KING'S X

Faith Hope Love By King's X
(Megaforce, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

When King's X's debut LP was released in 1988, it was shunned as a '70s retread by those who didn't "get it." While we still consider that inaccurate and unfair, we will admit that the recent resurgence in '70s nostalgia (from the Black Crowes to Redd Kross to the recent spate of Badfinger clones) has made the musical climate more open to a band like this. While there's no shortage of references in King's X's music—Beatles, Black Sabbath, even Crosby, Still & Nash—they're just fragments of this Texas trio's distinctly soulful mosaic of psychedelia, metal and melodic mid-'70s rock. While a countless number of bands crassly and awkwardly try to fuse black and white musical styles, King's X do so without the slightest whiff of effort or pretense—even when they briefly sample James Brown on "Born To Be Loved," it's a natural element, not a cheap attempt at crossing over or fitting in. The overtly spiritual lyrics work in much the same way that Living Colour's sometimes simplistic and all-too politically correct verses do: They don't detract from the overall sound as much as add an element of surprise, or even innocence. With this album, King's X isn't doing anything radically different from its first two, but they've finally made a great album, instead of a good album with a few great songs—watch them fly. X-tasy: "We Are Finding Out," "Never Get Tired Of You," "Mr. Wilson," "Talk To You," "Six Broken Soldiers" and the single, "It's Love."

VAN MORRISON

Enlightenment
(Mercury, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)

Like Bob Dylan, John Lennon, Neil Young or even Prince, Van the Man has earned a career rap as a figure who can be almost as erratic and frustrating as he can be brilliant. Enlightenment finds Van again in rare form—his voice sounds good, the tunes are relaxed and easy, and overall he sounds the most comfortable we can recall hearing him since maybe Into The Music. Like all the greatest triumphs in his career, Enlightenment finds ways to take the myriad strands of soul, R&B, Celtic folk, jazz and rock influences swirling inside Morrison's head, and adds just enough of that intangible Van Magic to take an otherwise average song and lob it up somewhere over the stars. There's a feeling here harkening back to his music of the early '70s (circa Moondance), where entranced listeners followed Morrison through an ouÿssey from rock to Celtic roots to jazz to soul. "Real Real Gone" incorporates just enough "Brown Eyed Girl"-feel to send chills up the spine, while songs like "So Quiet In Here" the inscrutable "In The Days Before Rock And Roll" or "See Me Through" nod to classics like Astral Weeks without ever duplicating them. In this day and age, true artists and guides are hard to find—whether it's into the music or into the mystic, Van Morrison will take you there.

BOUNTY HUNTERS

Threads: A Tear Stained Scar
(Rockville, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-7938)

Bounty Hunters leader Dave Kusworth has a musical background that reads like an atlas, being involved in many short-lived projects that have included, most recently, a teaming with ex-Swell Map Nikki Sudden in the Jacobites, from which most of us got to know the wealth of songwriting and musical talents of both these prolific artists. Like a more naive Keith Richards, Kusworth charms us with 14 selections on Threads, his rough yet enchanting vocals fronting the Rolling Stones-meets-Neil Young-meets-Johnny Thunders arrangements, with touches of blues and horns enriching the '70s-influenced guitar style in a powerful hue that never fails to display a delicate side. On songs like the fiery "A Picture Of You" and "Everything's For Her," Kusworth transforms the sensitive pop ballad into something of a not-so-despondent but still misty-eyed liaison with fate. On this, the third album for the Bounty Hunters, and second available domestically, Kusworth proves to be one of the archetypal purveyors of pop the way it ought to be, and confirms that in whatever project he undertakes, his songwriting talent takes the fore.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Where The Pyramid Meets The Eye: A Tribute To Roky Erickson
(Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)

For those in the dark about the glory and magnitude of the Rok-ster, Roky was founder and leader of the 13th Floor Elevators, perhaps the most out-there and way-gone garage band of the psychedelic '60s. The dreaded curse of the tribute album (four good songs, 10 bad ones) definitely hasn't hexed this collection—we're treated to a substantially stacked roster of talent (22 artists, 21 songs) with little room tossed away to filler or fluff (though hearing from Daniel Johnston would have been neat-o). From the remarkable (R.E.M., the Lyres, Julian Cope) to the dreamy (Bongwater's "You Don't Love Me Yet") to the genuinely strange (Primal Scream's recasting of "Slip Inside This House"), we're zombie-walked through the dusty and cracked pages of the Roky songbook. Among the more telling performances we found ZZ Top's surprisingly fun "Reverberation (Doubt)" (believe it or not, Erickson and Billy Gibbons for a while were part of the same Texas psychedelic circuit, when Gibbons was in a band called the Moving Sidewalks) or the Butthole Surfers, who provide the living link between the fuzzed-out psychedelic rustlings-in-the-attic of Roky's bygone days and the living, breathing, oozing Texas psychedelia of today.

BLAKE BABIES Sunburn (Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Floor, Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—A little sunburned girl with a Mountain Dew steps dizzily on a see-saw and carefully walks up to the middle, hands outstretched to maintain her precarious balance, and then meticulously steps down the other side with a smile of triumphant satisfaction smeared across her face. Such is the delicate balance between sweet and sour that each Blake Babies song hinges upon. Their songs incite confusion and bewilderment, but offer a gratifying listen, like the satisfaction of finishing a good book. Sunburn, the Babies' second Mammoth release, sees their songs gelling together with less effort and a confident ease, but maintaining the youthful quirkiness that initially attracted us to Earwig. The distinctive element in the band's sound remains singer/bassist Juliana Hatfield's girlish, whispering voice, full of honesty and subtlety, innocence and lust. Guitarist John Strohm fleshes out wonderful, wistful songs with plentiful riffs and juicy solos, as well as adding his voice on the bizarre "Girl In A Box" and backing up Juliana on "Train" and "Sanctify." Producer Gary Smith (Chills, Pixies, Connells) skillfully butters layers of Hatfield's voice with Strohm's guitar work and Freda Boner's tight-as-a-corset drumming. Block the ultraviolet rays with "Out There," which would make a killer single, "Sanctify" and "I'm Not Your Mother."

JANDEK The Living End (Corwood Industries, P.O. Box 15375, Houston, TX 77220)—Over a phenomenal and rambling discography of 19 albums, the mysterious Jandek has remained the most solitary and impenetrable of blues travelers, and on The Living End, he's got dem old lonesome, downhearted brown-acid blooze again. Most of this album features the prominent vocal stylings of the mysterious uncredited female vocalist (Mrs. Jandek?) whose eerie and disembodied presence has been felt on numerous Jandek projects, but never so thoroughly or deeply as here. She languors and languishes through metaphysical duets with the master (flashing back to a young Grace Slick in a cracked jam at the Airplane House circa '66), as the two partake in a rambling metaphysical discourse reminiscent of John and Yoko's spoken word/groan Plastic Ono collaborations like Two Virgins or Life With The Lions. There's plenty of the off-kilter blues cacophony you'd expect from a good Jandek album—thunderous, detuned toms and plunky, cracked-neck guitars—but Jandek seems to be pulling it all with him toward some unknown spiritual destination, a bit like an avant-garde Van Morrison or a deconstructed Marvin Gaye. It's either totally deep or totally junk, but if he goes to such pains as to include a minuet ("Pastimes"), a monastic chant ("Om") and a whole song constructed from plinking those little bits of the strings down by the guitar's bridge, he has to have some idea what he's doing.

NAKED RAYGUN Raygun . . . Naked Raygun (Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—Gray cold and uncompromising, hard like the city of Chicago, Naked Raygun once summed up an entire Midwestern genre with their slashing guitars and pummeling, gut-wrenching approach. While it's true that the salad days of the "whoa-oh-whoa-oh" chorus may be past (and they've certainly toned them down, admirably restraining themselves to just a couple on "In My Head" and "Home"), Raygun—Naked Raygun, that is—soldier on, attacking new territory and staking new claims to keep things fresh and honest. Ten years on, with a string of classic songs ("Vanilla Blue," "Home Of The Brave" and "Treason" to name a few) and albums (from Throb Throb and All Rise to last year's Understand?) under their belts, there's still no evidence here of the band losing their focus or stagnating. Assembling their songs Road Warrior-style, from scattered riffs, ideas and absolutely killer chorus hooks, no one has ever been quite as adept at rescuing great songs and riffs from the postpunk rubble as the Raygun. Take cues from the uncompromising success of latter-day Fugazi (who could be seen as a DC analogue to the Raygun's slashing guitar lines and rousing choruses) and you'll swiftly see how this band and their non-nonsense stance fits into the picture in 1990. Cuts . . . Top Cuts: "Home," "Fever Island," "Holding You" (the first ever Naked Raygun horn solo??), "Strange Days" and the mini-epic "Terminal."

NIKKI SUDDEN & THE FRENCH REVOLUTION Groove (Rockville, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-7938)—The legend of Nikki Sudden has its seed in punk innovators the Swell Maps, includes time sharing scarves with fellow Jacobite Dave Kusworth and bears tales of solo acoustic wanderings. Wherever he drags his guitar, Sudden's songs retain homage to predecessors the Rolling Stones and Johnny Thunders. On Groove, which finally comes to us stateside after over a year, there's a dense sound comprised simply but solidly of Sudden on electric guitar and voice, Duncan Sibald on bass and Andrew Bean on drums—the same band Sudden has toured with for the last few years. Backed by this particularly pointed and passionate rhythm section, Sudden's lisped, brandy-soaked whining and controlled guitar frenzies cover plenty of emotional turf and shed plenty of unwanted ear wax. The fragments of Sudden's past—all the red-eyed ballads, the debauchery, the soured love affairs—have instigated a cascading avalanche on Groove, which drowns you in the truly cathartic and expertly expressed woes of one of the greatest gypsies of rock 'n roll. The pulse of Groove flows powerfully, like a slow, numbing shock wave. We groove to "See My Rider," "Breaking Lines," "Great Pharaoh" and the title cut.

DARDEN SMITH Trouble No More (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—The borders of folk, country and other roots-oriented genres of music have been expanded greatly in recent years, thanks to artists like Suzanne Vega, Mary-Chapin Carpenter and Michelle Shocked to name a few. Quickly making a name for himself is Austin, TX, singer/songwriter Darden Smith, who straps on an acoustic guitar and plays a style of music that blends elements of rock and the above-mentioned genres into a grab-bag of uplifting and wide-ranging songs. No longer pigeonholed into the Nashville scene, Darden Smith succeeds in continuing his own course, started on his 1988 self-titled Epic debut, opening up more ears to the fact that music can be powerful without necessarily being played at high volume. His songs, all intelligently personal and creative in their use of metaphors, and all find room for the listener's individual interpretations. With help from The Bible's Boo Hewerdine (with whom Smith collaborated on last year's Evidence) on two songs, as well as Fabulous Thunderbird bassist Preston Hubbard, Smith creates a collection of songs rooted in the Texas tradition, and which benefits from his far-reaching genre-bending abilities. Tops: "Midnight Train," "2000 Years," "Trouble No More," "Long Way Home" and "Frankie & Sue."

