↑ PAUL WELLER ↓
Soul Survivor

Throughout his career, Paul Weller has baffled critics and fans alike. In truth, he is a man of contradictions: a man with plenty to say, yet one who distrusts saying too much; a man with the political and intellectual agenda of an upper-class liberal, but with the tools of a working class joe. His latest release, Wild Wood, demonstrates his many talents with a fresh, honest quality that has not been apparent in recent Weller projects. On Wild Wood, Weller continues to explore the soul music he grew up on and still loves, a thread traceable from his choice of covers when he led The Jam ("Heatwave," "Move On Up") to his days as the stylish Euro-dude in Style Council through to the present, as bandleader on his solo records.

Weller's lyrics clearly aren't as angry as they were in The Jam. "[If they were] I'd be saying them and I'd be writing them, so I guess they're not in me anymore, but...I have to go wherever feels right for me, whatever comes naturally to me, which is what I did with all those songs that came out of that time," Weller explains. Despite the change in mood, Weller still clings to his passionate beliefs about how he writes. Honesty is clearly Weller's guiding force, whether he's expressing anger as a young man with no future, as in The Jam, or playing the music he thrives on, as in Style Council or on Wild Wood, with its rock-driven, pastoral inner visions. Discussing his religious turn of phrase and music (exhibited on "Holy Man"), Weller says, "It's not like I discovered God or anything. I suppose it's because I have less faith in any kind of organized politics or religion or anything else that's going on, so I guess I'm looking for something else. I guess a lot of people are, but I couldn't say what it is, and it's not like I want to discover God or a religion, because I don't...the only thing I have faith in really is myself and my music, to be quite honest about it. Everything else seems quite forced at times."

Like many Brits who appropriate non-Anglo styles, Weller has been accused of being too studied in the past; however, the quickness with which he created Wild Wood should silence those critics. "[Out of 17 songs] I just selected what was 12 to work on. There wasn't enough time to do the rest, so I picked out what I thought were the best of the songs I had written up to that point, so we kinda knew what we wanted...we took about six weeks or something like that...all in all [it took] more than two and a half months," says Weller, who seems liberated by the process. "I guess there's a kind of spontaneous thing where you get an idea or someone has an idea, we kinda knew what we wanted; I knew what I wanted anyway." With such a determined mind-set, and the freedom and knowledge stemming from 15-odd years as a musician, Weller is making music that reaches the full expression of its soulful rock roots.

Essential New Music

ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT Zingalamaduni (Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—After you set the world on its ear, starting a revolution with one 50-minute CD, where could you possibly go from there? Sure, many folks might think that they'd love to be Speech, but since the hoopla and attention died down and turned into earnest, impatient expectation for the next album, we no longer envy his position of having to top the seemingly untippable greatness of one of the most important debut albums in black music history. It was more than just the group's inventive singsong rap style that made its music revolutionary; Arrested Development practically invented a new way of looking at music, a holistic approach incorporating dance, fashion, wisdom and Afro-positive thoughts and ideas, and as a result, took music of the '90s to a whole new level. Though Speech and Co. didn't have 3 Years, 5 months, and 2 days in their lives to make this record, it's still an indelibly strong affirmation of everything great about Arrested Development: the positive message of "Africa's Inside Me," the spirit of "Ease My Mind," the loose groove of "Pride." While this record is going to be hugely successful, it is also going to be historically important, like the music of AD's forebears Sly & The Family Stone, Curtis Mayfield, Bob Marley or James Brown. It will endure, and not only will Arrested Development continue winning over young fans, but their children will grow up listening to it as well. And that's what's really important. —James Lien

IGUANAS Nuevo Boogaloo (Margaritaville, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Like Los Lobos, the Texas Tornados or fellow genre-blending Louisiana bands like the Subdudes and the Bluerunners, the Iguanas cook up a wild array of styles—Tex-Mex, conjunto, blues, soul, rock and Louisiana swamp pop—into a simmering blend of conjunto roots and deep soul feeling. Hearing their second album Nuevo Boogaloo is a lot like listening to a really great jukebox in a cozy swamp speakeasy or lonely desert roadhouse—one timeless soul, Tex-Mex, R&B and blues platter after another plops onto the turntable while you dance the night away. If you like artists such as Freddie Fender, Arthur Alexander, Hank Williams Sr., Otis Redding, Flaco Jimenez and Slim Harpo, then the Iguanas' blend of soul and roots is for you. One of the hallmarks of great soul music is that a good song paints a vivid picture in listeners' minds: Whether they're twirling a dark-haired, dark-eyed damsel under a glowing moon, revving a spiffy '50s convertible down an East L.A. boulevard, or pacing a straw floor pining away over love gone wrong, the Iguanas paint pictures in sound that are evocative and poignant. Boogaloo to: "Oye Isabel," "Boom Boom Boom," "El Orangutan" and the infectious sing-along "My Girlfriend Is A Waitress." —James Lien

KYUSS Sky Valley (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—It's been a long wait for Sky Valley, held up by the legalities of Chameleon Records' demise; but after listening to the new record, you would hardly guess it's been nearly two years since Blues For The Red Sun. Sky Valley picks up just where Blues... left off, exhibiting just a bit of growth, so that, for example, there are fewer self-indulgent, drawn-out, guitar solos. Like bell bottoms, the retro tone of Kyuss' metal makes the band eligible for popularity with the alternative crowd, as with bands like Monster Magnet. But Kyuss doesn't bank solely on '70s kitsch; the band emerges from the pot haze with sonic ferocity. Kyuss represents the great convergence of punk and metal, the band influenced equally by Black(s) Flag and Sabbath. Through it all, the bludgeon of Brant Bjork's drums stops the band from skidding towards hypnotic, meandering waves. The album perfectly combines nostalgic psychedelia with rough and heavy metal. Though divided into three parts, Sky Valley is best listened to in its entirety as a triptych of songs. These Palm Desert natives know what's best in resort areas, making the rest of Sky Valley a relief from the everyday: "La Gardenia," "100 degrees" and "Odyssey." —Dawn Sutter

TERMINATOR X AND THE GODFATHERS OF THREAT Super Bad (P.R.O.Division/RAL, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—For his second solo project, Public Enemy's DJ Terminator X plays the role of a diabolical beat scientist. Behind his dark glasses, the soft-spoken master of manipulation works from his laboratory assembling Super Bad, a record which restructures the deteriorating roads connecting old-school tradition and new-school arrogance. With the emphasis placed solely in the hands of the DJ, Super Bad focuses on re-teaching the cocky new jacks the true meaning of hip-hop, DJ Kool Herc's occasional sermons providing the lesson. As on his first solo release, Terminator's featured stable of talent is conditioned to understand and respect its musical roots before being let into hip-hop badlands. The first single "It All Comes Down To The Money" pairs Terminator proteges Punk Barbarians with old-school legend Whodini, while on "Sticka" (sampling Prince's "Sexy MF"), anti-censorship mouthpieces Chuck D., Ice-T, Ice Cube and MC Lyte flip hardcore lyrics in the face of the moral majority for the album's finest moment. Also taking part in the sonic hysteria is Grandmaster Flash, who cuts it up with X on "G'Damn That DeeJay Made My Day," and on "Stylewild '94" the Cold Crush Brothers and Fantastic Five provide the album with yet another def jam. Also spin: "Ruff N' Nuff" and the dancehall-spiced "Mashitup." —Glen Sansone

STONE TEMPLE PILOTS Purple (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

We live in a strange time. A straight-ahead rock band like Stone Temple Pilots can become a punch-line simply by virtue of the fact that it sells lots of records. "But they're so derivative," all the hepcsters whine. Well, as we like to say around the water cooler here at CMJ: "Derivative-schmivative! How many records aren't derivative these days?" Stephen Malkmus of Pavement, fulfilling his role as "reluctant spokesman," can call the Pilots out for "manipulating symbols of youth culture" (in "Range Life") when that's what most of American popular culture has been based on ever since Bill Haley put on a dinner jacket in 1953 and recorded "Crazy Man Crazy." Alright, enough with the rock-crit prologue. The point that we're trying to make is that Purple should be taken at face value for what it is: a solid, accessible, big-sounding hard rock record that shows STP in its developmental stages. Songs are tighter, Dean DeLeo's Jimmy Page-inspired guitar textures are even more dynamic, and say what you want about the somewhat, um, familiar sound of Scott Weiland's voice, but the guy has a way with a hook. Some of the verses may meander a bit, but radio-ready cuts like "Vaseline" or "Big Empty" pay off in spades. Cognoscenti beware: you were wrong about Kiss, Black Sabbath and Queen, and the kids were right.

—Steve McGuire

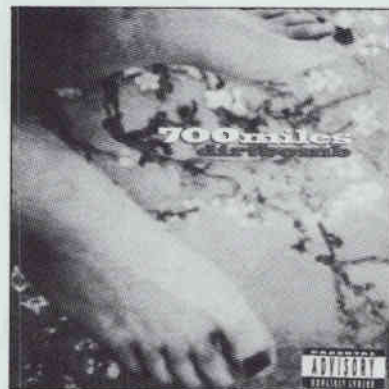

JOAN JETT AND THE BLACKHEARTS Pure And Simple (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)

—It's been three years since Joan released her last (rather dismal) album Notorious and then parted company with Epic. The recent reissue of her superior early material, along with Beavis & Butt-Head's overactive testosterone, have regenerated enough commercial interest for Jett to snag a deal with Warner Bros. It was her recent work as producer for Circus Lupus and Bikini Kill and her regular attendance at Fugazi and Boredoms shows that have made us particularly curious to hear what she's been up to lately. And we're happy to report that this new one is (mostly) a glorious return to Pure And Simple rock 'n' roll form. Rather than trying to mature gracefully (at 33 she's a young 20-year rock veteran), she's wisely returned to her teenage enthusiasm for exuberant guitar crunch, inspired no doubt by her young songwriting partner Kathleen Hanna (of Bikini Kill) and members of L7 and Babes in Toyland, who appear on the album. Raw three-chord rockers are simply the best vehicle for her gutsy vocal sneer and no-nonsense "fuck you" lyrics. Her wonderfully obnoxious personality is at the center of the standouts "Rubber & Glue," "Spinster" (both co-written with Hanna) and "Activity Grrrl." The album's closer, unfortunately, is a throwback to cigarette-lighter anthemic rock cliché; the last two minutes are so generic you'd never guess who it was in a blindfold test. This and another ballad co-written and produced by hitmaker Desmond Child (Bon Jovi, Cher), who misguided her through the later Epic years, blemish an otherwise fine album.

—David Newgarden

700 MILES Dirtbomb (RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)

—With its sophomore album, Dirtbomb, 700 Miles continues to explore the depths of its rugged power-trio sound, once again proving itself capable of transcending typical hard rock pretense through a tasteful application of energy, mood and dynamics. The focal point of the band is singer/guitarist John Carlin, an expressive vocalist who shifts from seductive whisper to brazen growl to screaming abandon with formidable ease, often within the span of a single song. More than anything, the band thrives in a live setting, and it's this three-piece fervency that makes Dirtbomb such a passionate testament to its sound. Each tune rides on Carlin's soaring, melodically twisting guitar work, boiling on the verge of explosion on "Storm" or building to an all-out six-string throttle on "Shame." If you look hard enough you can find elements of soul and funk lurking through the band's overall sound, but these influences have been toned down in place of an ultimately straightforward, yet aggressive rock structure. Get dirty with: the soft acoustic guitars and viola flutters on "Eventide," the dark underbelly of "Drift" or the carefully sculpted intensity of "Rock Is Cool."

little keyboard figure in "Strawberry Fields Forever?" Edward Moyses, leader of the Delaware quartet Raymond Listen, certainly does—it's the fixed star for his musical astrolabe. Almost every track on Licorice Root Orchestra is composed of stately, Ringo-fied just-behind-the-beat drums, Moyses' grand two-note piano riffs and sighing slide guitar, subtle garnishes of flute, glockenspiel and finger cymbals popping into and out of the mix, and of course lavish, mountainous reverb on Moyses' trebly vocals. It's a formula for a heady and bittersweet sound, though it wouldn't hold up for an entire album without songs that are both light enough and strong enough to support it. Fortunately, these songs are: "Everyday Supernatural" has a melody that seems frayed around the edges like late Syd Barrett, the keyboard hook of "Ocean's Long Floor/Spell On This Room" is custom-fit for its reverb, and Moyses' phrasing of lines like "remember what you...aaaaaare" (from the opening "September In The Night") is both mannered and sweetly fresh. Special kudos to the instrumental "Lemon Peel Medallion," a two-keyboard piece that's infused with the essence of Pet Sounds without actually sounding derivative. —Douglas Wolk

(Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—You can waste a great deal of time discussing whether The Guide is in fact a world music record or an international pop record, or even something in between. The way to use that time wisely is to allow the international appeal of Yousseu N'Dour's voice make you forget you ever started the discussion. Granted, a record that permits tribal drumming, soul horn sections, breezy tropical rhythms, fusion jazz and artists Branford Marsalis and Neneh Cherry to share the same stage is sure to draw fire from any number of purist camps. Did we mention there's a Bob Dylan cover here too? Whether the grooves come from N'Dour's native Senegal or parts beyond, those rhythms are tuned to float under his voice, a wonderfully vibrant instrument that dispenses rich trills in French, Wolof and English. Throughout The Guide, his voice keeps calling, reminding you that his music is meant to inspire, to encourage and to promote unity. Lesser artists have made such intentions distressingly trite, but N'Dour lyrics are refreshingly succinct, and his singing ignites the message sweetly. Hear: "7 Seconds" (with Cherry), the tribal take on Dylan's "Chimes Of Freedom," "Old Man" and "Mame Bamba" (with Marsalis). —Steve Ciabattani

JAH WOBBLE'S INVADERS OF THE HEART Take Me To God (Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003)

—A dozen years ago, this record would have been mind-blowing. Even so, Take Me To God is a stunning listen today, despite the fact that we've all become accustomed to these international/dance/funk/dub/transcendental hybrid records. With his glimmering world fusion, Jah Wobble assumes the role as eccentric court jester to Bill Laswell's dark-hearted warlock. Where Material bassist Laswell opts for world music's underbelly, bassist Wobble keeps the grooves deep, danceable and above ground. Prime examples: "Yoga Of The Nightclub," which adds a Frankie Goes To Hollywood sheen to Wobble's ethno-bass, and the breezy "Amor" with Chaka Demus & Pliers. The female vocals that pepper

Take Me To God travel from sing-songy disco to unintelligible wailings as if delivered atop the spire of a mosque. Aside from his dynamic, leading basslines, Wobble's most interesting attribute is his kooky monologues, which are at once beat poetry, pure nonsense and dead-on commentary on the stupidity of what's left of our culture. Groove on: "God In The Beginning," "The Sun Does Rise," "When The Storm Comes" and "No Change Is Sexy." —Steve Ciabattani

THIRTY OUGHT SIX Bosozoku (Candy-Ass, P.O. Box 42382, Portland, OR 97202)

Punk rock seems to run in the veins of certain West Coast denizens. Judging from their first record, Bosozoku, the three members of Portland, Oregon's Thirty Ought Six have been afflicted with the punk virus. Following the genre's small-operation tradition, the band puts its records out on a tiny hometown label run by local pop gal Jody Bleyle (Hazel, Team Dresch). This album is laden with droning guitars and bass, adorned with fancy drum work, but underneath the veil lies a peppy punk face. On Bosozoku, Thirty Ought Six jumps out of the water with the enthusiasm of a Jawbreaker and lands heavy with the weight of a Codeine, eventually bobbing and floating on its own terms. The catchiness of songs like "Dealt" and "Huck" fights lethargic tugs from "Wading" and "Shut." Thirty Ought Six holds our attention with its many combinations of just a few variables. Point the rifle and shoot at: "Bosozoku," "Boy Wonder" or "Kukulcan." —Dawn Sutter

GUV'NER Hard For Measy For You (Ecstatic Peacel, c/o Forced Exposure, P.O. Box 9102, Waltham, MA 02254/617-562-0507)—Though Guv'ner might be lumped in with the many bands in the increasingly popular lo-fi indie category, this new group's humor and charm will ultimately set it apart from the stocks. All indications are that Guv'ner is a boy/girl duo consisting of Charles Gansa and Pumpkin Wentzel that's in search of a drummer (check out the band's snappy audio personal, "Drummer Want-Ad," and keep your pencil handy) but is making the most of its spore lineup in the meantime. While at times Gansa's and Wentzel's off-key vocals threaten to undermine the songs' playful arrangements (as on "Little Bitch On The Phone," on which Gansa's Malkmus-like snarl would squash the tune if it weren't for its smart-ass lyrics), ultimately Guv'ner is never so predictable as to become a bore, slapping its witty ideas into songs with a clever hand. The band sounds best and most like itself on "Almond Roca," whose grinning, Sonic Youth-ish guitars form an unexpectedly catchy hook; "Making Headlines," with its pretty, dark-edged harmonies; and the winding curve of "Red Velvet Chair." Also try "Go To Sleep," which is probably the most fun to sing along with. —Lydia Anderson

ANI DiFRANCO Out Of Range (Righteous Babe, P.O. Box 95, Ellicott Sta., Buffalo, NY 14205/716-882-4911)

Like Liz Phair's songs, Ani DiFranco's music punches folk/angst buttons, confronting personal sexual issues in a quiet atmosphere. On Out Of Range, her fifth self-produced/self-released record, DiFranco fleshes out her spare vocal/acoustic guitar dynamic with the sporadic addition of drums, piano, bass and accordion. It's on the quieter songs, however, that DiFranco's rough approach and sweet melodies blend into their finest vintage. On "Letter To A John," the most poignant of the 11 vignettes, the song's central character reflects on an incident of sexual abuse when she was 11 years old which led her to a life of prostitution. "Buildings And Bridges," with its catchy chorus and sharp philosophizing, is the quickest attention-piquer, particularly with the sprinkles of salty language. Throughout, DiFranco's sharp way, both with her lyrics and her self-examination, is the guiding point, whether she's the needy lover on "The Diner," or the laissez-faire cynic of "Hell Yeah." Although it's too presumptuous to declare female folk artists such as Liz Phair the beacon of a wider trend, Ani DiFranco's Out Of Range is a welcome addition to that select crowd. —Megan McLaughlin

RYUICHI SAKAMOTO Soundbytes (Mesa, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, P.O. Box 5510, Glendale, CA 91221/818-841-8585)

—As the box set featuring Brian Eno's instrumental work shows the seeds of modern ambient and experimental, Soundbytes serves as a historical document of Ryuichi Sakamoto's continued influence on current trance, dance, dub and other forms of electronic music. Soundbytes culls pieces from Sakamoto's solo works from 1981-86 and one piece from last year, none of which were formally released in the States. One of Sakamoto's many gifts is his ability to make works of exquisite and exotic beauty out of harsh technology. What sounds like a clacking typewriter on "Replica" becomes the pleasant chattering percussion behind a distant web of keyboards that add warmth and soothing presence despite their obvious electronic nature.

