ON THE COVER

URGE OVERKILL Exit The Dragon

Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069

Just as Urge Overkill became near-rock stars via a silver screen lip synch of an off-the-cuff cover tune buried on an old EP—arguably the most implausible way possible to get famous—Exit The Dragon proves that the band's taking its creative strides in just as unlikely an order: Benefitting from the familiar Urge charm of essentials like The Supersonic Storybook but missing the ultrasuede perfection of Saturation, Exit The Dragon is the segue between the two that never happened. Exit's got the invitingly dry Butcher Brothers production that softened the blow of Saturation's rock "Need Some Air" (incidentally the record's most infectiously catchy tune) is the closest any of these songs comes to the precision Urge pursued on its major-label debut. The confident, jaunty Urge swagger has returned in spades, and moments like the easy rhythmic swing of "Somebody Else's Body" and Nash Kato's loose, dauntless vocal delivery on "Monopoly" signal a return to what the band does best, and a re-establishment of its drive towards super-stardom (its raison d'être). Enter the Urge we love best: "This Is No Place," "View Of The Rain," "The Break" and "Tin Foil." CHERYL BOTCHICK

JAWBREAKER Dear You

DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069

Yes, Jawbreaker has signed to a major label after years of bellyaching that it never would, and yes, the band has changed its sound on its fourth long-player. But disappointment over the band's change of heart and sound are not reason enough to dismiss Dear You, an album filled with catchy, yet gentle, punk-pop. Even without the fast, sharp-edged punk rock attitude, Jawbreaker's songs are delivered with great passion. Though guitarist/vocalist Blake Schwartenbach's voice doesn't have the same angry sting, he sounds more thoughtful, and the lilting vocal melodies, delivered in his raspy California drawl, benefit from more singing and less shouting. The supporting guitar parts are also toned down here; they're not as high in the mix and there aren't many noisy squeals. Still, wrapped in incredibly catchy hooks, they are super radio-friendly, each cut more memorable than the last. Lyrically, Jawbreaker has stood its ground and Schwartenbach's tales of heartbreak remain as vivid as ever. "Million" offers insight into Schwartenbach's views on love and his band's business decision. He sings "Sign me to a pretty girl/So she can ruin me eternally/ They offered me a million bucks/ When all I want's a steady fuck." Others you'll hold dear: "Save Your Generation," "Accident Prone" and "Sluttering (May 4th)." JENNY ELISCU

AIR MIAMI Me. Me. Me.

Teen Beat, c/o 4AD, 8533 Melrose Ave., Ste. B, Los Angeles, CA 90069 310.289.8770

Fronted by former Unrest members Mark Robinson and Bridget Cross, Air Miami is, in many ways, a continuation of where Unrest was going during its last couple of years, both bands toying with driving guitars that collide into hyper melodies, and incorporating some decorative synth tracks and new wave references. But Me. Me. Me., Air Miami's debut full-length, shows the new band to be much more than that. Despite its title, the album is less self-indulgent and more overtly poppy than Unrest's records were, inviting the listener into its warm folds of sound, which burst into two-minute rockers ("I Hate Milk," "World Cup Fever") as easily as they float over cool, lazy breezes ("Seabird")—and that's only the first three songs. Gone are the 20-minute drones, replaced here by a taut, 36-minute album that packs a breadth of styles into one seamless whole. There are still plenty of chugging guitars, happily driving in circles like speeding carousel horses, and lots of delightful repetition, but they're condensed into shorter songs that'll sound great on the radio. Robinson and Cross's voices mingle effortlessly on the Galaxie 500-ish "Special Angel," Cross shines on "Afternoon Train," "Dolphin Expressway" is an immediate single, and "Definitely Beachy" is a perfect blend of an impetuous rhythm, sweet, pretty guitar work and a chorus that goes "Everybody loves me." PRAM Sargasso Sea

Too Pure, c/o American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505-4628

Over the past few years, British group Pram has strung together seemingly disparate elements on a thin but sturdy string, releasing two albums and three EPs of structurally wide-open, other-worldly music. Whereas the titles of the group's last two albums, Helium and The Stars Are So Big... suggested outer space travel, a notion bolstered by the records' spacious sounds, Sargasso Sea hints at a more introspective, deep sea diving trip, underscored by the album's recurrent burbling sounds, a production that makes certain sounds seem muted or far away, and vocalist Rosie's contemplative lyrics. Despite a richness in sounds and textures, Sargasso Sea has a spare, open feel; it's almost as if the band took a batch of fully orchestrated songs and put it through a sieve, so that only certain elements could come through. Pram glues the beads of its songs—Rosie's sweet, off-key voice, tooting trumpets, smooth xylophones, tinkling vibes, etc.—together with the thin glue of fluid bass lines and lulling keyboard sequences. The most surprising thing about the group's pastiche-like dreamscapes is how easily they gel into memorable songs. After a few listens through Sargasso Sea, certain songs poke their melodic heads out of the album's cloudy waters: the dark, sing-songy structure of "Loose Threads," the circus-like skip and bouncy bass line of "Three Wild Georges," the delightful xylophone plinks and elastic rhythm of the instrumental "Crystal Tips," or the noodly, almost funky guitar sample and whizzing tape sounds on "Crooked Tiles." #1 BREAKTHROUGH

MEDICINE Her Highness American

Radio Chart Position: #36

After toying around with his ambient project, Electric Company, Brad Laner rounded out what is perhaps the band's most melodic and varied record to date: Her Highness. While Laner's much-lauded guitar noise is still alive and well here, it may be the group's more melodious bent that is tweaking ears this time out. Her Highness is seated in the top 10 of the following stations: CFMU, KEOS, KSLU, WCKS, WHFR, WRFL, WRLC, WRTC, WWHR and WZBC.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay. ▲: greatest upward chart movement. ♥: most requested

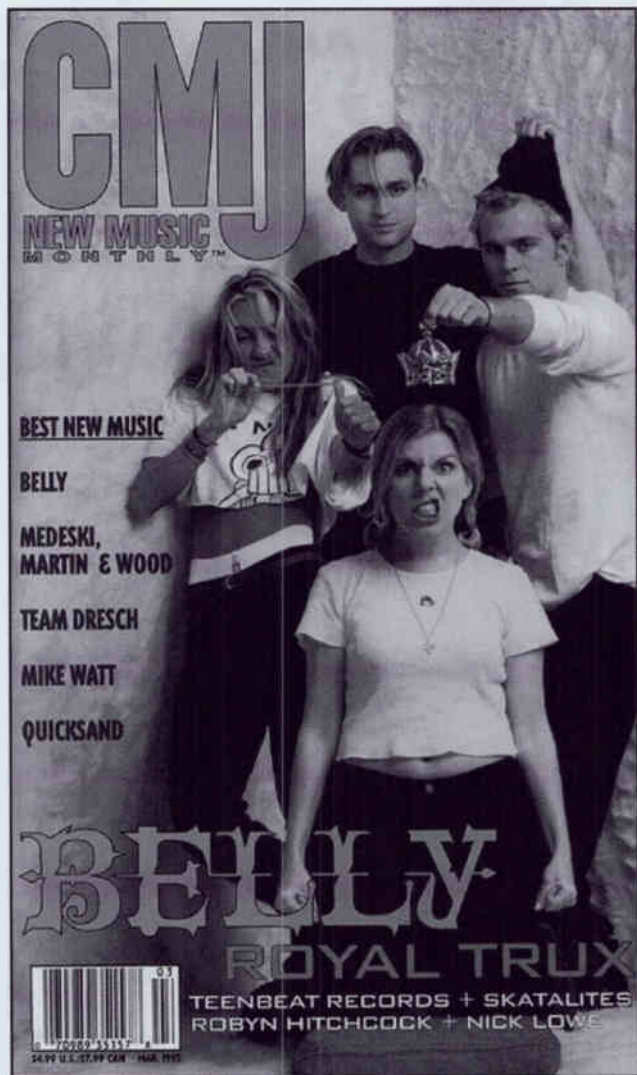

This week's #1 is from Interscope's Young Gods (2-1), who switch with Hollywood's Seaweed (1-2). Elektra-EEG's Luna stays at #3, Sub Pop's Supersuckers move up one position to #5. Palace-Drag City's Palace Music (9-7), EastWest-EEG's Buffalo Tom (24-8), Atlas-A&M's Fig Dish (27-9) and Lava-Atlantic's Civ (18-10) round out the top 10. Righteous Babe's Ani DiFranco moves up 20-12, while Capricorn's 311 (26-14), Virgin's Whale (30-18) and Epic's Silverchair (33-22) all make advances. Running up the chart right away is Interscope's My Life With The Thrill Kill Kult, which zooms 103-27. CherryDisc/Giant-WB's Letters To Cleo (49-28), PopLlama-Columbia's Presidents Of The United States Of America (46-31) and Almo Sounds' Garbage (76-32) all advance. This week's Radio Breakthrough is American's Medicine, which debuts at #36. Mammoth's KCRW Rare On Air, Volume 2 also makes a strong initial showing at #41. Last week's Radio Breakthrough, Mesa-Mesa/Bluemoon's Aqua Velvets, continue to move up (70-48). Planet Dog-Mammoth's Banco De Gaia (94-60) and Epic's Sun 60 (135-61) make surprisingly impressive gains. We're not taking any charts next week; look for changes to the chart when we return. ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in sales. ▲: greatest upward chart movement. ★: in store play.

As school starts and the fall beckons, new releases begin to take over the retail chart. Epitaph's Rancid debuts in the top spot, knocking the summer's mainstays out of the way. Also jumping into the top 10 are 4AD's Lisa Gerrard (#4) and Palace-Drag City's Palace Music (#6). There is little movement on the chart, other than debuts. Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion (66-28), Mercury's Rusted Root (33-29) and PopLlama-Columbia's Presidents Of The United States Of America (49-35) continue to climb the chart. The new records making a splash this week include: Fat Wreck Chords' NOFX live disc (#13),TVT's soundtrack to the movie Mortal Kombat (#19), Vernon Yard has released a soundtrack to the video game, American's Medicine (#24), Hollywood's Seaweed (#33), Kranky's Bowery Electric (#38), and Rykodisc's Frank Zappa (#49). Playing in the stores, but yet charting: Virgin's Ben Harper and Okeh-Epic's G. Love & Special Sauce, along with soon-to-be-released albums from Reprise's Son Volt and Warner Bros.' Flaming Lips. BRIAN WILSON

I Just Wasn't Made For These Times

MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608

Few artists have willingly or unwillingly carried the torch for the tortured artist quite as long or as appropriately as Brian Wilson. Beset by self-imposed personal pressure as the driving creative force behind the early Beach Boys, followed by years of drug abuse and emotional turmoil, Wilson all but bowed out of the music scene after the infamous "Smile" sessions during the late '60s, thereafter only sporadically releasing solo material and collaborative projects. The soundtrack for I Just Wasn't Made For These Times serves not only as an illuminating documentation of Wilson's consummate compositional artistry, but also as insight for the uninitiated into why he is hailed as a genius by everyone from Paul McCartney to Thurston Moore. While all but one of the classic tracks here have been re-recorded by Don Was and Brian himself for inclusion into the bio-pic (which was also directed by Was), the songs still communicate, perhaps now in an even clearer light, how all the personal traumas and insecurities faced by Wilson over the years surfaced in his music. The vocals on the fantastic "Love And Mercy" sound more heartfelt than ever, while the song itself provides a stunning example of Brian's ability to use unorthodox vocal and instrumental arranging for subtle texturing and shading. I Just Wasn't Made For These Times is not merely the companion to a film, it's an important stop in the annals of popular music history. Hear the soundtrack, read the book, see the movie. AARON CLOW

ASH Trailer

Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

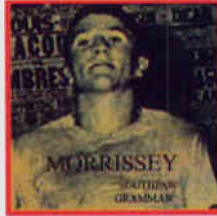

Although Ash is a very recent British phenomenon (the band's had several hits overseas, though it's remained a secret here), its full-length debut, Trailer, couldn't be more steeped in delightfully familiar American rock traditions. With its back turned to any new wave of anything, Ash's Trailer is a crackling, buzzing guitar pop record packed with enough hooks and melodies to make some of the band's Stateside peers green with envy. Cleverly-penned songs pop out of this intoxicating morass of fuzzy guitars on each listen: the particularly notable "Jack Names The Planets" kicks off in riff-fest overdrive until the chorus' syrupy harmonies sneak out to steal the limelight. The band's other secret ingredient is drummer Rick McMurray, whose furiously kinetic playing is as clearly at the helm of the band's work as the coy songwriting of Tim Wheeler. For as clustered and knotted as Ash's guitars are throughout Trailer, the album's production is surprisingly open and airy (like seeing the band live in their practice space), giving McMurray's drum work plenty of elbow room to drive the band's songs to another level. "Different Today" is fueled by his endless thrashing, and "Obscure Thing"'s ever-present crash cymbal adds another layer to the guitar fury and feedback. Packed with adolescent voltage: "Season," "Petrol," "Intense Thing" and "Punk Boy." CHERYL BOTCHICK

MORRISSEY Southpaw Grammar

Reprise, address above

It's Morrissey's world, we just suffer in it... With millions of adoring fans showering the dolorous mega-star with chrysanthemums (and perhaps as many people who can't stomach his idiosyncratic voice and histrionics for even a minute), it would be easy for our reluctant hero to continue churning out his patented three-minute pop singles of woe. Southpaw Grammar, his fifth solo album (not counting two singles collections and the Smiths oeuvre) clocks in as usual on the misery index, but finds the Moz taking some chances with a harder-edged sound and longer, extended song forms. The audacious opening gambit is the most magnificent vehicle for the auteur's agony yet, a frightening 10-minute orchestral maelstrom (think Italian horror film soundtracks) that would be a grand finale for any sensible artist (it's made all the more peculiar with the chorus "to be finished would be a relief," pregnant with possible interpretations). It's followed by a handful of bouncy, singles-style Morrissey songs, clever as ever, but the songs' lyrical intimacy gets a bit lost in the arena-ready production. When he truncates the final verse of "Dagenham Dave" with "I could say more, but you get the general idea..." one might wonder if it's ennuï or brilliant self-parody. But we give credit to a chap who carries the anguish of a black-clad generation on his shoulders yet always seems to have a remarkable sense of humor. "The Operation" is outright bewildering, opening with a two-minute Iron Butterfly-style drum solo which gives way to a show-tune sashay on a chorus of "Everyone I know" ■ is sick to death of you," followed by a stomping, double-time metal coda. The album ends with another 10-minute epic, but this time guitar showmanship doesn't match the power of the glorious opener. DAVID NEWGARDEN

ROY MONTGOMERY Scenes From The South Island

Drunken Fish, 8600 W. Olympic Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90035

Roy Montgomery was a mainstay of the New Zealand music scene in the early '80s with his band the Pin Group (the first group released by Flying Nun), then disappeared from music for a decade until he re-emerged with Dadamah and Dissolve. Recently, he's been catching up on the time he missed, recording scads of solo singles and a few albums. Scenes From The South Island is an album of solo instrumentals, inspired by New Zealand landscapes and recorded on a four-track on both American coasts with only a $60 Teisco guitar. It's also startlingly beautiful and mysterious—secret notes creep into the guitar's overtones and undertones, and sounds grow and decay like the slow rolling of hills. The high point is "Downtown To Vesuvio," a shallow, rippling take on the chords of Link Wray's "Rumble," stripped down to their essentials and beyond, and clouded in near-silence like an almost-faded memory. Only once does Montgomery come out full force (the paper-shredding, Spacemen 3-ish "Nor'Wester Head-on"), but most of Scenes' best moments get their power from suggestion and implication. Also try "The Road To Diamond Harbour" and "Clear Night, Port Hills," though virtually anything here will sound captivating in the middle of a radio set. DOUGLAS WOLK

