INDUSTRY NEWS

Besieged by a surplus of laser-sighted lawsuits from the RIAA, music-swapping services have gone weeks without a single piece of good news. However, despite the bleak state of affairs, MP3 sanctuary Kazaa's parent company, Sharman Networks, announced on Sept. 23 a partnership with Tiscali, one of Europe's biggest Internet access providers. Under the terms of the deal, Kazaa will advertise the high-speed Internet access provided by Tiscali, ideal for downloading large quantities of media files, to its millions of European users. In return, Sharman will receive payment for each Kazaa user who signs up for the service. Mario Mariani, Senior Vice President of Media Business for Tiscali, said he did not believe Kazaa promotes music piracy, as record companies have alleged. He stated, "We are really against piracy," adding that he felt Kazaa will help put pressure on major record labels to develop new forms of distribution. "This is an important step in creating a legal market," Mariani said. "Music and the Internet is the biggest market where there is a big demand, but not yet an offer to meet the demand." • On the other side of the tracks, the RIAA announced on Sept. 25 the launch of a new anti-piracy advertising campaign. The print, TV and radio ads that ask "Who Really Cares About Illegal Downloading?" will feature many up-in-arms artists, such as Eminem, Madonna, Dixie Chicks, Missy Elliott, Elton John, Sting, Phil Collins, Luciano Pavarotti, Brian Wilson, Britney Spears and Natalie Cole.

LABEL NEWS

It appears that controversy-magnet Courtney Love and UMG's Geffen Records have finally settled their nearly two-year long legal battle. Under the terms of the settlement, not only will Love will be freed from her recording contract with the label (which includes her former band, Hole), but she will also gain ownership of all her previously recorded material and receive a multi-million dollar advance on anticipated future sales of Nirvana releases. In return for giving up ownership of Love's pending releases, UMG will receive a portion of the royalties derived from them. Although Love has stated many times she was fighting on behalf of all artists against unfair label practices, it now appears she will be content to take her money and stay quiet. Love is currently recording material for a new album to be released by U.K.'s Poptones Records in early 2003. • On the verge of the label's fourth anniversary, Paul Bibeau, Founder and President of Spitfire Records, has amicably parted ways with parent company Eagle Rock Entertainment. Bibeau started Spitfire four years ago in his bedroom, before amassing a catalogue that includes records by Alice Cooper, Sebastian Bach, Danzig, Zakk Wylde's Black Label Society, and others. Eagle Rock will retain the Spitfire catalog and will release new records into 2003. Meanwhile, Bibeau is currently seeking investors for a technology-based audio/visual label and Internet venture. Those interested can contact him at pbibeau@aol.com. • David Weiner has been hired as Senior Vice President for MSC Music And Entertainment. He previously served as Senior Vice President of Urban Music at JCOR Records.

MUSIC NEWS

With a debut album on the way and fan expectation running high, Murder City Devils spin-off group, Dead Low Tide, announced that its short career is already over. "Hello everybody, and goodbye," reads a posting on the band's official Web site, www.deadlowtide.com. "Dead Low Tide, the band, is no longer a band. That is right, we will not be touring or playing any more shows." The message goes on to note that Tiger Style Records will go forward with plans to release the album that the group was working on, most likely in early 2003. As you may recall, Dead Low Tide was sidetracked this summer when member Mike Kunka developed a lung condition that required major medical treatment. At the time, the band remained positive about the future. Now however, the group bows out with the final words, "Thank you from all of us, you made the last nine months awesome. We are sure that we will all see you guys in some other way, at some other time." • Smooth talking, bass-throated singer Barry White is in need of some help. After battling high blood pressure for years, the 58-year old singer has now been hit by kidney failure and requires a transplant. "Doctors confirm that Barry White has a history of hypertension which has led to a decline of kidney function," reads a statement issued by White's label, the Island Def Jam Music Group. "He has started a course of maintenance dialysis therapy. Once stabilized, he will be a candidate for a kidney transplant." White's current condition and location are being kept under wraps at his family's request, but hopes are high that he will make a full recovery and be able to get back to recording and making women swoon. • As the band continues to work on its forthcoming, as-yet untitled platter, it is uncertain whether or not guitarist Graham Coxon is still an active member of Blur. Following frontman Damon Albarn's side projects, namely Gorillaz and Mali Music, the group began work on a new album, with conflicting stories about its progress circulating for months. Now, with the band fully established on the Web again, with a studio cam, online diary and interactive Q&A feature at www.blur.co.uk, it has been revealed that Blur have gone to Morocco to continue work on the disc, but Coxon wasn't with them. "Graham is not in the studio with Blur at the moment," reads a statement from the band's management. "He has been in the studio and done some work.

Currently he is preparing for the release of his own album. Blur and Graham are currently contemplating and deciding among themselves what the future arrangements will be." Meanwhile, despite his absence, Coxon insists he is still in Blur, while Albarn has refused to offer up any additional insight beyond directing people to the band's Web site for up-to-date info. Over two-dozen tracks have reportedly been completed for the disc,

John Coltrane

Vancouver on Nov. 7 and ending with Dallas on Dec. 21, with additional performances to be added in the near future. There's still no word, of course, on a release date for the band's long-awaited Chinese Democracy LP. • It looks like Courtney Love may have settled more than one legal wrangle (see Label News). After battling remaining Nirvana members Krist Novoselic and Dave Grohl for eight years, Love stated that a Nirvana greatest hits package, including the long sought-after unreleased track "You Know You're Right," will be in stores in time for Christmas. Though the three are still in court debating over the future use of Nirvana's material and royalties, the song, which had been at the center of all the fighting, has already found its way to the public via the Internet. During the past few weeks, "You Know You're Right" has been spun on numerous radio programs around the world, much to the chagrin of those who managed to keep it locked away for so long. • Impulse! Records continues to celebrate the life and music of John Coltrane by following the recently released Legacy box set with a deluxe two-CD edition of Coltrane's A Love Supreme on Oct. 29. The set includes a newly remastered version of the 1965 release, as well as a second disc featuring the only live performance of the composition to be put down on record. In related news, a two-hour radio documentary on Coltrane will be offered for free to college radio by request, courtesy of the Verve Music Group and Newark's WBGO. Titled A Love Supreme Radio Project, the documentary will be hosted by Mos Def and will be available in November. • Thrill Jockey has postponed the release of Sea And Cake's sixth studio album, One Bedroom. Originally set for release on Oct. 8, the album has been pushed back until early next year to allow the label to focus its attention on other projects. In the meantime, the group recently finished a brief European tour and is planning a North American jaunt, slated to begin at the end of this year.

Courtney Love

featuring production work from William Orbit, Fatboy Slim and others. • In case you missed their rather surreal performance at the MTV Video Music Awards, Guns N' Roses have announced a full North American tour — the group's first in nearly a decade. Twenty six dates have already been announced, beginning with

BADLY DRAWN BOY

Have You Fed The Fish?