POT VALIANT Transaudio (Iteration, c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—

From the first few plaintive guitar tones that open Transaudio, Pot Valiant dispels any musical notions which might stem from its previous association with punk rock label Lookout! (on which the band released its first single). Emphasizing melancholy over anger, and carefully drawn dynamics over pure volume, Pot Valiant draws more from the shoegazing shores of England or American torpor rockers than the Berkeley scene from which it emerged two years ago. Although it's not hard to point out bands with similar musical intentions, Pot Valiant is poised on its own ledge of poetic expression, marked with warm, subdued tones and a barely contained emotional urgency. Each of the nine songs on Transaudio fills its own vast space by melting huge, slow-motion guitar crashes with jangly, shifting melodies and soft vocal scapes. More immense than the album's sonic coating is its deeply sorrowful reflections, as capsulized in "Last Sun": "I think today is the last day/the clocks will stop at midnight/the walls will disappear/I'll never know that I was here." Also valiant: "Low Dexterity Points," "This Heaven Has Bars" and "Going."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Le Sacre Du Printemps (Gonzo Circus, c/o Soleilmoon, P.O. Box 83296, Portland, OR 97283-0296/503-335-0706)—At its 1913 Paris debut, Igor Stravinsky's ballet "Le Sacre Du Printemps" (The Rite Of Spring) caused a violent riot among an indignant audience; today it is hailed as one of the greatest musical works ever composed. In more recent times, a misunderstood musical movement once identified as "industrial noise" by both its practitioners and its detractors has increasingly become accepted through the incorporation of some of its elements into modern popular rock and dance music. This compilation is billed as an introduction to the Staalplaat label (started in the early '80s with artists such as Laibach, Chris & Cosey and the Hafler Trio), and its associate labels (Soleilmoon, Multimood,

CHECK OUT ELLIS CLARK & BIG PARADE ON CMJ'S (CERTAIN DAMAGE) COMPACT DISC (VOL 56) IN APRIL

Cold Meat Industry) in an attempt to reach a wider audience. Indeed the disc is extremely accessible; the inclusion of a few well known names (Sonic Youth's Lee Ranaldo, Muslinguaze, Anna Homler), a lovely 36-page booklet of friendly, informative interviews, and the programming of tracks in a flowing thematic order make this sampler attractive to the adventurous novice as well as the experienced experimental enthusiast. The disc starts off with quiet ambient tracks with primitive rhythmic drumming (Deutsch Nepal, Vidna Obmana, Morthound) and moves on to several tracks of accompanied spoken word (of which the highlight is Elvis Peeters & Fred Angst, with melodic guitar, woodwinds and piano) and ends with a relentlessly heavy (and scary) track by Buddha Building.

CORDS GASPING (EP) (TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—It's going to be yet another European tour before the Holland natives known as the Cords get back into the studio to record their follow up to Taurus, No Bull. In the meantime, they've released the GASPING EP to hold us over. While the covers of the Guess Who's "American Woman" and Sabbath's "Snowblind" are competently tackled in the Cords' own popnoisy grind, it is the four originals (including an alternate version of "GASPING") that are the real standouts here. For anyone who has never been to New York City, "Storm" is a perfect musical and lyrical chronicle of a first-time visit, its repetitive chorus ("My head swims/And I feel like/I'm falling over backwards") becoming increasingly enveloped in a swirling mass of swelling guitars and cymbal splashes. Simone Holsbeek's ever-commanding vocals recall Mia Zapata's, and sew a savage, yet melodic thread through the meaty instrumentation. —Aaron Clow

TERROR FABULOUS Yaga Yaga (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Now is the time to pay attention to Terror Fabulous and Yaga Yaga, because by summer's end, all you are likely to know of this record is the song "Action" and the eight-note keyboard riff it's built on. If you haven't heard, or rather, felt "Action" vibrating from some mammoth trunk-mounted subwoofer, trust us, you will. The song is a perfect meld of Terror Fabulous' gruff patois, Nadine Sutherland's sultry lilt, a loopy dancehall bassline and that aforementioned keyboard hook. Granted, all of Yaga Yaga is perfect subwoofer cannon fodder, but there is more here than another dancehall rapper climbing the (Shabba) ranks with naughty lyrics laid over ultra-low-frequency beats. "Miss Goody Goody" (featuring Maxi Priest) recalls the Folkes Brothers' "Oh Carolina" more surely than Shaggy's cover version, and songs like "You Nuh Kotch" are surrounded by thick wreaths of Studio One-style experimental dub. In fact, Yaga Yaga covers most of the recent styles of Jamaican music over its 57 minutes, drifting from hardcore dancehall to Jamaican pop R&B with admirable ease as it works Terror Fabulous' impenetrable patois and producer Dave Kelly's twisted keyboard hooks into your heart.

CYNICS Get Our Way (Get Hip, P.O. Box 666, Canonsburg, PA 15317/412-231-4766)—Although the world first heard from the Cynics in the midst of an '80s garage rock boom, they have made it clear that '60s-inspired three-chord dum-dum rock means more to them than corny medallions and a shaggy Rodney Bingenheimer hairdo. While most of their contemporaries have either jumped on some other trend or settled into the square life, boring co-workers with tales of how their cover of "Let's Talk About Girls" blew Plasticland's away, the Cynics have thrived undistracted in the relative musical isolation of Pittsburgh (the last like-minded band to come from Pittsburgh was probably the legendary Swamp Rats back in the mid-'60s, who were the heppiest cover band ever), perfecting their approach to every hyphenated sub-genre of '60s punk. Get Our Way has it all: psych-punk, jangly folk-punk à la Love's first album, the regulation "Try It"-type (sex or drug?) turn-on tune, and tons of straight-ahead fuzzed-out gassers. Essential to the overall vibe is vocalist Michael Kastelic, who understands that a real snot-nosed punk must maintain a tough guy swagger even in the midst of desperately ranting and raving about how badly he's got to get laid. The Cynics aren't doing anything new, they're just doing it right.

is to set up rock grooves. Not grooves in the funk sense of moving booty, but not quite rock riffs either—Slot's small, repeating rhythmic units don't emphasize melodic content enough for that. The band's crack rhythm section establishes a base of forward momentum for the songs, allowing the guitars to improvise over the equivalent of a drone (rather than a chord progression). The shouted male vocals are occasionally fairly generic, except when second singer Sue Lott joins in; "Lexington," a slow, atonal, Shudder To Think-like piece on which Lott takes the lead, is the EP's high point. Where Slot shines most is the places where it lets its instruments speak for themselves, like the multi-guitar pileup at the end of "Difficult" or the lengthy passage of "Emma Peel," where there's three different textures of guitar noise racheting the song along all at once.

THE WAKE (UK) Tidal Wave Of Hype (Widely Distributed, 1412 W. Touhy Ave., Chicago, IL 60626/312-465-2558)—
Simmering somewhat conspicuously beneath the pleasant Euro-pop dreamscapes of Tidal Wave

Of Hype is an ample amount of bitterness. There's a lot of dirty laundry aired here, with the prevailing winds blowing in the general direction of the band's former label, whom the band charges with major indifference. "I Told You So" seems particularly well-aimed, with lyrics like "It was like talking to a wall/You'll play to empty halls" squarely hitting the empirical mark. Lyrical stabs are also penned toward other assumedly former acquaintances; "Obnoxious Kevin" and "Crasher" not only getting a brief "no thanks" credit on the back cover of the album, but a deliciously vicious song titled after each of them as well. The music itself sparkles vividly throughout, with tracks like "Major John" highlighting guitarist/vocalist Caesar's Stephen Duffy-ish enunciations as airy synth melodies seamlessly blend into the backdrop of distant, scintillating guitar. Other bittersweet delights: "Down On Your Knees," "Britain" and "Back Of Beyond."

T.A.G.C. Iso-Erotic Calibrations (Anterior Research Recordings, c/o Side Effects, P.O. Box 83296, Portland, OR 97283/503-335-0706)—You might remember T.A.G.C. from some years back, when it was the Anti-Group, an experimental electronic project with ambitious designs and ties to Clock DVA. Iso-Erotic Calibrations, as you might guess from the title, finds T.A.G.C. as ambitious as ever, gently tying a blindfold around its audience to do God knows what to them. These seven, mostly instrumental tracks are loosely tied together by themes of mysticism, sexuality and creepy psychic weirdness. Musically, it's as rich as chocolate mousse laced with hallucinogens. Synthesizers swoop, purr, jitter and clonk; every so often, human voices can be heard, or imagined. The album's 10-minute centerpiece, "Nuerological Engineering" [sic], is a claustrophobic single-note pound interrupted repeatedly by an authoritative voice saying "brainwashed—programmed—manipulated." "Psychophonophilia" has a woman's gasps separated by minutes of unsettled, irregular droning and pulsing—are they sexual? pained? a struggle with madness? Play one of these pieces behind your concert report, and wait for your listeners to call in spooked.—Douglas Wolk SNOOKY PRYOR In This Mess Up To My Chest (Antone's, 500 San Marcos, Austin TX 78702/512-322-0617)—In the new release section of the blues bins these days, there's albums that sound like they were recorded yesterday, albums that sound like they were recorded 20 years ago (and many of them were), and albums that sound so timeless and perfect that on first listen, you can't figure out from which city, studio or decade they came. Well, veteran blues harmonica man Snooky Pryor's latest, In This Mess Up To My Chest, is definitely one of the latter, a consummate blues excursion that never lets up in intensity from start to finish, from the jumping "Bury You In A Paper Sack" to the sluggish "Pay For All Our Sins" to the funky "Stick Way Out Behind" (after scanning the song titles, it probably need not be said that Pryor's blues is not all doom, gloom and despair, but possesses plenty of the wit and humor that are equally important characteristics of the genre). The best moments in this Mess come when Snooky just wails on his harp out in front of the band, which includes ubiquitous bluesmen like Pinetop Perkins, Luther Tucker and Jr. Watson. Strongly recommended: "Can I Get A Witness," "Judgement Day," "Bluebird Blues," "Slow Down Baby" and Pryor's surprising take on "When The Saints Go Marching In."

ZISKAKAN Ziskakan (Mango, c/o Island, address above)—Ziskakan, led by lead vocalist Gilbert Pounia, comes from the 1000 square-mile island of Reunion, which is off the east coast of Africa. Ziskakan is a world music group using both native and Western instruments, but which chooses to sing in its native tongue, Creole. The meaning of the lyrics, therefore, becomes secondary to their presentation, which Pounia delivers with passion and the help of various back-up singers. The music swoops and glides with emotion and vibrancy, as in "Kala," which builds into a delightfully rich mesh of percussion and melody. "Somin Paradi" achieves a mellow, upbeat groove, the soft background chanting matching the light drums. The emotional whole of Ziskakan is that of a summer party that's relaxed and laid-back, but contains a lively edge. Ziskakan's style of international music is going to be showcased on the Africa Fête '94 tour this summer, so that those outside Reunion will have the chance to see this dynamic band.

JACKPOT EXTRA!

SUNDOWNERS Goat Songs (7" EP) (Sea Note, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-455-1015)—We were told that this band was from Winnipeg, Ontario, and was signed on the basis of demo tape. A nice story, but the Sundowners sound suspiciously like just another guise of the ever elusive Will Oldham and crew, who have evolved from Palace Brothers to Palace to Palace Songs in fewer than six months. Goat Songs does differ from the Palaces' work, taking more liberties with distortion and occasionally incorporating vocals from people besides Oldham. The songs vary drastically. "Tonight Will Be Fine" is distorted to Ween-ish proportions and "Goat Songs" includes many snippets played forwards and backwards before the actual tune begins. "Pozor" showcases Oldham at his smoothest (vocally) and is enhanced by a clean, clear recording, while "Tallulah"'s beautiful melody would have complimented the incredible "Ohio Riverboat Song" if it weren't for its Fisher-Price recording. —Dawn Sutter

DUB NARCOTIC SOUND SYSTEM "Fuck Shit Up" (7") (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507/206-786-1594)—You might want to be careful about putting this one on the air—the pseudo-"Make It Funky" chant of "make it fucked up" that runs through the whole record could be a bit dangerous. Unlike Dub Narcotic's first single, "Fuck Shit Up" isn't dub in the familiar sense—it's soul-funk (with what's definitely the coolest groove ever heard on a K record), not a reggae record. What it has picked up from Jamaican pop is casualness, a sense that going into a studio and banging out something in four minutes over a pre-recorded backing track (this one was also used a few times on the band's Hands On The Dial tape) can result in something great. Beat Happening's Calvin Johnson's intoning another manifesto ("Waste a bouncer/Forty-ouncer!") in his over-miked basso voice, someone's playing some awesome soul organ, and this is hugely fun. —Douglas Wolk

k.d. lang "Lifted By Love" (5") (Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 90510)—From the white and pastel shot of lang reclining, glamour-esque, on the front cover to the sumptuous grooves found on the single from Even Cowgirls Get The Blues, "Lifted By Love" reeks of disco, California style. As usual, lang's voice is lush and redolent with emotion, culling a subtle nuance with each twist her voice takes. The irrepressibly campy cover of Streisand's "No More Tears (Enough Is Enough)," with guest vocals from Erasure's Andy Bell, makes lang's transition to sumptuous songstress complete. —Megan McLaughlin BLANKET "Ocean" (7") (Cher Doll, P.O. Box 9609, Seattle, WA 98109)—If Blanket were a real blanket, it would be huge and soft, with satin edges and little prickly bits woven into it to keep it interesting. "Ocean" is an overwhelming, deliberate monsoon of guitar rush, drone and feedback, with all-too-human drumming and simple bass and vocals guiding the torrents of guitar along the song's two-chord course. "Picked Apart," on the B-side, is almost as enveloping, with Acetone-like simplicity, a more subdued mood and near-drowsy harmonies interspersed with glistening, soaring solos. —Douglas Wolk

VERY PLEASANT NEIGHBOR/GEEZER LAKE "The Boy With Only One Head"/"Applearc Skin" (7") (D-Tox, P.O. Box 5655, Greensboro, NC 27435)—Very Pleasant Neighbor could be NYC's best kept secret. Don't let the goofy title fool you; "The Boy With Only One Head" is a sonic pop nugget. Intermingling a catchy guitar riff with delicious female crooning, this is an energetic, frolicking masterpiece. On the flipside, Geezer Lake provides an interesting foil to V.P.N.'s pop lunacy. Wavering between delicate crafting and harried bashing, the band explores the thin barrier between chaos and tranquility. One of the most diverse song's Geezer Lake has recorded, it is also one of the best. Clocking in at a total of 10 minutes, this single is a supple introduction to two bands with plenty more to say. —Bryan McNamara

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Amazing Phantom Third Channel (7" EP) (Cher Doll, address above)—This is a follow-up of sorts to the Those Pre-Phylloxera Years compilation of a few months ago, this time much more concentrated on pop songs. The highlight of this four-song EP is "Up And Over We Go," a concrete statement of abstract hope by one-man-band Neutral Milk Hotel. It's a 90-second home-recorded wonder that's all hook, as instantly catchy as the best Chris Knox songs. Also noteworthy are Crayon's playfully terror-stricken screech "Too Much Sugar" and Paste's brief, ultra-lo-fi "Nickels." —Douglas Wolk

