If we had to choose the one greatest influence on American popular music in the last decade, we'd unhesitatingly single out the growth of country music—not only in the areas in which it originated, but also in places where until recently it had never been heard before.

Starting right after the end of World War II, country music came into its own because of a number of factors but mainly because soldiers who had never heard it before were suddenly exposed to it during their Army travels and found that they liked it. As a result the songs they listened to, requested and wrote afterwards were tinged with the country influence.

In the past several years, many of our greatest hits in the pop field came either directly or indirectly from country fields. And the center of this country phenomenon was Nashville.

Twenty-nine years ago in Nashville, there originated a program over WSM called Grand Ole Opry. In almost three decades of its existence, it focused the nation's attention on a type of music which had heretofore been regional. It created interest where before there had not even been a knowledge of its existence. And it brought to the forefront those great country artists and composers who have changed the face of popular music today and have contributed so heavily to American enjoyment.

As a result of this surge of music which has swept throughout the entire nation, there has developed a whole group of disk jockeys who devote themselves to playing just country music. These deejays are helping to bring the wealth of music that originates in the country field to radio listeners everywhere.

And now because the number of these disk jockeys has grown to such large proportions, they have decided to hold an annual convention in Nashville in conjunction with the anniversary of Grand Ole Opry.

Last year the first convention was held. And now we look forward to the second one which takes place November 18-20. It will also be Grand Ole Opry's 29th anniversary.

This year's convention will be even bigger than last year's. And as country music keeps growing and growing we can expect each succeeding year's meeting to grow also.

So today we have reached the point where country music is a major influence nationally. It no longer is limited to just one area but is enjoyed everywhere.

We at The Cash Box salute the country disk jockeys and WSM's Grand Ole Opry, both of whom have contributed so heavily to the nationwide acceptance of this music.

WRUL-New York (Worldwide Broadcasting System) proud as punch and taking bows in all directions because of the stir caused by Terri Stevens' 'Unsuspecting Heart' on Double AA Records. Seems Bob Singer, composer, first brought them a dub about three months ago, sung by Kitty Karr. The station asked for audience reaction after spinning it on the air. The broadcast went to 60 nations and the mails brought back responses from 10 English speaking nations. Thus encouraged, Bob Singer took the tune to Teddy Powell, Tee Pee Publishing Co., who arranged within the next four days for Double AA to cut it. WRUL obtained a special prior to release dub and put the new version on the air. This time, according to Joseph C. Beal, public service manager of the station, about twenty stations responded. Beal received inquiries from many of his affiliates asking where the juke box operators of these nations could buy the record.

Pic of the week—Mike Woloson (WNOR-Norfolk, Va.) spending many hours on the air. Mike does a morning show, 6:30 to 9:30; one hour on Sunday, 3:30 to 9:30 p.m. and a daily afternoon show, 12:30 to 3:30. . . . Bob McGonagle, announcer at Armed Forces Radio Service (N. Y.) bedded at Fort Jay, Governor's Island with glandular fever. . . . Bernie Miller promotion manager of popular records at RCA Victor tells us Joe Deane (KQV-Pittsburgh, Pa.) is all out on Ames Brothers "Naughty Lady of Shady Lane." For a good reason, Joe lives at 754 Shady Lane. . . . Fred Heckman (WCRS-Greenwood, S. C.) being kept very busy these days. Fred just finished doing the lead in a Greenwood Little Theater production and is teaching a class in radio at Lander College. . . . Mike Cassone of M & C Music is flipping his lid. His "Believe It or Not" by the Stylers on Jubilee is happening in Philadelphia and other spots. Mike also has the Stylers' "The World Is Yours" and Dorothy Forbes' Jubilee "Where," written by Dorothy's hubby Scott Forbes. . . . Barry Kaye (WJAS-Pittsburgh, Pa.) reports his weekend trip to New York with more than 750 fans was tremendously successful. Stars Johnnie Ray, Betty Madigan, Patti Page, Vaughn Monroe, Bob Stewart and others were on hand to greet the young tourists.

MIKE WOLOSON
(WNOR—Norfolk, Va.)

Don Bruchey (WWIN-Baltimore, Md.) sold on Archie Bleyer. Archie dropped by not long ago, and when he left he had so impressed Bruchey that Don nominates him for "Mr. Real Nice Guy." . . . Ken Johnson now at (WEAT-Lake Worth, Fla.) Studio will be in the Hotel Pennsylvania, West Palm Beach by Christmas. . . . Bill Stewart (KELP-El Paso, Texas) played the Spike Jones 'Japanese Skokian' for three solid hours. Switchboard was jammed with calls. . . . Jerry Nesler (KANI-Hawaii) writes to tell us pops very big there. Also rhythm and blues catching on strong. Hawaiian music? Oh that's only for the tourists. . . . Tommy Riggs (WCAE-Pittsburgh, Pa.), of Betty Lou fame, who is currently holding down the 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. slot is gathering a larger and larger audience and is rapidly becoming one of the important men in town.

RECORD REVIEWS

ⓐ DISK & SLEEPER	ⓐ GOOD
ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓑ FAIR
ⓒ VERY GOOD	ⓒ MEDIOCRE

TONY PUSKARZ
(Musica 108; 45-108)

ⓐ "JAHINA POLKA"—Tony Puskarz and his Diplomats bounce through a lively polka ditty. Good Polish instrumental that should do well in the right spots.

ⓐ "COFFEE AND CAKE POLKA" [—Taft] More of the same lively, happy-go-lucky material is presented by the group. Tunes are excellently engineered. Clear and vibrant sound.

THE PENNSYLVANIANS GLEE CLUB
(Decca 29304; 9-29304)

ⓐ "RESTLESS HEART" (2:33) [Chappell ASCAP—Rome] Fred Warings Pennsylvanians Glee Club and Orchestra present a fast moving arrangement of one of the beautiful songs from the new hit musical "Fanny." Full sound.

ⓐ "FANNY" (3:04) [Chappell ASCAP—Rome] On this end, the chorus presents a warm rendition of the title tune of the hit play. Lovely number.

AL MARTINO
(Capitol 2982; F-2982)

ⓑ "THE STORY OF TINA" (2:52) [Peter Maurice ASCAP—Katrivanou, Hassall] Al Martino has a good piece of material to work with on this end, and he hands in a strong performance. Chorus assists.

ⓑ "SAY IT AGAIN" (2:30) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—Torme] Dennis Farnon conducts the ork on this end as Al offers a big reading on a lovely new ballad. He belts this one with a load of feeling and expression.

DAVE DAY

ⓑ "DROP DEAD!" [—Rawe, Day] Dave Day bows on the Bigelow label with a real wild jump-novelty that's loaded with color. A real belted job with a big Al Marsico orking. Should make noise.

ⓐ "TRUE" (2:37) [—McKaren] The versatile performer hands in another good reading as he fashions a warm romantic ballad. Sounds a bit like Tony Bennett. Good tune, too.

RONNIE HILTON
(RCA Victor 20-5921; 45-5921)

ⓑ "I LIVE FOR YOU" (2:11) [Chappell ASCAP—Sigman, Trenet, Eiger] The Peter Knight Singers and Frank Cordell's ork set up a big backdrop for Ronnie Hilton's debut on Victor. Pretty tune and delivery. Lad has a good voice.

ⓐ "I STILL BELIEVE" (2:33) [Macmelodies—Reid] The crooner hands in another polished performance on this romantic tune. Songster has that necessary professional touch.

THE CASE BOX DISK OF THE WEEK

"MY PRETTY SHOO-GAH" (2:48)
[Ross Jungnickel ASCAP—Drake, Shirl, Gedarro]

"FUNNY THING" (2:58)
[United ASCAP—Sigman, Williams]

TONY BENNETT
(Columbia 40376; 4-40376)

TONY BENNETT

● Tony Bennett who had a real big 1954, has in his latest release a strong two-sider that should get him off to a tremendous start in '55. One side is a terrific rhumba beat novelty called "My Pretty Shoo-Gah." And Tony does a superb job with it. The lyrics and delivery spell hit from start to finish, and the pretty melody is simple and can easily be remembered. The songster's fans will get a big kick out of this one. The coupling is one of those beautiful ballads that Tony handles with such finesse. It's a piece of top drawer material dubbed "Funny Thing." An excellent coupling for maximum results. You'll probably be seeing both tunes on the charts.

"ALL I WANNA DO" (1:55)
[Meridian BMI—Perry]

"THE BARKING DOG" 2:18)
[Bourne ASCAP—Stillman, Chabrier]

CREWCUTS
(Mercury 70490; 70490 x 45)

CREWCUTS

● The Crewcuts, who in less than a year rose from obscurity to the top of the ladder on a tune called "Sh-Boom," now offer their follow-up to that number one hit. Although neither side has the gimmicks that made "Sh-Boom" such a success, the boys' winning style, their current popularity and a couple of good tunes should result in healthy sales. One deck is of the jump-rhythm variety and goes under the title of "All I Wanna Do." It's a solid side that moves. The jitterbugs will keep the boxes jumping with this one. A polished performance by the quartet. Flip is a cute little waltz tempo novelty called "The Barking Dog." It's a delightful lilter handled in colorful fashion. The Crewcuts are here to stay and we can expect big things from them in the future.

"HOLD ME IN YOUR ARMS" (2:42)
[Artists ASCAP—Heindorf, Henderson, Pippin]

"READY, WILLING AND ABLE" (2:25)
[Daywin BMI—Binker, Huddleston, Gleason]

DORIS DAY
(Columbia 40371; 4-40371)

DORIS DAY

● Doris Day, who had a tremendous year with her version of "Secret Love" and the current favorite "If I Give My Heart To

You," comes up with a new coupling that should do a bang-up job over the counters and on the boxes. One tune is a beautiful ballad called "Hold Me In Your Arms" from the forthcoming flicker "Young At Heart" in which she co-stars with Frank Sinatra. Doris presents the tune in her warm, sincere fashion as a chorus and Percy Faith's ork assist. Ops and dealers all know what the flick can do in promoting this tune. A winning ballad from start to finish. "Ready, Willing and Able" is the cute bouncer on the coupling. It's a lively deck with a clever set of lyrics. Buddy Cole and the crew offer some solid support. We look for the top half to win out in the long run.

LES ELGART ORCH.
(Columbia 40383; 4-40383)

ⓑ "DON'T LET THE KIDDY GEDDIN" [Sherwin ASCAP—Skylar Ackers, Dickinson] The Les Elgart crew rides through a terrific choral and ork arrangement of a cute ditty that's been making some noise. Les has a great ork and sound.

ⓐ "MISTER SANDMAN" [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Ballard] On this side, Les and the chorus cruise through a new tune that's headed for the top. Simple delivery a bit too late to catch up to the leader.

Laurie Anders

ⓑ+ "SURE FIRE KISSES" (2:36) [Hometown ASCAP—Mysels Philips, Simms, Perry] Laurie Anders, the "wide open spaces" gal, comes up with a socko vocal effort on a catchy novelty that promises big results. Real cornball reading with a chorus assisting. Good hopper.

ⓐ "T FOR TEXAS" (2:45) [Peer Inter'l BMI—Rodgers, Thorn] A bluesy rhythm item is bounced through on this end.

MERRY SOUTH
(Favorite 21007X)

ⓐ "I WANT YOU ALL TO MYSELF" (2:40) [Skidmore ASCAP—Koch, Carroll] The low-priced Favorite line sends up a smooth version of a pop tune that's bidding for the top of the ladder. Pretty job.

ⓐ "IF I GIVE MY HEART TO YOU" (2:45) [Miller ASCAP—Crane, Jacobs, Brewster] On this end, Merry South and a male group deliver a cover disk on one of the nation's tops. Thrush can sing well.

SANDY SOLO
(Jubilee 5173; 45-5173)

ⓑ "A LOVE I CAN CALL MY OWN" (2:49) [Wemar BMI—Reid, Coleman] The wonderful voice of Sandy Solo sounds terrific on this side as he fashions an inviting romantic ballad. Artist has feeling in his voice. Could step out.

ⓑ "MR. RAINBOW" (2:08) [Embassy BMI—Blossner, Hollander] The songster lilts through a tender ballad featuring a good Sid Bass orking. Sandy sounds good on both ends. Good coupling.

JANE MORGAN
(Kapp 107; 45-107)

ⓑ+ "WHY" [—Burello, Murray] Jane Morgan gets hold of a wonderful inspirational ballad that could do big things. It's a stirring rendition of a song that could head way up there if it gets a big start. Thrush sounds great. Chorus assists.

ⓐ "THE HEART YOU BREAK" [—Hilliard, DeLugg] Joe Reisman sets up a good backdrop for Jane's jump version of a clever ditty. A potent delivery that makes this a strong coupling.

THE CASH BOX ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

NEW YORK:

In a survey recently completed by King Records, it was disclosed the 45 rpm is making speedy headway at radio stations. 1,000 stations were questioned and 75% answered. Only 104 of those answering wanted to receive 78 rpm disks, and of that 104, 75 wanted to be serviced with 78s only until January 1st when they will be equipped to handle 45s. . . . The number one and two songs on the Hit Parade currently are "If I Give My Heart To You" and "I Need You Now." Both were written by the same composers, Jimmie Crane and Al Jacobs. And both are published by Miller Music. . . . Singer Ford Lile and Bill Davis are setting up a new indie label, Shield Records. First album will be "Dinner Alone" with Ford Lile featured. . . . Bill Farrell promoting his first Mercury disk, "Runaround" and "Booten Baby" with appearances in Milwaukee and Chicago. . . . Mitch Miller planning to team up Marlene Dietrich and Frankie Laine on a tune called "Prunes" written by comedian Jackie Kannon. . . . Erroll Garner due into Basin Street November 16 where he will share billing with Woody Herman. . . . Charlotte Lord (former girl Friday to Bill Silbert) surprised the industry by taking out the marriage license and flying with her groom to California. . . . Al Morgan and family (three kids and wife) moved from their Chicago home to a new spot in California. Al planning a TV show to emanate from there. . . . David Whitfield about to arrive in the U. S. for a guest shot on the Ed Sullivan show. . . . Sammy Kaye begins a tour of one-nighters on November 12, his first date scheduled for the Castle Farms in Cincinnati, Ohio.

FRANKIE LAINE

to California. . . . Al Morgan and family (three kids and wife) moved from their Chicago home to a new spot in California. Al planning a TV show to emanate from there. . . . David Whitfield about to arrive in the U. S. for a guest shot on the Ed Sullivan show. . . . Sammy Kaye begins a tour of one-nighters on November 12, his first date scheduled for the Castle Farms in Cincinnati, Ohio.

CHICAGO:

Mercury's Nick Noble about to embark upon an eastern promotional tour which will take him to Boston, Philly, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, and several other cities, and will give Nick a chance to meet many, many music guys and gals for the very first time. As predicted here last week, both his disk, "My Own True Love" and "Please Don't Break My Heart" and Johnny Desmond's Coral coupling of "My Own True Love" b/w "The Song From Desiree" are getting lots of air play. . . . Speaking of Johnny Desmond, we want to thank him for all the nice things he's constantly saying about The Cash Box on his Saturday afternoon "Recording Hop." . . . The new Roy Hamilton Epic waxing of "Hurt" b/w "Star Of Love" reportedly expected to go pop. . . . Helen Grayco and Spike Jones and the "Musical Depreciation Review" played a concert just outside of Chicago this past Sunday (11/7). Helen's "X" recording of "Teach Me Tonight" b/w "Oop Shoop" really moving, while Spike's "Japanese Skokiaan" called one of his best efforts to date. . . . Lots of visitors in town this week: Don Cherry in to plug his "Country Boy." . . . Jaye P. Morgan promoting her first Victor sides, "That's All I Want From You" b/w "Dawn." . . . Georgie Shaw doing the Howard Miller TV show for the next two weeks. The Three Chuckles visiting dee-jays who've helped them with their "Runaround." Report they'll be opening at our town's Preview Lounge 12/8. . . . Rusty Draper, currently appearing at Fazio's in nearby Milwaukee, paid the Windy City a fast visit on his day off. . . . Many agree that June Valli's "Wrong, Wrong, Wrong," b/w "Ole Pappy Time" should be a sure click. . . . Ted Lewis a real favorite hereabout, currently starring at the Edgewater Beach Hotel's Marine Dining Room, for his first Chicago appearance in a long, long time. And Ted, of course, doing his usual fine job, making 'everybody happy'.

THREE CHUCKLES

HOLLYWOOD:

Looks like the mambo is here to stay. Our favorite Christmas tunes won't even be the same this year. Oh yes, the words and melody will still be there but it will be all dressed up with an infectious latin beat. Already released is Billy May's "Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer-Mambo," Jimmy Boyd's "I Saw Mommy Do The Mambo," and "We Wanna See Santa Do The Mambo" with Bill Darnell and The Smith Bros. . . . The Hi-Lo's, former Trend recording artists, have signed with Starlite Records. Their first release on the new label will be an LP of old standards. Starlite is distributed by National Music Sales Corp. . . . The Lancers spent a couple of days in town between engagements visiting deejays and plugging "Mr. Sandman" on Coral. They open at N. Y. Copacabana 11/18. While in LA they also cut several sides for Coral. . . . MGM execs were so pleased with Rush Adams' "It Was So Beautiful" that they have decided to bill him as the "Voice of Gold" and give him the number one tune from the Broadway show "Silk Stockings" titled "All Of You." MGM has purchased the movie rights to the musical and there's a good chance that Rush will sing "All Of You" in the movie. . . . Lovely Heidi Christian, former CBS staff vocalist in Chicago, is now residing in California. She hopes to find work in TV or radio and sign a record pact with some local diskery. After hearing dubs of her voice I'd say she could be a great recording artist if given a chance. . . . Publicist Larry Green, the ex-Chicagoan who couldn't resist our sunny climate, leaves on a promotion junket Dec. 1st thru the Midwest. Larry informs us that he is now handling The Lancers, Jimmy Wakely and The Three Rays. . . . Songstress Eileen Barton is currently packing in the crowds at Charlie Morrison's Mocambo on the Sunset Strip. . . . Mambo king, Perez Prado closed at the Hollywood Crescendo 11/7 to be followed by George Shearing 11/12 to 11/24. . . . Jerry Gray and his orchestra, whose Decca waxing of "Ooh And Ah Mambo" b/w "Kettle Drum Hop" is said to be his best yet, opened at the Hollywood Palladium Nov. 9th. . . . ALL OF US IN THE POP MUSIC FIELD WISH TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SALUTE WSM'S GRAND OLE OPRY ON THEIR 29th ANNIVERSARY. THANKS FOR GIVING US SO MANY HITS.

ART MOONEY ORCH.
(MGM 11871; K-11871)

C+ "BIG BOY BLUE" (2:45) [Random ASCAP—Watts, Bohme, Fascinato] With Elaine Rodgers on the vocal, Art Mooney and the crew ease through a light and cute novelty that should please the teen-agers.

C+ "BIP BAM" (2:50) [Progressive BMI—Calhoun] On this end the chorus and Art jump through a tune originally waxed in the R & B market. So'id side with a good beat for dancing.

BOB CREWE
(Jubilee 5164; 56-5164)

B+ "IT'S ALL OVER" (2:49) [Jefferson ASCAP—Slay, Davis] Bob Crewe dishes up a lovely piece of romantic material in his warm fashion. The Cheerleaders and Ralph Burns ork assist. Disk could click.

C+ "PUNCH" (1:15) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Gimbel] This end features the songster on a march-tempo novelty with a load of zest. Good teaming of sides for maximum results.

TED HEATH ORCH.
(London 1418; 45-1418)

B "JITTERBUG WALTZ" (2:30) [Robbins ASCAP—Waller, Manners, Grean] The big Ted Heath band comes up with an interesting waltz beat arrangement of a popular Fats Waller theme. Most requested side from Tad's London Suite LP. Beautiful job.

C+ "ALLIGATOR CRAWL" (2:16) [Mayfair ASCAP—Waller, Razef, Davis] This side is a terrific jump orking of another Waller tune. Great dance material for the lindy-bugs.

SHIRLEY HARMER
(MGM 11875; K11875)

B "A PAIR OF BLUE EYES" (3:02) [Movietone ASCAP—Kernell] Shirley Harmer gets a lush LeRoy Holmes backing as she tenderly renders a lovely ballad from the coming flicker "Song O' My Heart." Lovely job that could catch on.

C+ "MEET ME HALFWAY" (3:00) [Lion ASCAP—Koy] On this end, the chirp dishes up some more lovely romance music in her warm, inviting manner. Pretty voice and delivery.

MILT GREEN & BEN JAFFE/ SATISFIERS
(Rainbow 270; 45-270)

C+ "RICKETY TICKETY MELODY" [Milford ASCAP—Lowe, White, Wolfson] Milt "Knuckles" Green and Ben "Pedal" Jaffe bounce through a catchy, cornball instrumental full of color. Sam Levine handles the trombone. Good tavern material.

B "RICKETY TICKETY MELODY" [Milford ASCAP—Lowe, White, Wolfson] Milt and Ben use their keyboard artistry as a backdrop for the Satisfiers' vocal rendition of the same tune on this end. Has that wonderful old fashioned sound. Could step out.

THE CASH BOX SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"MAJORCA"
[Eastwick BMI—]
"NEAPOLITAN NIGHTS MAMBO"
[Sam Fox ASCAP]
MONTY KELLY ORCH.
(Essex 375; 45-375)

MONTY KELLY

● About two years ago, the music business witnessed a trend toward lush instrumental music with songs such as "Limelight,"

"April In Portugal," "Ebb Tide," "Delicado," etc. Monty Kelly had his finger in the pie with "Tropicana." Since that time, instrumental hits have been few and far apart. But a new one has just been released which has all the earmarks of those precious few. It's a melodic, easy flowing number called "Majorca" and features the Monty Kelly Orchestra at its best. The arrangement is out of this world and is beautifully executed. The song has a Latin flare and is reminiscent of "April In Portugal." Can't miss be'ng the next big hit in this field. Flip is a lush string-filled presentation of a mambo number called "Neapolitan Nights Mambo." We'll bank on the top half's soaring way up there.

"ON THE ALAMO" (2:20)
[Forster ASCAP—Kahn, Jones]
"ECHO POLKA" (1:52)
[Meridian BMI—Petty]
NORMAN PETTY TRIO
(“X”-0071; 4X-0071)

NORMAN PETTY TRIO

● The "X" label and the Norman Petty Trio blossomed into hit organizations at the same time. Now that both the label and the trio have established themselves as hit makers, Norm Petty and the crew offer their latest release. After clicking with the standard "Mood Indigo" the crew gets hold of another great oldie and sends it across in winning fashion. It's the lovely favorite "On The Alamo," handled in the same distinctive manner as their first hit platter. The Petty trio has a sound all its own that should be around for a long time to come. Flip, "Echo Polka," is a lighthearted polka ditty presented instrumentally by the artists. We'll put our chips on the top deck. It should be a big one.

THE CASH BOX BEST BETS

In the opinion of The Cash Box music staff, records listed below, in addition to the "Disk" and "Sleeper" Of The Week, are those most likely to achieve popularity.

- | | | |
|-----------------------|----------------|-----------------------|
| ★ "SONG FROM DESIREE" | Johnny Desmond | Coral 61301; 9-61301 |
| ★ "SONG FROM DESIREE" | Joe Leahy | Major 133; 45-133 |
| ★ "WHY" | Jane Morgan | Kapp 107; 45-107 |
| ★ "IT'S ALL OVER" | Bob Crewe | Jubilee 5164; 45-5164 |

MARY McCOY
(Green Label 22185; 45-22185)

B "KISS ME, KISS ME, KISS ME" (2:50) [Republic BMI—Sokoler, LoPinto] Mary McCoy makes a strong showing on her wax debut as she lilts through a cute love song. Organ backing is effective. Good side.

C+ "DEAR DIARY" (2:50) [Republic BMI—Martin, Kaye, Merrill, Merrill] The warm voiced thrush does another smooth job as she sings romantically to her diary.

BILLY FARRELL
(Mercury 70474; 70474 x 45)

B+ "RUNAROUND" (3:04) [Arc BMI—Colocrai] Billy Farrell gets a fine assist from the Jack Halioran Singers and David Carroll's ork as he renders a beautiful ballad that's breaking into the h't class. A polished version that should take a good share of the coin.

C+ "BOOTEN BABY" (2:08) [Mills ASCAP—Cordell, Wolfson, White] Billy leads again as the whole gang bounces through a zany and cute novelty.

JOHNNY DESMOND
(Coral 61301; 9-61301)

B+ "THE SONG FROM DESIREE" (2:24) [Miller ASCAP—Newman, Darby] The title tune from "Desiree" is sung with meaning and expression by the smooth and inviting voice of Johnny Desmond. A melodic waltz that could go way up there. Johnny's version is one of the best.

B "MY OWN TRUE LOVE" (2:54) [Remick ASCAP—Steiner, David] The lovely "Tara's Theme" from "Gone With The Wind" has lyrics set to it and is vocalled by Johnny. Lovely melody that's hitting again.

