GRAH McLACHLAN

Graham McLachlan is on a quest to shake her image. "I'm just a sensitive, ethereal waif," she says sarcastically. Her songs, that may be true, but the person behind the pen is quite the opposite. The 26-year-old singer/songwriter, born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and residing in Vancouver, British Columbia, matches her musical pensiveness with strong philosophy and a candid outspokenness, making her music a limitless source of honesty and passion, as she explores the feelings and meanings behind her own personal experiences. "I used to be only able to write when I was depressed, because negative energy was something we all understand better, and we can use a lot more adjectives to it instead of being happy. When you're happy you just want to be, you just want to exist in it, because you know it's not going to last that long." "Sadness is okay," McLachlan muses. "I find it quite fleeting because usually I find a way out. And that's where most of the songs come from... [On Fumbling, the songs] weren't coming from a negative place. They may have been about dark things or dark emotions, but I felt like I was writing with such objectivity. It was very much not about me, not necessarily just about me. I think there's more darkness in this album than ever before, but there's more lightness as well. Both Solace and Touch were fairly number records. This one is too, but I just wanted to get away from that whole image that I'm this shy, demure little waif or whatever, and I was sad all the time too, because the songs were very dark. There's a lot less role playing of the 'me me me, I feel sorry for myself.' I think there's a lot more spirituality in this one." The theme running throughout Fumbling Towards Ecstasy is one "of having an awful situation but not knowing that you can get out of it, not knowing that there's something that you can strive for more. That there's something better out there." That spirituality and search for hope is especially strong on "Hold On," a song she wrote after seeing the documentary A Promise Kept, which tells the story of a woman whose fiancé is dying of AIDS. "[The documentary] just pushed me to the point where that's all I could think about. I thought 'Wow, could I be that strong?' And it was the first time I realized this could happen to me. That was the first time it really hit me, and I went 'Would I be as strong as he was and is?' And that was the thought that was right on the forefront of my mind for a number of days afterwards... What a triumph of the human spirit." In her own work, McLachlan has always maintained a lot of control, whether it be her writing, conceiving and directing videos, or doing her own artwork. "With Fumbling," she recalls, "I had 100% control of what I did... There's nothing worse than putting your heart and soul into making music and then having some record go 'That's not it. Where's the single, where's the hit?' I really feel proud that I got to do it how I wanted it to be done. It was a magical experience." McLachlan says the title Fumbling Towards Ecstasy is a metaphor for her life, and even for the making of the record. "All these mistakes that I was making turned out to be these magical experiences. All these supposed screw-ups when I was in a negative frame of mind turned out to be amazing experiences just when I turned them around and tried to find something positive in them. And it was the same as far as physically making the record. It's full of mistakes. And we in mixing sometimes would try to take out the mistakes, smooth it over, and it was boring. All the magic was gone because all the mistakes made it magical. It's like life."

Essential New Music

JAWBOX For Your Own Special Sweetheart (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—With feet planted firmly in its punk past, former Dischord sweetheart Jawbox tests its balance with its first major label release and third album, For Your Own Special Sweetheart. Two years have passed with only a couple of singles since the group's last full length LP, but For Your Own... proves that those two years of introspection were beneficial for the band. Jawbox throws punches with an album that presents a harsh cohesiveness its previous, Novelty, lacked. The songs remain true to the band's familiar rough-and-tumble, poppy punk, but are more meticulous, the guitars switching ing to a powerful overdrive and the once subtle hooks becoming incisive. The epitome of this approach, "Savory," teeters on the pop/punk fine line, stabilizing a raucous noise with catchy repeats and an underlying reflective tone. The net result of the band's strong background and unrelenting energy is a fluid album, one with which Jawbox is bound to grab at the jugular and conquer the heart. "Cruel Swing," "FF=66" and "Cooling Card" all make us swoon.

—Dawn Sutter

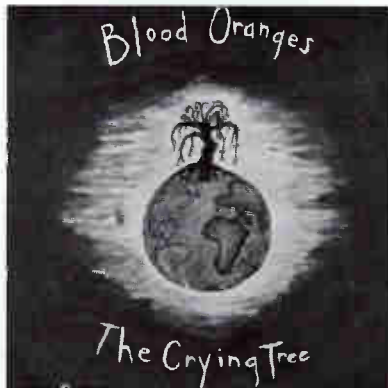

RED RED MEAT Jimmy Wine Majestic (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—The grocery bag broke before you made it through the door, spilling stuff everywhere. Or you banged your shin on the furniture, leaving an ugly black-and-blue mark. Or maybe you were so far gone that you didn't leave the house at all today. Red Red Meat knows what it's like, and on the band's second long-player it offers the missing link between "Well, we all need someone we can bleed on" and There Is No-One What Will Take Care Of You. Like a more coherent version of Royal Trux, or a grittier, more earthen incarnation of Screaming Trees, Red Red Meat specializes in languorous, hulking riffs that wash over the listener: each song breathes like a moment of great personal catharsis, each riff feels like the sudden flash of realization and self-knowledge that comes at the end of a long downward spiral. And so, "Stained And Lit" works like one of those fragile I'm-falling-apart-at-the-seams rock ballads off of Neil Young's '70s LPs, while "Brain Dead" somehow evokes the pathos of 25-year-old Alex Chilton hitting rock bottom, although neither song is a carbon copy of its previous model. And at its best, which is very good, Red Red Meat offers a take on soulful post-punk Americana that's not too distant from what the Afghan Whigs are up to today. Majestic sounds: "Brain Dead," the drawling slide riff of "Smokey Mountain DBL Dip," "Moon Calf Tripe" and "Dowser."

—James Lien

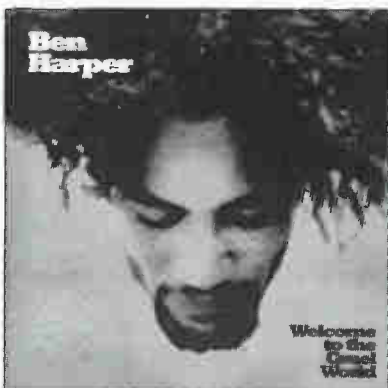

BLOOD ORANGES The Crying Tree (ESD, 530 N. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55401/612-375-0233)—Of all the bands drawing inspiration from the country/bluegrass/folk tradition in American music, few have the eloquence of the Blood Oranges. The songs on The Crying Tree range from the raucous to the heart-rending, the rowdy to the reverent, but are never so mired in the rigors of tradition that the music succumbs to a self-conscious desire for authenticity. These are first and foremost rock songs, often brilliant ones at that, wrapped up in honest flourishes of bluegrass and country. The record's tales of twisted love and small-town mysteries are anchored to Jimmy Ryan's mandolin and deadpan "Vermont lonesome" vocals and bassist Cheri Knight's sweet, mournful warble. Knight's voice is at its best when tugging at ballads like "Shadow Of You" and "Shine," while Ryan takes the lead through the rockabilly rambles, but the record's highest points—or at least its most moving—come when the two twine together into rough harmonies, such as on the haunting title song.

"The Crying Tree" is dark and memorable, a country dirge raked by a shrieking mandolin and Mark Spencer's searing guitar solo. It wouldn't be fair to say that The Crying Tree is merely one of the best records of its kind (the Blood Oranges have been tagged as "new country") because it easily reaches past its influences to become a real treat for any open set of ears. Along with the above, let "Hinges," "Hell's Half Acre" and the ripping rockabilly of "On The Run" change your life for a few minutes.

—Scott Frampton

BEN HARPER Welcome To The Cruel World (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—Ben Harper has something to say. Though shades of hip-hop poetry and urban themes drift through Welcome To The Cruel World, rap is not the medium Harper uses to send his message. This 24-year-old Southern California native plays soulful acoustic folk and blues on dobros and guitars he's fashioned himself—just one sign that his heart and soul is inexorably tied to his music. All of Harper's songs address his concerns, and by their very nature you get the feeling he sets high standards for himself—"why write a song if it has no meaning" might well be his motto. The intimate interplay of his band, a simple setup of drums, bass and his guitars, reflects Harper's desire to embrace all things genuine and true. That setup, coupled with his smooth voice, allows his high-minded lyrics to take hold. At times, Harper's songs can be too ambitious, if not simplistic ("Like A King"), but he gets points for trying to make pop music a venue for grander issues than fucking and self-absorbed angst. When Harper's songs do hit the mark they're overwhelmingly effective, especially when he opts for personal rather than universal statements. Diffuse your apathy with: "Whipping Boy," the wry "Mama's Got A Girlfriend Now," "Pleasure & Pain," "How Many Miles Must We March," the title track and "I'll Rise."

Therapy? Troublelegum (A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

Anger can simmer for years and years, but it usually only erupts for a few minutes at a time—long enough to empty a machine gun's magazine, or scar someone's face for life, or play a Therapy? song. The band's penchant for keeping things short leads to some silly partmanteau titles (including the album's, as well as "Hellbelly," "Brainsaw" and "Screamager"), but also makes its songs tremendously tight and controlled, with a precise number of hooks allotted per song and not one more chorus than necessary. "Knives" is as laconic as guitar-rock gets; a cover of Joy Division's "Isolation" boils away everything but the fury it shares with its original interpreter. The band uses metal's chugging and yowling textures as shorthand to get across its craziness and power. Therapy?'s taste for the epigrammatic, and for asking uncomfortable questions, extends to its lyrics. The gender-relationships-suck anthem "Femtex" has singer/guitarist Andy Cairns bellowing "Do you want to fuck? Do you want a friend?/Do you want sex? Do you want revenge?" Revenge, in fact, seems to be his main lyrical objective: images of helplessness recur throughout Troublelegum, but Cairns' bestial screams say more than his words. Also chew carefully on: "Trigger Inside," "Nowhere," the string-touched "Unrequited" and "Screamager," a single in the great Irish punk tradition. —Douglas Wolk

Slowdive Souvlaki (Creation/SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)

Slowdive's second album makes a long-awaited domestic appearance with four extra tracks for those patient enough to wait. Slowdive was initially lumped in with other post-Loveless "shoegazing" bands who were experimenting with guitar sounds, drenching their songs in sparkling, ephemeral sounds at the expense of audible vocals. Of the initial explosion of "shoegazing" bands, Slowdive created the richest atmospheres, stunning in scope but sometimes short on musical hooks. Souvlaki, while still as mysterious as a foggy night in the north of England, has stronger melodies buried in its gorgeously glutinous wash of sound. In fact, the album's strongest moments come when the band acquiesces to its songs' dynamics, letting their own movement whisk its pretty sounds into a vibrant swirling haze, as on "Alison" and "When The Sun Hits." Other peaks occur on "Souvlaki Space Station" and "Good Day Sunshine," both reminiscent of Seefeel or A.R. Kane in their suggestive explorations of repetition. The surprisingly spare "Dagger" evokes a broad range of textures with less studio wizardry, and Slowdive shapes the bizarrely beautiful Lee Hazelwood/Nancy Sinatra staple "Some Velvet Morning" into its own glistening soundscape. —Lydia Anderson

House of Large Sizes My Ass-Kicking Life (Red Decibel c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)

The staying power of cornhuskers House Of Large Sizes has been tested to its limit; long a staple in the Midwest, the band has two previous records on Toxic Shock, both of which received little nationwide notice. Four years later, guitarist Dave Deibler and bassist Barb Schliff have signed to Minneapolis' Red Decibel and finally have another full-length, and a chance of drawing some national attention. Though the majority of songs on the album are written by Deibler, they revolve around the bustling bass guitar of Schliff, who at first glance seems as if she would be more at home with a violin in her hand, but who quickly dispels any preconceived notions once she begins to play. ZZ Top-like guitar licks garnish the rhythm course that My Ass-Kicking Life dishes out. Proving HOLS is more than just One Big Piece Of Cake: "North Cedar," "Sneaking Up On You," "Tired Of Feelin'" and "In A New Place (Now)." —Dawn Sutter

Jazzhole The Jazzhole (Bluemoon, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, P.O. Box 5510, Glendale, CA 91221/818-841-8585)

It's hard not to make a good record that fuses jazz and hip-hop. One factor that makes records like The Jazzhole work so well is the quality of the musicians (for proof, check the instrumental breaks). Jazzhole boasts the likes of guitarist John Pondel, an alumnus of C+C Music Factory, and keyboard player Warren Rosenstein, who was featured on the Rebirth of Cool and This Is Acid Jazz compilations. Previous jazz/hip-hop hybrids have documented a jazz artist branching out into rap or vice versa. The Jazzhole seems to come from artists who have had their heads in both camps for quite some time, so like the Brand New Heavies, the result sounds not like rappers looking for jazz cred or jazz cats looking for street cred, but a soulful explosion of horns and beats from players literate in soul, swing, funk and hip-hop. Most of the vocals have a '70s soul vibe, with harmonies and disco exuberance adding even more soul. Swing with: "Forward Motion," "Gotta Be Everything," "Tres Belle" and "Smile." —Steve Ciabattoni

Ed O.G & Da Bulldogs Roxbury 02119 (Chemistry Ltd., c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)

Bulldogs, you're exposed to first-hand accounts of the life of a kid in the ghetto. With all of the criticism targeted at hardcore rap music, rap's most urgent messengers (ones struggling for change) are rarely given the attention they deserve. Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs (Gee Man, DJ Cruz and T-Nyne) promote positivity without a utopian mindset. Their ideas are based on actual experiences and the struggles facing anyone growing up on our venomous streets. When Ed is butting heads with his crew, the group's cockiness may sound a bit overdone, but with such insightful lyrics as heard on "Streets Of The Ghetto" or "Love Comes And Goes," Ed's keen street jargon presents more than grandstanding. Flipping willfully through the pages of the African-American experience, using humor, sexual innuendo ("Skinny Dip (Got It Goin' On)") and metaphoric wordplay ("Check It Out"), Ed and his Bulldogs represent their neighborhood with an admirable amount of fine-tuned phrasing and jazz and funk layered rhythms. In such desolate conditions, Ed remains true to the cause, not letting frustration overshadow his need to inform as Roxbury 02119 entertains, while familiarizing those whose understanding has been obscured by the media with rap's real message.

EVERCLEAR World Of Noise (Tim Kerr, P.O. Box 42423, Portland, OR 97242/503-236-0013)—Teetering precariously between the rebellious energetic grunt of punk and the mega-dynamic songscapes and lyrical richness of Seattle is Everclear. True to the live-sound nature of both these genres, World Of Noise was recorded in a basement in Portland, superbly produced by the band's guitarist/vocalist Art Alexakis. And while World Of Noise contains punk's obligatory savage attacks on everything from yuppie love ("Trust Fund") to selling out ("Sparkle"), it also descends a bit deeper than that, finding the occasional soft place to muse. The cool, emotive "Fire Maple Song" deals with the pain of losing a loved one ("I still see you in the night/lying above me in the grass"), while the obstinate "Loser Makes Good" explores homelessness from a first-person perspective of determination ("I'll kick your ass if you pity me/I won't give in"). With a total running time just over 30 minutes, World Of Noise is a quick fix of gutsy, gravelly rock 'n' roll bred for anarchy and weaned on introspection. See clear with "Evergleam," "Sick & Tired" and the Clash-ish "Nervous & Weird."

CURTIS MAYFIELD BBC Radio One Live In Concert (Windsong (UK), c/o ROIR, 611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563)—Even though it's been almost two and a half years since the terrible accident that left Curtis Mayfield paralyzed, the world hasn't forgotten the musical vision and spirit of the "gentle genius of soul." Subject of anthologies, reissues and two tribute compilations (including one out soon on Warner Bros.), it's refreshing to see Mayfield himself return to the bins with this pre-accident, live-in-England, 1990 recording leading the way towards what will no doubt be a long and arduous, but eagerly-awaited return to music. The buzz surrounding Mayfield just before the accident makes this disc even more poignant, and hearing this concert one does indeed get the, er, impression that Curtis really was hot on the comeback trail. Sure, there's some cheesy synth moments, but when Curtis steps onto the stage to the strains of "Superfly" and pours his pure, clear falsetto into "People Get Ready," "Billy Jack" and the medley of "It's Alright/Amen," it's simply a great thing. Fans should also check out the version of 1974's "Move On Up," originally from the LP Curtis: though never a big hit stateside, it was one of Mayfield's biggest NAKED CITY Radio and Absinthe (Avant Japan), c/o Sphere Marketing & Distribution, Cargo Bldg. 80, Room 2A, JFK Airport, Jamaica, NY 11430/718-656-6220—There will probably never be another band like Naked City, John Zorn's late, great and lamented revolutionary thrash jazz avant-garde combo. Featuring the combined instrumental firepower of Zorn, Joey Baron, Fred Frith, Bill Frisell and incomparable Boredoms vocalist Yamatsuka Eye, Naked City's shape-shifting, channel-flipping genre-fuck panache of stylistic influences made for a music that could jump from TV Western soundtrack to thrash to film noir to the latest in East Asian heavy metal, all in the course of one song, or even one minute. Radio was culled from live broadcasts (but sadly, no version of the group's awesome live rendition of the Beach Boys' "Pet Sounds"). The real chiller here, however, is Absinthe, what some are calling the group's "ambient" recording, a dark instrumental set of music that's a horrific soundtrack of almost gothic proportions, complete with thunderstorms, footsteps on cobblestones and weird inexplicable gurgling sounds. It's a claustrophobic vision of dank, dripping pipes, absurdly hissing radiators, plaster-peeling walls and convoluted musical logic that moves and unfolds with the patient, methodically unsound reasoning of a serial killer's mind. Imagine Captain Beefheart crossed with the Marquis de Sade, or Rahsaan Roland Kirk as a mass murderer, and presto, you're envisioning Naked City in all its strange and horrible beauty.

