DAVE SHOLIN PERSONAL PICK, May 24, 1991
SEAL - Crazy (Sire/Warner Bros.)
KMEL MD Hosh Gureli told me to be on the lookout for this more than a month ago and predicted I'd love it. He got that right, and now this international sensation that's topped the charts in a dozen countries is about to get America crazy all summer. On since January as an import at WIXX Green Bay, it's already Top Ten (8-7) at 104 KRBE Houston, charted 28-24 at POWER 99 Atlanta, on at CKOC Hamilton, ON and WCGQ Columbus, GA, and added at CKOI/FM Montreal. Like nothing else on the air right now.

NEWS

ARB CHANGES COMING?

GEFFEN SAYS MERCURY LEAKED GN'R

In their continuing efforts to learn who leaked unfinished copies of Guns N' Roses' next albums, Geffen Records notified Mercury Records on Monday that they've found that a Mercury staffer gave the tapes to radio stations in return for airplay. Geffen says that the act constitutes copyright infringement, unfair competition and utilization of unfair trade practices, and has asked Mercury for cash compensation.

Said Geffen General Manager Al Coury: (Geffen Records) will "continue to pursue reports of unauthorized airplay because such action deprives the recording artists of their right to present their music in finished form, creates confusion with the consumers and retailers as to the availability of the record, and is unfair to other radio stations in the market."

Use Your Illusion I and Use Your Illusion II are due for official release in early August. Two weeks ago, Geffen dropped a suit against WMMS-Cleveland, after the station aired a track from one of the albums. WMMS agreed to pay Geffen an undisclosed sum.

GROSSER CHECKS INTO THE ZOO

Amy Grosser has joined the staff of the still-new label Zoo Entertainment as National Director of Promotion. Grosser comes from I.R.S. Records, where she was West Coast Promotion Manager, Developing Artists.

"Amy's unique blend of talent, personality and experience make her a natural for the job," said company president Michael Prince. "She's a welcome addition to the Zoo team."

Grosser started as Music Director for WNEW-New York in 1984. She also put in a stint as Music Editor for FMQB. "I'm delighted to be getting in on the ground floor of such a vibrant new company," she said. "I look forward to helping break the many exciting new artists on the Zoo roster."

KIOT HOWLS

On Saturday, June 15, a Santa Fe community carnival will kickoff the debut of Adult Alternative station KIOT (Coyote Radio).

Masterminding the station's operation will be majority owner/GM Bill Sims and Music/Program Director Jack Kolkmeier, who worked together at the highly successful KLSK-Santa Fe, one of the country's first Jazz/Adult Alternative stations.

"It's (KIOT) a first cousin of the 'original' KLSK," said

Kolkmeier, who calls the format Diverse Adult Radio (DAR). "We were basically on this track when the station (KLSK) was sold in 1990. The musical baseline will continue to include Jazz, Blues, R&B, new acoustic styles and a wide variety of new technology."

To add some spice, Kolkmeier says the station will be programming contemporary World Music from over 60 different countries. "I believe we'll be the only commercial station in the country doing this," he said. "There's a large segment of the American population that likes diverse, adult music—they certainly buy it! The ...Jazz/Adult Alternative format has become very static and predictable. We're going to change that!"

Other innovative ideas incorporated in KIOT's programming are the use of community personalities as morning co-hosts; the use of BBC World Service News; and a daily "Coyote Tale" at noon.

The grand opening/community carnival will benefit the Santa Fe Family "Y" and the New Mexico Community foundation. Kolkmeier can be reached Wednesday through Friday at (505) 983-1111. Bill Sims is available at (505) 983-6453.

ELEKTRA PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT FORMED

Elektra Entertainment has formed a Product Development department, with Danny Kahn heading it up as Senior Director. Maureen Guinan will be Associate Director and John Berman the department's Coordinator. The purpose of the department will be to coordinate information concerning all aspects of creative production, with the emphasis going to new and developing artists.

Kahn has been with Elektra for three years, and most recently was National Director of Artist Development. Guinan joined Elektra in 1989, and was promoted to this current position from National Top 40 Promotion Manager. Berman starting working with the label in 1990, doing research in the video department.

"As the 1990s begin to take shape, the mandate for a Product Development is clear," said company Senior Vice-President/General Manager Brad Hunt. "With Danny, Maureen and John in place to run this new department, I feel both confident and excited about launching Product Development."

THOMPSON JOINS RUSH

Derrick Thompson has been promoted to Director of National Retail for Rush Associated Labels.

RADI-O-RAMA

Pat Gwinn is adding MD to his existing Operations/Programming/Morning Drive title at Magic 94 (WMTZ)-Augusta, GA. The air staff is as follows: Middays, Sandra Hall; Afternoon Drive, Ed Ross; Evening, Ray Hudson...New MD at 106RTB-Vincennes, IN is Mark Wine...Randy Chambers has been named Director of Programming at Z-92 (KEZO/AM&FM)-Omaha, NE...WLXR/FM-LaCrosse, WI MD Chad Brueske has exited. Taking over is Billy Hammond, last at Z104-

Martell Foundation.

GALLANT TO MANAGE ABC FM NET

At ABC FM Radio Network this week, Deborah Gallant was named Network Manager. Gallant's broadcasting experience includes stints at Dow Jones Broadcast Services, WMCA-New York and WBGO/FM-Newark.

"We're delighted to have Deborah with us at the FM Network," said FM Network Director Susan O'Connell. "Her background in sales and marketing will make her a valuable addition to our affiliations staff."

POLYGRAM ENTERS MERCHANDISING

PolyGram Holding Inc. grabbed a stake in the lucrative entertainment merchandising industry this week as it acquired a majority share of the Great Southern Company, which is one of the top three merchandisers in the world.

The Los Angeles-based Great Southern's rock clients include

Bon Jovi, Iron Maiden, Robert Plant and Skid Row. In addition, their film clients have been ultra-successful movies such as Batman, Who Framed Roger Rabbit and U2's Rattle & Hum. Great Southern will open an office at PolyGram's New York headquarters.

MATERIAL ISSUE

the International POP Overthrow has begun

"Material Issue is one of the most amazing success stories I've seen come through syndicated music programs." Tracy Donohoe, Head Buyer, Sound Warehouse

"Each week on the Chicago radio show album sales increase 10% and the band has to be seen again and again in showers all across the country." People Magazine

Madison, who'll also cover the night shift...Joining WVKZ-Albany, NY as PD is Ryan Walker, most recently at WBEC/FM-Pittsfield, MA. MD is Nikki Donovan... New personalities at KNAC-Long Beach, CA: Randy Morrison is morning driver; Laurie Free moves from weekends to middays; Steve Slammer joins the station as a weekender. He comes from KZTR-Ventura; The Animal Analee Canto signs on as part timer...Aquaman swims from WIYY-Baltimore to WHFS-Washington/Baltimore where he'll handle the overnight shift...After working at KCCQ-Ames, IA for a year, Phil Jaye returns to KRIT-Ft. Dodge, IA as MD. Charlie Chase remains PD...Joining the list of stations simulcasting: Alternative Rocker WDRE will be heard on 103.1 FM in Ft. Lee, New Jersey in addition to its original 92.7 in Westbury, Long Island, NY. The expanded listening area will cover Bergen County, NJ, Rockland County, NY and the areas surrounding Manhattan's upper west side...Connie Breeze, most recently National Promotion rep with Blixseth-Fach Entertainment, is joining the staff of HITS magazine this week. BESURETO CHECK OUT: Ben Fong-Torres' book Hickory Wind: The Life and Times of Gram Parsons. It's a highly readable, objective look at the often sad life of the man who fused Country with Rock. His influence is felt through musicians as diverse as the Rolling Stones, Emmylou Harris, Elvis Costello and Dwight Yoakam. Official publishing date is July 10. For an interview with Ben, who for twelve years was a writer/editor for Rolling Stone, has edited a number of music books, currently writes a radio column for the San Francisco Chronicle and occasionally writes for the Gavin Report, call Simon & Schuster. New York contact: Adam Rothberg, 212-698-7089; Los Angeles contact: Annette Swanberg, 213-640-7025...

"Super DJ"
Clark Kent has been named A&R Rep for East West Records America.

Tony Montgomery was promoted to Senior Director of Dance/Singles Sales at RCA Records.

ROTATIONS

Look for John Sigler to exit RCA soon. He's going to head up Giant Records' Album and Alternative Promotion starting in mid-June...Imago continues to staff: Andy Dean joins the label as National Director of Rock Promotion. He was most recently PD at WDHA-Newark, NJ...Former MCA Jazz staffer Debbie Dumas is now National Director of Jazz and Urban Music for Sin-Drome Records, Ltd. She'll oversee promotion, A&R and marketing...Atlantic's Sheri Levine has been promoted to West Coast Publicity Coordinator...

Appointments at Narada:

Anne Sarosdy is Director of Radio Promotions and Harry Cherkinian is Director of Public Relations...Keep an eye on: "Scaling The House" is not far away. People like Steve Winwood, Sting and Paul Simon already charge up to $50 for elite seats at their concerts, but some promoters are considering asking for up to $100. They say it's a way to survive during the recession. Someone who promises not to raise her prices is Paula Abdul, who says her young fans don't have as much disposable income as older concert goers. Hmmm—some older concert goers don't have much money either...

"HARD TO HANDLE" exploded after our early test play! Consistent Top 5 call-out, male + female, all demos week after week! This band has a tremendous image and "HARD TO HANDLE" is the hit single they deserve!
BRIAN PHILIPS
WEGX

With a double-platinum-plus debut album that has earned them a reputation as the band that put rock & roll back in the Top 5, The Black Crowes are absolutely unstoppable. "Hard to Handle" was their second single, a #1 AOR track with the most played video on MTV since September 1990. Now, that doesn't seem so hard to handle, does it?

WARRANT

Blind Faith

ST 73593

You've already seen the video on MTV where it began heavy rotation right from the start. And you'll get to see the band this summer on their first ever headlining tour, where great word of mouth is already making it a sell-out event.

So play BLIND FAITH the newest single from Warrant's Double Platinum album, "Cherry Pie." You'll see what we mean. On Columbia.

JUST THE FACTS...

"'Love Of A Lifetime' proves that FIREHOUSE has the talent to have another #1 record in Indianapolis and their first #1 record nationally."

Garett Michaels
WZPL/ Indianapolis

"We've been playing 'Love Of A Lifetime' for over two weeks and it's so hot it melts Q-94's studio request jingles. Getting calls in every demo."

Lisa McKay
WRVQ/Richmond

"'Don't Treat Me Bad' went to #1 for us. I have no doubts this one will occupy that spot as well. After one week of airplay, 'Love Of A Lifetime' is already pulling huge phones."

Bob Beck
KYYY/Bismarck

"FIREHOUSE cracked our Top 20 this week and by month's end the record will jump into our Top 10."

Dick Odette
MUSICLAND

"FIREHOUSE's 'Love Of A Lifetime' could be the rock ballad anthem of the summer. I got the same feeling when I heard this as I did the first time I heard Warrant's 'Heaven'. Open your ears, it's gonna be big!"

Darrin Stone
KSND/Eugene

"'Love Of A Lifetime' is a 'read my lips' #1 hit. It got a 98% positive response on our 'Love It - Or Shove It.' We're now playing it full time with top 10 phones and increased album sales."

Leo Davis
Q104/Gadsden

"Absolutely the breakout new rock and roll group of the year."

Lew Garrett
CAMELOT

"And we thought the first one was a smash... 'Love Of A Lifetime' got the best comments from any record we battled last week. We took 'Don't Treat Me Bad' straight to #1. Could this be even bigger?!"

Greg Delange
OK-95/Tri-Cities

"Made it big on our 'Make It Or Break It'. 90% make it. We are getting an exceptional amount of requests after just one play. A definite hit record for FIREHOUSE."

Joe McClure
WCGQ/Columbus

"Forget all the rock ballads you've heard in '91. This one tops them all. A lot of couples will adopt 'Love Of A Lifetime' as 'their song'. It set a 'Hot 10 @ 10' record with 50 calls in 9 minutes and 100% positive. It's a MONSTER!"

John Moesch
KAKS/Amarillo

"Definitely a band to watch of the new breed today! Solid throughout! Great sales based on one Top 40 single. The band is headed for multi-platinum success!"

