While the country plays all the possible Edgar Winter singles, we're releasing one.

"Where Would I Be."

From "Edgar Winter's White Trash" featuring Jerry la Croix. The album that Circus magazine said would "establish a new superstar whose talent will bring his songs to millions of ears." The album that's on the charts with a bullet after only three weeks.

But until the release of "Where Would I Be," the country's key FM stations played almost the entire album. And couldn't pick any one song as the single.

Now we've made their choice a little easier.

Which means that by this time next week, people across the country should agree on at least one thing:

"Where Would I Be" (5-10740)
from "Edgar Winter's White Trash."

On Epic Records.

Trade: Getting Closer To Its Product?

There is a healthy, revived interest in the trade in the aesthetic quality of recordings. What this all means is that record executives, whether A&R or otherwise, are taking a more personal interest in and are displaying a greater affection for the product they put out. One still hears, of course, talk about hit recording sales figures, but there's more and more comment about their appeal. It's as if the industry had replaced the phrase "monster sales" with "master sound." And that "sound" might have something to do with it. As Cash Box has noted since the start of the year, there is a trend toward the "softer sound, the solo artist." Perhaps such sounds, more intimate, more melodic, more lyric conscious (as Cash Box pointed out in the April 25 issue), strike a more heartfelt response than the hard rock sounds, and the trade can identify with them more easily.

We think this condition—perhaps not a tideswell as yet—harbors well for the business. For one thing, it brings the industry closer to the product it sells. For there is a greater excitement and even sense of accomplishment when the industry can cite the beauty of a recording along with its sales response. There is something cold and aloof about the recording whose great claim to fame, trade-wise, seems to lie solely in cold numbers, no matter how impressive they may be. This may be fine for the toothpaste industry, but it leaves a lot to be desired for what is considered today one of the most influential of art-forms—music on recordings. The pride of being part of recordings one has greater intimacy with and respect for should be an incalculable aid in the very process required to help put a record over in those number figures.

This "softer sound, solo artist" trend also augurs well for the music publishing area. For we believe that there is now greater attention being given material as it stands in the form of a song, rather than a work that stands up well only in the context of the performance of a particular act. Many solo performers are not the creators of their own material, and must seek out songs by others. Among the solo artists who are involved in the material they perform, their songs are getting wider exposure by others who may not be self-contained acts.

All in all, the industry seems to be on the brink of a new era of sounds that is bringing the trade closer to its product. That has to spark a greater degree of concern for the success of not a piece of goods, but that of the recording admired for what it says, not only what it does in terms of sales.

THE WORLD'S OLDEST INSTITUTION GAVE A NEW LABEL ITS FIRST SONG.

"Rings" was written as a wedding present for two friends of the composers. But it's the kind of song that means a lot to anyone who's been in love.

So the writers brought "Rings" to Chips Moman. Who's produced hits like "Hooked On A Feeling," "In The Ghetto," "I Just Can't Help Believin'," "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling" and "Suspicious Mind."

Now "Rings" is the first single on Chips' newly formed label, Entrance Records. And it's sung by Cymarron, a new group who knows about the "Memphis Sound" that Chips helped make so famous.

"Rings" by Cymarron. The song that started a new label and a new life.

RCA Augments Current L.A. Dist. With Direct Sales Organization

Other Areas Seen As Base To Aid Label's New Acts

NEW YORK—RCA will open a Direct Sales Organization in the Los Angeles area to augment its present multiple distribution set up in that city. Mort Hoffman, vice president Commercial Operations, of RCA Records, emphasized that this is not a "branch" operation in that the RCA line is not being pulled from present distribution. He further indicated that RCA will follow the same course in other cities where it is not getting the in depth coverage it needs to build new acts and develop the careers of new talent joining the label.

Formerly handled in L.A. by Music West, an independent distributor, RCA in Los Angeles, at the time of the announcement, was handled by multiple distributors, the type most often referred to as "sub-distributors" by others in the trade. And as Hoffman pointed out, such distribution, although it does "a tremendous job" with top line, quick turnover product, is not structured to develop new, unknown talent. One needs a sales force, Hoffman went on, to see to it that the product of new talent and of our complete catalog is represented in depth in every store in every area in the country, and where he finds this job is not being accomplished RCA will consider assisting its distributors in that area with a direct sales operation.

'Major' Talent Due

In the next few weeks, Hoffman continued, RCA will be making some "major announcements" about the signing of important talent. And he feels that it is essential that in every area of the country in which records by these new acquisitions begin to make noise, product should be readily available for all retailers and consumers who want it. Where there is difficulty in reaching the consumer who wants such records, RCA will consider a direct sales organization.

At a press conference making the above announcement, Hoffman pointed only to the Los Angeles market where such a move was being made. He mentioned no other territories. But he will be giving close scrutiny to all areas of the country in the coming months. (RCA has multiple distribution in many areas around the U.S. through rack jobbers or sub-distributors.)

Hoffman announced the new RCA move in the following letter he sent to his distribution chain: Gentlemen:

Recent activity in several areas has raised the now familiar question about our future plans for record

Polygram Formed As Holding Co. For DGG, Philips In Global Market

HAMBURG—In a major international music development, a new holding company, Polygram, has been established by Siemens A.G. and N.V. Philips, which, since 1962, have operated the DGG label in Germany and the Philips label in the Netherlands.

"The steady increase in the business volume in the record field," a statement said, "and the extension of the area of activities into adjacent fields necessitate clearer lines of responsibility and a more flexible structure."

Controlling the activities of DGG and Philips, Polygram will actually be formed as holding companies in Germany and the Netherlands, though acting as a single company. This is possible with the absence of anti-monopoly legislation in Europe.

Both companies will have similar management, consisting of the former management of DGG and Philips, who include Coen Solleveld, Dr. Hans-Werner Steinhausen, Drs. Johannes van der Velden and Kurt Kinkele. Siemens and Philips are 50-50 partners in the venture.

The central steering of music activities (e.g., A&R, manufacture and distribution) will be handled by subsidiaries of the two Polygram companies, including Polydor Int'l in Hamburg and N.V. Phonogram Int'l in Baarn.

The formation of Polygram is expected to realize expansion in such areas as music publishing, the video cartridge and TV. The two holding companies will be responsible for all affiliates engaged in the music field, a total of about 45 companies, most bearing either the name Polydor or Phonogram. The management of Polydor Int'l will be entrusted to Dr. Werner Vogelsang as president and J. Dieter Bliersbach, senior vp. The management of N.V. Phonogram Int'l will consist of Pieter Schellevis, president; and Willem Zalsman, senior vp, Joop Buinink, vp. Jan van Houten will be a vp in both companies, responsible for manufacturing. DGG, known since 1898, will continue Seek 'Friendly' McCartney Break In Beatles & Co.

LONDON—"Friendly" ways will be found out-of-court to settle Paul McCartney's bid to end his partnership in Beatles & Co. The three other Beatles have agreed not to press an appeal to stop the appointment of a receiver and manager, James Douglas Spooner, of the partnership in the Beatles & Co. McCartney's former teammates will pay court costs of $240,000 and a battery of lawyers will seek a "friendly" termination of McCartney's ties with the company. The appeal judge, Lord Justice Russell, said this development brought "tidings of great joy" to his court.

In the U.S., ABKCO Industries is "still and will continue to be the business managers of Apple Corps Ltd. and the Apple Group of Companies," according to a "clarification" statement from Apple Corps Ltd. "Neither Mr. James Douglas Spooner nor any other person has been appointed receiver and manager of Apple Corps Ltd. or any of the Apple Group of Companies," the firm said. The appointment, the statement added, applies only to The Beatles & Co.

Stones 'Sticky' Sticks

NEW YORK — The Rolling Stones "Sticky Fingers" LP on their new Rolling Stones Records label is a runaway smash. The record started shipping Friday, April 23, and by Tuesday of last week Atco had completed shipment of over 500,000 tapes and LP's. Orders for tapes and LP's before the recording was released were well above the 500,000 mark, making it a gold record before the release date.

"Sticky Fingers" was a smash not only in the U. S., but throughout the world. In England, France, Italy, Holland, Germany, The Scandinavian countries, and Japan, orders were swamping the Kinney Group offices handling the Rolling Stones product, as well as all Atlantic-Atco licensees.

Meanwhile the Rolling Stones single, "Brown Sugar" is taking off both domestically and internationally. It's 14 (with a bullet) this week.

The release of the single and the "Sticky Fingers" album was coordinated around the world. Advertising campaigns were also coordinated so that similar ads appeared in Europe and the United States the same week. A four color poster was in both trades and consumer magazines.

FRONT COVER:

Not since the heyday of The Lovin' Spoonful has Kama Sutra Records made such a heavy chart and public impression as in recent weeks, with two top 10 singles (Brewer & Shipley's "One Toke Over the Line" and Ocean's "Put Your Hand In The Hand"), a rising chart album (Brewer & Shipley's "Tarkio") and the Sha Na Na spreading "the glory that was grease" in a steady-selling album ("Rock And Roll Is Here To Stay") and a single entry, "Only One Song". Dormant until its official reactivation two years ago through Buddah, Kama Sutra had established a tradition of recording and producing 'Now' music by Lovin' Spoonful, Captain Beefheart, the Tradewinds and The Innocence since its inception 1965. "Tarkio Road", the new Brewer & Shipley single taken from their "Tarkio" LP, the first LP by Ocean and a new album by Sha Na Na are being readied for release.

Avco Music Div. Shifts To Parent; Hugo & Luigi Broadening Co. Base

New Labels, More Field Promo Staffers

NEW YORK—More funds for expansion will be one of the benefits in the reorganization of Avco-Embassy Records as a separate division of the Avco Corp. Since its inception 1½ years ago, the music division reported to Avco Embassy Pictures, an Avco unit headed by Joseph E. Levine.

Under the new setup, announced by James Kerr, Avco president, and Hugo Peretti and Luigi Creator, vp and chief operating officers of the music division, the label will be renamed Avco Records and report directly to Kerr. Hugo & Luigi will continue to run the label and publishing units. Latter includes Avemb Songs (BMI) and Avco Embassy Music (ASCAP).

Among the plans set are the formation of subsidiary labels, including an R&B label, and the signing of national distribution deals. This will mean an expansion of the company's promo force at the national, regional and local level over the next several months.

Avco Records also plans to negotiate a number of indie production deals with producers of contemporary product, both those with track records and promising newcomers.

Explaining a "tight team" philosophy, Bud Katzel, general manager, stated: "It is not our intention that our expansionary moves include a pyramiding personnel overhead... the expansion is in the area of securing product and supporting that product."

"We are anxious," Hugo & Luigi added, "now to move forward and develop the kind of music company that will be an integral part of the over-all Avco Corporation complex and a leading factor in the music industry."

Capitol Sticks To 98c Single; Dealer $ To 63c

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records will stick to the 98¢ single, after all. Earlier this year, the company announced a $1.29 list price, effective April 1, but this was later reduced to $1.19. However, Brown Meggs, marketing vp, stated last week: "We must face the competitive realities. Unfortunately, despite the need for increased price margins at all levels of distribution, the market today seems unalterably wedded to the old 98¢ list price for singles." Effective May 1, the label's price to dealers goes from 60¢ to 63¢. Regular terms and discounts otherwise remain unchanged.

Bill Protecting Sounds Recordings OK'd By Senate

WASHINGTON—A major battle in the war against bogus recordings was won here last week as the Senate passed, by a voice vote, Bill S. 646 which would grant, for the first time, a Federal copyright on sound recordings. This would be part of an amendment to the Copyright Act of 1909. Now the Bill goes to the House for approval.

Uphold Preliminary Injunction In UA Pirate Tape Action

NEW YORK—The North Carolina Court of Appeals has upheld a preliminary injunction granted by a lower court to United Artists Records against alleged manufacturers and distributors of pirated tapes. The firms, operated by J. M. Pettus, also a defendant in the UA action, are Eastern Tape Corp. and G&G Sales.

Schwartz Income Increases 33% In First Quarter

WASHINGTON, D.C. — James Schwartz, president of Schwartz Brothers, Inc. has reported increases in sales, income and earnings-per-share for the first quarter of 1971 over the same period for 1970.

First quarter net sales were reported by Schwartz as $4,207,095, up from $3,812,905 for the same period in 1970—an increase of over 10%. Net income rose by more than 26%. Earnings per share increased by more than 33% for the same number of shares outstanding.

Among the reasons cited by Schwartz for the corporation's increased earnings were expanded retail operations and improved management control over expenses.

Expanded Retail Operations

Schwartz Brothers owns and operates the Harmony Hut chain of retail music stores specializing in records, tapes, cassettes, high-fidelity equipment and musical instruments. During the first quarter of 1971, five Harmony Hut stores were in operation, whereas only three were functioning throughout the full first quarter of 1970.

Because of the increased number of stores, as well as higher sales volume per store, the retail contribution to overall corporate first-quarter profits rose from 6% in 1970 to 15% in 1971, Schwartz reported.

Schwartz also predicted that a sixth Harmony Hut outlet, scheduled to open in August 1971 in the new model city of Columbia, Maryland in the Washington-Baltimore corridor, should further contribute to the company's profitable retail activity in 1971.

It was further revealed that, while sales volume increased only moderately over the two comparable periods, profits and earnings per share increased greatly as a result of more efficient management control of operating costs and expenses. This was in part the result of an expansion of a new central data processing department which has made it possible for management to obtain and analyze sales and marketing information more quickly than before, and has speeded and streamlined the corporation's accounting and bookkeeping operations.

Motown Stars Over New York

NEW YORK — Motown Records is virtually monopolizing New York City's entertainment scene, with four of its attractions, the Supremes, the Four Tops, Stevie Wonder and Willie Tyler, headlining at such major night clubs and theatres as the Copacabana, the Royal Box and the Apollo Theatre, all at the same time within a one-week period.

The Four Tops lead off the talent parade on April 29 when they begin a two-week engagement at the Copa. The Supremes step into the spotlight at the Hotel Americana's Royal Box on May 3 for two weeks. Stevie Wonder will star at the Apollo Theatre, May 5-11 and ventriloquist Willie Tyler will appear with The Four Tops at the Copacabana.

The Motown personalities are also starring on television during "Motown Week" in New York. The Supremes, whose new hit record is "Nathan Jones," will appear on the David Frost Show on April 30 in a one-hour songfest and interview and on May 5 they will be guest stars on NBC-TV's Tonight Show.

Nelson's 'Calley' Disk Sells 1 Mil

NEW YORK — The RIAA has certified Terry Nelson's "The Battle Hymn of Lt. Calley" on the Plantation label as a million-seller. Disk is number 28 (with a bullet) on this week's Top 100 chart.

Capitol Industries Shows 3rd Qtr. Loss

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Industries has reported a net loss of $694,000, or 15¢ a share, for the third quarter of fiscal 1971, ending April 30. This compared to a net income of $2,158,000, or 44¢ a share, in the previous third quarter period.

Sales for the new period reached $33,674,000, compared to $44,539,000. For the nine month period, sales were $118,716,000, compared to $140,022,000.

The company said that it expected a continued decline in the fourth quarter, but that "corrective action" was being taken. This includes price increases, new exec personnel and artist development, and a 20% reduction in salaried personnel since last June.

Transamerica May Omit Stock Div.

NEW YORK—Transamerica, parent of United Artists Pictures, plans to withhold a 2% stock dividend unless there's a marked improvement in company earnings, reports John Beckett, chairman. The firm made a 2% stock dividend last June. Beckett made the statement at the firm's annual meeting in San Francisco last week.

WB Broadens Sound With New Pactees

NEW YORK—Acts recently added to the Warner Brothers roster represent a broad spectrum of musical styles designed to give the label increased depth in many market segments.

Several of the artists recently signed come to Warners from other labels and many are already well known for their past achievements. Three "Johns"—Baldry, Loudermilk and Hartford, all fit into this category. John Baldry is the British rock star whose band at various times included the cream of today's British musician crop. His first Warner Brothers album "It Ain't Easy," was produced by Rod Stewart and Elton John, both of whom worked in Baldry bands. John D. Loudermilk is the songwriter operating from Nashville. Among his compositions are "Rose and a Baby Ruth," "Talk Back Trembling Lips," "Tobacco Road," "Break My Mind," "Then You Can Tell Me Goodbye" and "Bad News." Artists who have recorded his material include Johnny Cash, George Hamilton IV, Jimmy Clanton and many others.

John Hartford, whose "Gentle On My Mind" was transformed into a contemporary classic by Glen Campbell, also joined the Warners roster recently. Hartford's move to Warner Brothers is another indication of the label's increasing involvement in the contemporary country field. Other acts include Jackie Lomax, formerly on Apple, and Lamb, formerly on the

SHORTLY AFTER THE SIGNING—Ten Years After has signed an exclusive pact with Columbia Records. The English stars, formerly on the London label, were signed by Clive Davis, president of Columbia, who is seen conferring with the team. Davis (second from left) noted that they are "important artists making a significant contribution to contemporary music." They are managed and produced by Chris Wright, who along with Terry Ellis, is managing director of Chrysalis Artists. Group members include guitarist Alvin Lee, bassist Leo Lyons, organist Chick Churchill and drummer Ric Lee. Ten Years After are particularly remembered for their 10-minute appearance on the "Woodstock" flick. Team's had three hit albums.