—James Lien

DIE MONSTER DIE Withdrawal Method (Roadrunner, 225 Lafayette St., Ste. 407, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—The withdrawal method, as we recall from seventh grade sex education classes, is one of the least effective methods of birth control, so under no circumstances should the new Die Monster Die CD be used as a contraceptive device. Warning heeded, the band's second album Withdrawal Method proves to be a stimulating release brimming with angst and elation. Born in Athens, Georgia, and re-rooted to New York City, Die Monster Die combines the pop sensibility of its birthplace with the claustrophobia-induced noise of its new hometown. And though its music is crafty and intelligent, there's a primal tension running through most of the grooves that keeps the songs treading a line between high and low art. The dramatic disparity between Alice Cohen's chirpy vocals and the worrying guitar work of Shawn Tracy and Evan Plaver emphasizes this dichotomy. On Withdrawal Method, Die Monster Die seems torn between whether to be inspirational or disturbing, frequently switching between syrupy melodies and jagged, unexpected rhythm shifts. Energetic guitar chords melt together mixed with minor-key meanderings; toe-tapping beats collide with stretches of ominous silence. At first, the record might seem a bit too disjointed for some, but with repeat listenings each passage reveals its purpose. Be patient. Play "Slumber," "Barknuckle" and "Vagina Dentata."

—Jon Wiederhorn

LUCY'S FUR COAT Jaundice (Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—The sound of Lucy's Fur Coat is, for the most part, a familiar one: '70s hard rock excess filtered through punk rock is hardly pushing the envelope in 1994. However, the band's wealth of consistently effective hooks, which it plays with an irresistible enthusiasm, more than makes up for lack of innovation. (As though innovation was even a requirement at this point in the life of rock 'n' roll.) Perhaps due to the fact that the band's members spend their days fully immersed in the pencil-pushin' 9-5 grind that the rest of us squares and stiffs deal with daily—band members include a lawyer, a CPA, an engineer and an X-Ray technician—the boys sound pleased as punch to have the opportunity to pick up their instruments and make some noise. The result is a debut LP rife with testosterone-soaked power-riffing and sing-along choruses—the strongest and most consistent aspect of their songwriting—that only sad-sacks and mopes could resist. Like Slade, it doesn't matter what they're singing about. Turn the amps up, get that fist in the air and shout. And don't ask any stupid questions, square. Bug your parents with: "Treasure Hands," "Super" and "Easy."

—Steve McGuirl

ROSE CHRONICLES Shiver (Netwerk (Canada), 1755 Robson St. #330, Vancouver, BC V6G 3B2 Canada/604-654-2929)—Like British exports 4AD, Creation and Too Pure, Canada's Netwerk label has achieved its reputation based on an identifiable sound, one which creates a mood of admiration-by-association here in the States when we get a new member of the roster to welcome. Vancouver's Rose Chronicles stay true to the sound on their debut full-length Shiver, which surpasses the groundwork laid by the band's five-song EP introduction of last year, Dead And Gone To Heaven, but doesn't merely settle for trying to fit into the stable. While lush soundscapes and ethereal artistry are among the first things to pop off Shiver, the more subtle sounds of the volatile, pulsating rhythms, the mood-creating power and shimmer of the guitars, and the multi-octave, angelic serenade of vocalist Kristy Thirsk leave the lasting impression. Shiver recalls the Cocteau Twins, especially on some of the guitar treatments, grounding the quartet's sound. The band employs a range of tints, turning from beautifully delicate to wonderfully demonic with the slightest amount of effort. Producing Shivers: "Glide (Free Above)," "Undertow," "Nothing's Real," "Forgotten" and an Alan Moulder (Ride, Swervedriver) remixed version of the EP's "Awaiting Eternity."

ENIGMA The Cross Of Changes (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—When Enigma unexpectedly burst onto the dance/radio scene three years ago with MCMXC A.D. and "Sadeness, Pt. 1," a new world of musical cross-pollination opened up, with this enigmatic project leading us into new and musically intriguing territories. Reaching into his soul to tap an even broader range of moods, Enigma founder Michael Cretu has produced The Cross Of Changes, which continues where the Gregorian chants of its predecessor left off in exploring a pan-global terrain textured with cross-cultural soundscapes and clouded with mysterious dreaminess. At once seductive and exotic, The Cross Of Changes flows evenly behind intoxicating rhythms and chants in Indian and Middle Eastern voices, reaching around the globe, with a stop in the vast oceans ("The Dream Of The Dolphin") along the way. Enigma blends its melodies with an electronically-created atmosphere and subtle dance grooves, generating an absorbing swirl of imagination, one which helps the "Dear Prudence"—paraphrased "Out From The Deep" find its place among the more mysterious nature of the rest of the album. Explore: "Return To Innocence," "Age Of Loneliness (Carly's Song)," a new version of the song which appeared in the movie Sliver,

"I Love You...I'll Kill You" and "The Eyes Of Truth."

JUNO REACTOR Transmissions (NovaMute, 140 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011/212-255-7670)—Call it techno if you like. What we hear in Juno Reactor is pure old-fashioned acid house. The panning stereo effects, the bleeps that make those tone-shifting "wopadopadown" noises, the repeating tonal motifs, the identifiable chord progressions—it all could have come off the House Hallucinates compilation, and track titles like "Acid Moon" add to the impression. Which is just fine: what Juno Reactor gets from acid house is a sense that its tracks are going in a specific direction, even if that direction turns out to be a loop. Equally as distinctive among current techno records is Transmissions' frequency range and variety. The high end is as sibilant as a Black Riot hi-hat track, the low end is often a single-note jackhammer, and the midrange is filled out with any number of things, including the odd vocal sample, pitch-altering synth chords that could have come off an old Trevor Horn production ("10,000 Miles" bears a family resemblance to "Welcome To The Pleasure-dome"), and nimble Synclavier programming. Tune in to: the above, plus "High Energy Protons," "Man To Ray" and "The Heavens."

MANCHILD Searching For Everywhere (Super 8, 810 S. Columbia St., Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-967-5109)—No, we're not reviewing a comeback demo from the '70s soul vocal group Manchild, which recorded the album Feel the Phuff. This Manchild is/was a duo of Norwood Cheek and Peyton Reed, at least until the former Manchild's lawyers get wind of this CD. The Chapel Hill Manchild is comprised of two longtime friends who took to making music together (although Peyton's moved to Los Angeles, the two are still in contact, writing and recording together whenever they're both in the same zip code). Their first CD Searching For Everywhere has a warm bedroom feel, but the music is a bit more above-ground and mainstream-friendly than most home-tapers. Manchild's music is made from a hundred little kaleidoscopic fragments from all manner of wistful pop and rock influences, from Died Pretty and That Dog to inclement weather bands like the Raincoats, the Wipers and the Windbreakers. It sounds like it's all a big accident—the best demos always sound like the band just innocently plugged in and played—but in its naive and unassuming nature, Manchild is onto a few good ideas. Many of its best songs are pleasing, delightfully impossible sounding hybrids: "Another Chance" sounds like Pavement covering New Order, while "Cage" sounds like the last song on a Sebadoh album with members of Devo guesting on background vocals—interesting little ditties that are honestly just as much fun just to listen to as they are to describe. Also check out "Action Figure," "Lyon" and "Two Of Them."

FYI

New York's INDIVIDUAL FRUIT PIE (156 E. 2nd St. #26, New York, NY 10009/212-473-2656) does not sound as goofy as the band's Hostess-inspired moniker. The songs on its three-track tape contain a dreamy pop edge, epitomized by gentle, meandering guitar strums, light drum patterns and tambourine rhythms. This light-hearted sound is spruced up by deep vocals much like those of Randall Lee (Canannes, Ashtray Boy). The band maintains a mid-range tempo, never reaching the hopping happy tempos of Ashtray Boy, but not sleep-inducing like the current Codeine/Idaho trend. These songs could be lullabies, their tender violins soothing damaged ears, although the lyrics occasionally venture to the silly side, as in "It will be the perfect marriage/We consider getting plastered in Paris." Individual Fruit Pie plays a peaceful rockin' pop, a trend that is quickly stealing the limelight away from harsh grunge noise.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Big Blunts: A Collection Of Classic Reggae Weed Anthems (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—Long before Cypress Hill, long before High Times magazine, long before hemp became a symbol of hip-hop in the '90s, the value and benefits of the herb were being celebrated in Jamaica, especially within the reggae community and Rastafarian religion. Ganja and spliff references, as well as calls for legalization, have abounded in reggae, and Big Blunts collects some classic moments in blunted reggae. Wayne Smith's 1985 "Under Mi Sleng Teng," remixed appropriately by Cypress Hill's DJ Muggs, the Mighty Diamonds' 1981 anthem "Pass The Kutchie," which is probably better known from Musical Youth's version, U-Roy's "Chalice In The Palace," a fantasy about smoking with the Queen of England from 1975, and Rita Marley's 1981 hit "One Draw," featuring the famous line "I want to get high/so high," are just a few of the proud, significant hemp moments on this 12-track collection.

GRIFTERS "Holmes" (7") (Darla, 226 E. 2nd St. #2D, New York, NY 10009/212-505-7779)—After their last album, One Sock Missing, Memphis denizens the Grifters gained a great deal of praise for their colorful feedback fashion. "Holmes" highlights the distortion dynamic while bypassing the catchy quality of songs like "Soda Pop" or "She Blows Bursts Of Static." The slow and sleepy B-side "Blood Junkie" wallows in soulful bluesy guitar riffs. The Tennessee quartet summons beauty using the crudest of techniques.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Just A Taste: A Summershine Records Compilation (Slumberland, P.O. Box 14731, Berkeley, CA 94701/510-654-6124)—Founded in 1989, Australian indie label Summershine was molded in a mindset parallel to Scotland's Postcard, England's Creation and the U.S.' Bus Stop labels. Summershine gradually earned a worldwide reputation for exposing talented Australian pop bands (and a few choice overseas bands, too) ignored by mainstream labels and media. This sunny 18-track sampler documents the label's first four years, exposing nine of Australia's craftiest janglers to a domestic audience for the first time. The Earthmen, who recently had an LP released by Seed, may be the only familiar name to most, but early tracks, mostly from out-of-print 7"s, from the Sugargliders, Autohaze (now signed to Creation in the U.K.) and the Rainyard are sure to bore themselves deep into the hearts of pop lovers nationwide.

—Lydia Anderson

MOVIOLA "Waste" (7") (Mindwalk/Eardrop, c/o Anyway, 1992 B N. High St., Columbus, OH 43201/614-268-1457)—Anyway's latest sub-fidelity find is Moviola, more bored folks from Columbus who bend and twist noodly, distorted guitar sounds around unshakable melodies. Moviola's first single starts with the subtle blaster "Waste," which sounds something like a slow, fuzzy Superchunk single swaddled in warped tremolo sounds and curiously audible vocals. The chaser is "Gin & Tonic," a progressively noisier descent into mayhem held together by the song's intuitive tunefulness.

—Lydia Anderson

DOO RAG "Swampwater Mop Down" (7") (Drunken Fish, 8600 W. Olympic Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90035)—This duo from Arizona knocks out a warped sounding racket, drawing its plentiful blues from the Leadbelly era, while its twisted contemporary style recalls Railroad Jerk. "Swampwater Mop Down" jumps and jitters with slide guitars and odd percussion. "Engine Bread" is a junket to the future of blues, a ride on the express train.

—Dawn Sutter

MONSTERTRUCK FIVE "S.F. Sister" (7") (Chrome Frog, P.O. Box 02372, Columbus, OH 43202/614-457-4179)—Monstertruck Five had a single on another hometown label, Anyway, a year or so ago, and this late-in-coming single proves that it's not the most product-oriented band. The lackadaisical Ohio group takes lo-fi distortion to delightful, ear-tingling extremes—the songs are short bursts, full of screeches, inaudible lyrical mumbles/screams and, believe it or not, a tune. All of this grimy noise is available on the loveliest wine-colored vinyl.

—Dawn Sutter

VARIOUS ARTISTS Sunny Sunday Smile (Sunday, P.O. Box 8335, Rolling Meadows, IL 60008)—Twee-er than a three-day-old kitten! More fey than a gently rolling pram! Able to leap small trimmed hedges with the aid of a sturdy, attractively decorated stepstool! Is it Sarah Records? Is it Waaaaah! Records? No—it's a compilation from Sunday Records, the indie-label equivalent of a nice warm cup of tea. Indie anorak pop in England hasn't been the same since word got out that Strawberry Story, the Fat Tulips and Confetti were all more or less the same three people. Fortunately, the American-based Sunday label has been putting out a flower-cart load of feather-weight, jangling singles and albums by the bands that remind us why the English are so good at knitting things. Sunny Sunday Smile is a compilation of new material by a dozen Sunday bands, and as comfortable as a cozy sweater all the way through. The highlights are unsurprising: two bitterness-tinged tracks by POI, a couple of final songs from Young Marble Giants soundalike Confetti (including the terse, breezy kiss-off "Nothing II"), and They Go Boom!!'s lengthy, resigned "Hollow Heart."

—Douglas Wolk

PORCH "Expectorant" (7") (Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 419092, San Francisco, CA 94141/415-431-5697)—Pardon us for mentioning it, but Porch is comprised of ex-members of Primus, Sister Double Happiness and Samiam. Not that it has anything to do with the band's sound. "Expectorant," and its B-side "Iceberg," are gratuitous stomps rilled with the kind of tight, flat percussive thwack and straightforward guitar vigor usually found further east than the band's Bay Area home. Frayed, torn and surprisingly meaty, Porch produces an effortless slab of rock without slipping into the clutter of time honored indie-rock cliché or boring guitar workout.

JACKPOT!

—JANIS JOPLIN Janis (Legacy, c/o Columbia, 50 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-211) [cat. no. 48845]—Of all the idols of the '60s who died on the cusp of the new decade, probably only Janis Joplin revealed the Sixties experience as the cultural sham and revolutionary head-end that in many ways it was. Free love and mind expansion were not always the ticket to the utopian new world that the countercultural gurus and the media preached it to be, and not everybody found the answers to his or her problems by simply heading to San Francisco with flowers in his or her hair. By the end of the decade, there was a lot of wreckage and debris: in fact, there were bodies strewn all over the place, one of them belonging to Janis. In many senses, from the average female hippie's perspective, free love really boiled down to increased pressure for promiscuity from hippie guys, in some ways an even worse form of entrapment than previous restraints. At the same time, unabashed chemical experimentation in the '60s often wreaked havoc on less well-matched souls. Or, as Joplin put it in her tough, raucous "Me and My Udders" (one of her early songs, "The Ball and Chain" is the losers.)

That's part of what makes this three-CD box set different from the usual rose-tinted look down memory lane that we've been fed by the baby-boomer generation for the last 10 or so years. On the rock-and-roll tip, all of the liner essays here are by women, and the resultant package takes a new philosophical tack. In particular, Ann Powers' essay eschews the "ya shoulda been there" lysergic nostalgia typical of the Rolling Stone generation, instead linking Joplin with seemingly remote modern-day women rockers such as those in PJ Harvey and Bikini Kill. In her time, Joplin was an alternative sex symbol and dream ideal for hip guys: open, natural and assertive, but ultimately feminine. Though they're not directly similar, women artists such as Liz Phair and PJ Harvey share at least this one dimension with Joplin, like it or not—just check out the first 10 rows at any of their concerts, and watch how the boys are reacting differently than the girls. On a larger level, the rock stars of the '60s were the best youth heroes to consciously (or not) cast themselves not just as entertainers, but as youth-culture heroes, demigods who represented huge social changes and forces far beyond a song or a face on an album cover. Nowadays, every entertainer employs these mass-culture techniques, but since Janis Joplin was the first female to operate on that scale, what she did deserves special attention every day.

Of course, Janis—the box set, like the person—is not without its flaws. The so-called "typewriter" quality of an early recorded demo is very shrill and usually difficult to listen to, yet you can still sense something special is in there trying to work itself out. That scrap is counterbalanced somewhat by the wonderful, previously unreleased "Happy Birthday John (Happy Trails)," an impromptu performance as a spontaneous birthday present to John Lennon. The early material sounds, well, early, and some of Joplin's rambling monologues make the stage announcements from Woodstock sound like deep stuff. Still, it's probably those very flaws that have thus far saved Joplin from being completely slicked-over into the airbrushed perfection of Hendrix and Morrison by the mythmaking machinery.

As a singer and not a symbol, Joplin owed her greatest early debt to blues shouter Big Mama Thornton, the tough-as-nails woman who sang the original version of "Hound Dog" and who had a gritty, sassy lyrical stance that anticipated Janis' unique persona. From there, it was Robert Plant who probably picked up the most on her energy and passion; enamored with the San Francisco scene, he borrowed liberally from her vocal mannerisms (and even her penchant for feathers, beads and baubles) all through the first four or five Zeppelin albums. (In fact, play them side by side and you'll notice that "Since I Been Loving You" is essentially equal halves "Ball And Chain" and the first cut on Moby Grape's Grape Jam.) That same shrieking passion, in turn, unlikely as it seems, later got channeled through to Chris Cornell and a host of other bare-chested hard rock frontmen. Listen carefully and you'll notice that Lenny Kravitz nicked the lick for "Are You Gonna Go My Way" almost note-for-note from the intro to the amped-up live version of "Try (Just A Little Harder)" from the Joplin In Concert album.