CARMEN McRAE
(Decca 29324; 9-29324)

B+ "IF I'M LUCKY" (3:00) [Thornwood BMI—Girard, Darwin] Carmen McRae makes an impressive debut on the Decca label with a polished vocal job on a beautiful new ballad as Jack Pleis assists. Professional throughout. Could click.

B "OOH" (2:16) [Dart BMI—Rogers, Fields] The Dave Lambert Singers join the thrush on this end as she rhythms through a good jumper. Versatile performer that should have no trouble making the grade.

RUSTY DRAPER
(Mercury 70481; 70481 x 45)

B+ "I GOT A HOLE IN MY SOLE" (2:04) [Frank ASCAP—Gilbert, Rotella] Rusty Draper teams up with the Laurie Sisters on a cute shuffle beat novelty that could click. Clever delivery with a good vocal gimmick. Watch this one.

B "WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE" (2:15) [Miller ASCAP—Pola, David, Carr] Another cutie, this one a waltz novelty, is handled with style by the crew. Happy ditty. Girls sound much like the Andrews Sisters.

Las Vegas Nites

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA—This boom town's most outstanding nighttime attractions are the various clubs located along the "Strip" as well as in the town itself. These have become the mecca of all tourists for the fabulous entertainment they offer at extremely reasonable prices.

THUNDERBIRD—Ella Logan back again and doing a terrific job backed by Don Tannen and the Catron Brothers. All the way through this is a lively and entertaining show.

DESERT INN—The big show on the strip. Featuring Betty Hutton in a Lottie Brunn, Donn Arden production. Betty tops them all. Her show's jammed night after night with the SRO sign up long before showtime.

FLAMINGO HOTEL—Ben Blue, Debra Paget, Les Brown and his Band of Reknown, fill the evening with interesting entertainment. Stubby Brown (Les' brother) practically steals the scenes. All around grand show with Ben a bit more subdued. Debra's grand.

SILVER SLIPPER—For the lovers of risqué humor 'way over the line, but a laff a second, and some of the very grandest oldstyle burlesque entertainment ever. Don't miss Hank Henry, Buddy Baer, 'The Golden Mermaid,' Jacqueline Fontaine and Jean Valli. A truly terrific show.

SHOWBOAT—Another top entertainment spot not to miss. Features the "Minsky Folies of 1955." Comedian Maxie Furman, The Pinottes skating act, Joe Kirchen, production singer, Arua & Mickey in a specialty dance. Bobby Clark, Ilona Adams, the Dorothy Dorben dancers and, best of all, the Sing Lee Sing Family, who walk off with the show.

EL CORTEZ HOTEL—Downtown Las Vegas has its own great club with Sherman Hayes ork backgrounding such grand entertainers as Herkie Styles and so many, many others. Don't miss this spot.

GOLDEN NUGGET—Also downtown Vegas and continues with its great "Gas Lights & Pink Tights," starring Charlie Aaron and featuring Rita Marlow along with Denny & Cameron. The place to hiss the villain and cheer the heroine. It's a bit of grand old nostalgia.

EL RANCHO VEGAS—Lillian Roth, Lili St. Cyr, Jackie Kannon and Steve Gibson's Red Caps with Ginöer and her violin put on a grand show. This is one that all are rushing to see. Bert McGuire informs that Lillian's new disk will be given great lift as her new book, "I'll Cry Tomorrow," gets around the nation.

LAST FRONTIER—Ed Wynn, 4 Step Brothers, Dagenham Girl Pipers, June Roselle and Gerwood Van's Ork. all build into fine entertainment for those who love Ed's great humor and the dancing Step Brothers.

SANDS HOTEL—Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy with the Clark Bros. and backgrounded by Antonio Morelli and his ork. A great show all the way through with Peter's humor somewhat refined and subtle for the Vegas' crowds.

POPULAR

THE HILLTOPPERS—Dot DLP-106 (10" LP) List: $3.00

FRIVOLETE; TORMENTED; WITHOUT YOU; CAN'T WE TRY AGAIN; GLAD, GLAD, GLAD; MY ANN; STORMY NIGHT; ABOUT A QUARTER TO NINE.

One of the nation's top vocal groups, the Hilltoppers, come up with a real big treat for their many record fans with this, their latest LP. The ten-incher features the quartet with Jimmy Sacca in the lead, singing eight tunes never before released by the diskery. Most of the numbers are new songs. A good collection of romantic items. Should be a big selling album for the boys. They do a great job on the standard "About A Quarter To Nine." Should do big things as a single. With their current popularity so high, the Hilltoppers can't miss cashing in on this LP.

Presenting FRANK CHACKSFIELD and his Orchestra—London LL-1041 (12" LP) List: $5.95

THEME FROM "LIMELIGHT"; LIMELIGHT INCIDENTAL MUSIC; A GIRL CALLED LINDA; GOLDEN VIOLINS; HIGH FEATHER; GLORIOUS; EBB TIDE; WALTZING BUGLE BOY; GOLDEN TANGO; SONG OF CANTERBURY; DANCING PRINCESS; THE PIED PIPER.

In 1953 two beautiful orchestral works, "Terry's Theme from 'Limelight'" and "Ebb Tide" brought to national prominence the Frank Chacksfield orchestra, an orchestra which today ranks with the best in the "Lush Pop Music" category. His fabulous string-filled arrangements were beautiful as well as commercial. Earlier this year, Chacksfield did a big job with his "Evening In Paris" LP. Now diskery issues another 12 incher which includes the two tunes that brought him fame, Plus ten other melodies, many of which were previously released as singles. The orchestrations are truly outstanding and should sell strongly in all markets. The many people who discovered Chacksfield later in his recording career, will definitely want this package.

"SAX IN SILK"—Bobby Dukoff his Tenor Sax and Orchestra with the Ray Charles Chorus—Arrangements by Charlie Shirley—RCA Victor LPM-1040 (12" LP) List: $4.19

LET'S DO IT; I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANYTHING BUT LOVE; MY MELANCHOLY BABY; BODY AND SOUL; IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN; DO I WORRY?; KEEP COOL; YOU TAUGHT ME TO LOVE AGAIN; YOU'VE CHANGED; MAKIN' WHOOPIE; IN THE SHADE OF THE OLD APPLE TREE; I GOTTA RIGHT TO SING THE BLUES.

In the past year, record companies have begun to realize that mood music is one of the biggest items in packaged goods. In keeping with this trend, every company has issued dozens of mood music LPs. The only trouble with this move is that they all sound alike. They're all of the lush, big-string-section type. Victor now comes up with a different type of mood music LP—mood music with jazz overtones. This beautiful platter features the ace tenor sax artistry of Bobby Dukoff assisted by five other saxophones, a rhythm section and the voices of the Ray Charles Chorus. Eleven of the twelve tunes are standards, the last one being an original by the arranger of all the renditions, Charlie Shirley. Great dance music, great background music, and tops for a romantic setting. Deejays will love this for programming in the wee hours of the morning. Bobby plays a terrific sax. The instruments and voices blend beautifully. Pop and jazz enthusiasts will get a kick out of this platter.

KAY THOMPSON—MGM-3146 (12" LP) List: $4.85

IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH ME; BLUE MOON; HOW DEEP IS THE OCEAN; I HADN'T ANYONE TILL YOU; QUEL JOIE; MYRTLE; BASIN STREET BLUES; MOONGLOW; I MUST HAVE THAT MAN; POOR SUZETTE; KATIE'S BLUES; VIOLINS.

Kay Thompson is one of the top names in the night club entertainment field and justly so, because she is one of the most versatile, unique and talented performers in the field today. She's a great song stylist, an exciting performer, a wonderful dancer and a top comedienne. It's a talent which comes only from years of experience. Since Kay is such a vibrant performer when one sees her, one can expect a great deal of this excitement to be lost on records. However, on this LP, MGM does a terrific job of bringing out a sufficient quantity of the thrush's personality to result in forty minutes of top entertainment. Kay has a large following that'll buy up this disk in no time flat.

"THAT 'PARIS' MOOD"—Jackie Paris—with Charlie Shavers on Trumpet—Coral CRL 56118 (10" LP) List: $3.00

YOU'RE MINE YOU; WE'LL BE TOGETHER AGAIN; WHO CAN I TURN TO?; A COTTAGE FOR SALE; MORE THAN YOU KNOW; DETOUR AHEAD; THE THINGS WE DID LAST SUMMER; I'M THROUGH WITH LOVE.

In the short span of time since he started recording for Coral, Jackie Paris has become a musician's singer. His wistful style, his warm voice and easy going manner of delivery, classify him as a songster whose artistry stands out above the rest of the pack. The Paris mood is a romantic mood. On this platter, Jackie fashions a number of favorite standards, with Charlie Shavers assisting on the trumpet, and he makes a strong showing, indeed. Crooner is sure to get that big one in the near future. He's got the qualities to make the grade. This LP faces the usual newcomer limitations.

"MERENGUES" (Vol. 1 and Vol. 2) Ansonia ALP One and Two—(1-10" L.P. each) List: $3.85 each.

PLAYED BY ANGEL VILORIA AND HIS CONJUNTO TIPICO CIBAENO.

Ansonia introduces on long play first of a projected series of "Merengues," folk music of the Dominican Republic, which has been making a dent in the Spanish American market. These particular two are fare for the authentic market with perhaps a spillover to the resort crowds of Miami and the Catskill Mountains who are always the first to pick up the new Latin rhythms.

CLASSICAL

HIGHLIGHTS FROM VERDI'S RIGOLETTO—Cetra A 50166 (1-12" L.P.) List: $5.95

HIGHLIGHTS FROM VERDI'S LA TRAVIATA—Cetra A 50167 (1-12" L.P.) List: $5.95

Cetra releases digest versions of their complete operas, Rigoletto and La Traviata, reviewed recently in this column. The familiar arias of both operas are performed by the stars of the full length versions: Ferruccio Tagliavini, Lina Pagliughi and Giuseppe Taddei in "Rigoletto" and Maria Callas, Francesco Albanese and Ugo Savarese in "La Traviata." For economy reasons and for those who prefer only the melodic highlights, these LPs are perfect. Beautifully performed. A prize for any library.

FERENC FRICSAY conducts BARTOK—Decca DL 9748 (1-12" L.P.) List: $5.85
DIVERTIMENTO FOR STRING ORCHESTRA. TWO PORTRAITS, OP. 5 THE RIAS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, BERLIN.

Two of the lesser known Bartok pieces, although "Divertimento" has had several recordings, are presented by Decca. Ferenc Fricsay is a happy choice as conductor as the Hungarian born director studied under the composer and would therefore be apt to understand Bartok's desires, aims and intents. Bartok, in "Divertimento," is a variety of moods, serious and light hearted. "Two Portraits" is very much in the same vein expertly performed.

JAZZ

"GONE WITH GARNER"—Erroll Garner—EmArcy MG 26042 (1-10" L.P.) List: $3.00

FRATERNALITY; I'VE GOT YOU UNDER MY SKIN; HIGH OCTANE; DON'T BLAME ME; BOUNCING WITH ME; FULL MOON AND EMPTY ARMS; IF I LOVED YOU.

The Garner piano is portrayed to its fullest in this album. We hear Garner stride rhythmically and we relax to his tender, dreamy interpretations. Which ever it is, Garner is alive, vital and melodic. It is the type of pianistic fingering understood not only by the hep but the square listener as well. A modernistic cover showing Erroll "going" will help attract eyes to his album. Should sell well.

"X" VAULT ORIGINALS—Sidney Bechet—"X" LVA 3024; The Washboard Rhythm Kings—"X" LVA-3021; Earl Hines piano solos—"X" LVA-3023—(1-10" L.P. each) Price: $3.85 each.

"WASHBOARD"—TIGER RAG; HUMMIN' TO MYSELF; MY SILENT LOVE; SHOOT 'EM; I'M GONNA PLAY DOWN BY THE OHIO; UNDERNEATH THE HARLEM MOON; ASH MAN CRAWL; PEPPER STEAK.

"HINES"—GLAD RAG DOLL #1; GLAD RAG DOLL #2; CHILD OF A DISORDERED BRAIN; BODY AND SOUL; ROSETTA; MY MELANCHOLY BABY; ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF THE STREET #1; ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF THE STREET #2.

"BECHE"—ONE O'CLOCK JUMP; PREACHIN' BLUES; SIDNEY'S BLUES; INDIAN SUMMER; OLD MAN BLUES; WILD MAN BLUES; SHAKE IT AND BREAK IT; NOBODY KNOWS THE WAY I FEEL THIS MORNIN'.

"X" releases three more in its Vault Originals series, this issue featuring the immortal Sidney Bechet, and Earl Hines and the Washboard Rhythm Kings. The latter group lives up to its billing, etching some of the wildest jazz. None of the sidemen listed are two well known (in fact are not known at all to the reviewer) but the music is exciting and good listening. Historically important is the building of the band around the washboard, which substitutes for drums on these recordings. Sidney Bechet is one of the legendary names of early New Orleans jazz. Sidney started so young his older brother used to accompany him to dates and bring him home. He also accompanied him to school in those days as the young and brilliant clarinet star thought school a waste of time when he could be out working with his horns. Bechet is still very active and so he gives the impression of going on forever. No history of jazz is complete without Bechet and so the "X" series includes with this album a very necessary adjunct to its collectors releases. The Earl Hines piano solos bring to the collector the man who exerted a tremendous influence on jazz piano. Hines has affected the playing of most of the top jazz pianists of today and to repeat, no jazz collection is complete without the pianistic genius of Hines.

"GUITAR IN THE NIGHT"—Earl Backus—Epic LG 1015 (1-10" L.P.) List: $3.00

PICKIN' IN THE ROUGH; ON THE TRAIL; IN THE STILL OF THE NIGHT; TWILIGHT ON THE TRAIL; TIPICA SERENADA; I'M THRU WITH LOVE; EASY MELODY; BABY-O, BABY-O.

Earl Backus, heard on many records as guitar accompanist, fronts his own aggregation on this album. Backus picks an assortment of easy to take tunes and sugars them further with sweet, singing guitar tones. Pretty and restful thirty minutes of entertainment.

B'WAY SHOW

"THE BOY FRIEND"—An Original Cast Recording of the current Broadway success—Music and Lyrics by Sandy Wilson—RCA Victor LOC-1018 (12" LP) List: $5.72

"The Boy Friend," a musical comedy of the 1920's, is a British play which had enjoyed a fabulous success in London up until this year. American producers Feuer and Martin heard about this show's popularity, and brought it to the U.S. with most of the original cast. Now at the Royale Theatre on Broadway, "The Boy Friend" is one of the biggest musicals of the current season, having received raves from all the critics. This original cast recording should be a big seller. The music has all the charm and color of the "roaring" twenties. It's full of life and excitement. Folks who see the show will find this a must.

SPECIAL MATERIAL

JOSE GRECO—"Ballet" Decca DL 9757 (1-12" L.P.) List: $5.85

"Danzas Flamencas"—Decca DL 9758 (1-12" L.P.) List: $5.85

The fabulous feet of Jose Greco are captured on two new Decca albums. Greco, who fills the air with excitement and poetry thru the medium of his dancing overcomes the obstacle of losing the visual medium by the magic of his artistry. He is assisted by vocal, instrumental and castanet accompaniment. However it is Greco who fires the imagination and sells the albums. Where Greco is absent the music takes on an authentic Spanish flavor that might appeal more to the Spanish speaking market, but when Greco talks with his nimble feet his message is carried to all buying markets who have been exposed to the exciting dancer.

KITTY KALLEN
 (Decca 29315; 45-29315)

KITTY KALLEN

● Kitty Kallen who rose to the top of the ladder this year with two tremendous pop hits, now bids for a big Christmas smash with a beautiful, touching tune called "The Spirit of Christmas." It's a lovely, tender item which is additionally beautified by Kitty's warm and sincere voice. The song is also the Official Christmas Seal song of 1954. A personal introduction on a separate record is being sent to deejays. "Baby Brother" on the flip side, is a cute Yuletide ditty expertly handled by the thrush. Strong coupling that has big possibilities.

"SANTO NATALE" (2:51)
 [Spier ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning, Nardone]

"ADESTE FIDELES" (1:57)
 [Traditional]

DAVID WHITFIELD
 (London 1508; 45-1508)

DAVID WHITFIELD

● David Whitfield, the big tenor voice from England, who established himself in this country with his current, high-flying "Cara Mia," comes up with a beautiful new Christmas item that should sell like hot cakes. It's a beautiful song called "Santo Natale" (Merry Christmas). The artist is assisted by a big Stanley Black orking. Song offers every opportunity for David's great voice to really sparkle, and the artist gives it everything he's got. Flip is the ever-lovely Yuletide favorite "Adeste Fideles" with a chorus again enhancing the tenor's wonderful tones.

FRANK SINATRA
 (Capitol 2954; F-2954)

"WHITE CHRISTMAS" (2:33)
 [Berlin ASCAP—Berlin] A great Berlin Christmas standard is warmly fashioned by "The Voice," Frank Sinatra. Should enjoy a steady and healthy sale this Xmas. Beautiful reading.

"THE CHRISTMAS WALTZ"
 (2:57) [Sands ASCAP—Cahn, Styne] Two top tunesmiths come up with a pretty piece of waltz material which Frankie croons tenderly. Warm, delightful holiday song.

POPPA JOHN GORDY
 (RCA Victor 20-5902; 47-5902)

"SANTA PLAYS THE TROMBONE" (2:03) [Golden West BMI—Murphy, Murphy] Poppa John Gordy and his Dixielanders jump through a cute Xmas item in Dixie style. Clint Garvin handles the vocal chores. Cute deck.

"OH DIDN'T HE RAMBLE"
 (2:23) [E. B. Marks BMI—Handy] Everybody sings on this end with Clint in the lead again. Cute ramblin' item with that same rag time feeling. Non-Xmas release.

JOE ROLAND SEXTET
 (Seeco 4156; 45-4156)

"SLEIGHRIDE" (2:35) [Mills ASCAP—Anderson] The Leroy Anderson Winter favorite, "Sleighride," is set to a Latin tempo by the Joe Roland Sextet. Wild exciting side that should do well with jazz fans.

"CHRISTMAS SONG" (3:12)

JULIUS LA ROSA
 (Cadence 1252; 45-1252)

"CAMPANELLE" (2:30) [Mon-tauk BMI—Minucci, Bleyer] The popular Christmas favorite "Jingle Bells" is recorded in Italian and English by Julius La Rosa. Delightful deck that could hit big. Should click fast, too.

"I HOPE YOU'LL BE VERY HAPPY" (1:52) [Lear ASCAP—Manning, Hoffman] On this end, the songster rhythms through a good shuffler with a lot of pep. Cute marriage of lyrics and melody. Non-Xmas item. Terrific coupling.

ROSEMARY CLOONEY- JOSE FERRER
 (Columbia 40317; 4-40317)

"A CHRISTMAS PRESENT TO SANTA CLAUS" (3:00) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Glazer, Herschel] A pretty, slow Christmas tune is warmly treated by Rosey. Chorus assists capably. Children will love this too.

"MARCH OF THE CHRISTMAS TOYS" (2:25) [Ross Jungnickel ASCAP—Roberts, Katz] Jose Ferrer takes over on this cute march tempo Yuletide ditty. Melody and delivery are lively.

VOICES OF WALTER SCHUMANN
 (RCA Victor 20-5922; 47-5922)

"CALYPSO CHRISTMAS"
 (2:45) [Schumann ASCAP—Hairston] Jess Hairston takes the solo spotlight on this Walter Schumann choral arrangement of a Calypso Yuletide item. Unusual material.

"CHRISTMAS TREE" (2:33)
 [Ardmore ASCAP—Daniel, Robin] An old German favorite is given a clever set of lyrics for the Yuletide season. Happy ditty.

THE CASH BOX
LONDON
LOW DOWN

The Royal Variety Performance at the London Palladium was a triumph with some of the biggest laughs of the evening undoubtedly going to Bob Hope, whose opening gag was "I had to fly over, Crosby wouldn't let me use his Ocean". I would particularly like to pay tribute to Palladium M. D. Eric Rogers who dealt with a staggering mixture of acts displaying an even tempered approach to everyone, which takes some doing on such a big night. . . . Irving Berlin came over from the U. S. for the opening of "White Christmas". . . . David Whitfield will guest on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" show on December 12th. . . . Herb Jeffries has decided to settle down in England and is at present negotiating for a record deal with one of the big companies. . . . U. S. vocalist Trude Adams opens at the Colony Supper-Club following Betty Riley on November 15th. . . . It is almost certain now that Eddie Fisher will open the 1955 vaudeville season at the London Palladium.

Frank Weir and David Whitfield might be proud at making The Cash Box Poll. . . . Lorraine Desmond young Australian vocalist, making a good impression with her first record of "I Can't Tell A Waltz From A Tango" . . . Jack Jackson took over the big D.J. spot over Radio Luxembourg on Saturday nights.

It looks as though the Christmas songs will be much the same as last year, "White Christmas", "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" and only one new comer "Santo Natale". . . . Alan Homes of Robbins Music is beaming with delight. Says Alan, "I've got so many hits I don't remember such a wonderful line up of songs for a long time."

"Papa Loves Mambo" looks like its hitting on the sellers. . . . Maurice and Bernice Kinn of the "New Musical Express" back from a wonderful trip to the U. S. and full of great memories which they relate weekly in the paper.

Just heard the cute novelty "Mambo Schmambo" by the Gals and Do'ls on Coronet. Could hit over here.

Winifred Atwell is the soloist at the Albert Hall with the London Philharmonic Orchestra and will play Grieg's Piano Concerto in A Flat Minor.

The Coral Label will now be issued in France by the Vogue Organization.

"Mr. Sandman" seems to hit the high spots on our air waves now, though the disk of Vaughn Monroe has been on the market for about three months.

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

"O.K. I'll Play It"

LONDON—Who was it who said a disk jockey's life is an easy one? This tableau tends to prove the reverse. Beating from left to right are Jack Baverstock, London's Mercury Records representative, and Sam Coslow, leading tunesmith. Saying, "O.K. I'll play it!", is Radio Luxembourg's platter spinner, Dick Norton. Scene of the caper is Norton's Luxembourg home. Baverstock is getting in some licks for Patti Page's "Mama Doll Song," currently his hottest selling item; Coslow's plugging his songs.

Writer Ruth Lowe on "This Is Your Life"

NEW YORK—Songwriter Ruth Lowe, whose tune "I'll Never Smile Again" was one of the big hits of the late '30's, was the guest of honor on last Wednesday's "This Is Your Life" TV show.

Format of the show has the story go back into the principal's life bringing to the cameras those people who were important in her life. Among those in the music business who were part of the show were Percy Faith and Irving Deutsch. Faith was the first ork leader, while in Toronto, Canada, to air her "Smile Again" tune and Irving Deutsch has been the publisher of many of her compositions including her newest, "My Love Came Back To Me."

Gifts Flood Chordettes

NEW YORK — The Chordettes, whose recording of "Mr. Sandman" is a big hit, have been receiving some odd gifts as a result of their Cadence disc.

Jack Bertell, manager of the Chordettes, said the girls have received over two dozen fake turned up mustaches. Reason for that, he says, is that the Chordettes sing "Mr. Sandman" in barber shop harmony and the fans are suggesting that they wear the mustaches, reminiscent of the old days.

Bertell said that the Chordettes have also received 187 pictures of Liberace, since there's a line in their version of "Mr. Sandman" that goes: "And (give him) lots of wavy hair like Liberace."

Other gifts include: three sure-fire methods of falling asleep (in case the Sandman fails), 14 bottles of sleeping pills, over 500 pictures of various Hollywood male stars (Mr. Sandman, send me a dream), and over 200 parodies on the song.

Hi-Fi Demo Disk on Jukes

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — Atlantic Pennsylvania Corporation, this city, Seeburg phonograph distributors, will place free of charge, a copy of RCA Victor's "Hearing Is Believing" on every Seeburg Hi-Fi phonograph.

"Hearing Is Believing" is an RCA Victor Hi-Fidelity demonstration disk.

Best Selling Records

FROM MORE THAN 15,000 RETAIL OUTLETS!

Comprising 100 Selections

• Tunes are listed below in order of their popularity based on a continuing weekly national survey of thousands of record dealers by Jack "One Spot" Tunis. Each listing includes the name of the song, record number, artists, and tune on the reverse side.

• The number underneath the title indicates the actual sale per 1000 records made for the week. If the figure is 67.4, it means that for every 1000 records sold that week, 67.4 were of the tune indicated—a combination of all the records on which it was available.