(XL Recordings-ARTISTdirect)
Following the recent success of his original soundtrack for About A Boy, Damon Gough (a.k.a. Badly Drawn Boy) is back in the spotlight for the second time this year with the highly anticipated follow-up to his Mercury Music Prize-winning 2000 debut, The Hour Of Bewilderbeast. Everyone's favorite woolie-hat-wearing Brit's latest is an inspiration to dance the hustle one moment and daydream the next. The opening instrumental, "Coming In To Land," kicks things off with a dramatic space age overture, setting the stage for the title track, an elegant piano-driven ballad that ranks among Gough's best. "The Further I Slide" is an excellent pastiche of the Marvin Gaye hit "Sexual Healing," while other highlights include the rousing "Born Again," the dreamy "Bedside Story" and the nostalgic first single, "You Were Right," which laments the passing of some of the 20th Century's musical greats. As this release shows, Badly Drawn Boy is a versatile artist who is clearly on the right path to belonging in such company.

JURASSIC 5

Power In Numbers

(Interscope)

Jurassic 5's 1997 eponymous debut was released in the U.S. as an EP and overseas as an LP, so depending on how you look at it, Power In Numbers is either the L.A. crew's second or third album. Either way, it sees the four MCs and two DJs behind

J5 expanding their scope within, voyaging beyond their already conquered territory to explore jazz ("If You Only Knew"), high-speed rap ("A Day At The Races," featuring Big Daddy Kane and Percy P) and even, with the unlikely help of Nelly Furtado, pop music ("Thin Line"). At the same time, the normally cheery group dips into darker domains, offering up a scathing indictment of the gangsta culture J5 provided such a refreshing antidote to when it first appeared, in the form of "One Of Them." As always, the crew's signature sound comes courtesy of the hypnotic bass-register raps of MC Chali 2na, but that never overshadows the fact that all six members of this group are extremely talented. What Jurassic 5 has done, and continues to do, for hip-hop is a wonderful thing. — Doug Levy

FLAMING SIDEBURNS

Save Rock 'N' Roll (Jetset)

In case you hadn't noticed, there's a Scandinavian rock invasion going on. Although most of the bands at the forefront of this incursion come from Sweden, the Flaming Sideburns are here to prove that Finland has some serious musical muscle, too. After releasing a handful of singles and an album on Norway's Bad Afro label, the Sideburns are stepping up with their first domestic release, the brazenly titled Save Rock 'N' Roll. The words "high energy" or "hyperactive" are barely enough to describe the 'Burns' brand of Stooges-fueled garage-punk fury, but what would you expect from a band who has a bass player known only as "The Punisher?" "Flowers" (which features Ebbot Lundberg and Ian Person from the Soundtrack Of Our Lives) sounds like vintage Stones and is sure to be a hit with the ladies, while the barn burning "Loose My Soul" is a take-no-prisoners rock song played with enough heart to warm Scandinavia for years to come. And that's just for starters. Welcome to the next chapter of the rock revolution. — Brad Filicky

BLUE STATES

Man Mountain

(Eighteenth Street Lounge)

Blue States' 2001 debut, Nothing Changes Under The Sun, was mainly an instrumental album that, with an ably broad cinematic sweep, expressed a wealth of melodious emotions rarely heard in chill-out music. The States' second full-length, Man Mountain, is warmer and more accomplished; it strolls further down the path of verdant orchestral string and horn sections and heady melodies, while adding the melancholy vocals of singer Tahita Bulmer to its gamut. The first single from Man Mountain, the purely instrumental "Metro Sound," is a revealing track that conjures up memories of pre-fame Air. The stellar "Season Sound" comes complete with a children's choir and reveals a more sinister side of Blue States lurking underneath. Irresistible love songs like "Adrift" contrast with the downhearted "What We Have Won" and "Only Today," both of which delve into the ever-changing nature of human emotions.

In essence, Man Mountain adds heart and complexity to a usually predictable formula for chill-out music. That alone is reason enough to listen.

LEMON JELLY

Lost Horizons
(Beggars Group-XL)

On its first proper full-length release, British downtempo duo Lemon Jelly is hell-bent on prettiness like a buoyed-up Beta Band, while dropping enough big beats to safely distance itself from the chill-out flock. LJ remains as lush and snarky as ever here, mixing up samples of astronauts and ramblin' men with sliced-up lounge, hip-hop-inflected grooves, expansive orchestrations and decidedly Brit melodies stuck somewhere in the gray area between Stonehenge and psychedelia. The funky acoustic opener, "Elemental," and "Nice Weather For Ducks" are like the organic guitar pluckings of Four Tet dancing to some two-steppin' U.K. garage — block rockin' the misty mountains of British folk like a new-millennial Fairport Convention with a penchant for irony. "Ramblin' Man" injects some Ian Anderson flute-gasms over some dreamy downtempo pop, while "Return To Patagonia" is a seemingly drug-fueled fusion of old-school Future Sound Of London and new-school Spiritualized. The melodies say, "chill out," the samples scream "art rock," but the beats dance this mess around until it's too hot in here to care.

MATT POND PA

The Nature Of Maps
(Polyvinyl)

Although the band bears his name, Matt Pond will be the first to give credit to his group's other five members for laying their fingerprints on each one of his mellow, chamber-pop gems. Indeed, MPPA does an enviable job of building intelligent and complex arrangements for each of its songs; acoustic and electric guitars, cellos, drums, bass, vibraphone, violin, harp and banjo naturally blend together, as opposed to being superfluously strewn on top of one another. Pond's raspy tenor, meanwhile, when combined with the mopey instrumentation of his bandmates, makes his revealing takes on life's strain and loneliness crystal-clear throughout this release. The charismatic opener, "Fairlee," is so poetic, it may as well have been written by The Cure's Robert Smith, while "The Party" finds a single acoustic guitar strumming simple chords over looped beats and somber cello melodies that slowly blossom into an emotionally powerful experience that will bring a lump to your throat. Like the rest of the disc, it's a delicate pop sensation.

RÖYKSOPP

Melody A.M. (Astralwerks)

The difference between musical talent and musical genius is often hard to describe, but pretty easy to hear. Witness what Norway's Röyksopp (Torbjorn Brundtland and Svein Berge) have done on Melody A.M., a funky, shimmering mass of soundtrack-y electronica, soul influences and other lush moods that has had import-buyers' tongues wagging for some time now. The album is a grand and varied listen, packed with intricately woven sheets of keyboards and samples. Don't like the campy, bubbly 1960s Eurogrooves of the opening track, "So Easy?" Then dial up the moody "Sparks," which gives off echoes of Portishead with its smoldering string section and nerve-pinging vocals. Up-tempo thrillers like "Eple" and "Poor Leno" will likely be gobbled up by ad agencies as they plot their latest 30-second Volvo spot, but don't hate Röyksopp for crafting memorable beats and sample loops. If the lads in Zero 7 were 2001's top production duo, they'll be passing the crown over to Röyksopp this year.

