Support The BMA!

By Rick Morrison

Why should I attend a Black Music Association Convention?

Good question!

Why should up-and-coming professionals and artists—who probably already attend several industry events—mark their calendars for yet another activity?

This is probably best answered by looking at the BMA. What is it?

The BMA is an international association dedicated to the interests of the creators, manufacturers, broadcasters, and retailers of soul, gospel, jazz and other forms of Black music. Through local chapters across the country, the BMA reaches a vast community of grass roots music lovers (and consumers) through a series of ongoing workshops, seminars, panels, conventions, tributes and concerts.

BMA's influence has been felt throughout the music industry and record-buying community. One measure of this was President Jimmy Carter's declaration of June as "Black Music Month" at a 1980 White House reception held in BMA's honor.

Each year, BMA proudly selects from among its esteemed membership, those artists whose outstanding lifetime achievements should be singled out. At the annual Black Tie Tribute these artists are honored. The Tribute benefits the BMA Foundation, BMA's charitable and educational arm which provides scholastic opportunities to persons of all colors, creeds and religions in the field of Black music.

BMA's network of music industry, individual, associate, and student members is kept abreast of those and other BMA activities through Innervisions, the BMA in-house bi-monthly magazine.

Moreover, under BMA's renewed dedication to these interests, we are going after the college market to help cultivate their interests in our industry.

The BMA Convention, therefore, represents a "meeting of the minds" in the radio, retail, record and talent worlds—a forum for established executives for aspiring creative and business professionals.

Attend the BMA Convention, October 1-5, 1986 at the Fontainebleau Hilton, Miami Beach, FL! It can increase your knowledge of how the business works

Join the BMA! It can increase the strength of Black music and the artists and professionals in our business.

Hey, Hey, The Monkees Score Gold LPs In Aug

By Lee Jeske

NEW YORK—"The Monkees Greatest Hits" and "Then & Now...The Best of the Monkees" each received gold album awards in the RIAA's list of August certifications, marking the sixth and seventh gold LPs for the foursome, their first gold albums since 1968. Bill Cosby, another gold album veteran of the 1960s, received his eighth gold LP in August—his first since 1969—for "Those of You With Or Without Children You'll Understand."

Gold albums in August were also awarded to "Rapture", Anita Baker; "White Winds", Andreas Vollenweider; "Emotional", Jeffrey Osborne; "The Original Motion Picture Soundtrack to Ruthless People"; "Who Made Who", AC/DC; "Headlines", Midnight Star; "Music From the Edge Of Heaven", Wham!; and "Invisible Touch", Genesis, which was simultaneously certified platinum. Peter Gabriel's "So" was the only other album certified platinum in August, with multi-platinum awards going to Janet Jackson's "Control" (two million), her first multi-platinum LP. Alabama's "My Home's In Alabama" (one million), their fifth multi-platinum LP, and Heart's "Heart" (four million).

In the theatrical video category, simultaneous gold and platinum awards went to Spies Like Us, House, The Delta Force, and Power. Gold videos in the theatrical category also went to Brazil, Revolution, and Troll.

Playboy Video Centerfold Volume 2 starring Teri Weigel was the only video certified in the non-theatrical category in August, going gold and platinum.

There were no certifications in the non-theatrical music video category.

Rock Benefits: Where Has All The Money Gone?

By Paul Iorio

NEW YORK—Rock and rock benefit events are a sign of the times. From Live-Aid and its spin-offs to Hands Across America and The Caravan For Human Rights, these events have mobilized millions of people and raised millions of dollars for undeniably worthy causes. Many of us, however, tend to remember the spectacle and forget the cause. Now that the dust has settled, questions are emerging. What impact, if any, have these events had in fighting hunger, homelessness, and oppression? How much money has been raised? Where exactly has the money gone? These questions have not brought definite answers; to the contrary, they have raised many other serious questions.

Most of the organizers say they have met or exceeded their own expectations. In some cases, the facts and figures bear them out; in others, there is doubt and even questions of impropriety. Reports from such journals as Spin magazine, The Cleveland Plain-Dealer, and The Los Angeles Times have challenged the effectiveness, if not the integrity, of certain benefit events.

The most recent and weighty controversy surrounds the finances of Kenneth A. Kragen's Hands Across America. The Cleveland Plain Dealer's Cyndy Skaugen reported that less than half of the money collected from the May 25 event was earmarked for the hungry and homeless. After the article was published, Hands Across America admitted that their original figures were inadvertently "deceptive" and that they had made a "mistake." Hands then re-organized the figures to reflect a division between corporate donations and private pledges.

In dollars and cents, here's what that means: Hands Across America initially claimed to have collected approximately $32.5 million. Of that $32.5 million, approximately $16 million was marked for distribution through agencies to the poor. $8.5 million accounted for expenses. After the Plain Dealer article, Hands changed its story. That $32.5 million dollar figure was misleading, they said, because it included approximately $8 million of corporate sponsorship money. Hands Across America had actually raised about $24.5 million in public donations and pledges, with the $8 million in corporate donations spent for promotion prior to the event (leaving the $16 million figure and $8.5 million figure unchanged).

According to a Hands Across America spokesman, that $8.5 million in expenses includes such miscellany as mailings, liability insurance for the day of the event, and staff salaries. Skaugen says that several organizations, including The Salvation Army and the Los Angeles Social Services Department, claimed that Hands's "administrative costs had far exceeded what...is the norm." A Hands Across America spokesman denied this. (continued on page 7)

Seeburg Opens Compact Disc Distrib

CHICAGO—When you introduce the industry's first compact disc jukebox, namely the Seeburg "Laser Music System", a wise follow-up move would be the establishment of a distribution outlet for the compact discs to accommodate the operators who will be installing the machines on locations. Thus, Seeburg Phonograph Corp. has announced the opening of Seeburg Compact Disc Distributing, which is housed in the factory's Addison, Illinois headquarters.

Bill Guler, who has fifteen years' experience in the music business, is general manager of the new operation. He served five years in retail music sales and has considerable experience on the wholesale level as well, having been with the Handelman Company, one of the largest rack jobbers in the country, for the past ten years.

Seeburg Compact Disc Distributing is already fully set up and operational and plans to be stocking a minimum of one thousand compact disc titles by the end of this year, as disclosed at the August 21 showing of the CD jukebox, which was hosted by Wide Distributors in Chicago. Bill Guler, among the Seeburg executives who addressed the operator assemblage at the showing, said, "To the best of our knowledge, our pricing is lower than that of any other CD jukebox we know of." Guler said, "Furthermore, since we are opening up a whole new area in the music business, we are going to have some specialized needs that the record companies have not as yet addressed. We expect to be putting special packages together that are tailored to the location's special requirements," he went on. Guler said that attention will also be focused on ethnic material, particularly Latin, since there is a lot of this type of music currently available on CD's. "We have begun contact with the Latin labels to let them know what we can do for them." (continued on page 7)

PolyGram Jazz Reactivates Verve Label

By Lee Jeske

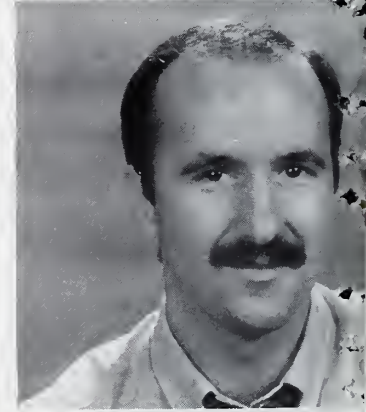

NEW YORK—PolyGram Jazz, which has been successfully reissuing product from the massive Verve Records catalogue, is set to reactivate the label for new recordings. Verve Records, begun in the 1950s by Norman Granz, recorded hundreds of mainstream jazz albums during the '50s and '60s—by the likes of Ella Fitzgerald, Dizzy Gillespie, and Billie Holiday. PolyGram, which currently owns the material, has used the Verve imprint only for reissued or previously-unissued recordings. Now PolyGram Jazz, which has been planning to record new jazz projects for some time, is set to join the current major label rush to record fresh jazz albums. The first product to be released on the reactivated label will be the first issuues in a "Live At Vine St." series—live, direct-to-digital recordings done at the popular Hollywood niter, the Vine St. Bar & Grill. Ron Bernstein, the club's owner, will act as executive producer of the series.

"Live At Vine St." continues a legacy that began when Norman Granz recorded the first Jazz At The Philharmonic concert in 1944," said Richard Seidel, vice president, PolyGram Jazz. "Our rich history has made Verve one of the most recognizable, if not one of the best-selling, jazz labels ever. Its steady revenue over the years, and especially the success of our recent catalogue exploitation program—including two-fers, complete artist retrospectives, and our (continued on page 7)

Rock Benefits

One fact is not in dispute though: Hands Across America fell far short of raising the $50 million it expected to raise. And apparently, the proportion of money that was to go to the poor is smaller than originally intended as well. "About 40% of the money will go to programs that deal with the root causes of hunger and homelessness," Kravitz told this reporter the day after the hands event. "Most of the money will go to food banks and shelters."

Live-Aid, which raised approximately $100 million, has been the subject of a different controversy. Robert Keating, in the July issue of Spin magazine, claims that Live-Aid money has been used by the Ethiopian government in programs that cause more death and famine than they relieve. Food bought with Live-Aid money has been sold to the government to trade for arms in the Soviet Union, and that food has not been allowed to be delivered into rebel areas hardest hit by the famine, according to Spin. Bob Geldof and a U.S. Senate subcommittee on Immigration and Refugee Policy have both attacked the report, saying that it is largely based on information from a research medical team bitter about its expulsion from Ethiopia.

Perhaps the most dismal failure among rock benefits is Farm-Aid 2. That July 4 concert raised only half a million dollars, which is far less than what Hands Across America spent just for administrative costs, accountants, attorneys, and executive staff. The first Farm-Aid the year before raised approximately $10 million dollars. A spokeswoman for Farm-Aid, however, insists that the sequel was not a failure. "The whole goal of Farm-Aid was to raise public awareness...Raising money is one thing, but raising awareness is the real issue."

The one benefit that most realistically matched its pre-event expectations was Amnesty International's Caravan For Human Rights. Even before the six Amnesty shows happened, concert producer Bill Graham told this reporter: "We want to raise public awareness about the work that Amnesty International has done for the last twenty five years." For Graham and Amnesty Director Jack Healy, awareness was the primary intention from day one, with fund-raising a secondary objective. But even that secondary goal was met; they had planned to raise between two and three million dollars and, according to Healy, they raised $2.3 million. "We would have completely done it (raised $3 million) if we had filled Denver," says Healy, referring to the Denver Caravan show, the only one of the six that didn't sell out. More important, Healy says that Amnesty International picked up 34,000 new members. "The strength of Amnesty is built upon our volunteers. And we have never ever picked up thirty four thousand people. We were at 150,000 for about three years and this broke it open. We feel that on a scale of one to ten we've got about a two or three here."

Graham is currently working with the city of New York in organizing a concert to help fight the crack problem. The concert is tentatively scheduled for the middle of October at an as-yet unannounced venue. One source reports that Graham is eyeing a site in the South Bronx, and that Run-DMC has been booked for the benefit.

The organizers and promoters only tell half the story of rock benefits; the artists, after all, are the ones who provide the draw. Mary Travers of Peter, Paul & Mary played with that trio at both Live-Aid and The Caravan For Human Rights. "Political activism is an old and honored tradition," said Travers. "It's not even new for this generation. Pete Seeger has been doing it for about 40 years." But she and several other politically active performers shirk the idea of formalizing their political involvement by running for office. "I'll tell you the problem with running for office. Harry (Belafonte) must have dealt with it this year....It's very hard to be a long term thinker with only two years to serve." Graham Nash, who organized the No Nukes concerts in 1979, also said that he would never consider entering politics. Add to that list Frank Zappa, who took his fight against the PMRC to the U.S. Senate last year. In a Cash Box interview last fall, Zappa expressed a wariness of benefit concerts with a question that today seems prescient: "Where is the guarantee that the money will go where it's supposed to go?"

Pittman/MCA Deal Final

LOS ANGELES—In confirmation of widely circulated reports (Cash Box Aug. 23, 1986), Sid Sheinberg, president and COO of MCA Inc., and Robert W. Pittman, president and CEO until December 31, 1986 of MTV Networks, announced last week an agreement to form a new diversified entertainment and communications company funded by MCA. MCA and Pittman will each own a 50 percent interest in the company, which will be based in New York.

Irving Azoff, president of MCA Music Entertainment Group and Pittman also announced that the first venture of the company is the formation of a new label with MCA Records. Viacom International Inc. will also be a participant in the record label.

Pittman will serve as president and CEO of the new company which will commence with business January 1, 1987 upon Pittman's departure from MTV.

"Bob Pittman is one of the most creative, innovative and entrepreneurial talents in the entertainment field today. He created the concept of MTV: Music Television, developed the network and guided the new program form through a period of explosive growth in which it became an institution of the youth culture and a major influence on almost all of American culture," said Sheinberg.

Final Entry Grammy Forms Going To Members And Record Companies

LOS ANGELES—All members of the National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (NARAS), as well as 471 record companies and 50 video companies, will soon be receiving entry forms for the 29th annual Grammy Awards.

Members will be asked to recommend a limited number of entries of recordings, released during the eligibility period of Oct. 1, 1985 through Sept. 30, 1986, which they feel are most worthy of Grammy consideration. Completed forms are due in the NARAS office by Oct. 6.

Record and video companies, which have already received entry forms for product released during the first nine months of the eligibility period, will be asked to submit forms listing additional product released during the final three months of the period.

The deadline for receipt of these three-month entry forms, according to NARAS, is Oct. 3.

The academy is stressing the importance of all forms being received in its national office by the designated dates. Failure to do so could result in some records, on which members might want to vote, not being included in this year's eligibility list, which will be sent to members in November and from which members will select this year's Grammy nominations.

