned out on the audience. While some cite station concerts and song of the day as overused concepts, the topic that raised the most red flags was, of all things, cash contests-especially chainwide, multiple-market games. "Listeners can be fooled for a while, but not for long,' notes Tristano Korlou of CBS' Hartford, Conn., cluster, who had to compete with Clear Channel's multi-market promotions in Rochester, N.Y. "These $10,000 daily giveaways that some stations do are burning out fast. I believe in not only great giveaways that are more down to earth but in putting an extra little twist by giving away a car or a huge trip. That makes the promotion very local. When your morning team announces the winner, hundreds of qualifiers and their friends and family are tuning in."

Country WYRK Buffalo, N.Y., is staging a Friends and Neighbors Tour. "We got two trucks from western New York Ford dealers, says Steve Burgess. "We drive a '99 Ford F-150 to many local charity events, church bazaars, lawn fetes, jamborees, etc. At every event, people sign up to win the truck, and we hand out promo items. feedback on the air from Garth doing Chris doing Babyface doing Kenny Loggins."

WYRK Buffalo, N.Y., PD Justin Case adds, "It has a good groove. I might even play it. I think Garth is a genius, and this project will likely be a monster if the pop PDs buy in. He's sold nearly 100 million records. I would buy in.

ANGER, SUPPORT, CONFUSION

Some PDs are upset with Brooks for making a pop album. Others are supportive of his experiment, and some seem just plain confused.

"Servicing a major act like Garth only to pop can be a double-edged sword," says WGAR Cleveland PD Clay Hunnicutt. "We've seen the success of Shania, and some would argue that she's brought a lot of new listeners to country. The same goes for individual songs like 'This Kiss' and possibly Martina McBride's new one ["I Love You"]. After all, if they figure out they like Garth, where else are they going to find the rest of his music? Only on WGAR. But at the same time you can't help but feel like we're handing over our most popular stars without any thought behind it." Also citing the "one who brung you" analogy, he says, "It sure feels like we're watching our dates walk out the door with someone else.

"Like any great artist, I'm sure he is wanting to expand his horizons and try some new and exciting things," says WKKX's Allen. "Having said that, it's unfortunate that it comes at a time when country needs every marquee name in the format to be producing great country music during this down period. We have to be certain that we have image ownership of Garth, along with all the other crossover artists, so that possibly we can bring new listeners to the country format. We can't control artists' career decisions, but we can, to some extent, control the audience's perception of those actions."

"If Shania Twain fits under the umbrella of country music based on her arrangements and sounds, I don't think the Garth stuff as Chris Gaines is so out there," says WXTU Philadelphia PD Ken Johnson. "The four or five [songs] I heard I didn't think were that far off the track. I could see playing it. Let's face it, the fans love Garth. If it's a quality thing, they'll like it.

"From a selfish programmer's point of view, I'm disappointed that at a time when our format is looking for direction, looking for its future, looking to reinvent itself, it's unfortunate that the leading artist in our format has decided to take a sabbatical from our format and take a detour,' says Johnson. "But I respect his right as an artist and performer to do that."

But other PDs are untroubled by the Chris Gaines concept. KHAK's Winfield says, "Hats off to [Brooks]. He's earned the right to do something different creatively, and it's just crazy enough to work." But he adds, "I do hope that Garth can come back to the format and give his fans a straight-ahead, kick-ass country project.' "Garth is the ultimate marketer," says US101's Huff. "I still believe that his goal of selling 100 million albums by 2000 is at the root of the existence of Chris Gaines . . . Maybe Garth feels that he's realized his full potential in the country arena. He certainly realizes that merely crossing over could ostracize him from his roots, and if pop has yet to embrace him despite his gargantuan sales, why would they accept a full-fledged Garth crossover? Chris Gaines is the answer to those problems. It is a rather complex means to an end, but that's not stopped Garth before.

"I don't know if it's very smart or very dumb; it's definitely different," says WKHX Atlanta OM Neil McGinley. "It definitely runs along what Garth does: He pushes the envelope, and I'd say his past track record is pretty good. I'm definitely going to listen to it. I'm intrigued by it. It puts a whole new spin on Garth."