PURPLE OUTSIDE Mystery Lane (New Alliance, P.O. Box 1389, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-835-4267)

—The Purple Outside is not a small town near Twin Peaks but a swirling eddy inside the twisted mind of Screaming Trees' guitarist Gary Lee Connor. Aside from his guitar, Gary Lee tries his fingers out on the organ and bass, as well as exercising his vocal chords, and enlists yet another Connor named Patrick to drum. What follows is less sullen than Trees' vocalist Mark Lanegan's The Winding Sheet and less of an all-out shredding affair than brother/bassist Van's second band, Solomon Grundy. But like your favorite Trees album, Mystery Lane has plenty of dark curves, with psychedelic rockers like "After The Springtime," "When I'm Gone" and "Combination Of The 3" hovering above a dark abyss and shrouded in the indigo haze rising from the whirling grooves of songs like "The Velvet Doorway" and "Illumination." Gary Lee has crawled back into the velvet-lined caves of our psychedelic heritage and breathed as much incense-drenched air as possible, only to return to the '90s with a deep knowledge of the unknown, an understanding of where the pyramid meets the eye and an incredible talent for translating this into music and lyrics.

EASTERN DARK Girls On The Beach (With Cars) (Waterfront, c/o Dutch East, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—Eastern Dark suffered a premature demise with the 1986 death of guitarist/vocalist/main guy James Darroch in a van wreck, with only one single and a posthumous EP to verify their existence until now. Darroch, who also did a little time with the Celibate Rifles, had a songwriting aptitude that combined the abrasively clean, surf-assault guitar tactics of notaries like the Rifles and Radio Birdman, with an ear for more up-to-date '80s influences (their cover of the Descendents' "Silly Girl" is as obvious and natural as the nose on your face). The live, mostly unreleased material that makes up the LP just reaffirms what their scant studio output emphasized: The band's knee-jerk-but-brainy hooks and vocal harmonies bookended by Detroit-risen, summer-sun-hardened riffing could have, if left to develop, brought them a bow-down, name-drop status somewhere between the Ramones and, say, Buffalo Tom. If the Easybeats had had Ron Asheton playing lead, then there might have been a precedent to Eastern Dark's sound; as it is, the Hard-Ons can be viewed as an antecedent, but either way, all the live tracks included herein are marvels in their own right, passable sound quality notwithstanding. Start with the astute True West, Soft Boys and Kimberly Rew covers on the bonus EP and then check originals "Julie Is A Junkie," "Whore," "Johnny & Dee Dee" and "The President Is Dead."

Bobby Previte

Empty Suits

BOBBY PREVITE Empty Suits (Gramavision, 260 W. Broadway, New York, NY 10013)—Composer/drummer/multi-instrumentalist Bobby Previte brings us a 48-minute CD that defies any musical constraints and categorization, consistently rocking and swinging in a twisted and funky kind of way. Within the first few measures of "Across State Lines" you're exposed to Previte's powerful drum sound and some very inspiring interplay between bassist/guitarist Jerome Harris and altoist Marty Ehrlich (also some nice guitar slides courtesy of Elliott Sharp). Organist Steve Gaboury uses his B-3 with great taste and sparseness throughout the recording, never getting in the way of the tune or the players and placing that eerie/funky tone of the B-3 at the right places and right times. We're also treated to some extraordinary vocal work by vocalist Roberta Baum; her tonal qualities along with her ability to sing microtones can send chills up your spine.

FALLING JOYS Wish List (Nettwerk, c/o I.R.S., 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604)—This Sydney, Australia, quartet crafts a pop blend that is at times forceful and somber, finds a rough edge and gets playfully funky, and then shows its coy and wistful side. Singer Suzie Higgle evokes the confidence of Kirsty MacColl as she calmly moves from verse to verse, undaunted by the stylistic variations; her emotions flow through in both her writing and singing styles. Having formed in 1984, the Falling Joys released several singles in their homeland, including 1988's "You're In A Mess," which is included on this U.S. debut. Hooked up with Nettwerk producer Adrian Bolland (Severed Heads, Boxcar), they keep the songs simple, opting to hold things more tacit, while letting their charming pop sense provide the movement for these pieces instead of trying to ornament them with some unnecessary tricks. The resulting collection provides some interesting tunes that are never boring, and have an atmosphere of delight to help us get through the over-hyped holiday season. Joys to fall for: "You're In A Mess," "Puppy Drink," "Lost Addiction," "Robinson Crusoe" and "Jennifer."

LUNAR BEAR ENSEMBLE Lunar Bear Ensemble (MU, 111 4th Ave. Suite 5A, New York, NY 10003/212-228-7413)—Producer/mixer/engineer Robert Musso, who has collaborated extensively with Bill Laswell on varied projects such as PIL, Tom Waits, Miles Davis and the Ramones, has found an interesting ensemble to land his hands and ears on. The Lunar Bear Ensemble's main frame is vocalist Lunar (John Richey) and percussionist Bear (Richard Graham), the former being a founding member of the band Machine Gun and the latter a poet/ethnomusicologist who has studied extensively with Glen Velez. The music may strike you as a reggae/funk/hard-edged-rock/King Crimsonish kind of sound, whereas John Richey's vocal style is fairly reminiscent of Adrian Belew's vocal work on Crimson's Beat album, his lyrics are both distinct and poignant. Drummer Martin Atkins—who has worked with PIL, Jah Wobble and Brian Brain—provides a jumpy go-go/hardcore-ish groove throughout the whole record and guitarist Eddie Freeze provides a natural scorching sound, complementing the whole tone of this project. Some tunes that particularly stand out are "Musical Fatale," "Bleeding Liberal" and the berimbau and mandolin-laced "Corner Of George."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

POI DOG PONDERING Fruitless (EP) (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Taken from their latest album, Wishing Like A Mountain . . . this EP contains a souped-up funky version of "Fruitless," a reminder of this Austin, TX-meets-Honolulu outfit's ability to utilize such a wide assortment of sounds, even within a solitary song. Also included are live versions of two other Poi Dog songs, "Thanksgiving" from the same album, and "Wood Guitar/Falling" from their first Columbia compilation as well as three covers: Roky Erickson's "I Had To Tell You," which also appears on Sire's tribute compilation; New Order's "Love Vigilantes"; and Canned Heat's "Going Up The Country"—all done in Poi Dog's now well known multi-instrumental hybrid sound.

GARLIC BOYS Garlic Boys (7" EP)/ OMIODE HATOBA Surfin' In UFO (7" )/VARIOUS ARTISTS Japan Bashing Volume 2 (7" ) (Public Bath, P.O. Box 2134, Madison, WI 53701)—In Public Bath's second batch of Japanese experimentalism/general heaviness, we discover that thrash lives well and prospers in the form of the Garlic Boys, who take a Flex Your Head approach and manage to infuse their four songs with the same furious blasts of freshness that Void, or early early J.F.A. had—a trick that seems to escape most U.S. thrash bands nowadays. Omiode Hatoba's title track is a plunge into Ralph Records/Pere Ubu-like irreverence and elasticity; the four contributions push musical parameters in a way that ends up as comfortably kooky rather than dense or unstructured. Playmates and Subvert Blaze make up the latest Bashing comp, with the Playmates ripping out two loud and clear girls-in-the-garage numbers. Both tracks sport the same immediacy and volubility as the Creamers or Lunachicks, but with a tad more finesse on the guitar leads. Subvert Blaze is more of a bruised and bleeding recruit from the Black Sabbath/Amboy Dukes wars—their "Upside Down" dwells in the regions of noody bad-trip solos and ominous bass-lines, plunging into the abyss on its own slow terms.

ULTRA VIVID SCENE Special One (EP) (4AD, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Much as we like Joy 1967-1990 and we're happy to see UVS/Kurt Ralske getting the recognition they/he so deserve, the album's commercial shine sometimes blunted the desperation that made the debut such a bittersweet romp through emotional broken glass. Amazingly enough, Kurt has restored all of our faith in him on the three non-LP tracks on dis here EP. While "Lightning" (which samples the same "Funky Drummer" beat as Sinead O'Connor used on "I Am Stretched On Your Grave") and "A Smile And A Death Wish" are quiet, ambient drones in the vein of the first LP, the awesome "Kind Of A Drag" finds him charging into uncharted waters. Using the drum intro from Zep's "When The Levee Breaks" as its rhythm, Kurt and the instruments play hide-and-seek around the beat, resulting in one of his best-ever songs, and one that could fit into an innovative beatbox show as well as regular rotation.

PEGBOY Three-Chord Monte (EP) (1/4 Stick, c/o Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL/312-463-8316)—Pegboy's four-song debut centers them at the heart of the trumpeting-with-righteousness indie re-uprising, with soaring yet gritty vocals, amp-crunching riffs, waaah-woahing and all. The Moving Targets/Naked Raygun/Bullet LaVolta penchant for chant-along choruses and guitars that pound into submission one rousing riff after another is resurrected here, with the band's lickety-split delivery earning them points of distinction and leaving no dross, particularly with "My Youth" and "Fade Away."

JACKPOT!

BWANA DEVILS Bwana Devils (c/o Ken Holstein/Looney Toons, 2222 Berk St., Napa, CA 94558/707-255-3640)—The Bwana Devils have been stompin', yowlin' and infiltratin' every bar-type venue for miles around their NoCal HQ and for "a bit more than a lifetime," even appearing on that long-ago S.F.

F.Y.I.

Though admittedly we're a little partial towards gals with thick, dreamy Georgia accents, the minute we heard the demo debut of MARLEE MACLEOD (c/o

Unscene comp with other future stars like the Catheads and the Ophelias. All those years of feverish practicing and maturing have resulted in a predominantly voodoo-cowpunk manhandling approach to song, a likely result of listening to too much Beat Farmers. What makes them special, individual and seasoned enough for some major to do 'em up right are deviations from form, every other song or so, which bely a more subtle and sagacious group of musicians than your average shit-kicker. The cover of Chuck Berry's "Let It Rock" alone shows that guitarist Otis has a Mississippi bluesman or two stashed in his soul, and they even go the glam-but-not-glittery mile via T. Rex ("Dirty Animals"), and the NY Dolls with the power-chord weeper "Snort It" and the rather-righteous (in the attitudinal sense) "Home." The band is comfortable enough to whip out a catchy chorus with little prompting and versatile enough to adapt such hearty songwriting to the tune of the Cramps, the Campers or Cochran. These Devils possess a full-grown sound that's wanting nothing but a little more notice.

Lauribelle, 610 13th St., #15, Tuscaloosa, AL 35401/205-758-9505) we knew we were hearing something special. Above a bed of solid melody lines and chinga-chinga acoustic guitar brushes, she sings her songs with direction and poise—a Georgia version of Lonesome Val or Maria McKee just waiting to be discovered. Featuring cameos from Will Kimbrough (of Will And The Bushmen) and Paco Ahlgren (of long-time Certain Damage faves Bentley Tock), this demo exudes warm and accommodating Southern musical charm without ever resorting to hokey open-armed Athenian barbeque rock or the cliches of artsy Stipe-ims. . . . The four-song demo from THE ENEMY WITHIN is short but sweet. This spunky, almost minimalist fivesome mix female vocals with sharp but insinuating guitars and gliding harmonica runs, to place them on the same page as our musical thesaurus as a less-mentally-perturbed Fetchin Bones, a more well-adjusted Blake Babies or Happy Family with less distorted guitars. Punching in and out of each song quickly without wearing out any of their many fresh ideas, the Enemy leave us thirsty for more—a spartan sense of restraint that's a rare trait among bands trying to cram everything they can into each C-90 they mail out. Though the Y-chromosomes of the bass player and guitarist are the only things keeping them from threatening the Aquanettas' title as best pop girl group in NYC, their demo tape (248 W. 17th St., #608, New York, NY 10011/212-645-2471) sets the stage for them to join any of those aforementioned guy/girl bands who mix the sour and sweet to such knockout and phenomenal effect.

JACKPOT!