Any members or record or video companies who have not received their entry forms by Sept. 10, should immediately contact the Academy's Grammy Awards supervisor, Margaret Leverence, at NARAS, 303 N. Glenoaks Blvd., Suite 140M, Burbank, CA 91502. The phone number is (213) 849-1313.

award-winning compact discs—has paved the way for the introduction of these new recordings. We are extremely proud to be at the beginning of what we hope will be a new chapter in jazz history."

The first issues in the "Vine St." series will be early-1987 releases by Nina Simone and Marlena Shaw. Although the series will initially focus on jazz vocalists—a specialty of the club—it will eventually include releases by instrumental groups. CDs will, wherever possible, feature bonus tracks.

"It is now possible for us to actually re-start the history of Verve," said Guenter Hensler, president of PolyGram Classics, of which PolyGram Jazz is a part. "The success of our reissue program, particularly the CD releases, has really revived this catalogue, and made it extremely visible once again. We will now add new releases to the catalogue, further revitalizing it."

"Live At Vine St." is only one of the new projects planned for the reactivated Verve label, with other new jazz signings expected shortly.

OUT OF THE BOX

DON JOHNSON—Heartbeat—Epic BL 40366—Producer: Chas Sandford—No List—Bar Coded

"He can really sing" resounds coast to coast. The proof is in the grooves. Miami Vice's Crockett has the gritty, aware musicality of the southern rockers he has grown up with (Allman Bros., et al). A cadre of great sidemen, a fistful of honest-to-god good songs and Johnson's powerful voice make this debut more than a fluke. Johnson is for real. He can really sing.

EASTERHOUSE—Contenders—Columbia AL 40469—Producers: John Brand-Easterhouse-Chris Nagle—No List—Bar Coded

Rock from the committed and passionate school. While comparisons with U2 and other bands with a conscience are inevitable, Easterhouse stands on its own with its distinctive guitar-based, politically motivated music. Rock radio will pick up on cuts like "Whistling In The Dark," "Nineteen Sixty Nine" and "To Live Like This."

OUT OF THE BOX

CAMEO—Word Up—Atlanta Artists 830 265—Producer: Larry Blackmon—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

Masters of hard hitting funk in another steamy set of cuts destined to enjoy life as dance floor regulars. The cool techno edge blends with vocals full of personality. Lots for the Urban programmer here.

OUT OF THE BOX

PHYLLIS HYMAN—Living All Alone—Philadelphia International ST-53029—Producers: Various—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

The smooth, jazzy and sultry voice of Hyman never sounded better. From thick and smokey to thin and breathy, Hyman addresses each of the LP's nine tunes with a great sense of interpretation and style. The title track is superb example of her ability to gracefully cross between jazz, pop and soul.

FEATURE PICKS

THE ROMANS—The Last Days At The Ranch—Restless 72156—Producer: Steve Wynn—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

L.A.'s The Romans falls roughly into the "new American rock" camp, although its songs lean heavily on traditional, rather than modern, musical forms. Slightly country tinged, Michael Uhlenkott's songs are rich in characters and imagery and place the band in its own niche.

CATS CAN FLY—Epic BFE 40436—Producers: Lou Pomanti-Lenny DeRose—No List—Bar Coded

Canadian rockers debut with this powerful pop set. Good songs and strong production.

EDDY GRANT—Born Tuff—Portrait BFR 40284—Producer: Eddy Grant—No List—Bar Coded

Grant crosses the reggae/pop fence about as well as any. The first single, "Dance Party," should stir interest in the LP.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS—Music From The Motion Picture—Manhattan SJ-53041—Producers: Various—List: 9.98—Bar Coded

A solid soundtrack for John Candy's comedy film. Maurice White has a hand in most of the tracks, including Atlantic Starr's title cut which is the LP's sparkling first single.

XDAVIS—Summer Of Fire—Swank Dog XD004—Producer: Glenn Rosenstein—List: 6.98

An indie band richly deserving major attention. Jeremiah, the band's writer, exhibits a solid sense of songwriting and the band has a driving, haunted edge.

NEW MAN—Epic BFE 40332—Producer: Joe Mardin—No List—Bar Coded

Shimmering modern pop debut with all the right elements in all the right places. Could click.

ALCATRAZZ—Dangerous Games—Capitol ST-12477—Producer: Richard P. Dolor—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

Hard driving metallurgists boasting hooky originals and a thundering rendition of "It's My Life."

BILLY VERA & THE BEATERS—By Request—Rhino RNLP 70858—Producers: Jeff Baster-Jerry Wexler-Jimmy Johnson—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

The oft-cited pick to hit Vera has some of his '81 concert tapes and two Muscle Shoals dates see the light via this Rhino package.

MIGHTY FLYERS—From The Start To The Finnish—Pausa PR 7201—Producers: Jay Lewis-Robert Pierce—List: 8.98—Bar Coded Mighty Flyers is a bustling barroom quintet, purveyors of good ole steamy rock and rhythm.

THE FLAMING LIPS—Hear It Is—Pink Dust 72173—Producer: not listed—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

More than a garage band—not much more, but enough that they should be taken seriously—The Flaming Lips is a nasty Byrds that takes flights of demonic frenzy between moments perched on a classic folk/rock foundation. Other references: The Doors, 13th Floor Elevators.

SLOVENLY—Thinking Of Empire—SST 067—Producers: Spot-Slovenly—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

A heady group here. In the Husker Dü/Minutemen/Meat Puppets tradition, Slovenly is fresh, if sometimes bizarre, voice on the new musical horizon.

THE ALMOST BROTHERS—MTM ST-71056—Producer: Tommy West—List: 8.98—Bar Coded

While appealing immediately to a country/adult audience, the classic songs deliver heretofore a wider exposure. Elements of rock, ala Simon & Garfunkel, folk and pop are present as country.

OUT OF THE BOX

NEIL YOUNG (Geffen 7-28623)
Right Of The World (3:40) (Silver Fidelity/ASCAP) (Neil Young) (Producers Neil Young-Danny Kortchmar)

A provocative video accompanies this stunning return to form for Young. Not that his rockabilly and country excursions weren't compelling — they were — but they failed to get the radio attention they deserved. "Weight" should right that, providing him his first pop hit in a lifetime.

OUT OF THE BOX

THE OUTFIELD (Columbia 38-06295)
Everytime You Cry (3:56) (Warning Tracks/ASCAP) (J. Spinks) (Producer: William Wittman)

The Outfield specializes in sparkling, hook-laden pop. This latest cut from the debut LP has the blustery sort of uplifting chorus that should power it up playlists at CHR and AOR. An urgent vocal with memorable and singable backgrounds compliments a solid, mid-tempo pop song.

OUT OF THE BOX

THE CAMEO (Atlanta Artists 884 933)
Word Up (4:15) (T-Man-Larry Junior/All Seeing Eye/ASCAP) (L. Blackmon-T. Jenkins) (Producer: Larry Blackmon)

A high-debating BC cut from Atlanta's funksters. Red hot and danceable, "Word Up" is a guaranteed club and BC cut. Grooving and sparsely produced. Another success for Cameo.

NEW AND DEVELOPING

F.M./U.K. (Portrait 37-06245)
Frozen Heart (3:50) (Indiscreet-Chappell/ASCAP) (F.M./u.k.) (Producers: Dave King-F.M./u.k.)

A powerful lead vocal powers this sweeping CHR/AOR track. The new quintet has a good shot with this tuneful, emotional rock ballad. Soaring background vocals in the chorus and crystalline synths add texture.

FEATURE PICKS

SKYY (Capitol B-5627)
Stop (3:56) (One to One/ASCAP) (Randy Muller) (Producers: Randy Muller-Solomon Roberts)
Skyy is ablaze here in a rocking BC dance workout.

THE MODINI (Jive JS1-9507)
Love (4:09) (Zomba Enterprises/ASCAP) (J. Hutchins-L. Smith) (Producer: Larry Smith)
Rap group puts its fire power to a positive message. An easy dance club/BC hit.

THE CALL (Elektra 7-69521)
Still Believe (Great Design) (4:53) (Neeb-Tarka/ASCAP-Tileface/BMI) (Michael Been-Goodwin) (Producers: Michael Been-The Call)
A grassroots groundswell is growing around this band. This could their first breakthrough on the charts since 83's "And The Walls Fell Down." An inspirational, stirring tone; great radio cut.

HELLO (Mercury 884 930)
Yeah (3:05) (Neue Welt Musikverlag adm by WB/ASCAP) (Blank-Meier) (Producer: Blank-Meier)
Synthesizer and sequencer foray into high-tech dance land. Germany's premiere active synth band.

JAN BEAUVOIR (Columbia 38-06288)
Dancing The Young Days (4:12) (Hot Boy/ASCAP) (J. Beauvoir) (Producer: Jean Beauvoir)
A perky riveting single from talented multi-instrumentalist/writer/singer. Sure to gain the deserved attention.

DENIECE WILLIAMS (Columbia 38-06318)
Healing (3:27) (Nero-Hollysongs/BMI-WB-Paul Doll/ASCAP) (J. Lubbock-P. Gordon) (Producer: Greg Mathieson)
The fragile and vibratoed voice of "Let's Hear It For The Boy" rides high on a heartfelt, romantic ballad.

KURTIS BLOW (Mercury 888 004)
I'm Chillin' (3:46) (Kuwa-Hugabut/ASCAP) (K. Blow-R. Reed) (Producers: Kurtis Blow-Robert Reed)
A rhythmic, compelling rap from one of the genre's two originals.

MELBA MOORE (Capitol B-5632)
A Little Bit More (4:15) (Bush Burnin'/ASCAP) (McFadden-Vitali-McKinney) (Producer: Gene McFadden)
Moore teams with Freddie Jackson in a pairing of two of R&B's finest voices. Solid crossover potential for this sensational vocal showcase.

BRUCE HORNSBY AND THE RANGE (RCA 5023-7-RCA)
The Way It Is (4:34) (Zappo/ASCAP) (B.R. Hornsby) (Producers: Bruce Hornsby-Elliott Scheiner)
A real songwriting treasure here. Hornsby appeals to many demographics. This single is sensitive and wonderfully produced. A solid radio cut that should bring attention to Hornsby's overlooked but worthy debut LP of the same name.

TEENA MARIE (Epic 34-06292)
Love Me Down Easy (4:16) (April-Midnight Magent/ASCAP) (T. Marie) (Producer: Teena Marie)
Vocal bravado and songwriting skill are in ample evidence here.

Derbyrestaurant, has become the object of a record deal. The respected night spot has spilled ink with PolyGram Records, so that the company may release a series of jazz oriented records on the Verve label called "Live At the Vine Street." The first releases will appear early next year, according to reports.

NOONMUSIC—And speaking of Hollywood, ya' know, the city is really trying to clean itself up (there's a $900 million, 20-year plan in action, but that's another story). The Hollywood Arts Council is not the least of the city's beautification organizations, and one of its programs, called Hollywood: A Summer Festival Of The Arts is doing much to bring music to these streets of broken dreams. A slew of artists have been collared to cheer things up around here, and they've been doing so in the courtyard between the Wells Fargo Bank and Bank of America (near the corner of Sunset and Vine) every Friday since August 8. The concert series is being presented in cooperation with Music Connection Magazine, Musicians Union Local 47 and Pick Sunset and Vine (owners of the property), featuring rock and jazz artists. Says Oscar Arslanian, festival director, "These players are among the best musicians working in this music industry town." Unfortunately, as summer ends, so does the concert series, the last Friday being September 12 (which we think is silly, considering it'll be quite warm in these parts for another couple months).

APOSTROPHE, OR NOT TO BE—Ever wonder about that missing apostrophe in the R.E.M. album title, "Lifes Rich Pageant"? Maybe you hadn't noticed. Or maybe you never even knew there was supposed to be a possessive apostrophe somewhere in that title (and you better find out where, because there's going to be a quiz), in which case, congratulations for reading this far. Anyway, here's some well-worded enlightenment from the I.R.S. band's Peter Buck: "None of us in the band really like apostrophes, or like how they look. And when we got together to talk about the title of the album, we realized that there's never been a great rock'n'roll album that's had an apostrophe in the title including "Sergeant Peppers Lonely Hearts Club Band." Except for "Sam Cooke's Greatest Hits", that is."

BY REQUEST—L.A.'s Billy Vera & The Beaters continue to heat up their home turf with a string of club dates in the L.A. environs this month, and the band has plenty to sing about: They've got a new lp from Rhino, "Billy Vera & The Beaters By Request"; They're heard on the soundtrack to Blake Edwards' movie A Fine Mess; They're seen in the Blake Edwards movie Blind Date (which stars Bruce Willis and Kim Basinger); and they've got a song featured on the TV sit-com Family Ties. Indeed, 1986 has been rather a good year for these guys.

THE TAJ TAKES TO THE STUDIO—It's been eight years since Taj Mahal last recorded, but now he's back in the studio putting the final touches on an album due late this month from Gramavision Records. The record is called "Taj", and it was recorded in studios from the island of Kauai in Hawaii (where Taj lives) to New York. Seems 'ol Taj had some trouble booking extra studio time for his overdubs, though, and guess who helped him out? Why, it was none other than Stevie Wonder, a longtime fan, who let Mahal use his own studio to finish things up. Told him to come back again, too. Whattaguy.

IN THE MONEY—The Valentine Brothers, who wrote "Money's Too Tight To Mention", paid to get into Simply Red's recent L.A. show, but we're told that when they got backstage the visit turned out to be well worth the price of admission: Seems Simply Red assured them that their money from the hit single would not get waylaid in the royalty channels.

PUNCTUATION—R.E.M. says they don't like apostrophes.

IN PARTING—Heart's self-titled lp has gone multi-platinum (four million units) Capitol Records says . . . I.R.S. has signed L.A. band Concrete Blonde to the label . . . Also at I.R.S., General Public comes back with a second album October 6, entitled "Hand To Mouth" . . . Pop Art, who headlined Raji's in Hollywood September 6, enters L.A.'s Radio Tokyo Studio soon to record an album for early '87 release . . . Los Lobos plays The Greek Theatre for one night only September 13, with openers from The Robert Cray Band . . .