NONPAREILS Nonpareils (P.O. Box 423, Providence, RI 02901-0423)—There are so many bands that end up sounding like something that we've all heard before that it becomes easy to convince oneself that everything's already been done before. This makes it infinitely refreshing to hear a band that sounds totally original, yet totally unassuming at the same time. Providence's Nonpareils are just the ticket for ears looking for something new and fresh, but built out of simple parts. Their four-song demo, humbly recorded on an eight-track (Dave Auchenbach from Small Factory helped out with the recording) showcases a homespun strum-and-drum aesthetic that isn't that far from the K or Scat schools of thought, except for one difference—well, how can we put it politely—the members of Nonpareils know how to play their instruments. "Inside" is as mesmerizing a web of guitars and boy/girl vocals as we've heard in ages (it's almost as good as early Pylon, really), while "Lilian" is a memorable romp of catchy pop recalling the finest moments of Antietam or even Christmas. Though it's hardly a deliberate imitation, singer and guitarist Ted (we're all on a friendly first-name basis on the J-card) often evokes Tom Verlaine, while his counterpart Lisa adds a disarming charm that prevents the band from sounding ordinary or pretentious. —James Lien

FYI

The Bay Area has been home to many a power pop band, and MK ULTRA (c/o Artichoke, 373 Eureka, San Francisco, CA 94114/415-753-5290) follows in their footsteps. The band's self-titled debut (its moniker was taken from the name of a CIA-run drug experimentation program of the 1950's) reeks of clean cut pop, with just enough edge to keep things interesting. Taking its occasional odd noises to heights of catchiness, MK Ultra brings to mind the works of fellow California rock stars Pavement. But MK Ultra lies more on the pedestrian side of art rock, refusing to take chances at every turn. Its song structures are based on simplicity, which works in the band's favor. Songs like "Far From The Fishes" and "Swollen River" are brimming with hooks that immediately grab the listener's attention, while tunes like "Crimson Spider" meander, and occasionally get lost. MK Ultra displays the glitches of a first album, but does a fine job of focusing the listener's attention on its no-nonsense pop tunes. —D.I.Y.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). NEW indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position. #6-10: increase of at least 1. #11-20: increase of 2 or more. #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

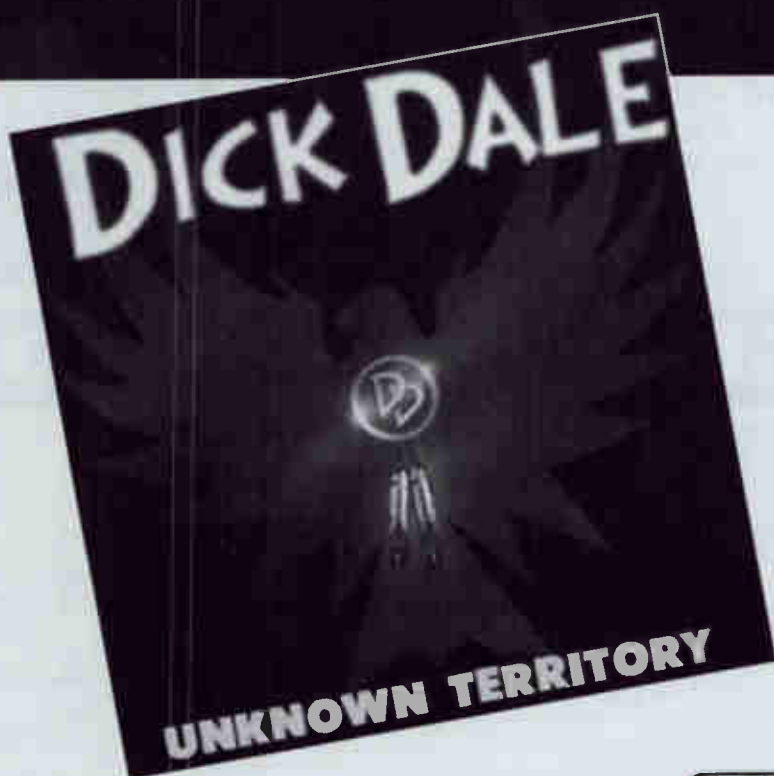

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). NEW indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position. #6-10: increase of at least 1. #11-20: increase of 2 or more. #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

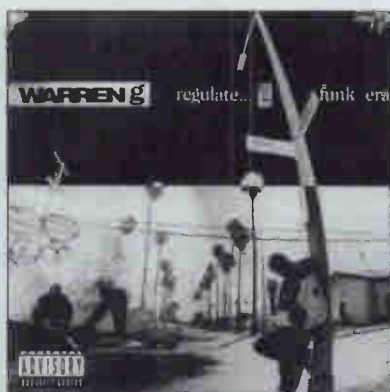

Though they're battling Sonic Youth on the radio Top 150, Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys make a fuss at retail and keep the #1 spot, along with the top In-store spot. Meanwhile, Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots sneak into the #2 position (48-2) and ZTT/Sire-WB's Seal holds steady at #4. Both Reprise's Green Day (7-6) and DGC's Counting Crows (8-7) crawl up one spot this week. Radioactive's Live hops up 11-9, making room for A&M's Soundgarden to re-enter the top 10 (12-10).

MCA's Boston makes a debut with a new album at #15. Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G, little brother of Dr. Dre, appears for the first time at #22. From the U.K., Volume's Trance Europe Express 2 compilation enters at #48. Big Drill Car's first record for Headhunter-Cargo shows up at #67 and the premier album from Bar/None's Tindersticks is at #71.

Both Atlantic's Collective Soul (23-13) and Epitaph's Offspring (21-14) are leaping up the chart after nine weeks of release, while Lollapalooza headliners Smashing Pumpkins on Virgin remain strong (25-20) even after 46 weeks on the chart. American's Johnny Cash finds a receptive new audience and jumps from 31-21. Also on the move: Scat-Matador's Guided By Voices (43-30), Maverick/Sire-WB's Candlebox (30-23), Charisma's Enigma (41-34), Matador's The Fall (65-55) and 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Mekons (70-59). RETAIL FOCUS

WARREN G

Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G has made a reputation for himself as a producer, working with the likes of Snoop Doggy Dog and Dr. Dre. His first solo album, Regulate... G Funk Era, enters at #22 its first week on the chart, making it the #2 Breakthrough. Warren G applies his now-familiar G Funk style to his own work, coming up with a solid album full of hits, his raps smoothed over by the soul of funk. With all of its strengths (it's already #2 on Billboard's Hot 100!), Regulate... is sure to continue its way up the chart.

DOPE!

ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT Zingalamaduni (Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—With the release of 1992's uncanny 3 Years, 5 Months & 2 Days In The Life Of... Arrested Development single-handedly put consciousness back into rap. Following the paths of leading men like Chuck D. and KRS-One (and everyone who inspired them), Speech's messages of spiritual upliftment and empowerment have worked to liberate, and lead people into taking an active role in creating change—except his are done within tuneful, earthy designs. Speech is a living example of musical activism, speaking like a prophet against all that prohibits the struggle. Zingalamaduni (Swahili for "beehive of culture"), the group's second studio album, further demonstrates the power of "life music." Where most rappers passively sit back and perpetuate the same tired stereotypes, AD boldly beats the drum for a cultural revolution that will include all races—just listen to "United Minds." Raising awareness with positive, often beautiful psalms from the motherland ("Pride"), Speech and his cast of rappers, singers and dancers, along with spiritual advisor Baba OJE, showcase African culture under a sunshower of wisdom and lush, musical statements that mixes live and sampled music. Comparisons to the group's first album are inevitable, but AD appears to be less affected by monetary gains and more interested in knowing that people out there are listening. AD sinks its feet back into the soil ("Ease My Mind"), welcomes new members into the family (such as DJ Kwesi) and soldiers forward with a masterful work. Tune in to: "United Front," "Africa's Inside Me" and the soulful "Praisin' U." (GS)

BEATNUTS The Beatnuts (Violator, c/o Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—After one listen to the self-titled long player by New York's Beatnuts, it's easy to hear that they're students and incurable addicts of hip-hop. Before releasing the Intoxicated Demons EP in 1993, Juju and Psycho Les were scavengers of dusky beats, making basement tapes for the underground before meeting Afrika from the Jungle Brothers, who introduced them to the Native Tongue posse (whose influence can be heard on "Straight Jacket"). Since those days, the Beatnuts have produced tracks for Monie Love, Chi Ali, Ice-T, Kurious and Naughty By Nature, among others, and have successfully made the transition from studio magicians to funky, hardcore lyricists, thanks to the skills of MC Fashion. Like its bilingual counterparts Cypress Hill, the Beatnuts pile the LP high with intricately constructed hardcore funk beats, seasoned with jazzy overlays and ambient sound effects. But don't let the oversized hoodies and Timberland boots fool you: the Beatnuts, with a tongue-in-cheek sense of humor, put plenty of

ILLMATIC RULES THE WORLD: Even this kill-joy didn't think Columbia's Nas (1-1) would be able to hold off PayDay/frr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (2-2) for this long, but he has. While little in the top five has changed—the exception being Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys, who move 6-5—the top 10 is invaded by Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts, who debut their self-titled album at #9. While Big Beat's Artifacts climb from 19-11, the second highest debut goes to Chrysalis-EMI's Arrested Development, which lands Zingalamaduni at #14. Also making debuts this week are Jive's Aaliyah at #18 with Age

Ain't Nothin' But A Number, III/American-Tommy Boy's Kwest Tha Madd Lad at #31, Blunt-TVT's Mic Geronimo at #32, Weeded-Nervous' Mad Lion at #36 and the long-awaited return of Def Jam/RAL-PG's Public Enemy at #40 with "Give It Up." This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Extra Prolific; 2) Warren G; 3) MC Eight Featuring CMW; 4) House Of Pain; 5) Gravediggaz; 6) MC Solaar; 7) Nas; 8) Outkast; 9) Champ MC; 10) Dred Scott. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

emphasis on tricky wordplay, which might sound like esoteric babble to the untrained ear. Hardcore by design, cuts like "Props Over Here," "Superbad" and "Fried Chicken" show how the crew can turn ordinary street jargon into brawny, articulate poetry the same way Scarface can get beneath the surface of gangster rap. With 17 tracks to choose from, we recommend "Hellraiser," "Are You Ready" (featuring Grand Puba) and "Get Funky," while we had second thoughts after hearing "Lick The P*ssy." (GS)

PAPA CHUK The Badlands (Pendulum, c/o EMI, address above)—Coming from Austin, Texas, is Papa Chuk, a forceful MC who mixes both old and new school beats, sometimes rhyming over a bass line and drum loop, and other times working with a denser production recalling Public Enemy's more destructive moments. Lyrically, he covers many areas, such as on the first single "The Desolate One," where he discusses being black in Texas: "I'm lost in the badlands trying to find my culture/Beat by the heat/And zapped by the ultra-violet rays." On a more serious tip, "Lord Have Mercy" deals with child abuse, a topic rarely discussed in rap, and on "I.A.B.," Chuk admits to his fears of being enlisted. The serious-minded tunes are effective, while party cuts like "Make Way For The Rude Boy," "Some Ill Shit/Flip The Shit" and "Jailbait/Show Some I.D.," the hilarious ode to underage groupies, help balance the album out. —Brian Ives

LALAH HATHAWAY A Moment (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—Lalah Hathaway's second refreshing splash of R&B coolness is A Moment. As the daughter of R&B/soul singer Donny Hathaway, Lalah helped create her own identity on "Heaven Knows" from her self-titled 1991 debut. On A Moment, Lalah struts her stuff like the sultry R&B chanteuse she was always destined to be. On the tracks "These Are The Things (You Do To Me)" and "Better As A Memory," her vocals sound as genuine and heartfelt as ever, making gorgeous pop statements that never go overboard with generic vocal gymnastics. Other tracks deserving attention are the uptempo, toe-tapping "Lean On Me," the almost irresistible slice of funk served up Lalah-style on "Let Me Love," and the Chuckii Booker-produced, synth-heavy "Bad By Myself," about a failed relationship. With its smooth, pop production and sure-footed vocal steps, A Moment should garner the attention her debut sorely lacked. —Derrick Thomas/Glen Sansone

HOUSE OF PAIN "On Point" [108 BPM] (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—While Everlast is off becoming a Hollywood movie star (starring in Lowball), his finest skill continues to be the ability to send shock waves through a crowd with his rough 'n' tumble party joints as head of House Of Pain. From the upcoming Same As It Ever Was, "On Point" is a noise-looped, DJ Lethal-produced jam making full use out of sparse production and full-bodied beats. Everlast's voice is grittier than usual, but still filled with infectious metaphors, and in-your-face toughness. It's no "Jump Around," just its devilish son. (GS)

DON'T STRESS

Delicious Vinyl, after entering into a distribution deal with EastWest America, has compiled Natural Selections: A Compilation From Delicious Vinyl, featuring many sought-after tracks from its growing roster of artists (Delicious Vinyl, c/o EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019). With many alternate mixes (Masta Ace Incorporated's "Born To Roll" stands out), this smart compilation also includes the unreleased, melt-in-your-mouth grooves of "Country Funkin'" by the Brand New Heavies, and the Pharcyde's fat-free "Pork"... EXTRA PROLIFIC's "Brown Sugar" [92 BPM] (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016) is the fourth inscription by Oakland's Hieroglyphics crew. From his upcoming Like It Should Be, "Brown Sugar" relies heavily on nothing more than a big, stand-up bass sound and a Domino-produced (not the one from Long Beach), dimly-lit groove sampling Whodini's "I'm A Ho." While he's struggling to top the radio chart, there's still no stopping PayDay/ffrr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (1-1), although we believe the next king of the chart will come in the form of Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G, who moves Regulate... G Funk Era up 12-5. We also welcome in new releases from Jive's

Aaliyah at #13 with Age Ain't Nothin' But A Number, Ruffhouse-Columbia's Fugees (Tranzlator Crew) at #23 and Rap-A-Lot's Black Monks at #24. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

BLOWIN' UP

MC SOLAAR Prose Combat (Cohiba, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500) Radio Chart Position: #21—Though he's just beginning to make an impact in college radioland, MC Solaar is more than just a well-travelled rapper: he's one of France's biggest stars. His stateside debut, Prose Combat, is an ambitious effort exhibiting both lyrical proficiency and smartly-structured jazz/hip-hop beds. What's most refreshing of all is that 25-year-old MC Solaar comes to America speaking his native tongue, devoid of American influence. While he doesn't wallow in the violence or sexism in which American rap is submerged, he does know a strong rap when he hears one, and can go toe-to-toe with the best. In only its second week on the chart, Prose Combat slides from 35-21, landing top 10 reports at 14 out of 85 stations, and it's popular enough for the #6 Adventure Pick. This is a record that should not be missed, just ask these reporting stations: KAGU, KCRW, KHSU, KSMC, KVRX, WASU, WBCR, WLHA, WMLN, WQHS (#1), WRUW, WSHL, WTSR (#1) and WWPV in Colchester, VT. Jazz

Column by Gene Kalbacher
Chart compiled by David Newgarden

A week ago last Thursday, in living rooms and sports bars, much of Greater New York sat huddled around TV sets watching the hometown Rangers' bid for their first Stanley Cup in five decades. As midtown rocked, and ultimately waned, the Rangers succumbing in Game 5 at Madison Square Garden to the Vancouver Canucks, downtown bopped as another esteemed guest from beyond our borders made a rare stateside public appearance, and indeed a winning one. Holland's Gerry Teekens, producer and head of the highly lauded Criss Cross label, presided as the honored guest over an invitation-only soiree at a happening new jazzspot, Smalls, in Greenwich Village. Teekens beamed as he worked the room, accepting the well-wishes of players, media types and beautiful people and digging the sounds, in typically undemonstrative European fashion, as one Criss Cross artist after another ambled onto the stage. A large, squarely built man with a lantern jaw and prominent nose, the kindly mogul looked, his au courant attire notwithstanding, almost as if he'd stepped out of a 16th-century genre painting by fellow countryman Bruegel.

In various combinations, much of the Criss Cross roster took the stage in succession to celebrate the official opening of this new jazz club within skipping distance of the Village Vanguard and Sweet Basil, two bona-fide institutions up the block on Seventh Avenue South. A small (not to say tiny) room below street level, Smalls boasts an intimate, candle-lit mien with casual, European-style appointments. Tables and banquettes fairly envelop the stage, set at the far end of the room, affording an almost you-are-the-music feeling for patrons. Open since the third week of May, Smalls stands a strong chance of succeeding in the maw of Gotham's devouring, Grendel-like jazz scene. The reason: the music. Trendy, often lavish jazz clubs come and go in Gotham as fast-buck entrepreneurs with little knowledge of, nor respect for, the sounds of surprise quickly pay for their hubris. Smalls—clean, suitably dark, tasteful without being pretentious—is likely to make it largely on the basis of its bookings, handled by Brandon Stranzl.

Himself a guitarist, Stranzl knows the music, digs the music, puts the music first, and appears to see a glimmer of hope, not the proverbial pie, in the sky. The courtship of club and label—guitarist Peter Bernstein opened the room in May and, following the label showcase/swing-shindig, Stranzl expects to book a sizable number of Criss Cross artists in the weeks to come—portends a winning symbiosis. The Netherlands-based label, whose catalogue totals some 90 titles (distributed by Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-534-0700), has distinguished itself with its high, uncompromising standards in the mainstream-to-bop (and slightly beyond) category. Established veteran players such as Cedar Walton, Ralph Lalama and Philip Catherine coexist smartly with edgy, exuberant newcomers like Eric

ON THE CHART

The number one spot is recaptured by Verve-PG this time, the Roy Hargrove Quintet (2-1) knocking off Novus RCA's Maceo Parker (1-2). Elsewhere in the top 10, Elektra Nonesuch guitarist Bill Frisell rises 6-4, Columbia altoist Bobby Watson returns to the chart with a solid #6 re-entry and Elektra's David Sanborn jumps 10 notches (17-7). Also returning to the chart are Novus-RCA pianist Mulgrew Miller (#18), Don Was' Backbeat Original Score on Virgin (#21) and Henry

Threadgill's Black Saint import (#22). New sides from Blue Note-Capitol's Ralph Peterson (#23) and Milestone's Ronnie Cuber (#24) make debuts on the chart as Atlantic's Modern Jazz Quartet and Lloyd/Waiton/Williams/Higgins finally drop off the chart after long stints. Reporters, take note that there are two current World Saxophone Quartet albums; please be sure to specify which one you are reporting. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Alexander, Walt Weiskopf, Scott Wendholt and Billy Drummond. Because many Criss Cross artists live, and frequently work, in the Manhattan environs, the establishment of a home-base club of sorts works to everyone's advantage.

