DES'REE I Ain't Movin' (550, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—It is rare that an artist is strong in everything: music, songwriting and that voice. Des'ree is one such artist, and she demonstrates a striking brilliance that has rarely been matched; on I Ain't Movin', she conjures elements of plaintive Prince, Joan Armatrading's wry twists and the sultry, sexy drawl of Anita Baker. With most soul artists (including those mentioned above), the artist's strongest aspect is usually the sole focal point; for example, Anita Baker's songs can be throwaways, but when she sings them they take on a special quality. Des'ree has it all, making a record with good songs and stunning vocals that could be enjoyed both by people who find urban soul too goopy, or people who think the rare urban pop artist is too earnest. With that in mind, Des'ree has achieved something that puts her in the company of Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder (her vocal style is like the latter, too). Move to this: "You Gotta Be," "Herald The Day" and "Living In The City" (not the Stevie Wonder song).
—Megan McLaughlin

FARSIDE Rigged (Revelation, P.O. Box 5232, Huntington Beach, CA 92615-5232/714-375-4264)—As post-punk and post-hardcore tags quickly evolve into post-post-punk and every other hyphenated phrase imaginable, California's Farside stands among the few bands which retain a grip on the spirit and aggression that predated today's swelling pop-punk masses. Rigged, the band's sophomore album, is rich with the kind of vigorous playing and keen melodicism that makes bands like Hüsker Dü and Bad Religion such vital (and complimentary) reference points. Mike Vogelsang's short, quick vocal runs, coupled with the band's dual guitar blend and agile rhythmic foundation, make Rigged a solid fistfight of an album, although not without an ample degree of emotional (albeit naive at times) subtlety as well. While Farside may be pretty straightforward in its context, its understanding of the harmonic and spiritual details established by its forefathers lifts the band's youthful throttle above many of its more visceral sensibilities. The best of Rigged: the caffeinated performances on "Kill Me," "Gesture" and "Wait For Monday," the strength of desperation in "Silver Anniversary," and the untempered melodic pull held in "Someday Too Soon" and "Audience."

—Colin Helms

TONY BENNETT MTV Unplugged (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Although this record may be part of somebody's calculated attempt to market Bennett to today's "kids," the results are miles away from the embarrassing affairs these things usually end up being. The songs on MTV Unplugged are ones that Mr. Bennett would perform for ANY crowd, regardless of age; actually, Bennett probably belts out these tunes while he's chopping vegetables or shaving. When he exclaims "love that song!" at the end of "It Had To Be You," you know he means it. Besides, for Bennett, being "unplugged" isn't some new gimmick—he often performs without even a microphone, relying only on the strength of his voice to fill the room. Although the set starts out a little shaky, Bennett really hits his stride by the second song, and on tunes like "Speak Low," "When Joanna Loved Me" and "It Amazes Me," his voice and phrasing exudes the same warmth, intimacy and sense of hard-earned experience that made Frank Sinatra call him the best classic pop-singer of all time. The best moment of MTV Unplugged, however, is when Bennett brings out k.d. lang—whom he puts in the same class as Billie Holiday, Edith Piaf and Hank Williams, calling her "one of the great ones of all time"—for a wonderful rendition of "Moonglow."

Guided By Voices

Guided By Voices is a phrase that has been buzzing about rock 'n' roll circles ever since last summer, when the band made its first live appearance in five years in New York City. Not that the band hadn't been around for several years prior, creating and playing music in its hometown of Dayton, Ohio. Until recently, however, Guided By Voices was toiling in near obscurity.

The band was together for three years before it decided to put out a record, and then went on to release six of them, all self-released with little or no distribution outside Dayton. Though few people heard the records, GBV remained undaunted: "We just kept putting them out for our own pleasure," explains Robert Pollard, vocalist and primary songwriting force behind the group. "We'd get together and have record release parties for ourselves... we'd ask each other questions like 'Do we have any beer in the fridge, Bob?' It was easier then."

Certainly interviewing members of one's own band is much easier than doing the numerous chat sessions asked for by everyone from MTV to Wind Up Toaster Pastry, but the more difficult requests have been flooding in since the release of the band's latest record, Bee Thousand. The excitement that began with the release of last year's Vampire On Titus has built to a frenzy, and not much about the band's former life has remained the same. Guided By Voices used to have a revolving lineup, described by Pollard as more of a "club or a guild." Now, there's more of a solid lineup, a necessity for touring, which has only recently become a regular occurrence. The band has just finished Scot Records' "Insects Of Rock" tour and will be appearing on Lollapalooza's second stage during July. At Lollapalooza, the band will tour with hometown friends Kim and Kelley Deal of the Breeders, who will be on the main stage. The Breeders showed their support for their Dayton buddies by recently covering Guided By Voices' "Shocker In Gloomtown" on a 7" and even made a video for the song. Pollard speaks proudly of the band's bit part as onlookers in the video.

While making videos might be fun, life for Guided By Voices is not as easy as it once was, now that the attention of fans and A&R scouts is riveted on the band. This group of thirty-something blue collar workers from the Midwest might seem unlikely stars, but anyone who witnesses one of the band's live shows or hears one of their records can attest that GBV throws the dance moves and dishes out the pop licks better than most anyone.

Essential New Music

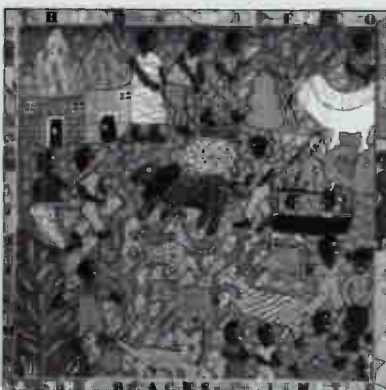

GLAZED BABY Karmic Debt (Red Decibel, 2217 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-874-2400)—While noisy, abrasive rock records are hardly the exception to the rule, Glazed Baby plows through its first full-length LP with such ferocity and inventiveness that it raises the band far above its large group of peers. Since riffs and song structure generally prevail, the group's destination is not exactly a wall of noise, but Karmic Debt is an exercise in true violence and abrasion. The record's most notable quality is the sheer force of the rhythm section. Each song is roped in by its muscle, giving the listener something to grab onto during this crazed ride. Glazed Baby writes rock songs that are laced with more dense complexity than is usually characteristic of its school. "Michael Meyers" seems to be a quiet groove until it erupts into a Naked City inspired minute of screeching chaos. "Red Room" uses muted horns, fading in and out, to give the song a spy movie feel. The Babys even take a stab at John Lee Hooker's "Mad Man Blues," giving it a Glazed evil twist that makes it truly the band's own. —Cheryl Botchick

THOMAS MAPFUMO & THE BLACKS UNLIMITED Vanhu Vatema Zimbob, P.O. Box 2421, Champaign, IL 61825/217-344-6878)—If you bob your head to the Afrocentric sounds of Arrested Development, or pump your fist to the revolutionary rap of Public Enemy, you should know about Thomas Mapfumo, too. In the late '70s, Mapfumo's "chimurenga singles" provided the soundtrack to a political revolution that eventually succeeded in toppling the then-corrupt government from power. What he did with his music was equally revolutionary, taking the ancient, traditional mbira (thumb-piano) music of his native Zimbabwe (source of Vanhu Vatema's downward-spiraling, lilting melodies) and transmuting it through electric guitars, horns and trap drums into a kinetic, pulsing, thoroughly modern African dance music. For these monumental accomplishments, he's a revered figure rivaled only by Bob Marley or Fela Kuti (although James Brown circa '71 would be another apt comparison). Vanhu Vatema is a pure, unsullied album recorded in Zimbabwe, and although it may not have guest vocals from any Western stars, it's as spirited a world music album as you'll hear all year. In a more mundane way, apart from the music, Vanhu

Vatema also represents a bit of a revolution of another sort: it's the second Mapfumo album to be released stateside by the Zimbob label, set up by Mapfumo and two American fans to bypass the traditional channels of insensitive, cumbersome and often exploitative record companies. Zimbob your head to "Hanzvadzi," "Ndakura," "Ndozvamaida" and the title track.

—James Lien

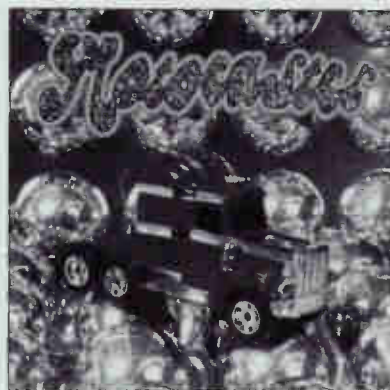

JALE Dream Cake (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—Hey hey Halifax. Of the new wave of Nova Scotian new wave, Jale is the band with the most breadth of ability and promise. On Dream Cake, their first full-length, the four women of Jale temper their pop with anger, their bitterness with sweet harmony singing. "Not Happy" opens the album with a hot blast of snarling, minor-key guitars, then gets its venomous lyrics across with three-part harmonies that are as coy as they are pissed-off; "I'm Sorry" is as slow and sad as its title suggests, but listen to the words and you'll notice Jale is singing things like "I despise the way you make me feel." The band's greatest strength is its arrangements; bassist Laura Stein has mastered the art of picking the perfect note and running with it (check out the drone that supports most of "Promise"), and guitarists Jenny Pierce and Eve Hartling fill in totally different parts of each song's sound, on the principle that the more hooks there are going on at once, the better. Jale's instrumentation can sound as massless as meringue (as with the intro to "Love Letter"), or the band can bear down and shove (as on "3 Days," re-recorded from an earlier single). Have your Cake and play it too: the above, plus "To Be Your Friend," "River" and "Emma." —Douglas Wolk

MOTOCASTER Stay Loaded (Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd. Suite 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—As the interest in '70s style flags, bell-bottoms have returned to the thrift stores and bands are scrambling to come up with something new. One of the answers is to dig deeper: Raleigh, North Carolina's Motocaster is exploring the source of the grunge phenomenon of a few years ago, the vastly underappreciated scummy underside of '70s rock. Flashes of such underground legends as the Stooges and MC5 seep through Stay Loaded, reviving the sloppy, irreverent spirit of those bands. Formed two years ago as Motorola, the band has been honing its craft, self-releasing a 7" single, and, after a name change to avoid legal problems, putting out a six-song EP on Fistpuppet. Producer Mitch Easter (known for his work with the dBs and R.E.M.) resists the temptation to make the record sound slicker, leaving a heavy distortion cloud that adds an honest, garage character to the songs. The real strength of the record, however, is its massive hooks, laid on thicker than those on dad's old fishing hat.

From the bluesy swagger of "Farah" and "Truth" to the jolting riff explosion of "Uranus" and "Motorolla Blues," Stay Loaded is the great record that contemporaries like Mudhoney and Surgery strive to make. In a world where style and substance are all too often mutually exclusive, Motocaster blends both into its own swank bouillabaisse. Try the above, plus "The Habit" and "Pull The Plug" to keep yourself Loaded. —Bryan McNamara

DES'REE I Ain't Movin' (550, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)

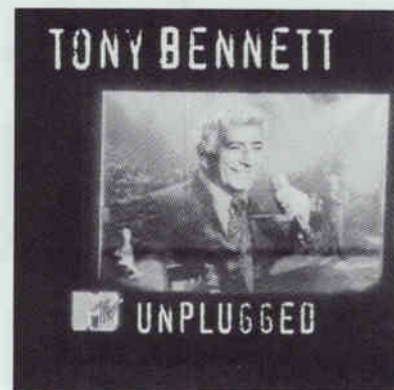

It is rare that an artist is strong in everything: music, songwriting and that voice. Des'ree is one such artist, and she demonstrates a striking brilliance that has rarely been matched; on I Ain't Movin', she conjures elements of plaintive Prince, Joan Armatrading's wry twists and the sultry, sexy drawl of Anita Baker. With most soul artists (including those mentioned above), the artist's strongest aspect is usually the sole focal point; for example, Anita Baker's songs can be throwaways, but when she sings them they take on a special quality. Des'ree has it all, making a record with good songs and stunning vocals that could be enjoyed both by people who find urban soul too goopy, or people who think the rare urban pop artist is too earnest. With that in mind, Des'ree has achieved something that puts her in the company of Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder (her vocal style is like the latter, too). Move to this: "You Gotta Be," "Herald The Day" and "Living In The City" (not the Stevie Wonder song).

FARSIDE Rigged (Revelation, P.O. Box 5232, Huntington Beach, CA 92615-5232/714-375-4264)

As post-punk and post-hardcore tags quickly evolve into post-post-punk and every other hyphenated phrase imaginable, California's Farside stands among the few bands which retain a grip on the spirit and aggression that predated today's swelling pop-punk masses. Rigged, the band's sophomore album, is rich with the kind of vigorous playing and keen melodicism that makes bands like Hüsker Dü and Bad Religion such vital (and complimentary) reference points. Mike Vogelsang's short, quick vocal runs, coupled with the band's dual guitar blend and agile rhythmic foundation, make Rigged a solid fistfight of an album, although not without an ample degree of emotional (albeit naive at times) subtlety as well. While Farside may be pretty straightforward in its context, its understanding of the harmonic and spiritual details established by its forefathers lifts the band's youthful throttle above many of its more visceral sensibilities. The best of Rigged: the caffeinated performances on "Kill Me," "Gesture" and "Wait For Monday," the strength of desperation in "Silver Anniversary," and the untempered melodic pull held in "Someday Too Soon" and "Audience."

TONY BENNETT MTV Unplugged (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)

Although this record may be part of somebody's calculated attempt to market Bennett to today's "kids," the results are miles away from the embarrassing affairs these things usually end up being. The songs on MTV Unplugged are ones that Mr. Bennett would perform for ANY crowd, regardless of age; actually, Bennett probably belts out these tunes while he's chopping vegetables or shaving. When he exclaims "love that song!" at the end of "It Had To Be You," you know he means it. Besides, for Bennett, being "unplugged" isn't some new gimmick—he often performs without even a microphone, relying only on the strength of his voice to fill the room. Although the set starts out a little shaky, Bennett really hits his stride by the second song, and on tunes like "Speak Low," "When Joanna Loved Me" and "It Amazes Me," his voice and phrasing exudes the same warmth, intimacy and sense of hard-earned experience that made Frank Sinatra call him the best classic pop-singer of all time. The best moment of MTV Unplugged, however, is when Bennett brings out k.d. lang—whom he puts in the same class as Billie Holiday, Edith Piaf and Hank Williams, calling her "one of the great ones of all time"—for a wonderful rendition of "Moonglow."