Gregory Dobrin

"Seymour Stein is always looking for new things. And he has good taste," says Catherine Ringer of Rita Mitsouko. "He went to Paris and saw our video and listened to our music and said well maybe I can do something with them." Sure enough, Stein, the president of Sire Records, did do something with Catherine Ringer and Fred Chichin, who make up the French duo called Rita Mitsouko. The result is a hot twelve inch American single called "Marcia Baila" that's poised for dance floor action around the world.

"When we recorded 'Marcia Baila' we thought it was a very good song," says Ringer. "But a very good song is not always a hit." She says an American album may follow if the single does well here; their British LP was produced by Tony Visconti, who has manned the boards for the likes of T. Rex, David Bowie and The Moody Blues. The 'Marcia Baila' video is currently being translated into English and has been included in the Museum of Modern Art's collection.

Ringer seems incapable of using singular pronouns, preferring to speak in collective "our and we's that point up her interactive bent. "Onstage we try to have a relationship with people and not present a perfectly complete project," she says. "We like truth and when we are not up we are not up." She enjoys singing with other people, particularly Chichin, and frowns upon groups whose members don't interact with one another. "I like black music a lot because there is a lot of singing together," she says. "White music tends to emphasize singing alone. I like to sing with other people."

Ringer and Chichin, both in their late twenties, met while working together in a play. The name Rita Mitsouko was chosen because they simply liked the sound of the name; they wanted a neutral sounding name, something that revealed as little as possible.

Ringer comes from a theatre background and has worked in experimental musicals, X-rated movies, and dance (in fact the name 'Marcia Baila' came from her dance teacher, Marcia Moretto who recently died of cancer). Chichin came from the rock 'n' roll side of things; the music of his idols David Bowie and Iggy Pop inspired him to play guitar.

As befits their collaborative natures the two split songwriting and arranging chores evenly. Though France is not exactly a rock 'n' roll capital, Rita Mitsouko should go some way toward changing that. Ringer says that in response to their recent Palladium show was great and that they're even better received in Belgium, Japan, and, of course, France. But as one listener "Marcia Baila" will attest, this French duo with the Japanese name makes music that knows no borders.

CBS International: A United Nations Of Sounds

By Lee Jeske

NEW YORK—In these days of "R.O.C.K. In The U.S.A." and other chest-thumping anthems of national musical pride, CBS Records International is quietly pursuing its path of scouring the world for musical talent that was not "Born In The U.S.A.". Recent and upcoming releases on domestic CBS labels from such acts as Jennifer Rush (Germany), Time Bandits (Holland), Djavan (Brazil), Osamu Kitajima (Japan), Andreas Vollenweider (Switzerland), and Cats Can Fly (Canada) point up not only the persistence of CBS International but also the increased willingness to import acts from the less-traditional foreign outposts.

"We started the concept about ten years ago," says Joe Senkiewicz, vice president, international artist development and promotion, CBS Records International. "Basically, the concept was, if you're going to sign worldwide deals, you have to have worldwide releases. The concept here—which I'm surprised a lot of other people haven't done—is to give a shot to as many artists as possible and as many territories as possible. Our goal is not just English-speaking territories."

Still, except for a few rare exceptions—Djavan's Portugese-only LP, Nena's "99 Luftballons"—all of the artists perform in English. The hard rock band Craaft may originate in Germany, but you'd never know it from their crisp vocals, sung in well-learned English.

"That's what they're singing in," says Senkiewicz. "You're dealing with territory that, quite honestly, idolize the American artist. And as they grow up, they copy heroes, but they create something new."

Senkiewicz credits the music video as helping the foreign act to get over in America. "We had many, many artists who were successful in their own territories and started to leave their borders for other national territories. And in those places—because of the inability to do everything else that hinders an act—we made videos on a lot of the acts and promoted them extensively. At that time—I'm talking about the early days of groups like the Police and Adam Ant—MTV came on the scene in America. It was very easy for us to sell a lot of video, which kind of moved the focus of music from what was happening on American radio to something that the kids could not just listen to but see. Because the kids could not just listen to music that they liked, they could also see it visually. And it changed everything."

CBS labels have had some astoundingly successful acts from CBS world territories—acts like Julio Iglesias, Wham!, Men At Work, and the Clash. Other acts like Paul Young, Alison Moyet, Eur

Cardenas Follows His Animal Instincts For A Solo Debut

By Gregory Dobrin

ANGELES — "The really lonely part is going in and laying all the vocals," Luis Cardenas of his first solo record effort, "because the musicians all..." But despite this, and other minor hiccups to the solo recording process, the 1-year-old Allied Artists Records recording artist has spent the last two years obsessively perfecting the ten cuts on his debut, "Animal Instincts", an album produced by Allied president Kim Richards. And while its release marks a significant milestone in the career of the youthful singer/songwriter, it is not, as might surmise, his departure from the band that has absorbed his time and energy over the last five years, a group of L.A.-based rockers known as Renegade. Instead, "Animal Instincts" is a flexing of Cardenas' commercial muscles, a thing not often done by a drummer and lead vocalist for a metal outfit.

As Renegade that Kim Richards, who manages both Cardenas and Renegade, stepped out of a development contract at the time he formed Allied Artists in 1984. He was a green, but budding group of musicians then, one which he'd been guiding since their high school days.

The band has progressed nicely under Cardenas' tutelage over the years, first gaining a following in the local L.A. club scene, eventually opening for such world-class acts as Blue Oyster Cult (the most recent Jefferson Starship, 38 Special, The and ZZ Top. They have released two albums to date, plus a soon-to-be released video (Allied Artists Home Video) 90-minute concert video.

As Renegade doing well, Cardenas' talent began to flourish. It was Richards' that the young artist's music, which was more mellow, commercial edge than Renegade sound he contributes to, was a solo outing of its own. "I had a few recordings at home that I worked on in my spare time," Cardenas remembers, "I took a listen to them and he said why don't we do something? Why don't we give it a shot? You know, go in the studio for a couple of days... At the time we thought it was going to be real quick, but it's been two years now. So basically we did it in our spare time."

The album, set for a September 19 release, includes six songs written by Cardenas, one song written with his sister and one written with Richards, plus two cover tunes: The Strawberries' "Go All The Way" and Del Shannon's 1961 classic, "Runaway." The latter is the lp's first single, and it has already spawned a lavish video, shot on the fabled A&M Records Chaplin Stage in Hollywood, which includes cameo appearances by Shannon and Donny Osmond.

Osmond is a friend of Cardenas, but getting Del Shannon to appear in the video required some investigation. "We really didn't know where he was," Cardenas said, "so Allied Artists and Kim started looking around for him, and they finally got his phone number through a bass player who at one time dated Del Shannon's daughter." The video is being packaged for commercial release, together with special "making of" footage and a five-minute Cardenas drum solo from a Renegade performance of a tune called "Let It Out."

"I'm originally a drummer," Cardenas told Cash Box, "I've been playing drums all my life." In fact, Cardenas began playing drums at the tender age of three, when his father sensed an inchoate talent in the precocious toddler, and provided him with a Ludwig drum set. Through the encouragement of his dad, he entered school talent shows, eventually playing other school events. It was at one such school performance that Richards came into the young musician's fortunes, who was by this time playing with a band. "We got hooked up with him through a teacher at one of the schools that we played who knew Kim real well," Cardenas remembered, "and who asked him to come down and give an audition."

MY HOMETOWN — Though Tampa, Florida is better known for its cigars and beaches than its music, it has produced its share of rock luminaries. Club maven Dianne Brill is from Tampa. So is Stephen Stills. The Outlaws, whose out-of-print first album is actually quite good, are favorite sons. Other bay area natives include The Royal Guardsmen (of "Snoopy Versus The Red Baron" fame), the comedian Gallagher, Atlantic's Savatage, and Simon LeBon's parents. If this is the city where Led Zeppelin gave its biggest concert to date in 1973, it's also the place where Janis Joplin got busted, Jack Kerouac got bloated, 'The Twist' was outlawed, and Patti Smith broke her neck in a stage fall. Which is to say it's a quintessentially typical American city, and therefore a good barometer of what's happening in the heartland.

So what is happening? During a recent visit, the whole town was abuzz about Belinda Carlisle's performance that night at The Tampa Theatre. She had made the front page of the local paper and people in the cigar shops and record stores were talking about Belinda as if she were a wayward cousin who had redeemed herself through a punishing program of self-improvement. An unwary observer might have concluded that Carlisle was not a top ten recording artist but the best-selling author of, say, The Belinda Diet or The Carlisle Beauty Manifesto.

Eleven hundred people packed the theatre, jumped up and down on seats, jammed aisles, and shrieked. And there was real cause for enthusiasm at that.

ROD THE MOD — Have you seen Rodney Dangerfield sing "Twist and Shout" in Orion Pictures's Back To School or heard him on the MCA soundtrack album? If not, see the real thing at Radio City Music Hall September 19 and 20.

Carlisle's singing was loose and Motowny, her band was crisp, and her repertoire included the Go Go songs and "Belinda" hits everyone had come to hear. "Our Lips Are Sealed" was reupholstered in a rockified arrangement that, almost impossibly, improved on the original; "Mad About You" ("Belinda" LP/IRS) had an undeniable swing; and "We've Got The Beat" was nicely embellished by Charlotte Caffrey's spirited keyboard playing. But the high point was Freda Payne's "Band Of Gold" which approximated a Supremes-like soulfulness that got everybody but the security guards dancing in the aisles. Unfortunately, though, Carlisle's band, with the exception of Caffrey, is much more conventional and much less interesting than The Go Go's. In addition, the band's vocal harmonies, crucial to so many of these songs, were made all but indistinguishable by bad miking and poor acoustics. But those flaws were incidental to the big picture: the show was enjoyable, she pulled every stop, and the crowd loved her.

After the show, a friend took me to see some local talent. We went to the town's only 'new music' club, an un-air-conditioned dive called Act 4, and onstage was a band which, for some reason, changes its name with every performance ("They play a twenty minute version of 'Give Peace A Chance,'" someone said). Tonight the band called themselves The Moon Calves (bad name) and they weren't appreciably worse than many third-billed bands playing a good Manhattan club on a Tuesday night. But there was no "Give Peace A Chance," just predictable covers of "Gloria" and "I Aint Got You," done with affected, if endearing, sloppiness. As we left Act 4, I asked my friend if there was any other place to hear good live music on a Saturday night. "Yeah," he said, "cable."

THE HOBOKEN-ATHENS AXIS

— Yo La Tengo soaks its folk-derived rock in psychedelia and hangs it out to dry on the picket fence that lines the route from Athens to Hoboken. The band's recent "Ride The Tiger" album (Coyote) exhibited a predilection for balls-out rock ("The Evil That Men Do"), pastoral surrealism ("The Pain Of Pain"), and inspired covers (The Kinks's "Big Sky"). In concert at CBGBs August 30, they ran the gamut of genres and moods with songs that almost invariably started off slowly and built into fireballs. The structural similarity of much of their material might have spelled boredom for other bands, but Yo La Tengo varied its sound effectively, moving from pop to folk to blasty rock. This band gets tighter and more interesting each time out, which might mean good things for their next album.

SHORT CUTS

— The Washington Post reports that Donnie Osmond recently sent Boy George a letter calling The Boy a "hero" for acknowledging his drug problem. . . . Spin magazine is at it again. First they cracked the crack story, then they raked the muck of Live-Aid, and now they have published a report that the Georgia Bureau of Investigation suppressed evidence linking the Ku Klux Klan to the Atlanta Child Murders case.

ON BLUES—The reissue craze—which is reaching some sort of fever pitch in jazz—has extended to other fields. MCA—which has had the good sense to begin an active jazz reissue program with Impulse!—has just come up with ten dandy blues reissues from its Chess vaults. The albums are handsomely packaged—they have their original covers and liner notes, as well as updated liner notes—and the sound on them is, generally, clear and crisp. The classic "Muddy Waters At Newport"—which includes two definitive versions of "Got My Mojo Workin'" by a band that includes Otis Spann and James Cotton—is the gem of the set, but the other nine albums are certainly nothing to sneeze at. They are "Muddy Waters Sings Big Bill Broonzy", "Big Bill Broonzy and Washboard Sam", "John Lee Hooker Plays and Sings the Blues", "The Best of Little Walter", "Memphis Slim" (a must have if you're unfamiliar with the great Memphis Slim), "We're Gonna Make It" by Little Milton, "Go Bo Diddley", the "Original Soundtrack of Rock, Rock, Rock", with Chuck Berry, the Flamingos, and the Moonglows; and "The Blues Volume 1", a compilation. Many of the great independent labels of yore are now owned by the megalabels and it's good to see that, slowly but surely, much of our classic American music is seeing the light of day again. These reissue trends don't tend to last, so if you want 'em, better go get 'em.

WORLD CLASS SERIES—Greenwich Village, which is the current heart of the contemporary jazz world—thanks to such clubs as Sweet Basil, the Village Vanguard, and the Blue Note—also harbors an excellent pair of jazz series: Jack Kleinsinger's "Highlights In Jazz", and Kwame Shaw's "Jazztrack". The series are complementary—Kleinsinger's shows run to the traditional, with a smattering of bebop; Shaw's shows run to the contemporary, with a smattering of bebop. "Highlights In Jazz"'s fall series—which will take place, as always, at NYU's Loeb Student Center—goes like this: "Still Going Strong", with veterans Art Hodes, Milt Hinton, Doc Cheatham, George Kelly, Tommy Benford, and Clarence Hutchen-drider (9/25); "A Salute to Pepper Adams", with Adams, Clark Terry, Cecil Payne, Ronnie Cuber, Nick Brignola, Joe Morello, and others (10/20); "Voices of Jazz", with as always, at Barrow Street's Greenwich House—are Lester Bowie and the Brass Fantasy (9/13), "The Soul Stirrings of Linda Tillery", with a trio featuring Michele Rosewoman (10/4), "Bop Connection: Then and Now", with Kenny Barron, Cecil McBee, Big Black, Eddie Henderson, Sonny Fortune, and Freddie Waits (11/8); and the Hatian band Ayiza, featuring Andrew Cyrille (12/13).