Graham Calls It Quits On Rock; Impresario To Shutter Fillmores

Decision Due On Music Co.'s

NEW YORK—Rock music's most successful impresario, Bill Graham, is leaving the business. In a special press conference held at Fillmore East last Thurs. (29), Graham announced that his complete withdrawal from the rock scene would begin with the closing of Fillmore East as of June 27, 1971. "The scene has changed," Graham stated, "and, in the long run, we are all to one degree or another at fault. All that I know is that what exists now is not what we started with, and what I see around me now does not seem to be a logical creative extension of that beginning." Fillmore West, now scheduled to be demolished in late August or early September of this year, will not relocate. "We have a commitment there through the summer," said Graham.

Seven Reasons Cited

Seven reasons for his 'retirement' were listed: 1. "The unreasonable and totally destructive inflation of the live concert scene . . . I continue to deplore the exploitation of the gigantic-hall concerts, many of them with high priced tickets." 2. "There are fewer quality artists today; but many of those that do exist do not appear in public regularly. Therefore, in order to stay in business, I would be forced to present acts whose musicality fell far below my personal expectations and demands." 3. ". . . if the Fillmore wants a major headliner, then we are often forced to take the second and/or third act that the agent or manager insists upon, whether or not we would take pride in presenting them, and whether or not such an act even belongs on that particular show." 4. "In the early days of both Fillmore East and West, the level of audience seemed much higher in terms of musical sophistication. Now there are too many screams for 'More' with total disregard for whether or not there was any musical quality." 5. "The time and energy that is required for me to maintain a level of proficiency in my own work has grown so great that I have simply deprived myself of a private life." 6. "For six years, I have endured the abuse of many members of the public and press (in most instances people who did not know me personally). The role of 'anti-christ of the underground' has obviously never appealed to me." 7. "Rock has been good to me in many ways, but the final and simple fact is that I am tired."

In an informal question and answer session, Graham said he had no definite plans for the building that is now Fillmore East. "My personal future will begin with a long needed rest," he said. "After that, I don't know. As for the Fillmore, it would be nice if someone who could run it as well or better than we did, would take it over. But I don't know. It could possibly go to a neighborhood high school that needs more space for its pupils."

As far as the Fillmore and San Francisco record labels, Graham said that his decision was so sudden that he hasn't as yet given much thought to whether he'll sell his half interests in them.

Summing up, Graham stated: "The rock scene in this country was created by a need by the people, expressed by the musicians, and, I hope, aided to some degree by the efforts of the Fillmores. But whatever has become of that scene, wherever it turned into the music industry of festivals, 20,000-seat halls, miserable production quality, and secondary promoters—however it went wrong—please, each of you, stop and think whether you allowed it, whether or not you supported it regardless of how little you received in return.

"I am not pleased with this 'music industry.' I am disappointed with many of the musicians working in it, and I am shocked at the nature of the millions of people who support that 'industry' without asking why. I am not assured that the situation will improve in the future."

NARAS Trustees 3-Day Meet To Cover Video Program, Institute

HOLLYWOOD — A full-scale discussion and appraisal of this year's and next year's Grammy Awards television activities, as well as those of the recently created NARAS Institute, are expected to highlight the three-day trustees meeting of the record academy beginning this Sat. Townsend Comment

"The Academy was delighted with the television audience reception of our first live Grammy Awards telecast," states Townsend. "It rated number one in its two-week time period and reached almost 19 million homes. That means that about 55 million people caught the show. Now we want to make sure that we do just as well rating-wise next year. We will, of course, also explore ways to improve the show and a possible shift in the point of origination."

Discussion of the NARAS Institute is expected to focus on the academy's educational plan for presenting comprehensive overview sessions covering the field of recording. These would be held for one week in each of the chapter cities for the benefit of talented and underprivileged students. March 31, and will be systematically released soon throughout the country. Communiplex has affiliates in Los Angeles, Chicago, New York and part of Africa.

Also starring in the picture that added the extra "a's" and "s's" in the title to avoid censorship, is singer Rhetta Hughes, (formerly of the exciting duo, Rhetta and Tension). She plays the role of a hard-living hustler.

WB Music, James Deal On Print

NEW YORK — Warner Bros. Music Publishing has completed an agreement whereby Warner Bros. will control all print and distribution rights to the Dick James Music, Inc. catalogue for the U.S. and Canada. Deal was negotiated by Ed Silvers, WB Music president, and Irving Brown on behalf of WB with David Rosner and Bob Casper representing Dick James.

Warner Bros. is rush releasing an Elton John song folio featuring compositions written by Elton John and Bernie Taupin, which were included in John's three gold record albums: "Elton John," "Tumbleweed Connection" and "Friends." This will represent the first comprehensive collection of the songwriting team's material.

The James catalog also includes songs written by Shawn Phillips and Uriah Heep. Warner Bros. had previously made a separate deal with Dick James' Maribus Music Inc. granting them the rights to material by The Hollies, Graham Nash and Roger Cooke and Roger Greenaway.

Emmis Music Corp. Formed

HOLLYWOOD — Emmis Music Corp., a BMI affiliate, has been formed by Mel Shayne, president, Johnny Tillotson, vice president, and Shelley Golden, secretary-treasurer.

According to Shayne, Tillotson, Lucille Cosenza and Lefty Baker have all signed exclusive contracts as writers with Emmis. Tillotson has written some 30 published songs including "It Keeps Right On A-Hurtin'," which has been recorded by 70 artists to date. Miss Cosenza has written "Another You" and "Kansas City, Kansas." Baker, while with Spanky and Our Gang, wrote that group's hit, "Yesterday's Rain."

Great Artist P.A. Set For Carole King

NEW YORK — The New York Philharmonic's Great Artists series, which occasionally asks a pop music performer of recognized stature to be one of the attractions in the series, has conferred its latest honor on composer-performer Carole King.

Miss King, whose current album on Ode is "Tapestry," will appear in concert on Dec. 5 at Lincoln Center. The engagement will be her second solo concert appearance in New York. Her first will be June 18 at Carnegie Hall.

By the Dec. concert, her third Ode album—consisting entirely of her own compositions—will be in release.

Fantasy Inks Bobby Rush

HOLLYWOOD — Fantasy Records has signed Chicago singer Bobby Rush to a long-term contract. His first single, on Fantasy's Galaxy label, is "Chicken Heads."

Negotiating the deal were Fantasy's Max Cooperstein and Calvin Carter and Leo Austell of Showcase Productions.

Bobby Rush is the brother of bluesman Otis Rush.

Sue On 'Good Book'

CHICAGO — Album Graphics, Inc. has filed suit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, charging Buddah Records with violating Patent No. 3,556,391, which was issued to AGI January 19, 1971.

The suit alleges that Buddah is continuing to manufacture even though the defendant has been given written notice of its infringement.

The plaintiff asks in the suit that Buddah be enjoined by the court from infringing AGI's patent, and that Buddah permanently discontinue marketing AGI's protected album construction used on "The Good Book," featuring Melaine.

In addition, the President of AGI states that AGI contributed the idea for the 16-page booklet and cover holding device used in "The Good Book," 95000, and that Buddah did not give AGI the opportunity of participating in manufacturing the package.

Damages asked are all gains and profits and advantages by the defendant's infringement.

Ivy Hill Lithograph of Great Neck, New York, said last week that it will assume the entire defense of the action according to its indemnity agreement with Buddah. The company said it had been advised by its patent counsel that the company has a "sound defence" to the charge.

Farrell To Calif. For Partridge Cuts

HOLLYWOOD — Wes Farrell, who has produced all the recorded music for ABC-TV's "The Partridge Family", will be in California for the next three weeks recording the show's first 13 Fall segments as well as material for The Partridge Family's future single and LP releases on Bell Records.

"Doesn't Somebody Want To Be Wanted", The Partridge Family's second multi-million selling single, topped the charts as did their first, "I Think I Love You," which also received that NARM Award for "Best Selling Single Of The Year." The group is garnered LP gold with "The Partridge Family Album" and their new one, "Up To Date." Both LP's have raced past the million unit mark.

Osser To Produce 'Touch' Cast LP

NEW YORK — Ampex Records has signed Glenn Osser to produce the original cast album from the hit off-broadway country-rock musical "Touch" it was announced by Jim Frey.

The album will be recorded May 2nd at A & R Studios, 799 7th Avenue, and is scheduled for release on disk and tape July 15th. Deer Patch Music (ASCAP), one of three newly-formed Ampex publishing companies, has rights to the show's score.

"Touch," billed as "The Country-Rock Musical," has more than 200 performances at the Village Arena Theater since its opening last fall. The show's lyrics are by Kenn Long, with music by Long and Jim Crozier. The book was written by Long and Amy Saltz.

Lennie Hayton Dies

HOLLYWOOD — Lennie Hayton, the jazz pianist and Oscar-winning musical director for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer from 1940 to 1953, died in Palm Springs, Calif. on Sat., April 24, at the age of 63. Hayton, whose widow is Lena Horne, was lately music director for 20th Century Fox, having received a scoring Oscar for "Star!" At MGM, he won an Oscar for the 1949 musical film, "On the Town." He also scored "The Harvey Girls," "The Pirate" and "Singing in the Rain" for MGM.

Born in New York, Hayton started out as a pianist with such groups as those of Frankie Trumbauer, Bix Biederbecke, Red Nichols and Joe Venuti. He also played with Paul Whiteman's Orchestra. He joined ASCAP in 1953. Besides his widow, a sister, Mrs. Maurice Hart, survives.

Matthews To Merc As Solo Performer

CHICAGO — A major effort including national and local advertising and an intense, in-depth publicity campaign is being planned by Mercury Records following the signing of Ian Matthews as a solo artist to the Vertigo label, distributed by Mercury. Matthews was formerly leader, writer, producer and inspiration behind Matthews' Southern Comfort until early this year. The group is presently high on the charts for Decca with a single, "Woodstock," and an album, "Later That Same Year."

Irwin Steinberg, president of Mercury said Matthews' first effort for Vertigo will be "If You Saw Thro' My Eyes."

The album scheduled for a May 1 release will be sent out in a package including the Decca album and a specially written presentation book showing publicity profiles, photos, and Matthews' history.

Matthews' split with Southern Comfort and moved over to the Vertigo label as a solo artist is, according to the musician-singer, an artistic and professional extension.

Sunday Funnies Get Motown Push

DETROIT — The Sunday Funnies, a Detroit rock group on Motown's Rare Earth label, will be the object of a massive promotional effort by Rare Earth in conjunction with the release of their debut LP next month, "Sunday Funnies."

A special press party will mark the group's debut night club appearance May 10, at the Village Gate, in New York.

Andrew Loog Oldham, known for his work with the Rolling Stones, produced the album in Motown's Detroit studios.

The LP's deluxe fold cover is an original design by Sean Kenny, recipient of a Tony Award for his set designs for the 1968 Broadway musical, "Oliver." The surrealistic photo cover package includes lyric sheets for the songs in the album.

Rare Earth plans extensive advertising in underground and related publications the week of the Sunday Funnies' debut, with 60 second spots on free form radio stations in the area.

Clifford Produces Spoelstra Album

HOLLYWOOD — Doug Clifford, drummer for Creedence Clearwater Revival, will produce an album by singer-songwriter and guitarist Mark Spoelstra for Fantasy Records.

Also to be featured on the album, to be titled "This House," will be Booker T. bassman "Duck" Dunn, and, on keyboard, Toni Brown from Joy of Cooking.

Spoelstra has previously recorded for Folkways, Elektra and Columbia. He has performed, playing the 12-string guitar, in clubs from coast to coast.

The album is currently being recorded at Wally Heider's San Francisco studios with Russ Gary engineering. It is expected to be released in June.

Picks of the Week

CARPENTERS (A&M 1260)

Rainy Days & Mondays (3:40) (Almo, ASCAP—Williams, Nichols)

The wistful quality of Williams/Nichols material has seldom been commercially interpreted by singles sellers. Having done this once before, the Carpenters return to the team's work for yet another masterpiece of all-format entertainment. Flip: no info.

THE OSMONDS (MGM 14259)

Double Lovin' (2:30) (Fame, BMI—Jackson, Buckins)

Striking back from the group's biggest record yet, the Osmonds bubble over on another in the manner of their "One Bad Apple." Side slows the pace just a bit, and adds a touch more instrumental heightening to sew up giant action this second time. Flip: "Chilly Winds" (2:54) (Hastings, BMI—Schifrin, Charles)

ELVIS PRESLEY (RCA 9985)

Only Believe (2:47) (Rodheaver, ASCAP—Rader)

Life (3:09) (Elvis Presley/Last Straw, BMI—Milete)

Staying with the faith and spirit style of his "Where Did They Go, Lord," Elvis returns in another taste of old fashioned inspirational material. The cleaner production and equally moving "Life" side, though has the strength to make it a two-sided chart single.

IKE & TINA TURNER (United Artists 50782)

Ooh Poo Pah Doo (3:08) (Minit, BMI—Hill)

One of the regulars in LP's by blues and some top forty acts, "Ooh Poo Pah Doo" is turned into a powerful sales single by the "Proud Mary" duo. Riding a new peak in their career, Ike & Tina should have no problems seeing this one break R&B and T-40. Flip: no flip info.

BREWER & SHIPLEY (Kama Sutra 524)

Tarkio Road (3:10) (Talking Beaver, BMI—Brewer, Shipley)

Soft-sell folk/pop/blues returns Brewer and Shipley from their "One Toke Over the Line" with a contemporary lyric that has none of the possible irritants that cut short the life of their first hit. AM and FM likely. Flip: "Seems Like a Long Time" (4:14) (Talking Beaver, BMI—Anderson)

JOE COCKER (A&M 1258)

High Time We Went (4:27) (TRO—Andover, ASCAP—Cocker, Stainton)

Bristling new side in the roaring manner of "She Came in Through the Bathroom Window" places Joe Cocker back on the sales lists. New track is a seething side for FM thought and packs a dance appeal to wrap up top forty support. Flip: "Black-Eyed Blues" (4:02) (Same credits)

ALICE COOPER (Warner Bros 7490)

Caught in a Dream (3:04) (Bizarre/Alive, BMI—Bruce)

"Eighteen" turned Alice Cooper into an act the top forties became aware of; and now "Caught in a Dream" comes out of the team's latest LP to cement their hold on teen audiences AM as well as FM. On a number of playlists out of the album, "Dream" has a running start already. Flip: "Hallowed Be My Name" (2:40) (Same pubs, BMI—Smith)

BARBRA STREISAND (Columbia 45384)

Flim Flam Man (2:33) (Tuna Fish, BMI—Nyro)

"Stoney End" gave Barbra Streisand a whole new outlook. She applied the same viewpoint to "Time & Love," and now comes back with yet one more Nyro song in "Flim Flam Man." Side slows the pace a bit and makes better use of strings to add up MOR and top forty backing. Flip: no info.

JOHNNIE TAYLOR (Stax 0089)

I Don't Wanna Lose You (3:55) (Groovesville, BMI—Davis)

Fine lover's chant with the coarse, rousing voice of Johnny Taylor make it sparkle here. Side has the impact to become an R&B giant with top forty ripples building. A standout for the artist. Flip: no information.

THE JAMES GANG (ABC 11301)

Walk Away (2:50) (Pamco/Home Made, BMI—Walsh)

Having caught their first taste of singles interest with "Funk #49," the James Gang comes back with a similar track out of the "Thirds" LP. Thundering instrumental work, fine rhythmic excitement and an overall solidity should make top forties aware of this side quickly. Flip: "Yadig?" (2:30) (Pamco/Home Made, BMI—Fox, Peters, Walsh)

ISAAC HAYES (Enterprise 9031)

Never Can Say Goodbye (3:32) (Jobete, BMI—Davis)

Isaac Hayes make the Jackson 5's top ten single a song that can't quite say goodbye. His version, though, is offered with more interpretive than rhythmic accent to work as a top forty contrast and MOR enticement. Flip: no info.

RUFUS THOMAS (Stax 0090)

The World Is Round (3:12) (East/Memphis, BMI—Thomas)

Getting off the dance floor for a bit, Rufus Thomas takes up a subtle pulpit with the commentary of his latest. Side couples power rhythm tracks with the man's statement: "the world is round, but it's crooked just the same." Strong change of pace. Flip: no info.

BARBARA ACKLIN (Brunswick 55447)

I Can't Do My Thing (2:38) (Julio-Brian, BMI—Record, Washington)

First new performance from Barbara Acklin shows her brewing with a completely different sort of arrangement to give her spice. Very fine track to gain the R&B momentum to burst into a chart run with top forty consequence. Flip: "Make the Man Love You" (2:32) (Record, Jones)

NEIL DIAMOND (Uni 55278)

Done Too Soon (2:47) (Prophet, ASCAP—Diamond)

Free association made up of the generation's heroes was originally the flip of "I Am . . . I Said" and has now taken on momentum of its own. The up-tempo thrust that opens the track gives way to a commentary, inspirational close for FM and AM effectiveness.

STEVIE WONDER (Tamla 54202)

Never Dreamed You'd Leave in Summer (2:53) (Jobete, BMI—Wonder, Wright)

Having reasserted his grasp on top forty with "We Can Work it Out," Stevie Wonder's last single is now picking up extra attention from MOR and top forties via its ballad flip. Lively melodic work is heightened by an exceptional performance.

