

GAVIN

A PRE SEASON TALENT PREVIEW

In the Fall music contest, label "coaches" will be trying to steer their MVPs, veterans and rookie acts to the top of the charts. GAVIN tells you what to expect.

This Week.....

Yes, it's almost that time of year again when the baseball diamond becomes blurred by football yardmarkers and attention is focused on who has a chance of making the Superbowl. The top labels are gearing up for their own challenge to see who can field the right blend of veterans and rookies in their assault on the top of the charts.

GAVIN provides a detailed pre-season preview, with commentary from the label "coaches". For instance, Arista "coach", senior vice president of promotion is looking to Ace Of Base and Aretha Franklin to give his team a boost, while a second Red, Hot and Blue album is being recorded and is tentatively scheduled for the end of October, with proceeds going to AIDS research. Infinity

Rick Bisceglia (top),

Broadcasting has its own cause to fund in the form of legal costs and fines levied by the FCC for complaints relating to the Howard Stern Show (above). Ben Fong-Torres examines the latest clashes and their implications in

News, which includes details of PolyGram's World Cup soccer scoop, CMA Award nominees and a lowering of the fences between Garth Brooks and certain record stores. The outcome of the "did-she-didn't-she sing lead?" controversy hanging over Paula Abdul (above) is also analysed.

The GAVIN-only GO Chart provides a leading indicator in Top 40, while the A³ Boomer Grid leads the way in the latest exciting format

FCC Piles Up Stern Fines From Here to Infinity

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

On the air, Howard Stern may cut off guests or callers when they utter what he calls "the 'F' word" or "the 'S' word," but it's doing him little good.

His problem may be that he is Howard Stern.

On August 12, the FCC hit Infinity Broadcasting Corp. and four of its affiliates with a notice that they could be fined a total of $500,000 for broadcasting what it defines as "indecenty." The four Infinity outlets are among 12 stations around the country that carry Stern's WXRK-New York-based morning show. Combined with previous fines imposed on its stations, Infinity faces more than $1.1 million in Stern-related penalties.

The most recent action—which Stern called "bullying" and traced to former President George Bush—followed, by one day, a notice of liability against KFBI-Pahrump, Nev., for $73,750 for the same broadcasts involved in the Infinity notice.

The FCC said it was not pursuing cases against other stations that carry the Stern show.

Stern and the Commission have been at each other's necks for years, since the FCC levied $6,000 fines against stations carrying Stern, including three Infinity stations—in WXRK, WYSP-Philadelphia, and WJFK/FM-Washington—in 1988. Late last year, KLSX-Los Angeles was fined $105,000 for broadcasting allegedly indecent material on 12 separate occasions in late 1991. The FCC then slapped fines of $600,000 on WXRK, WYSP and WJFK/FM.

Infinity, the FCC noted, has "exhibited a pattern of apparent misconduct involving indecent broadcasts in the past."

The FCC did note that the most recent notice results from a complaint about shows Stern did between

Howard Stern

November 1992 and last January, that no complaints have been received since then, and that "Infinity had made substantial and largely effective efforts to avoid further infractions in this area."

Infinity, which has spent more on legal defenses than the amount of the fines—"Millions," said company president Mel Karmazin—offered a measured response through attorney Steven Lerman. "We're going to study (the notice)," he said. "We'll submit a response in due course presenting our point of view." Meantime, Tom Quinn, president of Americom Broadcasting, owner of the Las Vegas station, vowed to "vigorously fight" the fine.

The latest fines were reportedly triggered by a complaint from a listener in Las Vegas who taped and transcribed three months of Stern's shows before compiling a 19-page transcript that he sent to the FCC.

"One guy complains—one guy out of 15 million," Stern said on his show last Wednesday (August 21). "Evidently it's OK for a guy to get on the air and call Robin (Quivers, his newcaster/sidekick) a 'nigger'—that's fine, the government won't fine him—but if I say 'penis' or talk about the fact that I have sex with myself sometimes...you get the idea."

At the risk of sounding like a conspiracist, said Stern, "I believe someone very high up in government has a bug up their ass about us. It could even be—and you're going to think I'm nuts—George Bush. For years we blasted the guy and said some really mean things about him, and believe me, he got the ball rolling on this whole thing with the FCC against us. It could be Jesse Helms, one of these guys, and they're keeping this thing going. It's with a vengeance; they will not be satisfied until I'm fired."

"It's almost becoming more of an option for my company to fire me," said Stern, "because then all their problems would be over...but then again their problems would begin because they'd lose a lot of ratings. But we work for a company of very brave people who don't buckle under to pressure."

For not the first time, Stern hinted that he might leave radio—"I don't need to be the victim of this," he said.

But he also wondered about the effectiveness of a listeners' protest campaign to the White House, and he thanked Infinity and its stations, and the others who carry his show "who see this is jive and know this will pass eventually. Times will change. This persecution will end."

While Infinity ponders its response to the FCC, it is also defending itself against a media watchdog group that has petitioned the FCC to block Infinity's planned purchase of KRTH-Los Angeles for $110 million from the Beasley Broadcast Group.

The Americans for Responsible Television, a conservative group based in Michigan, delivered 15,000 signatures to the Commission and cited Infinity's history of allegedly "indecent" broadcasts, of Stern's show, as grounds for denying the sale.

CEMA: Used CD Stores Can Party on Garth

There'll be no fences between Garth Brooks and record stores that sell used CDs, after all.

CEMA, distributor of Brooks' CDs on Liberty, is notifying used-CD sellers that they can order Brooks' next album, Pieces, due out next month.

Earlier this summer, Brooks had announced that he would not allow retailers of used CDs to carry the new album because artists receive no royalties on their sales.

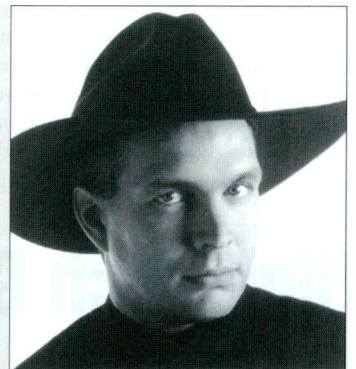

Brooks, whose five albums, chief among them No Fences, have sold more than 25 million units in three years, did not comment on CEMA's reversal of his stance, which had drawn negative publicity to Brooks and the company.

The bad press included coverage of several protest roastings of Brooks' CDs at "Garth Buck$ barbecues"—also called "Garth-beques," at various sites along the West Coast.

"We see this as a victory for all of Garth's fans, including those who enjoy purchasing used CDs," said Bruce Jesse of Wherehouse, the chain that started the recent skirmishes over used CDs when it began buying and selling them last December.

"The law does not allow CEMA to exclude a retailer from purchasing the Garth CD just because they are in the used-CD business," said Jesse.

Abdul Trial Over: It's Forever Her Voice

The backup singer who claimed she was the uncredited co-lead vocalist on two cuts from Paula Abdul's multi-platinum debut, Forever Your Girl, was rebuffed by a jury that only took three hours to conclude that Abdul was the only person singing on the tracks "Opposites Attract" and "I Need You."

