DAVIS RE-UPS WITH ARISTA

Arista Records President/CEO Clive Davis has inked a long-term contract to remain with the label he founded in 1974. In 1979 the company was purchased by Bertelsmann Music Group (BMG) and made part of the group itself in 1987.

"We are very pleased that Clive will continue to lead Arista, which has always been a crown jewel of BMG," said company Chairman/CEO Michael Dornemann. "The generous terms of this contract reflect Clive's tremendous success and creativity and the value we place on our relationship."

Said Davis, "I'm delighted to continue my long and happy relationship with Michael Dornemann and the Bertelsmann Music group. My focus will now be on ensuring continued success for Arista and BMG by continuing to sign and develop new and original artists wherever they may be."

CAPITOL UPS FAGOT TO SR. VP

Capitol Records Vice President, Promotion John Fagot has been promoted to Senior Vice President, Promotion.

Fagot, who is a winner of the Gavin Award, has been with the label since 1987.

"It has been a sincere pleasure to work with and learn from Hale Milgrim (label president) and Art Jaeger," said Fagot of his promotion. "I look forward to continuing Capitol Records' ascent toward becoming the number one label."

Said Milgrim: "John's tremendous enthusiasm and recent achievements have been instrumental in Capitol Records' best year ever. I'm happy to promote such a positive team player."

TNN, CMT Refuse to air controversial video

BROOKS VIDEO BANNED

The Nashville Network and Country Music Television announced this week that they will not air Garth Brooks' controversial new video, "The Thunder Rolls." It depicts domestic violence which, according to a statement released by TNN, "is excessive and without an acceptable resolution." (Apparently, upper management at both TNN and CMT were uncomfortable with the video's ending, which gives the impression that the victim shoots her attacker.)

TNN further states, "The Nashville Network is a country music entertainment network which appreciates traditional values. Our commitment to our viewers is that people of all ages can watch TNN without seeing these values compromised."

Bob Baker, the Director of Operations at CMT, explained that the network originally aired the video on their "Pick Hit" of the week. He says that audience reaction was initially 50/50, but as the week went on, reaction grew more and more negative.

Baker says, "Our channel goes into 13 million living rooms, and we have a responsibility not to showcase gratuitous violence. I had to make a decision, and I pulled it."

Garth, who last week pulled in a record six awards at the Academy Of Country Music Awards (including Entertainer of the Year, Male Vocalist of the Year and Video of the Year for "The Dance"), isn't bitter and says, "My videos are real life and they're meant to add another dimension to the song. I refuse to do a video that is just ordinary. It wastes the viewer's time and mine and my label's money. It doesn't bother me that TNN and CMT have decided not to run the video. I'm not angry at them. It's just that I've worked this hard on something that's not getting a chance to be seen."

Jimmy Bowen, President of Brooks' record label, Capitol Nashville, supports Garth's right to freedom of expression, saying, "Country music has always been a mirror of our times." Vice-President of Promotion Bill Catino agrees, pointing out that

the GAVIN REPORT

Country music has always dealt with real-life situations, but that now "we are dealing with a medium where we can portray them visually."

Some radio stations have solicited listener opinion, and are screening the video at remotes and clubs. At presstime we learned that VH-1 has decided to air it. Gavin Country Station Of The Year, WSIX-Nashville, wasted no time by renting out a local club to show the video. PD Eric Marshall has arranged to have several experts speak on the problems of spousal abuse and domestic violence, and to donate the 98-cent admission fee to agencies for battered women.

THE CMA COMPETITION

Part 2 of 2

You'll recall that last column I encouraged you to enter the CMA Competition, outlined who is eligible and described the qualities needed to be considered for Broadcast Personality of the Year. This week we'll cover Station of the Year, judging procedures and the purpose of the awards.

Remember, if you wish to enter, the deadline is June 14.

STATION OF THE YEAR

The following are the required materials to be submitted for entry. Tab each section in a three-ring binder to accommodate each category.

*Air check. 20-25 minutes in length with all dayparts represented. Judging will be based on the overall sound of the station, its flow, production, entertainment value and cohesiveness.

*Community Participation. Station should exhibit its community involvement, including news and public service as well as responsiveness to the needs and problems facing its marketplace.

*Ratings. Describe the competitive position of your station. Indicate your overall position among the adult shares and how your station ranks among the other country competitors in your market. (Any statistical survey is acceptable that will help demonstrate your station's position relative to your competitor's).

*Local/National Leadership. Describe your station's impact on the Country radio/Country music scene on a national and local basis. Does the staff actively participate in the local radio community and become involved in national Country events and organizations?

*Station Media kit (coverage kits, sales kits, etc.)

JUDGING PROCEDURES

There will be two rounds of judging for Broadcast Personality of the Year and Station of the Year. The first round will determine the finalists and the final judging will select the winners. Each judge used in the voting procedure for these awards is considered an expert in the broadcasting industry. Certificates of recognition will be given to the General Manager, Program Director and Music Director of the winning radio stations. Finalists from both awards categories will be recognized on CMA's highly rated Awards Show on October 2, 1991.

PURPOSE OF THESE AWARDS

In an effort to acknowledge and recognize the vital role radio broadcasters play in the development of Country Music, the Country Music Association inaugurated the broadcast awards. These awards spotlight deserving talent within the industry for Broadcast Personality of the Year and Station of the Year. The highly coveted CMA crystal trophy is presented in three market sizes:

- *Large market (more than 1,000,000 metro)
  - *Medium market (250,000 to 1,000,000 metro)
  - *Small market (under 250,000 metro)
- Good luck to all. ●

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Anyone who's been involved in the successful turnaround of a radio property can appreciate the achievements of Brandon Tartikoff, the NBC TV Entertainment Chairman, who is stepping down to become head of Paramount Pictures. Reshaping a corporate behemoth such as a television network was no easy task, and not only did he move the peacock out of last place in the Nielsen race, Tartikoff managed to keep NBC #1 for the past six years! Like anyone in the programming hotseat, his record was not unblemished. Anyone remember "Manimal?" But Tartikoff stuck with projects he truly believed in, like "Cheers" and "Hill Street Blues," two shows that suffered through dismal ratings for several seasons in their infancy. Too often, TV and radio programmers abandon formats, marketing concepts, new records or new shows without giving them the time needed to develop their full potential. But belief in the product is hardly enough. Tartikoff rolled the dice on some breakthrough trendsetters: "The Cosby Show," "Miami Vice" and "Golden Girls," letting his competition scramble to come up with poor imitations. He proved how invaluable innovation and showmanship really are in the world of entertainment. Sadly, over the last few years, NBC's record-breaking success made it more reluctant to gamble the way it did in the early and mid-eighties. The ratings race is much tighter these days, due in large part to an ever more crowded marketplace. Did Tartikoff see the writing on the wall choosing to resign because he saw his network's dominance eroding? That question was posed to new NBC Entertainment President Warren Littlefield, who answered, "I think the business has only gotten more competitive, in the sense that there are far more choices for the viewers, so in that sense, it's tougher than ever before. He (Tartikoff) would tell you that, and I can tell you that." And certainly radio programmers would tell you that—they've had to deal with "more choices" for a lot longer than any of their television counterparts.

Happening faster than you can say "blow-out," PAULA ABDUL is already top twenty at 14% of the 260 stations reporting her this week. # SAFE isn't necessarily SOUND

If you're someone who shuns the safe route, you won't be alone at the New Music Seminar.

NMS attracts the mavericks in music radio like yourself--programmers who keep an ear to the street and who rely on their instincts rather than the back page of R&R--people like Keith Naftaly (PD, KMEL), this year's NMS Webber Award recipient. You share the ability to spot trends, shake up markets, and develop the new formats that the rest of the nation follows. You play and win at the ratings game, but it's got to be on your own terms.

At NMS you'll join 8,500 delegates from around the world representing every facet of the music business. You'll participate in lectures, workshops, debates and panel discussions that will help you solve problems in your own field and broaden your knowledge of the industry forces that profoundly affect radio.

And when the day is done, you can check out hundreds of live acts at New Music Nights, the world's largest international music festival and talent showcase.

As a programmer, you'll find that NMS puts you in touch with new artists and new ways of thinking. You'll learn what music's happening in U.S. regional markets and foreign countries--information that will put you several steps ahead of the competition in the market you know so well.

Don't pass up this valuable opportunity. Register before June 12 and save an additional $45 off our regular rate. Call (800) 888-8596 today! (Registration calls only please.)