GODHEADSILO The Scientific Supercake L.P. (Kill Rock Stars, 120 State Ave. NE #418, Olympia, WA 98501/206-357-9732)—When a band is on the same label as riot girls, Bikini Kill and punk wonder Unwound, it's easy to get lost in the midst of the media hype, no matter how terrific the band is. GodheadSilo is one of the great lost ones, or at least hidden ones, although The Scientific Supercake L.P., the group's first full-length, is bound to prick ears and capture some attention, with its reverb overdrive. The LP relies on deep, steady grooves to carry the weight of its distorted experimentation. More than just another punk rock record, ...Supercake L.P. begins in a typical fashion but gradually falls into the realm of the unpredictable—starting with rough guitars which give way to piano pieces, and ending in complete dissonance (warning: the last song, "Battle Of The Planets," has been known to blow more than one speaker, play at your own risk). The band's unforeseen fresh turn on tired punk rock makes it worthy of many an accolade, and earns the band the title of "underdog favorite" on the KRS label. Supercake: "Birthday Sandwich," "Mr. Push Up" and "Hopefully They Will Learn." —Dawn Sutter

HALO BENDERS God Don't Make No Junk (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507/212-260-3389)—Though the Halo Benders have already been dubbed "Calvin Johnson's new project," one listen through God Don't Make No Junk reveals the combo to be a collaborative effort between Calvin and Built To Spill's Dug Martsch. Dug's whiny, yet musical voice proves the perfect foil to Calvin's familiar baritone, and both are equally matched at writing catchy song hooks. Though both Beat Happening and Built To Spill are known for tuneful pop nuggets, the Halo Benders' debut sounds remarkably unlike either band, rife with its own quirky personality. The instantly irresistible "Bikini," highlighted by a comical "boing!" (likely sampled from a sound-effects record), is a hilariously groovy Calvin (and Dug) rap (sample line: "Don't touch my bikini/Smile when you see me/You can stare that's a freebie"). "Will Work For Food" is a pretty, mellow-paced tune, while "On A Tip" has the catchiest guitar line this side of Built To Spill's debut. A couple tunes, such as "Freedom Rider" and "Big Rock Candy Mountain," feature a more garagey, Beat Happening-like feel, including organ work by Steve Fisk (who also mixed the LP). —Lydia Anderson

MAN...OR ASTRO-MAN? Destroy All Astro-men!! (Estrus, P.O. Box 2125, Bellingham, WA 98227/206-647-1187)—A way-out surf quartet from Alabama? Yes, the ever-querying Man...Or Astro-man? continues its seemingly never-ending string of releases (rivalling God Is My Co-Pilot) searching for its answer. The band's latest full-length, Destroy All Astro-men!!, is more Man... style, which, fortunately, does not wallow in the typical surf guitar instrumental or Ventures covers. Each of the band's releases reveals more of its love for television/movie nostalgia. Destroy... is decorated with samples of dialogue from old movies, television and strange records, so it comes as no surprise to see the "Mystery Science Theater 3000 Love Theme" included on the disc. The band even includes a few vocal numbers, even though they are mostly covers. Wacky soundbite segues and song titles like "Popcorn Crabula" and "You Can't Get Good Riblets In Space" indicate the Man...s' direction. For the best shimmy music try the snappy "Of Sex And Demise" or the spy-theme groove of "Gargantua's Last Stand." —Dawn Sutter

TRIPMASTER MONKEY Goodbye Race (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—There's certainly plenty of demand for great guitar-pop bands (although the supply is sometimes not as impressive as it should be), and Tripmaster Monkey's entrance with Goodbye Race should mark a high point in the genre. The production value is high enough to bring out the best in the band's hooks and melodies, but leaves the guitar with a gritty, human feel that preserves the youthful energy of its songs. Though the band's sound may have been tried before, Goodbye Race is an example of smart, innovative songwriting, one that refutes any accusation of simplicity. Each of the 12 tracks could stand as a single, with a melodic guitar riff and plenty of pleasing changes and twists; the skewed sense of humor hinted at in its song titles (i.e. "Roman Catholic Haircut") proves to be clever and engaging throughout the record, rounding out a strong full-length debut. Also recommended: "Albert's Twisted Memory Bank," "Depravation Test" and "Is That My Baghdad?" —Cheryl Botchick

MOSE ALLISON The Earth Wants You (Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—With The Earth Wants You, his third release for Blue Note, legendary pianist/vocalist/songwriter Mose Allison continues what he's been a master at for the past 44 years—writing and performing some of the sweetest swing and blues on earth—and does so with seemingly effortless grace and uncommon style. Allison's bag is delivering wry lyrics with a deadpan drawl that contradicts the cheerful bounce of his music, evident on such tunes as "Who's In, Who's Out" and the title track, or on "Children Of The Future" and "What A Shame," when he gets blue and mellow. Allison also lays down some steady New Orleans style grooves with the help of his band, which includes such highly-regarded jazzmen as Paul Motian on drums, John Scofield on guitar and Randy Brecker on trumpet. Joe Lovano guests on tenor sax on "Certified Senior Citizen" and the standard "Red Wagon." With the release of The Earth Wants You and an imminent slew of reissues from his prolific past, this may be the year that Mose Allison's genius once again breaks into the public consciousness. —Jim Caligiuri

tropicalismo legend Gilberto Gil's recent acoustic session, recorded for MTV Brasil and released here as Acoustic. Like Clapton's session, it's just Gil with a nylon six-string and a sympathetic, musical backup. Of course, the idea of acoustic Brazilian music is nothing new; in fact it harkens back to the early '60s bossa nova milieu from which Gil emerged, making Acoustic all the more resonant and significant. These days, the sound of so much of Brazilian music is dominated by synths and electronics, which often conceal the music's beauty and melodicism behind a silicon wall. On Acoustic, however, the music shines with the radiant warmth of the Brazilian sun; this music is green like a garden, blue like the sea. Not just the latest fad, this is truly a milestone, a watershed, a timeless recording that will endure for years on its simplicity, elegance and beauty alone. Now if we could only get Jorge Ben, Maria Bethania and Joao Gilberto into a similar setting—now that'd be a bandwagon we'd love to see people jumping on.

DOG FACED HERMANS Bump & Swing
(Konkurrel, c/o De Konkurrent, Postbus
14598, 1001 LB, Amsterdam, Holland/31-

20-6844153—From one of the most amazing live bands we've ever witnessed, Bump & Swing is the first live Dog Faced Hermans recording on compact disc. While concert albums are never a substitute for the excitement of a live performance, the Dog Faced Hermans' frenetic energy spills out of Bump & Swing, one of its finest releases. Originally from Scotland, the Dog Faced Hermans now live in Amsterdam, where they share bandmembers, political convictions and musical inclinations with another like-minded group, The Ex. Eastern European folk melodies, dissonance, free-improvisation and march rhythms add character to what is, in essence, still a punk band. The wide range of influences is evident in the diverse choice of covers of pieces by Ornette Coleman and Lydia Lunch's 8 Eyed Spy, and a Romanian gypsy folk tune. Even in their original songs, which keenly examine the human condition, a folk music influence is evident in both the vocal and trumpet melodies (particularly on "Viva," "Fortune" and "Keep Your Laws/Off My Body"), while the guitars and drums provide fury owing to more recent traditions.

—David Newgarden

DAVE EDMUNDS Plugged In (Pyramid, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778)—Backed by Dave Edmunds on drums, Dave Edmunds on bass and Dave Edmunds on keyboards, legendary singer/guitarist/producer Dave Edmunds offers his first studio LP in four years. Since this record is Edmunds' direct response to a slew of "unplugged" records, Plugged In is a very "studio" record, with wall-to-wall effects, especially on the Brian Wilson paean, "Beach Boy Blood." The light-hearted track recalls Jeff Lynne's obsessive Beatle approximations or Todd Rundgren's fine-tuned summer of love tributes. Edmunds has been recording for a quarter of a century, and Plugged In shows he knows where all the pieces and notes go. If anything, this record is tight to a fault, but there's still something about Edmunds' energy that always makes him worth a listen. Good reasons to plug in: "One Step Back," written by ZZ Top's Billy Gibbons, Otis Redding's "I Got The Will," the beautiful "Better Word For Love" (written by NRBQ's Al Anderson) and Edmunds' own "I Love Music."

—Steve Ciabattini

VARIOUS ARTISTS Excursions In Ambience—The Third Dimension (Astralwerks, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—There are those who say that ambient music is the Brian Eno of the '90s; but if it keeps getting bigger, it may well turn out to be the Steve Miller of the '90s. Space Time Continuum's "Floatilla" is pure "Fly Like An Eagle," without the rhythm section, and actually wouldn't sound out of place segued into side two of any mid-period Steve Miller Band album. Still, the ambient phenomenon continues to expand and explore the parameters of music itself. The third installment in the excellent Excursions In Ambience series continues the trend of music as mind-food, music as an assemblage of atoms, songs for something other than singing, an approach that's just as suited to architecture, psychology or perfume. Included are such masters of the genre as Seefeel, Future Sound Of London, Aphex Twin, Spectrum, Divination and Mike Kandel (one-half of the duo Tranquility Bass, which was featured on previous Excursions installments). On the cusp between the present and the future, this is quite possibly the most important music of this particular moment in time, whether you tune it in, tune it out, turn on to it, or simply use it on the outgoing message on your answering machine.

PIZZICATO FIVE Five By Five (EP) (Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—"The latest" from Japan is actually a well-kept secret that's been around since 1985. Pizzicato Five flew in from the same solar system as Deee-lite and Saint Etienne, combining retro-pop melodies with contemporary dance beats, hip-hop scratching and an irreverent sense of humor. Like Madonna or Urge Overkill, the band possess style and musical talent to match. The swank "Twiggy, Twiggy" is a bouncy uptempo bossa nova with chipper singing, cheesy sampled horn riffs, a wicked jazz bass vamp and cocktail lounge Hammond organ. "Boby Love Child" (an older tune re-recorded in English) is an alluring, syrupy-sweet song over a casual, lazy shuffle and layers of oboe, strings and strange voices; we won't hazard a guess as to what's sampled and what's live. Pizzicato Five's reinterpretation of American culture takes on a comical twist in Burt Bacharach's "Me Japanese Boy," with pentatonic "Japanese music" cliches and sappy lyrics. The disc's closer ("This Year's Girl #2") is a goofy satire (we hope) on pop star interviews, revealing singer Nomiya Maki's fashion and make-up preferences and deep personal secrets. Pizzicato Five are truly demented, yet very accessible at the same time. Look for a full-length album later this summer. —David Newgarden

VARIOUS ARTISTS Turban Renewal: A Tribute To Sam The Sham & The Pharaohs (Norton, P.O. Box 646, Cooper Sta., New York, NY 10003/718-789-4438)—Song titles like "Ring Dang Doo" and "(I'm In With) The Out Crowd"! Lyrics like "Yokomata oomalakwo JuJu hond!" Finally, a tribute record that is actually fun to listen to! Only the lunatics at Norton Records would assemble 28 (26 on CD) of today's top-drawer punk/garage/trash outfits to pay homage to Sam The Sham (a.k.a. Domingo Samudio) and his phabulous Pharaohs. Just in case ya forgot, or never cared, Sam The Sham & The Pharaohs are best known for recording mid-'60s top-tenners like "Wooly Bully" and "L'il Red Riding Hood," and toolin' around town in a hearse dressed like sheiks (with Sam sporting a turban). Just thinking about 'em, and lamenting the sad fact that such a band could never exist in these stuffy, jaded post-punk days, gets our eyes all misty. Anyway, Turban Renewal features some familiar Norton names, such as Hasil Adkins, the A-Bones and Untamed

Youth, alongside the Devil Dogs, Japanese punkers Teengenerate, the Lyres and Handsome Dick Manitoba (the original teengenerate), running through the Pharaoh hit-parade in a pretty straightforward, but usually sped-up, greasy way. Clear the room of all squares with cuts by: the Devil Dogs, Roy Loney with the Young Fresh Fellows, Vacant Lot and Nine Pound Hammer.

—Steve McGuire

ANDY PARTRIDGE/HAROLD BUDD Through The Hill (Gyroscope, c/o Caroline, address above)—Through The Hill is neither the pop wizardry of XTC's Andy Partridge backed by the minimal piano tones of Harold Budd, nor the improbable musical middle ground between those two. A primarily instrumental project sprung from the titles of illustrations found in antiquated texts, Through The Hill may seem like it'd be conceptually pretentious, but the results are surprisingly inoffensive. Track titles like "Well For The Sweat Of The Moon," "Bronze Coins Showing Genitals" and "Missing Pieces To the Game Of Salt And Onyx" seem overbearingly high-concept, but the majority of the tracks are warm, pastoral and inventive. The meandering and warbling pieces featuring sensuous Hammond organ are particularly welcome, reminiscent of the best moments from Robert Wyatt or former Budd collaborator Brian Eno. If Through The Hill seems fragmented, it's because it's based upon fragments, rough sketches and bits of unearthed archeological paraphernalia. The duo's often perverse arrangements and spooky snippets of percussion made by bells, gongs and other assorted oddities help keep the pieces from drifting off into new age drivel. —Steve Ciabattoni

EXPERIMENTAL AUDIO RESEARCH
Mesmerised (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/310-423-0281)—While fans eagerly await the next albums from Spectrum and My Bloody Valentine, Sonic Boom and Kevin Shields, the groups' extremely influential leaders, have been at work on something which might startle a few of their admirers (or then again, might put them to sleep). Billed as an "ongoing series of experimental mood music" by a "loose affiliation of non-resident sound-makers" (which also includes Kevin Martin of God, AMM percussionist Eddie Prevost, and unnamed "others"), Mesmerised is produced and masterminded by Mr. Boom, and is a logical progression from his drone pieces, as well as his song-oriented work in Spectrum and Spacemen 3. The album's four instrumental selections (ranging from seven to 26 minutes) are less minimal than his Drone Dream record, more like early Tangerine Dream than LaMonte Young's Dream House. Warm, simple, major key organ melodies levitate over humming electronics, chiming guitars, whirring backwards sounds and processed waves, slowly recurring as they become hypnotic mantras ringing in the unconscious mind. Drugs not included. —David Newgarden

DARYLL-ANN Daryll-Ann (EP) (Hut U.S.A., c/o Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019)—This splendid EP starts off with "I Could Never Love You," a track that'll thrill you if you like the Jayhawks or the best of Midwest folk/rock. So, these guys are from IL, NE or ID or something like that, right? Actually, the four men in Daryll-Ann are Dutch. Not that its surprising pedigree makes Daryll-Ann any better just because it's guys with names like Jelle Paulusma singing in "American," but it is kind of interesting. The band plays loose and full over six solid tracks, roping country rock and pure strum-along pop in with a genuine delivery. That is, the band doesn't sound like a novelty act learning "Southern Man" phonetically. Highly recommended: "Friends," "Come Around" and the sharp lead track. —Steve Ciabattoni

SKY CRIES MARY This Timeless Turning (World Domination, 3575 Cahuenga Blvd. W., Ste. 450, Los Angeles, CA 90068/213-850-0254)—Sky Cries Mary's reputation for turning every live performance into a spectacle of excess may start to wane following the release of This Timeless Turning. That's not to say the band's theatrical director/founder Roderick Romero will curtail his desire to incorporate explosive stage props into the act or cease his outlandish costume selections; rather, it's intended to note that an increasing amount of attention is likely to be paid to the strength of the band's actual songs. early Tangerine Dream-meets-David Gilmour synth/guitar epic "4:00 a.m." to the haunting, trance-inducing "Deep Sunless Sea" (reminiscent of Sinead O'Connor's work on The Lion And The Cobra), it's immediately apparent that the band is intent on covering a broader range of musical ground. While it's certain Sky Cries Mary will never become an everyday Seattle band, its use of driving guitars has taken such a priority that in a couple of places one can almost hear the obligatory grunge vocal. Fortunately, the whole project is a bit too atmospheric/psychedelic to allow that to happen, with the distant yet clear harmonies of Roderick and Anisa Romero pulling things even further away, adding a nearly Brit-pop vocal color. GODS CHILD Everybody (Qwest, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Everybody, Gods Child's self-produced debut, is a compelling amalgamation of several decades of songcraft, instrumentation and imagination. A listen is kind of like a trip through all those great late-'60s/early-'70s radio songs, albeit with a slight difference: the tracks on Everybody have been cooled out, unsweetened and seasoned with a little tongue-in-cheek smirk. Throw George Martin, Gary Wright, the Stones and Ween into a room and you're starting to get the idea. "Stone Horses" begins with a trebly backwards guitar lick which later emerges comfortably imbedded within the song's other instruments. The rubbery, laid-back groove of "Crucial," with its spacey, tremolo guitar, granite-solid bass and dreamy strings is particularly gripping, as is "Everybody's 1," with its distant Moody Blues-ish piano melody, a striking contrast to its funky guitar. Other groovy, psychedelically adventurous tracks: "14th St," "Reachin'" and "Sey."