For two years Yvette Marine waged an often contentious fight, with her lawyers trying to convince the court that she was the victim of "false and deceptive packaging," and entitled to a minimum of $3-$3.5 million in damages.

The suit was closely watched by the industry, as it came on the heels of the Milli Vanilli fiasco and after singer Martha Wash, who was represented by Marine's attorney, won an out-of-court settlement after she was uncredited for voicing material for Black Box, Seduction and C+C Music Factory. It also put a bright light on studio technology used to enhance a singer's voice and prompted legislation to expose onstage pantomimists.

"I feel like the weight of the world has been lifted from my shoulders," said Abdul after the verdict was announced. "I worked hard to get where I am in this business, and I'm proud that Virgin Records fought the case."

Lining up in Abdul's defense were producer L.A. Reid and outgoing Virgin co-chairman Jordan Harris. Among those speaking for Marine was engineer Cliff Jones who told the jury Marine's vocals were used on the album's final mixes.

As the trial drew to a close, both Marine's lawyer, Laurence Berman, and Virgin's lawyer, Joseph Yanny, resorted to theatrics. Berman brandished a duck and said "A duck is a duck...[and] a lead vocalist is a lead vocalist." In his closing argument Yanny said, "All the rubber ducks aside, I really think that they are trying to duck the issues in this case."

An upset Marine, who now is a staff songwriter for Walt Disney Music, said, "Of course I'm disappointed that the jury didn't think my contributions were more than just a background, but I brought this case to trial and spoke up for a lot of singers like myself..."

New Director Named for Rock Hall of Fame

BY BEVERLY MIRE

Internationally-known art museum director and historian Dennis Barrie was named director of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum being built in Cleveland. The announcement came August 11 at a press conference. Barrie replaces K. Michael Benz, who resigned.

Barrie, who at one time was Midwest area director of the Archives of American Art for the Smithsonian Institution, was arrested in 1990 when, as director of the Contemporary Arts Center in Cincinnati, he presented a collection of the photographs of the late Robert Mapplethorpe. The charges were obscenity and child pornography, and he was acquitted.

"I believe very strongly, obviously in the issue," said Barrie. "It's not what I've spent my whole life doing, but...it's about something I fundamentally believe in. And the rock world's always been pushing the envelope, as they say, in terms of what's permissible or acceptable or even legal in society."

Since he left the Contemporary Arts Center in 1992, Barrie has run a company that developed traveling museum exhibitions. Barrie makes no claims about being a rocker. "Do I know every bit of rock trivia? No. Can I name the drummer of every group? No. But I grew up with rock. I'm 46, so while I was a bit young for Buddy Holly, by the '60s I knew music and have stayed pretty aware ever since." Barrie is already considering exhibitions for what is hoped will become one of America's most-visited tourist spots. Among his ideas are programs on artists as social activists and rock and sexuality.

After many stops and starts, the building of the actual Hall of Fame and museum began in June, and will be completed in two years. Barrie will relocate to the future heart of rock 'n' roll—in Cleveland—next month.

Rage Against KROQ

Rage Against the Machine lived up to its name—and more—on the Lollapalooza tour.

In the last day of the Los Angeles area shows, at Irvine Meadows Amphitheatre, vocalist Zack de la Rocha lashed out at KROQ-Los Angeles, which has consistently given the Rage airplay, for not playing some of their more profane songs in full.

At one point, de la Rocha got the crowd to shout, "Fuck KROQ."

The singer's loud slap at a supportive station—which contradicted his comment to KROQ DJ Tami Heidi, on a live broadcast from Lollapalooza, that he appreciated the station's backing, surprised some of his fellow band members. But drummer

Brad Wilk said he understood de la Rocha's anger. "Maybe not compromising and just finding other ways than radio to reach people would be better," he said.

KROQ music director Gene Sandbloom, who was at the concert, sounded a conciliatory note afterwards. "It's rock and roll in its purest essence," he said, "and protest is rock and roll."

Days before the Southern California 'Palooza shows, Rage were in Philadelphia with the traveling festival. There, they appeared on stage stark naked—except for black tape covering their mouths—and with "PMRC" spelled out on their respective chests—to signify their opposition to the Parent's Music Resource Center, the Washington, D.C.-based group of rock lyric watchdogs.

As the band stood in stark silence, the crowd cheered—especially as word passed to the younger audience members about the PMRC, which reached its greatest notoriety in the mid-'80s, a generation ago to generation X.

But a rock crowd has only so much patience, and when Rage stayed on stage, wordless, for 15 minutes, the audience began to stir, and finally to boo. "People were flipping us off," said Rage guitarist Tom Morello.

Free speech takes many forms.

High-Tech Gives High Anxiety

Technophobia is alive and well and still afflicts a staggering proportion of American consumers.

In a poll of 1,000 adults and 500 teenagers, personal computer giant Dell found that 55 percent of Americans are either resistant to or phobic about using many everyday electronic devices.

Getting down to detail, as many as 25 percent of all adults have never even programmed favorite stations on a car radio, let alone used a computer or tackled the timer on a VCR.

More comforting is the news that 90 percent of teenagers reported no problems operating CD players, yet 39 percent of adults registered resistance to dealing with the format.

Teenagers were in general much more comfortable with modern gadgets than adults. However, those who hate receiving a scratchy call from a car phone may take heart from the fact that only 55 percent of teens said they were happy about using that particular device.

Dell reports that social scientists have identified "fear of technology" as the phobia of the '90s and is aiming to use the poll results in shaping the design and marketing of its high-tech products.

Monday Night Football Gives Hank Jr. the Boot

ABC Sports has benched Hank Williams, Jr.'s Monday Night Football war whoop, "Are you ready for some football?" this season in favor of more multi-flavored, original video clips that will feature PolyGram artists that include the Neville Brothers, Kathy Mattea, Bryan Adams and Boyz II Men. Rabid New York Giants' fans Bon Jovi will kick off the regular season on September 6 with "Blaze Of Glory" from Young Guns II.

The 45-second clips will differ greatly from Williams, Jr.'s customized but predictable battle cry, and will spotlight the sparring teams, footage from the '92 season and a clip of the artist.

Boyz II Men

Words to songs will be customized for the broadcasts, said ABC Sports producer George Greenberg. In some cases the "she" would be replaced by "he," and "night" would be converted to "Monday Night."

The parcel is part of ABC's deal with the NFL and Frito Lay which will continue the "Lay's Challenge" ads which feature athletes shaving their heads.

"Monday Night Football has always been the scene of a lot of action," said Frito-Lay marketing vice president Brock Leach. "We think...creating an opening event for each ABC-TV game that combines NFL stars in action and great music will bring some extra entertainment to Monday nights this fall."

PolyGram On the Ball for '94 World Cup USA

BY DAVID BERAN

PolyGram Worldwide and the 1994 World Cup games are teaming up to give the public more than a memory of the soccer matches. To promote and supplement the games, which will take place in 10 U.S. cities in June and July, producers are planning an entertainment package including three televised concerts, an album, a World Cup theme song and numerous home videos.