METERS Look-Ka Py Py and Good Old Funky Music (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0070)

Why do they call CD cases "jewel boxes"? Because they're capable of holding precious CD reissues like these Meters titles. Listen up, y'all, as if you didn't know it already, the Meters were plain and simply the funkier band ever. Describing them in the words of one of their early T-shirt slogans, "The Meters will funk you to death," would be a pretty good prognosis for the intense state of sweat that ensued whenever they plugged in and jammed. From the late '60s to mid-'70s, four of the most unbelievably bad-ass musicians ever became regarded as the ultimate funk unit—Art Neville's swirling Hammond organ, Leo Nocentelli's amazing leads and fills, George Porter's in-your-face bass-lines and the legendary Zigaboo Modeleste (revered by many as the greatest drummer on earth, source of the greatest snare drum sound ever put to tape). Their early albums on the Josie Records label have for years been fetching outrageous prices on the collectors' market and now, joy of joys, some of the greatest music to ever shake the planet has finally been made available for all to enjoy and experience. Let the musicologists rave and ramble about the Meters' tight-but-loose syncopations and their polyrhythmic gumbo forming a bridge between Caribbean, African and American musics; we just want to turn the sucker up. The unveiling of Allen Toussaint's personal collection of loads and loads of reels of previously unheard Meters sessions—the amazing "Jambalaya" and "I'm Gonna Put Some Hurt On You" stand out—instantly ranks these Rounder reissues as among the most important and anticipated releases ever. We don't want to sound greedy or nothin', but, we'd love to hear even more good funky Meters music rolling out of the vaults and into the reissue bins. Ooka-she-uh, ooka-she-ah.

McKINNEY'S COTTON PICKERS The Band Don Redman Built (1928-1930) (Bluebird, c/o RCA, 1133 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036)

Without a great deal of fanfare or self-congratulatory back-slapping, Bluebird Records (through RCA) has been prodigiously releasing some of the very earliest sounds of jazz, primarily concentrating on swing and pre-swing-era recordings. This period might seem primitive to some, presumably lacking the spirituality and improvisational "soul" of bop and beyond, but upon reflection/reissue, much of the late-'20s/early-'30s jazz bands swung so beautifully and with such a populist feel for melody that its then-danceable style is often overlooked and misinterpreted. McKinney's Cotton Pickers, a late-'20s big band, were the best of their time, featuring such outstanding talent as Don Redman (arranger), John Nesbitt (trumpet) and part-timers Benny Carter, Coleman Hawkins and Fats Waller. Their instrumental compositions were a sublime blending of technical virtuosity, inspired cross-career. The selection of compositions reads like a Best Of in jazz/pop history. A real high point in this release is the Trio's rendition of George Gershwin's "Embraceable You." It's as if Gershwin had written the tune with Cole's voice in mind. The opening "Jumpin' At Capitol" also finds the Trio at their finest. Some other classics such as "Get Your Kicks On Route 66," "What Is This Thing Called Love?" "It's Only A Paper Moon" and a very sweet rendition of "Sweet Lorraine" makes this an indispensable CD for anyone who loves the music of this very forward-thinking West Coast jazzman.

culturalization and winsome arrangements, and their hilariously entertaining vocal numbers, featuring scat singing and romantic crooning, were clearly the precursor to such pre-R&B stars as Louis Jordan. If Rolling Stone ever did an issue devoted to the '20s, McKinney's Cotton Pickers would be on the cover.

HANK WILLIAMS Rare Demos: First To Last (Country Music Foundation, 4 Music Square East, Nashville, TN 37203)

The estimable Country Music Foundation has collected on one disc all of the known and available demos Hank Williams ever recorded (directly to acetate in those days). Minus Hank's Drifting Cowboys, one of country music's all-time greatest backing bands, there's a chilling eeriness to these austere versions: just Hank, his guitar and his immense songwriting and vocal talent. Some of these alternate and earlier takes naturally lack the momentum and swing of the more popular versions—it's fine to hear "Jambalaya" or "Honky Tonk" in their incubatory form, but they're nowhere near as pleasurable as the fleshed-out classics. The more plaintive material works best here: "Won't You Think Of Me Sometimes," "Neath A Cold Gray Tomb Of Stone," "In My Dream You Still Belong To Me" and "Lost On The River" are beautiful and haunting, stripped of all ornamental accompaniment, leaving Hank and his heart on his sleeve. Consumer recommendation: Start with PolyGram's wondrous Hank Williams two-fer compilations (possibly the best reissue series on the market) and then proceed to Rare Demos: First To Last.

NAT KING COLE TRIO Jumpin' At Capitol (Rhino, 2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404/213-828-1980)

No question about it—Nat King Cole was one of the baladeer/crooners of this century. His masterful phrasing and arrangements and great pop sensibilities gave us all plenty of wonderful music to romance and dance to. But many people don't know that years earlier there was Nat King Cole the piano player; a piano player and a half, one might add. The Nat King Cole Trio did a lot for jazz and the subsequent direction it took. The roots of the Trio go back to 1937, when Nat Cole hired guitarist Oscar Moore and bassist Wesley Prince for a run at the Swanee Inn in Los Angeles. In 1943, Cole began his recording relationship with Capitol and continued to do so until around 1955, when he disbanded the Trio due to his snowballing pop career. The material on this beautifully remastered CD spans this extraordinary period in Nat King Cole's

THE LITTER Distortions (K-Tel, c/o Dominion Entertainment, 15535 Medina Road, Plymouth, MN 55447)

The Litter has always been regarded as among the coolest and most collectable of the '60s garage grunge explosion. They personified garage-rock hipness by 1) being from the unlikely suburbs of the Minneapolis/St. Paul metro-area, and first meeting at a "Battle Of The Bands" contest at a state fair; 2) having ultimately had records released on not one but three now-defunct record labels; and 3) putting out one truly superb landmark to garage gnarliness and then disappearing promptly within two years. For years, it didn't matter whether you bought a priced-up used copy of the original Warick pressing, or a pay-through-the-nose exotic import of a U.K. reissue—true appreciation of the The Litter remained elusive and exotic. Now, everybody's favorite entertainment conglomerate (K-Tel) has finally entered the CD reissue fray by making one of America's all-time greatest garage band's magnum opus available again for the rabidly consuming public. On one disc you can savor the original classic versions of "Action Woman," "Watcha Gonna Do About It" and "Rack My Mind," as well as such inscrutables as the definitive garage psychedelia raveup of Buffy St. Marie's "Codine," odd covers of Cream tracks and weird medleys like "Substitute/The Mummy," which marries a frenzied reading of The Who's popular mod tune to an unlikely flamenco-flavored instrumental Farfisa organ romp. Shine those Beatle boots and trim those sideburns!

Though the word "classic" in the title might be a bit misleading—the version of "Tell It Like It Is" here isn't the original hit version, for example—this Rounder collection of many of Aaron Neville's late '60s and early '70s solo sessions reinstates many of his finer sides to print and offers a fresh perspective on the award-winning fluttering falsetto that has since become one of the centerpieces of the Neville Brothers' sound. Aaron's impeccably smooth and silvery voice wraps itself in a luxurious, wonderfully spun cloak of '70s soul, masterfully tailored by New Orleans producer Allen Toussaint. Try and visualize where Sam Cooke or the gentle side of Otis Redding might have ended up circa 1975, and you'll appreciate the soulful backdrop within which Neville sang these sides. Aside from the inferior remake of "Tell It Like It Is" (one could argue it would be impossible to improve upon such perfection), other gems like "Waiting For A Bus," "Cry Me A River" and the incredibly low-down, proto-Brothers sound of "Hercules" shine with the radiance of a master craftsman and prefigure the direction that Neville's voice, career and music were to take when united with his siblings at the end of the decade.

Many of the releases reviewed in Flashback can be ordered through Midnight Records. For a free catalog, write to 255 W. 23rd St., New York, NY 10011 or phone 212-675-2768.

"The Gang Of Four's music was always about resistance, but it was not the resistance of the rebel against the ruler. It was about the resistance of the rebel against him or herself...The Gang Of Four offered no anthems, no tunes of right and wrong. They were interested in constructing a drama in which each listener found his or her place...set free in a convulsion you can hear in so many of the numbers on this disc..."

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Buck Pets: #54

For those who might argue that college radio stations can't adapt to CMJ's weekly reporting schedule, here's proof positive that they can: 1,046 reports were taken this week, yet another record week for us. Sure, it's not the magic 1130 Gavin number, but we don't have an "Adult Alternative" chart either.

Before we start the number crunching, I want to briefly look back at Music Marathon '90. The panels were well attended, as were most of the shows, and most people seemed to be satisfied with the confab. Without a doubt, it was our most successful conclave yet, with somewhere around 4,000 brats checking out the scene at the Twin Towers. Please drop us a line and let us know your 2 cents: CMJ Music Marathon, c/o Paul Casanova, 245 Great Neck Road, 3rd Floor, Great Neck, NY 11021.

Still Addicted: For the sixth straight week (fifth straight issue), Jane's Addiction holds down the top slot, yet again the Cocteau Twins are #1 in the West, while gaining 3-2 overall. The Charlatans UK go 13-3 on their second week on the chart, grabbing the #4 Adventure Pick and #3 Audience Response—not bad for a debut artist, huh? Paul Westerberg, er, the Replacements round out the Top 5 (6-5), with an obvious strong showing in the Midwest (#2) leading the way.

Indie Teens: While no independent label stuff has cracked the Top 10, a few have come in under 20—Sky's Pylon rolls up 20-12, with a #7 West lead; Rough Trade's Galaxie 500's subtle LP moves 24-14; andTVT's jangle bells, the Connells, go 30-18. Other independent faves to be on the lookout for include: Chameleon's Mary's Danish (92-49), Alt. Tentacles' Alice Donut (63-55), Amphetamine Reptile's Lubricated Goat (84-60) and Mammoth's Chainsaw Kittens (73-66).

Trailer Park: What you see on the Top 150 is not always what you get. This week, there's lots o trailer singles for upcoming LPs. Cases in point: Buffalo Tom's import single (#46 debut) will soon be displaced by the excellent Beggars-RCA LP; Goo Goo Dolls' Metal Blade-WB single (#70 debut) will undoubtedly be overtaken by the album, as will current singles by the Trash Can Sinatras (#108) and Sisters Of Mercy (#148).

Ride-ing the Import Wave: Brit band Ride has made a confusing habit of releasing import EPs at random, and now Warners will have to deal with all kinds of parallel imports. The Sire-Reprise LP Smile (#114 debut) is a combination of past EPs, Ride and Play. Currently, there is an import Creation EP, Fall (#131 debut; #3 Import), and an LP called Nowhere; the latter should be out on Sire eventually. Confused? You should be.

Hindu Love Gods: #21

King's X: Bubbling under

ON THE CHART

With a veritable onslaught of new releases, it's no surprise that we've got over 20 debuts this week. Feeling groovy at the top is WB's Paul Simon, followed closely by labelmates Jane's Addiction, holding the #2 slot for the fourth issue in a row, and Sire-Reprise's Replacements, slipping 1-3. Other gigantic debuts include Beggars Banquet-RCA's Charlatans UK, starting off at #4 with their full LP, Atlantic's Led Zeppelin box set (#7) and Elektra's The Cure, at #8 with their LP of remixes.

And the new entries don't stop there. Elektra's re-release (of sorts) of 10,000 Maniacs' Hope Chest debuts at #11, Giant-Reprise's Hindu Love Gods falls into #14 (#1 at Selector). Opal-WB's Eno/Cale collaboration starts out at #20 (#1 at 3rd St. Jazz) and Legacy-Columbia's Byrds box set flies into #21 (#1 at Twist & Shout and Venus). With the import already at #24, watch out for Sire-Reprise's domestic release of Morrissey's Bona Drag and Elektra's release of the Sisters Of Mercy's Vision Thing collection.