Newcomer Picks

WISHBONE (Scepter 12313)

You're Gonna Miss Me (2:40) (Shediac, CAPAC—Gross)

Canadian hit has already begun wending its way onto charts south of the border. Coming on with a bright, Grassroots-y arrangement, the side carries material and performance impact for top forty audiences. Beginning to build its sales, the side is a likely winner. Flip: no info.

BOBBY GOSH (Polydor 14069)

As Long as She Will Stay (2:25) (Bygosh, ASCAP—Gosh, Gimbel)

One of the outstanding tracks from his first LP, "As Long as She Will Stay" gives Bobby Gosh a combination of gentleness and bite to reap support in teen and adult marketplaces. Side has the strength to stir top forty audiences and the poignance to guarantee MOR attraction as well. Flip: "Double Life" (2:37) (Recording Artist, BMI—Gosh, Anka)

AXIOM (Warner Bros. 7473)

My Baby's Gone (3:17) (Duchess, BMI—Codd, Mudie)

Some of the tingle that brought home "Time" for the Chambers Brothers, and a lot more smooth gloss make up this premiere entry from Axiom. Side scored in Australia and has the markings of an American T-40 climber. Flip: "Hold the Phone" (3:12) (Same credits)

THE SOURCE (Pentagram 207)

You Don't Know What's Goin' On (2:59) (Firesky, ASCAP—Exuma)

The song performed by Exuma in the film "Joe" is reinterpreted in a version aimed at top forty as well as FM lists. Group puts a joy into the chorus to tantalize teen audiences and assure the extra attention paid to hits. Flip: no info.

Choice Programming

Choice Programming selections are singles which, in the opinion of our reviewing staff, are deserving of special programmer consideration.

JANIS IAN (Capitol 3107)

He's a Rainbow (3:10) (Big Dwarf, ASCAP—Ian) The "Society's Child" girl comes up with her most commercial single entry since the big one. Slow, neatly built tale for multi-format thought. Flip: "Here in Spain" (2:21) (Big Dwarf, ASCAP—Ian, Cunningham)

GLORIA LORING (Evolution 1040)

I Don't Want to Leave You Anymore

(2:38) (Bramalea, BMI—Loring)

Getting a bit more fragile in her vocal this time out, Gloria Loring sounds even more tempting in this original effort. MOR enchantment. Flip: "Sunshine on My Shoulders" (3:16) (Cherry Lane, ASCAP—Denver, Kniss, Taylor) Top forties could turn to this side without disappointment.

TERRELL & DAHROUGE (Paramount 0088)

I Really Touched You Once Upon a

Time (2:24) (Gil, BMI—Dahrouge)

Team has made noise before and should find welcomes from top forties as well as MOR's with this ballad fare. Flip: "I'll Always Want to See You One More Time" (2:20) (Saturday, BMI—Dahrouge)

CHRIS BARTLEY (Musicor 1437)

A Man, A Woman (2:30) (Belwin-Mills, ASCAP—Murphy) Appealing

vocal on a fine ballad is enhanced by perking instrumentals to give it R&B and top forty prospects. Flip: "Tomorrow Keeps Shining on Me" (2:47)

(Belwin-Mills, BMI—Snyder)

ROY "C" (Alaga 1006)

Got to Get Enough (2:52) (Johnson-

Hammond, BMI—Hammond, Hines)

Easy driving soul-dance track and

Roy C's vocal should put this side in the R&B running. Could pick up top forty spillover action. Flip: "Open Letter to the President" (3:00)

(Same credits)

JOHNNY MATHIS (Columbia 45371)

Evie (3:08) (Canopy, ASCAP—Webb) Splendid ballad in a sparkling production setting. "Evie" gives

Johnny Mathis an MOR marvel with the chance to break into sales charts.

Flip: no info.

LEE WILLIAMS & THE CYMBALS

(Black Circle 6001)

Get it Together (2:49) (Black Circle, BMI—Roberts) Attractive material is served with medium-paced dance rhythm track and a bright vocal for

R&B audiences to savor. Flip: "I Can Make Mistake Too" (2:49) (Same credits) Black Circle, 5170 Liberty

Ave., Pittsburgh 15224.

BOBBY DARIN (Motown 1183)

Melodie (2:51) (Jobete, BMI—Richards, Marcellino, Larson) A triumphant return for Bobby Darin, side shows him picking up motor city drive to take him into the top forty action

once more. No flip info.

GEORGE E. SMITH (Conclave 340)

Don't Find Me Guilty (2:42) (Ger-bel/McCoy, BMI—Badger, McCoy)

The tested theme of love in a courtroom setting is worked well once more in this R&B ballad with top forty potential. Flip: "Human" (2:44) (Ludix, BMI—Dixon) Conclave distributed by Wow, 250 W. 57th St., NYC.

FANCY FRIENDS (SSS Int'l 834)

Thinkin' About Me, Thinkin' About

You (3:38) (Unart, BMI—G&B

Tomsco) Soft ballad with a bit of the

"Gentle on My Mind" flavor, this new song carries a gentle impact to score on several listening fronts. Could amass top forty sales momentum.

Flip: no info.

KEITH MITCHELL (Spark 01)

I'll Give You the Earth (3:07)

(Southern, ASCAP—deSenneville, Mitchell) A gem for MOR thought, this side has the sparkle to gather momentum and possibly find top forty sales recognition. Flip: no info. Spark is a division of Peer Southern.

WARREN BLOOM (Jamie 1395)

Natural Sinner (3:06) (Hill & Range, BMI—Low) An English hit of about a year back, "Natural Sinner" finally arrives in the U.S. with a strong shot at booming onto top forty play and sales lists. Flip: "Rollin' on My Own"

NEW YORK — WHEN YOU PLUNGE YOUR HAND INTO THE JELLY JAR, WHAT DO YOU END UP WITH? (OR: HOW TO WEATHER VIOLENT CHANGES, HOLD ON, AND SURFACE GOLDEN)

1964 was coming to a close. New York lay wanly under a distainful trampled carpet of soot and snow. The baleful breezes hovering in frigid conference over the Hudson and East Rivers swept in terrifying gusts through the cyclopean trenches of Manhattan, contemptuously spitting their burden of dusty hail and frozen ash masquerading brazenly as snow, at the rushing crowds.

Those four fab mop-tops had broken the bond holding rock in thall some months ago, giving the music industry the most massive sales shot in the arm. The consumer was waking to the fact that there was more to pop than the Four Seasons, and Chubby Checker. The Fifth Beatle had made his appearance, and we all sat gued to WINS for first and exclusive news of 'The Boys' and/or anything vaguely musical emanating from Britain. It was a time of frenzy and joy.

Into this wild scene were injected five guys called 'scruffy' by Murray the 'K', but in any case they played very raw American-styled R&B and wore their hair long enough to make the Beatles look short. They released an album called "The Rolling Stones" and, hoping to ride the crest of the first English musical wave, they came here for a tour. The public was unimpressed. They're so weird, y'know? And the tour's reception was as chilly as New York's winter weather. They played Manhattan's Academy of Music on 14th Street (not exactly Madison Square Garden) and barely filled it halfway.

Very few people then, least of all the Stones, believed that seven years later they'd have their own label. But that's part of what makes this business fascinating. The Stones are the last of their kind; a dying breed of the musician/personality that the Beatles created and, now separately, continue. But the Stones are together. They've trudged through Hell and high water: drugs, police busts, intense negative Establishment reaction to their appearance, critical consternation, and tragic death within the group structure.

They've fought powerfully and bravely; never compromising their music or their life style no matter what the strength of the opposition. And their music reflects this. It's strong, sure, virile, and vital. Their friendship, their love for each other through good and bad times has forged their music into a tight crystal entity that glows with earthy life.

Play the Stones' albums in sequence and you find their lives spread out before you. The dependence on American R&B to get them through the first albums is obvious that those early Jagger-Richard gems like "Tell Me" and "The Singer Not The Song" contain the promise of what the group would be like when they matured. The middle albums with their search for the right musical paths to lead them away from imitation to pure Stonesmusic are fascinating in their potpourri of musical styles.

Then "Their Satanic Majesties," the strangest but most experimental of their albums. They'd just left producer Andrew Loog Oldham their first producer. For the first time they were completely on their own. The Beatles, the Stones' long-time friends, had just released "Sgt. Pepper" to intense critical acclaim. Unsure of themselves, the Stones chose to emulate their friends. 'Satanic Majesties' was the result: a superbly evil album that was received poorly, and quite unfairly, by most critics. Yet, now, looking back, it stands up quite well as excellent, if rather tentative, music.

The Stones' association with producer Jimmy Miller brought them into what I think is their mature phase: music all their own based on hard R&B rhythms and a peculiar form of electrified country forms. Most of all, though, it was the material. Sure, they were playing better than they ever had in their lives (part of this seems to be due to the warm reception Mick Taylor received from both the fans and the group itself. Far from resenting his stepping into Brian Jones' place, the Stones listeners accepted him immediately. It was Taylor too, who apparently helped formulate the new Stones music through his lead guitar ideas), but it was Mick and Keith's songs that, ultimately, made "Beggars' Banquet" a beautiful LP.

Since then, the duo have only gotten better and better. "Gimme Shelter" from the "Let It Bleed" album is not only the most incredible track the Stones have recorded, launching itself into instant immortality as a rock classic, but the title has become a watchword among millions of young people. Further Mick's forays into film, especially "Performance," have increased his stature as a personality immensely.

"Sticky Fingers" the just released Stones album marks the appearance of their own label, Rolling Stones Records distributed through Atco, in one of the most publicized deals in the industry's history. It's now incumbent upon the group to live up to what's been going down. "Sticky Fingers" had

Her first gig was in a factory in San Francisco where she typed numbers on a machine. But she took a day off each week and went knocking on doors in the music business. Paul Cooper at A&M heard and made her a secretary in the publicity dept. at A&M. Procol Harum's Broken Barricades, newly released by A&M, is their most splendid album to date from an artistic standpoint. To insure that its commercial success matches its musical splendor, we're publicizing it with one of the most ambitious press/promotional packages we've ever lavished on an artist. to be special in order to ride the excitement of the build up. It may sound like an exaggeration, but the album more than lives up to the publicity. It comes as the final, irrevocable proof that the Stones have learned that no matter what, their music comes first. "Sticky Fingers" is a work of the master craftsman. And it should be a cause for rejoicing, that a group so obviously at the top in the music world, should still care so intensely about the quality of their music, that they'll not settle for less than the absolute best.

NEW YORK—THE FOUR CAR EXPRESS (OR: WHY ARE YOU SITTING IN THE SWITCHMAN'S YARD, WHEN THE ARROW TRACK AWAITS?)

One thing you can always say about the record business: It's full of surprises. Wading through a couple of hundred albums a week seems less and less fun as time marches by on dancing feet. And suddenly you wake up one day to find that time has whirled away from you, and laughing with the sound of silver bells, mocks you for not seeing the important things right under your ears. You wake up and find that the albums that affect you personally, that you go home to and put on to make you feel good, become fewer and fewer until you despair of finding anything at all.

But, as I said in the beginning, the music business is full of surprises, and many of them quite pleasant. A casual trip to a small office inhabiting a section of Manhattan that's the fastest growing these days: at cloud level. Outside Central Park stretching away, now amazingly free of haze, beginning the first hesitant moves to break free of New York's dreary, lingering winter. Inside music new and beautiful; eclectic and sure:

Costumed cuties dressed to kill/Highways closed and no one will/

Ever get to sing their songs of gratitude

"Who is that, Ronnie?" I ask.

"Train," he says.

"Who dat, a new group?"

"No," she sighs. "The album was released about a year ago."

So it goes.

Anyway, the record's called "Costumed Cuties," and it's on Vanguard. The only bad thing about it is the cover, which shows only three-fourths of the group. Inexplicably two are dressed as bucaniers and the third is dressed in Revolutionary War regalia. Very peculiar and not at all attractive. So much of the downs; all the rest's up. Fantastically so.

Train was a quartet; Bob Lenox (vocals, keyboards) wrote all but one track; Don Keider (drums, vibes, vocals); Murray Gordon (bass, guitar); and Dave Lumsden (alto sax). It's impossible really to tell what makes a group special. The most you can say is that it's a peculiar set of things that, when brought together, jell into a whole; a complete unit. Only then can music live. And without life there is no effect on the listener. And Train's music is alive, rich with varied musical ideas.

"Oink-Oink" is a pleasant driving opening cut with, as the title suggests, strong American political overtones. The next track, "Bishop Pawn Three," opens delicately, almost as if it were the beginning of Sabbath mass: "There was no candor even when the Bishop came/In splendor with rings to kiss his hand." It gives way to brass, beautifully arranged, double-tracked vocals, and Lenox's chameleon organ hovering reverently in the background, then breaks up into a fascinating duet between Lenox and Keider on vibes, before returning to the chorus.

Lenox's organ again dominates in "Guest Hotel" alternating with cello and violin duets. Then midway comes a lightning break in doubled time, given a suberly chunky feel by some hard-muscled guitar that gives way to piano and sax in jazzy counterpoint. "Dreams And Realities" is a gentle ballad made unusual by Lenox's liquid piano combining with electric sitar to achieve a cascading effect. Again the song breaks into a harder chorus.

"Costumed Cuties" basis of excellence must begin with Bob Lenox's marvously inventive melodies that refuse to become static. But that's just the start. It's obvious from the first song that a great deal of thought and time went into the arrangements and production of each cut. Producer Geoff Turner has kept the drums consistently crisp and open so that the cymbal work has none of this hiss associated with poor miking. The mix is also exemplary because none of the instruments ever becomes overpowering. And especially with Lenox's superlative keyboards, this must have been a temptation. The vocals, mostly by Lenox are strong and sure, and the sporadic use of the doubletracked voices adds to the flavor.

The arrangements, too, invariably display a delicacy and creativeness that invites numerous listenings to pick up all that's going on. They show a total awareness of the requirements of each song as a separate entity that's all too rare.

So it's a pity that Train is no more. Still, it's not too late to listen to what e.v.l.

RARE EARTH—SOUNDS IN TIME

It may seem a bit odd. For some reason, people can't understand what Rare Earth is doing on the Motown label. The label that had produced superstars like The Supremes, The Temptations, The Jackson 5, Marvin Gaye, and Gladis Knight, seemed least likely to sign a progressive rock/jazz group. But Motown, after expressing a desire to diversify, was introduced to Rare Earth via their manager, Ron Strasner. The label was so impressed that it offered the group a recording contract and its own record logo. It was a chance, and it paid off.

Initially an underground group, the band's first album, "Get Ready," was released, and it was received enthusiastically. It remained on the pop charts for well over a year. From the LP, the title track was cut, and it served to increase the group's appeal to AM audiences as well. To date, Rare Earth have three gold singles, "Get Ready," "I Know I'm Losing You," and "Born To Wander," and two gold albums, "Get Ready," and "Ecology." It was a chance, and it paid off.

Rare Earth is composed of six inventive musicians who are determined to

Now she's back at A&M. A few months ago Al Kasha heard a few of her songs and insisted she go into a studio. She was terrified — finally agreed. The results were released on Buddah a few weeks back—titled "Half Woman/Half Child," it's a musical diary of personal distresses with occasional odes to close friends ("Michael," "Ned," "Harvey Wrote A Play"). Some vanilla lines—"I'm the crescent in moon/and the burst in balloon" and a few monumental ones—"Have you ever been in love from the outside looking in? . . . have you ever walked the beach and seen a figure running towards you . . . and it ran past to someone else?" diversify their sound and communicate with their audiences. As drummer Pete Rivera explained, "the group has a certain sound that is always identifiable. We're always going to keep that basic sound, but we also intend to expand our creative abilities."

Concentrating their sound on percussion and vocals, (all six members sing), Rare Earth is a group that now appeals to all music listeners. Their sound is a conglomeration of jazz, soul, rock and blues, and judging from the percentage of hits that Motown has had in the past, the addition of Rare Earth, a group with an almost universal appeal, is certain to maintain their streak.

'Music Of The Wolves' Set For Columbia Bow

NEW YORK — Columbia Records has pacted a pack of wolves to a record deal, it was announced by Pierre Bourdain, director, merchandising, masterworks, original cast recordings and soundtrack albums.

The focus of nation-wide publicity as the result of a front page feature and review in the April 15th edition of the New York Times, the album, called "The Language of the Wolves", narrated in part by actor Robert Redford and produced by Lois Holland Callaway, Inc., was originally a premium to subscribers of the Museum of Natural History's Magazine, Natural History. Demand for the album soon outpaced the Museum's limited distribution and production facilities, prompting them to approach Columbia Records to reproduce the original record on the Columbia label.

Since that time, features about the album have appeared in Time, Newsweek and the Wall Street Journal. A

Capitol, Overseas Music Ready Aguaviva Album

NEW YORK — Capitol Records, in association with Overseas Music Services, Inc., has announced the signing of Aguaviva, a new group from Spain. Their first album, already a best-seller in both Spain and Italy, is scheduled for domestic release in May. According to the agreement, Capitol Records will distribute Aguaviva's album in the U.S., Canada, and other English-speaking countries.

Their album, simply titled "Aguaviva," consists of selected poems of Lorca and other well-known Spanish poets set to music by Manolo Diaz, a top Spanish record producer.