ON RATINGS & RESEARCH

by Jhan Hiber

“SUPERRATINGS”:
A NEW RATINGS

Is it a bird? A plane? No, it's Superratings!!
And, what you might ask, is/are Superratings?

Well, according to their press releases—which is about all we have to go on so far—Superratings is a new contender in the radio ratings game. Not able to leap tall buildings necessarily, yet they do promise to “put an end to the high-handed, arrogant tactics of the ratings cartel.”

Let's take an early look at what the fuss is all about.

WHERE'S THE BEEF?

In all my years of being involved in or keeping an eye on the radio ratings biz, I must say this is the most curious example yours truly has ever seen of the launch of a ratings company. But maybe that's okay—you decide.

Normally, such as when Birch launched in the late '70s, the company sends out some press releases, shows examples of their method of retrieving radio ratings, includes other technical data potential users of the numbers might want to see, maybe even a sample ratings book. This way professional researchers such as those at the NAB, RAB and the Electronic Media Rating Council (which audits and accredits ratings firms) can scan the specs and get an idea as to the value of the research—are the numbers any good? Also, since advertisers are the ones actually spending $$$ in our medium, prospective ratings companies are usually loath to proceed unless they've done their homework with key media and agency research or media directors in
New York and other top markets.

What have we seen so far from Superratings?

Some small ads in the trades offering a number to call in Southern California if you'd like to hear a three-minute tape about the service.

You may want to call the number (818-918-3333) as I did.

Several days before my deadline I called, listened to the sales pitch on the tape, then called another number to which I was directed in order to request details. In my message on their answering machine, I indicated that I am Ratings and Research Editor for Gavin, had a ratings company background, and was asking to receive detailed materials and to speak to a qualified spokesperson.

I got a fax the next day—not answering my questions. It was another sales piece for the company.

So, I'd love to be able to share with our readers lots of nitty-gritty details about this new ratings source—but I can't. Hopefully, we'll get some info soon, and we'll share that (and our opinions about the Superratings approach) with you once we've had time to analyze, then talk further with Superratings officials.

A NEW DIARY?

So what do we know about these guys?
Here's what we've been able to glean from the PR info they've disseminated to date:

•The basis of the Superratings system will be a diary. According to published reports such a diary will be different from Arbitron's in that there will be aided or “stimulated” recall. In English, that means local stations would somehow be prelisted in the diary, to spur diarykeepers' entries. No details here yet on how long a person would keep a diary and how many people per household would be involved in a survey (everyone 12+ as with Arbitron, or just one person per household, as with Birch).

•Survey length would be four weeks, with sweeps taken every other month. For example, their first Superratings sweep was done in April, in the top 10 markets, with results hopefully due May 15. The next survey would then cover June, with results in mid-July, and so on. Six books a year would be the goal.

•Qualitative information as well as quantitative data
will be captured.
Also, usage of TV and readership of newspapers will be obtained.

•Annual cost figures sound attractive at $7500 yearly for the basic service. This is based on a sample size of 1500 (monthly or for the entire year?).

•Don't despair if you're not in the top 10 markets. Superratings apparently plans to cover the top 50 markets
by the end of the year.

IMPLICATIONS FOR YOU

Even though the information regarding this new ratings service is sketchy there are some hopeful signs. While a healthy dose of skepticism may be in order 'til we know more, at least the idea of more competition for Arbitron is welcome. Especially if there's a diary design that can capture qualitative data as well as quarter-hour numbers. And the cost is bound to get some people's attention—let's just hope the quality of the ratings and qualitative research is not dime store variety. Yugo cost less than Mercedes, but there's a reason.

Since the advent of Birch, and especially since their surge in the mid-'80s, Arbitron has become a more responsive service and one that's trying to make the 1965 diary still be updated and useful today. If Superratings can add to the competitive equation with an acceptable product, who knows how that will affect the radio ratings race?

Certainly things will be more interesting.
Stay tuned here as we'll bring you a play-by-play coverage of this match—as well as more on the new service as soon as we have it. In the meantime, here's hoping the balance of your Spring sweep goes well. ●

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

KING SUN - BIG SHOT (PROFILE) Second release from one of the most overlooked albums of the year "Righteous But Ruthless." This single offers two jammin' versions with the original track tailored by King Shameek and the remix provided by Funkmaster Flex. King Sun's laidback vocal style paints a perfect storyline about the neighborhood kid who slowly enters the game of love, but moves quickly into the fastlane. A positive plot that'll make villains re-valuate the illegal lifestyle. The album version carries the ghetto blatin' element, while the Funkmaster Flex version gives the club and mixshow jock a cool alternative. Peek out the B-side for the mellower "Undercover Lover." Contact Fred Feldman at (212) 529-2600. BAS

WHODINI - JUDY (MCA) The masters of old school Hip Hop are back with a comical tale about the local freak-a-zoid, "Judy." This single has more funk and spice than the UC oriented "Freaks," as producer Fresh Gordon injects a formula that College programmers and mixshow heads might tolerate. Basic swing beat and a slappin' bass groove build the foundation around the lightweight lyrical plot. WMBR-Cambridge, MA's DJ Chameleon and WFCS-New Britan, CT's Barry Wade make it their adds of the week. Contact Brute Bailey at

(818) 777-0514 or Corey Newhouse at (601) 777-3312. BAS

TWIN HYPE - DOUBLE BARREL (EP) (PROFILE) A guaranteed mixshow and retail hit! Twin Hype and King Shameek join the EP party to release what I predict will be the beat of the summer. A total contrast from the Hip House grooves that we were first introduced to. The Hollywood-Shameek collaboration is a package full of non-stop slammin' breaks and dialogue. My favorite cut, "Nothin' Could Save You," features Shameek at his best. Driving beats and an impressive En Vogue-like vocal riff supports this flawess arrangement. Sophisticated vocal maturity and a funky bassline are the highlights of "Wrong Place, Wrong Time." The Twins send an appetizing laidback poetic groove to the divas on "Call Me." "Something Like Venom" delivers a minute and a half of Bomb Squad-style flavor. My second pick, "Double Barrel," features the lyrical perfection of the Twins as they entertain you with microphone finesse. A must have EP. Contact David Gray at (213) 659-7999 or Fred Feldman at (212) 529-2600.

KEITH WASHINGTON takes "Kissing You" into the number one slot, but faces major competition to stay there more than one week. Paul Strong, WLOU-Louisville, likes BOYZ II MEN's "Motownphilly" and makes it his RTW. He also says about TRACIE SPENCER's "This Time Make It Funky": "Song is exactly what it says—she makes it funky!" Gregg Diggs, WKYS/FM-Washington, D.C., likes Jam and Lewis' production of SOUNDS OF BLACKNESS. "This is a bonafide smash!" he says. Roscoe Miller, WXVI-Montgomery, goes to SMALL CHANGE's "Why" for his RTW. His quote:

"I just like it!" Greg Sampson, WQMG-Greensboro, likes GENE RICE's "You're Gonna Get Served," saying, "The Gene Rice is going to put some gravy on your rice—it makes women melt!" Van Wilson, WANM-Tallahassee, makes THE NATION FUNKTASIA's "Anti Funky World," his RTW. He says, "It gives today's music a shot in the arm." GUY's "Do Me Right," is RTW for Thomas Bacote, V103-Atlanta, who says, "A real good combination for Guy and Heavy D." He also recommends LISA FISCHER's "How Can I Ease The Pain": "The record's really taking off in all formats in this market. I feel she'll become one of the premier female vocalists of our time." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, makes PAULA ABDUL's "Rush, Rush," her RTW, saying, "It's good to see another side of Paula. This ballad should do quite well in both Top 40 and Urban." Barbara Byrd, KFXZ-Lafayette agrees. Chase Thomas, WJDY-Salisbury, picks OMAR CHANDLER's "This Must Be Heaven," saying, "The connection of Omar Chandler and Audrey Wheeler is incredible. A lot of calls—all demos—a good remake." Casey McMichaels, WVOI-Toledo, says to watch out for a new ballad from RIFF called "If You're Serious." "I think this is the kind of ballad that will appeal to all demos and should fit in any format—laid back and excellent." Basil Smikle, WVBR-Ithaca, NY, called in to say, "Just added ALEXANDER O'NEAL's 'What Is This Thing Called Love?' and we're looking for it to move up the chart pretty quickly. Lots of phones already." Toni St. James, KJMS-Memphis, picks HI-FIVE's "I Can't Wait Another Minute," saying, "This is going to take off!" Madhatter, WGOK-Mobile, picks

NEW RELEASES by John Martinucci

PEABO BRYSON - Can You Stop The Rain (Columbia)

Killer ballad. If this track can't reel in those mature listeners, nothing can. Peabo is outstanding, and this will confirm it. "Can You Stop The Rain" might have been heard by those of you who attended the A/C "Jukebox Jury" at last February's Gavin Seminar. Peabo works with Walter Afanasieff, who's also produced songs for Mariah Carey and Michael Bolton.