Astralwerks, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St.,

New York, NY 10001 212.989.2929

Skylab, like most of the more adventurous, electronically-based musical projects that have surfaced lately, is the collaboration between a scant few non-traditional musician types:

sound-wiz Matt Ducasse, Japanese DJ duo Major Force and renowned producer/artist Howie B (whose resume includes work with Tricky and Massive Attack). The sound that this collective sculpts has been best described as music for an imaginary film—a surreal, at times frightening and frequently abstract one. It's impressionistic, certainly, but the kind of aural shapes that float, bob and flutter across #1's expanse are unique to the genres of ambient, dance or trip-hop, any of which could describe the record. There are moments of ghostly beauty here: luxurious passages of looped melody, caressed and softened by vocal and jazz samples; faintly-outlined experiments with percussion, found sounds and icy silence; organic guitar textures bent, refracted and oddly-tinged by alien digitizations. As much as this type of free-form composition begs to be dismissed as background sound or unapproachable experiments, Skylab's creation holds together as a finely detailed series of passages that evoke as much haunting emotion as they do technological wonder. While it's basically one long, shifting piece, the album's more active moments include "Seashell," "Electric Blue" and "Exotika." COLIN HELMS

BRUTE Nine High A Pallet

Capricorn, 2205 State St., Nashville, TN 37203 615.320.8470

Brute is a collaborative project between Vic Chesnutt and H.O.R.D.E. veterans Widespread Panic, and in a way, it's like hearing a special evening concert dedicated to Chesnutt's music — while most of his albums are quiet, introspective, screen-porch or living room affairs, this one conjures a picture of Vic and the band on-stage amidst the red velvet and glass chandeliers of some dazzling Southern ante-bellum theater or ballroom. Chesnutt's warm, tender voice sing-speaks the songs, as Brute puts the singer/songwriter's music into a rustic, Southern Rock setting (Southern as in R.E.M., not Black Oak Arkansas); in an eerie way, it's very reminiscent of pre-"Losing My Religion" R.E.M., or if the Black Crowes experienced some sort of catastrophic, traumatic experience that would make them play only very softly and slowly. Nine High A Pallet puts Chesnutt's songs and distinctive voice to the fore, and because of the Panic connection, it will introduce him to a whole new audience and probably sell more records than any previous Chesnutt album, making it a significant milestone and a rare triumph of artist-appreciation. Just as a new suit makes a man look more elegant, or a frame for a picture makes it even more stunning, Widespread Panic adds a sturdy structure to Chesnutt's quirky, homespun yarns, such as "Westport Ferry," "George Wallace," "Blight," "Cataclysm" and the naughty "Good Morning, Mr. Hard On." JAMES LIEN

PETE KREBS Brigadier

Cavity Search, P.O. Box 42246,
Portland, OR 97242 503.243.3662

Pete Krebs, lead singer and guitarist for Seattle's Hazel, reveals his acoustic introspective side on his solo debut. Krebs' Brigadier is a very personal, quiet release; his pleasant, flat vocals accentuate these tales of his inner life. An acoustic guitar, usually his only accompaniment, acts as more than just strumming behind his vocals; the melodies he plays on it can be basic and repetitive or spin off into their own story. As with a lot of solo artists, Krebs' lyrics focus primarily on himself and his emotions, but they describe typical situations in a clever way, making them appealing to anyone who's been in love, been depressed or had friends and relatives. One of his catchiest songs, "Suction Cup Hearts," also has one of the best images of love's vagaries: "Suction cup hearts always fall down." "Firepower" tells of looking at an ex-lover's belongings that no longer have the same emotional pull now that she's no longer there: "Everything's gone that made them perfect/And besides they'd only hurt me." With clear, honest lyrics such as these, Krebs' clear, honest voice and pretty acoustic guitar-playing, Brigadier is one solo record which stands out from many of the vanity releases that members of a band sometimes indulge themselves with. BOGMEN Life Begins At 40 Million

Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019

Life Begins At 40 Million will make you smile: With their tongues firmly in-cheek, these New York musicians deliver a debut full-length that is pure fun. The sextet has built a reputation as one of New York's best party/bar bands, selling out some of the city's largest venues. It's no wonder; the Bogmen craft light-hearted, innovative rock music that is perfect beer-drinking music. The band fits in perfectly with the new breed of folk-ish rockers (such as Rusted Root) and its songs have the same zing that has made the Dave Matthews Band so successful. The Bogmen build their songs on a solid foundation of rollicking vocal melodies and upbeat tempos. The melodies draw most of their strength from vocalist Bill Champion's distinctive voice (if the Lucky Charms leprechaun had more chops, this is what he'd sound like) and amusingly pointed lyrics (on songs like "Doctor Jerome, Love-Tub Doctor" and "Suddenly"). Another of the band's boasting points is its fine rhythm section, which includes bongos, maracas and exceptionally sure-fingered bass noodling. Though the fun-folk thing can be annoying in less capable hands, the Bogmen exude such confidence that you can't help but laugh along with them. JENNY ELISCU

PUNCHBUGGY All Nite Christian Rollerskate

Shake, 598 Victoria C.P. 36587, St. Lambert, P

Q J4P 358 Canada 514.465.2389

In these days where punk is really pop and production substitutes for songwriting skill, it's refreshing to see a garage-pop band that has all sides nailed down to the hilt—loud, steady guitars, great songs and an overall explosive energy level. Sounding like a cross between Crazy Alice and the McCrackins, All Nite Christian Rollerskate serves up heaping portions of Punchbuggy's honesty and integrity. While the Canadian band takes several nods from modern punk, its sound is quite a bit rougher around the edges—a trait which, when combined with the ripping sound of crystal-clear guitar buzz, injects a wiry, nervous vibe into each track. "Some Of Anna's Words" is not only a pure example of this, but also spotlights the band's punky, wise-ass lyrical attitude ("The reason that I'm happy/Because I am bored/The reason that I love you/Because I am bored"). A sabotaged version of "Hit Me With Your Best Shot," entitled "Pat Benatar," reinforces this, the song transmogrifying from an angry, solid rock number to a gelatinous mixture of instruments and vocals that begin to trip all over each other. Also buggin' "Shy," "Signal" and "Split Second." AARON CLOW

SUPER DELUXE Famous

Tim/Kerr, P.O. Box 42423, Portland, OR 97242 503.236.0013

The type of sugary guitar-pop that Super Deluxe produces is becoming somewhat of a rarity these days. The Seattle-based quartet writes pop music in the most classic sense imaginable, just shy of taking the extreme route of revisionist-masters like Jellyfish. This is straightforward stuff: vocals and guitars mixed clearly up-front, saccharine-laced backing harmonies, hooks right where they should be. The guitars' distortion pedals are rarely pressed, and when they are, it's merely to accent a shift in mood or tempo. These guys are well-listened pop music fans to be sure—from the Beatles and the Hollies to the Posies or even Crowded House—but their creative output has more to do with crafting smiley, compact, don't-bore-us-get-to-the-chorus tunes (10 in a half-hour) than recreating a particular sound or style. Whether or not these songs make Super Deluxe Famous remains to be seen, but they certainly do a good job of passing themselves off as legitimate pop hits: "She Came On," "Disappearing," "Famous" and "Holly's Dream Vacation." COLIN HELMS plays a smooth mix of jazz, hip-hop and '70s-style soul, easily segueing from sultry urban pop to rapid-fire ragamuffin beats to on-the-one funk. The Jazzhole achieves this magical mix with the supple chops of its players, including guitarist John Pondel and keyboardist Warren Rosenstein, as well as a sweet and sturdy vocal mix from Marlon Saunders, Michelle Lewis and rappers Ahned Best, KCB and Jack Ruby, Jr. While the radio station concept isn't executed as flawlessly as other albums of this type (De La Soul comes to mind), the Jazzhole's songwriting prowess and ability to slide effortlessly from style to style makes And The Feeling Goes Round satisfying nonetheless. Check out "Moodness Of Cool," "Round & Round," "The Beat Is The Bomb" and a surprisingly fresh take of Earth, Wind & Fire's "Shining Star." JIM CALIGIURI

SIVE STYLE Five Style

Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102 206.441.8441

Like ESG, James Brown and Booker T. & The MGs, Five Style recognizes that less can be more, but this guitar/bass/drums/keyboards instrumental combo whittles the components down even further. Five Style plays the funk, and nothing but the funk. No vocals, no horns, no solos, no guitar noodling. It's spare, razor-sharp R&B, stripped down to the simplest of melodies and the tightest of grooves, boiled down to the bare bones of riffs, rhythms and repetition. Like a funky cousin to dub reggae, Five Style focuses on structures and sounds, and there's plenty of interesting sounds: crazy wah-wah, groovy organ, weird synth, dub melodica ("Afro Disco") and even a Led Zeppelin riff ("Deep Marsh"). Unfortunately nothing on this debut album quite equals the wildness of Five Style's "Kiki's Cookout" single (also on Sub Pop), but you'll want a full album's worth of Five Style for your own cookouts and dance parties. There are also a few interludes that hint at possible Five Style directions to come: exploratory space dub on "Lil' Chimes" and braided trebly guitars on the slow-rock album-ender "Accept The Rain." DAVID NEWGARDEN

SOMETIME SWEET SUSAN The Coming Lights

Futurist, 6 Greene St., 2nd Fl.,

New York, NY 10013 212.226.7272

Like the beer breweries in the band's hometown of Milwaukee, Sometime Sweet Susan (formerly known as Black Eyed Susan) takes basic elements—in this case, not hops and malt, but guitar, bass and drums—and stirs them into something entirely fresh, using a variety of textures and emotions. The trio's third album, The Coming Lights, is marked by ambitious, fiery noise-pop songs that glow from the jagged and abrasive guitar work by vocalist Jim Warchol. The album's first track, "Beauty Screams," sounds haunted by whiny, distant guitar chaos that nearly obliterates the song's underlying melody. "Diver"'s guitars are no less apocalyptic, but the song's seamless pairing of sweat-stained melodies and guitar fury makes it the most cohesive cut on the album. If Warchol's sharp guitar chops were weapons of destruction, they would wreak the most havoc on the eight-minute "Capo Song," which expresses the band's frustration with Milwaukee Brewers owner, Bud Selig, for using baseball for his own selfish ends. Through raw energy, subtle melody and a backdrop of piercing guitars, Sometime Sweet Susan creates its own seemingly chaotic little space, and its dissonance offers a collection of strange but beautiful gifts. Turn on: "Somewhere West Of Here," "Jaws Of Life" and "Collapsing Stars." GLEN SANSONE

VARIOUS ARTISTS Tokyo Trashville!

Au-go-go, G.P.O. Box 542D, Melbourne, VIC 30001 Australia 613.642.0545
Dead Moon singer Fred Cole dedicated the last Dead Moon record to "those everywhere, who against all odds, have stuck to their beliefs and made a difference." The bands featured on Tokyo Trashville! must make Cole proud, for these bands have done just that. Tokyo Trashville is the club in Tokyo to hear garage rock. Though bands like Teengenerate, 5.6.7.8.'s, Supersnazz and Guitar Wolf have all had releases out in this country, they have nothing available on Japanese labels—proof positive of how difficult it is for these bands to continue to play in Japan. The bands have built their own mono-rock scene in Tokyo, and have grown into dynamic performers. When they've ventured to play on our shores, onlookers have commented, "I haven't seen rock moves like that since..." The drummer of the Mad 3 used his head just as often as he did his drum sticks to beat on the cymbals, while Guitar Wolf did a belly flop onto his guitar when a low ceiling prevented any other sort of acrobatics. Though it can't recreate the excitement of the bands' respective live shows, Tokyo Trashville! gives a good taste of what the garage scene in Tokyo is all about. DAWN SUTTER □

BELMONDO "Lake Front" (7")

K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507 360.786.1594

Named after French film star Jean Paul Belmondo, this pop quartet plays music as beautiful and intriguing as the actor himself. Pam Berry (Black Tambourine, Glo-worm), Trish Roy (Heartworms) and Chip Porter (Veronica Lake) front the band. The A-side is a typical jaunty pop song, making us long to go for a summer drive down the lane. "Grey-eyed Lie," on the flipside, is a somber tune lifted by the airy vocals sung by what sounds like an entire choir of women crooning, rather than just two. DAWN SUTTER

STATIC "My Relationship" (7")

Atavistic, P.O. Box 578266, Chicago, IL 60657

Before Glenn Branca wrote guitar symphonies, he was in a rock band, the Static. This reissue of a 1979 single shows that even then, he was much less interested in conventional songwriting than in exploring guitar tonalities and textures. The title of "My Relationship" is also its only lyric; the song itself technically only has two (weird) chords, but over the course of the piece multiple overdubs turn them into two enormous seething monsters. A No Wave-ish introductory verse to the B-side's "Don't Let Me Stop You" is more or less a prop for the wild permutations of its riff that take over the second half of the song. You can hear the band discovering itself in new territory, trying to find its way. DOUGLAS WOLK

SPINY ANTEATERS "Planet Mars" (7")

Baby Universe, P.O. Box 1335, Sta. B,

Ottawa, ON K1P 5R4 Canada

Canada's Spiny Anteaters follow up their debut album of late last year with this beautifully packaged, two-song single: It's wrapped in a hand serigraphed plastic sleeve and comes on red vinyl, which glows through its onion-skin insert. "Planet Mars," which plays at 33 rpm, is a seven-minute exercise in slow-motion repetition that eventually overtakes the vocals with a swooning groove, ending in a trance-inducing locked groove. In contrast, the flipside's three-minute "Car Crusher," which plays at 45 rpm, is a peppy pop number, fueled by a tinny, jangly guitar line and far-away-sounding vocals. LYDIA ANDERSON

Norton, P.O. Box 646, Cooper Station,

New York, NY 10003 718.789.4438

In a day and age when indie rock has assumed the single as its format of choice, messing with its purity by pressing it in every size imaginable (10", 8", 5" etc.) with a small spindle hole and packaging it in a million different ways, we welcome a single as Norton presses it: standardized Norton Records label, large hole, paper sleeve, 45 rpm. Throw it on and play—no questions. The bands within are treasures snatched from the same era that inspires Norton's no-nonsense packaging. Each side offers two rip-roaring rock 'n' roll tunes from the real thing—matching suits and all. Worth the price of admission just for the rehearsed guitar solos and chanted choruses alone. CHERYL BOTCHICK

THICK SHAKE Soft Spot

Ballyhoo Guns, P.O. Box 9355,

Baltimore, MD, 21228 410.455.3192

"Noise Pigs." That's how the Baltimore City Paper described Thick Shake and it was right on the mark. So much so that the band even wrote a song with the chorus "I'm a noise pig/So the city says" ("2 Steps/Hurl"). The Maryland trio formed a few years ago, and has since been generating a buzz with its brand of unfiltered post-core. The band's debut long-player is wall-to-wall guitar squeals. Antonini, the band's singer and guitarist, supplies most of the record's racket as he manhandles his guitar with unrelenting fury. "Mooncalf," for instance, is a three-and-a-half-minute instrumental whose buzz saw guitars sound like they might cut clean through your speakers. But the songs are better when they include vocals, and Antonini's nasal howl is well-suited to the frenetic guitar lines. Taking a hint from noisy post-punk bands like Unwound, Thick Shake buries Antonini's vocals in the mix; though his voice pops up sporadically in many of these songs, his angry snarl is very effective. One of the album's best tracks is "Sugar Wookie," its bass-heavy beginning and dissonant guitar lines sounding like a less developed Drive Like Jehu tune. Occasionally, the band relies too heavily on distorted guitar showmanship (some of its major key noodling can sound too metal-y), but for the most part, Thick Shake's willingness to take chances with its songs makes its debut very promising. JENNY ELISCU.