SWIFT—A new jazz label has been born. Gazell Records has revved up by releasing four LPs from the excellent Swedish label Sonet—which hasn't had a stateside presence for years. Up first from Gazell are the Paris Reunion Band's "French Cooking" (a Feature Pick on this page a couple of months ago), Chet Baker's "Candy", Sivuca's "Som Brasil", and Barney Kessel/Red Mitchell's "Two Way Conversation". Gazell is at 204 W. 20th Street, New York, NY 10011.

BOPPING AROUND—It was heartening to see the public reconciliation between the brothers Marsalis. At Wynton's Pier Concert a week or so ago, Branford—who, you'll recall, was fired from Wynton's Quintet after he got Stung—was on hand as a "special guest", and he raised the level of the band by a couple of notches. Branford was busy on the Pier that week—two nights before he guested with the Neville Brothers...Max Roach—who ain't your typical jazz drummer—and the Kronos Quartet—which ain't your typical string quartet—will team up for a pair of performances of Peter Phillips's "Survivors", written for Max and a string quartet, September 12 at San Francisco's Herbst Theatre, and September 13 at UCLA's Schoenberg Hall...Three cheers to Phil Alvin—a member of the rock band, The Blasters—for enlisting Sun Ra and his Arkestra for a featured role on his solo LP, "Un'Sung Stories" (Slash); the Arkestra cuts it up on three tunes arranged by the Master of the Omniverse. The Dirty Dozen Brass Band is also on hand for a number...Chicago's Marco Direct will begin a national television sales campaign to market "Let It Live", the Jazzletter Records LP that features Sarah Vaughan singing jazz versions of poems by Pope John Paul II...Concord Records is getting their artists together and taking them on the road: Rosemary Clooney, Scott Hamilton, Maxine Sullivan, Jim Hall, Ray Brown, Emily Remler, and others will be participating in a 10-concert tour of Japan this month... "Musical Interpretations of Yoruba Proverbs" is an intriguing-sounding program that Wind And Thunder will be performing at NYC's Symphony Space, September 26. Bill Cole wrote the music, Julius Hemphill did the arrangements, and they will be joined by Olu Dara, Joe Daley, Abdul Wadud, Gerald Veasley, Warren Smith, and Hafiz Shabazz. Call (212) 864-5400 for tickets. Lee Jeske

Roy Eldridge, Marlene VerPlanck, Jay Leonhart, and other (12/11), and "Jazz Is My Passport", with Astrud Gilberto, Niels Lan Doky, Claudio Roditi, and others. "Jazztrack"'s autumnal offerings—which will take place,

JAZZ FEATURE PICKS

TWO WAY CONVERSATION—Barney Kessel/Red Mitchell—Gaz GJ 1003—Producers: Gunnar Bergstrom, Sven Lindholm

A well-titled LP. Guitarist Kessel and bassist Mitchell—who worked together extensively in the '50s—are musical soulmates who weave a seamless tapestry of swinging improvisation on this '73 session, produced by Sweden's Sonet and r available on the new Gazell label.

MEL TORME/ROB McCONNELL AND THE BOSS BRASS—Conc Jazz CJ-306—Producer: Carl E. Jefferson

Torme, whose vocalizing has lately been done in the sparest of company, gets to air his pipes in front of McConnell's smoking, 24-piece big band and results are excellent: the lushness of Torme's voice is matched perfectly by lushness of the Boss Brass.

EARTH RUN—Lee Ritenour—GRP A-1021—Producer: Lee Ritenour

Dave Grusin is not co-billed here, but he's along for most of the ride. This ca Ritenour's stamp of fusion finesse—his guitar work (mostly guitar synthesizer w hops, skips, and jumps.

STUMP JUMPER—Ron Eschete—Bainbridge BT 6264—Producer: mond Edwards

Guitar man Eschete straddles several different jazz genres—popping electric and plaintive acoustic ballads being the prominent sounds—with well-seas chops and a well-tuned ear.

After a year's absence from the British scene, Frankie Goes To Hollywood is back with a new single, "Rage Hard". But the group, accused of being puppets of top producer Trevor Horn, have confounded the critics by dispensing with Horn's services.

Frankie were the sensations of 1984 with their multi-million selling singles, "Relax", and "Two Tribes". Most of the sounds on those records was created by Horn's use of computerized synthesizers. Now the engineer on Frankie's new single, and upcoming album, "Liverpool", is Steve Lipson, a studio engineer under Horn's wing. Horn himself is credited as executive producer.

"I think our sound is less techno-flash," says Frankie singer Holly Johnson. "It is more of the group and less from the producer. Trevor just popped his head into the studio once or twice while we were there. He is working on the new Yes album; he found it much more exciting to do them. He felt if he produced this album it would turn out exactly the same as the last one. He wanted the band's involvement to be greater...." Holly confirms that there have been conflicts within the group during their year of tax exile flitting between different European locations, but it's normal. "Holly has been getting away from the group by writing poetry, which he hopes will be published with some of his drawings...Holly's colleague, Paul Rutherford, condemns the Prince film, Under the Cherry Moon, as "the biggest load of crap I've ever seen. How could someone who made Purple Rain have made his home movie. It's like a giant shoe now. Just how many pairs of stilettos does this man got? He runs across a field six inches, and he's even got them in bed. In the end everyone thinks he's been shot, but there is no need to shoot. He's only fallen of his stiletto, all he needs is a good cobbler...."

The Communards have a brilliant new cover of the seventies disco classic, "Don't Leave Me This Way", which is shot to the number five slot. However it will be a long time before Richard Coles, the keyboards half of the duo, visits New York. He says he's been banned from every club there. "I was banned from Limelight for limbo dancing in the lobby and from Area for getting too drunk. New York's got this really wacky reputation, but really the people are so sensible and boring, and it costs me and Jimmy $53 for coffee and muffins delivered room service...." Boy George, who has been temporarily abandoned by the rest of Culture Club, has escaped the attentions of the UK press by going to Montserrat to work on his solo album. Meanwhile, whatever did drummer Jon Moss do before they opened the London Lime-light? He can be spotted in the VIP lounge virtually every night escorted by various beautiful model types, including Simon Le Bon's ex- Clare Stansfield. Jon has been discussing solo projects, but in the meanwhile he is drawing more attention to himself as a pin-up...Discovery of the week is new Chrysalis signing, The Bible. They are certainly not pin-ups-if only they looked as good as they sounded they would be instant stars. Their strangely emotive single, "Graceland", is exquisitely delivered. Their album sounds like a jazz-influenced Microdisney. Songwriter Bob Hewerdine says, "'Graceland' is about wanting something very much but not knowing why. Most of my inspiration for the 'Walking the Ghost Back Home' album (Backs) was trashy American images. I like putting them amongst the love songs. I went to Disney World as a kid and it always struck me as sinister that Mickey Mouse always appeared from behind a bush when I dropped a crisp packet." There is another song on the album called "Take To Me Like Jackie Kennedy." He explains, "When JFK first came to power, Jackie was not popular until she did a TV special talking about her cutlery, etc., and she won over the hearts of the nation." The Bible have no religious aspirations--the Bible they refer to is slang, like a reference book that becomes a tradesman's bible. Their album is blissful...Also causing a stir at the moment is new EMI signing Brother Beyond. Songwriter Carl Fysh says, "We chose to make Brother Beyond our name because we are a very close-knit group." All four members can be seen regularly on the London club scene, usually accompanied by their particularly shrewd manager, Simon Carter. "I Should Have Lied" is an infectious and chartbound debut single; it displays a sophisticated and alluring pop sound. Carl adds, "Being in a band for me is taking responsibility for my own life and living through all the traumas which are very frequent at the moment." Chrissy Iley

FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD GOES PLATINUM—Chris De Burgh recently took time out to present BBC Radio presenter Ted Beston with a Platinum disc for sales in excess of 300,000 units of "Into The Light," DeBurgh's current album. DeBurgh presented the disc to Beston as a way of thanking him for his support over the past ten years.

Japan

TOKYO—According to a survey conducted by Cash Box Tokyo, sales for the first half of summer in Japan were excellent while sales for the last half were down when compared to last year. In the first half of the season, many retailers reported that sales were up 20 percent compared to the same period the prior year, while many of the largest dealers recorded sales up over 40 percent. The main reason cited for these unexpected good results were the big hits released just in time for summer by Onyanko-Club, Kuwata Band, Kiyotaka Sugiyama and Chube. In addition, CDs continue their healthy growth. Also, a long rainy season, which continued through the end of June into July, brought more customers into the stores. On the contrary, August was sluggish, most retailers reporting a down trend in sales. CD sales have doubled in volume over last year, while LPs and singles have decreased 30 percent. This figure, according to retailers surveyed, was significantly less than anticipated. Cassette sales were up at the bigger retailers, while they experienced a slight drop at smaller retailers.

BLACK CONTEMPORARY

THE BEAT

BEVERLY IS REAL (A)MAZING—During a recent interview with Frankie Beverly of Maze, we discussed the groups longevity and the maintenance of their R&B roots. The thing that has and still impresses me is the cleanliness of their sound that does not include a lot of gimmicks. They have always been able to reproduce the sameness of sound, yet remain freshly different enough without becoming a musical bore. The measure of a true artist in this reporters mind is they are capable of sounding the same on stage as they do on record, but with an additional energy source that is stimulated by the vibrations of a live audience.

I compare Maze to Lou Rawls in that they have the ability to attract massive numbers of concert-goers without having a current hit record. Frankie is thankful and attributes it to the fact that the group has never been pretentious. He spoke affectionately of the groups loyal black fans, record buyers and concert-goers, without excluding other individuals who are fans of Maze. He was quick to note that the black record buyers have ultimately been responsible for the group having received seven gold albums during their career. The enormously talented Beverly, lead vocalist, songwriter and producer, always writes songs that will insure that Maze will remain true to its R&B roots never sacrificing their art to commercial success, thus their audiences and record buyers have remained just as loyal.

I spoke to Frankie about the rumor of him leaving the group to pursue a solo career. He stated emphatically that leaving was the furthest thing from his mind. Because this is his group, and they have a successful chemistry going, he is not about to leave something he created. Furthermore, their is so much love and respect within the organization that it would not be necessary for him or any member to leave in order to do outside projects. Frankie said, in terms of the group, I realize that I am the picture, the person out front or whatever, but I also realize that a picture without its frame has no foundation of support. Music for over 20 years has been and still is a labor of love for Frankie Beverly, because he and the group have played on the poor side a lot longer than they have on the side that has brought financial rewards, that has allowed Frankie to install a studio in his home, therefore giving the group the flexibility of creating their art (music) when they really feel it.

Frankie is adamant about not rushing the creative processes because, "we have an obligation to be brilliant on stage each and every time we perform because the people expect and deserve it." That sensitivity to creating the best music possible is reflective in their eighth album on Capitol Records titled "Maze Featuring Frankie Beverly Live In L.A.", which features four new cuts on side four. Freedom, deals with the South African situation, the new single I Wanna Be With You, Dee's Song, dedicated to the late Dee Marie Warren (a special friend) who sang with Alton McClain and Destiny and When You Love Someone, that deals with loving two people at the same time.

There is a real down to earthness in this brilliant artist that lets you know when Frankie says, "while you are alone, in the golden time of the day, he wants to be with you musically, displaying the best that Maze has to offer because you deserve it."

MAIN INGREDIENT REUNITED—The Main Ingredient one of the top recording groups of the 70s who scored major musical success with such hits as Everybody Plays The Fool and Just Don't Want To Be Lonely, have reunited their incredible talents. After 10 years original members Cuba Gooding, Luther Simmons and Tony Sylvester have joined forces again. The old magic is apparently still there because their first single titled Do Me Right on Zakia Records headed by c.e.o. Robert Hill is already enjoying phenomenal radio response. Sparkie Martin who doubles as their tour manager and promoter indicated that a fall tour is being planned. Welcome back to the Main Ingredient who apparently still have the right ingredients to make hit records.

KRYSTOL RELEASE—The Washington based Krystol Records team is extremely excited over the initial reaction to Gloria Brown's latest two-sided release titled, "What Ever It Takes" b/w "I Can't Take It".

PILATE SOLO—Felton Pilate has departed the group Con Funk Shun to pursue a solo career. He is currently in the studio in the bay area producing new artist as well as working on his solo debut album. Demetra Mavis, who heads up Front Page News Entertainment marketing and promotion is working with Pilate as well as an exciting young artist called Mr. 45, with a new release titled Ooh La La.

"Summertime, Summertime"—Nocera—(Sleeping Bag)
D. J.: Victor Flores
Record Pool: Resource
Club: The Zap Club
Location: Redondo Beach, CA

Comments:

"Although this 12" is a summertime record, for good reasons, it will definitely be one of the biggest club records of the year."

RETAILER'S PICK

"Sample That!"—Bang Orchestral—(Geffen)
Store: Record Sales
Manager: Carl Lorrington
Location: Toronto

Comments:

"This record has been gaining some fast momentum at the clubs, and now has become a big retail seller. Should do very well here. A top ten dance hit."

HIT RECORD IS STARING YOU RIGHT IN YOUR FACE!

Lisa-Lisa and Cult Jam with Full Force "All Cried Out"

First it was the impressive quality of the stations that added it into heavy rotation:

Z100, WPLJ, WXKS, B96, KMEL

Now it's the sheer Quantity of stations who claim it's one of the Hottest NO-BURN reaction records of the year.