KRISTEN HALL Be Careful What You Wish For... (High Street, P.O. Box 9388, Stanford, CA 94309/415-329-0647)—What hits you first when you listen to Kristen Hall's music is her distinctive voice. At times weathered and smokey, at times clear and dripping with passion, it's her most precious instrument. The songs on Be Careful What You Wish For..., Hall's first full release for High Street, deliver an emotional impact that she's only hinted at with her past work. With the help of Emily Saliers of the Indigo Girls, Matthew Sweet, Jules Shear, Tony Levin and Jerry Marotta, who produced the album as well as played drums throughout, Hall has fashioned the kind of record that will move her beyond her folk singer reputation and into the realm of respected singer songwriters.

Wish For these: "Open Arms," "Prey To You," "Don't Tell Me" and "Following My Compass."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

KEPONE "295" (7") (Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 410092, San Francisco, CA 94141-9092/415-431-5697)—Although you have to catch Kepone live to understand how good the band really is, "295" and its flip, "Phobic," will more than hold you over between the band's visits to your town. The Richmond, VA trio's greasy Minutemen/early ZZ Top/hardcore racket comes screaming out of the hi-fi with a vicious fury whose impact on eardrums and minds can only be compared to that of Kermit Washington's fist meeting the Rockets' Rudy Tomjonovich's face at center court. Ooof! As an added bonus, neither of these songs will be appearing on Kepone's debut long-player, which will be out in late August on 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go. —Steve McGuirl

UFO OR DIE "Shock Shoppers" (7") (Skin Graft, P.O. Box 257546, Chicago, IL 60625/312-989-9865)—The latest in Skin Graft's 7" comic book series, this single has been on the list of releases for quite some time, as Yoshimi and Yamatsuka Eye try to squeeze time out of their busy Boredoms' schedule. The whacked sounds of their primary band are carried over into this side project. "Shock Shoppers" features Yoshimi's wild trumpet blows and Eye's seemingly random noise, both sounds colliding and ending in a groove-filled song. "Zombie Tube" is gleeful noise. An added plus is the four-page comic by Eye, with incongruous English translations. —Dawn Sutter

LAMBCHOP "My Cliche" (7") (Sunday Driver, 2017 Lowerline, New Orleans, LA 70118/504-865-7327)—Nashville is usually thought of as a strictly country town, but Lambchop dispels that misconception. The band, which previously released a single on Merge, is back with more of its tinkling guitar pop. The slow and somber A-side is paired with the cheery, upbeat "Loretta Lung." The band will be on the second stage for the Aug. 4-11 portion of the Lollapalooza tour this summer. —Dawn Sutter

LYDIA'S TRUMPET Valentine (7" EP) (Faye, P.O. Box 7332, Columbia, MO 65205)—While singer-songwriter types are hardly in short supply, originality and talent are. Missouri's Lydia's Trumpet (essentially the front for Ray Kirsch), however, has that little something extra that make good songs even better. Sweet harmonies that harken back to Big Star play foil to slightly demented and morbid lyrics, a sharply moving combination. As on "Copernicus," a sorrowful ode to the man who discovered the sun to be the true center of the universe, Kirsch delivers even the most bizarre sentiments with emotion and flair. —Bryan McNamara

SONE/BUGSKULL Sone/Bugskull (7") (Ross, P.O. Box 15132, Portland, OR 97215)—Both of the Portland, OR bands on this split single play songs, but traditional songs are not all that either plays. Sone's "High Frame Audio," a lo-fi but painstakingly orchestrated bit of messy-haired pop, is followed by two short instrumental sketches: "I.C.," a strolling rhythmic percolation, and a noise-piece called "Pol (Fight Song)." On the other side, Bugskull surrounds "The Bloat," a poppy piece (unusual for them) with some strange falsetto singing and a deliriously noisy ending, with two disorienting, spur-of-the-moment bookends called "Exit" and "Entrance." —Douglas Wolk

LILY LIVER "Queen Of The Ball" (7") (Skinny Girl, P.O. Box 3922, Minneapolis, MN 55403-0922)—You know the formula all too well by now: harmonizing male and female vocals, the massive hook, the la-la-la chorus. Lily Liver comes amidst a flurry of female rock bands that have sprung up in the last year. Both tracks on the record are simply sweet pop offerings that reveal the band's musical prowess. Though it's been done before, this single is powerfully effective. —Bryan McNamara

FIG DISH Easy Lover (619 Wagner Road, Glenview, IL 60025)—With two acclaimed 7" under its belt, Chicago's Fig Dish hit the studio with producer Brad Wood (Red Red Meat, Liz Phair) to record this four-song demo, certain to afford the band full buzz-band status. Searing guitars augment pronounced, melodic vocals, the group's understanding of tune construction making each track catchy and hummable. Combining the forthrightness of Jawbox with the coyness of the Afghan Whigs, Fig Dish generates a magnetic charm almost as powerful as that of (gulp) Nirvana's Nevermind. The power chord-laden "Seeds" is an immediate standout, its alluring melody sure to perk up the ears of more than a few A&R folks. The equally stirring "Wrong Nothing" is a slower, more passionate brew, which retains its urgency through overly crisp production. The "bonus" (read: unlisted) track, a questionably-chosen Tom Petty cover, shows a more irreverent side to Fig Dish, the band giving the original a much-needed fresh twist. Easy Lover is an encouraging outing from a certain "next-big-thing." Be sure to check them out in September at the upcoming CMJ Marathon Showcase. —Bryan McNamara

FYI

It's a rare demo tape that reflects not only the well-developed songwriting of a band, but also a group's ability to stretch out of its mold and translate its sound into other genres. Boston's DELTA CLUTCH (Lady, I Like, P.O. Box 614, Bedford, MA, 01730) does this seamlessly, and has made a debut 7" full of stylistic depth and twists. The A-side starts out with a country sound of lazy slide guitar and harp, but by the second verse the band shifts gears, bringing it to a more rock-oriented sound reminiscent of the Jayhawks. By the closing riffs, the Southern flair is gone, leaving straight-ahead rock in its place. On the flip, Delta Clutch takes a shot at an acoustic ballad ("Baby, The Rain"). Though the vocals occasionally reveal a strained effort to maintain a country-ish sound, Delta Clutch manages to mix and mingle several different sounds to create one of its own. It's this kind of ingenuity that makes this single stand out from the stack. —D.I.Y.

OVER SEAS

dEUS Worst Case Scenario (Island, 22 St. Peters Sq., London W6 9NW, U.K. 081-741-1511)—This Belgian quintet's debut album isn't released until August 22, but it's so good, advance warning is necessary (or a case of 'you heard it here first'). Risking generalization, few British or American bands have the nerve or the verve to take such risks, to blend such a multitude of styles and make it sound like an organic, rather than a 'by-committee,' development. That all five members have had their own bands, with experiences that lend opposing and probably contradictory expressions, makes a world of difference. With a frontal attack of guitar and violin, dEUS is an art-rock dream, investing a melodic 'grunge' (Nirvana and Smashing Pumpkins aren't inaccurate touchstones) with Tom Waits-ish vocal and vaudevillian jazz, gothic-fing'd progressive rock (Peter Hammill/Van De Graaf Generator fans will know what I mean) and new wave manic-thrill pop—great, a band with no particular place to go. To these ears, the result recalls a modern version of the original Pere Ubu or an Eastern Europe/Russian ensemble, where the musical stew had developed unaided and uncorrupted, but has also been bombarded with a weird twist of cultural rays, behind iron curtains, so that all the sonic radiation is contained and pure. Worst Case Scenario is a best case scenario—yearning rock, jazzy onslaught, folkish laments, serious swing. Piercing violin, treated vocals, jittery, uncoiling guitar, giddy tempos, the uncanny way the wedges of sound interconnect. Gleeful mania, soulful yearning, let's-get-lost abandon and tension flux. Amazingly, for a 15-track album, there isn't a weak link, but for best cases, head for "Suds And Soda" (the debut single), "Let's Get Lost," "Hotel Lounge," "Jigsaw You," "Via" and "Right As Rain." dEUS has taken its name from the Sugar Cubes' song; expect the same brilliant out-of-the-blue sense of discovery.

8 STOREY WINDOW 8 Storey Window (Ultimate, 271 Royal College St., London NW1 9LU, U.K./071-482-0115)—Overseas has sometimes argued the case for progressive rock as a place of heightened imagination and multi-dimensional mindfuck, like a great novel. In such hands as these, the argument is safe. Like that of Levitation, whose ex-mentor Terry Bickers lends production assistance, 8 Storey Window's rock is built on physical and emotional terrain, detailed by undulating guitars, keyboard haze and an expressive rhythm section, except this duo (principal instrumentalist Chris Conklin and drummer Andy Crisp) is more intent on following a less fractured, edge-of-an-abyss path. 8 Storey Window moves through a more specifically horizontal plane, its songs spanning out across wide open gulfs, not so much sky-kissing rock as sky-embracing (the out-in-nature feel is reinforced by titles like "Screaming Waterfalls," "Close To The Sky" and "Flower Hill"). 8SW songs are folksy-white West Coast at heart, with no trace of bluesy grunge, but just as capable of rockular levitation; good cases in point are the recent single "I Will," "Next To Nothing" and the album's highlight "Already Gone," which highlights the way the band seems loathe to overembellish and overdramatize, so the song remains paramount. Against the music's predominantly calming influence, the words are more unsettled, prone to emotional insecurity and self-doubt. 8 Storey Window is a fine starting point—the sky's the limit.

MABUSES The Melbourne Method (Rough Trade, 66 Golborne Road, London W10 5PS, U.K./081-960-9888)—The Assassins never made it past one frustratingly great EP; abandoned by his two colleagues, Kim Fahey then turned himself into the Mabuses and recorded a sublime debut album, which Kramer produced. Having recorded the Egomaniacs album with the Shimmy-Discman, his own follow-up, The Melbourne Method, wears the same quirky features—a pop sensibility that sounds like a new wave-concise version of the British Canterbury/'60s/psychodelia scene (Kevin Ayers, Robert Wyatt, Syd Barrett) with a penchant for sea-shanty momentum with a surfeit of obtusely playful, probing lyricism, a framework of brittle guitar twang, and an all-round inventiveness. The difference lies in a steelier sound and production; The Melbourne Method is more of an urban swirl in comparison to its predecessors' breezier bucolism, probably the result of time spent in New York. Yet Fahey continues the English eccentric's particular dictum that the pop song is something to ruffle feathers with as much as put the listener in harmony, with sing-along songs about "childhood, murder, racism, comedy, disfigurement, machismo, social awkwardness and plain lunacy," according to the writer. Method act to "Glass Of Bourbon," "Keller Joins The Joyce Gang," "Lynch" and "She Went Wild."

