Editor's Note: This article is reprinted by popular demand of the nation's leading coin machine firms who believe that it is one of the greatest editorials ever written in the coin machine industry. Many coin machine salesmen report that they have carried it about with them ever since its first appearance in The Cash Box on February 17, 1947. Others still have it prominently displayed on their bulletin boards in their offices. It is generally believed that this editorial perfectly fits present conditions in the coin machine field.

JUKE BOX OP BUYS HOUR OF AIR TIME TO PLUG LOCATIONS

Radio Program Helps Get Him New Spots and Makes it Easier for Him to Obtain Front Money Service Charge.

NEW YORK—Following up on The Cash Box suggestion that the operators should once again return to promotional exploitation of their businesses, so that they would again attract the public to their equipment, Leon Sieger of Daytona Beach Amusement Corp., Daytona Beach, Fla., who operates juke boxes here for Morris Hankin of Atlanta, Ga., purchased a full hour radio program which features the records over the air appearing in the firm's juke boxes here and in surrounding area, mentions the locations and their addresses, and also encourages all the public to patronize these spots and listen to the very latest recordings.

The program starts at midnight Saturday and for one full hour thereafter is plugging various locations. The report is that many new locations, who have heard this radio program, have called the firm to install juke boxes in their places. Those who are already signed up by the firm, are not only much pleased at the mention of their address, but, what is most important to this operator, have quickly agreed to a front service money guarantee to keep this sort of promotion exploitation on the air.

Here is again demonstrated the ingenuity and showmanship of the nation's operators. The Cash Box, in an article which appeared in its February 14, 1948 issue, urged everyone of the nation's coin machine operators, whether they operate music, amusement, service or merchandising machines, to once again turn to good, old fashioned showmanship, to get the public interested in their equipment and to thereby boom play.

The use of radio and press advertising was urged in this article. The use of a full hour's air time, as is being done in this case, is of immeasurable value to the industry in Daytona Beach as well as the rest of the area this radio station covers. It starts the public back to the juke box for economical musical entertainment. It reaches right into the very home of the average man and woman who are planning to entertain themselves. It offers economical entertainment which is today's answer to what the public desires.

It isn't just Leon Sieger and Morris Hankin, both well known to the nation's ops who have started something new for the entire juke box field, it is, instead, the thought that these men have foreseen the need for greater exploitation of their business and have quickly entered into the spirit of such promotion.

The public know and like juke boxes, amusement games and merchandise vendors. But, like everyone else, have become too accustomed to them. So much so that they have forgotten, to some extent, the great value which they receive from coin operated equipment. Constant reminder is necessary. Exploitation and play promotion is fine showmanship in the modern manner. It quickly enters into the spirit of the times and encourages the public to play its juke boxes, amusement machines and merchandise vendors.

Such play promotion can go even further. It can enter into all public spirited drives. It helps charitable causes, not only with its advertising air time and newspaper ads, but, with donations of percentages of the intake from its equipment. It brings the public ever closer to the coin machine trade and, by so doing, gains greater patronage—which is the answer to greater profits.

At the same time the location owners, too, enter into the spirit of such play promotion. Not only are they receiving free advertising for their locations, but, they are also going to enjoy greater receipts from the equipment in their places. Therefore, they are agreeable to helping along such exploitation by donating a certain share of the money needed to continue and maintain such advertising. Everybody gains. Everybody profits. And the industry goes ahead gaining greater public commendation.

This is only one example of what the average op can do to promote the play of his equipment. There are still a great many other ideas which can be used thruout the nation, as more and more ops once again rally to the flag of old time showmanship, which was always the plan in this industry and bring about greater patronage of their equipment as well as of all other equipment in their territories.

Perhaps this is the beginning of that new showmanship era which so many sadly neglected as they continued to think more about the technical achievements of the field than the promotional factors required to make those technical achievements successful. The operator should not concern himself with the manufacturing processes, but, rather with making the equipment he purchases popular and successful, and thereby bring to the entire industry the booming prosperity it deserves.

SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD

Diskeries Go Hog Wild Over Oldies With Juke Box Biz As Outstanding Exploitation Factor and Juke Ops Busting Profit Marks

NEW YORK—"If the public can go hog wild over string music, I'm betting on high button shoes, bustle skirts and derby hats."

Such was the general tenor of a conversation with a local music operator this past week. The sensational resurgence of music tainted with a gay '90 vintage has the entire music world running helter skelter mad after oldies.

Diskeries are digging down deep in their libraries and catalogs trying to find old masters. Others in the record business are offering fantastic sums as the purchase price of masters that have that twang to it. While the large majority of recording officials in the music industry hurriedly seek their "next big hit," one segment of the field boldly stands out.

Those associated with the recording business will aptly admit that juke box operators and disc jockeys are vitally important to the success of any song. While the latter group might have preference or individual opinions concerning the playing of records on their air-shows, juke box operators have continually demonstrated their potency by catering to the likes and dislikes of the masses.

Evidently the public taste has rapidly changed from the fast tempo of the war years. Not only has string music made its impression upon phono fans throughout the nation. Songs that were hits well over forty years ago, regardless of their interpretation, are in strong demand. Many in the disk biz point to the fact that the present generation hasn't even heard those song hits of yesteryear. Not only do the oldies appeal to the youngsters and the college crowd—they are being greeted just as strongly as ever by adults. Therefore, a great many of the old tunes which clicked so well in years past, can be revived with every assurance that they have opportunity of taking hold with the present generation, and, certainly pleasing the older folks who hearken back to the good old days.

Many noted students of the music industry will not venture an answer as to the strong demand for the flock of standards and oldies being re-issued. Several offer that the current recording ban paved the way for the initial "hunt" by recording companies. Nevertheless, the fact remains that the entire music industry is today undergoing an evolution, the likes of which have never occurred.

Witness the sensational demand for "I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover", "Heartbreaker" and the current spark with "Baby Face." The demand created by the automatic music machine industry rose overnight, and put the spotlight on artists that were comparatively obscure.

Music publishers point to the juke box industry as one of their largest exploitation factors. One well noted publisher recently stated, "I'll take that juke box over all the splash you can muster. The simple fact that the juke box allows an untold amount of people to hear my song, and after hearing it, possibly go out and buy a recording, is good enough for me."

"Take the example of the song that is banned on the air for any one of a hundred reasons. While the radio audience has no means of hearing that particular tune, the juke box keeps on playing, continually building up a demand. Add to that the fact that any artist or record company has his name displayed in the phonograph right on the title strip, and you've got yourself a promotion piece hard to beat."

The fact that the entire nation has gone wild over oldies and standards is a possible indication of things to come. There are literally hundreds of songs gathering dust on shelves, to which the public might take a liking.