BILL PERRY

Crazy Kind Of Life
(Blind Pig)

Singer-songwriter Bill Perry is about to kick your ass all the way to Chicago, stopping in every raunchy blues dive along the way. Those already loyal to Perry are undoubtedly familiar with his dynamic live performances. While his energy is nearly impossible to capture on tape, Perry's raw talent has finally been reined in on this studio effort, thanks to the production skills of Jimmy Vivino and Paul Orofino. While he exhibits influences that range from old school heroes ("Too Hot," "Girl's Gone Crazy") to Jimi Hendrix ("Take You Down," "Junkie"), Perry establishes his own style, particularly on the energetic "500 Miles" and the bluesy title track, both of which are highlighted by tight riffs and great timing. Boasting plenty of clever songwriting (especially on "Honey Pie"), this release doesn't take a break; it's even capped off with a poignant version of the Stones' "No Expectations" featuring folk legend Richie Havens. So bend over, put a book in the seat of your pants and prepare to say, "Thank you, Mr. Perry, may I have another?"

There's a lot of work left to do this year — holidays aside, let's give this some perspective. Between now and 2002's (hopefully) profitable year-end climax, labels will have to gamble millions upon millions of dollars in order to get consumers' attention — and the price tag is going up each year. One prominent (non-major) label executive was recently told by a "critical" (big-box) retail chain that in order to gain even a semblance of fourth quarter visibility in their stores this season, he'd have to spend a minimum of $100K — $150K just to get in the game. In years past, that amount would have been tantamount to grabbing your Christmas buyer by the shoulders and slapping him or her across the face with a record they would without question subsequently buy. Now it gets you little more than a faint "yoo-hoo" from a buried corner of consumer electronics.

The pressure to compete is greater than ever, not just amongst labels, but between major and independent retailers as well. It's also an exciting time. Amazing records are about to be released and millions of people will buy them. Collectively, these records will stand as a statement about the commerce and culture of America in 2002; individually, a select few will actually impact our lives.

As we enter the final months of the year, CMJ Retail has asked its weekly reporters to cast votes for those records they're most excited to see impact their stores between now and year's end. These are records to be released in the fourth quarter, or records already out, that our Retail reporters believe will gather new and improved life in the months to come (see charts above). From the major distribution companies, it was a real contest with Foo Fighters, Beck and Ryan Adams battling it out at the top. From the independent label sector, it was no contest: Interpol, Apples In Stereo and Sigur Ros made everyone's lists hands down. Our criteria? Very scientific, of course! For all our voters, though, this one quickly became more about the music to love than the money about to be spent.

As we interviewed reps from major and independent distribution companies whose records were being voted on, we asked them to talk about the music they're most excited about as a company heading into 2002's "grand finale." We expected to get the standard, stilted, stoic and stale responses you'd expect from suit-and-tie bean-counters. But, to the contrary, there was real enthusiasm coming from even the highest "ups" about what this year will finally birth before it's all said and done. Here's what they told CMJ:

Patrick Jordan: Assistant Director of Marketing, BMG
 First of all, I must bow down and kiss retail's collective feet for all the support they've given us the past year. It's been a crazy year and its about to get 100 times crazier. Adding to our current slammmin' releases (Avril Lavigne, the Strokes, White Stripes, Dave Matthews Band, Seether, Clipse, Ash, Ben Kweller, Atmosphere, Moby) we've got Foo Fighters' One By One (10/22) coming straight off the sick Queens Of The Stone Age project and onto their best (and heaviest) record yet. The first single, "All My Life," is already tearing up radio and the video just got added to MTV. Dave and the boys kick ass, 'nuff said. Live From

Bonnaroo (9/24), music from the biggest music festival/party of the year, includes a hippies wet dream line-up with Widespread Panic, Phil and Friends, Trey Anastasio, Jack Johnson, Govt. Mule (whose Deep End Vol. 2 hits 10/8!) and many more. Underworld's latest offering on V2, A Hundred Days Off (9/24), is easily one of their most sublime efforts yet. Santana follows up his zillion selling Supernatural with Shaman (10/22). The first single, "The Game Of Love," is so catchy I've been singing it in the shower every day for a week (scary, eh?). Last, but certainly not least, is David Gray's new A New Day At Midnight (11/5). The first single, "The Other Side," will give you chills. As our dear friend Elvis (30 #1s in stores now!) used to say: "Thank you very much!"

Michael Toppe: National Director of Sales and Mktg., Caroline This is most likely Caroline's biggest fourth quarter ever. As always, Caroline's release schedule is sprawling: new Cassius, Miguel Migs' first studio release, buzz band Röyksopp, new Thievery Corporation, two new ones from the mega-successful Ultra compilation series (Ultra Trance and Ultra Chilled 3), a new Tony Touch mix CD, a solo CD from Rob Swift (X-Ecutioners), a Fatboy Slim DJ release, Trance All Stars. Dischord Records' 20 year retrospective, new Swollen Members, Jets To Brazil, Danny Tenaglia, Shadows Fall, In Flames, Nightmares On Wax, Meshuggah, Christopher Lawrence, Iced Earth, Godspeed You Black Emperor!, Squarepusher, Bad Brains, Mr. Lif, El-P and Boards Of Canada. We also just signed 2 new labels: System and Compost. We also have "breakthrough" expectations from All American Rejects, Mr. Scruff, MC Paul Barman, Sondre Lerche, Amon Tobin, El Da Sensei and Hammerfall. The last six months have shown that indie retail is definitely ready to align with indie music and SoundScan-wise it's been our most impressive year to date.

Josh Rosenthal: VP Alt. Music Marketing, Sony Music Dist. "Our holiday season release schedule is loaded with amazing packages from heritage artists and exciting developing artists. Being involved in turning people on to everything from Charlie Christian to Chevelle is very thrilling." Releases include Xzibit, Good Charlotte, Chevelle, Tori Amos, Pearl Jam, Mudvayne, Audioslave (RATM/Chris Cornell) and Nas, as well as box sets from Herbie Hancock and Iron Maiden, "Essential" packages from Stevie Ray Vaughan, Leonard Cohen, Sly and the Family Stone, a Dylan Live double CD from the Rolling Thunder tour of 1975 and a Ramones Tribute album with various artists.