What Criss Cross lacks in experimentation it more than makes up for in high-level consistency. Teekens' ears are closely attuned to the vitality of Gotham's up-and-coming leaders, many of whom gain seasoning in the bands of established leaders. Some jazz fans question why so many New York jazz players record CDs in New York for a Dutch company whose releases are so hard to procure in New York. But the fact is, Teekens trusts his taste, and the artistry of his musicians, so much so that the label has gained the abiding respect of critics and listeners alike. The small numbers of Criss Cross import CDs that hit the racks go poof—jazz retail-rats don't seem to blink as they snap up these CDs at 17 smackers a pop. (Few critics, unfortunately, are serviced.) Because the label has gained the respect and trust of the CD-buying jazz public, customers are willing, indeed eager, to speculate on unknown, or lesser-known, new artists simply because they record for Criss Cross.

Their faith is never betrayed. Two emerging label tenorists, Eric Alexander and Tadd Shull, traded spirited shout chorus during one particularly expressive, crowd-pleasing exchange at the gala. Pianist Mike LeDonne and drummer extraordinaire Kenny Washington fashioned a centered, malleable pocket for a good portion of the evening as hornmen Joe Magnarelli (trumpet), Gary Smulyan (baritone) and Steve Wilson (alto), among many others, strutted their boppish, soulful stuff. Presented before their peers and a SRO crowd of radio biggies (among them Dorthann Kirk of WBGO-FM, the metro region's standard-bearing jazz station), celebrities (alto giant Lou Donaldson, who's been frequenting this joint of late) and new faces (the promising soprano singer Barbara Abbott), the Criss Cross artists came to play, and didn't disappoint.

Jazzbos who crave unalloyed swing tinged with plenty of personality and enough innovation to keep the sounds from getting tired, are heartily encouraged to delve into the Criss Cross label and check out their artists at Smalls. Among the latest issues are strong entries from altoist Wilson (Blues For Marcus, a quintet side with vibist Steve Nelson and pianist Bruce Barth), B-3 organ burner Mel Rhyne (Boss Organ, a barbecue platter with guitarist Bernstein and the hotly hip, hiply hot tenorist Joshua Redman), and drummer Billy Drummond (The Gift, a tasty quartet offering featuring pianist Renee Rosnes and a talented newcomer, saxist Seamus Blake).

JACKPOT!

HOSSEIN ALIZADEH Neynava/Song Of Compassion (Kereshmeh, 12021 Wilshire Blvd. #420, Los Angeles, CA 90025/e-mail: sdy@pongo.west.sun.com)—These are two very powerful works by this Iranian composer, both of which grow from moments of great despair and trial in his country: the Iraqi war years of the late '70s and early '80s, and the devastating earthquake near the northern border in 1990. Unlike the earlier releases of Alizadeh's work on Kereshmeh, which focused on his solo setar (a plucked instrument similar to the oud) and small ensembles, these are concerts for orchestras exploring vast spacial distance and intimate harmonic moments. Song Of Compassion is the most moving of the dozen works I have heard by this composer. Scored for singers and the Orchestra Of Indigenous Instruments Of Iran, it has a deeply-rooted traditional tone that is betrayed by adventurous new ideas for Persian music. Frame drums, dumbek, spike fiddle, setar, ney (flute) and balaban (an Azerbaijani double reed) offer a broad palette for the artist to draw from, and he paints a vivid portrait of both the hopelessness and despair of the earthquake and the determination and hope that comes from such trials.

Neynava means "sound of the flute." In it Alizadeh and the String Orchestra Of The National Radio And Television Of Iran explore the divergence and commonality of eastern and western classical music. Persian music is primarily monophonic, and the application of European harmony is usually a strained thing at best. But Alizadeh has managed to discover unique ways to bring the two together without diluting the beauty of either. Ney soloist Djamshid Andalibi uses the instrument with grace and authority, and the composers use of string parts, particularly the rhythmic potential of the cellos, is a dramatic, sometimes dark reinvention of Iranian traditions. I have played both of these pieces in their entirety on WPKN, and they have each elicited a lot of response from listeners. Do them the justice of the complete half hour of airtime each, instead of sampling sections. They are well worth your time.

KIM SINH The Art Of Kim Sinh (King World Music Library, c/o Koch International, 177 Cantiague Rock Road, Westbury, New York 11590/516-938-8080)—This series has been vast, with over 75 titles currently available, so you must forgive me if it took almost six months to finally take off the shrink wrap and discover one of the most impressive performers of far-eastern Asian music I have encountered in years. Kim Sinh plays dan nguyet, a two-string lute used in Vietnamese folk music, guitar and lap-steel guitar. He sings a popular folk style called gai luong, but imbues it with a rich vein of American blues and jazz (which he claims to have never heard!). Blind, a heavy smoker, an uprooted traveller from north to south who lived through wars with France, Japan, China and the U.S., Sinh has all the classic elements of a Howlin' Wolf or Robert Johnson. Even though the melodies and rhythms are different, the effect is the Wow! We have a new #1 on our hands, as RealWorld-Caroline's Sheila Chandra (2-1) overtakes Hannibal-Rykodisc's Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder (1-2). Though we're actually kinda sorry to see Ali dethroned (especially after last year, when his last album spent almost two weeks at #2 without ever hitting the top), we also don't think the honor could go to a more deserving artist than Chandra. One of the true giants in the history of Brazilian music, Gilberto Gil, now has two albums on our chart at the same time:

Tropicalia 2, the duet project from Caetano Veloso E Gilberto Gil on Elektra Nonesuch (5-4), and his own Acoustic on Atlantic, taped for Brazilian music television, debuting at #22. Our other new entries this week come from EastWest America's Terror Fabulous (#10) and Delicious Vinyl's Born Jamericans (#18), while RealWorld-Caroline's Doudou Ndiaye Rose returns to our charts at #21. (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) same down and dirty, lowdown feel of the blues. At 65 years of age, Kim Sinh deserves some of the international status afforded African guitarists like Ali Farka Toure. Maybe someone out there can introduce him to Ry Cooder?

GARMARNA Vittrad (Massproduktion, Box 377, S-851 06 Sunsvall, Sweden)—One of the highlights of my trip to the festival in Vaasa, Finland, last summer was a club date by this devastating folk-rock band from Sweden. This young band had all the attitude of a heavy rock band, but its sound was based on the nyckleharpa (keyed fiddle) and the vocal folk music of their country. In fact, the highlight of the trip was probably Emma Hårdelin, a soaring vocalist who captured the audience with her rock-infused folk flavored singing. Electric bass, acoustic guitars, fiddles and lots of unique, dense percussion pull together a band with a lot of punch tempered by occasional flights of quiet beauty. Vittrad is Swedish for "weathered" and there is a certain well-worn, beaten quality to the group's music, like an old board from a sunken ship that is being nailed onto a new vessel. As you read this, I am packing my bags to return to Scandinavia, and this is one of the bands I am hoping to rediscover.

MILTON CARDONA Bembé (American Clavé, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge MA 02140/617-354-0700)—His influence has been felt on dozens of recordings by American, European and Caribbean musicians, but rare is the chance to hear the master drummer in his own rite. Cardona has assembled a traditional Santería ensemble to sing and play 10 songs of the orishas (deities), a Caribbean musical-religious form derived from the Yoruba peoples of Africa after they were brought to the West. This is music of transcendence, drums and voices united with dancers to replay nothing less than the birth, life and death of the world, with all of its seriousness, humor, sadness, sex and joy.

TRANSPLANT OPERATIONS

Everybody makes music, and as the world gets smaller and smaller in the waning days of the century, the location that one hears the music is rarely an element of pure geography anymore. For instance, there's the music of Puerto Rico In Polynesia (Original Music, 418 Lasher Road, Tivoli, NY 12583/914-756-2767), or more precisely, Hawaii. Brought to the island in the early part of the century as contract laborers for big plantations, the community of Puerto Ricans in Hawaii is in some ways a historical library. The music they play has been little influenced by the popular innovations of the Caribbean, so the music of this Pacific population has an old quality and charm that has been lost back home. Cuatro, squeezebox, guitars and percussion are the mainstays of the music, with open, easy singing styles the commanding feature. The disc's 27 tracks provide polka, bomba, merengue and songs that reflect an old way of doing things in Puerto Rico, a way in which things are still being done in Hawaii.

I don't trust crazes in music, particularly "dance crazes." They are usually contrived and trivial, and only rarely explore any real new territory. But I understand the popular appeal and attraction of some of this stuff, so I'll offer two better suggestions for those of you determined to sample the samplers.

Rapso: A Brand New Dance Craze From Trinidad (Moonshine, c/o MNW, P.O. Box 71, S-185 00 Vaxholm, Sweden) is pretty self-explanatory, a rap-soca fusion that is exactly what I expected from a studio-generated style. What Is Bhangra? (Nachural, c/o I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012) is a mix of Punjabi sounds with disco, and in the '70s and '80s it was an insane blend of styles ready-made for an Indo-London population of youth looking for liberation from its roots while still maintaining an Asian identity. This album represents the second generation of bhangra, with a heavier emphasis on western pop, rap, hip-hop and ska, and far less emphasis on the Indian roots of earlier bands like Alap.

Clifford Sylvain has been looking for the connections between pop dance and Haitian rhythms for many years, and his band RARA MACHINE epitomizes the idea of fusing traditional ideas to new machines on Voodoo Nou (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763). The singing is great, the rhythms are dynamic and the songs are strong, often political. This is almost a great record of Afro-Caribbean funk and groove. So why do I complain? It's my usual problem, of course: the poor use of modern technology. There are far too many samples of drums, horns and marimba-like, silicon-bosed cheesy-food products, and they drown what could otherwise be great music in a backwash of electronic effluence.

INTERNETING THE GLOBE

I have been slowly learning my way around the broader Internet world of Usenet, gopher,archie and veronica in the last few months, and I am finding some interesting folks are out there with plenty of valuable information. For beginners, check out a few of the User groups like rec.music.afro-latin, alt.music.world and rec.music.celtic, each of which can have anywhere from ten to a thousand messages a day about music from folks all over the world, the folks who make the music in the place from which it comes. There are also some interesting radio discussions happening, on mailing lists and user groups alike. Drop me some e-mail if you're already hooked up, or drop me a letter if you are thinking about it. My e-mail goes to: c.furnald@genie.geis.com.

CRUCIAL!

MORGAN HERITAGE Miracle (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—It looks like Ziggy and Stephen Marley and their brothers and sisters may have some competition in the reggae offspring category besides Andrew Tosh, namely from the eight siblings who make up the Morgan Heritage. Comprised of the sons and daughters of reggae veteran Denroy Morgan, and ranging in age from 14 to 25, Morgan Heritage is a roots-strong outfit that's turned in an admirable album which is sure to go down as one of the year's finest moments in reggae music, if not as a perennial classic for all time to remember. After a rousing performance at Sunsplash two years ago, the Morgan Heritage was almost literally signed backstage after the show, and now, over a year and a half later, comes its debut, Miracle. This is where modern conscious reggae is headed—technologically savvy and aware of the times, but not falling into the trap of replicating overproduced modern sounds, or losing sight of its aims by trying to keep pace with underground dancehall or streetwise hip-hop. Featuring cameos from vocalist Nona Hendryx, Donald Kinsey (guitar) and riddim twins Sly & Robbie, these nine Morgan Heritage originals are augmented by a soulful, contemporary reworking of Al Green's "Love And Happiness." And while the album does have a bit of a pop sheen to it, it's still a spirited performance that transcends genres and styles, keeping true to its deeper roots and the strong reggae foundation instilled in the group by the siblings' father. Look for the Morgan Heritage on tour throughout this summer.

BLACK UHURU Strongg (Mesa, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, P.O. Box 5510, Glendale, CA 91221/818-841-8585)—Ever since the reunion of original members Carlos and Garth Dennis and Duckie Simpson rejoined forces in 1987, and their subsequent signing with Mesa/Mesa/Bluemoon, it's been a blazing trail of success for Black Uhuru; seldom in any genre has a decades-old band experienced such a rejuvenation and come back to such strong acclaim. Strongg, Uhuru's latest opus, continues its amazing reggae legacy to some extent, in spite of the many years separating the group from its fiery, early work of the late '70s, which was compiled on last year's excellent Mango anthology. In fact, this is basically a contemporary R&B album with reggae tinges and undercurrents, which should come as little surprise to those who have heard Black Uhuru's releases over the last few years. Lyrically, the group stays true to its roots, but oftentimes the resonance of the message seems diluted amidst the swirling keyboards and synthdrum sounds that dominate the album. It's not that Strongg is a bad record—some of the tunes are quite strong beneath the glitz, and it's sure to be remembered come Grammy-time—but even under the broadest definition of reggae, which holds that anything Jamaican qualifies for the genre, it's still a long way from the strength and triumph of the band's classic years. There are many great moments to be found on Strongg, but one can't help but wonder if perhaps a live album along the lines of a Steel Pulse or Alpha Blondy would be in order to rejuvenate the band, and reaffirm its rightful place in reggae's rich legacy.

MACKA B Here Comes Trouble (Ariwa, c/o RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—Though he's not the most newsworthy of reggae artists, Macka B is nonetheless a strong-spoken champion of rights and truth. Like Mutabaruka or Linton Kwesi Johnson, Macka B writes poetic lyrics that are vivid depictions of reality, confronting the listener with ideas, forcing him or her to grapple with the tough questions and ideas he's asking. Like most of his recent albums, it features soft and bubbly electronic production from Mad Professor. As a result, it's a little bit interchangeable with Macka B's several other Ariwa albums of the past few years, but one can hardly fault an artist for maintaining a consistent level of quality, even if it is a little bit predictable. To these ears, the best songs are the ones straying the furthest from the familiar Mad Professor sound, such as the title track, "Do The Butterfly" and the subtle oldies beat of "Crackpot" (note that the track listings on the back of the cover are out of sequence; check the CD or the inside for the correct order). As long as Macka B isn't afraid to take on issues head-on, he'll keep turning out releases of quality and substance, no matter what the trends of the times.

JACKPOT!

GEMINI The Beginning (EP) (Relief, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218, Chicago, IL 60622/312-642-8008)—Here

we are in June, the beginning of a season in which one can usually expect a dreadful paucity of good dance music, when along comes one of the best records of the year, Gemini's The Beginning EP. Along with Ray Barney's extraordinary Dance Mania label, Cajmere's Relief imprint is becoming the most respected dance indie in North America (and the western hemisphere for that matter). As we've been seeing over the last year or so, the best underground instrumental house is beginning to take on hard textures, while thankfully retaining a BPM range of 120-126, thus keeping the music well suited to the dancefloor. While the deep vocal and garage traditions are growing, the hard house sound originating from Chicago is providing the most vital and exciting moments in contemporary dance music. The Beginning EP is one incinerating example. "Klonopin" and "Klonopinless" (named after the popular anti-anxiety pills) are jagged electronic free-falls too raw for this world. "Klonopin" keeps the listener locked in the very state the drug eradicates, that moment before the roller-coaster flies over a peak and begins to plunge back to earth. With "Klonopin," the moment when your heart beats again is held at bay, the listener held in a constant state of anticipation and suspense. This record will be massive.

RANDOM ACCESS DJ Tools Vol.2 (EP)

(Relief, c/o Cajual, address above)—By now you probably think I'm on the payroll over at Cajual, but let me assure you that any label that can release two records this good in a week deserves all the attention they can get. This six-track incendiary device is another immaculately crafted set of house tracks that really takes no prisoners. "Action" in both its long and short versions is a crackling power generator, with a hard Chicago edge. With "Don't Stop Movin'" strongly reminiscent of the TSOP/Gamble & Huff sound and "MBO '94 Remix" reconstructing that Italian electronic disco anthem, "Dirty Talk" by Klein and MBO, this EP narrates house music's history of cultural hybridity, and it whips at 500 watts. With the release schedule really picking up over at Relief, the usual summer dance drought may not occur this year.