RHYTHM N' BLUES

Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Apollo Records doing nicely with two records. "Something To Remember You By" by the Gentlemen and "Oh But She Did" by the Opals. . . . There were big things last Thursday night at the grand opening of The Palm Cafe in Harlem. . . . Syd Nathan, King Records president, sent samples of "Hearts of Stone" by The Charms to pop jockies. Nathan found the disk had spilled over into pop. "Our sales force now reports that 60% of our sales are to pop stores. Equally as many are being sold to juke box operators who have a majority of pop locations," said Syd. . . . Dinah Washington sending cute letters to her friends re her newest release "Teach Me." Dinah's treatment should certainly break the tune r & b, currently big in pop. . . . Dave Cavanaugh in town. The Capital r & b A&R man popping buttons 'cause he has a hit with the first Five Keys release on the major. "Ling Ting Tong" is shooting the Keys right back into big time. . . . Joe Jones, new Capitol R & B star is a determined youngster—and if determination is any criterion this lad is going to succeed. Jones has quite a musical background, both theory and actual application. First Jones record for Capitol is "Will Call" and "Adam Bit The Apple." . . . Hear nice things about the Four Coins treatment of "I Love You Madly" on Epic. Tune is the Charlie & Ray item on Herald

JOE JONES

Records and Al Silver and Jack Angel sitting high in the clouds 'cause they own the tune. . . . Aladdin has another good group in the Five Pearls. The lads are really strong in their rendition of "Real Humdinger." . . . Dinah Washington follows her sensational "I Don't Hurt Anymore" with an r & b version of "Teach Me Tonight" and "Wishing Well." Her "Teach Me Tonight" is just wonderful and should hit high in the charts. . . . The Apollo Bar will again put on a show. The first will feature Wild Bill Davis, Betty St. Claire and Buddy Trenier. . . . Savoy Records has acquired the masters of the Rockin' Bros., an alto and baritone saxophone act whose orchestra has been the talk of the west coast. Their first Savoy release will be "Play Boy Hop" backed with "The Grinder." . . . Joe Davis, currently bossing Jay Dee Records is reviving his Beacon Record label exclusively for rhythm and blues. First release will be Dean Barlow and the Crickets with "Be Faithful." Joe has already had the disk on the air and predicts it will be a big one. . . . Happy to refute the story of the death of Tiny Bradshaw. Spoke to Tiny, who is recovering from his stroke at the Lord Calvert Hotel, and Tiny tells us he most energetically denies it to paraphrase Mark Twain. As a result of his stroke Tiny can't walk, but the doctor assures him that rest will probably have him back on his feet shortly, possibly by the 15th of this month.

CHICAGO:

All claim the new "Mrs. Patterson" AND Eartha Kitt better than ever since changes have been made in the play. Many are going back for second's. . . . On 11/4 The Trianon Ballroom staged its biggest show of the season. Headlining was Louis Jordan, Lola Dee, Bill Doggett and others. For the benefit of a children's nursery. . . . Speaking of Bill Doggett, his "High Heels" looks mighty like a top seller and we believe it'll be hitting the 'Hot Charts' but soon. . . . Vee-Jay execs talking about recording sessions they've just cut with two brand new groups, the David Shipp Combo and Turk Kinchele Combo. Both instrumental. Leo Kolheim also says they're readying several major sessions, including one with The Spaniels, to complete their winter releases. . . . Roy Hamilton's newest Epic, "Hurt" b/w "Star Of Love" already being called his best to date. . . . Our deepest sympathy to Leonard Chess on the passing of his father-in-law. . . . A real Chicago favorite. Dizzy Gillespie currently rocking The Blue Note where he is making his umpteenth appearance. . . . Looks like within a very few weeks, Chess'n Checker will have five of the top ten tunes. Already showing up are "Poison Ivy" by Willie Mabon, "I'm Ready" by Muddy Waters and "Reconsider Babby" by Lowell Fulson. And coming up fast are "Shoo-Doo-Be-Doo" by The Moonlighters and "Mellow Down Easy" by Little Walter. Len and Phil agree that if they each had five hands with which to pack boxes, they'd be far better off. They're not complaining, though, by any means. . . . Looks like cars are a jinx in the Leaner family. A few weeks ago we reported that George Leaner's car was stolen. And now word has just reached us that brother Ernie was also the victim of car thieves. But fortunately for Ernie, his car was found miles and miles away from his home but completely unharmed.

BILL DOGGETT

LOS ANGELES:

In this special issue you'll read all about station WSM and The Grand Ole Opry. Let's pay tribute to the entire Country and Western field which has had such a vast influence on both POP and R & B music. . . . Eddie Mesner of Aladdin Records arrived home again after closing their N. Y. office. He announced the signing of a new group called The Feathers. This makes the seventh group they have signed within the last three months. Eddie and Leo are both plenty pleased the way The Pearls' "Please Let Me Know" has started to click. . . . Joe Houston and Big Jay McNeely continue their successful merger of the two bands. They played at the Green Mill Ballroom in Ventura 11/13 and Riverside Rancho in Los Angeles 11/14. . . . Dave Cavanaugh, A & R head of Capitol's R & B dept., recently left on a cross-country search for new material and talent. He intended to stop off in Nashville for the 2nd Annual disc jockey convention. . . . The Platters left for Sacramento 11/11 for a two week engagement. Their Federal waxing of "Voo-Vee-Ahbee" has been picked as deejay Larry Finley's record of the week and will be given an extra push with a large display in the window of Wallich's Music City. . . . Richard Berry and The Dreamers, who clicked big a few months ago with their sensational waxing of "Bye Bye," now have another double sided hit on the Flair label titled "Daddy Daddy" b/w "Baby Darling." . . . Deejay Hunter Hancock is now all set up and on the air from his new studio at 1554 Gower, Hollywood. His two daily shows are carried remote over KGFJ and KFVD. He also tapes his Eastern WNJR, Newark, N. J. show from the studio. . . . Lew Chudd, prexy of Imperial Records, is expecting big things from the latest releases by his two top moneymaking groups. They are "She Keeps Me Wondering" b/w "Just A Big 21" by The Spiders and "All Women Are The Same" b/w "That's What You Are" by The Hawks. . . . Roy Milton was held over at Billy Berg's Five-Four Ballroom over the week-end of Nov. 12th thru 14th. . . . Guitar Slim's latest entry on the Specialty label titled "Sufferin' Mind" has been selling big here in LA and prexy Art Rupe reports that sales all along the East Coast have been very gratifying too. . . . Chuck Higgins blew in at The Torrance Civic Auditorium Oct. 13th for his first appearance locally since returning from a successful tour. With him was an all-star show. . . . A big show was presented at the Russ Auditorium in San Diego Nov. 8th. Featured was the original Marvin & Johnny (Not to be confused with the Marvin & Johnny of "Tick Tock" fame who are now on a tour of the East Coast). The Chords, Jimmy Wilson and Jimmy Belson's Band. Hunter Hancock emceed the show. . . . Oscar Peterson will appear at the Five-Four Ballroom Nov. 26th thru 28th. . . . Abe Diamond, prexy of Diamond Distributing Company, is mighty pleased with his new Jaguar sports convertible. . . . Sid Talmadge, prexy of Record Merchandising, has been taking nothing but orders for Faye Adams' Herald waxing of "I Owe My Heart To You" b/w "Love Ain't Nothin' To Play With." He predicts that it will be even bigger than her current clicker "Hurts Me To My Heart." . . . Luis Arcaz, known as the Glenn Miller of Mexico, opened at the Club Oasis with his band Oct. 12. This is his first night club engagement in the United States. He records for RCA Victor. . . . Singer Ella Fitzgerald is currently appearing at The Tiffany Club. She has been visiting all the local deejays previewing her new Decca album titled "Ella" which will soon be released.

GUITAR SLIM

Records and Al Silver and Jack Angel sitting high in the clouds 'cause they own the tune. . . . Aladdin has another good group in the Five Pearls. The lads are really strong in their rendition of "Real Humdinger." . . . Dinah Washington follows her sensational "I Don't Hurt Anymore" with an r & b version of "Teach Me Tonight" and "Wishing Well." Her "Teach Me Tonight" is just wonderful and should hit high in the charts. . . . The Apollo Bar will again put on a show. The first will feature Wild Bill Davis, Betty St. Claire and Buddy Trenier. . . . Savoy Records has acquired the masters of the Rockin' Bros., an alto and baritone saxophone act whose orchestra has been the talk of the west coast. Their first Savoy release will be "Play Boy Hop" backed with "The Grinder." . . . Joe Davis, currently bossing Jay Dee Records is reviving his Beacon Record label exclusively for rhythm and blues. First release will be Dean Barlow and the Crickets with "Be Faithful." Joe has already had the disk on the air and predicts it will be a big one. . . . Happy to refute the story of the death of Tiny Bradshaw. Spoke to Tiny, who is recovering from his stroke at the Lord Calvert Hotel, and Tiny tells us he most energetically denies it to paraphrase Mark Twain. As a result of his stroke Tiny can't walk, but the doctor assures him that rest will probably have him back on his feet shortly, possibly by the 15th of this month.

DEAN BARLOW

JAZZ JOTS

The death of Oran (Hot Lips) Page shocked every one in the trade. Page, internationally known among jazz musicians, died on Friday, November 5 at the Harlem Hospital of a heart attack. The blues hornman was 46 years old. A memorial to the hot trumpeter at the Stuyvesant Casino, Manhattan, brought about $1500. which was turned over to his family. . . . Wonderful coverage given Sid Gross (jazz prof at Columbia—see this column November 13 issue) by the Sunday edition of the New York Times. Story should do jazz and Gross' jazz course loads of good. . . . RCA Victor issuing a jazz album "to end all jazz albums." They are calling it "Jazz For People Who Hate Jazz" and it will cover samples from such greats as Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, "Fats" Waller, "Wingy" Manone, Lionel Hampton, John Kirby, Bunny Berigan, Charlie Barnet and the new and colorful Sauter-Finegan band. "Can't possibly hate it," says Jack Lewis, head of the Victor jazz department.

MAMBOMANIA

Coral Records issuing an L.P. with Pupi Campo doing eight standards. Album is titled "Mambo Americana." . . . Chappel Music Publishers announce that the first big movie mambo number has been recorded by its creator. The number, "Cerezo Rosa" ("Cherry Pink"), goes out on the Victor label, recorded by Perez Prado, who introduces it in the RKO flic, "Underwater." Prado features the number in a sequence in which the co-stars—Jane Russell, Gilbert Roland, Richard Egan and Lori Nelson—dance. . . . In connection with the Mambo USA Concert which played Cleveland recently, "Big Chief" Norman Wain (WDOK) conducted a "name the Mambo" contest wherein listeners were asked to name an original mambo written especially for the contest by local bandleader Al Russ. Wain reports the winning entry was "Happy Go Mambo" and that over five hundred entries were received. . . . Dick Sugar (WEVD-New York) who has been building in strength with his mambo show now goes on the air every Saturday night 10 to 10:30 with the only local Calypso show, "Calypso Caribbean Cruise." Dick says he has a select but amazingly large audience. His show, although only recently started, is already pulling thirty to forty pieces of mail after each performance. . . . George Goldner, Tico Records head, at Birdland to catch the performance of orkster Tito Puente.

Tiny Bradshaw "Not Dead"

TINY BRADSHAW

NEW YORK—"I definitely am not dead."

With this choice, succinct sentence, Tiny Bradshaw exploded the story that had been circulating the trade since early Monday morning, November 8, to the effect that the rhythm and blues ork leader had died.

Tiny had been the victim of his second stroke in a short time and as a result was hospitalized, his legs paralyzed. On the doctor's advice, Bradshaw went to the Lord Calvert Hotel in Miami, Fla. for a recuperative rest. It is possible that the rumor arose from this move when someone close to Bradshaw tried to get him at the Cincinnati Hospital and garbled the message he received.

This reporter personally spoke to Bradshaw in a long distance call from New York. The orkster assured us he was on the road to recovery and expected to be trying out those inactivated legs by the 15th of November.

RHYTHM 'N' BLUES REVIEWS

ⓐ DISK & SLEEPER	ⓐ GOOD
ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓑ FAIR
ⓒ VERY GOOD	ⓒ MEDIOCRE

SAM (The Man) TAYLOR
(MGM 11882)

B+ "TARA'S THEME" (2:41) [—Steiner] Sam Taylor and his Catmen etch a lush and lovely sax reading of the current pop hit. Sam, who has provided some mighty beaty stuff, shows he can read sweet. A beautiful mood etching that should win itself lots of plays and rest shattered nerves.

B "THE HIGH AND THE MIGHTY" (2:39) [—Tiomkin, Washington] Similar comments. Beautifully done. However, in view of the availability of so many recent waxings this side may not be the one asked for. It is a delightful coupling that should please a goodly portion of the market.

THE HOLLYWOOD FLAMES
(Money 202)

B "FARE THEE WELL" (2:40) [Money BMI—J. Dolin] A middle tempo jump socked out by this smooth working group. Lads have a zestful and appealing manner of delivery. Ok deck.

B "CLICKITY CLOCK I'M LEAVING" (2:40) [American BMI—R. Toombs] A novel item in which lead sings he's leaving his fem 'cause he's caught her deceiving him. Fetching beat and good story.

CHERRI LYNN
(Apollo 463)

B "BABY I'M GONE" (2:27) [Bess BMI—Lynn, Smith] A middle tempo bouncer with a tempting vocal by Miss Lynn with suggestive shadings that take an innocuous turn. Ok wax.

B "WAIT" (2:47) [Bess BMI—Charlie Singleton] Cherri Lynn sings a slow blues on this deck in intimate style and warmth that could do things for the gal.

JOHNNY FULLER
(Flair 1054)

B "BUDDY" (2:41) [Flair BMI—Josea] A slow southern blues effectively performed. Two lads discuss the virtues of one's woman. One's protecting and the other's pitching. Good story. Could make some noise.

C "HARD TIMES" (2:40) [Flair BMI—Josea] Another slow country blues wailed with feeling. Lyrics talk of hard times and Fuller thinks he'll go back home.

BOBBY SHIELDS
(Dawn 211)

B+ "I WAS DREAMING" (2:55) [Cue BMI—Bill Campbell] Bobby Shields sings an emotional blues with romantic lyrics. Melodic item with a good beat and ok vocal. Tune has good pop possibilities.

C+ "MAMBO LOVE (1:55) [Raleigh BMI—Lincoln Chase] Having run thru poppa, mama and grandma, this deck has the girl friend mambo crazy. A good tune, happy in sound and beat, ok lyrics. Good coupler.

THE CASH BOX

★ AWARD O' THE WEEK ★

"ALL RIGHTY OH SWEETIE" (2:42)
[Progressive BMI—Terry]

"I CONFESS" (2:32)
[Progressive BMI—Nugetre]

THE CLOVERS
(Atlantic 1046)

THE CLOVERS

● The Clovers throw out their big effort for the holiday business with a quick beat jump titled "All Righty Oh Sweetie" that has the zest, novelty and quality to break. The lads are pitching with everything as they chant a strong set of lyrics with a catch phrase, the title of the tune. Deck should create strong sales action. The flip, "I Confess," is a rhythmic blues, slow tempo, performed with a great deal of authentic feeling. The group wails a strong wax here and it could hit on its own. Two good efforts but we favor "All Righty Oh Sweetie."

"TEACH ME TONIGHT" (2:38)
[Hub ASCAP—DePaul, Cahn]

"WISHING WELL" (2:40)
[Munson BMI—Thomas, Kirkland]

DINAH WASHINGTON
(Mercury 70497)

DINAH WASHINGTON

● Dinah Washington comes up with a two-sider that should prove a strong follow up to her current two sided hit, "I Don't Hurt Anymore" and "Dream." Dinah should repeat on her latest with both, "Teach Me Tonight," currently hitting big in the pops, and "Wishing Well," a middle tempo ditty that is very pretty and a strong piece of pop material. Dinah was never in finer voice and the result is two chart possibilities.

CHRISTMAS

"WHITE CHRISTMAS" (2:35) [Berlin ASCAP—Berlin]

"THE BELLS OF ST. MARY" (2:37)

[Chapell ASCAP—Furber, Adams]
THE DRIFTERS (Atlantic 1048)

THE DRIFTERS

● If you think you've heard "White Christmas" too many times thru the years this version will cure you of that belief. This is the most novel effort we've ever treated these ears to. If given enough air-time long enough before the Yule season this deck will spill all over the place. There are enough vocal gimmicks on this platter to suffice half a dozen platters. Should be really big r & b and could also take of pop if enough jockies and pop boxes get behind it. The flip, "The Bells Of St. Mary," beautifully done and an excellent choice as backer up for the Berlin biggie. However, for the holiday season we look to "White Christmas" to hit again in a big way.

THE COOKIES
(Lamp 8008)

B "ALL NIGHT MAMBO" (2:15) [Lamp-Calhoun] The Cookies romance to mambo rhythm. A middle beat r & b item that retains its R & B feel without losing the mambo tempo.

B "DON'T LET GO" (2:31) [Lamp-Calhoun] A slow blues ballad prettily sung by The Cookies, who have a sound of their own. The kids have a cute style with enough individuality to break thru.

FIVE PEARLS
(Aladdin 3265)

B+ "REAL HUMDINGER" (2:35) [Aladdin-Winley] The Five Pearls go into ecstasies about the potency of "her" kiss that rocked them right to their souls. A mambo flavored rocker that embodies excitement. Lead does a fine job.

B "PLEASE LET ME KNOW" (2:39) [Aladdin-Patti, Anne] The group comes up with a pretty ballad on the flip. Nice wax for the melty teen.

THE VALENTINES
(Old Town 1009)

B "SUMMER LOVE" (2:51) [BMI—R. Barrett] A slow blues ballad warmly presented by The Valentines who recall the summer romance fondly and with tenderness. Lads follow the tried and approved r & b formula.

B "TONIGHT KATHLEEN" (2:50) [BMI—R. Barrett] Another pretty ballad bouncer. Love again the theme and the group sounds stronger on this deck. Two warm and appealing decks.

RAY CONNIFF
(Brunswick 80244)

C+ "SHORT STUFF" (2:37) [Regent BMI—Ray Conniff] A moderate tempo jump tune with novelty lyrics. Verne (Skid) Rowe, who handles the vocal chore, does an ok job with the general effect borderline r & b-pop. Story is good for a laugh.

B "PIGGY BANK BOOGIE" (2:24) [Regent BMI—Conniff] The boys knock out a boogie with Rowe again handling the vocal end. This deck has more r & b flavor. Good dance wax.

JOE JONES
(Capitol 2951)

B+ "WILL CALL" (2:17) [Mallory BMI—Elias] Joe Jones displays a strong technique in this middle tempo Southern blues bouncer. Jones tells the story of his baby and the stall he got from her when he proposed. Deck moves smartly and could make some noise.

B "ADAM BIT THE APPLE" (2:17) [Mallory BMI—Jones, Elias] New wailer shouts a slow Southern blues with a good story. Cute story of the original temptress. Good two sided wax.

Stars Over Harlem

Smashing and crashing through the stronghold of hits like an all-American tackle whizzed the hard hitting Penguins and their stellar "Earth Angel" reading. This latest sizzler has graced the faces of the Alpha distrib staffmen with big cheerful smiles. . . . Watch Elmore James and "Sunnyland" B/W "Standing At The Station." It has all the good flavorings that make for big happenings. . . . Though out only a few dims and brights Roy Hamilton's "Hurt" ditty has the crowd a waiting in line. . . . B. B. King getting stronger and stronger. . . . Muddy Waters and "I'm Ready" a must for those who dig the big beats of the good blues. . . . Johnny Otis and "I Won't Be Your Fool No More" should be the biggest that the drumming veteran has ever had. Youngsters and oldsters alike are snatching and grabbing away at Louis Jordan's "If I Had Any Sense" item. . . . Bill Doggett still whailing. Which affords us the pleasure of informing all of the fact that Harlem is growing more and more fond of good organ sounds. Proof of this is that once again the nite life picture is switching to the 125th street area. And spotlighted are the tasty groups of Sarah McLawler, Will Bill Davis and Euddy Trenier, with Doggett and side-kicks scheduled to drop anchor any moment. . . . The instrumental works of Percy Faith, Mitch Miller, Les Baxter, Jackie Gleason and artists with similar deliverings are for relaxing the ear drums. . . . Allen Freed and his groovy Moondog antics a definite asset to the retailers around these parts. His nightly batch of distinctively different air-lane calisthenics have definitely caused R & B sales to mount higher and higher where ever we chance to visit. . . . Alex Bradford's "To Close To Heaven" still a sure-fire coin jerker. Ditto: The Dixie Hummingbirds and "Go Out To The Program." While we're on the subject of spirituals take a tip and keep both peepers focused on and ears open for the wonderful Stevens Singers' soul touching "Deliver Me, Oh Lord." . . . Cecil Young and All Stars' "Jumping With Sid" for Gene Norman a mighty swiny platter. . . . "I Hadn't Any One" which stars the terrific Stan Getz, the current choice of the jazz experts. . . . Eddie Fisher's current deuce of projections, "I Need You Now" and "Fanny" are so easy to sell, and that goes for the Perry Como "Papa Loves Mambo" lulu also. . . . Hugo Winterhalter and "Land Of Dreams" should be around for many a moon to come. 'Tis truly one of the smoothest and soothing waxings ever heard. Piano great Eddie Heywood is also deserving of applause plus for the important part he played in helping to make such a wonderful pressing. . . . The Four Freshmen sales swelling like crazee. Congrats to d. j. Tommy "Dr. Jive" Smalls and his new downtown nightery project. . . . The Vibes and "Stop Torturing Me," one to lend an ear to.

WELCOME

To The

DISK JOCKEY FESTIVAL

JOHN H. DeWITT, Jr.

It is indeed gratifying to all of us at WSM that our Annual Disc Jockey Festival in honor of the anniversary of the Grand Ole Opry has become so important to everyone connected with country music. Three years ago when we planned our first Festival more than one hundred disc jockeys from twenty states attended, although the most notice anyone of them had was three days. Last year the invitations went out several weeks in advance and we were very proud of the fact that we had more than 500 registered for the celebration. This included disc jockeys from all over the country, representatives of publications, publishing houses and record companies as well as country music artists. We look forward to an even larger group this year. The interest shown has grown to such an extent that we get inquiries throughout the year about our plans for the next year's program. We feel that the Disc Jockey Festival has taken its place among the established traditions in the field of country music and its influence is becoming greater each year. It is one more reason why Nashville is recognized as the center of country music.

We are proud of the fact that THE CASH BOX devoted an entire issue to WSM and the Disc Jockey Festival last year and is doing so again this year

We at WSM welcome everyone to the Third Annual Disc Jockey Festival and we sincerely hope you will enjoy the Festival as well as your stay in Nashville.

Grand Ole Opry Announcers

LOUIE BUCK

Success in radio has been no problem for top notch announcer "Cousin Louie Buck" as he is affectionately called at the Grand Ole Opry. Louie came to WSM in 1939 after several years' experience with a station in Alabama. During his fifteen years with WSM he has piled up an impressive list of achievements in the announcing field. He has written, produced, and announced the Nehi segment of the Grand Ole Opry for thirteen years. The show has been so successful that the Nehi Corporation transcribes it and sends it to other stations on a spot basis throughout the week following the show. For nine years, Louie announced the NBC portion of the Opry sponsored by the R. J. Reynolds Company in behalf of their Prince Albert smoking tobacco. Louie also started a fishing and hunting show about 12 years ago called "Louie And The Old Guide." The name has changed in recent years but the show's the same and Louie continues to tell the folks about the hunting and fishing conditions and the best spots for both in these parts. Louie is also quite a hand at song writing. He has already proven his ability in this field by writing theme songs for Nehi, Stephens, O-Cel-O, and Hester Battery segments of the Grand Ole Opry.

TOM HANSERD

Tom Hanserd is probably one of the most frequently seen announcers on WSM because not only does he announce one of the segments of the Grand Ole Opry, but also he is one of the most popular announcers for WSM-TV. A former program director on an FM station, Tom is an ex-member of the staff of stations in Columbia, Tennessee and Birmingham, Alabama.

DAVID COBB

David Cobb is one of those rare individuals who seem to do everything well. He is one of the most popular young announcers at WSM, and has tackled and mastered almost every phase of radio work. Back in his early days in the industry he was a singer, but in 1937 he joined the WSM staff as an announcer and has remained here ever since.

During all these years David has become well acquainted with the talent appearing regularly on WSM, and especially with the folk artists on the Grand Ole Opry. In fact, for the past 15 years he has been announcing a segment of the Grand Ole Opry every Saturday night over WSM, and he has also emceed many of the studio-originated hillbilly programs.

A great lover of music, he can discuss with equal ease pop, classical and hillbilly compositions, and even has a few original tunes to his credit. Completely at home behind the microphone, David has an unusual ability to create an intimate atmosphere on his shows. Spinning records in a bare studio he somehow conveys the idea that he's sitting right in the room with you, chatting, giving little bits of information about the artist or the tune, and tying all together with an expert hand. His friendly, casual style has won David many fans and many sponsors who recognize his convincing selling appeal.

GRANT TURNER

The friendly and convincing voice of Grant Turner has been heard in the homes of ten million radio listeners every Saturday night for the past five years. Grant is the commercial announcer on the NBC portion of WSM's Grand Ole Opry, sponsored by Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco.