The Over 100 CHR stations now include:

- WXKS 3-1 WNVZ 21-15
B94 4-1 Y100 24-15
WSPK 1-1 KBEQ 16-12

THE SINGLE

FORMER "HIP CLIP

OF THE WEEK" ON MTV

Luis Cardenas
Runaway

Hello:

This issue of CASH BOX features the third installment of THE MUSIC TIMES. This is strictly a programming tool for any of you who need concise, easy-to-find information. THE MUSIC TIMES will bring you the most thorough TOP 40 radio programming information possible. We have a "core" of Top 40 stations that are willing to share their information with the rest of you. Without their help we would not have the excellent reports that will appear each week. Research from the "core" stations will augment information that is already available to you from other sources.

We perceive THE MUSIC TIMES as a one-stop shopping list about any record. This is an easy, convenient way to choose what may be right for you and your market. Our research is only as good as the information we receive from the field. We will make every attempt to find out as much as we possibly can about artists and their records.

In the months to come we will be expanding into Black Contemporary, Country, Adult Contemporary and Album Rock radio. We encourage anyone at radio to become involved. This is your radio report. The more you participate, the better the information. These formats are reflected in the "Multi-Format Penetration" chart and the "Crossover Penetration" graph.

I hope that you will acquaint yourself with THE MUSIC TIMES and thus discover it's usefulness.

Mardi Nehrbaas-Clahan, Editor

ANALYSIS OF "THE MUSIC TIMES" RESEARCH & INFORMATION:

This is a comprehensive RADIO report taken from a core of stations and "Cash Box" reporters. The core distinction is that they do "call-out" research. This is a source for MORE CONCISE data.

PAGE ONE:

At-A-Glance, a notional picture of strangest and potentially strangest records.

SCOREBOARD:

Using the CASH BOX "Top 100 Singles" chart, the category breakdowns came from the "core stations" as tabulated from row-research.

- Popularity Rank: Obtained from 20 most popular
- "call-out" selections.
- Sales Rank: Top 20 sales from "core," market-
- by-market.
- Request Rank: Some process as above two items.
- Popularity Rank: Reflects demographic information.

Rank is then formulated by assigning a numerical evaluation to each selection given in each category (#1 being the highest receives a value of 100 and #20 the lowest with 5). The percentage is figured on the number of reporting core stations.

— Video Rotation Rank: Based on various national, regional and local video programs obtained by CASH BOX video department. Exclusivity to MTV will be stated.

- Current Tour: Will be represented by a "Y" (yes)
- only when on act is a tour.

ON DECK:

The next 20 "live" records on the CASH BOX 100 Chart appear in this category. Primarily, these will be selections moving up, however, if a record stalls at a number it will not be counted out.

DAY-PARTING:

For new records which may have to be treated differently, until proven, or those selections having distinct advantages in stating day-parts.

MULTI-FORMAT PLAYLIST:

Records started in one format and spreading into others and shows cross-over potential.

CROSSOVER POTENTIAL:

This will support the "multi-format playlist." Each week as a growth pattern develops, that growth will be measured. After achieving "maximum penetration," they will be removed.

TEST RECORDS: These records that anyone is willing to share will be stated here, without being identified, but could be a valuable programming tool for other markets.

BREAKOUTS: Records that are really getting a break in any given market that may, or may not, have a proven track record.

HIGH PRIORITY:

On a rotating basis, promotion heads pop about company concentration on a brand new artist.

PLAY-BY-PLAY:

Rotating station reports indicating #1, odds, and 3 requests.

PROFILES:

One program director and a music director, or an on-air personality. Market size not a factor. Along with an artist manager.

ON-THE-CIRCUIT:

Editorial, discussion, news, etc.

PROMOTION OF THE WEEK:

An outstanding and successful contest/promotion running or about to run.

BEST RECORDS

HIGH PRIORITY

New single from BRUCE HORNSBY is "The Way It Is". Bruce is on tour now with possible big dates coming up. Daryl Hall looks top five, at least, looking for #1. Missionary Man keeps comin' and the new 5 Star single is ready to happen with a 33-26 move at KMEL.

CAPITOL

Capitol Records is heading for a great fall season. In addition to Tina Turner, Bob Seger, Paul McCartney and the Beatles, is the Ashford and Simpson single "Count Your Blessings" which is starting to cross with good adds at Y100 and WXKS. New singles are coming from Billy Squires and Freddie Jackson.

THE DEFINITIVE HISTORY OF ROCK AND ROLL
The CASHBOX Singles Charts, 1950-1981, a complete history of all the records to appear on the CASHBOX charts. This historic volume contains an alphabetical listing of all artists who appeared on the charts and includes the week it first appeared and all subsequent chart positions. Cross reference by song title. Also compiled in this spectacular reference are the top ten records of each year, the most chart hits by an artist, the most #1 hits by an artist, the most weeks at #1 by an artist, the most weeks at #1 by a single record, the record with the longest chart run and a chronological list of #1 records. An incomparable reference tool.

IN COMMON—Recording duo Nicholas Ashford and Valerie Simpson (right) had much to talk about with good friends Billy Davis and Marilyn McCoo at a recent sneak preview party of Ashford and Simpson's new video single "Count Your Blessings." What's in common? They are both very successful musical couples who have remained married for many years.

PHILLY MONKEY—After one of their Philadelphia performances, Monkees members Mickey Dolenz, Davey Jones and Peter Tork took time out with WFIL's Jerry (Geator with the Heater) Blavat. Blavat hosted the group's show.

Could it be there'll be another change in the Dallas lineup before kickoff Sunday at the Gannett headquarters there? Is it true that as you read this, the #1 CHR in Charlotte will have new owners?

PARKER TO PD AT KEGL: Ron Parker leaves his post at KKBQ for the open position at KEGL in Dallas.

LAW TO KTKS: Al Brady Law bounds out of Boston's WHDH/WZOU for new opportunity as General Manager of KTKS in Dallas.

KENO/KOMP & COHEN: Sherman Cohen heads for the director of operations at these two stations in Las Vegas. His move was a mere step across the street from KKLZ.

MOONLIGHTING WITH MOTOWN: Bruce Willis will now be "in the trenches" with Don Johnson as Bruce, another female heartthrob, sets an album deal with Motown.

THOMPSON VS. SULLIVAN: A very unique situation occurs as Ron Thompson and Tim Sullivan, both former RKO g.m.'s, who are presently g.m.'s in L.A.'s southern town of Anaheim. Ron takes over at KWIZ while Tim remains at the reins of KEZY.

DIAMOND IS NUMBER 1 AT THE OFFICE: Not only did Neil Diamond throw himself into a schedule that young "pups" would pack up their drums and go home on, he has broken the box office as well. He outdistances the second best seller by more than $2 million just from his New York shows alone. These kind of results give Diamond the biggest boxscore gross of 1986 to date. He topped Bill Cosby's sell outs in New York as well.

A BIG P.L.U.S. FOR ABC RADIO NETWORKS: Seems we have a staggering amount of citizens who are illiterate... over 20 million. ABC Radio Network has started a public service campaign called, Project Literacy U.S. Every one in American should be aware of this important campaign. Bob Benson, vp, ABC News Radio believes that radio can be highly effective in spreading the message. It is a problem that contributes to unemployment, crime and lower productivity; and could cost our society as much as $220 BILLION.

ARBITRON CHECKLIST: Shane Media is offering a 60-point checklist for station targets for rating periods. They are offering this "free" to attendees or by letter.

NAB UPDATE: One of the radio panels at NAB this year will be headed by Alan Furst (Shane Media Services), it's called "Advanced Management For PD'S." Looks quite interesting as he will discuss p.d. dilemmas. Mr. Furst says, "Most programmers learn their trade through trial and error. They're fired when they make a mistake, but many never know where they went wrong." Let's hope he'll throw some light on this constant complexity.

POWER 95 CELEBRATES POWER DAY USA: Good old Thomas Edison brought electricity to this metropolis in 1882. And to remind New Yorkers of this significant day, WPLJ - POWER 95, changed the actual date of the from September 4 to the 5th and showed the city who really had the power. . . WPLJ. Mayor Koch joined the Morning Crew and Larry Berger, pd, on-the-air, declaring 9/5 as "Power Day" in New York City.

Z100 MATCH THE METS: Another sparts twist goes into play as Z 100 created their own baseball cards using the members of the "Zoo." If you want to know more about any of them, or if you need a chuckle in your day, start collecting them now. Why does the 5 Star album continue to sound so good - might be a party/dance lp.

DEES TO DIR: And in turn, Rick Dees, will host the same type of show for DIR.

THE FAMOUS WFIL CELEBRATES: Another turning back of the clock will occur on September 18 at WFIL. They will celebrate 20 years and bring back the great "Boss Jacks" from that time. A live broadcast will include: Jay Cook, Dave Parks, Tom Tyler, Alan Smith, "The Chucker" Chuck Browning, J.J. Jeffries, Dick Heatherton, Lee Sherwood, Long John Wade, Geoff Richards, Kevin McCarthy and Joe Montione. We all would like to have air-checks of this one.

#66 ADDED TO THE Q 107 LINE-UP: Washington, DC sure has "Redskin Fever" and they're adding Joe Jacoby to the Q 107 (WRQX) morning team. Joe will give his predictions for the upcoming game along with tidbits about the team.

COOLING OUT WITH THE NAILS These "Dangerous Dreams" (RCA LP) guys are with the WBCN guys: (l-r) Bab Kranes, WBCN; Douglas Guthrie and Marc Camp Nails; along with WBCN's Oedipus.

EXECUTIVES ARRIVE EARLY: I poll regarding USA execs, it was e that most arrive in the office at least 15 minutes before their employees. How many of them get there between 7 and 8 a.m. and what bulk of the employees arriving between 7 and 8.

BILL GRAHAM INITIATES A DOWN: With the help of his former employees, Bill Graham plans on holding an anti-rock concert in New York in October. He already raised $50,000 from CBS and Walter Yetnikoff.

BECKER BECOMES A BUZZ: Ricki Becker is named Promotions Director at WMMS in Cleveland bringing with him 7 good years of experience.

CHARLIE TUNA NEW HOST: Tuna of K-BEST radio in L.A., will be the new host of Westwood One "National Mvey" after the departure of Ricki Tuna. Mr. Tuna will be heard on more than 325 stations. Congratulations.

PROMOTION OF THE WEEK

CITY—WASHINGTON, DC—A real Public Service effort on behalf of 17 year old Carol Bridgett of Dumphries, Virginia who suffered a cardiac arrest during a severe asthma attack which resulted in brain damage. With $5,000 having already been raised over a 30 day period from listeners. The community involvement has been quite incredible. The owner of a car dealership has committed to making up the difference should they come up short.

STATION—Q107 (WRQX)—Washington, D.C. - ABC/Capitol Cities Group

D.J.—Scott Woodside and David Page. These jocks are attempting to raise these funds from their listeners. Obviously their listeners are helping them in this very worthwhile cause.

PROMOTION—A $7,000 Community Fund Raiser to benefit the CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN to help Carol Bridgett with some of the basic activities of daily living, such as a talking board, feeding equipment, leg braces, and special

Troutman Brothers: Larry, Lester, Roger, Zapp.

OH—This could possibly be the edible and heart-rendering story of Larry Troutman, an inspiration, an earth realist that benefits all and him. Larry Troutman and the very exciting people. It's hard to start such a fascinating story. His four brothers (Roger, Lester, Rufus) have what you might call a. However, they remember how it, what they had to do to make it now to stay in touch with those five brothers are hard-working, no dedicated group of guys. They members of the band called, Zapp. incredible thing about this group act that from 1970 to 1980 this and traveled to every city known to this stemmed from their strength as a ton group. Knowing that they had they went from Bangor to San Diego Heilash to Tacoma, they played even town and every rock and roll club a. What has ended, is a polished, and professional group of guys. its that his role as "manager" was on him by very ambitious brother, oger it seems likes to do most things d has instilled this trait into Larry. nization's development occurred beh the diverse needs each brother has, er leading the pack. For instance, ever quite satisfied with the studios work with (he is the producer and Zapp) sa, they went ahead and udio to fulfill those specific needs, tisty Rager's driving desire to make o perfect records as was humanly However, when they finished, they e studios instead of the one as consequently Troutman Sound Labs r. They have gone on to produce s in these facilities, which includes group (Zapp), and Shirley Murdock eiving 100% dedication from the at seems to be interesting here is, the boys know that this lady shares hilosophy as they do, and that they raight ahead with her. Her back-similar to theirs; however and more ly, she knows what it takes to be and the elements necessary for lon- rley has a second single coming out l called "As We Lay." Her first sin- r album, "Shirley Murdock!" was o More" and enjoyed o top 25 posi- e charts. kes one statement emphatically, e blood of any group is de- t upon their ability to move about the country and reach their fans." Without this dedication, an act will hardly survive. It was nothing for Zapp to play to 30 or 40,000 people one day and then turn around and play a club which offered much less exposure. These discrepancies were never a concern to them; they went where their fans were and if that meant reaching 100 of them - they'd be there. They also became self-contained and continuously found the advantages of doing their "own thing" and controlling their own destinies, while working closely. "The importance of being out there is a value that must always be kept in perspective" says, Larry. When a person loses sight of what is important and what isn't their professional decline is eminent. One must constantly be striving for perfection, dedication and hard work. It is Larry's contention that an artist must be responsible for their own career. Too often artists put the onus on their manager, record company, publicist or whom ever they can. There is no room, or necessity, to establish such unprofessional work habits. Actually, those artists who have longevity in this business know that it is more than just sheer guts to continue, but to maximize opportunities and work hard with what is available. Larry doesn't care if we are talking about opera, Minnie Pearl, or rock and roll the "laws" apply.

The Troutman Brothers took their original capital from Zapp's musical success and created a company called Troutman Construction (run by brother Rufus). This company was created for the soul purpose of the brother's feelings to repaying the community that gave them their start. With an initial investment of $30,000, Troutman Construction has purchased 30 buildings in Dayton's inner city—all of which had been abandoned or condemned—and are renovating these homes for Blacks in once-blighted neighborhoods. They collectively agree that this is their way of giving back to the community. Besides the recording studio and the construction company, Zapp continues to be on tour, a sister, Janet Wright, is the group's accountant; and another sister, Loretto Troutman, is the electrician for the company and the group when they are on the road. The brothers have built their own office building, rehearsal hall, operate a limousine service and even offer job training positions in construction and recording studio engineering for residents. They feel that the Black Community is indeed their responsibility and are doing something about it. I'd say!

