We received a note from an artist in the British West Indies who informed us that Country Music is gaining popularity among people in the Caribbean. George Nowak writes about a "Semiannual Country Music Show" that takes place in the Cayman Islands. The last one was held two months ago and featured Jim Vest, leader of the "Nashville Cats" as special guest. The most interesting thing is Country's penetration into the West Indies. Since it's indigenous to the U.S., we often forget the fact that it's enjoyed in many other parts of the world.
 Paycheck's TAKE THIS JOB AND SHOVE IT provided impetus for a number of great contests. A guy who ripens bananas for a living won WFMS-Indianapolis' contest and was compensated with a full day's pay. KIKX-Tucson's ...SHOVE IT contest gave listeners the chance to tell their employers such--on the air. Only first names were used. Everyone got a copy of the album.
 WKKN-Rockford gave listeners a chance all last weekend to win the "Album They Didn't Get for Christmas."
 During the Oak Ridge Boys' one week engagement at the Gold Buffet in Kansas City, WDAF's Ted Cramer cajoled them into completing four in-store autograph sessions. The art of persuasion. WJVA-South Bend ran a countdown December 31st of our Top 100 singles for 1977, giving away a copy of each. They tell us it got "incredible response" and that's nice to know.
 Congratulations to Jim Howie, WIRK-West Palm Beach and best wishes to Cheryl--they were married Christmas Eve.

Bill's Holiday Diary

- Tuesday, 12/20. Loaded up the little Audi with Christmas goodies. Filled the trunk and back seat. Arranged for neighbor-girl to feed cat. Headed north on Highway 101. Turned on radio and heard about gale winds in San Diego and Bakersfield. Nothing like that up here - just a few strong gusts now and then. Arrived Janie's house in Trinidad about 4PM. Delicious fresh crab legs for dinner. Wind now much stronger - howling. Lights went out. Turned on transistor radio. Storm bulletins reported power outages all throughout Humboldt County. Both KRED-Eureka and KATA-Arcata doing great jobs in covering storm news.
- Wednesday, 12/21. Power still out. No coffee for breakfast. Radio news reported problems of dairymen with large herds and no power for their milking machines. Smaller dairies doing the milking by hand. Power company loading small generators on trucks, furnishing hardship homes with emergency power to keep freezers going. Windstorm passed on but highways reported blocked with fallen trees. Afternoon: Lights came back on. Hooray!
- Thursday, 12/22. Radio reports highway 101 open to the north. Headed for Crescent City and then up the Oregon Coast, a magnificent scenic panorama - much of it protected from commercial development by being held as state parks. Stopped overnight in Waldport.
- Friday, 12/23. Left coast at Newport; took highway 20 through Corvallis and Albany, then headed for Scio. Got to the White's farm in time for lunch. Then on to the Samples' big old Victorian house in Scio (population 503) for dinner. Lighted the traditional candle in the white birch Yule log that Dr. Breed had sent to Janet and me from Wisconsin over thirty years ago.
- Saturday, 12/24. Three small boys and Grandpa, walking down to the local grocery store - and back again in the rain. The warmth of a fireplace. Fine music on FM from the PBS station in Portland. Played the Christmas album by the Singers Unlimited, finest vocal group in the nation with superb arrangements by Gene Puerling. Three small boys, each opening "just one package" from under the tree before they went to bed. The joy and comfort of being part of a loving family.
- Sunday, 12/25. Awoke early. Heard someone in living room. Santa? Peeked out. Three boys, collecting the goodies from their Christmas stockings. Opening packages after breakfast. Many wrappings decorated with the art work of three grandsons. Lots of things for my new house. Drove over to the Whites, where they were just starting to open their presents. All gathered around the big stone fireplace. Hot buttered rum. Special surprise: a thick black sheepskin, for the floor beside my bed - wonderful comfort for bare feet on a cold morning.
- Monday, 12/26. Ethan (6 years old) and I drove out to the old covered bridge on the road to Crabtree. Annie says all Oregon covered bridges are slated to be torn down - too expensive to maintain. So I had my camera to preserve a picture for posterity. Came back to Sally's and watched football.
- Tuesday, 12/27. Annie and I drove in to Albany. Explored some stores - looked at furniture. Visited Mike Edwards, architect for my new house. Looked at drawings and plans. Approved retaining a landscaping outfit to submit plans for the grounds around my house.
- Wednesday, 12/28. Eric's 11th birthday. Drove to Portland (75 miles) with Ann, Dick, their three boys, plus two of their friends. Visited the KEX studios, where Eric Norberg and Bob Swanson showed us around and explained things to five very wide-eyed boys. Got some good ideas from Eric for sound equipment in my new house. Dinner at a nice restaurant. Then back home to Scio.
- Thursday, 12/29. Up early - 6AM - Boys got up to tell Grandpa goodbye - then went back to bed. Took off at 7. Marvelous scenery along the Umpqua River to Reedsport. South on 101 went through some of the heaviest rain squalls I'd ever been in. Reached the Shanks house by 4PM, where Rion (4 years old) proudly showed me all his presents.
- Friday, 12/30. South on 101 headed for Mill Valley. Saw many slides south of Garberville (Pot City, U.S.A.) which still blocked off part of the highway. Home about 3PM. Fed the cat. Went thru the piled up mail. Caught up on all the newspaper comics that I'd missed. Fixed a martini. Cooked a frozen pizza. Early to bed.
- Saturday, 12/31. Drove to S.F. Took S.P. commute train to Stanford Stadium. Met Betty & Rod Hollars. Went with them to Shrine East-West Game. Exciting, colorful pageantry, including Mexico's Ballet Folklorico. Spent a relaxed, quiet New Year's Eve with Betty and Rod at their San Jose home. Enjoyed holding little Kiersten and Deidre on my lap.
- Sunday, 1/1. Back to S.F. on the train. Turned on car radio to Oakland-Denver game. Caught the second half on TV. (That really was a Denver fumble at the goal line.) Then watched Dallas take Minnesota.
- Monday, 1/2. Thought CBS coverage of Pasadena parade had edge over NBC - but both excellent. Couldn't believe what happened to Texas Longhorns. Delighted with Washington Huskies. Amazed at the Arkansas "Hogs" doing so well after losing three top players. Bleary eyed from too much TV football. And so to bed.