Moving steadily to the heavenly spot, Big Life-PG's Soup Dragons moves 23-15 and a new 12" moves Sire-Reprise's Depeche Mode up 39-27. Other inspiring debuts include Elektra's Inspirial Carpets at #35 with their long-awaited full-length LP; 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Rollins Band rears its ugly head in at #37 (the top indie debut). Netzwerk-Capitol's Skinny Puppy 12" debuts at #44 (watch out for the full LP next week); WB's Al B. Sure! is at #46; and Sire-Reprise's English delight Ride smiles at #48 (#1 at Play It Again, MI).

UNITY 2 What Is It, Yo?! (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—The Unity 2 crew of Haitian-born Lionel "Nene" Bernard and Jersey-bred Sean "Cavo" Dinsmore are sailing some potentially treacherous waters on their debut LP, What Is It, Yo?!. The black and white combo aim to please with a mixture of two musical cultures: the American-born hip-hop and the Jamaican ragamuffin/dancehall. The two do this with the common desire for unity between races. Without getting preachy, the native voice of Nene and the MC Serch-sounding voice of Cavo deliver lyrics that bounce between social tensions ("Brooklyn Story," "Buckwheat The Rebel") and looser lyrics which indulge their own personal plights or the group's unorthodox style ("Livin' In A Dream," "What Is It, Yo?!"). Their message of unity is plain and simple—no statements need decoding—and the album radiates positive feelings while their tight friendship stands out. The Unity Crew (their live band) should not go overlooked—they add lively, dynamic melodies and contemporary rhythms while also using a DJ. Their rootier beats on "Shirlee" (which was previously released this year on the Funky Reggae Crew compilation) and "Can You Feel It" add even more flavor to this debut. The music and position of Unity 2 is something to applaud; they promote humanity and show how simple racism can be overcome.

PARIS The Devil Made Me Do It (Tommy Boy, 1747 1st Ave., New York, NY 10128/212-722-2211)—Lurking in the shadows of the superstardom-seeking rappers who do nothing more than jerk their own chains and fill our heads with empty, tired lyrics is the Black Panther of hip-hop who calls himself Paris. His debut LP, The Devil Made Me Do It, follows up his underground hit "Break The Grip Of Shame" and, for the most part, stays within the framework he created in that cut. Sounding like a radical Rakim, Paris' dark lyrics, which are heavily tainted by his political views, are delivered with intensely deadpan and savage force. His hard-to-swallow lyrics are backed by heavy beats and eerie bass-lines that, when blended with his words, create a hypnotic sound that never lets go of your attention. Top Cuts: "Scarface Groove," "Panther Power," "Warning," "On The Prawl," the backwards beats on "The Devil Made Me Do It," "The Hate That Hate Made" and "Escape From Babylon."

STYLE In Tone We Trust (Select, 16 W. 22nd St., New York, NY 10010/212-691-1200)—Style, (a.k.a. Tony Tane) has got some serious roots in rap music. Being the younger brother of Special K (Treacherous Three) and sala artist T-La Rack, it was a natural cycle for Tany to get his feet wet with his own rap album. Teaming up with producers Hollywood Impact (Twin Hype) and his DJ Mick Nice, Tony generates a slew of different styles with modern beats and diverse charismatic rhyming. His ability to jump from slow-flowing jams ("Hip Hop Blues" with its piano breaks made popular by Young MC on "Principal's Office") right into high-strung jammers like "Set The

ON THE CHART

After capturing the ever-elusive top spot last issue, L.L. Cool J (#1) is strengthening his grip and pulling away from the pack headed by Boogie Down Productions (#2). With not much to report from the heart of the Top 10 besides N.W.A.'s (7-5) continuing yo-yo effect and King Tee's surge (10-7), the rear is brought up by Kool G Rap & DJ Polo (19-9) and this week's debut at #10 from Monie

Love's LP, Down To Earth. Other impressive debuts worth noting: Paris (#15) and the X Clan prodigy Isis (#19). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Big Daddy Kane; 2) Isis; 3) Paris; 4) Freshco & Miz; 5) King Tee; 6) Brand Nubian; 7) 2 Black 2 Strong; 8) Main Source; 9) Deee-Lite; 10) Movement Ex. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Mood," clearly show his natural talent. Supporting Tany on his debut is King Sun on the second single "The Assassinator." Hype cuts: The baucy R&B flavored "Who Da You Love?" "Release Your Body," "How You Livin'" and "Victim To The Vinyl."

COLOR MY WORLD

From the micro-label Precise Music Records (P.O. Box 56754, Pittsburgh, PA 15208/412-241-5716) comes HARDCORE, INC. with a funky little three-song 12" (minus instrumentals). Kicking it off is "Sentenced To The Chair," which baasts a political message and groove which is in the same vein as "Fight The Power" with a rapper who (believe this) sounds like Flavor Flav. "Talkin' In Rhythm" has an equal rhythmic texture, but features smoother rhymes while the frenzied "I'm Comin'" runs with fast-flying lyrics over a tight beat with sax injections and impressive scratching. . . BIG DADDY KANE returns with "Cause I Can Do It Right" [112 BPM] (Cold Chillin', c/o Reprise, see address above) from his upcoming release, Taste Of Chocolate. As one of the smoothest rappers in the biz, Big Daddy's eclectic production utilizes natural-sounding samples and a wild kazoo section behind his always silky rhymes. Other endorsed releases: TWO KINGS IN A CIPHER "Mavin' On Em" (Jive, c/o RCA, 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036); TKA "Crash (Have Some Fun)" (Tommy Boy, see address above). Brothers will work it out. . . Peace.

DEF 12

THE NEXT SCHOOL "Profits Of Unity" [104 BPM] (Chrysalis, 645 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022)—With its marching intra and remix from Daddy-O, you'll quickly realize that this school has something to teach. They get rid of old, discriminatory ways of thinking which separate people by color, race or religion. Within the swaggering bass-line and straightforward groove the crew trades science with equal farce and conviction.

Do you think you can do me? Send all rap/dance/hip-hop smoothed out on the R&B tip with a pop feel appeal to Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 245 Great Neck Road, 3rd Fl., Great Neck, NY 11021.

JACKPOT!

OSCAR PETERSON TRIO Live At The Blue Note (Telarc, 23307 Commerce Park Road, Cleveland, OH 44122/216-464-2313)—After some 40 years as a high-profile jazz artist, Oscar Peterson remains unrivaled among pianists. The rightful heir to the throne of virtuosity occupied by Art Tatum, Peterson purveys a regal majesty—breathtaking technique allied to a thoroughgoing understanding of, and adeptness with, classicism and the blues plus a competitive streak that enables him to seize the moment a la Joe Montana—which continues to send otherwise self-possessed pianists into slack-jawed stupefaction in his presence. This historic reunion brought together the most popular edition of the Oscar Peterson Trio (1953-58 with Ray Brown on bass and Herb Ellis on guitar), which had not worked together for two decades. On this occasion, March 16 of this year at the Blue Note nightclub in Manhattan, the threesome—actually a foursome with the addition of drummer Bobby Durham—made up for lost time. Clearly, they hadn't forgotten how to swing as an ensemble, as this 73-minute live performance attests. The trio's renditions of three Peterson originals are every bit as arresting as their interpretations of standards ("Honeysuckle Rose," "Sweet Georgia Brown" and a medley of "I Remember You/A Child Is Born/Tenderly"). True to its high sonic standard, Telarc has come out with a CD on which sound and performance are not only comparable, they are synonymous. Splendid.

KENNY GARRETT African Exchange Student (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Having so unmercifully savaged Kenny Garrett's major-label debut as a leader last year—the fusiony Prisoner Of Love, which featured a guest appearance by the alto saxist's employer, Miles Davis—it is incumbent on me to be equally ecstatic in my praise of his new one, African Exchange Student. An 11-song, 67-minute journey that bridges continents, generations and traditions with wayfaring enthusiasm, African Exchange Student finds Garrett's alto and flute sojourning over a rolling sea of rhythm provided, in the main, by pianist Mulgrew Miller, bassist Charnett Moffett and drummer Tony Reedus; several other tracks feature Garrett and longtime associate Miller with bassist Ron Carter and drummer Elvin Jones. The exotic Garrett-penned ballad "Lullaby Of Ishfohan" adds hand-percussionist Rudy Bird to the Miller-Carter-Jones axis, while the title track features the same players with two more percussionists. With African Exchange Student, produced by the non-performing pianist and composer Donald Brown (like Garrett an ex-Jazz Messenger), Garrett

25	—	ART BLAKEY	Three Blind Mice Vol.1	Blue Note

ON THE CHART

The Sun shines brightly over this page, as Sun Ra holds onto the top spot for the third consecutive week, with Don Cherry bouncing back into the #2 spot, up from 4. As expected, Art Blakey has made the top breakthrough, his new A&M album grabbing the #5 debut, and also a #25 debut for Volume 1 of his Three Blind Mice reissue on Blue Note—Volume 2 is not far behind. Also debuting this week are Bobby Previte with his brilliant new album (#12), the soundtrack to Hot Spot at #17, featuring notables such as Miles Davis, Taj Mahal and John Lee Hooker, and saxist Kenny Garrett (#18), who features bassist Charnett Moffett and pianist Mulgrew Miller on his new release. Not ready to go away yet are Harry Connick, Jr. Trio, moving back up 20-8, Pat Metheny et al (23-13) and re-entries from Michel Camilo and Maceo Parker. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) stretches his compositional and improvisational abilities to new heights at the same time he verifies his taste for standards ("Mack The Knife") and standard-bearers (John Coltrane on "Straight Street"). In short, African Exchange Student is a five-star treat that reaffirms the promise he displayed on his debut for CrissCross last decade. It's too soon to tell whether this gifted woodwind artist will hew to the straight (but hardly narrow) path of real jazz or make periodic crossover detours, but African Exchange Student is the realization of the pathfinding spirit of self-knowledge, collective adventure and discovery that Garrett hinted at, but never fully realized, during his days with the group OTB (Out Of The Blue) and Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers. Combining the title track with the tune "New York" from Donald Brown's fine new Sources Of Inspiration CD (Muse) will make for nifty pairing.

KENNY WHEELER QUINTET The Widow In The Window (ECM, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Although he is well-respected among musicians and much-sought-after worldwide, trumpeter Kenny Wheeler, at 60, having done four ECM albums under his own name and three with the group Azyrnuth, is ripe for discovery by the jazz-going public at large. Wheeler, to his credit, is too absorbed in his art to pander to the pundits or make musical concessions to mass appeal. Widow (61 minutes) is a reflective, not to say somber, collection of six Wheeler originals performed with chamber-like lucidity and low-flame propulsion by a well matched quintet: John Abercrombie, guitar; John Taylor, piano; Dave Holland, bass; Peter Erskine, drums. Wheeler plays the trumpet and flugelhorn with a gleaming, yet somehow understated, tone that conveys longing and intensity in equal measure. One might term it intense longing. The Widow In The Window makes for absorbing listening; it's easy to listen to without being easy-listening music. Subtlety is Wheeler's strong suit, and he wears it with class, distinction and pride. The lovely ballad "Ma Belle Helene" will segue nicely into "Quittin' Time" from baritone saxist Pepper Adams' Conjunction CD (Reservoir, 276 Pearl St., Kingston, NY 12401), a live session with a quintet including Wheeler.