Like Zeppelin, Janis Joplin was memorable in part because her music didn't really replicate blues and soul music per se, but instead reimagined them to suit her own needs and aims, transforming them into something that was new and powerful. This is just another part of what separates her from the dozens of barely-remembered blues boom artists of the period who stuck rotely to 12 bars and three chords, and part of what makes her music still resonate today.

LILIPUT LILIPUT (Off Course, P.O. Box 241, CD-8025 Zurich, Switzerland/(01) 252-89-52) [cat. no. 12]—Sending a check for $30 to Off Course Records is the only way to get LILIPUT, but it's worth the hassle for music this juicy. LILIPUT's wry, playful post-punk eludes easy comparison—imagine if Pylon had more and stranger hooks, sang in broken English and Swiss German, and sounded like they were going to collapse in giggles after every take, and you'll be on the right track. Formed in 1978 by four Swiss women, LILIPUT (originally known as Kleenex) released four singles and two albums during its five-year existence. They're all included on this double-CD set, along with 18 unreleased tracks. The first 10 songs show bassist Klaudia Schiff and guitarist Marlene Marder—the only constant members of the band—clunking along until they hit their stride with the singles "Ain't You" and "You" (the flip side of which was called "U"), joyful, stiff-jointed proto-new wave songs that showed off the band's knack for odd dance rhythms and nonsense vocalisms. With the classic "Split," a Nico-voiced singer named Regula Sing is replaced by the much less formal, more charming Chrigle Freund, and wonderful things ensue for the next nine, mostly unreleased, tracks (how did "Hitch-hike" escape being a single?). The saxophonist and drummer leave, and Freund takes over the drums for a transitional single—a hurricane called "Eisiger Wind." She's replaced by a new singer/percussionist/violinist, the dignified and spacey Astrid Spirit, who stays with the band through its later, artier period. By the final album, Some Songs, LILIPUT is a much quieter band, decorating its (still rhythmically bizarre) songs with piano and bongos. Almost all of this package has been out of print for a decade or more (although three songs appeared on the Lipstick Traces compilation last year); it's all worth hearing, and at least a third of it is jaw-droppingly great.

—Douglas Wolk

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

ROYAL TRUX's recent two albums—the band's second eponymous LP and Cats And Dogs—are formally constructed, precise rock distillations compared to Twin Infinitives, the duo's second album (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-455-1015). Originally released as a double-LP vinyl set in 1990, Twin Infinitives ranks as one of the more intriguing experimental albums with a drug-drenched background, Neil Hagerty and Jennifer Herrema's adventurous spirit more often than not coalescing into mood-generating pieces that effectively toy with the fragile border between sublime madness and full-on insanity. The meager, often treated vocals, seemingly all Neil and Jennifer could muster, are smothered in an experimental sound pastiche, peppered with electronic blips, fragments of very loosely knit bluesy guitar and minimal percussion...Matador's CD reissue of UNREST's earliest material should appease the growing number of Unrest fans as well as fans of the Teen Beat label, run by bandleader Mark Robinson, who released all his band's earliest stuff (Teen Beat, c/o Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882). Fuck Pussy Galore (& All Her Friends) joins Unrest's first full-lengther, with several small-run 7" EPs, a couple of cassette tracks and one previously unreleased cut. These 26 songs form a surprisingly tight and listenable set of deconstructionist punk rock, shot through with a blast of mid-'80s Britpop and a delightfully smug attitude. From playful covers of "So You Want To Be A Rock 'N' Roll Star" and "Wild Thing" to little-heard gems like "Happy Song," "Judy Says" and "She Makes Me Free To Be Free," Unrest's earliest stuff survives in tip-top shape...If you check out CHARLES MINGUS' 1974 LP Mingus Moves, recently reissued by Rhino (10635 Santa Monica Blvd., 90025-4900, 310-474-4778), you may notice an uncanny similarity between the eerie saxophone intro to "Mingus" and the similarly atmospheric first few bars on Morphine's Cure For Pain CD, with only a couple of notes' difference. Coincidence, influence or what? You decide...Rhino has also issued Lightning-Rod Man, a compilation of early, pre-Little Feat tracks featuring the late musical man-mountain Lowell George. The quality's a little schizo—mostly it's garden variety garage psychedelia that sounds a lot like Spinal Tap's "Listen To The Flower People," but then the last four songs jump jarringly ahead to Feat's first bluesy rock sounds from '69. But if, like us, you're a die-hard fan of George's wry humor and gargantuan musical genius, you'll want to check this one out.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

DENTISTS

England's Dentists have sustained warm praise from the fickle British press over the last few years with their irresistible guitar pop, which has appeared stateside in the form of two indie compilation albums. The quartet's major-label and proper U.S. debut, Behind The Door I Keep The Universe, proves the band's agility with infectious pop, ringing out harmonies and instantly hummable melodies with a crisp, timeless British flair. Like the Wedding Present, the Dentists offer aggressive pop with a headstrong intelligence, and programmers are taking notice. In its second week on the chart, Behind The Door... leaps 76-26, powered by the East region, where the album breaks the top 20 at #17. The album also moves up from the #2 to the #1 Adventure Pick this week, as more stations become convinced. 104 of the 419 stations reporting a top 35 this week recommend the Dentists, led by top 10 reports from KCSS, KMSC, KNAB, KSSB (#1), KVSC (#1), KYMC, WBAU, WFDU, WFPN, WGMU, WKVR, WLFR, WMCN (IL), WODU, WRIC (PA), WWSA, WSYC and WXJM.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

The retail world is full of changes this week. Columbia's Alice In Chains rushes right up to the top spot, bringing DGC's Counting Crows (3-2) along for the ride and nudging Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins (1-3) and Elektra's Breeders (2-4), longtime holders of the #1 and #2 spots, out of the way. Epic Associated's Pearl Jam holds tightly onto #5, while Matador's Liz Phair is still moving up (10-9). The newest entry to the top 10 is Epic Soundtrax's Philadelphia soundtrack (13-10).

A plethora of new releases hits the chart this week. London-PLG's Meat Puppets' #12 debut makes them the #1 Breakthrough. Epic's Prong makes its first appearance at #26 (see Retail Focus). Atlantic's Tori Amos appears at #31 after her new LP's first day of sales. Virgin's sweethearts from overseas, Shonen Knife, travel to #34 with a new full-length LP. Axiom-Island's Material debuts at #40, with Earache-Columbia's Entombed not far behind at #43. Island's In The Name Of The Father soundtrack checks in at #46. The rest of this week's debuts are: Mammoth's Kevn Kinney (#56), Kill Rock Stars' Bratmobile (#61) and Atlantic's John Michael Montgomery (#74).

Old timers making progress include: Epic's Rage Against The Machine (19-13), Bongload-DGC's Beck (30-15), Epic's Deep Forest (49-16), Atlantic's Jawbox (32-23), Elektra's Afghan Whigs (40-28) and Arista's Ace Of Base (42-32). Please notice that Silent has changed the name of its distribution wing to Pulse Soniq. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

PRONG

Cleansing, the fourth album from Epic's Prong, makes its debut at #26. The band could now be considered a supergroup, with the addition of former members of Swans and Killing Joke heightening its already dense sound. As grunge becomes passé, listeners are looking deeper for angst-ridden power-chords and raucous guitars. Metal is becoming the obvious choice for the Nirvana dol-drummers; the overwhelming popularity of bands like Alice In Chains and Tool reflect this latest trend. Prong, already a veteran of the genre, has paid its dues and should look forward to reaping its rewards.

DOPE!

KURIOUS A Constipated Monkey (Hoppoh, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—This 23-year-old Cuban/Puerto Rican rhyme-sayer has, over the years, established a king's reputation as a top-notch rapper on his native upper West Side streets of Manhattan. A student of hip-hop since his days in diapers, and as a former messenger for Def Jam, Kurious has developed a style that triggers slippery, sharp-witted one-liners from his twisted, over-active psyche. Effectively mixing street toughness with sporadic, humorous playtime (check the intro to "Spell It Wit A J [Yes, Yes Jorge]"), A Constipated Monkey enigmatically achieves its street stripes with buffoonery, crotch-grabbing and random blabber—it doesn't exactly mesh with the underground's hard-headed criteria. But Kurious is not the kind of rapper whose image is going to change once he's signed the dotted line. Beneath the silliness, Kurious' rhyme skills are well represented, firing on all cylinders on "Fresh Out The Box" and last year's overlooked single "Walk Like A Duck." Helping solidify this debut's loop-fests and entrancing, sticky beat beds are producers Beatnuts and Stimulated Dummies, both of whom serve up sizzling platters of tweaked sound effects, abrasive funk and deep basslines. With no intentions of playing PC games, Kurious waxes poetic with the intuition of someone who knows what it takes to win the respect of those who matter most. Get stimulated by: "Uptown Shit," "Nikole" and "Jorge Of The Projects."

JAZZHOLE Jazzhole (Bluemoon, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, P.O. Box 5510, Burbank, CA 91221/818-841-8585)—The emerging acid jazz genre is developing so quickly that it's becoming difficult to decipher really good acid jazz from a run-of-the-mill group that uses its expertise in jazz, funk and R&B to become the next club cats to fall under this moniker. Jazzhole is more than a collective of musicians that plays the ingredients of acid jazz particularly well. Instead, the group plays in club atmosphere, which sets the mood for its progressive renderings of R&B, acid jazz and reggae, each style presented in its own light. While Jazzhole is as adept at bending borders or falling into bottomless grooves as groups like the Solsonics, songs like the radio-friendly, soul/pop tainted "Gatta B Everything," "Betcha Gonna Want Me" (featuring rapper KCB), the danceable, reggae-flavored "Time Of The Season" and the quiet-storm-ish "Wild Is The Wind" show that the group can pan through its influences with equal proficiency. For those simply looking to shake a tailfeather, its jazz-rooted and Digable improvisations on "Forward Motion" and the club-charged "Body Fi Match" will be hard to keep up with, as Jazzhole leaves room for jazzy additives no matter how sweaty the tempo gets. Also dig: "Bumrush The Jazzhole," "Tres Belle" and "Smile."

ON THE CHART

As number of reports climbs up to 120, Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (which has already begun work on a new album) strengthens its hold on the #1 position. Bumping Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg down 2-3 is Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan, which moves Enter The Wu-Tang (36 Chambers) to its highest position to date (5-2). With mass appeal behind it, Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr enters its single "Mass Appeal" into this week's top 10 (14-6), as Jive's Souls Of Mischief (18-10) return to form. While the chart grows weary of releases by Elektra's Leaders Of The New School (7-11) and Outburst/RAL-Chaos' Domino (11-13), we see strong moves by Wild Pitch-ERG's UMC's (27-16), Def Jam/RAL-Chaos' Erick Sermon (26-21) and Uptown-MCA's Jodeci (29-24). Hey, look who's back! The #1 record according to our charts for 1993, Delicious Vinyl-Atlantic's Pharcyde (#27), returns on the strength of "4 Better Or 4 Worse." This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Gang Starr; 2) Wu-Tang Clan; 3) Casual; 4) Snoop Doggy Dogg; 5) Souls Of Mischief; 6) Shaquille O'Neal; 7) UMC's 8) Kurious; 9) US 3; 10) DFC. Please note that we are now printing 19 station's playlists instead of the previous 12—progress! (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

VARIOUS ARTISTS Straight From Da Streets: Vol. 1 (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—In the tradition of your favorite mix tape, Priority Records, in association with KPWR/Power 106 (which is quarterbacking a massive fundraising drive and media blitz), has pulled the strings on one of the strongest, most hit-infected compilations in years. Recently, it's been movie soundtracks which have allowed labels to showcase mixes of old-school, new-school and unreleased material. Straight From Da Streets, however, offers some of the most popular hip-hop jams of the past few years on one CD. More importantly, all of the net proceeds from the sale of the album will go to the Knowledge Is Power Fund, an organization devoted to raising money to construct the L.A. Performing Arts Center and Training Complex. The center will provide underprivileged youth with the opportunity to develop skills in the performing and technical arts. Programmers will want to play this straight through without interruption as it features House Of Pain's "Jump Around," Black Sheep's "The Choice Is Yours," Paperboy's "The Ditty," party-anthems "Dazzy Duzs," "Baby Got Back" and "Whoomp! (There It Is)," along with hardcore standouts like Ice Cube's "It Was A Good Day," 2Pac's "I Get Around" and Das EFX's "They Want EFX." Also included is the previously-unreleased live version of "One Nation Under A Groove" by Funkadelic/George Clinton.

DEL THE FUNKYHOMOSAPIEN

"Wrongplace" [92 BPM] (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

—Albums are great, but there's something about a 12" release from Del The Funkyhomosapien that heightens the hip-hop senses, as the possibility looms of discovering an unreleased diamond-in-the-rough like "Eye Examination" from 1992's "Dr. Bombay" single. While fellow Hieroglyphic Casual gives "Wrongplace" a rubbery, bass-laden framework, the B-side features the non-LP cut "Undisputed Champs." With raps passed out by Del and Pep Love, Native Tongue emissary Q-Tip trades some smooth, medium-paced poetic boasts that sound so good you begin to wonder why this collaboration didn't occur years ago.

EXPRESS LANE

Here's a quick shout-out for a few singles that will make your week complete. Packin' thick steel is DFC (Da Funk Clan), which is creating quite a stir with the release of its debut single "Caps Get Peeled" [84 BPM] (Assault, c/o Big Beat, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10010/212-691-8805). Formerly watching the back of MC Breed as part of his posse, the Clan is taken under the production wing of MC Eiht (who raps as well) for a sizzling fry of glassy string arrangements and mellow, gangster lyrics... Also get a grip on the latest single from INTELLIGENT HOODLUM entitled "Street Life" (Tuff Break, c/o A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028), featuring remixes from Marley Marl, K-Def and Skeff Anselm... Also check for the surprises on SOULS OF MISCHIEF's latest 12" "Never No More" (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016). Word out.

WORD IS...

The latest in our series of rappers-turned-television sitcom actors involves EastWest America's YO YO, who has signed a deal with Warner Bros.' television division for the production of a 30-minute sitcom, Shifting Gears. Yo Yo plays the role of a dispatcher for a family-owned trucking company, and the show will explore a variety of social and family issues. It's scheduled to premier this fall on NBC... Pendulum Records' two latest signings include PAPA CHUK, who will release the album The Badlands this April, and New York-based group the BOOGIE MONSTERS... Word is that Wild Pitch has dropped MAIN SOURCE. While the group is sure to secure a new deal with another label, we've learned that there is a new VP of Marketing at Wild Pitch named—get ready for this—MC SERCH, the one and only. Publicity workhorse Karen Harris has also left the label... Elektra's LEADERS OF THE NEW SCHOOL are currently working out a deal to shoot a Coca-Cola commercial (similar to POSITIVE K's "I Got A Man" twist) to promote their single "Classic Material" and, of course, Coke Classic... After a successful cameo on GURU's Jazzmatazz project, french rapper MC SOLAAR will be releasing a solo album next month on Cohiba-Island Records... NEW KINGDOM has been chosen to open for CYPRESS HILL on its European tour... To clear some of the claims and rumors, NICE & SMOOTH's new album, Just When You Thought It Was Over, is not scheduled to come out until April. Look for the first single "Return Of The Hip-Hop Freaks"... DOMINO's single "Getto Jam" has been certified gold, and his record has sold nearly 400,000 units... The original BRAND NUBIAN lineup is planning a new release for September, after working out a few personal differences within the group. Meanwhile, GRAND PUBA is working on his second

ON THE CHART

Despite a slip on the radio chart, Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg has got both feet (or is that paws?) firmly on the ground, still holding off the pressing Ice Cube, whose Lethal Injection stays at #2. Climbing to new heights on the radio chart as well as the retail chart, Loud RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (6-3) is enjoying the finest of its 11 weeks on the chart; meanwhile Motown's Queen Latifah (4-4) and Next Plateau/London-PLG sweethearts Salt-N-

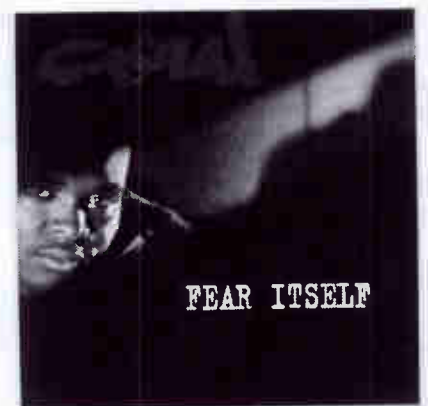

Pepa (5-5) stay put for another week. While EastWest America's Das EFX (11-8) seems to be getting Straight Up Sewaside rolling again, we welcome in debuts from Rap-A-Lot-Priority's 2 Low at #12, Columbia's favorite son Nas at #16 and Virgin's Shyheim at #24. Also keep your eyes on Chemistry Ltd.-Mercury's Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs (23-14) and Wild Pitch-ERG's UMC's (19-15). (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) solo album, slated for a May release... ICE CUBE's second 12" for "You Know How We Do It" (from Lethal Injection) will contain a non-LP cut entitled "2 N The Morning." Cube will also be appearing in director John Singleton's next film, Higher Learning... Priority Records has recently signed the L.A.-based rap group ANOTHA LEVEL and will be releasing the single "What's That Ya Say," followed by an album in March to be produced by Laylaw (N.W.A., 2Pac, Ice Cube) and Derek D Swing.