INDEPENDENT MEANS

It's no coincidence that the number of domestic dance records appearing in this space is increasing rapidly. Scarcely a week goes by in which a pile of truly progressive tracks from the North American continent does not cross this door. DJ SNEAK's debut, the riproaring Beetz And Noizez EP, is doing damage straight out of the box. Beetz And Noizez contains four tracks of pared-down warehouse tracks that worm their way into your nervous system in a most un-subtle fashion. The deranged "Fear The World" is a jumpy, whirling fusion of synth daggers and percolating, kick-drummed hiccups, while "Do It" balances a scant, hesitant keyboard hook above the encroaching, climbing drums. Records this good really make you wonder just how many incredible house producers are still hidden in the west and south sides of Chicago, waiting to emerge to an increasingly

ON THE CHART

While the Sire-WB's Aphex Twin goes down (1-3), Astralwerks-Caroline's Future Sound Of London (3-1) reaches the top of the chart this week, with WHITE-LBLS-american's Messiah hanging in at #2. We see a big jump this week from the fourth installment of Moonshine's U.K. breakbeat compilation Speed Limit 140 BPM Plus Four (25-10). Japanese trance artist Susumu Yokota's debut full-length on Planet Earth enters the chart at #11 by way of his original

German label, Harthouse. The long-dormant Opus III reappears with an album for EastWest America, which debuts at #15. This week's two other new entries are from 21st Circuitry's Xorcist at #23 and "Tree Frog" by Hope at #25. Bubbling under this week: Derrick Carter, Best Of Zoth Omnog, Kooki and Insides. receptive dance community (Defiant, 6560 W. Fullerton, Chicago, IL 60647/312-342-4350)...The consistently inventive PHUTURE collective has just burrowed another crater in the earth with "Mental Breakdown" (12"), which comes in four mixes. Jump right to the "Doctor Traxx" mix which keeps the energy compressed and dense, while "Roy's 303 Mix" splices bubbling acid between the smoky, distant snare hits and rumbling bassline (Strictly Rhythm, 1650 Broadway, Suite 312, New York, NY 10019 212-246-0026)...Who are the mysterious producers behind the stunning "I'm Your Brother" by ROUND ONE? With a beautiful vocal lament reminiscent of Harold Melvin and obtrusive, melodic Hammond strokes, this a wonderfully rich vocal track that is already receiving well-deserved attention (Main St., c/o Record Time, 25110 Gratiot Ave. Roseville, MI 48066/810-773-7373)...ROBERT HOOD's last project was the celestial, breathtaking Minimal Nation EP. The follow-up, the Protein Valve EP by M-Plant, has a similarly lean aesthetic, though the spaces between drum pulses open into graceful keyboard pirouettes, only momentarily touching the earth's surface. The apparent simplicity of Hood's music belies its extraordinary complexity and rhythmic force. The way his tracks move, Hood is as much a choreographer as a dance music producer (M-Plant c/o Record Time, address above)...Last but not least: The brilliant, yet overlooked, 430 West label has released the magical "Keep Your Head Up" by UNIT 2, a double 12" of deep garage vocal house which does New Jersey proud. Production help from the three Burden brothers just makes this all the more enjoyable. Not a mix wasted here, each one with a similarly expansive and gliding quality (430 West, 16915 Parkside St., Lower Level, Detroit MI 48221/313-342-6425).

JACKPOT!

18TH DYE Done (Che, P.O. Box 653, London E18 2NX, U.K./081-530 8381)—

A German-Danish band which sings in English, 18th Dye makes the most out of its no-fixed-abode constituency with a sound as free and loose as it comes. With a belief in eco-anarchism and 'volume provoking life', Done is a prime electrical rockular crackle, with the kind of pure sensation hit reminiscent of the Flying Nun sound—tight-knit trio, boy/girl vocals, rumbling, chugging rhythms, basement guitars, low-fi in intent but a hi-flying result, with an Iain Burgess production (one pretty failsafe seal of quality) that maximizes the voltage charge. "Merger" and "To A Sunny Day" exemplify 18th Dye's love of the dreamy-druggy melody spin of the Sonic Youth/Mary Chain axis, blurring guitars but then "Whole Wide World" and "Can You Wink?" are first cousins to The Clean's garage-pop-cool-fun thrillscape, whereas "Either" and "9 Out Of 10" are monster feedback machines with buried pop tonality and cloud-lining harmonies/harmonics. "Dive" switches between the three modes, Sebastian Buttrich's fuzztone guitar escalating against Piet Brienholm Bendtsen's mantra-thrash drums—easily the album's high point, though "Tar" is a gorgeous, velveteen pop bollard to close on. Imagine a shoe-gazing concept but with personality, variety and an emphasis on 'fun' without the obstacle of 'attitude', but also without losing grip of that necessarily moody rock tension—that's Done. The album was actually recorded in 1992 but 18th Dye's live U.K. debut was made up of the same ingredients; the trio evidently still loves playing with the basics.

TINDERSTICKS 8th February 1994

Amsterdam (Tippy Toe, P.O. Box 1872, London W10 5ZS, U.K.)—

Limited to 2000 on CD and 2000 on 10" vinyl and only available on mail order (for £6 including post and packaging), Tindersticks' live album is bound to become much sought-out. Like Nick Cave and the Triffids, their closet relations, Tindersticks are lost and found in their own world, somewhere not unlike Amsterdam, a perfect setting for the band's folk-rock Euro-mantic gothic—murky canals, red lights, cobbled bridges, the high life and the low life, beer and cigarettes, without the extremes of Paris' beatnik cabaret or Berlin's seedy noir but somewhere in between. The band's sashaying mix of understated guitar, swirling organ, piercing violin, peppery trumpet and Stuart's lugubrious, dank vocals are amplified and enriched in a live setting, the song's emotions bleeding out of the frame, and Stuart sounding like the next cigarette won't stop his hands from shaking. The nine-song set takes in early singles like "Marbles" and "Milky Teeth," later covers like Townes Van Zandt's "Kathleen" and album selections like "Jism" and "Raindrops," with "Blood" the most desperate and "For Those" the most devotional. Another beautiful hand-printed cover too.

PULP Masters Of The Universe (Fire, 21A Maury Road, London N16 7BP U.K./081-806-9922)—

Having worked with Pulp through many frustrating years of hold-ups, accidents, poverty and sales falling woefully short of acclaim, Fire Records experienced a bittersweet sensation, seeing Pulp hit critical and commercial mass after departing the roost. Following in the footsteps of the recent and fab His'n'Hers, Masters Of The Universe collects four early Pulp EPs, recorded between 1985 and 1987, a wonderful reintroduction to the Sheffield band's illuminating idiosyncrasies, peculiarities and perversities. Back then, Pulp's Euro-pop brief hadn't developed its glam-pop, guitarbeat luster, relying more on ponderous, heavyweight balladry and imagery—sex is seedy and furtive here, not playfully fumbling like Jarvis Cocker's present preoccupations—with more pronounced art-rock awkwardness and abrasion, from the brilliantly doleful Walker Brothers hit of "Little Girl (With Blue Eyes)," to the cabaret "Dogs Are Everywhere" and "They Suffocate At night," the epically strained "Blue Glow" and "The Mark Of The Devil," a poppier signpost to the present. Strained, poetic, dreamy, ambitious, easily ahead of their time—masters of their universe indeed.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Moving house (note address at the bottom of the page) throws pop industry happenings into insignificant relief, even though I moved in a week when there were more good shows than at any other time in 1994. Luna/Drugstore, 3Ds/Palace Brothers, McAlmont (Thieves Of Old) and new Rough Trade signings Marion, Raincoats/Voodoo Queens, ex-Only Ones founder Peter Perrett (his post-junkie resurrection finally up and running at last, with his new band, The One), Creation's 10th anniversary show (including Bob Mould, Ride and Boo Radleys—I was at a wedding that night dammit) and ex-Love, ex-genius Arthur Lee. It was also the week that God Machine's bassist Jimmy Fernandez died (a migraine developed into a coma—no coronary report yet), Norway's Count Grishnackh was jailed for the murder of a fellow death metallist, a rift between Suede's singer Brett Anderson and guitarist Bernard Butler was strenuously denied (but read the Vox magazine interview for Butler's inflamed feelings), Veruca Salt's great "Seether" single started getting mentions, new Manchester louts Oasis (drugs, drugs, drugs...Happy Mondayitis makes for an impossible-to-stifle YAWN) makes the cover of the NME and there was yet another story about the non-appearance of the supposedly amazing second Stone Roses album. A week is a short time in pop, isn't it?...18-year-old Welsh quartet GORKY'S ZYGOTIC MYNCI's Tatay album was a recent Overseas Jackpot! The Merched Yn Neud Gwallt Ei Gilydd EP is the group's sublime collection of college-minded psych-pop whimsy in the soft, avant-folk-jazz style of the '60s Canterbury set (Robert Wyatt, Syd Barrett, Kevin Ayers) and the Beach Boys. The title track (which translates as "Girls Doing Each Other's Hair") is several gorgeous pop songs in one, like a condensed Giant Steps; "Bos Angelica" and "Mewn" are happy to meander within one melody (just), though the atmosphere is still a kindergarten group let loose in the adults' music room; "When You Laugh At Your Own Garden In A Blazer" is Gorky at its trippiest, most nursery-rhyme enchanting, the kids undertaking musical therapy, their voices coalescing and caressing like stoned angels. It's all utterly irresistible and beguiling, in an it-must-be-in-the-water manner; miss at your peril (Ankst, Gorffwysfa, Heol y Bedyddwyr, Pengroes, Gywynedd, Wales LL54/0286-881010)...Joint single of the column is the double A-sided "In The Grove Again"/"River Of Gold" from Birmingham quartet OUT OF MY HAIR. This is the prettiest electro-acoustic folk-pop in a month of Sundays, sunblissed and wistful, a dollop of West London troubadour to a soupçon of Greenwich Village strumming producing a Simon & Garfunkel-style feel of infinite charm. Central member Simon Eugene has the looks, curly hair, honeyed voice, arranging skills and airplay-friendly momentum to take it as far as it can go (BMG (UK), Bedford House, 69-79 Fulham Road, London SW6, U.K./071-973-0011)...From Southern Ireland, FAR CANALS are a new, acclaimed trio with a penchant for the unpredictability skewed. The debut EP All Fluffed Up covers rough, ramshackle terrain with Frank X. Hibit's scratchy guitar, through the folkish, infectiously disjointed gait of "Glorious," the thrasher buzz of "Mother's Milk Express," the loping, hypnotic instrumental "USA '94" to "Way Out West Past Rosaveal," which weaves a wayward, strung-out path with a story of drugs washed up on a beach and subsequent consumption. It contains the immortal line "I feel like I'm fucking Satan." Therapy?'s debut mini-album concluded with "James Joyce fucked my sister" and we all know what happened to them. Licensing offers at the ready (Hunter S., P.O. Box 3373, Dublin 4, Ireland/353-1-6604655)...Still in Southern Ireland, from Cork, EMPEROR OF ICE CREAM's second single, the double A-sided "Skin Tight"/"Know Me," reveals a simple, unsensational guitar-suffed quartet—the former is neatly contained noise-pop against the latter's sweeter guitar-pop—Bob Mould and the Beatles in their record collections, presumably—though "Grow As You Are" is more of a slowburning stadia epic. It's all a little too 'developed' from the debut single, and the direction taken is a bit too long in the tooth, but the jury is still out (Blow Discs, 4 Cahergal Ave., Ballyvolane Road, Cork, Ireland)...Bradford collective CHUMBAWAMBA has changed from its agit-rock roots—its politicized, wolfish anger now comes dressed up in dance-pop clothing. The self-explanatory "Omophobia" mimics the Pet Shop Boys version of the Village People's "Go West," electro-pop bounce, trilled chorus, gruff men's choir backup and all, but "Homophobia Acapella" reveals the melody's trad-folk undertow. "Morality Play In three Acts"—a punchy spoken diatribe against a trumpet funk/soul cushion like a sassy Fall—and "Song For Derek Jarman" (recently deceased U.K. film director)—a spacier synth-pop arrangement that liberally borrows from Dylan Thomas' poem "Rage Against The Dying Of Light" in its defense of AIDS sufferers fighting back—are more musically challenging. The effect is incongruous, bizarre even, almost uncomfortable in its risk-taking, but it still works. Glib conclusion: It doesn't matter what roof you're under, pop can still be a slice of magic realism (One Little Indian, 250 York Road, London SW18, U.K./071-924 1661).

CYCLONE TEMPLE

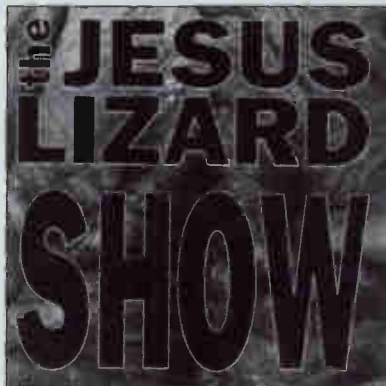

My Friend Lonely
(Monsterdisc, 1333 N. Kingsbury, Ste. 203, Chicago, IL 60622/312-266-5770)—

Unpredictable, destructive, powerful...the only sure thing about a cyclone is its inescapable devastation. My Friend Lonely twists and turns with tumultuous force, slamming through fast, thrashy beats and slow, rumbling grooves. With the help of production god Lee Popa (Living Colour, White Zombie, Ministry, Prong), Cyclone Temple crashes back onto the scene after a two-year absence with a new album, featuring three brand new tracks ("My Friend Lonely," "Comfortably Superficial," "Time Heals All") and five re-recorded tunes from the now out-of-print Building Errors EP. Guitarist/songwriter Greg Fulton is the driving force behind the entire album, which features heavy, crushing guitar riffs piercing through a downpour of thick instrumentation and the gruff howlings of vocalist Sonny Deluca, who sounds like a cross between Phil Anselmo and John Bush. "My Friend Lonely" intertwines jagged riffs with a dense, dark melody and somber lyrics of pain and solitude, while "Comfortably Superficial" provides some invaluable words of wisdom: "Never walk in another man's shoes/You may not always win but you'll never lose." For a fast 'n' raunchy dose of brutality, check out "Drug Of The Masses," shouted out Biohazard-style with a flurry of speedcore breaks and angry attitude. "Killing Floor" splatters fast, brain-jarring rhythms over persistent drum pummels and wailing guitar screams. Also, check out "Hate Makes Hate" and "Down The Drain." Don't miss the hidden funk-slammin' tune "The Law Of Relativity," which kicks in 60 seconds after the last listed tracks ends. —Jenni Glenn

JESUS LIZARD

Show
(Collision Arts/Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—

Nothing can take the place of actually seeing the Jesus Lizard live, but this comes pretty damn close. Show was recorded live last December during CBGB's 20th Anniversary celebration and contains 15 tracks spanning the band's illustrious career (including two brand new tunes, "Mistletoe" and "Elegy"). If you've ever been to a Jesus Lizard show, then you know to wear a helmet and watch out for flying genitals! Show captures all the stimulating ferocity of the band's live performance without the visuals (use your imagination!). Frontman extraordinaire David Yow definitely knows how to work a crowd into a sweaty frenzy. Whether his distorted vocals are being chaotically screamed or hideously cackled and warbled, they always wallop an extremely aggressive, powerful punch. Noisy, punk overtones clash with melodic instrumentation, only to catapult off heavy, jamming riffs into a mix of frantic intensity. If you don't wind up thrashing around the room, or at least breaking a sweat, after listening to Show, then you should check yourself for a toe tag. Yow's parents even came up from Texas to catch the performance and he dedicates "Elegy" to "my mom and dad because I love them." Also check out Lizard classics "Glamorous," "Bloody Mary," "Dancing Naked Ladies," "Puss" and "Monkey Trick." —Jenni Glenn

WICKED MARAYA

Cycles
(Mausoleum, 18 E. 53rd St., New York, NY 10022/212-758-4704)—If you think the name Wicked Maraya sounds like the name of a metal band from the mid-'80s, before loud rock was as accepted as it is now, you probably already have an idea about what this band sounds like. The band specializes in semi-pretentious lyrics sung by an operatic-sounding vocalist over clean (but loud) guitars and art-rockish keyboards. While Cycles may not reflect the latest trends in metal, it does present an artistically sound picture of this type of loud and gloomy music. Although Wicked Maraya covers such potentially dated-sounding topics as "tortured souls" and "prophecies foretold," gothic-drenched metal still has a strong fanbase, judging from the huge number of attendees at recent Dio shows. In fact, if you like Dio and early Queensryche, then perhaps Wicked Maraya is right up your medieval and/or cosmic alley. Cue up "Another Day," "Face In The Mirror" and "Winter's Garden." —Brian Ives

NEW SCHOOL
Hardharderhardest
(Jackson T. Bone, c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—If you're tired of the same 'ol, same 'ol, it's time to enroll in a New School. With the rising popularity of metal hardcore mixed with hip-hop, Hardharderhardest should have no problem securing a place in the hearts of thousands. The use of a DJ, scratching out funky rhythms amidst a shuddering wall of rapped vocals and sharp, crunchy guitar riffs, sets this band apart from the hordes of others by adding a new angle to the mix. The album was engineered and co-produced by Don Fury (Quicksand, Helmet), who molds it into a brutally crushing work of art. Straight outta Queens, New York, New School is in-your-face, changin' all the rules and shoutin' out a new lesson in scratch/thrash. To all the copycat wannabes, the guys only have this to say: "We're doing what we started playin' many years ago. All the sucker NYC bands will soon learn and know that when it comes to dissin' there is no need for riffin', just come and see me, I am the hardest that could ever be" ("New School"). All five guys take turns spittin' out the raps throughout these seven hard-hittin' tunes. Check out "Poppa No Joke," "Gotsta Move," "Cumface" and "Queens" for a sharp crack across the knuckles and a rough reality check you won't soon forget. —Jenni Glenn

DIALOGUE

Meg MacRae/Kevin Reilly, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090
Howdy y'all! Meg MacRae, the Southern Belle (yeah, right) of Earache here and, as you may know by now, I will be taking over Mr. Young's position as head honcho of radio/video promotions. That said, I am now in the middle of hell, writing my very first ever dialogue. So what's up in Earache land? A.C. (yes, I prefer to use the acronym)...I know you've got it in your hot little hands, so play it whydon'tcha?! I just saw them at their record release party last Sunday in NYC at Wetlands (with Buzzov*en and Eyehategod)—very entertaining to say the least. Word to the wise—if you plan to catch a show, wear a helmet! Or at least bring an umbrella. Also saw SLEEP last week in San Francisco - "Dopesmoker" rules! PITCH SHIFTER's video for "Triad" aired on Headbanger's Ball last week. DISGUST track and video; you should be playing "Mother Earth." Hope to get them over to the States soon for a full U.S. tour. Also, be on the lookout for the NAPALM DEATH/ENTOMBED tour. CARCASS will be back as well. I will be in touch soon, but please feel to call me anytime if you need anything at all—(212) 343-9090. 'Til next time!