Mario DeFilippo
HANDLEMAN CO.

"Even quicker response out-of-the-box than 'Don't Treat Me Bad,' with much broader demos. This will be a #1 record!"

Mark Hansen
KFMW/Waterloo

"The new FIREHOUSE was the champ of our nightly 'Taste Test' a few nights last week and the girls just won't shut up about it. I think this one's gonna be big!"

Tim Smith
KMYZ(Z104.5)/Tulsa

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Martha Reeves sang it in 1964: "Summer's here and the time is right for dancing in the street." For many high school and college students around the country, the arrival of summer means a break from classes. But gone are the days when Top 40 stations significantly alter daytime programming in response to summer vacation. Rooster Rhodes, PD at KCAQ Oxnard, CA, points out that many schools in California are now year-round, so vacation schedules vary. Even if that weren't the case, he still would be reluctant to make many changes "which would defeat the purpose of Top 40—appealing to adults in the daytime and 12-24s at night." For KQMQ Honolulu PD Kimo Akane, summer never ends. "It's summer all year long here, the only difference is kids are out of school. We've just redone our clocks, but we do that several times a year and it just happened to take place before the start of summer. However, we may be a taste more uptempo and younger at this time of the year without being offensive to 25-34s." In areas where there is a substantial college population, the situation is very different. ZFUN Moscow, ID PD Gary Cummings deals with that every summer when, "...seventy-five percent of the students leave town. We tend to be more adult-oriented than student-oriented, but of course, the teens are out of high school, so it's a fine line. It's safe to say we aren't looking for ballads at this time of year." Music freshening is what Jay Taylor, PD at Q105 Tampa, emphasizes more than anything else. "We may play a few summer tunes, but we're constantly putting songs in and taking them out of various categories—more so in summer than at other times of the year." Even though "there's no conscious effort" to change things in the summer, according to EAGLE 106 Philadelphia, PA PD Brian Phillips, "the station takes on a little different flavor." While the Top Ten has been ballad-heavy in recent months, Brian was in agreement with everyone else that a "bright, uptempo sound" is what stations will look to maintain in the summer of '91.

Yes, 'tis me, Annette M. Lai, once again putting the rest of INSIDE TOP 40 to paper this week. (See—I told you last week that Dave was getting spoiled!)

It's no surprise that the format's HOT record this week is DAVID A. STEWART introducing CANDY DULFER. Early believer in this tasty instrumental, MIX 107.3 Washington, D.C., moves it closer to Top Ten territory 14-11. Seeing other top twenty action at WHDQ 28-19, WAPE 25-20, WCGQ 28-18, Y100 23-20, Q104 20-14, WIQQ 13-9, WNCI 16-14, KDOG 29-20, KGLI 19-14, KYYY 37-20, KZOR 15-9, KISN 19-15, etc. ADDs include:

95XXX Burlington, MOJO Radio and Z100 New York, Q95FM Detroit, KCCQ Ames, WBNQ Bloomington, WGBQ Galesburg, Q106.5 Wichita, KVMY Phoenix, FM102 and KWOD Sacramento and KIIS Los Angeles.

onto a spot on the TOP 40. HOT 97 New York takes it 28-22 and APD/MD Kevin McCabe says, "It blasts out of the radio and has a great summertime vibe!" Impressive moves as well at MOJO Radio 27-19, KISS 108 21-17, POWER 98 25-19, WCKZ 19-16, WIOQ/FM 26-17, POWER 99 20-14, WPFM 29-21, WGOR 34-29, KDWB debut #25, KYYY 39-28, Q106.5 34-21, KRRG 36-29, POWER 95 9-5, B95 36-25, KLUC 16-12, SLY 96 18-13, etc. A MOST ADDED with fifty-two new believers.

A lot of listener inquiries are coming in for DARYL BRAITHWAITE's "Higher Than Hope." Many ask if it's the latest from Genesis, Peter Gabriel or Steve Winwood. Jackie Johnson, MD at WBIZ Eau Claire, WI debuts it at #25 and tells us calls lean adult female. Noteworthy action at WHDQ 39-30, G105 34-29, WYAV/FM 29-20, WAOA 36-27, WPFM 22-19, WYHT 20-14, KFMW 30-22, KQCL/FM 23-17, WKXA 25-20 "mass appeal and familiar sounding," WIFC 33-26, Y94 24-20, KBQ 23-21, KXKT 25-20, KAKS 30-26, KISN 24-21, KZOZ 40-33, etc. Eighteen new including: FUN 107 New Bedford, WQKZ Catskill, POWER 99.9 KHI Ocean City, WZST Lynchburg, WAPE Jacksonvill, KKXL Grand Forks, WTBX Duluth, KIXR Ponca City and KHTR Pullman.

SCORPIONS goes Top Five (7-5) at CKOI/FM Montreal, where the group recently performed a sellout concert. The station is also reporting top three CD/cassette sales. Also Top Ten at KYYZ Williston, ND 13-8, Z104.5 Tulsa 12-5 and KHSS Walla Walla, WA #9.

New believers include: WEOW, KZ103, WSNX, WSTO, WWCK, KKEZ, WDEK, WTFX, KSKU, KTDR and KKBG.

Already a superstar in France, the country of his birth, DAVID HALLYDAY is now breaking ground in the U.S. with "Ooh La La." Among those having success with it are Hollywood Harrison and Steve Casey at 93QID Alexandria, LA, where it jumps 32-23. They're getting "top ten phones, especially with females 21 plus." More strong gains at WJMX 30-26, WPST 34-30, WIFX 24-19, WYNU92FM 15-12, WYHT 22-13 "top five phones with adults 18-24," KIIK #4, KKRL/FM 20-14, WTFX 30-25, KFBD 26-20, KLAZ/FM 28-21, KJLS 4-3, KTDR 33-27 "response mainly from upper demo males," FM104 19-11, KHHT 27-23, KTMT 26-21, OK95 20-15, etc.

One of the week's biggest gainers at KSTN Stockton, CA is from AFTER 7. PD John Hampton takes it 40-25 and reports, "top ten requests from all demos and cassingle sales are building each week." Tony Dee, PD at Q96 Imperial Valley, CA moves it 19-17 and says the song "has been a top three phone getter since day one—and 'The Five Heartbeats' movie hasn't even shown here!" Some of the twenty-two new are: WKNE/FM, WIOQ/FM, WNNJ, WGOR, KDWB, KWYR/FM, HOT 94.7, KQLA/FM, KISX and KFMI. Y108 Denver holds it at #2.

Jeff Wyatt and Al Tavera at POWER 106 Los Angeles swear to the success of STEREO MC's "Elevate My Mind," taking it 4-2. Al tells us "it'll definitely be Number One for us in the next couple of weeks—huge twelve-inch sales and it's dangerous on the dance floor!" Other early chart action at POWER 98 30-26, WIOQ/FM 16-14, Q105 25-21, WHYT 20-15, KOY/FM 27-22, KRQ 34-29, B95 29-19, HOT 97.7 24-22, KIIS 18-14, KLUC 28-21, KMEL 27-23, KPSI 30-27, Q106 12-9 "calls from every demo," and Q96 "top five sales for the last three weeks." ADDED at 104 KRBE Houston and POWER 95 Dallas.

CKOI/FM MD Guy Brouillard insists SEAL is a must-listen! He calls it "a brilliant production that's drawing top ten requests from all demos," and takes it 32-24. Other early action at POWER 99 Atlanta 22-19, WCGQ Columbus, GA 37-33, 104 KRBE #6 and ADDs include: WJMX Florence, SC, ENERGY 99 Brownsville, TX, Y108, KMEL San Francisco and KWOD.

16-WEEK SURVEYS?
IT'S UP TO YOU

DIARY DANGERS

Many of you who've called have asked essentially, "Is there anything wrong with this proposal?" Especially since if this idea passes it will not cost you subscribers any more $$$$. Well, there's lots more to think about when you consider expanding the length of surveys. I know. I was at Arbitron when my boss asked me to prepare and to produce surveys not four weeks long, but 12. Changing a ratings methodology this drastically is the closest thing to childbirth male programmers will ever experience, so let me review some issues you should consider before you send your ballot back to Arbitron.

•Will the increased sample make a difference? Not really. Even though sample size would increase by a third, Arbitron officials are saying the reliability would improve by only 10% to 20%. Certainly increased reliability is welcome, but it's not really statistically significant. And since Arbitron isn't going to be placing the additional sample in the extra month exclusively with young males 18-34 there's no assurance that the increase to 16 weeks will make any difference. Don't expect to see the shares jump for Top 40, Album Rock or Black/Urban stations. There's a very good chance that relative demographic diary return and format share levels will remain basically constant with today's status quo. So why go to the trouble of changing the system so drastically?

•Another concern has to do with monthly trend reports. In Continuous Measurement markets, stations receive two interim rolling trend reports per survey. Unfortunately, these trends are not compiled using the same weighting scheme as when the (now) quarterly books are produced. As a result, the trends are, in my opinion, basically useless. Now, with a longer proposed survey sweep, there'd be another of these useless midterm reports. Who needs it? But of more concern is the threat of the "book-of-the-month club." If we end up with three big report cards and nine trend reports, that's going to lead to some paying more attention to the trends. As that happens, Arbitron could then say, essentially, "Well, since you pay so much attention to the trends, why don't we expand the monthly information—in essence produce a full ratings book each month. Now there's a major nightmare!

You have a once-in-a-lifetime chance to influence the future of Arbitron's surveys in all markets!

The ratings giant is polling its subscribers to determine whether or not to change from its current 12-week survey cycle, begun in 1978, and go to sweeps 16 weeks long, effective in 1993. The implications of such a historic move are mind-boggling. So, to unboggle some minds, let's look at the good, the bad and the ugly of this controversy—then, make sure your station votes on this pivotal matter.

WHY 16 WEEKS?

To those who propose extending the surveys to 16 weeks each—thus a switch to a maximum of three sweeps in any market annually—the key question or issue has to do with the reliability of the ratings. Some formats, especially Top 40, Album Rock and Black/Urban, feel that notable portions of their audience—especially those elusive young males 18 to 34—are either undersampled or underrepresented in the final rating tallies. Programming consultants who ply these formats have been fueling the discussion, and key members of the Arbitron Radio Advisory Council (ARAC) have been responsive. Interestingly, the chairman and vice chairman of ARAC each represent formats that they feel are hurt by the relatively poor sampling of men 18-34.

There have been various pressures on Arbitron to boost diary return from young males since my days with Arbitron in the mid-'70s, so this is not a new issue. Indeed, Arbitron has responded to past pressures. Such changes in their methodology, such as the sampling of those in homes not listed in the phone book (effective with the Spring '77 sweep), and the implementation of Differential Survey Treatment (DST) in the early '80s (which gives more money and more reminder follow-ups to diarykeepers who are ethnic or young males 18-34) are major indications that Arbitron has been responsive. Most recently, the company agreed to boost, over a two-year period, sample placement by 10%—although actual diary return was often not increased, due to poor diarykeeper response.

Since the proposed 10% boost didn't seem to make some people happy, the latest concept is to increase reliability by taking—in the markets under 48 weeks of Continuous Measurement surveys annually—the 48 diary weeks and creating not four, but three surveys of four months sample each. Thus, so the theory goes, you'd see an increase of 33% in sample size. For example, if a market had 1200 diaries returned ideally during the year—four sweeps of 300 usable diaries per survey—now that market would get three report cards with 400 listeners each. Or so the hope goes.

The unstated thought is that if sample sizes are upped by a third, then there'd be better representation of those who haven't been well captured by Arbitron. However, as the old saw goes, it ain't necessarily so.

Twelve full report cards annually. Ouch. The ad community doesn't want it—and I can't imagine a programmer who would be pleased at the thought of having a monthly sword of Damocles hanging over their head.

If for no other reason than to keep Arbitron from eventually instituting the book-of-the-month club approach, I'd suggest you vote NO on this 16-week idea.

•Are you ready for a 16-week sweep? Forgetting the technical stuff, how would you as a programmer or manager cope with such a lengthy survey? It's tough enough now keeping your performance—and that of your air staff—up to peak levels. Imagine doing that for a survey one-third longer. And how do you handle jock vacations during this almost endless survey? Not to mention budgets, and so on. Lots of logistical nightmares.