SOUNDS OF BLACKNESS - Optimistic (Perspective)

Jam and Lewis' new label, Perspective Records, has debuted and their first release is from this 40-member vocal and instrumental ensemble. "Optimistic" combines Gospel, Jazz and Contemporary R&B, on one tight performance. Check it out. Already added at OC104/FM-Ocean City, MD, WHUR-Washington, D.C., WVCR-Albany, NY, and B95-Fresno, CA.

RHYTHM SYNDICATE - P.A.S.S.I.O.N. (Impact)

This group's debut release sounds a bit like—uum—maybe Prince! The driving forces behind the group are two of the members—Evan Rogers and Carl Sturken; these two gentlemen have penned songs for Stephanie Mills, Jeff Lorber's Facts Of Love, and Cheryl Lynn, among others. Anyway you add it up, this track's chorus has a hook that'll have you singing along and tapping to the beat.

HARMONY - Your Love Ain't Right (Virgin)

Variety is the key to Harmony. This lady's first release, "Poundcake," didn't see much action. Her second single, "Your Love Ain't Right," with its production and minimal rap breakdown, is directed more toward Urban Contemporary. Worth a listen.

MILES JAYE - Sensuous (Island)

On the last album, Miles sang of an "Irresistible" lady. Now on his third album for Island entitled "Strong," he's involved with a "Sensuous" woman. Mile Jaye handles the words and music. He uses a shuffle beat, infectious sax and descriptive violin, to achieve his sensual sound.

AFTER 7 - Nights Like This (Virgin)

It's finally crossed my desk! Probably the most played LP cut from the "Five Heartbeats" soundtrack. As The Dells continue their upward progress on the Urban chart, After 7 shows off their versatility. Jesse Johnson produced and co-wrote this track with Keith Lewis. The sixties never sounded so good.

LOOSE ENDS - Love's Got Me (MCA)

This third release from Loose Ends' "Look How Long" album, "Love's Got Me," is a cool mid-tempo jam. If you liked or had success with "Don't Be A Fool," I'm sure you'll agree that this track is a chart contender.

RADIO IN WAR

In the March 9 issue of the Gavin Report I reported on "Radio's Response To The War." It focused on the Adult Contemporary session at this year's Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals, and described how panelists and their stations reacted to the Persian Gulf Conflict. The purpose of the column was to discuss not only this particular situation, but how radio can and should respond to any major emergencies and overwhelming news events. I invited your input on this subject.

The first letter received was from Rich Harris, Program Director of KYMN in Northfield, Minnesota (not far from Minneapolis/St. Paul). He writes:

"KYMN initiated an interesting program which we titled 'Voices From Home'—even before 'Voices That Care.'

"Each Monday through Friday morning, we dedicated a 45-minute portion of our broadcast day to a man or woman serving in the Persian Gulf. The 30-minute period from 7:45 to 8:15 am featured our regular local news, local sports, local weather, etc. From 8:15 to 8:30 am we invited friends and family members of the serviceperson to call in with their message to that person. Since the servicemen selected were from our local broadcast area, response was very high. This 45-minute tape was then mailed to the person serving in the Middle East.

"The messages from listeners were sometimes very moving, occasionally very emotional (one marriage proposal), and always interesting.

"Even though we questioned commercial sponsorship of this program, we decided to at least cover our tape duplication, postage and labor costs. Sponsorships were sold as name mentions only, and we attracted a number of institutional-type advertisers to the program without intensely 'commercializing' it.

Response to the program was nothing short of tremendous. We received a call from Saudi Arabia one morning, expressing gratitude for the program, from a recipient of one of our 'Voices From Home' tapes. This feature was completed March 12th with our last local serviceperson."

Obviously, that was very responsive—and responsiveness is the heart of such special programming. I personally see nothing wrong with selling sponsorships to such features provided it does not seem to the listener that something too important to interrupt with commercials is being commercialized. This, in essence, means that the spots will have to be "institutional"—rather than sales oriented image. A natural event for the banks, fast food restaurants, and other businesses which advertise for image rather than for immediate sales results.

The second letter received on this subject was from Michael D. Moore of KTNN in Window Rock, Arizona. The station is owned by an Indian tribe, which put a special slant on KTNN's response:

"Though our coverage of the war was not materially different from those described in the column, we did have a few variables which directly affected the way we covered the war from day one.

"First, we are an NBC affiliate, which means we had hourly coverage from the network. This was augmented by our own coverage throughout the day and evening. The first problem we encountered was language barrier...KTNN is owned and operated by the Navajo Tribe of Indians, so along with the national network reports came our own interpretations of what was going on. Since the Navajos are a fiercely proud warrior tribe, they were keenly interested in what was happening in the Gulf as concerned relatives who were stationed there. It was like we were in a military town, here on the reservation. There were many prayer services, many flag-raising ceremonies, and the call for information was fierce.

"We did the customary promotions: The American flag; asking listeners to turn their lights on in support of the troops; the yellow ribbons. We did have one promotion, however, which was unique... There are a large number of Navajos enlisted in the Marines, and quite a few enlisted in the other service branches as well. We decided it would be good to record relatives of the service men and women in the Navajo language, and send the tape for broadcast in Saudi Arabia. The response from the public was tremendous. The response from the State Department was less than enthusiastic. You see, they wanted each greeting to be three minutes or less. It takes at least three minutes to say hello and begin a message, in Navajo. So we had to use our connections with Congressman Bill Richardson, D-New Mexico, to help us convince the Department that this was a good thing to do. And according to the Congressman, our tapes were heard on the radio over there.

"The Department also had a problem with the use of the language, until we reminded them that it was the Navajo language which helped the U.S. so tremendously in the Pacific Theater during World War II. (Navajo radio 'Code Talkers' almost single-handedly confounded the Japanese with their excruciatingly hard-to-understand language, used to send vital classified information to the Front.)

"We also had a special event we called 'Open Mike Night' during the station's 5th anniversary celebration, whereby we opened up the microphones to anyone who wanted to perform. Though it was a rather risky thing to do, it turned out great, and most of the performers dedicated their music to the troops in the Gulf. The event was also simulcast on the Navajo cable channel as well. Being a basic product of the sixties, and the Vietnam era, I found it quite interesting that a tribe which had been rather severely mistreated by early Americans could, so vehemently, strive to support the President and the policy that led us to the conflict. The listeners were very interested in news of the Gulf; they all showed good understanding of the ramifications of such things as Israel being provoked into entering the war, and they were very adamant about having as much information as possible, even if the music had to be curtailed a bit. Other formats in this area tried a music/news approach with less emphasis on the news angle, but we stayed with the reports throughout the war, and are still providing updates once an hour on what is still going on...

"One side note: The Vietnam veterans organizations in the area pitched in to make sure that their counterparts would receive a different welcome when they returned. We used several of these individuals in our own coverage of the conflict."

Thanks both to Rich and to Michael for their letters! And if you have something to add on this subject, it's not too late to contribute. Write me c/o the Gavin Report.

HEAR AND THERE

by Sheila Rene

In his autobiography Ice by Ice, Robert M. Van Winkle, also known as Vanilla Ice, proclaims he wrote the lyrics to an obscure Rap song, "I'm A Trip." According to Nastymix Records, the tune was in fact written, produced and distributed by the label's Sir Mix-A-Lot who released it on swass, his 1986 platinum debut album on Uphear/BMI...

Virgin Records has just released the debut album and first single, "Your Love 'Just Ain't Right," from Angel. Here's a young man who has received mentions in Life and the Los Angeles Times. A singer, songwriter, dancer and choreographer who grew up in East Los Angeles, Angel is street-wise and knows how to combine all the elements. This is just the beginning for a multi-talented star...

Who can forget the Zombies? Their hits "She's Not There," "Tell Her No" and "Time of the Season" are special memories. Rod Argent wrote those songs and led the band from 1964 to 1969, then formed the group Argent and continued pumping out hits that include "Hold Your Head Up." After 1975, Argent began recording with other artists, including the Who and Andrew Lloyd Webber ("Phantom Of The Opera"). Next he produced Tanita Tikaram's 3-1/2 million seller Ancient Heart, which was recorded in Rod's own studio, Red House, now the namesake of his current solo work on Relativity...