ROY ACUFF

As the Caruso of country singers, Roy Acuff has a larger and more loyal following than the great Enrico ever had. In eighteen years, his recordings of country songs have sold more than twenty-five million copies. American soldiers stationed in Europe voted him more popular than Frank Sinatra. And although he was not elected governor of Tennessee when he ran in 1948, more people are said to have listened to his campaign speeches than to those of any other candidate in the state's history.

In the center of the country music world, Nashville, Tennessee, Roy is really a king. He puts on five radio shows weekly on WSM, makes frequent television appearances, has a road company that makes as much as five thousand dollars a working night, operated one of the largest music publishing firms in the business in conjunction with songwriter, Fred Rose, and owns and operates a resort called Dunbar Cave, which includes a large lake, a $75,000 swimming pool, restaurant, dance floors, concessions, and a one-hundred room hotel.

CHESTER ATKINS

Chester Atkins was born in Luttrell, Tennessee 26 years ago, and though he hasn't come a great distance from Luttrell in mileage, he has come a long way in the field of guitar playing.

Chet Atkins acquired a knowledge of music from his father who taught piano and voice lessons.

Station WRBL in Columbus had a religious program and Chet got his first radio job singing and playing hymns on the show. In 1942 he moved to Knoxville and joined KNOX as staff guitarist. There he played with several hillbilly bands. The next stop for Chet was station WLW in Cincinnati, Nashville & WSM with Red Foley.

Chet appears on the GRAND OLD OPRY every Saturday night and also in personal appearances. He goes to New York every three or four weeks to record and has made several solo appearances on WSM television and radio.

ROD BRASFIELD

They call Rod Brasfield the "Teller of Tall Tales from Hohenwald, Tennessee." They also call him one of the cleverest comedians to hit the network in recent years.

But what most people don't know is that lean, slack-jawed, simple appearing Rod Brasfield is a reformed tragedy actor who became a comedian by the merest of accidents.

Rod is a veteran of show business generally. His first job as a boy was sweeping out chautauqua tents and laying the sawdust on the ground. Later on he played in everything from high class stock companies to burlesque. In 1944, he came to WSM in Nashville where he was given a spot on the Grand Ole Opry.

Reversing the adage, Rod's last love is the best—radio. And a full bag of fan mail every week is evidence that his coast-to-coast audience agrees.

THE CARLISLES

The Carlisles, one of radio's most versatile groups will be remembered best for their recording of "Too Old To Cut The Mustard" which was one of the top selling records of 1952.

They are led by Bill Carlisle who is assisted by his cousin Betty Carlisle, and Roy Sneed who sings bass with the group. Their recent recording of "No Help Wanted" was the most played record by disk jockeys according to the Country and Western charts in The Cash Box. It was also tops on the Best Selling and Juke Box charts.

At an appearance at the Big D Jamboree in Dallas, Texas, they drew over 6,000 people, the biggest crowd ever attracted at the Sportatorium there.

Bill, the youngest Carlisle, has performed on many Southern radio stations. The love that he has for the music that he was brought up on is most gratifying. He has been known to work for hours on two bars of an unfinished tune. Bill is married and the father of two children.

MARTHA CARSON

Martha Carson started picking out folk tunes and spiritual numbers on her mail order guitar when she was in grammar school, began composing songs of her own before she was ten years old, and was a favorite entertainer in the Kentucky rural sections while in her early teens. She entered the professional music field as featured artist on radio station WSB in Atlanta, Georgia, where she was retained by popular demand, for more than four years. From there, Martha Carson headed her own programs on various stations in Knoxville, Tennessee, Birmingham, Alabama, and others. Recently, a Birmingham station celebrated "Martha Carson Day" during which they played all her numbers, starred this attractive songstress throughout the entire day and hailed Martha as one of the most popular and beloved folk music stars of the country.

Martha Carson joined the cast of the WSM Grand Ole Opry in the Spring of 1952.

LEW CHILDRÉ

One of radio's outstanding personalities, Lew Childre, has been in radio almost since it first came into existence. This fact, as well as his remarkable ability for making friends easily, has given him a tremendous following throughout the United States. He has a style that is different from anyone else's in radio. No matter what he says or does on the stage, the crowd always laughs, for the "Boy from Alabama" is just naturally funny.

From the moment he starts his theme song, to his own guitar accompaniment, the audience knows he's going to present a good show. Lew has been in show business all his life and his wide experience includes working on radio stations in New Orleans, Dallas, Mexico, and Wheeling.

Lew Childre has appeared on transcribed radio programs all over the country for more than ten years. He has also made personal appearances all over the United States working in tent shows, auditoriums, and clubs. Always, his stock of unusual songs, which he writes himself, are well received by his multitude of fans.

COWBOY COPAS

Cowboy Copas has an authentic cow-hand background for he grew up on his father's ranch near Muskogee, Oklahoma. His entire family was musically inclined, and his career in the folk music field actually began when he was a young lad and taught himself to play the old songs of the West on his Mother's guitar.

When he was only eleven years old, Copas entered a child's talent contest program on a radio station in Tulsa. He sang "Red River Valley", and the cards and letters that poured in made him second place winner in the contest.

When he was fourteen years old, he began regular appearances on the radio and played one-night performances at county fairs and other gatherings. Since that time he has performed on more than two hundred radio stations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Cowboy Copas joined the Grand Ole Opry in January 1946. He became a big star when he hit with "My Filipino Baby", which he still uses as a theme song. He records for King, having sold more than 4,000,000 records.

CROOK BROTHERS

Several groups who fall into the semi-professional category are regular performers on the Grand Ole Opry today. They are principally the four instrumental groups which began in the early days of the Opry twenty eight years ago. Their members work at various jobs during the week, but they never miss a Saturday night on the show, and they are paid for their appearance. The Crook Brothers are one of these groups.

Herman Crook, a tobacco worker who rolls "twist" tobacco, is the leader of the Crook Brothers Band. His brother, who was a co-leader in the early years of the Opry, left the band long ago, but the name was retained because it had already been established. Present members, in addition to Herman Crook, are Lewis Crook (no relation to Herman), Basil Gentry, Blythe Poteet, William A. Cantrell, and G. P. Stewart. In addition to these, Sam and Kirk McGee form an old-time twosome, with one playing the guitar and the other the banjo and both singing.

Grand Ole Opry Artists

JIMMY DICKENS

"Little Jimmy Dickens," diminutive singing star of the GRAND OLE OPRY probably has the loudest voice of any man his size anywhere. A mere four feet eleven inches tall, Jimmy is today one of Columbia's ace recording artists.

Born in Bolt, Raleigh County, West Virginia, Jimmy was raised on a farm. When he was only 17 he took his guitar, big voice and familiar smile into radio in Beckley, West Virginia. He did his first commercial radio series there, and has been a busy man in radio ever since. He joined WSM and the GRAND OLE OPRY in the fall of 1948, he had been heard on stations in Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, and Cincinnati. In his personal appearances he has broken house records all over the Eastern United States.

WHITEY FORD

"I'm goin' back to the wagon, boys, these shoes are killin' me!"

That famous line signifies the closing of a "Duke of Paducah" monologue. As such, it has become one of the favorite expressions of millions of Whitey Ford's radio fans. The one brief phrase: "He always leaves 'em laughing," describes the personality of the WSM-NBC Grand Ole Opry comedian.

The "Duke of Paducah" is an outstanding example of the typical American humorist. His inimitable style of timing and delivering laugh lines in his soft, southern drawl has endeared him to both the sophisticate and the hillbilly. His original witticisms are clean, fast and clever; insults, sarcasm or the unkind thrusts used by many comedians have no place in the scripts of the "duke."

Whitey is currently the featured comedian with WSM "Grand Ole Opry."

GRANDPA JONES

Grandpa Jones, who is heard coast-to-coast on WSM's Grand Ole Opry every Saturday night, is still a farmer at heart. According to his own story the "doggone city gives me the jitters—and I like to get out where there's something green underfoot."

But though he has never lost his love for the country, Grandpa is far from a rookie in show business. Grandpa has been appearing before the public since 1929.

It was that year that he entered an amateur contest in an Akron, Ohio, radio station. To his own surprise he won first prize; and since then he has played a half dozen radio stations in this country.

In March 1946 Grandpa Jones first brought his five string guitar to WSM. A great favorite, he makes regular appearances on three big weekly shows, including the Prince Albert portion of the Opry.

Grandpa Jones is married to the former Ramona Riggins of Oden, Indiana. They have two children, Marsha Marie and Kurtis Martin.

Grandpa Jones is heard on RCA Victor records.

EDDIE HILL

Smilin' Eddie Hill, WSM's celebrated disk jockey and RCA Victor recording artist ranks among the most famous figures in the country music field today. In 1953, after having been a part of the WSM talent roster for only a few months, Eddie's two hour late night record show which features country, folk, and western music exclusively was voted the second most popular show of its type in the nation. The votes were cast by approximately 700 other disk jockeys. To be honored in such a fashion by people in your profession is a distinction in any business, and as far as Eddie was concerned, it was the finest thing that ever happened in his colorful career.

Besides the Eddie Hill Show from 11:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. which Eddie so aptly handles Monday through Friday on WSM, he also heads a record show called Hits From the Hills following the Grand Ole Opry on Saturday nights, Crossroad Varieties at 1:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, and is star of Breakfast At The Opry.

GOLDIE HILL

Goldie Hill, a pretty 19-year-old blonde, was born in San Antonio, Texas and has spent most of her life there. She has been playing and singing ever since she got her first guitar when she was five years old. Her older brothers had formed a band, and she sang with them as often as they would let her as she was growing up. Then she began to become more well-known and to fill local engagements around San Antonio.

One night when Goldie was singing at a dude ranch up at Bandera, Texas, Webb Pierce saw her. Later, he asked her to sing with his group at KWKH in Shreveport, Louisiana. She made such a hit that she became a regular performer and won her first Decca contract. Her first record in 1952 was "I Talk To My Heart," a parody on Ray Price's top recording. Later she recorded another parody entitled "I Let The Stars Get In My Eyes." Both these songs have been written especially for Goldie and have become favorite novelty numbers.

FERLIN HUSKEY

Ferlin Huskey was born 75 miles from St. Louis in Cantwell, Missouri, in 1925. When he was nine years old, his mother traded a hen for a guitar.

Local amateur contest and school and Church gatherings demanded Ferlin's musical talents until 1943, when he joined the Merchant Marines for a five year stint.

After his discharge he went to St. Louis. There he worked in a steel mill, as a fry cook, and driving a taxi to support himself while he performed in local clubs and on radio.

Then to California, to work as a bass and guitar player and singer. Discovered when he was cutting square dance records with a California group, Ferlin got recording contracts first with Four Star and later with Capitol records.

Ferlin's first release under his own name and in his own style was "Hank's Song," a tribute at the death of Hank Williams.

In August, 1954, came Ferlin's greatest accomplishment—a contract with WSM's Grand Ole Opry.

JOHNNY & JACK

Johnnie and Jack grew up with folk music in their families, so it was that one day they would choose that field for their profession.

Johnnie Wright's father played a five-string banjo, and his grandfather was the champion of the old-time fiddlers in their part of Tennessee.

Jack Anglin's father was also an ole-time fiddler, and he taught Jack and his brothers to pick a guitar.

Then Jack and his brothers formed a quartet and began a radio career in Nashville in 1936. It was there that they met Johnnie. They joined forces and formed the Tennessee Mountain Boys.

For several years after the formation of their partnership, Johnnie and Jack appeared on the Grand Ole Opry. They left the Opry for several years and returned in 1951.

In addition to their appearances on the Grand Ole Opry, they still make many personal appearances.

Song writing is another of their important activities. They have turned out more than one hundred tunes of their own.

The boys record for RCA Victor.

THE JORDANAIRE

Before joining the WSM staff, the Jordanaires were heard on KWTO, Springfield, Missouri, and are now appearing on several network and local shows.

All the Jordanaires hail from the state of Missouri. Bill and Monty Matthews, from Springfield, are both ordained ministers. Sons of an evangelist, they began singing at revivals with their father when they were young. At one time they joined with their brothers to make up the Matthews quartet.

Cully Holt and Bob Hubbard, the other two Jordanaires are from Monett, Missouri; and they, too, have a long history of singing in the spiritual tradition that is so important a part of this rising quartet's work. Accompanist Bob Money of Mt. Vernon, Missouri is one of the best in the business.

Several of their spirituals have been released by Decca Records.

The Jordanaires appear on the Grand Ole Opry every week and have a place on several other WSM programs.

Grand Ole Opry Artists

LONZO & OSCAR

Few performers have been able to burlesque country musicians successfully, for sincerity is one of the qualities most important to success in the country music profession. The team of Lonzo and Oscar is the only team on the Grand Ole Opry, which can get by with poking fun at its fellow performers and the music that they sing seriously.

Lonzo and Oscar have been going strong on the Grand Ole Opry since 1944, when their first big hit was "I'm My Own Grandpa." At that time and for several years afterward, they depended more on straight novelty tunes.

Later, however, they began a series of humorous versions of top hillbilly tunes, the first of which was "I'm Movin' On, No. 2." Lonzo and Oscar were so successful with their version that they followed it with "Let Old Mother Nature Have Her Way, No. 2," and several others.

Lonzo and Oscar themselves are both accomplished musicians. They are brothers, Johnny and Rollin Sullivan. Their original home was in Kentucky, but they now live in Nashville.

BILL MONROE

Bill Monroe, a top drawing card of the WSM Grand Ole Opry, was born in Rosine, Kentucky, one of eight brothers and sisters of the Monroe family.

Starting in radio back in the early '30's, Bill joined the Opry in 1939 and achieved almost instantaneous success.

Monroe began as a singer in church work, when he was a boy, and as a result, many of his most popular melodies today are hymns and songs of a religious nature. However, he is also famous for such things as "Mule Skinner's Blues" and similar tunes, and the boys can whip up some fine comedy. Bill's "Kentucky" tunes, usually written by him, always go over big on the air and at personal appearances. Bill now records for Decca.

GEORGE MORGAN

One of the youngest and most versatile of the Grand Ole Opry stars, George Morgan, is noted for the warmth, sincerity, and feeling with which he sings a song.

George was born in Waverly, Tennessee, June 28, 1924. His family moved to Barberton, Ohio, where he finished high school and began playing the guitar and singing over a local radio station. From there he went to WWST in Wooster, Ohio, and WWVA in Wheeling, West Virginia. He joined the Grand Ole Opry cast in 1948.

During his first few months on the Opry, his own song "Candy Kisses" made him one of the most promising stars in country music. Columbia Records signed him to a long term contract. Twenty-six different records of the songs were made, including his own recording, and more than 2,000,000 copies of it have been sold. Among the records he made are "Over The Hilltop," and the big hit "Almost."

MOON MULLIGAN

A talented young Negro farm worker taught Moon Mulligan to play the piano when he was only a boy, and he has been active in the entertainment field ever since.

Moon is a big man, red-faced and good-natured. His hands dart across the keyboard almost faster than the eye, and they bring forth his own style of hot country music. He also sings in a strong, untrained voice. The combination of his singing and playing makes him one of the fastest one-man shows on the air.

Because of his versatility, Moon has made hundreds of phonograph records, some as a member of a band, others featuring his playing and singing as a soloist.

Moon joined the Grand Ole Opry early in the year 1951 and thus extended the popularity he had already won in the Southwest.

OLD HICKORY SINGERS

One of the most versatile vocal groups on the Grand Ole Opry is the Old Hickory Singers, whose singing, in the tradition of the Gay Nineties, covers the field from barbershop to hillbilly and Western styles.

The quartet is composed of Claude Sharpe, Claud Waller, Luther Heatwole, and Joseph McPherson. All are soloists.

Joseph McPherson, bass singer with the group, was for six years a leading basso with the Metropolitan Opera in New York.

Other than their work on the Grand Ole Opry, in which they appear regularly on the NBC portion of the show, the Old Hickory Singers often make guest appearances on other WSM programs, both pop and country types, and on television shows. They also make personal appearances and have recently signed a recording contract with Dot Records.

For their appearances on the Grand Ole Opry and other country type programs, the Old Hickory Singers wear plaid shirts, but for other shows they wear costumes befitting the nature of the program.

MINNIE PEARL

When a tall blonde girl races to the WSM microphone each Saturday night and yells "HOW-DEE! I'm just so proud to be hyere." the Opry audience calls back "HOW-DEE" and settles down for a lot of laughs. For that's the opening for Minnie Pearl, America's foremost country-style comedienne.

Sarah Ophelia Colley, a native of Centerville, Tennessee, tried teaching drama after graduating from Ward Belmont, a fashionable finishing school, but finally decided to become a country-style comedienne. She hit upon the name of Minnie Pearl for her comic character and presented her to the Opry. Since the early 1930's, the coy yet boisterous, boy-crazy Minnie, who never gives up trying to land a "feller," has made her appearances in a bright yellow organdy dress, white lisle stockings, a square black pocket-book, flat-heeled Mary Jane slippers with loose straps, and an ancient flat straw skimmer.

Bubbling with good humor and gossip about the "doins" in her home town of Grinders Switch, Minnie Pearl has piled up an enviable record. She records for RCA Victor.

WEBB PIERCE

After his discharge from the Army, Webb Pierce sang with different bands in the Arkansas-Louisiana-Texas area until he decided to branch out on his own, and form his own Southern Valley Boys. He got his own daily radio show on KWKH in Shreveport and achieved much popularity in the area.

Webb was accepted by the WSM Grand Ole Opry in September of 1952. He records for Decca. His first disc was his now famous "Wonderin'." A short time after the record hit the market, it sky-rocketed to the top of the Country Folk Hit Parade. Webb is also an outstanding song writer having written such hits of his own as "New Silver Bells," "That Heart Belongs To Me," "So Used To Lovin' You," "I Haven't Got The Heart," "The Last Waltz," "It's Been So Long," and others.

Pierce is one of country music's most consistent hit makers, having hit with more than 5 big sides this year alone.

RAY PRICE

Since Ray Price joined the Grand Ole Opry in 1952 he has been one of its most popular stars with a long succession of hits.

Ray was born in 1926, on a farm near Perryville, Texas, one hundred miles east of Dallas. When he was nine years old, he began singing and playing with his older brother's guitar. From that time on, music became an important part of his life.

He attended high school in Dallas, singing in the high school chorus. Then he went to North Texas Agricultural College, where he studied veterinary medicine for three-and-a-half years. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1943.

About four years ago, he formed his own band and began making personal appearances in Texas and Louisiana. His first radio job was at WSM, where he was accepted for the Grand Ole Opry. Since that time his popularity has soared rapidly, and he soon signed a recording contract with Columbia Records.

Ray sings in a smooth pleasing voice but with a very definite country style.

Grand Ole Opry Artists

MARTY ROBBINS

When Marty Robbins' Navy days were over Marty began singing and playing his guitar on radio station KTYL in Mesa, Arizona. His quarter hour show of country and western music eventually led to bigger things and a bigger station in Phoenix.

At KPHO in Phoenix Marty was given a half hour show in the morning, five days a week called "Chuck Wagon Time." He organized his own band, the K-Bar Cowboys, and after gaining a large following was rewarded with a quarter hour television show on KPHO-TV four days a week.

Marty later was guest on the Prince Albert segment of the Grand Ole Opry, and made several record hits on Columbia.

He started at WSM on January 19, 1953, and since then has appeared on the Grand Ole Opry every Saturday and been a guest artist on other WSM country music shows.

Marty and wife Marizona have one child, a three-year-old boy named Ronnie.

CARL SMITH

Carl Smith is one of the Grand Ole Opry's most popular stars. He was born on a farm near Maynardville, Tennessee, March 15, 1927.

His first radio work came at the age of thirteen when he participated in an amateur talent show. During the summer of 1944, he received his first job as a singer, but he returned to school in the fall. The next spring he joined the Navy and was called to active duty three days before his scheduled graduation from high school. Eleven of his eighteen months in the Navy were spent on a ship in the Pacific.

Carl was recommended to WSM Program Director Jack Stapp by a song plugger. He auditioned for the station in 1950 and was given some early morning shows and an occasional guest spot on the Grand Ole Opry to give him an opportunity to develop. At the end of about a year, his popularity rose suddenly and he became a star almost overnight.

HANK SNOW

Hank Snow was born in Canada. He began his musical career at the age of thirteen, when he shipped to sea as a cabin boy with his guitar and began entertaining his shipmates with songs, dances, and guitar interludes.

After three years at sea, Hank decided to become a professional entertainer. He worked his way to Halifax to audition for a radio job. He made the grade, and from then on radio was his career.

He later organized a five-piece country band and played and sang regularly for the Canadian Broadcasting Company.

Hank joined WSM in 1950, and it was later that year that his recording of his song, "I'm Movin' On," hit the top of the country song popularity charts. Most of the time since then, he has been represented on the top ten list by at least one song, the latest of which is one of the big songs of the year "I Don't Hurt Anymore."

ERNEST TUBB

Ernest Tubb, the Texas troubadour, is one of the enduring stars of the Grand Ole Opry.

When he was a boy his guiding star was the late Jimmy Rodgers, the Singing Brakeman, an early folk singing star in Texas. When Jimmy Rodgers died, his widow gave his guitar to Ernest, who proudly uses it in his radio and personal appearances.

He made personal appearances all over Texas and then was accepted on the Grand Ole Opry in 1942.

He made his first recording in 1940, but his first big hit was a song called "I'm Walking The Floor Over You," which he still uses as a theme song. Since that time he has sold more than 15,000,000 Decca records in the past ten years.

KITTY WELLS

Kitty Wells has a natural, sweet voice, which has grown into one of beauty and warmth with experience. On the stage of the Grand Ole Opry, Kitty Wells commands attention for two reasons: first, she is a very beautiful girl with dark hair and eyes that twinkle as she gives out with a heart song or a comedy number.

Muriel Deason, now known to millions as Kitty Wells, is in private life, Mrs. Johnny Wright, wife of the senior partner in the team known as Johnny and Jack, also stars of the Grand Ole Opry. They have three children, Ruby Jean, 13; Johnny, Jr., called Bobby, 10, and Carol Sue, 7.

Kitty Wells' recording of "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" on Decca Records brought her overnight success.

FARON YOUNG

Faron Young, now 22 years old, has spent almost three quarters of his life in show business. From the time he was five years old he has been appearing in school plays and on talent shows. Faron was born in Shreveport, Louisiana. While in high school there, he organized a country band of his own and played school programs and benefits.

His first work in radio was on a local Shreveport station where he had a Saturday night spot. Faron began a course in Centenary College in Shreveport, but he left to join the cast of "Louisiana Hayride."

Faron was accepted for the cast of the Grand Ole Opry early in 1952. Soon he became nationally known when his song "Going Steady" hit. In the same year he was voted the most promising young country artist in the nation in a poll of disk jockeys.

Just before Christmas of 1952, Faron entered the army. His value as an entertainer for troops and as a headliner for Army recruiting programs on radio and television was quickly recognized. During the ensuing months he made many tours of military bases.

THE CASH BOX Country Roundup

Joe Johnson, publicity and promotion agent for Gene Autry, informs us that Autry will arrive in Nashville with Charlie Adams from the West Coast for the Western movie, and recording star's appearance on the Grand Ole Opry. Adams informs us that Bob Sour and Bob Burton of BMI, will also be in town for the big DJ Festival . . . Nov. 19-20!

RAMBLIN' LOU

Country music disk jockey, Frank Thies, recently guested on WSM's DJ USA. Frank is re-locating to WBOS, Jacksonville, Fla. Frank spins about four hours of country music per day, and also informs us that Jacksonville has two more very capable deejays . . . Marshall Roland, WJHP, and Glenn Reeves at WPDQ. And, speaking of deejays, might add that Ramblin' Lou of WHLD, Niagara Falls, N. Y. continues to promote country music and artists on promotions through his neck of the country. Bill Dudley (Capitol) been working location date in Baltimore, Md. and doubling up doing TV shows in this vicinity for the past several weeks. Eddy Arnold, Goldie Hill, Eddie Hill, Hank Garland, Roy Wiggins and Cousin Minnie Pearl just completed successful tour which covered North Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, Florida and Louisiana, and Tennessee. Tour was promoted and conducted by Col. Tom Parker. Frankie More, enterprising agent for Johnnie and Jack, and Kitty Wells, has just concluded personal appearance schedule with this group in Florida. One of the most consistent road groups of the day. More is now working on schedules for up in next year! Recently, Ferlin Huskey was booked out of WSM's Artist Service Bureau for a personal appearance. When Bob Ferguson inquired of Jim Denny, "who will play the date with Ferlin," Jim's calm reply was it's a 'single'. . . Huskey was sold "just to ride in a parade"; Denny added! John A. Towles, Sales rep for Capitol Records, doing fine job of public relations in around the Grand Ole Opry. Ada Hayes and Tommy Hayes of Gallipolis, Ohio into Nashville recently for visit backstage at the Opry. Bessie Mauldin, reports that Bill Monroe and his Blue Grass Boys have just completed a string of personal appearances in West Virginia, South Carolina, Southern Georgia and Florida. Zeke Clements who records for MGM, is working out of Nashville now, and is also promoting his Blazon Music Company here. Now that Faron Young is a civilian . . . well, it looks as if he's going to make up for the time he's been in the service. Hubert Long, who manages Faron and also the Wilburn Brothers, Doyle and Teddy, has the group scheduled for personal appearances starting Nov. 21, opening in San Antonio and other points in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California for a 12-day, one-nighter tour. Dec. 6, the group, along with Cousin Minnie Pearl play Frank Daily's Meadowbrook, Cedar Grove, N. J. just outside New York City.