The record companies themselves are currently experiencing more sales than ever before. Masters which had been previously discarded are being pressed and issued faster than production facilities allow. "Bye Bye Blackbird", "Shine," "I'll Be With You In Apple Blossom Time" and many others have boomed in recent months, with the responsible recording companies beaming at the unexpected sales.

While no conclusive facts are available as to the bulk purchasing power of the automatic music industry, it is generally accepted that music operators represent more than 30% of the total potential record sales. Add to that a very high figure for the amount of repeat sales directly attributed to the phonograph industry and the net value of juke box promotion is easily seen.

The juke box industry has paved the way for an unpredicted new market in the record business. Many of the smaller firms, who could not hope to draw large sales via the dealer, turned his attention to promoting and exploiting material on automatic music machines.

One diskery head recently stated, "I found that I could not crack the retail market because the bulk of dealers are overloaded with records. The major recording companies have a large amount of masters on hand and the dealers told me that they are literally being flooded with records. Instead, I directed my sales promotion upon the juke box operators, and found a steady flow of orders. In addition, the dealers themselves came around to me, asking for the records. The simple answer was that the juke box had created a demand."

The above facts conclusively prove that the public wants tunes today with that same vigor and punch that commanded the music world years and years ago. The music, the records, the sales medium and the demand are here—let's have 'em.

ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

by Byrde Gore

"What Next?" seems to be the main topic of discussion up and down Tin Pan Alley these days. Pubbers, song writers, diskers and artists ask the question quite often and are referring to the sudden craze throughout the entire nation for string music. There isn't a soul we know who dares venture the why and where-for, but nevertheless Johnny Q. Public seems to be enjoying it. It's string band music and a dash of the gay '90's that has put the spotlight on Art Mooney, the Ferko String Band and a host of others. Tunes that grandpaw hopped to are the fashion today and diskers throughout the nation are rapidly making deals for the acquisition of the few masters around. It seems that the entire music biz is enjoying it all, altho there are those who claim it is "putting music back forty years."

* * *

We hear that folks out on the West Coast have been relatively quiet this week—except for an occasional outburst of "It'll sell a million." Four Star Records Bill McCall and Alladin Records Eddie Messner still jumping all over the place. Bill's T. Texas Tyler novelty, "Deck of Cards" is really going like wild-fire. More and more pressing plants being added daily. Eddie Messner calmly ups and sez "Best month we've ever had." Probably right too—has a couple of hot ones riding the boards now. Saul Bihari, Modern Records vee pee observed rubbing his hands as the Commanders version of "Lonesome Road" starts to boom. Can't tell the difference between them and The Ravens . . . Coast Records' general manager Bill Abel touting Van Es' new unreleased Barclay Allen dinking of "Tea For Two". . . . We're still wondering how in heavens name Buddy Baker, Exclusive Records music director, achieves those wierd sounds. Herb Jeffries "My Blue Heaven" kicking up a storm we hear. Why not, the guy has a terrific voice. . . . And after all is said and done—the lads on the coast still have sunshine.

London Records continue to make their mark in the record field, with the English plattery gradually carving a niche in other diskers sales. Whereas a great many platteries are missing out on current song bets, the London firm can jump on the bandwagon of any particular recording and cut. Proof of the pudding is in such hits as "Manana", "Heartbreaker", "More Than Ever Before" and "Toolie Oolie Doolie" to name but a few. London's distribution lines are firmly set and reports reaching yon scribe show that music operators in particular are buying more.

Dick Bradley, prexy of Tower ("How Soon") Records in New York to herald his next release tagged "Popcorn Polka". Dick has made a tie-up with the National Association of Popcorn Manufacturers to promote the record and plans on having stickers on every popcorn vender in the country. The recording is being set to be aired in ball parks, amusement fairs and carnivals everywhere. Bradley will visit his distribs in the east before heading back to his native Chicago. Incidentally, Dick topped the half-million mark with his Jack Owens recording of "How Soon."

Record Reviews

"Scatterbrain" (2:56)
 "If You Knew Susie" (2:54)
 FRANKIE MASTERS ORCH.
 (MGM 10155)

Pair of sides that appear headed for some fair coinplay are these offered by maestro Frankie Masters. Long missing from the phonos as a name attraction, Frankie might well reestablish himself in the forefront of the music world with this pair. Top deck titled "Scatterbrain" is the oldie that garnered a slew of coin not so many moons ago. It's offered in effective pleasant styling and might attract enough attention to boom it into the limelight again. Ditty went like sixty years ago, and with the public mad about oldies today, it might suddenly blossom forth. Flip is another oldie that is given some bright treatment by maestro Masters. Group vocal here spotlights the cookie while the orchestral work shines just as brilliantly. Both sides deserve your spinning 'em.

"The Pig Latin Way" (2:41)
 "When I'm With You" (2:51)
 BATT MASIAN ORCH.
 (Mecca 3148)

Pair of sides that beckon coin play in a big way are these offered here by the capable Batt Masian ork. Labeled "The Pig Latin Way" and "When I'm With You", Batt sends The Tune Timers to the fore for the cute Latin message of the top side. Wordage is cute as a bug with the title giving off the bill of fare here. On the flip with "When I'm With You", piper Pat Terry hogs the lime for the sugar coated spice of this deck. Made for ops with quiet spots, the wax as offered is effective and should go a long way toward boosting phono play. Both sides should meet with wide favor from a host of music ops—spin it.

"Easter Parade" (2:58)
 "I Cried For You" (2:57)
 ANDY RUSSELL
 (Capitol 15034)

Seasonal release of "Easter Parade" and wide popularity of this version should account for some heavy play in the phonos. It's Andy Russell spooning the old Berlin favorite with musical accompaniment by maestro Paul Weston and his gang. Ops that don't know this piece are probably far and few. Nevertheless, Andy's piping is soothing and relaxing and makes for pleasant listening. Flip has Andy joined by The Pied Pipers to spill the enchanting vocal of "I Cried For You". Pipers spike the deck all the way, as Andy's superb tonsiling fills in for the balance. "Easter Parade" is bound to grab off a slew of coin—get next to it.

"I Remember Mama" (3:02)
 "Long After Tonight" (3:04)
 BETTY RHODES
 (Victor 20-2735)

A pair of sides that can't miss are these offered in superb fashion by chirp Betty Rhodes. It's the blissful rapture of "I Remember Mama" on the top side of this cookie that grabs the lead here, with Betty's nostalgic tones pitching melodious music throughout. Wax has that set you down quality and appears to be gilded with silver—that is the extent of its charm. Betty's pipes are warm and vibrant with the treasure of golden wordage echoing brilliantly. On the backside with another comer, thrush Betty spills "Long After Tonight". It's more meat for the moon-in-june crowd, as the slow winding and haunting refrain seeps thru. Orchestral work by maestro Harry Zimmerman radiates throughout the entire waxing, giving the canary a hypo. Both sides rate heavily.