Among Brooks' most ardent defenders is WBUL Lexington, Ky., PD Ric Larson. "I am so tired of hearing country programmers and jocks continue to trash and criticize Garth Brooks about the Chris Gaines project," he says. "I say we should ... not criticize his opportunity to expand his horizons. I see it no differently than the Beatles' 'Sgt. Pepper' concept album [or] the

"I don't hear people trashing Randy Travis and Travis Tritt for portraying characters in film and on TV," Larson continues. "I think those who criticize this project deep down wish they had an ounce of the talent, charisma, and creativity that Garth has. I am a country music fan. I am also a Garth fan, but this project is not for country radio. So leave it alone, and long live Garth Brooks.

"Anyone that earns a living with their talent has to follow their heart," says KRRV Alexan-dria, La., PD Lon Harris. "Performing what we think the public wants is a fool's game. You do what you love and hope you find someone who loves you back. Viva Chris Gaines. I hope he makes a ton of money and kicks 'N Sync's ass.'

MEANWHILE, ON THE POP SIDE . . .

So, how are pop PDs handling the record? With a lot less angst and soul-searching than their country counterparts.

AC WNND Chicago MD Haynes Johns says, "We're just introducing it as Chris Gaines. We're going along with how he's selling it. At the [Chicago showcase], he talked about Garth in the third person, and that's how we're positioning it, as a completely new person. The word Garth Brooks isn't being uttered."

Top 40 KKRD Wichita, Kan., PD Jack Oliver is doing just the opposite. "We're just playing it as Garth Brooks," he says. "We've explained the concept—it's the greatest hits of Chris Gaines, but it's Garth Brooks. When we do research, even being a top 40, Garth shows up in our top five. We can play 'The Dance' on this radio station, and people love it. We play 'Friends In Low Places' on Fridays for fun. We played 'To Make You Feel My Love' in regular rotation.

'We've had fun taking phone [calls], and we've been wondering if people would be upset with this being a different sound, but we've gotten no complaints at all, and that has surprised me," says Oliver. "The people have accepted it. It'll work for us in Wichita.

This record sounds like our radio station, which is obviously the most important thing," says top 40 WXKS-FM (Kiss 108) Boston PD John Ivey. "This one jumped out at us right away. [It] sounds like a pop record, and they're what has made this station successful. I'd be silly not to latch on it and play it a lot."

But, Ivey says, "we don't anticipate just being able to say it's Chris Gaines. Garth is the franchise. For the amount of music that this guy sells, they aren't all solely to country listeners

PD Kevin Mason Seeks To Fill Country Radio's Character Void At WQMX Akron

He may be No. 1 in the market, but WOMX Akron, Ohio, PD Kevin Mason isn't satisfied.

Despite a 5.8-6.4 12-plus jump in Akron, taking WQMX to the top from a tie for No. 3 and a 3.1-4.1 jump in nearby Canton, Ohio, Mason 'was disappointed" in the Arbitrons. "I don't like my numbers being this low. Yeah, we went up, but this isn't where we want or need to be. We are 'Akron's own country,' but I want to be Akron's [general-market] radio station.'

To accomplish that goal, Mason says, he has tried to model the station after the top 40s of the '60s, "when everyone was into the DJs and what was going on." WQMX jocks are required to fill out daily tracking sheets logging what they talked about on-air. "We've really focused on being creative and trying to do it differently."

Mason said he got a wake-up call on a recent driving trip to the Southeast with his wife when he listened to many country stations along the way. "I wanted to steal a few entertaining features and contest names," he says. But "I came back after a week so frustrated I couldn't even speak straight. In an entire week of intense radio listening there wasn't anything I wanted to steal. It lit a fire under me, telling me we aren't going in the right direction. With the advent of CD Radio, those [kinds of] stations are going to go by the wayside

Kevin Mason Program Director WQMX Akron, Ohio

'One of my biaaest frustrations now is how boring radio is overall'

Owner: Rubber City Radio Group Ratings: 6.0-6.7-5.8-6.4

"One of my biggest frustrations right now is how boring radio is overall," he says. "I want to be compelling. I don't want people to come to us just because we play country music" but because of the content and service elements like news and weather coverage. "I'm trying to cre-ate memorable activities. I'm not reinventing the wheel, just going back to radio in the good old days and trying to re-create that flair.

That includes a ton of contesting, with entertainingly named games, like Free Moolah Hula and Cash Cops, and the distribution of 125,000 bumper stickers a year.

Part of the problem, Mason says, is that 'we're missing the characters in country radio,' particularly on the programming side. "What does the job PD mean anymore? In the '70s, the PD was the DJ who had a collar on his shirt. Now you can have a PD who is in charge of seven stations and voice-tracks middays on two of them and has to do production on all of them."