Bits & Pieces: Atlantic Records has signed Lynyrd Skynyrd 1991 to a long term, worldwide contract. June 11 is the release date of their self-titled album which was

music
she truly
loves

It's hard to argue with Pat Benatar. She's feisty and up about her latest project, True Love, a blues album cut "live" with seasoned blues travelers Roomful Of Blues. No amount of controversy or whining from blues purists is going to spoil her party. Papers like the Los Angeles Times and the New York Times are offering their first kind words ever. Or, as Pat adds regarding the New York Times, "You've got to understand, they've ripped my face off for twelve years."

As for what Pat Benatar should or should not sing, she's been hearing "advice" since the start of her career, starting when the late Harry Chapin spotted the tiny belter delivering torch songs in a Long Island dive. Chapin was the first music person of note to offer positive support.

"I did a project with him—a play called The Zinger. He saw me singing torch songs—Judy Garland stuff—in a bar in Huntington, Long Island. This was way before I signed a record contract."

Blues isn't the first music style that has startled Pat Benatar's fans and compatriots. Before breaking open with a then-unknown John Mellencamp's "I Need A Lover" as a sexy rock singer, Pat moved in other circles.

"I was classically trained. And 'they' said the same thing in 1979—'Who did I think I was singing rock 'n roll after I spent eight years getting ready to go to Juilliard School Of Music? What did I know about rock 'n roll?' I find you can't dwell on that kind of thinking because there's always a small group of people that are in every segment of music. The purists are always gonna have something to say."

Benatar is not one to take stagnation in stride, which is where her career as a leotarded rock belter led her. True Love began typically as a Pat Benatar rock album composed and assembled by Benatar and her longtime guitarist-turned partner—and husband Neil Giraldo. The task at hand was following up Wide Awake In Dreamland, her last album that received—to put it kindly—lukewarm response. Benatar is up front about her career setbacks.

when — benatar — gets

blues

by Kent Zimmerman

"Where the hell was I going? I wasn't happy. I was making dead records. I've always held the belief that if you don't love doing it, get out. I had nothing to lose. The idea of doing something different, not necessarily a blues album, came during the making of Wide Awake In Dreamland. It took two years to make that record, certainly not because we were being artistic geniuses. When the record came out, I never got a strong impression from the listeners that they enjoyed the music. I have my own reasons why. Afterward, Neil and I talked about what were we going to do next, because that record was so hellish."

"I felt boxed in, of my own doing, of whoever's doing. But I've come to terms with change. I'm not where I was twelve years ago. I'm in another place. I'm another person. So I think your music should reflect your life, where you're at, what you're doing. Fabricating someone else's life is not happening."

What followed was three years of relative recording inactivity. In between the months and years, a new Pat Benatar emerged. Neil and Pat produced a child, and soon life on the road gave way to diapers and grocery shopping. Also, as with a typical American family, it soon became time to jump back on the career trail and bring home the bacon. Right away, Pat and Neil realized they didn't want to make a "come-back"-type album.

"When we went in to make this new album, we started out doing it the old way. Neil and I looked at each other and thought, 'We can't do this. Not now, anyway. Not right now! Take a break!' Neil had been wanting to make a blues record for I don't know how many years, but not necessarily with me. Finally he said, 'You listen to this kind of music all the time. You love this. Why don't you try a couple of songs?'"

Benatar's reaction was disbelief. Actually, truer to her own words:

"My initial reaction was, 'Are you fucking nuts?'"

Neil wasn't nuts. He had an extensive blues collection from which to choose a wealth of material. On a dare, he and Pat hit "the vaults" and began assembling possible songs and cutting rough demos as the argument and apprehension continued.

"Loving blues and singing them are two different things. I told him I could never pull it off. He said I was wrong. He felt it was inside me and that I could find the energy to pull it off. That's Neil's talent.

And it's not because I love him and because he's my husband, but he has vision and he's able to step away and view things objectively. He plants the idea. He's the catalyst, then he leaves and lets you go through your own process of figuring things out.

"We have a huge collection of vintage blues records. It took so long to just narrow the album down to fifty songs. I mean, there's ten versions of every song by everybody. Wynonie Harris, B.B.

King, lots to work with. We spent many hours just picking out songs."

To bring such a risky proposal closer to fruition, Benatar and Giraldo needed a backing band. What resulted was a mix of a few key studio masters like bassist Chuck Dominico, and one of Neil and Pat's favorite turntable bands.

"Neil is a big fan of Roomful Of Blues. I loved the record they made with Big Joe Turner. Originally, we cut a few demos on our own that, believe me, sounded nothing like the final record. Again, Neil says, 'Let's try it with this band.' And I'm freaking because here's this band that lives and breathes blues and I'm gonna die—me the little rock brat that's gonna walk in and do this! They've been playing for twenty-five years and I'm a little scared."

The farther-on-down-the-road True Love got, the looser and more confident the participants became. In fact, Benatar wasn't the only one feeling out the situation. Initially, Roomful Of Blues had their doubts about the chemistry.

"They were the same as me—you know, apprehensive. It was a good opportunity for them, but can this girl sing this stuff? When the sessions started we cut all of it live. Once things got rolling, it was like making a first record all over again. We did some solo overdubs and recut some of the vocals, but the rhythm tracks were recorded all together in one room.

"We cut fifteen songs in two weeks. That included the guitar solos, trumpet solos, things like that. Neil and Gregg Piccolo put the charts together. All the band needed were basic charts, then they relied on their instincts. They're so musical. It was such an education to play with them. The bassist, Chuck Dominico, he swings. He gets down with John Rossi, Roomful's drummer, and man, you can't break that. They are locked in."

Next came convincing the record company. Ironically, after honoring seven year contract, Benatar separated from Chrysalis. According to California law, any contract longer than seven years constitutes "involuntary servitude." With no intention of coming back, Benatar walked.

"I had a clause in my contract that said after seven years I could leave. It stood and I walked. It was the time that Huey Lewis was doing his thing, so I just kept really quiet because I didn't want to make a stink about it. I just wanted to get out of there because it wasn't happening. We had a shit relationship—it was bad. Then a whole new regime came in—John Sykes, Joe Kiener—and it's a completely different place now. I have a new contract that says they have absolutely nothing to say over what I do."

Such autonomy came in handy, especially when Benatar and Giraldo began taking this hairpin turn in their careers. Halfway through cutting the blues material, Benatar and Giraldo felt it was time to clue in the corporate powers-that-be.

"We had to give them oxygen," Benatar joked with a sly laugh.

"We never told them what we were doing, nobody came down. When we had five tracks done we went in and played the songs for them and they fainted. Just before, some guy said, 'I hope there's twelve "All Fired Ups" and I looked at Neil and thought, 'Oh, shit! Oh no!' But they loved it—I think they genuinely loved it. This is an unusual thing for them."

What about the the blues community? Well, if Benatar cares little about corporate reaction, she seems to care even less what blues purists think. Her feisty independence is generously jittered with a sense of street smarts.

"I don't know and I don't care. I don't want to be boxed in. I don't want anybody telling me where I should be going and what I should be doing. Right now, I'm in love with this. I'm a junkie, I'm hooked, I'm there. I don't know where it'll go from here. The point is, everything is connected; everything I learned singing Puccini wasn't lost when I had to sing 'Love Is A Battlefield.' It has a connection. Everything I sing on this record is not separated from what I did over the past twelve years, and everything that happens in the future will be influenced by what has happened on this record."

The question remains.

"Why blues? One of the reasons is to turn people on to this music.

That's why we picked songs that we loved—that deserve to be heard. I won't name any names, but I talk to some people that have no fucking idea! They don't even know who Albert King is. It's frightening!

"The important thing is that people hear it and that people know. Now I happen to love Koko Taylor and if you don't think I mention that every time I do an interview—her and Big Maybelle—these are some of my favorite switching gears isn't always the easiest way.

"The biggest thing about doing this record was putting down the things that held me back. I'm glad I was able to put it aside and say, 'I don't care what happens, I don't care if it goes in the toilet, I don't care! I'm going to make this record. I need to.' And I did."

Rocking the boat, changing clothes and growing up is something that Benatar recommends. Singing for the public has singers. People like Sonny Boy Williamson. I want people to know because I would never presume to even walk in their fucking shoes. Never in a lifetime!"