Don't fake the funk, sent it and all perishables to Glen "Funkenberry" Sansone at CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021.

BLOWIN' UP

CASUAL Fear Itself (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016) Radio Chart Position: #23—Like a powerful running back in the NFL, Casual (who stands 6'3") follows the lead-blocks of fellow Hieroglyphics Del The Funkyhomosapien (#12) and Souls Of Mischief (#10) in hopes of springing the success of his debut, Fear Itself. With two prior single releases, "That's How It Is" and "I Didn't Mean To," the teenage Casual is living up to all of the expectations, making this week's highest debut at #23 with an album full of sharp-witted jargon cultivated in his East Oakland homeland. While also pulling down the #3 Adventure Pick, Fear Itself appears on 11 out of 120 radio reports in its inaugural week on the chart. Whether or not Casual will have the staying power of his fellow homeboys remains to be seen, but we feel that he's off to a fine start. The following stations have no fear as they report Casual in their top 10: CHRY, KEOL, KSPC (#1), KUGS, KWUR, KZUM, WBIM, WEGE, WRRR, WSRN and WVUA, Tuscaloosa, AL. It's 1st and 10...

JACKPOT

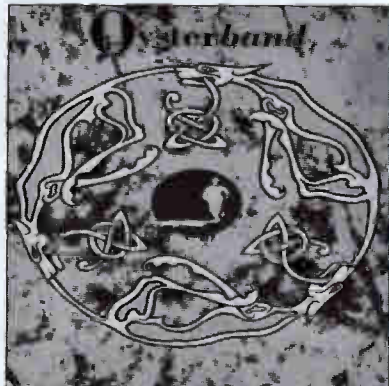

I WAYAN SADRA Karya: New Music Indonesia Vol. 3 (Lyricord, 141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014/212-929-8234)—

Volume three of Lyricord's New Music Indonesia series focuses on a single composer, 40-year-old I Wayan Sadra, whose work on Mana 689 (Vol. 2) was the standout piece of the set. Here we get a full view of his innovative and powerful music. These seven pieces are performed by musicians from Bali, Java, Sunda, Sumatra and the United States, using instruments and tunings from many Asian and European styles, often blending together disparate tunings or rhythms in an effort to create a new, unified Asian music. He never hesitates to use the sound he needs, regardless of its source. Traditional gamelan, fiddles and reeds are comfortable next to electronic devices, avant garde vocals and other Western devices. One track combines not only the musical but religious ideas of Buddhism, Islam and Hinduism. Sadra is a complex composer to record because his work is as much about space as sound. His music takes advantage of the audiences' and performers' relative positions so that there's spatial movement impossible to capture on tape. The fade-ins on the recording only hint at these dynamics. But these recorded pieces hold high drama, rich textures and magnificent beauty. They are the embodiment of what new world music is supposed to be about: to grow from the roots, but graft new branches and bear new fruit.

EURO ROCKING

There's a lot going on on the folk rock front. The LEVELLERS are preparing to storm the shores of Amerikay, the POGUES are struggling along without Shane, and great bands like BLYTH POWER will probably languish in obscurity forever, justly or not. But there are some great CDs sitting in an office at your station right now, waiting for your MD to decide if they are "new rock" or "folk" or "world music." Never trust anyone with a title, go get these off the desk and on the air, everywhere.

It's now condensed to one word, OYSTERBAND, but that diminutive attitude stops with the title. Holy Bandits (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678) is the group's

ON THE CHART

Well, we have a new #1 on our hands, RAS' The Never Ending Wailers. Even from beyond the grave, even when mutated into new forms, the power of Bob Marley and the original Wailers lives on. Meanwhile, the hand of Marley also pervades Mango-Island's Tougher Than Tough, a compendium of reggae's greatest moments (2-2). Green Linnet's Tarika Sammy enters our top 10, shooting 12-3. Last year's U.S. tour by the group was very well received, and this album should do quite well in its wake. Our highest debut comes from Andrew Tosh, son of the late Peter

Tosh, whose Original Man on Heartbeat comes on board at #10, while a disc from labelmates the Ethiopians arrives at #11. Not to be overlooked: this week marks Buju Banton's 24th week on the chart, which means he's been on the CMJ chart for a pretty solid half a year. Although he only peaked at #3, Buju has serious rights to claim his title of Voice Of Jamaica, which his long stay on the chart reflects. Stay tuned. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) best in years, picking up speed with every track, never losing sight of home as it tears down the rock and roots highway. Telfer, Jones and Prosser have written some of their best songs yet, full of pop pathos and edgy poetry. Accordions, fiddles, banjo, cello and electric guitars, plus Chopper and Lee's screaming rhythm section, lend themselves to rockabilly ceils, rocking anthems and even a good tear-jerker traditional ballad. Recommended tracks: "Cry, Cry," "Rambling Irishman," "The Road To Santiago" and "Blood Wedding."

WOLFESTONE has a growth chart similar to the Oysters, starting out as an "alternative" folk dance band in 1988 in Inverness, Scotland, later adding a bass player and drummer with rock 'n' roll pedigrees, and with The Chase (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury, CT 06810/203-730-0333) the group comes to full fruition as a rock 'n' roll band with folk leanings. The band also adds synth keyboards, a distraction at times, but usually subtle enough to be unobtrusive if not exactly helpful. The strength again lies in the songwriting, and with Ivan Drever's joining in 1992, the band has acquired a recognizable sound. Check out the folkier "Close It Down," a bagpipe-and-jazz "Appropriate Dipstick" and the punchy set of tunes in "Tinnie Run."

The concept behind Ugh! (Slask, Box 27, 430 84 Stryso, Sweden/phone and fax: 46-31-972417) is deliciously absurd; take three women on percussion and vocals, mix together classical Indian themes, even older roots from Lapland, improvisational jazz and Steve Reichian new music, and then present it all as a tribute to the early blues of Bessie Smith and Ida Cox. ANITAS LIVS does just that, and they do it brilliantly. Indefinable sound samples, drums, tin pots and scraps of junk provide the foundation for a vocal attack that is one-worldly and other-worldly. The concept is almost too ridiculous, but the execution is powerful, humorous and daring, with only a few missteps when they try to get too seriously ethnic. When they do it their own way, they capture the spirit of Sweden, ancient India, Lapland, Harlem and Memphis in sweeping, masterful strokes of wild energy and creativity.

BITES O' THE APPLE

It's the search, not the eventual discovery, that counts most for the three musicians comprising the Ethnic Heritage Ensemble—group founder Kahil El'Zabar (percussion/vocals), Joseph Bowie (trombone/vocals) and Edward Wilkerson (reeds/vocals). The group, which comes to Sweet Basil in Greenwich Village Feb. 8-13, is well represented on a recent CD, Dance With The Ancestors (Chameleon), that extols, '90s-style, the progressive precepts laid down a quarter-century ago by Chicago's Association for the Advancement of Creative Musicians (AACM). Saxist Wilkerson's own group, 8 Bold Souls, which has recorded of late for Arabesque, is another shining example of the AACM's continued artistic vitality. New Jazz proponents who talk the talk should walk the walk and scope out their CD...Almost directly across the street from Basil (whose booking policy under new coordinator Richard Nakano, successor to Horst Liepolt, has been largely auspicious) is a new entry in the Village jazzspot sweepstakes, the Down Beat. Under the management of Lance Stern (formerly of the Blue Note), the Down Beat, open just a few months, appears to have avoided the customary missteps and identity crises that bedevil most new clubs. One booking that has been met with particular enthusiasm by the community is the installation of Pete (LaRoca) Sims' group, Swingtime, on Monday nights. Jazzman-turned-lawyer-turned-jazzman Sims, a drummer who marks time with crisp emphasis or, if need be, silent implication, leads a revolving group of rip-roaring players such as Joe Ford, Joanne Brackeen, Jimmy Owens and Santi Debriano...Blue Note Records should strongly consider reissuing Sims' Basra, a 1965 quartet side featuring Joe Henderson, in its forthcoming "Connoisseur" series. Slated for May release in this series are: Tina Brooks, True Blue; Don Cherry, Symphony For Improvisors; Johnny Griffin, The Congregation; John Gilmore & Clifford Jordan, Blowing In From Chicago, and Kenny Dorham, Whistle Stop. Expected in June are: Andrew Hill, Judgment; Baby Face Willette, Stop And Listen; Bobby Hutcherson, Components; Ornette Coleman, The Empty Foxhole, and Freddie Redd, The Connection. It's heartening (though overdue) that Blue Note is making a commitment to return to circulation some of its most adventurous sides, many of which are familiar only to, ah, connoisseurs...The deserved, Verve-orchestrated commercial breakthroughs of the aforementioned tenorist Henderson and singer Abbey Lincoln—real people with unapologetically personal conceptions—have coincided, thankfully, with stunning artistic achievements. Henderson (working in a pianoless trio with drummer Al Foster and bassist George Mraz) and Lincoln (whose duet CD with pianist Hank Jones, When There Is Love, hits Feb. 22) make for an unbeatable double-bill at the Blue Note Feb. 15-20...Mr. Cabaret, Bobby Short, teams up with the fivesome co-led by guitarist Howard Alden and trombonist/arranger Dan Barrett at the Pace Downtown Theater Feb. 10.

ON THE CHART

Just when we thought the jazz chart was settling into a groove, it seems it's still searching for someone to take control. JVC's Ernie Watts rides the wave into the top position (3-1), capping a quick rise to #1 in only three weeks, so perhaps we've found something here. Columbia's Tony Bennett regains momentum in his 16th week on the chart (6-2), as piano legend McCoy Tyner and his Big Band debut their new Birdology/Verve-PG release at #5. Cracking the top 10 this week: Atlantic's Cyrus Chestnut (20-6), PRA-Koch

International's Marcus Miller (12-7) and Elektra's Sadao Watanabe (11-9). Joining the debut parade are GRP's Billy Taylor (#11), Chrysalis-ERG's hot acid-jazz band the Solsonics (#15), veteran sax-man Tom Scott (#17), Columbia's Jazz At Lincoln Center Presents: The Fire Of The Fundamentals compilation (#18), CMP's Bernie Worrell (#22) and Blue Note-Capitol's Chet Baker pre-Valentine's Day reissue (#25). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

They'll attempt to re-create, presumably, the affecting small-group juke they pulled off so capably in the studio on Swing That Music for Telarc. This anniversary concert in the "Highlights in Jazz" series—the longest-running of its type in the Big Apple—promises to be more tightly formatted, but no less spontaneous and singular, than impresario Jack Kleinsinger's jam-style, bootin' hootenannies spanning 21 years. Next up in the series is the Mar. 10 "Inspired Encounter" between Gerry Mulligan and the Billy Taylor Trio. (Pianist Taylor's latest foray, It's A Matter Of Pride on GRP, follows an earlier side for the same company with bari-man Mulligan guesting)...Speaking of Mulligan, he'll be the leadoff attraction in promoter Mark Morganelli's "Jazz Giants" series this winter at the quaint and cozy Tarrytown Music Hall. Mulligan's Paraiso: Jazz Brazil CD (Telarc), which features the engaging vocals of Jane Duboc, proved to be a tropical balm to these ears during mid-January's freezeout from Dante's ninth circle of hell. The baritone master did it the right way—with seasoned Brazilian players (among them Leo Traversa, Norberto Goldberg and the astoundingly effortless drummer Duduka DaFonseca, whose own Trio Da Paz cut a gorgeously lilting CD for Concord a while ago). Following Mulligan's quartet appearance on Mar. 5, Morganelli (who happens to be a terrific trumpeter in his own right) welcomes the Dave Brubeck Quartet on Mar. 19 and Sonny Rollins on April 16...Since 1978, William Paterson College of Wayne, New Jersey, has been presenting superb, twice-yearly concert series featuring student ensembles opening for name headliners. The winter festivities in the "Jazz Room" series kicked off Feb. 6 with the quartet of Jazzpar Prize-winning drummer Roy Haynes. (Haynes, interestingly, is the fourth winner of the prestigious Danish award to grace the WPC stage; he's been preceded by Muhal Richard Abrams, Lee Konitz and Tommy Flanagan.) Among the other choice shows, held every Sunday afternoon through Mar. 13, are the trio of pianist Sumi Tonooka (Feb. 13) and the WPC student ensemble, supplemented by soloist Hamiet Bluiett, performing "The Music of Charles Mingus" (including portions of the acclaimed Epitaph) on Mar. 6. Following the winter session, Dr. Marty Krivin, the series director and a man of fine taste and commitment to the art form, will step aside for David Demsey, current coordinator of the college's jazz-studies program...Bluiett, arguably the most innovative postmodern voice on the baritone sax, takes a high-profile turn away from the World Saxophone Quartet with the Bluiett Four, a from-the-inside-out quartet. He'll bring to Sweet Basil Feb. 15-20 the same group (Ted Dunbar, guitar; Clint Houston, bass; Ben Riley, drums), and presumably the same original music, he employed to such fine effect on his recent Sankofa/Rear Garde CD for Soul Note [c/o Sphere Marketing & Distribution, Cargo Bldg. 80, #2A, JFK Airport, Jamaica, NY 11430/718-656-6220].

JACKPOT!

BACK TO THE RHYTHM

BACK TO THE RHYTHM feat. ALVA MCGILL "What Can You Do For Me" (12") (House 'N Effect, c/o Mirage Entertainment, 700 N. Green St., Chicago, IL 60622/312-226-8092) and ROBERT OWENS "Was I Here Before" (12") (Musical Directions, UK)—The return of Chicago vocal house could have been spotted as early as a year and a half ago with the arrival of Dajae and Cajmere, but whenever it began, the revival is in full swing (and not only in the U.K., where such visionaries as Robert Owens have been enormously popular since the beginning of their careers). Two new records make the genre's resurgence all the more powerful. The venerable production team of Lenoir, Thompson, and Wallace (who created the house classic "Work It To The Bone" by LNR) has often been overlooked in favor of bigger names such as Cajmere and DJ Pierre, but these producers' ability to whip together tracks that do more work than a Cuisinart is well known to house fanatics. This time out, they've teamed with vocalist Alva McGill on "What Can You Do For Me," which flies out of the gate and doesn't stop for anything. All four of the mixes here have the potential of a powder keg, particularly the tickling "Trackwork Dub," which opens with a wafer-thin, bouncing keyboard sequence and a hammering drum pattern that would pull an octogenarian onto the floor. And that's just the instrumental. Listening to the bittersweet, emotive vocals of Alva McGill and Robert Owens, one is struck by the way in which contemporary house songs help to keep the soul tradition alive. In Nelson George's cogent, The Death of Rhythm and Blues, the author speaks of the dilution of the soul vocal tradition with the onslaught of more clinical Euro disco and the subsequent sterile, pseudo-soul of the '80s. Where these latter movements white-washed a black musical tradition, records like the above have genuinely revived that legacy. Robert Owens is considered by many to be a peerless house vocalist, and he is, but he also remains one of his generation's finest soul vocalists. The heart-stopping "Was I Here Before," with mixes by Farley "Jackmaster" Funk and Chip E, is without doubt one of the most spine-chilling deep house records ever made, Owens' tremulous voice suffused with the kind of longing few vocalists can evoke. Once half of the extremely influential Fingers Inc/Mr Fingers (which inspired not only a decade of deep house, but foreshadowed much of today's ambient dub), Owens puts most "track" vocalists to shame. My pontification ends here, but these records represent a tradition that is only [re] beginning.

ON THE CHART

From Rochester, NY, Mark Gage (a k a Vapourspace) debuts at #11 this week with his first full-length project for frrr-ILS, a release sure to enjoy longevity in this chart. From U.K. electronic music enthusiast Gary Livermore's Third Mind label (available here through Roadrunner) comes the full-length from Sect, in at #12. The second compilation of techno soul from the Motor City, Deep Detroit Volume Two on the Pow Wow trance label, is a new entry at #23, while Richard Kirk and Stephen Mallinder (a k a Cabaret Voltaire) now see the fruits of their new deal with Instinct in the U.S. with its new LP in at #24. The project of Sunsonic's Ben Watkins, Juno Reactor on NovaMute, jumps 15 places (21-6), and the compilation count for this week is 11, including the ever-popular #1, Volume (UK)'s ambitious four 12"/2 CD set of unreleased trance tracks. Take note: RPM reporters are now being printed along with the other specialty reporters. You'll find them after the top 35 reports on page 58.

has Sven Van Hees devised such a colossal set of tracks as is found on QUIXOTIC's In Transit EP, the latest release from the Global Cuts label. Over the past two months, it seemed as though the label might be suffering a slump, but this epic restores my faith altogether. Like Carl Craig and Eddie Fowlkes, Van Hees can create vast, sweeping soundscapes held together by complex, changing rhythms and a translucent, beating heart. The track of merit here is the cheesily-titled "Sex On The Beach," which opens up electronic vistas as far as the eye can see, underpinned by a rolling bassline and delicate minor-key string sequences. So much goes on in Van Hees' tracks, yet they seem almost organic, never heavy-handed or cluttered (Global Cuts, c/o R&S, 82 Limburgstrat, 9000 Gent, Belgium).