Mason is trying to single-handedly fill that character void. "I always tell people, 'I'm a genius, just ask me,' "he says. "But when I get fired here, and I will, the next PD will say, 'Mason was an idiot; I'm the genius,' because programming radio stations is not a science, it's an art. It's all about personal preference and taste, [and] I definitely have an opinion on everything.

Among his most notoriously strong opinions is an intense dislike of pop remakes by country artists, something of which country PDs are now getting an alarming amount, he says.

That means WQMX never played Mark Chesnutt's "I Don't Want To Miss A Thing" or Dwight Yoakam's "Crazy Little Thing Called Love," was one of the last stations in the country to add Brooks & Dunn's "My Maria," and is eyeing that act's "Missing You" warily.

There are a few exceptions. WQMX is playing Alabama's "God Must Have Spent A Little More Time On You" in light rotation. "Never say never, but man, I feel a lot of pain when I do play it," Mason says.

He has no problem with remakes of older country songs, like Jo Dee Messina's "Lesson In Leavin' " or Tim McGraw's "Please Remember Me," because, he says, WQMX has only been in the format six years, so most of his listeners have little history and may not be familiar with the original.

Pop remakes are something Mason says he feels "hugely, vocally passionate about" because of the large amount of format sharing in his market. His AC competitor, for example, is still playing the John Waite version of "Missing You." Mason says he doesn't want listeners 'coming to country music and thinking that 'they are just rehashing what everyone else is doing.' We have the greatest songwriting community in the world in Nashville, and we have to remake old rock records?"

Recently, Mason has started to find other likeminded programmers after three years of championing the pop-remake issue alone. "For a while I felt like a gorilla in the jungle beating on my chest," he says. "We felt like lone wolves out there. Now, a lot of other PDs are saying, 'Hey, there is too much of this.' It's sad that Mark Chesnutt has to have a [two-week] No. 1 that will always be thought of as 'that "Armageddon" song.' [The original Aerosmith version was on that film's soundtrack.] A lot of people think of that as not very creative."

Mason is also wary of songs by older artists and has sat out both Kenny Rogers' "The Greatest" and George Jones' "Choices." That policy, he says, is because of the stations' relatively short heritage and his belief that his listeners have no history with those artists.

He did test those records, as well as the new Oak Ridge Boys single, "Baby When Your Heart Breaks Down," in WQMX's nightly "Shootout" feature and says, "I've never had one of them come back a winner. And I'm not setting them up to get beat by Brooks & Dunn. They get beat by Mark Wills or Sherrié Austin.

Still, Mason considers WQMX an artistdriven rather than a song-driven station. "We stay very focused on the core artist but also give newcomers a chance. The minute Bryan White comes out with a new song, people are screaming for it in this market. I added [the current single] the second week."

Mason plays 33 currents, but 60% of his music mix is oldies and recurrents. Here's a recent 5 p.m. hour: Tracy Lawrence, "If The Good Die Young"; Faith Hill With Tim McGraw, "Just To Hear You Say That You Love Me"; George Strait, "Write This Down"; Brooks & Dunn, "She's Not The Cheatin' Kind"; Dixie Chicks, "There's Your Trouble"; Alan Jackson, "Little Man"; Billy Dean, "What I Do"; Little Texas, "Kick A Little"; Collin Raye, "Anyone Else"; LeAnn Rimes, "One Way Ticket (Because I Can)"; Mark Wills, "Wish You Were Here"; Shania Twain, "You've Got A Way"; Alabama, "How Do You Fall In Love"; Reba McEntire, "One Honest Heart"; and Lonestar, 'Come Cryin' To Me.'

Mason has spent four years at WQMX, "the longest stint in my 24-year radio career," he says. "It's not a place I expected to be for a long time, [but] I've actually found a home here.

That's partly because of the station's local ownership by the three-station Rubber City Radio Group. His wife works for mega-group AMFM in Cleveland, and, Mason says, "she has 12 chains of command going up the ladder to get an answer. If I need something, I walk down the hall. My owner is a radio person; he's not here to count money."

PHYLLIS STARK here to count money."

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Country Airplay chart.

Airplay Monitor is the leader in charting the hits. And once again, Airplay Monitor takes the lead by charting the hit-makers with...

Each week, Monitor ranks the programmers who have an ear for predicting Airpower hits and have the spins to back it up.

"SLOW DANCE MORE"

the follow up to the hit, "The Greatest" from the Gold Album SHE RIDES WILD HORSES

20 years ago Kenny taught us 5 important lessons...