Gavin's Gab

Think Snow

For those of you complaining about mounds of snow these days--(9 feet in Aberdeen, S.D.)--try skiing. Now, KREM-AM-Spokane, Wash., has the right idea. They're sponsoring an all-day "Snowbust at Schweitzer Basin" January 8, that offers free skiing to listeners. Jim Hill tells us there will be exhibition and free form skiing, instruction, and contests to win a trip to Hawaii or the use of two new sports cars for a year. January 8 is Elvis Presley's birthday so KREM-AM is running a 13-hour Elvis special for listeners who can't make the Snowbust. Hot dogs and hound dogs.

The Shorties Cash-In

KASH-Eugene discovered December 21st was the shortest day of the year so they dubbed it Short People Day and ran a promotion that invited little listeners in to be measured. Winning categories included the shortest folks in each sex at different ages. Such prizes as short cake, a short coke (6oz.), a short order of fries, Tolkien's short stories and a short trip to the coast were given away. The guy who won the trip was named Tim Heidt (pronounced Hight)... Due to the controversy (?) about the record, some stations have polled their listeners to determine the irritation level. Dick Williams writes from KIST-Santa Barbara: "Following several complaints concerning SHORT PEOPLE, I ran a survey on the air. Results: 57 people for and three against. Seventy-five% said they were short people. We will not be taking SHORT PEOPLE off."

Encounters

The opening of the film "Close Encounters..." in some markets saw stations tying in their own promotions. KPUR-Amarillo's was "Close Encounters of the Winning Kind." They launched a cloud of Identified Flying Objects--helium balloons--and attached a tag asking listeners to call KPUR if found. Listeners as far as 175 miles away responded, writes Dan Wilson. They received albums and cash.

Year-End Changes

Our return to the office after two weeks of Holiday vacationing brought news of major programming changes. Bill Garcia, P.D. at 99X-New York has left the station and his replacement has not been named. Jimi Fox at KTNQ (10Q)-Los Angeles left and John Driscoll, 10Q air talent, is the new P.D. there. Johnny Thompson, after many years as P.D. at KERP-El Paso, resigned December 28. We hear he'll be programming a new FM in El Paso by mid-February. Bill Price is interim P.D. at KERP.

Golden West Broadcasting will commence operation of KQFM in Portland January 23, according to Eric Norberg, P.D. at KEX-Portland. Bill St. James from KBCQ-Roswell, New Mexico, is the new Program Administrator.

The recent book apparently made the New Year's celebration at WPEZ-Pittsburgh special. P.D. Beau Raines tells us they were very pleased with their ratings.

An even bigger celebration was held in San Diego at B-100(FM). P.D. Bobby Rich and his talented staff made exceptionally good audience gains in the recent book.

Music Calls: Lee Malcolm, WIRL-Peoria, 11 AM - 1 PM, Wednesday and Thursday.
Michael Stone, KMGK-Des Moines, 10 - 1 PM, Tuesdays, 515-247-4533.
Joe Ruiz, KLAR-Laredo, Monday - Friday, 1 - 2 PM.
John Greer, KEEE-Nacogdoches, 10 - 2 PM, Monday - Friday, 713-564-4444.

Lineup: KEEE-Nacogdoches, Texas: Kirk Williams, John Greer, Craig Jackson, Shaun Kasey, Scott Harris.

KHJ's New P.D.

"It's the biggest challenge of my life. The dream of a lifetime," said John Sebastian, the day before he flew to Los Angeles to take over the programming of KHJ. Named to the difficult post December 23, John began his duties the evening of December 30.

He's working with a great combination--enthusiasm and experience. "I'm going to take one of America's greatest radio stations, loaded with some of the best radio people in the country and fine tune it." A ten-year veteran of the industry, John, 28, leaves KDWB-Minneapolis, which has gained a healthy lead over contemporary stations in that market the three years he's been there. He started at KDWB as a jock under Buzz Bennett and moved to the P.D. position in his first year. He was an air talent at KRIZ-Phoenix and has programmed KPAM-Portland but his best experience, he tells us, came at KRUX-Phoenix under Todd Wallace in the early seventies.

About L.A. radio, John agrees, "There's so much competition there." With 35 AM stations and 47 FM's, the market is highly fragmented. Although John has confidence in KHJ's cume, ("It's still #1"), the station dropped in both cume and shares this book, while principal challengers KIIS-FM and KFI made major gains. KIIS-AM/FM, programmed since February 1977 by Rochelle Staab, who is fresh from Bartell's upper programming ranks, got strong teen shares on the FM. KFI under John Rook made major cume and share gains under age 35. With erstwhile challenger KTNQ (10Q) dropping in both cume and shares with KHJ, no clear teen leader appears visible in this book.

"I'm open enough to change," John says. In 1975, the median age level of people in the U.S. was 29 years and by 2000, it'll rise to 36, according to a recent A.C. Neilson Co. analysis. Predictions vary, but that target 25-34 audience may be difficult to budge from FM, particularly in view of the October/November ARB in Los Angeles.

As Allan Chlowitz, General Manager of RKO-owned KRTH/FM-Los Angeles puts it, "You buy a new stereo, what are you going to listen to--AM?" Automated, KRTH enjoyed favorable ratings in the recent book, their first since a format shift from all gold to 60% currents, 40% gold October 1, 1977.

With these major programming changes, the Los Angeles market continues to host one of the most interesting radio battles in the country.

Inside Progressive Radio
(by George Meier, Editor of Walrus)

Though there are not too many albums to talk about as the New Year begins, a few notables are worth mentioning.

Jackson Browne keeps a tiring singer/songwriter genre alive with a sparkling record. Not only are the songs aces but the presentation and the recording quality is superb. He got the L.A. studio regulars out from under the cans and on the road. They seem refreshed by the experience. The LP's sonic superiority should be an embarrassment to many of the major studios since much of Running On Empty was taped in motel rooms and on the bus.

Powerhouse Aerosmith covers the hard rock scene by adding some melodies to their purple haze. Though often obscured by the fuzz, they come through.

Female quality is evident also. Joni Mitchell always makes eloquent recordings. Superb is its playmanship and sound quality. Joni's lyrics are high end too, but her songs lack great melodies. She has to be the extraordinary singer she is, to make them work. On the other hand, marvelous singer Roberta Flack has an album filled with super songs but one which is cluttered with producers, musicians and recording studios. The management of the entourage was as big a job as the LP itself.