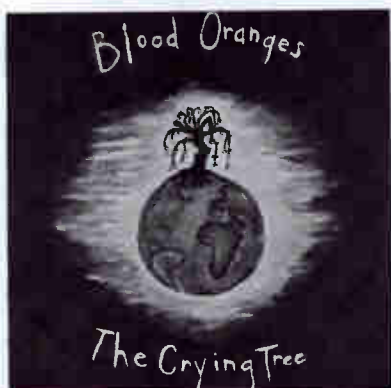

Paternostro, is his best effort in ages. The bracing "Slow It Down" percolates with keyboard blips while the bassline rumbles in the back-ground. "Feel The Rhythm" is another quick-moving slammer well worth your attention. This is released on NYC dance indie distributor Downtown 161's in-house label (Downtown 161, 20 Greene St., New York, NY 10004/212-925-0065)...Over at the long-standing Northcott offices, the highly respected Sub-Urban label just issued the sublime "Only You Will Do" by HENRY, a marvelous vocal house extravaganza with mixes by everyone's favorite New York duo, Tommy Musto and Victor Simonelli. The mouth-popping effect lends the track a bouncy quality, while Henry's lush vocals propel the track onwards and upwards (Sub-Urban, 1972 Broadway, New York, NY 10019/212-343-2660).

JACKPOT!

BLOOD ORANGES The Crying Tree (ESD, 530 N. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55401/612-375-0233)—It's been three long and lean years since Corn River, the Blood Oranges' debut, but the time between records has apparently served the band very well. The Crying Tree is an unexpected explosion of melodic fire containing as much unrelenting passion and solid instrumental prowess as a band can squeeze into a compact disc. Certainly the songwriting abilities of mandolinist/singer Jimmy Ryan and bassist/singer Cheri Knight have matured immeasurably. Knight's contributions in particular stand out: she penned the title track, a blazing folk/rock anthem recalling the dark undertones of Fairport Convention that features some blistering guitar work from Mark Spencer, as well as "Hell's Half Acre," a healthy dose of crunchy guitar pop with a monster hook, and the introspective, acoustic "Shine," which ends the album with a melancholy shimmer. Ryan's songs lend the proceedings a hillbilly air: "Halfway 'Round The World," "Sally" and "Titanic" possess a traditional country/bluegrass feel, making prime use of Ryan's electric mandolin, while his and Knight's voices meld into appealing harmonies with a down-home edge.

MAVERICKS What A Crying Shame (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Although the Mavericks take a few less chances on What A Crying Shame, their second record, than they did on their debut, 1992's From Hell To Paradise, they continue to lay down a stone country groove that's straight from the honky tonk. That's not to say that the Mavericks don't have their own way of doing things: the honky tonk in question is, most likely, still located in Miami, Florida, their home town. Singer/songwriter Raul Malo shares songwriting duties with some unlikely suspects (NRBQ's Al Anderson, Pete Anderson, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers drummer Stan Lynch), and the band chooses to cover Bruce Springsteen's "All That Heaven Will Allow" and Jesse Winchester's "O What A Thrill," confirming that they're still willing to take chances. Yet every song on What A Crying Shame concerns an aspect of love, unlike on From Hell To Paradise, on which they covered a few other subjects that rounded out the band's appeal. Malo's voice was made to sing country songs and the band provides steady, engaging backing, but the results are not as hard hitting as you would have expected from this group of outlaws.

SHORT SHOTS

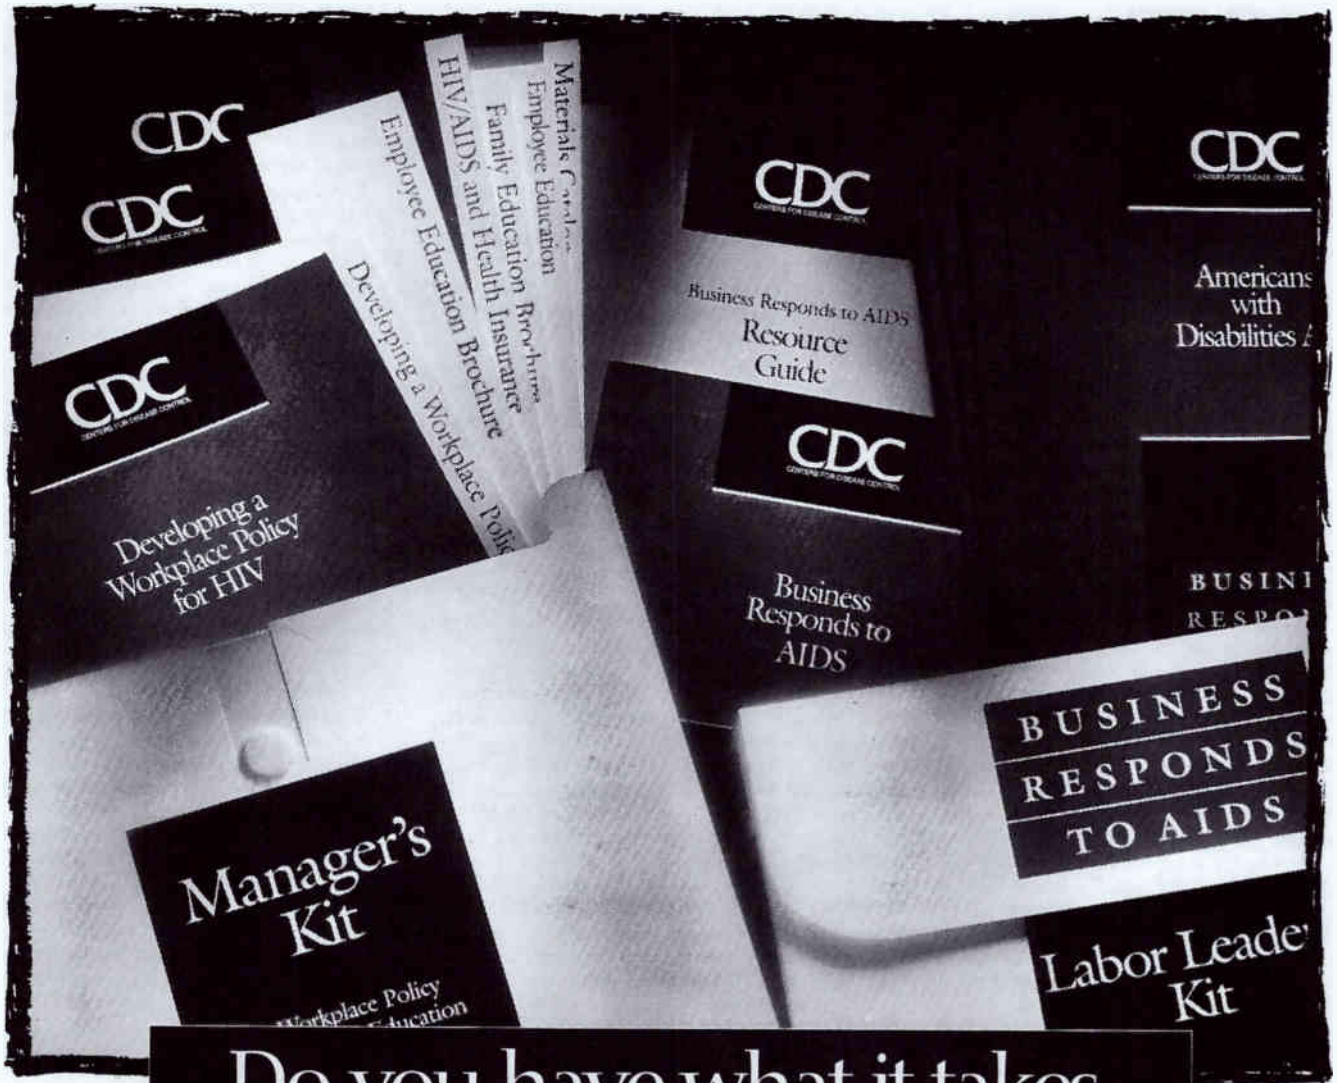

What do you get when you combine 12 of Austin's best singer/songwriters and the music of Woody Guthrie? Pastures Of Plenty: An Austin Celebration Of Woody Guthrie (Dejadisc, 537 Lindsey St., San Marcos, TX 78666/512-392-6610), a collection that captures what has become an annual Austin event celebrating Guthrie's birthday. This set, from July, 1993, captures Butch Hancock, David Halley, Sarah Elizabeth Campbell, Steve Young, Michael Fracasso and others, adding their own spin on songs familiar and obscure with remarkable results. Up-and-comers Rich Brotherton and Christine Albert chip in with strong performances that'll make you want to hear more. It's hard not to like a collection that draws a straight line between Guthrie's work and all his "children," today's breed of songwriters...The collaboration of ALISON KRAUSS AND THE COX FAMILY, the hottest female bluegrass performer of our day and the singing family from Louisiana who released a fine Krauss-produced record in 1993, has been highly anticipated for a while now, but the result, I Know Who Holds Tomorrow (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700) is a slight disappointment. While they take some risks, especially on the swing inflected "Walk Over God's Heaven" and the bluesy "Never Will Give Up," for the most part, the song selection doesn't withstand repeated listenings. An honorable attempt but less than what it could have been...Smithsonian/Folkways (Office Of Folklife Programs, 995 L'Enfant Plaza, Ste. 2600, Washington, DC 20560/202-387-3262) has just released two fascinating volumes of live recordings featuring BILL MONROE. Live Recordings 1956-1969 Off The Record Volume 1 features the BLUEGRASS BOYS in their various incarnations, when they included Del McCoury, Peter Rowan, Tex Logan and Bill Keith among others, performing at informal gatherings and concert halls. Some of Monroe's best-known material, along with some songs that never made it to the studio, is presented in a way that makes this both an important historical document and a delightful listen. Live Duet Recordings 1963-1980 Off The Record Volume 2 features Monroe and DOC WATSON performing traditional compositions and some of Monroe's tunes, their delight so obvious you can almost see them smiling right through your speakers. Both discs are a must for any serious library of traditional American music...One of the hottest blues bands you'll see live these days is the SMOKIN' JOE KUBEK BAND. Its third record for Bullseye Blues (c/o Rounder, address above), Texas Cadillac is as close as the band has come to capturing on disc their hard-hitting, yet soulful on-stage sound.

Kubek's flame-throwing guitar work and the whisky-smooth vocals of rhythm guitarist Bnois King make a powerful, irresistible combination on such swampy notions as "Still A Fool" and "TV Light," and the scorching ballads "Mean Old World" and "Must Have Missed A Turn Somewhere." Texas Cadillac shows why Kubek is considered by many to be the guitarist to fill the very large boots left by Albert Collins and Stevie Ray Vaughan...With spoken word performances becoming very popular these days, it's not surprising that there's a renewed interest in cowboy poetry. The Cowboy Poetry Gathering—Elko, Nevada (Word Beat, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) celebrates the 10th anniversary of this event, which is held each year at the end of January at the Western Folklife Center. Thousands of people come to listen to stories and songs about life in the old and new West from folks like Waddie Mitchell, Sourdough Slim, Hank Real Bird, Virginia Bennett and others. This recording offers a welcome peek at a lifestyle that's foreign and intriguing to many of us whose life is much faster paced.

ALMOST MARDI GRAS

If you're looking for some authentic new sounds from Louisiana, you should get in touch with the fine folks at Flat Town Music. They continue to release fine collections of both old and new bands performing Cajun, zydeco and New Orleans-style rock and jazz. Among the latest is: Pop, Tu Me Parles Toujours from BALFA TOUJOURS (Swallow, c/o Flat Town Music, P.O. Drawer 10, Ville Platte, LA 70586/318-363-2184), featuring two of the late Dewey Balfa's children on some very traditional sounding (no drums) and lovingly played Cajun originals, as well as a couple of standards they learned from their father. Hier Et Aujourd'hui from the SUNDOWN PLAYBOYS CAJUN BAND (Swallow, c/o Flat Town Music, address above) has a more modern, electric sound, even though the band has been in existence, in one form or another, since 1947. The band's use of steel guitar on a couple of songs lends its sound a country feel other groups of this type lack. In a completely different direction is COOKIE & THE CUPCAKES By Request (Jin, c/o Flat Town Music, address above), 20 tracks from the '50s and '60s of high-energy New Orleans style R&B in the Fats Domino/Huey "Piano" Smith mold. The sound quality on some tracks is less than perfect, but the undeniable spirit found on tunes like "Got You On My Mind," "Mathilda" and "Shake 'Em Up" is hard to resist... On the zydeco side of things, check out Blues Stay Away From Me, the latest from JOHN DELAFOSE & THE EUNICE PLAYBOYS (Rounder, address above). Delafosse and family have been laying down a rockin' groove for two decades. Here, Geno, John's son, shares leadership of the band, writing some songs, arranging some traditional tunes and playing some burning accordion, while John makes his recorded debut on fiddle. On a record packed with good time dance tunes, "Let Me Take You In My Arms Tonight," "Scott Playboy Special" and "Outside Woman" stand out.

THERAPY?

Troublegum

(A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

Hatred and ill will come in many forms, and the great thing is, there's always plenty to go around. Indeed, how could we feel love if there weren't a polar opposite to rank it against (not that we here in metal land have much time for love)? Sometimes the most pernicious feelings can be captured in the most unexpected ways. Take Therapy?, whose new album Troublegum is simultaneously one of the nastiest and catchiest records we've heard in a long while. Furthering the melodic progressions the band displayed on Hats Off For The Insane, Troublegum features an abundance of enticing choruses, alluring riffs and cleverly intersecting rhythms, but it's also undeniably heavy, exhibiting the group's trademark guitar crunch, sterile, precision drumming and marrow-chilling vocal howls. And lyrically, the disc is as bitter and nasty as a lemon dipped in turpentine. Dominant themes include insecurity, betrayal and lunacy—you know, the usual. But the band flaunts these feelings with such candid self-loathing it's like sitting in on someone's psychoanalysis: "I was awkward as a child/Blueprint for my wretched life/Confidence I've been denied" ("Trigger Inside"). Burst your bubble and break your valentine's heart with the staccato firepower of "Knives," the tuneful malevolence of "Stop It Your Killing Me," the multi-faceted punch of "Femtex" and the brooding balladry of "Unbeliever." —Jon Wiederhorn

(Earache, 295 Lafayette St. # 915, New York, NY 10012/212-343-9090)—In the hazy domain between mortality and non-existence dwells Scorn, beckoning us into the abyss with its frigid, throbbing soundscapes. Colossus, the band's second full album, captures the exact moment when the EKG hits flatline, and freezes it for over an hour. For those who don't already know, the band reunites ex-Napalm Death colleagues Mick Harris (drums) and Nick Bullen (guitar, bass) in an arena of nightmarish hate and, well, scorn. While Colossus is chilling and heavy, in no way is it standard fare metal. There are very few power-chord riffs, the band opting instead for overlapping slivers of icy feedback. The rhythms are largely driven by dark, gloomy basslines and the relentless pounding of a drum machine, but in contrast to the many industrial metal outfits that equate technology with speed, Scorn rarely raises the tempo above the rapidity of a dying pulse. Many of the songs on the record stretch out in long, droning instrumental passages, and when the vocals do kick in, they're so heavily treated with digital effects they induce disorientation instead of guiding the songs along some prescribed path. Of course, Colossus wouldn't be complete without a splattering of mind-grating samples and ominous soundbytes like the utterance that opens "Beyond": "You can only die once. After that nothing and nobody can harm you." Breathe your last dying breath with "Endless," "Nothing, Hunger" and "Blackout." —Jon Wiederhorn

VARGA

Prototype

(Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood CA 90028)—For better or worse, Canada has been the rather unlikely birthplace of a number of highly influential hard rock bands. First and foremost there's Rush, a band that virtually invented epic alternative metal. Then there's Voivod, which introduced cyberspace rock long before industrial was a buzz word. Triumph, Anvil and even (don't laugh) Loverboy have their place, but the latest great white from the Great White North as far as we're concerned is Varga, a brash, cutting-edge foursome that is helping to reshape the jagged face of metal. Combining a wide variety of styles, including speed metal, industrial, dance and rap, into a singular sonic voice, Varga simultaneously injects a fresh dose of energy into the metal scene and expands the parameters of the many other genres it taps. The band consumes its prey ravenously, using its gleaming, sharp teeth without pausing for breath, savoring every bite.

Prototype, Varga's unusually mature debut effort, contains all of the elements of great rock: strong songwriting, deft musicianship and lots of imagination. Guitarists Sean Williamson and Adam Alex exchange a barrelful of crunchy riffs and fleet-footed licks, while bassist/vocalist Joe Varga (hmm, we sense a Dokken-like last name connection here) growls tunefully and drummer Dan Fila layers a contrasting range of electronic beats within a solid rhythmic framework. Bring the hammer down with "Unconscience," "Freeze Don't Move," "Greed" and "Bring The Hammer Down." —Jon Wiederhorn

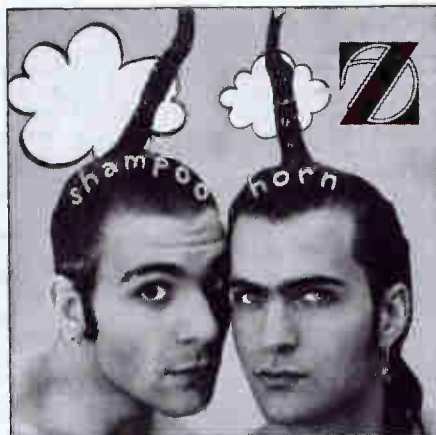

LAWNMOWER DETH

Billy

(Earache, address above)—Those little wank-off, pasty-faced sell-out weasels! After two rip-roaring farce metal discs, the "Fabulous Metal Bozo Clowns," Lawnmower Deth, have lowered themselves to becoming a legitimate rock band. Sure, their last album hinted at real melodies and song structures, but Billy actually delivers them. While the band once plundered in a slovenly, drunk metallic blur, now it rages in a unified direction that's not so far removed from the catchy, positive punk of Bad Religion or the Ramones. There's even a cover of Squeeze's "Up The Junction," fer fuck's sake. While Lawnmower Deth is still writing songs with silly titles like "Buddy Holly Never Wrote A Song Called We're Too Punk" and "March Of The Dweebs," it can no longer be shrugged off with a muffled chuckle. Intelligent this band's not, but neither were Kiss, Alice Cooper or Sex Pistols. Vocalist Qualcast Mutilator sings in a voice reminiscent of the fat guy from Black Train Jack, and guitarists Concorde Face Ripper and Baron Kev Von Thresh Meister Silo Stench Chisel Marbles that's his real name, honest) play two-chord riffs that buzz like really loud bees. Lawnmower Deth's new direction may lose them some grindcore fans, but it will probably earn them a whole new audience of skate punks. We miss the humor, but all in all, Billy is an impressive release that holds up to sustained listening. Polish your wheels to "Somebody Call Me A Taxi," "Stomach Gout" and "Do You Wanna Be A Chuffed One."