CODE 4 Move In Time

Power Alliance, P.O. Box 832494, Dallas, TX 75083

There's much to-do in the liners and lyrics of Move In Time about this band's use of Native American rhythms as a bed for its songwriting, and that's certainly the defining element that lifts Code 4 above the pack just enough for us to take notice. Drummer John Scully interprets these complicated, rolling, instinctive sounds well, without relying too heavily on his bass and toms in what could become imitative instead of inspired. What's most noticeable, however, is in the way the band's sound is otherwise vaguely artificial, making for a tentative, but remarkably successful melding of both natural and totally artificial sounds (like manipulated samples and effects-heavy riffs). Marrying those ideas is an ambitious move, and Code 4 does it best on "Mia Sey," a traditional song interpreted into a bombastic, caterwauling rock frenzy electrified by the flowing rhythms of the percussion. Code 4's weakness lies in its tendency to overlay the electronics on some tunes, forcing its organic ideas into angular, almost dancey frameworks that undercut the basic notions of what the band's trying to do. With a more relaxed, hands-on attitude about instrumentation and slightly less compressed production, Code 4 could be onto something. CHERYL BOTCHICK

VARIOUS ARTISTSRare Surf Volumes 1 & 2: The South Bay Bonds

AVI, 10390 Santa Monica Blvd., Ste. 210,

Los Angeles CA 90025 310.556.7744

Kowabunga! These two volumes are exceptional picks for those who crave the tube-riding euphoria of surf music, but are a little tired of the usual overplayed hits like "Tequila" and "Walk Don't Run." Some of these circa '64 recordings by bands such as PJ & The Galaxies, the Vibrants, the Revelairs and the Nocturnes even look beyond the fad of surfing, hinting at trends to follow: the ringing guitars of PJ & The Galaxies could be precursors to the Byrds and Buffalo Springfield, while the riffs of the Journeymen or Wheely McSidewalk & The Ball Bearings (!) hint at sounds that would reappear—refried and acid-drenched—in the late '60s Texas garage underground. But ask any surf aficionado what they're looking for in surf music, other than that indescribable wave-riding, tube-shooting feeling of euphoria, and they'll tell you they're looking for tones, sounds, and crazed Hawaiian war-god drum rolls. Both volumes score big on all counts, and the hopeless obscurity of most of the performers certainly didn't diminish their enthusiasm in the studio. Liner notes are provided by Dominic Priore, music historian and author of many works on the California mindset (including an excellent book about Brian Wilson and the Beach Boys) for an insightful look at an amazing genre. JAMES LIEN

PHIL OCHS In Concert

Elektra, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd.,

Los Angeles CA 90025-4900 310.474.4778

"I'm going to make a promise and I'm going to make a vow that when I got something to say, sir, I'm gonna say it now." If there's one thing we could always depend on, it was this promise from Phil Ochs. Liberals, demagogues and salesmen of all kinds regularly felt the sting of his songs, and poor people, political outcasts and lost souls could always depend on the soothing beauty of his poetry. Perhaps nothing brought both of these things to reality more readily than Ochs in concert. My one and only experience with him was at the tender age of 14 (I lucked out with a hip older sister), when I was taken on a New York adventure to hear someone who had inspired me to learn to play the guitar and sing. Phil was a strange combination of warm and yet apart. His songs spoke of things I knew I had to learn to understand, and his sweet voice was such a contrast to the whining drawl of Dylan or the incessant growl of late '60s pop. Here was an angry young man who believed in beauty, a thoughtful revolutionary. In Concert captures these elements well. The album is a collection of music from concerts in New York and Boston in 1965 and 1966. His pre-song banter was hysterical and bitter. Before "Ring of Revolution" he casts a movie in his mind: "John Wayne plays Lyndon Johnson and Lyndon Johnson plays God. I play Bobby Dylan." Here in the heart of the monster that was the Vietnam war he calls for a revolution of decency in rich poetry rather than trivial diatribe. That was Ochs' strong card, his clarity of ideal that left him isolated by both the didactic left and the fascist right, neither of which had much time for poetry, art and decency in those days. In Concert presents 11 songs, most of which were new to his repertoire at the time, songs that were timely then and strangely timeless now. CLIFF FURNALD

DICK CURLESS Traveling Through

Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 627.354.0700

We used to think that the sawdust on the floor of our favorite honky-tonk was scattered there to sop up the blood from the numerous brawls and fights that broke out every night: now, after hearing Traveling Through, Dick Curless' heartbreaking honky-tonk album and his final curtain call, we're not so sure it might be put there to soak up the tears of sorrow that trickle down like notes from a well-toned pedal steel. Recorded just five months before Curless passed away to cancer, it's hard not to be moved by the timeless music presented here by the gaunt cowboy with the trademark eye patch. "Tombstone Every Mile" was his big hit, an early trucker anthem, but the music here is even more timeless and unforgettable, on a par with Hank, Sr., Buck Owens or Lefty Frizzell. It's hard not to feel your throat tighten up when he hits that lonesome falsetto (check out the incredible ending to "Rattlesnakin' Daddy," where he holds a high note for an impossibly long time—just try to sing along!). The band includes Duke Levine, Denny Breaux (son of jazzman Lenny), and Morphine's Billy Conway on drums. Traveling Through is full of poignancy and sorrow that transcends the here and now, as timeless a statement as music of any idiom can offer.

BOBBY PARKER Shine Me Up

Black Top, P.O. Box 56691, New Orleans LA 70156 504.895.7239

In concert, Bobby Parker is one of those performers who kinda makes you wonder if he's really all there—how could any supposedly normal person carry on in such a way and not be carted away? Shine Me Up is of those kinda stinky, silky modern urban blues records—it captures his style of soulful blues, but definitely sounds better in certain times and moods than others. Sometimes the band shuffles along behind Parker kinda aimlessly, but Parker's tone is warm, fuzzed-out and manic throughout, reminiscent of those early Hendrix records with Curtis Knight that found young James Marshall in a flamboyantly over-the-top soul-blues bag. In fact, if there's one problem with Shine Me Up, it's that we keep waiting for Parker to really cut loose and fly, but he just squeezes out a little tasty lick here or there to tantalize the ears. Our own memory of seeing Parker in performance is nigh unforgettable: screaming solos, wild theatrics, full-on conch hairdo, rings on his fingers that caught the spotlight and sent little sparks of light shooting all over the room. Go see him live, stone crazy and flashy-fingering, and check this album out.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Mississippi Burnin' Blues Volume 2

Mardi Gras, 3331 St. Charles Ave., New Orleans, LA 70115 504.895.0441

Big and beloved Sweet Miss Coffey has gone on to her own career, but these three bluesmen show there's still plenty of untapped talent out there in the clubs and nightspots along the streets of Jackson, Mississippi. Like those on the last volume in this series, these recordings may prickle the quills of some who like it raw and rowdy, but if you actually go to the clubs and neighborhoods where the blues are played—joints where Christmas lights are up year-round and Michelob is considered an import—chances are you'll wind up hearing this kind of soul- and R&B-influenced blues music. Check out Eddie Raspberry's "Cold, Cold Winter Night" and his humorous "Cold, Cold, Chicago," where he warns, "If you can't make it in Chicago, you can't make it nowhere else" (hmm, wonder if he's talking about all the second-rate blues being played in the clubs there?). On the slow 'n' mellow blues front, there's "Big Daddy" Robert Robinson, who lays in the pocket on "Just A Dream," and the fitting "I Don't Know, I Don't Care." Melvin "Smokehouse" Moore is the most soulful crooner of the lot, recalling Bobby Bland, Z.Z. Hill and the god of soul/blues, Clarence Carter.

COMSAT ANGELS The Glamour

Thunderbird, 56 Stannington Road, Malin Bridge, Sheffield S6 5FL U.K. 0634.261.559

If nothing else, the Comsat Angels have proved they are survivors, but fortunately there is much more to celebrate. For the first half of the '80s, the Sheffield four smoldered beautifully with taut, intense rock introspection, though minus the commercial ignition of fellow raincoat-rockers like The Cure, the Bunnymen and U2, before enduring archetypal middle-age torpor, band fractures, et al, but three-quarters of the band seized the day again with 1993's My Mind's Eye. Now comes The Glamour, a better album than even a few Comsat fans might have expected. The songwriting is resolutely furrow-browed but increasingly focused, while the music's lean, claustrophobic chimes pack a tougher, sometimes even grungier punch, as if age has brought extra defiance and determined grit; as Stephen Fellows' wry, underemoting voice asserts on "Oblivion," "I don't know where I am going/But I am going anyway." "Web Of Sound," "Demon Lover," "SS100X" and the lose-control finale "Spaced" are other stirring examples of songs which are capable of arena-sized performances but shimmer with an admirably imploding tension rather than any flashy brouhaha. Adulthood evidently need not be glamour-less.

A 7" SINGLE SPECIAL

Recent stars of Abstract's Amplified compilation, Northwich (south of Manchester) trio THRUSH PUPPIES are potentially bound for glory. The third single is a double A-side: "I Came" is strident, sinewy and edgy, with added dynamic spaciness behind a classically throbbing riff, while "Bint/Tart" is more full-on and fuller, with Elastica-style driving, Bandit Queen-style chugging, and Thrush-like pumping (the Puppies are two-thirds female too), both sharing kiss-curl'd girl-group pop-hook acumen and articulate, fem-angst lyrics to match. Sub Pop is rumored to be keen, but take my word, these Puppies bite (Too Damn Loud, c/o Ian Cheek PR, Springfield Gardens, Horsforth, Leeds LS18 U.K. 0113.258.1419)...QUICKSPACE SUPERSPORT was formed around ex-Faith Healer Tom Cullinan. The second single is double-A sided too: "Found A Way" is muggy, druggy, dreamy pop, like shoe-gazing without the billowing-cloud effects (i.e. straggly hair in place of fringe). "Do It My Own Way" is even better, with its spangly, skittish feel, nagging hook-line and what could be a high-noted recorder or organ that juts in half way through to lift the already buoyant mood like a blast of sunshine (Kitty Kitty Corporation/Love Train, 4 Aberdeen House, 22 Highbury Grove, London N5 2EX U.K. 0171.704.2990)...Featured guests on Ultramarine's new Bel Air album, POOKA joins Rough Trade Singles Club's classy ranks. Recently described as, "two Kate Bushes in one hand," "Sweet Butterfly" rises to the challenge with its frayed folk swirl, jazz-freaky sway, clanging percussion (from ex-PJ Harvey drummer Rob Ellis), and two wild, impassioned voices let loose in the middle (a Jeanette Winterston novel in sound?). "Love Song" is more in line with the folksy-winsome Pooka heard on last year's Elektra album, but the sweetness is seasoned with extra bliss-out powder (Rough Trade, 66 Golborne Road, London W10 U.K. 0181.960.9888)...New 4AD signings from Northern Ireland, SCHEER has a limited-edition 'introduction' featuring live demo versions of "Demon" and "Howling Boy," starring airily emoting vocals from Audrey Gallagher and '70s-style sinewy rock riffing from the rest, in the same free-flowing, organic manner as Thrum. Halfway between Pixies and the older archetypal 4AD sound, then? (mail order only: 17-19 Alma Road, London SW18 U.K. 0181.870.9724).

FURTHER OUT

Column by David Newgarden

While "ambient" electronic music has become trendy lately, particularly in London and Europe, there's been a lesser known, but very active American electronic/ambient/experimental underground community since the early '80s. These artists are geographically dispersed, but when very few record stores had a place for such music, they were able to interact and get their music heard via home-produced cassettes and independent albums sold and swapped through the mail. Three excellent new CDs from some of these veterans are similarly quiet and amorphous, but markedly different in sound, and all three stand out from the generic electronic diddling filling the ambient bins. RANDY GREIF/DAN BURKE's Fragment 56 (Complacency, P.O. Box 1452, Palatine, IL 60078 fax: 708.437.3040), a first time collaboration, is probably the quietest of the three, a bit of a surprise from Burke, who has made some wonderfully loud and abrasive noise with Illusion Of Safety. They mix dark electronic tones with rhythmic, albeit non-traditional sound-making—dripping, buzzing, rattling, banging—to create moods that are mysterious and beautiful and very strange. LAND is a Seattle-based quartet of electronic and acoustic musicians masterminded by Jeff Greinke, whose otherworldly electronic landscapes have garnered him more than a few comparisons to Brian Eno. The acoustic instruments and vocals unexpectedly provide some of the scarier and more sinister elements on the album Land (Extreme (Australia), c/o Extreme U.S.A., 1071 Main St., #2000, Cambria, CA 93428). Sorry for another quickie comparison, but both the electronics and Lesli Dalaba's unusual trumpet playing bring to mind the music of Jon Hassell. IF, BWANA is the long-running project of Al Margolis, an institution in the cassette underground for his Sound Of Pig cassette label run out of his Brooklyn basement, releasing his own music and hundreds of other artists. On 33 Birds Went (Pogus, P.O. Box 150022, Van Brunt Sta., Brooklyn, NY 11215-0022), the If, Bwana line-up is Brian Charles on reed instruments, vocalist Ellen Christi doing things even weirder than her (un)usual avant jazz, and Margolis on electronics, tapes of birds, animal-like sounds, acoustic drones and other surprises...PHILIP JECK, of the British group Slant, plays turntables and tape-loops (and makes some particularly inspired use of the usually banal Casio) on his superb solo album, Laopholes (Touch (UK), c/o Dutch East India, 150 W. 28th St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10001). His loops and spinning records create musical whirlpools from lush orchestral fragments, unnerving marching band drum cadences and strange, unidentified percussive sounds. These varied sounds tie together well as an album through their similarities of 'movement' and a very interesting wobbly character produced through turntable speed manipulation and cheap reverb...Back in the day when "industrial music" referred to abrasive noise rather than dance music, Spain's ESPLENDOR GEOMETRICO was notable for making challenging, mechanical experimental music, some of which actually snuck onto a few dance floors. Five of the group's records have surprisingly popped up this year on three CDs on three different labels. "Industrial" was in fact a very apt description for Esplendor Geometrico's assembly-line rhythms and textures that sound like vats of oozing muck. Add to that grade-B sci-fi electronics and throw a heavy tape echo over everything. 1980-1982 (Staaltape, P.O. Box 83296, Portland, OR 97283) contains the first Esplendor Geometrico cassette and first album. Sheikh Aljama (Apocalyptic Vision (Germany), c/o Com-Four, 7 Dunham Pl., Brooklyn, NY 11211 718.599.2205) adds some Middle Eastern influences (pre-Muslimgauze) to the group's classic thump. There's also a double CD of two later albums, 1983-1987 (Geometric), that we haven't managed to track down yet.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Well, well, well, we have a new #1 on our hands: Nonesuch's Cesaria Evora, whose eponymous Stateside debut climbs 3-1, edging out longtime Heartbeat champion Burring Spear (1-2) and Loose Cannon-Island reggae voice Biju Banton (2-3). There are only a few debuts this week: Heartbeat's Tribute To Jackie Mittoo, a salute to one of reggae's great figures, coming on board at #19, and Junior Reid & The Bloods' RAS album, which comes on at #22. Then, in a surprising move, Shanachie's Norwegian chanteuse Annbjorg Lien debuts her album at #24. This week's strongest movers are Rounder's polka-holics Brave Combo (22-8) and Moroccan musician/human dervish Hassan Hakmoun, whose Music Of The World album rises 24-11, a move not unlike one of the astounding leaps Hassan might take while dancing during one of his legendary performances. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

The lavish box sets of Ellipsis Arts, formerly known as "The Relaxation Company" (20 Lumber Road, Roslyn, NY 11576 516.621.2727), certainly have a target market in mind; but while they're as much about packaging as about music, when they have a good producer/compiler behind a project, the results are superb. Ellipsis Arts' latest concept, Planet Soup (on three CDs, or if you're unfortunate enough to be a reviewer, three cassettes), trots the globe in search of "lesser known" artists ("excluding...Paul Simon, Peter Gabriel, David Byrne...") who mix traditional music with modern rock/pop/jazz/whatever, a large ball park to work in. International music purists should turn the page right now, but if you're game to try out Celtic salsa, Estonian blues, Tajikistan pop, flamenco/raga/blues-rock melanges and various and sundry other hodgepodes, Planet Soup might have some interesting flavors for you.

For the uninitiated, Astor Piazzolla's nuevo tango, Aisha Kandisha's Moroccan dub-hop, Värttina's hyperactive Finnish chanting, Ketama with Toumani Diabate, Jon Hassell meets Farafina, and Ray Lema vs. Bulgarian female choir are some of the finer choices from among the familiar names. For most "world music" radio DJs, especially the ones who follow this column, a lot of this may be old hat. But there are plenty of notable lesser-knowns—a few favorites: Jim Bowie's raga banjo, Turkanas, a self-admittedly failed attempt at "African acid jazz," accidentally resulting in a nice blend of jazz, Afro-beat, mbira, and vocal moaning (plus guitar monster Nels Cline very inconspicuously playing African-style rhythm guitar), Danish jazz guitarist Pierre Dorge and his Polar Jungle Orchestra playing interesting new age-ish Scandinavian chant weirdness, and Japanese Taiko drummer Eitetsu Hayashi leading a wild jam with two of Youssou N'Dour's drummers and jazz saxophonist Akira Sakata. Some tracks are pretty tame for the concept (e.g. Wolfstone's Irish jigs with rock drums, and tepid synth-raga from Mormon evangelist Chuck Jonkey), and some are even dreadful: Native American flutist R. Carlos Nakai meets dentist-office lite-jazz piano and Dissidenten's disco-fied fake-ethnic version of Coltrane's "A Love Supreme."