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Nobody could have predicted the amount of interest the reformed RAINCOATS would generate: exuberantly acclaimed album reissues and equally praised concerts. Now the band's Peel Sessions are released, and it's a total blast. Even in the absence of Vicky Aspinall, the violin sounds like part of the family, while Sonic Youth's Steve Shelley, despite being such a muscular drummer, perfectly judges the band's off-kilter rhythms. The two new tracks, "Don't Be Mean" and "We Smile" both reverberate with the same turbulent, vulnerable folk-punk drama as the early releases plus tinges of the lovers-rock 'n' soul that Gina Birch adopted for her post-Raincoats project Dorothy. "No One's Little Girl" and "Shouting Out Loud" are as good as their original versions, swaying and surging, shrill and bossy, the vocals a mass of crooning, cooing and sighing. The atmosphere is one of a joyous renaissance—this was one reunion everyone was ecstatic about, and the Raincoats might sound like a brand new buy because of it (Blast First, 429 Harrow Road, London W10, U.K./081-969-8866 [The Raincoats Peel Sessions, entitled Extended Play, are out domestically on Smells Like Records—ed.]...What is it about Sweden these days, and specifically the Soap (nee Snap) label? After the Wannadies, Popsicle, Easy and Eggstone comes MUFFLON 5 and "Freewheeling," a deliciously rolling event in the currently '70s-style vogue, like a composite of the Eagles, Rolling Stones, Big Star and Steely Dan, with—yup—freewheeling, freeway-gliding airs and a woozy, stinging guitar solo. "The Size Of Buddha" alternates between sun-kissed slinkiness and more rousing rockularity, with an undercarriage of Hammond organ and Wurlitzer piano, plus two unfurling guitar solos. Post-hardcore through a golden haze, or, in other words, summertime, and the living is easy...[Soap, P.O. Box 3271, London SW2 1AQ, U.K./071-738-6112]...Talking of the WANNADIES, "Love In

Column by Martin Aston

June" comes out the same week. It's not so hot as the band's previous Raspberries-esque high spots, being a neat but slightly pedestrian guitar-rock rumble through decidedly Big Star/Teenage Fanclub territory. A competently degenerate throb through the Stooges' "I Got A Right" is more in line with the Swedish underground's old Detroit-trash fixation, and that's it. Identity confusion or what? (Soap, address above)...In the same week as the NECTARINE NO. 9 release a radio sessions album (Guitar Thieves; see last Overseas) comes a 7" vinyl single. "This Arsehole's Been Burnt Too Many Times Before"/"Can't Phone Potatoes" is the usual Nectarine-ish low-rent, jitterbug-pop fare, fractious and frayed, as lean as a pole, scratchy like fleas, with Davey Henderson's American-accented, diffident vocal and glam-fuzz guitar. The soundstage is back to 1981 or so—no electronics, no indie-pop confectionery, just the wiriest, thorniest post-punk (Postcard, P.O. Box 546, Glasgow G12 8N4, Scotland/041-339-3742)...After Tanya Donnelly departed, Kristin Hersh steered Throwing Muses into denser, power-trio territory, where heavier dynamics communicated a more base dysfunctionality. Whereas Sidi Bou Said echoes the Muses early fragility, FLEDGLING is like a more traditional version of the current sound' curiously, founder members (Eileen Rose, who contributed vocals to Therapy's Troublegum album, and Dave Bower) are Bostonians in exile. The debut Youwannamakeacakeyougottabreaksomeeggs EP teeters on the edge of an FM mainstream but all four tracks retain an emotional precociousness and vivid drama alongside the wide screen, anthemic allure. Rose totally embraces her chance, abrasive on "What If I'm Right," tender on "Fledgling," soulful on "Disappointed" (Gecko, c/o Rock Hard PR, 19 Pinfold Road, London SW16 2SL, U.K./081-677-8466)...While in the same arena, THRUM's second single, "Here I Am," is typical of the Scots quartet's fulsome guitar-rock with that usual gut-level Gaelic ambience, but Monica Queen's big-lunged, white-soul quiver and Johnny Smile's equally bluesome guitar tips that balance in the direction of the FM band—'college-arena' rock, if you will. "Waiting For The Sun" is similarly broody and mighty, while "Get A Life" is the understated acoustic reverie, though from the lyrical message, Monica isn't about to let the fire go out. With dEUS' fiery ambition and Thrum's fiery traditionalism, it's been a good week (Fire, 21A Maury Road, London N16 7BP, U.K./081-806-9922).

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions 1-351 of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5 equal or upward position, #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more, #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

ON THE CHART

Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys remain the champs this week at #1, while Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots (3-2) and Interscope's Helmet (2-3) continue to battle it out for the second place position. Epitaph's Offspring (6-4) and Reprise's Green Day (7-6) continue to make progress this week, along with ZTT/Sire-WB's Seal (10-8) and DGC's Counting Crows (13-9). Sub Pop-Interscope's Reverend Horton Heat makes a smashing debut at #5, sweeping the top In-store and Breakthrough spots as well (see Retail Focus).

DGC makes a splash with the #14 debut of its DGC Rarities Vol. 1 compilation, featuring songs by Nirvana, Hole, Sanic Youth and Counting Crows. Others new albums charting this week come from of: Creation/550-Epic's Velvet Crush (#46), Epic's M People (#48) and Epitaph's Down By Law (#50), as well as Columbia's crooner Tony Bennett, whose Unplugged disc enters at #61.

Scat-Matador's Guided By Voices (17-12) reaps the benefit of record sales, boasted by the band's recent "Insects Of Rock" tour. Netwerk-Arista's Sarah McLachlan (36-20) resurges as Columbia's Toad The Wet Sprocket (29-24) moves towards the top, while Revelation's Farside (70-31) makes great leaps for punk rock. Shangri-La's Grippers (64-39) steal their way up the charts, as the band leaves Memphis for a summer tour. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

REVEREND HORTON HEAT

Coming from down Texas way, the good Reverend Horton Heat hustles his way to the top with his first Sub Pop-Interscope release, Liquor In The Front (#5; #1 Breakthrough, #1 In-store). The album offers more of same fine preachings we're accustomed to from the Rev. and pals, in other words a punkabilly rock out. The three-piece plays surf tunes and rockabilly with a non-traditional twist, offering a bit of down home fun, straight up.

DOPE!

DA BRAT Funkdafied (So So Def, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Da Brat comes from the windy city of Chicago and offers a hazy, funk-ed-out debut, Funkdafied (not to be confused with MC Breed's similarly-titled debut, minus the "d"), which is anything but turbulent or aggravated. Lately, it seems that hip-hop has generated a new breed of female MCs: women can throw fists as heavy as those of their male counterparts, exemplified by the Lady Of Rage, or, as in Da Brat's case, can swing a cool blend of hand-clapping, jeep-ready, bottomless funk. Funkdafied is produced by hit-maker Jermaine Dupri (he also steals an occasional verse), who is best known for paving gold paths for Kris Kross and Xscape. His formula is simple: keep it live-sounding and toss in sampled hooks to set it all off. On "May Da Funk Be Wit 'Cha" and the title-track, Da Brat shows her slack, Snoop Doggy Dogg-like flow, which traipses through nearly every cut. With an ear for fun, Da Brat remains dedicated to talking about her hardcore mindset. In "Ain't No Thang" she states: "Muthofuckers want to test me, cops want to arrest me/But fuck that, you get a hole in yo fuckin' head." Though she's not quite as convincing as many of her peers, Funkdafied has the makings to become one of hip-hop's biggest records by a female MC in a long time. Get up on it: "Da Shit Ya Can't Fuc Wit," "Celebration Time" and the Lenny Kravitz-sampled "Come And Get Some," featuring raps from Kris Kross' Mack Daddy.

BIG MIKE Somethin' Serious (Rap-A-Lot, 12337 Jones Road, Ste. 100, Houston, TX 77070/713-890-8486)—There are two prerequisites for becoming a member of Houston's Geto Boys: First, you must be hard-as-hell on the mic, and second, you must make solo records. After one record as Willie D.'s replacement in the platinum-selling group, Louisiana native Big Mike has made the self-fulfilling, autobiographical album he's been waiting to make since before he signed up as a full-time Geto Boy. Surprisingly honest and introspective, Somethin' Serious is furbished with the patented Houston-funk found on records by Scarface and others, while Big Mike's dramatic narrative analytically reveals the world he has become a product of. He never apologizes or claims to be different than anybody else, and cuts like "World Of Mine," "Havin Thangs" and "On Da Real," with their straight-forward verbalizing, help make Somethin' Serious' street-wise logic a refreshing and believable change. The real standout here is "Daddy's Gone" (featuring Mr. Scarface), which tells the story of a torn couple and a woman who is left to raise a fatherless child. While the message is clear, Scarface blatantly states in big letters: "So here it is brothers: If you're gonna have babies, you need to father them muthafuckers." Ouch!

ON THE CHART

TEN OUT OF ELEVEN AIN'T BAD: That's how many weeks Columbia's Nas (1-1) has kept Illmatic atop the Beat Box chart. It looks like PayDay/frfr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (2-6) has given up the fight, while Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (4-2) moves up two spots. While the fervor for Gee Street-Island's Gravediggaz (12-5) has greatly increased, So So Def-Chaos' Da Brat debuts Funkdafied into the top 10 this week (13-8). Rounding out the top 10 is Tommy Boy's House Of Pain (19-9) and Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G (14-10), who seems about ready for a new single. Further down we're monitoring releases from Def Jam/RAL-PG's Public Enemy (22-17), the debut of It Takes A Thief at #19 (highest debut) by Tommy Boy's Coolio, and Epic Street's MC Eiht Featuring CMW at #21. Also new to the chart this week are Pallas' E-Rule at #31, StepSun-Tommy Boy's Troubleneck Brothers at #35 and EastWest America's female rap-attacker Champ MC at #40. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) House Of Pain; 2) Roots; 3) Mic Geronimo; 4) Boogiemonsters; 5) Rompage—The Last Bayscout; 6) Warren G; 7) MC Solaar; 8) Terminator X And The Godfathers Of Threatt; 9) No Face; 10) M.O.P. SHARA NELSON What Silence Knows (Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—In 1991, the Soul II Soul offshoot group known as Massive Attack released an album featuring a vocalist named Shara Nelson. Three years later, this English soulbird's debut, What Silence Knows, travels a road of self-discovery, of moving out of the darkness and into an invigorating new light. Members of the press have called her the Aretha Franklin of the '90s, and her soulful soundscapes cast warm hues with their dancefloor-friendly grooves on "Nobody," "Pain Revisited" and the timid "Inside Out," where her vocal waves are caressed only by a guitar. Shara speaks from experience, her lyrics and delivery evoking the emotion of a 1970s diva on "Chance." "Down That Road," "Upright" and "How Close" were co-written by PM Dawn's Prince Be and are mildly flavored with PM Dawn's drifty production. This is one of the strongest soul records of the year. Hear for yourself on: "One Goodbye In Ten," "Thoughts Of You" and the lavish "What Silence Knows."

ABOVE THE LAW Uncle Sam's Curse (Ruthless, c/o Relativity, 79 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10003/212-337-5300)—It seems that the menacing profile of a gun is slowly become less obvious in rap. Rappers rapping about keeping hip-hop "real" and not sounding like every gangster wannabe on the block has made the sounds of gunshots and bitter, foul-mouthed loathing a sure-fire way to get pigeon-holed. The title of Above The Law's third long-player seems like an attempt at a conceptual think-piece that is going to break down the black struggle on every level. While Ice Cube's Death Certificate attacked the same problems with a Black Panther's rage, Uncle Sam's Curse is less caustic and at times bogged down with uninspired musing of survival and transcending one's social condition ("Concrete Jungle"). While "Black Superman," which shows compassion for the hustling providers of the world, "Rain Before Rain Bo" and "Gangster Madness" all display agreeable messages, cuts like "The 'G' In Me" and "Kalifornia" make you wonder if the group's central theme is really that urgent. Cold 187um's production, however, is improved and fat-free. The hex is on: "Set Free" and "Who Ride," which features Tone Loc and Kokane.

DEF 12

ORGANIZED KONFUSION "Stress" [96 BPM] (Hollywood Basic, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521)—For some of us, the anticipation surrounding Organized Konfusion's new record has been downright frustrating. From the upcoming Stress (The Extinction Agenda), OK delivers a tightly-wound cut featuring writing, production and remix work by the Large Professor (the silent third member on this one) and a sample courtesy of Charles Mingus' "Mingus Fingus No. 2." Prince Po and Pharoahe Monch trade high-strung lyrics, which are tormented by the oversaturation and apparent corruption affecting hip-hop. A sure-fire winner.

WORD IS...

A few days before Interscope's TUPAC SHAKUR was seen leaving a New York City courthouse hearing, spitting at every media reporter within range, Philadelphia officials cancelled a 2Pac concert, saying his music and image were unsuitable for families. 2Pac is awaiting trial in the shooting of two off-duty Atlanta policemen last year. David Cohen, chief of staff for Mayor Edward Rendell stated: "This is a bad person, his lyrics are consistent with that type of behavior." While some musicians have condemned the city's motion, ADX, from the group URBAN ASSAULT, asked: "What kind of message does this send to black people? They can have Ku Klux Klan marches, but we can't have a concert?"...MCA's BIG DADDY KANE is getting ready to ship his new 12" single entitled "In The P.J.'s" with a B-side cut titled "Show And Prove"—my fingers and toes are crossed...BREAK OUT THE WIZARDS: Jasmine Vega, who has been running JPR Publicity, has taken a post at Priority Records in California in the publicity department—way to go!...Kevin Liles has been bumped up to national director of promotions at Def Jam/RAL. He can be reached at (212) 229-5225...BODY COUNT (fronted by ICE-T) will be releasing a new album

BIG MIKE'S ON THE LOOSE! While record buyers are still flocking for the G-funked sounds of Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G (1-1) and So So Def-Chaos' Da Brat (7-2), Rap-A-Lot's Big Mike (the newest member of Houston's Gelo Boys) quickly moves his first solo album, Somethin' Serious from 15-4. A handful of slots down we see Columbia's Nas (13-9) move back into the top 10 and Gee Street-Island's

Gravediggaz debut "Diary Of A Madman" at #11. Also making debuts this week: R&B/New Jack crooner Keith Sweat debuts his fourth album, Get Up On It, at #21 and Weeded-Nervous' Mad Lion debuts "Girls" at #23. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

August 29...Wild Pitch's THE COUP is working on its second album, entitled Genocide & Juice, with Bay Area-rapper SPICE 1. The album is due to drop in October...Gee Street's MYSTERME & DJ 20/20 will be releasing their second single, "Playtime's Over," before the LP Let Me Explain comes out later this fall. Also from Gee Street, PM DAWN is in the studio working on a third album, which PRINCE BE promises to be a revelation...R. KELLY has written and produced the debut single from Maverick's N-PHASE entitled "Spend The Night," which has unsurprisingly been a hot item at urban radio...Relativity has signed East Oakland's DRU DOWN, who has been buzzing-up Northern California for months. The first single from his C-Note-Relativity album, Explicit Games (release date: August 23), will be "Pimp Of The Year," due out August 9..

BLOWIN' UP

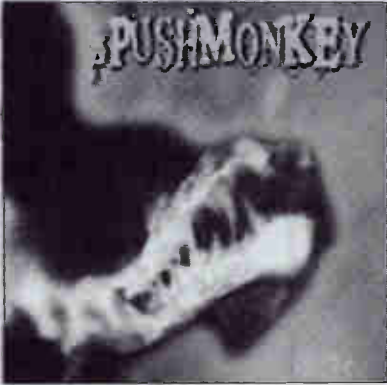

HOUSE OF PAIN Same As It Ever Was (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300) Radio Chart Position: #9—For its second album, Tommy Boy's House Of Pain had to figure out a way to come off harder, to go beyond the affectionate "Jump Around" and deliver a grittier and nastier record, but without estranging its cross-cultural fan base. Same As It Ever Was pushes, jabs and torments the listener with Everlast's gravelly delivery, eventually pounding you into submission or causing you to jump around without having to be prompted. Amid mixed reviews, the marketable trio is proving all doubters wrong, as Same As makes a 10-spot jump up 19-9 (also holding at #8 on the retail chart) and takes home this week's #1 Adventure Pick. In its third week on the chart, House Of Pain swipes 22 out of 82 radio reports, including top 5 reports at the following stations: KCCR, KQAL, WGMU, WIUS, WMLN (#1), WMSE, WRRR, WRUW, WSGR, WWSU, WXUT.