ONE MO' TIME (REISSUES) Columbia's Jazz Masterpiece series is approaching the 100 mark. With the release of seven more CDs—from Dave Brubeck, Dexter Gordon, Charlie Rouse and compilations from Bix Beiderbecke, Louis Armstrong, Billie Holiday and Duke Ellington—Columbia (P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450) now has 96 pieces in print. The continuing compilations from the above masters are welcome and noteworthy, of course, but the title that excited me most when the package arrived—much as the reissue of Tubby Hayes' The New York Sessions did last year—was Unsung Hero from CHARLIE ROUSE. The late tenorman is best known for his decade-long association with Thelonious Monk, and that is as it should be, but Unsung Hero takes him out of his accustomed context, revealing his mainstream roots and stylistic indebtedness to Ben Webster. A compilation drawn from several sessions for CBS, Unsung Hero spotlights Rouse's deep, lustrous tone in quartet settings from 1960 and 1961. Well worth checking out.

CMJ COUNTRY

JACKPOT!

JOE ELY Live At Liberty Lunch (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Depending on the artist, a live recording can be a hit or miss affair. With Joe Ely, however, backed by a pistol-hot band and songs to die for, you get a live recording that's an inspiration. Recorded last spring at Austin's Liberty Lunch, this disc fully captures the power and breadth of performance from this Texas legend, displaying his talent for mixing the feelings of country with the raw energy of rock. Opening with a fiery solo acoustic version of "Me And Billy The Kid," Ely proceeds to conquer a fistful of ravin', rockin' originals ("Are You Listening Lucky," "Musta Notta Gotta Lotta," "Drivin' To The Poorhouse In A Limousine") and a couple of choice tunes from fellow Texans, including Butch Hancock's somber "Row Of Dominoes" and Jimmie Dale Gilmore's easy swinging "Dallas," first done when Ely and Gilmore were with the Flatlanders. The band, led by guitar monster David Grissom, are a tight bunch of heavy hitters, urging each song on and going so hard that you can almost hear them sweat. Live At Liberty Lunch, sort of a homecoming for Ely as he recorded for MCA until 1985, is a document of a thrilling performer and a celebration of a remarkable talent.

MATRACA BERG Lying To The Moon (RCA, 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036)—Seldom does a debut artist strike such a universal chord and attract as much attention as Matraca (pronounced Muh-tray-suh) Berg. Her past is notable for the work she's done with Neil Young on "Old Ways" and the songs she's written that have risen to the top of the country charts, including one for Reba McEntire. But the whole of Lying To The Moon is something Berg's past has only hinted at. With a sexy purr or a raging shout and near perfect instrumental backing she entrances with a remarkably broad stylistic range. Songs like the slinky jazz feel of "I Got It Bad," the down-home country rock of "I Must Of Been Crazy" and the exquisite balladry of the title track show her to be more than just another country singer/songwriter. She's part of the latest trend in Nashville—record companies signing artists who are not afraid to go beyond the traditional parameters and making wonderful music that defies a category; referring to Matraca Berg as a female version of Lyle Lovett would not be totally out of place. Other tracks to get excited about: the sweetly stirring "Appalachian Rain," the defiant strut of "Baby, Walk On" and the passionate pronouncements of "The Things You Left Undone."

ROSANNE CASH Interiors (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Continuing her stance as a renegade in a world full of spangles, cowboy hats and soap-opera stars turned singers, Rosanne Cash's latest is a deeply personal set of songs which sail through uncharted musical waters. You won't hear a lot of what most people envision as country music on Interiors—there's very little twangy guitar or fiddle and certainly there's no smarmy string section to clog up the works—but you do get a large helping of sincere emotion and an uncommonly astute look at life presented in an interesting fashion. Those familiar with Cash's past work will recognize the themes although she's never quite presented them in such an austere manner. The fact that this is the first time she's produced herself may account for the bare-bones approach, yet the sparseness only adds to the rarefied sensibilities exposed. Standing out on Interiors is an enchanting duet with her husband Rodney Crowell, "On The Surface," that explores life's underside; the subtle power of "I Want A Cure," with its killer guitar hook; and the delicate cheerfulness of "What We Really Want."

BLUES DELUXE

There's been an uncommon amount of first-class blues releases lately, so here's an extended look at what rates... Alligator Records (Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660/Oakland, CA 94607/415-763-8500) is full of twisted, raucous R&B from such Southern California legends as Chuck E. Weiss, Top Jimmy (of Rhythm Pigs fame) and King Cotton. It's an interesting set of covers—check out Three Cool Cats' version of the Coasters' song of the same name. From the same scene that gave us the Blasters and Los Lobos, this comp shows, believe it or not, that El Lay does have some soul...The musically rich region from San Antonio to Atlanta is on display on Gulf Coast Blues, Volume One (Black Top, address above). Of particular note here are two Houston natives, Grady Gaines and his raging sax and the jazzy vocal styling of Carol Fran, who adds some elegance to her blues. This is great exposure for some lesser known names; let's hope the series continues.

STILL GOT THE BLUES

In the tradition of Showdown!, the classic release from the mid-'80s that featured guitar greats Albert Collins, Robert Cray and Johnny Copeland, comes Harp Attack! (Alligator, address above). With harmonica kingpins JAMES COTTON, JUNIOR WELLS, CAREY BELL and BILLY BRANCH blowing up a storm, this disc is a fine demonstration of what happens when you get legendary musicians together in the studio and they urge each other on to new heights. The opening cut, "Down Home Blues," sets the pace at Blues legends (L to R) Buddy Guy, Willie Dixon, Koko Taylor and Lonnie Brooks gather backstage after a recent performance at Guy's Chicago nightclub, Legends. The event was filmed for a PBS Television documentary on the life and career of Taylor, which will air in February of '91.

312-973-7736) was one of the first to issue what's become a popular and useful item—the budget roster sampler—and they just released the latest in their series, Genuine Houserockin' Music IV. This issue features 19 tracks from some of their newer releases, including hot stuff from Lonnie Mack, Koko Taylor, Sonny Boy Williamson and personal faves Lil' Ed And The Blues Imperials and amply demonstrates why Alligator is the leader in the blues field... Black Top Blues-A-Rama (Black Top, Box 56691, New Orleans, LA 70156) is a similar compilation which varies stylistically with tracks from the Neville Brothers and Buckwheat Zydeco, and offers 19 more from other lesser known but just as vital artists with a decidedly Louisiana feel. Both samplers are well worth the budget price and may turn you on to an artist or two you may have previously missed, which is exactly the point...Two other collections featuring music with regional flavor: L.A. Ya Ya (Hightone, 220 4th St. #101, boogie and it doesn't let up till the final notes of the hilarious romp "New Kid On The Block." This is more than just a harmonica lover's delight—it's for anyone who loves high-energy music with a no-nonsense approach... Last, but certainly not least in our look at a slew of choice blues records, is Healing Feeling (Black Top, address above), the new one from HUBERT SUMLIN. Lead guitarist on most of Howlin' Wolf records, Sumlin's unorthodox style has influenced Eric Clapton, Keith Richards and Stevie Ray Vaughan. Solidly backed by Ronnie Earl And The Broadcasters, this record is not a groundbreaker but Sumlin's playing is so free and easy, it's sure to bring a smile to your face and add a touch of joy to your soul. Yeah, I know this is supposed to be a country music column, but this week I had the blues. That's the way it is here in CMJ Country. Send any music you got to me at CMJ, 245 Great Neck Road, 3rd Floor, Great Neck, NY 11021. Have a groovy day.

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

The extremely successful JESUS JONES tour... now officially over. Tour stars, besides the band, are Mike and Vince from 91X, Louis and Andy from KROQ, the folks from KCRW, Jonathan from KUKQ, Mike and Tony from KJJO, Norm, Lin and Pam from WXRT, Ann from WDET, Weasel from WHFS, Robert, Sue, Jocelyn and Dennis from WDRE. These folks stepped out and made this Jesus Jones tour mega. Ask any of them how this band perform live. Speaking of tour de force, or a live date at least, TACKHEAD will be performing at the CMJ convention on October 27! To miss it would be a tragedy you might not be able to live with!

Woodrow Dumas, C'est La Mort Records, Baker, LA (504) 774-8286

If you plan on being at this year's CMJ convention, you might be interested to know that HANDFUL OF SNOWDROPS, EAST ASH and CONDITION will be part of a CLM showcase on Friday, October 26 at the club Hot Rod, located at 270 11th Ave in Manhattan. Condition starts off the evening at 9:00, followed by East Ash at 11:00 and Handful Of Snowdrops at 1:00 a.m. C'est La Mort has been best known for her studio units in the past. So it is very exciting to finally have groups that can get out and tour. You have no idea how good these acts are live. A lot of other events will be happening that night at Hot Rod. So get out and enjoy a few acts you don't get to see very often. And if you see a tall guy with a ponytail lurking about in a suspicious fashion, with that glazed A&R look, trying to act like he has some valid reason for being there, don't get near him... It could be dangerous!

One of the things I hope you notice at the CMJ Music Marathon has nothing to do with free beer, expensive dinners or the words "open bar" (and if you've therefore already stopped reading, who needs ya). Red, Hot & Blue is an international multi-media benefit for AIDS research and relief. Red, Hot & Blue is an ABC-TV special airing December 1, International AIDS Awareness Day; it unites artists from film, music, fashion and art; it starts October 29 with the release of an album of Cole Porter cover tunes by 20 unique and diverse musicians (U2, SINEAD, Les Negresses Vertes, Neneh Cherry, Iggy Pop, Debbie Harry, k.d. lang, David Byrne...) and it inspired major filmmakers (Wim Wenders, Alex Cox, Jonathan Demme, Percy Aldon...) to lend their talents to the "music video" field (you'll see that these are much more than MTV-type promo vids). Chrysalis makes no profit on the Red, Hot & Blue album. All profits go directly to AIDS charities across the country. The ads you'll see in trades and magazines were mostly offered as contributions. It is a BIG deal. Never before has the music community made a concerted effort addressing the universal problem of AIDS. Hopefully RH&B will help raise awareness and lots of money. More in coming Dialogues, meanwhile look for a RH&B table at the CMJ Music Marathon. We'll be selling brilliant T-shirts designed specifically for the project by such graphic artists as the late Keith Haring and Barbara Kruger. With purchase ($ goes to the benefit not to us) you'll receive an advance cassette. We'll also be holding a special listening party on Friday 10/26 at which all the films/videos will be premiered. Watch this space for details!! Other releases in Chrysalisville: The WATERBOYS, INTO PARADISE, WARTIME (both of these last two bands will also be at the CMJ convention) and new BLUE AEROPLANES.

Tina Bennet, Director of Promotion & Marketing, SAM Records, Elmhurst, NY (718) 335-2112

Okay, so you've never heard of SAM Records. Remember the '70s, Disco, John Travolta, the Bee Gees... If you were deep into it SAM was too, with GARY'S GANG "Keep On Dancin'", JOHN DAVIS & THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA CONVERSION "Let's Do It" and many other groundbreaking club records. Well, we're coming back strong!! Just released: BROTHERS FROM ANOTHER PLANET "Wishing On A Star" breaking out with their wholesome approach to rap—already a major buzz on the Chuck Chillout (WBLS) show and in all NY stores... CHARM ONE "Togetherness," rappin' about family unity, and the upcoming new single "Spread A Little Love" by RICHARD ROGERS. Look out because we're back!! PEACE OUT!!