I'm ever distrustful of "fusions" and "drum machines," and I must confess a taste for the bizarre end of the soup spectrum, those insane combinations that will leave radio listeners scratching their heads. I'm pleased to report that Planet Soup serves up a few truly wacky combinations and some amazing oddities (some previously unreleased): Genghis Blues teams Tuvan throat singer Kongar-ol Ondar and blind blues guitarist Paul Pena, pal of the Grateful Dead, composer of the Steve Miller Band's "Jet Airliner" and, believe it or not, an adept throat singer himself, Mongolian Bolot Bairyshev groans overtones over lush voices, lute, flute and demented Jews harp, and the cheesy Urb Brothers are perhaps the Ink Spots of Estonia.

Yazoo-Shanachie (37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860 201.579.7763) has released the first two (we're already hoping for more) volumes of The Secret Museum Of Mankind: Ethnic Music Classics 1925-1948, digging up and dusting off rare ethnic recordings from far-flung corners of the world. I've picked up quite a few Calypso and European 78s in flea markets (some 'hits' sold as many as tens of thousands of copies!) but how often do you hear 1920s recordings from Morocco, Algeria, South Africa, Java, the "Society Islands" (Tahiti), Fiji, Vietnam and Tibet? As many of these musical traditions are more-or-less extinct today, the series is an important archive as well as a delightful listen. Let's hope it's possible today, to not only continue the series, but to release discs of more specific ethnic groups/geographic areas (as do Silex, Arhoolie, Radio France, Original Music, etc.). DAVID NEWGARDEN

ALI HASSAN KUBAN Nubian Magic

Mercator, c/o Caroline, 114 W.
26th St., New York, NY 10001
212.989.2929

Ali Hassan Kuban has been dubbed the "Egyptian James Brown," and would argue that like JB, no matter how good his records are, he's even better live on a stage, where the fervent rhythms of his band and the searing timbre of his vocals can work their magic. Nubian Magic is a jubilant romp of percussion and electric sounds, a synthesis of traditional Egyptian styles placed within, but not subservient to, a more modern dance/pop instrumental setting. As is often the case with such records where a "crossover" or "hit" is attempted, the first song on the disc is not the best: you have to dig a little deeper to find the hypnotic "Maria Maria" (in its original mix), the peppy "Ana Ries Kenalky" and the groove-laden "Trembony." Kuban's vocals soars over the music, his odd-scaled Arabic vocal tonality contrasting with the rock-solid bass lines and cyclic, hypnotic percussion patterns. This recording also marks the U.S. launch of a new world music imprint, Mercator Records, and in another interesting note, it's the first recording we've ever seen to bear the words in the fine print, "No sampling or any other means of unauthorized reproduction is allowed under any circumstances." It used to be that bootlegging was the record company's biggest concern, but not so in today's sample-happy era. JAMES LIEN

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

High Street's Patty Larkin earns a BIG WOW as she stays atop the chart for the fourth continuous week (1-1). Elsewhere in the top 10, Maverick-Reprise's Alanis Morissette (11-6), Righteous Babe's Ani DiFranco (13-7) and Capricorn's Freddy Jones Band (21-10) move up impressively. Green Linnet's Brooks Williams (24-16), A&M's Gin Blossoms-fueled Empire Records soundtrack (22-17) and Dead Reckoning's Kevin Welch (33-18) show increased action in the top 20. Top debuts this week include DGC's Southern Culture On The Skids at #24, Mammoth's KCRW Rare On Air, Volume 2 at #29, Blue Thumb-GRP's Jonatha Brooke & The Story at #32, Mercury's Paul Brady at #34 and Roadrunner's Blue Mountain at #36. Top Adds: 1) Tarnation; 2) Drivin' N' Cryin'; 3) Lisa Loeb & Nine Stories.

BRIAN WILSON | Just Wasn't Made For These Times

Ka-Ram-Bo-La-Ge, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608

Not really a soundtrack as much as a companion piece for the new documentary on Brian Wilson, I Just Wasn't Made For These Times features 11 of his most personal songs. All the tracks except one were recorded especially for the film in a live-in-the-rehearsal-studio setting that gives them a remarkable potency. The lone exception, a home demo version of "I Still Dream Of It," fairly crackles with Wilson's deeply felt emotions. Along with co-producer Don Was, Wilson has chosen a curious mix of some well-known Beach Boys tunes ("Caroline No.," "Do It Again," "The Warmth Of The Sun") and overlooked classics from his songbook ("Melt Away," "This Whole World," "'Til I Die"). While these versions will never replace the originals, I Just Wasn't Made For These Times serves as an effective tribute to Wilson's songwriting genius. With a total time of 29:32 though, it's one that we wish lasted a bit longer.

HEATHER NOVA | Oyster

Big Cat, c/o WORK, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Since she grew up in the tiny Atlantic island of Bermuda, and traveled with her family on a boat, it's not surprising that singer-songwriter Heather Nova's album, Oyster, sounds unconnected to any of today's current pop trends. Like Sarah McLachlan, Nova sings with natural, desolate beauty; her voice twists and soars, then comes crashing down in a bruised emotional ball of love's pain and passion ("Island"). Her voice is so hauntingly beautiful that you find yourself trapped in its sensitive, vulnerable, positively angelic energy. A few tracks, such as "Walk This World" and the clamorous "Blue Black," are coated with a neatly-produced alterna-rock finish, while other tracks, including the perfect moody pop of "Maybe An Angel" and "Truth

And Bone," could launch this record to the top of the growing heap of popular, sensitive female singer/songwriters. GLEN SANSONE

SHORT SHOTS

Longtime CMJ favorites, Boston's the SWINGING STEAKS have finally returned with their third release, Shiner (Thrust, P.O. Box 212, Needham Hts., MA 02194 617.784.2567). After a trip to the big leagues before being dropped, the Steaks have once again released their music on their own label, and have come up with their best collection of country-inflected rock yet. With guitarists Jamie Walker and Tim Giovanniello sharing songwriting credits, they cleverly move from the stark and hook-laden "All In This Together," to bluesy rave-ups like "Roadside" to breezy riff rockers like "Mountain." In the same ballpark as the latest from Wilco and the Jayhawks, the Swinging Steaks' Shiner is a home run...We've come to expect an uncommon journey when JANE SIBERY releases a new record, and her latest, Maria (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510), doesn't disappoint. This time her music is less electronic than her past work, with pianist Tim Ray, bassist Chris Thomas and drummer Brian Blades providing the jazzy underpinnings for Sibery's vocal excursions. "Lovin' Cup," the first single and also the most vibrant song of the set, bares a mostly introspective, childlike tone. At more than 20 minutes long, "Oh My My" is only for the most adventurous radio programmers, but it represents the meditative side of Sibery's work that will enthrall her many fans...JIMMY LAFAYE is a triple threat: His vocals are tattered yet ooze soul, he's capable of writing heart-rending ballads and stunning, full-tilt rockers, and, though many have tried, no one can interpret a Dylan song and make it his own the way that Lafaye does. Buffalo Return To The Plains (Bohemia Beat, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.354.0700) displays all of these elements, building on the quality of his previous albums. Top tracks include "Last Train," "Amsterdam," "Sweetheart Like You" and the title track.

SIX FINGER SATELLITE "Parlour Games"

Sub Pop Director: Guy Benoit

While we can't say enough about the staggering power of Six Finger Satellite's latest record, Severe Exposure, its debut video outing demands accolades for its own weird, subversive accomplishments. The settings, props and characters here suggest a twisted espionage flick, rife with hidden messages, hushed phone conversations and surveillance equipment, while some color-flashed party scenes and a darkly comic undercurrent make it all the more disjointed. Considering the bombastic, electro-noise that serves as a soundtrack, the clip couldn't be anymore stylishly sardonic.

CLIP FIX The latest British export to hit television screens this week is ASH. The band's debut video, "Jack Names The Planets" (Reprise), recalls a few technical tricks from Ah-Ha's new wave classic "Take On Me," animating outline drawings of the band members on bedroom posters while live action takes place around them. Of course, it's all tied together with some considerably rambunctious, fuzzy guitar-pop...NYC Krishna-core outfit SHELTER shows off its performance chops in a clip for the anthemic "Here We Go" (Roadrunner) from the group's debut album Mantra. Aside from the typical editing savvy associated with punk clips such as this, check out the guest acting performance from Roadrunner video guru Kelso Jacks as a disgruntled girlfriend...Give up the funk: 311 pumps out "Don't Stay Home" (Capricorn), alternating between bare-chested performance snippets and some exploits in furry-hooded parkas. And you thought the Chili Peppers had cornered that market.

REPORTER UPDATE This week we welcome Colorado State University's BACKYARD VIDEOS to our reporting roster. The alternative clip show is produced by Steve Roberts and airs every Friday and Saturday, 9:30-10 p.m. on Columbine Cable's student-operated educational channel (Ch. 25), reaching the University campus and most of the Fort Collins area. Videos should be directed to Backyard Videos, Box 13, LSC CSU, Ft. Collins, CO 80523. Roberts can be reached Mondays and Wednesdays, 12-1 p.m. at 970.491.0536...Paris Montoya, producer of New York University's AIR RAID for the past two years, has resigned from his position for the upcoming school year. NYU-TV's station manager, Linda Noble, plans to appoint a new producer for the student-run program at the beginning of the fall semester (September 7). Videos should still be sent to NYU-TV's Music Video Department, c/o Noble, who can be reached at 212.998.5168. Montoya will remain as a contributor to NYU-TV and can be contacted there...AUSTIN MUSIC NETWORK has announced that soon it will be adding two additional hours to its daily cablecast, with plans to expand to 24-hour programming in the near future. The city-funded music program will begin its transmission each night at 8 p.m. and continue until 2 a.m. on weeknights, and until 4 a.m. on weekends. Exact details will be announced pending notification from Austin Cablevision...University of Arkansas' VIDEO ZOO has resumed its programming schedule for the fall season, reports producer David Lipke. The show continues to air in Little Rock on Comcast Cable every Monday from 5-6 p.m., with repeats at the same time on Thursday and Friday...Everett, Washington-based program SOUND WAVES has announced that it will take a brief programming hiatus until Monday, October 2, when the show begins its new season. Currently, producer Angelo Comeaux is airing repeats in Seattle and Everett until it returns with a new time slot on Sunday nights in Seattle at 7 p.m. (it will retain its same slot in Everett).

JOSHUA REDMAN

Spirit Of The Moment

Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd.,
Burbank, CA 91505-4694

In 1991, when tenor saxophonist Josh Redman, Harvard degree in hand, passed up a scholarship to law school in favor of postgraduate study on the jazz bandstands of the world, it's unlikely that he set out to become the standard-bearing soloist and role model of the 20-something generation. But that he quickly became, and remains. A handful of albums and reams of adulatory press later, this handsome, well-spoken young man has come out with his first full-fledged live recording. Because the true measure of a jazz musician is his or her grasp of the ever-present now, on-stage, Spirit Of The Moment, cut live at New York's Village Vanguard, Mar. 21-26 1995, provides confirmation for the skeptical bop faithful. Redman's quartet (Peter Martin, piano; Chris Thomas, bass; Brian Blade, drums) is at once tight-knit and expansive as it proceeds from the leader's originals to such standards as "Remember," "Just In Time," "My One And Only Love" and Sonny Rollins' "St. Thomas." As this set documents live performances, a number of the tracks exceed 10 minutes. As such, the Redman-penned "Count Me Out" (7:08) and "Slapstick" (5:51) are well-suited to airplay.

JAMES MOODY QUARTET

Moody's Party

Telarc Jazz, 23307 Commerce
Park Rd., Cleveland, OH
44122-5804 216.464.2313

Another tenorman, the still-spry James Moody, is caught live at a major New York jazz club. In this case, the club is the Blue Note, and the occasion is Moody's 70th birthday. Considering all the live CDs Telarc has made at the Blue Note (Oscar Peterson, and more recently, Jon Hendricks and Al Grey), the company might as well open an office upstairs at the club. Anyhow, this disc boasts two-speaker, 3D surround sound and, more importantly, the best environment for the extroverted bopster — a live audience. Recorded over four days this past March — one has to marvel at how quickly Telarc gets its product onto the market — Moody's Party captures the leader (also

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Damn! We're saying it again, as organ great Jimmy Smith's latest Verve offering returns to the top of the chart for the fourth time! Still notable is the triumvirate of Charlie Hunter related projects: Blue Note's Charlie Hunter Trio (3-2), Prawn Song-Mammoth's Up & Down Club Sessions Vol. 1 & 2 (1-3) and Warner Bros.' T.J. Kirk holding steady at #4. Roy Hargrove is climbing the chart quickly, with both his Verve album Family (11-5) and the Hargrove/Christian McBride/Stephen Scott Trio's albums of Charlie Parker tunes (the top chart debut at #14). Another busy musician on this week's chart is San Francisco clarinetist Ben Goldberg, whose Knitting Factory Goldberg/Schott/Dunn/Wollesen Junk Genius bebop project (7-15) and his New Klezmer Trio on Tzadik (#17 re-entry) are both charting. Goldberg also puts in an appearance on Charlie Hunter's album. And there's yet another musician with two albums on the chart: Qwest's Milt Jackson re-enters at #18, and he's one fourth of the Modern Jazz Quartet on Atlantic (13-9). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) heard on alto) in the tight embrace of a trio headed by pianist Mulgrew Miller; well-wishing guests, on various cuts, include vibist Roy Ayers, trumpeter Arturo Sandoval, tenorist Chris Potter and soprano saxman Grover Washington, Jr. "Benny's From Heaven" (6:13), on which Moody sings, scats and yodels (was he wearing a lampshade at the time?), might strike an amusing chord with listeners.

THE DALTON GANG Miami Shadows

Second Step, 24 Mill St., #303, Patterson, NJ 07501 201.278.3642

Regular gigging in the New York metropolitan area has broadened the range of this quick-draw funk-jazz aggregate. Led by guitarist Willy Dalton (who penned 11 of the 12 tunes), this 10-piece unit — three reeds, two brass, five rhythm — plays brisk, snappy, catchy jazz with the precision of a small combo and the power of a big band. Jocks can vibe into this instrumental band's R&B-styled funk ("Let's Get Greasy"), Latin ("Pay The Price") and punchy horn bop ("Location Four") with confidence.

JOHN MCLAUGHLIN After The Rain

Verve, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019 212.333.8119

Following his salutes to Bill Evans (Time Remembered) and Tony Williams Lifetime (Tokyo Live), guitarist McLaughlin hails tenor great John Coltrane. Joined by Hammond B-3 organist Joey DeFrancesco (returning from Tokyo Live) and Trane's indefatigably creative '60s drummer, Elvin Jones, McLaughlin regales us with tasteful interpretations of the tenorist's "Naima" and "Crescent" as well as "Take The Coltrane," "My Favorite Things" and "Afro Blue." The leader's "Tones For Elvin Jones," presumably penned for the occasion, is a worthy, 6 1/2 minute programming pick, as are "Take The Coltrane," "My Favorite Things" and the reflective title-track ballad.

MCCOY TYNER TRIO Infinity

Impulse!, 555 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019 212.242.1000

Who better to revive the Impulse! rubric as a new-music company than pianist McCoy Tyner, some of whose best work was done for the label, with John Coltrane and under his own name, in the '60s? (Several of those Coltrane sides are now available again, sonically upgraded, from Impulse!) The dynamic Tyner is flanked here by his longtime sidekicks Avery Sharpe on bass and Aaron Scott on drums. Michael Brecker (who did his own date for Impulse!, Don't Try This At Home, in 1988) supplements the trio, giving his most inventive and impassioned straight-ahead performance in years. In addition to five Tyner originals penned upon his return from a festival in west Africa, Infinity offers a sinewy rendition of Monk's "I Mean

You" and a spirited reworking of Trane's "Impressions," both spotlighting the rejuvenated Brecker to fine effect. Tyner, a prolific recording artist, has been consistently pleasing over the years. But the return of both Impulse! and Brecker merits a double-bravo.