•What would the survey months be? Even in those markets that get just one survey a year, the sweep would be 16 weeks (two 16-week surveys if your area is now swept Spring/Fall). Will the "Spring" survey begin in February and end in June? Or go March-July? When would results be available? And how will that timing effect the media buyers and your sales staff? Lots of quicksand here.

•Finally, what impact will all this have on your revenue? When this concept of three 16-week books was first floated two years ago I spoke about it to ad agencies and advertisers in some major markets. To a person they were against the idea. Basically, since radio is already hard to buy (vs. TV for example) they don't need another confusion factor regarding our medium. With different delivery dates for the three books than the now four surveys; with more trends that are confusing (and can be used to beat down your sales staff's rates); and with no notable increase in the reliability of the data, why would our customers want such a change? A "Spring Book" that began in February, with results available in mid-July, is hardly useful. The data is almost ancient. No, as Arbitron polls its advertiser clients I think they'll find few in favor of changing the current system. Thus, if stations vote to go to the 16-week approach we may risk undermining the use of radio—and thus our revenues.

BEWARE OF LAND MINES

As you can see, what at first seems like a possibly good idea is riddled with land mines. Let's not step on any. Arbitron does need to continue to boost its performance regarding the ethnic and young male audiences—but changing to 16-week surveys is a poor way to do it.

Stand by for results. After your station has voted, Arbitron will tally, then report to ARAC at their scheduled August meeting. Depending on what the ad community and stations say, changes could begin in early '93. Let's hope not.

MORE CLIPPINGS

Last week, I was rummaging through some clippings I'd saved on recent developments in digital tape recording and digital broadcasting; today the rummage concerns items more closely related to programming.

I don't know about you, but I've always had my doubts about the value of air staff meetings. Certainly it's necessary that the staff be informed and have a team feeling—but the staff meetings I've attended, in large companies and small stations alike, tend to be somewhat uncomfortable affairs, with agendas that are fairly well set by the management that called the meetings. In the April, 1991 issue of Rotarian magazine, Kent Davies, a teacher in the off-campus business program at Washington University in Lynwood, Washington wrote that "regular staff meetings, although theoretically practical, can be costly and non-productive, as well as tedious. Other 'solutions' may include bulletin boards and weekly update memos. None of these are usually effective, and all waste valuable resources.

"Well-written, well-designed staff newsletters are often a much more effective long-term solution. A first-class newsletter can enhance a company's image as well as motivate employees and encourage a sense of oneness between different levels and departments... A good newsletter can even prove more effective than cash awards or other such incentives. Many firms' experience has shown that more often than not, employees prefer their picture and a write-up in the company newsletter over such awards or, better yet, in conjunction with them."

I would add to that excellent idea that such a newsletter should avoid a paternalistic or patronizing tone at all costs! For small companies such as single radio stations, the recipients should include the rep firm(s); and perhaps such a newsletter should be designed so as to be sent to advertisers as well, not only to expand the readership and sense of community, but to provide an additional promotional tool for the station.

Davies cautions, "first-class writing and editing is absolutely essential. Otherwise, your newsletter can quickly turn into a gossip sheet or be so poorly produced that it won't be taken seriously or even read. A well-written newsletter can be the perfect vehicle to sell your company's philosophy, promote strategic objects among your workforce, and recognize employees who have made significant contributions. It can help create a feeling of 'family' within the organization."

My thanks to Mr. Davies for an excellent idea, that I think could prove practical for stations of any size. However, be sure to spell and punctuate correctly! Such errors can make the management look like uneducated jerks. If the editor of the newsletter is not sure of their spelling, have someone who is look over the manuscript before it's printed!

In a recent column, I quoted a past Gavin Seminar keynote speaker, management consultant Tom Peters. In this clipping, I do so again. As a part of a list of 50 "management strategies" Peters offered recently in his syndicated column (copyright 1991, TPG Communications), designed to shake up the "planners" and encourage the "innovators," he offered one principle that should be helpful to most of us in radio, since we all seem to be fired at some time or another, and despite knowing better, we all still tend to take it rather hard. Peters offers as "management strategy #20":

"Get fired. (More than once is OK.) If you're not pushing hard enough to get sacked, you're not pushing hard enough."

If you tend to get traumatized by the personal experience of being fired after doing what you consider really good work for a company, maybe you ought to have that statement made up in the form of a framed "sampler" and hang it on your wall! That is not to say you should not learn from experience, but surely the worst lesson to learn would be that maybe next time you should not do your best, give your all, or stick to your beliefs! Does anybody know exactly how many times the late Rick Carroll got fired for following his unique programming vision before he finally became a legend? It was quite a few.

Changing the subject once again, one of the staple pieces of equipment in radio newsrooms has always been the "pushbutton phone"—the handset with the big button in the middle that switched on the mouthpiece only when you are going to talk, and cuts it off when the button released, in order to make a clean "actuality" tape. Turning it on and off always causes a big pop.

A company called Miwltronic has come up with an improvement on that design—a small module with a mercury switch inside which reportedly turns the mouthpiece on and off with pops, and that does away with that button (and the expensive custom handset). The module, called the "Automute," installs in the earpiece of the standard handset; when you raise the mouthpiece higher than the earpiece, the mouthpiece is muted (it's also muted when you place the handset face down on a tabletop, but not if you put it down on its side). The price is given as about $50. The contact given for more information is Dave Kerstin at the Broadcasters' General Store: (708) 231-7120.

Next week, a column on the new practice of leasing out a radio station to duplicate the signal of another broadcaster! ●

HEAR AND THERE

by Sheila Rene

"The Clash Of The Titans" tour featuring Alice In Chains, Slayer, Anthrax and Megadeth has just added 14 more dates, taking them through July. This show is really causing a lot of excitement. At their San Francisco appearance, the audience was overflowing with energy. Within the first sixteen bars from Alice In Chains, the pit-dwellers were up and swirling. From my viewpoint, Slayer had the edge on the amount of pit participation, with Anthrax coming in a close second. Megadeth played S.F. for the first time in a long time and they've never sounded or looked this good. Don't miss the action when it gets to your town...

Tom Petty is ready to release his new album Into The Great Wide Open starting with a single and video called "Learning To Fly." Jeff Lynne and Heartbreaker Mike Campbell, who were responsible for Full Moon Fever, were back working on this one. Petty wrote four songs, and co-wrote six tunes with Lynne and two more with Lynne and Campbell. Look for an extensive tour after the album hits on July 2...

The biggest tour of the summer is already underway as Skid Row opens for Guns N' Roses. Both bands are poised to release their latest albums to eager fans. Skid Row's first single is "Monkey Business" from the Michael Wagener-produced Slave To The Grind. The Use Your Illusion I and II albums are due about the same time from Guns N' Roses...

Bits & Pieces: Guitarist Robin Trower is working on a new Procol Harum album and a solo tour, both coming in August. Trower is joined on the Procol recording project by Gary Brooker on piano and vocals, Matthew Fisher on organ, Keith Reid on guitar, Dave Bronzo on bass and Mark Brzezicki, formerly with Big Country, on drums... James Taylor has cancelled his 1991 summer tour... Johnny Law, Austin's hottest new rockers, are already out on the road with Steve Morse... Here's some good news: Plans are in the works for a "Stax/Volt Revue" tour. The nine CD Complete Stax/Volt Singles, 1959-1968 is a big hit on my turntable and the show should be a blast from the past. The summer outing will feature Sam of Sam and Dave, Eddie Floyd, William Bell, Rufus and Carla Thomas, The Mar-Keys and Booker T. and the MG's... The Raindogs' new album will feature two guests: rocker Iggy Pop and actor Harry Dean Stanton. Border Drive-In Theater was produced by Don Gehman and is due out this month... The U.K. band The Mothers caught the attention of World Party-man Karl Wallinger, who remixed the title track of their EP, Sponge, gaining The Mothers even more attention. Their wild and wacky debut album, 1st Born was produced by Niko Bolas and it's now out on Elektra Records... Dave

VIDEO COUNTRY

Part 1 of 2

Alvin of The Blasters has signed on with HighTone Records for a solo album. At the same time he's working on the music for David Lynch's new film, "Ronnie Rockets"...Love/Hate has been busy writing new songs for their second Columbia album, Wasted In America. According to my letter from Jizzy Pearl, the band has relocated to NYC where they've rented a Greenwich Village loft and will live together. Recording of the new 25 songs will take place in July...The Blessing, one of Britain's great new exports is headlining club dates around the U.S. and Canada beginning June 19. Their MCA debut album Prince Of The Deep Water is a prince of an album. Why aren't more stations playing this one? Standout tracks such as "Highway 5," "Delta Rain" and "Hurricane Room" are simply great. William Topley can really wail...Michelle Shocked has literally hit the road for the recording of her latest project, tentatively titled Arkansas Traveler, which is scheduled for release later this year. Michelle will be traveling throughout the U.S. with a side trip to Australia, recording the roots of American music of all types. Touring in a small Winnebago with a cast including her Dad, Granny, fiancée and cat, she's also accompanied by a 48-track digital recording truck...BMG International has signed Midge Ure to a worldwide deal. Ure's debut album for BMG, Pure, is scheduled for a September release with the first single to be "Cold, Cold Heart."...

Geffen/Reunion's Michael W. Smith just finished a 60-city tour in support of Go West Young Man, appearing before more than 225,000 fans, but his real test came when he was invited to be the guest speaker at his former high school's commencement exercises. The 88 graduates of Ceredo High School in Kanova, West Virginia have named Smith's hit single "Place In This World" as their senior class song. Smith performed the song at the ceremony held in the school's football stadium...

Summer is here and so is "Rolling Thunder," Scott Dittrich's ninth independent feature-length surfing epic. The film opens to four-wall theatrical venues this week and will travel the circuit domestically and internationally. Music was enlisted from Columbia's Midnight Oil who contributed five songs. Also contributing were Elektra artists Metallica, Pixies, Happy Mondays, Sisters Of Mercy, Merchants of Venus, The Heart Throbs, Inspiral Carpets and Deee-Lite...

We didn't get much notice. Bam! Here's the poundcake and here's the very contemporary single "Poundcake." The Van Halen boys new album, their ninth, was produced by two superstar producers Andy Johns and Ted Templeman who worked side by side on all the cuts. For Unlawful Carnal Knowledge is set for release by mid-June with a huge tour to follow... ●

On March 6, I moderated the opening session at this year's Country Radio Seminar, which concerned video and its impact on Country radio.

Among those featured on the panel was Bob Allen, VP/GM of KCRG, Cedar Rapids. Bob was unable to attend, but sent a video presentation. From his tape, which was edited from an interview I conducted with Bob, here are highlights.

MOON MULLINS: When did you change the format and what have been the early results?

BOB ALLEN: We changed the format of KCRG radio about a year ago, and since then the audience has grown considerably and sales have increased over fifty per cent, so we are very pleased with the progress the radio station has made.

MM: How did KCRG Radio get involved in video programs on KCRG/TV?

BA: Most of you don't have the advantage that we have in that we have owned KCRG Radio and since 1948 and we've owned KCRG television since 1953, in one of those interesting "grandfather" situations we just don't see much of anymore. And, of course, we are able to use the television station to help promote the radio station and there aren't very many AM radio stations who have that kind of advantage. On the other hand, if we didn't have the television station to help back up the radio station it is very possible we would be on satellite today or off the air, instead of growing as we have been.

MM: What does a radio station need to do to approach a TV station for a joint promotion or video program?

BA: The biggest problem I have had as the television general manager is the radio station program director who calls me up and says to me, "How can we get involved with you, how can we do some cross promotion?" and I usually say, "Well gosh, I would like to do something, what are your ideas?" I have found that most radio program directors have a lot of trouble thinking TV. If you have a radio station that appeals to a certain demo that's a key demo to a television station, think about ways you can sell the idea of reaching that targeted demo or your targeted audience to that TV station. So think TV!

MM: Where should the stations go first?

BA: First of all, I would try cable systems. There are lots of similarities between TV, cable systems and radio in that they both try to reach targeted audiences and very often they are looking for local product. And, a well-produced local video show is something a lot of local cable systems would like to have, especially if you give them an opportunity to sell advertising.