Maize
(Sector 2, c/o Futurist, 6 Greene St., New York, NY 10013/212-226-7272)—This unconventional Austin, Texas band fuses rock, soul, funk, metal and rap, creating a unique and rousing sound. Maize shines with originality, as it guides you through thick soundscapes of intense machinations and vivid melodies. Imagine the combined sounds of Soundgarden, Biohazard, Fishbone, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Primus, Led Zeppelin, Prince, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Jimmy Buffett and Bob Marley for an approximation of the elaborately rich and inventive sound of Pushmonkey. The band's utilization of diverse instruments—timbales, congas, bongos, bells, rainstick, shakers, jangle tree, trumpet, piano, vibraslap, skillet, govina, not to mention two lead guitars, bass and drums!—emphasizes Pushmonkey's eclectic sound. There's something for everyone on Maize, but the harder-leaning crowd should check out the heavy, funky slam of "Crush It," the crunchy rap of "Monsters," the catchy grind of "Mother" or the fiercely dark and throbbing "A Little Harder." Also give a listen to the very short 'n' twangy (40 seconds!) "Ordinary Cowboy," with additional vocals from Willie Nelson (!), the bizarre "Sweet Caribbean Bungalow" and the swirling groove of "Media Shark." Sit back, enjoy, and lose yourself in the Maize. —Jenni Glenn

DANGEROUS TOYS

Pissed
(DMZ/dos, 500 San Marcos, Ste. 200, Austin, TX 78702/512-322-0617)—Texas' Toys are back once again...and they're Pissed. After two releases on Columbia Records, this time 'round the boys have signed with a smaller hometown independent label to release their third loud 'n' lively LP. With the addition of new guitarist Paul Lidel (ex-Dirty Looks) and the obvious musical progress of the other bandmembers, Pissed rocks harder than any of the band's past offerings. The band's rowdy, aggressive attitude erupts over catchy, heavy-groovin' melodies, forming the perfect rock 'n' roll party atmosphere. Jason McMaster's thick, raspy wails ring out with enough fierce intensity to make even Love/Hate's Jizzy Pearl wince. The band's feisty sense of humor barrels through on the riotous "Oh Well, So What!": "Too bad I left my rubbers in my other pants!/Oh well/So what/Who cares/I don't listen anyway!" The mid-tempo title track rumbles through fiery licks and thundering drums, while maintaining a catchy, sing-along chorus. "Pain Train" swaggers with turbid harmonies and grinding grooves, while "The Law Is Mine" rocks with a more upbeat, foot-tappin' rhythm. For a lighter, get-close-and-neck-in-a-dark-corner tune, check out the heartfelt "Promise The Moon." Also give a listen to the very un-slacker-alternative "Loser," "Strange," "Hard Luck Champion" and "Illustrated Man." —Jenni Glenn

MELTS

Salicoutinaw
(227, 620 S. Elm St., Ste. 306B, Greensboro, NC 27406/910-271-6633)—Springing from Hotlanta, Georgia, the Melts take their influences from old Black Sabbath, Melvins, Alice Cooper and Black Flag. According to the band, its goal is to "soften metal to the point at which it can blend and subsequently infiltrate the minds aplenty of the universe." The Melts are definitely on the right track. They bend and sauter metal into so many formations that there are surprises around every curve; the music slowly dies, then slams right in your face again with another angry protest or sadistic scream. This is the Melts' third release on 227 Records and undeniably its loudest. Guitarist/vocalist Theo X wails, howls and raps his way through the 15 tracks on Salicoutinaw, while the guitars and drums give you that old fashioned bump and grind cadence. About 20 minutes after the last track there's an improvisational encore for you to feast your ears on; it ends with a drum solo of slow rippling skins and a shrieking guitar. We hope its message of love and growth from the "universal collective unconscious for the purpose of knowing thyself" gets spread far and wide. —Lana Wraith

"Don't Care" (5")
(Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Believe the hype...Obituary fucking rules!! "Don't Care" is the first single from the band's upcoming fourth LP, World Demise; also included on this three-song sampler is another tune from the album, "Solid State," and the previously unreleased "Killing Victims Found." Over the years, Obituary has refined its bludgeoning death metal assault without losing any of the brutal intensity that put them on the map in the first place. With "Don't Care," the band has reached into its cauldron of darkness and pulled out yet another monstrous mixture of raw, explosive power.

ARGH!!! IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

Edited by Jon Wiederhorn
and Paul Sommerstein

This time around, the band experiments with a variety of different tempo changes, sampling effects and a deeper, groovier grind. Known for substituting screams in place of actual lyrics on previous albums, John Tardy has completely changed his vocal approach to a much more palpable, roughly-tinged rasp. The lyrics also play a very important part on this offering, tackling the on-going problem of environmental destruction. The time has come...look for World Demise to hit your desks the first week of September.

BLIND TRIBE

Blind Tribe (EP)

(Miramar, 200 Second Ave. W., Seattle, WA 98119/206-284-4700)—Produced by Don Gilmore (Pearl Jam, Temple Of The Dog) and recorded at Bad Animals studio (R.E.M., Soundgarden), Blind Tribe's debut EP has all the ingredients to be a super-huge slam-dunk for this Seattle-based foursome. The band refers to its music as "heavy groove rock," and after listening to this six-song debut, you'll know why. Blind Tribe isn't just another Seattle "grunge" band; the group sounds a bit like a Kyuss/Soundgarden mixture, with an extra funky, slammin' bass groove and pulsating, tribal grinds. Dominic Garcia's highly emotional vocals crash through a dense wall of heavy guitars and crunchy rhythms, only to slip 'n' slide over a menagerie of melodic overtones. "Mold" thrusts and twists with massive, potent waves of instrumentation and pummeling drums, while "Set Me Free" floats weightlessly through clouds of swirling melody. Also, take a gander "Through The Trees," then check out the slammin' "Over My Head," the beautiful "She Was Family" and "One Single Sunset." This is one tribe you'll definitely want to join.

INTERVIEW

By Jenni Glenn

For the first time in over 12 years, the original Killing Joke line-up is back together (minus drummer Big Paul) and stronger than ever. Since the band's inception in 1979, Killing Joke has played a major part in influencing a countless number of bands, including heavyweights like Soundgarden, Nine Inch Nails and Metallica. By combining a unique blend of industrial rhythms, Middle Eastern melodies, foreboding intensity and fiercely grinding instrumentation, Jaz Coleman (vocals, keyboards), Geordie (guitar) and Youth (bass) have created a sound all their own and without comparison. The band's new album, Pandemonium, produced by Youth, who's also worked with the Orb, the Firemen and Crowded House, will hit the streets next month and is definitely one of the band's best offerings to date. I recently had the opportunity to chat with Geordie when he called me from a pay phone at the seedy No-Tell Motel bar in NYC to tell me what's been going on with the band.

Jenni Glenn: Let's start at the very beginning...how did the band originally get together?

Geordie: I applied to an advert that I just really liked. It said, "Wanted: Guitar and bass, total anonymity, total exploitation, to tell the Killing Joke." It just looked like serious phonetics, so I applied and went down to see Jaz where we immediately got into an argument over our tastes in music and got on like a house on fire. Apparently, they had 90 applicants and he and Big Paul were already looking to basically get started. The name was there, but they needed the band to do it, so Jaz put the advert out, and I moved in before they even heard me play! I moved in on April Fool's Day, 1979! [laughs]. Then we put another ad in, very much along the same lines, for a bass player, and Youth rang up. Jaz wasn't really sure about him, because he didn't like the sound of Youth on the phone, so we used this other bass player that didn't work out. Big Paul had been in Egypt with his band and when he came back he didn't want the bass player we had, so I said, "Listen, I'm gonna check out this guy Youth." So, I went and tracked him down at his lair...this sort of really strange hotel with lots of gay people in it. He was living in this really funky hotel with Alex, who is now in The Orb and they had gone to school together. It was just like this real sort of wild place that they lived in. I was really determined to have him in the band, and that was it.

This is the first time in 12 years that the original Killing Joke lineup has been together. What made you decide to reunite?

We thought of our past course together and it just sort of fell that way. During the previous album, Youth was upstairs doing Bananarama. We hadn't seen him since '83 and it was nice to see him again. At the same time, Virgin was doing our best-of album and I got involved with it to make sure the right tracks were being included. I rang Youth to see if he had any photos for the sleeve and he just said, "Ah, man, we should reform! It will be great! We'll go out to Japan and everywhere." I thought he was joking! Within the month, the offer was in and off we went.

Are you planning to stay together, or is this just temporary?

We're planning to stay together.

I know you're planning a major tour. Where will it take you first?

I don't know yet. We're doing three festivals in Europe, where we're third on the bill. Iggy's headlining the one in England, and I think INXS headlines the other two...one in Holland and the other in Belgium. I think we just signed with Zoo in the last month or two and we just met them over here in September. So they say, I mean, you can never bloody tell.

Looking back on the hundreds and hundreds of live gigs you played over the past 15 years, what one stands out the most in your mind?

The most recent London gig was wild, because we just made a complete event out of it. We went on at four in the morning and the fire eater we had with us brought his girlfriend on stage and it was like a live sex act during "Exorcism!" I was just standing there watching them and I couldn't believe it! So, that was an absolute event, but the show the night before was just like frightening...really good. The only other one before that was the gig in Reading that we did with Youth in '81 or '82. It was one of those things where you're playin' away and suddenly it all goes quiet...total silence...I looked down and there's these hands playing this guitar and I wasn't there, man. Everything went silent at this gig and I looked over at Jaz and he was on it too. We just looked at each other and we weren't there for a second and then all of a sudden there was this rush and all the noise came back in, there we were and the audience was just going wild. Quite a gig...absolutely transcendental.

Do you think the time spent apart from Jaz and Youth helped or hindered you in creating Pandemonium?

It absolutely helped. It got to the stage where me and Jaz were kind of strangling it and the music was tending to be sort of overarranged, I think, and it's nice just having Youth getting it back together.

Are you happy with the overall outcome of the album?

I'm deliriously happy.

The album was recorded in a variety of different places. How long did it take you to complete?

We got all the backing tracks down in three weeks in New Zealand, took a couple months off, came over to England, then Jaz, Youth and the engineer went over to Cairo and did all the verses for "Pleasures Of The Flesh" and the whole of "Exorcism"...they did that live in the King's Chamber in the Great Pyramid.

Why did they choose to do it there?

Jaz has always had a fascination with the place. He's been there a few times and it was just kind of a ritualizing and crystallizing of the moment, you know, like a ritual performance.

I heard that you recruited some local Egyptian musicians to help you out on this track.

Yeah, some percussionists. They spent a couple of weeks there, came back to London, finished the vocals and put more keyboards on. Then we put more Egyptian violin and Arabic violin on in London, because the top Egyptian violinist is a chap called Aboud Abdel Al and he's in London. He's an absolute master. He's like in his late 50s.

So, do you think you'll start a new trend in Middle Eastern industrial music?

[Laughs] Yeah, maybe, maybe. I always liked the Alex Harvey Band, that's what really started getting me playing when I was a kid. The Sensational Alex Harvey Band always used a lot of that. There's a lot of similarities in the Scottish pipes and Arabic music...the drone kind of thing and that kind of detuned sort of vibe.

Your first video is for the song "Millennium." What's it like?

It's fucking great! It's wild! I don't know where to start describing it. We're not performing in it at all. It's just all shit happening, man, it's all really fast editing.

What was it like working with John Klein (U2, Inspiral Carpets) on the video?

Great, man. He said to me, "Get me the 30,000 pounds and I'll go into South America for three weeks and come back with a finished video," and I went, "Yeeeah, the fuckin' audacity of him!" I liked him from when we first met him. The record company was kind of a bit scared, but we met him a couple of times and then we talked them into it and we're very happy with how it went.

Explain the meaning behind "Millennium."

The best person to ask about that would be Jaz, but it's just the whole point that there is a sort of massive vibe that goes down at the end of every century and there's always a big change, where stuff is always in turmoil and I think we're heading that way. I think there actually has to be some sort of massive change, because that's what were heading for and it's inescapable. That's the vibe of the video, there's this monster fucking truck bearing down—it's subliminal, you keep seeing flashes of it. It's about to be upon us and there's no way of escaping it...it's gonna happen.

"Exorcism" is a pretty graphic track, with a very strong message.

Yeah. It's like, if you have a resentment and keep it bottled up inside yourself, you'll get yourself cancer probably. It gives you fucking cancer, literally, you know.

For awhile there, Killing Joke's sound shifted from a harder-edged style to a more dancey techno style. What made you decide to go that direction?

Well, if you listen to our early stuff when Youth was involved, it's in there. I'll tell you, if the ties and the sequences would have been around then, we would have been doing it then, but they weren't. We used to use the keyboards and an echo for the effect and Youth just went off in that direction, being a producer and all. It was always a part of us...sort of dance music with guitar on it.

Tell me about the different conflicting personalities in the band and how that helps your creativity.

Well, you're just going to have to come down and meet us, aren't you [laughs]. Let's see, how can you explain that over the phone? Well, we turn it into something positive. Now, it's a lot more sophisticated how we present our arguments and our differences, being 10 years the wiser, you know. It's definitely not a mutual fucking appreciation society. We all have very strong individual ideas and we have to fight for them...we still fight for our ideas. It's a chemistry thing.

Bands from Ministry to Metallica to Nirvana to Nine Inch Nails all cite Killing Joke as an influence, who do you consider your influences?

I don't really know, I haven't really been influenced by anyone since I was about 15 or 16. Once I actually started doing it myself, I didn't really listen to other bands. I went my own direction. Growing up, the Sensational Alex Harvey Band was my favorite band and I used to listen to the radio a lot. Radio in the late '60s/early '70s was quite fantastic with some of the music that was about, from Sparks to Juicy Lucy...I mean, there was some really wild stuff out there. I was listening to the Beatles by the age of eight and my friend's older brother, who was 18, had all the early Pink Floyd and all the sort of psychedelic Beatles stuff. I used to listen to that a lot, and today they're still some of my favorite songs.

Since you are considered one of the big innovators of the industrial movement, why do you think that Killing Joke's records rarely ever chart in the U.S., while bands like Nine Inch Nails and Ministry receive huge amounts of exposure?

Well, we've never had a proper fuckin' release! We've got it right this time. I think we'll be on again soon enough.

What's going on with the Nirvana lawsuit you have over "Come As You Are?"

Our publishers wrote their publisher and said that we had a copyright infringement, but then they dropped it and didn't pursue it any further, which I was kind of disappointed with...it's obvious even to the most casual observer, it's exactly the same fucking riff.

Metallica covered one of your tunes, didn't they?