GREG HATZA The Greg Hatza Organization

Palmetto, 71 Washington Pl., #1A, New York, NY 10011 1.800.725.6237

While we're on the subject of returns, check out B-3 organist Greg Hatza's comeback, his first outing since his two dates for MCA 20 years ago. Hatza's handiwork — not to mention footwork; he pumps the bass pedals, too — is sure, rich and largely devoid of the schmaltz and Jimmy Smith-sired blues-shuffle clichés that give barbeque a bad name. In Paul Bollenback, previously heard with organist Joey DeFrancesco, the leader has a nimble-fingered plectrist who contributes strongly to the music's rhythmic as well as melodic/harmonic thrust. Rounding out the group are drummer Gary Jenkins and altoman Jim Snidero, whose gutsy, muscular lines make one forget the absence of the more customary tenor sax. Appetizing cuts include "Juicy," "Bossa Nowhere," the funky backbeat-driven "The Wizard" and the bluesy "Midnight Freight" (four of the leader's six originals).

BILL STEWART Snide Remarks

Blue Note, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028 213.462.6252

Tenorist Redman is the most celebrated under-30 jazz star, but he's in good company. The jazz renaissance that continues apace owes also to his contemporaries representing players on virtually every instrument. Among the drummers, Bill Stewart stands out (as does Brian Blade from Redman's group), and now steps out as a leader. Having laid down fat, supple grooves in bands led by Maceo Parker, John Scofield, Joe Lovano and Larry Goldings, Stewart, 28, is more than ready to hang out his own shingle. Straight-ahead jazz is the order of business on Snide Remarks as the leader's snappy drum-work spearheads nine of his own compositions performed by four kindred spirits who pick their spots judiciously, thus keeping the ensemble sound open, uncluttered and unpredictable. Tenor saxist Joe Lovano and trumpeter/flugelhornist Eddie Henderson, who has re-emerged in recent years as a commanding soloist, form a stellar front line, behind which Stewart, bassist Larry Grenadier and pianist Bill Carrothers prudently mix meters and moods. A cerebral quality imbues a number of these tracks, "Soul's Harbor" in particular, but there's swing aplenty. Check out the title tune, the angular "7.S" (3:19) and the artfully cymbalistic "Crosstalk" (6:51).

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

MIXING UP THE HITS: Loud-RCA's RaeKwon keeps his hands around the #1 position for another week, while Jive's KRS One (2-2) doesn't give up any ground to the advancing single by Big Bear's Mad Skillz, which pushes "The Nod Factor" from 4-3. Daring into this week's top 10 is EastWest-EEG's Das EFX (13-6) and its "Real Hip Hop" single, while Big Beat-Atlantic's Junior M.A.F.I.A. has just released its debut album, Conspiracy, which debuts at #9 this week. Records on the move this week include: Cold Chillin'-Epic's Koool G Rap (14-10), Bad Boy-Arista's Notorious B.I.G. (18-11), Crooklyn Dodgers '95 (15-12; see "Blowin' Up") and LaFace-Arista's Goodie Mob (33-14). Other records debuting this week include: Contract's Scott Lark Oa Sensei (#26), Blackalicious (#30), and the soundtrack to Dangerous Minds at #36. This week's Top Adds: 1) Jamal; 2) The Show; 3) Goodie Mob; 4) Lady Apache; 5) Smif-N-Wessun; 6) Guru; 7) Red Hot Lover Tone; 8) Junior M.A.F.I.A.; 9) Super Cat; 10) Crooklyn Dodgers '95. DOPE!

DOUG E. FRESH
Play
Gee Street, c/o Island,
825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl.,
New York, NY 10019

On Play's opening affair, "Where's Da Party At?" (that samples from Schoolly D and George Michael), the self-proclaimed world's greatest entertainer reminds listeners "I am from the old-school," as some sort of certification that his endless, free-form party raps are as authentic and genuine as the beats he creates with his mouth (called human beat box). Best known for his 1985 hit, "The Show"/"La Di Da Di" while still with MC Rickey D (now known as Slick Rick) and 1993's "I-Ight," Doug is out to prove that his party favors are still as crucial to the hip-hop experience as the visual, street tales dictating today's rap. Fresh boasts with old-school enthusiasm, and takes shots at MCs and rap as a whole ("But in '93 it seems originality is on the verge of becoming extinct to me"), but his raps remain charged and determined to rise above the sea of slackness that didn't exist 10 years ago. The respectful "The Original Old School" features Lovebug Starski, the Furious Five, Cold Crush Brothers and DJ Hollywood in a vintage mic check, while "It's On" is ready to take its place next to the great party jams of all time. Play also includes some of Doug's Jamaican roots on "Freaks" (featuring Little Vicious), a safe sex anthem that closes with Doug's beat box skills. Play falters when Fresh forgets that he is setting a better example for the sexually gratuitous new jacks and unoriginal followers: "Freak It Out" freaks a bit too heavily, thanks to guesting by Luke Campbell, and "Hands In The Air" leans on an old, overused Das EFX sample that fails to add anything crucial to the album. The flaws are few, however, and Doug gets the party back on course on the Patrice Rushen-sampled "Doug E. Got It Goin' On," featuring Missjones.

SINGLED OUT

In 1991, the two-man outfit known as P.M. DAWN turned hip-hop on its collective ear when it released the curiously-titled Of The Heart, Of The Soul And Of The Cross: The Utopian Experience, featuring the hit "Set Adrift On Memory Bliss." Besides adding an entirely new and otherworldly dimension to hip-hop (there's no other way to categorize it), the two weren't ready for the attacks they would take from some heavy names for being "soft." Their follow-up, The Bliss

Album...?, was, in part, a response to their critics (most notably on "Plastic") and an uneven attempt to be harder. They soon realized that appeasing critics was not a part of their design, so they have taken two years off (an eternity in hip-hop) to rethink their music. On the upcoming Jesus Wept album, Prince Be and J.C. have crossed the lines between R&B, pop, psychedelia, rock and hip-hop, and sit alone—unaffected by trends—on a cloud somewhere creating truly beautiful music. While we're not pitching P.M. Dawn as "hip-hop" by today's standards, it remains, in theory, an integral part of the group's sound collage. The first single from Jesus Wept, entitled "Downtown Venus" (Gee Street, c/o Island, address above), may be one of the best cuts the duo has ever created for pure pop enjoyment. Sampling the chugging rhythm of Deep Purple's "Hush," Prince Be sings over a mix of guitars, vocal layerings and percussion. If it's agreed that hip-hop was built on musical cross-breeding, then P.M. is one of its most essential players...BACK TO THE REAL: It's hard to tell if he has extreme nasal congestion or he's higher than Cypress Hill, but SCOTT LARK DA SENSEI's "Insight" (Contract, 129 Fayette St., Conshohocken, PA 19428 610.940.9533) is a smoky, well-produced cut by Tony D that would rather lie in low-lying, shady areas than soak up the spotlight like the output from some of his contemporaries. When he's not dropping deep, monotone raps (you can almost picture the snot running all over the mic), you can hear Scott mumbling under his breath and collecting himself for another set of rhymes. The flipside features two cuts:

"Ashes To Ashes" and "Natural Bliss."

Also from Contract is the new single by the idiosyncratic WISE INTELLIGENT (ex-Poor Righteous Teachers), who starts "Killin'-U" with a quirky, a capella take on Roberta Flack's "Killing Me Softly" ("Killing ya asses with this song/Taking ya life with a song") before slipping into the groove used on Brandy's "Baby Baby." Still rough and reggae-spiced, Wise is out for MC blood, and his finely-honed tongue is sharp enough to do the trick. Also check the B-side track, "Tu-Shoom-Pang"...Once a pint-sized group of hip-hop hardheads, Da Youngsta's grew up before the entire hip-hop universe. Now calling themselves DA YOUNGSTA'S ILLY FUNKSTAZ, they've released the single "I'll Make You Famous" (Pop Art, P.O. Box 15591, Philadelphia, PA 19131 215.878.5551), which will fit perfectly next to Nas, AZ or Mobb Deep. While "I'll Make You Famous" can slug it out with the best (the remix samples Al B. Sure's "Night And Day"), the cut to check for here is on the B-side. "Bloodshed And War" features the vocal exploits of Mobb Deep and once reporters get their hands on this one it's not likely to leave rotation anytime soon. Word out.

WORD IS...

URBANITES FIGHT AIDS: After hearing the horrifying news of Eazy-E's death as a result of the AIDS virus, hip-hop/R&B group Jodeci has taken it upon itself to do something positive and educational in the fight against AIDS and HIV. The group turned to Uptown CEO Andre Harrell, who organized a meeting between the group and executives at the LIFEbeat organization. The band and Harrell have pledged to help spread AIDS awareness by spearheading a campaign for LIFEbeat called UrbanAID 4 LIFEbeat. Aside from radio, television and print public service announcements and hospital visits, there is a star-filled marathon concert planned for this fall. Here are some of the groups already confirmed: Mary J. Blige, Heavy D, TLC, L.L. Cool J, Naughty By Nature, Warren G, Run-D.M.C. and Notorious B.I.G....Released just six weeks ago, the debut album by C-Note/Nōō Trybe-Virgin's Luniz (who hail from Oakland, CA), entitled Operation Stackola, has been certified gold. The group's next single is "I Got 5 On It," which features E-40, Humpty Hump, Spice 1, Richie Rich and Dru Down...BEST BREED: On October 3, WRAP-Ichiban's MC Breed will be releasing a collection of hits, culled from his five previous albums...If you don't recognize the face, Poppa LQ is the artist formerly known as Laquan. His debut album was released about four years ago on Island and displayed a talented, young, refreshing MC. After a long hiatus and name change, Poppa LQ has released Your Entertainment, My Reality on Rap-A-Lot-Nōō Trybe, an album marked by standard G-grooves and a more relaxed yet still rhythmic delivery...HEAVY WATCH: For those who like to keep tabs on Heavy D, his latest album appearance has him teaming with reggae's Robert Ffrench and others on Robert Ffrench, Heavy D And Friends (RAS) for a full-on brew of pure reggae.

CROOKLYN DODGERS '95

"Return Of The Crooklyn Dodgers" (12")

MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608

Radio Chart Position: #12

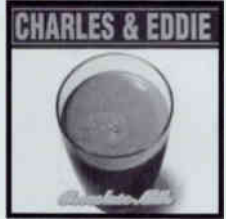

Indeed, there are other records that have made higher debuts this week, as well as records that have made more forward progress, but none of them pack the talent lumped into Crooklyn Dodgers '95. The Crooklyn Dodgers' story goes back to last year and Spike Lee's film Crooklyn. On that soundtrack, the original Crooklyn Dodgers (Special Ed, Masta Ace and Buck Shot) tore it up on one of the best singles of the year. A few draft picks and a couple of trades later, the new and improved Crooklyn Dodgers line-up includes Chubb Rock, O.C. and Jeru The Damaja (a virtual Murderer's Row) in the most explosive single from Spike Lee's latest joint, Clockers. Although most of the radio reports came from West Coast stations, these Dodgers are staying right where they are in the borough of Brooklyn (better known as Crooklyn). With the #10 slot under its belt on the Top Adds chart, "Return Of The Crooklyn Dodgers" picks up seven Beat Box radio reports: CHRY, KALX, KPFT, KRUA, KSPC, KTUH and WRUV in Burlington, Vermont.

Please send all hip-hop, soul, R&B and funk in any format for review and personal pleasure to Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021. Phone: 516.466.6000 ext. 25; e-mail: TBag1@aol.com.

CHARLES & EDDIE Chocolate Milk

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

When it hits you just right, deep at the core, the power of soul music may be as close to God as music can take you. Whether its a lyric, a tuneful cry, a harmony, or all three mingling together, soul music endures because it is in all music; it's the living part of the music that can't be faked or put on. The salt and pepper duo Charles & Eddie aren't put-ons by any stretch. A few years back, they scored a hit with "Would I Lie To You," but even as that song raised some eyebrows, its light pop undertones made it easy to digest. The duo's second album, Chocolate Milk, sounds like the two vocalists are much more aware of their strengths, and they know how to use them. Sweet, dreamy, romantic and sanguine are all words that describe this album, but it's difficult to encapsulate this eclectic, divinely soulful work into a few gratuitous sentences. The timeless quality of the album is such that it could easily have come out in 1976 (except for some high-end production): The soul sounds of Memphis ("Sunshine & Happiness"), Philadelphia, and Motown ("Keep On Smilin'") all turn up in some form, while Charles & Eddie's voices stir comparisons to Smokey Robinson, Michael Jackson, even neo-soulster Terence Trent D'Arby. Like the television ad says, you'd have to purchase dozens of albums to get everything included right here on the album's 16 cuts. While the ska-spiced "Jealousy" may be a bit out of bounds, the album's strongest cuts include: the heavenly, Harold Melvin-inspired "Wounded Bird," the gritty "Peace Of Mind," the Al Green-ish "She's So Shy" and "Your Love," "Little Piece Of Heaven," "Dear God," and the feel-good "Best Place In The World."

SUPER CAT The Struggle Continues

Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Ever since Ini Kamoze raked in the dough following the enormous success of the single "Here Comes The Hotstepper," there has been a virtual reggae/dancehall holy war. Reggae artists seem to be popping out of the woodwork looking for a piece of the action, but only a select few garner the same attention as Super Cat. Before reggae proved its marketable, money-making capacity again, Super Cat had a hit with "Ghetto Red Hot" and "Dolly My Baby" from his 1992 debut, Don Dada. The Don returns to the set at a time when a crooner named Shaggy rules, but his crossover-ready The Struggle Continues will be a tough record to keep down for long. While Super Cat is as pop-tilted as anyone these days, he still shows his commitment to keeping his music conscious on cuts like "Every Nigger Is A Star" and "South Central," but The Struggle... will probably be best remembered for the booty-moving, slinky pop track "My Girl Josephine" (which reconstructs Fats Domino's classic)—a cut that can compete with "Boombastic." Eric Sermon and DJ Muggs get in on the production ("Girls Town" and Warning," respectively) by keeping true to Super Cat's sound. You also shouldn't ignore "A Class Rub-A-Dub" (featuring Daddy U-Roy and Sugar Minot), which places heavy, dub weight on "Ain't Too Proud To Beg."

SIX FEET UNDER Haunted

Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer Road, Ste. 108, Simi Valley, CA
93065-2200 805.522.9111

Although Six Feet Under is indeed a "new" band and Haunted is its first, ear-shattering recording, the band's founding members are certainly no strangers to the metal world.

Comprised of Cannibal Corpse lead throat Chris Barnes, Obituary guitarist Allen West, former Death bassist Terry

Butler and newcomer Greg Gall on drums, Six Feet Under churns out a frighteningly heavy mix of crunchy, old-school metal riffage, nightmarish growls straight from the bowels of hell, hauntingly melodic guitar solos, brain-bashing rhythms and thick, doom-filled melodies. Barnes' unmistakable vocal eruptions blast through a dense bed of razor-sharp riffs on this collection of hard-hitting tunes. Highlights include the brutal churn of "Lycanthropy," the noxious swirl of "Beneath A Black Sky," the ferocious rhythmic pummel of "Silent Violence," the reverberating blast of "Human Target" and the slow, grinding shred of "Remains Of You." Although Six Feet Under just inked a multi-album deal with Metal Blade (despite original plans of remaining a one-off side project), Barnes and West haven't made any plans to leave Cannibal Corpse and Obituary, respectively. In fact, Barnes has announced a tentative Halloween release date for Cannibal Corpse's next blood-dripping masterpiece, so keep an eye out. Also, don't miss Six Feet Under on the road with Broken Hope when this delightfully devastating tour (beginning October 6 in Atlanta) slams into a town near you.