MM: How would you do that?

BA: Perhaps you can split the advertisements between the two of you and if you offer to cross promote the time the video show appears on the cable system, that has a big appeal. It's also appealing to a local broadcaster in your area because we're also looking for those 25-54-year-old key demos. Since Country radio is increasing its appeal to adults of all socio-economic areas, I think there are some tremendous opportunities out there for cross promotion between the two.

MM: Give some examples.

BA: Think about ways to use their meteorologist to do your weather. If you are a AM radio station or perhaps a full service station, think about ways to simulcast some of their newscasts on your radio station and build it into a package. The package might include the video show you're wanting to do and that might be the quid pro quo: they get a lot of exposure in your drive time for their news and weather personalities in exchange for which they trade you some afternoon or fringe air time for your country video show. The main idea is, have your thoughts well collected, put a program together, and never give up, never give up, never give up.

MM: How do you produce a local video show?

BA: Well, we again have an advantage in that we have a television production department, but it doesn't have to be complicated. What we do at KCRG is record the opens and closes, the intros and the outros to the music videos one right after the other on video tape, just the same way you record liners for an automated radio station and then the TV station has a director or producer-director who's assigned to mix the show. We simply do A-B rolls and just dissolve in and out, we lay in supers. It's a very simple process that doesn't take a lot of time and can be done relatively inexpensively.

MM: How would a typical radio station that?

BA: If your local TV station doesn't have production facilities and if you are well-heeled enough, I will tell you there are some very inexpensive production facilities now for as little as a few thousand dollars that can produce very fine, very passable quality material on the 3/4 inch tape for TV and even on super VHS tape for cable. I would not recommend using VHS tape because it breaks down in multi-generations but SVHS is certainly worth looking at. Anybody can grab it, run out and take pictures of things. And the whole SVHS capability cost us $1,500. The thing is practically indestructible and I would defy anybody to tell the difference between it and 3/4 inch. In fact, the resolution of SVHS tape is about double of 3/4 inch tape, and 3/4 inch cameras are pretty much the norm in our business.

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

MAINSOURCE - JUST HANGIN' OUT b/w LIVE AT THE BARBEQUE (WILD PITCH)

With enormous retail and radio numbers on the self-titled debut album, rumor has it that the Mainsource success has attracted a lucrative offer from a major label. Hmm... Second time out, Large Professor gets slow and funky as he recalls his run ins with "lyrical suspects." L.P. meshes a '70s funk feel with a tight rhythm bed and mack-daddy bassline, as Sir Scratch and K-Cut add the turntable accent. "Live At The Barbeque," on the B-side, is a multi-purpose Hip Hop jam. The metaphoric verses of Nas, The L.P., Fatal, and Akinyele, suspended over a pumpin' keyboard-drum break, makes this cut "the gumbo of Hip Hop." Contact Sincere (212) 594-5050.

ED OG AND DA BULLDOGS - BUG-A-BOO (PWL AMERICA) After notching a number one position on the Gavin Rap Charts, the Boston natives release a cool underground follow-up to "I Got To Have It." Ed Og delivers a comical plot about the "music industry pests and perpetrators" over a groovin' laid back rhythm track. The Producers, Teddy Ted & Special K, maintain a raw street feel as they continue to establish ED and Da Bulldog's versatile flavor. Peek out the vocabulary of "Be A Father To Your Child," as Ed O addresses the dilemma of the one parent family. Contact J.C. or Mark at (212) 741-0007.

"BOY WONDER" IMPERIO D - YOUNG POWER (MAI TAI RECORDS) This teenage emcee makes his debut on the N.Y.-based indie, Mai Tai Records. The Boy W drops 110 BPMs of knowledge under an energetic Kwame-like music bed. B.W. gives a strong shout-out to today's youth through positive dialogue. Contact Karlene Vilain at (201) 963-6295.

DREAM WARRIORS

B OOMBASTIC CANADIAN HIP HOP FLAVOR

My definition of a boombastic stylin', mindblowin sonic creation:

DREAM WARRIORS:

A carnival ride for the psyche via beats and off center samples, obtained through a Canadian Rap duo on their slammin' debut, "...And Now the Legacy Begins."

Now close the dictionary and get hype to the rhythm.

Comprised of King Lou and Capital Q (as in Quiet Storm), the DREAM WARRIORS have taken the subliminal sound bites of life and casually created, well, art. The just-released album is easily a contender as one of the year's ten best releases. It's that impressive.

Originating from Toronto's equivalent of the projects, Capital Q (aka Frank Lennon Alert) and King Lou (aka Louis Robinson) met in school. Working and fine tuning their rapping skills, their legacy was on the verge of actuality. It wasn't until 1986 that they formally became the DREAM WARRIORS. With the help of longtime chum Ivan Berry (whose Beat Factory is responsible for much of Canada's Hip Hop scene), the dream began to emerge.

Fast forward to 1990 - a year that yielded two Top Twenty hits for the duo in—of all places—Europe! As a matter of fact, "Wash Your Face in My Sink," the first single, holds the record for longest charting rap single in British history. What is it about these DREAM WARRIORS that woke up the notoriously weird U.K. audience? Perhaps it is the unpredictable nature of their music. The second single, "My Definition of a Boombastic Style," (currently in the Gavin Rap Top 20) samples an old Canadian game show theme for it's backbeat. The show was called "Definition" and, strangely enough, the cheesy theme was actually an old Quincy Jones track, "Soul Bossa Nova" Even Quincy was amused.

A trip through the tracks on the album is a journey through all cultures and mindsets. After the opening "Definition," with its '60s psychedelia, you enter the jazzy "Follow Me Not." Next stop is the ska/reggae fest "Ludi" - a tribute to King Lou's mom that's about the West Indian board game that is not unlike our game "Sorry." (Incidentally, the B-side to the U.K. single of "Ludi" features the last performance with late Jazz legend Slim Gillard). Later on this side, you tune into a "Tune From a Missing Channel," which features a broadcast-interruption rap that fades in and out of frequency. It concludes with "Wash Your Face In My Sink," which borrows a sort of high school band sample to rap over the positive and negative of cell life—the toilet and the sink.

Side two opens with "Voice Through the Multiverse," a cosmic dance assault. Later, we are confronted with "Face in the Basin," - a retread and expansion of the sink thing. "Do Not Feed the Alligators" is fun and simple, unlike "12-Sided Dice," a bizarre commentary on the complex roll playing world of Dungeons & Dragons. The CD concludes with "Answer for the Owl."

Taking Canada and rap to new and wonderful places, the DREAM WARRIORS are thus vacant from only one spot—U.S. domination. The challenge is waiting and the legacy begins now...

CLASSIC SOUL STILL REIGNS SUPREME ON...

REFLECTIONS

HOSTED BY:
THE LEGENDARY "BIG JOHN" MONDS
FROM "THE BEAT" IN LOS ANGELES

Get ready for two hours of jammin' Soul Oldies with the Royalty of R&B! Every week, your listeners will hear the biggest R&B chartbusters from the funky '50s, soulful '60s and sensational '70s.

Aretha. Otis. Stevie. Sly. Martha and more. No need for last names here. Because "Reflections" reprises the unforgettable hits from the Legends of the Golden Age of Soul. Plus rare interviews and little known stories behind the making of the music that had an entire Nation dancin' in the streets.

"Reflections" also stands tall with great weekly features like: 1. "THE TIME MACHINE" taking you back to memorable moments from the greats of R&B, along with four timeless hits from the spotlighted year; 2. "SOLID SOUL TRIVIA" brain busters that will test your knowledge of that unforgettable era; 3. "THE SONGWRITERS' SECTION" featuring music and interviews with those who penned the hits. And much, much more.

"Reflections." The all "Old" smokin' weekly party Jam for your station. Offered on a market-exclusive basis from Premiere Radio Networks. Call your marketing representative today at (213) 46-RADIO. That's (213) 467-2346.

NEW RELEASES

by John Martinucci

VESTA WILLIAMS - Special (A&M)

Vesta had a great 1989, with tracks like "4U," "Congratulations," and "Sweet, Sweet Love" and it seems that programmers have been waiting for this release as evidenced by 32 adds out of the box. Vesta shows her tender side, and this midtempo cut fits right in with the Peabos and the Freddie's. Watch for her to Chartbound next week.

BELL BIV DeVOE - Let Me Know Something?! (MCA)

Working on their sixth single out of the nine tracks from their debut album, Poison. These guys have had an incredible past 15 months and with this "Power" fueled single and the upcoming Budfest tour look for them to be busy 'til the end of the year!

JAMES BROWN - Say It Loud - I'm Black And I'm Proud (Polydor)

James' popular image grew due from his ability to relate to the average person. Some of you may have the 1968 original release; if you don't—not to worry. This re-issue comes from James Brown's Startime four-CD set. A Hip Hop remix is available, with rapper Professor X performing on the track. Just a reminder: The Godfather of Soul will be performing June 10 on your local Cable's Pay Per View channel.

ARETHA FRANKLIN - Everyday People (Arista)

Here is another artist who helped shape Black music. The Queen is back in the spotlight with a '90s version of a classic Sly & The Family Stone song. Narada Michael Walden produced and arranged this version, with remixes by Shep Pettibone.

ALTITUDE - Silly (Bahia/RCA)

Though their first single only reached #25 on the Urban Contemporary chart, I think this follow-up is going to give this trio the impact they need to be strong chart contenders. Ex-Klymaxx member Bernadette Cooper produced and co-wrote this track and the influence shows. Radio Edit I and II and both pack a midtempo punch. Check it Out.

INSIDE URBAN

WIN! WIN! WIN! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!

MJI BROADCASTING is celebrating Black Music Month with a Trivia Contest exclusively for Gavin Reporters! We'll be asking one question per week during the month of June and if you answer all four correctly, you'll win your choice of: 1) The "Terminator" Synsonic Guitar with built in amplifier/speaker electric guitar, double pick-ups, tremelo, adjustable bridge; or 2) The Excel Traveling Exercise System, complete with gym bag, weight gloves, hand weights, terry weights, pillow weights, jump rope, hand grips, Jergens soap, Actibath, and lotion. Just give your answer to John or myself when you call in your weekly report on the phone, or you can mail or fax in your answers. In case of a tie, MJI will draw for a winner. Good luck to all!

Question for Week #1:

Who is the versatile male performer from Albany, Georgia, who is an original member of the Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame, has a star on the Hollywood Walk Of Fame, is a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award winner, and was one of the stars who recorded "We Are The World?"

Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, is getting "Plenty of phones" for our Top Tip, D.J. JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE's "Summertime." Curtis Carter, WKGC-Panama City, agrees, saying, "Requests for jazz are really big. Reggie Jackson, WHYZ-Greenville, recommends that we all keep an eye on DEE's "I Want You," a remake of Marvin Gaye's single that he expects will do extremely well. Dana Hall, WILD-Boston, makes BEBE & CECE WINANS' "Addictive Love" her RTW, saying, "It's positive, it's done really well, and I like the tempo." Jimmy Mack, WDXZ-Charleston, likes CHUBB ROCK's "The Chubbster" saying, "Hot, hot, hot, instant phones, don't be late with this one—trust me!" Ciao for now, Betty

by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

CONGRATULATIONS to NATALIE COLE and the ELEKTRA promo team for the 114 first week ADDs for NATALIE's duet with father, NAT, on "Unforgettable." It's the best one-week ADD tally by a female ever, beating out PAULA ABDUL's 104 last month.

Speaking of Ms. ABDUL, she goes to #1 this week, beating out her former babysitter, MICHAEL BOLTON.

LUTHER VANDROSS' "Power Of Love/Love Power," with 78% of his play now in HEAVY rotation, moves to #3 on the chart.

EXTREME moves 15 to 8 to 5 over the past two issues. HIT FACTOR in that time moves 75% to 83% to 93% with 22 ADDs. The latest seven ADDs are WJLK, WJON, KFYZ, KOST, KIOO, KWCD and KSSK/FM.

The GLORIA ESTEFAN is the HOTTEST record in our format as it reaches #20 with 171 stations and a 54% HIT FACTOR. The newest 44 ADDs include WJBR/FM, KSTP/FM, WTPI, KEZR, KFIG, WNSR/FM, WRBA/FM and WQHQ/FM.