The night of Nov. 8th saw Hank Snow leading things off with a jampacked 2000 capacity crowd. It's reported that more than 1000 were turned away. Negotiations are in the making to follow up with Webb Pierce, Ernest Tubb, Roy Acuff and Red Foley. Lyle Reed, deejay at WATV-Newark, N. J., is an associate partner in the project with the Jolly Joyce Agency handling the booking. Phil Gulley recently did a bang-up version of "Blue Moon Of Kentucky" and aiding Gulley on the Decca session were: Cecil Bailey, Owen Bradley, Jack Shook, Farris Coursey, Ernie Newton and Dutch McMillin, according to Francis Williams, WSM receptionist. Jimmy Simpson just returned after tour through the West. Simpson records for the indie Hidus Records, and is attracting a lot of attention with his recording of "I'm A Live-It-Up Boy" and "Honky Tonk Spree."

HAYRIDE HAPPENINGS . . . Jimmy Lee and Johnny

Mathis, managed by Tillman Franks, of the Louisiana Hayride, just completed a guest appearance on Pee Wee King's Show (Nov. 19). Jimmy and Johnny, who are seemingly going big on the Chess Records label, will also appear with Elvis Presley (Sun) and Grand Ole Opry's Johnnie and Jack and Kitty Wells, Nov. 28th when the groups work a show for Country DJ, Sleepy-Eyed John of Memphis, Tenn. Slim Wilson into Florida for a visit recently after concluding heavy personal appearance schedule. Horace Logan reports that Billy Walker will associate with the Louisiana Hayride on November 20th. Mitchell Torok, noted through these parts for his songwriting and singing, has his first release out now on Decca . . . "Roulette" and "Havana Huddle." A. M. "Pappy" Covington, who heads up KWKH's Artist Service Bureau, breaking away from bookings for a visit to the DJ Festival in Nashville this week. Pappy is reported to be bringing a group of the Hayride Artists with him.

BILL DUDLEY

FROM THE CROSSROADS OF COUNTRY MUSIC . . . Newest show originating from Springfield these days is the Bill Ring Show, fed from New York on Tuesday evenings over ABC. The "Ozark Jubilee" has enlarged their seating capacity, after having filled their house for every performance since the beginning of the show. According to word from Dub Allbritten, Red Foley's manager, Foley and his band recently did a personal appearance for the officers and enlisted men at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. Don Richardson, publicity ace for this Country Music show, reveals that Fred Lynn is doing a terrific job with the Country discs from this crossroads and . . . KWTO. Lots of good talk circulating regards to Porter Wagoner's RCA Victor recording of "Company's Comin'!"!!!

WLS—NATIONAL BARN DANCE . . . Cousin Tilford, the 6 foot and 10 inch comedian, tried out a series of hideous false faces on the crowd at the Hallowe'en performance of the WLS National Barn Dance on Saturday, Oct. 30th. It was only after he'd given up trying to scare people, and appeared with his own face, that everyone screamed: "Take It Away!" For the seventh consecutive year, the Will Country Illinois Chorus will provide a special program of song on the WLS "Dinnerbell" program on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, at 12:30 P.M.

COUNTRY SMATTERINGS . . . Joe Lucus of Acuff-Rose Publications, reports that Brad Lacey has moved his scene of operation from Nashville to WMYR, Ft. Myers, Fla. Brad has six days a week of Country music on his Hillbilly Star Parade, and features listings from The Cash Box top Country tunes.

WILBURN BROTHERS

Ted Adams reports that Noble Blackwell is doing a deejay over WSOK, Nashville, originating his show from Ernie Young's Record Mart in Nashville. Rita Robbins (RCA Victor) has really lined herself up with a series of shows that keep this young warbler busy. Now working from WHAS, Louisville, through January . . . working the Randy Atcher Show (Radio) Monday thru Friday, 7:15 a.m., Fun Fair Show (Radio), Tuesday thru Thursday, 7:45 a.m., Midday Round-Up (TV) Monday thru Friday, Hayloft Hoedown (TV), Friday 8-8:30 p.m. and the Old Kentucky Barn Dance (Radio) Saturday nights. And, as if this weren't enough, Rita probably keeps a pretty good schedule of personal appearances! Murray Nash reports that Maggie and Scotty Swan kicked off a daily one hour Country disc show over a new station, 1000 watter, WCHF, Chippewa Falls, Wis. on Nov. 1. The team also does a transcribed show at noon on the station with their own talent. Scotty is also associated with WEAU, Eau Claire, Wis. Pete Newman is doing a remote broadcast again . . . direct from Sleepy Hollow Ranch . . . the Sleepy Hollow Ranch is operated by the Sleepy Hollow Gang during the Summer season . . . and operate the Sleepy Hollow Inn all year round, and provide square and modern dancing every Friday and Saturday night. Jim Wilson, popular Country deejay of WOOO, Orlando, Florida, continues to promote Country music in the Southland. . . Jim's latest promotion extends his personal welcome to Andy Wilson, who begins deejaying on WABR, a new 1000 watter in Orlando. Andy formerly worked on WLAC here in Nashville, and last worked with Martha Carson and her Grand Ole Opry Show. Congratulations to Jim Wilson for his friendly recognition of this fellow-disk jockey, and good luck to Andy Wilson at WABR. Jim Wilson recently had Little Jimmy Dickens, Del Wood, Lazy Jim Day, Johnnie and Jack, and Kitty Wells on a personal appearance. Report from Keith Rush at WVEZ, New Orleans, La. reveals that Werly Fairburn's newest release on Capitol, "Prison Cell Of Love" and "I Feel Like Cryin'" is taking off big sales-wise through this section. Charley Stewart a newcomer to the RCA Victor label finds himself with a pretty busy schedule for a new artist; and here's his schedule: Charley Stewart Time, KLRA, Little Rock, Ark. Daily, 6:15 p.m.; Radio Bucks, KCLA, Pine Bluff, Ark., Saturdays, 4:30-5:00 p.m., Little Rock Lions Club, Nov. 18 and Country Club, Searcy, Ark. on Nov. 20. Schuessler, Publicity and Promotional chief at WAPI informs us that the station has acquired the services of Jack Cardwell for a three and half hour Country Music deejay show, from 5:00-8:30 a.m. In addition to the disk duties, Cardwell will direct all Country Music activities out of the station. Wink Lewis, KSNY-Snyder, Tex., tells us that on Friday, Oct. 29 he was visited by Jim Edward and Maxine Brown, Jerry Rowley (Fabor), Jim Reeves (Abbott) and his charming wife Mary.

WAX-WISE—Ernest Tubb turns in an interesting titled Christmas tune for Holiday season . . . it's called "I'll Be Walking The Floor This Christmas" and the tune is authored by Justin Tubb and Doug Tubb . . . the flip side of this is "Lonely Christmas Eve," written by Buddy Thornton, of Baird, Tex. Incidentally, Baird, Texas is where Ernest Tubb heard his first Decca recording . . . "I'll Get Along Somehow." Tubb opened, I didn't even know the record was out . . . and I heard it on a juke box. This was in 1940! Tubb has just returned from a visit with his Mother in San Antonio, Texas. WEATHER

"SHERIFF" TEX DAVIS

FORECAST: Heavy "Snows" due over entire U.S. and Canada, starting this month with Hank Snow's recording of "The Next Voice You Hear" and "That Crazy Mambo Thing," Snows to continue throughout the month with Jimmie Rodgers Snow's recording of "How Do You Think I Feel" and "Why Don't You Let Me Go?" This clever little promotional publicity was circulated by Mae B. Axton, National Publicity representative, for Hank Snow. Webb Pierce hosting Ted Rains in Nashville, while Rains made his first recording session for Decca. Rains hails from El Paso, Texas. Jack Clement, formerly of the Buzz & Jack duet out of Wheeling, W. Va., has cut his first waxing for Sheraton Records. Titles are "I Can't Say Nothing At All" backed with "I Think I'll Write A Song." The Billy Hayes-Jay Johnson tune "Blue Christmas" is reported to have an advance sheet music sale of over 12,000 this year. Full Schedule Planned For Disk Jockey Festival

WSM's National Disc Jockey Festival in honor of the twenty-ninth anniversary of the Grand Ole Opry on November 19 and 20 in Nashville, Tennessee, is like a big homecoming celebration for the nation's nearly one thousand country music disc jockeys. It's the two days out of the year when these Grand Ole Opry loving record pluggers can get together to see old friends, talk first hand to famous Opry artists, meet the top brass of the music industry, and see all four and a half hours of the fabulous Opry show. And it's a time, too, when they can take a turn in spinning their best yarns about their favorite songs, loyal fans, and enduring sponsors.

Plans for this year's disc jockey gathering have been in the making since the last Festival ended, with more than 500 registered, in November, 1953. Currently the two days of the 1954 event are packed with meetings and parties and chances are the schedule will be even more crowded when registration begins.

First on the agenda for Friday, November 19 is a meeting at 10:00 a.m. at which time WSM executives will step up to the rostrum to welcome the d. j.'s and introduce them to visiting record chiefs and representatives of publishing houses and music publications.

Shortly before noon they will adjourn and move into the main ballroom of the Andrew Jackson Hotel where RCA Victor will fete them at a luncheon.

At 2:00 in the afternoon the group will go back into their meeting room to participate in a round table discussion about record service and program problems.

While the meeting is in session the wives of the disc jockeys will be entertained at a tea given by Tennessee's First Lady, Mrs. Frank Clement, at the Governor's mansion.

From 4:00 to 5:00 Cedarwood Music will fete the Festival guests at a cocktail party at the Andrew Jackson Hotel.

Open houses hosted by representatives of record companies, publishing firms, and music publications will have top billing in the roster of events for Friday night. Also at that time WSM will open up its tape room in the Andrew Jackson to enable disc jockeys to interview artists.

Saturday events will start at 7:30 a.m. when Hill and Range picks up the tab at WSM's regularly scheduled show, BREAKFAST AT THE OPRY in the big ballroom of the Noel Hotel.

One of the most widely anticipated occasions on the agenda is WSM's elaborately planned reception for all the Festival guests. This year the party will be held on Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the Maxwell House Hotel.

At 7:30 p.m. everybody will walk down to the Ryman Auditorium for what will probably prove to be one of the most sparkling Opry performances of the year—its twenty-ninth anniversary show. Hank Snow, Webb Pierce, and Carl Smith will star on the NBC portion of the show that night, and they will have as their guest the world famous cowboy singer, Gene Autry, who planned many months ago to attend this year's disc jockey festival.

After the Opry Capitol Records will entertain the disc jockeys at a mid-night party at the Andrew Jackson Hotel.

In addition to the two day Festival the official Convention of the Country Music Disc Jockey's Association will take place one day prior to the Festival on November 18. The Association was organized at the 1953 Festival and its constitution specifies that its annual meeting be held in conjunction with the Festival.

Following is the Association's schedule of events:

8:00 AM—Board of Directors Meeting at Andrew Jackson

9:00 to 12:00 AM—General Meeting

12:00—Luncheon for members only

2:00 to 5:00 PM—General Meeting

7:00 PM—Banquet for members, their wives, and a limited number of representatives from recording companies, publishing companies and related industries.

Officers of the Association are Nelson King, WCKY, Cincinnati, President; Earl Davis, WFBG, Bristol, Virginia, Vice-President; Tommy Sutton, WING, Dayton, Ohio, Secretary; Dal Stallard, KCMO, Kansas City, Treasurer.

"Mohammed And The Mountain"

by FRANK WALKER

long as this wonderful country of ours has been in existence we've had plenty of country music, mountain music, western music, music of the hills and plains in addition to all of the wonderful tunes that have been cooked up in the cities. Each boat that arrived on our shores in those pioneering days brought, in addition to our forefathers, some form of musical instrument and some traditional melodies which eventually were warmed over and resulted in the folk music of our country. There they have been, these wonderful tunes, all down through the years just waiting for a chance to be heard by the millions who chose to live in the cities of our country. Now and then a little fellow from the mountains would chance a trip to the big city and offer his wares to the Mohammed of music, but what he had written just wasn't understood; the city people wouldn't want it, so back he went to his rural habitat where he knew his singing, his playing and his tunes would be appreciated. So it went down through the years.

That's the way I found it in the early twenties, and I couldn't understand it either. True I was a country lad but I didn't give up easily, but then I was particularly fortunate for I was employed by the Mohammed of music. I wasn't alone in this thought either for there were other hardy souls who had the same ideas too. I recall the first country record that I brought back and played for the music committee of a large record company. I prefaced the playing of the record by a little talk about mountain music but it didn't register—then I played the record and for three minutes watched the sufferings of the listeners. When the record was finished the chairman of the committee voiced the unanimous opinion of the others when he said "You call that music?" But that wasn't the end, not at all, for we kept at it and country records were made and sold and we pleased a lot of people back there in the mountains and on the plains. At the outset, these records weren't even included in the catalogs, hangers or advertising material for it was inconceivable to think that "You call that music?" could take its place alongside of Mohammed's creations. May I take time out at this point to bow low in the direction of Ralph Peer and Tom Rockwell who did so much thruout those early years to bring "mountain music" to the position of dignity which it now occupies. You will know Ralph Peer as head of Southern Music and Tom Rockwell as head of General Artists but what you may not know is the years these swell fellows spent in covering Dixie like the dew in search of old and new songs and singers. Thanks fellows, surely "mountain music" owes you a tremendous debt.

So came the day when Mohammed decided that it might be well worth while "going to the mountain". When did that occur? In the late twenties, aided to a degree by World War I which had brought millions of northern boys to the warm climate of the south for military training. There they had the opportunity of listening to a new type of music and what they heard they liked, and at the war's end they brought this liking back with them. But it really needed World War II to bring about the merging of mountain music with city music into what should be now called American music. Fourteen million young men couldn't be wrong—in southern training camps and on the battle fields of the world, for at any time the favorite buddy might break out in a little song, a jig or reel, a bit of gospel music, and most of all a heart song. At the end of the War it was inevitable that country music would come into its own, and it did. How long has it been since you've listened to the hit parade tunes without a large percentage being made up of songs of the country type? And isn't it a wonderful thing that Mohammed finally did go to the mountain and bring back the tunes that you and I like to hear now and then, songs of the open spaces, story songs, religious songs, and most of all heart songs, to add to the wonderful crop which he produces annually right at home—in the city.

Disk Jockeys DO Have Their Problems

by STEVE SHOLES

Country and Western disc jockeys face a particularly difficult problem, and no one is in a better position to recognize this situation than a Country and Western A & R man.

The success of a disc jockey depends on how well he entertains his audience. No matter how clever and amusing the man may be, the records he spins remain the most important factor in holding his listeners.

Thus the selection of his records becomes vital to the continued success of any disc jockey. In addition to a library of from hundreds to thousands of records, the average radio station receives from twenty to forty new ones each week. Obviously there aren't very many disc jockeys who can program eighty new selections a week. Unfortunately there do not seem to be many who take the time to audition all of the records they receive, and so the selection of new material depends on something other than personal opinion.

From my observation, new records are usually selected for play because they are by artists who are hot at the moment; because the artist, song writer or publisher is a particular favorite or friend of the jockey; because the record has been touted; or because the jockey has already heard something of interest about the new release. The rest of the program is built with the hits of the week according to the various trade paper charts, audience requests and a few of the grand old favorites by the well established artists of the past and present. While such program building has much in its favor it still has the glaring weakness of little variety and limited chances for the creation of new hits. Although a number of new artists appear each year under this system, it is still difficult to launch a new record no matter how deserving it may be.

A disc jockey must play the hits of the day and he must play records by the most popular artists. I would be the last to suggest that this be discontinued, but there is opportunity for the enterprising and intelligent person to greatly enrich his program by auditioning all new records and selecting the best items for his show. In this process a disc jockey becomes, in effect, an A & R man by choosing the records he believes will be hits. And he has the advantage over a record company A & R man of hearing the finished product when he makes his choice instead of the component parts. Naturally, the better the disc jockey is in picking hits by unknowns the more entertaining becomes his program. In addition, he will be contributing more to an over-all effort to spread interest in and enthusiasm for good Country and Western music.

I recognize the fact that the success of this plan rests to a great extent on the ability of the various record companies to create entertaining Country and Western records by new artists and unknown songs. I also am aware of the fact that in the opinion of some disc jockeys this is seldom the case. While it is true that every record released is not a smash, I submit that more hits die a-borning than ever feel the scratch of the sapphire; or at least enough plays to know whether they have what it takes or not.

It is unfortunate that there isn't an easy way for the disc jockey to pick the best records to play without listening to them, but in this respect he is again no better off than the A & R man who must listen to hundreds of songs in order to find the best one to record. To dig for the best requires time, concentrated thought and considerable effort.

There is no easy or quick way for you deejays that will really pay off in the long run. Set up a regular time to listen to all new releases. Do it while you are fresh, not at the end of your day when you are tired and everything sounds a little drab and colorless. Do it every week and do it carefully. I'm sure it will pay off with better programs and eventually you will contribute to the improvement of Country and Western music. After all, that is what we all want.

Grand Ole Opry Anniversary

by SYD NATHAN

In my opinion, the GRAND OLE OPRY has done as much for country music as the Declaration of Independence has done for the United States. If ever an organization existed that is thorough in its promotion and its good will throughout the country audience, that organization is National Life and Accident Insurance Company, owners of WSM, Nashville, Tennessee, the Father of the GRAND OLE OPRY, and this eulogy is apropos to anything that could be written about country music.

I can say this because all a record company, or an A&R Man, has to do to know the pulse of the country people, is to keep an ear tuned to WSM constantly.

We are proud to have three of our recording artists at WSM; Cowboy Copas, Moon Mullican, both of whom have been recording for King for ten years, and one of our newer artists, Louie Innis, and we impress on every new artist we sign up, the possibility that some day he may be on WSM.

To me, WSM is the Metropolitan Opera of this phase of the music business. Little is left to be written that has not already been written relative to country music. It would be idle talk for me to write about anything other than trends. There has been a definite trend in the country field, the same as continuously crops up in R&B and Pop fields. For many years, girl vocalists did not sell on country music, for what reason I do not know, but that picture has changed. Today a girl singing country music can be as big a star as any male.

Like The River Seine, Country Music Is Here To Stay

by LEWIS R. CHUDD

The hue and cry currently raised in the music business for "better song," "songs that will live," "songs to remember," and on occasion a recorded series of "high fidelity sounds and melodies for canines," brings to mind the ever-present static of early radio. There were few burst ear drums in those days, despite the fact that a complete radio show could not be heard. Perhaps pierced ears in those days helped. Maybe a renaissance of pierced ears is what the music business needs today.

Fortunately enough "music for bird or kennel-fed dogs" (take your pick) has not penetrated the country music field. It may be true that we are not producing songs of the same caliber or variety that Jimmie Rodgers did. But if that is true, it doesn't necessarily mean that the field is decadent, a situation some members of the pop field would have you believe. Like all things, times, requirements and tastes change and it appears perfectly evident that the so-called "johnny-come lately's" in the music business are doing a pretty good job of supplying what the public wants. Proof—the record business—which takes in a pretty wide berth and includes music publishers, recording artists, ASCAP and BMI, had a bonanza year in 1953, their biggest year.

The American public reportedly spent some $70,000,000 in 1953 to be entertained by country and western artists, of which roughly $25,000,000 came from phonograph records, and approximately $40,000,000 on the personal appearance circuit. Now that ain't exactly hay, though a lot of people who are a lot closer to a plow than The Palace are responsible for the figure.

It's curious that the accomplishments of the country music field need continually be recounted, and in some quarters, even apologized for. We don't particularly question whether or not General Motors is big business. And the same equation and right of the car buyer applies to the music-record business. Don't like a particular automobile, you don't buy it. If you don't like a particular recording, don't buy it.

Songwriters, record companies, music publishers and recording artists are basically in this business to make money. Why somebody's song need live for posterity is beyond me. If a guy's tune can become a standard, that's fine and dandy. I'd like to earn a living for posterity, and though it's difficult, I'm anxious to get to know what time-payments ain't. And though it's just an off-hand observation, our founding fathers, with much great wisdom, saw fit to put Ft. Knox down in Kentucky, not in the Brill Building.

Just so long as most of us are motivated by a desire to succeed, so long will there be not only a country music business, but more so, individuals more commonly known in the industry as independents. I applaud the success of such ventures as Randy Wood and his Dot Record Company, Abbott Records, and for purely impersonal reasons, my own firm Imperial Records, Inc. Almost four million people have purchased recordings of Slim Whitman's "Indian Love Call," and thru other hits as "Keep It A Secret," "Secret Love" etc., have established him as a "name" in the country field.

There'll be other names to come, new names who will give a good account of themselves. I'm anxious for the new names too.

Congratulations To W S M

by DEE KILPATRICK

It is with extreme pleasure that we say "Congratulations" to WSM on the 29th Anniversary of their Grand Ole Opry.

There have been many theories for the continued success of WSM and the Grand Ole Opry. We know of no one theory that has been completely correct nor do we have the knowledge or wisdom to offer a complete theory. Yet, we know that one reason for the continued and tremendous success of this show is the fact that it remains basically a Country show. Also, tradition and the sincerity of the performers are of the greatest importance. These, in our humble opinion, are two of the reasons for such a record of success.

Like any entertainer, act or organization that has experienced a tremendous amount of success, there has been criticism, but the praise for this operation has so far exceeded the criticism that it only reminds us of the story of the "Gnat and the Camel."

Needless to say, a great array of fine talent is necessary for such a program. Likewise, the necessity for good direction and production and the need for proper promotion and booking of such a huge amount of good talent is no little job.

Never has there been such a large operation made up of so many top personalities in a given field, working year in and year out on the same show, maintaining the peace and harmony that prevails. All this comes about not as results of chance, but because of extremely fine management and long range planning.

As a result of the combination of great artists, proper direction and production, excellent promotion, good booking and management and proper planning, WSM and the Grand Ole Opry have been able to give the entire world the greatest array of Country talent and entertainment possible. With these facets plus the sincerity with which these shows are produced and performed, I'm sure WSM and the Grand Ole Opry will be even stronger on their 39th Anniversary.

Country music is true Americana. Our classical music is basically derived from the European countries. Our American jazz and blues is primarily of Afro origin. Just about every nation at one time or another has experienced the popularity of a given tune which could be compared with our present day pop tunes. It is true that folk tunes have experienced a long life of popularity, primarily those derived from the Scotch as well as the English. This is still different from our American Country tunes of today.

Our American Country tunes of today are based primarily on love stories. It is a story that must be told quickly, directly and very explicitly. I must admit that this type of music is not for the sophisticates as it is quite simple in structure and leaves little to the imagination. The sincerity and the tremendous amount of heart with which these tunes are written makes us proud of Country music being our true Americana. We are of the opinion that such music will increase in popularity even more than has been experienced in the past five or ten years.

With great institutions such as the Grand Ole Opry, we're sure that the growth of Country music and the popularity of same has just begun.

Again, we wish to say with all sincerity, "Congratulations" to WSM on the 29th Anniversary of their Grand Ole Opry.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE of the WEEK

"CHRISTMAS CAN'T BE FAR AWAY" (2:57) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B. Bryant] CHRISTMAS
"I'M YOUR PRIVATE SANTA CLAUS" (1:59) [Tannen BMI—C. Cohen]
 EDDY ARNOLD (RCA Victor 20-5905; 47-5905)

● Eddy Arnold's inviting vocal stylings are a treat to the ear during any season and the chanter proves the point as he comes up with a pair of captivating Yuletide items. Upper end features the artist's smooth and mellow style on a beautiful, middle beat, sentimental piece, dubbed "Christmas Can't Be Far Away." Chorus lends warm support. "I'm Your Private Santa Claus," on the flipside, is a sparkling, novelty bouncer with charming instrumental effects. Both ends should brighten everyone's Christmas tree.

"HEY, WHATTA Y'SAY" (2:14) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Terry, Theriot]
"LET'S POSTPONE OUR WEDDING" (2:31) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B. Bryant, F. Bryant]
 AL TERRY (Hickory 1017; 45-1017)

● Al Terry puts his best foot forward as he comes up with a delightful platter that could easily bounce up to the top of the charts. It's an up-tempo, romantic ditty labeled "Hey, Whatta Y'Say." Terry's pleasant, relaxed delivery combines with a most appealing set of lyrics and the results prove mighty effective. Under portion, "Let's Postpone Our Wedding," is a feelingful item that the artist projects in potent fashion. Initial reaction likely to show on the upper half.