Yeah, "The Wait." They were very honest and honorable about it and wrote to the management and asked for the lyrics because they didn't know what they were.

How do you feel about Prong, since a couple of ex-Killing Joke members have joined the band?

I went to see them a couple times and I think they're okay. I like "Whose Fist Is This Anyway." That's my favorite track off their new album. You know, the heavy metal disco one that they try to sound like Killing Joke on.

When you're at home and you want to sit back, relax and listen to some tunes, what do you reach for?

I've been listening to the new dub mixes Youth's been doing...reggae dub mixes of the title track to the album and they're really groovy. I listen to the radio a lot, too. There's about four stations that I listen to in Detroit—the University station plays some wild stuff sometimes, then there's a Canadian station and an alternative rock station, which I listen to now and again. There's also some really good black stations I listen to for disco music in Detroit.

What made you decide to move to Detroit?

My wife's from there. We had a boy in England two years ago and after that she just wanted to be next to her family and friends for awhile, so I said, "Fair enough."

Obviously, music is a very influential and powerful tool, what would you like to see more of in today's music and lyrics?

Killing Joke. [Laughs]

Good answer! What do you hope to accomplish with your new album?

I would like to see some gifted individuals be inspired by it, but if a lot of people like it and buy it, that's fine too. I'm just going to enjoy playing it live.

In closing, is there anything you want to tell all the readers out there?

Don't ever, EVER mix Italian brandy, vodka and whiskey...

Words to live by. Don't forget to check out Pandemonium in August and don't miss Killing Joke live when they come to destroy your town on their upcoming U.S. tour. ■

HEY!!! Nudeswirl needs your help! The band is currently looking for a new singer/guitarist. Anyone who is interested should send a tape and photo to: Nudeswirl, c/o Crazed Management, 210 Bridge Plaza Dr., Manalapan, NJ 07726. If you need any other information, please call Missi Callazzo at (908) 972-3456...Congrats to Sepultura, which received the #1 Album of the Year award from Kerrang! in the U.K. for Chaos A.D. ... On July 3, Suicidal Tendencies joined Metallica on stage in Chicago for a crazed rendition of "So What." Mike Muir had to be pushed onto the stage in a wheelchair because of a knee injury that occurred at a previous show in Des Moines. Evidently, Mr. Muir's got quite the cozy couch to lounge on during ST's sets of late and hopefully he'll be all healed in time for the second leg of the tour with Alice In Chains. Get well soon! Keep your eyes peeled for the Epic soundtrack from the movie True Lies, featuring a killer version of "Sunshine Of Your Love" from Living Colour. Some other cool Epic releases coming your way soon: on July 26, Satchel's EDC; on August 16, Mother Tongue's self-titled debut, and on September 6, a new album from Arcade!...Everyone should have the debut album, entitled Bad JuJu, from Red Light Records' hot new act The Pleasure Elite on his or her desk now. Check it out. Also from Red Light, give a listen to the new Cianide, A Descent Into Hell—it'll kill ya! The Pleasure Elite, Skatenigs, Sarkoma, Dave Uhrich and Cianide are all setting up interviews now, so if you're interested call Jill at (708) 297-6538. Also, a big congratulations to Tom Silver, who has been promoted to national VP of sales & marketing for Red Light Records from his position as VP of West Coast marketing & promotion. Way to go!...Energy Records' Pro-Pain (whose new album, by the way, is amazing) performed a special advance live show for its hometown NYC fans at the Limelight on Sunday, July 17. If you missed it, fear not! You can catch the boys on tour with Overkill starting mid-August. Dates on the way...Atlantic's Rust, signed by A&R rep Tom Carolan (Stone Temple Pilots), will be playing on the Lolla Eve tour (the night before Lollapalooza) with Inch and Gumball. The NYC date is August 3, 1994 at the infamous CBGBs...I'd like to thank everyone for contributions to the Argh!!! news section. Keep it up!! Send all news/tours/pictures to Jenni Glenn/Metal Editor, CMJ New Music Report, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301 or fax to (516) 466-7159 Attn. Jenni/Loud Rock News. Thanks!

BITES O' THE APPLE

It's been four decades since jazz 'n' blues singer JOE WILLIAMS' heyday with the COUNT BASIE ORCHESTRA. But thanks to the former's smooth-as-silk, deeper-than-deep vocals and the latter's unstoppable swing, they're forever linked and frequently reunited, as they were at the Blue Note July 12-17. Williams, he of the pristine diction and easeful delivery, and the 18 swingers directed by tenorist Frank Foster generate instant empathy and electricity. Separately, Williams (Here's To Life, with the Robert Farnon Orchestra) and the Basie brigade (Basie's Bag, live from Detroit) prove they've still got it on new recordings from Telarc (23307 Commerce Park Rd., Cleveland, OH 44122/216-464-2313)...Imbued with the spirit (from her childhood church-going in Houston) and partial to blues and jazz tunes giving primacy to her sensitive, sometimes sultry persona, singer ERNESTINE ANDERSON treks cross-country from her home in Seattle for a weekend stint, Aug. 5-6, in Montclair, New Jersey, at Trumpets nightclub. A consistently pleasing singer with better than 40 years of experience—a new CD for Quincy Jones' Qwest label is said to be in the works; one hopes it isn't another contemporary-crossover, pop-glazed confection—Anderson is likely to take the all-acoustic high road here...Yet another well-regarded singer, ANDY BEY, brings his warmly resonant, light-heightened intimacy to two Manhattan jazzspots, Cleopatra's Needle (July 15-16) and Smalls (July 21-23). Undervalued at home, but not in Europe (where he's an esteemed teacher), Bey croons "Nobody Else But Me" on the new Fred Hersch-produced Last Night When We Were Young: The Ballad Album (a CD benefitting Classical Action: Performing Arts Against AIDS). Besides doing two numbers on tenorist Bob Malach's new album (Japan only), Bey has in the works his own recording, which features all original material and orchestrations by William S. Fischer... The alto and, especially, soprano saxophones have become the favored winds of the limp love-jazz crowd. There's no danger, though, of STEVE WILSON going merse (commercial) any time soon. He's too busy making explorative recordings of his own for the Dutch Criss Cross label (Blues For Marcus being the latest) and cutting sides with his buddies: drummer Ralph Peterson (Art), pianist Bruce Barth (In Focus) and drummer Billy Drummond (Native Colours). July won't be a lazy month for Smith. The versatile reedman brings his quartet to Smalls July 17 and Visiones July 22-23; a few days later he begins a high-profile sideman gig with the quintet of stickman Marvin "Smitty" Smith at the Village Vanguard (July 26-31)... The dependable, time-tested bassist CECIL McBEE, arguably the best duo partner a gigging pianist ever had (he might as well get his mail sent to Bradley's or Zinno in Gotham), is also, in his own words, a "rookie bandleader." When he leads his own quintet at Downstairs at the Metropolis July 29-30, the gig will mark the first time he has sported his own larger-than-trio group since a stint at the now-defunct Tin Palace some two decades ago. Interestingly, McBee, now 58, set his sights on composition when he first arrived in the Big Apple. Thing was, though, he won such quick praise for his taste and timefulness (on gigs plus recordings by Andrew Hill, Jackie McLean, Charles Lloyd, Pharoah Sanders, Wayne Shorter) that he became so in-demand as an accompanist that his time wasn't his own, a necessary state of affairs for an aspiring writer. Over the years, the perception in jazz circles that McBee is ultra-ubiquitous (he's busy but not booked solid) and prohibitively expensive (he commands a respectable but hardly astronomical dollar) has been a mixed blessing. This past winter, a snow-slowed time for McBee and everyone else, the Tulsa-born bassman took

ON THE CHART

Verve-PG's Roy Hargrove Quintet continues to dominate on what is this week a particularly volatile chart. Two altoists, Elektra's David Sanborn (12-2) and Navus-RCA's Maceo Parker (11-3), make big jumps, and four artists return to the chart, most notably Columbia's Horace Silver at #8 and Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West (#13), which returns for its 15th week on the jazz chart. There are two chart debuts this week and they're both debut artists: trumpeter Michael Ray & The Cosmic Krewe on Evidence (#19) and saxophonist Lily White on Knitting Factory Works (#25). Reporters: Note that there are two current World Saxophone Quartet albums; please be sure to specify which you are playing in your faxes and phone reports! (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) to the piano and out sprouted a bountiful crop of new original compositions. (To date, McBee's tunes have been recorded by the likes of McCoy Tyner, Charles Tolliver and the aforesaid saxmen Lloyd and Sanders.) To bring these new tunes to fruition he formed a new group comprising young-bloods James Zollar (trumpet), Randall Conners (alto), Dave Beckman (piano) and Matt Wilson (drums). If you haven't heard of these guys, "you will," the leader promises. Knowing McBee's decades-long presence on stages with leaders who bow without bending over to "tradition," it's unlikely he'll bring a bunch of callow greenhorns into the Metropolis. This booking, along with the new young-blood quartet ATYMONY (And The Young Musicians Of New York) being led by the still-youthful-sounding saxist Bill Saxton (he's only 46 for crissake), is interesting in light of the youth movement being favored by the (youthful themselves) bookers at various new jazz rooms around town. One booker is said to have quipped, "I don't book anyone over 30!" McBee and Saxton, terrific with professionals of any age, benefit from the youthful cachet—and energy—of their groups at the same time they stay competitive in what often seems an overly youth-obsessed idiom.

JACKPOT!

FRS "Harder" (12") (Global Cuts, c/o R&S, 82 Limburgstraat, 9000 Gent, Belgium)—

There can be no doubt that Carl Craig is the most consistently adventurous and compelling dance producer around. His brand of techno has an experimental rigor that never loses sight of the dancefloor. His recent exploits as 69, with the hammering "Jam The Box" single, introduced him to a whole new audience. This gem, co-produced by Black Youth Of America, is where Craig's rhythmic sensibility approaches what could be termed accessibility. The shimmering organ chords which form the track's intro give way to Craig's characteristic complex percussive arrangements, which he brings to the fore at unexpected moments. The crisp, three-dimensional handclaps and snare hits form a perfect counterpoint to the drifting, melodic keyboard lines. Like Craig's recent restructuring of the late '70s German analog classic, "E2:E4" by Manuel Gottschung, this does not immediately fill the floor with leaping bodies, but it works its way into your nervous system and refuses to let go. The flipside's jagged, worried reworking of MFSB's "Love Is The Message" is a jump, tense affair with resounding kick drum. Magnificent.

MORE DANCE MANIA

If Chicago's Dance Mania is not the best independent dance label in the country, then which label is it? Over the last year, record after record from the stable has sold out both first and second pressings. With the sort of pure electronic groove style the roster of artists can produce time after time, it comes as no surprise. The two latest satellites from the west side of Chicago are the frenetic Factory Style EP by JAMMIN' THE HOUSE GERALD and 1991 House Trax Vol. II by ERIC MARTIN AND TRAXMEN. Gerald, a resident DJ at the Factory, has assembled a clutch of jump-started endorphine tracks not designed for relaxation. The flipside's first two cuts incorporate frantic samples from Crystal Waters, Hateful Head Helen and Jamie Principle into a slice-and-dice 909 drum track that could fell a redwood. Eric Martin and Traxmen take on the seldom discussed topic of the pleasures of inhalation on "Pass The Blunt 2 Me," then turn every drum machine to maximum power on the ferocious "Fuck That Shit Up." What is so refreshing about Dance Mania music is its total lack of pretension to some shopworn, ravey notion of unity or spirituality. This is music made to be heard in a spartan setting on a sound system loud enough to make paint peel, and nothing more. (Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, 3145 W. Roosevelt, Chicago, IL 60612/312-521-6300).

THROW DOWN YOUR DUKES

The enfant terrible of the lower Manhattan house empire, DJ Duke has returned with a couple of tracks just in time for those long, hot summer nights over at the house that Vasquez built on W. 27th St. Thankfully moving away from the "tribal house" sound, Duke has gone back to the mixing board with his claws sharpened, whipping together two low-frequency stormers. "Confusion" by MUSIC MADNESS (12") casts its watchful, diachronic eye on the NYC indie dance world of 1985, sampling generous chunks of New Order's glowering, Arthur Baker-produced "Confusion." The sub-bass,

ON THE CHART

This is turning out to be a long, hot summer, one in which Douglans and Cobain, a.k.a. Future Sound Of London, command the top position on the chart for the fifth consecutive week. The biggest leap this week is Astralwerks-Caroline's latest ambient comp (22-4), Excursions In Ambience—The Third Dimension, and it's no great surprise that Island Red-ILS's (quick) domestic release of the new Orb EP is the highest debut, at #8. Look for Pomme

Fritz to make a rapid ascent here in the coming weeks. The follow-up to Volume (UK)'s massively successful Trance Europe Express makes an impressive appearance at #12. This week's other new entry is the Pelican Daughters' long-player on Silent, in at #21. Caroline and its related labels certainly made their presence felt this week, with no fewer than four records in the top 25. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) woofers-exhausting breaks here have the sinewy quality of Duke's earlier efforts, "Caught In The Middle" and "Love Don't Come Easy" (Power Music Trax, c/o Power Music/212-982-2506)...Minutes later, along comes the deep, reverberating bass line acrobatics of "Wild Pitch" by MUSIC FREAKS, sonically indebted to the wild pitch inventor, DJ Pierre. The dense, rumbling bass expands and contracts, depriving the room of oxygen with its overwhelming weight, producing frequencies no longer heard, only felt (Sex Mania, c/o Power Music, address above).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

The minimal hardhouse aesthetic currently winning converts from Chicago to London to Berlin means we can look forward to a slew of exciting records in the months to come. Young producers enamored of Dave Clarke and Cajmere's kick drums and Rob Hood and DJ Funk's sparse analog arias are springing up everywhere. One of the best of the new crop is the phantasmagoric Distress Signal/Alien Transmission EP by 1016. Produced by the elusive S. James, this is a record wound tight as a tape measure, recoiling with considerable force. Handclap sprays shower the mix, falling between percolating bass burps and the hollow, rounded kick drum. This is released on Bush, the Manchester label home to Dave Clarke's in-demand "Red" series (Bush, Ducie House, Ducie St., Manchester M1 2JW, England/061-237-9499)...I'm always singing the praises of Thomas Heckmann, whose mammoth talents are often overlooked. His latest collaboration with Hoschl (from the Frankfurt LabWorks label) is a diaphanous exploration of the ocean floor. "Realms Of Human Unconscious" by PURPLE PLEJADE is a melodic, breathing exercise with a humming, electric beauty (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, 5600 CK Eindhoven, Netherlands/040-450434).