Various artists will be tapped to provide material and the events and merchandise will be produced and funded by PolyGram. Participating acts for the three live performances will have an international following and the concerts will be televised worldwide. The first will be in Las Vegas this December and the final two will be in June and July of next year in Chicago and New York respectively.

Joe Smith, executive producer of entertainment activities for World Cup USA, describes the joint venture with PolyGram as "one of the most innovative sports/entertainment ventures ever conceived. This is the biggest sporting event in the world, with a final game audience in excess of 2 billion. Pairing that with the involvement of one of the biggest worldwide entertainment entities makes it dumbfounding."

1994's theme song and an album of official World Cup music will be released next spring. As yet, no acts have been confirmed, but PolyGram artists such as Boyz II Men, Vanessa Williams and Bryan Adams are possibilities. A series of home videos will be released up until next year's final game. Their focus is to educate Americans on soccer and the history of the World Cup games.

Mel Smith to Direct 'Radioland Murders'

George Lucas has named a director for Radioland Murders, a film he's producing about a killer who confesses his crime during the debut of a radio station, making it a big success.

Mel Smith, a former television comedian in England whose directorial credits include The Tall Guy (with Jeff Goldblum), will direct the film, which Lucas is producing with Fred Russ for Universal Pictures.

The movie, set to begin production in October in Wilmington, N.C., was written by Jeff Reno and Ron Osborne (Moonlighting), based on an original script written some 20 years ago by Bill Huyck and Gloria Katz, who wrote American Graffiti, Lucas' first major directing success.

That film also had a radio hook: the legendary DJ, Wolfman Jack, an anchor for many of the small-town California teenagers who populated the story.

He wants a powerful personality, but "no giggleboxes need apply." T&R him at: 55 Green Street; San Francisco, CA 94111. Prior milking experience not required.

Why is A&M's national alternative promo ace Jeff Suhy smiling? He enters the label's A&R department, a gig he's wanted for two years. Former indie and one-time Epic promotion exec Jack Isquith is A&M's newly-named VP of alternative promotion.

Big time congrats to KLYV-Dubuque, Iowa PD Joe Dawson on being named group PD for Communication Properties, Inc. Along with 'LYV, Joe will also be responsible for WMVY-Cape Cod, Mass., WLXR-La Crosse, Wis. and KATE/WRGR-Albert Lea, Minn.

GAVIN How many of these faces do you recognise? A clue is that they were all award-winners at the Bill Gavin Radio Conference way back in 1972. We can't promise to supply all the names, but GAVIN will certainly be illuminating its rich history with many scrapbook items and reminiscences in a 35th Anniversary Special Edition with next week's issue.

dent Dave Glew (l) and Sony Music president Tommy Mottola (r) as the three salute Estefan's new Spanish-language album, Mi Tierra. ●

SHO-TALK

On the Midwest flood front, Ken Dillon, PD at KLRQ-Clinton, Missouri and his staff have been real busy the past six and a half weeks. Listeners have donated more than $18,000 in cash and merchandise which has been and continues to be delivered to flood victims by the station's airstaff. Now that's community involvement!

Ooops—not so fast. Seems KKDA-Dallas PD James Alexander has indeed left the Urban outlet, but no, he's not headed to HOT 97 (WQHT)-New York. As for who will be moving to the Big Apple, don't expect the word to come down until mid-September.

Sierra Cascade Communication, owners of KTMT-Medford, Ore. take over the operation of crosstown Talk and A/C outlets KCMX AM & FM, while awaiting FCC approval to buy the properties.

One-time promo wizard Steve Rudolf aka "The Parrott," is preparing to give S.F. Bay Area listeners his coveted pro football prognostication each week. His picks will be heard during Ronn Owens' show on KGO and as the Parrott would say, "The lights are gonna go out."

Seems Stevie "Rocker" Richards won't be parking in the Interscope lot after all as he opts to stay on in his partnership role with Platinum Music.

Former WMME/FM-Augusta, Maine MD Jammin' Sam resurfaces as MD and night guy at WZYQ Frederick, Md. By the way, if you have a spare timing belt around, send it to him. Stranded in D.C., Sam was forced to cab it to his hotel.

Oldies it was and oldies it seems to be at KFRC AM & FM-San Francisco, now simulcasting after dumping the nostalgic "Magic 67" format last week (August 12). Former HOT 97 (WQHT) morning man Howard Hoffman is among those filling in until the new staff is announced. Meanwhile, ex-KFRC staffer Mike Reilly joins former boss Bob Hamilton at KSFO-AM/KYA-FM as MD/programming assistant. Will the initials "G&G" be part of the new KYA airstaff being announced Monday, August 23?

What are the chances WAQQ (95Q)-Charlotte, N.C. will stay in the Top 40 fold? "Slim," say insiders who also say odds are that new owner Pyramid will take them in album rock direction.

Radio One takes ownership of 92Q (WERQ)-Baltimore on August 23.

And what's this buzz about Michael Damian and Frankie Avalon doing a prime time series?

Also on the TV tip—have you heard who Jay Leno's guests will be the night Letterman debuts on CBS? Two "unknowns"—Garth Brooks and Luke Perry.

GAVIN get well wishes to Pam Finck, wife of A&M's Scot Finck. Seems the two decided to celebrate their first wedding anniversary by climbing Yosemite's Half Dome. They made it to the top, but coming down, Pam fell and broke her ankle. Pam says that next time, she's going with Sylvester Stallone.

A guy picks up a hooker and when they finish she says, "You're a doctor aren't you?" Astonished, he asks, "How did you know?" She replies, "Because you washed your hands before and after." Then she adds, "Besides that, I bet you're an anesthesiologist!" He can't believe his ears, "How did you know that?," he asks. She says, "Because I didn't feel anything."

It's surprising to learn that in the glam world of musicians, many don't have health insurance. That's the case with Victoria Williams, who was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis. After two benefit concerts, held last year with proceeds going to help Williams pay her bills, many of the musicians got together to record some of her songs for the album Sweet Relief, and donated all their royalties to her. Williams has set up a fund, Sweet Relief Musicians Trust, which will aid other musicians with similar needs. Soul Asylum's cover of "Summer Of Drugs" kicked off the Thirsty Ear/Chaos Records project. Right now, Pearl Jam's version of "Crazy Mary" is really taking off. The album also features some great music from Lou Reed, Matthew Sweet, Buffalo Tom, Maria McKee, The Waterboys, Michael Penn, Evan Dando of the Lemonheads, Michelle Shocked and The Jayhawks. It's an excellent cause and a great record...