DALLAS WILSON (Excel 102; 45-102)
C+ "LET'S KEEP OUR HEARTS TOGETHER" (2:26) [American BMI—L. La Lande] Dallas Wilson joins forces with Jerri Jones on a pleasant moderate beat love piece. Smooth wedding of lyrics and melody round out a relaxing side.
C "SO THANKFUL FOR YOU" (2:32) [American BMI—D. Wilson, G. Wilson] Wilson turns in a neat solo vocal effort on another romantic side. Flavorful assist by Herb Tucker's Dude Ranch Cowboys.

TEX ZARIO (Arcade 101; 45-101)
B "GO MAN, GET HOME" (2:44) [Arcade ASCAP—R. Lefavi, L. Taylor] Tex Zario takes hold of a catchy, fast moving item and belts it out in solid style. Delectable instrumental backdrop supplied by the El Rancho Rangers.
C+ "CARELESS HEART" (2:56) [Arcade ASCAP—J. Collett, L. Taylor] On the lower half, Zario sings a poignant moderate tempo, romantic lament in heart rending fashion. An effective coupling.

GEORGE MORGAN (Columbia 21321; 45-21321)
B "OCEANS OF TEARS" (2:24) [Blackwood BMI—Morrow, S. James] George Morgan comes up with a sincere reading on a pretty, lilting weeper. Anita Kerr Singers enrich the deck. Should attract a heap of spins and sales.
B "A SHOT IN THE DARK" [Hill & Range BMI—Tappin, R. Bennett] Morgan turns in winning performance on a refreshing, quick beat cutie. An easy-on-the-ears platter.

MOON MULLICAN (King 1408; 45-1408)
B "YOU GOT THE BEST OF ME" (2:40) [Arc BMI—Walker, Lewis] With a tear in his voice Moon Mullican etches a sad, middle tempo lover's lament. Touching lyrics receive an excellent organ and string backdrop.
B "DOWNSTREAM" (2:19) [Redd Stewart BMI—Stewart, Dull] On the bottom lid, Mullican impressively waxes a quick beat, moral type item. A good pairing.

SKEETS McDONALD (Capitol 2976; F2976)
B "SMOKE COMES OUT MY CHIMNEY JUST THE SAME" (2:26) [Tennessee BMI—V. J. McAlpine] Skeets McDonald displays his enchanting vocal styling as he zestfully waxes an up-tempo, sentimental item. Should latch on to a goodly share of the spins.
B "EACH TIME A NEW LOVE DIES" (2:18) [Central Songs BMI—S. McDonald] Flipside is a quick beat, heartfelt tale that the warbler etches in distinctive fashion.

SPADE COOLEY (Decca 29303; 9-29303)
B "YOU CLOBBERED ME" (2:09) [Tune Towne BMI—S. Cooley, R. Fox] Betsy Gay handles the vocal chores in fetching fashion as Spade Cooley and his orchestra etch an infectious quick beat piece with clever lyrics. Deck oughta make the boxes jingle.
C+ "BREAK UP DOWN" (2:11) [Copar BMI—S. Cooley] Under slicing is a fast moving instrumental piece that Cooley and the crew deck out in colorful style.

TEXAS JIM ROBERTSON (MGM 11860; K11860)
B "WALKIN' AND TALKIN' WITH THE LORD" (2:32) [Harding ASCAP—Harding] The full and rounded tones of Texas Jim Robertson come over well on this moving, middle tempo sacred piece. Beautiful melody.
B "PRIDE OF MY HEART" (2:38) [Bob Miller ASCAP—Robertson, Murphy] Robertson comes through with another first quality reading on a tantalizing, quick tempo romantic ballad.

MYRNA LORRIE & BUDDY DEVAL (Abbott 172; 172-45)
B+ "ARE YOU MINE" (2:25) [Dandelion BMI—Grashey, Amadeo, Lorrie] The label's newest duo, Myrna Lorrie and Buddy DeVal, could prove to be a top money-making combo as they dish up a potent reading on a light-hearted, quick beat love tune. Real catchy side.
B "YOU BET I KISSED HIM" (2:05) [Dandelion BMI—D. Grashey, D. Petrunka] Myrna Lorrie turns in a fine solo effort on a sprightly bouncer with enjoyable lyrics.

GENE AUTRY

Grand Ole Opry's Special Guest

GENE AUTRY

To tell the real story of Gene Autry and his fabulous background would be as difficult to tell in a few words, as it would be for anyone to displace Gene Autry from his niche in American musical entertainment history.

Born of rugged pioneer stock you could really say that he was 'born in the saddle' . . . a true son of the real West. Two states claim him as their own. Gene was born on a ranch near Tioga, Texas. While still very young, his folks moved to Ravia, Oklahoma; this is where Gene really grew up. He sang in the Church Choir, where his Grandfather was Minister. By the time he was eighteen, he was working as a relief telegrapher on the St. Louis-Francisco line. One night when things were just a little dull around the station, Gene picked up his guitar to do a little singing to pass the time. While singing, a stranger walked in to send a telegram and told him to keep on singin'. Before the stranger left, he told Gene "you're good" young fella'. Stick to it. This stranger was none other than the immortal Will Rogers. This was all Gene had to hear and he stuck to his guns until the name of Gene Autry has become a byword and legend in every American home and in just about every country in the world. Today, Gene is success personified.

Gene knew that to become a top notch singer, or perhaps a star he would have to get a recording contract. So, off he went to New York, since all of the recording companies were there. His trip to New York was a complete blank as far as he was concerned and very discouraging. They told him to go home and get on some local station for a little polish and experience, and then come back. So, Gene went on to Oklahoma City and got a job on KVOO. It didn't pay a thing at first, and then a little later he did earn a little from the job, but not much. But Gene did become the sensation locally. The following year Gene went back to New York and this time he won a recording contract. Big time followed shortly after.

Then motion pictures and in 1950, television.

And, in the recording field, Gene's first recording was his own composition . . . "That Silver Haired Daddy Of Mine." This tune skyrocketed Gene to the top immediately. It sold over one million copies, and has been in the best sellers ever since. Since this time, Gene has had many of his records to go over the 'one million mark'. Amongst the tunes which have gone over this mark, besides "That Silver Haired Daddy Of Mine" are "Mississippi Valley Blues," "Tumbling Tumble Weeds," "Back In The Saddle Again," "Here Comes Santa Claus," and "Rudolph The Rednosed Reindeer." Gene's biggest all-time seller was "Rudolph The Rednosed Reindeer" which has sold more than five million records.

Gene has now been a recording star for well over twenty years, and has consistently been one of the nation's top record sellers. Gene records for Columbia.

Today, Gene Autry heads a multi-million dollar organization which handles all of his various enterprises, including radio, television, motion pictures, rodeos, and personal appearances.

Gene also has his own music publishing company, which is headed by well-known Charlie Adams.

Gene Autry, here in Nashville as a special guest of WSM, for the Disk Jockey Festival, will make his first appearance on the Grand Ole Opry.

Best Wishes on your 29th Anniversary
"Grand Ole Opry"

More than a quarter of a century ago, a young Memphis reporter shipped aboard a mule and made his way thirty miles into the Arkansas hills to cover a moonshine story. He got there to find the moonshiner's trial had been postponed and he wearily accepted the hospitality of a hill family rather than take that trip again immediately. Instead of letting him collapse into a feather bed, the hill folk dragged him four miles more (it was a "Satiddy" night) to a barn dance.

Out of that trip, some years later, George Hay conceived the idea for his Grand Ole Opry program, now in its sixteenth year. Until sunup, that night back so long ago, Hay watched the simple folk of the hills forget the rigors of their lives in the joy of dancing to homespun tunes turned out by a fiddler, a banjo picker and a "gittar" strummer.

In November 1925, Hay was in Nashville, with Station WSM. One day an old-time fiddler, "Uncle Jimmy" Thompson, appeared at the studios as a voluntary performer and Hay, remembering the Arkansas barn dance, put him on the air. Since then, under the guidance of Hay as the "Solemn Old Judge," the program has grown to national proportion.

The Solemn Old Judge is neither solemn nor old, although he's one of the first of the great air personalities. He began his radio career at WMC, Memphis, and immediately gained fame by scooping the world on the death of President Harding; Hay on the air with the news thirteen minutes after the President's death and he stood by for three hours thereafter with bulletins on the nation's reaction.

In 1924 he was chosen the most popular radio announcer in the country, with 150,000 votes to his credit in the first nation-wide popularity poll ever conducted. From Memphis, "Solemn Old Judge Hay" went to Chicago and, in the spring of 1925, performed a notable service by sticking to his microphone for the better part of seven days and nights, raising funds for victims of the Indiana-Illinois cyclone. When he finally rolled into bed he had the satisfaction of knowing he'd amassed $215,000 for relief work.

When WSM was opened October 5, 1925, Hay went to Nashville for the dedicatory exercises. Sixty days later he inaugurated the Grand Ole Opry and found himself involved in a lengthy dispute with local citizens who feared the "hilly billy stuff" would make Nashville the laughing stock of the country. Instead of laughing, the country loved it, and the battle of months was ended when Nashville residents, visiting in other states, described how they'd been welcomed because they came from the home of the Opry. Hay's philosophy is:

"We're not smart; we're not even clever—we just try to be friendly and make our program a meeting of the neighbors."

"Our Girl"—

Mary Claire Rhodes

NASHVILLE, TENN.—"Our Girl Friday" . . . well, as a matter of fact, "our girl every day in the week" here at WSM and Grand Ole Opry is none other than Mary Claire Rhodes, assistant to Jim Denny in the WSM Artist Service Bureau. She is actually the "right hand man" to Jim Denny.

Mary Claire, as she's known to each and every artist, manager, and representative working out of Nashville, has been with WSM for ten and a half years . . . marking her tenth year with the station June 1 this year.

What's significant about Mary Claire is her ability to rattle off the telephone numbers, and bits of information to the various people who clutter her office daily seeking information regarding personal appearances, news releases about some of the 131 Grand Ole Opry stars, or simply 'things' in general. Mary Claire is a living encyclopedia as far as information surrounding the phases and operation of Grand Ole Opry, the Artist Service Bureau, and the people connected with the show.

In private life, Mary Claire is the wife of entertainer Curley Rhodes, who performs with Roy Acuff and his Smoky Mountain Boys!

Capitol Executives Off To Nashville

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Capitol Records Executives from all over the country will attend the 29th Anniversary Party of WSM's Grand Old Opry to be held in Nashville, Tennessee on November 19th and 20th.

Hal Cook, Dick Linke and Dave Cavanaugh will fly in from New York with Country and Western Promotion Man, Bob Burrell, coming in from Atlanta. Ken Nelson and Bud Fraser will be flying in from the coast and several District Sales Managers, and Branch Managers, will also be in attendance. These include Joe Matthews of Jacksonville, Ray Marchbanks of Dallas, Paul Igou of Memphis, Ray Taylor of Oklahoma City, Joe Deters of Atlanta, Warner Pagliara of Charlotte, Bill Mikels of St. Louis, Pete Goyak of Cincinnati, Don Comstock of Atlanta, Max Callison from Fort Wayne, Ivan Conwell of Denver and Mike Maitland from Glenview, Illinois. All in all, eighteen men will represent Capitol Records in what promises to be the largest gathering of country and western disk jockeys in the history of the music business.

The entire Capitol montage will arrive on the 19th and on the 20th will huddle under the direction of Hal Cook, National Sales Manager, to discuss country and western artists and sales.

On Saturday night, Capitol Records will again host the final official affair sponsoring a cocktail party in the Commodore Room of the Andrew Jackson Hotel. This promises to be a memorable finale to the gathering of some twelve hundred country and western disk jockeys throughout the country.

ARLIE DUFF

A Texas school teacher and basketball coach at the time he wrote and recorded "Y'All Come," Arlie has now left the teaching profession behind and moved to Springfield, Mo., where he is featured each Saturday night on "The Ozark Jubilee". Arlie was recently married in a ceremony at The Crossroads of Country Music, with fellow Decca artist Red Foley as his best man.

FOGGY RIVER BOYS

This foursome, organized several months ago by Red Foley to appear on "The Ozark Jubilee", is now recording for Decca. The two men standing in the picture above are Bill and Monty Matthews, sparkplugs of the original, well-remembered "Jordanaires" quartet.

HAWKSHAW HAWKINS

Wheeling, West Virginia's loss was Springfield, Missouri's gain, when six-foot five-inch Hawkshaw Hawkins left WWVA's "Jamboree" and joined the cast of "The Ozark Jubilee". Known far and wide as one of the most colorful of all showbusiness figures, the good-looking Victor warbler drives an El Dorado Cadillac which is much like a fire chief's car in color and about the size of a hook-and-ladder truck.

BUD ISAACS

A former professional boxer, Bud Isaacs now uses his hands to better advantage as RCA Victor's "star of the steel guitar." Bud is a regular member of Red Foley's "Crossroads Boys" band and a featured artist on "The Ozark Jubilee".

TOMMY JACKSON

The widely known "King of the Country Fiddlers" has been playing professionally since the age of 15. A native of Nashville, Tommy is now associated with "The Ozark Jubilee" in Springfield, Mo., where he is heard on the Red Foley ABC Network portion of the big show. In addition to cutting his own records for Dot, Tommy is heard on the records of many of the top C & W singing stars.

GRADY MARTIN

Combination bandleader - and - pilot for Red Foley, the 25-year-old "Mr. Slewfoot" was raised in Marshall County, Tennessee. He began his professional career at the age of 15 in Nashville, where he was a regular on WSM's "Grand Ole Opry" until moving to Springfield, Mo., and joining "The Ozark Jubilee". Grady is one of Decca's prize properties.

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

RadiOzark Artists

BILL RING

This 290 pounds of fine entertainer is heard on several hundred radio stations as singing emcee of his own daily program for General Mills, which Bill transcribes at RadiOzark Enterprises in Springfield, Mo. Also an extremely competent director of country music shows, Bill spends a part of his time in Hollywood, where he has charge of RadiOzark's "Tennessee Ernie Show." When not occupied with his West Coast assignment, the rotund Mr. Ring is featured on "The Ozark Jubilee."

JEAN SHEPARD

Tiny-in-stature-but-big-in-voice, Jean Shepard is still another artist who followed Red Foley's lead in moving to "The Crossroads of Country Music," Springfield, Mo., where her nationwide bookings are handled by Top Talent. The pretty 20-year-old Capitol artist is a native of Oklahoma, but lived in California, just prior to joining "The Ozark Jubilee."

TOMMY SOSEBEE

A native of Greenville, S. C., and former Grand Ole Opry headliner, Tommy is now a resident of "The Crossroads of Country Music," Springfield, Mo., appearing on Radio Station KWTO and Television Station KYTV. The star of Coral records has his own regular portion of "The Ozark Jubilee" each Saturday night.

PORTER WAGONER

One of RCA Victor's fastest-rising young backwoods warblers, 26-year-old Porter Wagoner makes his home in Springfield, Mo., where he has a number of daily programs on KWTO and KYTV, in addition to his own regular portion of "The Ozark Jubilee." The lean, lanky Porter is also a respected writer in the country music field, having produced some notable tunes for Springfield's Earl Barton Music.

BILLY WALKER

With his popularity firmly established after the success of his Columbia records of "Mexican Joe" and "Thank You For Calling," Billy has moved to Springfield, Mo., which serves as his base of operations for personal appearances. Each Saturday night he is heard on "The Ozark Jubilee" at Springfield's Jewell Theatre.

SLIM WILSON

On a recent performance of "The Ozark Jubilee," Slim celebrated his 25,000th broadcast on the same station. In commemorating the occasion, Ralph D. Foster, president of KWTO and RadiOzark, presented Slim with a gold quarter-hour transcription of his 24,999th program. Only a week later he was signed to a Decca recording contract by that label's A & R topper, Paul Cohen.

WILLIS BROTHERS (OKLAHOMA WRANGLERS)

After nine years of touring with Eddy Arnold, the Oklahoma Wranglers (left to right, Skeeter Willis, Vick Willis, Chuck Wright, Guy Willis) have settled down in Springfield, Mo., where their regular shows on Radio Station KWTO and Television Station KYTV, and their weekly portion of "The Ozark Jubilee," have made them great favorites in the Missouri-Kansas-Oklahoma-Arkansas area.

RadiOzark's Executives Speak

E. E. "SI" SIMAN, Jr.
Vice President

As the nation's largest producers of transcribed country music programs, we have hitched our wagon to the same star as you, the disc jockey. Our faith in the continued growth of country music should be adequately demonstrated in the fact that RadioOzark has introduced a new series of programs each year in the past and will bring forth still another new series—the 15-minute, five-day-a-week "Red Foley Show"—in early 1955.

Just as you believe in star-studding your daily programs with top names for greater audience appeal, we feature a big-time guest star on each day's transcribed show: on "The Smiley Burnette Show," for example, 293 guests have been used, ranging from George Morgan and Ernest Tubbs to Pee Wee King and his band; girl-singers are utilized as guests on our "Tennessee Ernie Show"; and, when the new Foley series emerges, you will find its guest star roster includes Kitty Wells and T. Texas Tyler, as well as Jean Shepard, Arlie Duff, Hawkshaw Hawkins, Porter Wagoner, and all of the major-label artists now headquartering here at The Crossroads of Country Music.

Our most recent survey indicates that 81% of all national and regional radio today is recorded and transcribed. The tendency is away from the networks and toward independent programming. Therefore, our purpose is the same as yours . . . to better the quality of our country music programs and strive for still greater popularity of this genuinely great form of entertainment. And whatever measure of success we have been able to achieve can be credited to country music—in producing ten different shows, currently being aired on 1,120 stations, not once have we left the country field.

LOU BLACK
General Manager

A few weeks ago, when we joined with Dub Albritten in successfully testing a new personal appearance attraction called "The Red Foley Singathon," Top Talent added Unit No. 75 to its list of available country music packages.

I suppose that we could represent another 75 such attractions, if we had not decided when we formed our organization that we would operate as a country music agency exclusively, a decision which we based upon the same reason that you, on your radio programs, do not mix country and pop—you can do your best job when you concentrate all of your efforts in one direction.

Top Talent was formed to satisfy two purposes: (1) to give the best possible representation to "Ozark Jubilee" artists, now numbering 14 major-label recording acts and 55 other top-flight performers, and (2) to build and place upon the national market previously-unoffered packages of fine country music talent.

We at Top Talent make no secret of the fact that our modest success to date has been due, in substantial measure, to the assistance of the nation's disc jockeys, whose cooperation—as any experienced booker worth his salt should readily admit—is essential to any successful country music promotion.

DON RICHARDSON
Publicity

Stand here beside me at the front door of Springfield, Missouri's Jewell theatre for just a minute. I want you to hear some of the things that folks are saying to Lou Black and Si Siman, as the "Ozark Jubilee" crowd heads for home.

"We came down from Des Moines to see Red Foley and his gang, after hearing Smokey Smith rave about it on the air."

"Our family is moving from Tampa to Denver, and we just had to stop and see the show that Bob Ross talks about on WFLA."

"Paul Kallinger has such nice things to say about the stars on your show, we thought we'd take a weekend and drive up from Oklahoma City."

Did you see that knowing nod exchanged between Lou and Si just then? That can mean just one thing:

"Thank the Lord for the help of the disc jockeys!"

Those kind words you fellows are saying on the air . . . about Red Foley having a new show of his own . . . about the fact that more than a dozen other headliners have followed Red's lead in moving here to The Crossroads . . . about the idea of a fresh, new show being good for country music in general . . . all of these things you are saying are encouraging us, more than we can possibly tell you, in what we are trying to do here in Springfield.

As you know, two different half-hour segments of the "Jubilee" are now carried weekly on more than 200 stations of the ABC Network. And we are locally televising 90 minutes of each Saturday night's show, preparatory to an entry into network television. All in all, our show's future couldn't look brighter—thanks to you, all of you.

Louisiana Hayride

CAROLYN BRADSHAW

The youngest, smallest and certainly one of the cutest members of the regular Louisiana Hayride cast, Carolyn was just 16 when she came to the Hayride in 1953. However, she had made personal appearances all over the South and Southwest and several of her records had gained considerable popularity. Being just under five feet, she gets a lot of kidding about being a shorty. However, in the spring of 1954 she won the title of "Petite Miss Physical Culture" in statewide competition. Carolyn records for Chess. She is single and has no plans, as yet, except to make a career out of folk music.

MAXINE & JIM BROWN

This brother and sister team had a rather spectacular rise to fame. The first record they ever made became a national hit and, to make it more impressive, it was a record of their own song, "I Was Looking Back To See." Also, they wrote "Rio de Janeiro" the song which was on the flip side, and they have several other promising tunes on the way. Jim Edward and Maxine are both single and they plan to work together for a long time to come. They came to the Hayride in May, 1954. Making their home in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, they drive to Shreveport every Saturday to appear on the show. Their records are released on the Fabor label.

TIBBY EDWARDS

This young fellow has had considerable stage experience and is an accomplished showman. He has a driving, intense style which has won him many followers and a long term contract for a series of records with Mercury. Tibby, who is a native of South Louisiana, joined the Hayride cast in August, 1953, coming to Shreveport from New Orleans. He is single, good-looking and is one of the most colorfully-dressed artists on the show. His costumes are designed and made for him by his sister. Unlike many entertainers, who when selecting a professional name choose something far removed from their real names, Tibby stuck pretty close to home in choosing his. Actually, his name is Edward Thibodaux which, in South Louisiana, is pronounced Tibby-doe.

JACK FORD

The singing cop, a Chess recording artist, has been associated with the Hayride for more than six years. However, it was not until 1953 that he became a regular member of the cast. He worked with Curley Williams and the Georgia Peach Pickers in 1948 and '49. Later, he worked with the late Hank Williams as a featured soloist and member of the band. In addition to his Hayride chores, Jack holds a regular full-time job with the Shreveport Police Department. These duties, along with frequent personal appearances, keep him plenty busy. Jack and his wife, Dorothy have two children, a daughter Sandra a young son Eddie Jack.

JEANETTE HICKS

Okeh recording artist Jeanette Hicks joined the cast of the Louisiana Hayride early in 1953. Tillman Franks, who at the time was manager of the Carlises, heard her sing in her native town of Texarkana, Texas. He brought her to the Hayride one Saturday night and Horace Logan auditioned her and signed her for an appearance on the show. Before the following week was out, she had been auditioned and signed by Okeh Records, had recorded her first songs and had won a permanent spot on the Hayride. Jeanette is small, standing just a fraction of an inch over five feet. She still resides in Texarkana and drives to Shreveport every week end for the show.

HOOT & CURLEY

Hoot Raines and Curley Herndon came to the Hayride in 1950 as members of Slim Whitman's group. In this capacity they played the unusual accompaniment on several of Slim's records, some of which were highly successful. Hoot plays steel guitar and has an unusual and distinctive style that has attracted a great deal of attention. Curley plays electric standard guitar and is featured soloist. They decided to team up on their own in 1953 and have been featured as an act on the Hayride since that time. Their first recording contract was with Imperial, however, they later switched to the Starday label under which they have recorded "Hurry, Hurry," "Love Of Another Man's Wife" and other popular numbers.

JOHNNY HORTON

The Singing Fisherman came by his title honestly. For several years he worked for tackle manufacturers, testing various kinds of fishing equipment. As a natural result, he developed an uncanny ability to locate fish, and catch them. He is an accomplished song writer and most of his Mercury recordings are his own compositions. These include "First Train Heading South," "Mansion You Stole," "Train With The Rumba Beat" and other popular numbers. Endowed with unusual vocal ability, Johnny has developed a highly individual style that is always greeted with enthusiasm on the Hayride. He began his singing career in California where he worked on a number of regular radio and television programs along with Tennessee Ernie, Cliffe Stone and other West Coast personalities. He is a native of Tyler, Texas, and attended Baylor University on a basketball scholarship.

JIMMY & JOHNNY

Both these boys were featured as soloists on the Hayride back in 1951, and both were popular favorites with the audiences. Then, in 1953, they left on an extended tour which took them all over the South and Southwest in a series of personal appearances. It was on this tour that they decided to form a team. Both of them write songs and the combination has been a happy one because they have been able to develop a repertoire of outstanding duet numbers. Johnny Mathis (left) plays the rhythm guitar, specializes in comic numbers and is an expert at impersonation. Jimmy Lee is an outstanding performer on the electric guitar, with an unusual and distinctive style. Jimmy recorded for Capitol for a number of years and had several releases on that label. Since forming their team, they have been under contract to Chess Records and, currently, have a tune that's been riding high on the popularity charts, recorded on the Chess label, "If You Don't, Somebody Else Will."

Atlanta Celebrates Faron Young Day As Singer Is Discharged From Army

FARON YOUNG

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Faron Young, fast rising country and western artist, will be honored with a "FARON YOUNG DAY" on November 17th in Atlanta, Ga., by the entire city. This day celebrates Faron Young's discharge from the Army and his return to civilian life.