Ken Antonelli: President, RED Distribution RED Distribution has some exciting releases this fourth quarter from Aimee Mann (Super Ego), whose new album is her fastest and best-selling album to date, the One Big Trip compilation (Deconstruction/Hieroglyphics), Eighteen Visions (Trustkill), Goapele (Skyblaze/Hieroglyphics), Reindeer Section (Bright Star Recordings/Pias America), Fatboy Slim (a DVD where Norm mixes Basement Jaxx, B-52's, Mint Royale and All Saints), Marilyn Manson (a DVD which gives fans an "All Access Pass" to Manson's touring), Pretenders (Artemis), Beautiful Mistake (Militia Group), Chris Robinson of the Black Crowes (Redline), Sugarcult (Ultimatum) and Steve Earle (Artemis), to name a few.

Michael Rosenberg: Entertainment President, Koch Dist. The fourth quarter is heating up. The WWE Anthology hits (11/12) as an 87-track, three- (disc set including all the greatest hits, plus 20 brand-new entrance themes in a very cool special soft-pack wallet (just $29.98 SRP). WWE fans will eat this up. Strong new Christmas releases from Charlie Daniels, Rockapella, the Tractors and Christmas Grass featuring Ricky Skaggs and Rhonda Vincent will keep the mass merchants shoppers busy. The Transplants (Rancid's Tim Armstrong, Blink 182/Box Car Racer's Travis Barker) is a big priority for Epitaph that, along with the Beatnuts on Landspeed, hits in October. Other key releases include Boy George (Moonshine), Kool G Rap (In The Paint), Kizzy Rock featuring the Ying Yang Twins (In The Paint), Royce Da 5'9" (In The Paint), Boot Camp Clik (Duck Down Music), Opeth (Koch Records), Carl Cox (Moonshine), Ralph Stanley (Audium) and John Anderson (Audium), plus Epitaph's Eddie Izzard HBO Special DVD and The Best Of The Improv Series (DVD/VHS) from Koch Vision.

Cliff O'Sullivan: Sr. VP of Mktg. and Artist Development, UMVD We are ecstatic about the fourth quarter releases UMG has coming. We have more than 40 superstar releases including Shania Twain, which will be massive, Mariah Carey, U2, Bon Jovi, LL Cool J, Brian McKnight, 3 Doors Down, Aaliyah, Andrea Bocelli, the 8 Mile soundtrack, Shaggy, DMX and Ja Rule.

David Orleans: National Director of Marketing, ADA We anticipate building on the momentum we've enjoyed throughout this year with a strong slate of fourth quarter releases that include Apples In Stereo, Death Cab For Cutie, Luna, Large Professor, Lemon Jelly, Saint Etienne, DJ Mark Farina, Soft Boys, KMFDM featuring Pig Mercury Program, Tahiti 80, the Streets, plus a new three-track single from Yeah Yeah Yeahs. We also have great comedy releases from Crank Yankers, Jim Breuer, David Cross ["Mr. Show," who will appear at this year's CMJ Music Marathon], the Jerky Boys and George Lopez. We also expect many of our current releases to continue to sell very well through years-end, among them Interpol, Sleater-Kinney, Flogging Molly, Sahara Hotnights, Superdrag, Hot Hot Heat, Supreme Beings Of Leisure, Brand New Sin, the Sheila Devine, Eyes Adrift, O.A.R., Fluid Ounce, Jackpot, Zakk Wylde, Blank Theory, 1 Giant Leap, Neko Case, Mission U.K., Spoon and Ivy.

Derek Tenbusch: National Director of Artist Development, EMD This is one of the most exciting fourth quarters for EMI in some time. Of course we have the huge 40 Licks release from the Rolling Stones. We also have great records from Paul McCartney and George Harrison. However, I am most proud of what we have done with developing artists like Coldplay, the Vines and N.E.R.D., and we expect the success of these records to continue for some time. We'll also continue developing artists like Beth Orton, Doves, 30 Seconds To Mars and Blind Boys Of Alabama, to name a few. Everyone should also take a moment with the OK Go record: great hooks, catchy songs and, well, they just plain rock! We have a ton of other great records down the line from developing artists like the Exies, FC/Kahuna and the Music (wait until you hear this record!) to established artists like A Perfect Circle, Everclear and the amazing Ben Harper. EMI and our family of labels continue to release records I am proud to work.

Week in and week out, CMJ shines its spotlight on artists the world should be watching next; that is our mission. In this issue, we handed that opportunity over to those who make our work possible — the people who lay money down each and every day to bring us artists and albums that, whether they eventually end up in used-bin racks or take up permanent residency in our CD, MP3 or DVD players, will add up to an amazing closer for 2002. Strap yourselves in; we're just getting started. NMR

Sleater-Kinney rightfully refuses to give up its now month-long reign at No. 1, but you can bet the band is looking in its rearview mirror as Queens Of The Stone Age make a 4-2* leap and are gunning for the coveted No. 1 spotlight. Also within the Top 10, Ladytron vaults 13-7* this week, placing the U.K. quartet in the top tier in just three short weeks. Additionally, Sahara Hotnights two-steps up (10-8*) while Apples In Stereo crashes into the home-stretch with that enormous 106-9* leap. • Other Top 200 moves of note include Beck (21-14*), Of Montreal (34-15*), Ryan Adams (20-16*), Steve Earle (33-19*), Underworld (63-22*), Q And Not U (45-30*), Pattern (44-32*), Before Braille (52-35*), Peanut Butter Wolf's Jukebox 45s (60-41*), Iron And Wine (79-43*) and Juliana Theory's Love EP (58-49* — wait until you hear the rest of this CD!). • Strong debuts this week were recorded by Black Heart Procession (D-11*), Hot Water Music (D-20*), Thievery Corporation (D-39*) and Soundtrack Of Our Lives (D-42*). • Finally, keep an eye on these movers in the coming weeks: Slum Village (72-55*), CKY (142-67*), Jason Mraz (95-68*), Beatifcs (143-89*) and Guttermouth (153-93*).

WERS MD Debbie Steingesser and the White Stripes' Jack White.

Station philosophy/ Audience perception:

WERS brings cutting edge music programming to the diverse community that we reach.

Slogans or position statements:

"Your Live Music Leader."
 "Boston's Real Radio Station."

How station is different from others in the market:

WERS provides professional quality DJs and production with a wide variety of local and national non-commercial music.

Outside station activities:

Frequently, local musicians play live on the station and WERS often sponsors non-profit events and concerts in the market. DJs are out hosting club nights and music festivals and organizing WERS shows.

How station is promoted:

Staffers hand out flyers for live performances and fundraisers. WERS also has trade advertisements in local newspapers and magazines and sends out a semi-annual newsletter.

Image station projects on the air:

Many people don't realize WERS is a college station because of its professional sound. The college angle isn't really played up because the station has 4,000 watts and the signal reaches four different states.

Unique morning or afternoon drive show:

Morning show is called "The Coffeehouse," which features folk, acoustic, and mellow rock. The afternoon drive starts with "Gyroscope" (traditional ethnic music to electronic fusion and European rock) and is followed by "Rockers" (reggae), one of WERS' highest rated programs.