Whether Benatar will continue in the blues vein seems doubtful. True Love will probably always be known as "that blues album." What is symbolic about the performances, more than returning to roots or any other kind of rhetoric, is putting aside fear and insecurity and just going for it. As many successful artists can attest, making radical moves and finally returned to the forefront of her life, something she desperately missed.

"It rejuvenates you. Originally I felt used up. Next to my family, I love singing more than anything on earth. Not loving it was killing me. I'm happy to be in this frame of mind again. It's like starting over. Gray hair is the best thing that's ever happened to me. I can do anything, say anything I want. I mean, I'm thirty-eight! I'm someone's mother. Try and give me shit!" ●

Following their debut Emergo album, Soul Brother Crisis Intervention, this new five song EP, Duke, is bound to astound you...Leviathan Records' third album with David T. Chastain, Elegant Seduction, is comin' at 'cha. There are a lot of influences represented on this one, and they're all good...Two more Leviathan releases worth a spin are Michael Harris' instrumental release Defense Mechanizms which is energy plus atmosphere, and Mark Shelton's debut album Courts Of Chaos. This

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

PAULA ABDUL's 104 ADDs is the sixth best week in Gavin A/C history and the best by a female in our entire 24 year history. CONGRATULATIONS to PAULA and the Virgin team. The track debuts at number 32 and wins PLUS FACTOR with an opening 29%.

JUDE COLE moves into the top ten with a handsome 88% HIT FACTOR and 90 HEAVY reports, up from last week's 54.

LUTHER VANDROSS' "Power Of Love/ Love Power" repeats as our format's HOTTEST track. Up from 39 to 14 over the past two weeks, it looks like a natural chart topper in the weeks to come. ADDs this week include K103, KSSK/FM, KESZ, KVIL, WMGI, WFAS/FM and KLSQ/FM.

In just two weeks GLENN FREY has soared into the top twenty with "Part Of Me, Part Of You." It increased its HIT FACTOR by 25%, and 34 ADDs put it in the MOST ADDED box. New include WLFX, KAAK, KRNO/FM, KWAV/FM and KEZR.

Whoda think that HALL AND OATES would have a number 22 single after just three weeks? They're cover of "Starting All Over Again" does it with 165 stations and a 50% HIT FACTOR. New this week for WSUL, WBDX/FM, WAHR, WMTZ, KSTP/FM, KELO/FM, WMYX, KLCY/FM, KSBL and KXRO.

The real TRIPLETS have a major A/C hit on their hands. "You Don't Have To Go Home Tonight" moves 30 to 23 with two-thirds of its 131 players HIT FACTORing. New at KATW/FM, WIHN, WCEM/FM, WABJ, K103, KLCY/AM and KWLO.

Twenty-three HEAVY rotation reports pile-up points for EXTREME's "More Than Words." Among those maxing-out already are WTNY, WFBG, J107, WCKQ, WCPZ, WDIF, KAAK, WJEQ, Q92/FM and WKTJ.

Covergirl PAT BENATAR times her A/C debut beautifully, as "True Love" takes a 47% HIT FACTOR and 13 ADDs to a debut at #37. New at WKDQ, KESZ, WMBA, WWKS, WMSQ, WGBE, KOEL, KBHT, KLCY/AM, KITI, KSUE and Q92/FM.

KEITH WASHINGTON's "Kissing You," our RECORD TO WATCH last week, gathered an impressive 32 ADDs, bringing its total to 57 stations in just two weeks and moving it into CHARTBOUND. On board with kisses are WBEC/AM, WBLG/FM, WKYE, WNMB, WXVL, KRDI/FM, WABJ, WQLR, KBHT, KSCQ/FM, KKOS to register a few. Just a few seconds and whether you're male or female there will be little resistance once Keith starts to croon. Keith is also #1 on our Urban Contemporary chart this issue.

GEORGE MICHAEL

Cowboys And Angels (Columbia)

From start to finish, this single, off of "Listen Without Prejudice Volume 1" takes hold and doesn't let go. Written, arranged and produced by George, it's a winner for A/C all the way.

GLORIA ESTEFAN

Can't Forget You (Epic)

With "Seal Our Fate" an unplayable track for more than half the format it's a good thing this ballad is coming to A/C's rescue. Written by three of her Sound Machinists, this song is the perfect antidote to the current track.

BEE GEES

When He's Gone (Warner Bros.)

An uncommonly strong rhythm track gives Brothers Gibb an extra dose of contemporary attitude, while holding in place the group's genius for adult appeal.

THE ESCAPE CLUB

I'll Be There (Atlantic)

Though the band is foreign to A/C, they deserve immediate attention when they make a record as special as this. Lyrically, it's an answer record to Oleta Adams' "Get Here." Melodically it has no equal in contemporary adult music.

JOE PASQUALE

Paint It Blue (MCA)

This week's Diane Warren song is sung especially well by Mr. Pasquale, one half of the group Boys Club. No longer mimicking George Michael, Joe establishes his own worthy identity with this winner.

Our RECORD TO WATCH this week is R.E.M.'s "Losing My Religion," which debuts in UP AND COMING with 41 believers. New with WHAI, WAFL, WPXZ, WCKQ, WXVL, KSCB, KXLV, WDIF, WWGZ, KSBT, Q92/FM, KKRBB, to mention a few of the 32 ADDs. Already on WWKS, KLSS, WDND, KEY103.5 and B100. In our Top 40 section these Georgia boys move into the Top 10.

the most talked about story of the week was TNN and CMT's banning of the Garth Brooks video. (Be sure to check out the details in the News section this week.) Radio, of course, was quick to react, with plans for radio sponsored club viewings set in motion immediately. KGKL-San Angelo conducted an on-air poll on listener reaction to the banning, and to nobody's surprise the results were an overwhelming thumbs up for showing the video. And the saga continues...Greg Edwards has left KIKF/FM-Anaheim and is investigating future opportunities. Talk with you next week. The Gavin Country Crew

REBA McENTIRE - Fallin' Out Of Love (MCA)

The Academy of Country Music's Female Vocalist Of The Year continues to expand ours and the listener's expectations, pushing herself to keep maturing as a singer. The lyrics tell of coming to terms with lost love and her vocals match that perfectly, sounding completely in control.

GENE WATSON - You Can't Take It With You When You Go (Warner Bros.)

Gene sure knows how to live. He delivers 2:46 minutes of wise advice in an upbeat, toe-tappin' style.

GLEN CAMPBELL - Livin' In A House Full Of Love (Capitol Nashville)

Campbell does his best Buckaroo impression and the result is a delight. This song was originally a hit for David Houston in 1965, but Campbell gives it a fresh shot of energy.

GEORGE FOX - Fell In Love And I Can't Get Out (Warner Bros.)

Canadian George Fox is back sounding more Country than ever. This fun little boogie should do very well for him.

EARL THOMAS CONLEY - Shadow Of A Doubt (RCA)

Richard Landis' excellent production and Conley's powerful vocals combine on a record that sounds like a hit from the first note.

SARA HICKMAN - The Very Thing (Elektra)

Hickman, a Texas singer/songwriter who has enjoyed success in A/C and Top 40, has released a song that has some of our programmers beaming. It's a beautiful song with very bright production that could perk up the most jaded ears. Elektra is considering branching into the Country field in the next year, and this serves as a good introduction.

EXILE - Even Now (Arista)

Exile welcomes newest member Mark Jones on this great single from their upcoming Justice album. It's one of those "sounds better with each listen" songs that should wear well throughout the summer.

PHOTOFILE

WPOC-Baltimore's Teri Norman led a group of over 500 people when the station sponsored this year's Multiple Sclerosis Supercities Walk-A-Thon on April 7th. A whopping total of $55,842 in pledges was collected.

Two of our favorite body builders, KNIX-Phoenix PD R.J. Curtis and Aaron Tippin set our little Country hearts aflutter when we received this shot.

LILY WAS HERE - DAVID A. STEWART featuring CANDY DULFER (ARISTA)

The main theme from "Lily Was Here" has been played for many months as an import, specialty and it received high rotation in many major market AA outlets. The reason for re-releasing Lily Was Here domestically is twofold: first, to make this Euro hit an American radio staple; second, to set up Candy Dulfer's upcoming Arista release, suitably titled Saxuality. Besides working on Stewart's soundtrack to Lily, Amsterdam's Candy Dulfer has added sax parts to the music of Van Morrison, Pink Floyd and Prince. I hope that Saxuality isn't due for quite a few months. There's a good possibility that "Lily Was Here" is going to be a multi-format hit, adding the U.S. to a long list of countries that have already taken the song to number one.