The young western star will be presented with a Letter of Commendation by the Board of Alderman in the city of Atlanta. In addition, all radio and TV stations will honor Young around the clock on the 17th. He'll appear on "Today in Georgia," a TV show shown over WSB, and WAGA-TV will sponsor a tribute to Faron Young with Boots Woodall and his TV Ranglers handling the chores.

Faron Young has been stationed at Fort McPherson for over a year and during this time has made benefit appearances and has played to approximately one million service men.

Immediately following this day long tribute, Young will return to Nashville to take part in the 29th Anniversary Party of WSM's Grand Old Opry on November 19th and 20th.

Senator Kefauver Visits National Barn Dance

CHICAGO—Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee paid a surprise visit to the WLS National Barn Dance in Chicago last Saturday night, November 6th, and settled an important question for Homer and Jethro fans. The zany WLS parodists claim to be from Hoot 'n Holler, Tennessee, and listeners have had some trouble locating the place. According to the senator, Knoxville is a suburb of Hoot 'n Holler, which clears up the mystery.

Sen. Kefauver complimented the 30 year old WLS National Barn Dance and its cast, remarking that such folk music programs made America great. He said he was proud of his native state's great program "Grand O'Pry," and commented on the fact that George D. Hay, founder of Grand O'Pry" was an alumnus of the famous WLS program.

Louisiana Hayride

HORACE LOGAN

Back of the stars are the men whose work makes a show like the Hayride possible. One of these is Horace Logan, Program Director of KWKH, who has been with the show since its first performance. As producer of the Hayride, his many duties such as auditioning artists and deciding which shall be given a place on the show, fitting them into the schedule, selecting guests, etc., keep him busy during much of the week. Then on Saturday nights he must watch cues, time commercial announcements and supervise numerous other details. Listening to new artists and deciding whether or not they are potential stars is one of his most difficult tasks. Horace is a family man and his wife, Mary, is an active assistant on the Hayride. They have two sons, Lee and Tommy, and a daughter, Gale.

JIMMY NEWMAN

Jimmy Newman is a South Louisiana boy with a Cajun-French accent which has contributed much to his unusual vocal style. Jimmy was born near Big Mamou and spent the early years of his professional career making personal appearances throughout South Louisiana and Texas. He became quite well-known nationally when he started recording for the Dot Record Company and released one of his own compositions "Cry, Cry Darling." This song became a favorite with Disk Jockeys all over the nation and soon was on the national list of folk and country hits. Jimmy joined the Hayride in early 1954.

FRANK PAGE

Frank Page, KWKH's Production Manager, joined the staff of the radio station in 1947. Shortly after, the Hayride was originated and he has been associated with the show in one way or another ever since. He does everything from singing a theme to moving scenery. Frank is one of the biggest hillbillies on the cast, standing six feet five inches in his stocking feet. He is one of those who works behind the scenes to keep things clicking and make the show more enjoyable. Frank's wife, Helen, and their three-year-old daughter, Patti, are avid Hayride fans and when they can't attend the show they tune in to hear their favorite announcer on their favorite program.

JIM REEVES

Jim Reeves started out as a professional baseball player . . . then became a radio announcer . . . then a top-ranking folk singer. He came to KWKH as an announcer in 1952. Assigned to the Hayride as an announcer, he sang a few songs as a side line and developed a very pleasing style. Then he recorded "Mexican Joe" and it zoomed right to the top. It was followed by "Bimbo" which has sold more than 600,000 copies. Now, of course, he devotes all his time to his singing, but he's a cautious man. On leaving his announcing job at KWKH, he didn't quit, he just took an indefinite leave of absence. Says, he wants something to fall back on if things go wrong.

Louisiana Hayride

THE ROWLEY TRIO

Evelyn, Jerry and Dido, the Rowley Trio. It's a confusing name because actually they never do any trio singing. Evelyn plays the piano, Jerry the guitar and Dido the bass fiddle and Jerry and Dido sing duets and solos with Jerry recording for Fabor and Dido recording for Imperial. Evelyn is Jerry's wife and Dido is Jerry's sister. If you're not confused at this point we would like to say that this is a swell trio of youngsters with a lot of talent. They have made extensive tours with Jim Reeves, Ginny Wright, Mitchell Torok, Johnny Horton and many others.

Jerry and Dido's latest release as a team is "What Is This Melody" backed with "Why Don't You Leave Me". Some of Jerry's recordings as a soloist include "Mate Of The Wind", "Wait", and "Wee Willie". All of these recordings are on the Fabor label.

RED SOVINE

Red Sovine has been a favorite with Hayride audiences longer than any other member of the cast. He came to the show in 1948, shortly after its debut, with a group which he had recently organized and which he called The Echo Valley Boys. He left in 1949 but returned after a few months and has been here ever since. Red is a native of Charleston, W. Va., where he started his musical career with an act called the Carolina Tarheels. He quit show business in 1940 and for the next eight years worked in a hosiery mill, where he rose to the position of superintendent. Since his return to Shreveport in 1949, he has broadcast a program at 7:15 a.m. daily, except Sunday, over KWKH. For several years he recorded for MGM. However, he recently made a change and his newer records carry the Decca label.

SLIM WHITMAN

Slim Whitman grew up in Florida where he was born and where his parents still live. He worked in a shipyard before doing a hitch in the Navy during World War II. After coming home, he played professional baseball and started singing on a local radio station. He came to the Hayride in 1950 from Dallas, Texas, where he had been working as a featured vocalist with a group called the Doughboys. At that time he was recording for Victor, but in 1952 he switched to Imperial and recorded "Indian Love Call"—his first big hit. It sold more than a million copies and won Slim the coveted Gold Record Award. Since that time, most of his records have been big sellers. Slim has a home in Bossier City, Louisiana, where he lives with his wife and daughter. He also has a ranch near Tampa where he visits as often as possible and which he plans to make his home when he retires from show business.

GINNY WRIGHT

Ginny is a "sho-nuff" southern gal. Born in Twin City, Georgia, she got an early start on her singing career by performing at school, in church, at community social events . . . at every opportunity. After graduating from high school, she studied voice at Cleveland for two years, and then returned to her native state to sing the country music she loved. In 1953, Ginny signed up with Fabor Records and her very first release, "I Love You, You, You" on which she teamed up with Jim Reeves, quickly climbed to the best selling lists across the Country. She came to the Hayride in 1953 and since that time has toured throughout the south and southwest and on the West Coast. Also, she has recorded several other songs including duets with Tom Bearden and others. She is single and says her principal interest, at present, is her singing.

Community Chest Drive

NEW YORK—Tommy Dorsey shows a neighborhood Greenwich, Conn. Cub Scout group how it's done while helping inaugurate that town's Red Feather Community Chest Drive. After showing the lads how it's done, Tommy, along with brother Jimmy and their band took off on their annual tour of the Southland.

Hawaii Ready For Statehood?

HAWAII—Jerry Nesler (KANI-Hawaii) attached a short note to his weekly listing of top tunes in which he said:

"Lots of deejay work going on here. The Island has four music stations besides the network affiliates. In the past two months Mel Torme, Vicki Young, Delta Rhythm Boys and other names have played at the South Seas Night Club. Pop is very big here and rhythm and blues is catching on here as it has on the mainland. Hawaiian music? Oh that's for the tourist."

Daniels Tours Australia

NEW YORK—Billy Daniels will open a ten day tour of Australia on Saturday, December 4 in Sydney. He'll play the Sydney Stadium, The Melbourne Stadium and the Brisbane Stadium.

Daniels will be supported by Dave Barry, comedian and two other acts not yet decided upon. While in Australia, Daniels will help push the sale of his new Mercury album, "Love Me Or Leave Me".

Everyone's A Star In

THE WRIGHT FAMILY

Bringing home the bacon is no problem at all to a family we know living in the vicinity of Madison, Tennessee. As a matter of fact, this particular family brings home considerably more than just bacon. Their load usually consists of nation-wide hit records, country music awards of achievement, bushels of fan mail, and a continual ring of applause in their ears. Not a bad haul at all for this family foursome who are known as the Wrights to their close friends and relatives but better known to the nation as Johnny Wright, Kitty Wells, Ruby Wells, and Bobby Wright.

This story actually should begin back around 1936 when a lovely young girl named Muriel Deason met a handsome young swain named Johnny Wright who was then employed with a Nashville cabinet company. Johnny sort of liked to pick his guitar and sing a tune or two for his favorite girl and she rather liked the sound herself. Johnny's brothers weren't averse to picking and singing a bit either so he and his kin joined forces to entertain professionally. In 1938 Muriel and Johnny were married and a short time later Johnny's sister married a young tenor named Jack Anglin. Jack contributed his high notes and other musical talents to Johnny's aggregation to form the now famous group of Johnny and Jack and the Tennessee Mountain Boys.

They graced the Grand Ole Opry stage on Saturday nights and performed for the folks in as many little nooks and crannies across the country as time would allow during the week.

In the middle 40's they left the Opry to concentrate on personal appearances but came back home to Nashville in 1951.

By then there was a new talent discovery in the Wright family. Muriel had decided to take to the stage, with the professional name of Kitty Wells, and like her husband and brother-in-law her fame was growing rapidly. In fact, she had already been voted the top female country vocalist in the business and was soon to be known as the Queen of the Folk Singers. This was a welcome innovation in the country music field, for never before had a girl made a serious dent in the circle occupied by the nation's top country music artists. However, it has never been a problem for Kitty, for in the past few years, she has repeatedly been voted by every music trade magazine as the best female vocalist in the field.

Johnny and Jack themselves have held a very safe position among the top ten singing groups in trade magazine polls.

It goes without saying that music runs in the Wright family. And it seems to run better than in most, since Johnny and Kitty's 13 year old daughter Ruby, who has taken her mother's professional name, Wells, and 11 year old son, Bobby Wright, have recently signed recording contracts and their first releases are already showing up on the popularity charts. Ruby is an RCA Victor artist with a unique, rich voice that will doubtlessly produce many hits.

One important part of this story has been left out, and that happens to be 8 year old Carol who sings, doesn't record, but hopes to some day. When that happens, a safe prediction is that there will be five Wrights bringing home the bacon, the fan mail, the applause and the accolades.

NIGHTCLUB ROUNDUP

NEW YORK — Betty Madigan proved to her vast New York following that she's a talented songstress and a polished performer when she opened at the Boulevard in this city last week. The thrush drew a healthy Friday night audience and treated them to a number of delightful tunes including her hit "Joey" and her current biggie "Always You". Many of her local friends turned out to welcome the star of the show who only last year was used as a fill-in for an absent performer. MGM execs presented Betty with a bouquet of roses during one of her many bows. Although a newcomer on wax, Betty performed like a veteran on stage. Comic Jack DeLeon, dancers Van & Yrova, and Ned Harvey's ork rounded out the bill.

Victor Names Pulley

NEW YORK—The appointment of Albert A. Pulley as Administrator of General Recording has been announced by Howard L. Letts, Assistant General Manager, RCA Victor Record Division.

Formerly manager of recording, Pulley now will work directly with Roy McClay, general plant manager, RCA Victor Record Division, and serve in a general advisory capacity to all phases of RCA Victor recording processes.

Recently elected president of the Audio Engineering Society, Pulley has been with RCA and its predecessor company since 1920. He was appointed manager of recording in 1938 and is a holder of the RCA Award of Merit for outstanding achievement.

TORONTO TOPICS

Folks who still have doubts about the possibility of folk music in this part of the world should have attended the Ontario Progressive Conservative Association's recent annual convention at the Royal York Hotel. One of the major highlights of the political gathering was the entertainment provided by the CKNX Barn Dance Gang from Wingham, Ontario, featuring the Five Howard Sisters (what a bet for a major label!); Earl Heywood (Victor) and all the rest of their country stars, producer Johnny Brent and Prexy "Doc" Cruickshank had the hotel packed with square dancers and appreciative audience, many of whom, like Conservative Big-Wig George Hees, donned typical country attire and added zest and interest to the activities. . . . On the same kick is the Casino Theatre who brings in Canuck Hank Snow (Victor) to headline their next week's vaudeville bill. Although not top billed, the Laurie Sisters (Mercury) are certainly one of the top drawing attractions in the current vaude line-up at the Queen Street vaude house, with no little part of their draw attributable to their current Mercury platter of the country tune "Dont Drop It", which has been getting strong promotion from the local Quality Record organization (who press and distribute Mercury in Canada). . . . The Town Tavern creating lots of advance talk with their booking of the Mike Pedicin Quintet, whose platter of "Shake A Hand" is creating a lot of attention right now. . . . Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey brought their show to the Royal Alexandra Theatre here this past week and, in spite of the AFM-AGVA hassle which necessitated last minute switches of the variety acts rounding out their bill, still pleased their local fans. Business suffered due to the press reception and word of mouth rumors which had a lot of local show-goers confused as to just what kind of a show, if any, would be presented. Actually the famed music makers, as well as most of the assisting acts, were popular favorites of the Toronto patrons and the unfortunate circumstances and attending publicity seems to have been the factors that prevented the show from being a sell-out here. . . . The all-gal Four Western Sweethearts have been drawing full business to the Brass Rail in the uptown sector, while the Zanzibar, switched to a latin kick with Chico Laberto (formerly with Xavier Cugat) and his Los Rhumberos, has been doing strong business in the midtown section. . . . Holding forth at the Toronto Radio Artists Club is Rob Robertson whose husky voiced singing and 88ing is building a good following with the local ether workers. . . . The Colonial has Carman McCrae and The Matt Matthews Quintet billed in as the next attraction to follow Phil Napoleon, whose keeping their Cash Register ringing this week. . . . Alvina Records seems to have a strong entry in their most recent release, Denny Vaughan platter of "Give Me". Music For The Blind

Month Under Way

NEW YORK—The Second Annual Music for the Blind Month got underway last week with hundreds of music clubs and other organizations throughout the country planning local programs in cooperation with the Louis Braille Music Institute of America, national sponsor of the month.

More than one hundred member clubs of the National Federation of Music Clubs are participating in the observance, which has a triple purpose: to acquaint more of the nation's over 300,000 sightless with the music services that are available to them through the Louis Braille Music Institute; to encourage the wider employment of competent blind musicians; and to encourage public support of expanded services by the Institute.

Concerts by blind musicians and special radio and television programs with sightless artists are among the special events that have been scheduled from Coast to Coast.

DIME

MARCHES ON!

Here and There

NEW YORK—An interesting editorial appeared in a recent issue of The Journal of Commerce pointing out that in the past few years the country has entered a new phase in industrial expansion thru the establishment of diversification in industry in the many regions thruout the country. It was shown that when a region or city specialized in certain products, and then ran into a business slump in that product the entire area was hit hard by unemployment, resulting in hardships for the workers and practically a depression for other types of business who depended upon these people for their livelihood. Now, with an ever increasing evidence of regional diversification of industry, these areas are able to withstand slumps in one certain type of business. As coin machines depend upon the earning capacity of individuals in every region thruout the nation, this trend is entirely welcome. A lesson is to be learned by the members of the coin machine industry, as well. An operator with a diversified route, is much better off than one who limits himself to just one item. The same location is available for several types of equipment.

CHICAGO—The National Safety Council, here, announced that automobile traffic deaths in the United States, for the ninth consecutive month, showed a decrease. This is the first time in some 11 or 12 years a report of this kind was issued. The council reported a reduction of 6 per cent from the corresponding period of 1953. Traffic fatalities in September showed a drop of 7 per cent below the total of September 1953. This is great news—when one could easily consider himself one of those in the 6 and 7 per cent who is still alive.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—Good news for coinmen in this area. The Navy released information this week that a site selection board had recommended location of a $30 million jet bombing training base in Iberia Parish. The base had been slated for the Gulf Coast area between Lake Charles and New Orleans. The site has been approved and final announcement will be made by the board in Washington. The Navy spokesman stated that a location in Iberia Parish met virtually all the requirements for such a base.

The other day some Kansas music operators phoned to say:

“Now that the telephone company has changed over all the pay stations to dimes, we have decided that we, too, should go to dime play.”

And so it goes, clear across the nation, as more and more operators come to the realization that the dime of today actually means only 4/10ths of a penny more than what they used to get for the nickel's valuation in 1939.

Hard and factual as this may seem, the government's own economists admit that, today, the value of the U. S. Dollar is just about 54¢, compared to the same U. S. Dollar in 1939.

That means, according to very simple arithmetic, that the present U. S. Dime is worth but 5.4¢.

The present U. S. Nickel is, therefore, worth but 2.7¢.

All will agree that today's overhead expense, as compared to 1939, is approximately 300% greater.

This, then, means that the average juke box operator is paying 300% more for his merchandise, machines, supplies, parts, and his other overhead expenses, than what he paid in 1939.

But, it also means this, and this is most important:

THAT HE IS ONLY CHARGING HALF OF WHAT HE USED TO CHARGE WHEN HE PAID 300% LESS FOR HIS OVERHEAD EXPENSE WHEN HIS PHONOGRAPHS OPERATE ON 5¢ PLAY.

In short, the juke box operator, today, is getting only 2.7¢ per play. Not 5¢ per play as he used to get in 1939 when the Nickel was really worth five full, honest-to-goodness, American pennies.

So what happens when juke box operator meets juke box operator today?

Each cries his heart out. Each tells the other how terrible conditions are. Each exploits the fantastical belief that America is on its way into another terrible depression, even worse than the depression of the '30's.

Sounds silly, doesn't it? But, if those who are crying those big crocodile tears would only analyze exactly what they are saying, they would agree that the big trouble is: THEY AREN'T GETTING WHAT THEY SHOULD FOR WHAT THEY SELL.

Even the little shoeshine boy. The dirty, torn-suited, tonsled-haired kid, the kid who pops into the average store and asks, “Shine, Mister?”, gets 15¢ per shine AND MORE.

How come the nation's juke box operators can't follow the same business judgment of this little shoeshine boy?

How come they can't realize that, when they pay 300% more for the merchandise they buy, and sell it for half the price they used to sell it, that somewhere the line of economics must give?

You just can't make a profit selling something for less than what you pay for it!!!

Operators thruout the nation who are realizing this fact are driving, and driving very hard, to get all of their fellow-operators to also realize this.

The resultant effect is:

THE DIME MARCHES ON!!!!

OPS MEET ON DIME PLAY

K.C. Music Ops Meet On Dime Play November 23

Bill Gersh, Who Has Spoken Thruout Country, Will Speak At Meet

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Arrangements have just been completed for a mass meeting to be held here on Tuesday evening, November 23, of all music operators within this area on the question of whether or not the juke box ops here and in the surrounding territory should switch over to 10c play.

Bill Gersh, publisher of The Cash Box, will speak at this meeting just as he spoke at the meeting of the Detroit, Michigan operators who have, since then, decided to go on dime play.

Charles Bengimina of B & G Amusement Company, this city, is in charge of all arrangements.

Members of the Kansas City Music Operators Association of which organization Nick Evola is president, will meet with Bill Gersh the evening prior to the general meeting.

Belief here is that since the local telephone company has changed all pay stations to 10c, that this is the time for the music operators here to follow this lead and to also change over to 10c play.

As one noted music operator here stated, "The time has, at long last, arrived when we feel we can logically consider dime play.

"That's why we want Bill Gersh of The Cash Box who originally proposed dime play to the industry to speak to us and give us the benefit of his many years of experience.

"We believe," this man concluded, "that the majority of the operators here favor 10c play."

Baltimore Music Ops Meet On Dime Play November 15

Pavesi, Tartaglia and Klein, Westchester Ops, and Joe Orleck To Speak

BALTIMORE, MD.—Music operators in this area, members of the Amusement Machine Operators Association of Greater Baltimore, as well as non-members, have been invited to attend a meeting on Monday night, November 15, to start dime play going.

Invited speakers will be at the meeting to address the operators. Carl Pavesi, president of the Westchester Music Guild, Louis Tartaglia, secretary and treasurer of the organization, and Max Klein, foremost operator in the Westchester area, will tell of their experiences in changing over to dime play. Joe Orleck, publisher of The Cash Box, will also speak at this meeting.

Irv Goldner, president of the association, and most of the Baltimore men are putting all their efforts into devising an educational program for the operators, tavern owners and general public.

"Most of here" stated Goldner, "are convinced that we can change over to dime play without disturbing our relationships with the location and general public. However, we want to listen to men from other territories who have been successful so that we can devise a plan that will benefit us most."

Some operators are already experimenting with dime play in this area, and are the most vehement in their belief that the entire territory can be converted to dime play, and thus make it possible for music operators to conduct profitable businesses.

Distrib Conducting Survey Of Phonos On Locations In Peoria

PEORIA, ILL.—In an effort to eliminate from this city all worn out, old, screechy, scratchy, vermin-infested, dirty phonographs, E. C. Smith, sales representative of the Automatic Phonograph Distributing Company of Chicago, AMI distributors, is conducting a city-wide survey in cooperation with leading and progressive juke box operators here.

Smith explained, "We have a crack service man who is making a survey of all juke boxes on locations here in Peoria.

"He obtains the name of the business," he continued, "as well as the type and model of phonograph on the location, its condition, its appearance and all other factors, as well as the name of the operator, or whether the phonograph is owned by the storekeeper.

"There are approximately 456 juke boxes here in Peoria," Smith says, "located in taverns, eating places, and other locations.

conflict between convention meetings and exhibit hours.

It was stated that copies of the Floor Plan and Application Blanks for exhibitors will be mailed out about November 15. Miller advises those who wish to make early reservations to contact Ray Cunliffe at 3018 E. 91st Street, Chicago (Phone Essex 5-0500) or Phil Levin, 2151 N. Damen, Chicago (Phone Humboldt 9-2970).

Exhibits will be in a main ballroom, Miller stated, and MOA has an attractive package deal for exhibitors.

Further plans of MOA for the convention will be released at a future date.

"When we get finished with this survey," Smith reports, "we shall have information of an extremely valuable nature for all progressive juke box men in this area."

The plan is to ask, or even plead, with operators to remove such phonographs from locations which bring adverse publicity to all the operators in the community.

The distributor is willing to spend his own money to bring about a city where the public will be thrilled with the fine music, the new and gleamingly beautiful juke boxes, and where press publicity will only be of the highest and finest nature.

Smith is being complimented on his efforts by all in this area.

Gordon Stout Runs Series of Newspaper Ads to Create Goodwill

PIERRE, S. D.—Gordon Stout, head of the Gordon Stout Company, this city, is undertaking a public relations program on his own, thru a series of "editorial" type advertisements in the Fort Pierre Times.

The ads, measuring 9½ inches deep by 3 columns, is headed by a drawing of a record and a music scale, under which appears the headline "Notes, Quotes & Anecdotes" by Gordon Stout.

Copy is devoted to quotations from well known writers. At the same time, commercial plugs are cleverly inserted. We reprint one of the paragraphs, as an example: "TOLERANCE IS BORN OF APPRECIATION AND UNDERSTANDING of another than your own point of view. tery feature spots holes. The A-B-C-D rollovers award additional replays when made.

Foreign Sales For Empire 45% Above Banner 1953

Majority Is Repeat Business

CHICAGO—Empire Coin Machine Exchange, this city, already has realized a 45 per cent increase over last year in sales to foreign countries, it was reported by Howie Freer.

"This 45 per cent figure," said Freer, "is not final as we still have a little over a month of 1954 to go. Last year was the banner year for the firm in export sales."

At present, Empire is doing export business with practically every country in all parts of the world—South America, Central America, Europe, Africa and Asia.

"Very complimentary to Empire," stated Freer, "is the fact that the majority of our export business is repeat."

As one European customer wrote, "Your last shipment of new and reconditioned machines has been received. All are in wonderful condition and are working nicely. We will, as always, send you all our future business."

Many foreign members of the industry are thankful for the willing advice Empire furnishes them, through Freer, as to their individual needs and problems on how to better their businesses.

"We are very grateful to you," wrote one foreign business man, "for the advice you have been very kind to give us."

Freer explained that Empire has made it an emphatic point to always make available the best of equipment in the best condition to all concerned here in this country and abroad.

Gottlieb Games Reported Very Popular In Europe

12,000 In France Alone

CHICAGO—According to Suren D. Fesdjian, president of Mondial Commercial Corporation, Gottlieb games are fast becoming a standard all over Europe.

Fesdjian, who last week visited the D. Gottlieb & Company factory, this city, said, "Upwards of 12,000 games are in France alone. They are all three years old or later."

Mondial Commercial Corporation, with offices in New York and Paris, is the exclusive distributor for France for Judd Distributing Company, which serves as the world-wide sales agency for Gottlieb.

Mondial's associates in France are Universal Amusement in Paris and Mondial Automatic in Marseille.

Fesdjian is now preparing for his third business trip to Europe this year. He will leave the first part of next month and will spend from two to three months traveling thru France, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands and the British Isles.