When these gentlemen make a commitment they keep it. There is no hesitation in planning

CHUCK CRANE
Asst. PD/MD WLS-AM

CHICAGO—What a thrill, what an accomplishment and what a tremendous opportunity - working with legends. Especially those legends you grew up with as a kid and now are a part of your team. So goes the story of Chuck Crane. Being at one of the last AM Contemporary outlets, Chuck is working with his boyhood heroes... the likes of; Fred Winston, Larry Lujack and John Lan-decker. Surprisingly enough he's been trying to get a job at WLS since 1978 but he never gave up. He persisted and kept sending tapes to John Gorman who finally noticed him last year. This is an example of real fortitude. Now entrenched in "pulling the station together" the new WLS crew has been working like bandits since January of this year. Initially they changed the direction of the station with every intention of making it a viable entity - and they felt they could especially do it in a city where AM radio hasn't died.

Seems like 14 is a magical age for starting out in the radio business, probably because it's so convenient for this very young age group, and Chuck is no exception. However, here's the twist - young man works at radio station (and this is years after he was the request kid, etc.) to support himself through college - dentistry no less. Pulling teeth and playing records is quite a unique change in directions, but Chuck had always thought about medicine as a career while growing up in Muncie, Indiana. He chose dentistry because he felt that the lifestyle is one that lends itself more to one's own freedom and it's not as demanding as other fields of medicine. Not only proficient in the world of teeth, but also in the world of computers; he was hired by Andy Economos to install his programs and machines for six months in 1982. Chuck feels that he is the best Economos music scheduler in the business. He's been able to prove these skills in Tampa, New York and now Chicago. He has worked for Scott Shannon and now John Gorman. A doctor does a lot of things (as does an assistant program director, music director, and dj); but Chuck does all of them well, and he's not about to go through life pushed into any dull, dead-end, or unhappy corner. If all systems aren't going, he aborts without a flinch. The dual careers is simply put by Chuck, "I like to do a lot of things, so why should I settle for just one."

Chuck is never in a trap, he always knows that just around that corner is another promotion, a new way of doing something, meeting a new inspiration, etc. Perhaps his training in precision has enabled him to stand out in his radio career. We have to constantly keep fine-tuning ourselves and our methods in order to stay competitive and ahead of the race. Seems like this chap is a real glutton for the constant challenge that we all have available to us.

Now, what's in a name? Chuck certainly has had his share - from Dr. Charles Crane to Dr. Christopher Reed to regular old reliable Chuck Crane. The differences Chuck draws between dentistry and radio is that dentistry is so exact and scientific while broadcasting is so vast and reaches so many more people. Chuck is always busy keeping his sights on being a program director with a clear direction into management. WLS is offering him a lot of new ideas as well as a new set of challenges. Since their change over, they have a constant battle of finding those records which are just right for them. Chuck likes to chase records that are "gutsy" as well as those with a more mellow sound. They augment those selections with news, sports, traffic reports and even some of the Cubbies' games. With Chuck's driving ability and desire to constantly do better, there's no doubt that he won't have to remain in one place, or only pulling teeth for the rest of his life. MN for the future, they take things one at a time, and at the present Larry has three major commitments. The first is to continue the development of Roger's producing. Number two is fine-tuning Zapp as a group so that the feeling and performances stay fresh and interesting. Lastly, to keep preparing the way for Shirley, for her part and her exceptional talent. I can't help but feel, while talking with Larry, that each person plays out his role in this business to the best of their ability. No one logs, no one is without commitment and no one has stopped growing. Indeed an organization worth watching and warth noting. MN

DIO/VIDEO

IAM HILL VIDEO—Believe it or not, the Christmas season is upon us, and some video marketing, that is, folks over at Paramount Video are getting out the merrily this year. A package of four from Windham Hill, those "re" music mavens of the west (the world), are ready to hit the end of next month, bearing a retail price of $99 for the lot. These, which run about an hour each, were released through Paramount last year at $29.95 each, and in music by such Windham Hillers as Will Ackerman, George Ducas, Michael Hedges, Shaheen and lots of others. These are seasonal tapes, remember? With titles like West of the Sun, Autumn Portrait, Winter and Path. They'll be available in stereo VHS and Beta HiFi.

OF BARBRA—Barbra Streisand is the star of her TV specials, My name is Belinda and Color Me Barbra in a home video from CBS/Fox Video Music.

IAN ON U.S.A.—Bobby Brown. The name has come to symbolize teeny-bop stardom. Well, after 15 years of relative obscurity (remember Here Come The Brides?), the pop idol will be back on the tube with a sitcom called Sanchez for the USA cable network, Paramount Pictures Domestic Video. The show is about a rich resident who finds himself living in a trailer or to some newly transplanted Angelenos (read: Mexican immigrants), and oh my, we can't have too much of that, can we? Do you find some healthy laughs brewing here? I don't (but I don't find much humor in the Bevillies, either). I guess the social scene in this country has swung back to where we're all supposed to be able to laugh at what appears to be inherently racist, or at least classist (same thing) comedy again. Who knows. We'll have to wait and see on this one.

WHAT NEXT? DEPT.—We've already got videos that tell you how to avoid a traffic ticket, how to tap dance, shoot a gun, travel to Italy and train your dog. We've got videos that tell you how to have a baby, for goodness sake. What next? What next indeed. How 'bout going shopping via video. It was only a matter of time. But seriously, a company called Walk Thru Productions of San Francisco has a video that'll take you browsing in a San Francisco shop called Fillamento (described as a "lifestyle" store). While the tape is only being marketed in the Bay Area at present, this is just the first. The company plans to go national with whole line of these things. The concept here is that shoppers can rent a video from the store of their choice, do their shopping at home, and order by mail. A sort of "video mail order", if you will. The idea belongs to Jim Hollenbeck, founder of Walk Thru Productions, who got excited about shopping while on a trip to Hong Kong. Boy howdy! Great idea, Jim. You can't be the first to have thought of this, but great idea anyway.

HOME VIDEO REVIEW: Belinda - MCA Home Video - $19.95 Let's face it, Belinda Carlisle has not yet graduated to superstar status. If this is news to you, then you'll love this semi-documentary hour-long tape from MCA Home Video. In it, you'll see Belinda, guitarist Charlotte Caffey and band rehearse and perform tunes from Belinda's new IRS lp, plus several Go-Go's songs, with interstitial "behind the scenes" footage and (very brief) interviews. The tape is called Belinda, but there's certainly enough of Charlotte here for a title change. In fact, she seems to do most of the talking, some of it for Carlisle, rather than about her. Others who show up in the tape include Carlisle's new hubby, various band members, and Andy Taylor, who joins Carlisle on a performance of "Mad About You" at L.A.'s Roxy (where all the live performances were shot). A weak, and not altogether becoming portrait of a singer who could well build up an alluring mystique if it weren't for videos like this. Gregory Dobrin

RELEASE BEAT

Warner Home Video in October comes The Best Of Dan Aykroyd, an 8-cassette set that features segments from his Saturday Night Live Days. Also from Broadway Home Video, the tape also includes appearances by Delaney Ramo, Chevy Chase, Jane Curtin, Shelly Duvall, Madeline Kahn, David Byrne, Garret Morris, Bill Murray, Laraine Newman and, of course, Gilda Radner. Suggested retail is $24.95, VHS and Beta... From MCA Home Video for Halloween comes Freaks, a film so grotesque it was banned in Britain for thirty years! So says the publicity. Made in the 30's, the story is a travelling sideshow. Also from MGM/UA for Halloween comes The Night of the Living Dead and Theatre of Blood. All three releases retail for $59.95, Beta and VHS. Paramount Video releases the Sean Penn, Christopher Walken suspense film Close Range in late October. Suggested retail is $79.95, VHS and Beta.

RD WORLD NEWS—A lot of things are going on at Record World/Elroy Enterprises these days. This past spring, Record World's president, Roy Imber, was elected president of the National Association of Recording Merchandisers. Last week it was announced that Tim Olphie has been appointed to the new position of public relations manager. According to Record World, the appointment was made to "bring public awareness and music attention to Record World and Record Shops at TSS Seedman." Olphie's responsibilities will include press releases, in-store promotion, cross marketing campaign, new artist development as well as press and publicity for Record World's 70 stores. Olphie has been with Record World for four years. Beginning immediately, all press inquiries, public relations concerns should be directed to Olphie at 516-621-2500. The heels of this announcement are the additional announcement that Record World and The Record at TSS Seedman's will be holding their second annual convention September 28-October 1 at The Americana Host Resort in Lancaster, PA. And wait... there's more! Record World has completed a cash deal in which they purchased three Record & Tape Collectors stores in the Baltimore, MD area. The transaction was finalized August 14, and while the Record & Tape Collectors stores are officially Record World stores, the sign changes have yet to be made. According to Olphie, the change is to be imminent.

AUTOGRAPHS FOR MDS—Kansas City, MO retailer Autographs Records & Tapes, which is located in Crown Center shopping mall, went back to the sixties over Labor Day. Crown Center ran a "Back To The '60s" Labor Day Weekend promotion and the people at Autographs went all out to participate in the event as well as help out a deserving charity. Autographs sponsored "Your '60s Hit Parade & Benefit Auction" Saturday, August 30. To kick off the festivities, Autographs had a "Name That '60s Tune" contest at 3pm. Prizes were awarded to those who most quickly identified the selected songs. Master of ceremonies for the event was Mike White of KCFX-FM, who hosts that station's popular "PM Drive" show featuring such classic segments as "Motown 5 at 5" and "Beatlemania." At 4pm, an auction benefitting the Muscular Dystrophy Association began. Albums autographed by 75 recording artists were sold to highest bidders. Artists included Bryan Adams, The Beach Boys, Pat Benatar, Chubby Checker, Neil Diamond, Kenny Loggins, John Cougar Mellencamp, Tom Petty, The Pointer Sisters, Tina Turner, Van Halen, and ZZ Top.

Olphie

Autographs seems to be finishing up their first year of business—they opened on the second floor of Crown Center just last fall—in the same novel, good-time way they opened. They are the store with a Wall Of Fame that features stars' autographs and a great art-deco juke-box facsimile for an entrance. Connie Vitale owns the store.

HOLIDAYS ARE COMING—It's that time of year again. The all-important Christmas season is fast approaching—can that be possible?! Apparently so, and the steady stream of specials to dealers are coming as well.

American Gramophone has announced that Mannheim Steamroller's popular Christmas CD, which should turn gold this season, has been repackaged in a jewel box after mixed reviews of last year's test in the digipack. In response to the success of its "Digital Broadway" state-of-the-art CD, Manhattan Records will release "Digital Christmas," which includes 17 holiday standards. And finally, Maxell Corp. has designed a promotion to increase store traffic and boost blank tape sales during the fourth quarter called "Maxell-e-brate the Holidays." It begins in October and will run through December. Maxell will provide retailers with special holiday self-merchandising shipper displays featuring an assortment of Maxell video and audio cassettes. The promotion provides consumers with a free holidaygift box, dispensed from a sleeve of the display, with the purchase of either UDS or XL Maxell audio cassettes or standard and high grade Maxell video cassettes.

CLASSICAL REVIEWS

DANIEL CHORZEMPA—Wagner-Gigout-Rheinberger-Vierne-Boëllmann Works For Organ—Philips 416 159—Producer: Not Listed—List:9.98—Bar Coded

The great 18,000-pipe organ in the chapel of West Point is richly recorded in this album of works by Wagner (transcriptions of symphonic pieces), Gigout, Rheinberger and Boëllmann. Chapel organist Chorzempa is generous in his use of the instrument's tonal colors, especially the rich orchestral sounds and the moving bass.

LUCIANO PAVAROTTI—Anniversary—London 417 362—Producer: not listed—List:9.98, CD 15.98—Bar Coded

The "Anniversary" CD! The greatest voice of the last quarter century captured on the greatest medium this century. The combination is stunning as Pavarotti recaps 25 years in opera with excerpts of roles he has single-handedly redefined. Lovers of the Italian opera cannot afford to miss Pavarotti's loving performances of his favorite composers, including Puccini, Verdi and others.

JAMES GALWAY-MARISA ROBLES-THE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA OF EUROPE—Claire De Lune-Music Of Debussy—RCA Red Seal RCD1-7173—Producer:Ralph Mace—List:9.98, CD 15.98—Bar Coded

Popular flutist Galway in a pleasing collection of Debussy's lush and romantic music. The digital CD is superb. The tone is populist and the record should have broad appeal, particularly to "new age" listeners seeking a beautiful alternative in the classics.

CAPITOL SIGNS FETCHIN BONES—Capitol Records has signed Fetchin Bones and will release the band's debut album for the label, "Bad Pumpkin" in October. The group is also headlining a club and college tour as well as opening for R.E.M. in larger venues. Pictured above at the signing are (l to r): Tom Whalley, Capitol's director of A&R; Danna Pentes, Fetchin Bones; Stephen Powers, manager of A&R, Capitol; Gary White, Fetchin Bones; Don Zimmermann, president of Capitol Records; Aaron Pitkin and Hope Nicholls, Fetchin Bones; and Don Grierson, Capitol's vice president of A&R.

The Rainmakers

MAXWELL'S, HOBOKEN, N.J.—Most of us spend our childhood carelessly revealing the things we try to cover up in adulthood. By age 21, our desire to be revelatory has been blunted by years getting laughed at and frowned on. By age 30, we approach things not with the intention of making waves, but with the hope of breaking even. We speak our minds but not our hearts, and reveal only those things that obscure something greater.