Ah yes, an unbelievable trip to the Big Apple to hang with all of the cool metal people. It was great to finally come face to face with everyone...well, not everyone. It does kind of suck to find out who the few were that I didn't get a chance to hook up with. There is always Foundations. Pictures are in development, so be on the lookout to see your mug in the trades. Some were lucky enough to nab a FEAR OF GOD advance. I knew I should have brought more. Don't worry, the rest of you will get it this week, so watch your mail. Don't forget, the add date is June 20th. This one is even better than their first, with tracks like "Beyond The Veil," "Will Of Evil," and even hear a mix with the late David Koresh in track four, "Burnt." Phoners will be on the way with a tour to follow in early August. Not only will you be able to check out Fear Of God, but opens include STRESSBALL and the new HEADLOCK. So, be prepared.

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records Group, New York, NY (212) 492-1812

First off, thanks go out to the entire McGathy posse for gettin' all kinds of cool radio and record folks into NYC for a killer bash and for the opportunity to have D-GENERATION rock the house for 'em!! Let the buzz begin! D-Generation will tour all summer and pop their debut LP out in September, so listen for it! Again, thanks McGathy for the chance to eat and greet with everyone and their brother! And speaking of MUTHA'S DAY OUT, "My Soul Is Wet" is going for adds June 20 and 21st. Do the Schnappy thing and get wet! Mutha's Day Out are currently wrapping up a U.S. tour and heading back to Europe. "My Soul Is Wet" video is out and should be played reel soon! This week in NYC, no cars hit me and the cabs have been very kind to me. Maybe they want to be on a guest list or something?

Chuckie Metal, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

Metal fuckers unite!! The McGathy party was fun. Nice to meet lots of you. Did you see GILBY CLARKE? Great reviews and a nice buzz is developing. He is a nice guy. I went with him to WSOU and he played on air for 40 minutes!! It's nice to know a guy who plays in football stadiums cares about college. On the way home, he said, "Chuck, how was it? Did it sound good?" His new record is a rocker; a real car companion; a supplement to bong hits; a record to wake up your roomie! I have advances, so call me for a copy. "Cure Me Or Kill Me" is the first single. The guitar tone shreds. SMASHING PUMPKINS will tear up the sheds this summer. Check out the "Rocket" video on MTV. All stoner metalheads should check out THE VERVE! Now, go take a shower!

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Blah, blah, blah, blah...BLACK TRAIN JACK on tour this summer with Mighty Mighty Bosstones...blah, blah, blah, blah...BUZZOV*EN's Sore will hit the mail next week—check for a track on the new Certain Damage...blah, blah, blah, blah...DOG EAT DOG are fun, aren't they? See them on tour with Biohazard?...blah, blah, blah...THE MOON SEVEN TIMES playing East Coast dates—some with Frente!...blah, blah, blah, blah...what's lazy?...blah, blah, blah...call me and we'll exchange chocolate chip cookie recipes.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

I'm somewhere in a daze in NYC, still not recovered from the McGathy weekend, wondering how to prepare for a night of DIO and the beginning of the BIOHAZARD tour/assault on the U.S. In my state of delirium, I still manage to mutter, "Biohazard, Biohazard." Let's take it to the top! ATOMIC OPERA on its way too! Give plays to JOAN JETT. She ain't no "Spinster." And look out for the awesome L7 track, "Andre." Here it comes 6/17! P.S. Thanks to everyone for being so damn cool this weekend. It was too much!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

I'm recovering nicely from the mega McGathy Bash this weekend! Many, many, many people inquired what the name of the new OVERKILL album, W.F.O., stands for?! It stands for The Best Heavy Metal Album Ever Recorded!! "Fast Junkie" adds on 6/20!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Well, I'm back from the kick-off dates of the ELEVEN tour with Soundgarden and TAD and if I do say so myself (and I will), this show will rock your world! Eleven is in such rare form that the Conan O'Brien show (a very hip late night talk show that only has the coolest musical guests), has asked for the mighty Eleven to perform on June 9th, so tune in folks. Call us for your Eleven needs and if you have not added the newest single from Eleven, "Heavy," than you are missing out on one of the coolest tunes from these guys (and girl) to date! Check it, add it and give it love, and while you're at it, snoop around your studios for a copy of SEAWEEED's Four and give it a whirl, 'cause this record has the chops that are tailor made for the metal masses. That's all folks!

Keith A. Jenkins, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221

mind grind! If you have thought that Seattle has a monopoly on groovacious grunge, you have been dead wrong. On June 7th, Finland's CONVULSE release their melodic, yet monstrously heavy, Reflections to the world. Relapse cannot be held responsible for the mind-altering aural orgasm you will most likely experience. Scratch that! We will accept responsibility, and you don't have to buy us dinner first! We're going for adds on the 20th for Convulse, so get on it. Other hot flashes due soon: RED LORRY YELLOW LORRY, Blasting Off (Relapse); DIVINE EYE, As The Angels Weep (Nuclear Blast America); PHOBIA, Return To Desolation (Relapse Underground Series); and AMORPHIS, Tales From The Thousand Lakes (Relapse). Satan says, "Oooooaaahhhrrrrr!," which means "SINISTER tour with Cannibal Corpse and Cynic." Contact me for details.

Phil, WHCS, New York, NY (212) 772-4472

Rumors are funny. Not funny, ha ha, but funny peculiar. It's funny how they start, but it's even funnier how they spread without anyone thinking about whether there is any truth in them at all (Rich F. knows what I mean). It kind of makes me wonder if anyone really cares if the rumors people hear, and all too gladly spread, are true. I don't think they care. Why spoil a perfectly good rumor with trying to find out if it's true or not? Why bother even asking the person it's about whether there is any shred of authenticity? It spoils the fun! And it keeps things OH SO JUICY! At any rate, to those that would start rumors, to those that would spread them like wildfire (you gossip mongers know who you are), and especially to those that would believe these rumors without even TRYING to find out what is going on from the person the rumors are about, I would like to say a big FUCK YOU. To those that would search for the truth, to those that KNOW when a rumor is false, and to those that make an attempt to stop such unfounded rumors, I would like to say THANK YOU. Don't even try to call me to find out what this is about. If you don't have a clue, leave it that way, it doesn't concern you (and don't start rumors about what it might be about!) If you know what I'm talking about, I guess it depends on what category you fall under; the "fuck you" or the "thank you." In either case, you know where you stand with me.

Tommy Daley, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA (800) 342-8842

BEASTIE BOYS are livin' large. Ill Communication is unstoppable. The videos are hilarious. "Sabotage" is a smash. Your audience wants to hear it, so keep playing it. We got goodies, so give me a call if you need anything. Later. (Mike D., you rock).

Sheri Sinclair & Zack Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY (212) 695-3000

Hello, welcome aboard, Zack Lanier. Zack will be talking to those of you who are hanging around for the summer, so be nice to him. Anyway, LARVA should still be on your airwaves. PRO-PAIN "The Truth Hurts" on your desk in a few weeks. Pro-Pain kicks ass, just let me tell you. Call us for more info. XOXO...

BUCKSHOT LEFONQUE "Breakfast @ Denny's" (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Racism? Isn't that something that happened in the South in the '60s? Racism in America may not be as overt as it was 30 years ago, yet it remains an unspoken, unwritten and very real law for too many people. Ask any black man who's tried to catch a cab to Brooklyn late at night. This Spike Lee-directed clip features Mr. Lefonque (a.k.a. Branford Marsalis) as the ignored customer at a local diner. While other (white) patrons are seated and served quickly, Branford huffs, sulks and waves his menu to get attention. His affable performance adds a necessary comic presence to an all too grim storyline. Aside from being a great message clip, "Breakfast @ Denny's" features Branford's lofty horn lines over beats by Gang Starr's DJ Premier. The vintage Negro League shirts Branford wears throughout the clip are a touch of extra cool in addition to being a subtle reminder of the more blatant segregational practices of the past. (SC)

LOW "Words" (Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019/ 212-586-7700)—At almost six minutes in length, with a tempo barely above a flatline, and with only two settings throughout the clip, "Words" requires the kind of patience that many viewers no longer possess in a world of instantly digestible video bites and channel surfing. But allow the music's haunting presence to merge with the equally mesmerizing visuals of this clip, and your patience will pay off. The clip, like Low's music, accomplishes its artistry through simplicity, relying on slow, fluid pans around the trio to create spacial depth while the aged texture of the film footage of the group stranded on some Alaskan ice floes adds an eerie, almost timeless beauty to the video's overall presence. "Words" is stark, delicate and altogether different than any video you've ever seen before. (CH)

COTTON MATHER "April's Fool" (Elm, 9320 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 200, Beverly Hills, 90212/310-550-1223)—So far this year, this is the only power pop song we've heard that drops a T.S. Eliot reference. If that doesn't get the college kids whipped into a partying frenzy, nothing will. All kidding aside, "April's Fool" is a disarming song and video, bursting at the seams with clean-cut hooks, skinny-tie vibes and that familiar nerd-meets-girl theme. The band has a knack (pun intended) for making a very dated genre sound as vibrant as when it made its first impact. Hats off to the director for keeping silliness to a minimum, allowing the general "fun" aesthetic of the track do its job. [SC]

EXTRA PROLIFIC "Brown Sugar" (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)—Extra Prolific is the newest product of the Bay Area's Hieroglyphics posse, a distinctive collective of West Coast rappers that boasts Del Tha Funkyhomosapien and Casual among its members. With a swinging bass groove and crisp beat, "Brown Sugar" is the perfect vehicle for Extra Prolific's fluid lyrical display, wresting the term back from the Stones to place it into a hip-hop context. Much of the clip's action takes place in a pool hall where MC Duane Lee first spies his "Brown Sugar," and continues to follow the song's tale with touches of the seductive mood created by the song's whispered chorus and smooth bassline. The accompanying comic book we got with our video was a cool treat as well. [CH]

CATHERINE WHEEL "The Nude" (Fontana c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY

10019)—Their are many forgettable bands in this genre of fuzzed out Brit pop. Sensing that, Catherine Wheel's second LP Chrome offers pop music not totally drowned-out by gauze and guitars. "The Nude," the band's latest single/video is seductive piece of elusive and accessible melodic lines. The clip's imagery is tastefully choreographed, incorporating shots of an artist's model and the plaster poured about her. The smooth edits and black backgrounds make for striking visuals, as the pale hands, feet and body of the nude model glow in contrast. [SC]

TRUMANS WATER "Playboy Stabtone Bloodbath Go" (Homestead, 150 West 28th St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10001/212-675-0922)—Anyone familiar with this San Diego outfit's spastic sound can guess at the kind of hyperactive imagery the band has dreamed up for its first video outing. Directed by former drummer Mike Lupro, "Playboy Stabtone" makes no attempt to disguise its humble production techniques: The clip is basically chopped-up footage of the band, infants toying with their instruments, camera feedback, and anything else that an unmanned camcorder will pick up. And although it has an extremely "homemade" feel, the video manages to parallel the music the way no big budget clip could, incorporating simple editing glitches and off-kilter shot sequences into a carefully orchestrated accompaniment to the band's deconstructive mayhem. [CH]

RECORD COMPANY

Pop! Pop! MAGNAPOPI! We are pacing like hungry pitbulls in anticipation of their new release, Hot Boxing. It sorta sounds like Slant 6 or Velocity Girl, maybe even a little like Luscious Jackson? Nah, maybe not. It sounds like the most fun you can cram onto the flat, shiny surface of a compact disc...yeah, that's it...Also licking our collective chops for: TRIPMASTER MONKEY, the GOATS, KILLING JOKE, MADBALL, GODFLESH!! Records we have nothing to do with (but think are great, anyway!): Drive Like Jehu, Weezer, Bailter Space, Stick (live EP)...Enough drooling fan-isms! My allergies are acting up like a mofa. Gesundheit, I am one big sneezing ball of snot (very attractive)! Call me with your new summer office hours and I'll sneeze at you again and again. Ah-chool

Brendan P. Coyne, Choke Inc., Chicago, IL (312) 226-9477

So anyway, we're sitting here in Chicago, and along comes a spider, so we washed it out, and now all we have is an empty spout. Just a reminder, that MORSEL and MILKLINE are still around (actually just hit the stores), and wanted to know if you liked them, maybe you don't—ho-hum.

Kerry, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660/Kerri, Relativity Records, Torrance, CA (310) 212-0801

The differences between us: Kerry is an L.A. native and loves it, Kerri moved to L.A. in January and hates it. Kerri has naturally blonde hair, Kerry has unnaturally bleached hair. Kerry is beginning to go through puberty, Kerri danced in a cage on stage when the Beastie Boys toured with Public Enemy. Kerry lives with her mom because she started her own label and has no more money, Kerri has a nice studio apartment which she will be evicted from when she starts her own label and loses all of her money. Neither of the Kerries have much interest in visiting Fresno. Kerri knows a lot of music business dirt, Kerry remains clueless. Kerri has a husky voice, Kerry's is cracking from puberty. Kerry smokes up to two packs a day, Kerri is still getting used to smog. Kerry eats Pop Tarts all day, Kerri eats two boxes of fat-free health bars. Kerri is good about returning calls, Kerry had a lobotomy and can't dial without help. Kerri drinks four cups of coffee a day, Kerry is having a torrid affair with Juan Valdez. Kerri wants to exercise more, Kerry wants to lift more pint glasses to tone her biceps. Kerri is a Gemini, Kerry is a Sagittarius.

Scott Giampino (Biotch), Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL (312) 463-2907

Well, I dropped the ball. But I'm pulling through. The new MEKONS album Retreat From Memphis is gaining steam. Going on tour in late June. Do yourself a favor, grab a pint of your fave ale, and go see this band. And while you're at it, throw out that damn Helmet record. In the long run, you'll thank yourself. POLVO has a new one, Celebrate The New Dark Age, and is touring with Merge labelmates SUPERCHUNK. You can even sing along with Polvo! On the Progressive Retail Chart at #20! And the MVP! Their last one, Today's Active Lifestyles, re-entered the chart, as did SHELLAC. I love tours...Look for a new album in the fall. PIGFACE album out called Notes From The Underground. You must play the cut "Chickasaw," which features Leslie Rankine from Silverfish! This could be hit, if you get my meaning. Enters at #40! This album has tons of outside people, it's a haunted house fiasco, whatever that is. Also out on Invisible is EVIL MOTHERS and LAB REPORT. Trance Syndicate brings us the CHERUBS' ode to your problem, Heroin Man, and CRUST with Crusty Love. Aply titled indeed. 3DS reissued on Merge, also touring with SUPERCHUNK. GIRLS AGAINST BOYS does the new single thing, and you're afraid, but add it anyway. And remember, bust that Helmet, and put on PALACE SONGS. More soul than you'll know what to do with.

PETER CASE Sings Like Hell continues to blare where e'r it goes. Peter's tour rolls on throughout this vast country of ours, touching souls on every stop. June sees Peter hitting California, the Pacific Northwest, Midwest and points in between. Joining in on the fun are KBCS, KCMU, KFMR, KFSR, WFDU, WYGS, WNCW to name a few. Don't be put off by this scary hell of a record—it's still a raw folk-blues rock kind of hullabaloo—but not so raw you have to screen it for them lovely FCC F'ers. Sings Like Hell is just a gut-wrenching, cool as shit record. Check out #5 "Walkin' Bum" and #4 "Lakes Of Ponchartrain." If'n you love 'em like I do, call me and I'll whisper some secrets in your ear that'll make you happy. Call for giveaways and tickets too! Congrats to all the grads and bye for now to the surviving folkses.