WILSON PHILLIPS continue their winning streak as "The Dream Is Still Alive" moves to #24 on our chart after just two weeks. Among the 31 new players this week are Y92, WMT/FM, CKFM, KTDY/FM, WKWK/FM, WSUL, WIHN and KZMG.

MIKE + THE MECHANICS second chance, "Everybody Gets A Second Chance," moves 40 to 28 with a 45% HIT FACTOR and 29 new including WAFL, KFMB, KSBL, WNSR/FM, CKFM and J107.

Last week's TOP TIP, RICK ASTLEY's "Move Right Out," is the week's highest debut at #36. Its 48 ADDs make it third MOST ADDED thanks to WKYE, WQLH/FM, KYMG, WGAD, WJCL/FM, JOY99 and KTDY/FM.

Former RECORD TO WATCH, DARDEN SMITH's "Frankie & Sue" debuts on the chart with 23 ADDs including KATW/FM, KLOG, KLSI/FM, WHSY/FM, WKYE and KLWN.

Note that JOBETH TAYLOR's "If This Isn't Love" leads this week's PLUS FACTOR with an opening 25%.

WILL DOWNING's "I Try," RECORD TO WATCH last issue, tops UP AND COMING with 51 total stations this week. Gathering 15 ADDs with WGBE, WAVU, WOHS, KBJJ,

CHER

Love And Understanding (Geffen)

You needn't be a rocket scientist to know the need to play this track. The AC version is subtle in its deviance from Top 40's.

BONNIE RAITT

Something To Talk About (Capitol)

With 1990 Grammys and a 1991 spring wedding Ms. Raitt has some things to talk about. This fresh track from her Grammy sequel is true to her soulful pop style. Welcome back B.R.!

THE MOODY BLUES

Say It With Love (Polydor)

The brightest, most airplayable track from this group in a decade. It's a Justin Hayward composition produced by Christopher Neil to great effect.

THE BIG DISH

Big Town (East West America)

Scotland's Big Dish is arriving in a big town with their second release from "Satellites." Stephen Lindsay, on lead vocals, provides a quick hook.

TOM SCOTT With Special Guests:

BRENDA RUSSELL and BILL CHAMPLIN

If You're Not The One For Me (GRP)

All the AC elements are featured on this release. Familiar vocals by Ms. Russell and Mr. Champlin (Chicago), and a line-up of wonderful musicians present an attractive track to hear.

JACK MACK

Round & Round (Voss)

The very same Jack Mack of Heart Attack fame makes a cool song about things coming full circle.

KRDI/FM, WJER, KTRR, KGY to list a few. Out of their total station count 36 are rotating with a PLUS FACTOR increase of 13%.

Moving into RECORD TO WATCH this week is the awesome instrumental release by DAVID A. STEWART, who introduces CANDY DULFER on sax. There's a question/answer effect in the music that is quite a joy to listen to. New this week with CKFM, WKWK, WNNC, WTCB, KYMG and KCMX. Already on WKYE, WHAI, WBLG/FM, WZNY, KLSI/FM, WMT/FM, KBMG, KMCQ, KEZR and B100.

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•R.E.M.

When R.E.M. played a series of club dates in London earlier this year, they did so using the group name Bingo Hand Job.

•THE MOODY BLUES

For their upcoming fifty city tour, The Moody Blues have accepted tour support and sponsorship from the Alberto-Culver VO-5 hair care product line.

•BEE GEES

In 1967 Robin Gibb and his wife Molly were in a train accident outside of London that killed 49 other passengers when it jumped the track at 75 miles an hour. Robin and Molly escaped without injury.

•B.B. KING

In 1949, B.B. King recorded his first album while working as a disc jockey at WDIA in Memphis, TN.

•YOUNG M.C.

Capitol Records has signed Young M.C. to a long-term, worldwide exclusive recording contract.

•PRINCE

Prince and his New Power Generation are the subject of a series of DC Comic books to be published this summer.

•PERE UBU

The original working title of Pere Ubu's new album was "Listen Without Prejudice, Volume Two." Seems that didn't sit too well with George Michael, who's most recent album bears the "Volume One" title and its sequel is about to be released under the "Volume Two" title.

•MARIAH CAREY

In less than a year since its release, Mariah Carey's self-titled debut album has sold more than five million copies.

•CRYSTAL WATERS

Crystal Waters is the name of a woman, not a group, and she's the niece of famous 1920's singer/actress Ethel Waters.

•ESCAPE CLUB

In the 1988 Rolling Stone Reader's Poll, The Escape Club was voted "Best New British Band."

•OLETA ADAMS

When Michael Bolton hits the touring circuit this summer, his opening act will be Oleta Adams.

•BILLY CHILDS

Billy Childs was a student of Classical Music at the University Of Southern California, where he got his degree in Composition. Within a year of graduation, Billy was the keyboard player in Freddie Hubbard's band.

•ELVIS COSTELLO

As Declan MacManus, Elvis Costello grew up in a musical Liverpool family. His father was famous British trumpet player and singer Ross MacManus, who makes a brief appearance in Elvis' new album "Mighty Like A Rose."

•DAVID HALLYDAY

David Hallyday's parents, Johnny Hallyday and Sylvie Vartan, are legendary French singers.

•PEABO BRYSON

Before signing his first solo contract with Capitol in 1977, Peabo Bryson sang lead on Michael Zager's Moon Band's hit, DO IT WITH FEELING.

•ROLLING STONES

It has now been twenty-five years since The Rolling Stones scored a number one single in The Gavin Report with PAINT IT BLACK.

•PAULA ABDUL

A dancer before she became a singer, Paula Abdul earned her first music industry paycheck when she choreographed the video for The Jacksons' 1984 song TORTURE.

•STEVIE WONDER

Though it has taken him nearly four years to record his next studio album, "Conversation Piece," Stevie Wonder was able to record an album's worth of material for Spike Lee's new movie "Jungle Fever" in a month's time, to meet the filmmaker's deadline.

The Country Class Of 1991

by Lisa Smith, Cyndi Hoelzle and Natalie Duitsman

When we had our First Annual Country Class issue back in 1986, we couldn't have imagined the effect new artists would have on the overall state of Country Music. It wasn't so long ago that Country Music had a reputation for not giving new artists a break. In the last few years, new artists have become the lifeblood of the format, selling platinum and double platinum. The percentage of the Class of 1991 who have already had Top Ten records is staggering—higher than any previous year. We're confident that this current group will go on to join recent Country Class graduates Garth Brooks ('89), Kathy Mattea ('86), Clint Black ('89), the Kentucky Headhunters ('90), K.T. Oslin ('87), Shenandoah ('88), Randy Travis ('86), Patty Loveless ('87), Highway 101 ('87), Alan Jackson ('90) and Ricky Van Shelton ('87) as Country Music's new superstars.

Mark Chesnutt

I interviewed Mark Chesnutt for the first time right after "Too Cold At Home" burned up the charts last summer. His producer, Mark Wright, had written most of the songs on Chesnutt's debut album, and Mark admitted that was because it was difficult for him as a new artist to find quality songs. Rest assured he's not having the same problem these days. After the success of "Too Cold At Home," "Brother Jukebox," and "Blame It On Texas," songwriters are busting down his door. "I found a lot of great songs for this new album," Chesnutt enthused. "It was hard to narrow it down to the twelve I'm going to cut."

Chesnutt is a straight-to-the-core Country singer, who recognized his calling early on. "It's all I ever wanted to do, as far back as I can remember," Chesnutt says quietly. He formed his first band when he was in junior high school, and was playing clubs at 15. He attained a loyal following in his hometown of Beaumont, Texas, and released a few singles on the AXBAR and Cherry labels, including the original version of "Too Cold At Home." In the meantime, Chesnutt made trips to Nashville to hunt for songs and a record deal. MCA regional promotion manager Ramsey Corkill took Chesnutt's original recording of "Too Cold At Home" to MCA A&R chief Tony Brown. "His voice was too good to be true, and the song was a hit," Brown said. "So I flew down to see him and that's all she wrote." And while his new-found fame has upset his fishing schedule, Chesnutt's not complaining. Like he says, this is all he's ever wanted to do. CH

Rob Crosby

When you talk to Rob Crosby, you get the feeling he's a man who's definitely got both feet on the ground and his priorities in order. "I was raised with a strong sense of family," he explains. "I feel fortunate to know about my background. My father comes from a three hundred year line of New England Yankees, and my mother's family moved to Sumter, South Carolina from Atlanta in the 1860s to escape Sherman's advance during the Civil War. I was born and raised in Sumter and had a very happy childhood there."

While Rob's older brother and sister studied Country music seriously, Rob got his first guitar when he was nine and began writing songs. "I started playing music professionally when I was in high school," he said. "I quit college and ended up playing around South Carolina and in the Southeast. My parents were disappointed when I quit school, but I think after ten years they have finally come to terms with the fact that I'm not going back to college!"

So when did he get his big break? "I was playing a Writer's Night. I was really intimidated by some of the other people on the show—Fred Knobloch, Billy Dean, Tom Schuyler—and I got up there with my knees shaking and played my three songs. When the show was over, Tim DuBois approached me and introduced himself and said he enjoyed what I did. About a week later Tim's partner Scott Hendricks asked if I was interested in working with them as an artist. Then Tim got the offer to head up Arista Records in Nashville. And the GAVIN REPORT/June 7, 1991 that has definitely been the high point of my career. When Tim and Scott shook my hand and agreed to produce me, I felt like my life's dream had finally come true, because I believed in them so much.

"I'm a songwriter," he continues, "and had that dream about reaching other people in other places. Coming to Nashville gave me the chance to grow as a songwriter and as a singer by doing studio work. Now here I am back on the road doing what I used to do. Hopefully I'm better at it, and I certainly have a better opportunity to make it go farther." LS

Davis Daniel

Davis Daniel's trek to Nashville came as much from a pioneer spirit instilled in him by his family as from his love of music. As a boy he joined his parents and eight brothers and sisters on a cross-country journey to Nebraska, seeking land to build a ranch. They took sickles to twelve years' growth of Nebraska weeds and endured painfully cold winters to help his father build his dream house by hand. Davis' love of music came a little later. "I didn't get interested in music until I was about 17 or 18, at a Willie Nelson concert in Denver," he remembers. "When I saw him at the concert I thought, 'man, what a great way to make a living.' I got a cheap little guitar and learned how to play with a Willie Nelson songbook. Eventually I put a band together. We beat up Denver a June 7, 1991/the GAVIN REPORT little bit on the weekends, and then about three years ago I got a wild hare and decided I'd try to make it in Nashville."

While his adventurous spirit made the decision to go to Nashville easy, trying to make it in a town that's bursting with talented singers, songwriters and musicians was a whole different story. "I started by looking in the Sunday paper that had a list of all the clubs and I'd go to Open Mike nights," he recalls. "I'd bump into people there who were doing the same thing I was doing, and they'd tell me about other places I could play. I started playing American Legions and Writer's Nights—wherever I could find someone who would listen to me." Daniel eventually met Ron Haffkine, the guiding force behind Dr. Hook, who brought Daniel to PolyGram and remains his producer and manager. LS

Billy Dean

Not only does Billy Dean have a great voice and a knack for songwriting he's also one heck of a nice guy.

Growing up in Northern Florida, he cites his father as his main musical influence. Billy Dean Sr., who sang and played with a band called The Country Rocks, taught Billy how to play the guitar and encouraged him to pattern his singing after great singers like Marty Robbins and Jim Reeves. But when did he really get serious about his music? "I decided this was the career for me when I was in high school. I started getting around town and playing music and the money was really good. I'd make fifty dollars for playing a couple of hours at parties and I realized I could work all week somewhere else and only make a hundred dollars. I didn't do real well in math, but I could figure this situation out pretty easily!"

With hefty support from the local following he'd built up, Billy won the local and state Wrangler Talent Shows and advanced to the finals in Nashville. He made it to the top ten in the finals, and that gave him the confidence he needed to stay in Nashville and pursue his career full force. "I moved here and met a lot of people and got into the songwriting. I sang on a lot of demos so my voice and my name would get circulated to all the labels and the producers. I did what I could do to stay in town until I finally got my record contract."