One country album by Narvel Felts stands out because of his extraordinary voice. A cross between Elvis Presley and Freddy Fender, he can sing big and sing with subtlety. He is rooted deeply in the '50's.

Finally, an avant garde new wave band called Suicide makes its entry with an innovative album. A strange brew, it is one of the few bands (actually it is a duo) which brings a sense of electronic music and creativity to the punk scene. Suicide, in this case, is deadly art.

Help Wanted?

From time to time we've published correspondents' comments about evaluating applicants for employment as jock and PD's. The following statement of programming philosophy came to Eric Norberg, KEX-Portland, from Bill St. James, KBCQ-Roswell, New Mexico, in response to a recent job listing in these pages:

"Programming with long-range listener loyalty as the primary goal. Radio stations that come from nowhere and win within a short period of time, can also be beaten in a short time because they only meet certain temporary needs of the audience. If someone comes in and gives away more money or plays the hits more often, in many cases they can generate a large audience share quickly. Since many programmers seem to follow this line of thinking, I can see a time when no station ever dominates a market, the winner changes from book to book and the audience is manipulated instead of served. The prevailing attitude is that an audience doesn't know its being pushed around so it doesn't matter. But in market after market where several rock stations are doing essentially the same thing, there is a constant scramble for a piece of the 18-49 listenership pie. At the same time, stations that are not nearly as strict in format or outlook remain pretty much unaffected by these fluctuations. Some examples are: WGN in Chicago, WSB in Atlanta, WLW in Cincinnati, KMBZ in Kansas City, WCCO in Minneapolis and WOR in New York. These stations are all "MOR" formatted to some degree (whatever that means today) and have a large segment of upper demographic audience that have listened for many years. But contemporary/rock radio will be the "MOR" in the future and I think the same intense listener loyalty can and must be built to insure a lasting financial base.

"Very basically, I think the long-range listener is cultivated by treating him as a human being. Many programmers are concerned about negatives or tune-out factors and work very hard to eliminate them. I think it is important to keep from discouraging a listener, but not to the point that there is nothing left to tune in for. I think it's very possible to not only make the personality of the radio station so bland that no one much cares whether they listen or not (which is anti-loyalty) but by using some methods for reducing tune-out factors (only the biggest hits) stands to burn those records out quickly thereby encouraging shorter listening spans. And the very records that were potentially big audience generators become boring and/or aggravating. Keeping excitement on the radio and a reason to tune in (as opposed to a reason not to tune out) is of utmost importance in my estimation.

"Research of potential audience is very important, obviously, in order to keep listener needs in the foreground of any programming decision. To some degree probably all forms of research that are used have a certain degree of validity. But I think that the research in any given situation is only as good as the interpretation the researcher makes of the data. I don't think any form or amount of research can replace the ability of the programmer to empathize with those he researches. People don't only listen to the radio with their ears, they also listen with their feelings. So I think it's important that a programmer not only be able to interpret an ARB or any other type of statistical information, but he must also have the capacity to feel as well.

"I firmly believe that radio programming is an art, consequently I consider myself an artist. Being sensitive to the needs of the audience and the people that work for me are my bottom line and positive results will be found in the radio station's bottom line."

He got the job - Program Administrator of the new Golden West FM'er, KQFM-Portland.

Automation

The growth of automation in broadcasting is obvious today. FM and beautiful music stations discovered its effectiveness over ten years ago and have steadily improved their operations with it; many, however, have not been as successful as they'd like. Now, with audiences aging, programmers are facing a more mature set of tastes in their push for the ratings and according to current marketing surveys, the bigger audience is 25-34 and firmly rooted in FM.

While some stations opt to specialize, creating an increasing fragmentation in markets, more are striving for larger numbers and they're trying to satisfy the music demands of a large, predominantly FM-oriented audience. KNX/FM-Los Angeles has moved to the top in ratings recently and with its sophisticated computer-automation system, appears destined to surpass the big AM rockers in that market. KRTH/FM-Los Angeles, also automated, is gaining on AM, as well.

Steve Marshall, P.D. at KNX/FM and consultant to the CBS station group, foresees a "total reversal in roles" of AM and FM. "FM has always been the bastardized son..." he says with wry amusement. KNX/FM, using an IGM computer-automation setup, features a "mellow, soft rock" format, as do all CBS FMs. According to Steve, the station is #1 in the entire demographic 18-49 target, passing KHJ by a sliver in shares in the recent ARB.

In competing with live stations, a large part of Steve's success and his biggest aim, is to sound live. He has several methods he applies to achieve this goal. "Attitude (in voice-tracking) is the biggest thing but also the most subtle." A major criticism of automated voice-tracking has long been directed at its "non-live, machine-smooth" sound. Steve attributes this to the announcer who allows a "pre-recorded attitude to creep into his voice, one that sounds as if he's speaking to a dead mike. Steve reorients his airstaff frequently, reminding them they have a real audience. "I'm down on the pre-recorded mentality."

In addition, Steve updates the content of his voice-track material, as often as everyday. "We aren't afraid to record a lot of material that only runs once." Also, they go live when the occasion warrants it. Last Friday, for example, they decided to premiere the new Art Garfunkel record at 6 PM, the close of Steve's 12-hour shift. "We were on the air within ten minutes," he said. A further area that Steve feels adds to the live sound is "leadbacking" in and out of news. This allows the news announcer to tie-in his lead, softening the shift from voice-track to live voice.

Bob Hamilton, P.D. at RKO-owned KRTH/FM-Los Angeles, agrees a large aim of his is to sound live. "...the real sound is still live...but you can't tell whether we're automated or live."

To create a live sound Bob allows for individuality in voice-tracking and if mistakes are made, they are left in. The ten daily newscasts are live and, much like "leadbacking," the person who voice-tracks into newscasts provides the newscaster with his end sentence so the newscaster can tie in his lead. Bob extolls the high degree of control he has over the flow of music and calls it "more reliable than jocks changing records."

KRTH/FM moved extremely close to KHJ in competition for adults 25-34, in the recent ARB. While KHJ features personalities, contests and local humor, Bob pre-programs his music two to three days in advance and has his two jocks voice-track, 12 hours apiece each day. On the air with a format shift since October 1, 1977, Bob says the music is the main draw, describing his format as "adult contemporary with an oldies flare." He programs 45% currents, 55% gold overall, with a maximum commercial load of 10 minutes per hour and minimum sweeps of three records.