Z

Shampoo Horn

(Barking Pumpkin, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4788)—In case you can't tell from the band's name, Shampoo Horn is the imaginative debut from Frank Zappa's two sons Dweezil and Ahmet. Judging from the lead track "Singer In The Woods," you might guess that the brothers are creeping further away from Dweezil's pop-rock past and more towards the type of bizarre jazz/rock conceptual landscapes their father once composed. Further listening, however, proves that this is not entirely the case. While Shampoo Horn is at once technically adept and wildly inventive in its insanity, it sacrifices no amount of listenability. Imagine the reeling, dizzying, yet articulate guitar arrangements of Steve Vai paired with aptly placed super-harmonic vocals of Extreme, and add a heavy, muckraking bottom-end tone. Metal production of this scope could easily spell disaster in less capable hands. But what plants Shampoo Horn so firmly in the soils of legitimacy is the band's clear avoidance of any shade of self-consciousness. While Z tackles weighty subjects such as child abuse ("Leviathan"), it isn't trying to change the world with pompous messages, nor is it writing songs merely to showcase its technical proficiency. Be sure to check out "In My Mind," a techni-metal track with a hook the size of an asteroid, the hyperactive "Kidz Cereal" and the wrenching, radio-ready "Loser."

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Corporate Death

(Relapse, P.O. Box 251, Millersville, PA 17551/717-397-9221)—Perched high atop a Pennsylvania hillside overlooking the urban squalor below, the Relapse tower stands proud—an impenetrable fortress of might and money. Inside, hundreds of employees rush around, securing plans for further development of the death metal genre. Technicians and engineers work around the clock, twiddling knobs and testing guitar tones at glass-shattering volume, while a staff of mad scientists conducts brain transplants on exhumed corpses in an attempt to form the perfect thrash band. Over the years the booming label has come pretty close, launching such instruments of pestilence upon the human race as Anal Cunt, Exit 13, Defecation, Disembowelment, Gorefest, Macabre and Pungent Stench, to extract just a small sampling. In celebration of the continued success of Relapse, the company's Board Of Directors has issued Corporate Death, a record which commemorates four years of crushing noise with 29 ear-bursting tracks, 12 of which were previously unreleased. Highlights include Amorphis' "Exile Of The Sons Of Uisliu," which barrels with speed, hostility and an uncanny sense of melody; Exit 13's "Diet For A New America," a schizophrenic blend of blinding death metal and bouncing blues; and Convulse's "Crying Back Yesterday," which grooves as hard as it slams. To our ears at least, Relapse/Nuclear Blast is right up there with Earache as prime innovators of new death metal.

SHORT PLAYS

JESUS LIZARD

"(Fly) On (The Wall)" (7")

(Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-4446)—No, it's not really metal in the traditional sense, but this Chicago outfit has more of a handle on the power of demented noise and rhythm than most of the wailing guitar bands that plague the scene. In comparison to Jesus Lizard's usual frightening thrust, "(Fly) On (The Wall)" is a bit restrained, squeezing out bass notes like seeds from a grape while David Yow groans about lack of sleep over the tumbling groove. The flip, "White Hole," is a harrowing conglomeration of scrapes, hollow rumblings, and a piercing hum that is as unnerving and creepy as the band's actual songs.

DIALOGUE

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, 75 Rockefeller Center, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Gettin' down to biz: STP will be on MTV Unplugged on Feb. 2 at 10:00 p.m...KING'S X's Dogman is creatively and increasingly reacting at rock radio (remember this Dialogue when this band is at the same plateau as the previous band I mentioned)...RUSH is exploding again (à la 1976 and 1981) and is playing monster venues on the West Coast with CANDLEBOX and MELVINS... The latter will release the "Lizzy" maxi-single to hard rock radio. It features three unreleased bonus cuts...Ferocious punk rocker JAWBOX hits the road this week in support of For Your Own Special Sweetheart...Total Destruction is the new brilliant release from UNSADE, a band you should've heard of by now! This band gives punk a new meaning...The new BAD RELIGION single is "American Jesus," and is a smash in the waiting...Lastly, in March, we're proud to give you the soundtrack to The Crow featuring PANTERA, HELMET, NINE INCH NAILS, RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE, STONE TEMPLE PILOTS, ROLLINS BAND and more...

Bill Mierzejewski, National Metal Rep., Sony Music, New York, NY (212) 833-8873

SEPULTURA will be hitting the road in February. The current single is "Refuse/Resist," so add it today. CARCASS' current single is "Heartwork." Look for tour info coming soon. By now, all of you should be playing PRONG's Cleansing LP. The first single is "Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck." Prong is currently touring with the OBSESSED and White Zombie. Now is the time to add ENTOMBED's Wolverine Blues to your play list. Tour info will be available soon. FIGHT toured through Connecticut and tore the roof off Toad's Place. Rob Halford has left the building!! See ya....

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

Hey! It's about 35° outside. It's above zero! Imagine that. A heat wave. STICK, who are quite used to cold weather in Lawrence, Kansas, will be on the road with Raging Slab through Feb. 11. After that, they'll be going out with Type O Negative and Life Of Agony. This is gonna be a killer tour. The video for "No Groovy" just aired on Headbanger's Ball—hope you got to see it. It was filmed in their hometown. Call for interviews and tickets. MUZZA CHUNKA are going out with the Organization and Strip Mind beginning Feb. 2. The album is Fishy Pants, and you better be playing it to death to psych people up for the show when it hits your town. Check these pages for a full tour schedule.

Greta Valentine, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-TILT

It is the year of the GRETA! Now that you have all cleaned off your proverbial plates, it's time to pay attention to my boys. In September, a lot of bands came out with new albums including Greta with No Biting. The difference between a lot of the other records that were released and Greta's record is that No Biting is great, whereas the bulk of other releases are not! Since the crappy records of last Fall were undoubtedly put into recurrent or some other deserving rotation, it is now time to pound the snot out of Greta. I'm sure that all of your house cleaning is in order to devote your energies to my deserving band. Greta are the polish to your home and should not be used as the broom to sweep it! Now that you have the "room" to play my band, do it!...In the "Not too tough to remember" department, SHOOTYZ GROOVE will be going for adds on "The Craze" on Valentine's Day. That's right, my day, my add! This is the version of "The Craze" that you've all been waiting for: it's clean, it's concise, it was done in the studio with Mark Dodson producing!... The key to making your life even more swell this year is to remember that my bands rule!

Linnea Nan, Warner Bros./Reprise Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

Play DIO's "Evolution," a stellar track from the intense new release Strange Highways. Play this now! Play this often! Look for the full early February! Dio, the new band! What a heavy record! STRIP MIND will be hitting the road in support of What's In Your Mouth next week (without me if I can help it!). The band will be touring with the Organization and Muzza Chunka! What a F#@kin bill!.. Support this one proudly! Touring...Touring... MORBID ANGEL will be out with Black Sabbath and Motorhead! The tour kicks off Feb. 11 in Boston, MA, and CANDLEBOX will be supporting Rush for the next month! GREEN APPLE QUICK STEP are doing the Fishbone thing beginning Feb. 8 in Jacksonville, with a few Texas shows thrown in for good measure! Let's go!

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

Direct from the "other side of Earache": BLOOD FROM THE SOUL is what you get when Lou Koller from SICK OF IT ALL and Shane Embury of NAPALM DEATH get together...LAWNMOWER DETH is back with Billy! Try its version of "Kids In America" on your listeners. SCORN has also returned with Colossus. Witness the artistic meanderings of Mick Harris for yourself. Add all of 'em now! PITCH SHIFTER is impressing the masses! The riffs are addictive. The aggression is undeniable! The tour with CARCASS is in the works! MEATHOOK SEED is shredding through all those typical metal albums out there. Thanks for your support! SLEEP will be on the road with Hawkwind until the end of February (how much tour support can be spent on herb?). Call if ya need to. 212-DIE-9090. God Bless Earache!

Jill Castellano, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

OK, hmm, as you read from last week, we have signed SKATENIGS and the PLEASURE ELITE. You can hear them on the next F CD. We have COVEN coming out in February, but no radio impact date has been decided yet. GUTTED and OPPRESSOR will also be coming your way in March. PARALYSIS will be playing at the "Death Fest" thing (I don't know what it's being called) at The Grand in NYC on March 12—call for more info. If you are on my mailing list you will be receiving a really cool postcard soon about our upcoming releases. Many, many wonderful things are happening around here. It's gonna be a great year! I'm gone.

Jay Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 856-7139

So, Pavel Bure has seven points in two games, Probert and Primeau are fighting in practice and

I've got the finest new music that digital technology has to offer. DAMN THE MACHINE's Silence EP has two new tracks exclusively for you! "Cat Food" hits hard, so do the right thing on Monday, Feb. 1. I've got a cool heavy black leather motorcycle jacket with DTM artwork on the back for the lucky stiff who can tell me who originally did the two covers on this EP. You'll get a flyer in the mail with the entry form. THERAPY? "Knives!" A blast of bloody-knuckled Irish rage that you'll be exposed to soon! At last, I am alive in the Superunknown—CD, cassette, 8-track, DCC, double-gatefold colored vinyl on March 8!

Mark Schmidt, Megaforce Records & Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456

Hello, hello! Hope everything is going well in your neck of the woods, wherever that may be. I'm really excited to tell you about SWEATY NIPPLES, the newest addition to the Megaforce family! The band hails from Portland, Oregon, and is absolutely amazing! We're going for adds on a lovely little track entitled "Demon Juice" on Feb. 14, Valentine's Day! Doesn't that just spell romance? You know it does! The EP should be in your hands any day now, so watch your mail, and call me with any questions or comments!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Attention intelligent programmers who are supporting the ELEVEN project! Your chance has finally arrived to experience all that this monstrous three-piece has to offer live when the band goes out with Candlebox in February! Yes folks, you too can get up close and personal with this budding musical phenomenon, touch it, taste it and maybe even talk to it! The band will be available for interviews, etc., so call for details, and more importantly, with the airplay, because the next single "Let Down" is coming soon. Check it out on your F CD. For all who are still holding out on this one, open your ears and open your eyes because Eleven is gonna be in your face in a big way! I'm stepping off my platform now and until next week...Just count to Eleven.

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade Records, Tarzana, CA (805) 522-9111

As everyone is quite aware, Los Angeles suffered a major earthquake this past week. As someone who was living in Northridge, it was a nightmare. This has been a very traumatic experience for a lot of us southern Californians. Normally, when a disaster occurs, you watch CNN and say "What a sad story." Yet, after being through this nightmare, CNN looks like a made-for-TV movie. It will take weeks, months or in some cases years to fully recover. But we will. This week I will be moving in to a new apartment and replacing a lot of belongings. I am one of the lucky ones. During this time a lot of my industry friends have called offering to help out. I just want to publicly say "THANK YOU" for your caring and your support. It means the world to me. If you want to do something to help please do the following: 1) Radio: please run P.S.A.s in support of the Salvation Army and the American Red Cross (These organizations are a huge help!). 2) Anyone & Everyone: Make a donation to the American Red Cross (L.A. Chapter)—2700 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90057 or the Salvation Army—900 West 9th St., Los Angeles, CA 90015. ■

"Substitute"

(Radioactive, 1775 Broadway, 7th Fl., NY, NY 10019)—The Ramones new LP Acid Eaters isn't exactly new, but what the leathery rockers do to a bunch of old classics is a tribute to their humble $2 cover charge beginnings and an attitude (and sartorial sense) that hasn't been swayed one bit by their success. The video for "Substitute" is a tribute to the every-expense spared ethic of the American B-picture. This gloriously tacky clip (too bad it wasn't actually shot on video) features such infamous B-flick stars as Linnea Quigley (you may not recognize her with her head attached) and cameos from Motorhead's Lemmy, White Zombie bassist Sean and Robert Williams, the artist who supplied the inimitable artwork for the Butthole Surfers' "Who Was In My Room Last Night." One of the great things about the Ramones is the band's ability to take three chord classics on Acid Eaters and reduce them even further to their basics, as if they really hadn't learned the song the whole way, but were dying to play it because it was such a great track. Pete Townshend (who wrote the song for those of you born in the '70s) supplies background vocals. The way the Ramones play this song full throttle, it's doubtful Townshend would have wished he'd passed on before he got old.

TORI AMOS

"God"

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Like Sarah McLachlan, Tori Amos has to work hard to dispel this myth that she's a whimsical, diary-keeping, waifish, storybook character with unicorn posters all over her bedroom wall. Take a look at the creepy and startling video for "God," and those images seem to fade into the background. How ethereal can a person be if they've got rats (big ones too!) crawling all over them in a video. That's right, we said rats, tons of 'em. Amos poses some rather frank questions to the creator, asking, "Do you need a woman to look after you," as she caresses a lit candle. Maybe we're a little overeager to read into that one, but it doesn't exactly take a Freud scholar to figure it out. Did we forget to mention she dances with snakes also? A bit more disturbing than XTC's similarly themed "Dear God," this lead track and video from Amos' Under The Pink is one that people will definitely be talking about.

SWERVEDRIVER

"Last Train To Satansville"

(A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

The secret of "Last Train To Satansville" is that it's a cowboy ballad in disguise. Check out those low, twangy guitar parts, the short repeating verse form Swervedriver uses, the threats of revenge at the end. Of course, you can ignore all that musicology stuff that we're paid to point out and enjoy the tight Britrock trappings of "Satansville" and its addictively simple guitar solo. The video doesn't look much like a range campfire song, however; directed by Don Letts, the sample master behind the Clash and Big Audio Dynamite, there's something peculiarly new-wavy about it. Maybe it's the washed-out early MTV colors; maybe it's just that it's got lots of flashy quick-cuts, strobes and tossing about of dreadlocks. The carnival setting lends a bizzaro flair, as the stylishly dressed noir characters zip by and swerve (ho, ho) about via bumper cars.

MEDICINE

"Never Click"

(American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)

Since the flurry of post-My Bloody Valentine bands first emerged, the Los Angeles group Medicine has distinguished itself from the masses of sonic daydreamers with its gem-like songs and intuitively appealing guitar sounds. "Never Click" comes from Medicine's second album, The Buried Life, and the song's punchy drums, snake-like guitar noodling and the cooing, MBV-ish vocal interplay of Brad Laner and Beth Thompson make it an obvious single. The video's appearance seems chemically altered in much the same way as Medicine's music: the film's gold-and-orange, scratched-surface appearance parallels the band's treated sounds, revealing a group searching for its own

"Savory"

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

If your current psycho-social problems or quirks are due to lousy experiences from childhood, then Jawbox's "Savory" will let you know that you are not alone. The members of Jawbox find themselves playing at a young girl's birthday party, the band decked out in enlarged kiddie-style clothes to blend in with the partygoers. The party starts out fine until you notice the game of pin the tail on the donkey is being played with a carving knife, the young girl stabbing the ass in the ass. Then things get weirder; the doll-shaped cake gets a brutal workout with the knife and then the family starts piling on the birthday presents: a lovely hatchet, a grenade, a gas mask, false teeth and a taxidermy dog. And you thought the parents in The Nutcracker were odd for giving a girl a 30-foot kitchen implement! Usually, we're not eager to point out all the little details in videos, but "Savory" is such a great, strange portrait (albeit a little overdone) of how kids never recover from a bad experience, we couldn't resist.

UNSANE
"Body Bomb"
(Matador, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Between Unsane's gory, blood-splattered album covers and its caustic amusical noise the band has been unveiling its evil-spirited leanings to the world for years, and now these destructive fantasies are further indulged with the video for "Body Bag." Although we can't tell whether the clip is a literal representation of the song itself since we can't quite understand the larynx-shredding vocals, the title has pretty reliable implications. American flag prominently on display, a young caucasian man meticulously pieces together a bomb from within the isolation of his small apartment, his television and push-ups the only inspiration for his lone scheme. As he tapes the ominous device to his stomach and heads for the subway, contemporary political and social events begin to pop to mind: Is he a terrorist? A madman? A martyr? The subsequent exploding buildings and flying shrapnel don't leave much of the man's ultimate intentions up to the imagination, but his motives are never made clear. Blistering, dark, and unrelentingly heavy, "Body Bomb" is the perfect soundtrack for the grim tale it accompanies.