After being dropped from the soundtrack to the Beverly Hillbillies, Jesse Dupree, lead singer in the Atlanta-based rock band Jackyl, has charged that film director Penelope Spheeris ("Wayne's World") discriminated against him sexually because he appeared naked in the August issue of Playgirl. "I don't understand why it's worse for a man to pose naked in a magazine than a woman," say Dupree. "Especially when one of the female leads in the movie was the naked Playmate of the Month in the July, 1989 issue of Playboy!" Jackyl is currently opening the second leg of Aerosmith's tour and celebrating their self-titled gold album on Geffen Records. It's one hellva show and I got my copy of Playgirl signed! Dupree and his lawyers are considering his options, including filing suit.

Last breaking news: The Smithereens have been dropped from Capitol Records in a purge that also included Great White.

This comes just as the band and their producer Mike Clink are planning their upcoming album, tentatively set for release in February, 1994. With more than 26 new songs already written, the band should have no problem putting together a solid package of great music Smithereens-style, and acquiring a new label. They'll play only one more date before heading into the studio: On The Waterfront Festival's Great Lawn Stage in Rockford, Ill. on September 4...

Styx guitarist J.Y. a.k.a. James Young, is about to release his second solo album, Out On A Day Pass, on August 29. The hard-rocking effort is being released on the Chicago-based artist's own label, Absolute Records. The first track you'll hear will be "Top Of The World," a hard-hitting song about self-determination. Out On A Day Pass was recorded and produced off and on over the last few years, during breaks in Styx's schedule.

Out On A Day Pass features performances by Jan Hammer, Utopia drummer Willie Wilcox and Mick Jagger solo album bassist Colin Hodgkinson. Styx drummer John Panozzo plays on two tracks and original Mahavishnu Orchestra violinist Jerry Goodman is heard on the remake of "Young Man," a Styx song from an early, lesser-known album...

Bits & Pieces: Steve Vai unveiled his new band on the August 6 "Tonight Show with Jay Leno." Vai incorporated the entire Branford Marsalis Band into his own band members WHO AM I?

I may have seated you at Bob's Big Boy when I was a hostess there ten years ago, and another early job I had was working at a cult video store. When I was young I wanted to be an actress and I ran a mean track in high school. My first band played loud, garage rockabilly music and I love to read J.D. Salinger. Who am I? See page 10 for answer...

Friends Of Radio

DIANE WARREN

Award-winning songwriter, Los Angeles, Calif.

Hometown:

Van Nuys, Calif.

What's the first radio station you remember listening to?

KHJ, but also KRLA and KFWB, 'coz that's where the hits were!

What radio station(s) do you now listen to regularly?

Not really any one station, I'm always checking them all out (looking for my songs)!!

What is your proudest accomplishment to-date and why?

I'd have to say that it's being a songwriter. It was always my dream to touch people with my music, and to get that chance is really a dream come true. Plus, I finally get to tell my mom she was wrong when she said I was wasting my time trying to make it in music.

What song do you wish you'd written?

Way too many to mention!

In your estimation, what are the three top songs of all-time?

There are so many, but three of my favorite songs of all-time are "Yesterday," "White Christmas" and "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'," because they're songs that will live forever.

Current radio hits from Diane Warren:

Kenny G & Peabo Bryson's "By The Time This Night Is Over," Expose's "I'll Never Get Over (Getting Over Me)," Aaron Neville's "Don't Take Away My Heaven" and Celine Dion's "Water From The Moon."

SHO-PIECES

BILLY JOEL

Earlier this year Billy Joel gave the commencement address to graduates of the Berklee School of Music and implored everyone to avoid making "the canned, frozen, processed flutter being dished to the world as the American kind of music today."

UB40

The UB40 version of "Can't Help Falling In Love" appears on the soundtrack to the 1993 film Sliver; but the band recorded it for the soundtrack to the 1992 comedy Honeymoon In Vegas.

MARIA MCKEE

The biggest hit of Maria McKee's career to-date is her "Show Me Heaven" from the film, Days Of Thunder which starred Tom Cruise.

JOHNNY CASH

Says the man in black about his new contract with Rick Rubin's Def American Records, "I'm expecting the same kind of artistic freedom, creativity and open-mindedness I knew with the Memphis rockabilly sound."

JAMES TAYLOR

Twenty five years ago this summer James Taylor was living in London and submitted the demo tape that led to him becoming the first "outside" act signed by The Beatles to their new record label, Apple Records.

LORRIE MORAGAN

Congratulations to Lorrie Morgan who's been named America's top stylemaker by the 40,000-member National Cosmetology Association. Morgan won over runners-up Demi Moore, Hillary Rodham Clinton and Reba McEntire in voting based on hair, makeup and fashion consciousness.

KENNY G

In the nine months since its release, Kenny G's album, Breathless has sold more than five million copies in the States.

BARBRA STREISAND

The original version of Stephen Sondheim's "Children Will Listen," from the Broadway musical Into The Woods, wasn't sung as a complete song in the musical, so Barbra Streisand asked Sondheim to complete the song for her current album, Back To Broadway.

BOB DYLAN

The just-released home video for the Bob Dylan 30th Anniversary Concert clocks in at more than three hours and includes a lot of rare archival performances by Dylan that were not included in the concert itself.

TINA TURNER

Tina Turner says that her recent conversion to Buddhism is directly responsible for her peace of mind, and that it has changed her outlook on life.

PATTI SCIALFA

Asked if husband Bruce Springsteen changes diapers for their children Evan James and Jessica Rae, Patti Scialfa says, "Yes he does. Everybody has to change diapers in our house. You come to the door, you change diapers."

TONI BRAXTON

Toni Braxton's new single, "Another Sad Love Song,"

WHO AM I?: Kelly Willis

was written by Babyface. L.A. Reid and Daryl Simmons, the same team that wrote "Girlfriend" for Pebbles, "Knocked Out" for Paula Abdul, "Don't Be Cruel" for Bobby Brown, "Dial My Heart" for The Boys and "The Way You Love Me" for Karyn White.

DAVE KOZ

Last year T.V. Guide said Dave Koz had "become a late-night heartthrob, causing quivers and shivers down the spines of frantic female fans."

ROBERT PLANT

In 1981, while still a member of Led Zeppelin, Robert Plant began his career as a solo by fronting his band The Honeydrippers and recording the album Pictures At Eleven without the Honeydrippers or Led Zeppelin.

K.T. OSLIN

After directing K.T. Oslin in his new film The Thing Called Love, Peter Bogdanovich says, "She is an absolutely brilliant actress."

MICHAEL McDONALD

One of Michael McDonald's biggest hits was his 1986 duet with Patti LaBelle, "On My Own." To get the vocals and the video recorded the two singers traded tapes and they didn't meet until long after the project was completed.

ALEXANDER O'NEAL

The first-ever single from Alexander O'Neal was called "Do You Dare" and came out on the little Chicago label, Erect.

MOODSWINGS

The group Moodswings is based around J.F.T. Hood and Grant Showbiz, two studio musicians who've worked with Billy Bragg and The Pretenders respectively. Lead vocalist on the band's current single, "Rainsong," is Linda Muriel who worked with the group Brand New Heavies back in the '80s.

Inside Connections

The following connections are made with the help of 511 playlists reported this week to our Top 40, Urban and Adult Contemporary formats.