GOING HOME - DAN SIEGEL (EPIC)

Besides offering Dan Siegel's freshly-finished instrumental offerings, Going Home helps end AA's male vocal drought by featuring three Kenny Rankin vocals. Not only does Rankin's presence add to Going Home's programming appeal, it's great to hear these two stylists paired on what sounds like equal turf. Rankin's first appearance ("Next To You") is set up well by the two opening trax, especially the prologuish title cut, "Going Home." In co-writing these vocal selections, Siegel maintained a constant energy flow. Fans of Siegel's combination acoustic/electric eclectic sensibilities will like this latest neighborhood of compositions. After only a few listens, the songs feel like a tight-fit, not only to instrumentalists, but to the Rankin fans and those familiar with Siegel's past work, most notably Northern Nights. Other trax: "Sojourn" with Ernie Watts, and the percussive "Don't Let Go."

LEARSON'S RETURN - MARLON JORDAN QUINTET (COLUMBIA)

Serious. Nineteen-year-old Marlon Jordan surrounds himself with four other young players and creates eight arrangements of varying tempos. The only consistency is the serious tension felt between the grooves. As Jordan's laser gaze on the back cover photo intimates, Learson's Return isn't Jazz 101. This is advanced stuff born out of the Marsalis school of studied rigidity. From 0:01, Learson's Return (both the album and the track) furrows its brow and digs in for fifty minutes of pipe-puffing, drink-nursing intensity. "Waiting For B" is a welcome cloud of smoke, lightening things up with a walking stride. Yet Marlon is tight-lipped even on this selection as his first solo zigzags between the joyous and the dissonant. As on the opening title track, young tenor man Tim Warfield scrambles eggs

Shorter-cum-Coltrane style, intermittently setting the tone towards more intensity. While Learson's Return is a studied success, part of me wants to reach into the CD machine and distribute some power noogies. Hey guys, loosen up! Have some fun!!

AMANI A.W.-MURRAY (GRP)

Is it a coincidence that almost all of the young teenaged Jazz phenoms play renditions of bebop past just as young rock guitarists frequently start with the blues? Well, maybe it isn't. It does make sense that young players like (at the time) fourteen-year-old Amani A.W.-Murray would emulate the work of mentors like Clark Terry, Sonny Stitt, Dizzy and Wynton. And while the real test for Amani is down the road a-ways, it's entertaining to hear a fourteen-year-old mind bouncing ideas off more sustained soloists like Terry or Benny Green, another young player who already has made the "grand" transition from youthful curiosity to established sideman. In Amani's favor are seasoned minds like Lonnie Plaxico, Marvin "Smitty" Smith and others who lay a solid base. And he could use a little experienced polish, as a youthful exuberant, it's enjoyable to hear Amani's alto outbursts, some of which are a little on the King Curtis side. Since the airwaves don't distinguish between the young and the old, it's in Amani's favor that he has a sack-full of tones to draw from. Starter trax include Charlie Parker's "Cheryl," "Knarf" and "A.C. Blues (Alternate Current)" certainly not to be confused with Adult/Contemporary. See if you can understand what the heck Clark Terry is talking about.

ROOM 292 - STEFAN KARLSSON (JUSTICE)

From the opening track—the wailing flailing "B-hive Bop"—Room 292 raises eyebrows with a unique quintet configuration. Nearly half of the record breaks the mold and employs a double trumpet lineup. The result is a very brassy sounding set. But the rest of the story is that the sessions are chaired by a young gifted pianist named Stefan Karlsson. He's a mindful technician with a nice touch for rhythm and melody as well. On "Get Out Of Bed," Karlsson displays the patchwork rhythm style that Bill Evans popularized. The title track and "Blues For Jac" have a real pop. Move over Joey Calderazzo! There's another spirited newcomer around named Stefan Karlsson. Room 292 is power Bop played with a pent-house suite mentality.

HONEY - JAMES MOODY (NOVUS/RCA)

James Moody seems to have no preference toward any key of saxophone. He can pick up either tenor, alto or soprano and convince the listener that it's his primary axe. Moody doesn't gush his way around classic melodies like "Someone To Watch Over Me," "It Might As Well Be Spring" and even "When You Wish Upon A Star" but Honey's cozy quartet sound is overflowing with amiability. Moody enlists fellow Dizzy Gillespie alumni Kenny Barron for his reliable, hunt-and-peck piano style. On "Moody's Blues," Moody carries a subtle, unsentimental treatment that is neither moanin' nor painful. Each track, notably "Honey's Tune" and "I Can't Get Started," takes a relaxing, even-keeled stance.

NIGHT BLOSSOMS - MICHEL SARDABY (DIW)

Pianist Michel Sardaby is, to us, the least known bandleader in the latest DIW release. Like another Michel (Camilo, that is), Sardaby hails from the Caribbean, and gathered experience playing with larger bands before adapting to the more vulnerable trio configuration. Throughout the sixties, he bopped with folks like Dexter Gordon, Johnny Griffin and Clark Terry. Here Sardaby is a splendid, non-flowery improviser. Sometimes he performs the main themes somewhat oblivious to his tremendous rhythm section comprised of bassist Jay Leonhart and drummer "Tooty" Heath. On the self-composed "Maelstrom," his style resembles the hare and the tortoise. Sardaby plods along on a single pace as the rhythm revs and shift gears beneath him. It's this uncanny contrast of tempos and temperaments that makes the tune so engaging. When the drums underscore with a driving brush beat on "Way Farer" and the band falls into synch, Sardaby's piano bench begins to heat up. Night Blossom is beautifully and simply recorded. The bass notes have a well-rounded spin and the drums are full-bodied.

OUT OF THIS WORLD - TITO PUENTE (PICANTE/CONCORD)

Tito Puente, "El Rey de los timbales," is long past Crossover Dreams. His Picante sessions serve as the archetypal Jazz ensemble and musica Salsa. This time he throws a few standards into the pot and nobody does it better. He drenches Monk's "In Walked Bud" with combustible Latin fuel. The Gershwin brothers' "'S Wonderful" makes an energized transformation from the cabaret to the hot city street. Backed by his signature cowbell/timble meter, the trumpet and tenor each stretch out for three sets of twelve-bar rave-ups. Although buried at track seven, the title cut emerges with Puente moving over to vibraphone and juggling between a jumping 4/4 mambo and a loping 6/8 beat. Out Of This World lights a fire under the larger Jazz ensemble sound.

SEVEN INCH SPOT-LIGHT (Various artists, Various labels)

Minneapolis' Halo Of Flies (led by artist/indie label entrepreneur Tom Hazelmeyer) return with an awesome seven-inch featuring "Tired And Cold," a growling, edge-of-control rock song with a toothy hook and all the thunder of a major storm. The flip, "Wasted Time," is tweaky and thrashy but packs less wallop than the excellent A-side. Unrest's latest (unless their Sub Pop single-of-the-month is more recent) turns up on the K label. "Yes She Is My Skinhead Girl," the most notable track here, sounds like the Pastels at their mellowest playing a Dead Milkmen cast-off that was rejected for having too much questionable sentiment. This one's produced by artist/indie label entrepreneur Calvin, re-mixed by artist/indie label entrepreneur Kramer. Singer/songwriter Pooch's "Any Way The Wind Blows" (Flipside) is a wanderin' fantasy with an oddly-turned, endearing riff and the kind of tinny sound that'll have you longing for a cheap in-dash cassette deck and the open road. Pegboy's 7", "Walk On By"/"Field Of Darkness," (Touch & Go) specializes in that Ramones-produced-by-Rob Younger high octane, low-friction, full-throttle kind of romp that makes me want to play guitar until I self-destruct, spontaneously combust, or whatever. The Cynics have a new single release available from Sympathy For The Record Industry. If this is the same band that made Blue Train Station (and at least one other album) in the late '80s, they've traded in their cheesy organ and trashy '60s retro in favor of the early '70s. They've done their own version of the cover of Slider and their own smokin' cover version of T. Rex's "Buick Mackane" with pumping, groovy, almost-metallic reverence. Whew!