News/Sports programming commitment:

News updates throughout the day and extended news at 4:45 p.m. WERS also airs the "Sports Sunday" talk show, followed by "Common Corner," a public affairs program. The station wins at least one Associated Press award every year and last year the sports staff went to the Super Bowl.

Station marketing/Fundraising:
 WERS is a listener-supported station and does two fundraising drives a year. In the fall, the "Member Madness" drive and every April, the "Live Music Week" (last year, 90 live performances in nine days raised $100,000). Labels/promo companies provide incentives for donations.

Music or audience research:

WERS receives about 400 emails daily from listeners and responds to each one. It's a direct way of learning what people think without sending out random surveys. The station looks at Arbitron ratings to see how individual programs are doing.

Ties to local music scene:

WERS fully supports the local music scene on all programs, being one of the first to play Boston greats such as Catie Curtis, Cave In, John Brown's Body, Mr. Lif, Ed O.G. and The Slip.

Ties to local retail:

WERS sells all three of its live CD compilations at local record stores.

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT JASON MRAZ

Jason Mraz didn't take the traditional road to musical success. Leaving his hometown of Mechanicsville, Virginia for the big city, Mraz hit Manhattan at the age of 18, with a hopeful future in musical theater ahead of him. However, just as the reality sank in that life at New York's American Musical And Dramatic Academy wasn't all he'd imagined, a new passion struck the young soon-to-be-musician: the guitar. Within a few years of picking up the instrument for the first time, Mraz had changed course completely, abandoning the East Coast for beckoning California, honing his craft as a singer and songwriter in coffee shops by the beach, and meeting the people — including his manager, Bill Silva, and his percussionist, Toca Rivera — who would help him find his way on the path of rhythm and melody he had so fortuitously stumbled onto. Now 24, Mraz is set to release his debut album, Waiting For My Rocket To Come, through Elektra on Oct. 15. CMJ caught up with the rising star to talk about the strange trip he took from small town dreamer to major label signing, rumors of a boy band stint, and why laughter is the most important thing in the world.

What made you choose musical theater as a potential career?

It's because I love singing so much, and I couldn't play an instrument. I said, "Well, the only thing I really know how to do is musical theater." But then I realized I didn't know how to do that. Just because I did a couple of musicals in high school doesn't mean I'm capable of competing in New York. Once I got to New York, I was like, I can't hand out headshots and resumes and have to go auditions for a job every couple of months for the rest of my life. I just can't hang with that.

When you dropped out of school, had you already decided you wanted to go on to be a serious musician?

Oh yeah. That was my whole reason for dropping out. I had started playing guitar around the same time, and I was just enjoying that so much more. I was like, "You know what? I can take this guitar on the subway, in the park, my apartment, wherever. I don't have to wait for an audition to sing. I can sing any hour of the day."

When you were growing up, did you wonder what it would be like to play music or be in a band?

Yeah, I started feeling that way during my senior year of high school. Guitar always scared me to death. I played a little piano and I would jam with some other fellas, as best as we could. We'd play Counting Crows songs, or whatever was popular in high school. I liked the idea of being in a band, but I didn't know how or what I would do. I would make up little songs on piano, but never did I think I'd be playing guitar and taking control of my life in that way. It just kind of started happening before I realized it.

Is it true you were in a boy band when you were younger?

Kid 'N Play was really big at the time, so my little neighbor friend and I, we'd dance in the backyard, and in our room, and we called ourselves Double Trouble. We were out at this nightclub — I don't know how we got into a nightclub at 13; I guess it was like a teen club — and there was this group Dressed To Kill in there, also dancing, and doing their stuff. We met them quickly, and then a couple of days later I happened to run into a guy who produced them and he wanted to add me to the group. I was 13 and everybody in Dressed To Kill was in their 20s. It was wild. They were the love of my life for a while. They introduced me to soul, to R&B — to singing for a living, basically.

How do you think your fans would react if Dressed To Kill recordings were ever to surface?

They would dig it. My fans have a sense of humor. I usually let them in on everything. They'd laugh.

Humor seems to be very important to you, as well. Do you always do your best to keep things lighthearted at your shows?

Absolutely. Laughter makes the world go around, man. I started doing standup comedy about six months ago. Humor in a show is very important to keep the audience with you, and keep them in the show, by making them laugh. There's nothing that bores me more than a singer-songwriter who's going to tell you what the song is about, and then he's going to sing it. Because, to me, you can either figure out for yourself what the song is about, or it's going to be mentioned in the song. During the time when a song is not being performed, why not remind the audience that we're all here because we're having fun? Especially because my shows have always been like, sit-down coffee shop, sit-down theater types of shows, and if you can't dance, how else can you have fun? Laughter is a way that you can dance in your seat.

Do you make a concerted effort to be funny, or does it just come naturally?

If I try too hard, no one laughs. It's definitely a natural thing. Plus, I've got Toca Rivera. He's kind of like my band, just one dude. Although, we also started playing with this upright bass player, Ian Sheridan. And the two of those guys are just hilarious, man — totally different from each other, and from me, as well. Toca's 20 years older than I am, but you wouldn't know it. He's like 20 years younger in spirit, which is beautiful. So, he's an easy target. There's always a joke to be made about Toca. So, I'd say it comes pretty naturally. And if there's no joke prepared, I'll sit and stare at the audience for three or four minutes, getting to know them. You know, there's no rules on the stage.

After all your live experience, did recording your first studio album make you think about your music differently at all?

Absolutely. We learned things that affect the way we do things live now. It was nothing but a positive experience, that's for sure. I definitely am looking forward to the next one. I can't wait to get into it. I was scared to death making my first record. I didn't know what I was doing. I just kind of closed my eyes and jumped in. But this next one, knowing where I've been, it's like, "All right, I've already got my ideas together, I'm already getting my songs together, I'm already looking for my players." I'm just anxious to get there again and make records for the rest of my life.