Programmers interested in making the correct musical connections have probably already given fair play to Brian McKnight's "One Last Cry," Whitney Houston's "Run To You" and Mariah Carey's "Dreamlover." They are all closed issues at a vast majority of our stations. On the immediate horizon are Toni Braxton's (right) "Another Sad Love Song" and possibly Janet Jackson's "If," now that an

A/C mix is in the house.

The Braxton has already been embraced by 260 stations, including 121 Top 40s and 83 A/Cs. And all that coming while she and it enjoy a #1 ranking at Urban radio for the third consecutive week.

In the wacky world where A/C and Top 40 collide, a total of 18 singles are tenants-in-common, led by

Madonna's "Rain,"

Michael Jackson's

"Will You Be There,"

Billy Joel's "The River Of Dreams," Carey's

"Dream-lover,"

and Rod

Stewart's un-

plugged

"Reason To Believe."

Three

this week,

led by Rick

Astley's

"Hopelessly"

with 146 ADDs spread between Top 40 and A/C. Also on the fast track are Earth, Wind & Fire's comeback, "Sunday Morning" with 104 first-week players and Daryl Hall's (above) Epic solo, "I'm In A Philly Groove" with 88 out-of-the-box.

Starring on the GO Chart are the top 10 ranks for Aerosmith's "Cryin'" and Rod Stewart, even before their main chart status reaches top 15. The mercurial Spin Doctors, "How Could You Want Him," ranks at #27 on the GO while lagging modestly on the main at #34.

Michael McDonald's "I Stand For You" is already pacing the GO chart at #32, significantly ahead of its current main chart Up & Coming status. —RON FELL

Inside Top 40

When the topic of new releases comes up these days, the first question is usually, "Is it slow?"

Certainly tempo is one factor that programmers must consider, but is it the most important?

MCA VP, promotion, Mark Gorlick declares, "The worst reason for playing a record is because you're looking for a certain kind of tempo. Hits don't have tempo, they don't have dayparting, they don't have any of the boundaries we like to place on records. They're just the hits."

Gorlick accepts the premise that the audience has expectations for a product, but, he says, "Their first expectation is that they're going to hear a hit." Gorlick says he can't remember getting exposure for ballads on Top 40 "ever being worse. Maybe summertime is to blame, although it really doesn't matter what time of year it is—we're always hearing about a ballad glut."

If Mark were a programmer, how would he solve what he calls a difficult dilemma? He agrees with the oft-held theory of hanging onto recurrences longer, or turning to a power gold category to compensate for the large number of slow records, as opposed to just adding uptempo songs.

But according to KIIS-Los Angeles PD Jeff Wyatt, the theory works on paper but not in practice. Jeff says, "If 80 percent of hit currents are ballads, what happens when they become your recurrences three months down the road and you have to build those around the new batch of ballads? The 'ballad glut' has been going on since I took over as PD."

What irritates Gorlick more than anything, though, are programmers who tell him they're adding a particular record and say they don't feel that strong about it, but it's uptempo. "I wish I had a clump of hair for every time I've heard that in the past eight weeks," he says.

And while Gorlick's first priority is making sure his own artists get airplay, he admits a record like U.N.V.'s "Something's Goin' On," which he calls "an absolute smash," ends up getting crushed because a lot of programmers want to play artists they are more familiar with, in his case, Shai and Jodeci.

As for KIIS, Wyatt's main concern is avoiding too many extremes of any type. He reasons, "They change the texture of the station. You have to play them at their peak. Those who live in a vacuum will always feel they have a record that belongs on the air, not taking into account whether it really fits at that place in time."

Wyatt looks to play songs at their peak and advises promoters to make certain records hit at one of the many niche formats available and then bring it to his attention. He disagrees that a lot of ballads are big at retail but, he notes, "If we play 12 records an hour, six can't be ballads. Four an hour is okay and maybe even three an hour at night because of their popularity right now, but we can only take it so far."

Jeff denies there's any magic for-

"Stay Forever"

BACKGROUND: Joey Lawrence has acted in commercials since he was three. In fact, Johnny Carson saw him in one at age five, which led to Joey singing on "The Tonight Show." He's also done TV movies, four seasons on the sitcom "Gimme a Break" and he currently portrays Joey Russo on "Blossom."

FAVORITE SINGERS: Johnny Gill, Bobby Brown, Elton John, Father MC and Garth Brooks.

DID YOU KNOW? Joey receives 12,000 fan letters a month.

IT'S SAID: "Lawrence even sometimes thinks about a future outside show business. He's considering applying to colleges, including Yale and Harvard, next year and speculates very vaguely, about politics. 'It'd be sort of neat,' he muses, 'to be a senator or something.'" —People

IT'S SAID: "Joey Lawrence is the perfect multi-media artist for the '90s. At just 17, Joey is a veteran with a hit album and two hit TV series—and this is just the tip of the iceberg for this talented singer/songwriter." —Randy Nicklaus, senior VP, A&R, Impact Records

Luther Vandross compiling this week's Urban section. Probably more recognized for my rap reviews, I, with the help of GAVIN rap editor Kelly Woo, added a bit of hip-hop flava to this week's Urban section. Big shout out to DJ Ivan Rodriguez for the bag of Lay's potato chips and a bottle of lemonade Snapple he bought me when I was starving for food on reporting day. Okay, on with the chart...Looking at this week's numbers, we find the top spot on the chart held once again by Toni Braxton, as her chart-smashing single continues to hold off a strong charge by Janet Jackson. Both songs have a 100% Hit Factor, and it will be interesting to see what happens next week. Can the '80s queen of pop dethrone the newest ballad queen?...Making a short jump to #4 with the help of an add from WHUR-Washington, D.C. is Brian McKnight's "One Last Cry"...The ball just keeps on rollin' for SWV as "Downtown" forges it's way into the top ten in only its sixth week on the chart. A new add for this potential gold-selling record from WVKO-Columbus, Ohio...With a jump to #12, Babyface, enjoying his fourth week on the chart, continues to win favorable response from programmers. Continued success may be tough though, with the likes of

Maze & Frankie Beverly's "Laid Back Girl" and Mariah Carey's "Dreamlover" just behind 'Face at #15 and #16 respectively...BBD's ballad "Something In Your Eyes" continues to move upward four- notches to #19. One of the summer's most requested songs makes its way to #21, as Zhane's "Hey Mr. DJ" receives added support from KRUS-Ruston, Louisiana...And don't blink because you might just miss SWV's "Right Here/Human Nature" mix as it rockets to #22. The hits just keep comin' for this trio from Brooklyn, U.S.A and stations giving them support this week include WESE-Tupelo, Mississippi and KGRM-Grambling, Louisiana...Me 2 U's "Want You Back" climbs to #26, buoyed by adds from WABD-Clarksville, Tenn. and KKBK-Los Angeles...Rounding out this week's top 30 records are the smash single "Alright" by Kris Kross at #29, which also features an A-plus performance by dancehall phenom Super Cat, and the sultry "Always" by Vesta, which comes in at #30. Other movers and shakers that continue to make progress are Johnny Gill whose second single, "I Got You," goes to #32, and Ice Cube's "Check Yo'Self." The 1993 rendition of Grandmaster