The contract came when Jimmy Bowen signed him to Capitol Nashville through a production deal with SBK. Things have been moving pretty fast ever since, with the success of "Only Here For A Little While" and his current single "Somewhere In My Broken Heart" barreling up the chart.

It's been a busy year, between meet and greets with radio stations across the country, to performing at this year's Gavin Seminar, to appearing at the New Faces Show at the CRS. Any other highlights? "I got real excited when I started to see my records do well on the charts. I'd read the charts and memorize all the statistics but I realized something was missing. This couldn't be all there was to having a hit record. Then I went to do my first performance at Texas Stadium in Dallas. When I walked out there and heard 30,000 people screaming my name and singing "Only Here For A Little While" along with me, I thought, 'Wow, playing in front of an audience and getting to sing your hit record, that's what it's all about!'" LS

Martin Delray

If anybody on this roster of new artists has paid their dues, it's Martin Delray. While he's had his share of successes in this business, there have been plenty of lean times when someone with a little less determination would have given up. "Deep down I think I've always thought this was what I was supposed to be doing," Martin reflects. "Although there's been several periods that have been very frustrating, you just have to believe in yourself and know that you have the talent to get the job done."

Delray first realized he had that talent growing up in Texarkana, Arkansas. As a youngster, he practiced on a guitar left behind by a friend's brother who had joined the Air Force. He spent his high school years performing around his home town with a Country group and he kept it up while working on a political science degree at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. Following a hitch in the Marine Corps, he moved to Los Angeles, where he started on the nightclub circuit and opened for acts like Doug Kershaw and Juice Newton.

While in L.A., Delray was signed as a staff writer to the publishing company owned by Seals and Crofts. One of the songs he wrote during this period, "Old Fashioned Love" became a number one hit for The Kendalls and another song, "Somebody's Lyin' to Someone" won "Country Song of the Year" honors from the American Song Festival.

While he was having success with his songwriting, Delray still had that nagging desire to make it big as a Country singer. He made the move to Nashville in 1983, but success wasn't right around the corner. "I was going around to publishing companies trying to get a deal around three years ago," he said. "Someone told me that Blake Mevis and Rick Blackburn had started a publishing and produc-

GEORGE STRAIT - You Know Me Better Than That (MCA)

Listeners will have a lot of fun with this song, which is sure to become a concert favorite as well.

KENTUCKY HEADHUNTERS - With Body And Soul (Mercury)

The Headhunters hijack another Bill Monroe song and give it the business. The harp intro warns that these guys are not fooling around with the blues—they mean it.

K.T. OSLIN - You Call Everybody Darlin' (RCA)

K. T. sings this classic with warmth and respect. The single version edits out the light-hearted studio interplay heard on the album version.

TANYA TUCKER - Down To My Last Teardrop (Capitol Nashville)

tion company. It really all started right there. It was soon after that Rick got the deal with Atlantic. From our first meeting until "Get Rhythm" was released, it had taken two and a half years."

The resulting project was well worth the wait. While Delray was thrilled with the success of his first single and the video, he realizes it's going to take a few more hits like that to keep his momentum going. "I think my next single, "Lillie's White Lies," is going to establish more of who Martin Delray is." If you've heard the album and the varied styles and moods of Martin Delray, you'll agree that listeners are in for a treat. LS

Diamond Rio

You hear a lot of griping about how hard it is for bands—as opposed to solo singers—to make it in Country music. Now you can shoot holes in that theory the next time you hear it—just mention Diamond Rio. This group of veteran musicians took their debut single, "Meet In The Middle," to number one—the first time in the Gavin Report's history that a new band has pulled off such a feat.

The band is made up of lead singer Marty Roe, guitarist Jimmy Olander, mandolinist Gene Johnson, pianist Dan Truman, bass player and vocalist Dana Williams and drummer Brian Prout. Together they have strived for six years, honing their sound and waiting for the chance to show the world what they could do. Their producer Monty Powell, who was Marty's college roommate, brought them to the attention of Arista Nashville label head Tim DuBois. Brian Prout (who is married to Nancy Prout, the drummer for Wild Rose), explained that Diamond Rio was a complete package when they came to DuBois's attention. "We kind of did things in a roundabout way," Prout says. "It was the live show and sound and look that appealed to Tim, as opposed to us dumping a tape on him." Jimmy Olander says that from the very beginning Diamond Rio's association with Arista felt right. "It's a real family thing—Tim, Marty, Monty and I are all fishing buddies, so it wasn't like going to work and being under the gun to cut this record—we just went in and had a fun time, picked and sang and carried on." That looseness, and the confidence that goes along with it, comes across on their debut album.

When asked why he thought their music has caught on so quickly, Jimmy Olander sums it up by saying, "This is what we do best. It's got a little bit of a rural flavor to it, with a contemporary rhythm section. We're just trying to play our strong suit." CH

Joe Diffie

To say it's been a pretty good year for Joe Diffie would be a major understatement. His first three singles, "Home," "If You Want Me To" and "If The Devil Danced" have all gone to #1 on the Gavin chart. In fact, when "Home" went to number one on the Gavin, R&R and Billboard charts, it made Joe the first Epic artist ever to do so with his first release. That's pretty heady stuff for a guy who had decided to take the risk and move to Nashville only after losing a job at the foundry in Oklahoma where he'd worked for nine years.

He's anxious to talk about his career and the past year, which has been a whirlwind of success and excitement. Joe, like many Country artists, got his start in the business by singing demos; actually, he was one of Music City's most popular demo singers. Other than appearing at an occasional writer's night in local clubs, Diffie never performed in public. But when songwriters tried to pitch a song, Joe Diffie was the guy they wanted singing on their tape.

It was one of those tapes that caught the ear of Epic/Nashville's Vice President of A&R, Bob Montgomery. "Bob said he was really interested in signing me, but said he had a full roster and couldn't do it right away," Joe said. "It was about a year after he first heard me that he finally signed me to a contract. I just kept plugging away that whole year, but it was always in the back of my mind that Bob Montgomery was interested in signing me. Looking back on it, that year was good for me. It gave me the chance to become a better singer and songwriter."

And obviously this year's been good for him too. Aside from his smashing debut on the charts, Joe and his wife Debbie have just had a baby boy, Joshua Drew. He's also had the opportunity to co-headline Operation Homefires, a special concert for the families of servicemen and women in Ft. Campbell, Kentucky with Tammy Wynette, and he was a favorite at this year's CRS New Faces Show, where he closed out the event. LS

Clinton Gregory

You could almost say Clinton Gregory was born with a fiddle in his hand. A fifth generation fiddle player, "I started pickin' when I was about three years old. That's what they tell me," he reminisces. Traveling with his daddy, Clinton Gregory was exposed to the music scene at a very early age. "It was fun, traveling around playing at bluegrass festivals, square dances and fiddlers' conventions. I remember when I was about five years old entering contests with my dad. People started stickin' money in my pockets, and I thought 'this is great, I think I like this.'" But one of Clinton's fondest memories occurred when he was twelve. His father won a fiddle contest and the prize was a performance at the Grand Ole Opry. "I was awestruck to be amidst such heroes as Lester Flatt, Marty Robbins and Roy Acuff," he said. "It was that trip to Nashville that made me realize music was the only way I wanted to make a living."

From there the course was set. Gregory's big break came when he signed a contract with Step One Records. The deal came about when Ray Pennington heard a demo tape and liked what he heard. With Pennington producing, they cut "Nobody's Darlin' But Mine" a 1930s hit written by Jimmie Davis, and "that's basically when the deal got rollin'," claims Clinton. "Nobody's Darlin'" has a special place in Clinton's heart, not only because it got him a record deal, or because so many stars including Gene Autry had a hit with it, or because it was the first single off his debut album, but because as he says, "my dad used to play it to me on the fiddle, and sing it to me when I was a kid." It's a memory he's not only fond of, but proud of as well.

Clinton Gregory's latest single "(If It Weren't For Country Music) I'd Go Crazy" pretty much sums up his feelings. "I love performing and being on the road. Having a crazy schedule—there ain't nothing like it." With his single climbing the charts and getting plenty of air-play, seems his fans agree—there ain't nothin' like Clinton Gregory. ND

Ray Kennedy

Besides being amazingly talented, Ray Kennedy is a very diverse person with a lot of interesting trivia surrounding his life. First there's his family. His great-grandmother died in the historic shipwreck of the Titanic. His father conceived and developed the Discover Card, which has become one of the nation's most frequently used credit cards. Then there's Ray himself, who became interested in music after he built his own guitar when he was 15. He is still a collector of vintage guitars, with some models dating back to the 1920s. "Music kind of chose me," Ray muses. "As I was growing up, I really thought I was going to do something else. I went to college and tried to figure out who I was supposed to be. But I always had a band on the side playing nightclubs on the weekends. I probably spent a lot more time playing the guitar than I did studying. Eventually I got a bunch of songs together that I'd written and I decided to make the move to Nashville."

Upon his arrival in Nashville, he soon had songs recorded by John Anderson, David Allen Coe and Charley Pride, in addition to having numerous jingles accepted for radio and television advertising. Encouraged by these successes, he worked on honing his songwriting and production skills. This definitely worked to his advantage when we went in search of a recording contract. "My management company and I had a few meetings with (Atlantic Nashville President) Rick Blackburn and played my demo tapes. He liked the material a lot and also liked the production, which led to my being able to produce my own record. I was fortunate to have that kind of control. Most people don't get that."

While Kennedy has had many successes since his arrival in Nashville, he's not taking any of it for granted. "I enjoy every part of this. I enjoy writing songs and I enjoy going into the studio to record them. I like playing live and I like the traveling and the radio promotion. To me it's all a big package. But it all goes back to having a song. If I didn't have something to sing about, I probably wouldn't be doing this. That's the foundation for me." LS

Hal Ketchum

"Small Town Saturday Night," an affectionate picture of teenage angst in Anywhere, U.S.A., was the first indication that Curb had something special on their hands. Hal Ketchum, who was born in upstate New York and raised in Texas, is a seasoned songwriter and performer. He did his songwriting apprenticeship in Austin learning from some of the best—Butch Hancock, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Townes Van Zandt, Lyle Lovett and Joe Ely. "Seeing 'the Lubbock constituency' play made me concentrate on playing guitar and writing songs," Ketchum says. "I've always liked words, and I've always been a musician. So I reached a point where I was writing poetry, and because I played guitar was capable of putting it to music." After gaining experience and motivation in Austin, Ketchum moved to Nashville to further work at the craft of songwriting. He released an independent album titled Threadbare Alibis, and eventually came to the attention of Curb. His debut album for the label, Past The Point Of Rescue, contains seven original songs.

Ketchum says that at last year's Fan Fair, folks would come up to him and ask, "Are you somebody?" He'd tell them, "My parents think so!" If you see Hal Ketchum this year, let him know you think so too. CH

Shelby Lynne

Shelby Lynne, recipient of the 1991 Academy of Country Music's "Best New Female Artist" award, seemed predestined for the top. Listen to this emotionally charged voice; it's no wonder success seems to follow her around. Lynne spent many years singing in solo vocal competitions at fiddling contests throughout Southern Alabama, and usually emerged the winner. And even though her professional experience was limited at the time, in 1987 TNN booked Lynne on Nashville Now merely on the strength of her demo tape. From that appearance, she was offered four solid record deals. Lynne opted to go with Epic, "cause I knew a lot of stars on that label and I was a fan of George Jones, Merle Haggard and Tammy Wynette."

A legend-in-the-making herself, Shelby Lynne seems to blend right in with the best of Country music. Her first introduction to radio was a duet with George Jones, "If I Could Bottle This Up," and already she's performed in front of thousands, opening for Randy Travis, and winning the hearts of many fans when she performed at last year's Fan Fair. Singing to an enthusiastic following suits Shelby Lynne best. "That's the part of this business I love the most," she says. "Performing is where I can really show my stuff."