In addition to the album, two of the single cuts, "Poetas Andaluces" (Andalusian Poets) and "Limites" (Borders), have been on the best-seller charts in Spain. The group has made appearances throughout Europe, including the San Remo Festival and MIDEM.

For release in the U.S., the narrative portion of seven of the tracks has been over-dubbed in English by Raul Julia, a well-known Broadway and TV actor.

Maysles Filming Grand Funk Shows

NEW YORK — David and Albert Maysles who were responsible for filming the Rolling Stones "Gimme Shelter," are currently in the process of doing the same for Capitol's Grand Funk Railroad.

The Maysles, along with a nine man crew have already shot miles of footage covering live performances by Grand Funk with an emphasis on audience response to the group. Filming is being done at the request of group's manager/producer, Terry Knight.

wolf and a museum spokesman have appeared on the Dick Cavett Show and on the Martha Dean, John Gambling and The Fitzgerald's WOR radio programs publicizing the album and the threat of extinction facing wolves. More national coverage is set to come.

The album was a result of the discovery that wolves do not howl as a menacing gesture as has been believed for centuries, but rather to communicate with each other. To quote from the album, "The wolf howl is a long, low, mournful sound. It is continuous—from about half a second to 11 seconds in length. It consists of a fundamental frequency, between 150 and 780 cycles per second, and contains up to 12 harmonically related overtones. The pitch remains constant or varies smoothly, and may change direction as many as four or five times. Total intensity does not vary greatly throughout. Yet there is much variation in the howling of different wolves."

Intended for an early May release, Columbia plans to market the album in the usual manner, focusing on college and underground radio stations and print media.

Israeli Duo Cuts 'Horsethief' Song

NEW YORK — "Look At You, Look At Me," the theme song of Allied Artists' adventure comedy, "Romance of a Horsethief," will be recorded by the Israeli duo, Hedva and David. Carl Prager, president of Allied Artists Music, said the song, with music by Mort Shuman and lyrics by Robert Brittan, will be recorded by Hedva and David in four languages—English, French, Japanese and Spanish. The recording session will take place in London during the week of May 10. RCA will release the Japanese version in that country, where Hedva and David's recording of "I Dream Of Naomi" is currently a hit. The recording earned them the Grand Prix Award at the Tokyo International Popular Song Festival last Nov.

"Romance of a Horsethief" deals with the antics of a band of Jewish horsethieves who live in a small Polish border town in the early 1900's.

SRL Battle Still Blossoming

TORONTO—As reported in Cash Box (Apr 10), RCA had withdrawn from membership in the Sound Recording License (SRL) along with Ampex who declared they never had any association with the organization.

This was regarded as a setback and the reason, offered up by many observers, was the threat by broadcasters to boycott equipment purchases from those companies associated with SRL. There have been two weeks of hearings in Ottawa by the Copyright Appeal Board (Apr 10-23), with the record companies presenting their case and being cross-examined by lawyers representing the broadcasters. Polydor's Lori Bruner spent the better part of one day and half the next, answering questions from both quarters. London's president Fraser Jamieson spent 18 hours on the stand and was obviously making many good points being as the proceedings were interrupted by three placard-bearing hippies, screaming their disapproval of the hearings. Bob Chislett, who heads up the giant MCA record complex, also spent many hours on the stand as did many other record executives.

The most important part of the proceedings came about immediately following Jamieson's lengthy questioning. (Apr 22). Robert Cook, vice-president and general manager of the record division of RCA Ltd. of Canada, sent the following letter to Bert Betts, manager of SRL: "Since my advice to you on April 2, concerning our part in SRL, we have reviewed the nature of our relationship with SRL and the work being done on behalf of the industry. Because of SRL's desire to be able to speak on behalf of the entire industry in the current legislative and administrative proceedings, we have concluded that the record division should continue to participate in SRL."

Unfortunately, many broadcasters have displayed an attempt of the boycotting of product from those record companies involved in the SRL battle. Although most of the boycotting has come about through secret telephone calls, CHED in Edmonton issued the following press release: "Due to the current proceedings with Bill S-9, concerning SRL, the following policies are in effect at CHED radio, effective immediately. (1) We will cease publication of our Chart and playlist which have been distributed weekly in our market, as well to those in the trade throughout North America. (2) No information will be made available to record companies, trade journals, etc. concerning the music on CHED. (3) Personnel representing record companies will not be welcomed on our premises. (4) We will vote 'Zero' on the Maple Leaf System for any record from an SRL member label. (5) Some immediate adjustments will be made in our format to accommodate more Gold Records and to make it unnes-

Diamond Catalog To Mogull In Spain; Artist Cuts For Mkt

NEW YORK—Ivan Mogull Espanola S.A. will represent the Neil Diamond catalogs, Prophet Music and Stoneridge Music, in Spain.

Spanish lyrics have already been penned for Diamond's "Cracklin' Rosie" ("Linda Rosie") and "Soolaimon" ("Soleiman"). Diamond will cut the new versions for his first Spanish-market venture. His Uni recordings are released through Fonogram in Spain. Mogull made the deal with Diamonds attorneys Pryor, Braun, Cashman & Sherman.

sary to program as many new unproven tunes as we have done in the past. The above decisions do not apply to any company who has made a public announcement in the press and trade journals, as well as notified CHED radio of that announcement, denouncing the whole idea of SRL and Bill S-9. For further information, contact Keith James, Operations Manager, Program Director, CHED Radio."

In view of the above it's expected that record companies will look into the Canadian Bill of Rights for possible action. Many observers are wondering why the members of the SRL do not resort to the licensing of radio stations, which Decca went through a number of years ago. Radio stations do not appear to realize the consequences of such licensing. They would, in fact, be restricted from playing 98% of the world's recorded music.

Greatest opposition to the SRL would appear to be the Canadian Talent Library—which charges for its transcription service—a pay for play service, which is really what the SRL is all about.

CBS-Sony Fiscal Year Sales, Profits Zoom Over Projections

TOKYO—CBS-Sony Records is doing strong business. For the 12 month period ending last Feb., the company's sales reached $16,150,733, with a profit before taxes of $630,000. The sales figure represents a 137% increase over projections, with a 191% growth rate.

The company's financial condition was reported at the company's board of directors conference and shareholders' general meet at its Tokyo headquarters on April 19. In addition, all execs were reelected to new terms.

Western music accounted for 85% of sales and Japanese music for 15%. Disks made up 85% of sales and tapes 15%. Tape growth rate was 341%.

Also, an annual dividend was set at 15%. For the new fiscal year, there are projected sales of more than $20 million and a breakdown of 65% for western music and 35% for Japanese. Tapes sales are expected to reach 16%.

In another move, a branch in Kansai was set up on April 16 to supervise the Osaka branch, which also now has a tape operation. Further branches are expected in Hokuriku and Shikoku. The CBS-Sony Family Club operation, formed on Mar. 1, will release its first records, a "Best Symphony Album" and "Popular Hit Album," at the end of this month.

Grammophon's Morita Seeks Lower Dividend

TOKYO—At an upcoming exec board conference, Mr. Morita, president of Grammophon, plans to press for the clearance of surplus stock and a reduction of the firm's dividend from 15% to 12%. This move is being made despite the fact that the label hit its sales target 100% over the last year. Sales reached $7,666,666. Morita is seeking approval of these measures before the conference. Sales for the first half of fiscal 1970 were $6,822,222, with an after tax profit of $237,444.

Germany

A new surprise for the German record trade: the record firm Cornet in Cologne will not—as announced—be taken over by Electrola and the music publishing house Gerig. Cornet owner Heinz Gietz concluded instead a distribution contract with BASF music production. This contract will come into effect from the 1st of July 1971 on. Therewith the new BASF music production under direction of Klaus Laubrunn will strengthen its efforts on the German record market decisive. Until now BASF even has a distribution contract with MPS records whose repertoire includes some of the most prominent Jazz interpreters as Oscar Peterson, Count Basie and many others.

The music publishing houses Hans Sikorski in Hamburg honoured Herbert Hildebrandt, who is also producer of The Rattles, as the international most successful German composer of the year 1970, with the "Goldenen Notenschlüssel". It is said that there will be personal changes in the top management of the Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft soon. Details are not known until now, but it is sure that Dr. Werner Vogelsang, managing director of Phonogram Ton in Hamburg, will change to the Deutsche Grammophon direction.

The Israelite hit star Daliah Lavi, who made in Germany a great record career, is in Spain at present for film shootings with Yul Brynner. Furthermore she will give her first solo-concerts in Hamburg and Frankfurt on the 8th and 9th of May. The prominent French singer Barbara will have on the 8th of May during the May-festivals a performance in Wiesbaden. Some promotion terms for this artist are planned. Gerig music publishing houses in Cologne are leading since weeks in the German charts. Among others with artistes as George Harrison ("My Sweet Lord"), Daliah Lavi, Peter Alexander, Roy Black, Chris Roberts, Caterina Valente and France Gall.

The new chief of Ufa music publishing houses in Munich, Josef Bamberger, concluded in London a long termed contract with the group Pickettwitch. A few weeks after the European song contest is to say that in Germany from all festival titles the English one "Jack In The Box" by Clodagh Rodgers reached the highest turnover. The German version "Der schwarze Mann auf dem Dach" by Manuela will be released shortly. Effective the 1st of April, Gerhard Schulze was nominated as additional managing director of Teldec-Telefunken-Decca after the death of director Hans Lieber.

A rush for concerts of Santana in Germany can be announced. All three concerts are sold out. Compared to this other American stars have difficulties. The reason therefore might be that the entrance-fee is too high for German proportions. Teldec (Decca) made a new recording of Mozart's "Zauberfloete" with the Wiener Philharmonikern, conducted by Georg Solti. The soloists are Cristina Deutekom, Pilar Lorengar, Renate Holm, Martti Talvela, Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau, Herman Prey. The American singer Melanie will be presented on the 8th of August in German TV in a personality-show.

Kinney music organisation started their activities in Hamburg under the leading of Siegfried E. Loch. The address is as follows: 2 Hamburg 1, Heidenkampsweg 76 B, phone 24 45 30. The Deutsche Vogue nominated as new distribution manager Peter M. Deburba, who was until now press chief of this firm. After a record list of tournees through Germany, Udo Juergens is leading with 274 concerts, followed by Esther and Abi Ofarim with 83. Peter Alexander with 75 and James Last with 47 concerts.

Boxing champ Joe Frazier will come in May as singer with his band "Knockouts" for a concert tour through 6 German cities. He will get 15.000 DM (approx. 4.050 Dollars) for each appearance. The promotion for the concerts was taken over by Electrola.

'Grand Gala du Disque Populaire', the Dutch Concert, if not the European Concert. The annual groovy showbiz event of the Netherlands.

Presenting disc talent from all over the world at Europe's biggest traditional one night stand. Broadcast live by radio and television, from Amsterdam.

Small Country - Big Market

Holland may be geographically small, but the Dutch have the highest recordplayer ratings in the world outside the U.S.A. Holland is the most dynamic market for records in Europe.

And what's more: it's often trendsetting for Europe in popular music.

Dutch radio networks are long ranging. So are the offshore pirate ships and the Holland-oriented commercial station in Luxembourg (broadcasting to England, France and Germany). Ster Operation Under One Roof

JOHANNESBURG — Stereocord House, situated in the heart of the music world in Johannesburg, at 163 President Street, has now been structurally completed and will house the entire operational activities (excluding recording studios, which will remain in STEReo House, which is outside the central city) of Ster Records—including the central stock and dispatch depots as well as all administrative and account departments.

The building will also house Ster's publishing arm, Contrast Music (South Africa), as well as the Head Office in South Africa of its Associated publishing and promotion company, Edition Montana (S.A.) (PTY.) LTD.

The postal address (P.O. Box 7772, Johannesburg); telephone numbers and cable address will remain the same, and to speed up communications with its licensors all over the world, the company has installed telex communications—the Telex No. of the company being 43-0254.

The Company and its associates occupy the entire building and the office section is unique in that one office has been set aside and furnished especially for the company's principal recording artist, Udo Jurgens, for use by him whenever he visits South Africa.

Chris Smither U.S. Rep At Fest

NEW YORK—Poppy recording artist Chris Smither has been set to represent the United States at The International Festival of Pop Song in Warszawa, Poland, the largest Pop Festival in Europe.

Ontario Govt. Continues Lead In Search For Canadian Talent

TORONTO — The Ontario Government continues to lead the nation in its search for Canadian talent. It recently auditioned 30 singers in the classical field, and found it difficult to narrow its choice down to five soloists. Maestro Elmer Iseler, one of the employers who auditioned the singers, noted: "As I sat listening to these young artists, I was once again impressed with the quality of singer we are producing in Canada."

All five soloists will appear with the Festival Singers, of whom Maestro Iseler is conductor, in two major European concerts. Prior to their trip abroad they performed with the Festival Singers in their final series concert of the season (Apr 24) in the Great Hall of Hart House (Toronto).

Kluger Hit Sets Birthday Pace

BRUSSELS—Roland Kluger Music is celebrating its first birthday with a hit, "Rozen Voor Sandra" by Jimmy Frey (Philips), which has just notched 100,000 in sales. The disk is being released in Germany, Spain and Holland, backed by TV appearances by Frey, whose follow-up single is already scheduled.

Kluger recently returned from business discussions in Spain, placing material recorded by the May Fair Set and Convention with RCA, and initiating talks with Hispavox about other artists. Kluger is also working with Israeli violinist Igal Shamir, and is fixing record releases for him in France, Italy and Spain and also investigating possible outlets in the States.

press reception at Toronto's Windsor Arms (20) which smacked, unfortunately, of being a very pompous affair. Professor Adamson, Chairman of the Council for the Arts displayed a somewhat Colonel Blimpish attitude as did Consultant James Norcop.

There has been strong reaction from symphonies, choral organizations and concert societies which would like to hear tenor, Garnet Brooks, mezzo-soprano, Silvia Buchanan, counter-tenor, Theodore Gentry, baritone, Gary Relyea, and Ricki Turofsky, soprano—the five singers chosen for the European tour as well as several concerts in Ontario.

It's expected that record companies will be approached in view of the lack of classical product to maintain the 30% AM regulations for radio as laid down by the CRTC.

Merc Sets Miles-In-Europe Promo

CHICAGO — Mercury Records has set in motion a coordinated cooperative venture with its Philips Records affiliates throughout Europe and one of its best-selling artists, drummer-singer Buddy Miles.

Miles embarked from New York for a three and a half week tour taking him to 14 cities throughout England and Western Europe during which concert dates and television appearances are being tied to auxiliary record promo activity jointly arranged in his behalf between Fred Burkhardt of Interart Productions and the IFA booking agency in London.

Robin McBride, Mercury's home-based A&R director, flew from Chicago

Nippon Victor Promo On Presley

TOKYO — The advertising dept. of Nippon Victor will conduct a "Holiday in Blue Hawaii Campaign" in co-operation with Pan American Air Lines and the Hawaii Tourist Bureau from August 10-18. The object is to promote the further popularity of Elvis Presley, and the company has also proposed the re-showing of Elvis's film "Blue Hawaii."

"Elvis On Stage" promoted the sales of Presley's LPs. These reportedly exceeded 100,000 copies by March 20. To promote the sales of "You Don't Need To Say You Love Me" and "Presley On Stage" (Soundtrack), 100 applicants for "Holiday In Blue Hawaii" will be chosen by lottery. Events will include a "Japan-USA Surfing Contest," a rock festival and a preview of "Blue Hawaii."

Since Presley is at present much more popular in Japan than at the first showing of "Blue Hawaii" seven years ago, the company considered it worthwhile to arrange for a re-showing of the film this summer.

go to join Miles in Europe where he will oversee recording of various concert appearances including shows at The Olympia in Paris, London's Albert Hall and two concerts and a television date for Eurovision in Montreaux, Switzerland. In addition to the Montreaux televised concerts, Miles will appear on several other TV shows throughout the tour.

The itinerary, largely generated by Miles' growing following in Europe, began in Helsinki (4/27) and before concluding in London on May 13th will include Copenhagen, Odense, Munich, Hamburg, Frankfurt, Brussels, Antwerp and Birmingham.

Great Britain

A five-year worldwide exclusive disk production deal has been signed between ace songwriters Roger Greenaway and Roger Cook and Bell Records president Larry Uttal. The pact also has a clause whereby Bell has first refusal on the duo's services as recording artists. Cook and Greenaway will produce British acts for Bell, the first being a five-piece band called Young and Renshaw whose debut single "Way Up There" was released on April 23rd. The two are both in their late twenties, and began their successful collaboration in songwriting in 1966 with "You've Got Your Troubles" recorded by The Fortunes. They have scored over twenty world smashes since then via artists such as Engelbert Humperdinck, Andy Williams, Gene Pitney, Cliff Richard, Cilla Black, Blue Mink, White Plains, Johnny Johnson, and The Fantastics. The deal with Bell consolidates a formidable writing-producing team assembled by Uttal in the UK including Tony Macaulay and Mike Leander. "We are thrilled to have the top British team of record producers join Bell," commented Uttal. "Not only for the hits that they will give us, but also for the fact that they now secure our position as a viable factor in the British record business." Uttal also had talks during his London visit concerning Bell's future licensing arrangements. The pact with EMI expires at the end of the year, and if it is not renewed, there is a possibility of a link with Pye.