DISK O'THE WEEK

ART MOONEY

• It's another lalaloosa for maestro Art Mooney—and a gold mine for music operators! With the nation going hog wild over string music, Art follows the sensational success of his "Four Leaf Clover" with another oldie that seems a cinch to clinch with phono fans throughout the land. "Baby Face", replete with banjo and band chorus stacks up to a whirlwind of activity for music ops. The life and beat of this thing, coupled with the novel interpretation rates this platter as heavily as a spade flush. Add to that the charming wordage and top notch performance of the entire gang and you've got a deck that's hard to beat. On the backing with another potential coin winner, piper Bud Brees grabs the limelight to spoon the charming magic wordage of "Encore Cherie". Patterned on a French kick, Bud's vocal is both soothing and enhancing, with the soft pedaled lyrics sugar-coated all the way. Actually both sides of this platter should win strong favor with the ops, with "Baby Face" flashing across the wire by a nose. Grab it!

"Airizay" (2:56)
 "Cincinnati" (2:51)

RAY MCKINLEY ORCH.
 (Victor 20-2736)

Pair of bright sides by maestro Ray McKinley and the metro of "Airizay" and "Cincinnati" offer the vehicle here. Ray's bow on Victor platters shows as stuff well loaded with possibilities to score in a big way. Top deck is an ode to New Orleans, with Ray spooning the flavored wordage throughout. Stuff is made for dancers and listeners alike. Flip is more Chamber of Commerce wax as Ray goes into ecstasy over "Cincinnati". Ray divulges the flowing and glowing wordage about Cincy in bright flashy tones that satisfy. Beat offered here is mellow and makes you wanna listen. Lend an ear in this direction.

"Jungle Rose" (2:51)
 "I Wonder What's Become Of Sally"
 (2:40)

HERB JEFFRIES
 (Exclusive 29x)

The deep powerful tones of balladeer Herb Jeffries and some mad music with "Jungle Rose" and "I Wonder What's Become of Sally" step out here. Top side has a unique orchestral flavor with Herb's heavy throated vocal booming throughout the wax. Stuff is made for the crowd that appreciates good music—Herb's voice is just that. On the backing with the oldie, "I Wonder What's Become Of Sally", Herb gives with this tender oldie in first rate fashion. Wax weaves slow and moody and makes you stop and listen. Buddy Baker twirling the baton makes for added incentive with this platter—latch on.

"How Come" (2:37)
 "Worried" (2:21)

JOE LIGGINS
 (Exclusive 262)

Pair of sides to which ops with race spots can latch onto are these rendered by maestro Joe Liggins. Titled "How Come" and "Worried", Joe offers the top side in slow tempo, with the title of the ditty giving off the bill of fare. Vocal spot by the maestro is favorable and makes for pleasant listening. On the flip with an instrumental bit, Joe and his Honey-drippers give with "Worried." Loads of spots flourish here with that haunting sax sticking out heavily. Altho both sides won't stop traffic, they might fill that extra spot on your machines.

"Fat Meat Is Good Meat" (2:41)
 "Tell Me Your Blues And I Will Tell
 You Mine" (2:39)

SAVANNAH CHURCHILL
 (Celebrity 2003)

The top nasal tones of chirp Savannah Churchill spill with a pair that beckon coin play in a big way. Wax, tagged "Fat Meat Is Good Meat" and "Tell Me Your Blues And I Will Tell You Mine" are aimed at ops with race spots. Topside spills with plenty of riff, with Savannah rich and warm throughout. On the backing with more blues, the gal offers this bit with plenty of bounce in her pipes. The hep crowd is sure to want to get next to this thing—it's tailor made for the dance spots. Orchestral work flourishes throughout the pair in fine manner, with Savannah's pipes grabbing off all the glory. Get next to this piece by all means.

"Just About This Time Last Night"
 (3:02)

"Serenade" (3:00)

JOHN LAURENZ
 (Mercury 5099)

They'll yell for this hunk of wax for miles around—and yell they will! Superb tonsiling of balladeer John Laurenz with a beautiful ballad that should go like mad in every phono in the nation. Titled "Just About This Time Last Night", John gives out with a ton of nostalgia here, with the mellow wordage glowing brilliantly all thru. Soft setting by maestro Dick Maltby behind piper John spikes the disk immensely. Wax is tailor made for the romance crowd and should be greeted with wide favor. On the flip with the much recorded "Serenade", the choir boy comes back for another first rate performance with this piece of sugar 'n spice. It's the top deck that will grab the buffalo hop to it.

Record Reviews

"Serenade" (3:04)
 "You Can't Run Away From Love" (3:01)

BOB EBERLY with RUSS MORGAN ORCH.
 (Decca 24376)

● Loads of delightful strings by maestro Russ Morgan, and the soft pitch pipes of balladeer Bob Eberly seep thru on this pair beckoning coin play. Rapidly rising on the disk scene, "Serenade" as offered here by choir boy Eberly serves as an attractive piece for ops. It's the slow, haunting rhythm of the ditty that grabs the lead, with Bob's hush treatment spiking the disk all the way. Intensive and superb background by maestro Morgan lends an aura of angelic feeling to the deck. On the flip with "You Can't Run Away From Love," Bob comes back for more pleasant romance material. It's tailor made for the kids that love to love and rendered in tender tones that satisfy. In addition, the ditty is theme music from the 20th-Century flicker "Daisy Kenyon" which might go a long way toward hyping phono play.

"Worry, Worry, Worry" (2:57)
 "Dreamy Lullaby" (2:54)

LARRY CLINTON ORCH.
 (Decca 24377)

● Pair of sides that beckon coin play in a big way are these offered here by the old Dipsy Doodler, maestro Larry Clinton. Top deck, titled "Worry, Worry, Worry" resounds with loads of gaiety as chirp Helen Lee and a vocal combo step forth for the vocal chorus. Gal's pipes pitch pretty, making the deck worthy of a spot in your machines. Wax is built around a repeating theme, with the title offering the bill of fare. Flip is just what the title gives off—a "Dreamy Lullaby." Thrush Helen Lee at the mike once more purring the torrid yet tender wordage in soft romantic styling. Both sides should come in for their fair share of phono play—especially so with "Worry, Worry, Worry."

"Toolie Oolie Doolie" (2:58)
 "I Hate To Lose You" (3:00)

THE ANDREWS SISTERS
 (Decca 24380)

● Click tune kicking up a storm in many sections of the nation spills here with an attractive rendition by The Andrews Sisters winding its way out. Labeled "Toolie Oolie Doolie," the gals combine to render sweet moments of musical pleasure. It's tagged the Swiss yodel polka and what with the nation going mad for this brand, we see no reason why they shouldn't take to this. Vocal spotlight shines brilliantly, with the trio's spot making for heavy coin play. Flip is a switch to some stuff that should evoke some tears. Wailing in slow moody fashion, the gals spill "I Hate To Lose You." Wordage parrots the title throughout the wax, while the gals display their splendid pipes in fine manner. Vic Shoen's orchestral backing spikes the cookie. Lend an ear—huh?