The advantages of automation are familiar: efficiency, controlled, consistent sound and reduced operating costs through smaller staffs. But programmers like Steve Marshall and Bob Hamilton are using their experience in AM radio to serve an older audience that prefers the high fidelity of FM yet the "companionship" of live AM.

The intricacies of computer-automation systems are fascinating and they're being perfected all the time. Bill Keffury at KCBS/FM-San Francisco programs a system that is similar to those of KRTH and KNX, manufactured by IGM in Bellingham, Wash. Their CBS soft-rock sound attracted 18-24 females in the last book but they don't have large numbers. This is explained partially by the fact they're limited by a 4,720 watt signal.

Bill programmed K101-San Francisco for four years prior to CBS, and before K101 he programmed KYA/FM. He feels certain an automated format can be just as successful if not more, than a live one. He describes his upper demo target 25-34 as "tired of being screamed at. The American public has been shucked and jived to death. They're ready for some honesty and sincerity." In addition, he said that even though the FCC is currently considering granting "stereo" to AMs, AM stereo will never achieve the quality of FM sound.

The KCBS IGM system cost over-all, $125,000. The station requires a staff of 14 which Bill says, would have to double if it were live. He lists the following efficiency and flexibility measures of the system.

- Voice-tracking a 4-hour shift takes half an hour. (The air-staff consists of M.D. Steve Walker and Bill.)
- The time announced between each record sweep has an error factor of two minutes. Inaccuracies never exceed that.
- System's capacity is 99 45-second "events" in one hour
- Instant audio adjustment, accomodating for voice-over intros/outros.
- Instant adjustment of record rotation as needed.
- Programmer access to details for voice-track material such as length of cut; length of start/end; type of record (instrumental, vocal, etc.); balance of males to female plays; all cuts under four minutes, or any desired length of time; cuts that start slow, end medium, and so on.

The list continues with many variations.

"You can't make a spontaneous comment like 'the sun just broke through' on a voice-track, Bill says, but weather is covered almost every hour. Newscasts (10 per day) are live and Bill maintains he's free to be as creative as he wants.

Bill learned to use the system at a three-day seminar, and he staffs one technician for maintenance so knowledge of computer programming is not critical for stations considering such a system. He speculates the three main reasons stations don't use computers are: "They can't afford them; they don't understand them; or they're not creative enough to use computers to do what they're doing better."

Anyone who's been to Mile High City during Stock Show, knows the excitement that fills nearly every street in the town. The National Western Stock Show takes place January 13-22, and estimates are, it will draw 250,000. Jocks at KERE-Denver will be there, registering those attending for a chance at a $100 shopping spree at Villa Italia Shopping Center. They win by responding when their names are read on the air.

During a hunting expedition, a little Kansas City boy named Randy Meade was injured. The accident left the 11-year old paralyzed below the neck and it was decided he should see doctors at the renowned Craig Institute in Denver for possible rehabilitation therapy. WDAF-Kansas City learned of the incident from C.B. operators and in four days raised $8,000 toward the $30,000 fee required by the Institute. WDAF also took care of Randy's flight to Denver. Cheers C.B.'ers and WDAF!

Rodeos will always be popular. They draw amazing crowds even when they happen in such large urban centers as San Diego. The airstaffs at KSON-AM/FM-San Diego will participate in the upcoming Indoor Sports Rodeo there--in their own way. Listeners will see the AM staff tug-'o-war the FM side. The audience has a chance to win over $500 worth of prizes.

Congratulations to Bob Jackson, morning man at KRAM-Las Vegas. He was selected D.J. of the Year by the Las Vegas Entertainment Awards.

We could fill a whole page with accounts of Elvis specials and promotions that ran the weekend of his birthday, January 8. There was overwhelming audience response.

Anyone with nerve enough to call WMC-Memphis and sing Happy Birthday, gets a cake for their effort. WMC is celebrating 55 years in broadcasting. We congratulate WMC--but we sure can't sing.

Inside Progressive Radio
(by George Meier, Editor of Walrus)

Established Airplay:

Electric Light Orchestra
Eric Clapton
-----
Rod Stewart
Steely Dan
Queen
Lynyrd Skynyrd
Boz Scaggs
-----
Kansas
Bob Welch
Elvis Costello
Aerosmith

Notes: Current airplay seems soft. The intensity reflects the year end lull in album releases. Progressive radio's pulse tends to quicken with activity stimulated by new music. Significantly, Elvis Costello is the first hot new wave artist. He jumps into this list because of especially strong reaction to him in the West. Other regional variations show Wet Willie in the South and Randy Newman in the Midwest to be strong.

New Airplay

Jackson Browne
Joni Mitchell
Clover
Roberta Flack

Notes: This is the entire list of new records getting any response. The Jackson Browne is a smashing success while the Joni Mitchell is getting gracious attention but may not last as long. After a Grand Canyon leap we get down to the modest response to both the Clover and the Roberta Flack LP's.

Singles & Imports:

Singles: The Wings single and the Kinks single stride away from anything which might be thought of as in third place.

Imports: The strong imports include the new Phil Manzanera/801 LP and the Sex Pistols' LP in spite of its U.S. release.

The following tracks are finding their way onto the air:

Jackson Browne-RUNNING ON EMPTY/YOU LOVE
THE THUNDER/THE LOAD OUT/THE ROAD/
LOVE NEEDS A HEART
Aerosmith-KINGS & QUEENS/DRAW THE LINE/
GET IT UP
Joni Mitchell-DON JUAN'S RECKLESS DAUGHTER/OFF
NIGHT BACKSTREET/JERICO/COTTON AVENUE/TALK
TO ME/DREAMLAND
Eddie & The Hot Rods-DO ANYTHING...

Albums of the Week
(reviewed by Ron Fell)

"Infinity"-Journey (Columbia) Forget what you've heard from these guys in the past. This is a new beginning. Producer Roy Thomas Baker has completely altered the sound with magnificent vocal tracks sailing gracefully over fathomous instrumentation. The addition of Steve Perry as lead vocalist fills out the band and makes for a wholly satisfying presentation. LIGHTS, WHEEL IN THE SKY, FEELING THE WAY, and ANYTIME should clearly out-distance any previous efforts from their first three LP's.

"Endless Wire"-Gordon Lightfoot (Warner Bros.) He's a poet who puts his words in simple, yet elegant, melodies. The ease with which he presents himself makes for comfortable listening whether in the context of a single or a whole album. Two cuts, DREAMLAND and THE CIRCLE IS SMALL, should make his next "Best Of" album with DAYLIGHT KATY, IF CHILDREN HAD WINGS, and HANGDOG HOTEL ROOM further distinguishing the Lightfoot legacy.