BITS O' THE WORLD

THOSE DARN ACCORDIONS! Squeeze This! (Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614/312-528-5455)—OK. It's summertime, summertime, sum, sum, summertime and the living is miserable. To hell with a serious bid for world music Jackpot-ism. What I need as the temperature rises and the moisture hangs in the New England air is a dumb dose of silliness. Take a can of frozen B-52's, add a tablespoon of Weird Al's Tabasco For Lovers, some Elvis Costello, a touch of the Go-Gos and one large ripe Welk. Let it sit for a week, then stir in at least a quart of Bellow's brand rot gut accordion liqueur. Stir with a red hot polka, never shake, never strain. Drink deep, squeezing the Welk over the rim of the glass every few sips. Voila! Eight accordions, a bass and a drum kit are all it takes to move the squeeze box into the last century in a beehive and tease filled mess of wheezing and wailing. Grand Funk Railroad deserves to be covered by this kind of band. So does Charlie Daniels. Hendrix might not find the humor in a 60-year-old guy singing "Fire" to the sound of a bellow and reed band, but he's dead. He'll get over it. Little did E.C. know that the real meaning of "Pump It Up" would be revealed in 1994, nor did Louis Prima and Gene Krupa dream of Those Darn Accordions! when they blew out "Sing, Sing, Sing" in the '40s. This is sheer nutty genius, a one hit wonder that you'll probably come back to all summer, and well into the fall. Irresistible good fun, so, Squeeze This! and Everybody polka! —Cliff Furnald

Cliff says: While I'm off in Finland, Brent Wilcox of KOTR and KCBX has offered to cover some of my slack, and offers this magical list of goodies:

WILCOX' WISH LIST

What do SHANG SHANG TYPHOON, SHOUKICHI KINA, HECTOR ZAZOU, ZAP MAMA, EDWARD II, 3 MUSTAPHAS 3, VARTTINA, AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE and DUB SYNDICATE have in common? They all triggered tons of phone calls when I played them as imports. And they've all eventually, even extensively, shown up domestically. It's always a pain to play great music and then be unable to tell listeners how they can find it. In this neighborhood, imports can be special-ordered at the shops, provided a distributor can be located (and if I can't find one myself, the shops often don't pursue it any further), and few people seem inclined to mail-order stuff themselves—especially overseas. But I can't just stop playing great music just because it's hard to locate, can I? I mean, after all these years, the music finds me as often as I find it!

So here's a list of some international items that get "heavy phones" (that's the industry term, right?) but are still chronically hard to find. Call it a wish list for domestic releases. I ought to mention that all the On-U Sound material would have been on the list, but at the last minute I discovered that Restless is now handling the label over here.

RINKEN BAND and NENES—The next two nominees from Okinawa, hot to follow in the footsteps of Kina and Shang Shang Typhoon. Of course, I must have waited about six years for Shoukichi Kina to become widely available. Rinken Band even has the blessing of the mighty Mustaphas! [Both of these bands have been "in the works" for a long time at Tri-Star.—Cliff]

SAINKO Out Of Tuva (Crammed Disk (Belgium))—More cool music from the Steppes. This is more a modern pop/folk album (with aid from Hector Zazou) than the avant vocal free-improvisation she more often performs.

ANITAS LIVS Ugh! (Slask (Sweden))—I know Cliff's mentioned this one [About a million times!—Cliff]. Here's a trio of Swedes with percussion and synthesizers, playing mostly old Bessie Smith tunes.

ON THE CHART

While Luaka Bop-WB's Zap Mama continues to reign at the top of our New World charts (#1 on 10 stations), with RealWorld-Caroline's Sheila Chandra (2-2) and Giant-WB's Manu Dibango (3-3) close behind, the top five is rounded out by Chaos' Youssou N'Dour (6-4) and Mesa-Mesa/Bluemoon's Black Uhuru (7-5). The biggest rebound this week comes from Elektra Nonesuch's Caetano Veloso E Gilberto Gil, which rebounds 23-9 after a one-week dip from the top 10. The ethereal sounds of Worldly Music-Triloka's Trance Planet compilation make the highest debut #14. Other debuts of note include RAS' Massive Resistance (#19), new Elektra albums from Beres Hammond (#21) and Skadanks (#22), and reggae perennial Culture (#23), whose latest Heartbeat outing is a fine collection of vintage dub sides. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

This is pretty incredible, really. Mixes well with Ingrid Karklins, Laurie Anderson and D'Cuckoo.

HEDNINGARNA Kaksi! (Silence (Sweden))—Another known fave of Cliff's. Wild Swedish folk music that explodes every boundary associated with "folk music." Amazing. Utterly.

LARS HOLLMER (Xource (Sweden))—Great avant-folk Swedish accordion player, originally from the '70s progressive band Sammla Mammas Manna. He's got a half-dozen solo albums out, a best-of CD, and a new one coming soon. My listeners love him.

RINDE ECKERT Finding My Way Home (DIW (Japan))—San Francisco-based operatic singer and composer. He's performed extensively with Paul Dresher, and his solo album features Bill Frisell. Runs the field from gospel-tinged country, to something akin to later King Crimson. Unique and powerful, but trapped as a Japanese import on DIW. Sony hasn't picked it up domestically, jazz importers ignore it for the most part, and the only place I've been able to find it is from the artist himself.

IVA BITTOVA—I don't know which side of the border this formerly Czechoslovakian artist is on these days. She's a remarkable singer and violinist, taking traditional motifs into post-modern territory. She often performs with percussionist Pavel Fajt, with connections to Fred Frith. She has at least two albums on the Pantón label, and one on No Man's Land (Germany).

AISHA KANDISHA'S JARRING EFFECTS

(BARRAKA ET FARNATSI (Switzerland))—Frenetic, funky, psychedelic Moroccan rock. So modern it's probably banned at home, and released out of Switzerland. There are a couple albums so far, but my vote for domestic release is Shabeesation, co-produced by Bill Laswell and with a smattering of Material players guesting.

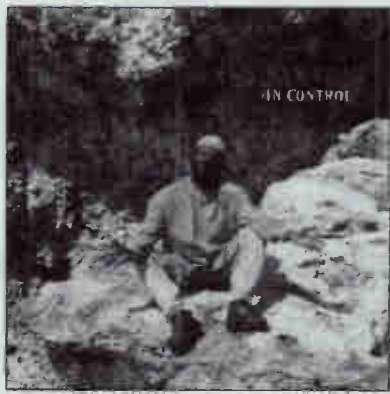

IRMIN SCHMIDT—Former keyboard player with Can, at least two albums of his have come out in the past couple years, only to completely and utterly vanish due to either contractual weirdness or distributor apathy. I can only guess and gnash my teeth in frustration. There must a warehouse full of them somewhere, but not even friends in Germany have been able to track them down. The same seems to be happening with a recent (1993) Holger Czukay album. Can't find that one either.

I'd love to get your feedback on this list. E-mail me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com.

Cliff will be back in New Haven on August 1.

Peace.

Column by James Lien

BERES HAMMOND In Control (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Center, New York, NY 10019)—For soulful crooner Beres Hammond, this album is a long-overdue chance to consolidate his reputation as one of Jamaica's great talents. In Control, his first for Elektra, showcases his soulful crooning and bears a very appropriate title—Beres produced the entire album himself, rather than relying on outside producers or collaborators to deliver crossover hopes. On "Just Say No," he brings on board the gruff hoarseness of Buju Banton, who contrasts sharply with Hammond's sweet pipes, making for a rapper vs. crooner tag team match that stands out from the rest of the album's sophisticated R&B/reggae blend, almost as unexpected and jarring as a sudden guest appearance from Everlast or Busta Rhymes would seem on a Teddy Pendergrass or Frankie Beverly album. The best moments of In Control come when Hammond hits the right blend between smooth and sweet, as on "No Disturb Sign," "I Won't Surrender" and "I Could Beat Myself" (which really owes a writing credit to Johnny Clarke), where there's just the right blend between commercial currency and pure Jamaican flavor to make the album work. The fact that Hammond is literally In Control is significant enough; perhaps the success of this album (along with Terror Fabulous' recent unadulterated dancehall record) will pave the way for other reggae artists to write their own destinies and record their own albums from now on.

CULTURE Culture In Dub: 15 Dub Shots (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—There's a moment about a minute or so into "Dog Eat Dub," the lead track on this CD compilation, where Joseph Hill hits a note, the repeat button on the echoplex kicks into infinite, and suddenly, in true dub style, Joseph's vocals are seemingly beamed into space, to be picked up by satellite dishes on alien worlds, spreading the reggae vibe to all points throughout the vastness of the universe. Well, maybe that's a little heavy, but it's easy to succumb to such cosmic contemplation when you listen to this CD of dub treasures from Culture's trove of S.E. Pottinger-produced tracks. Like all Heartbeat reissues, the sound quality is vastly improved over typical reggae reissues, with deep throbbing bass and lots of wide-open space inside the music—with dub, it's often the spaces between the notes that are just as important as the notes themselves. You can't beat a record like this for setting a mood or creating a vibe: cue up "Moses Rockers," "Iron Sharp" or "Dub Shine Bright" for a taste of dub at its deepest and most resonant.

REVIEWS

DES'REE "You Gotta Be" (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Des'ree's domestic debut I Ain't Movin' is nothing short of wonderful. Her voice is vibrant, but never overblown. Her songs are primarily pop/soul, and are presented both honestly and sweetly. In short, this ain't no syrupy, 101 strings Whitney wanna-be. The stately black-and-white video that accompanies the album's lead single, "You Gotta Be," reveals Des'ree's multi-colored talents as video technology enables several images of Des'ree to share the same frame. Dressed in either a long black or long white dress, Des'ree is the only figure seen in the video (much like Seal in his latest video, excepting the dress part) and she, and her doubles, keep the viewer engaged. She moves as fluidly as she sings, and her presence is charismatically enchanting. (SC)

JESUS LIZARD "Glamorous" (Collision Arts/Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Although there are a few token crowd surfing shots in "Glamorous," it would have been virtually impossible to film this clip without some thrashing body being tossed past the camera at this particular Jesus Lizard show (held at NYC's infamous CBGB's during its 20th anniversary celebration). What makes this such a powerful and alluring video is its utter lack of pretense: No matter how much stage lighting, multiple camera shot sequences or slick editing Warner Bros. could've mustered up, it's the band's reckless performance that ultimately fills the screen with intensity. Frontman David Yow looks as menacing as a serial killer even without dramatic lighting and the band plays with violent determination as the camera is forced to surrender to the crowd's throbbing sea of movement. As far as live videos go, it doesn't get much better, or live, than this. (CH)

VELVET CRUSH "Hold Me Up" (Creation/550, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—The members of Velvet Crush make no bones about what really grows their sideburns and flares their trousers; just check out the cover of their latest album, Teenage Symphonies To God, their current fashion interests, or the presentation of their latest video. "Hold Me Up" is not only a parody of the commercial aesthetic of the 1960s and '70s, but an ode to the band's musical heroes (Big Star, Neil Young, the Byrds) as well. Imagine the introductory segment to The Partridge Family or the ridiculous presentation of a TV-ordered pop hits collection from the '70s ("This and other great stereophonic hits! Call now!") and you're starting to get the picture. Winking at your own obvious influences has never been more fun. (CH)

YOUSOU N'DOUR WITH NENEH CHERRY "7 Seconds" (Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Bluegrass and polka are perhaps the only styles Senegalese singer Youssou N'Dour has yet to embrace in his music. Often chided for his dilution of African music, N'Dour is concerned only with the purity of his intentions. Singing alternately in French and English, he weaves this pleading track of unity underneath a cool, dense street beat. Here, the black-and-white film technique is used to even out skin tones in the faces of the multi-cultured extras in the video. Cherry is gripping as always, her presence adding many intangibles to the power of this clip. (SC)

MARILYN MANSON "Get Your Gunn," (Nothing, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—Marilyn Manson isn't Charlie Manson's estranged wife turned rock star. Marilyn Manson is a band, the first to be signed to Trent Reznor's Nothing label. In this hyper kinetic video the band makes the word "intense" seem inadequate. It's easy to see what Reznor liked about MM; the band's singer has all the frenzied angst of the NIN front man and even adds a touch of Alice Cooper's nightmarish presence to the mix. Certainly something to keep you awake at night after repeated viewings. (SC)

KATELL KEINEG "Partisan" (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—This self-directed video from Dublin-based singer-songwriter Katell Keineg is a welcome introduction to the passionate blend of Celtic folk, pop, jazz and blues found on her debut album, O Seasons O Castle. Filmed in a variety of European settings, the clip effortlessly keeps pace with the song's bubbly rhythm, seamlessly traveling around Keineg and her environments with giddy abandon. If this colorful, fast-paced clip doesn't grab your attention, then Keineg's voice will. (CH)

GUEST DIALOGUE

Dentistvision provides that Germany/Belgium fair tackle in full view.

World Cup Report: Part Three. By the Dentists, EastWest America recording artists and World Cup aficionados.

As the group matches fade into memory and the sudden-death phase is well underway, normal service is resuming. Maradona is once again revealed as a cheating bastard, promising so much, but back on the self-destructive path again. Argentina without him were limp and rightly stuffed by Romania. Germany moved up a gear, eliminating Belgium (just), but couldn't ride their luck past Bulgaria and the biggest giant fell in Giants stadium. And team USA finally bit the dust. Americans everywhere should be very proud of your boys. It took the team of the moment to beat you (Brazil, our tip for the Cup), and even then they had to resort to a bit of the rough stuff with old Leonardo giving Ramos a king headache. Still, ten of them were good enough. Now, things are hotting up. Will Italy's luck hold now that they meet the bouncing Bulgarians? Brazil, are looking ominous. How do they make the ball do that? And what is that ball made of? There's been lots of talk about the new balls, and they certainly seem to have made a difference: Branco's free kick; Hagi's 35-yard screamer; Lechkov's diving header from the edge of the 18-yard box—they're all flying in!

So we're down to the final four. Brazil and Italy we all guessed, but Bulgaria and Sweden? It's going to be a Brazil vs. Bulgaria final—we bet you all $10!

[Should these teams not make the finals, all $10 bets will be made good during the Dentists' U.S. tour in the fall. Good luck.—ed.]

RECORD COMPANY

Rosie V-Estrada, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

So how is everyone dealing with this weird weather we're having? I am dying in this mixture of smoggy-overcast-hot-humid-hazy weather in lovely Burbank! And once again, it is not your fault. Now to change topics...I am moving to a new home starting July 11, and I will make sure to keep in touch with all of you. In the meanwhile, keep you listeners in a good mood and give them what they want: ELEVEN, the BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA, YOTHU YINDI. And some weed...SEAWEEED ...Bye!!!