Enter Bob Walkenhorst, lead singer and songwriter for The Rainmakers. The man is not shy. Fortunately, he has never listened to people tell him that some things dare not be spoken. The bubbles from his libido float up into consciousness and out his Marshall amps without obstruction. Walkenhorst reminds us how we really feel about things, not the way we've been pressured into feeling.

In the gospel according to Walkenhorst, anything is fair game. He re-writes The Bible and The Constitution in Missouri plain-speak adding a dash of Mississippi mud and bayou darkness. He prances around stage like a corn-fed Jagger, arms outstretched like a drunken Ray Davies, balancing a top hat that wobbles like a creaky career. When Walkenhorst shouts "Father, Son, and Holy Cow!" before bouncing into "Let My People Go-Go" (from "The Rainmakers" LP/Mercury), there's something utterly, fascinatingly demonic about the guy and the music he makes.

Now, I don't want to spoil the party but this one's not without problems. Before singing "Government Cheese," for example, Walkenhorst said, "I get a lot of shit for singing this one." I've seen him play it twice and both times the audience clapped along mindlessly, not even listening to the ostensibly controversial lyrics. At first listen, "Government..." sounds like satire in the manner of Elton John's "Texas Love Song." But it doesn't take long to realize that this Missourian takes his lyrics quite literally. The literal quality of his vocals and lyrics is both The Rainmakers's strength and weakness, and the new songs the quartet played at Maxwell's August 30 indicate that it's more of the former than the latter.

The one hour and fifteen minute set was full of highlights: the spiraling guitar-work of "Doomsville," the metronomic "Nobody Knows," the brilliant descending guitar figure in "The One That Got Away," the bald irony of "Drinkin' On The Job," and the eccentricity of "Information." But many new, unrecorded songs had even greater power than the recorded material. The best new ones were the semi-acoustic "My Days Are Numbered" and the loose-tongued rocker "The Wages Of Sin," with its catchy chorus: "The wages of sin are two bucks an hour and working weekends." The small Maxwell's crowd delighted in the liberating quality of Walkenhorst's uninhibitedness. And all around, sacred cows lay punctured and dying in the heat of this fierce fire sermon.

Yellow Jackets/ David Benoit

THE BEVERLY THEATRE, L.A.—MCA's the Yellow Jackets presented jazz fusion at its best during their recent show here, and anyone who is not aware of the musical abilities of these band members, does not know what he is missing.

Special guest David Benoit and his band opened the show. In spite of some frustrating technical difficulties, such as not being able to hear themselves due to faulty stage monitoring, they managed to present a fine set thanks to Benoit's wonderfully passionate keyboard style and to his band's response to that passion. Their set contained a couple of highlights, one being a very unique contemporary version of the tune "Linus and Lucy" from Vince Scaraldi's soundtrack "Peanuts". It incorporated a dynamite sax solo, among various other effervescent musical moments. Something very interesting to note was that the saxophonist was reading music throughout the majority of the set. We later found out that Benoit's regular sax player had a last minute cancellation, and that they were lucky to find horn player Gary Herbie to sit in. My hats off to Gary who, by reading the actual sheet music for the entire Benoit set, reminds us of the enormous discipline involved in musicianship. A highlight in the hour was "Sunset Island" off the latest LP "This Side Up". Bravo Benoit, who with the help of Bob Feldman on Bass, Tony Morallis on Drums and Gary Herbie on horns and woodwinds, received a standing ovation.

On with the show. A long intermission kept us waiting, but it was well worth the wait. The Yellow Jackets burst their set wide open right from the start with screaming, high energy, uptempo music that nearly blew us right out of our seats. And after their opener, the group made the audience feel very welcome as they went on to announce their next song, "And You Know That" off their newest LP, "Shades" which is also available on Cassette and Compact Disc, (the CD includes two extra songs).

They went on to play some songs off the "Shades" LP, including the title cut. Drummer Ricky Lawson slipped on his dark glasses just for the occasion. We were also lucky enough to hear a beautiful unrecorded song which keyboardist Russell Ferante called a "Song For L.A.," and a special rendition of "I've Got Rhythm" which was so well developed with originality, that it took a while to recognize it. All well done, and especially exciting to watch.

However, nothing could top the on-stage entertainment exhibited by drummer Ricky Lawson during "Samurai Samba". Right in the middle of the tune he began to play the drums with a towel in place of his sticks. The effect was definitely unique and the audience went crazy for it.

I was also very impressed with saxophonist Marc Russo's soloing abilities and in speaking with him after the show, I was pleasantly surprised to find him quite humble. Bass player Jimmy Haslip also exhibited extraordinary style. In fact, there were some very exciting bass solo's during the night, one of which happened to be doubled on the sax and later harmonized for an untraditional and refreshing twist.

Well, talk about impression. This band will knock your socks off. Tight and talented, The Yellow Jackets definitely have what it takes. Their musical ability, their group sound as a whole, and their personalities all combine into that perfect combination which we listeners deem indispensable. Each one of these players is a virtuoso in his own right, had plenty of opportunities to prove it during the night, and did.

Billy Ocean

UNIVERSAL AMPHITH

L.A.—Billy Ocean, backed up piece band, gave a compelling performance recently at the Universal Amphitheatre. Following the recent trend in shows without costly special effects or elaborate stage show, Billy relied on the talent that have propelled him to his '80 status, Great Vocals and Great Songs. The band included Damon Rente on S, Vic Linton on guitar, Paul Bruce on Tony Maronie on percussion, Rich on drums, Godfrey Wong and Paul on keyboards. Backup vocals were supplied by P. P. Arnold and Mary Cass. Ocean pranced, danced and romanced the audience with hits from his two Platina Arista albums. Especially noteworthy were "Caribbean Queen", "Loveboy", "Sad Song", "Love Zone", "Sad Song", "Cover of the Lennon/McCartney classic "Long And Winding Road" which as a soulful duet with P. P. Arnold was a moving moment. They sent chills down your spine with sweet harmony. Ocean invited the audience to come to the beach, we were instantly whisked away to a tropical environment where life is to it's fullest. It didn't matter that the drums were reproduced courtesy of synthesizers, it was an honest expression of warmth and humbleness to his audience. After every song and each time he bowed after every song and each time he bowed with his British/West Coast accent. With the opening chords of "Night" he seemed to have the right in the palm of his hands, David Rente played the eerie organ melody to "Caribbean Queen" and was on its feet dancing. A particularly fine guitar solo was performed by Paul on this song and also "Long And Winding Road" showing the band's roots music much broader than anticipated. Ocean closed with "When the Going Gets Tough Get Going". One can only hope what's ahead for this British Vice Superstar, stay tuned.

FEATURE PICKS

WAYLON JENNINGS (MCA 52915) What You'll Do When I'm Gone (Larry Butler/Blackwood—BMI) (L. Butler) (Producers: J. Bowen, W. Jennings)

A nice return to acoustics for Waymore, yet subtle touches of flute and strings snap ears to attention.

THE KENDALLS (MCA 52933) Fire at First Sight (2:21) (Hall-Clement) (T. Skinner, J.L. Wallace) (Producers: T. Skinner, J.L. Wallace)

No surprises in the Kendall combo of word play and harmony; but as the it works, don't fix it.

ALABAMA (RCA 5003-7-/RAA) Touch Me When We're Dancing (3:33) (Clement—BMI) (T. Skinner, J.L. Wallace, K. Bell) (Producer: H. Shedd, Alabama)

Well, it's an Alabama release and it's pleasant to listen to, so it'll dance on charts.

CON HUNLEY (Capitol B-5631) Quittin' Time (2:28) (Tree/Cross Key Group—BMI/ASCAP) (Hellard, Garvin, Jones) (Producer: K. Lenning)

Jerry Lee step back, Con's rockin' out with piano licks and brass riffs.

B.J. THOMAS (Columbia 38-06314) Night Life (3:43) (Tree/Gladstone) (W. Nelson, P. Buskirk, W. Breeland) (Producers: S. Buckingham)

That Thomas voice sounds good on Willie's classic.

ALBUM RELEASES

PLAIN BROWN WRAPPER—Gary Morris—(Warner Bros. 1-25438)—Producers: G. Morris, B. Albertine, S. Small

Some good tunes get Morrisized on this one: "Honeycomb," "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry" and "Ain't Got Nothin' But the Blues" are standouts. Alongside these classics are some beautiful ballads such as "Better Than The New" and "Leave Me lonely" that showcase Morris' range and vocal control.

LOOKIN' AT YOU—Jerry Reed (Capitol ST-12492)—Producers: Young

From "Life Is A Beach" to "More Reason To Hate California" one is chock full of Reedy humor rounded by Tijuana-flavored wit. Then Jerry crosses the border into swing as for a swing tune with great horns called "You Can't Get The Hell Out of Texas." The serious tunes have oomph as well; especially nice are titled "What Made Me Believe in Live Without You" and the classic waltz of "Old Fashioned Love."

INDIE SPOTLIGHT

JULI MANERS (RMI RM110) Thank Heaven For Angels (3:32) (Randall-BMI) (E. Adams) (Producer: J. Burnett)

She's new to Nashville, but not new to making beautiful sounds with her voice box, with shots on "Nashville Now," "I-40 Paradise," "Tennessee Ernie Ford's America," as well as assorted jingles and stuff already to her credits. The song may be a bit so-so, but the lady still takes the blue ribbon this week, regardless.

INDIE FEATURE PICKS

RON HOLMES (Fawn F-706 A) Take A Chance on Love (2:52) (Sawgrass/Sabal—ASCAP) (R. Holmes, J. Black)

Nothing fancy, just a well-put-together song with a nice, smooth delivery.

JAMES ED HORN (CBT 1157 A) Thinkin Bout You (3:15) (Rocky Comfort—BMI) (J. Abbott, J.E. Horn) (Producer: J. Abbott)

Catchy tune and vocals with a different quality.

DAVE PLUMMER (Cypress CYP 8512) Waiting On You (2:46) (Big Cypress—BMI) (F. Russ, G. Barnhill, D. Plummer) (Producers: D. Plummer, D. Lombar, B. Witte)

South of the border flavor on a strong cut with equally strong vocals.

LaDONNA (Hilton HR 2011) I'm Not For Countin' Out (The Outlaws) (2:25) (Donel/Fargo-Hilton—BMI) (L. Andre) (Producer: T. Hill)

Powerful voice on an upbeat cowboy/outlaw song.

INDIE LP REVIEWS

TIMELESS STORY—J.C. Filasky—(Rumpelstiltskin RRLP 1301-A)—Producers: E. Roth-pearl, C. Cassone

Want a pleasant surprise? Try this collection of mostly self-penned tunes by Filasky. His smooth, clean vocals sail through some seafaring ballads and toss up a couple of catchy humorous cuts. A few of the lyrics could be tighter, but by and large this is a very enjoyable LP.

COUNTRY MUSIC STAR HOYT AXTON—will join Michael Murphey, John Hartford, J.D. Crowe & The New South and the Wamble Mountain Ramblers at the second annual Southern Harvest Bluegrass & Country Festival September 20 in Carbondale, Ill. The eight-hour festival is co-sponsored by Busch beer.

GOSPEL

Gospel Music—Weighing Our Opportunities

by Bill Traylor

In 1978 I became part of this industry we call Gospel Music. It was a very interesting and most certainly new association for me. My exposure to the business world, up to that point, had been in the secular arena for a large, publicly held utility company. During the six years after college spent with this large conglomerate, the business world became very real to me. Every decision was based on the financial impact of the expenditure, and the return on investment opportunity provided by that expenditure. Upon entering the gospel music industry, my eyes were closed to the element that is vitally important to the success and health of any business; profit! It took some time for me to realize that the decisions that were being made (not only around me but outside of my own particular environment in this industry) were based on creative aggressiveness rather than filling the consumer need. I felt that need was staring us in the face. It became very apparent that our industry as we know it (being the defined parameters that we have placed on it within the evangelical community) was not growing to any great degree. We were only reaching a small percentage of our potential market.

The challenge to each of us involved in the gospel music industry is to carry the message that our music talks about: the life saving and life changing power of Jesus Christ to the world. Currently, we are touching just a small percentage of this challenge. Our job is immense. From a business perspective, the opportunity is staggering. Our entire industry exists on a very small portion of what our market potential actually is. I feel that should be the challenge of every individual involved with the creation of gospel music; to face this opportunity straight ahead and understand that we have the ability to grow and grow dramatically.

The opportunity/challenge is to place our product in front of the additional 92% of the market that we currently are not reaching. It is my opinion that the strides that such artists as Sandi Patti and Amy Grant have made in recent months will expand our opportunity of sales and statement of purpose to a much larger market. As industry people, and as people concerned about the world in general, understanding that we have a product that can draw them closer to Christ, we must expand the horizon of our opportunity and place our recorded and printed product in front of every person humanly possible. The Christian Booksellers Association marketplace must be commended for the job that they have done exposing gospel music to their customers. The vision that many store owners across the country have had has certainly allowed our industry to grow dramatically. However, the challenge and the opportunity is so much greater than previous experiences that we must be busy meeting that challenge. Gospel recordings must be made available to anyone and everyone who has an interest in the product contained within the attractive packaging. Placing the records "where America shops" is of the utmost importance.

The excitement is that various companies within our industry have aligned themselves with large secular record conglomerates for distribution of recorded gospel product to the larger marketplace. This is truly a new opportunity. It allows us to place records in front of people who would not have walked into a CBA bookstore. And with that, our own boundaries have expanded. The next twelve months will be very critical to the expansion of our industry. The opportunity placed in front of us is one that we grab immediately and rush to the challenge to place music that speaks of Him in front of an entire world that needs to know.

LP REVIEWS

GEORGE BEVERLY SHEA AND FRIENDS—(Word 7-01-896010-X)—Producer: K. Kaiser

Anyone familiar with Billy Graham's crusades knows this saintly singer, George Beverly Shea. His voice rings out deeply, conveying his beliefs. He truly seems to love his communion with the Lord, and that is evident all over this LP. Many "friends" join him in singing—Amy Grant, Sandi Patti and the Gaithers, to name a few. A record definitely worth adding to your collection for sweet comfort.