And show her stuff she does. Her sophomore album "Tough All Over" has caught the attention of radio and video outlets throughout the country. Her personal style blends old pop standards with a bluesy feel that comes across strong on such cuts as "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" and "Dog Day Afternoon." Shelby Lynne can count some Country legends as true fans; George Jones refers to Lynne as "my little adopted daughter," and such superstars as Randy Travis and Reba McEntire call her an incredible singer, with a powerful voice. Continuing on the trail to success, Shelby Lynne wants to be known as "not just a singer, but as a great singer." Sounds like she already is. ND

Molly And The Heymakers

It's a classic Cinderella story. Wisconsin natives Molly Scheer, Andy Dee, Jeff Nelson and Joe Lindzius, had been playing the Midwest circuit as Molly and The Heymakers, developing a loyal following and recording live tapes in the old milkhouse on Molly's farm. The tapes of original material were sold at their shows, and given to any touring bands passing through. Somehow they trickled down to Nashville, and Molly's phone

JOE DIFFIE

HOME TO STAY!

Joe Diffie followed his history-making #1 debut single, "Home," with two more smash hits: "If You Want Me To" and "If The Devil Danced (In Empty Pockets)." A THOUSAND WINDING ROADS is just the beginning of Diffie's journey to superstardom!

SHELBY LYNNE

TOUGHER WITH EVERY RELEASE!

ACM's New Female Vocalist, Shelby Lynne is an incredible talent whose stature has grown with each new single from her TOUGH ALL OVER album—"I'll Lie Myself To Sleep," "Things Are Tough All Over," and "What About The Love We Made!"

started ringing. Producer Paul Worley was the first to call, and then came inquiries from Mercury, Arista and RCA. Warner Nashville eventually offered the band a recording contract, while Tree signed Molly to a publishing deal. "I don't know how those people all got tapes," Molly says incredulously, "but they seemed to filter down to Nashville."

Molly is quick to point out that while they were lucky with the initial contact, the band was ready to back it up with the goods. "We were really prepared for our opportunity when it did come," she explains. "We were producing a lot, so when they called, I had another tape of new songs for them right away. They realized that I was writing a lot, that the band was active and that it was different."

That difference is what caused all the commotion in the first place. Up in Hayward, Wisconsin, away from all the latest trends, Molly and the band were able to forge their own sound, which they describe as "high energy Country twang." When Molly made her first trip to Nashville, she asked Paul Worley if he thought they could make it in the business without moving to town. He told her directly, "You guys have come up with something different. If you come down here you'll just start sounding like everybody else." So the band will stay based in Wisconsin, where Molly can concentrate on writing songs and raising her family—and continue to ride the edge of progressive Country music. CH

Pirates Of The Mississippi

Pirates Of The Mississippi came together naturally, or accidentally, depending on who's telling the story. According to lead guitar player and co-producer Rich Alves, "I got together with some friends and we started talking about how we missed jammin'. So we thought we'd put a group together and start playing in the basement—just get a couple of six packs of beer and start jammin'."

And that's basically how this fivesome came together. Their sound meshes like they've been playing for years, almost as if they were chosen to play together. But that was hardly the case. All five members held various day jobs: one was a computer analyst, a couple were successful songwriters for Nashville publishing houses, one worked in a factory and one was a sought-after session player. Together Rich Alves, Pat Seers, Dean Townson, Jimmy Lowe and Bill McCorvey congregated after work and on weekends because, says Rich, "we all missed the old band camaraderie. Bill and I started writing songs for the group, and every weekend we'd get together and just have a good time."

After about a year the band had a repertoire of songs, and due to pressure from family and friends decided to find a place to play live. "We started playing at a little place called the Settler, and the first night we had about fifty people," said Rich. "We'd play there about every two months. We didn't charge anything—it was open house. Before we knew it the place was packed—people were out on the streets. That's when we knew we had a little magic going on, and that's when we decided to contact some of my buddies in the music business. From there we decided to accept a record deal and make a commitment to make it work."

And make it work they did. Their self-titled album displays a variety of styles, assimilating all kinds of influences ranging from Hendrix to Clapton to Led Zepplin's John Bonham to ZZ Top, Creedence Clearwater Revival and the Happy Goodman Family. Their songs are about real life—drunks, hookers, rednecks—each with its own meaning.

This is a special group—a magical group, if you will—with a solid foundation. "We're just a good time jammin' band," claims Rich, "and if you want to hear some good music, come see us." I recommend you do. ND

Mike Reid

By now, most of you know the Mike Reid story. An All-American, Outland Trophy winning 1st round draft pick of the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals, the AFC/NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and an NFL All-Pro in the early seventies, Mike gave up this professional football "American Dream" when, at 28, he announced his retirement to pursue his real love—music. While some folks may have thought he was crazy (to say the least), Mike didn't second guess his decision. "When I quit football, I don't think I had another game left in me. I had burned out my desire to play that game. It wasn't that I didn't like the game. It just required emotional energy, and I wasn't able to dig down that far."

Mike decision to throw his heart and soul into another career has resulted in as much success in the music industry as he had in football. His first successes in Nashville came from his songwriting. In the last decade, Reid has won virtually every major songwriting award, including two Grammys and ASCAP's "Songwriter of the Year" award. His songs have been recorded by folks like Ronnie Milsap, Bonnie Raitt, Barbara Mandrell, Reba McEntire, The Judds, Ricky Van Shelton, Willie Nelson, Tammy Wynette and many others. Does he have a personal favorite? "Alabama's version of 'Forever's As Far As I'll Go' will always be one of my favorites. It was clear that they cared so much about the song."

Now Reid himself has taken center stage and seems to revel in it. One of the most talked about events at this year's Country Radio Seminar was his performance during the ASCAP lunch, and both of his singles, "Walk On Faith" and "Till You Were Gone" have had great success. However, Reid is still focusing on his songwriting. "I recently got a letter from a family in Michigan who'd just lost a family member in the war in the Gulf. This woman recounted that they had used 'Walk On Faith' to help them get through this difficult time. Whenever I wonder why I'm doing this, I get out that letter and read it." LS

Pam Tillis

"The musical odyssey of Pam Tillis has been very convoluted. But I came full circle," Tillis says, laughing at her own assessment.

In her musical career Pam has sung it all, from rock and roll to jazz fusion. As a youngster she turned away from Country music which was, after all, her dad's thing. (Pam's father, Mel Tillis has been involved in almost every aspect of the Country music industry, racking up a string of hits over three decades).

Luckily for us, Pam came around. "As Country music's demographics shifted, it just seemed to fit my life more, and who I was as a person and a mom and a Southerner. It just seemed more true. Some of my favorite artists—Dave Edmunds and Elvis Costello—started making Country records, and I went, "Wait a minute! I can do that!" I realized that this music is so much cooler than I ever gave it credit for." Tillis set about to re-educate herself and immersed herself in the Country music of the '40s, '50s and '60s, spending her afternoons at the Country Music Foundation and bugging friends like Robert Oermann to let her raid their record collections. She started putting on shows around Nashville called Twang Nights, where she'd perform all the classics she had been discovering. "I'd do Kitty Wells, Loretta Lynn, and George Jones songs. But we'd do these real reved up versions—kind of like the Clash meets Loretta Lynn! That's when I first felt like a Country singer. And there's been no turning back." She signed a songwriting deal with Tree, and not long after found a home at Arista. Her debut single for the label, "Don't Tell Me What To Do," shot to the top of the charts, reaching number one ten years to the day that her father hit number one in Gavin with "Southern Rains."

And there might just be a third generation Tillis performer. A few weeks ago Pam's 12 year old son Ben asked her if he could sing in her show. She said, "Well, I've taught you 'Salty Dog.'" Ben looked up at her and said, "No Mom. I think I need a ballad. How about something by Garth Brooks?" CH

Aaron Tippin

Many people are familiar with Aaron Tippin's story by now. A hard Country singer from South Carolina, Tippin rocketed to the Big Time last year due to the promilitary interpretation of his first single, "You've Got To Stand For Something." As a result of the song, Tippin was asked to appear with Bob Hope in Saudi Arabia, and received a lot of national press.

But it's Tippin's seasoned hill-billy voice and his intuitive songwriting that makes most of us stand at attention. His debut album has been getting raves from fans and critics alike, garnering comparisons to the King of the hillbillies, Hank Williams. Tippin, who confessed to wearing out his 8-track of Hank Sr's Greatest Hits as a teenager, just shakes his head. "That's a big set of shoes to fill. I'm thrilled about that, even though it's like comparing a peanut to a watermelon. Obviously Hank Williams was one of the very strong influences in my musical career. Hank, Jimmie Rodgers, Lefty Frizzell, Buck Owens, the old cats. They are my teachers."

Anyone who's ever seen Tippin knows that he's a former competitive bodybuilder. He's also a pilot, having earned his license at the age of 15. Does he see any similarities between the life of a Country music singer and that of a pilot? "The thrill is the same," Tippin explains. "Also, in the airplane business, if something goes wrong, you don't get a second chance. You better be right. When I go out and do a song, I want it to be that kind of right." Tippin would have to agree that his music career so far is right on course. "Things have just fallen into place," he says gratefully. "I couldn't have sat down and planned these things. I'm really thankful." CH

B.B. Watson

Some lucky radio programmers got their introduction to B.B. Watson at this year's Country Radio Seminar, when he sang on RCA's General Jackson showcase. Actually, sang doesn't really describe B.B.'s dynamic performance. It was what B.B. might call "honky tonkin' the town"—a show so full of sweat and energy that our marketing rep Lisa Austin remarked, "He looks like he's gonna jump right out of his skin!"

To those unfamiliar with Watson, he's the debut artist on BMC's new label, and even though he's from Texas, he ain't no Hat Act. Watson grew up shuttling between his mom's house in Shreveport and his dad's place in Houston and began performing on the Texas-Louisiana circuit as a teenager. Along the way he developed a unique style that combines Country with jump blues, western swing, r&b—a style he calls "Southern honky tonk uptempo fun music."

Watson had released a few albums in Texas and Louisiana, and while he got regional airplay, he wasn't satisfied. He hustled his way into Joe Galante's office and was asked to join the label after a live audition. B.B. was thrilled, relishing the thought of telling his mom that he was on the same label as Elvis.

B.B. picked up his nickname at a Nashville recording session when studio musicians, noticing how he nailed every song on the first take, started calling him "Bad Boy," later shortening it to "B.B." He says he went after a real honky tonk sound on his debut album, patterning his stuff after Gary Stewart's influential '70s work with RCA. The songs fit him perfectly. "I feel like I've lived all of the songs," B.B. confesses. His first single, "Light At The End Of The Tunnel," is no exception. "It's funny, and it's so real. There is a light at the end of the tunnel, at least you hope there is. And that's what it's all about—hope." CH ●

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

TCHOKOLA - JEAN LUC PONTY (EPIC)

A new era, a new label, a new sound for Jean Luc Ponty. Since he's a native of France, it's a certainty that Ponty was exposed to different African rhythms, as immigrants from that continent brought that beat into the mainstream of French nightlife. The French then combined various African music forms with modern studio techniques. So when you hear a singer like Salif Keita (whose "Cono" from his Soro album is covered) wailing amid a bank of tribal drums and synths, well, we have the French to thank for that. Meanwhile, Tchokola is a wonderful departure for Ponty, who recently found his former brand of electric fusion in need of updating and reconsideration. A well-researched international shot of love is just the kind of tune-up his music needed. No less than ten African friends and faces contribute to this mixture of Senegalese, Nigerian, West African, French Caribbean and Cameroonian experiment. The even tempered title track sounds like a sure electric AA winner. The following "Mouna Bowa" is a jumping makossa style. "Bamako" represents West Africa in true Mandingo style. David Byrne fans will recognize the zouk feel of Ponty's own "Rhum 'N' Zouc." There's a lesson here for all of us. Sometimes a World sound is an effective diversionary tactic.

ELLIS MARSALIS TRIO (BLUE NOTE)

With Jazz radio suitably impressed with Ellis Marsalis' Rounder solo piano project that's currently making the rounds, we're surprised at how long it's taken to get this trio offering to the percolation stages. But the advantage of Jazz radio is that there's no rush. Ellis Marsalis enlists some super rhythm support. Both graduates from early Wynton line-ups (or in bassist Bob Hurst's case, both Wynton and Branford), Hurst and Tain Watts show a subtle side as Marsalis caresses melody after melody. Hurst's entrance into the beautiful "Emily" couldn't have been more well timed or dramatic. Watts, a drummer known for power and meter, is ever steady on the brushes. Speaking of brushes, as a pianist, Ellis Marsalis is a master of restraint, choosing his notes like a painter chooses a fine array of colors. Put him in "Emily's" 3/4 waltz time, and you feel body sway as opposed to Matilda. Ten trio performances buzz by in what seems like an elegant flash. Ending the program is thoughtful solo rendition of "I Thought About You," a short melancholy torcher.