MOONSPELL Wolfheart

Century Media, 1453-A 14th St. #324, Santa Monica, CA
90404 310.396.0094

Bursting with intricate, elaborate arrangements and soaring with exalted vocal harmonies, this Portuguese black metal outfit doesn't spew out the same, run-of-the-mill blinding blur of guttural, screaming white noise that seems to go hand-in-hand with most black death metal bands. Moonspell's elegantly evil, atmospheric instrumental passages swirl with mesmerizing intensity around thick, churning rhythms laced with bone-chilling, gothic melodies and otherworldly howls. A relatively young band, Moonspell formed in the fall of 1992, released an EP and a 7" in 1993, and a mini-CD entitled Under The Moonspell last year. Produced by Waldemar Sorychta (guitarist extraordinaire who gained international notoriety with the German speed metal outfit Despair, has produced albums for Tiamat and Samael, and currently slams the strings for Grip Inc.), the band's debut full-length, Wolfheart, takes death metal to a new level by weaving traditional Portuguese melodies into a rich tapestry of sound rife with lush keyboard manipulations, dark emotion and vocals that alternate between operatic swoons and foreboding growls. Teetering dangerously on a fine line between gentle dreams and hellish nightmares, Moonspell's multi-faceted musical soundscape stirs up images of serene beauty, as well as ugly malevolence. Check out the eerie whisper of "Trebraruna" (sung in the band's native tongue), the surging, rhythmic rumble of "Wolfshade (A Werewolf Masquerade)," the somber, instrumental flow of "...Of Dream And Drama," the rough grind of "An Erotic Alchemy" and the passionate burn of "Love Crimes."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Mortal Kombat

TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003 212.979.6410

This martial arts action/adventure/fantasy/thriller (based on the video game of the same name) recently exploded at the box office, grossing over 23 million its first weekend out, while the film's soundtrack is well on its way to making some sizable waves in the music world with its intriguing mix of top-notch artists who cover a variety of musical styles, including digitized disco, pulsating techno-pop, grating industrial, growling grindcore and doom-encrusted rock. G.Z.R., featuring Geezer Butler (original Black Sabbath bassist and founding member) and Fear Factory vocalist Burton C. Bell, introduces "The Invisible," a crushing new tune culled from the band's upcoming debut album, while Fear Factory contributes the ominously heavy "Zero Signal," from the band's most recent, chart-topping album Demanufacture (#1 on the Loud Rock 75 for over two consecutive months and still counting). Two thumbs up with a snap-kick to the groin: Georgio Moroder's "dark disco" Metropolis Mix of KMFDM's "Juke-Joint Jezebel" (which originally debuted at #41 on Billboard's club chart when it was released a few months ago); the exclusive remix of Type O Negative's menacing, gloom-filled B-side track "Blood & Fire"; the scathing, growling grind of Napalm Death's "Twist The Knife (Slowly)," from 1994's Fear, Emptiness, Despair LP; the industrial, buzz-saw eruption of Bile's "I Reject," and the wild, techno blast of the Utah Saints' "Utah Saints Take On The Theme From Mortal Kombat."

MIND OVER FOUR Empty Hands

Fierce, c/o Futurist, 6 Greene St., New York, NY 10013 212.226.7272

Hailing from Orange County, California, these underground rockers have been pounding out their unique blend of rock/punk/jazz for over a decade now, and although Mind

Over Four has never really blossomed into the mainstream arena, the band has accumulated a large underground following through numerous touring stints and a string of successful album releases. Mind Over Four grinds out an uncompromising sound wrought with raw, gritty rhythms and fierce attitude, yet produces an array of songs rife with catchy choruses and simple, smooth melodies. By incorporating instruments like the flute and Moog into its signature twin-bass thwack and stripped-down punk rhythms, Mind Over Four introduces an interesting aura of psychedelia on Empty Hands. Also, it's obvious that the band hasn't lost its wild sense of humor: The album's track listing includes songs supposedly clocking in at 6:66, $1.25 and 3,987 hrs. Check out the bubbling, acidic groove of "True To Life," the soulful, jazzy jam of "Paralyzed," the hook-y, sloping riffs of "Quick Bright Things," the angry, discordant shout of "White Man," the distorted, elastic rhythms of "Outside" and the billowing, bass-driven stomp of "Chemical Portrait."

ON THE CHART After five weeks in the top 25, Planet Dog-Mammoth's Banco De Gaia full-length reaches the chart's summit this week. Two upward movers emerge in the top five: Astralwerks-Caroline's Future Sound Of London begins its re-ascent (10-3) and Cabaret Voltaire's Richard H Kirk (19-4) on Warp/Wax Trax!-TVT. The chart-dominating Harthouse-Eye Q label adds another entry this week in the form of the Alter Ego LP, debuting at #11. 21st Circultry's Gracious Shades enters at #14, while United States Information Agency on Suburban arrives at #15. Joey Beltram's chart debut is at #17, while C&S-MicMac's new ambient comp, Ambient Extractions Volume I, is a new addition at #24. Things could shift quite a bit in the coming weeks, as the new semester begins. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) the music on the record. The practically self-explanatory "Fuck Up Beats" is a down and dirty, filth-choked drag through gallons of distortion, feedback and caterwauling drum loops. Considering the nearly instant success of this LP at commercial alternative radio, Exit Planet Dust could well be instrumental in testing the often inflexible boundaries separating the two genres.

Astralwerks, c/o Caroline, address above

When last we heard from Skylab, its sole habitat was the L'attitude label in the U.K. Now it's established an arrangement with Astralwerks in the U.S., resulting in the recent release of the splendid "Exotika" (12") (reviewed here last week) and the #1 LP (originally released last year in the U. K.). Skylab is made up of down-tempo groove prankster Matt Ducasse, Japan's Major Force and the now ubiquitous Howie B. Fortunately, a term for the music this group makes has yet to be found, though no doubt it will be lumped in with the current "trip-hop" movement (which, of course, attempts to encapsulate such wide ranging artists as DJ Shadow, Tricky and Portishead). This isn't a record for the dancefloor, or at least any dancefloor presently imagined, nor is it sterile headphone-only electronic doodling. "Exotika" is a slo-mo, treacherous barbiturate which makes you feel like you're receiving a down pillow through hypodermic injection. "Seashell" is a gently corrosive piece with a beautifully lethargic groove. This is an album that will stay with you long after first listening. Along with the current Mo Wax and Pussyfoot material, Skylab is effectively inventing a new genre of "dance" music.

Chicago's DJ SNEAK is a ubiquitous figure in the dance world now. He's recorded for more labels than you've had hot dinners, and has done so in a little under a year. The fact that he's released two new EPs in the last two weeks comes as no surprise to anyone. The Beautification Of House EP is a four-to-the-floor, stone cold collection of jack tracks. "Jacking" was the mid-'80s term for the acrobatic style of dancing which came about with the birth of house, and its popularity is once again evident. "Jack's Back" proclaims the fact loudly, with its helicopter blade, rotating drum attacks and hollow snare hits interspersed with samples from Farley "Jackmaster" Funk's epochal "Jack The Bass." "Da Jacker" continues the theme with its plate-shifting, cavernous percussion, while "Funkin' With Da Drums" is a potent, bass-less drum exercise (Circuit, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch, #218, Chicago, IL 60622 312.642.8008)...Sneak's rather plainly titled Recycled Loops EP belies the record's content. Any producer can recycle old drum loops, it's more a question of what is done with them. Here Sneak borrows some warm organ chords on "Til Dawn Do Us Part," from an obscure (to me at least) disco track, allowing them to dart to and fro beneath the bass line. The real kicker here is undoubtedly "Funk Unit," a thick, resonating electro sample track with a disfiguring drum pattern that sounds like a unwanted power surge. Lethal stuff (AV8, 2887 Rugby Road, Oceanside, NY 11572 516.594.0012).

JOEY BELTRAM has resurfaced on the Logic label with a minimalist symphony entitled "Game Form," which sees him in cahoots with Chicago trackmakers Robert Armani and Mike Dearborn, whose names are well known to the techno community. "Game Form" sees Beltram in classic form with a pared down 909 drum track working overtime to the accompaniment of a gigantic rhythm and bouncing bass line. Armani's mix is a little sharper and harder, with a trademark distorted kick drum and some flailing percussive work. Mike Dearborn applies his granite sensibilities to the third mix, ensuring that there won't be a still body in the house. Apparently this is a taster for Beltram's forthcoming full-length for the German Tresor label which will no doubt find its way onto a domestic label in the near future. This single will certainly keep you going for now (Logic, 270 Lafayette St., Ste. 1402, New York, NY 10012 212.219.2040).

DeLacy's "Hideaway," which appeared on Easy St. earlier this year, was written and produced by the indefatigable Jersey track team Blaze. After some licensing difficulties, the track has emerged once again with three spanking new mixes by the Deep Dish crew and K-Klass. As you well know, the Deep Dish folks are on fire right now, seemingly unable to make a bad record. Their epic (11:51) reworking of this track only cements their reputation, with its staccato keyboard freefalls and elusive minor key melody set to the accompaniment of a mammoth rhythm. The combination of Blaze's songwriting and Deep Dish's production is a formidable one. The K-Klass mix is brighter and a little more commercial (Deconstruction, P.O. Box 18015, Encino, CA 91416-8015 818.609.1086 e-mail: deconstruction@cityscape.co.uk).

RAVE REVIEW

CHEMICAL BROTHERS

Exit Planet Dust

Astralwerks, c/o Caroline,
114 W. 26th St., New York NY
10001 212.989.2929

The ideologies of rock 'n' roll were always somewhat disingenuously divorced from those of dance music. The fact that the chasm between the two forms has only grown wider has little to do with their appeal and a lot to do with the apartheid within the music industry. At the risk of sounding simplistic (and dramatic), Exit Planet Dust is where the two forms collide with the monumental force of a supernova. This album, concocted by two producers formerly known as the Dust Brothers (until that moniker fell to the wayside after a legal tangle with the L.A. hip-hop production outfit of the same name) is a grimy, headlong plunge into rock's hidden debt to dance music. From the duo's first recordings, the audience for the Chemical Brothers was always one whose roots in rock made it somewhat hesitant to venture into the world of dance music, which had been systematically demonized since the "disco sucks" backlash of the late '70s. Once that perilous step had been taken, the audience for Chemical Brothers realized that nothing is sacred in the collage and cut-'n'-paste aesthetic work these folks do. That fact is made evident not only on this album but on their wildly eclectic playlists (they are both DJs, needless to say), which include everything from "Eleanor Rigby" to L.A. cut-and-scratch technicians DJ Battery Brain and Vicious C., from the new school West Coast electro-hop of the Bassex crew to Freestyle's plummeting "Don't Stop The Rock." This expansive album includes the Brothers' first, long-out-of-print vinyl outing, "Song To The Siren," a sprawling, clockwork trance epic with an incandescent, hollow bass line, as well as more recent efforts from the now deleted 14th Century Sky EP. Also found here is the new single "Life Is Sweet," which is much housier in texture than most of

is a forum for communication about all facets of the music industry. All CMJ New Music Report subscribers are welcome to submit comments for publication to: Dialogue, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck NY 11021-2301; or via fax to 516.466.7159. Dialogues will only be accepted every other week from any individual subscriber. All submissions must be typed and include name, title, company/station, city, state and phone number. Submissions exceeding 250 words will not be accepted. All Dialogue comments represent the opinions of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the CMJ staff, the editors or the general readership. Dialogues are due each Monday (unless otherwise noted) by fax or mail at 6 p.m. EST, and will appear in an issue dated exactly three weeks from that Monday deadline.

Zak Einstein, Thick Records, Chicago, IL
312.244.0044 Seven Thick 7"s from Dick Justice, Liquor Bike, Not Rebecca, Geezer Lake, Speed Duster, Back Of Dave and the Laurels, all on picture disc vinyl. If you're into new shit from some of the best underground bands, that's cool—you'll love this series. If not, go fuck yourself, and play Pearl Jam 'til your head explodes. No skin off my back.

Heather Dunnuck, Radio Promotions Goblin, Upstart Records, W. Somerville, MA 713.359.2044 I cannot think of a single clever thing to say to start my Dialogue. Is it just me, or do all of you feel like you have to say something witty at the beginning of these things to get people to read them? It's not like our value as people relies solely on the ability to be clever when we write a Dialogue! So I will fearlessly admit that I have nothing cute to say, and I'm proud of it. I will rise above those who scorn me because of my creative ineptitude, and I will be a better person for it! So there! Well, you should all have the Simon & The Barsinsters Look At Me, I'm Cool!!! CD by now. This album has something for everyone on it, so you should all be able to find something that tickles your fancy. Play it, report it and love it! Kudos to everyone still playing Tav Falco, Tronzo/Gabrels, Nick Lowe and all of our other lovely CDs. We appreciate the support, and keep playing them all—everyone will love you! We have Reeves Gabrels' solo CD, The Sacred Squall Of Now, coming on September 5, so be prepared! It'll blow you away! Also, Upper Crust on September 19—do not miss them! They are the coolest thing since Spinal Tap! As always, smooches to all, and I'll talk to you soon!

Joyce, Promo Queen, Cuneiform Records, Silver Spring, MD 301.589.8894 Hello, dear folk in Radio World. The four new releases we sent you as summer began hopefully helped you ride out the heatwaves. What emerged from our eclectic coffers? A hard-edged batch this round. We shipped Skin by Doctor Nerve, Nick Didkovsky's eight-piece New York ensemble. "Magnificent," said Wire, noting that: "Skin relishes the impact of heavy metal guitar hysteria and menacing bass ostinati on intricate scoring for horns and full-tilt free jazz blowing." We also sent the debut CD by Happy Family, a Japanese quartet featuring Kenicki Morimoto, Shigeru Makino, Keichi Nagase and Tatsuy Miyano (also Mekanick Kommandoh with Ruins leader Yoshida). Keyboard said, "Fans of hardcore avant-jazz may want to push their Medeski, Martin & Wood CDs out of the way to make room for Happy Family." What other wondrous discs? Try Wire Stitched Ears by the Dutch group Blast, featuring Frank Crijns, Dirk Bruinsma, Edward Capel and Jim Meneses. Not for the weak-eared, this disc features polyrhythms, intricate band precision, intoned absurdist lyrics and noise from tapes and prepared instruments. And don't overlook the Siamese Stepbrothers featuring guitarist Henry Kaiser, keyboardist Tom Constanten (formerly of the Grateful Dead) guitarist Bruce Anderson and bassist Dale Sophiea (both MX-80 on Atavistic) and drummer Lukas Ligeti. Boston Rock called it "Ensemble improv that's afraid to groove."

Dean, Rotten Records, Montclair, CA 909.624.2332 "I wish I were an Oscar Meyer wiener"—come on everybody! I hope you're practicing the jingle. Oscar Meyer is looking for a new spokesperson, and you may already be a winner, or is that a wiener? D.R.I. are no Wieners, but they've got a new studio album and it's Full Speed Ahead to you in October. They'll also be touring with Acid Bath to support the release. The Streetcleaners are finally catching on a bit. Continue spinning them if you are, and thanks. If you aren't, I've got two and a half words for you: "rock 'n' roll." Our newest signing, Kiss The Clown, will have their debut label release, also to be out in October. They're pop-power-punk with a Toy Dolls tip, only better. The only other thing that I wanted to get off my chest—'cause it's been bothering me since I heard the news, and honestly I've been losing sleep over it—is the fact that Letterman's home office in Sioux City, IA, has been moved to Grand Rapids, MI. I mean, how can they do that? They just pick up and move with absolutely no notice or anything? As viewers, some of us just can't handle a change of that magnitude without the proper warning. If you have found that this has altered your life as much as it has mine, call me—we'll get through this. Maybe we can form a support group or something.

Mark J. Herndon, Radio Promotions, Arousal Records, Jonesboro, GA 404.473.7965 Hello from all at Arousal Records. First and foremost, we would like to thank all who made our debut release, Homeless Benefit Jam, an "absolutely fabulous" success. Special thanks to WCVH's Joanna Lynch and WOTA's Steven Brown for making "Homeless" a Top 35 report. Also, a big thanks to Jeff Adkins at WWSU, Bingham Barnes at WMTS and Patrick "Brutally Honest" Pfeffer at WPFM for their personal reviews of Homeless Benefit Jam. Thanks again. Be on the lookout for Arousal Records' newest artist, Fishy Dick. If a collision between Seattle and Atlanta sounds tasty, Fishy Dick will have your taste buds "vibrating ecstatically." If anyone needs a copy of the Homeless CD, fax us at 404.473.4491, or e-mail us at arousalrec@aol.com. I will have a copy in your sweaty little hands ASAP. See ya.