"Quarter Moon In A Ten Cent Town"-Emmylou Harris (Warner Bros.) Blessed with one of the purest voices in country music, Emmylou doesn't have to worry about the cosmetic trappings often associated with the so-called "traditional" country chorines. Visually and musically she's straightforward and deliberate. As a result, her directness has endeared her to many outside country's normal sphere of influence. Her current single TO DADDY (written by Dolly Parton), EASY FROM NOW ON, TWO MORE BOTTLES OF WINE, I AIN'T LIVIN' LONG LIKE THIS, and Jesse Winchester's DEFYING GRAVITY are all delightful.

Also recommended from the following LP's:

- "Watermark"-Art Garfunkel (Columbia) SHINE IT ON ME/SATURDAY SUIT/PAPER CHASE/WONDERFUL WORLD

- "Duo-Glide"-Sanford & Townsend (Warner Bros.) PARADISE/STARBRITE/VOODOO/EYE OF MY STORM (OH WOMAN)
- "Herb Alpert-Hugh Masekela"-Herb Alpert & Hugh Masekela (A&M) SKOKIAAN/HAPPY HANNA/AFRICAN SUMMER
- "He-e-ere's Johnny!"-Johnny Lee (GRT) DEAR ALICE/RED SAILS IN THE SUNSET/RUBY LOUISE/THIS TIME

Gary Taylor's Personal Picks

WONDERFUL WORLD-Art Garfunkel with Paul Simon and James Taylor (Columbia) The marvelous harmony of Simon and Garfunkel enjoys the added luster of a James Taylor as this trio performs in a manner that would delight the late Sam Cooke.
DUST IN THE WIND-Kansas (Kirshner) Their musical development has reached the point (of know return) where they can no longer be regarded as just a rock band.

Also Possible

ALWAYS AND FOREVER-Heatwave (Epic) SHOT ME DOWN-Nazareth (A&M)
LOVE IS GONNA FIND A WAY-Tommy James (Fantasy) HOME BOUND-Ted Nugent (Epic)
YOU REALLY GOT ME-Van Halen (Warner Bros.) ALL ALONE AGAIN-Garfield (Polydor)

RAINSTORM-Frankie Valli (Private Stock) SILVER DREAMS-The Babys (Chrysalis)

Plans/Plays

Pro-football closed its season Sunday in New Orleans, providing an opportunity for stations to pile-up on Superbowl promotions over the weekend. It's no wonder TV advertising during the game is so expensive. In the list of absolutely American things to do, football is right up there next to Radio. WFBG-Altoona, Pa., collected postcards with listener estimates of total yards passing and rushing for both the Broncos and Cowboys. First prize is $129 and second is a free weekend of skiing at nearby Blue Knob Mountain. KSEL-Lubbock will fly a whole planeload of Superbowl ticket winners to New Orleans. Fans had to guess the exact scores of preceding Texas Tech basketball games for the trip.

At presstime, KSAN-San Francisco is planning to broadcast The Sex Pistols concert from Winterland Saturday, January 14th. The KSAN broadcast will be the first time the controversial Sex Pistols have performed live on U.S. Radio.

Questions/Opinions

We continue to hear from programmers about the impact of SHORT PEOPLE. Garry Osborn, Operations Manager at WIBM-Jackson, Mich., received no complaints from listeners and decided to play the record during December, even though he understood WJR and WRIF/FM-Detroit were not playing it. He made this observation: "I often wonder if a station bans a song of this type simply for the publicity, to gain mentions in local newspapers and on radio and television news. If that thought ever enters into the programming decision, it is a very "cheap shot" and is at the expense of the artist and record company. It's also in the category of poor programming. Maybe we should give our listeners more credit; they are not all idiots. I feel our audience is aware of the intent of the song, they are not complaining."

During a telephone conversation with John Scott at WMFJ-Daytona Beach last week, he described their upcoming Disco Dancethon for Easter Seals and praised the charity for its responsible attitude and competent handling of many aspects of the promotion. John particularly appreciated the organization's efforts because he said he'd worked with other charities that weren't quite so capable. Some have relied almost exclusively on the WMFJ staff to organize events. Since so many stations take part in benefit promotions, he wonders how other programmers overcome this difficulty. Perhaps we could put together a set of guidelines that charities (and stations) can use when they approach stations with fund-raising ideas. A set of simple suggestions might help streamline such events for all involved.

Changes

Alene McKinney, music director of KMPC-Los Angeles for nearly 15 years, this week announced her retirement from radio. Replacing her in the music library will be Jane Hassler, formerly secretary to P.D. Mark Blinoff. Before joining KMPC Alene had been music director of KBIG. She began her radio career as a pianist.

Welcome back! to Steve Walker, M.D. at KCBS/FM-San Francisco. Steve suffered a ruptured appendix with serious complications two months ago and it was rough-going there for a while. He looks good. A note from him thanks all the people in the industry who sent "good vibes and positive thoughts" his way during his absence.

WMET-Chicago informs us they've moved and their new address is 444 N. Michigan Ave. 60611. Record companies please note they've had a call letter change from WDFH, for over a year now.

Judy Burns, who assists her husband George, at Burns Media in Los Angeles suggests that "Automation is a word radio people are sensitive to-more so than listeners." Burns Media offers pre-programmed Stereo Rock and Beautiful Rock formats largely to automated or partially automated FM stations. Judy says that they service over 80 stations now, where five years ago, they programmed for twelve, indicating a combined increase in use of FM-oriented and pre-programmed formats by automated stations.

She points out that the use of computers, in addition to automation equipment, is increasing. "Computers make you more efficient...you don't miss spots and there's no need for makegoods. You have a better control of flow." Some stations are centralizing their billing and sales departments with programming, to streamline their entire operations.

Computer systems are being perfected rapidly. KABL-FM-San Francisco, Gordon McLendon's creation, and the oldest beautiful music format on the west coast, started with a primitive Schafer system in 1964 and is now operating with a Schafer 903 that can be programmed a week in advance. The success of FM computer-automated stations may be a significant indication of programming directions. According to Judy Burns, more small and medium market stations are turning to computers now.