Island Records managing director Chris Blackwell has resigned his post in order to concentrate more on talent seeking and record production for the label. He has been succeeded as chief executive by David Betteridge, formerly Island's sales director, and a rejigged board line-up now comprises legal adviser Charles Levi-son as director of business affairs, Muff Winwood in charge of artists relations, Tom Hayes controlling international sales, Tim Clarke director of marketing and production, and John Leftly continuing as financial director. Winwood has resigned his directorship at the Island Artists management agency, and is replaced by Alec Leslie. Blackwell, who founded Island in the early sixties and built it up to the stage when it attracted a six million dollar bid from the Kinney conglomerate last year, is expected to spend more time in the States, where Island has been launched under Capitol's auspices. He retains his shares in the company, but disclosed that his resignation was not entirely his own decision, and was influenced by the fact that his personal interest is in the disk business but other shareholders wished to diversify in other directions. His new status means that he will be able to offer advice on major issues and policies, but the final decision will no longer rest with him. Betteridge stated that no changes in policy were envisaged under the new managerial set-up.

Bhaskar Menon has been named executive vice-president of Capitol Industries Inc. and president of Capitol Records Inc., the North American subsidiaries of the EMI Group. Menon, a division director of EMI, takes over the Capitol Records presidency from Stan Gortikov, who added the responsibilities temporarily to his job as Capitol Industries president in January this year when Sol Iannucci resigned. Menon is already a board member of Capitol Industries, and has recently been managing director of EMI International Services based in London, where he will be succeeded on May 24th by Anders Holmstedt, managing director of Swedish EMI and supervisor of the company's operations in Scandinavia. EMI Ltd. has also named Sir Richard Clarke, K.C.B., O.B.E., as a non-executive director with effect from May 1st. Sir Richard recently retired after thirty years in the Civil Service, during the latter part of which he was Permanent Secretary to the Ministry of Technology.

Last year's Isle of Wight Festival lost about £61,000 even though ticket sales notched £197,000, a recent meeting of creditors of Fiery Creations, the organisers, was told. This compared with a 1969 loss of £9,800 on ticket sales of £103,000. A meeting last October assessed the Fiery Creations debts at £106,250, and the only apparent asset which FC movie of the 1970 event which FC directors Ron and Ray Foulk estimated to be worth £28,000. The two brothers are proceeding with plans to stage another festival this August on the island, and London promoter Richard Roscoe is also expressing the intention of running a rival event at the same time on 5,000 acres put at his disposal by three Isle of Wight farmers and landowners. Local residents headed by Isle of Wight Member of Parliament Mark Woodnutt have already declared their determination to prevent further festivals on the island by legal means if necessary.

Singer-composer Labi Siffre played a special concert at Manchester's Free Trade Hall on April 25th coinciding with the Pye International release of his new album "The Singer And The Song" which features fifteen of his own compositions.

Lemongello Wins Fame Via Copa Fill-In Spot

NEW YORK—It was the classic situation, and Pete Lemongello has begun to savor the classic reward. Finding itself with a cancelled show, the Copacabana last month invited Lemongello to perform with comedian Corbett Monica for a week. The last-minute booking proved just the key that had eluded the singer for the past two years.

In New York filming "The Godfather," in which he plays a "button man," Lemongello had just finished a stand at the Living Room. But it was the Copa fill-in that has brought him representation with International Famous, an invitation to appear at the Concord, El San Juan, the Sahara Hotels and a return engagement at the Copa later this year.

Lemongello is also soon to be represented with a new single with Rare Bird Records. The side will feature "Rain From the Skies" by Bacharach and David.

Metromedia Signs Holy Modal Rounders

NEW YORK—Metromedia Records has announced the release of a new album by The Holy Modal Rounders. The signing of the Rounders, a group which has been associated with underground rock since its early beginnings, is the latest in a series of moves by Metromedia to enter into the underground rock market.

The newly signed group has already played shows with such artists as Creedence Clearwater Revival, Joe Cocker, The Grateful Dead, The Byrds and Van Morrison.

Metromedia personnel are backing up the release of the album with heavy advertising in the press and on the radio, as well as with special promotion and display kits designed to be used in conjunction with local appearances by the group.

HOLLYWOOD — Appointment of Roger Perry to the professional staff in Hollywood of Jobete Music Company Inc. has been announced by Herb Eiseman, general professional manager of the Motown publishing affiliate.

Perry will be working with staff members Lindv Blaskv and Leroy Lovett in contacting all record companies on songs developed by Jobete (BMI) and Stein & Van Stock (ASCAP) team contract writers.

Perry, who has supervised Monday "Hoot" Nights at the Troubadour in Hollywood for two years, earlier was involved with the Wallich's Music City organization and in personal management.

Prod Deal Sees New Para LP's

NEW YORK — Paramount Records has just released four new albums, three of which represent the first flow of product resulting from two major production deals entered into by the label.

The label, through its production deal with Just Sunshine, headed by Michael Lang and Marvin Grafton, has also acquired Karen Dalton's debut LP, "In My Own Time." The fourth album in the new Paramount release is "Bad Manors," by Crowbar, a top drawing Canadian group.

Paramount has already released two singles from "The Hard Ride" LP. "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" by Bill Medley, and Bob Moline's "Where Am I Going Today," both of which are getting airplay.

The promotion trip is the first stage of a major push on the new group. "We feel the same excitement about this group as we did about Three Dog Night" says Gross, "and we plan to put all of our energies into getting them launched."

Plans for Hamilton, Joe Frank & Reynolds include an extensive consumer and trade print campaign as well as radio time buys and point of purchase merchandising displays. The label's confidence in the group is underscored by the issue of their specially designed sleeve which features a gold label and the slogan "Certified gold by ourselves from the moment it left the studio." "Don't Pull Your Love" will be followed by an album which will be released shortly.

RCA Sales Organization

distribution. It has been no secret that for some time now we have had problems in certain areas and have indeed gone for a period with no sales coverage at all in several markets. Recognition of this, coupled with the current acceleration of distribution activity by some of our major competition has again raised the issue, created rumors and caused unnecessary concern by most people who have received misleading information.

Many of our customers have personally visited with us to meet and discuss their and our future plans. We urge you to continue doing so and should a trip to New York not be possible, we will make every effort to visit with you, should you request a meeting at management level. We realize however, that personal visits with every customer are time consuming and since rumors have a way of spreading rather quickly, we felt an official statement was in order at this time.

In a letter to you dated November 12, 1970 we pretty well outlined our direction and intentions. They have not changed. "... a firm dedication to make our label again number one in the country." That's our direction—straight up! "We will scrap, change, build and fight until we get to where we want to be." That pretty well outlined our intentions—and they haven't changed a bit.

One thing has changed since that letter however, and that has been our ability to sell, merchandise and expose our product in several markets because of changes that affected our distribution in those areas, changes over which we had no control.

I would like to reprint again from my November 12th letter:

"Just as marketing conditions, competitive activity and your own organizational structure must dictate your method of operation, similar forces within our business must also dictate our method of operation. There are certain functions that must be coordinated in every local market if we are to be successful. Local exposure of new talent and coordination of merchandising programs is a must. We'll add more men to our own field organization if that's what it will take to get it ... but we will get it."

Conditions in several markets have dictated action on our part. We said we would add more men to our own field organization if that's what it would take and that's exactly what we plan to do. Within the next several weeks we plan to increase our Los Angeles field structure to full strength and have a complete direct sales organization covering the entire Los Angeles market making available the entire RCA catalog of recorded music. It is not our intention to "pull the line" from anyone. We plan to continue selling to our present accounts in the Los Angeles market under our current terms, but we are enlarging our direct sales approach to give us complete market coverage.

There are presently several problem markets where we may take this action and there is always the possibility of other market changes in the future. One point should be stressed and made perfectly clear ... it is not our intention, nor is it our desire to completely change the face of our present distributing organization. We will, however continue to supplement areas with a larger direct sales organization where we feel it is needed. It is our intention to get the best coordinated, most effective sales organization in the industry. We do want you to be part of it.

I realize the impact of a letter such as this and the number of questions that must be going through your mind. If you feel that a personal meeting is desirable with any of our staff, Rocco or myself, we certainly will make ourselves available. I ask however, that you try to schedule any requests directly through Jack Burgess.

Johnny Cash Show

AMPHITHEATER, CHICAGO — The familiar opening line "Hello I'm Johnny Cash," turned on a capacity crowd numbering in the thousands who filled the huge Amphitheater here in Chicago for the Columbia star's recent one show performance. Not since the Tom Jones appearance has this auditorium been so packed with so responsive an audience! Although Cash himself did not appear until the second half of the show (his greeting was piped in from backstage) the splendid performances of each of the members of his entourage kept the crowd more than satisfied during the sixty minute first portion of the show.

The Tennessee Three kicked off the evening's entertainment in superb fashion and remained on stage as back-up group for the entire lineup. Next was Carl Perkins, exceptional in a string of his past hits (Blue Suede Shoes, On The Outside Looking In, etc.) and some fantastic guitarman-ship. The Carter Family followed and were very well received by the crowd, as were the Statler Bros., easily the stand-out act in this segment of the show. Their beautiful blending of voices, onstage personality and the zany antics of the comic member of the quartet had the audience on its feet!

After a fifteen minute intermission the man himself appeared to a standing ovation which was repeated at the conclusion of the show. We're fresh out of superlatives to describe Johnny Cash's performance and the crowd's reaction to it! A warm rapport between the star and the audience prevailed throughout the set. Cash did about 15 to 20 numbers, some with his wife June Carter and a couple with former inmate Glen Sherley who's been touring with the troupe since his recent release from prison.

Hope the above notes convey how very much yours truly enjoyed the performance. Johnny Cash has a new fan—me!

Tony Bennett

EMPIRE ROOM, NEW YORK — It was a night to remember. Now, how many times can you say that. Yet it was. Tony Bennett, making good Sinatra's claim that he's the best singer in the world. A birthday cake tribute to Duke Ellington's 72nd birthday, Duke's keyboard fling on "Satin Doll" and Bennett's great version of "Sophisticated Lady." How's that for starters. Well, there's more. Much more. The orchestra. Best described by a member of the opening night audience as the "tightest big orchestra I've ever heard." John Bunch, musical director and top-flight jazz pianist. Ruby Braff, jazz cornetist in tip-top form. And Tony, drawing beautifully from his resources that include extraordinary timing and and phrasing. The songs. I've heard him sing most of them before—yet they seemed as fresh as the latest Stephen Sondheim score. "It Had To Be You," a daring example—fully realized—of intimate song styling (on Bunch's piano in accompaniment) in a big room. By way of celebration, I indulged myself with a piece of the Duke's cake at a post-performance party, and a fine and fresh multi-tiered cake it was. Fine-and-fresh, that's what this night to remember was like.

Cat Stevens

CAPITOL THEATER, PORT CHESTER, NY—For some, success doesn't come easy; for others, after all the years of trying, it never comes at all. Yet in Cat Stevens, the system, with all its inadequacies, redeems itself. After success in England and the Continent, after picking up a small but vociferous band of fans here, Cat is now a star in America. It's a joyous and terrifying experience all at once.

Well I think it's fine building Jumbo planes, or taking a ride on a cosmic train, switch on summer from a slot machine, yes get what you want to, if you want, 'cause you can get anything

Cat sang, and all around me was the sound of the audience breathing his lines with him. I thought back to what Bill Graham said about rock music going back to a state of mass adulation, and hoped that these young people who crammed into Howard Stein's Capitol, completely selling it out on a week night, were not worshipping Cat, but listening to him.

Because more than anything else Cat is one of the most important songwriters living today. I don't think I can overemphasize this point because, it seems to me, that it takes people a long time before they listen to what's happening. They hear, but little registers. But you see, that's the point. Cat is a person, a writer, a singer to listen to and find joy in the revelations his songs bring you. He doesn't want or need screaming hysteria. His music is a calm island in a sea of musical turmoil. Cat knows where he's going and his two A&M albums are the first steps in that direction.

And one of the major things that always set Cat apart from other singers, even in his Deram "Matthew And Son" days, was that he is a man of the future. His songs, their styles, melodies, lyrics, always have been just slightly ahead of the music scene. They're consistently new and different and, above all, bring a wealth of information about Cat himself and how he views the world, to the listener. And, after all, the prime criterion of songwriting, or of any creative endeavor, for that matter, is that it carry bits of new knowledge within its framework. Cat's songs, without exception, do this.

His stage act is a gentle session with a master: relaxing yet quietly thrilling.

Bring tea for the tillerman, Steak for the sun,
Wine for the woman who made the rain come.
Seagulls sing your hearts away, 'cause while sinners sin the children play, Oh lord how they play and play, For that happy day for that happy day.

Thanks, Steve, for a most beautiful evening.

Anne Murray/The Stampeders

MASSEY HALL, TORONTO — The Canadian scene of public apathy toward home-grown artists is now showing signs of changing and much of this due to the increase of airplay of Cancon product.

The April 16th concert of Anne Murray and The Stampeders was evidence of this change. Toronto being the most formidable of Canada's nationalistic weakness was not expected to show any concern for a concert of this type. It was Bob Martin, manager of A&A Records who came up with the idea of the Stampeders sharing the bill with Miss Murray and the choice couldn't have been better. Torontonians flocked to the box office and "sold out" signs were posted shortly after the tickets went on sale. It was necessary to go for two more shows, the following day and both of these pulled capacity houses.

The Stampeders, old-timers in the business, having been fighting for a niche in the recording industry for the past seven years, took to the stage first and after their opening number it was obvious they had the audience right where they wanted them. They interjected humour that was clean and very very funny. They sang some of their past near hits and their current charter, "Carry Me" which appears on the Music World Creations label. The equipment for this three man unit was exceptional and their manager Mel Shaw saw to it that it was bang on. There were no delays—just superb entertainment from this group, now showing the international market their capabilities.

During intermission, one observer was overheard to say, "Anne Murray better be great, the Stampeders are a hard act to follow." Miss Murray's opening wasn't great, no fault of this Capitol artist however. Her musicians must have become used to a floor director (through their many television appearances) and were unable to bring their star on with any professionalism. Once on however, like her television shows, Miss Murray carried the show. It's her voice, her warmth and charm. She could have pulled the show off accompanying herself on guitar alone. Miss Murray went through her hits and had the audience singing and clapping along with her. She was dressed in "hot pants" and barefoot, the latter now synonymous with her every appearance, even at the posh Imperial Room of the Royal York Hotel. She asked how many Maritimers there were in the house and about half the audience quickly responded. "You can't take them anywhere and you can't get a way from them" she said jokingly which brought the house down.

Both Miss Murray and The Stampeders were called back for encores—a rarity for Canadian artists by Canadian audiences. Welcome to Toronto Anne Murray and The Stampeders.

Jane Morgan

PERSIAN ROOM NEW YORK — That many a contemporary song can fit like a glove into the talents of an M-O-R performer is decisively in evidence during Jane Morgan's performance here. The beautiful artist, who continues her flashv night-club ways with a silver-and-black hot pants outfit, is giving Gotham some new programming, like "Joy to the World," "Look What They've Done to My Song" and "Bridge Over Troubled Water." Except for what I thought was an over-arrangement on "Bridge," a song that really requires the simple touch that Simon & Garfunkel give it, she lends new, spirited charm to these big hits. Another new number, "Who's Garden Was This" by Tom Paxton is an anti-pollution song that with great sincerity and musical poignance is a chilling reminder that we may yet live on an earth barren of the natural wonders. The RCA Records performer has also added a fine version of "For All We Know," the choice Academy Award song. Retained from her past showcases are the ever-effective "Ten Cents a Dance"/"Big Spender" routine and a medley of songs associated with Edith Piaf, who Miss Morgan regards as her great inspiration. Jane,

Procol Harum

The Winter Consort Teagarden & Van Winkle

FILLMORE EAST, NYC — A couple of years ago, I would have ventured to say that Procol Harum was one of the only groups successfully incorporating the sensitivity of classical music with rock. However, for some reason, Procol Harum seems to have gotten away from the careful blend. Whereas the emphasis used to be on vocals and piano (the other instruments were used delicately for accentuation and structure), the group has now chosen to bring the electric guitar up front.

Their old melodies, "Shine On Brightly" and "Salty Dog" didn't fare so well at The Fillmore as they did earlier in Procol's history, although both songs were the highlights of Procol's performance. On songs such as "Whaling Stories" and "Broken Barricades," they seem to devote much of their attention to volume and electricity which puts a whole new face on the group. "Luskusdelph" from their new Lp, was an interesting view of what Procol Harum can accomplish with intense guitar amplification.

Hopefully, the group will achieve a balance between the beauty of their previous songs and the energy that marked their performance this past week-end.

Defying categorization, The Winter Consort provided an interesting challenge for a Fillmore audience. This six man combo rendered perhaps some of the most innovative moments in Fillmore history.

Utilizing such various and sundry instruments as an African xylophone, unamplified bass, oboe, cello, classical guitar, sitar and alto sax, the group has blended classical, Latin, African and eastern influences into a predominantly free form jazz style.

Highlights were "Requiem," a tune written by David Darling (cello) as a memorial to a friend lost in the Viet Nam war, and "Africanus Brazilerus Americanus" which featured a highly unusual combination of Brazilian drums.

This group has the strength of craftsmanship and the audience appeal to really make it big.