"Our two-year association with Judd Distributing Company and D. Gottlieb & Company," remarked Fesdjian, "has been most wonderful. We are entirely satisfied with it all around."

When asked how "Super Jumbo," Gottlieb's multiple-player pinball game is doing in the Old World, Fesdjian revealed, "We just received a telegram from our Paris office which reports that it is doing very well. The game is unique in its kind and is definitely a real success. Substantial shipments to France are now taking place."

At the Gottlieb factory, Fesdjian held informative conferences with Dave, Sol, Nate and Alvin Gottlieb as well as with Judd Weinberg of Judd Distributing.

Gallet Gifts Chicago Teeners With Phono

CHICAGO—The fight against juvenile delinquency and for good public relations for the juke box industry was enhanced with another instance of gratitude expressed by Edward J. McCabe, Supervisor of Sherman Park, Chicago Park District.

Through the co-operation of The Cash Box, Ray C. Gallet, Paschke Phonograph Service, Chicago, who is extremely interested in the Youth of Chicago, donated a juke box to complement the social activities at Sherman Park.

The following letter was received by Bill Gersh, publisher of The Cash Box, from Supervisor McCabe.

"Dear Mr. Gersh:
Once again, I want to express my sincere thanks for your efforts in securing a juke box for our social activities at Sherman Park.

On Friday afternoon, October 29, we received from Mr. Ray C. Gallet, owner of the Paschke Phonograph Service, a very fine Wurlitzer machine. That same evening, we were putting it to good use at our regular Friday evening teen-age social. The verdict of the teenagers . . . 'Solid . . . real cool!'

It is most gratifying to know that there are organizations such as yours that are interested in our endeavors to build a recreation program which will provide for the needs of the present day teen-ager.

Thank you again for your most generous help.

Appreciatively yours,

Edward J. McCabe

Supervisor, Sherman Park"

Central Holds 3-City AMI "F" Show

KANSAS CITY, MO. — Central Distributors, this city, a branch office of Central Distributors, St. Louis, Mo., has just completed local and territorial showings of the new AMI Model "F" Phonograph. These showings were held in Kansas City, Mo.; Springfield, Mo.; and Wichita, Kansas, conducted by Kansas City manager Jerry Becker.

Becker reports the success of these showings is evidenced by the acceptance and enthusiasm of the operators in each locale. Says Becker, "The impact of the eight brilliant colors was overshadowed only by amazement at the 'multi-horn sonoramic sound!' Many of the operators could only make the simple statement, 'this is true Hi-Fidelity,' and spent hours listening to an assortment of popular, semi-classical and classical recordings."

Charles Kagels and Norwood Veatch, Central owners, report that the overwhelming enthusiasm of the Kansas City area ops only matched the similar reaction accorded the AMI "F" when it was unveiled recently at the St. Louis office.

Dave Rosen Sets AMI Model "F" In One Of City's Historic Taverns

PHILADELPHIA, PENNA.—Dave Rosen, head of David Rosen, this city, reports that he "just installed the newest AMI model 'F' juke box in one of Philadelphia's oldest establishments of its kind on South Street, the "McCloskey Bar."

The McCloskey's, Rosen states, not only own this bar, but also are the proud possessors of a castle in Ireland. These men, he adds, are instrumental in promoting the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association.

Noted Coinmen Purchase Las Vegas' "Westerner"

Invite All In Trade To Visit With Them At This Famed Club

LAS VEGAS, NEV.—One of the most famed and outstanding clubs in fabulous and booming downtown Las Vegas, "The Westerner," was purchased on a partnership basis as of July 1, 1954 by well known coinmen.

These men are: John P. (Midge) Ryan of Las Vegas, Nev.; Joe K. Hart of Hart Novelty Co., Everett, Wash.; Ron Pepple of Northwest Sales Co., Seattle, Wash.; Hoppey Pepple of Gem State Novelty Co., Boise, Ida.; Maitland Murphy of Gem State Novelty Co., Boise, Ida.; Dick Graves of Graves Novelty Co., Boise, Ida.; Henry and Joe Sylvester of Chicago, Ill., and others.

"The Westerner" is not only famed for its gaming, over 125 bells on the ground floor, but also for its marvelous saloon and, especially, for its outstanding restaurant.

The food of "The Westerner," according to the natives here, "is the finest that can be found in the West."

The above coinmen urge anyone visiting Las Vegas to be sure to drop in and see them and also see whether they are or are not telling the whole truth about "the friendly atmosphere and the friendly people" of "The Westerner."

Said Midge Ryan, well known to all in the coinbiz for many years:

"We have the friendliest and finest people in the West conducting our establishment.

"We also believe," he continued, "that any coinman who visits with us will be thrilled to see 'The Westerner' and will be able to recall some of the grand old times of the industry with the people who are now in partnership in this famous old club."

The men who purchased "The Westerner," well known to the industry, are extending an open invitation to one and all in the trade to come in and visit with them, and see one of the famous old style western clubs in action.

The action goes on 24 hours a day. The place never closes. Food and drinks, as well as gaming are on a 24 hour per day basis with never a closing.

The club itself is one of the most outstanding. It is captained by extremely friendly people who make it their business to have one and all enjoy the slogan of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, "Howdy Podner."

Wayne Copeland Announced As Pres. of Sierra Distrib. Co.

C. A. "Shorty" Culp And Copeland Owners of Wurlitzer Distributing Firm In L. A.

WAYNE COPELAND

"Shorty" Culp in the ownership. Copeland is the president of the firm. Ray R. Powers will act as sales manager.

Copeland, a graduate of Temple University in 1941, became associated with the coin machine business for the first time in April, 1946, when he joined with the S. H. Lynch Company offices in Oklahoma. In June, 1951, he formed Copeland Distributors, Inc., as distributors for Seeburg products. In October, 1953, the firm took over the distribution for AMI.

Copeland, in turning over Copeland Distributors, Inc., to two of his long time employees, offers them the same opportunity offered him in 1951. The Copeland firm is headed by Leroy Kitch and Mary Gee, both having been with it since 1946.

Expressing his regret at the necessity of having to leave Oklahoma (The Cash Box, Nov. 13 issue) Copeland explained the health of Mrs. Copeland required they take up residence on the West Coast.

The appointment of Sierra Distributing Company became effective November 15.

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—The newly formed Sierra Distributing Company, which has been appointed exclusive distributors in this area for the sale of coin operated phonographs and accessories, announced this week that Wayne E. Copeland of Oklahoma City, Okla., is associated with C. A.

Chi Phono Ops Publish List Of Locations

CHICAGO—In an effort to eliminate double coverage, as well as bring about complete harmony, the Recorded Music Service Association, the juke box operators' organization here, has published a complete list of all 'registered' locations for all of its members.

This list was distributed at the last general meeting of the association. It is available at the association's headquarters.

All license numbers are clearly shown on the list. Therefore, if an operator receives a call from any location, he can first check the list, and if the location is already covered, he saves time, effort and energy by simply reporting the matter to the association, instead of rushing out making a sales talk and then learning that the location is already covered by one of the other members.

Not only is the address of the location given in this published list, but also the name of the owner, as well as the license number. In this way there can be no mistakes as to whether or not the location is already covered by an association member.

Harry Siskind, Brooklyn Op, Honored For Philanthropies

J. S. Solicitor General Also Recipient of Award

NEW YORK—Harry Siskind, well known Brooklyn operator, (Master Automatic Music Company) received a highly coveted award from the Yeshiva University at the ninth annual Charter Day celebration held at the Hotel Astor, this city, on Sunday, November 7.

Siskind received the Yeshiva University Synagogue Council Award for his activities in behalf of Jewish education and congregational life. He is a leading member of the Manhattan Beach Jewish Center, and is an active supporter of Congregation B'nai Israel in Sheepshead Bay. A leader in many civic, communal and philanthropic undertakings, he is particularly interested in the Hebrew day schools of Brooklyn and in institutions for the care of the aged.

The November 7 dinner marked the anniversary of the Yeshiva's elevation to full University status, becoming the first American university under Jewish auspices. It is now build-

Montreal Ops Assn To Hold Banquet in January

MONTREAL, QUE., CANADA—The Association of Amusement Machine Operators of the Province of Quebec, with headquarters in this city, will hold its 1st annual banquet on Saturday night, January 29, 1955, according to Richard Dore, business manager.

Committees have been appointed and are lining up all the details. The organization will produce a souvenir program, and indications at this early date are that it will be highly successful.

Further details will be forthcoming later.

ing the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, which will open in September 1955.

Siskind, who runs one of the largest and most progressive music machine operations, is particularly devoted to the record and programming of his juke boxes. Because of his close association with recording artists and officials of record companies, Siskind has become known as the "hit maker".

THRU THE COIN CHUTE EASTERN FLASHES

Little by little, territories in this section of the country are making serious efforts to go to dime play on juke boxes. Every week or so we get another phone call, telling us of a program getting set to start 10c play, and asking for advice and cooperation—which we are more than happy to give. The latest area to get going is Baltimore. Good luck, fellows! We know that every territory has its own problems to contend with—but what we really would like to see is the Metropolitan New York area set up a program—even if only as an experiment. As has been said: "Eventually—why not now?"

Mike Munves busy making plans for his visit to Chicago for the Park Show November 28 to December 1, where he will exhibit several new machines of his own manufacture for the arcade trade. Joe Munves, in charge of the manufacturing end, states he will show some exciting pieces. Mike, meanwhile anxiously awaiting the arrival of Exhibit's new gun "Sportland Shooting Gallery." . . . Buddy Fox, Runyon Sales Co., who's had a really bad time physically this past year, should be back at his desk this week. Buddy's latest operation which was to correct a defect of a previous one, has kept him away some eight or ten weeks. . . . Dannie Christophano, one of the pioneer arcade owners, visit along coinrow. . . . Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic-New York Corp., attends the Waldorf dinner honoring Jennie Grossinger, the Catskill Mountain hotel owner. . . . Gertrude Browne, Beacon, N. Y., lively and chipper, on coinrow buying supplies. . . . A. D. Palmer, Jr., advertising and sales promotion manager of The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, back in North Tonawanda, N. Y., after a week's biz trip south. A. D. will be heading for the sunshine again, when he accompanies other Wurlitzer execs, and the 11 distributors and their wives when they take that Bermuda Cruise, starting Nov. 13. . . . Harry Siskind, the well known Brooklyn op, honored by the Yeshiva University Sunday night Nov. 7. Harry presented with an award for his philanthropical activities. . . . Hymie Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing Co., on the road again, picking up late model used phonos. Harry, the other half of the firm, reports that the better type of used phonos are still extremely difficult to buy.

Al Denver, president of the Music Operators of New York (local music ops. assn.), recuperating from a minor throat operation. . . . Joe Young and Abe Lipsky, Young Distributing (Wurlitzer distrib.) report a fine pick-up in export sales. "What with the demand for the Wurlitzer 1700 and the export biz" said Young, "we've been kept hopping here." . . . Phil Gould, Newark, N. J. arcade owner, splendidly attired in sports clothes, visits the wholesalers. . . . Another arcade owner, Louis Rabkin, Seaside, N. J., also on the street. Louis preparing for an extended vacation trip which will take him and his wife as far as the West Coast. . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., grabs a fast cup of coffee in between hosting the many ops who keep dropping in to see and buy the new Genco "Big Top" Rifle Gallery and ChiCoin's new shuffle "Fireball." . . . Dave Stern and Bob Slifer, Seacoast Distributors, wheeling and dealing with the new Rock-Ola 120 selection model 1446 phono. Herman Halpern comes in from the Elizabeth, N. J. office early Monday AM to have his photo taken with The Chordettes and Archie Bleyer. . . . Immediately after returning from showing the new AMI model "F" phonographs to Connecticut ops in Hartford, Thursday, Nov. 4, Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales Co. took off for a week's business trip. . . . Wonder when we're going to have the opportunity to more than just wave a greeting at the busy Bob Jacobs of National Amusement Co. No use asking him how business is. . . . Bill Rabkin and Herb Klein, International Mutoscope Corp., will have quite a display of coin machines at the Park Show being held at the Sherman Hotel, November 28 to December 1. The firm will show its new model "Voice-O-Graph"; new model "Multiple Photomat"; new "Drivemobile," which has found such wonderful acceptance from coinmen; "3-D Art Parade"; "Movie Machine"; "Post Card Vendor"; and several other surprise machines.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE MIAMI MURMURS

The recent wave of chilly days hasn't done the cup drink sales much good, claims Leon Hirsch of J & M Vending Co. . . . Accountant Mac Shaw and his partner Gil Gross are known as the "Coinmen's Accountants" since they handle many operators' accounts. They are now situated in much larger quarters in the Congress Building. . . . Bob Norman, manager of Miami branch of Southern Music Co., AMI distributor, is well pleased with the reception given the new AMI model "F" phonos, claiming the orders are coming in faster than his shipments are. His complaint is "I can't even keep a sample on the floor." . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman of Runyon Sales, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, flew into town on a combination business and pleasure trip. Shugy is being entertained by his old friend Willie Blatt and his missus, Sydelle. . . . The addition being built at Bush Distributing Co. (Wurlitzer Dist.) is shaping up very nicely and before long it will be a huge building. . . . Joe Mangone of All Coin Amusements (Gottlieb Dist.) is shedding lots of poundage due to the extensive work he is doing for the coming affair of the A. M. O. A. Joe is a hard worker and much credit goes to him and Dave Friedman of American Operating Co. for the successful A. M. O. A. affairs each year. . . . Henry Stone, A & R man for Deluxe Records, off on another trip around the South and points North. His first stop is Jacksonville. . . . Eli Ross, Ross Distributing Co., Rock-Ola dist. is kept quite busy these days taking orders on the new Rock-Ola Models 1442 and 1446.

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

THRU THE COIN CHUTE CHICAGO CHATTER

Gil Kitt of Empire Coin was all eyes while lunching with Bill De Selm last week in the United Manufacturing Co. cafeteria. Bill was enjoying a double portion of cubed steak and mashed potatoes and finished this off with a piece of cherry pie topped with whipped cream. Said Gil, "I bet John D. Rockefeller could have given away a million dollars a year during the last 50 years of his life just to have eaten like you are doing." Countered chuckling Bill, "Now, Gil, I know that you've always had an appetite." "You are correct, kind sir," Gil affirmed, "and more so with all the work we're doing over at Empire. But here's the kick—I've got to curb it!" At a nearby table, "Cyclone" Emery, who at the United golf banquet made three plate-sized steaks disappear as if he had used a magician's wand, had no notion whatsoever of dieting. Also lunching at United were Mr. and Mrs. Lee De Forest. Called the "Father of Radio," 81-year-old De Forest is credited with creating one million jobs with his invention of the three-element vacuum tube which made possible radio, sound movies and television. With the help of Lyn Durant, United president, he has established the Lee De Forest Foundation for experimental purposes.

As they say, 40 million Frenchmen can't be wrong. Suren D. Fesdjian, resident of Mential Commercial Corp., exclusive distributor for Judd Distributing Co., the world-wide sales agency for D. Gottlieb & Co., reports that there are upwards of 12,000 Gottlieb games in operation in France today. All late games, too, with none older than three years. . . . The foreign market has been an important and profitable phase of business for Empire Coin Machine Exchange for the past 10 years. Already export sales for the firm are 45 per cent above last year which was a banner year. No small credit for this can go to Howie Freer. Serving in Europe during World War II, he saw what good possibilities were available there and elsewhere overseas and immediately went to work on them when he joined Empire after the war ended. . . . Speaking of foreign lands and with the cold weather coming up, look for Charley Pieri to make for South America for a vacation visit. . . . Condolences to Charles Ewing whose wife passed away. . . . Also to Isabel Domens who lost her mother.

Business now is greater on the West Coast than at any other time. One very well-known distributor there said that this year was going to be the greatest his company ever has experienced. Another noted that September was the biggest month in the history of his business. Another distributor stated that business for September jumped 50 per cent over initial fall season months of the past years. The end of the year, he related, should prove a mighty interesting record wise. These are the type of reports continually coming out of the West these days. . . . Bill Gersh, co-publisher of The Cash Box, who last week arrived back in Chicago with his wife Cissie, after an extensive West Coast trip, provided us with the same sort of remarks. . . . Also according to Bill, Las Vegas is really booming and thriving. New businesses and hotels are popping up all over. Even before a new housing development is finished it is completely sold out. One of the biggest beckoners to Las Vegas is that wonderful desert climate.

The Riviera, the new $5,500,000 Las Vegas hotel of Dave, Lew and Myer Mensburg, is going up very fast. It looks like their statement that it would be opened this spring will be true. The nine-story hotel has started an innovation in Las Vegas. Others now are considering going above the usual two-story level. . . . Joining forces and operating "The Westerner," the neat club on Fremont St. in downtown Las Vegas, are Midge Ryan, Ron and Hoppey Pepple, Joe Grady, Henry and Joe Sylvester and others. . . . Word has it that Mack Fagman, haberdasher to the industry in Chicago, is on his way to Las Vegas to decide whether he will open a haberdashery on "The Strip." . . . Jim Longaker, the old Mills road man, now running the Bell-O-Matic firm in Reno. . . . Lots of old-time coinmen would get the thrill of their lives visiting Las Vegas. Here in the drug stores the customers tell the pharmacists that they will play the Bells while their prescriptions are being filled. Some fond memories, hey, old timer?

Undoubtedly many coin industry old timers would like to know the whereabouts of Ace Arnsberg. Well, he lives a third of the year in his Palm Springs, Calif., home. Owns three hotels in Oregon. But still maintains a great affection for the coin business. . . . Memo to Harry Williams: Victor Mature sends his greetings to you via Bill Gersh. If he can get out this way soon, he will visit with you. (Note: Harry is here at Williams Manufacturing Co. for a month or so). . . . Art Weinand and Ed Hall were doing a land office business over the phones Monday of last week. Distributors were ordering from five to 25 "Sportland Shooting Gallery" gun games which Exhibit Supply will introduce officially next week. . . . A Gottlieb "Guys and Dolls" five-ball game, furnished by First Coin Machine Exchange, was used on the "Hawkins Falls" TV program last week. Wally Finke and Joe Kline rushed to comply with the NBC-TV network request and made doubly certain that the game was not detrimental in any fashion whatsoever.

Paul Huebsch was one busy fellow this past week getting Keeney's new "Sportsman" gun game ready for release. Said Paul, "It's really something." . . . Bally hospitalization benefits rose to $4,630.80 in September and were received by 34 Ballyfolks. . . . Maure and Eddie Ginsburg spent last week in Pittsburgh helping prepare for the grand opening of the new Atlas Music Co. building there. The opening took place this past Sunday. . . . The first annual Beaux-Arts Ball, sponsored by the Elmhurst Art Guild and held November 5, was a grand success, according to Harry Mabs, Williams' engineer and a guild member. Harry went dressed as an Indian chief. The lipstick he used as war paint turned out to be of the permanent type. Saturday Buffet-refreshments will be served to all present. Free surprises will be given away.

NEWS TIDBITS:—A spectacular announcement will be made very soon which will be of special interest to everyone in the coin machine industry. This announcement will come from one of the big Chicago manufacturers and will tell about a revolutionary new game which was designed right here in Los Angeles by Lyn Brown. The machine was on a test location here for nine months and collections are reported to have been phenomenal. Watch these pages of The Cash Box for the big news!!

The official opening of the LA showrooms of Sierra Distributing Company has been set for December 1st. Complete details of the partnership was revealed this past week. C. A. "Shorty" Culp, Oklahoma City Wurlitzer distributor, and Wayne E. Copeland, former AMI distributor in Oklahoma City, are the firms owners. Copeland has moved to California and will reside here in Los Angeles. He will operate the local branch along with Ray Powers who will head the sales organization. They will carry a complete line of Wurlitzer "1700" Hi Fidelity phonos, parts and accessories. Another important feature of their business will be a complete modern service department.

DISTRIBUTOR DOINGS:—The business boom which hit coinrow several weeks ago seems to be going on unabated. . . . PAUL A. LAYMON & CO.:—A large crowd of operators from all over Southern California came in to attend the Bally Service school Nov. 10th and 11th. Bob Breither, field engineer for Bally Manufacturing Company, was on hand to conduct the two day sessions. Paul and Lucille Laymon reported that the event was a complete success. . . . C. A. ROBINSON & CO.:—Charley Robinson and Al Bettelman have had to work extra hard these past few weeks as sales hit an all time high for them. Charley admits that it's quite a trick trying to do business with three operators all at the same time. However, after seeing each op pack out three of United's "Deluxe Carnival" guns at a crack I'd say Charley used some pretty fast salesmanship. . . . BADGER SALES COMPANY:—Bill Happel and Fred Gaunt are more than pleased over the way the new AMI model "F" has been accepted here in So. Calif. and Nevada since it was introduced a few weeks ago. Don Ames recently conducted a very successful showing in Las Vegas. Also on display in the Badger showrooms and winning nods of approval from operators and location owners alike is Genco's "Big Top" Rifle Gallery also Gottlieb's "Super Jumbo" and "4-Belles" games. . . . MINTHORNE MUSIC COMPANY:—Marjorie and Ted Patton of Patton Music Co., Las Vegas, recently purchased several new Seeburg phonos from Jean and Dolores Minthorne during the pairs recent trip to Las Vegas. Patton Music Company is now considered the largest operation of music machines in the state of Nevada.

OPERATOR JOTS:—E. O. Everett, operator and attorney in Kingman, Arizona, is planning to build a television receiving booster station in Kingman. Los Angeles stations will be picked up and transmitted to TV owners in the area. Subscribers will pay for the service under the tele-meter plan. A similar set-up has been in operation at Palm Springs, Calif., for a year. . . . Bill Yedlin, LA op, is back from a hunting trip to Idaho. He returned with his quota of deer. . . . Jimmy Jackson, Palm Springs, recently acted as the official starter of the AAA auto race from Las Vegas to Phoenix. . . . Al Wise from Canyon State Distributing Co., Tucson, Arizona, came in along coinrow this past week to take care of business. . . . E. E. Peterson and Kenneth Wolf from San Diego also drove in to town. . . . Gene DeVilbis from San Bernardino was also seen along West Pico. . . . Lee Nelson, Santa Ana, and Sheridan Thompson, Long Beach, were also in.

COINROW DOINGS:—Sam Ricklin, prexy of California Music Company, reports that he has been getting more reaction on "Mr. Sandman" by The Chordettes and Four Aces than on any record he has had in his one-stop for several months. Also running a close second is "The Naughty Lady of Shady Lane" by The Ames Brothers. Mail orders for records have been so heavy that Gabe Orland says he has just hired himself as the new shipping clerk. . . . Phil Robinson revealed that he is making plans to drive to Mexico City next January. . . . Although he hasn't received his first sample of Exhibit's new "Sportland" Shooting Gallery Lyn Brown has been a busy guy taking advance orders for the new gun along coinrow. Here's a real hustler. . . . Bill Leuenhagen, Mary and Kay Solle and Claire Adams were recently seen at the opening of orkster Jerry Gray at the Hollywood Palladium. . . . Lovely little Carol Ann Patton made quite a hit with everyone along the row when she came in with her mother and dad. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Patton who live in Hanford. . . . Sorry to hear that Al Bettelman was involved in an accident which badly damaged his pretty new car. . . . Speaking of cars have you seen that classy Jaguar that Abe & Vera Diamond of Diamond Distributing Co. have been driving around lately?

Says he can't pull stakes as long as the sales are as good as they have been. . . . While over at Crown Novelty Company, Nick Carbajal says the showing on the J. H. Just What Is sonoramic sound?

The AMI Model "F" is the only juke box capable of delivering SONORAMIC SOUND. Just what is SONORAMIC SOUND?

If you've seen and heard "Cinerama" movies with the wide screen picture that puts the viewer in the center of the scene, you may get some idea. Sonoramic Sound is sound that surrounds the listener.

How come? Multi-Horn High Fidelity is the answer. The Model "F's" flared treble horn is placed inside the cabinet at ear level so that all the fine, sweet highs can travel around the location without interference from furniture and other obstacles. The "F's" bass horn, equivalent to more than NINE 12 inch speakers, sends its beautiful bass notes out through the bottom of the cabinet from whence they proceed all around the room, using the very floors, yes even the walls, as extensions of the horn to produce an amazing "all-over-ness" of music, so intimate, so living and so realistic that you immediately come to a new appreciation of what music at its best really is. You are captivated with the feeling that you are right in the center of the orchestra.

The Model "F" inescapably seizes and holds the complete attention of its audience. The "F" sells its way as the top money-making juke box because perfect music is the best salesman of music there is. It's impossible to ignore its great quality, its new Sonoramic art. Consequently, by monopolizing the attention of its listeners, the "F" coaxes away their coins for more . . . more . . . more! The public's appetite for great music is truly insatiable.

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts"

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

16th Year of Publication
789th Consecutive Week's Issue

How To Use "The Confidential Price Lists"

[Also Known As the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]
FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Confidential Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Confidential Price Lists" acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Confidential Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Confidential Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.
METHOD: "The Confidential Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.
FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.