AM personality radio may not be threatened by extinction but we're wondering about ten or fifteen years from now. The emergence of automated FM as strong competition could spell doom, if the success of these stations continues to spread.

Most Active: CURIOUS MIND-Johnny Rivers (Big Tree)
THE NAME OF THE GAME-Abba (Atlantic)

Worth Watching: WHAT A WONDERFUL WORLD-Art Garfunkel (Columbia) A great majority of our A/C correspondents have added this "out of the box".

News From the Country Music Association

The C.M.A. Board of Directors held its quarterly meeting January 9 - 12 in Acapulco. Prime topic of discussion was C.M.A.'s 20th anniversary and how best to celebrate it. Plans were also made for the International Show, which will be a part of next June's Fan Fair. It was announced that sometime in May the U.S.Postal Service will issue a Jimmy Rogers commemorative stamp--the first time a country artist has been so honored. The NBC-TV special, "Fifty Years of Country Music," to be presented January 22nd, will include a videotape showing Postmaster General B.F. Bailer at the Country Music Hall of Fame unveiling the artist's original rendering of the stamp.

Next quarterly Board of Directors meeting is scheduled for April 17 - 19 in Washington, D.C.

Inside Progressive Radio
(by George Meier, Editor of Walrus)

At this writing there are not many albums to talk about. Still, there are a few notables and a few ponderables.

On the notable list is the new Sea Level album. The core is made up of the rhythm section from the Allman Brothers Band. Though their first album was good - not riveting - here they have taken a great leap. The first side brings back the memory of the Allman's while the second side gets adventurous. It enters the fusion jazz terrain about which Southerners aren't supposed to know. Chuck Leavell and company must have visited the North once or twice.

A nice surprise is contained in the Herb Alpert-Hugh Masekela collaboration. Both men possess gifted ears for melody. While Herb's playing tends to be restrained, Masekela's joyous rhythms free both men so that in a few places their LP really takes off.

For those who like old jump tunes from the 40's, a listen to "Roomful Of Blues" will bring a smile. It is easy to take, fun music. When will some revivalist group redo "Cement Mixer?"

One of the 3 Dogs in 3 Dog Night has now released a solo LP. Cory Wells applies his big voice to the same style pop-R&B style songs as he did as part of the group. The album has an alive, pop sound in it.

Finally, Peter Brown, the disco fella releases an album which tears at itself. His disco stuff is O.K. and his rock stuff is O.K., but the gap between them is too wide for the ear to bridge. It's a difficult leap to make in a career, let alone in an album.

Gavin's Gab

A lot of people are dreaming about sunny, warm places this month in light of the cold, wet, snowy weather many cities are shivering through. WICC-Bridgeport, Conn., is giving away a one-week trip to Fort Lauderdale and KLWN-Lawrence, Ks., is offering a trip for two to Waikiki Beach. Both contests are drawing immense response. According to Mike Schmidt at KLWN, they're averaging 4" of snow and eight degree temperatures outside and had just reordered 10,000 more entry blanks. After these were delivered to participating stores, one-third disappeared in four days. Since the Yankees' Spring Training Camp is located in Fort Lauderdale, WICC listeners have added reason to win.

Several movies are so popular now their effect on audiences is almost crazed. Few pop charts that came into our office this week showed less than two Bee Gee's records in gaining positions and many stations have been playing either the John Williams or Meco or both. "Saturday Night Fever" has young people across the country throbbing. KISD-Sioux Falls has a mobile disco complete with a fog machine and strobes. For their upcoming "Fever" weekend, they're setting it up in front of the theater showing the movie and have hired semi-professional disco dancers to start it off. They'll give away albums, movie passes and disco, all weekend. Another crack promotion comes from WLOF-Orlando where the local showing of "Close Encounters..." ties in with their "Gross Encounters of the Nurd Kind" weekend. All the old stock in their music library is part of the package. Winners every hour, all weekend get the sound-track, movie passes and a stack of turkey albums.

Mark Carter, M.D. at WBRG-Lynchburg, Va., is in critical condition at Virginia Baptist Hospital (Lynchburg-24505). A bout with flu has turned into spinal meningitis. He'd probably appreciate hearing from anyone in our business but music calls are not appropriate for the station right now. "Please hold all music calls until adjustments are made," they ask.

Correction: Last week in an article called "Automation," we stated that "KRTH/FM-Los Angeles came extremely close in competition with KHJ for 25-34s," in the recent book. Actually, KRTH/FM beat KHJ roundly in that demographic. It should have read 18-34.

CFGM-Toronto has two participants in the annual Whipper Watson Snow-A-Rama for crippled children this year. Frank Proctor, morning drive, and Peter May, news director, will see if they can drive snowmobiles 100 miles. Listeners are pledging money on the number of miles they think the two from CFGM can go. All donations go to the "Timmy" Fund for Ontario's crippled children.

WIRE-Indianapolis asked listeners to nominate and vote for their favorite artists of the year then the station produced an Awards Show that sounded live when it ran on the air. Amidst crowd noises, cheers and applause, Elvis was named male vocalist of the year; Roy Clark--Instrumentalist; Debbie Boone--Most Promising Female Singer; and Rex Allen Jr.--Most Promising Male Singer. When Chet Atkins accepted the award for Elvis, the singer received a "standing ovation." MY WAY won Song of the Year. Other winners included Conway Twitty & Loretta Lynn--Best Duo; Statler Bros.--Best Group; Loretta Lynn--Best Female Vocalist; and Marty Robbins--Entertainer of the Year. Tapes of prior acceptance speeches made the show sound all the more authentic. To M.C., Bill Robinson "wore" a tux, of course.

WKKN-Rockford is offering a skiing weekend at Alpine Valley, Wis., as a prize. Listeners must call in and register to win. In addition, Perry Martin, morning personality at WKKN, is conducting an ANGEL IN THE MORNING contest. Female listeners call and read something on the air. Winners get to do an hour of his show with him and they receive country records from U.A. for a year.

Albums of the Week
(reviewed by Ron Fell)

"Tough Me"-Cory Wells (A&M) Wells is a former member of the Three Dog Night kennel. This alone should be enough to draw attention to the album but it's his robust and invigorating vocals on the first three cuts: WAITING FOR YOU, WHEN YOU TOUCH ME, and YOU'RE MY DAY that should convince even the sceptical that his solo career will be secure. Side one's other cuts EVERYTHING'S RIGHT FOR LOVE and MIDNIGHT LADY bring down the intensity a tad, but side two gets off to a hot start with his new single STARLIGHT. More artists should debut with such strong material.