Jenny Demoto, Loosegroove Records, Seattle, WA, 206.728.9781 Big snugly hello to one and all! Seattle summer=sub-zero greenhouse with sprinklers on six hour timer. We're working overtime to save up for a real summer on Guam or a tropical prince's private island. Critters Buggin' should be on tour in California right now if Skerik has gotten his head out of the sour mash gutter by now. Their shows are like a wrestling match between a drum corps and John Zorn! And Weapon Of Choice will have finished up their West Coast/CO/AZ/UT tour by press time. If you haven't caught them yet, be forewarned: Nutmeg Music can bust yer booty and blow out yer brain doo-doo! (Special 12" release of new songs out for Halloween!!!) Much thanks to all you Malfunkshun supporters, if you'd like a fancy t-shirt iron-on (the image is taken directly from the album cover of Return To Olympus), give me a call. For once in a long while, Seattle's Labor Day music and arts festival, Bumbershoot, is chock full of local and national acts that will rock our socks off (Mel Torme, Mudhoney, Weapon Of Choice, the Gap Band, Critters Buggin', PopDefect, Micron 7, etc.)! Woo-hoo.

Joe, John, Gregg, Alex & Sarah, One Wing Promotion, Mt. Holly, NJ 609.265.3890 As the summer comes to a tragic end, we here in the office would like to thank all the stations and their staffers that kept it up and running through all the blistering heat this year. What's out now, you ask? Well let me tell ya: Ani DiFranco. Thanks for her #29 debut. Plastique, he's out of the slammer and on your desk. Amy Arena, this chick is the shit. Joan Baez Live At The Bottom Line, a couple of great nights in the city captured on tape for your listening pleasure. The Chinadoll, Tango is the second release but nobody can dance till you start spinning the music maestro, and Trae releasing his first single, "Fear No Less Than You." This will be the very first enhanced CD single to be released. It will include the song, the remixes, the video and other special surprises. So just remember, if you like to attack living cells, leave open oozing wounds, make people cough up thick black phlegm and bleed out of every orifice on the body, you can pretty much bet the house that you are the ebola virus. Ciao for now.

Pete Rosenblum, Elektra Headquarters, New York, NY 212.275.2860 Buffalo Tom, Luna, Bjork and the Dambuilders are all already at your station. New stuff: Spacehog is everything you want your new favorite band to be. Just listen to the music, it's that simple. The full album won't ship until late September. For Love Not Lisa's 3 Songs About You is on your desk now. Their new album, Information Superdriveway, was produced by Steven Haigler (Quicksand) and we are going for adds on 9/11. Electrafixion is Ian McCulloch and Will Sergeant of Echo & The Bunnymen fame. The band's U.S. debut is entitled Burned and will land in mid-September for adds on 9/18. Odds are you have heard their new single, "Truth Untold." The same guys who gave you "Heterosexual Man" are delivering a killer album called Good Weird Feeling, and it goes for adds on 9/18 also. Tracy Chapman is back and she's mad as hell (just kidding). Tracy has delivered a really beautiful record that you will get a taste of on a 7" of "Smoke And Ashes," which is the first single. Down is Phil from Pantera, Pepper from C.O.C., Jimmy Bower from Eye Hate God and Todd and Kirk from Crowbar. Other stuff on the way includes albums from Anthrax, the Four Rooms soundtrack, the Amps (Kim Deal) and Erasure. Look for EPs from Greenberry Woods, the Dambuilders, Bjork and Better Than Ezra featuring non-album tracks, covers and rare B-sides.

Lindsay Shannon, Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA 800.966.4244 ext.3026 It's there, or at least it should be there, and if it's not you need to call me immediately! You'll be mad if you don't get one of these, so call me! It's a celebration of all that is garage. Of course, I am talking about the Fleshtones and their new album, Laboratory Of Sound. Check out the organ, the harmonica, the guitars, the producer (Steve Albini) and the party. They'll be at a bar near you, so check your local listings. By the time you read this, you will have hopefully seen Lisa Cerbone at the Music Marathon (Wednesday at Sidewalk Cafe)—check her out. She will perform tunes from her newest, Close Your Eyes. What's that? Is there anything else? Yes! Deadeye Dick has a new album called Whirl and you will be getting a copy. No novelty songs on this one, just solid rock. OK? OK.

Bob W., Triage, New York, NY 212.989.4545 Does the word "duh" mean anything to you? An important CMJ show for you to enjoy: Thumper and Individual Fruit Pie together at Downtime (251 W. 30th St.) on Thursday September 7 with Nemo (Belgium), Time Lodgers (Norway) and Tinker (Canada). Free beer is one good reason to show up, and I don't mean Riceweiser or Miller Genuine Corn: We're gonna have Neptune 66, NYC's first micro-brewery beer! (Indie beer?) The Fall album is coming, plus James Kochalka Superstar's debut. About the CMJ confab again: Apparently, there's going to be a panel discussing how favors are exchanged between music directors and promotion people. I urge anyone who has anything to say about the issue to show up and speak openly and honestly. It's the only way you can be assured to get more of the stuff that you richly deserve, and help perpetuate a well-running system that we've all come to rely on. I'm afraid some spoil-sports will show up and try to make a case against all the free goodies. They're just jealous. Some people will probably show up and make-believe they disagree with our fine system, but secretly they're as much a part as anyone else. They just want to seem ethical (Ethics in the music industry? Give me a break!), but in their hearts they know what's good for them. So line up at the trough, let go a loud squeal and dive into the slop! CMJ's here! "Duh" means everything to me.

Dan Mackta, Autotonic, Memphis, TN 901.452.3939 Hey...(hey). I feel helpless 'cos there's only one of me and so many of you. So many Half Japanese fans. Hey! Let's gather 'round the new album from Palace Music entitled Viva Last Blues (Drag City) and see what we come up with. Enjoyable, no? We're talking to you, Mr. Triple AAA. Also current: Specula Erupt (Scat), first album from this unusual Chicago duo; Chrome Cranks Dead Cool (Crypt), new mini-LP from these NYC veterans, watch for their upcoming tour; Stranglartin For The Sake Of Argument (Safe House), latest full-length from these Lexington, KY boys; Country Teasers (Crypt), debut from this Edinburgh, Scotland combo, truly ripping. And be on the lookout (read: check in if you want promos) for new records from Jenny Mae, Lazy Cowgirls, Jennyanykind and King Kong. And from the weird and oh-so-special file: A reissue of the classic Colors album from Ken Nordine (a.k.a. "The Voice") on Asphodel. All coming soon to a station near you. Not yours, though. Unless you know the "procedure."

Kevin Forsythe & Kacey Baby, Radio Promotion, A.T.S./Another True Story Publishing Co., Pittsburgh, PA 412.241.0704 Axe of Free Will, Axe of Free Will, Axe of Free

Will, Axe of Free Will. Kacey says 'hello!' to all you lovely people she met at the CMJ Music Marathon. It was great to see you face to face. You all should have Axe of Free Will now; the new 20-song CD from A.T.S.. Now tell us the truth, isn't that the coolest album cover and poster you ever saw? That is an original painting by A.T.S. lead guitarist, Evan Knauer. He also did the paintings for the previous albums, Blood Drive and Sepco. If you're looking for an emphasis track, check out number nine, entitled "God." This is Kevin's personal favorite. The three lads in A.T.S. prefer "Chop Shop," but we hope you find time to listen to them all. Try "Free Will" and "Someone in the Mob," too. Watch for A.T.S. at the Philadelphia Music Convention October 25-28. Take care!

Molly Neuman, Lookout!, Berkeley, CA 510.841.9042 Um, here is my new Dialogue thingy. All of our bands have been out on tour for most of the summer, and it has been basically too much to keep up with. The Queers have just finished a month-long outing with the Muffs and Cub, and besides a few broken televisions and hearts, everyone has remained in one piece and survived being routed through the Southeast during hurricane season. Duh. Anyway, the most exciting thing coming up on our horizon is the Lookout! showcase Sunday, September 10 at Wetlands in NYC, with the Queers, Mr. T Experience, Squirtgun and the Hi-Fives. Speaking of which, did everyone see the bass player from the Hi-Fives on Letterman? He's "Dishwasher Pete," and he's definitely gonna show you a thing or two about rockin', so come with some soap and your dancing shoes. You should all be receiving the new MTX ditty Alternative Is Here To Stay shortly, and it's destined for radio greatness, so don't miss the bandwagon on this one. Also coming soon: New LPs from Citizen Fish, Squirtgun, Pinhead Gunpowder and the Sweet Baby/Brent's TV split CD; a 7" from New England's finest Showdowns; as well as the long-awaited and well-worth-it split compilation with Kill Rock Stars, A Slice Of Lemon. This insane collection of bands is loaded onto two LPs and two CDs, with the likes of Mary Lou Lord, Mr. T Experience, Excuse 17 and 36 more delights.

Buster, Go-Kart Records, New York, NY 212.673.3380 Lunachicks on tour now!!! Following dates with the Muffs: 8/31, Euclid Tavern, Cleveland, OH; 9/1, St. Andrew Hall, Detroit, MI; 9/2, Metro, Chicago; 9/3, 7th St. Entry, Minneapolis, MN; 9/5, The Other World, St. Louis, MO; 9/6, Bottleneck, Lawrence, KS; 9/7, Ranch Bowl, Omaha, NB; 9/9, Fox Theater, Boulder, CO; 9/10, DV8-Basement, Salt Lake City, UT. Without the Muffs: 9/14, San Francisco, Slims; 9/17, Los Angeles, Roxy. Then it's off for a few weeks before the tour with Rancid starts on October 10 somewhere in the Northwest. The Trick Babys just finished a short tour of the Northeast and will be on the road again soon. For those of you who got and played the Canned Trivolta and Buttsteak 7's, thanks a lot. For those who want 'em, call us. Canned Trivolta does punk versions of old disco songs and has a special guest: the Cowboy from the Village People! Now that's punk for ya. Don't forget Wives' debut album Ask Me How, produced by Dean Rispler from Karen Black, out Sept. 1!!!

Kerri, Big Cat Records, New York, NY 212.941.6060 Out now: Blumfeld Verstärker EP and Crowsdell The End Of Summer EP. Both bands will be performing at CMJ with Mercury Rev, Dirty Three, Gary Young and Cakelike at Mercury Lounge on Wednesday, September 6. October 10: God Appeal To Human Greed is five songs remixed by Kevin Shields, Justin Broadwick, Bill Laswell, New Kingdom, and Kevin Martin did one himself as well. Harmony Rockets Paralyzed Mind Of The Archangel Void is one track, 41 minutes long. Out soon: Sturm And Twang is "A Private Collection Of German Underground Pop," and it features tracks from Blumfeld and FSK. Big Cat will be responsible for the limited quantity of vinyl for Mercury Rev's Sept. 19 WORK release, See You On The Other Side. This vinyl will not be serviced to radio. Call if you need one, and we'll see what we can do.

Jay Miles, Promotion Duck, Wonderland Records, Hamden, CT, 1.800.INDIE.24 Hello. We here at Wonderland Records have decided that the world is taking itself far too seriously! To counter this trend, we have several recordings to offer you that will once again allow your heart to race, your blood to boogaloo, and your mind to unwind! Sink yourself into Spill, from Gravityhead. Bask in the warmth of Big Hot Sun: Their Wonder debut is dubbed 2,000 Years. Both full-length records are currently en route to radio and retail. Kick your feet up with The Bench EP from New Haven-based Sylph (limited release, call us for a copy). Throw a party for your eyes with our first video release, now charting nationwide; "When Kingdoms Fall," by Mighty Purple, will rekindle your soul. Our sources also indicate that CDs from Brooklyn Wonder band Flood No.9 and flagship artist Mighty P will begin catalyzing the next phase of human evolution beginning with the start of the fall semester. Don't say we didn't warn you! And remember, what doesn't kill you makes you stronger. Oh, one more thing: all of us here have heard these recordings backwards and forwards. Many of us can claim some sort of spiritual rebirth due in part to the sounds that have been woven into our beings. We remain ecstatic and more than willing to share! Call us! Special requests granted! Wish fulfillment always possible! We're ready when you are. Thanks for listening, more to follow.

Tammy Watson, Girl To Call, Up Records, Seattle, WA 206.441.8277 You may find yourself deep in thought, wondering, "Who is Up Records? Why am I so intrigued?" The answer can easily be found in exposing yourself to the young fresh wealth of talent Up has to offer. Who are our players? Built To Spill, Mike Johnson (yes, the same MJ of Dinosaur Jr. fame), Juned, Violent Green, Caustic Resin, Land Of The Loops, Hush Harbor and many, many other fantastic young groups. This summer, Built To Spill found themselves entertaining the youth on the Lollapalooza sidestage while Hush Harbor's debut CD hit your station and your heart. We released Stacked Up!: All Original Recordings From The Vinyl Singles Of Up Recording Artists. This brilliant compilation will give even the smartest shopper a pleasing feeling and a true sense of what is Up. Juned and Land Of The Loops are finishing up terrific new releases while Built To Spill and Caustic Resin collaborate on an exciting EP bound to knock you to the moon this fall. Oh, things do sound terrific at Up, and that just may be because they are! Enjoy life, listen to Up more often. And please feel free, even welcomed, to call me with any questions or inquiries. Have a nice day.

Ray and Cybele, Frequency Futurists, Rainforest Records, Portland, OR 503.682.3944 Attention, fans of the bizarre, we've got a good one for you: Manifestation VII. This CD compilation is the seventh and latest in a distinguished series. The concept albums known as Manifestation were started back in 1991 by the Pain Teens. The torch was passed to the band Pleasure Center (who have appeared on every volume) and their in-house label Awefull Records. The series serves as a way of featuring experimental and avant-garde music that otherwise has limited commercial outlets. Truly international, each volume contains an unique blend of music resonating from around the world, with Houston as an epicenter. This latest album has a wonderfully wild and diverse collection of music by: Crawl Unit, Cecilia, Meat Market, Fragmented, Froit Head, Mata Hari, Pleasure Center and H.E.A.D. The album was leaked to select friends months ago, but is now enjoying the full-on press and radio servicing it deserves. KNRK New Rock 94.7 FM in Portland was one of those who got the advance release. They broadcasted the H.E.A.D song, "Radio Is A Razor," on their 37,500-watt station. Could this be the makings of an underground hit? Radio programs in France (La Nuit des Sauriens) and Italy (Radio Gamma Rovereta) have also jumped on this unique album, taking the risk with its auditory delights and hallucinations. Now it's time for the rest of radio land to roll the dice with Manifestation VII.

John & Doug, TVT-Wax Trax! Records, New York, NY 212.979.6410 Who the fuck is Doug? He's the new guy at TVT. So be nice to him. Does college radio play records or labels? Just because a label releases records that are not the kind of stuff that they normally put out, that doesn't mean that you should ignore it. It's called being a diverse label—get over it. Let's start with the multimedia group, EBN. Everyone should have their latest release, Telecommunication Breakdown. Remember, if you have access to a CD-ROM, check out the three videos. Also, take a listen to "Shoot The Mac-10," with special guest Grand Master Melle Mel. Everyone should also have a video from Spokey Ruben. Check it out. By watching this you will learn the weirdness of the Spook Master General. His record, Modes of Transportation Vol. 1, should be at your station any minute. Ad date 8/28. Birdbrain, Birdbrain, Birdbrain. Listen to Birdbrain. Wake up! Listen to "Bliss." Check out "Jena" and "Rosindale." Coming up: Sister Machine Gun, Mortal Combat, Fledgling, Sprit Feel, Psykosonik, Juster and GZR. From John: My sincere condolences go out to every single Deadhead for the passing of the master, Jerry Garcia. The Grateful Dead are not just a music thing. They are a personal thing and mean different things to everyone. They were the true alternative. "Jerry Garcia was not the best at what he did...He was the only one who did it." Mr. Garcia will be greatly missed by many, including me.

Johnny and Sara, Music Directors, KMSU, Mankato, MN 507.389.1701 Weeeeeeeeeee're baaaack! Our funding problems are behind us and as of September 1, we will be back on the air! Please call us and pleeeeeease consider servicing us with your releases. We missed you.