"Lilli Marlene" (2:49)
 "What'll I Do" (2:59)

ANNE SHELTON
 (London 144)

● Big winner across the pond several years ago springs up here by chirp Anne Shelton, with the throbbing tones of "Lilli Marlene" seeping thru. Anne's high pitched vocal fits the metro of this strong piece, while loads of sugar coated music provided by Stanley Black round out the side. A big favorite with the G.I.'s during the war, it might step out to latch onto some smash demand here. Music weaves in slow mellow mood with an air of delicacy surrounding the gal's tonsils. On the backside with the widely popular "What'll I Do," the gal comes back for more stuff tailor made for the

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"Just Friends" (2:51)

"My Sweetie Went Away" (2:46)

JERRY ABBOTT
 (Aristocrat 1701)

JERRY ABBOTT

● First shot on wax and the lad comes thru with a bell-ringer! Bound to be heard from in ever increasing platters, piper Jerry Abbott bows into the disk spotlight with a deck that should go like hot cakes. Jerry's soothing pipes warm around "Just Friends"; a beautiful ballad if there ever was one. The lad's relaxing tones weave about you and make you sit up and take notice. Stuff is in the hush-hush vein with Jerry's relaxing and yet vibrant pipes making for musical rapture. Vocal combo behind Jerry grab a huge share of the spotlight as they offer their spot in splendid manner. Jerry's ballading on this top deck is nothing short of superb. The fashion in which he blends with the orchestral work fills the air with a ton of simplicity. On the flip with more powerful tones, Jerry comes back for another first rate performance with "My Sweetie Went Away." Side has some beat to it, but it's Jerry's voice that spells coin play. This wax should establish him in the forefront of the disk biz. Hop aboard with "Just Friends"—it'll go like mad.

quiet spots. Ops should know the piece—it's the rave fave of yesteryear currently kicking up a storm. "Lilli Marlene" is the side we ride with.

"I'll Be With You In Apple Blossom Time" (2:53)

"Horse & Boogie" (2:39)

CLYDE TRASK ORCH.
 (Radio Artist 212)

● Pair of sides which might make excellent filler material are these offered by the Clyde Trask ork. With piper Bob Gary to spill the charming lyrics of the top deck, the wax takes on an added incentive for music ops. It's the fragrant and flowing wordage of "I'll Be With You In Apple Blossom time", and since the mob is currently howling for oldies, this one might clinch. Vocal rendition is favorable throughout, while the orchestral accompaniment fills the bill. Flip is a switch to some kicks with "Horse & Boogie" coming out. Deck is instrumental and features ivory tickler Bob Taylor. The jump spots might grab this one, altho it won't stop traffic. Both sides shape up as fair possibilities.

"Peter Blue & Jasper Too" (2:41)
 "In The Evening When The Sun Goes Down" (2:51)

PAUL GAYTEN
 (DeLuxe 1118)

● Pair of smart and stylish sides for ops with race spots and the metro of "Peter Blue And Jasper Too" and "In The Evening When The Sun Goes Down" set the stage here. It's by the hot Paul Gayten four, currently riding on a wave of tunes. Top deck shows with a repeating vocal spot, while the rest of the crew join in for the balance. Wax moves along at a zippy pace to which the hep jazzophile set can jump. Flip is some low moody blues done up real brown. Stuff makes for pleasant listening and might grab off a hunk of charm with the crowd that goes for this brand. Lend an ear to the pair—pronto.

"Helen Polka" (2:50)
 "My Wife Has Gone & Left Me" (2:53)

THE SPORTSMEN
 (Capitol 15046)

● Pair of delightful novelty sides loaded with gaiety, mirth and laughter show as excellent possibilities. It's The Sportsmen to the mike to wail the cute lyrics to "Helen Polka" on the top deck, while they switch to some mad wax for "My Wife Has Gone & Left Me". Top side grabs the lead, with the vocal combo offering the favorable polka wordage in sparkling tones that shine brilliantly. Tune is currently being featured on many boxes throughout the nation—this version should add to its popularity. Backing is more comical wax, with the crew laughing at the title throughout. The platter deserves that extra spot in your machine—get next to it.

"Blue Sunrise" (2:41)
 "I Want A Girl" (2:45)

DICK KUHN ORCH.
 (Top 1162)

● Pair of playful sides which ops can use as excellent filler material are these rendered here by the Dick Kuhn ork. With a vocal combo blending tones for the refrain of "Blue Sunrise" on the top deck, the wax stacks up to resounding moments of musical pleasure. Vocal spot is charming and effective, while the orchestral backing fills the balance. On the flip with the oldie, "I Want A Girl", the gang keep the tempo slow and easy, with the ever loving wordage spilling in fine fashion. Both sides should set well with ops that cater to tavern spots. The wax deserves your avid listening attention.

"Honey, Can't We Steal Away Together" (2:37)

"Clair De Lune" (2:41)

VIVIANE GREENE
 (Trilon 210)

● Slow teasing piece of haunting music by thrush Viviane Greene, coupled with some mighty tender rhythmic tones set the pace for "Honey, Can't We Steal Away Together". Viviane's soft dulcet tones sprinkle around the wax with some brilliant piano fashions thrown in. Mood of the ditty is way down low in the blue theme and should come in for some fair play in the race spots. Flip is the De Bussy "Clair De Lune", with Viviane shining brightly at the ivory's all thru. The gal sends the enchanting melody out in straight style, filling the air with loads of pleasant musical rapture. Side sets well for the quiet dinner stops—it's that good. Lend an ear to this duo—by all means.

BULLSEYE of the WEEK

"Television"
"Ever Since Eve"

ZEKE MANNERS BAND
(Victor 20-2730)

A double decker that is sure to go over big with folk fans throughout the land is the story on this platter. It's the Zeke Mannersband coupled with the Singing Lariateers that grab the glory here as they offer "Television" and "Ever Since Eve." Both sides are replete with cute wordage and deserve equal mention. Top deck is a satire of the title with the lyrics ringing true throughout. On the flip with "Ever Since Eve", the gang come back for some more rollicking wonderful musical moments. Ditty is offered in popular-folk vein and should arouse wide attention. Don't miss this buffalo ride.

"Thank God"
"I Saw The Light"

ROY ACUFF
(Columbia 38109)

Pair of favorable sides by the popular Roy Acuff and the beat of "Thank God" and "I Saw The Light" seep thru here. Roy's nasal tones spill in effective fashion on the top deck with the metro skipping out in rapid measure. Flip is a parrot of the top side and leans toward the spiritual side a bit more. Both make for pleasant listening and should come in for some mighty fair play—especially so where the Acuff fans gather.

"Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow"
"Texas Plains"

DON CHURCHILL & TEXAS MAVERICKS
(Trilon 207)

Loads of nostalgia and a ton of some fancy nasal tonsiling set the stage for a slew of phono play with this pair. Titled "Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow" and "Texas Plains", the pair stack up as attractive coin cullers. Piper Curly Burns spills the vocal chores in excellent styling, while the rhythm backing shines brightly throughout. Topside grabs the glory with Burns and some highly fashioned guitar and piano flashing thru. Get next to this duo.

"Murder On The Radio"
"It's The Latest Style"

DUDE MARTIN
(Victor 20-2699)

A sure thing to get loads of attention, this dinking by Dude Martin and His Roundup Gang show as a pair well loaded with possibilities. Titled "Murder On The Radio" and "It's The Latest Style", the gang do a take off on radio murder mysteries, with the novel wax sounding both refreshing and favorable. Flip is offered in straight manner and hypo's the "new look". Both sides for the western spots should garner loads of coin. Grab a listen—we're sure you'll spin 'em.

Spike Jones Visits With Wurlitzer Distrib

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Spike Jones, the man who wedded pandemonium with music, and lovely Helen Grayco, his vocalist, recently paid a visit to the Los Angeles headquarters of Clark Distributing Co., Wurlitzer phonograph distributors for the state of California. The pair listened to their latest Victor recording, "My Old Flame" on the new Wurlitzer Model 1100, pictured above, and marveled at the wonderful reception. The new phono incorporates the famous Zenith Cobra Tone Arm, widely hailed by music operators throughout the nation for its amazing fidelity.

AUTOMATIC MERCHANTS' SECTION

March 20, 1948

MARIO CARUSO

With a background extending over a period of 40 years as a production executive with Lionel trains, Caruso entered the vending machine business a few years ago, opening the C-8 Laboratories. This firm, utilizing the production experience and know-how of Caruso, pioneered and developed "Electro", the electric cigarette machine. Early this year the firm moved to its new plant at New Bedford, Mass., which is claimed to be the largest factory devoted to the manufacture of cigarette machines. Caruso's production ability has proven a great boon to the merchandise machine industry.

Joe Hahnen Resigns As Pres. Of Amusement Mach. Ops Assn of N. Y. C.

Louis Rosenberg Elected President To Fill Out Unexpired Term

NEW YORK—Joe Hahnen, Gordon Amusement Company, and president of the Amusement Machine Operators Association of New York City, resigned this post at a meeting of the association held Thursday, March 4. Hahnen informed the membership that it was with considerable reluctance that he was compelled to give up the office, due to the pressure of his business.

The association accepted Hahnen's resignation with regrets, expressing their thanks to him for his untiring efforts in building the organization. A coinman of long experience, Hahnen enjoys the respect and admiration of all those who had the opportunity of working with him.

Louis Rosenberg, Arrow Amusement Corporation, Brooklyn, N. Y., was elected to replace him as the president for the unexpired term. Rosenberg, altho a young man, is considered an "old timer" in the business, having had considerable experience in the coin machine business, as well as in organization work. During the period of the old pin game association, Greater New York Operators Association, Lou served as a member of the Board of Directors. At that time he displayed great organizational ability, as well as considerable patience and tact in conducting meetings.

During the life of the present association, Rosenberg has been serving as vice president, and during the absence of the president on several occasions, was called upon to preside at meetings.

The membership expressed great hope for the future of the organization under the able guidance and leadership of Rosenberg.

Never Too Late To Learn New Ideas

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—"I thought that I'd seen everything in my quarter century in the coin machine business" states Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt. "But an experience I had last week proved to me that there is still plenty to learn."

Blatt had just purchased the music route that was owned by Dave Stern, and went out to see the location owners. In one of the locations he noticed a man who would put a coin into the music machine and immediately begin playing the pin ball machine.

The proprietor of the location called Blatt over to the side and explained. "This particular player," reported the proprietor, "won't play the game unless he selects that certain record on the phono so that he can keep time in jerking his body and the machine in rhythm to the music."

"We decided right on the spot to move all our phonos, where possible, next to pin games" stated Blatt. "Maybe we can increase our income in that way."

Aireon Showing In El Paso, Tex. Mar. 20, 21

EL PASO, TEX.—E J. Pepper, district sales manager for Aireon Manufacturing Corporation, covering Western Texas and New Mexico, reports that there will be a showing of the Aireon "Coronet 400" at the fashionable Red Mill Courts, 4110 Alameda Avenue, this city, on March 20 and 21.

Pepper, one of the best known music machine coinmen in the state, states "I've been very successful with this machine in my territory since its introduction, and expect a great deal of additional business when the operators get a chance to see and hear the machine at the various showings which will be held in the territory."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

This past week opened up a bit on the rugged side with the tabloid here, Chicago Daily Sun and Times, headlining a story that "$50,000 was ready to pay" for a pin run in this man's town . . . the story was blazoned on the front page. . . . J. A. (Art) Weinand over at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. sitting on pins and needles this past week waiting for "the call" . . . so that he would be rushing on his way to St. Joseph's Hospital . . . where Mrs. Weinand will be confined for that third little baby . . . and Art bets me it'll be a girl (for one buck) so we should know even before this is on the presses. . . . Jean Bates tells me that many an op read that story about Harold's Club in Reno buying 100 more Pace bells and that makes it just over 300 that this famous Club operates . . . which stirred some business for the firm . . . for Jean was a pretty busy boy all this past week.

Buster Williams of Memphis, Tenn. was in town this past week and when Billy DeSelm of United Mfg. Co. drove him down towards the airport, Buster bumped into Dan Moloney of Bally who, he found, was on his way to New Orleans . . . so they decided to fly down together . . . Buster getting off at Memphis and Dan on to New Orleans . . . both boys arrived in scheduled time and feeling fine. . . . From what Billy DeSelm tells me the boys over at United are working on the double to try and fill all orders for "Manhattan", which game, it seems, is clicking big with more and more orders pouring in every day . . . Both Sam Stern and Harry Williams were out of the plant the early part of this past week and Skeet Moore took over . . . seems that Sam had flown back to Phila., Pa. and no one could say where Harry was . . . tho he was expected back at the factory any second. . . . Rex Shriver over at H. C. Evans & Co. tells me that they're plenty happy at the factory with the way those orders are rolling in for "Bat-A-Score" and for the rest of the Evans' line.

Ben Coven wasn't singing the blues this past week . . . maybe that's because he was expecting shipment of the new Bally "Ballerina" any day this past week and already had lined up some sweet business . . . That reminds me, Georgie (the "G") Jenkins of Bally left on one of his mysterious trips . . . no one knows whether he went south, north, east or west . . . only that he's gone and will be reporting in to the office . . . and Ray Moloney still down in Atlantic City with Stuart Lyon viewing the bottler's show. . . . That item in Walter Winchell's column attracted much attention here with all wondering who "the lum" was that said "he made the arrangements" with Walter for the Damon Runyon Memorial—CMI Drive . . . and the fact that Winchell gave such nice praise to George Glassgold (who actually did the job) met with everyone's approval. . . . Gordon Sutton of Illinois Simplex waiting around for his missus, downstairs at the Bismarck this past Sattidy, advises that there's nothing like a plane for a guy who must cover ground fast.