HIS APRIL TOUCH - BILLY CHILDS (WINDHAM HILL JAZZ)

Here's a pianist whose ivory and arranging skills have been in heated demand lately. His recent work with an acoustically trim Eddie Daniels was well received by radio, but it sounds like Billy Childs has saved the best for last. His April Touch is as close to the powerful band sound Billy gets onstage as we've heard yet. Things expand to as much as a five piece (as heard on the opener, "Where It's At") and back to acoustic trio (McCoy Tyner's "Four By Five"). Again, it's thanks again to the sidemen, comprised of tenorman Bob Sheppard, ex-Art Pepper blitz bassist Tony Dumas and cowboy power drummer Mike Baker. Co-produced by Andy Narell (himself no stranger to percussive expression), HAT is a sonic leap for Billy Childs, whose first album debuted on our very first Gavin Jazz Chart as Record To Watch. We proudly feel a sense of parallel growth here as Billy Childs sets up a brisk pace. Keeping up is a sweet challenge.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

"SOMETHING TO TALK ABOUT" -

BONNIE RAITT (CAPITOL)

It'll be funny watching everyone from radio to Entertainment Tonight falling all over themselves, fawning over Bonnie Raitt as she does close to the same thing she's been doing for over two decades. What's that? Mean woman blues, biting slide guitar, a blend of American music styles. Great song with a hooky concept. Okay, the line starts here.

"LEARNING TO FLY" - TOM PETTY & HEARTBREAKERS (MCA)

Tom Petty, this time with the Heartbreakers, sings about the simple laws of physics that combine gravity and music. A man of many voices, this is the soft-spoken Tom whose vocals are cradled in acoustic guitars and a simple backbeat. Producer Jeff Lynne holds dear to the last set of sounds that gave Tom his number one album of 1989. On "Learning To Fly," Petty touches on the intimate and temporary aspects of Living 101. Basic stuff of the heart.

"LOWDOWN AND DIRTY" - FOREIGNER (ATLANTIC)

The new voice of Foreigner—singer Johnny Edwards—sounds so shockingly close to Lou Gramm, it's hard to imagine Mick Jones having to shelve anything out of Foreigner's bulging trick bag of rockers, ballads and tweeners. With a myriad of possibilities, Foreigner chose to burst back with a rock sound that could have been found on Head Games, still the band's best rock album. I guess it goes to show, nobody-but-nobody is irreplaceable. Or so we may find out.

"HONEST MEN" - ELECTRIC LIGHT ORCHESTRA PART TWO (SCOTTI)

I'll bet a lot of people forget that ELO lost its original leader when founder Roy Wood shipped off to the country, years before the band hit the big time during the excessive seventies. This next incarnation (actually part three?), assembled by original Move/ELO drummer Bev Bevan, draws heavily from the Jet/Jeff Lynne years. Producer Jeff Glixman (Gary Moore, Georgia Satellites) recreates the sound right down to a few of the surviving string players. Roll over Beethoven, now playing guitar is Climax Blues' Peter Haycock.

LYNYRD SKYNYRD 1991 (ATLANTIC)

I have to admit, I really didn't want to like this. Coming from the old school, the hardest thing to do is watch an entire political spectrum develop inside music. I was used to just one side when rock was either rebellion for rebellion's sake or else just plain bubble gum. Now a full spectrum exists. (Hey, just like life!) We not only have conservatively played and programmed rock, but politically conservative rock. I'm not sure of LySky's particular political orientation, but the biker logo, the pool table and the reference to the Persian Gulf casts a pretty severe shadow. While I'm sure we've all "Seen Enough," of the world headlines, this posturing toward the working class makes me just as jittery as confronting an obnoxious socialist. Put too many beers in either breed and you've got trouble with a capital T. Politics aside, somebody gave Lynyrd Skynyrd back their musical bullets—maybe producer Tom Dowd, who has given the world a lot of great music, most notably Eric Clapton's Layla. Skynyrd's latest entry sounds authentic and steam-driven. Musically they do a good job of shouldering a twenty year-old hard-driving rock legacy. Trax: "Keeping The Faith," "Backstreet Crawler" and "Smokestack Lightning."

"FREE LOVE" - VOICE FARM (MORGAN CREEK)

Voice Farm have been operating around this parts for a long time, getting as close as small label and demo deals. But they've survived to see their best shot yet at international recognition. "Free Love" is a vicious Dance/Alternative twister that coincides with free love in the most dangerous of times. If the pesky or deadly diseases don't get you, maybe a college campus date raper will. I think the ultimate point is, like lunch, there's no such thing as free love. Four mixes to ponder this question.

BACK ON THE BUS, Y'ALL - INDIGO GIRLS (EPIC)

A live souvenir of how the Indigos operate live on stage. Openers like "123" and "Tried To Be True" show a harder, more rocky side to the acoustic, band-backed duo. "Prince Of Darkness" scales things down to a trio that includes former Gang Of Four bassist Sara Lee. A Stipeless "Kid Fears" rings along brightly to enthusiastic crowd response.

JUNGLE FEVER - STEVIE WONDER (MOTOWN)

Queen's Brian May dropped by to visit. In conversation, he asked, "Anything about music and radio that upsets you?" Good question. Then I got to thinking. The fact that somebody kindly sent me this CD means that someone else remembers when music was much less color blind. The pairing of Stevie Wonder and Spike Lee is indeed an intriguing blend of old and new line philosophy. The movie is bound to be a big hit with rock listeners as well as ethnic audiences. The music more than holds up its end. Hopefully Spike will be a little less racially stringent on the film side. Then why am I sad? Because I remember the very day when Songs In The Key Of Life wasn't serviced to a rock station in time. They howled in true anger. I agree with an interview I watched last week with renegade Dave Marsh. Taken on its broad original Chuck Berry/Little Richard premise that rock n roll truly includes everything from Luther Vandross to Ice T to Van Halen, our music is still vibrantly soaring. But if you now count rock n roll as just guitar music, then things are indeed leveling off. So long live rock and screw segregation AND political correctness. You may have to realistically live with demographic fragmentation, but that sure doesn't mean you have to like it. Trax: "Gotta Have You" and "Make Sure You're Sure."

"APPLE PIE" - WHITE TRASH (ELEKTRA)

The last White Trash I remember also had a high-pitched singer and a kickin' horn section. That was Edgar Winter's. This is something completely different. "Four college dropouts from Queens with an attitude and a horn section" sweat out four minutes of rock bump and grind. Seems a lot shorter.

"Can't Get You On My Mind"
Adam Schmitt

Adam Schmitt may not be the most poetic name, but then, neither is Paul Westerberg, Brian Wilson, Alex Chilton, Todd Rundgren, John Fogerty.

Like his unjustly named predecessors, Schmitt is a singer-songwriter with an individual vision--a one-man band who writes, sings, and plays his own smart, romantic, personal music. Adam Schmitt may not be a poetic name but his lead-off single, "Can't Get You On My Mind," is poetry to the ears.

On Friday, VIRGIN's ALLAN WILSON and DAVE JOHNSON brought SAM PHILLIPS by the Gavin offices. Sam opened up for ELVIS COSTELLO on a few dates—I hope you had a chance to see her live.

Friday night I went to see CHRIS ISAAK. Despite the fact that Elvis was also playing that night, Chris' show sold-out. Do we know how to treat our local heroes, or what?

Saturday, I flew to Los Angeles to see MORRISSEY. Now, I'm not a mega-huge Morrissey fan, but his show was great! He really is a performer in every sense of the word. And the crowd knew all the words to every song—except for maybe the cover of The New York Dolls' "Trash," but that's understandable. Morrissey's band bears a striking resemblance to JAMES DEAN—yes all of them—but they were incredibly tight and a lot of fun to watch.

On Sunday I saw JOHN WESLEY HARDING and THE JUDYBATS. It was funny to watch Wes make fun of the drunk girl in the front row—believe me, she didn't notice! Watching in

Don't be fooled by the media attention; he isn't compromising on anything. My favorites: "Straight Up Nigga," "Bitches 2," "Body Count" and "Home Of The Body Bag." You can play this. BEVERLY MIRE

Yaah! Now this is Summer. Chillin' out at a Cubs game in Chicago are WXRT's Paul Marzsalek, Stan 'The Man' Ridgway and Geffen's Kim White.

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

BLACK CROWES - Hard To Handle (Def American)

Long a staple on MTV and a huge hit with a handful of Top 40 outlets, Black Crowes' stage is now set to finally go all the way. Fusing Rock and Blues better than any band of white boys since The Rolling Stones, the Crowes' raw sound stands in sharp contrast to much of today's highly produced music. A Top Five test record in every demo for the past six weeks at EAGLE 106 in Philadelphia. PD Brian Phillips puts it this way, "Find me any other record right now that tests number one 15-17 and 25-34—this is the only one. It's out of control." 'Nuff said?

DESMOND CHILD - Love On A Rooftop (Elektra) While most of Top 40's constituency is probably not familiar with the name Desmond Child—they know his music because of songs like Bon Jovi's "Livin' On A Prayer" and Michael Bolton's "How Can We Be Lovers." His first release as an artist since his days as part of Desmond Child And Rouge is a stunning effort co-written with colleague and friend Diane Warren. In a dazzling display, these songwriters give a first-rate demonstration in how to create great Pop music.

HARRY CONNICK, JR. - Recipe For Love (Columbia)

If there's an artist around with "star quality," this New Orleans' phenomenon has got to be the one. I caught his act for the first time at last year's NAB in Boston and walked away a believer just waiting for that "right track" for Top 40. POWER 99 PD Rick Stacy, a longtime Connick fan, began airing this cut a month ago, ahead of Harry's scheduled appearance in Atlanta. MD Lee Chesnut reports women love it and surprisingly "early callout shows it doing better with 18-24s than 25 plus." After commenting on last week's Fred Schneider pick, Lee said, "Recipe For Love" is another song that's pure fun," and in Top 40 Radio the fun factor can't be overemphasized.

HI-FIVE - I Can't Wait Another Minute (live/RCA)

It took some convincing to get everyone on the case with "I Like The Way (The Kissing Game)," but this young outfit from Waco, Texas finally made their point with massive sales and requests. Currently top twenty at Urban Contemporary Radio, this sweet ballad oozes with female appeal and arrives at Top 40's doorstep not a minute too soon. Already top twenty at KGGI San Bernardino, KMEL San Francisco and FM102 Sacramento.

THE LA'S - There She Goes (Go!/London/PLG)

No—not L.A. as in Los Angeles, these modern music makers arrive stateside via Liverpool, a town that's given birth to a few bands that have enjoyed just a little success in years gone by. A sixties' spirit shines through on this release, but the band and their producer Steve Lillywhite give it a sound and style that's very contemporary.

FIREHOUSE - Love Of A Lifetime (Epic)

Strong power ballad follow-up to the group's recent top twenty hit. Early buzz and success stories coming in from WZPL Indianapolis, KYYY Bismarck, Q104 Gadsden, OK95 Tri-Cities and Z104.5 Tulsa to name a few. With June just beginning, look for this one to become a dedication/wedding favorite. Annette M. Lai

PAUL McCARTNEY - Unplugged (The Official Bootleg) (Capitol)

Live and acoustic is about as close as one can get to any great musician. This music, all seventeen tracks, was recorded for the MTV Unplugged series. Most of the enclosed was recorded for and used on the show, but some of the cuts like HIGH HEEL SNEAKERS and AIN'T NOSUNSHINE didn't make the cut for the show. Its refreshing to hear the Macca patter between tracks and even do a re-take on WE CAN WORK IT OUT. Mixed with the appropriate Beatles and Wings tunes are songs like Gene Vincent's BE-BOP-A-LULA, Bill Monroe's BLUE MOON OF KENTUCKY, Elvis' GOOD ROCKIN' TONIGHT and Guy Mitchell's SINGIN' THE BLUES. With all the calculating, sampling and overdubbing in today's recorded music, it's more than refreshing to hear an informal presentation preserved in all its simplicity, albeit digital.