Les Scurry, you're reading correctly. TVT is not just for gearheads anymore! We're strength and diversity, damn it! KFJC has charted a TVT release at #1 (Gil)! KCMU has three in rotation! Scott Perry dropped by the office today, taking a break from watching countless hours of Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers, collecting residuals from the new Snapple commercial he's in (yes, really). By now, you should've added JUSTER'S I Remember That Night (EP). All of you ill communicators'll dig "Riding On The High" (personal favorite.) Guest producers include Steve Marker (House Of Pain) and Justin Nebanks (Ministry, KMFDM). Congratulations to Kerry (CATHERINE) and D'arcy (Smashing Pumpkins) on their June 7 nuptials. The Sleepy EP continues to dazzle you all! Album this fall (Butch Vig). Tour dates follow: 6/24 Milwaukee; 6/30 Cleveland; 7/1 CFNY Fest/Toronto; 7/8 Chicago (with Red Red Meat); 7/16 Ames, IA; 7/20 NYC; 7/22 Q101 Fest/Chicago, IL. CORDS return with their Gaspig EP, featuring Simone as '94's honorary "American Woman." GIL SCOTT-HERON thanks you from the bottom of his heart for your reverence. Out this summer: EMERGENCY BROADCAST NETWORK (Brian Eno's helping with this one!), D*NOTE (yummy acid jazz), UNDERWORLD and the CONNELLS EP...

Julie McKnight, Dr. Dream Records, Orange, CA (714) 997-9387

Radio play for Milky Juicy by TINY LIGHTS is cruisin' right along...cool. Glad to see WHSR, KVMR, WLOZ, and WZBC playing them in heavy. Anyone who hasn't had the pleasure of drinking in this delightful treat give us a call—we'll serve it right up. OK, you should be getting hit by State Of Shock, the new one you've been waiting for from Orange County veteran punkers D.I. Their first release in a couple of years is reminiscent of that good ol' hard-hitting O.C. punk sound you know and love. Also on line from Dr. Dream is the new album by the CADILLAC TRAMPS, It's Alright which will be on it's way mid June. This, their third album is sure to be their best release to date. Accompanying this is the Tramps' national tour. keep your eyes peeled for them to pull up in your town—it's a show you'll definitely want to catch! Also, getting ready to head out is D.I. and JOYRIDE.

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

Ben Knight (Dialogue 5/30) calls me "a violent idiot...now we all know why you dress like a jock." Curious statements coming from someone who's never met me. I've fantasized about wearing a jock under a dress, but that's as far as it goes... "The Matlantic Secret Service." When losing an argument, Knight resorts to guilt-by-association bullshit. Sad, seeing as KXLU is owned by the Unification Church... "If you really wanted to kick Further's ass, why didn't you do it when they were opening for (PAVEMENT)?" I would've loved to, but my hunting knife was confiscated at the door and I was refused admission. No one in Pavement admits to seeing Further, but either way, they're free to listen to whatever they want. If Further's only redeeming quality is having famous fans, why not toss names like Eddie Vedder, Jack Tragic or Klaus Nomi around? ..."Everyone compares Further to Dinosaur." ...perhaps because they sound like a third generation version of said famous band?... "You just don't like Sebadoh 'cause you think they sound just like Envelope." I like Sebadoh just fine. I was putting their records out back when Further were jerking off to Bauhaus 8x10's..."Anyone who likes Envelope has their tongue too far up your ass to articulate why." How true. Ben has done a fine job of articulating why he digs the Further—they are "peaceful L.A. citizens"—Pavement and Sebadoh like them.

After overwhelming response to the VANILLA TRAINWRECK Mordecai Contest and hours of deliberation, congratulations to Bryan Ritter from KUGS who painted a delightful (rather twisted) Mordecai picture. Bryan and friend will enjoy $30 worth of food at their neighborhood Denny's on us. They will be on tour this summer with Thee Hypnotics. Mammoth bands also on the road: FRENTEL and CHAINSAW KITTENS. Thanks to everyone that is helping with Frenel's first release/tour in America. Sorry, no BATS tour because Paul and Kaye are expecting their second child. But, there will be an EP out in July called, "Spill The Beans," with five new songs. We hope to be seeing a lot of you at the five year anniversary of Merge Records July 28-30. Spott has promised to put everyone up at his house with free continental breakfast. If you need anything Mammoth related, feel free to give me or Sean a call...things I like: Bedhead, Silkworm, Polvo, and East River Pipe. Bis Spater...

Well hello boys and girls, ladies and gentlemen, children of all ages that have not deserted their posts for some summer fun. Congratulations to you valiant few who have not left me only their answering machines and empty dial tones. If you are still on the air, chances are you have talked to or have a message from Mel. Hopefully you have tried out the LARVA record. Most people have been playing, "Waiting For Daybreak," but we also think that "Devotion" is a good one. There's a lot of diversity here so see what you think, and let me now! Lastly, if there is anything I can do for any of you, just let me now. Thanks.

Chuck P. & John Perrone, Caroline Radio, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

In the words of the world's greatest TV colorman, Marv Albert, "YESSS," It's on to the 1994 NBA Finals for the first time in 21 years. Ewing steps up and "Dumba" Miller flies away. On to Houston. Check out "Never Enough" and "Brave New World."...SEEFEEEL will have a new one coming out in July, "Polyfusia," but you still have Quique. Listen to, "Dead Soldiers Coat" and "Consolation Prize"...FUDGE will also appear on the road with CORAL throughout the summer. Southside Speedway is their new one. Hey, if Jeff from WRUV is singing them on his answering machine, it's got to be good!...Call us for tickets and interviews for all artists...A message from Chuck, "To Sharon, may the force be with you."

Don Blanchard, 21st Circuitry Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 252-9578

Well, you should have your red hot little sweaty hands on the brand new XORCIST CD Phantoms by now, and I'm sure it's feeling a lot of laser. We at 21st Circuitry are very happy with this third Xorcist release on our label, and the packed dancefloors on track two, "The Gift," have been beyond anything we could have hoped for or imagined. But don't think this is purely a dance CD, as it is very versatile, with some sound-collaged tracks, brutal aural attacks from The IRON HELIX and The HARMONIC CONVERGENCE and an emotionally moving slower piece as well. If you didn't get one, and you're interested, please give us your info, either by mail, fax, e-mail or phone, but recognize that we will need hard copy station info for these last two communication methods. Hurry if you want the limited red background with black writing CD screen, as the plant fucked up the colors and all the radio and media mailouts are limited edition CDs. On the Circuit info, the West Coast tours are getting more zeroed in on; the first will be HATE DEPT. and GRACIOUS SHADES in the last week of July. Xorcist will be going out later in Aug. Give us a holler if you are interested in booking a show or know people we can contact. Death Rave 2010 will be out in late July; this is the sequel to Death Rave 2000, which actually received five out of five in BAM Magazine. Wire us at: 21st.circuitry@cyberden.com.

Bill Murphy, Bug Music, Los Angeles, CA (213) 466-4352

I wuz up in San Francisco this weekend, bicycling, running around and sucking down Red Hook Ale like a thirsty calf, when it struck me: There's too much music. It's all got to stop. I'm not saying it all sucks, there is plenty of way rad music, but there's just too much... stuff. Something must be done. That's why I recommend the Esquivel compilation when it comes out June 14 on Bar/None. It's a classic, it's wild and wacky, and it brings my brain to a complete halt. This is a totally unbiased rant. New SHOES album Propeller out on Black Vinyl—14 wonderfully melodic pop gems from the masters of the genre. It includes drum work from slobbering disciples like Ric Menck from Velvet Crush and that guy from Material Issue. Ask for it by name. The new HUSKER DÜ live album The Living End on WB provides a living document of their greatness. Why the English press knows this and confirms it daily whilst the American press sits around with a thumb up one orifice or another escapes me at the moment. All your favorite Husker songs loud and fast, plus a cover of "Sheena Is A Punk Rocker." Song title of the day is "Naughty Fatalist," by the ever-amazing VIC CHESNUTT. Go play.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

Thanks for the continuing support for IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season. If you think the track "Chemical Dreams" has run its course, give the title track some time. It definitely shows the more dynamic side of the band. JOE STUMP is currently finishing up his next instrumental release, Night Of The Living Shred. Joe is also working with a very high profile vocalist. More news on that in very short order.

Mike Wolf, Amphetamine Reptile, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-7047

Summer Vacation? Not for us, we've got a ton of big stuff shaking out of our tree. First up is the new record by JANITOR JOE, Lucky. Razor sharp punk action, and it should be arriving at you station shortly after you read this. In the some package you'll get a promo/tour only 7" from COWS, a preview to their next record Orphans Tragedy, scheduled for the back to school season. But I'm getting ahead of myself. In August look for a record by S.W.A.T. Includes members of Poison Idea and Feral House capo Adam Parfrey, Answer Me's Jim Goad, Anton Lavey, Nick Bougas, and Boyd Rice. Dope shit indeed. More big August news, we are releasing the next MELVINS record. It's entitled Prick and is not a co-release with Atlantic, it's AmRep only. The reason for this may be that it could in no way be confused with anything remotely commercial. Unrestrained Melvins. Consider yourself warned.

John Notsure, Revelation Records, Huntington Beach, CA (714) 375-4264

Summer is here and so is the new INTO ANOTHER record. This record will make your day at the beach a day at the beach. Play "Running Into Walls," "Poison Fingers" and "Maritime Murder." These gems will brighten your week. Into Another's awesome new record on Rev, Ignaurus, already leaked out a little and early response has been mega. Full servicing is underway. Beautiful and horrifying, an epic journey through anger and confusion. We recommend alternative airplay for this one, but give the metal dude a chance too. Thanks for all the SENSE FIELD adds, let us know if you need another one. We need summer scheduling hours and all that. Thanks to Matt at Earache. Coming soon: FARSIDE RIGGED and ICEBURN with Engine Kid. E us at j.cooper 21@genie.geis.com.

Bob W., Triage International, New York, NY, (212) 353-2002

In the short term: MARC BURGESS AND THE SONS OF GOD album (former Chameleons U.K. front-man); TRAINS AND BOATS AND PLANES (from Denmark produced by Albini; Kramer; or Vig—as if it matters, which of course, it doesn't, so why mention it? I'm not sure—; just forget it). BEATNIK FILMSTARS (maybe they'll even tour); STEAMKINGS (oh so strange, and the acme of venerability); XC-NN (import single in the solid white case). In the long-term: IDHA (from Sweden, on Creation); DIFFERENCE ENGINE (La-Di-Da); DREAD ZONE (on Creation). If you are an indie label with no $ to spare on sending out promos to radio, check out Net, which runs a record pool to college radio. They can send out your stuff at no charge. Call Robin ice cream at (212) 420-0717 for the scoop. We are always in search of interns, so give us a call if you are near NYC and want to help out. Thanks to all of you who have dug and supported THUMPER's last 7". They might be out on the road playing gigs in the northeast this summer, so keep an eye out for them. "Six Of One." ...

Billy Pruitt, Publicity & Retail, Monkey Hill Records, New Orleans, LA (504) 947-5166

As the southern temperature rises here in New Orleans, the heat is also turning up on the BLUERUNNERS. Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and Texas, make your plans now for June and July, as they will be touring the West hard. Lots of Mardi Gras stuff goes to the over 100 college stations and the 15 AAA/PAR stations who are pounding out the Bluerunners. When you return from your much-needed summer break, play close attention to MUSTANG LIGHTNING. Finally you'll be hearing from our radio department about PAUL SANCHEZ & THE SHINES. This is Paul's second solo release as a member of COWBOY MOUTH, this singer/songwriter amazes me with the amount of quality material he continues to write. Wasted Lives and Bluegrass is on your desk now, look for it!! The SHINES, hailing from Jackson, MS groove to an infectious backporch beat. With help from Bill Davis (Dash Rip Rock) and Fred Leblanc (Cowboy Mouth) this self-titled debut is the surprise of the summer.

Morgan Church, National Alternative Network/SPIN Radio Network, Minneapolis, MN (800) 455-7746

Jill & Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OKFU

SKATENIGS Family Values kits are in the mail and on the way to approximately 200 of you. If you don't receive one call me and if you are not on my list I will send you one. One per station now kiddies, don't be greedy! I can't be responsible for mail that was sent and doesn't get to you. (And if you see someone at your station walking around with candlewax on their nipples then you know they've opened up your mail.) Thanks for all of your support, keep it up!

Ginny O'Rourke, Monsterdisc Records, Chicago, IL (312) 266-5773

They're back!...and in your face CYCLONE TEMPLE with their new release My Friend Lonely. Featuring the fast and furious guitar playing of Greg Fulton and introducing the bombastic vocals of their new singer Sonny Deluca. Check this one out, the CD single promo My Friend Lonely should be on your desk, if not call me and I'll set you up ASAP. The full-length should be in your hands on the 17th and we're going for adds on the 20th. Look for the articles on the SPIES WHO SURF in Guitar Player and Guitar For The Practicing Musician. If you haven't give the SPIES a spin, your ears are definitely missing out on some fantastic surfing sounds, it's great summer BBQ music. The NICHOLAS TREMULIS CD single King Of The Hill should be on your desk too! Nicholas has a new EP out featuring four new songs intertwined with the poetry of beat poet GREGORY CORSO very cool stuff. So give Nicholas a listen and tell me what you think. Well gotta go, bye.

Thanks to all who assisted in the success of BABY SNUFKIN's recent Northwest tour, especially KCMU, KWVA, KAGU, KALX, KPOO, KBVR, KAOS and KGRG. Things went so-o swell and crowds went so-o bankers(!), they'll be returning the first two weeks of July to spread their crafty, world punk all over Eugene, Portland, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver. Dance The Orange (their debut CD, which also includes the abrasive FISH STRING QUARTET, slaphappy BUCK-WYLIN' HORNS & many more) continues to garner accolades from regional & national press and is starting to move in stores. Check out their recent Magnet write-up and upcoming Alternative Press coverage. Baby Snufkin just recorded a blistering new track as part of an upcoming compilation for illegal New York artist Ron English. The diverse release includes contributions from SARA HICKMAN, the SUTCLIFFS and illustrious others. If you desire Dance The Orange promos or ticket to catch Baby Snufkin's explosive live show, call us anytime for anything!

Hey People! First of all I'd like to give out belated congrats to my homie Craid "The Nazi Bastard" Williamson on his new position at Zoo Entertainment. And I'd also like to wish good luck to Nicole at WRBB, Lisa at KUNM and everyone else that has or will be graduating into the real world. Now for the music stuff. RIG Belly To The Ground is still livin' large. So pick up that CD and start playin' "Cattleaxe" or "Personal Service Announcement." TRANSITION Spine are kickin' some serious ass in their hometown in the Bay Area. Thanks to Mike at KSCU and Ms. Squid at KUSF. (Do they know something that you don't.) CHUCK DUKOWSKI, BILL STINSON, PAUL CUTLER aka UGM are getting of to a great start with early support from KDVS, KBOO, KSPC & WCBS. If you haven't listened to it yet, do so now, cuz it's definitely in your best interest. You'll thank me later. Speaking of things in your best interest, DINGLE Red Dog should in your hands right now. If you like goofy fun shit, this CD was made specially for you. GONE Smokin' Gun remixes are getting quite a bit of attention in many formats. It's gonna be a sleeper this summer. On the world music side ETERNAL VOICES Traditional Music From Vietnam should be charting soon if not already. Coming in July: yes another album from GREG GINN Let It Burn (Because I Don't Live There Anymore), GONE All The Dirt That's Fit To Print and the most banned band in the country the LEAVING TRAINS The Big Jinx. If you would like advance tapes of these projects or just wanna say hi! do so.

Dale Johnson, Retail Is My Life, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Congratulations to the winners of the FAILURE display contest! Coming in first place are the smiling, happy faces of Heather McIntosh and Robert Mark Gregory from Streetside Records in Lawrence, KS. Streetside has been incredibly supportive of the Magnified record from day one, so it came as no surprise when on deadline day their entry came Fed-Exed to the office with not one snapshot, not two—but a whole roll! It seems as if Streetside has become the Failure store of the '90s, complete with a huge wall display, Empty Friend lite bottle and other assorted goodies about the store. And how could we resist when the artists included pictures of themselves posing in front of their creations and with the Flipside Failure interview...Not only has Mark become the heartthrob and Heather the sex symbol about the office, but they get 150 bucks to boot! Other awards: Second place goes to Franc Dancsecs at Ace's Records in Tampa, FL, and third to Ken Keirns at Michigan Warehouse in East Lansing. Honorable Mentions go to Jeff at Summit Records in Gunnison, CO, and Sean at Zia Record Exchange in Tucson, AZ. Thanks to all the people who entered, and like Sly Stone said, everybody is a star...Oh yeah, new L7. Hungry For Stink. Lollapalooza '94. July 12, 1994. Vinyl, too. Nuff Said.

Mik Davis, WUSM, Hattiesburg, MS (601) 266-4287

A belated hello from the bowels of the South to all of you out there in the land of money, fortune and fame. I must first humbly apologize for not being able to get back in touch with all of you who called me over the past semester. I am happy to announce that I will have office hours for the summer, so please do not write me off as an un-person. Anyway, the smoke has cleared around here from all the fires that were set during the spring, and I have seen a clearing in the woods. You see, I was exiled by the powers that be to work all night, every night. Which of course translates into I was not here during the day. But since I had more free time on my hands at night, I got through much more new stuff than one could anticipate. Now, the glory days are back and the key word in that sentence is day. From 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. and from 2:00 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays I will be taking calls. Also, I will fax anything else that anybody needs to them, on our new fax mo-sheen. So there's my sordid tale—please keep us on your mailing list. Now, we move on to the good stuff. Oh, what a twisted web we weave—we have several local bands that I desperately need to talk up, so call me and we'll chat about these. Music for warm summer days: DAMBUILDERS, RODAN, SUNNY DAY REAL ESTATE, the NECKBONES, CARMINE, FRANK BLACK, JAMES HALL (one hell of a live show). My nights are dominated by: the GRIFTERS, SEEFEEEL, the GRAYS (please give this record a second chance, especially all of you who play the Greenberry Woods), HELIUM, APHEX TWIN, SOUTHERN CULTURE ON THE SKIDS and SWELL. Finally, thanks to James Lien for you know what. P.S. If you want to reach me, call me.