In accord with the recent rise to popularity of the duo, Teagarden and Van Winkle proved to be an altogether unique duo. Consisting of drum and organ, the two contributed several interesting harmonies especially so in "Rubin Red Is Dead (With Bagpipes)" and "God, Love, Rock N' Roll." To quote a friend, "What a lot of sound from two people!"

Carly Simon

TROUBADOUR, L. A. — Carly Simon is astonishing; a ninth wave. Elektra has her, and she is truth and beauty, a bundle of perfumed memories, whose voice and presence bring special dimensions of sparkle to the jewels she disguises as songs.

Carly and the crowd were one at the onset, the room an empty canvas that filled with patterns of appreciation as she painted emotion in tones of whispered gray: asking, "What Do People at the End of the World Do?" examining "Dan, My Fling," reporting, "The Love's Still Going."

And, when she went after six songs, refusing to acknowledge the roar begging her return, she displayed cool command of that toughest trick of all, ensuring an audience's return. Hey, Carly, they'll be back, and where does the line form?

however, is her own performer who keeps up solidly with the musical times.

BOBBY GOLDSBORO

"AND I LOVE YOU SO" #50776

(THE ORIGINAL SINGLE VERSION)

Bobby has taken this great Don McLean song and made it his own.

And it's just like Bobby Goldsboro to follow a top-ten million seller like "Watching Scotty Grow" with another record of the same calibre.

Pop Picks

STICKY FINGERS—The Rolling Stones—Rolling Stones (dist: Atco) COC-59100

Time was when each new Stones album seemed a search for the right musical direction. But no more. The Stones have matured. "Sticky Fingers" displays the same beautiful blend of R&B and texturally heavy country-based sounds that made "Let It Bleed" brilliant. The band has found a cohesiveness that is awesome and Nick and Keith's songwriting is consistently exceptional: each cut is a gem in its own right but "Can't You Hear Me Knocking" and "Sister Morphine" open new musical paths. Naturally "Brown Sugar" is included. And Andy Warhol's 'zipper pack' cover is sure to astound. Never a more certain gold LP.

AQUALUNG—Jethro Tull—Reprise MS 2035

In the beginning man created Ian Anderson, and gave him unto a flute. And Ian took up his flute and played it. And it was good. And then Ian created Jethro Tull. And he said unto them "Play my songs." And they did. And it was good. So to "Aqualung," a series of Ian Anderson songs with heavy religious overtones that mark a departure for the group. Yet the melodies are instantly recognizable as Ian's. This album marks the debut of bassist Jeffrey Hammon-Hammond and a whole new concept in Ian's writing. Highlights include: "Wond'ring," "My God," "Locomotive Breath."

FOLLIES—Original Cast—Capitol SO-761

Stephen Sondheim, Broadway's most inventive and interesting composer/lyricist, with a refreshing assist from orchestrator Jonathan Tunick, is in fine "Company" form with "Follies," the big musical of this closing season. Sondheim is generally after a reflection, replete with his own individual talent, of by-gone days on Broadway. And the show's leading ladies—Alexis Smith, Dorothy Collins, Yvonne De Carlo plus Fifi D'Orsay and Mary McCarty—do them complete justice, particularly Dorothy Collins' "In Buddy's Eyes" and "Losing My Mind."

THE BEST OF WILSON PICKETT, VOL. II—Atlantic SD 8290

Fresh from his great singles success with "Don't Let The Green Grass Fool You," Wilson Pickett serves up an LP brimming over with hits. Along with "Green Grass," there's "Get Me Back On Time, Engine Number 9," "Sugar, Sugar," "Hey, Jude," "Cole, Cooke & Redding" and, to go back for an oldie, "I'm A Midnight Mover." Thirteen songs in all to make up a package which will be a must for Pickett fans and that's a sizable contingent.

GRIN—Spindizzy (dist: CBS Records) Z 30321

Nils Lofgren, sometime pianist for Neil Young and Crazy Horse, has formed his own group: the trio Grin. All eleven cuts were written by Nils and they're guaranteed to make you grin because it's new music; a formerly untapped vein in new directions. "See What A Love Can Do," "If I Were A Song," "Direction," "Outlaw," each cut, in fact, succeeds in being gentle yet powerful music. Production by David Briggs, is, as usual, superlative. "Grin" is an album and a group that makes you sit up and listen from the first note to last. You can't ask for more.

WHERE'S CHARLEY—Original Cast Recording—Monmouth-Evergreen MES/7029

Thank you! Thank you!, Monmouth-Evergreen. Somehow or other, an original cast recording of Frank Loesser's 1948 hit, "Where's Charley," never got a Broadway disk version (remember Ray Bolger singing "Once In Love With Amy?"). Even a Broadway caster couldn't do any better by Loesser's ingratiating words and music, which also includes "My Darling, My Darling," "The New Ashmolean Marching Society and Student Conservatory Band" and a neglected Loesser gem, "Lovelier Than Ever." Norman Wisdom starred in this 1958 London version. A truly happy event for musical comedy buffs.

THE WORLD: ORIGINAL CAST STARRING HOWDY DOODY—Pip—6808

Return with us to the thrilling days of yesteryear when a freckle faced kid named Howdy Doody dominated television sets from 1948-1960. Share the fun and excitement with those in the Peanut Gallery who sang and laughed. Album is a compilation of history and fiction spanning 13 years. Actual voice tracks of prominent political figures are heard along with those of the regular Doody cast. Album is a must for everyone regardless of age.

THE JOHNNY OTIS SHOW LIVE AT MONTEREY!—Epic EG 30473

Two record set recorded at the 1970 Monterey Jazz Festival features a veritable plethora of rhythm and blues stars including Little Esther Phillips, Eddie Cleanhead Vinson, Joe Turner, Roy Brown and Ivory Joe Hunter. Guitar whiz Shuggie Otis contributes some incredible slide work and Margie Evans sings several solos in exciting fashion. There's no substitute for great musicians and singers and this set has both.

A CHILD'S GARDEN OF GRASS—Elektra EKS 75012

Billed as "a pre-legalization comedy," this is a highly amusing album which should appeal to more than just the underground audience. Regardless of your views on marijuana, you should get your share of laughs out of this light-hearted treatment of the topic of smoking grass. Acquiring the stuff, its physical and psychological effects, and what to do when you're high are some of the subjects covered via skits and music. Funny and inventive.

ZERO TIME—Tonto's Expanding Head Band—Embryo SD 732

Many electronic albums succeed only in being noise, but here is an exception. Co-creators Bob Margoueff and Malcolm Cecil work within the context of musical forms to achieve some startling yet listenable results. All sounds on the disk emanate from an Expanded Series III Moog Synthesizer including a very unusual vocal. That's right, a vocal! Six compositions comprise this extremely original and worthwhile futuristic set. Zero Time is now.

JUKIN'—The Manhattan Transfer & Gene Pistilli—Capitol ST-778

This is not one of your ordinary albums. But it's fun. Assemblage is a bit reminiscent of the Mothers of Invention and Sha Na Na as they tackle ten tunes ranging from the thirties jive of Fats Waller's "You're A Viper" to the downright camp of the 1954 rock and roll classic "Guided Missiles." Though there is a tongue in cheek air to the proceedings, there is also a sincerity which is quite appealing. Gene Pistilli, sans Cashman and West, is definite asset to this talented group. What with nostalgia taking hold across the land, this record could find a wide audience.

GREEN BULLFROG—Decca 75269

Rumor has it that a number of super musician types are responsible for this one. Listening to it, it's difficult to tell who they are. But, over and above the mystery of the anonymous personnel, what counts is that this is a powerful set. Lots of excitement on such rock classics as "My Baby Left Me" and "Lawdy Miss Clawdy," and the country song "Walk A Mile In My Shoes," gets a speedy treatment too. Maybe you can identify Green Bullfrog!

Matthews' Southern Comfort and "Woodstock" #D32774 A Joyful Union

And here's why. Matthews' Southern Comfort hit single, "Woodstock" (from their album, "Later That Same Year"), has been moving steadily up on the charts. They're also responsible for two other exceptional albums, "Matthews' Southern Comfort" and "Second Spring." Altogether, that's about two hours of comfort. That's enough to make anybody happy.

EVR Network Signs 1st Advertiser

NEW YORK — Alfa Romeo last week signed to become the first advertiser whose commercials will be aired via video cassette. The agreement was made through Ross Roy of New York and calls for the Italian car manufacturer to air commercials with Midwest Video Systems, Inc. over a special EVR cassette network being started in the southwest.

First advertising will appear later this year over a 40-location network of motel locations in the middle and southwest. The network is using special programs to test the effectiveness of video cassette commercial television and will be studied to determine message penetration.

According to Ross Roy president William Walker, the commercial test should help open up the market for video cassette sponsored programs. "Without the help of advertisers, it will be difficult to amortize the cost of programming over special purpose networks."

Alfa Romeo v.p. Arturo Reitz indicated that the company was interested in demonstrating its automobile features before highly selective audiences; and the firm's eastern sales manager Aldo Bozzi added that he thought the automotive market should be particularly attracted to video cassette tv because of its ability to concentrate the total sales story both in showrooms and the home through pre-recorded tv.

Midwest Video head Jack Burnett stated that his network is looking to accept 30 advertisers for the first 26-week showing. He added that Midwest expects to expand to 1,000 locations in 1972. The Oklahoma City based outfit currently sells closed circuit advertising to 335 locations in 20 agricultural states.

Brockway Calls EVR 'Minority's Medium'

NEW YORK — "Producers and creators can regard virtually any minority appetite as a source of potential profit via EVR" viewed EVR president Robert Brockway at the 1971 Congress of American Writers.

Elaborating, Brockway stated, "the reason EVR can reach smaller groups is dollars and cents. Where conventional television needs millions in its audience to attract and keep sponsorship, EVR is viable in the thousands."

Pointing out that intellectuals comprise some 2% of community population, Brockway said, "intellectuals don't come in one factory assortment, non-intellectuals in another. To cater to the opinion makers or taste leaders has been financial folly. And the record shows that any attempt to bring cultural enrichment to conventional television succeeds in driving the greatest masses of 'average' viewers to the nearest western."

Describing EVR as a better way, he emphasized the possibility through electronic video recordings, to utilize the television set "... at your volition, at a time of your choosing, to view programming of your selection. And since you are creative writers, one more dimension can be added: it can be material of your creation."

Comparing EVR cassettes of cultural interest to the higher-cost output of book publishers and lower-cost, wider interest cassettes to the paperback book business, Brockway said, "People to whom such a cassette (as the rare art book) is only a dream today would find a resource never before available."

These would make a meaningful contribution to the culture of our time he explained, bringing to light "... those special projects that have been coming back penciled with an editor's sympathetic 'Great idea, not commercial enough.'"

He concluded: "in EVR, cost factors are such that programming can be structured for any particular audience at prices within the reach of those who today get almost nothing comparable at any price."

Five 4-Channel Sets To Be Offered From Columbia Of Japan

TOKYO — Nippon Columbia has already marketed its first 4-channel system and is preparing four more units to come in the next few months. First of the QX line to go on sale is the #38, selling at under $250.

Later models will include the QX-31 with an estimated retail of less than $200, #58 and #71 as top priced models in the series so far and the #550 at under $170.

In addition to the players, Nippon Columbia has also initiated a series of 4-channel reproduction accessories including installation speaker systems, a wall speaker set and four-channel adapter.

Concurrent with the April 15 introduction of first hardware to reach Japanese shops, the company announced that it would begin issuing 4-channel records in mid-June with eight albums followed by another one or two LP's each month thereafter.

Records are to include a variety of material ranging from live rock concerts to classics.

At the Japanese conference declaring the first release, a sample of the four-channel sound was provided with Handel's "Messiah." A similar announcement of availability for the QX systems is expected in the U.S. at the April 27 meeting of the International Audio Society. There, the acoustics department chief will be demonstrating the sound of the 4-channel records and Columbia's master-sonic system that offers sound adaptable to existing 2-channel stereo.

Country Artist of the Week: DEL REEVES

MAN OF THE PEOPLE—There's Del Reeves, the funny man, which the public sees, but beneath it all, when the clown face comes off, there's a serious side, a side that comes out when he entertains the poor people in the small towns—the times when he sings the ballads and the hymns.

Whether happy or serious, Del is a man of the people. He belongs to the crowd and has the strength, ability, and courage to meet a hectic schedule and perform as actor, singer, songwriter, impressionist, and stage and television personality.

Born in North Carolina (Sparta), Del had his own radio show at the age of twelve, followed by several years which included an Army stint, various TV shows and personal appearances. While gaining TV prominence, Del also gained a reputation as one of the best country and western songwriters, writing tunes recorded by the industry's top artists. A string of successful night club appearances followed during which time Del entered into an acting career that has seen him featured in films such as "Forty Acre Feud" and the upcoming "Whiskey's Renegades".

1970 saw Del making 182 public appearances throughout the country, regular appearances on WSM's Grand Ole Opry, hosting his own syndicated TV show titled "Country Carnival" out of Nashville, produced by Show Biz, Inc., plus an active songwriting and recording schedule.

Recording for United Artists, under the direction of Scotty Turner, Del's current hot chart single is "Working Like The Devil For The Lord", with an LP titled "Friends and Neighbors".

Del is booked by Top Billing of Nashville.

'Traditionally American' Scheduled For Syndication

NASHVILLE — "Traditionally American" is the title of a scheduled series to be produced and released by Sound Media, Inc. Each of the twelve Traditionally American programs are to be devoted to one of the following country artists: Merle Haggard, Hank Williams, Eddy Arnold, Marty Robbins, Jim Reeves, Charley Pride, Loretta Lynn, Buck Owens, Conway Twitty, Lynn Anderson, Johnny Cash, and "The Nashville Three", (Atkins, Randolph, and Cramer), not necessarily in that order.

The program will talk with the music makers themselves, family, friends, and admirers alike and will be narrated by Robert W. Morgan, a nationally recognized radio personality and narrator who entertains thousands of listeners 6 to 10 a.m. on Chicago's WIND.

The twelve programs of the Traditionally American series are scheduled to be offered on an exclusive basis to a selected station in each of the top seventy-five markets in the United States at no cost. The series will eventually be offered to many more markets. Each program is to be aired as a monthly special preceded by advance promotion by each participating station. Commercial availabilities during each one-hour special will be provided for station sale at, presumably, an increased program rate because of considerable advance promotion for the program. Sound Media, Inc. will fill additional commercial time.

CMA London Meeting Sets New Projects

LONDON — The quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Country Music Association was held at Churchill Hotel, London, England, Sunday and Monday, April 11 and 12. The Board met in conjunction with the Third Annual Festival of Country Music a two-day event staged by the Mervyn Conn Organization of London, at Empire Pool, Wembley on April 10 and 11. Attending the meeting were Officers and Directors from San Francisco, New York, Indianapolis, Norfolk, Atlanta, Toronto, and Nashville. Founding president Connie B. Gay of Washington D. C. made the trip to present a project for the Kennedy Foundation to the Board and to make a report from the Insurance Committee of which he is Chairman.

Gay reported that construction of The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts has recently been completed and is situated on the banks of the Potomac River in Washington, D.C. Gay came to present the Center's Founding Artists program. A number of nationally known artists have agreed to give benefit performances during the first season when the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts opens this September. These star artists have agreed to perform free to help subsidize the cost of tickets for lower income groups the center is committed to serve, including children, the elderly, the poor and students. The performers will be recognized as "founding artists" and their names will be engraved around a marble pillar in the new center. Gay wanted the CMA to participate in getting Country artists to be among the "founding artists." The following committee was appointed to put together a program and make recommendations to the Board: Harold Hitt, chairman, Hubert Long, Bob Levinson, Ben Rosner, Bill Lowery, Tex Ritter, and Connie B. Gay.

Board chairman Richard Broderick appointed the following Committee for directors to the board for 1972: Bill Lowery, chairman, Janet Gavin, Wesley Rose, Bill Farr and George Crump.

Approval was granted by the Board to use the new 18 minute CMA film for presentation to such organizations of MOA, tape organizations, record dealers, etc. The film will be offered to member record companies for showing at their conventions and/or sales meetings. It will also be made available to member radio stations. This sound-on-color film, entitled "For My Next Number" was originally produced by the CMA for presentation at its luncheon during the NARM Convention in Los Angeles last month.

The CMA presentation at the NARM Convention was considered so successful by both organizations that discussions are now underway for another project at next year's NARM Convention. Jack Geldbart and Jim Schwartz, both past presidents of NARM, are CMA officials and have played a vital role in the formation of the "Record Merchandiser" category of CMA membership and are largely responsible for the rapport between CMA and NARM.

The Board agreed to take part in two future conventions involving talent markets. One is the International Association of Fairs and Expositions next November in Las Vegas which involves some 400 of the largest fairs in North America. The second is the International Association of Amusement Parks in December in Chicago, which represents some 500 amusement parks.

Walter Heeney was named chairman of the committee to follow through on these projects, helping to present the Country Music story in full to the two organizations.

The Board also had a visit from Tommy Tucker of American Forces Radio in Stuttgart, Germany, who stressed the importance of Country Music in his broadcast, but pointed out the inability to find such product in most post exchanges. Roger Ryan, president of the CMA of Ireland appeared briefly, courteously thanking the Board for its interest in the past and seeking more for the future. He told of the growing demand of Country Music in Ireland, and said the CMA there is working for greater distribution of Country product.