PAVEMENT - PERFECT SOUND FOREVER (10") (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647)

Cool! Stockton, CA's guitar duo Pavement have resurrected the ten-inch for their third release, Perfect Sound Forever, seven songs that sound like they were pressed on 12" vinyl, then compacted to fit the smaller format. The low-fidelity of Pavement's record is essential to the band's peculiar energy, as their compressed material hums abrasively like a caffeine high and threatens, at any moment, to explode—like an abused can of Coke. But Pavement, while enamored of distortion, can't be unceremoniously lumped into the "noise" category, because one of the band's two guitarists always maintains a strong core of melody. "Heckler Spray," with its just-off rhythm and nails-on-a-blackboard guitar, gets you jerking about and raises the hair on the back of your hands—should you have hair on the back of your hands. "From Now On" is a pattering pop song boasting a flat vocal, dragging, uncertain hook, and a cloud of noxious noise. The brief lead-off track on side two, "Drive-By-Fader" is simultaneously plinky and psycho, and "Debris Slide" is upbeat, face-forward, distortion-basted pop (complete with "ba-ba-ba-da-ba" chorus). The pastry-dense "Home," that reminds me of Barbara Manning's "Straw Man," contains (what is for Pavement) a rare, intelligible lyric—"Pull my lips back/And watch me smile"—that's cool enough to make me wonder what the hell else they're saying. And finally, "Krell Vid-User" sounds like the duo are blowing on blades of grass they've trapped between their thumbs. An interesting aside: Pavement first tasted the bitterness of fame when the Wedding Present covered "Box Elder," from their debut 7" and neglected to credit Pavement for the use of that material. SB

THE RESIDENTS - FREAK SHOW (Write "Freak Show", 109 Minna #391, San Francisco, CA 94105)

Step right up and gawk at the Freak Show, an assembly of vignettes dedicated to the exploration of human oddities. It's hard to call these songs—they are more like sound portraits created from the palette of a computer-based digital recording system. "Harry The Head" is the first personage introduced. He paints angels on a woman's skirt using his teeth to guide the brush. The discordant keyboards well render the labyrinth of perversity we enter on this CD. "Jack The Boneless Boy" is a mass of synthesized vocals that diffuses into the strains of harpsichord-like keyboards. To their credit, the Residents make no judgements about the freaks, and they stick to barraging our minds' eyes with scenes from a lost art. This legendary San Francisco ensemble creates a whole world using various singing voices and poetic lyrics, a world that should appeal to those looking for something a little different. DAVID BERAN

MECCA NORMAL - WATER CUTS MY HANDS (Matador Records, 611 Broadway, Suite 712, New York, NY 10012), and "I CAN HEAR ME FINE" (Smarten Up! Records, 304 1320 Salsbury Dr., Vancouver, BC Canada V5L 4B3)

Out of Vancouver's soup of crafty musicians spring David Lester and Jean Smith of Mecca Normal, who are cresting their initial wave of raw energy and vitality. Smith's wailing emotion-thoughts are kind of primal beyond real understanding, but their spontaneity and intensity keep them interesting. Lester's guitar (the band's cohesive element) provides an equally turbulent emotional charge—at times abrasive, at times more melodic, but always powerful and hard-edged. Anyway, the best song on either of these releases is the single's A-side, "I Can Hear Me Fine," but "It's Important" is among the more intense of songs I've heard this year—it possesses that riveting, coiled-spring tension that makes people shut up and listen. The B-side, "Follow Down," is solid Fugazi-meets-Nico-meets-Sub Pop punk-pop stuffing. Highlights on the LP are "Taking the Back Stairs" (more of the same) and "Water in a Bucket" (psycho nightmare poetry). DAVID KEENAN

SEX POLICE - MEDALLION (Baited Breath, P.O. Box 3597, Chapel Hill, NC 27515)

Kiss, Devo, The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Fishbone, Snickers. This is a list, albeit incomplete, of the influences on this new creation (soon to be sensation) known as Sex Police. Self-described as "Metallic funk with horns—kind of," North Carolina's Sex Police bust the scene with an orgy of original, fun-filled tracks. From the remnants of The Pressure Boys, Floating Children, and A Number Of Things, the five guys on this squad won last year's Snickers/EMI new music search. The result is Medallion, a clever album of infinite influences and arresting harmonies. "To The Bone" cuts deep. "Elevator" is as up as you can get. Also check out "Sex Police," "Amanda Falls," and "Hectors." Repeat offenders need not fear prosecution. BRETT D. ATWOOD

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

HARD AT PLAY - HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS (EMI)

Since their salad days as the American Express, Huey & The News have been at their best emphasizing the camaraderie of being a band. Sensing such a void, The News rub our faces in the fact that this is music performed by a twelve-legged, dozen-armed, sixty-fingered and sixty-toed rockasaurus. In preparing this set, the band went to the wall and the well both in house and outside for the right material. A song like the tremendously successful "Couple Days Off" has that "Working For A Living" sense of humor that could only be written by a band that started as a struggling club band at Uncle Charlie's. On an outside contract like Huey makes the outside contracted "That's Not Me," all his, with lyrics that fit the meter and personality of the News perfectly. I don't want to intimate that the News have abandoned their previous attempts at playing both youthful and adult music. There are lots of tempos to choose from here—music that covers the broad spectrum of fragmented nineties radio, all without watering down the News essence. The best of the rock trax also include: the opening "Build Me Up," "Best Of Me," and the honky tonkin' "Time Ain't Money," as well "Couple Days Off" and my fave, "That's Not Me."

PEGGY SUICIDE - JULIAN COPE (ISLAND)

Wow! Julian makes the record of his career, as if the guns were to his head, as if his hair and fingers were afire. Peggy Suicide is merely a phase that Julian Cope is going through. Actually there are four "phases," onto which eighteen monsters are crammed (the cassette is even longer!). Methinks that buried beneath the varied menu (from the Velvet "Hanging Out & Hung Up On The Line" to a sweet and acrid "Pristeen" to the Crazy Horse eight minute "Safesurfer") is a total concept. Peggy Suicide was born from a vision (hallucination?) that Julian Cope had of Mother Earth and all the ecological foibles befalling her. Emerging is a parable of some twisted sort, each song armed with a mini-document stating intention and purpose. Yet if, like me, you'd like to throw that out the window, it's just as good to turn this up and rock in your chair until the arms fall off. Cope himself bills this collection as "75 Minutes of Loud and Soft Songs About Love and The World In Which To Practice It." I call that a bargain—the best we've ever had from Mr. Cope. Leave space on that Best-Of list for this one.

STRESS (REPRISE)

Are we talking Stress as in emphasis or pressure? Maybe neither. Stress is rather carefree, a West London band that takes an acid-dipped, flowery picture of pop/rock music. Stress borrows from the days when bands like Traffic plucked sitars for effect. But these are days when bands like Stress don't have the luxury of being so starry-eyed and innocent. Try as they may to revert, their music ends up sounding very forward, very vocal-oriented. Like the music of Lenny Kravitz, Stress brands themselves "colorblind," nobly attempting to renew the spirit of Sly, when rock color barriers were shattered and confused. It looks like Stress is getting a big time launch. The vitality of a song like "Flowers In The Rain" warrants such enthusiasm.

"CRAZY" - SEAL (SIRE/WARNER BROS.)

I hate the word infectious. In describing music, it connotes a listener with a rash or a curable disease. But "Crazy" by Seal is just that. It's a cooker that speculates and builds rather than coming on strong. I can see why there has been rabid European, American import and even Top Forty request action on this one. Deserves a more than thoughtful audition.

"BLOOD ON THE BRICKS" - ALDO NOVA (JAMBCO/MERCURY)

Aldo Nova burst onto the rock scene during the early-80's "new music" movement. Like his namesake, Aldo's star shone bright, before flaring into a hole of darkness. Well, Canada's Nova is back with even more bite and enthusiasm under the auspices of Jon Bon Jovi who co-wrote and co-produced this goodie. This is rock's version of Michael's "Beat It"—big arrangement, an arsenal of horn blasts and a repetitious and hooky chorus. The best part is the last minute and a quarter. Turn it up, love!

OVER RISING - CHARLATANS UK (BEGGARS BANQUET/ RCA)

A banner week for rock dance fare. It's sometimes customary for the hot bands in Britain, while recording a full disc of new enchiladas, they sometimes to an advance EP, partly to sate the fan's appetite, partly to quell the band's own paranoid sense of publicity. That usually puts the matter halfway between serious and throwaway. Not so here. "Over Rising" is a rouser while "Way Up There" and "Happen To Die" are curiosity b-pieces. "Opportunity Three" is a remixed slice from the last Charlatans chart-topper LP.