In case you didn't know . . . Hugh McGarrity is now sales-manager for the Wurlitzer distrib here. . . . Elliot Berkwitz back in town after a fast flight from N. Y. . . . seems this guy just makes flight after flight. . . . George B. Dick of CMAC tells me that it only takes 40 or 50 banks these days . . . and he should know. . . . Funniest thing I've ever seen was the expression on Herb Oettinger's face when he started to sing "Baby Face" . . . and there was Ray and Millie Real almost busting their sides laughing . . . and not a camera in sight. . . . Bill Kennedy, well known adman in our town, tells me that "I knew something was wrong when I woke up the next morning and found that I had opened a pack of Luckies from the bottom." . . . Frankie Garnett strolling down Randolph Street during that cold sleet we had this past week. . . . Joe Calderon of AMI (who keeps himself busy regardless) tells me that he's getting so many orders for that new 40 selection wall box that he's wondering whether it will take 5 or ten years to fill them all. . . . Monte West of the same firm off to the West Coast for a new service school.

W. H. Richardson and Stanley Laird in this past week from Raleigh, N. C. to visit over at AMI. . . . And Louis Boasberg of New Orleans Novelty Co. also in town visiting at Williams Mfg. Co. . . . Ed Lavandar and Florence Vincent holding down the fort while George Pisner out of town visiting with the firm's distrib . . . and Ed advising that very, very soon they would present their first pinball game to the industry . . . which will be very interesting to see for Ed claims that "it's really different". . . . J. R. (Pete) Pieters of Kalamazoo in town this past week looking for more and still more equipment . . . after a very nice vacation in N.Y.C. with the missus. . . . Bill Marmer of Sicking, Cincinnati, O. also in our town this past week. . . . We hear that Ernie Waldrop of Baltimore, Md. has been appointed a Williams Mfg. Co. distrib and starts right off by doing a grand job with "Stormy". . . . Eddie Hansen over at Groetchen Tool advises that the boys are phoning and calling around to get more and still more of the "Camera Chief" . . . one little counter game that is clicking.

Gil Kitt and Ralph Sheffield announced distributorship for the Northwestern merchandisers. . . . Ed Levin of Chicago Coin absolutely thrilled with the way those orders keep coming in for more and more "Catalina" games . . . and Ed now firmly convinced that it'll be the outstanding hit of '48. . . . By the way, Ed also reports that Rice Music Co. of Oklahoma City, Okla. have been appointed a Chicoin distrib. . . . Jimmy (Globe) Johnson reports that the firm have a new salesmanager in Bob Ahr, formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio. . . . Dave Wallach of Marvel working harder than ever in his life to get those "Gold Mines" with the "plus 4" coin chute out to the ops who have been calling around from here, there and everywhere . . . asking for the game which can earn 20c per play. . . . Dennis Donohue, they tell me, has an office downtown on LaSalle Street. . . . Gordon Mills on his way down to the Coca-Cola meet in Atlantic City. . . . Looks like there'll be lots of doings at the next CMI meet regarding public relations.

Ed Wurgler of Wurlitzer pops into town and gets things humming once again . . . good to see Eddie in action. . . . Oscar Schutlz, all by his lonesome, at the Celtic. . . . Looks like the mountain won't come to Mohammed . . . that Mohammed is going to the mountain . . . with plenty of mfrs here sending their men out into the hinterlands to say hello to distrib and jobbers and learn what's what . . . while others keep up weekly contact via long distance telephone. . . . With labor's wages going up prices of equipment are expected to rise accordingly . . . even beyond present point . . . so many distrib inform that they, too, are going to hike prices of good used machines . . . and keep from selling to the curbstone brokers . . . which means that smart ops will do their buying now. . . . Eddie Hanson over at Groetchen Tool & Mfg. Co. getting ready to make announcement regarding distributorships on their "Camera Chief". . . . Eddie has had one distrib after another call at the Groetchen plant to set a deal. . . . Charley Schlicht over at Mills Industries working right along . . . and contacting leading ops and distrib thruout the country to tell them about the new deal on Mills Constellation.

Lots of visitors over at O. D. Jennings & Co. this past week . . . Fred Anderson, who is Jennings' distrib in Northern Indiana around the plant watching production of Tic-Tac-Toe. . . . Phil Burgeson, distrib for Iowa, North and South Dakota, also in the factory this past week and much impressed with the action taking place. . . . Shallen Burger of Lafayette, Ind. also called around to meet with Jennings' execs. . . Charles (Harry) Weaver of Houston, Tex. at the Jennings' plant talking things over. Dick Matthews, Jennings' roadman, in town for a few days and down to Arkansas, where he's traveling just like the Arkansas Traveler. . . . Some of the boys in from Detroit this past week telling us that Izz Edelman of Edelman Amuse. Devices is clicking with a 6' by 3' pool table called, "Belgian Pool" . . . boys claim that Michigan is finding Belgian Pool okay. . . . Everyone looking forward to warmer weather to start the ball rolling.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

EASTERN FLASHES

The unwanted newspaper publicity on the pin games here practically brought biz to a standstill. The New York Times, starting last week, featured a story each day until the middle of this week. The officials taking cognizance of the games operation here for the first time, began checking locations, jobbers and distributors. The only result of this uncalled for noise, was the arrest of a storekeeper for operating a "Marvel Pop Up" which permitted an extra ball to be played. Coinmen look to an end of this slump in buying as soon as the press forgets to print stories about the games. With the situation all up in the air, and as no one knows what may result from the police drive, operators curtailed their buying until conditions right themselves again.

Irv Morris, Active Amusement Machines Company, Newark, N. J. office in Chicago this past week. Irv was seen walking thru the rain, snow and sleet, dragging Nate Gottlieb along with him from one sporting goods store to another, seeking a left handed mitt for his young son. Irv has great hopes that one day he'll see him pitching for the New York Giants. After almost four hours of tramping about the town, they finally came across a left handed glove at Von Lengerke & Antoinies (Chi branch of Abercrombie & Fitch). Irv sighed a great sigh of relief as he stated he just couldn't go home unless he brought back the glove. As Morris is teaching the kid to be ambidextrous—he should have spread a little with the cabbage, and bought two gloves, one for each hand.