"Weekend In L.A."-George Benson (Warner Bros.) Brought up in the shadow of the late, great Wes Montgomery at CTI, Benson has recently become one of the premier jazz guitarists of the decade. Playing with the grace of Montgomery and adding his own mellow vocals, his recent Warner Brothers albums have had the special edge needed to cross into pop. This live set (recorded at the Roxy in Los Angeles last fall) is faithful to his jazz roots and captures the essence of jazz performances the way they should be heard: Live. While THIS MASQUERADE and BREEZIN' are unforgivably omitted, cuts like LADY BLUE, WE ALL REMEMBER WES, WEEKEND IN L.A., THE GREATEST LOVE OF ALL and IT'S ALL IN THE GAME are complimentary.

The Positive Programmer

Two topics generating much discussion in radio are the strengths/weaknesses of call-out research and the status of AM Top 40. We've featured a few articles in recent months on these subjects and in talking to correspondents, have heard many different sides of the issues. This week, Mark McCoy, P.D. at KYSN-Colorado Springs, wrote the following opinions:

"Many people have expressed concern lately about the erosion of AM Top 40 radio in many markets and the future of the format itself. Is AM Top 40 radio becoming obsolete? I don't think so. I believe the erosion is occurring not so much in Top 40 itself but in a form of Top 40 radio. AM Top 40 is not dying...it's evolving and growing up. Unfortunately, some of us are not growing and evolving with it. What has suffered most is the basic presentation of Top 40 radio. Somewhere between our request lines and computer terminals we forgot about excitement, entertainment, and our communities. Most importantly we forgot about the people we are supposed to be serving. It seems we're trying to label, classify, and stereotype an audience who, through market fragmentation, is telling us it's more individual than ever before. People are people... human beings with feelings, emotions, moods and unpredictability. People are changing constantly and defying classification. People are demanding more, especially of AM; especially since they can get the same thing AM is doing on FM...in stereo.

"Programmers today are on the right track but moving in the wrong direction. More and more of our budgets are being allocated for research to find out what will keep audiences on AM, (or bring them back). Our research, however, is based on a NEGATIVE premise, that is, we're finding out what people DON'T want. Thus, we're researching ourselves to boredom. We're constantly removing irritant factors and not putting anything back. Is our sophisticated research leading us backwards?

"The time has come for us to base our research on a POSITIVE premise. What can we do more of to fill a need or provide a service to our communities? Maybe we should do less "rate-a-record" research and make a more concerted effort to find out what our people and communities are all about. What needs can we fill? What services can we provide? How can we make life a little easier for our listeners? How can we use the tremendous power and influence of the radio station for the good of the community?

"The time has come to re-evaluate Top 40 radio as it is and look to the future and what Top 40 radio can be. It's time to ask some serious questions about our radio stations and programming concepts. We have...and the answers led us back to #1.

On the Record

Through the years there has been a lot of talk about listener tuneout. Too much talk is a tuneout. Unfamiliar music is a tuneout. Commercials are a tuneout. And so on and on. It has seemed sometimes that programmers were giving more attention to avoiding tuneout factors than they were to creating tune in attractions.

Basically, what motivates people to turn on their radios to any particular station? Primarily it's just anticipation. Of what? It could be anticipation of a certain kind of music--or entertainment from a favorite air talent--or the latest news and weather information--or just plain companionship. As long as their anticipations are satisfied, they'll keep the station tuned in. In many instances, the announcement that a very popular new record will be played soon raises their "anticipation level" to the point where they stay tuned through some record or commercial that might otherwise have turned them off. Generally speaking, a station creates favorable listener anticipation by being consistently predictable in the quality and character of its programming.

Of course, when a radio station is running a big prize giveaway or contest, there's another tunein factor involved: greed. The chance of getting something for nothing is broadly appealing to the human avarice that all people share in varying degrees. There are differing opinions about big prize giveaways. Some say that when an audience is "bought" it tends to erode after the contest is over. Others maintain that if the newly acquired listeners like what they hear on the station they'll keep coming back to it with the anticipation of pleasant listening. Perhaps both views have merit. If a contest brings a 10% increase in audience and then half of them go elsewhere when it ends, there's still a 5% increase--and that isn't bad.

Finally, let's not overlook curiosity as a tunein factor. Advertising in other media--billboards, store posters, TV spots, newspaper ads and publicity mentions--all these can arouse curiosity and can result in a, "Well, let's hear what they sound like" motivation. Certainly, just promoting a station to those who are already listening can't be as effective as reaching out to those who are not. Curiosity can also produce a lot of dial roaming, just to discover a pleasant sound.

Listener loyalty? Of course. But that brings us back to where we started. Anticipation. The loyal listener has found consistent, dependable listening pleasure at one certain dial position, and he anticipates finding it there again.

Of course, the real nitty gritty is motivating listeners by creating anticipation. Every program director has his own ideas about that. But there's one thing that seems certain. Those P.D. ideas that work best over the long haul are centered around getting listeners to tune in, rather than worrying about what makes them tune out. A station that sounds so inoffensive that nobody would tune it out might be so bland and colorless that nobody would want to tune it in.

Adult Contemporary Programming
(Associate Editor, Ron Fell)

Most Active: CURIOUS MINDS-Johnny Rivers (Big Tree) Top rotation at KGU, WHAS, WSM, KSFO, and WNEW already.

Worth Watching: CAN'T SMILE WITHOUT YOU-Barry Manilow (Arista) Nothing unusual about this record's start except that some stations who usually "wait and see" are actually leading the way this time. WCBM, KVI, WFYR, and WMGK are early believers.

Inside Progressive Radio
(by George Meier, Editor of Walrus)

Established Progressive Airplay

Jackson Browne
Joni Mitchell
Eric Clapton
-----
Electric Light Orchestra
Steely Dan
Rod Stewart
-----
Queen
Elvis Costello
Boz Scaggs
Lynyrd Skynyrd
-----
Bob Welch
Billy Joel
Kansas

Notes: Jackson and Joni, the big new things last time are the big things this time. Not surprising, since they were released in the gap after the main pre-Christmas rush and before the post-New Year rush. Regional patterns hold fast. The midwest, known to be conservative, is. Once artists are accepted they stay important. Hence, the current power of E.L.O., Steely Dan, Rod Stewart, Queen and Lynyrd Skynyrd derive from the midwest. Conversely, the northeast and west are faster so new artists like Elvis Costello benefit from those sections early.