FALLEN SPLENDOR—Jeff Johnson—(ARK AKR5475)—Producers: J. Johnson and S. Simpson

Has a song (let alone an album) ever reminded you of high school English class when you studied C.S. Lewis? Enter Jeff Johnson, an independent writer/musician/producer/engineer out of Oregon. His words are pure poetry, his music pure art. He spends most of his time recording on his own label, Ark records, now distributed by Sparrow. This is a concept album based around the theme song, "Fallen Splendor." For those interested in upgrading cultural arts—not to mention spiritual horizons—listen!

ISRAEL'S HOPE—(Word SPCN-7-100-18482-7)—Producers: B. Kauflin and Israel's Hope

The Old Testament is brought to song here. "Israel's Hope" uses conviction and energetic harmonies to convey their message: faith in the Lord is a cause for celebration! Especially nice are their renditions of Psalm 23 ("The Lord Is My Shepherd") and Psalm 84 ("Blessed Is The Man.") Very encouraging and worship-filled.

Both have created a "demand exceeding supply" situation already. The Atari 'Gauntlet II' just started arriving and within a few weeks they're expecting the new 'Championship Sprint' (conversion for 'Paper Boy'), which is a 2-player Super Sprint. Ira will be heading out to Las Vegas on Sept. 18 for the official unveiling of 'Night Stocker' at the Sente distribs meeting—and he's enthusiastic about this piece. "Every manufacturer I can think of has something exciting," he told us, which lends credence to what we've been hearing lately about the revitalization of the coin-op marketplace on both the jukebox and games levels. There's lots of great stuff coming out. Another point Ira made was—how sweet it is for distribs to receive new equipment with time enough for hands on testing before placing their volume orders with the manufacturers.

Attention jukebox ops. Gus Tartol of Singer One Stop For Ops is all excited about the new Juice Newton single "Cheap Love" on RCA. "It has a Beach Boys sound to it and is tailor-made for pop as well as country locations," he said—and is a must for jukebox programming.

The O.C.M.A. (Ohio state ops assn.) Valley Pool League Committee has put the wheels in motion for the 1986-87 season. League play begins in mid-September or early October with a minimum of 21 weeks of competition for eligibility to compete in state and national playoffs. For further info contact league president Lewie Hageman at A. Van Brackel & Sons, 1301 Ottawa Ave., Defiance, OH 43512.

From the local papers. Illinois has joined nine other states (Missouri, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Iowa, New Hampshire, New York, Oregon, West Virginia and Washington) and the District of Columbia in support of a multi-state lottery which is targeted to begin in October of 1987. Although at this point the Illinois state lottery has already had a jackpot in excess of $40 million, the new combined effort will produce multi-million dollar prizes!

Amusement Players Association Formed

CHICAGO—A group of top video game players from the U.S. National Video Game Team have formed the Amusement Players Association (APA) to help better serve the coin-op industry in the area of communication between players and those who make, distribute and operate amusement equipment.

This link will be established through a variety of methods, including competitions and tournaments on the local, state and national levels and through special APA publications specifically geared to the coin-op game player.

The "Tournament Of Champions" series will provide members of the APA with competitive play on the latest coin-op releases. The contests will include the upcoming "Player of the Year" competition and the "Video Game Master Tournament." Both events have been used to supply the editors of the Guinness Book Of World Records with the necessary information needed to update their annual listings.

The APA also has plans to publish a twelve-page newsletter for circulation to its members on a quarterly basis. It will be called Top Score and the contents will include in-depth coverage of the latest industry trends and game releases along with other feature material relating to the coin-op amusement industry.

Also in the works is a video game and pinball high score poster designed for both arcade and street operators. The APA "International Scoreboard" will supply operators with a variety of incentives to attract game players to their locations. Players will record their top scores and submit them, along with verification from a location manager or other reliable witness, to the APA for publication in the Top Score newsletter, the APA International Scoreboard Poster and other industry publications.

"I feel that the introduction of the Amusement Players Association will prove beneficial to all facets of the coin-op amusement industry," stated Steve Harris, president of APA. "We are providing manufacturers, distributors and operators with new options for attracting player interest, as well as supplying the industry with additional positive media attention to help further reinforce the entertainment value of coin-op amusement products."

Perry Rodgers, APA director and Top Score editor, concurs, emphasizing the numerous benefits that APA members receive. "Players who join the APA not only get free subscriptions to Top Score but they are also entitled to attend competitions and utilize all the services the APA offers. The five dollar membership fee is a bargain."

"Membership in APA is very reasonable," added Harris. "We currently have approximately 1,800 members and we hope to double that figure by the end of the year. We're all very excited about APA's potential."

Further information about the new association may be obtained by contacting APA at P.O. Box 1558, Torrance, California 90505.

'The Jukebox' Calendar For 1987

CHICAGO—Everyone is talking about jukeboxes these days, especially within the coin-op trade where innovation and new adaptations on the part of American phonograph manufacturers have been instilling a renewed enthusiasm for this popular tradition.

So here comes "The Jukebox-1987" calendar, only the focus here is on models of the past. The selection of jukeboxes pictured in this calendar represent some of the finest examples of jukebox design from the years 1937 through 1948. Included are the Wurlitzer 850, the Seeburg 9800, the Rock-Ola 1426, the A.M.I. model A - the list goes on from January through December and the inside back cover contains an interesting historic analysis of the jukebox.

Produced by Zephyr Press of Berkeley, California, The Jukebox calendar measures 10" x 13", is in full color with black background and is priced at $8.95 per copy plus $1.50 for shipping.

COIN MACHINE

It's A Brand New Game: Gauntlet II

Featuring over 100 new mazes, more monsters and unique player objectives, Gauntlet II also incorporates the proven play appeal and multi-player, add-a-coin and buy-in features that made the original Gauntlet a success. Gauntlet II is available in both the four-player and two-player whole game configurations and as a kit to convert existing four-player and two-player Gauntlet games.

In addition to more than 100 new maze designs, many randomizing features have been included on Gauntlet II to further diversify the game play. There are also several new features, monsters, potions and hidden strategies to be found in each maze. Players can also choose any of the four original Gauntlet characters from each position of the game.

"In our test locations where we have converted Gauntlet games that have been out for six months or more, Gauntlet II has brought earnings back up to the level of Gauntlet when it was originally installed," states Mary Fujihara, director of marketing for Atari. "The performance of Gauntlet II is better than a typical conversion kit, it's like installing a brand new game."

Each of the 100 new mazes can be seen in a multitude of different ways using random elements such as horizontal and vertical reflection, deletable walls, alternative starting places in the same maze, random food and potion placement, randomly arranged traps, extra speed on monsters and various patterns for monster behavior.

The player is given the opportunity to make more tactical decisions as Gauntlet II provides more unique game play situations and features. New features include secret rooms, moveable walls, secret destructible walls, invisible walls, closed treasure chests that could contain something good or something bad, exits that close and reopen, fake exits, walls that move in a cyclical pattern, stun tiles, multiple traps, invisible trap walls, local traps, force fields, poisoned food and poisoned potions.

All of the original Gauntlet opponents remain with the addition of many new creatures. Among the newest adversaries are Super Thief, Super Sorcerer, the Acid Puddle, the IT creature, the Muggler and the Dragon. The fire-breathing Dragon, in particular, adds a whole new dimension to the game. Players will find that cooperation is the best strategy to overcome the Dragon and obtain the treasure and permanent potions that he protects. By defeating the Dragon, players will also be given special game play hints that will help them to find a secret room.

In addition to all of the original potions, players will find several new potions to collect. Invulnerability, repulsiveness, reflective shots, super shots, and transportability number among the new special temporary abilities. Experience will tell the player which potions provide the greatest advantage; some potions may not be beneficial depending on the game play situation.

On Gauntlet II, a player can now choose his or her favorite original Gauntlet character even if that character is already in play. The four characters are color coded so there can be as many as four Warriors (or any of each of the four original characters) in play at the same time. For instance, if four Warriors are in play, one will be red, another blue, another yellow and the remaining one would be green.

All Gauntlet II games and kits shipped within the United States and Canada will also include a special contest feature, the Gauntlet II Player Quest. By finding a secret room and performing a specified task, players will be able to enter a drawing sponsored by Atari Games. Over $12,000 in prizes will be given away in the contest. All Gauntlet II games and kits shipped within the United States and Canada will include all of the contest materials necessary. The contest package contains a poster for the location to announce the player Quest competition, a contest marquee to be placed on top of the Gauntlet II game and 25 official entry forms. Player entries must be postmarked no later than December 19, 1986.

Gauntlet II kits contain a full set of EPROMs, a new attract decal, a new control panel decal, overhead display sign and replacement switches for the existing joysticks.

Seeburg

coming and what our needs will be. Their response has been good and they are excited about the possibilities our system holds."

As he pointed out, "A CD has the capability of holding approximately 72 minutes of pre-recorded music. However, most CD's presently available do not take advantage of this fact, which presents other areas for custom packaging. We have contacted several licensing and manufacturing companies to discuss putting together various theme CD's, such as Latin, oldies, greatest hits collections, etc.

"We have put together our initial catalog which contains approximately three hundred titles. We felt this was what was needed to provide operators with a good initial assortment for any location in which they will be placing their initial machines."

Guler said the Seeburg distributing firm has been receiving shipments of CD's in its warehouse and is in a position to offer immediate delivery.

The "readability" of song titles is another area he addressed. "Some of the CD covers are either not numbered or arranged in such a way as to make title selection difficult," he noted. "As an immediate solution we are going to produce stickers that will go on the package to provide easy selection but as a long range solution we will be working with the CD manufacturers towards improving the readability of their packages," he added.

Guler also advised operators that many compact disc releases have started shipping at the same time or within a couple of weeks of their LP and cassette counterparts.

The main objective of Seeburg Compact Disc Distributing is to provide quick, easy access to compact discs for their distributors and operators. They expect to be able to ship within 24 hours or 48 hours at the most.

World Wide Dist. Hosts Showing Of Seeburg 'Laser Music System'

By Camille Compasio

CHICAGO—Operators from Chicago and the surrounding suburban areas got their first official view of the Seeburg 'Laser Music System' compact disc jukebox on Thursday evening, Aug. 21, at a special regional showing sponsored by World Wide Distributors. The distributor organization is a long time member of the Seeburg distribution network, going back more than four decades, and this event ranks among their most memorable.

World Wide president Fred Skor told Cash Box he was "elated" by the turnout and the enthusiasm displayed by operators after they saw the machine. There were 250 operators in attendance and, by current standards, this is an impressive figure for such a function, however, it was not based on the advance response received by World Wide.

The showing was held at the Como Inn Restaurant, near downtown Chicago, where a Laser Music System model was installed for the occasion. It was kept covered until presentation time but the speakers allowed guests to hear the outstanding compact disc sound as they were cocktails and hors d' oeuvres.

The program was similar to the one presented by Seeburg at its June 1986 meeting when the compact disc jukebox was initially unveiled. A representative of Sony (the model employs the same mechanism) along with members of Seeburg executive team, including Bob Hindman, executive vice president of Seeburg and marketing director Bob went over the full particulars of the Laser Music System and talked about the reorganization of Seeburg in the short time.

All during the presentation operators sensed the curiosity and impatience of operators who were anxious to see the machine. When it was unveiled, operators applauded, but did not immediately get out of their seats for a closer look. They went over to Fred Skor and placed orders!

Taito's New Renegade Kit

CHICAGO—"Renegade" pulls out all the stops when it comes to engaging street-smart skills," said Paul Moriarity, president of Taito America Corp., in announcing the new kit. "Finally, there's a game that pits the players' natural instincts against a rough gang of hoodlums!"

In the play process, using the instincts Moriarity referred to, the player must drive the offending gang from power. Maneuvering the controls, he can make right, left or collar-grasp attacks against individual gang members, plus jump, jump-kick retreat—and more as the action thickens. The player can also quickly clear a stage of the game by defeating the gang boss within a thrill-packed period. As all of this is taking place, the player progresses through the streets, countering the foes in the subway side and in the streets.

Renegade is a deluxe kit and includes a horizontal raster monitor, control panel, PC board, control panel cover, plexiglass, marquee, harness, instructions, control station, FCC cage, PCB mounting and joystick.

Further information may be obtained through factory distributors or by contacting Taito America at 660 Wheeling, IL 60090.

Vending Testimonial To Honor NAMA's Richard Schreiber

CHICAGO—A testimonial dinner honoring G. Richard Schreiber, president of the National Automatic Merchandising Association will highlight the establishment of the G. Richard Schreiber Department of Humanities at St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer, Indiana. The event will take place on October 22 in the Guildhall of Chicago's Ambassador Hotel.

Leaders and members of the vending and foodservice industry are organizing the tribute to Schreiber on the eve of the 50th anniversary convention of NAMA, according to William F. Courtney, chairman of the Schreiber Tribute Committee. William S. Fishman, co-founder and long-time chief executive of ARA Services, and James T. McGuire, vice chairman and former chief executive of Canteen Corporation, are co-chairmen.

"Dick Schreiber is the 'first citizen' of the vending and foodservice contracting industry," noted Courtney. "He has served as the chief executive of NAMA with great distinction since 1970 and ever since he became the founding editor of VEND magazine in 1946, he has been in the forefront of leading our industry. We are proud of his accomplishments and contributions. It is an honor to have him as a member of the industry and to have him volunteer to assist in this testimonial."

Courtney, who is president of the Youngstown (Ohio), is a member of the industry are being invited to participate and to contribute to a $250,000 endowment fund for the development in the humanities at St. Joseph's College in honor of Schreiber.

Schreiber is a graduate of the College and has served on its Board of Trustees since 1964. During six of those years he served as board chairman.

St. Joseph's College is recognized as a national leader, including U.S. News & World Report, as one of the three finest programs of education in the United States.

Invitations and a fund raising brochure have been issued to individuals and throughout the vending industry.