CASSANDRA WILSON
"Tupelo Honey"
(Blue Note c/o Capitol, 810 7th Ave., 4th floor, New York, NY 10019)—There are good cover versions (check out the whole Ramones record and not just "Substitute") and there are disappointing cover versions (see selected cuts on Stone Free) and, ultimately, there are cover versions that capture the beauty of the original with such incomparable elegance and craft that it becomes a classic in its own right. Like Jimmy Cliff's dazzling and uplifting remake of "I Can See Clearly," Cassandra Wilson's intimate reading of Van Morrison's "Tupelo Honey" goes to the heart of the song as Wilson sings with countless nuances, without overkill, only expressing the song's poetic soul. Tastefully shot and beautifully played, Cassandra Wilson has recorded one of the most moving, romantic songs of the year. Nothing more need be said.

REPORTING TO CMJ NEW MUSIC REPORT

WHEN TO REPORT

Reports are taken weekly as follows:

By FAX at 516-466-7159 or 516-466-7161 until 10 PM Eastern Time on Mondays.

By PHONE at 516-466-7111 from Noon until 6PM Eastern Time Monday and Tuesday. It's strongly suggested you call early.

WHAT TO REPORT

If you fax us, follow the format of attached fax reporting sheets and include the Artist, Title and Label of all records reported.

If you phone us, be prepared with an Artist's record Title and Label, and have the following information ready:

1) TOP 35 RECORDS. (mandatory — no less than 35 accepted)

In airplay order (#1 is most played, etc.). Records alphabetized within rotation categories (i.e. heavy, medium, light) is not suggested. The playlist reported should accurately reflect the entire radio station's programming — not one particular program — and should include ALL TYPES OF MUSIC presented (not necessarily rock only) and ALL FORMATS represented (albums, EPs, 7" and 12" singles, imports, tapes, etc.). We want an accurate list of what current releases have been played on your station for the week — either a direct count or a reflection of rotation. The CMJ Radio Top 150 is album-oriented, so if you report album tracks, be careful NOT to report more than one track from the same album.

2) ADVENTURE PICKS. (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 3 subjective selections of new personal favorites. These have no correlation with station airplay, and do not necessarily represent projected adds.

3) TOP CUTS. (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most played tracks, be they album cuts or singles. Mention the artist's name first when reporting. For an album track, know what album it's culled from.

4) TOP AUDIENCE RESPONSE. (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most requested artists with current releases and/or positive feedback on such releases being programmed.

Please call us if you have any questions!

SUBMITTING DIALOGUES TO CMJ NEW MUSIC REPORT

Dialogue is a forum for communication about all facets of the music industry.

All CMJ New Music Report subscribers are welcome to submit comments for publication to New Music Report Dialogue, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck NY 11021-2301, or via fax to 516-466-7159.

Dialogues will only be accepted every other week from any individual subscriber; refer to page 6 for deadlines. Comments must be typed, STRICTLY limited to 250 WORDS; and must include name, title, company/station, city, state and phone number.

All Dialogues are subject to editing, particularly to conform to length specifications.

NEWS

News coordinated by Lydia Anderson

YO YO ON A SCREEN NEAR YOU

Rapper Yo Yo has signed a deal with Warner Bros. Television for the production of a 30-minute sitcom called Shifting Gears. The show will star Yo Yo in the role of a dispatcher for a family-owned trucking company, and will explore social and family issues. The show will premiere this fall on NBC.

SNOWBOARDING FOR A GOOD CAUSE

LIFEbeat and Warp magazine are throwing an all-day snowboard party at Snow Summit in Big Bear Lake, CA, on March 8, 1994. The event will include celebrity snowboard instruction, celebrity races, a special music industry raffle and a party. Spokesmen for the event will be the Beastie Boys and Joey DiPaolo. The event will begin with a kick-off concert in Los Angeles on March 6.

EVERYONE'S GOT A 'LOOZA

New York's radio station Z100 hosts Landerpalooza, an event to introduce new morning host John Lander and to raise funds for the New York City Police Foundation. The concert will be held at Webster Hall in Manhattan February 14 and will feature the Gin Blossoms, US 3 and Candlebox.

RECORD NEWS

Adrian Belew has signed with Caroline Records. His first album on the label is scheduled for an April release. Belew is also starting a new label called Adrian Belew Presents... Capitol/Grand Royal has just released Some Old Bullshit from the Beastie Boys, a collection of earlier recordings... Drag City will be releasing an album from Gastr Del Sol called Crookt, Crackt Or Fly... The Gigolo Aunts and the Smithereens have signed with RCA. Look for new albums in late March...

There will be a new Mule EP out on 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go in early March. Drummer James Kimball is no longer with the band.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Holly Lane has left her position as vice president of Mechanic Records. She can be reached at 212-387-8188... Spott, music director at WXYC, Chapel Hill, NC, has been appointed the task of radio promotions at Merge Records.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Restless Records is seeking interns to help with radio promotions, retail promotions and publicity in all major markets. For more information contact Keith Moran at 612-874-2423 or fax a resume to 612-874-2430.

DIALOGUE

RECORD COMPANY

Chuck P. & John Perrone, Radio, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

Welcome back! To start your new year off with an interesting twist, we have been so kind as to send you Incredibly Strange Music, Volume 1.

This is one that cannot miss! How can it with hits by RAJPUT & THE SEPOY, PERREY & KINGSLEY and the one and only FRED LOWREY. If you have not listened to this one yet you are missing the 'next big thing.'...Still kicking in the new year, the BUZZCOCKS. Pete Shelley and Steve Diggle can still rock with the best of them. Check out "Isolation" and "Crystal Night."...For all you electronic dance music fans, be sure to go back and listen to the four latest releases from Astralwerks. Global Cuts, Excursions In Ambience: The Second Orbit, Technomancer III and SPACETIME CONTINUUM WITH TERENCE McKENNA are all on the forefront of this genre of music, so don't miss out...DROP NINETEENS are still picking up new fans in the new year. Check out "Martini Love" and "All Swimmers Are Brothers."...Coming in '94 from Caroline: BARK PSYCHOSIS, new FUDGE, from Portland, OR, PEACH, brand new ADRIAN BELEW. New from Astralwerks: Transformer 2 and FUTURE SOUNDS OF LONDON. New from RealWorld: X Marks The Spot, SHU'DE, DOUDOU N'DLAYA ROSE, NUSRAT FATEH ALI KHAN and SHEILA CHANDRA. A message from Chuck: "Let's shake it in Frisco!"

John Di Maio/Brett Greene, Radioactive Records, New York, NY (212) 489-4820

A sincere thanks to all in college radio for being first in the nation to discover DIG. After a busy '93 that saw their debut EP Runt and self-titled first album explode onto the CMJ Top 40, the rest of the world is finally catching up in '94. Look for a new Dig EP to come in a month, featuring a mix of unheard studio tracks and live stuff...Acid Eaters is turning out to be the biggest RAMONES record in a decade. We just told Joey how well the CD is being received, and he is both ecstatic and appreciative. A perfect way to celebrate this legendary alternative band's 20th anniversary of coming together. Check out our personal favorites off the CD: "7 & 7 Is" and "My Back Pages." Once the

bro. get back from an Australia festival tour, they'll head out on a lengthy trek across the USA... Stuff to watch out for in months ahead: aforementioned Dig EP, full-length debut from Scotland's ANGELFISH, and the super long-awaited second album from LIVE.

Ingrid, Nat'l Promo, Mesa/Bluemoon Records, Bouncin' Burbank, CA (818) 841-8585

Drought, fires, floods and now the 6.6 shake and bake. Welcome to paradise! Hopefully all you squeamish, starry-eyed, glory-seeking, California-bound wanna-be's will stay home. We've got enough problems. You can tell the East Coasters during the aftershocks because they keep sprinting for the doorjams. It's Thursday and we've had over 800 aftershocks since Monday's rock & roll wake up. And to top it all off, school is back in session. At least we've got some great music happening. Feb. 1 will find a compilation produced by O'Neil Clark, Dancehall Underground And Beyond (that is large and will get your airwaves slamin'), as well as guitarist VINCENT NGUINI'S Symphony-Bantu on your desk. Then right around "V" day in Feb., the JAZZHOLE will open up, pounding out some thumping grooves that are hotter than a SoCal brush fire. Rappers KCB, Jack Ruby Jr., Ahmed Best and Ronnie & MC Rosa Russ are cooler than a night in their NY neighborhood. Put this one on and watch that cold snap heat up. If you're in L.A., remember, don't drink the water!

Dane Johnson and Garret Vandermolen, Heartbeat Records, Cambridge, MA (617) 534-0700 ext. 253

Heartbeat would like to congratulate the legendary BURNING SPEAR on his Grammy nomination for The World Should Know. If you like to mix great reggae into regular alternative programming, this is the album you want. Make sure you check out Leonard Dillon and the ETHIOPIANS Owner Fe De Yard. This release features tracks recorded from 1966-1986 and contains classic tunes like "Let Me Blow My Smoke" and "She Is My Girl," with extensive track-by-track liner notes by the Ethiopian himself. Also this month look for the Original Man. ANDREW TOSH brings you some strong original material as well as fresh and innovative interpretations of his father's work. This album contains eight brand new dub versions arranged and engineered by Heartbeat's Chris Wilson. So we've got some serious dread and dub for you to check out in 1994, this is just the beginning. As a final note, we at Heartbeat are deeply saddened by the recent passing of session guitarist Eric "Bingy Bunny" Lamont. He will be missed. Respect.

Scott Perry and Will Simon, Beggars Banquet/Thirsty Ear Recordings, New York, NY (800) 866-2313

It's funny that Shoulder Voices by ROLLER-SKATE SKINNY hits the stores on February 15; not only is the CD the musical equivalent of a chaotic trip through the French Quarter on Mardi Gras Day (the 15th, surprise!), but it's also a great soundtrack to torment the soul after losing your Valentine. God bless 'em, are they awesome or what? While spinning Over Valence by HAIR & SKIN TRADING COMPANY try "Go Round" and "Levers" for that perfect balance between chaos and order. Tour soon. Listened to the advance of Libertine by SUNDIAL? Whether you like to dance around or smoke a bowl and chill, the spacey guitars and cosmic beats are gonna please you either way. Two words: RADIAL SPANGLE. Thank you. Another thing: thank God SMALL BALL PAUL uses musical instruments instead of baseball bats to let out its aggression. Their recent select dates with Bad Brains showed how amazing they are live; You In Flames coming early March. QUEEN SARAH SATURDAY back on tour, call for tickets and interviews. On the syndicated radio series front, we have a new program to excite your listeners: MTV's Man In The Moon is a series devoted to spoken word. Featuring rare monologues from artists such as ROLLINS and MAGGIE ESTEP, accompanied by the music of SYLVIAN & FRIPP, SMASHING PUMPKINS and others, this series totally entertains and awakens audiences to a new cutting edge. Call for the first four half-hour episodes, all placed on one CD in a swell package. Free.

Charlie Amter, Twin City International, St. Paul, MN (612) 645-6361

Very soon, a package will arrive at your station containing the likes of CRAZY ALICE, Milk For Pussy (a compilation) and RUN WESTY RUN. Sonic Bubblegum invites you to go skinny-dipping with Crazy Alice's second full-lengthier, Bender. More raw-edged rage, tempered with the fact that underneath their clothes, all of CA is naked. Do not upset Sonic Bubblegum's Margot by ignoring this release—for she will become enraged at those who slack on the Bender tip. Mr. David Livingstone has a band (TEENAGE LARVAE), he has a label (Mad Queen), and he has a girlfriend (classified)—what more could one ask for? The name of his compilation CD is Milk For Pussy a k a part one of the International Virus series. Some of the players include STEEL POLE BATHTUB, COWS, BABES IN TOYLAND, ELEVENTH DREAM DAY and LOVE BATTERY. Suffice it to say, this sucker spews more ass-kicking rounds of aural ammunition per minute than a John Woo flick. Who are RUN WESTY RUN, you ask? Basically, they are the kids your mom wouldn't let you play with. These hard-luck Minneapolis bad boys are comin' atcha with David's Drum—a CD EP that picks up where last year's Plowed Into God left off. More addictive, junk-fueled, anthemic rock/soul things that will pique your interest all over again. Send Chris money. Contrary to popular opinion, A&M will not be releasing the Westies' full-lengthier this spring. Call for specifics and information about SCHWA!

Christine "All Shook Up" Burrell, Alias Records, Burbank, CA (818) 566-1034

By God, we're quake crazy. All day long East Coasters call with their questions forcing us at quake-point to discuss it. My favorite one is, "We're you scared?" Let me just answer this for all of us, "Fuck yes! As a city, we collectively pissed in our PJ's." So, how 'bout that ice storm? Seriously, we are all fine. It sure has put things in perspective. I'm beginning to believe the reason L.A. has so many friggin' disasters is due to the shallowness of the place thus forcing us to put things in perspective more often. Onto other news, THRONEBERRY's Sangria is out and its first day was a smash. Next week, Throneberry will be in OH and IN. The PICASSO TRIGGER debut, IFire In The Hole!, is due out on the 21st and they will be in NC, VA, MD, OH and IL over the next two weeks. The LOUD FAMILY's Slouching Towards Liverpool, which originally came out in Europe, will be domestically released on the 28th of February and they are playing Bottom Of The Hill, Saturday, Feb. 19 for the Gavin Convention. Sorry to say but the Arthur Lee/Love tribute is currently on hold. We'll let you know. Later this spring we have new EPs from both SMALL 23 and the ARCHERS OF LOAF. Check out the Archers live all along the West Coast in the next few weeks. If you haven't seen them, you're a loser and I should know 'cause Les Scurry is one of my best friends.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

Sob story of the week: I stood outside in negative 50 degree weather for 45 minutes trying to hail a cab. I had no luck. Stop laughing now, I had a huge suitcase (filled with laundry to do at my parents house—so I save $5) and had to take the subway then walk a few blocks, too. Quite frankly, it was not fun and you can be sure that the few off-duty cabs that pulled over to see where I was going and proceeded to drive away because it wasn't to Queens, got more than a mouthful of "fuck you's" and "asshole's" among other choice words from yours truly. If you ever visit New York City, you will notice, very quickly, that cabbies are conveniently off-duty at the most inopportune times. They suck. So if you're ever in a mood to be somewhat entertained, hang out with me in the rain during rush hour on the corner of 57th and 5th or 6th Avenue and watch me go ballistic. On a more pleasant note: CHAPTERHOUSE is on the road with the Wonder Stuff in major U.S. markets. Call for tickets and interviews. Don't forget to play Blood Music or even the ambient version of the album, Pentamorous Metamorphosis as retranslated by Global Communication. SARAH McLACHLAN's new single "Possession" is in your hands now. Fumbling Towards Ecstasy arrives the 2nd week of February. Don't forget about the No Alternative record. STICK is on the road and so is MUZZA CHUNKA. Call for the usual tour shit. Look for my newsletter with the Sarah McLachlan CD and you will find a way to win a SPIRITUALIZED Electric Mainline EPI Seeyalaterbye.

It's me again, checking in to remind you to support the Alternative NRG CD. If you haven't found time to review this one, do it now! Once you do so, make sure to add it and help Greenpeace's mission in keeping the Earth's rising temperature down (you'll enjoy listening to your favorite tracks, and feel good at the same time for helping out in this cause)...Another update, regarding the DEAD MILK MEN with their Not Richard, But Dick tour: they're jamming tunes in the central/mountain areas, so give us a call and we'll hook you up strong!

Stephanie LeBeau, Andrew Watson, Caris Gulick, Lisa Russell, Vision Trust Promotions, San Francisco, CA (415) 752-2564

Happy New Year, everybody! We are starting the New Year with a pure sugar rush, so be on the lookout for a treat—the debut CD from CANDY PLANET titled Deeper Than Fluff. They are a four-person band from San Francisco fronted by a female dynamo. The tracks that are sure to give you a toothache are numbers 1, 3, 4, 7 and 8. On a personal note, I am pleased to announce a new member of the team, whom you may know already. Lisa Russell, formerly of KCSB. Speak to you soon. Au revoir for now.

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Attention all psychology majors! I need help. What does it mean when I keep dreaming that I'm being smothered in a huge vat of pink cotton candy? Just wondering...Hopefully DIE MONSTER DIE is reviewed (how about that pile of CDs?) and ready to roll by now. Whatcha think? "Swallowed," "Toad" and "Vagina Dentata" are the songs that are getting the best response so far. Call me if you'd like a cassette to throw in your walkman, car or home stereo. DMD will be readily available for interviews and stuff, especially when they hit the road...SECT is not just for breakfast anymore. It's for brunch, lunch, after school snack and dinner too. Honest...Advice for the week: never trust your weatherman.

Bobby S. Fred, Word Of Mouth Records, Venice, CA (310) 450-1297

I sent out a few copies of the MEICES 7". Hopefully they arrived un-warped. I hope you liked the STILLMOTION one too (pretty unusual, pretty obscure and pretty friggin' beautiful). Next up is a live CRACKERBASH record followed by a J-CHURCH 7". Now to the fun stuff: I went on the road with Jawbreaker last weekend (hands down the best time I've had all winter). We played lots of cheesy K-Tel '80s music along the way. Blake had Cometbus #31 with him. Outstanding! Hi to Sue Carlson at (what was that place?) E-Z Burger? Too bad her name was really Lisa. Oh, also, we found a place out there near Pomona that had "the coldest beer in the world." Damn. There's something you don't see everyday. Adam made me recite all those dumb movie lines I know. Platoon: "Hell I like it here! You get to do what you want. No one fucks with you." Midnight Run: "Sidney, sit down! Have a sandwich, drink a glass of milk, do some fuckin' thing, will ya?"...No one does it better than Jawbreaker. No one. Look for their new 24 Hour Revenge Therapy on Tupelo/Communion in stores soon...and remember, no matter what line of work you're in, nothing but nothing beats doing it yourself.