Jay Guthro, Music Director, WDJM, Framingham, MA (506) 625-4020

Just wanted to put this in writing...We're sorry. Between finals and Memorial Day weekend we found it almost impossible to get our shit together. We are up over the summer and I have not talked to a lot of you guys in ages, so fire away. We are here and ready. The summer music is looking pretty damn good, especially with FRET-BLANKET re-issuing a disc soon. Peace.

Eitaro (ay-tar-owe) Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI (808) 956-4848

Yo how 'bout another go with the movie trivia... (with accent). You out of all people should know that I would never wear black silk underwear! Look at him! Faggot! Yes, it's an action film. And by the way, the answer to the first trivia was Commando (1984). Call or fax (808) 956-9571 me with your best answer and you shall win an ORIENTAL CONNECTION or RAMEN demo cassette! Before I go, mahalo to Gatcha Man for the Crooklyn Tee and Chris at Polygram for the JB CDs.

Liz Waytkus, Music Director, WNHU, West Haven, CT (203) 934-8888

The best damn song title I have seen in a long time... "Chlamydia Is Not A Flower" from CRUST. So us East Coast girls (Erika Tooker and myself) had a blast a few weeks ago with the West Coast herd. Many thanks to all of you who let us crash at your pad (Camcorderman, Joel), entertained us, let us raid your cabinets or took a few minutes to say hello. Sorry I had to drop all of your bands Jeff. The two big highlights of the trip for me (Liz), had to be seeing Tommy Lee of MOTLEY CRUE at the Viper Room and finally meeting Chuck from Immortal even though he forgets to call me. I still have a year left of school but I am definitely considering a move to California. And if any of you East Coast dears have a job, Vinnie of WSAM is looking for a job (he does windows). Now that I'm back, if you need to get a hold of me, the summer hours are: Tue. 12-2, 4:30-6. Play VANILLA TRAIN-WRECK, VOODOO GLOW SKULLS, HELMET, PEACH and APRIL'S MOTEL ROOM. Boom, Boom, out go the lights...

Bryan Ritter, Music Director, KUGS Bellingham, WA (206) 650-2936

One more week of class here in Bellingham. Yes, I am a bit bitter about everyone else who is drinking during summer vacation, only because I'm not done with class yet. I wanted to write a quick note to thank some outstanding folks that do business with us: much thanks to Andy at Virgin—you took care of my DJ's in Seattle and we do appreciate it, Chris at Hightone—DICK DALE rules, Mike at Capitol—the edits are doing us justice, Seana at Gavin—you were very gentle with me on my first time, Jeff at Interscope—damn good bonds boy, Corey at McGathy—I'll get to a party of yours someday, and David Sanford—shit, you're just cool. Thanks to everyone, even if not mentioned. FYI: KUGS is on over the summer.

Traci Nelson, General Manager, WRFT, Ambler, PA (215) 283-1278

Yes we do exist!! For the first time in ages we are alive and kicking thru-out the summer. We apologize to everyone who has been patient enough to keep calling and sending. We will get back to you! WRFT has a great new staff and we are going thru a metamorphosis, so please bare with us. Paula Hunter is our new Music Directoress and Steve Kovac is our new Program Director—unfortunately, the two key music staff members are "back-home" for the summer. As for me, I'm the new General Manager, and I do have a summer staff, so keep sending and calling—'cause we are a poor radio station. WRFT playlists will be sent again and is remaining mostly the same—alternativish but we have a wide variety of jocks and titillations. We are very happy with our local talent of PIPE DREAM, A ROOM WITH A VIEW, EMPTY STARES and LENNY & THE SOULSENDERS. Do us all a favor and check these bands out. WRFT also has raving Temples over MAZZY STAR, HOLE, LIVE, LUNA, and my personal fav, SARAH MCLACHLAN. Since this is my first Dialogue, I think I've already used up enough space but just remember we thrive on your calls and mail. My hours are Monday thru Thursday 9 a.m.-9:35 a.m. and 11:15 a.m.-12:45 p.m.. Hope to exchange words soon! PSST-how 'bout some trib-al?? or reggae to keep us moving during our bask in the summer station sun!?! Contact me at (215) 283-1278.

We here at WSIA want to make everyone out there aware of a wonderful opportunity that we have here! In the last year, we have moved to a state-of-the-art new facilities here on Staten Island. We are now one of the most technologically advanced college radio stations in the entire country! One of the greatest new toys we have is our 64-track Pro-Tools integrated studio where bands can perform live, either acoustic or electric. We offer DAT recording, as well as 1/4 and 1/2" reel. We also have a Yamaha upright grand piano, and are getting a Yamaha studio drum set. The point being, if you have bands looking for some added exposure, send them our way! We have initiate a weekly show called Front Row Radio, where we broadcast the bands we have recorded. If you're wondering how cool our studios are, just ask the WRENS, DOG SOCIETY, CHARLIE HUNTER TRIO, HUMAN DRAMA, as well as several cool local unsigned bands. Anyway the point is that we are looking for bands to come down and play, major or independent. We are only five minutes from New York City, so what have you got to lose!?? We will be more than willing to send samples of our work, and will work around most bond schedules. We look forward to hearing from you. Peace...

Laure Parsons, Pillow Talk Expert, WNYU, New York, NY (212) 998-1658

Helloooo Gavin! I can't decide if the recent Dialogue between Mr. Knight and Mr. Cosloy is just a cheerful banter or if neither of them can take a joke. Regardless, I hope all of you are paying attention to the most important lesson of all: No one reads Dialogues to see stupid bold-face band names and lame attempts to seem cool by mentioning indie-rock band names in between. No, the reason we flip to the back is to see people dis each other or make jokes we're in on. I suspect that if more people did such things, they would get far more response and attention for their acts (via, attention for themselves than with the lazy and boring bold face method). Boycott boldface! All of you who continue to pretend like anyone cares will be making fools of yourselves for the whole world to read. Music Directors: Refuse to add anything that has been mentioned in boldface by its promoter! C'mon, celebrate the oh-so-lame insular & incestuous world of CMJ readers. It will probably be as fun as anything else in your pathetic rock-biz lives! Next time: a full-scale attack on someone everybody likes (I haven't decided who). P.S. Ben Knight, that's the Mamlantador Banquet Secret Service. Get with it!

Alright, enough! Because all you label types are struggling to mimic my accent (not through lack of trying I might add), I'm offering a highly sought after piece of wall trash, to the person who can read our playlist to me in a genuine "Pool" accent. Light-hearted frivolity ends! If all you "indie" (I hate that description, but I know it establishes cool points with some shallow folk) types are serious about your music, call Wonderland at (203) 248-2170 and get yourselves a copy of the MIGHTY PURPLE's Bohica. They're touring the East Coast in July, stops in NYC, DC, Columbia, SC, Atlanta, Orlando, Charlotte, New Orleans and New Brunswick, NJ. Staying open this summer proving to be a big plus, all sorts of great music, big news: TRIPPING DAISY, STANFORD PRISON EXPERIMENT, the FENWICKS, FRENTEI, DAMBUILDERS and ARCHERS OF LOAF. Thanks to those who know, but biggest love to Sleepless In Old Bridge—they're from the beginning and still the #1 turn-on in promotions (yes, that would be Amy!). Everyone be good, later.

Unfortunately, my time as music director at KASB is coming to a close. In just a few days I will have graduated from high school, —yes, high school, and then I'm on to "real-life college radio" or something like that at the University of Arizona. (Hopefully, I'll be able to do something other than cue carts.) I've come a long way and learned a lot since September, but all of this wouldn't have been possible without the help of a few people. Thanks: Mark Chotiner for the interviews, Stephanie at Vision Trust, Beth/Daren at Mechanic, Jennifer at C/Z for the 7 YEAR BITCH show, Kris Metzdorf at Atlantic, Chris White at Elektra (sorry for all the hassel and yes we do have TH FAITH HEALERS), Rosie at Hollywood, Terry Dry at A&M, Chuck/Stephanie at Virgin, whoever always helped me out at Kill Rock Stars, and most of all Adam at Sub Pop. A tremendous thanks to Wes/Juris—without you guys none of this would have been humanly possible. And thanks to everyone else. I would love to have an internship while I'm attending the University of Arizona at Tucson next school year. Any ideas call (206) 455-0873. The almighty and talented Jennifer Bailey will be taking my place—so go easy on her. Albums you should be listening to: the new 7 Year Bitch, SUNNY DAY REAL ESTATE and TINDERSTICKS. Thanks again and goodbye!!

Frank Provost, Music Director, WBUL, Tampa, FL (813) 974-4906

Well, we've hit the summer. I'll be gone for the month of July. While at home, I'll work on perfecting the method of ripping movie tickets, watch plenty of Saved By The Bell reruns and try to learn the lyrics to the theme from Eight Is Enough. For the month of July direct your calls to Tim Annett, one of the other fabulous MDs here. Before I take my brief sabbatical, I'd like to thank a few reps for going above and beyond the call of duty and/or for cheesin' out when they get a hold of me: Adam at Sub Pop, Allyson at Taangl, Corey at McGathy, Tom at Roadrunner (for listening to me go on about how great Black Train Jack is), Terry at A&M, Jeff at Interscope, Chuck at Immortal, Jon at Ringing Ear, Lisa at Vision Trust and Terry at Revolution Promotions. As a staff we'd like to thank all of the labels that have started servicing us over the course of the past school year. And thanks to every other rep we talk to. This joint will be about as normal as it gets once again as of August 8th. You can ask for Tim Annett (a good looking fellow...kinda resembles Monhichi), Scott Laval (the world's biggest Cheap Trick fan) and lastly, myself (the cheesiest human on the planet) as of that date.

Mike Siciliano, Alternative Music Director, WCWP, Brookville, NY (516) 299-2626

Number two with a bullet! BOINGO's cover of "I Am The Walrus" almost makes me wish they had originally done the song. It sounds very kickin' and I have been getting similar responses from the area here. some major league sounds are coming from the new EP from DIG, and the new one from LIVE. I'm telling you, I have never heard such rockin' sounds from anyone in quite a while. Live has backed up their with Mental Jewelry three times over. The response here is AMAZING! Dig has been hot for quite some time and their cover of Pink Floyd's "Fearless" is scintillating. SEED is going up, and going up fast. YES has continued to flourish in audience response. TOAD THE WET SPROCKET has followed up Fear with an unreal CD, Dukinea. I'm working the tracks "Fly From Heaven" and "Something's Always Wrong." I highly recommend you check these out. Some new acts to look for are WIDE AWAKE, 22 BRIDES, the TROUBLEMAKERS, and VALENTINE SMITH. I wanted to back up my first Dialogue with personal experience, so I went to see Valentine Smith at the Bottom Line in NYC, and I was not disappointed. A major show was put on by these guys (and gal), and I will continue to praise their release, Back On Earth. That's all for now. Call me for any info! See ya!

Brent Wilcox, KOTR, Cambria, CA and KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

I've been waiting a while, but SEEFEEEL is finally in my hands and on the airwaves. Love it! And a new FRANK BLACK, and a new MEKONS... and SHANG SHANG TYPHOON, could this radio junkie (a man with a transmitter on his back, or is it more Freudian than that?) be happier? Sure, listening to the LAURIE ANDERSON tracks on the Faraway, So Close soundtrack. JAH WOBBLE invades my heart, and MC 900 FT. JESUS is back ("Brain" goes well with the Tim Leary spiel on REVOLTING COCKS "Gila Copter"). So is LUSH, a band I thought had vanished off the face of the earth. BOILED IN LEAD is hotter and louder this time, and GONE keeps going and going—will take the likes of the CONCUSSION ENSEMBLE to slow them down...Enjoying the Patron Saints Of Teenage. International stuff?? How about ZAP MAMA, SHEILA CHANDRA, B-TRIBE, and a fabulous CAETANO VELOSO E GILBERTO GIL album. Indescribable stuff? New MO BAMA and MUSLIMGAUZE discs, and PETER FROHMADER. Really happy to see the new ReR Quarterly Volume 4 Number 1 compilation. That's a big day for me anytime, but the weird funky Tuvan track by KOONGOOR-TOOG is a keeper in itself. The new SUU's album, Hunger's Teeth, is flat out incredible. (Am I enthusiastic today or what? Must be those espresso/ginseng shooters...) My new mailing address: 2450 Main St., Ste. 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. Fax me at (805) 927-0384, email me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com.

Jonathan Levitt, International Music Director, Radio Shanghai, Madison, WI (608) 255-1011

Well folks, this is my last Dialogue for a while, because I am flying on June 12 to Shanghai to oversee the whole music operation at Radio Shanghai. I will not be back on these shores for quite some time. However, this does not mean the end of what was started here. I have someone taking over the U.S. side of things, he happens to be my roommate, as well as a past WBCR music director. His name is Michael Szilagyi. He is quite knowledgeable about a variety of music. He will be doing the same thing I have been doing for the past six months. So keep those musical releases coming. For those of you who can afford it (and you know who you are), I will eventually have a Chinese address for you to send me releases directly. I will be sending playlists galore as well as feedback on releases to Mike, who will then pass it on to you all. To K Records: Make it fucked up! Recent releases sent over to China include: BUILT TO SPILL, RAINCOATS, FIFTH COLUMN, PRONG, ORANGE 9MM, KENNY YOUNG AND THE EGGPLANTS, MILAN SOUNDTRACKS, SOLA, UMAR BIN HASSAN, and the Ron Metz Metal Hour syndicated radio show! Ron is God. The address is 1430 Williamson St. #1, Madison, WI 53703. We will be in touch soon SLAYER!!

Stephen Thompson, Music Director, WLHA, Madison, WI (608) 62-1206

I just want to let everyone know that WLHA will be reporting this summer, but that matters have been complicated by circumstances beyond our control: 1) It looks like WLHA will be moving to another campus building soon—more than likely, it'll be another windowless basement. That's bound to complicate life in the weeks and months to come. 2) I graduated from college May 1, and will hopefully be enjoying gainful employment (in addition to my Onion work) in the near future. I'll likely remain MD until sometime in late summer/early fall, and will spend as much of that time as possible in the office. 3) My father died May 23, and I've been out of town quite a bit to help make arrangements. That's one reason I've been so hard to reach—please be patient. Thanks to those who've expressed their condolences; I greatly appreciate it.

BOUKMAN EKSPERYANS BASSIST DIES

Michel-Melthon "Olichá" Lynch, bassist for Haiti's most popular group, Boukman Eksperyans, passed away on June 4 at the age of 25 from a severe case of meningitis. Although meningitis is a curable illness, Lynch was unable to receive antibiotics to fight the disease. The U.S.-imposed embargo on Haiti is not supposed to include medical aid, but medicine and supplies are extremely scarce in the troubled country. Although Boukman Eksperyans had visa petitions approved by the U.S. in April, the U.S. embassy in Port-au-Prince has closed its visa desk, apparently in a move to discourage Haitian flight, so the band was forced to cancel its U.S. tour.

ELVIS COSTELLO & THE ATTRACTIONS

June 8, Central Park SummerStage, New York City

Elvis Costello has never had trouble getting quality players to perform on his records and tours (McCartney, Lowe, McGuinn, Keltner and Ribot ain't exactly bottom of the barrel), but the Attractions—drummer Pete Thomas, bassist Bruce Thomas and keyboardist Steve Nieve—still seem the most fitting musicians to back him. This outdoor show on a cool, clear eve made for an unlikely bit of punk-pop nostalgia, unlikely since there's hardly a significant act from circa 1978 that hasn't passed on, wimped out or gone M.I.A.

Though some have argued that this late-period Elvis is himself lame or M.I.A., the esoterica in his work prompting such claims was not audible on this evening. In two hours, the bond banged out 29 songs in a decade fashion, playing only two tracks ("Deep Dark Truthful Mirror" from Spike and "Puppet Girl," a tune Elvis erringly gave to Wendy James) that are strangers to the Attractions' set list. This fierce set was not about Elvis Costello, the critically-acclaimed, wry tunesmith; it was about cranking out brisk-tempoed punk/soul cuts and never letting the audience catch its breath. This was a set for those whooping audience members who had played their $8.99 Columbia House cassettes of Elvis' greatest hits to death and now wanted more. But to the credit of the band, this was no stroll-thru-the-hits fossil rock tour; aside from the obligatory (though still beautiful) sing-along "Alison," no song sounded dated. The rules were volume over verbiage, nuance over nostalgia. Balancing eight songs from Elvis' first two releases with 10 from the recent Brutal Youth, the band had little trouble bridging the gap between new cuts like "13 Steps Lead Down" and old favorites like "Radio Radio"—in fact, those songs were effortlessly fused together. When Elvis finally gets into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame, the Attractions should not be forgotten, and the band's surging performance on this night was its fitting resume. Steve Nieve, who plays his vintage Vox keys the way Keith Moon played drums, climbed all over his instruments, supplying impeccable piano fills, organ clunks and general dissonance whenever needed. His frenzied playing along with Pete Thomas' rapid-fire snare and Bruce Thomas' melodic bass, added devilish spice to Elvis' already stiff drinks.