Scott Warner, Director Of Promotions, Get Hip Records, Pittsburgh, PA (412) 231-7713

Yeah man, I'm HIP! I'm HIP! I'm also stuck in Pittsburgh. Looks like I'll have to wait until March to return to Europe with the CYNICS. Adding to my misery is reports that BIG CHIEF is kicking some major butt on their virgin Euro-tour. The HERETICS leave next month. I'm bummed! Well let's get down to business. Get Hip is digging into its vinyl trenches, preparing to do battle with the mighty CD. We'll have releases by the BARBED WIRE DOLLS, the BLOW POPS, STUMP WIZARDS, 50 FOOT HOSE, CYBERMAN and the ORIGINAL SINS. Our resident fuzz-kings, the Cynics, are currently taking a break after their grueling 80 date tour. We'll be releasing a 7" next month as well as a 12" recorded in Europe. Stay tuned. On a final note, the Cynics and I would like to wish the drummer of the Hypnotics a speedy recovery. It really rocked in Ann Arbor, too bad it had to end on a bad note. Talk to you all soon. Stay HIP!

Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 424-8291

ALL continues to "Explorador" internationally. As they're touring in faraway places, Allroy Saves, their latest LP, is traversing the airwaves with tunes such as "Simple Things," "Sum" and "Frog." Vocalist Scott Reynolds wrote "Frog" for his long-lost pet with long legs. CHEMICAL PEOPLE are leggin' it through Europe, doin' The Right Thing. SKIN YARD are doin' the heavy thang right now during their Fist Sized Chunks tour of the States. Reports of chest-throbbing, head-whanging ecstasy are rollin' in after each gig so catch some bruises from these boys while you're able... Peace, Love & Cardiograms.

Debbie Southwood-Smith, Rockville Records, Rockville Centre, NY (516) 754-7938

I can't understand what the Deee-Lite hype is all about. I mean, yeah she has great tight, but I wouldn't describe that record as being particularly strong or innovative. Just this week New York Newsday ran an article listing things that are "Deee-With-It" and "Deee-Tired" as a guide for striving (struggling?) hipsters. After figuring that I'm definitely not "with it" I decided I'm just tired. However, I would rather listen to the Deee-Lite record than have to witness Kool G Rap and DJ Polo fucking blow-up dolls on stage again. Sometimes once is enough... You should be hearing from Susan or Beatrice regarding Rockville releases. NIKKI SUDDEN, DAVE KUSWORTH AND THE BOUNTY HUNTERS and the WEATHER PROPHETS are a reality. Due to a limited promo mailing call us if you need service. I'm looking forward to shows by Blackbird, Common Theives and New Kids. Been living with new BDP, Ultra Vivid Scene and Cavedogs records plus Laura Lee and various Chess reissues. Looking forward to seeing some of you in New York. It'll be fun.

Jim McNeil, National College Promotion, RCA Records, New York, NY (212) 930-4305

In an effort to stabilize the Middle East crisis and prevent WWII, RCA presents the CHARLATANS UK debut album, Some Friendly. Radio stations around the world are encouraged to continually broadcast the songs "Then," "Flower" and "You're Not Very Well" as global catharsis. The plan is to surround the Middle East with funky psychedelic grunge pop much the same way Noriega was surrounded by loud speakers blaring Jimi Hendrix and end the war in a sweaty blissful haze... Another weapon in RCA's psychological/musical arsenal is the new album by the MEN THEY COULDN'T HANG called The Domino Club, a folk-rock stomp on the Celtic tip (ie: Pogues, Waterboys, Billy Bragg)... In the trenches and on the home front is BOOGIE DOWN PRODUCTIONS on tour in concert and KRS-One on the lecture circuit. Also check out the STRAWBERRY ZOTS on tour with Dread Zeppelin (domination through Dada) in the South and Midwest... Friends, for peace's sake play the Charlatans UK and bring our boys home... This just in. The Charlatans debut at #1 on the English album chart and sell 90,000 in three days.

Jim Neill, Rykodisc, Boston, MA (508) 744-7678

Hype hype hype. Tripe tripe tripe. What the fuck? I hate this shit. There's so much shit that I hate it. Can I tell you about my shit? My shit's pretty good. Take it from me. I know good shit when I hear it and this is good shit. As a matter of fact, my shit's so good that you don't need any of that other shit. Fuck that other shit. Here's my shit: HEX VAST HALOS. Great album. Can she sing? As if. The song "March." It'll melt you. Vinyl 12" on the way for you analog weenies... THE OYSTER BAND WITH JUNE TABOR. The album Freedom And Rain. Folkies rock out. Album of the year. Even if I didn't work here. Full album on vinyl next week. CD too. So shut up... MARTIN SWAN Mouth Music will change your body chemistry in 1991. You can't wait but you have to.

RonSStter Coleman, SST Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 835-8977

NO MAN is whamin' on through the Midwest so be prepared to be walloped by this "Power Duo" of Roger Miller and Andrew Deckard. Whomon Express, the new No Man wax, is churnin' on the strength of Roger's slicin' guitar and Andrew's full-on drummin' that's pumped through some of the craftiest tunes this side of the Caspian Sea. Duck And Cover is a good example of what can happen if you listen to too much pop music—you may try to make some of your own. The SST Cover Band Bomb Squad just smashes these tired pop tunes to kibbles and bits... Peace, Love & Moist Meaty Meals.

Brad Paul, Rounder Records, Cambridge, MA (617) 354-0700

I'm back from a great trip that started at Slim's in San Francisco for the recording of a live album with Irma Thomas and ended hiking in the Rain Forest in the Olympic National Park of Washington state. We covered a lot of ground in between and heard some great radio, the best of which was Hog Ranch Radio, a pirate station that broadcasts during the Strawberry Music Festival at Yosemite Park over Labor Day Weekend. Also enjoyed listening to KPFA, KSOR, KBOO, KUGS, KAOS and KCMU, while cranking out 3,000 miles on the rental car. Meanwhile, back at the farm, Rounder has just released a video of the title track to ALISON KRAUS'S I've Got That Old Feeling. Look for articles on this young fiddle phenomenon in Rolling Stone, Musician, Billboard and Newsweek. JONATHAN RICHMAN Jonathan Goes Country was a Jackpot pick last week. If you have not received this jewel in the mail please give us a call. Here are some pretty cool and very obscure discs that we are not mailing out in mass quantities but if you have air space for them let us know and we'll send them along: LOS PREGONEROS DEL PUERTO Music Of Vera Cruz; BOOZOO CHAVIS The Lake Charles Atomic Bomb (early '50s and '60s recordings of one of zydeco's main players); and BLINKY AND THE ROAD

MASTERS Crucian Scratch Band Music. Bonehead idea of the week goes to Senator Lloyd Bensen of Texas for taxing home heating oil. Yeah dude, how about taxing air conditioners? And now here's Boise, the Promo Pup's pick of the month. . . . BOBBY KING AND TERRY EVANS, Rhythm, Blues, Soul And Grooves. This is being mailed out as I write so look for it in your mail pouch along with a new Blacktop disc by GREG PICALE, which features much of the original Roomful Of Blues. Until next time, conserve, recycle, be cool and listen to the Pup. . . . WOOOF!

Paul V. & Super Dave, Warner Bros. Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3566

Columbus Day and we're at work. Apparently the evil West Coast establishment doesn't respect this great holiday, so here we are, a coupla East Coast Italian guys in the office instead of at some parade. . . . Well, JANE'S ADDICTION discovered number one (finally!) in Gavin last week and draws closer to the top spots in R&R and BB once again. Please remember to make your heavy report this week and keep in mind the key track is "Been Caught Stealing" (woof! woof!). . . . Wait'll you hear the ENO/CALE LP! It should reach your barbequed little nubbins this week. Even though the Hard Report decided to change the title to "Which Way Is Up" in last week's dialogue (wasn't that a bad Clint Eastwood movie?), Wrong Way Up will match or surpass your wildest expectations. "Been There, Done That" is the "pop song" of the lot, but the whole record is accessible. Give it an hour of your time this week, and improve your whole week. . . . Also reaching your scaly little tips is the LP Hold Me Up from Buffalo's darling GOO GOO DOLLS. From our first track, "There You Are" to "Laughing" to "Hey" to. . . well, hell, any song on the record, you'll find great lyrics, great playing and more hooks than a Peter Pan festival. Listen. . . . Sometimes the phrase "Important Artist" is bandied about a bit too casually, but in the case of PAUL SIMON, it's deserved. The new LP, The Rhythm Of The Saints, featuring "The Obvious Child," reaches your pruned little branches this week. Remember that

Graceland not only opened American ears to new ethnic sounds, it also raised the political consciousness of everyone who heard it. Please give yourself an opportunity to listen to this album without interruption—it's deserving of your attention. . . . We've got Brian Eno in town this week for his Conversation tour. His co-host for this appearance is Twin Peaks' Mark Frost, so it promises to be riveting. Speaking of Twin Peaks, does anyone know what the hell is going on on that show? We're lost. . . . Upcoming Christmas hit collections: GANG OF FOUR, the ASSOCIATES, the BLASTERS and DEVO (Hits and Misses), two separate albums. All will be on CD! Yee haaa! The Bugs list: Michael Butcher, Jon Hassel, Chris Chrest, Cobby Still, Pan Buddy.

Mary Schenk, Rockduster Records, Greensboro, NC (919) 288-0185

Well, we sort of fell off the face of the earth for a while, but we're back with two new releases. . . . Look out for CEREBUS' Regression Progression EP due out on Halloween! This is their second release on our label and we are really excited about it. Check out "Wasted Time" when you get the release; it will blow you away. . . . Also in the works is RICH LERNER's Village of Chance In Motion LP. It's all mastered, and artwork is being completed. It looks as if the album will be out in November; we'll keep you posted.

speaking of dead fish, I am stunned stupid at how good the new NEIL YOUNG and ENO/CALE albums sound. And a riddle: when is Tower Records' Sunset store not a record store? When it ceases stocking LPs (November 1). . . .

As I'm sure you already know, the word on the street and in the "house" is TATER TOTZ. Their new 7", the incredible cover of Badfinger's "No Matter What," is destined to be one of the superhits of 1990. Tony Margherita of Euclids Records says, "'No Matter What' is one of our fastest selling records. I just can't keep it in stock. As a matter of fact, I've never even had it in stock." Tim Cronin of Jack's Music Shop says, "Totz are tits!" Surely with the release of a new live Badfinger album on Rykodisc, and a new Redd Kross album out now, the time is right for the Totz to become the stars they deserve to be! Other Rockville news: UNCLE TUPELO are touring now. Don't miss the band that Teenage Fanclub called "the best fucking band in America." SHONEN KNIFE will be coming to the U.S. sometime in early 1991. Reasons to be cheerful: Lubricated Goat with Mecca Normal and Monster Magnet at CBGB, and the Giants remaining undefeated as they smash the Redskins 24-20.

RETAIL RADIO DIALOGUE DIALOGUE

Paul Ashby, TRIP, W. Sacramento, CA (916) 373-2548

Stranger than fiction (and funnier than the Great Kat): Sound Choice's interviews with/worship of convicted felons and/or carny hustlers like GG Allin and Psychic TV (summer issue), and Adam from WUFI complaining that Modern English's NMS set "started a tad late" . . . Yeah, about eight years ago would've been more like it. Maybe if they changed their name to Post-Modern English they could get written up in Hits or at least find a home on Billboard's "Modern Rock" chart. . . . More Like It: An advance tape that you don't have—MUTTON GUN's cover medley of "I Love Her All The Time," Neil Young's "Lookout Joe" and the Germs' "Lexicon Devil." THE EX "Dead Fish" (Ex Records, Holland); novel package of the year: a six song, 17-minute three-inch CD EP in a 10-inch LP sleeve. A doomed gimmick if the music weren't so fucking amazing. And

Logan Hawkes, Station Manager, KBVR, Corvallis, OR (503) 737-2008

Greetings from the Beaver Keeper. The new term has brought with it some mighty changes at KBVR. First and most important: OSU Telecom, in its infinite incompetence, changed our phone number! Yes. That's right. They changed our phone number. Even better, they didn't tell us. The new number is (503) 737-3640 for the rock directors (Seth Skundrick and Heidi Worthley), jazz directors (Dave Trenkel and Melissa Hartley) and also for the funk/soul/rap director Keith Dempsey. . . . For the promotions directors (Rob Chohan and Matt Lynott), the new number is (503) 737-3639. . . . The good news is that my phone remains the same: (503) 737-2008. There is an answering machine at this number, so use it to leave messages. . . . Office hours: Heidi: Tu 2-3 p.m., W 1-3 p.m., Th 10-11 a.m.; Rob: TuTh 12:30-2:30; Logan MWF

On a roll.