— Interview by Doug Levy

There's been a groundswell of Life Of Agony rumors. One hot tip is that the Brooklyn band might be playing reunion shows in NYC in December or January. However, our sources are being tight lipped about it. Also, Among Thieves, the band that features former LOA bassist Alan Robert, has added Biohazard's Danny Schuler on drums. Original drummer Will Shepler has given up playing drums altogether in order to focus on his architectural career. Schuler will continue to play with both bands. • 40 Below Summer is in the studio working on the follow-up to its 2001 debut, Invitation To The Dance. • Brick Bath vocalist Joseph McCaw has exited the band. The remaining members are seeking a replacement. • Earache Records has signed Society 1, the band of porn director Matt Zane. Congrats to Zane for landing a deal. He told us that the band is shooting a video, where Zane will be pierced six times through the flesh of his back and suspended by the piercings on meat hooks for 30 minutes. Ouch. • Mudvayne's forthcoming album is titled The End Of All Things To Come and will out on Epic in November. • Injected recently performed at NYC's CBGB's minus guitarist Jade Lemons. Rumor has it he's left the band. • War is coming...in the form of Double Dead, a CD/DVD release coming from Six Feet Under. Live footage was recorded at the band's summer performances in Minnesota, Colorado and Washington and no overdubs were used on the live CD. Speaking of SFU, frontman Chris Barnes' former band, Cannibal Corpse, is reissuing its first three albums, namely Eaten Back To Life, Butchered At Birth and Tomb Of The Mutilated, next month. Argh. • Amon Amarth will release Versus The World in November. The first pressing will have a limited "Viking" edition with an extra disc of material! We're peeing our pants with delight. • Rumors abound that Fear Factory, who broke up earlier this year, are working on some material without portly guitarist Dino Cazares. Interesting. Very interesting. • Where Fear And Weapons Meet has reformed and signed to Eulogy. • Marduk has finished recording a new album with Peter Tägtgren of Hypocrisy fame. • Mushroomhead, Shadows Fall, Avenged Sevenfold and High On Fire will hit the road this October. We strongly recommend checking the tour out when it hits your town. • Murderdolls, the side project of Slipknot drummer Joey Jordison and Dope's Acey Slade, will appear on the Halloween episode of Dawson's Creek. The Murderous ones will be the house band at the Creek's Halloween party. Seeing the freaky 'Dolls share the screen with the angst-ridden and babes and dudes of Dawson's should be a sight to behold. Be sure to tune in!

INDUSTRY NEWS

Congrats to Music Choice's Adam Neiman! He's the proud papa of a new baby boy, named Trent. Mom and baby are doing fine! This is the second offspring for Neiman; his adorable daughter Ava Skye is two. CMJ sends congratulations to the Neiman family! • WKDU/Philadelphia, PA program director Mountain Metal Steve has left that post, due to the fact that he works at Manic (the U.S. base for Candlelight/Hammerheart/Peaceville releases), is still going to school and has cool band called Trap (longtime readers of this column might remember a mini review given to the band last year). Steve will continue to do a show at 'KDU, but the new Loud Rock Director is Casey (a.k.a. "Melkor The Unforgiving"), whose 'KDU radio show is a showcase of only the most brutal grind, death and black metal! Casey can be reached at: csr22@drexel.edu, or at 215.895.2580. His call hours are on Mondays, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., EST. Steve can be reached at: manicpr@aol.com. Best of luck to both true metalheads! • WLFR/Pomona, NJ is back on-the-air. After a brief absence, the station is back "polluting" the South Jersey airwaves! Bill Grohs returns to his post as Loud Rock Director, so please, resume sending him product and return him to your mailing lists. He can be reached at: visigoth999@aol.com. Welcome back, Bill and 'LFR! • Emily Orzio has taken over for Tooth And Nail/Solid State goddess Teresa Bettger, who recently gave birth to a lovely little girl! Orzio can be reached at: emily@toothandnail.com, or 206.691.9782, Ext. 216. Hit her up. • Also, former WCRX/Chicago, IL Loud Rock director (and vegetarian) Mike Jakubow, who was recently seen doing retail promo for Interscope Records, has landed a promotions gig at Victory Records! He'll be working alongside Tim Binder. Congrats!

LOUD ROCK DVDS

For your viewing pleasure, we recommend the following DVD releases...

Century Media Ten-Year Anniversary

(Century Media)

The CMJ Loud Rock department attended this event, and we must say, the digital reproduction definitely captures the energy of the actual event.

Viewers are treated to live footage of Strapping

Young Lad's volatile performance, along with sets by other CM staples such as Skinlab, Shadows Fall, Nevermore, Eyehategod and Scar Culture. Bonus footage includes commentary from non-industry concertgoers, as well as input from the performers. Outtakes from the interviews are classic — SF's Brian Fair claims he's too baked to answer questions and EHG's Jimmy Bower's eye-lids look as though they have anchors attached to 'em. All in all, this is a synopsis that will make you feel like you were there!

SUPERJOINT RITUAL

Live In Dallas, TX 2002 (Sanctuary)

The crux of this DVD is Superjoint Ritual's decadent June 28, 2002 concert at the Deep Ellum in Dallas.

Interspersed between bone-liquefying live footage are brief interviews with each member of the band (SJR formed when Philip Anselmo and Jimmy Bower used to converse over the phone about their "joint" love for New Orleans and Black Flag). Bonus footage includes SJR's homemade videos for "The Alcoholic" and "F*k Your Enemy." If you have a week stomach and can't handle seeing Bower take a dump or watching the rest of the band members destroy their livers, then shut it off. Quote of the DVD comes from Hank Williams III, who says, "I'm just trying to bring Cliff Burton back from the dead," referencing the late Metallica bassist's legendary live energy. P.S.: We tried to count how many times Anselmo said "God damn," but it was impossible to keep up with his potty mouth.

SEPULTURA

Chaos DVD (Roadrunner)

This digital platter combines Sepultura's three home video releases (1991's Under Siege — Live In Barcelona, 1995's Third World Chaos and 1997's We Are What We Are) into one nifty package. If you never had the opportunity to see the mighty Sep live during its heyday, then be prepared to soil your shorts when you see former frontman Max Cavalera and his Brazilian brothers perform vintage tracks like "Dead Embryonic Cells" and "Arise" live in Spain. Almost three hours in length, this DVD also features all of the band's videos (including clips for "Roots Bloody Roots," "Territory" and "Ratamahatta"), extensive interviews and a complete discography. A must for even the most casual fan! — Kevin Boyce

JUDAS PRIEST

Live In London (SPV)

It's fitting that this concert document was filmed at the Brixton Academy, since Judas Priest is one of the purveyors of the NWOBHM. Ripper Owens' American-ness aside, this vid was shot on the Demolition tour in December of 2001 and includes classics like "Breaking The Law," "Turbo Lover" and "Living After Midnight." The black and white soundcheck footage is a nice touch. Live In London is unequivocally a must-have for tried 'n' true Priest fans. Even those who still cling to the Rob Halford era!

PROJECT 86

Truthless Heroes (Atlantic)

There's a saying that good art will always find its audience. California's Project 86 is aiming for two audiences with Truthless Heroes. First, the band is seeking to connect with highbrow headbangers through this concept album's main storyline: the rise and fall of a television character who happens to be a Truthless Hero. His life story (complete with commercial breaks) is set to P86's serious, walking-the-razor's-edge hard rock. Secondly, P86 takes shots at the mass culture audience, one that co-opts and embraces art as quickly as it discards it. "Little Green Men," "Hollow Again," "Your Heroes Are Dead" and "Salem's Suburbs" will reach rockers from both the Christian and secular scenes with its left of center, Fugazi-with-a-side-of-Orange-9MM post-hardcore dynamics. Truthless Heroes might be misunderstood by many, but revered by those who truly "get" the message behind it. Nice work, gentlemen.

