CABARETS IN ATLANTIC CITY MAY SOON BE THING OF PAST

Mayor Advocates Their Being Abolished and Bill Introduced to That Effect Has the Support of a Majority of the City Commissioners

Atlantic City, April 11.—Whether cabarets in the city are to be in the future is the question that is agitating many more and more owners of the alleged job-producing establishments, ranging all the way from palatial beach-front address to the ordinary two-rooms of the back town.

Mayor Harry Buckhart, who has had the Mayorship since with much credit to himself, has been for the prohibition of the past few years, and who has brooked all public questions in a broad, liberal spirit, to the satisfaction of the many voters in terms of the non-partisan remedy, has come out in advocacy of the abolition of all cabarets, such to the amusement, not to any consideration, of the men active in this kind of endeavor. The bill has had the support of the Mayor, and will probably be passed, as it is favored by a majority of the City Commissioners. Mayor Buckhart, who has been firm in his intention to press the anti-cabaret measure, says:

"It is my positive opinion that Atlantic City will be much benefited by the abolishment of the cabarets in any form. We have at the above named of about 150-200 unwholesome, salacious, sufficient to please the mass multitude of our visitors and residents. We offer no great variety in this regard to any metropolitan, and certainly do not receive any share of satisfaction that others in the vicinity instead. I shall continue to fight to abolish the cabarets in the last ditch."

The passage of this bill means that nearly 1000 venders will be closed down, several thousand dollars already down this month, will have to look elsewhere for employment. On the other hand, it has a bright side, inasmuch as the legislators thereof of Atlantic City, especially the venders' friends, will reap the benefit, as the abolition of cabarets must result in their abandonment in the way of increased business.

VISUALIZING MUSIC

F. N. Borghoff, managing director of The Grand and the Metropolitan, one of New York's best known theatrical producers, made a tour one or two days before production of "The Ten Commandments." He views a picture in terms of the music he wishes to make suggest to his audience, and when he is in a position of directing the music he tries to make it suggest to his audience the picture of the scene. He tries to make it suggest to his audience the picture of the scene. He tries to make it suggest to his audience the picture of the scene.

He is not saying anything that Mr. Borghoff is doing in the Grand and the Metropolitan. He is not saying anything that Mr. Borghoff is doing in the Grand and the Metropolitan. He is not saying anything that Mr. Borghoff is doing in the Grand and the Metropolitan.

The activities of theatrical men for advanced production these weeks are being given the same attention in New York as in a number of other cities. There are a number of new productions of the day which are not only new in their plots but also in their costumes. They are not only new in their plots but also in their costumes. They are not only new in their plots but also in their costumes.

As a rule, in writing a play, the writer is advised to write a play which is a play in itself. It is not a play in itself. It is not a play in itself. It is not a play in itself.

Some Broadway producers, like Mr. Borghoff, make it their business to make a play which is a play in itself. They make a play which is a play in itself. They make a play which is a play in itself.

It is not a play in itself. It is not a play in itself. It is not a play in itself. It is not a play in itself. It is not a play in itself.

He produced which Mr. Borghoff styled as "his play." He produced which Mr. Borghoff styled as "his play." He produced which Mr. Borghoff styled as "his play."

THINK AMERICAN SINGERS Have Little Chances in America

In a recent interview with The Billboard music branch, members of the Metropolitan Opera chorus said in passing that as regards to a foreign singer not expected to meet the standard of the American public taste, it is not likely to be found here. They said that a singer must be American in mind as well as practice, for the American public has a special regard for its own people. They said that the best candidates for the billboards are those who are not only good singers but also good Americans.

KEWPIES

By Special License of Gen. Berghoff & Co.

Design Pat. 45,380 Reg. U. S. Patent Office

If you will start the season with Kewpies you will wind up with a bank roll. There are no dolls just as good. The name of "Kewpie" means the highest standard of merit. We introduced the Kewpie since just spring and every doll manufacturer in New York, with few exceptions, has tried to imitate the "Kewpie". But you all know what a doll fad there has been made of it. Imitated carnival people have already placed their Kewpie copies with us for the large sale in the fall.

"BEAUTY DOLL" Cheating Cheaters

If you have seen the play you will know the reason for this headline.

People that live in glass houses should pull down the blinds. Ask my competitors why they stopped using the name Bewtie, or, better still, ask me and I will tell you the real reason. I do not sell any Bewties and will not attempt to sell any, but I do sell Beauty Dolls and I WILL PAY $103.00 to any expert doll manufacturer who will say that my doll is inferior in make or dress to any doll on the market at the same price. It is not only NOT INFERIOR, but it is BETTER MADE AND HAS A BETTER FINISH THAN THIS DOLL THEY ARE CRYING SO MUCH ABOUT. IT SEEMS, HOWEVER, THAT SOME PEOPLE CAN NOT DO BUSINESS WITHOUT SLINGING MUD. I DO NOT WANT ANY OF THEIR BUSINESS AND I DON'T WANT TO TIE UP ANY FAIRS OR CARNIVALS AND I DON'T GRAB ANY CONCESSIONS AND TAKE AWAY YOUR BREAD AND BUTTER.

Our Beauty Dolls measure 14 1/2 inches in height and each doll is packed in an individual box, 6 dozen to a case, every one dressed in silk, trimmed with heavy fur. Big assortment of colors. Undressed, $5.00 per dozen dressed, $13.00 per dozen. Our guarantee stands. We will refund your money if our doll is not exactly what we claim it is, the best in the country for the money.

We Guarantee Immediate Delivery on All Orders. 25% Deposit Required. Samples, $1.50 Prepaid.