150 Words. 52 weeks in a year. That's 7800 words. $250 per year. Hmm. 31.2 cents per word. What can one say in 150 words? "Shit," 150 times. Let's check the radio section: Yo, Yo, Yo!! I'm back and I wanted to say Hi; I have a new title _____; My office hours are _____; Thank to blah-blah-blah; _____ were great last night, I got fucked up; we're having a party!! Bodacious!! Or, we can find totally unbiased new release data, opinion and information aplenty (as well as super nifty anecdotes & valuable gossip) in the Record Company section... Certainly glad that there's a forum in which my favorite record reps can let me know where they're gonna be working next. Alright people, almost invariably nobody cares whether or not you're "back." Similarly, no one's going to remember your new title or phone #, your office hours or really cares about your little life. If you want to thank someone for something, write 'em a note. To be fair, some record rep info might have (very slightly) more relevance. Point is: Record Co. Dialogues of the blathering sales pitch variety ought to be limited to 150 words; non-commercial Dialogues (or any Dialogue which rises above sales pitch, the personal list of faves, or name-dropping) ought to be allowed whatever length the author finds necessary. At least the subscription rate we pay ought to allow non-commercial interests some unrestricted area of expression. The subscribers to, and supporters of, CMJ cannot accept the space limitations excuse. Too many issues of CMJ have totally blank pages in them for that to be justifiable. C'mon CMJ, if someone has something to say, let 'em say it. If CMJ wants to call these pages Dialogue, and truly wants to serve the interests of college radio broadcasters, then CMJ needs to be flexible, and foster unrestricted challenging programming, by offering unrestricted communication space. What about it?

[Weekly magazine facts of life: Without space limitations, this publication simply would not go out on time. This applies to everyone contributing to the magazine. If a Dialogue is written that raises pertinent/entertaining points, we do make an effort to give it reasonable space—however, not many people have an abundance of burning opinions that require more than one double-spaced page per week. We gladly welcome anyone's attempt to raise issues, and we're not overjoyed with 150 words of promo-dribble either, but if a subscriber sticks to their limit, they have a right to be in Dialogue. We sort of doubt that anyone's campus paper or professor allows them unlimited pontification space.—Ed.]

First off, I want to say that there will be no philosophical debates or controversies raised in this dialogue. I can't think of anything. However, I do want to apologize to everyone that has had a tough time getting a hold of me during the last few months. First, I was gone most of the summer with four scrumptious babes called the AQUANETTAS. Obviously I was not returning phone calls, since I was too busy gawking. Secondly, upon my return from heaven, I found our school, in all its wisdom, has ripped out our phone system for a state-of-the-art one. Well, I can't even figure out how to make calls... Anyway, our new phone numbers are, hold me back, (603) 899-4100 ext. 4137 for office, ext. 4174 for studio. If you get real desperate, you can use the voice mail box (603) 899-4200 ext. 2555. Office hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Mon/Wed/Fri. Don't even bother trying to get me on Tue/Thur... Anyway, this semester we are fundraising again, so send us stuff to bribe listeners with... Also, this semester we have a great lineup of bands appearing here: SLAUGHTER SHACK, DEATH IN VENICE, MILES DETHMUFFIN, STORMWINDOW, ALIEN SEX FIEND, FUNERAL PARTY, AZTEC CAMERA and EDIE BRICKELL AND NEW BOHEMIANS.

Christopher Cooke, Music Director/ Jazz Fan, KBLZ, Omaha, NE (402) 554-2957

Jazz is... the music. Hello from KBLZ, where TOM SCOTT is number 12 on the KBLZ Top 35 picks. Where jazz has an hour each Wednesday on the KBLZ jazz show. Where discussions about music often center on the prince of darkness, MILES DAVIS... Record labels who haven't serviced our cable FM/campus outlet for jazz are invited to the KBLZ jazz party. Call me Mondays thru Fridays between 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Central Standard/Daylight/Jazz time to confirm your reservation to the best spot this side of birdland. Or mail me the latest hip tunes. Later.

Chin-a P., the musically, and lest-not-we-forget politically correct MD, WXDR, Newark, DE (302) 451-2703

It was very refreshing to read in the Sept. 28 issue of CMJ two poignant Dialogues, by our very own Sevillesdote and by Chyrslis rep Jill Maxick. They both stated what really needed to be said, which gave me motivation to write this Dialogue. Here I go on with my feminist bitching, but it is long overdue. It seems to me lately that college radio people seem so caught up in defending 2 Live Crew, that we forget just how offensive and abusive 2 Live Crew music is. I, too, am a civil liberties and freedom junkie, but that does not mean I support their music. I may support their right to make music, but in no way will I help glorify their misogynist dribble. It is the profitable thing to do these days taking cheap shots at others in music and comedy. We are ready to attack Sinead because she makes shitloads of money, yet Luke Campbell gets martyr status because his records and live performances are banned. Granted, it is unjust that his First Amendment Rights are being violated, but on the same token, his music also supports sexual violence against women. Mr. Campbell makes his zillions degrading women, and treating women as sexual objects. I have much more respect for Sinead because she doesn't use these shock tactics for profit. Everybody's been ripping her to shreds because she stood up for her rights. It seems quite ironic that a piece of cloth is much more important than women's rights (which also symbolizes the national agenda; Congress was ready to protect Old Glory but not women's rights). Sinead has stood up (against the will of her record company and money) for the rights of women, victims of AIDS and the gay community, and all Mr Campbell has stood up for is his right to make money and verbally abuse everybody else... In the good ole USA, it's the right thing to rally round the flag and 2 Live Crew, but women's rights can go to hell. I support Geffen's right not to distribute the Geto Boys' new record. After all, they are not coercing them to stop releasing the record, but using their First Amendment rights positively in choosing not to distribute their records. On a lighter note, I am looking forward to meeting all you folks at the CMJ Marathon to continue this issue.

Heather Leiser, Music Director, WCWM, Williamsburg, VA (804) 221-3287

Alright—a gripe to those label reps who push their record by telling me "this was number six in CMJ last week, so I really don't understand why you don't play it." This kind of argument bugs the hell out of me and is, needless to say, totally ineffective. One of the tenets of "alternative" radio is the idea that the majority does not necessarily rule here, otherwise we would all be Top 40 stations. So why push an "alternative" record using an incredibly commercial argument? Don't tell me how much everyone else likes your record, give me a real reason why I should like it next time please, okay? Other music directors—I hope you aren't ever intimidated into playing something just because a lot of other stations do. Use your own judgement; listen to the record for yourself... Stuff that rocks: LOVE CHILD, GIBSON BROS., POOH STICKS, DWARVES.

Daniel Wool, Music Director, KSCR, Los Angeles, CA (213) 740-5727

Well, this is my first (and long overdue) Dialogue. Lots of changes at KSCR the Underground. We are now on Continental Cablevision Channel 37 out here around USC. Potential listening audience is 120,000. Our peak listenership is 20,000 (as of late), up from, uh, 200 from last year on carrier current AM. We also have a new phone system and our prefix has been changed to (704), so change your rolodexes appropriately. KSCR's format has also been changed—to what I like to term "urban-modern." Very energy-oriented to keep the "masses" moving. Doing real well for us at present is L.L. COOL J's newest and X CLAN's latest single which samples the Tom Tom Club's "Genius Of Love." We are also playing THE CURE and IN-SPIRAL CARPETS to death on various tracks, as well as having taken locals MARY'S DANISH to #1 again with "Foxy Lady" (after being the first station in the U.S. to break them a couple of years ago). Also check out German import BAD BOYS BLUE on Coconut Germany with "How I Need You," another #1 for us and another U.S. debut. We also had the new MORRISSEY on import, "Piccadilly Parlane," for several days and it's gone through the roof, an instant #1, and we beat KROQ to the punch! Talk to ya next week!

Mark Sturm, Music Director, WMUA, Amherst, MA (413) 545-2876

The main themes that keep popping up in these Dialogue pages involve concepts such as "alternativeness," whether or not to "ghettoize" certain groups by assigning them to a specific category, and the ever-popular censorship uproar. There is no such thing as "alternative" music. Alternative to what? Who cares? If it's good, it's good. I keep reading the dogmatic anti-censorship lines that were essentially taken from the omnipotent MTV attitude injector in between hello's and thank you's to corporate reps. It's a very safe topic in the current political/social climate. Maybe some of you types should start taking some of those risks instead of writing about it... You're worried that your DJs won't play something if it's not labeled with their favorite category. What are you gonna do? Yeah, that's it, stop labeling music to encourage your staff to play cross-genre, cross-categorical sets. It seems pretty revolutionary and all that kind of stuff, but you're also forcing your jazz jocks (for example) to sift through 10 times as much bullshit to get at that ROSCOE MITCHELL record. Sure categories are vague but they are a necessary evil if you are to maintain any degree of organization in your stacks. The problem is not within the concept of categorization, but within your staff. Teach them the merits of other styles of music if you are really concerned and perhaps they'll expand their musical vocabulary... Meanwhile, on the CD front, the latest scoop I've heard is that a man was murdered shortly after discovering that CDs deteriorate. After roughly eight years the ink wears off, thus destroying the CD and fucking up the CD player. God be with you.

SO FAR, WE'VE FOUND 7 DOLPHINS IN 60 MILES OF DRIFTNET. THAT ONLY LEAVES 999,940 MILES TO GO.

Japanese, Taiwanese, and South Korean fishermen set a million miles of driftnet a year.

These nets are meant to catch squid, tuna, or salmon. But they are deadly to virtually all living creatures that swim into them.

Recently, Greenpeace activists surveying only 60 miles of driftnet found seven dolphins. Unfortunately, we were too late to save any of them.

But there is still hope for tens of thousands of other dolphins, porpoises, seals, whales, and birds that are expected to get caught up in these invisible plastic "walls of death" this year.

Support Greenpeace Action. We're working directly to stop this strip mining of the oceans.

And we're working to make sure that international efforts to ban driftnets do not get tangled up and die.

News coordinated by Lydia Anderson

BLAKEY DEAD AT 71

Legendary jazz drummer Art Blakey died of lung cancer on October 16, two days after his 71st birthday. Blakey, founder of the Jazz Messengers, was the catalytic force behind this groundbreaking ensemble. The Jazz Messengers provided a training ground for such talent as Wayne Shorter, Johnny Griffin, Clifford Brown and the Marsalis Brothers. His love for jazz can be summed up by this statement during a previous interview: "... Ain't no other music like it. Tell your square friends to come down here. I'd hate for a human being to pass through his life and miss out on this music."

RETAILERS PROSECUTED, BAND ACQUITTED

A San Antonio, TX, judge has rejected a request to dismiss the obscenity charges against record store owner David Risher, who sold 2 Live Crew's As Nasty As They Wanna Be in his shop Hog Wild Records. Risher's trial is scheduled for December. But while the band has been found not guilty on obscenity charges for their live show, record store owner Charles Freeman was recently found guilty of obscenity for selling the record in his Ft. Lauderdale store EC Records. Facing a $1,000 fine and a one year jail term, Freeman will be sentenced on November 2.