Zhane

Flash and The Furious Five's "The Message," jumps to #33. New to the chart and bound to make progress are "Cherish The Day," Sade's third single, which debuts at #37, and Luther Vandross's "Heaven Knows," which had the most adds of any song charted this week. Two of Luther's ten adds included WBLS-New York and KDKO-Denver, Colorado...Last on this week's chart are 2-Pac's "I Get Around" at #39 and Regina Belle's "Dream In Color," which makes its entrance at #40...So, there you have it! This week in Urban, presented to you by Da Rap Crew at GAVIN, and like my man K-WOO says every week..."Nuff said. —ROD EDWARDS

New Releases

STANLEY CLARKE Fantasy Love (Epic)

Bassist/Composer Stanley Clarke creates some romantic material with "Fantasy Love," the lead single from his East River Drive album. The sensual love-promising lyrics are written and sung by Howard Hewett. Along with Gerry Brown on drums, Clarke scores a multi-format winner. —JOHN MARTINUCCI

EN VOGUE Runaway Love (Atlantic)

The sweet, soulful vocals of these four ladies continue to burn up the airwaves as they prepare to release a six-cut EP, Runaway Love. Produced by Tommy and Denny, the title track, "Runaway Love," is a masterpiece of harmony and tight production that captures the energy of their earlier works. Their vocal performance is incomparable and uncompromising—perfection! This mid-tempo groove will stand out and shine among your audiences and crowded playlists. —K-WOO

EARTH, WIND & FIRE Sunday Morning (Reprise)

As the sound of urban contemporary music continues to change, it's nice to hear groups like Earth, Wind & Fire rejoice in classic fashion. After three years of silence, Maurice White and the gang make the label jump back to the Warner Bros. family, giving us a track that's destined to appear on The Best Of EW&F, Vol. III, whenever that's compiled. The smooth lead vocals of Maurice, background vocals of Philip Bailey and the amazing Pheonix Horns will spark fond memories of the past, but at the same time send you forward into Millennium, their forthcoming album. "Sunday Morning" is the perfect track to close out the summer, so slip on those cool summer whites, put on your favorite pair of shades, grab a glass of lemonade, and just chil-l-l-l-l-l. —K-WOO

PolyGram building say, "Car problems?" The next time someone runs into Sincere of PolyGram, remind him to remove his car keys from the ignition before locking the door, especially if it's a rental car. And if Brian Samson of Mercury offers you a ride anywhere, I'd strongly suggest you seek another mode of transportation; his driver's license has been suspended for who knows how long! Thank goodness PLG provides them with car service!...Did anybody else hear about Dan Smalls of Uptown getting a part-time gig at Kinko's in Atlanta?...Does anyone know who's gettin' Darryl Lindsey's job at Hits?...The rumor on the grapevine has Marcus Morton of ERG rummaging through the industry classifieds. Was my profile on him that bad, or is he looking for his name in the wanted section?...What's this I hear about another ERG guy making moves?!?...Speaking of ERG, Alexander Mejia of KMEL/The Remix Shop played me a few remixes being considered for "There's No Need 2 Run Anymore" by Gumbo, and they're all that! Unfortunately, people behind the scenes aren't sure which single to go with yet...Congratulations to ICY-D

Stay up, D—weez wit'cha...A big fat doo-doo brown shout-out to Eric L. Brooks, who has been upped to executive director of promotions for Priority Records. Does this mean that he'll be cleaning the activator stain off the headrest in his champagne Porsche 928?...Making power moves of her own is Michelle Edwards, formerly of Rap-A-Lot Records, who's settled down in Austin, Texas to tackle the position of PR & publicity coordinator for Flashpoint International. Heads in the house included Tragedy, Dred Scott, Babalu Bad Boys, Straight G, Freestyle Fellowship, Da Lench Mob, Jinx, Coolio, Tha Alkaholiks and The Baker Boys. I got the invitation in the mail, but no matter how much I shook the envelope—no airline ticket....According to A-Love's Shit List, the Kris Kross get-together was just as fat, considering that it was a last minute thang. If you need to reach A-Love, he can be reached at (310) 657-9500...A super-duper-hurry-up-and-get-well shout goes to Carmonique Roberts of Priority Records who is recovering from a lung infection. album, Roxbury 02119, should make up for the wait. Talking about hookin' up with the honeys, ED O.G expresses the lighter side of his life compared to the responsible side he showcased in "Be A Father To Your Child" from the debut album. The beats are fat, with a dope bass line and crazy cool horn loops. This brother deserved to go gold last time out but didn't, so let's make sure he does this time. Contact Daryle Lockhart at (212) 243-6215.

KING TEE Bus Dat Ass (Capitol)

Although the first two singles came and went without much notice, this third single from Tha Triflin' Album may be the one that catches everyone's ears. Teaming up again with Tha Alkaholiks, King Tee capitalizes on the popularity Tha Liks have captured within the past few months on their own project, "Make Room." Production is tight, with a drum track similar to the one on "Make Room," making the two easy to put "in-the-mix." The catchy hook should grab your audience's attention after one or two plays. Two radio edits are provided depending on how "clean" your show is. Contact Al B.—oops! I mean Jason "JC" Ricks at (213) 871-5350. Don't forget to ask him for his Capitol compilation tape.

BLACK MADDNESS Wild Brooklyn Bandits (Select)

Following in the footsteps of so many other Brooklyn born hip-hop acts, this duo from Flatbush represents just how it's done where they come from. Beginning the record with a jazzy horn sample,

Black Man and Madd Poet flex their skills over the song's dope track and should get most of dem heads noddin', especially those that call Brooklyn home. See if you recognize the phat horn sample on the break. For a different feel, flip the record over for the Funkin' Jazz remix. Complete with a chorus that echoes, "Yo, Brooklyn where you at?" this record is a definite shout out to the Planet Crooklyn. 'Nuff respect kids. Call Stanley White at (212) 691-1200.

FROM: Brentwood, Long Island

LABEL: eastwest

PROMOTION CONTACT: Karen Mason

LATEST RELEASE: "All She Wanted"

FORTHCOMING ALBUM: Strictly Savage

MUSICAL INFLUENCES: EPMD

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS: Tom J. went to school with Erick Sermon, and when EPMD had their first taste of success, the Knucklehedz were given odd jobs by Parrish Smith. Tom also went on tour with EPMD, serving as sound and light man.

THEY SAY: "We feel we don't have anything to prove to anybody. That's our whole point; we're not trying to be anything we're not. When we make songs, they come from our hearts and our lives. We do it for us and the people who live the same wild lifestyles. They don't have a group to represent them." —The Knucklehedz

IT'S SAID: "While there is no disguising the fact that they are white, don't mistake them for a blatant crossover act—producers Erick Sermon, Solid Scheme and Charlie Marotta make sure the tracks are strictly for the hard-core."