The next meeting of the Board was set for Denver, Colorado, July 8 and 9 at the Brown Palace Hotel.

Country Seminar Termed 'Success'

NASHVILLE — With an attendance of over 170, showing an increase of over two-thirds of the previous year, the second Nashville Country Music Seminar held in Nashville April 23 and 24 has been termed a "fantastic success".

Attended by management and programming personnel, the Seminar was kicked off by keynote speaker, Shelby S. Singleton, Jr., president of the Shelby Singleton Corporation. Topics covered included presentation of various country music formats, general manager's role in programming, how to get recognition from trade journals, promotion, where country listener dollars go... how to break out local ratings... and, what the national rep needs to sell country radio.

Tapes are available covering each panel discussion by writing The Chuck Chellman Agency, 801 16th Avenue, South, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

Plans are now being formulated for next year's seminar with questionnaires in the mail asking for comments to be used as a guide line for a more in-depth coverage.

The seminar was under the sponsorship of Dr. Will Miles.

Wrangler Awards Presented In Western Heritage Program

OKLAHOMA — The National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center paid a tribute to the outstanding men and women of western entertainment and literature Saturday (April 24th) at the 11th annual Western Heritage "Wrangler" presentations.

Personalities of the Western film, TV, literary, and art fields crowded into the western art and history gallery of the Oklahoma City Center to watch veteran western stars. Walter Brennan and Joel McCrea present the Wranglers to the top westerners of 1970 in ten categories of competition and six special award divisions.

The heritage program was highlighted by a classic performance of "Tumbling Tumbleweed" and "Cool Water" by members of The Sons of The Pioneers after presentation to the famous group of a special recognition award for more than 38 years of contributions to western heritage.

Lloyd Perryman, Burbank, Calif., who has been with the Sons Of The Pioneers since 1936; original members of the group Pat Brady, Colorado Springs, and Hugh Farr, Casper, Wyo.; and Ken Curtis ("Festus" of Gunsmoke"), a member in the 40's and early 50's, appeared personally to receive the awards for the Sons Of The Pioneers and to perform the two songs of this first great western singing group.

John Parker, Hollywood composer-conductor, received a Wrangler for his title music for Gunsmoke's Snow Train episode and then conducted the Heritage Awards Orchestra.

Brennan and McCrea, who are both honorees of the Hall of Great Western Performers at the Center, also presided in Wrangler presentations to TV actor Burt Reynolds ("Dan August") for his outstanding leading role in Run, Simon, Run, an ABC Movie of the Week named 1970's most outstanding Western fiction TV program. Lionel E. Siegel, Beverly Hills, writer of the screenplay, picked up his Wrangler at the April 24th awards gala.

Ken Curtis took a double role in the Wrangler ceremonies, accepting on behalf of his Gunsmoke colleague, Amanda Blake. Artist Bettina Steinke of Santa Fe, N. Mex., helped Curtis unveil an oil painting of Miss Kitty, a Gunsmoke veteran of 20 years who is honored with Brennan and McCrea in the hall of great western performers.

Four outstanding New York and Hollywood producers and directors received Wranglers at the Saturday ceremony. James Benjamin, Producer of ABC News and writer-producer of The Last of The Westerners, the winning factual TV program, stepped up to the podium to receive his trophy, as did Elliot Silverstein, director of A Man Called Horse, 1970's outstanding Western motion picture.

Craig Fisher, of the National Broadcasting Company's news staff, received a special award Wrangler as producer-writer of Survival On The Prairie, cited for outstanding service of a documentary in telling about the prairie's wildlife heritage.

Six authors and publishers were given Wranglers—juvenile book writer Betty Baker of Tucson, Arizona; non-fiction book author Harry Sinclair Drago, White Plains, N. Y.; art book and non-fiction writer Robert F. Karolevitz of Mission Hill, S. D.; and James E. Serven of Tucson, were the authors honored.

The fifth author—a southwestern pioneer—was honored posthumously, for his The Autobiography of Charles Colcord, 1859-1934, a limited edition book that won the Wrangler for outstanding service in telling about the pioneer era. Don K. Higginbotham, Tulsa, Okla., editor and printer of the book, accepted the trophy on behalf of Mrs. Walter Helmerich, Tulsa, Mrs. James White and Mrs. Dudley Callahan of Oklahoma City, Colcord's daughters.

David Houston month will do good things for your year.

May is David Houston month. There'll be a full-scale promotion of all of David's albums: time-buys, displays, print advertising, the works.

It's also the month when David's latest album is being released. The album is named after David's Number 1 single, "A Woman Always Knows." Which is the fourteenth David Houston single to reach the top of the country charts.

That's a record no other country singer can match. And it'll certainly get David Houston month off to a great start.

So May is going to be a month to remember. In June, July, August and all the other months of the year.

WAYNE KEMP (Decca 32824)

WE SURE CAN LOVE EACH OTHER—Tammy Wynette—Epic—E 30658

It goes without saying that every Tammy Wynette album is great. This latest LP offering features her number one single as well as 10 additionally beautiful country tunes performed in the traditional Wynette style. Most interesting selections include "The Joy Of Being A Woman," "Bring Him Safely Home To Me," "Baby, Come Home," and "Have A Little Faith." Looks like another giant album for Tammy.

WE'RE REAL GOOD FRIENDS—Buddy Alan & Don Rich—Capitol—ST 769

Some of the finest country music has been performed by old friends getting together in the studio. Such is the case with Buddy Alan and head Buckaroo, Don Rich. This new LP release features the duo's hit single, "Cowboy Convention," as well as nine other impressive tracks. Most promising cuts are "Guitar Pickin' Man," "No Help Wanted," "There ain't Nobody Chickener Than Me," and their newest single release, "I'm On The Road To Memphis." A very delightful album.

NORMA JEAN—RCA—LSP—4510

The selections on this album are enough to make you go out and buy it, but add to that the soft, loving voice of pretty Norma Jean, and her remarkable ability to beautifully interpret each and every song as if she wrote it—and you'll understand why Norma is fast becoming one of country music's favorites. "Come Sundown," "That Song Writin' Man," "If It's All The Same To You," and "Anita, You're Dreaming," are all included in this most interesting package.

THE PROMISED LAND—Freddie Weller—Columbia—C30638

Freddie's latest for Columbia offers some of the finest country and pop material ever written. His single hit, "Promised Land" is included with other great country classics such as "Rose Garden," and "Help Me Make It Through The Night." One of the more outstanding tracks is the Brewer and Shipley number, "One Toke Over The Line," which is given a new treatment. Album should do well in chart competition.

IS IT ANY WONDER THAT I LOVE YOU—Bob Luman—Epic—E 30617

Set is highlighted by strong, dynamic vocal performances by Bob Luman and a very interesting choice of material ranging from Merle Haggard's "Today I Started Lovin' You Again," to the Mac Curtis tune "Give Us One More Chance." All 11 songs shine with the Luman touch that is instantly recognizable to all country music lovers. Album is a great one, and will largely increase Bob Luman's following.

DIANA'S COUNTRY — Diana Trask — Dot — DOS 25989

Diana Trask is no newcomer to the music business. But this album is certain to establish her as a bright star on the horizon. Diana Trask is country all the way. After listening to the 11 songs on this album, you'll want to hear more. "The Last Person To See Me Alive," "The Chokin' Kind," "I Keep It Hid," "A Stronger Hand To Hold," and "Let's Keep Her Free (America)," are the more outstanding tracks, but all are magnificently done.

Country Roundup

Conway Twitty says, "Leave the people with what you really are." . . . Through a partnership agreement between Eddie Miller and Tree International chiefs, Jack Stapp and Buddy Killen, the Eddie Miller Music Company came into existence several weeks ago and is now in full operation at 720 17th Avenue, South in Nashville. Miller, who is most famous for penning the popular "Release Me," has had a total of over 1100 songs recorded; he was the first songsmith to compose a C/W opera; and in addition to heading up Eddie Miller Music, currently presides as president of the Nashville Songwriter's Association.

Conway Twitty set to tape the David Frost Show in New York, June 2 and 3, followed by an appearance at Madison Square Garden June 4. . . . Rounding out his third year doing commercials for B. C., Faron Young has just completed a whole new series, followed by a radio and TV commercial for the Pearl Brewery of San Antonio, to be run in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, through Bob Brown of Tracey-Locke Advertisers of Dallas; and a brand new set of beer commercials for the "Old Style" Beer Company of LaCrosse, Wisconsin for Bob Janayvaz, advertising manager for the G. Heilman Brewing Company.

Playing to packed houses in Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary, and Vancouver, Anne Murray of "Snowbird" fame, from Springhill, Nova Scotia, proved she is Canada's top country talent. Her ten day stint in Vancouver was SRO. In Calgary, radio station CFAC, the only 50,000 watt town and country station west of Toronto, presented her with a portrait painted by well known North American portrait artist, Harley Brown. . . . Bill Goodwin was recently appointed executive vice president of the Hubert Long Agency.

A general call for help has been directed to country music lovers to write the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D. Wendy Bagwell and the Sunliters, Jan and Jerri, in Nashville to tape television shows for Porter Wagoner, Bill Anderson, and Jim Ed Brown. All three shows are viewed via the syndicated route. Wendy is one of the busiest men in the business with his Canaan record success of "The Rattlesnake Song" rattling around across the nation. . . . Mega Records is releasing a country single by Ray Pillow. "The Waitress" by Carl Belew of "Crystal Chandelier" fame, will be Pillow's first single since he signed with Mega. Pillow debuted "The Waitress" in his appearance on the Grand Ole Opry recently, where he is a regular.

The Compton Brothers latest Dot single, "Pine Grove," was written by Harry Compton, who also wrote Conway Twitty's current hit, "How Much More Can She Stand." . . . Bobby Braddock and Don Wayne have re-signed contracts with Tree International. . . . The Cathedral's, an all-male group from Akron, Ohio are hitting with their performance of "I'll Have A New Life" from their new album on the Canaan Label. . . . There's no 'B' side on the Oak Ridge Boys new single. Both sides of the record are marked 'A'. House of Cash writers Larry Lee and Glenn Tubb are penmen for the "God Is Beautiful" side and Bobby Bare and Billy Joe Shaver of Return Music share writer credits for the other 'A' side, "Jesus Christ, What A Man." The record is released on the Impact label in Nashville with distribution through Heartwarming Records.

Columbia's Stonewall Jackson has a country version of the pop hit,

"You and Me and A Dog Named Boo." . . . Capitol Records' producer, George Richey, is looking for material for the Stonemans, who recently signed with Capitol. No recording date has been set as of now. . . . Homelite Chain Saws, a sponsor of Bill Anderson's TV show, has planned three area sales meetings in Bridgeport, Connecticut, St. Louis, Missouri, and San Francisco. Anderson is set to be guest speaker at each gathering. The topic for each reflects one of Bill's firm beliefs, "The Importance of Country Music."

The Second Annual Chet Atkins Guitar Festival will be held in Knoxville, Tennessee, June 4 and 5. Because of foreign requests for applications, the closing date for entries may be moved back to May 15th. . . . Little Richie Johnson will handle national promotion and production for the Wesco label. Wesco is headed by Bobby Cisco. . . . CKPM Radio, only station programming country in the Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, is going from 5W to 50W and need singles and LPs desperately. . . . George Morgan and Hugh X. Lorene Mann's new Chart single, "Slip Away," was recently reported to be the most requested song on Ralph Emery's WSM nighttime radio show. . . . DJs who may have missed mailing on Faron Young's "Step Aside" may write Little Richie Johnson at Box 3, Belen, New Mexico 87002. . . . May 1st will see a big show at the Vet's Memorial in Columbus, Ohio featuring Porter

Wagoner and Polly Parton. . . . Dot Record artists, The LeGarde Twins, appear with the Charley Pride Show, May 21, 22, 23, in Portland, Oregon; Seattle, Washington; and Vancouver, British Columbia, respectively and then plane to their native land, Australia, for the week of May 24 through May 30 before their four-week engagement at the Dusit Thani Hotel in Bangkok, Thailand, June 7-26. . . . Hal Spencer of Manna Music Publications recently awarded a plaque to Dolly Parton for her recording of "How Great Thou Art." This song, which is number one in the religious field today, has been featured on the last three Dolly Parton albums, "A Real Live Dolly," "The Best of Dolly Parton," and "Golden Streets of Glory," and sets an unheard of record in having the same song featured by the same artist on three consecutive albums.

Of 31 May days, the popular Porter Wagoner Roadshow has all but four firmly committed to work—or p'ay. The unit opens the month with a ten-day tour of the Northeast, then breaks long enough to defend its team trophy (won last year) in the Third Annual 4-Star Golf Tournament at Henry Horton State Park. Following this, the group resumes back-to-back PA's and TV tapings through May 31. . . . Jim Ed Brown and The Gems may soon become known as the Guy Lombardos of country music. Rapidly becoming established as one of country music's most popular nightclub dance units, the group kicks off ribbon cutting "first night" festivities for two new country music nightclubs in May (in North Carolina and New York) with a third club slated for the champagne treatment in mid-June.

Francis, Day & Hunter Issue 36 Hagen Tunes

LONDON — Francis, Day & Hunter, leading European music publisher, with branches throughout the Continent, Australia, Africa and Japan, today established something of a world's record and a "first," by issuing 36 country and western songs by John Milton Hagen, author, composer and playwright.

The airs are largely original, although the old standbys such as "Home on the Range," "Streets of Laredo," "Chisholm Trail" and the like with new arrangements are included in the lot and published in two separate books, namely, "American Cowboy Songs—New & Old" and "Sherwin's Saddle Songs."

The American's songs are to be exploited throughout the world, where according to reports from the British Performing Rights Society and the American Society of Composers, Authors & Publishers, John Milton Hagen's songs are already heard in Scandinavia, Germany, France, Japan and Australia.

Besides being the author-composer of some 600 published songs, he is also the writer of three books published by another British house, Thos. Yoseloff-Barnes, of 108 New Bond Street, London, called "The Shrewd Nude," "I am in Iambies" and "The Violent Violet," the books have established him as a well known author.

John Milton Hagen writes under several pseudonyms, the most prominent of which is Sterling Sherwin. He is listed in several "Who's Whos" and is included in various western anthologies. His new play, a satire on world affairs, is scheduled for publication next season.

COIN MACHINE NEWS

Adickes Marks 45th Year In Coinbiz

On April 28th, Alfred W. Adickes, head of Nova Apparate in Hamburg, celebrated his 65th birthday. Of these 65 years, he has been active in the coin machine business for 45 years—a proud record which can only be claimed by few in the industry.

His career started at the old and renowned scale manufacturing company, Vogel & Halke. At age 24, this firm sent Adickes to America with all

ALFRED ADICKES

New Marketing Firm For 'Talking' Vender

DALLAS — VendaTalker, Inc., a new company, has been organized to market the talking vending machines developed and manufactured by Ussery Industries, Inc.

The new firm, owned by James McKay, will headquarter in Dallas with regional offices in seven major U.S. cities. McKay was formerly associated with Ussery Industries.

McKay said VendaTalker is the sole licensed agent to market the talking vendors, equipped with a cartridge tape player that dispenses an audible 10-second message with each vend. One of the vendors was recently featured in NBC-TV's "Tonight" show and in Time magazine.

Currently the tapes carry one-line jokes by comedian Henny Youngman, but McKay said other artists and public service messages will also be included in future programming.

"We believe the talking feature will revolutionize vending," McKay said.

4th Swanson LLP Bows

BUFFALO — Thunderbird Records has released its fourth jukebox little LP by popular organist Brad Swanson. Entitled "Brad Swanson's Favorite Hits," the junior album features the "whispering" organ Swanson sound on such jukebox classics as "You're Nobody 'Til Somebody Loves You," "Three O'Clock in The Morning," and "Two Hearts in $\frac{3}{4}$ Time."

necessary authorizations and credentials, and take over the sale and distribution of their scales.

A very powerful operator and buyer of these automatic machines at that time was David Rockola. Neither one could have anticipated during their first meeting, that this was the beginning of a lifelong friendship, which in their subsequent business activities was going to have far reaching implications on the international coin machine industry.

Shortly after this first encounter, Adickes founded the Scott & Adickes Company in London. From the very beginning, the international coin machine trade took notice of his energy and willpower, his creative imagination and his clear eye for future industry trends. The relationship with David Rockola, became firmly established and, with the passing of time, additional contacts were made, which ultimately would add such lines to NOVA as Gottlieb pintables.

In 1953, when the manufacturing and above all the import possibilities for the German economy were reinstated, after the World War II suspension, Adickes gave his full energy to the opening up and development of the European market. While before the war the Scott-Adickes Company was mainly supported by its own branches in Europe, the system had to be changed after the war, due to tax and monetary regulations. To keep up with the rapid development of the coin operated business, the trade relied upon existing trade companies which it knew from the past.

Today business executive Adickes has an exemplary distribution and representation network at his disposal. His connections enabled him to import phonographs and other machines for this territory which he sold with great success.