DOWN WITH THE YOUNG BLACK TEENAGERS?

The debut LP from the Young Black Teenagers, out soon on Sound Of Urban Listeners (SOUL) Records, will not bear the MCA name on its sleeve, though MCA will be distributing all SOUL product. Apparently the band's being white and calling one of their tracks "Daddy Called Me A Nigger 'Cause I Liked To Rhyme" has earmarked the band for controversy, which MCA would like to avoid. A video clip for the single "Nobody Knows Kelli" has already been rejected by MTV on the basis that it was supposedly obscene. This news comes only weeks after the Geffen-Def American split, which occurred shortly after Geffen refused to put their name on records by the Geto Boys and other Def American artists.

ISGRO CASE APPEALED

The September 4 dismissal of payola charges against Joseph Isgro, Ray Anderson and Jeffrey Monka has been appealed by government prosecutors. The case was thrown out of court by U.S. District Court Judge James Ideman, who dismissed the case "with prejudice," meaning that the defendants cannot be reindicted on the same charges without a successful appeal. The prosecution seeks a reversal of the "with prejudice" dismissal.

EAST WEST RECORDS MOVES WEST

Atlantic Records has announced the opening of East West America, the third full-fledged label in the Atlantic Recording Corporation. Sylvia Rhone and Vince Feraci will be co-presidents for the label, which will be based in New York. The label will also be distributing Interscope Records, a new major label founded by Ted Field and Jimmy Iovine.

THE WOMEN OF HIP-HOP SPEAK OUT

The Hip-Hop Women's Progressive Movement is a motivational and support group for women of the hip-hop industry, including artists, executives, interns, etc. The group aims to eliminate sexism in the industry and help women gain equal control with men. A summit is currently in the planning stages, and those interested in more information should contact Bridgette M. Moore at Rap Artist Management, MOORE Awareness Productions, (718) 934-6979 or Chris Reade, Sr. Director Media & Artist Development, Island Records, (212) 995-7826.

CBS BECOMES SONY

Beginning January 1, 1991, CBS Records Inc. will change its name to Sony Music Entertainment Inc., as stipulated when Sony originally purchased CBS in 1988. Columbia, Epic and WTG, however, will all retain their names.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Legedary singer Curtis Mayfield has undergone a bone graft following his tragic accident when a speaker stack fell on top of him, paralyzing Mayfield from the neck down. Mayfield has now regained consciousness and is able to speak, though only a few words at a time... Heyday Records is currently seeking a new pressing and distribution deal. Past releases have gone through Rough Trade. Upcoming releases include records from Chris Cacavas And Junkyard Love, Steven Roback And Viva Saturn, Barbara Manning, Jack Waterson and Sonya Hunter. Interested parties should contact label manager Pat

Thomas at (415) 861-4001... New Order has been found guilty in England of pilfering part of John Denver's "Leaving On A Jet Train," (which was covered by Peter, Paul & Mary, among others) on their single "Run" from the Technique album. Apparently the band's music publisher in Britain, Warner Chappell, have been forced to release half the royalties earned by the track... Noise Network is an alternative music video program which is broadcast nationally on LPTV via the Channel America Television Network. The show will feature concert footage, exclusive interviews, tour information and videos. For more information, contact Jim Wells or Jeff Moody at (414) 656-0681... The opening act on the Happy Mondays upcoming U.K. tour will be none other than Mr. Mellow Yellow, Donovan. The Mondays have long been Donovan fans, and this seems their way of putting him in the spotlight once again. The Mondays' third LP, Thrills N' Pills And Bellyaches is set for release on November 23 on Elektra... Paul Simon has apparently asked Public Enemy to play with him when Simon and his band next play New York City. Simon seems to think the double bill will make a strong statement.

MIND OVER MATTERS

Why Do You Exist?

by Mike Kole, WCSB-FM

Enough is indeed enough!!! There's too much ranting and whining about there being too much ranting and whining!!! Come on T. Carter Ross, how is it that Les Scurry, Gerard Cosloy, Matthew Callahan and myself can't tell what college radio is, yet you can? Folks, read Mind Over Matters in the September 21, 1990 CMJ New Music Report (#205). Be sure to read his little dissertation on elitism as well. How self-assured of you to drop Nietzsche's name. I'm so impressed.

Despite your snat-nased, smarter-than-thou approach, you've actually managed to say some things which bear repeating.

"College radio must be of its listeners if it is to be for its listeners." Our listeners are the ONLY reason we exist. College radio does not exist for any record labels—major or independent. It is our responsibility to give them something different. This can include something on a major label.

"Music is something which is most accurately judged over time. Long periods of time, like, eh, centuries."

It is certainly NOT our job to play good music. Who are we to judge what is good or bad music? Music is something which is most accurately judged over time. Long periods of time, like, eh, centuries. If WCSB were to only play good music, we would play Gregorian chants and some Wagner. Why? Because this sort of music has survived the test of time. Why is this important? Because with the passing of time, certain biases tend to disappear. The individuals who wrote Gregorian chants do not have money riding on our perception of their work. The B-52's and Warner Bros. still have their promotional machines rolling in the hopes that the public believes that the B-52's makes good music. With this notion, and $14.95 for the CD at most retail outlets, that idea is SOLD. These biases will exist for years, thus affecting the way its music is judged. This applies to any current music—current meaning anything written in this century.

So why do I (and others) incessantly rant and whine about the state of college radio? It is because there are too many dicksuckers filling the shoes of music and program directors across the country. It is obvious that they feel that college radio is their personal little springboard into the "big time" of "real radio." I want the MD's and PD's to think about their positions, and their responsibility to their communities, instead of themselves. I realize that for some, the taste of semen is addicting. This is regretful, but apparently, irreversible.

Mike Kole is the program director at WCSB, at Cleveland State University in Cleveland, OH, and his well-documented references to fellatio date back centuries. If you are interested in responding to the submission above, or there's a topic you'd like to broach with the readers of this publication, contact Scott Decker at CMJ for more information about contributing to Mind Over Matters.

Live Wire

TORTURE GARDEN CBGB, New York City, October 9

Torture Garden is the most recent vehicle for notorious Japanese vocalist Yamatsuka Eye, late of the Boredoms and Naked City, the Japanese performance artist/singer who grabbed hardcore by the throat and proceeded to produce the death cry of punk being strangulated. John Zorn (dressed casually in urban guerilla grey fatigues and a T-shirt) led the Japanese rhythm section through several dozen (or was that several dozen dozen?) impossibly short and jarring compositions, over which Eye yelped, gyrated, spat, shrieked and gargled like the Tasmanian devil auditioning for a role as a Japanese butoh dancer. Those who came to the show thinking that Naked City's tortuously loud blasts of gibberish were improvised were quickly suprised to find that such was not the case. Even though at first we too thought the sheet music and seemingly intense compositional discussions between band members between songs were a gag, those who saw the band over several nights swore that the band duplicated each tiny hurricane blast note for note, night after night—even tossing in a few recognizable covers of more popular Naked City blurts and squiggles with haiku-like precision.

DWARVES/ UNSAINE/MONSTER TRUCK 5 Pyramid, New York City October 16

We placed our armor around our bodies to ready ourselves for the Dwarves on the Blood Guts and Pussy tour. Opening the evening were Columbus, OH's Monster Truck 5, who appeared on a split single with Thomas Jefferson's Slave Apartments (on Data Panik Records) earlier this year. Live, one can't help making comparisons to other feedback bands such as the Cosmic Psychos or the Telescopes, but Monster Truck 5 got down into the sloppy mud more than their noise cousins. Then enter the Unsaine to crank out the relatively new songs from their upcoming LP on Circuit, Improved Munitions. The trio pushed a wash of guitar blast over the entire audience. The Dwarves stumbled onto the stage and the crowd moved back. "Arrrrrrgh!" screamed Blag Jesus as he shoved the microphone into his mouth and held it with his teeth to free his hands for stage-light punching. They pummeled out "Let's Fuck," as He Who Can Not Be Named catapulted himself to a certain death—yet he returned, guitar in hand, unscathed. The Dwarves then continued the set with "Fuck You Up And Get High" and "Astro Boy," ending it all as Blag and Vadge Moore hurled the drums into the audience—shaw over.

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Freedom Fire:
The Indestructible Beat Of Soweto Vol. 3
(Earthworks-Virgin)

"... Freedom Fire instantly proves itself a worthy successor in this ever-lengthening line of milestone albums. . . . Freedom Fire rises above the rest of the musical landscape of the year and is sure to find its way onto plenty of year-end "best-of" lists."

L.L. COOL J

Mama Said Knock You Out
(Def Jam-Columbia)

"By teaming with production vet Marley Marl, Cool J has found a way to combine his old hardcore side with his newer R&B crooner tendencies. . . . Marley places the veteran rapper inside so many amazingly funky grooves that it's hard to find fault with this thumping, frenzied masterpiece."

SLAYER

Seasons In The Abyss
(Def American)

"... The Slaytanic four have scaled new heights. . . . to create an onslaught that will sling even the most timid of spinal columns into a variety of reckless tempos. . . . This record will still be banned, burned, blasphemed and, most importantly, blasted out of countless speakers the world over."

FRED FRITH

Step Across The Border
(ESD)

"Most of today's strang stylists of the guitar such as Marc Ribot, Henry Kaiser, Helios Creed and even Thurston Moore all owe debt to Frith's groundbreaking styles and sounds and now, thankfully, the rest of the world may finally have caught up to his vanguard musical visions."

FALLING JOYS

UP FROM DOWN UNDER THIS FALL...

FALLING JOYS' LIVE PERFORMANCES AND THEIR 1989
FOUR-SONG EP OMEGA HAVE EARNED RAVES FROM AUSTRALIAN REVIEWERS:

"OMEGA COMMITS TO VINYL (SUZIE) HIGGIE'S CONCISE AND ACCESSIBLE COMPOSITIONS IN A SEARING, TENSE MANNER, DOING JUSTICE BOTH TO THE TUNES AND THE BAND'S LIVE FORCE."

-ROLLING STONE AUSTRALIA

"THE FALLING JOYS ARE EXTRAORDINARY. THEY CAN TANGLE THEIR GUITARS INTO THE MOST EXQUISITE KNOTS THIS SIDE OF STRAITJACKET FITS, AND THEY CAN WRITE CLASSIC POP THAT PUTS THE ANGLE BACK INTO JANGLE AND THE HEADS BACK INTO THE CLOUDS. THEY CAN SPARKLE, SHINE, SHIMMER, BROOD, MENACE AND MAKE BRILLIANT RECORDS."

-ON THE STREET

"ONCE AGAIN, FALLING JOYS DELIGHT AND EXCITE WITH THEIR IRRESISTIBLE MANIC POP THRILL. THE JOYS NOT ONLY HAVE 'IT,' THEY HAVE SO MUCH OF THE RIGHT STUFF THEY COULD BOTTLE IT AND SELL IT."

-BEAT

"OMEGA IS WHAT POP SHOULD BE ALL ABOUT: LITERATE, SENSITIVE, UNPREDICTABLE, AND YET FAMILIAR. FORGET THE PLASTIC PASSION OF THE PRIMITIVES OR TRANSVISION VAMP. THE FALLING JOYS ARE SO HOT THEY'RE COOL."

-SONICS

NOW THE FALLING JOYS HAVE COMPLETED THEIR DEBUT FULL-LENGTH ALBUM, ENTITLED