New Progressive Airplay

Sea Level
Emmylou Harris
-----
Gordon Lightfoot
Journey
Art Garfunkel

Notes: Sea Level comes in strongly, though the South is their expected base. Emmylou Harris' mellow country-rock starts best in the South and West. That stands to reason. The others on the list enter to polite applause.

Singles: The single single of consequence is the Wings record.

Imports: Two imports show strongly. Both Eno and Manzanera/801 are the aficionado's delight.

The following new tracks fill the air:

Sea Level-THAT'S YOUR SECRET/MIDNIGHT
PASS/STORM WARNING/IT HURTS TO WANT
IT/CATS ON THE COAST
John Hartford-GENTLE ON MY MIND
The Hometown Band-DAYBREAK

The Jam-MODERN WORLD
Supertramp-IT'S A LONG ROAD
Herb Alpert/Hugh Masekela-SKOKIAAN
Roomful of Blues-THAT'S MY LIFE

Albums of the Week
(reviewed by Ron Fell)

"Berkshire"-Wha-Koo (ABC) If we had an "album of the month" this would be it. Rock and Roll radio should eat this one alive. Turning up the volume enhances the enjoyment of this near perfect performance. Comparing the band to Boston and Foreigner may not only be fair but necessary to draw proper attention to the album. FABULOUS DANCER, BERKSHIRE, RIG-A-MAROLE, EXPIRE ON ME and MIDNIGHT KITCHEN will make the point in one listen.

"Street Player"-Rufus/Chaka Khan (ABC) There's a nice trade-off here with Chaka and the band co-starring in one of Roy Halee's finest productions. Beautifully structured arrangements for a complete range of instruments (horns, strings, keyboards and percussion) never overpower the haunting Chaka Khan voice. It's really hard to find a favorite among cuts like: DESTINY, STRANGER TO LOVE, STAY, TAKE TIME, BLUE LOVE and BEST OF YOUR HEART.

Also recommended from the following albums:

Gary Taylor's Personal Picks

NIGHT FEVER-Bee Gees (RSO) There isn't a thermometer big enough to measure the musical impact of "Saturday Night Fever", and with the release of this single we are witness to a soundtrack album with more original hits than any in history. (The only one to ignore it is Oscar)

CAN'T SMILE WITHOUT YOU-Barry Manilow (Arista) First mentioned by John Rook who reports #1 requests at KFI-Los Angeles; not surprisingly - the Manilow magic is immediately apparent.

THANK YOU FOR BEING A FRIEND-Andrew Gold (Asylum) For those who are looking for a record with a positive "hook", this one has at least forty "thank you's" and more than enough appealing content to light up the request lines.

READY FOR THE TIMES TO GET BETTER-Crystal Gayle (U.A.) Wrapping Allen Reynolds lyrics and production around that pure voice creates a near perfect combination that should attract considerable airplay.

Also Possible

Valentine's Day Promos

KKOA-Minot, N.D., is running a "For Lover's Only" promotion ten days prior to Valentine's Day, ending with a drawing on February 14th for an $800 diamond ring. Listeners call in and respond to the question, "If you were looking your lover in the eye right now, what would you say to him or her." At the close of their carted comment, one of three rotating sound effects is heard on the air. A "Kiss" means they get a bottle of champagne, a "Heartbeat," means a complimentary dinner for two and a "Slap" means they win nothing. Callers must be 21 or over in case they win the wine and everyone is eligible for the diamond ring. Names and addresses taken before calls are taped, helps ensure proper responses. This promotion was highly successful last year, Doug Corbett says.

KCRS-Midland has a "Love Machine" that listeners must "sweet talk" on the air in order to win a $500 waterbed. The Machine makes awesome comments such as "yuck" and "miserable." Dick Baze says response has been super. Their drawing will take place on Valentine's Day also.

KVIC-Victoria's drawing will allow the winner to call his or her sweetheart anywhere in the U.S. on February 14th, free. The call must end after 13 minutes and forty seconds--the KVIC frequency.

Other Events

Mardi Gras time in New Orleans means numerous requests for jazz-rhythm and blues-oriented Mardi Gras classics at WNOE. Marc Sommers tells us a new album on Mardi Gras Records has helped simplify their task and he recommends it for production libraries. It contains traditional cuts from the late fifties that capture the "spirit and flavor" of the festival as well as more recent pieces such as Paul Simon's TAKE ME TO THE MARDI GRAS, MARDI GRAS MAMBO by the Hawkettes and THEY ALL ASK FOR YOU by a group that originated in New Orleans, The Meters. The address of the label is 1924 Lafayette St.-70113. WNOE is also running a "Second Weekend of Mardi Gras" promotion, giving away a 65-page 1978 Mardi Gras Guide Book that features detailed maps of all the parade routes through New Orleans. Those who have been to Mardi Gras know there are hundreds of colorful parades during the six-week festival.

Tom Taylor at WPST-Trenton tells us that New Jersey "really is a super state" and he's expanding that attitude with a series of two-hour specials called "New Jersey Rocks," beginning February 5th. The shows will feature interviews with artists out of New Jersey such as Valentine, Johnny's Dance Band, Patti Smith, Dean Friedman and Fandango.

J.R. Greeley at KEWI-Topeka wrote us a letter describing a local March of Dimes promotion that attracted a crowd. There was a mile of masking tape stretched through the largest shopping mall in town and people stuck their change to it. They called it "The Mile of Dimes" and it grossed $8430.

Income tax time is not exactly a highlight of our year but we rarely fail to comply. A station that is helping listeners with tax questions is WFTL-Ft. Lauderdale. People call the special "Dial a Deduction" hot lines, open 24 hours, and Barry Steiner, author of "Pay Less Tax--Legally," answers the questions, in 60-second tapes which are aired continually. For information about obtaining Steiner's pre-recorded cuts contact Lois Sugar, Box 5333-33310. "Super saleable," according to the station.

Sundries

WIGY-Bath and KGKL-San Angelo are both celebrating their anniversaries and would like to hear from artists, radio and trade people. Comments will be aired. Congratulations to young WIGY at one year on the air and to KGKL with fifty years of broadcasting behind them.

WNAM-Neenah, Wis., requests artist biographies and photographs for their station newsletter. Please send them to Jason Page, Box 707-54956.