LIVING SACRIFICE

Conceived In Fire (Solid State)

Judging from the band photo included in this album, Living Sacrifice is clean cut. The members look like an Abercrombie & Fitch advertisement. Outsiders (and Christian fundamentalists) would never know that this Arkansas band is the Christian metal scene's answer to Slayer.

In fact, Conceived In Fire is Slayer without the Satanic imagery. How, you ask? Simple. First, give "Separation" or "Ignite" your undivided attention and you'll see what we mean. Overall, the voice of singer-guitarist Bruce Fitzhugh crackles with such ferocity that you'd expect his eyeballs to explode. When he combines his six-string skills with the leaden riffing of second guitarist Rocky Gray, the two create impenetrable walls of guitars that are complete with old school metallic leads. Furthermore, this album's precision mixdown, courtesy of Andy Sneap (Machine Head, Stuck Mojo, Killswitch Engage), gives scorchers like "Symbiotic," "Send Your Regrets" and "Black Seeds" a dangerous edge. Fundies normally complain that this "type" of music is synonymous with the devil and incapable of purporting a positive message. Conceived In Fire completely deconstructs that theory.

HOPE CONSPIRACY

End Note (Equal Vision)

When a band changes half of its lineup, it's inevitable that the chemistry it shared will be seriously altered on all of its future recordings. However, there are exceptions. While only singer Kevin Baker and bassist Jonas Feinberg remain from the original Hope Conspiracy, the band has improved and progressed since changing its personnel (Side Note: ex-drummer Alan Patterson left to join the military!). On the Black Flag-influenced End Note, Hope Conspiracy is a rock 'n' roll band masquerading as gritty hardcore. Sure, the necessary elements of hardcore (like those that earmarked 2000's Cold Blue, an album Loud Rock radio loved so much that it propelled the record to No. 2 on the chart) are evident on End Note. In fact, it will be easy to pigeonhole this band as really angry hardcore. But those with a finely tuned ear will hone in on the Conspiracy's songwriting and solid rock chops. Bottom line: this band has got scalding hot tunes, thanks to the venom and vitriol of Baker, who sounds like a throwback to Deadguy/Kiss It Goodbye's throat, Tim Singer. Cause damage with "Defiant Hearts," "Violent And Gray" and "Three Year Suicide."

SUNSET BLACK

Common Ground (Bieler Bros.)

Bieler Bros. Records is a joint venture between Aaron and Jason Bieler and MCA/Universal (attentive metalheads should recognize Jason — he cut his teeth as the guitarist for Saigon "Love Is On The Way" Kick). Sunset Black's Common Ground is the first release of this deal. The Kansas City, MO quartet, whose members are barely out of their teens, crafts smart music with the wherewithal of seasoned veterans. Produced by Nonpoint guitarist Andrew Goldman, Common Ground is moody, mopey rock, but not in the "I hate my dad" style. Rather, the album features layered, textured rock that isn't afraid to let listeners peek into the notes from its emotional therapy sessions. "The Wait" and "Timing Is Reason" are ripe for rockers who think Dashboard Confessional is too girly.

R.I.Y.L.: Staind, Mad At Gravity, Deftones

Contact: Aaron Bieler

Email: abielers@bielerbros.com

Release Date: out now; at radio

DERIDE

First Round Knockout

(The Music Cartel)

Deride's First Round Knockout is a 10-track monster packed with acidic power grooves and gritty vocals, à la Pro-Pain's Gary Meskill. The Norwegian band's second effort for The Music Cartel (a label known for its stoner rock output, but always lauded for its occasional non-pot rock release) doesn't stray much from last year's Scars Of Time. Influenced by early-to-mid-1990s Bay Area thrash, First Round Knockout is classic, but never dated. In fact, Deride would be a believable, enjoyable opener for like-sounding bands such as Skinlab and Pro-Pain or even Anthrax. Have a listen to "Life Before Death," "Words Of Fools" and the title track and we think you'll agree.

R.I.Y.L.: Pro-Pain, Machine Head, Skinlab

COPE WITH IT

Boy, some things don't change. Once a junkie, always a junkie. It's just that our "drugs" change as we get older and wiser. Now these include everything from a 60" flat screen TV to 5.1 surround sound, cell phones, portable this, wireless that and so on. Well kids, I have discovered my new drug and it's music on DVD. Not just any music, but the great rock movies released over the years. Sure, This Is Spinal Tap and Rock 'N' Roll High School are right up there, but I'm talking about performance movies that had a social impact—the kind that changed peoples lives.

This past weekend my fix included watching three movies over three nights. The first was, of course, the new A Hard Day's Night DVD release. This is a brilliantly packaged DVD that gives fans at least a glimpse of what it was like to be a Beatle in the early days. The disc is full of great interviews, movie trailers and other cool stuff, but the real prize is the movie itself. The interaction and dialog between the band is like a Marx Brothers movie. The ultimate gem, though, is the music. The title track was written one night on the back of a matchbook cover. Add the hits after hits that followed and you've got one hell of a soundtrack. You know, these boys could not only write, but they could play their asses off and rock! What a wonderful change for music in 1964 and what a tremendous "documentary" on a "Day In The Life" of a Beatle. After A Hard Day's Night, guitar and drum sales went sky high and every guy wanted to be in a band.

The next night was an evening with the darker side of rock and end of the Love Generation with the Rolling Stones' Gimme Shelter. This was supposed to be Woodstock West, a free concert held in December 1969 with Ike and Tina Turner, the Grateful Dead, the Jefferson Airplane and the Rolling Stones. There were problems from the beginning finding a venue that could handle 300,000 people. Once the Altamont Speedway was secured, a what-were-you-thinking? decision was made, handing security over to Hell's Angels. The showstopper was twofold: Jefferson Airplane lead singer Marty Balin was knocked-out on stage by one of the Hell's Angels "staff." Then, after 20 Angels took up residence on stage with the Stones, another "staffer" stabbed a kid to death right in front of the stage. To watch "Sympathy For The Devil" come to life was frightening.

The third and best DVD was Neil Young And Crazy Horse's Rust Never Sleeps. Between the 20-foot amps, 15-foot mics, the Ewok stage crew and a brilliant performance from Neil and the gang, this movie takes the prize for best concert movie I've ever seen. ("Hey hey, my my, rock 'n' roll will never die!") I'm looking forward to new DVDs with just as much historical and social influence: The Kids Are Alright, Monterey Pop, The Great Rock 'N' Roll Swindle, The Decline Of Western Civilization, Rainbow Bridge, The Rolling Stones Rock And Roll Circus and many others. Don't forget Urgh! A Music War and the various BBC simulcasts—awesome stuff. Peace, Cope.