New Releases

JOHN MELLENCAMP

"Human Wheels" (Mercury)

John Mellencamp unveils the title track, "Human Wheels," as the second warm-up to the soon-to-be-released album. Luckily, he supplies printed lyrics on the pro-sleeve, as his vocal performance is partially masked, sixties-psychdelic style, by what sounds like a spinning effect through a Leslie speaker. Ever the restless sort, as evidenced by his ventures into painting and filmmaking, Mellencamp, through his music, ponders the human condition through the eyes of a man cursed with the grand and expanded sensibilities of a poet. He weighs human frailty on a heavy philosophical scale. "Human Wheels" opening lines draws a puzzling scenario: "This land, today, shall draw its last breath/And take into its ancient depths/This frail reminder of its giant, dreaming self/While I, with human-bindered eyes/Unequal to the sweeping curve of light/Stand on this single print of time."

BILLY JOEL

River Of Dreams (Columbia)

I believe in the business of things happening in threes. Speaking for myself, three of my favorite personalities these days come from Long Island—hardly the cradle of modern thinking. Howard Stern, Andrew Dice Clay (who just staged his pay-per-view special on HBO) and, now, Billy Joel are highly visceral and opinionated entertainers. While Howard and Dice wrestle with their own combinations of success, notoriety and respectability, Billy Joel takes the high road—although not without its potholes. "No Man's Land" is a fierce and brutally honest indictment of America's economic recovery. Continuing his deftness at genre-bending (be it modernizing doo-wop or incorporating classical themes), Billy's "Shades Of Grey" is a clever send-up of early Cream power trio days. Remember the vocal threesomes and distorted guitars of Fresh Cream? The most touching composition is "All About Soul," an inspiring and absorbing testimony to the power of a woman's devotion and companionship through tough times. Country and R&B don't necessarily have this subject all to themselves. "This life isn't fair/It's gonna get dark, it's gonna get cold/You've got to get tough, but that ain't enough/It's all about soul." The lyrics are deceptively straightforward, but stirring, with guest vocals by Color Me Badd and textured orchestrations. Quite moving.

FALL PREVIEW

CONTENDERS, PRETENDERS, AND THE NEXT BIG TRENDERS

by Beverly Nire

It's almost September and the baseball diamond is about to be blurred by football yardmarkers. As fans take out their tailgate menus and cheerleaders dust their pom-poms, team coaches are burning the midnight oil, watching the performance of wet-behind-the-ears rookies who hope to be the next steely-eyed, durable Joe Montana, and veterans who, though aging, are like Lawrence Taylor—performing well enough to stay with the club.

COACH: Senior vice president of promotion, Rick Stone

"My favorite players for the fourth quarter happen to be Sting, who has an EP coming out with 'Demolition Man' from the Sylvester Stallone/Wesley Snipes movie of the same name, and it's hot! There's a Police boxed set—need I say more? Mint Condition's got a slammin' new album coming out in October with Jimmy and Terry written all over it, and a great single in September called 'Nobody Does It Better.' Miss CeCe Peniston is going to be a major player for us. How about Bryan Adams' Greatest Hits with some new music for everybody—that'll be in October. And Mr. Aaron Neville—we always need to hear more from Aaron—there's a Christmas album coming out in October. Couple that with records by Barry White, John Hiatt and Squeeze and that's our fourth quarter!"

"First off, Fabulon's 'In A Mood' is currently doing very well at Alternative radio and we're looking for a very strong week in Top 40. Before Labor Day we'll be going for adds on The Proclaimer's 'I'm On My Way,' the follow up to the top five Top 40 hit, 'I'm Gonna Be (500 Miles),' which should take I'm On My Way, the album, to at least platinum status. Also out now is 'Jessie' by Joshua Kadison who's a new artist to the label. It's top ten at A/C radio and we'll be crossing it to Top 40 in the next three weeks. "After a summer of successful releases, looking forward to the fall, the things that immediately come to mind are the new Boo Radleys and Mariah Carey which are coming out at the end of August, which will be followed by new things by Laura Nyro and Onyx and a great new band named Xcape. Another new one is Menageri, there are some staples like Kate Bush and Bruce Cockburn, Harry Connick Jr. Harry's is long-awaited even though it hasn't been that long; Jamal-Ski is an incredible reggae/dancehall artist; Peabo Bryson and Michael Bolton, Julio Iglesias, NKOTB, Terminator X...there are just so many. It's been a wonderful summer, so we'll have a continuous line of second and third releases from albums that are currently out."

"Excitement is in the air as we enter the fall season. We're coming off an incredible run with the Stone Temple Pilots packing stadiums coast to coast; Inner Circle working up a 'Sweat'; MC Lyte 'Ruffneck'ing the competition; Intro's 'Come Inside' nationwide; Robert Plant...Pete Townshend...Robin S...Marc Cohn—in short, the best players in the league. About to rule the country are Atlantic rookie sensations Juliana Hatfield, Melissa Ferrick, Melvins, Buffalo Tom, Machines of Loving Grace, Bad Religion, Wendy Matthews and Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies. Barring unforeseen injuries we're projecting major performances out of Atlantic veterans—Mr. Big, Stevie Nicks, Saigon Kick, Lemonheads, Phil Collins, Rush, Skid Row and INXS. RADIO LISTENERS: All In The Family

BY NATALIE DUITSMAN

For the July 9 issue of the Yellow Pages Of Radio, twenty eight-year radio veteran Jon Wailin shared guidelines for air talent. For this installment, Wailin presents his system for converting casual cumers to long-term listeners.

Jon Wailin

Wailin, twice nominated for GAVIN Personality Of The Year while at KNEW-San Francisco, sports a resume that includes on-air work in Houston, Los Angeles, Cincinnati, Buffalo, Fort Worth and Honolulu. Back in 1978, Wailin handled morning drive on WROK, and had an audience share of 35.8 percent a ratings high never duplicated. He recently completed two years as corporate operations manager at WROK/WZOK-Rockford, Illinois.

This week, Wailin discusses the "loyalty factor" of your radio station, and puts forth a unique approach to improve that factor, in the process converting cumer persons into AQH persons.

Radio stations, Wailin begins, have four different types of listeners:

1. VISITORS: They sample the station once in a while for a brief period. Sometimes they are merely scanning through the dial. Perhaps they see a new billboard or TV spot and try it out of curiosity. Perhaps they hear the station at work when someone else is controlling the radio. But for the most part, these listeners are "first time" consumers of the station.

2. GUESTS: These are listeners who sample the station once in a while, stay a little longer than a "visitor," but then leave again. These can be listeners who are drawn to the station perhaps for one or two particular elements offered, but they are not familiar enough to feel comfortable. They leave again to seek "safer" ground.

3. FRIENDS: These are listeners who listen for longer periods of time and more often. They are developing a comfort level with the station, they sense the station shares the same values, tastes, concerns and lifestyles with them. They feel they are "in the right place" when they listen. They may, on occasion, listen to someone else, but they soon return because they miss what's comfortable to them.