Stephanie, Andrew, Lisa and Caris, Vision Trust Promotions, San Francisco, CA (415) 752-2564

If you haven't heard already, EVERCLEAR was just signed to Capitol Records, but you know we couldn't have done this without you. XOXOXO and thanks to all the loyal fans out there that made this possible. A new band on the rise is ORANGE 9MM on Revelation Records, it's at your station now, so pick it up and give it a spin for we will be calling. OPUS III...amazing, beautiful, get lost, take a trip and enjoy the ride. Keep up the support. If you would like giveaways, call us. The gang @ Vision Trust hope you are having a good summer.

Lynn Deasy, Tantrum Records, Chicago, IL (312) 665-2080

Summer heat getting you down? Stay indoors, crank the air, and rent a movie! Try the hot new thriller Blink, due out July 13th. Madeline Stowe plays a fictional character of the real life band the DROVERS! She plays a blind fiddle player who's a witness to a murder—all through the miracle of modern medicine! The Drovers contributed four songs to the soundtrack and the band's latest release Kill Mice Elf is paving new ground throughout the Central and West U.S. It can be picked up almost anywhere now, thanks to our many distributors. And of course, kudos to Revolution Promotions, they'll be giving you a call soon, and if you don't have a copy of Kill Mice Elf let us know and we'll get you one!

Vicki "Voice Mail Detective" Aubin, Radical Records, New York, NY (212) 475-1111

Music directors beware!! I am now close personal friends with that ever omnipresent voice mail woman! Yes! You all know her, "If you need assistance, press zero"! It is the curse of the satanic voice mail woman! And boy, has she told me some dirt on all of you! So, in order to avoid false and vicious rumors being spread, it is in your best interests to return my calls! In addition, since so many of you attest to being "anti-corporate" and such, theoretically you should all be ringing me back! Remember, we are not all out to corrupt you—many of us were college MDs as well (WUJH!) Plus, I do not bite!...Intensive Care Unit (ICU) is the group, Defy is the CD, that will definitely fulfill the diversity requirement for your station's rock programming (punk rock!)...Thanks to all supporters going strong, but we need more of you! MR. FREEZE AND THE HOMEWRECKERS' "Oh Susannah" CD-single and 12" vinyl is picking up—check it out! Also, a personal pick—the new Hope Factory CD—cool stuff, a great D.I.Y. project, definitely worth checking out, especially those of you into Lush, Adorable, Unrest, My Bloody Valentine (all of you!)...Oops, gotta go serenade another answering machine.

Keith Moran, Radio Promotions, Restless Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2423 Stuff out now: NOVA MOB, GOD'S FAVORITE BAND, MILK, JACK LOGAN, AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE, and DUB SYNDICATE. Stuff coming up: ZUZU'S PETALS, GOD AND TEXAS, the CRAMPS and GOLDEN PALOMINOS. Disc two from Jack Logan's debut double CD Bulk starts with song #25 "Piece Of Mind." The problem is that there are a couple of brands of CD players that cannot read a CD that starts with a number other than one. If that is the case with your station please send the CD back to me at 2217 Nicollet Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN 55404 and I will replace it with a disc two that starts with "Piece of Mind" being track one. Sorry for any trouble as a result of this mishap.

Nooshin, Alternanerd Promotions, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111 Well, here's what's going down currently here at the Blade. (And, unfortunately, it ain't oderus urungus!!!) Ok...Firstly, we have THOUGHT INDUSTRY out on the road with Sam Black Church, doing the East Coast thang. They shall follow this up with a West Coast tour accompanied by Fear Factory Secondly the mighty SKREW is on tour with Monster Voodoo Machine as I write. Please keep a look out for my "I Want To Do Something That Sucks For Skrew" Contest. You and your family and friends can win a basketful of hardcore S&M products chosen by none other than myself. Additionally, there will also be a GWAR contest where you can win a Gwar care package. Fun for the entire family!! Enter with your friends!!! Please keep your eyes peeled for more details regarding, uh, "submissions."

Ray Woods, G.M., Rainforest Records, Portland, OR (503) 682-3944 Okay, so it's been a while since we've done a Dialogue; it's probably worth it to check in and show you fuckers we're still pluggin' away out here. No new releases have come out on RR for a couple of months so you'll have to just dig into the ones you already have. Some of you have asked, "What songs should we play?" or "What songs have caught on with other stations?" Well, we're happy if you play anything we do, but here are some suggestions: "Babies On Fire" from PLEASURE CENTER's Ergo, the same CD if you have a solid block of (adventurous) time, "Howdy Kurd" by WORM. Interestingly, this 7" was recorded in 1992, an ominous letter hinting at the impending super nova of Kurt Cobain's mind. By the way, Wammo of the Worm band is on the 1994 Lollapalooza tour as a solo artist. The compilation CD Live @ Laurelthirst has several cool items—the TREE FROGS, BILLY KENNEDY, HALEY KAPELL, and MCKINLEY songs most notably. Decide for yourself. "I Suck" a B-side by NEW BAD THINGS was a genuine hit in the U.K. (thanks mainly to John Peel). Wow! That freaked us all out here! Also try "Can I Come In" by ROGER NUSIC and "Great Black Void" off MEDICINE SUNDAY's debut. There, some tasty tidbits. Treat yourself. Explore.

RADIO

Mike Siciliano, Alternative Music Director, WCWP, Brookville, NY (516) 299-2626 Hey gang, what's cooking? Not too much here on the Long Island front. Just keeping myself busy. A hearty thanks goes out to the guys from ROB RULE David and Robbie (and we can't forget Brian from PGD for helping me set this up) for popping on the horn with me the other day. Their self titled debut is way cool dude. Do check it out. There is no bad song on CD, dude. Trust Mike. If this is the old shout out section as it is, I'd love to do a quick shout out to my best buds, Amy at AIM, Amy at Detour M and Gina at Round The Globe. Thanks gals for helping me out the last couple of weeks. I really, really, really appreciate it. 22 BRIDES. What can be said about this duo? Zero Hour has a hit. Guaranteed. 'Nuff said. Some other stuff that's been doing major league airplay here has been SEED, TEN WINGS, BOINGO, TINDERSTICKS, BOSTON, HELMET and DIG. New stuff from ZALE, the TROUBLEMAKERS, (call me about these guys), APRIL'S MOTEL ROOM, ELASTIC PUREJOY and NAKED SUN require a full musical investigation. A dialogue without mentioning my favorite CD? NOPE! LIVE still rules!!!! 'Nuff said.

Tim Randolph / Scott Meiggs, Lovers of Latitude, WODU, Norfolk, VA (804) 683-3441 We are presently doing a poll to decide who is the most popular porn star. Tim likes Savannah, Scott likes Nikki Dial, but was a wee bit disturbed to hear she had been taken away by Corey Feldman. Oh, well, life goes on...Here in radio land we are enjoying a nice summer. Disregard the last e-mail address we gave you, the new ones are TMR100Z@ODUVM and JMS100Z@ODUVM. Anyway, we read the dialogue from WUVT and we agree totally, the CD singles take up too much space and serve no purpose (as there is only one song). The TIM GARMAN EXPERIENCE just finished its fourth hour of recording and are hoping to organize those long awaited tapes soon. Looking at the last CMJ we noticed a few stations which seem to have the same tastes in music as we do. Cheers to KLPI, WLOZ, WPRB, WZBZ...If you got the 108 and you're not playing it you are a sucker! Some things to check out if you haven't already: MOSS, ICON, NAVIO FORGE, SLANT 6...Moreover, be aware there is a new WHITESNAKE Greatest Hits album which is eagerly awaited by the staff here. Looking forward to seeing all of you at NMS. Love+Kisses, Tim and Scott. One, two, three, four who's punk what's the score?

Michael Lloyd, Music Director, WNMC, Traverse City, MI (616) 922-1091 So I'm pedaling to the campus this afternoon and the Blue Angels are screaming and sonic-booming overhead. (They're in town for the annual Cherry Festival which coincides with the July 4 weekend plus several days). Instinctively, I duck. Sure, they fly low, but not that low. Anyway, here's what's new with us: The WNMC benefit CD You Are Here is out and available to radio and A&R/promo type people. Since this is a benefit CD, if you can, send some $$$ for postage and pressing costs. The CD features eight Traverse City area creative rock artists with two songs from each. Sort of a combination thank you/gang demo for most of the bands that have supported WNMC in the past by performing at our Benefit Bashes. It has sold quite well so far, and has gotten airplay from as far away as San Francisco and as near as Houghton, Michigan. (Thanks WMTU!) If you'd like a copy, write (don't call) us at: 1701 E. Front St., Traverse City, MI, 49686-3061. And yes, observant reader, that is a new zip code. Our fair city has expanded so much we needed an extra one. Also, we are on for the summer, same schedule as always, so keep the music coming. Don't let that Top 35 of ours scare you, we present all forms of creative music for those that desire it. And no, we don't adhere to any pre-planned format, AAA or otherwise. Thanks. More later.

Mike B., WWNF, Tampa, FL (813) 238-8001

Just got back from Orlando (or as we in FL call it...O-Town) where the most incredible rave took place at the downtown club called the Edge. 7,000 people danced from sundown until noon the next day. On hand performing were Tampa's own Hallucination Records DJ Steve McClure whose "Rabbit In The Moon" single went down a storm. Also on hand were super DJ's Kimball Collins, Icee and various others but the real show stopper was a one hour live set from British remixers the DUST BROTHERS whose use of funkier, syncopated beats went over far better than most live techno bands. Look for their two EPs My Mercury Mouth and Fourteenth Century Sky at your nearest local indie shop. They're simply smashing!...Two more bands to catch at the Seminar, Michael Franti's new band SPEARHEAD and Britain's Islamic educators FUNDAMENTAL. Ciao!

ISLAND STANDS ALONE

Following the disbanding of Polygram Label Group, Island Records is once again a free-standing, fully autonomous record label, handling its own sales, marketing and promotional activities. John Barbis, formerly executive vice president of PLG, has become the new president of Island U.S. The label is coming off its most successful year in its 31-year history.

MARION WILLIAMS DEAD AT 66

Gospel great Marion Williams died on July 2 of vascular complications following a long bout with kidney problems and diabetes. She was 66. Williams sang with the Clara Ward Singers in the late '40s and '50s, before forming her own group, the Stars Of Faith, and then recording 10 albums under her own name. Her vocal style influenced innumerable gospel singers as well as popular artists like Aretha Franklin and Little Richard, who were both inspired to record gospel albums. Rolling Stone has called Williams "the greatest singer ever." Her recordings are available on Spirit Feel, Savoy and Columbia. Her singing is also featured on Wynton Marsalis' most recent album, In This House, On This Morning.

BEACH BOY SIGNED

Beach Boys' leader Brian Wilson has been signed to Karambalage, a new MCA label headed by producer/composer Don Was. Wilson is working with Van Dyke Parks, his mid-'60s collaborator on songs such as "Heroes And Villains" and "Surf's Up" and the legendary, uncompleted Smile album. There is no scheduled release date yet, but an album is not expected until at least next year.

LESS BEACH BOYS FOR YOUR BUCK

The 17 Beach Boys albums on Capitol have recently been reissued with their original packaging (including a limited-edition vinyl pressing) at a mid-line price, replacing the initial two-fer CDs, which offered consumers two albums on one disc, plus a wealth of previously unreleased bonus tracks. The extra material is not included on the new re-issues. Capitol's president Gary Gersh has been quoted as saying that Capitol's goal is to "release our artists' material as they originally intended."

FREEBIRD!

Capricorn Records has signed Lynyrd Skynyrd. On August 9 the group will be releasing an acoustic "back-porch" album of some of the band's classics, as well as new material, entitled Endangered Species. MICHAEL IVEY STARTS NEW LABEL

Basehead's Michael Ivey and Rykodisc have launched 13records, planned as an outlet for "new and interesting black music." The label's first release will be from BYOB, scheduled for August 16.

JAMES BROWN KEEPS IT CLEAN

James Brown, in a statement through his publicist, has asked rap artists not to sample his music in songs with filthy lyrics, according to an Associated Press report. Brown also stated that such music should be labeled "X-rated," be made unavailable to minors, and should not be played on the radio.

The Godbullies, formerly on Amphetamine Reptile, have signed to Alternative Tentacles...Everclear, which has recorded for Tim Kerr Records in the past, has been signed by Capitol Records...Fifth Column Records has three new signings: the industrial groups Acumen and HaloBlack, and the ambient group, P.O.D....Atlantic Records has signed Seattle's 7 Year Bitch, which was previously on C/Z Records.

RECORD NEWS

It includes a duet with soul god Barry White...Robert Scott of the Bats has reunited (again) with his former Clean bandmates, David and Hamish Kilgour, to record an album for Flying Nun. David Kilgour has a new solo album out on Flying Nun which will likely be licensed for U.S. release...Select Records will be releasing a second album of phone calls from the Jerky Boys on August 16...Nanci Griffith recently recorded a new album with musical contributions from U2's Adam Clayton and Larry Mullen Jr., the Indigo Girls, Adam Duritz of Counting Crows and Mark Knopfler. The album should be out in September on Elektra...Henry Kaiser and David Lindley have completed a follow-up to their acclaimed A World Out Of Time album of music from Madagascar. The new release features traditional music and cross-cultural collaborations with Norwegian musicians, and is due out in October on Shanachie...Hightone Records is launching a new series of blues reissues of recordings made for the Testament label between 1962 and 1977. The initial releases include albums by Johnny Shines, Johnny Young and Fred McDowell...Del-Fi Records, which recorded rock 'n' roll legends Ritchie Valens and the Bobby Fuller 4 in the '50s and '60s, is actively re-issuing its catalog. The first releases include albums by surf groups the Lively Ones, the Impacts, the Sentinals and the Bruce Johnston Surfing Band (Johnston later replaced Brian Wilson in the Beach Boys' touring line-up).

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Rhino Records has promoted Gary Stewart to senior vice president of A&R...Debbie Southwood-Smith has been promoted to director, A&R at EMI Records...Eric Rosen has left Twin Vision to handle press, radio and booking for Radical Records...Jim Guerinot has left his position as senior vice president/general manager of A&M Records to "get [his] golf game in the 80's, go surfing and set-up [his] own [consulting] business."

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"When I play a special song, it is very important because it can express what I feel so perfectly. A song can speak for me when I cannot put my feelings into words. I listen to a solo and I think of a duet."

—Fabio, romance novel cover model/recording artist

"Hearing their second album 'Nuevo Boogalo' is a lot like listening to a really great jukebox in a cozy swamp speakeasy, or lonely desert roadhouse - one timeless soul, Tex-Mex, R&B, and Blues platter after another plops onto the turntable while you dance the night away." - CMJ

"Nobody makes sweetness and danger sound more synonymous, or appealing." - LA Weekly