LUCKY - THE SUBDUDES (EAST WEST AMERICA)

No surprise that producer Rob Fraboni had an early association with The Band (and associated solo projects) as well as a hidden Eric Clapton, DC Go-Go soul and Bonnie Raitt jewels. He brings that cozy, down-homey feel to Boulder's Subdudes' latest. Like the Canadian Cowboy Junkies, the Subdudes play circular music, music that bathes itself in a mutual intimacy. Give and take stuff. Yet while the Junkies are moody, the Subdudes rely on a personable seventies Memphis funk as interpreted by electric and acoustic instruments with an occasional squeeze box thrown in for good measure. "Straight Shot" right into Al Green's "Tired Of Being Alone" gives you a good idea where these guys are coming from. Lucky is a little bit of a reach for rock radio, but so-called adult or alternative "granola" stations might find the 'dudes treatments just right.

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

I'd like to start things off with a reminder: College stations should call in their reports on MONDAYS between 9-4PM West Coast time. Commercial stations call or fax theirs on Tuesdays between 9-3PM. If your station is freezing on a particular week (say you have finals) call and let me know. It's extremely inconvenient for me to take both sets of reports in a six-hour setting. Thanks.

Good news from SRO Marketing this week—ex KUNV's BRETT GREENE is set to step in as Director of Alternative Radio Promotion. General manager C.J. JOHNSEN says, "His wealth of experience, creativity and passion for promotion will be the driving force behind our dynamic radio division." Brett can be reached at (213) 652-9002. Congratulations!

Here's the dope. STEVE MASTERS looks set to start his MTV gig next week. Steve was lucky enough to work things out so he could stay at LIVE 105 and strut his tripindicular stuff on the telly. Steve, when you get to Los Angeles, don't forget to give TOTALLY PAULY my number.

KRCK's PAUL KREIGLER just called to tell me that as of June 6th, KRCK will be no more—at least not in the Alternative format. Paul's taking the sour taste in his mouth and heading "down South" where he's already got something simmering. I'll get more specific as soon as Paul lets me.

NEW RELEASES

JULIAN COPE - PEGGY SUICIDE (ISLAND)

Julian Cope didn't want to make this record. He didn't want to be perceived as "some hippie trying to save the world"—he'd rather save that for Sting. But in the end, Julian did make the album, which was inspired by his vision of Mother Earth (aka Peggy Suicide) in the '90s—a lady so fed up with being abused that she'd climb the highest cliff of infinity to jump off. Not exactly a cheery thought. AIDS, the English Poll Tax, environmental concerns and politics in general all get their comeuppance on Peggy Suicide, driving home the point that the world hasn't improved any, despite advances in modern technology. It's a highly personalized effort, but one with a universal message. I like "Pristeen," "East Easy Rider," "Safesurfer," "Beautiful Love" and "Not Raving But Drowning." Rock your world.

THE MIGHTY LEMON DROPS - SOUND (SIRE/REPRISE)

The Mighty Lemon Drops mark their return to the musical spotlight with a new album titled Sound. This time around, popmeister Andy Paley twiddles the production knobs for the Wolverhampton gang and really zeros in on the band's keen pop sensibilities. The songs that move me most are the uptempo, raving pop blasts—a musical trait The Lemon Drops fans love most. Check out the way cool "Big Surprise," "Annabelle," "Cold Cold Heart" and of course the toe-tappin' single "Unkind." 'Right then. When's the tour? LR

CHAPTERHOUSE - "PEARL" (DEDICATED/RCA)

One of the greatest thrills these days is listening to new bands who were inspired to take up their instruments the first time they heard/saw My Bloody Valentine or early Jesus And Mary Chain. There's something addictive about sugar-coated pop songs with fuzz around the edges. It's not brain surgery, so why analyze it. Just turn it up a bit louder and get lost in the swirling beauty of it all. Might I suggest the same for you? LR

PERE UBU - "I HEAR THEY SMOKE THE BARBECUE" (FONTANA/MERCURY)

"I Hear They Smoke The Barbecue" is a meaty little pop song that should graduate Pere Ubu from the "art-rock" school they've been damned to. A perfect Summersong that sounds great on the radio in between your Cures and Costellos. Give it a try. LR

808 STATE - EX:EL (TOMMY BOY)

You'd never guess that 808 State were from Manchester. The customary jangly guitars, tambourines and breathy vocals don't come into play on an 808 State album. What you will find are hard, driving dance beats that don't stop. This time around, you'll also find fello Manc, Bernie Sumner (New Order, Electronic) and Sugarcube's siren Bjork contributing lyrics and guesting on vocals. Vocals? On an 808 State album? Yup, and it sounds great, too. Just take a listen to (Bernard's) "Spanish Heart" or (Bjork's) "Ooops" and "Qmart" and see if you don't get caught up in it all. Better still, check out "Lift," "In Yer Face," "Techno Bell" and "Cubik" and thrill to 808 State in their natural state. Now, pick yourself off the floor and start again! LR

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

AFTER 7 - Nights Like This (Virgin)

Inspired by the classic R&B groups that went from singing on street corners to overnight stardom, Director Robert Townsend conceived a storyline around the fictional "Five Heartbeats." Featured on the movie's soundtrack, this talented young trio captures the essence of great sixties R&B and mold it in a package that's very 1991. A triple-format threat that stands a good chance of ending up as their biggest hit to-date.

ESCAPE CLUB - I'll Be There (Atlantic)

Laid back isn't the term that comes to mind when describing this group's musical image. Hearing Trevor Steel and his bandmates turn in a stirring performance via a ballad is a wild surprise, and it's sure to broaden their appeal. No escaping the magnetic quality of this song.

TOMMY PAGE - Whenever You Close Your Eyes

(Sire/Warner Bros.) There's a wonderful wide-eyed innocence in the way Tommy delivers a love song, and this Diane Warren/Michael Bolton-penned entry superbly showcases that quality. All the ladies who love to look as well as listen to Tommy will be sighing along to this tender ballad during the summer of '91.

PET SHOP BOYS - Where The Streets Have No Name (I Can't Take My Eyes Off You) (EMI)

Never underestimate the cleverness of these techno-popsters! Conceived by Chris Lowe, here's the unlikely pairing of a U2 song with a 1967 Frankie Valli tune, now considered a classic. Oddly enough, this production melds elements of two total opposites into one cohesive and very appealing track.

TRIXTER - Surrender (MCA)

Several markets enjoyed a lot of success with the group's last single, "One In A Million," helping Trixter establish a Top 40 presence. But to gain wider exposure, bands have wisely taken the ballad route and this beauty is one that should get even more programmers sending up the white flag.

RYTHM SYNDICATE - P.A.S.S.I.O.N. (Impact)

Carl Sturken and Evan Rogers are a prolific twosome whose writing and production skills helped get Donny Osmond back on the chart with "Soldier Of Love" and "Sacred Emotion." When singer Rogers and keyboardist/guitar playing partner Sturken compose a beat, they are masters at working it to full effect. A powerful Dance track that's letter perfect.

THE SCORPIONS - Winds Of Change (Mercury)

Headbangers worldwide idolize this legendary group, but one doesn't need to be a Metal head to get into this thought-provoking effort written by lead vocalist Klaus Meine. History-making events of the last year and a half are seen from a unique perspective and get expressed with emotion that's genuinely touching. Deserves a strong on-air set up before getting played.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

LUTHER VANDROSS - Power of Love (Epic)

Two things are quickly established on first-listen. One is that Luther Vandross may have no equal when it comes to poppin' good Soul music. The other point, which gets lost every time Luther makes a record, is that some of the credit for his musical genius must go to his co-producer Marcus Miller. Together, this dynamic duo conceive and arrange sparkling, expensive productions with fantastic possibilities. The two most hearty examples of their current work come right at the top of the set: SHE DOESN'T MIND and the awesome first single, POWER OF LOVE/LOVE POWER. Both showcase the raw vocal soul of Mr. Vandross with megabuck orchestrations created by synthesizers rendered completely user-friendly in these instances. Further down the line comes the confessional pulse of THE RUSH and a song on which Luther does indeed get blood from a turnip, I WHO HAVE NOTHING, originally made famous by Ben E. King, but turned inside out in duet form by Luther and Martha Wash.

THUNDER - Dirty Love (Geffen)

In their native England, Thunder has already made lots of noise with this intense and highly commercial rocker. Primed for their American debut at Top 40 Radio, thanks to "Buzz Bin" rotation at MTV, this hot release won't go unnoticed.

JOHN WESLEY HARDING

Dear Listener,

here is me and my band's version of the Tommy James and The Shondells classic Crystal Blue Persuasion. It's the last cut on my album - we recorded it as a closing gesture, like ... well, you know this one. And now it finds itself alone, strange and out of context. Hope it stands up for itself and shouts "hello" to you ....

Back soon.

With best wishes,

John Wesley Harding