Harry Brown, that dynamic coinman from Chicago, visting the jobbers and distributors along coinrow. Harry has such a wide acquaintance that it took him over an hour to walk one block. Some friend kept stopping him every few steps. . . . Mike Munves heaves a sigh of relief when he hears from brother Max that he'll be home this week-end, and report at the office on Monday. . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerma, Runyon Sales Company, brings along Abe Green of the firm to the city this week. Shugy reports that they have been selling off a great deal of their inventory that piled up during the past few months. . . . Bert Lane and Meyer Parkoff of Atlantic New York Corporation, and thirty of their staff off to Chicago to attend the Seeburg convention, which will feature their new music set up for commercial locations.

Ben Becker, Ben Becker Sales Co. (Bally regional sales representative) returns to the office after a week's absence due to an attack of the flu. Ben is not fully recovered, but he just can't stay away. Art Garvey, the demon Bally roadman, traveling Ben's territory, and reports that business is very good, and as far as he's concerned Ben can remain at home except for one thing. He'd like to increase the size of his bankroll, and whenever that occasion arises, he just sits down for a few hands of "gin" with Becker. Becker claims otherwise, and to prove it, is taking a few days this coming week to visit with his distributors, and at the same time catch up with Garvey, whom he calls his "gin sucker". . . . Lester Klein, who was one of the foremost pin game operators years back, once again in action with a moderate route. . . . With the rush of biz off this week, Sid Wertheimer, of H. Rosenberg Company, has the opportunity to spend some money at his favorite haberdasher—and you should see those "Sinatra" bow ties. . . . Iz Horowitz back on the job after being bedded with the flu last week.

Not satisfied with being almost rushed to death handling the new Aireon "Coronet 400", distributing Signature Records, and producing Gem Records, Nat Cohn of Modern Music Sales Corporation, now has the distribution of Automatic Devices, Inc. "Target Master", the ray gun pistol. . . . Joe Munves, who purchased Economy Supply Company a few weeks ago, is really in action, and is happy about it all. "Things are going great" smiles Joe, "and as we go along, we'll expand and add many items to the thousands we have in stock at this time". . . . Jack Ehrlich, Hart Distributing Company, Brooklyn games distributor visits around coinrow. . . . Mike Munves ready to turn in his 1947 Packard. Would like to get a new Cadillac. So would everybody else, Mike. . . . Ray Moloney, Bally president, and Gordon Mills, of Mills Industries, Inc., attending the bot- tler's show at Atlantic City.

Jack Semel and Willie Levey, Supreme Automatics, Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y., Williams' distributor here, back from Chicago, and all excited over the new five ball "Tennessee". Willie, who has never been up in a plane, promised Harry Williams that on his next trip to Chicago, he'll go up for a spin in Harry's "Bonanza". Semel and Georgie Holzman, old hands at the flying business, are trying to ruffle Willie's composure, but they should know that it can't be done. Levey will definitely take off on his next trip. We might issue a word of warning to Levey, and advise him not to try the same trick that Al Stern did one day when in the air with Williams. Just ask him.

Harry Pearl takes over the management of the Philadelphia office for Seeburg, and will conduct the business under the name of Atlantic Pennsylvania Corporation. This is a branch office of Atlantic New York Corporation. Harry will cover the territory of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware. The Philadelphia headquarters are at the same location as Frank Engel's Automatic Equipment Company, who formerly handled the Seeburg line there. . . . Fred Inganamort, president, announced the formation of Central Sales Company, Inc., at 884 Pacific Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. The company will be under the personal supervision of Irving Levenar, well known coinman. The firm will distribute amusement games and vending machines. The firm will also carry a large department handling parts and supplies.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

On the minds of everyone around Coin Row this week, and on the tongues of most, was "What gives with this clampdown on rolldowns?" . . . For the benefit of New York and the hinterlanders, if your local sheets didn't carry the yarn, a posse of Los Angeles gendarmes swooped down on a half dozen downtown bars last week and took over on several different brands of rolldown. . . . Reason given at the time was that players in these spots had been making a big thing out of betting on high score. . . . The local headlines screamed in 60 point type: Police Raid Gambling in Bars . . . or stuff to that effect. . . . In the sober light of the following day, apparently the law enforcers decided to make their threatened confiscation of rolldowns legal by pointing up a technicality in the city ordinance against pin games whereby, wherefore and wherein a rolldown is so classed. . . . The distribs and plenty of ops are naturally in a sweat over the situation. . . . It may be a small comfort to them to predict that this hulabaloo will blow over in a short time. . . . We won't promise to eat our words if proved wrong but in checking with former newspaper colleagues of ours around the City Hall, the thing seems to shape up as the old pre-election, professional reform element vote-getting routine.

Deciding to check all angles on the matter, we dropped in to see headman Curly Robinson of the Ops Assn. . . . Curly was out trouble-shooting, but the obliging secy. said it wouldn't have mattered if we'd found him in. . . . He wasn't being quoted on the situation at this time. . . . Leave it to Bill Williams to find a ray of sunshine in a troubled sky. . . . Bill fondly patted the Williams' "Box Score" and said, "Can't find any technicality to ban this beauty . . . strictly skill . . . no high score come-on . . . no automatic advance or pickup gadgets . . . no sir, she's a safe one" . . . Bill may have something there, but we'd humbly like to point something out: When one of these phoney, amusement killing crusades is allowed to work up enough steam, they won't stop until they've banned kids from playing marbles. . . . That is, if so doing will win 'em any votes come election time. . . . Williams Sr. had enthusiasm to spare for his son's new 5-ball "Tennessee" . . . Admitted he didn't know much about it yet . . . "but it must be terrific 'cause I hear it's even better than 'Stormy'."

Paul Laymon, who is normally one of the most cheerful and optimistic guys on the Row, was no different this week from any other. . . . Maybe one reason the front pages aren't worrying him is that he just landed local distributorship of a game no stretch of the law could possibly declare out of bounds. . . . It's Training Devices' new "Quizzer," which should go great near schools and have faculty playing along with students. . . . Developed from units used by the Navy for training during the war, the new Quiz game is a fascinating pushbutton, film machine offering five questions, ranging from baseball to history, for five cents and a choice of three answers on each. . . . An I.Q. meter clocks the accuracy and speed of your answers and rates you from Poor to Genius. . . . Paul, his lovely, blonde wife and this scribe played it together. . . . The best we could do (all three of us) was Expert. . . . There are 5000 questions in each roll of film, so you don't have to worry about repeats for awhile . . . and a new roll of film will be supplied to ops whenever wanted. . . . Frank Collins, Training Devices' chief, and J. J. Stapleton were in from the plant to close the deal with Laymon.