Rick Brickwell, Station Manager, WDCG, Downers Grove, IL 708.271.6586 Hey, everyone from the Chicago sprawl. Hope you've kept cool during this blast furnace summer. Apologies to all the radio reps who have had to put up with the answering machine and waiting for return calls, some of which probably took forever or never came at all. Like everyone else, I tried to enjoy the summer and keep the station running at the same time. September 7 begins our new schedule and my eighth year at DGC. Station managers and teachers never graduate. Looking forward to talking to those I "forgot" really soon. Meantime, a few band names that I found over the summer which might have been overlooked and are worth a listen: Sonia Dada, Die Toten Hosen, Cowboy Mouth, Garbage, Alice Donut, Edwin McCain, Stone Edge, Gregory Gray, Papa Fritas, Richard H Kirk, My Life With The Thrill Kill Kult, Peter Murphy, the Chinadoll and Warrior Soul. Sooner—or later. ☐

LOUD ROCK DIALOGUE

REC. CO
Smitty, Epic Rock Radio Promotions, New York, NY 212.833.5988 Thought-provoking idea of the week: Why is it when you are driving and looking for an address you turn down the radio? Well, you shouldn't be turning down any Epic acts, 'cause we're as hot as the devil's anus after a curry dinner dump! Sales for Silverchair are through the roof (59K, Billboard #17)! Korn sales are kicking also (7,750 pcs., Billboard #141!), and by now they're finished with the mega-tour and some bands must be pissed knowing they got their butts slammed nightly (no names necessary). Look for both these guys at CMJ. Also, Skunk Anansie will blow any CMJ attendees away who dare attend their performance. Call for all pertinent info regarding these happenings. Until next week, c-ya!

Joe Guzik, Earache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 The summer is almost over. Time to get those last minute things in, like one last trip to the water. But, remember, as summer comes to a close Earache is in full swing. Everyone should have the new Fudge Tunnel. This record is incredible! Definitely heavy rotation material. Speaking of heavy, have you heard the Coalesce disc? This is probably the heaviest hardcore out there. Don't delay, check it out and add it. Also, in the same package came the Silencer. Is this the coolest new gem in the Earache family or what? Play 'em hard. And here is the greatest way to say goodbye to summer. Misery Loves Co. is putting together some dates. Already confirmed are NYC, September 17 and Detroit, September 23. Call me, I should have the rest of the dates by the time you read this. Also, new Cathedral will be out September 26. E-mail earacherec@aol.com. See ya!

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY 212.219.0077 ext. 214 Fear Factory on the road with Ozzy Osbourne. Dog Eat Dog on the road with 311. Brujeria's latest release, Raza Odiada ("The Hated Race"), finally out there getting major airplay. I hope some of you enjoyed my little green cards. It took a lot of time and patience to create those for you. That's right, I need you to stroke my ego a little bit. The single is "La Migra" ("The Immigration"), but also check out "Hechando Chingaso" ("Kicking Ass"). Shelter is on the road with a local NYC band called H₂O. Tracks to play off Shelter's debut RR release, Mantra, are "Here We Go," "Message To The Bhagavat" and "Appreciation." Everyone is loving Shank 456. They will be playing the CMJ convention, so if you're there, please check them out. Suffocation and Deicide on the road. New Nailbomb coming (Jay Hugen: Keep your pants on).

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce Records and Crazy Management, Manalapan, NJ 908.591.1117 Thanks to all for your support on the Testament record. Their tour is going very well! Check them out live if you can. Coming soon, the debut LP from Bif Naked and a collection of the best of M.O.D. with 20 minutes of new material!

Jill Castellano, Victory Records, Chicago, IL 312.666.8661 Welcome back stations! For those of you just getting back, before you do anything else, check your mailroom for my two releases; Earth Crisis' Destroy The Machines and Integrity's Systems Overload. Take note of our chart numbers! Impressive, eh? Next out on Victory will be a Snapcase EP called Steps and a Doughnuts full-length called The Age Of The Circle. Add date tentatively set for September 18 and 19. Check out Ron Platzer on Chainsaw's radio panel at CMJ this year, he will have tons of Victory promos. Ron is working for We Bite America, which is distributed via Victory here in the States. We work in the same office, lucky for him. He's their new guy and will have plenty to talk about. Anyway, a zillion thanks to everyone supporting Earth Crisis and Integrity and if you're not, you suck!

Ron Platzer, We Bite America, Chicago, IL 312.738.8945 Hittin' you fist first, it's We Bite America! Via Victory Records, We Bite America promises to pound through the clutter of recent loud rock mailings with four unique slabs o' noise. First is Choices, the new full-length of bastardized hardcore from Cleveland's Face Value. III, the latest from Germany's Eisenvater drips with an unearthly mixture of industrial/doom/grind. The hardcore/gothic approach of Optimum Wound Profile's Asphyxia will nail ya to the wall. While England's Central Nervous System dishes out their own urban brand of groove-laden hardcore on their latest effort. Not everyone received these, so call if you need 'em. Just released on good behavior from WMHW in Mt. Pleasant, your WBA pusher is Ron Platzer (available September 18). So corner me at CMJ for all the latest WBA/Victory Records promo goodies. Also, I'll be on Chainsaw's Metal Radio Panel on Friday the 8th! Don't miss the hilarity!

Paula Kopka, Noise Records, Los Angeles, CA 1.800.NOISE.22 Shihad just keeps on growing and moving up on all the charts! This band is the shit! For those of you who still aren't playing this band, why??? Dates are being confirmed for Shihad's upcoming tour with Misery Loves Co., so call me for tickets. I'm going for adds on Kreator's latest release on September 4 and I'm definitely sure you folks are going to like this one, too!

Steve/Gill, McGathy Promotions, New York, NY 1.800.448.7625 My brothers, sisters and offspring (not the band) across the land: There are two incredible bands that must suffer due to the CMJ Music Marathon and MusicFest '95. They are going for adds on the 4th and 5th, but will not get any because CMJ is not taking reports that week. Although this is quite saddening for all, don't fret fuckers. ADD 'EM ON THE 11TH AND 12TH, OK??? OK!!! Clutch (now on Atlantic), "Spacegrass" is the track. Nature (Zoo Entertainment), "Cometh" is the track. Thank you all. Call me or Gill at 1.800.448.7625 or e-mail us at McGEDGE@aol.com. Later!

Patrick Skvoretz, Feedback Music Distribution, Chicago, IL 800.326.3472 Feedback is now distributing the Italian heavy metal label Godhead, which features punk, hardcore, heavy metal and industrial music for both well-established and brand-new artists. Their latest releases include Extrema The Positive Pressure (voted best Italian band of 1995 by Flash, Metal Hammer and Metal Shock), Mourn and Electric Wizard (both self-titled albums). Other releases include Paul Chain's Alkalest, in which Paul teams up with Lee Dorrian, the ex-Napalm Death member now fronting Cathedral. Also, Dark Passage Volume 2, the latest in the doom compilation series, featuring such up-and-coming American bands like Eyehategod and Thirteen. Keep the calls coming or fax 708.545.9191.

Sean McKnight, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA 717.397.9221 This week I thought I'd write my Dialogue in old death/grind style...sorry no medical dictionary! Ready? Break out your dictionaries! Meshuggah is doing implausibly auspicious! Destroy Erase Improve is #1 at KSDB (again) and #5 phones! Death...Is Just The Beginning III is #3 and #1 phones! Beholden solace to the consecrated Andy Sample for his advocacy! In articulation of Death...III, it continues to eradicate all those in its access! 38 tracks of euphonic efficaciousness! Disseminate them all! Benediction and Sinister should have been added by now, please impel these as laborious as plausible. Have you checked out Mindrot yet? If not, you'll have to be decimated! Check this one out, the full-length is due to encroach in October. Alms are incessantly obtainable, just entreat! On deck: Dismember, Exit-13 and my handy thesaurus!

RADIO
The Tink, WVUD, Wilmington, DE 302.798.0144 Why, hello there! Testament live at The Troc and the crowd yelled out for more! As always Mike Stallion (tour manager) came through for The Tink like gangbusters. We saw a great show and got some really fabulous photos. Many thanks go out to Mega Missy. Forbidden opened; the band has to get that CD out on the streets. (Yo, P. Skvoretz, when is the Feedback Massacre going to happen? Russ says the Euro version is a good thing). Brian (I'm gettin' the hell outta this room and rock) McEvoy plugged me in BIG TIME for the Ugly Kid Joe show. Thanks pard! Sheri's Souls At Zero opened up for the Kids and did a resounding job, I must say. Point of interest: Can you tell me why the unsigned band's demo tapes have trickled to a very slow pace? I refuse to believe that the hard music crowd is buckling under all this punk spurt.

LOUD ROCK NEWS CONTINUED

Wrapping up nine dates on the Warped Tour, New York rock band Into Another has been busy laying the groundwork for its latest release and Hollywood Records debut, Seemless, produced by Rick Parashar (Alice In Chains, Pearl Jam, Blind Melon) and due to hit the streets in September 12. The first track off Seemless, "Mutate Me," will be serviced to college and metal radio only. Before embarking on a six-week tour with labelmate Seaweed in early September, Into Another will play two shows at the CMJ Music Marathon & MusicFest '95: Friday, September 8, at a special warehouse gig (Studio 450) with Seaweed, Supergrass, Triple Fast Action, For Love Not Lisa and Spacehog; and Saturday, September 9, at CBGB's, where the band will join former labelmates, including Texas Is The Reason, State Of The Nation, Shades Apart, Sensefield and Whirlpool at the "Revelation Records Night" showcase. For more information, please contact Rose McGathy at Joint Management, 212.645.5641... According to a press release distributed by CMC International Records: Iron Maiden is proud to announce the signing of new label deals for both the band's back catalogue and future releases, as well as details of Iron Maiden's first studio album in three-and-a-half years, which marks the debut of new vocalist Blaze Bayley. Iron Maiden has left Capitol Records for the second time in the band's 15-year relationship with the label and this time the group has taken its 11 album multi-platinum back catalogue of albums along with them. Castle Records USA will issue the band's back catalogue in October to coincide with the release of the band's new studio album, The X Factor, which will be released on CMC International on October 3, 1995. Iron Maiden managers Rod Smallwood and Merck Mercuriadis (Sanctuary Management) commented: "We're very fortunate at this stage in the band's career to have complete control over who markets and releases our albums and how they do it. We felt that Capitol had lost the necessary enthusiasm and commitment to market hard rock records and that it was time for us to move on." CMC's Tom Lipsky commented "Iron Maiden is hard rock music, which I consider to be the foundation of the music industry. It is rare to have the opportunity to represent a band that has defined an entire genre of music and CMC is thrilled to be involved with the great band and this brilliant album. We are counting on Iron Maiden to drive metal consumers back to retail and if any band can do it, Iron Maiden is the one." AEC Music Distribution, the fifth largest distributor in America, will distribute both the new album and Iron Maiden's back catalogue... On a sad note: Sincere condolences to Vince Neil (ex-Motley Crue) and his former wife Charise on the loss of their four-year-old daughter, Skyler, who recently passed away. Just weeks before her death, Skyler, who had been battling cancer for over a year, underwent surgery to remove a tumor from her stomach, along with part of her liver and one kidney.

JOHN GILMORE 1931-1995

Jazz great John Gilmore died of emphysema on August 20 at the age of 63. Gilmore was an accomplished tenor saxophonist in bebop, swing and avant-garde settings; he played with artists as diverse as Earl Hines, Art Blakey, Paul Bley and Olatunji, but committed most of his life and creativity to the brotherhood of the Sun Ra Arkestra. Joining Ra in 1953, he was a devoted deputy throughout the decades and led the Arkestra following Ra's death in 1993. Gilmore's enormous talents were often overlooked because of his subordinate role, but John Coltrane acknowledged his frenzied, emotional sax style as a tremendous influence. Gilmore can be heard on close to two hundred Sun Ra recordings, on his own album on Blue Note, and as a co-leader on records with Clifford Jordan, Dizzy Reese, and Paul Bley/Paul Motian/Gary Peacock.

DWAYNE GOETTEL 1964-1995

Founding member of Skinny Puppy Dwayne Goettel died on August 23 of an apparent heroin overdose at his parents' home in Edmonton, Canada. Goettel, along with other band members Nivek Ogre and cEvin Key, had recently completed work on a Skinny Puppy album to be finished by long-time producer David Ogilvie for release on American Recordings. Goettel had contributed to projects like Doubling Thomas, Hilt and the Tear Garden, but had most recently finished work with Key for Download, a recording collaboration set for release on Cleopatra Records on October 3. The release date of the Skinny Puppy album is now indefinite, with no plans for its release by the end of '95.

Eric Matthews is best known as the 'other half' of Cardinal, last year's duo which wowed critics with its lush harmonies. Matthews played Robin to Richard Davies' (ex-Moles) Batman for a single Cardinal album before embarking on a solo career, which officially begins with his first album, It's Heavy In Here on Sub Pop. All of this is a little heady for a man who hasn't been to a party or bought current records in the last 10 years, a man who began his musical career as an orchestra musician, a self-taught composer and arranger who is now submerged in this strange indie-rock world.

It wasn't parental force that drove Eric Matthews to the trumpet at the tender age of 10, but rather the soundtrack to the '70s' most popular film: Star Wars.

"My parents had a nice record collection. They were Miles Davis fans and they had a lot of orchestral music and a lot of Russian composers, so I was listening to a lot of trumpet sections...and then Star Wars came out. John Williams was writing so specifically and predominantly for trumpet. I fell in love with it. I worked hard at it and excelled and decided pretty promptly after that that I wanted to make that my career," states Matthews matter-of-factly.

He took the most direct path towards a trumpet-playing career, applying to a music conservatory rather than a conventional college. His stay at the conservatory was short-lived, however. Eric explains, "I was gigging all over town, making quite a lot of money actually, but at the same time I was failing miserably out of the conservatory academically. I loved playing and it was expected that I would go on and be a great trumpeter and I didn't feel I needed all of the academics." Later, after a move to Boston, he tried once again to pick up his trumpet studies, this time with Thomas Morrison, a principal in the Boston Symphony. But again, Eric changed his mind. "I had recently received a tape from my brother and my dad that they had just done. They had just gotten recording equipment for the first time in the house and on the tape were a few of each of their songs. I said, 'Wait a minute...this is so much more interesting than me trying to play Mozart like every other trumpet player has tried to do for the last 300 years.' I basically got off the train on the way to my first lesson."

Luckily, Matthews' stay in Somerville, Massachusetts, was not a bust, since it was there that he met Richard Davies. Introduced by friend and Sebadoh member, Bob Fay, their desire to collaborate was immediate. "It was all rather sudden. One day we didn't know each other, the next day we were like, 'We've got to do something.'" With the release of the Cardinal record, Matthews was propelled into

It doesn't seem all that strange, actually. In addition to comparisons to Nick Drake and the Beach Boys' Pet Sounds, much of the initial response to It's Heavy In Here has compared Matthews' work to that of labelmate Lou Barlow. Matthews concedes that Barlow has been an inspiration to him, though not necessarily on a musical level. "Bob Fay played me a tape of his [Barlow's]. One of those 'I've got this friend' situations, and it was the first time anybody had played for me somebody that they knew who had recorded a song that they had written. I was fascinated by the fact that I know a guy who knows a guy who sat down and recorded his songs. Why didn't I know that this existed? I guess I was busy sitting in the orchestra," he says, a bit embarrassed by his innocence.

an indie rock world he knew little about (and still doesn't), a world which has opened a bushel of opportunities for him, even if he was a bit skeptical at first. "There was some concern on my part [about signing to Sub Pop] because everyone thinks of Sup Pop as guitar- and distortion-oriented music and I was going to come out with, hopefully, some very pretty music. I was wondering if perception was going to be a problem. I'm sure that it's going to look and sound strange to some people."

much about the way Eric Matthews writes is what most would consider typical procedure. "I write most of my songs on the piano and that will be transcribed to either strings or guitar. A large part of what I write is at the piano with paper and pencil. If I had a computer I might try and take a short cut, but at this point I'm really in love and feel it's important that I develop as fully as I can with paper and pencil, because that's how all the masters have proceeded. There's no reason why I should try and deviate from their pattern." If the masters are testimony enough, well then, so be it. But what about today's music? Does Matthews have any favorites on the cutting edge? "I've got friends who are constantly trying to turn me onto these great things and it all simply sounds loud. I feel like an eight year old. It all sounds like 'Boom...boom...boom... boom... boom...' It's not communicating anything beautiful to me. I couldn't be any less in love with the aesthetic of guitars and guitar records." DAWN SUTTER