SPEAK OUT

AL LOTTO Owner, Exile On Main St. Branford, CT

I just read an article on the music industry's brilliant idea to run "anti-downloading" spots on TV and to run print ads to "create public awareness of the problem." Okay, not a horrific idea, but once again these idiots blew it! The spots haven't started yet and I for one already have a fuckin' problem. What the hell is wrong with these people? They are a brainwave short! The problem in this controversial situation is that there is a fine line getting the correct point across. Using artists like Weezer, Creed, Counting Crows, Ryan Adams, Beth Orton, et al. (artists who are either about to break or who need to keep selling music) would be subtle enough, but these assholes have enlisted P. Diddy to say, "put yourself in my position." Who the fuck sympathizes with a multi-millionaire in the first place? (Ed. Note: Yeah, P. Diddy's never ever stolen someone else's music before) How stupid. This may actually backfire. I guess we'll all see.

STEVE WILEY Co-owner, Hoodlums Tempe, AZ

Weezer's The Lion And The Witch, an indie exclusive live EP has been awesome. We've had calls from all over the US and e-mails from France, Canada and England. It excites our customers and reminds them about the unique selling points of indie retail. You gotta love the coalitions. We are especially proud of our CIMS (and MMN) comrades for negotiating the right deal on a great piece. In doing it with such a perfect band, the indies stood up to the corporate retail toads with their own tactics instead of sniveling about them. Thanks also to Geffen and the band. It's always great to see indie love, and we are giving it back with this piece (but remember, one per person).

We realize that "labelers" (yeah, I made that up) inevitably must move on, but we always hate to see the good ones go. We wanted to wish good luck to Ron Feddor, the Virgin promoter. Ron did a lot of cool things for us over the years, all of which we appreciate immensely.

UNDER THE RADAR Column by Gerry Hart • ghart@cmj.com

Internet	Best site is www.thedonnas.com for all things donnas: interviews, press, bios, tour info, videos, pics and more.	Band site is eyesadrift.com. Also check out spinartrecords.com. Online word-of-mouth has needed no prompting from spinART. Word is out and Nirvana fans everywhere have been spreading it. Downloads avail. at Amazon and Emusic.	Check out davidgray.com and anewday-atmidnight.com where there's currently a fan network listening party. People have to get "invited" by fans who already belong to network. From 10/14 on a track released online at midnight every night leading up to street.	Best sites are addntox.com (band's official site), mute.com and, for streaming audio (beginning on street, 10/29) insound.com where there will also be online P&P.
Notes	The Donnas have had six sold out national tours, done the movie appearance thing, the soundtrack thing (had the lead single from Detroit Rock City if you remember) and have had some MTV video success over the stretch of their still-blossoming careers. The single rocks, but so does the lead track "It's On The Rocks" definitely worthy of in-store play.	Eyes Adrift line-up is: Krist Novoselic from Nirvana, Curt Kirkwood from Meat Puppets and Bud Gaugh from Sublime. Nirvana's "best of," with new radio single, is a perfectly timed spotlight for Eyes Adrift. It also happens to be a good record—which never hurts. In-store play copies available for everyone. For questions, contact chris@spinartrecords.com.	The consistency of White Ladder sales, week in and week out (nearly 4k a week and over 1.8 million total—amazing for an album released in March of 2000) has really solidified David's fan base. Besides the regular POP, there will be David Gray/Dave Matthews retail bags for participating retailers. For more info hit up Patrick_Jordan@bmg.com.	Loud Like Nature is being hailed as Add N To (X)'s "best record since their debut!" And we agree. This really is a great release worthy of in-store play support. So, reach out to your Caroline rep for more info and/or hit up Nicole at Mute (e-mail above) for anything you need. Spin this one for the kids.

After learning what you shouldn't do in retail – with stints at Musicland and Peaches – Mike Himes was bitten by the entrepreneurial bug and took the non-corporate road-less-traveled when he and a partner opened Record Time in 1983. Mike became the sole owner five years later. The operation began in Eastpointe (formerly East Detroit), moved to a bigger Roseville store six years later and an even bigger Roseville store in 1995. Record Time opened a second location in Rochester, Michigan in 1992 and relocated it to Ferndale three years later. Although he bought out his first partner, he currently enjoys the horrors of the music business with partner-in-crime, wife Diane.

Record Time has the largest selection of electronic music on vinyl and CD in the state, and the Roseville store has the best metal department in Detroit. A weekly glance at their top sellers will undoubtedly show a few titles that won't appear on any other chart CMJ Retail sees – a fact that shows these guys are true trendsetters. Both locations have a large variety of independent releases, great used sections and, thankfully for many, special orders don't upset 'em.

Performance spaces are available at both locations and they have played host to many diverse artists, including Kid Rock, Eminem, Insane Clown Posse, Queens Of The Stone Age, Richie Hawtin and loads more.

Record Time owner Mike Himes publish a quarterly newsletter and send out direct mail coupons around the holidays. These are truly stores owned and operated by people who love music and enjoy helping customers find the music they love.

Price and positioning programs are available at both stores and there are listening stations in Roseville. The Record Time stores—proud members of both CIMS and DMRC—

NEWSWORTHY

DMRC Puts On Its Boogie Shoes

DMRC, the Great-Lakes-State-based alliance of eight Michigan music shops has nabbed Toledo, Ohio store Boogie Records as their newest member. This partnership should finally quash the popular rumor that Michiganites and Ohioans are mortal enemies fighting a holy war over the rightful ownership of Lake Erie (c'mon, guys, it is the smallest of the Great Lakes after all).

Starting October 1, Boogie will replace the Garden City, Michigan Desirable Discs location destroyed by fire.

Because the folks at Boogie and the DMRC both do such amazing things for the scene and their community, CMJ Retail is moved to overlook the oddness of an Ohio retailer joining a Detroit Music Retailers Collective. (Sure, Toledo's just as close to Detroit as many DMRC-ers, but have you been to Ohio? It's like another planet).

Shadows Fall Break Vintage Vinyl

On September 20, Massachusetts progressive thrashers Shadows Fall obliterated a crowd of 200 metal fans at Fords, New Jersey's Vintage Vinyl. Promoting their latest unremitting sonic assault The Art Of Balance, Shadows Fall ripped through a 40-minute set, sold plenty of CDs and signed autographs for over an hour.

The Art Of Balance scanned 4,211 on its first week out of the gates and is currently at No. 1 on CMJ's Loud Rock charts (take that In Flames for hogging the top spot last week! Go back to Sweden already!). Shadows Fall just finished a tour with are-they-metal-or-hardcore stalwarts Hatebreed and are kicking off an outing with that other group of eight-or-so guys in masks, Cleveland's Mushroomhead (whose bass player, subtly named Pig Benis, does little to restore our faith in Ohio).