Had a short one . . . conversation, that is . . . with Nels Nelson and learned that boss Bill Wolf would be back to M. S. Wolf and Co. following day, a well traveled man with San Diego his last stop. . . . The boys are still at Wolf's door awaiting delivery on the new AMI 40 selector box. . . . Len Micon of Pacific Coast Distribs down to his last Triple Action and swapping ideas with veteran distrib-operator Irving Bromberg and Bill Cohen, in for a visit from Silent Sales in Minneapolis. . . . At Badger Sales Co. we found W. R. Happel talking over the status quo with Aubrey Stemler, who's still beaming about the successful showing last week of the new Aireon Coronet 400. . . . Aubrey sang the same tune as Jack Simon of Sicking Distribs about the box. . . . Compare, they harmonized, its style, durability and price with anything on the market. . . . Speaking of tariff, Mills man Charlie Fulcher was economic minded this week too. . . . He was all buoyed up about the come down in price on the news Mills' Constellation.

Both Bud Parr and Fred Gaunt were out at General Music and their eyepleasing blonde secy. tried to tell us nothing was new. . . . Wrong she was 'cause she had a new hairdo since last week. . . . (Hairdos you're noticing, says the wife over our typewriter shoulder). . . . A quick look at General's floor stock showed that Rock-ola's Magic-Glo are still gloing and going. . . . At C. A. Robinson both Charlie and Al Bettelman in, Al just back from a swing around Nevada, where you got to worry about nothing except frostbite. . . . Says Al: "Reception given Jennings product warmed me up." . . . Robinson expecting any day now to get the new Camera Chief penny arcade machine. . . . Found Dannie Jackson and Sammie Donin of Automatic Games in but fount of information George Warner out to San Pedro . . . and not after fish. . . . Elky Ray of Gold Coast out again for dear old D. Gottlieb and Co., we presume.

E. T. Mape's Ray Powers has a big campaign set to roll on the new Lacasa music box. . . . It's a good looker with mirror design and down in the working op's price class. . . . Seen around the Row: All the way from Chi came ABT coin chute man Walter Tratsch, en route to Mexico. . . . A. B. Marine from Oceanside. . . . William Bradley from Covina. . . . Allen Anderson from Shafter. . . . Stanley Little from Lakewood Village . . . Cecil Vincent and Robert Boyd from San Diego . . . J. W. Nystrom from Bell Gardens . . . L. G. Wagner from San Bernardino . . . L. D. Smith from Downey. . . . Lunched with Bernie Shapiro of Adams-Fairfax and his Dad, who may be credited with many of Bernie's advanced merchandising ideas. . . . The monthly publication put out by the firm, full of information and good advice to vending machine men, puts many a million dollar corporation's house organ to shame.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

MINNEAPOLIS

NEW ORLEANS

Ted Bush of the Bush Distributing Company, Minneapolis, in Kansas City last week for a few days on business. . . . Herman Paster of the Mayflower Distributing Company, St. Paul, in Chicago for several days on business. . . . Bill Cohen, Silent Sales Co., in Los Angeles, Calif. on vacation.

Congratulations to R. L. Cross of Jackson, Minnesota who married the lovely Ilene Black of the same city. They are honeymooning in Los Angeles, California. . . . I. G. Black of the Springfield Novelty Company, Springfield, Minnesota drove into Minneapolis just for the day on business. . . . Garfield Brown of Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin in Minneapolis for the day. His first visit in several months—working too hard and looks very thin.

Martin Kallsen of the Martin Music Company, Worthington, Minnesota, taking a few days off to visit the distributors in the Twin Cities and looking pretty good considering his siege of illness. . . . Paul Felling of Sauk Center, Minnesota took time out to drive down to Minneapolis for the day, calling on a few distributors.

Minneapolis was hit by another snow storm last Saturday, March 6th, but all main Highways were opened by Monday Morning and fairly safe for travel. We are still getting reports from our North Dakota operators that they are still snowed in and unable to take care of their routes.

With all this cold weather, Van Middlemas of Bismarck, North Dakota is getting his cabin ready to move into at Ottetail, Minnesota (what an optimist). . . . Dan Hazlewood of Aitkin, Minnesota, in town for a few days visiting several of the distributors. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrison of Crosby, Minnesota took time out to drive into Minneapolis to spend a few days with their relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kohnen of Winona, Minnesota drove into Minneapolis, March 5th to spend the weekend in Minneapolis just sort of vacationing. . . . Ralph Skinner of Glenwood, Minnesota visited Minneapolis—his first trip in the last six months. Ralph must be hibernating as it looks as if he put on about 25 pounds. . . . Snooks Harrison of the Howard Sales Company is a lucky individual having moved into his new home. . . . Harry Harrison of 4700 Beard Avenue South, Minneapolis, whose operations are thru Sebeka and Park Rapids, Minnesota braved last Saturday's snow storm to drive in and be with his family.

Lupe Buckley, popular Mrs. of Bob Buckley, Console Distributing Company, still relaxing in San Antonio, Texas. . . . Al Morgan, formerly with Crown Novelty Company, now managing Rex Novelty Company. . . . Needing additional space, New Orleans Novelty Company, rented two warehouses in the immediate vicinity of their main offices. . . . Jules Perez celebrated a birthday on March 12. Perez of J. A. Perez Distributing Company is having his offices renovated and remodelled. . . . Also getting ready for the expected rush of spring and summer business, New Orleans Coin Machine Exchange is another firm remodeling its offices and showrooms.

Jimmy Tallon claims he had a very rough football season—no wonder he's been working so hard lately. . . . O. C. Marshall became a year older on March 14, but don't look it. . . . Mike McNally visiting around the coin companies, bargaining here, saving a penny there and a penny here. . . . The newspaper ads of the Penny Arcade located on Canal Street created a great amount of favorable comment for their beauty and originality. We understand these ads were originated and drawn up by one of the staff of the New Orleans Novelty Company. . . . Gene Schaneville, head of the second floor renovating crew for New Orleans Novelty, claims that his boss keeps that floor cold just so his crew will have to work fast to keep warm.

Hilliard Bach and Abe Zion, who have been working on a Lord's Prayer machine for the past six months in the Penny Arcade, claim it is now ready for operation. The machine vends a penny with the Lord's prayer printed on it upon the insertion of a penny and dime. Bach saw a machine of this type in an arcade while on a visit to New York City, and decided he would make one himself. . . . Melvin Mallory is reported to be doing a big job with his music shop on Canal Street. Melvin is very popular here, as attested by the large number of coinmen always found in his shop buying equipment and supplies. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox seen making the rounds in the French Quarters.

Bob Buckley and Sam Tridico, Console Distributing Company, report exceptionally fine business with their Buckley products. . . . Louis Boasberg, New Orleans Novelty Company, is in Chicago. Before leaving, he reported that the firm was appointed as Bally Regional Distributors for the states of Louisiana and Mississippi. . . . New Orleans coinmen ask when Bill Gersh of The Cash Box will be making another trip to their city. They tempt him with a list of the wonderful dishes obtainable only in N. O., especially those Oysters Rockefeller. . . . Nick Carbajal, Crown Novelty Company, Inc., reports a very big business these days, especially in the used equipment department. Nick is getting many orders from companies thruout the country.