Al Crisafulli, Dromedary Records, Lodi, NJ (201) 614-1190

I love the new Spinanes record, and it's great to see it go to #1 on the CMJ charts. It's a shame, though, that Manos is the first "indie" record since Sugar to chart that high, especially considering the large amount of great indie music that came out in 1993. Anyway, there's a new FOOTSTONE 7" called "Wobbles From Side To Side" on its way to you as I write this. You should get it the first or second week of February, knowing the postal service. Anyway, it was produced by Ray Ketchem (MELTING HOPEFULS, Shirk Circus) and features backup vocals by Bill Dolan of American Standard. You should play this record loud, preferably while drinking cheap American beer out of a can—because Footstone would want it that way. Oh, we cut our radio list by about 75%, so if you want a copy of this, you're going to have to break tradition and get in touch with me.

Michelle, 21st Circuitry Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 252-9578

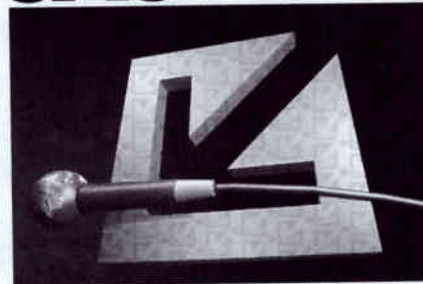

Greetings all. On their way to all you RPM reporting stations are the newest 21st Circuitry releases: XCORCIST, Death Rave 2000 and GRACIOUS SHADES. We will be glad to service you with these releases even if you don't report to RPM because we'd like to see these releases break out of the specialty show realm and have everyone play them. I am glad to service stations based on their specialty show play, but it is distressing to me when I hear "These won't get regular rotation, I passed them along to the specialty show." I would understand "They suck," but I don't understand "This music doesn't get played in regular." What's up with that? You play hip-hop, you play jazz, you play blues, but electronic? Techno is not a four-letter word! However, I do appreciate the enthusiasm and support that the hosts of specialty shows display. At this point, they are radio's saviors. Some stations I love: KDVS, KSJS and KUSF.

Tim Adams, Ajax Records, Chicago, IL (312) 772-4783

Those stations on our promo list should be getting new CDs from THIS KIND OF PUNISHMENT (In The Same Room/5 By Four) and WRECK SMALL SPEAKERS ON EXPENSIVE STEREO (River Falling Love) and a new Dutch band FUR TIPS (Pitched Up Twinkle), or any combo thereof depending on how in love you are with such musical floss as Green Apple Quick Step or Greta. We don't have the money to flood the market with freebies, so if you want to receive our records, just send a playlist or call. We'll be putting out a nine-song EP from the THINKING FELLERS UNION LOCAL 282 entitled The Funeral Pudding later in February, and new CDs from ASHTRAY BOY (Macho Champions) and the CANNANES (Short Poppy Syndrome) in March/April. In other developments, we have opened a retail store in Chicago, and would really appreciate poster and in-store play copies of new releases, especially from those bigger indies and majors that our mailorder/distribution "division" doesn't already stock. This isn't a scam; we actually do play the CDs that are sent to us. Address all inquiries to Joanna Epstein, our retail person, at the above phone number. The address is 2156 W. Chicago Ave., Chicago, IL 60622. Thanks, and plugs to Tarnation, DQE, Condeucent, Supreme Dicks, Palace Brothers, Wanderin' Stars, Faxed Head, Hopefully our radio mailing of Groping For Trout by SINKHOLE and Aloha by DOC HOPPER has reached its various points of destination by now. The mailing to "K" stations was sent January 10, the mailing to "W" and "C" stations went out January 14. Music directors, do a fledgling indie label in huge debt a favor and get this stuff in rotation. College radio aficionados, be sure to call in to your local station and request "Red Dog" and "Waterbug" by Sinkhole, and "Geiger" and "Melcher" by Doc Hopper. Next up on the Ringing Ear agenda is a full-length album by Boston's BUGJUICE, a band carrying on the Boston noise-pop tradition originated by the likes of Dinosaur Jr., Mission Of Burma and Buffalo Tom (I mean Buffalo Tom when they played good music). We may also get a few 7" records out before the semester's end. One possibility is a Sinkhole/Doc Hopper split 7" featuring covers of Eddie Money and John Cougar Mellencamp, respectively. We're trying to come up with a title for that one, maybe "Who Sucked More?" I dunno, feel free to contribute suggestions if you have any. We're now distributed by Buried Treasure, Dutch East, Surefire and Twin Cities, so ask your local shop to order our stuff if they ain't got it already. Oh yeah, it was 18-below-zero here the other day and the pedals on my car froze, rendering it undriveable. I managed to thaw it out with an extension cord and space heater, but my point is, it's really friggin' cold!

Chase, Label Slumlord, Re-Constriction/Cargo Records, San Diego, CA (619) 483-9292

I kinda hate all of you today, or maybe I just hate myself for having to do a Dialogue. Anyways, here's what's new in the world of digicore dance music: First we have NON-AGGRESSION PACT's 9mm Grudge CD. N.A.P. combine harsh throatwork and brutal rhythms with hip-hop influenced percussion. If you're a music director and you didn't add the VAMPIRE RODENTS' CD, then I'm very disappointed in you. The Rodent CD also features guest vocalists from Chemlab, Babyland and Three Mile Pilot. On deck is a new CD from Switzerland's SWAMP TERRORISTS called Combat Shock, DIATRIBE's full-length debut and 16 VOLT's second CD. If I forgot to send something to your station, call me up. Oh yeah, the earthquake didn't hit San Diego, so think of a better line when trying to create a good rapport.

Lucky Jones, Promotion Manager, Pyramid Records, Fresno, CA (209) 251-1516

1994 greetings to all new program directors and music directors. We hopefully have serviced all heavy metal and hard rock stations with the HERITAGE CD entitled Living...Standing...Burning. We would like to thank all of the nearly 100 stations who are already on this but there is a 250 word limit. I must however thank Dennis Howard, WRBC for helping us hit #2 Nov. 22, 1993, and Ed McGee, KSJD for helping us hit #2 Jan. 10, 1994. Also, Tom Olcott, Z-Rock, Dallas, Texas, Paul Goodman, WXVX, Pittsburgh, Jim Price, WFBG, Altoona, Steve Watts, KMLS, Santa Rosa (who says commercial stations don't rock, bullshit!). If you're not playing the Heritage, maybe someone ripped it off or got scared and threw it out. If you don't have it please call or write to us at 4586 E. Pine, Fresno, CA 93703. To receive a free copy of Living...Standing...Burning by the Heritage you must absolutely like great rock music with screaming leads, scorching vocals, thumping bass and ass-kicking drums and your station must not have anything by the Chambers Brothers or the Village People in heavy rotation.

Lulu Cohen/Krissie Lucidi, Pipeline Records, Hicksville, NY (516) 681-2125

OK...OK...Lorena Bobbitt is free...men everywhere learn an important lesson...macho crap don't mean nothing when you're dealing with a woman scorned...and don't mess with foreign chicks...but...does this send out a negative message to women like I'll just slice it if he looks at me wrong? Lorena...Lorena...Good luck finding a new boyfriend. MARTIN NEWELL/ANDY PARTRIDGE play it, feel it, live it! Cut five, "She Rings The Changes," and cut seven, "A Street Called Prospect," will tickle your fancy and send you running for a spot of tea...I promise! SUNSHOT sounds a little like the band Curve! Listen to cut five, "Babydoll." It's my favorite tune. Listen and become aware! And the beat keepz going! XOXOXOXOXO

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

Things are pretty bloody exciting here at PLG with the new MEAT PUPPETS album Too High To Die, in The Name Of The Father soundtrack (featuring BONO, GAVIN FRIDAY and SINEAD O'CONNOR), E, INDIANS and WONDER STUFF projects all blazing their own separate trails. The brothers Meat have hooked up with (worst) Rolling Stone cover boys Blind Melon for a string of East Coast dates before they do Europe with Nirvana and Soul Asylum. They'll be back here in the spring. E will be on the road by mid Feb.—call me if you need a copy of his great new album. The Stiffies are out now, as are QUICKSAND and our new Australian rock outfit, MANTISSA. The Mantissa album, Mossy God, comes out 2/22. Looking ahead to March, we've a tres cool album coming by Louisiana guitar slinger C.C. ADCOCK—swamp rock, he calls it, lots of blues/pop stuff. Very cool.

RETAIL

Gretchen Lindensmith, National Retail Marketing Coordinator, Independent Label Sales, New York, NY (212) 603-7943

If you aren't gaga over the ONE DOVE Morning Dove White on ffr Records yet, I don't think you've been paying attention. Look for these U.K. exports to tour this spring. TRIPPING DAISY are touring again (or is that still touring?), and these guys sell records everywhere they play, so be prepared. Bill (Island Red) is the LP. Many folks have been asking about Live Forever, so here's the skinny: CARLOS SANTANA has put together a collection of previously unreleased live recordings from his personal collection. Note: they are not recordings of Santana, but of STEVIE RAY VAUGHAN, MARVIN GAYE, JOHN COLTRANE and JIMI HENDRIX. This record can be found anywhere that carries fine recordings, and if you happen to carry fine recordings and can't get your hands on this gem, puh-lease call me! There are plenty of groovy new releases flowing from ILS veins this year, so keep your head up for Platinum On Black—a collection of your fave ffr dance hits from the past year; the full-length from VAPOURSPACE (ffrr); the ORB's (Island Red) long-awaited live extravaganza (look for reissues of the first two Orb releases in February); and the MEICES Tastes Like Chicken (External), a dose of rock and roll to counter the extended dance grooves currently controlling my days. I won't bore you with my favorite records, if you really want to know you can ask.

If for some reason you don't get it, give us a call. This video was directed by Bill Ward, who also did the band's first video for "Never." Souls continue to stay on the road heading west on a headline tour till the end of February. Thanks to everyone who aired and reported the "Never" video. Please do the same for this one; the concept behind the video blows "Never" away. Check out Brad's guinea pig face on the close up! Any questions? Just give either me or Sheri a call and we'll be more than happy to help you out. Till next time, ciao.

Steve Ellis, General Manager, WMSV, Mississippi State, MS (601) 325-8034
Hello to CMJ and all record labels worldwide. WMSV 91.1 FM at Mississippi State University will go on the air in early March with 14,000 watts and an Alternative/AOR mix format. For the last couple of months I've been playing the old "Which came first, the chicken or the egg game" with many label reps. Many of you say you won't service us until we are on the air, but, hey, how can we go on the air without your product? Starting a station from scratch presents many obstacles, none tougher than getting on the mailing list of the many labels out there. Several of you have been very helpful providing us with not only new releases, but catalog material as well, and we are deeply appreciative. We need help from the rest of you. We are putting together our staff and will begin reporting to CMJ the first week we are on the air. WMSV, "Radio With a Vision," is going to concentrate on new music from established artists and the many new artists recording today. We have a station policy that no song can be repeated for at least four hours, so more of the newest music out there can get some airplay. Unlike many college stations, we will be on the air 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Please give me a call and talk with myself or our music director, James Martin. You can send product to WMSV, P.O. Box 6210, Student Media Center, Mississippi State, MS 39762. Please let us hear from you.

Steven "Vanilla" Thompson, Music Director, WLHA, Madison, WI (608) 262-1206

Just a few quick orders of business: 1. My new spring 1994 office hours are 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. CST Tuesdays and Thursdays. One of my New Years resolutions is to actually be present in WLHA HQ during these periods. 2. Please understand that in these troubled times, WLHA's phone budget has been slashed to near nonexistence. I simply can't return every call. 3. WLHA is staging somewhat of a comeback this semester, and I'll be harassing a lot of you for giveaways in the very near future. If you're cleaning out your cabinets, please send stuff to WLHA, c/o Holt Commons, 625 Elm Dr., Madison, WI 53706. 4. WLHA is in the market for good radio comedy. If you're in some way connected to a radio comedy syndicate, give me a call. 5. My assistants, the lovely and talented Eric Nelson and Chris Bell, will be succeeding me when I graduate in May. Get to know them now—they're super guys. 6. Whoomp! There it is! The funkiest rapper in the world, VANILLA ICE, has a new single out, and is it ever dope! "Roll 'em up! Roll up the hootie mack!" 7. More phat shit: COUNTING CROWS, ST. JOHNNY, JEFF BUCKLEY, BEN HARPER, JAWBOX, LUSCIOUS JACKSON, OVERWHELMING COLORFAST and the amazing SILKWORM.

I've been hearing a lot recently about the music college radio "should" be playing. The question—does playing major label artists make you a sellout? Well, who is your audience? Is it the "too-hip-for-words DJ"? Or is it the potentially millions of college students nationwide? I'd love to play only indie artists, but I know my audience wouldn't go for that. No matter how "underground" we're trying to be, remember, if we're only doing it for ourselves, we haven't really gained anything. And how about those people who complain about MTV overplaying "alternative" songs? Umm, will, er, "Cannonball" still sounds the same as it did a few months ago, so I can't say I don't like it anymore. And wouldn't we all rather hear the BREEDERS, GIN BLOSSOMS or PEARL JAM once an hour instead of the new RICHARD MARX single? No? Then change the channel! I guess what I'm getting at is—if you're lucky enough to work at a station where your "audience" wants to hear only the latest indie-noise groups, I wish I was you. Until then, I'd love to hear your comments or criticisms, so give me a call. But please don't call me any dirty names...unless that makes you more "alternative."

Paul Gosling, Co-Manager, WVMH, Mars Hill, NC (704) 689-1259

Another cold week, celebrity scandals and state Governors declaring war on crime, so what's new? Answer...plenty, as WVMH continues to grow thanks to those of you out there (you know who you are) who've been helping us expand horizons and all that stuff. All of us here are burning the candle etc...gotta love expansion! To Geffen, two words, RAINCOATS revival! For those labels who haven't heard from us yet, you will or hey, give me a call if the urge overcomes you! We're working hard to bring new sounds to western N. Carolina, so join the ride. Personally: CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE, LIZ PHAIR, TEENAGE FANCLUB and BJORK. Any word on a new FOLLOW FOR NOW disc? Looking forward to a great year of growth on all levels, Thanks to Lou, Jeff and Doc.

As an old roots lover, it's tough for me to adapt to the new dancehall style of reggae music. However, a couple of cool compilations may have helped this to become a reality. One is Two Tough's Dancehall Boomshots the other being Signe's Boom Tunes. NARDO RANKS' "Conference" rocks with passion. Several others do also. Boom Tunes is loaded with cuts that lean in all directions. From JESSE JENDER AND SIR RAPHAEL'S "One Time Doctor" and BERES HAMMOND TO JOSEY WALES' "Free And Single," to MR. WALES and SHAGGY rockin' the same groove on "Kingston Hot" and "Bumper Move," this one especially will keep most happy most of the time. If you haven't given Boom Tunes a chance, do it! If you listened and didn't like it, listen again! Boomshots will speak for itself, it was number one on my dancehall chart for weeks, and still is! Other cool releases are YELLOWMAN'S A Man You Want. He's back, and a little mellow-er with age, and watch out for a band called UPRISING. They're from the Baltimore area and they just released a CD called Unconquered Lions. Watch for them in your town. Ya know, I somehow knew reggae didn't die when the great BOB MARLEY did, it has returned with a new vengeance. Rock steady one and all...

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

RICHARD THOMPSON
Mirror Blue
(Capitol)

"Regardless of his personal circumstance or level of previous success, Richard Thompson seems to make new records as if he's just endured great personal tragedy, like a forgotten hero returning in grand fashion to record a hallmark after a mysterious absence...Mirror Blue...[is a] revelation containing equal parts rock 'n' roll exuberance and emotional exorcism."

MARK LANEGAN
Whiskey For The Holy Ghost
(Sub Pop)

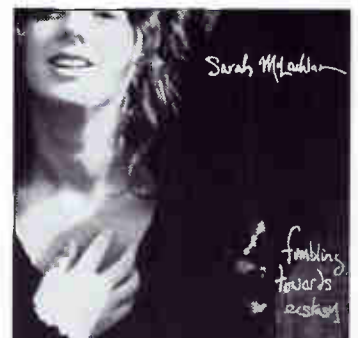

"We'll forgive the three-year wait, because this set of damp, Northwestern blues is as potent and fraught with emotion as anything Lanegan's recorded...[Collaborator Mike] Johnson's warm acoustic and electric guitars bathe Lanegan's songs in sympathetic swaddling, merging the punch-in-the-stomach ache of traditional blues with the weepy, blue-eyed soul of the Trees' rock 'n' roll."

MATERIAL
Hallucination Engine
(Axiom-Island)

"The Material map of the world connects points in India, America, Africa, Europe and interstellar space, exploring the underlying universal links between trance musics of the globe, from heady dub reggae, '70s space funk and Indian raga to the tranced-out chillout rooms of underground techno clubs."

SARAH McLACHLAN
Fumbling Towards Ecstasy
(Netwerk-Arista)

"Since her 1988 debut Touch, 26-year-old singer/songwriter Sarah McLachlan has been writing songs with maturity and grace well beyond her years. On Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, [McLachlan]...continues her growth, creating a record that rings with the wisdom of her intimate explorations of life's fears, dreams, loves, hopes and strengths."