His frequent visits to the "home land" of automatic coin machines: America—at the time when this article was being written, Adickes was again on a business trip to the States—sharpened his eye for the developments which also had potential application in Europe. In addition, his close friendship with David Rockola gives him the possibility to influence the coin-operated phonograph program in such a way that it adapts itself well to European conditions. "Not only did he realize the great significance of American products for Europe in the field of coin-operated phonographs and amusement machines, but also the growing importance of vending and service machines, which he built step-by-step into his import program," Rockola stated.

EDITORIAL:

The Singles Pricing Quandary

The disparity in record prices at one stops these days is confusing operators, as well as the one stops themselves. The latter have been hit with wholesale singles price increases by many of their major and independent record company suppliers in the past months—a raise here, one there, putting them in a particular spot when it comes to dealing with an operator who wants one flat price on all the singles he buys for his machines. And knowing your operators, they really want one flat, low price.

Some of your one stops try to merchandise business by cutting their prices under their competitor's. Others feel the service they provide demands that a "sensible price" be charged for their singles and aren't interested if an operator or two go elsewhere just to get a few cents off. They feel their "superior" service will eventually bring the business back.

The worst reaction to price increase that could arise is if the operator simply bought fewer new records each week, figuring to average out that way. This is patently wrong, considering it is the music which grabs the location play by its very freshness and timeliness. But it is, nevertheless, irritating that a one stop can up his record price a few cents but the operator can't pass that increase over to his machines—unless, of course, he's still vending 3-25¢ music and can finally bounce onto 2-25¢ music.

No, when an operator has to pay more for his records, there's no way to make his playing customers pick up that extra few cents by throwing a switch inside the juke. To buy fewer records is a simplistic answer, but a self-defeating one, as mentioned above. The most sensible solution for the operator, therefore, lies in that good old practice—better programming.

Better record programming on the route, as every operator knows, can earn from 10% to sometimes as much as 25% more in collections. But frankly speaking, very few operators have really been able to cut out the time for this demanding practice and prefer to let one stops select the records for them, even if the selection is merely good but not great on each individual machine.

If operators must pay more for singles, then they simply must become more selective about what singles they buy. It has to be. It's just a shame that a higher singles price may be the only way to get more ops into thinking more conscientiously about the titles they place into their machines. But better late than never.

In this manner business executive Adickes, through the Nova Company, made his mark in the German and European coin machine trade. Over a long period of time, he guided the business by way of determining significant trends during a period when the coin machine industry was undergoing considerable development, and thus he can justly be counted among the "greats" in our field.

Alfred W. Adickes always had the talent of attracting a number of excellent co-workers to him. Through them, he was able to concentrate fully on making the really important decisions. Amazingly enough, he still finds the time to pursue his favorite sport of golf, which certainly explains a good deal of his vigor and energy. May our industry count him amongst us for many years to come.

420 Vie for $5,000 Cash Prizes At Spectacular Playboy 8-Baller

LAKE GENEVA, WISC.—If success of a coin-operated 8-ball tournament is determined by the enthusiasm of the players, the number of spectators and the size of the cash pot, then the April 17-18 Wisconsin-Illinois Operators playoff in the Playboy Club here was the smash hit of the series.

Under the direction of U.S. Billiards sales manager Len Schneller, the playoffs brought to a close eight weeks of on location games and awarded winners a total of $5,000 plus trophies. 420 players from 105 locations squared off in the Playboy's convention hall Saturday afternoon and by Sunday evening, Roger Dahlgren from Bob's Sheridan Inn (Kenosha, Wisc.) won the A Division title and a check for $1,000.

Sponsoring operators were Wayne

Hesch of A&H Entertainers (Arlington Heights, Ill.), Red Jacomet of Red's Novelty (West Allis, Wisc.), John Bailey of General Music (North Chicago), Ron Albarfonte of North Shore Novelty (Kenosha, Wisc.) and Ken Seaver of Central Vending Services, (Lake Geneva), chairman of the operators group. Gil Kitt and Murph Gordon of Empire Distributing assisted Schneller in directing the tournament. Games were played on 16 Aristocrat 3 tables, operating on 35¢ twin coin chutes.

Schneller estimated that approximately 4700 people watched the playoffs and said the Playboy Club Resort management enjoyed their busiest business in the history of the glamorous club. The town itself had to assign extra police just to keep traffic moving in and out of the resort grounds during the tournament.

A panorama of unrestrained excitement. Roger Dahlgren's girl (center left) lets her emotions get the better of her while watching Roger about to sink the final 8-ball, and finally lets loose as he does exactly that—winning the top prize of $1,000. Gil Kitt, Empire president (at left) came over moments after to calm the gal down, making a few jokes to the delight of the crowd.

The operators were assisted in refereeing the various elimination games by members of the local JayCee's. They received a check for their services amounting to $500 which they in turn donated to Stanley Anderson, president of a YMCA home for needy children located in the Geneva area. Another public relations highlight of the event was Lake Geneva Mayor Blue's presentation of testimonial awards to Gil Kitt and Len Schneller for bringing 8-ball competition to his town.

Former distributing rep Bob Vihon, an old hand at 8-ball tournaments, also joined Schneller in conducting the elimination matches.

Other division winners included: Tony Dobrzanski of Leo & Rose's Bierstube (Round Lake, Ill.) taking $500 for first place in the B Division; Charles Stone of the Sir Arthur (Kenosha, Wisc.) taking $250 for top spot in the C Division; and Laurie Glassman of Dick's Hide-A-Way (Salem, Wisc.) won $150 for first place in the Women's Div. Cash prizes were also given to all seven runners-up.

Playboy bunny receives the tools of the trade from Len Schneller at opening ceremonies.

CHICAGO CHATTER

An interesting item of information from the IAAP—the association recently conducted a poll among members on the use of credit cards in amusement parks. Of the 61 responses received, 42 stated they did not accept credit cards on their grounds and 19 said they did. Of the 42 no's, however, several indicated that they are seriously considering the implementation of such a program. Among the 19 who answered in the affirmative many stated that the acceptance of credit cards stimulated business and encouraged more spending per person! . . .

SPRING IN CHICAGO was interrupted briefly last Tuesday (27) for a slight snowfall which, fortunately enough, only hit the downtown section and areas near the lake! . . .

UNDERSTAND THE GAMES DEPARTMENT at World Wide Dist. is a very active place. Fred Skor, Howie Freer and John Neville have been writing up orders like crazy. One of their biggies is the Williams "Action Baseball" which, Howie tells us, Chicago operators are very enthusiastic about. "Sniper" gun, also from Williams, is another big seller out there . . . Condolences to IAAP's executive secretary Bob Blundred on the recent death of his stepfather, John Blundred. Funeral services were held in Syracuse, New York . . .

WE'VE BEEN EXPOUNDING OF LATE on the Rock-Ola model "446" phonograph which distributors and operators alike have been raving about, but neglected in a few instances to mention that the "444" and "445" are being equally well received! Production schedules at the Chicago factory have been stepped up repeatedly to meet the demand—for all three models! . . .

LARRY BERKE OF MIDWAY MFG. CO. was busy filling orders for "Stunt Pilot" when we called last week. He had just had a visit from Joe Westerhous Jr. of Royal Dist. in Cinncy, who spent some time at the Schiller Park plant before heading back into the city to see Ross Scheer at Bally . . . A speedy recovery to Gus Tartol of Singers One Stop who's in Northwest Hospital (4645 W. Addison, Chicago). Drop him a card if you can . . .

CHATTED WITH ALVIN GOTTLIEB of D. Gottlieb & Co.—mostly about "Play Ball", the pinball baseball which has been creating such a big fuss in the trade. To quote him, "we've had phenomenal reports from locations that have put it on 2 for 25¢ play!" Great! Al Rodstein of Banner in Pittsburgh took the grand tour of the factory's new Northlake facilities last week and was very impressed! . . .

WAGNER VAN VLACK, president of Interstate United Corp., will receive the Distinguished Service Plaque from the National Jewish Hospital of Denver. Presentation will be made during the hospital's 72nd anniversary Founders Day dinner at the Palmer House here on May 26 . . .

JOHNNY FRANTZ of J. F. Frantz Mfg. says he's doing extremely well, both domestically and in the foreign markets, with his U. S. Marshall Gun . . . Nice talking to Ed Ruber of Wico Corp. in suburban Niles, Ill. Business is great out there, Ed was happy to say. We tend to refer to the Niles facilities as Wico's new quarters, and they are actually, but we didn't realize until we spoke to Ed that the firm's been out there for six months already!

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Melba Moore is currently headlining in the Lake Geneva Playboy Club . . . Nate Victor of S. L. London Music took off on a brief vacation trip to Florida last week. Business has been so beautifully hectic these past months that Nate felt a week off to kind of rest up and refuel a bit was a good idea. He mentioned how well the distrib is doing with the Seeburg "Musical Bandshell" phonograph, in his words, "one of the most successful models we've ever had"! . . .

Williams products are also very much in the fore at London—particularly "Sniper" gun, "Action Baseball" and the "Times Square" shuffle. Distrib's salesman Walter Koelbl will be spending the next week with Seeburg engineer Sam Garvin conducting a series of on the spot "Bandshell" schools at various operator premises in the Fox River Valley territory . . . Oh, lest we forget, business is so good Nate had to hire some extra shop help!

A reminder: the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators Assn. monthly meeting will be held on Tuesday (4) at The Chalet in West Ellis. This will be a general membership session.

WEMP's Tom Shanahan was in Chicago last Monday for the press party, hosted by London Records, in honor of pianist-arranger Ronnie Aldrich who's had so many hit albums in the label's Phase 4 series . . . On the singles scene, we hear from Gordon Pelzek of Record City that local operators are showing interest in the following: "Brown Sugar" by the Rolling Stones (Rolling Stone), "You're My Man" by Lyn Anderson (Columbia), "When You're Hot You're Hot" by Jerry Reed (RCA), "It Don't Come Easy" by Ringo Starr (Apple), "Step Aside" by Faron Young (Mercury) and "Married To A Memory" by Arlene Harden (Columbia).

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

We never thought they could do it but looks as though Struve Distributing will out do themselves this year with their annual shin dig they throw for their operators. This year instead of their dinner at the Los Angeles International Hotel, they are having a weekend trip to Las Vegas. It will be an all expenses paid weekend at Caesar's Palace as well as the dinner and a drawing for prizes. The big event will take place the weekend of August 6th, 7th and 8th. As usual they will be giving away such little tokens as diamonds, a Cadillac, fur coats, television sets, phonographs and just about everything else you can possibly think of. This is the celebration where everyone goes home a winner and we mean everyone!

Leo Simone reports that he is getting very good response on Allied's "Sonic Fighter" airplane game. Also doing good business is Williams single player "Doodle Bug" and their two player "Solids and Stripes". Phonographs are likewise moving at a brisk pace. Most important news of all is that Leo is feeling great after some ulcer problems a few months back. He can even have a drink once in a while . . . Leah and Al Bettelman, of C. A. Robinson & Co., off to cheer son Sandy on to a UCLA crew victory over Stanford and California Universities. So far UCLA is undefeated and under Sandy's expert guidance (Coxswain) they hope to achieve a national championship this year after just missing out by a couple of strokes last year. While in the Bay area the Bettelmans will undoubtedly say hello to all their good friends in San Francisco and especially to Lou Wolcher, Advance Automatic Sales, whose association has been valued by C.A.R. & Co. for many long and friendly years . . .

EASTERN FLASHES

ON THE AVENUE—Distributor row has been the scene of plenty of action the past few weeks. We talked to Dick Greenberg at Mike Munves Corp who told us that many out of towners have been keeping the place jumping. Arcade owners, Merv Siskind of the Miami area and Marty Schwartz of Wildwood, New Jersey are among some of the notable visitors. Nickolas Xanthanky (Salem Wil-lows, Mass.) had a great time going from floor to floor looking over the arcade equipment. Nick, we understand, even gave 'Love Tester' a try. This new game is a natural winner of the type known in the early penny arcade era. Lots of fun to play. Visitors from the northeast area included amusement park operators Sidney Ames of Wiers Beach, New Hampshire and Max Spector (York Beach, Maine).

We learned that sales manager Ralph Hotkins had recently returned from attending the New England Park Association meet held at the Statler Hilton in Boston. Meeting took place April 21 and nearly 75 representatives were on hand. Ralph said that these seminars are highly informative; sort of a kick-off campaign for the coming park and arcade season. A great opportunity to meet people and discuss equipment needs. Ralph pointed out that there is plenty of interest in Midway's 'Stunt Pilot' and Allied Leisure's 'Wild Cycle'.

Ernest Montgomery at A-1 Record Sales reports that the group "Beginning of the End" looks as if they may come up with a winner with their recording of 'Funky Nassau'. Gene Knight's 'Mr. Big Stuff' is getting plenty of sales action.

AROUND TOWN — Service and operating problems are part and parcel of the vending business says Charles Bernoff (Regal Music Co. Inc). Methods of reducing the spiraling costs of location servicing of equipment are constantly being sought; not to mention the cost of purchasing new equipment which has been increasing steadily. Charles says that a good hard look at play pricing is needed. If the location rates top line equipment, the logical answer would have to be top play pricing. A new juke in the right location should be priced at 25¢ play, says Charles. The Gottleib introduction of 'Play Ball' is causing plenty of excitement, the game can definitely be an entree to locations that had to be overlooked in the past. Every new item that is launched by a factory becomes an additional piece of equipment that could certainly be the forerunner in the establishment of a new location. In summation, things at Regal are rolling along.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT—Morris "Tiny" Weintraub will be the guest of honor at this year's 'Brotherhood Award Dinner' to be held by "The National Conference of Christians and Jews," on May 10, at the Americana Hotel in NYC. MONY president Al Denver has sent out his personal letter and the reservation form. "To show our appreciation to 'Tiny' who is known and recognized for his great talents and ability in stabilizing the vending industry," said Al, and "to support a great humanitarian cause, please turn out and participate in this great event." Get those reservations into the MONY office early.

NEW JERSEY NOTES—Talked to Murray Feinblatt at United Billiards. Murray says the Tables have been moving at a good clip. Also learned that the new subjd United Amuse. Int'l Inc. is making excellent progress in the used equipment market . . . It has been announced by Philip Small vice president of Coffee-Mat Corp that the company's completely automatic single cup coffee brewing machine for the office market is going to be introduced in the European market. An initial order of 1,000 machines has been negotiated with Alfred W. Adickes, president of Nova Apparate of West Germany. Nova is one of the largest distributors and operators of automatic vending equipment in Europe.

NEW ENGLAND NEWS—ACA's Mickey Greenman back into the big city after attending the New England Hotel-Motel & Restaurant meet held in the Civic Auditorium (Prudential Center) in Boston. Mickey said the event was heavily attended. Representatives of every phase of vending display their wares—products and lines of equipment. Many juke and game operators also made the three day event April 27-28-29. ACA's New England distributor for the NSM phono is Mohawk Music of Greenfield, Mass. Mohawk president Art Strahan caused considerable excitement and anxiety at the NSM auditorium booth. Art owns and pilots a plane that is operated from his private airstrip. When Art left for Boston the weather was great. Heading toward Boston, the weather got to be quite a problem. He was long overdue, but he finally landed safely in Boston. Three cheers for Art!

HERE AND THERE—Steve Hodge (Atomic Music) says that so far this has been a great year, "everything going beautifully, must be doing something right." The uptown scene has been lively and the locations have been relatively free of the break-in's, says Steve, and so long as the equipment keeps operating it makes things a lot easier . . . We had a chance to talk to Sam Morrison of Musical Moments, Inc. Sam reports that he is as busy as always. The pool table business has not been what you would call rosy, says Sam. Lots of bumping about at the locations, but there are signs that things are beginning to improve . . . Out Yonkers way we checked with Westchester Amusement Co. Dick Di Cicco busier than ever trying to get his seasonal stops shaped up. The add-a-balls continue as the most popular pieces. Music is still somewhat on the soft side. At any rate, Dick expects the coming season to be fairly lively . . .

UPSTATE ITEMS—Silver King Amusement is located in Suffern, New York. We spent a few moments talking to Lou Catanese who was seeing distrib salesmen at his shop. Lou says that he has been pleased with the recent action, and is looking to have a great summer . . . We tried to catch Mike Mulqueen (M & M Amuse, Scotts Corners) but the missus said, that since they had recently returned from seeing their two grandsons in Florida, Mike has been on the go. "A couple of weeks in Florida is fun; especially seeing your grandchildren, that really puts the icing on the cake," she said.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES—We queried several operators concerning the newest game in town (off-track betting). Consensus of opinion was highly favorable. OTB chief Howard Samuels has certainly established a betting system that is a first in the U S outside of Las Vegas. Kentucky Derby betting is now underway at the City parlors.

IN OUR BUSINESS,
A LITTLE BETTER
IS A LOT

Because everybody's right in there with a good machine. And if we're going to convince anybody to buy the one we make, we've got to have a slight competitive edge. Here are some of the little edges we've given ourselves for this year. The Rock•Ola 444 for 1971 is a purple explosion of color and light. Just like the fashion industry.

It's got a new and simple flip-down title strip holder assembly for improved cleaning. And flip-down title strip holders for changing ease. And a spring loaded dome that practically lifts itself for you. It's got integrated circuits and a computerized selection indicator that prints out the number of the record playing. 160 selections, tempered glare-proof glass, and a modular approach to getting at the guts. Plus a lot of other new features with the operator in mind.

Those are Rock•Ola's little differences for this year. We think you'll agree they're a lot.