4. FAMILY: These are the "exclusive" listeners, the "core," the "groupies" of any station. They bake the birthday cakes, go to every remote, enter every contest, and own at least one of everything the station has ever given away. If they ever get their hands on a diary the station is home free!

Here are some suggestions on how to use this analogy to better serve these four groups. Imagine, if you will, that you have just moved into a new neighborhood. Someone from down the street comes by to visit and knocks on your door, hoping to meet you, learn more about you (out of natural curiosity) and welcome you. Imagine your radio station is the newcomer who answers the door to the visitor. The goal for your station is quite obviously to convert visitors to family members. Here's how it happens in real life and here's how it can work for radio.

1. Visitors become guests if they feel welcome, comfortable and enjoy the visit.

2. Guests become friends when they become convinced that they are in the right place and believe that their "host" appreciates the fact that they are there.

3. Friends become family when they share the same interests, concerns and desires as their "host" and they attain a level of trust.

How can your station turn visitors into family?

- Ascertain the needs, desires and expectations of every visitor.
- Remind visitors that you offer those elements for them.
- Constantly and consistently serve the needs of your guests.
- Point out the advantages of becoming a friend.
- Reward family members for their longtime loyalty.

Imagine you walk up to the door of a strange house. You knock and are greeted by a cordial, warm person at the door. After a moment's hesitation, you accept the invitation to step inside and rest a while. You immediately feel welcome, safe and perhaps even curious about this host. Before you're gone more than a few minutes, you've made up your mind to return again, and soon.

On your next visit, you spend more time with your intriguing host; enough time to notice you share similar interests and tastes. The dialogue between you reaches a point of openness and honesty that makes you feel like a friend instead of just a guest.

As time passes, you realize that you actually feel more comfortable at this "home" than you do at any other in the neighborhood. And if the host takes the time to be honest, true and trustworthy, the day soon comes when you actually feel part of their family. And should this neighbor openly refer to you as part of the family, your level of comfort and trust is heightened all the more... you feel safe... you feel secure... you have found a home!

This approach in dealing with visitors, guests, friends and family can help a station grow. Whether your station's visitors come to you on the phone, in person at a remote, or with a twist of the radio knob, you must "open the door" to them each and every time, prepared to do what it takes to convert them to a member of your family.

CONGRATULATIONS to all those nominated for the Country Music Awards, to be broadcast September 29. See News for a full list of nominees...Congratulations to KRJC's Sean Marx who married his sweet-heart Tammy Gatzke on August 21 in Spring Creek, NV...Finally, special congratulations to Doug Supernaw on his first number one. Seems like he's finally broken that bad luck streak. In other Supernaw news, you might have heard the flap in Reno, Nev. A few weeks ago, the newswire carried a story saying "Reno" was derogatory towards the city of Reno. KBUL capitalized on the press by staging a "Rewrite Reno" contest. In conjunction with the Reno Gazette-Journal, they've asked listeners to rewrite the lyrics. Supernaw will pick his favorite version and then sing it when he appears in concert in November.

CHANGES...

We're happy to hear that our old buddy Sam McGuire, formerly with KNUE-Tyler is the new PD at WGRL ("The Bear")-Indianapolis...Doug Montgomery exits WGTR to become the OM/PD at WGTR (Gator 107.9)-Myrtle Beach, SC...Johnny Chauvin is the new Music Director at WFPR-Hammond, as Amy Costanza moves to Nashville...WDLS has a new address. THE WIDE WORLD OF MUSIC...

Let's hear it for Stephanie Davis and the folks at Asylum for coming up with a wonderful promotion to support Davis's debut single, "It's All In The Heart." Instead of sending radio some plastic gimmick, they donated money to the American Heart Association...The Strawberry Music Festival, which takes place in Yosemite, Calif. September 2-6, have announced their lineup. Lucinda Williams, Shawn Colvin, John Gorka and Tim & Mollie O'Brien are among the acts scheduled to perform. For more info call (209) 533-0191.

Rosie Flores gives her co-producers Dusty Wakeman and Greg Leisz some pointers at Mad Dog studios as they put the finishing touches on her new album Once More With Feeling, which ships this week.

AND ANOTHER THING...

We hear Marty Stuart has asked Monte Warden to join the Marty Party tour. Sounds like an inspired pairing...This month's Sassy magazine (required reading for pre-teen girls and hipsters of all ages) finally makes a bow to Country music. In this month's Entertainment Poll, amidst such questions as "Who do you think is the biggest dork on MTV?" and "What's the best movie to see with a cute boy," the mag tentatively asks "Do you listen to Country music?" We'll have to wait 'til January, 1994 before the results hit the streets... Speaking of TNN, did you catch Lorrie Morgan's acting debut in "Proudheart" last week?

REBA McENTIRE with LINDA DAVIS

"Does He Love You" (MCA)

Linda Davis has been singing back-up for Reba on the road, and Reba asked her to put her vocals on this hard-hitting duet.

JOHN ANDERSON
"I Fell In The Water" (BNA Entertainment)

It seems like Anderson can do no wrong these days and sure enough, he gives us another winner.

LARI WHITE
"Lay Around And Love On You" (RCA)

When Lari first heard this song on a Ray Charles record she knew she had to get her hands on it. By being both sexy and friendly, she manages to appeal to both men and women—no easy task.

BROOKS AND DUNN
"She Used To Be Mine" (Arista)

Ronnie Dunn has one of the most soulful voices on contemporary Country radio, a fact that is sometimes lost in all the boot-scootin'. It takes a slow burner like this to underscore that point.

RANDY TRAVIS
"Cowboy Boogie" (Warner Bros.)

Some people sing Western songs as if they're trying on a costume. Randy sounds completely natural—and like he's having a lot of fun. This is from an entire album of western and cowboy songs, the soundtrack to the TV special Wind In The Wire.

ROGER BALLARD
"Two Steps In The Right Direction" (Atlantic)

Atlantic's newest hopeful makes his debut with a fun number that he co-wrote. The chorus is a knock out.

PROMOTION SR. VP:

Bill Catino

HE SAYS (ABOUT HIS ADORING FEMALE FOLLOWING):

"Their reaction makes me feel good. It gives me a lot of confidence. But at the same time I'm almost poking fun at it. I don't take it so seriously that it goes to my head. My songs are really the thing I'm serious about, but at the same time it's important to entertain people. I like to perform and tailor my show to the kind of audience I'm performing to—if the audience is filled with young, screaming girls I'll adjust to that too. I just like to have fun. I've got to compete with these younger guys!"

IT'S SAID: "Mr Right: he lives! Women know this instinctively, which accounts for his burgeoning female following.

Dean really is the sentimental, old-fashioned guy with the boyish good looks...he's a shoo-in for country music's version of THE MAN EVERY WOMAN DREAMS ABOUT."

—Country Spirit

"Blessed with one of the most gorgeously unaffected singing voices in all of country music, Billy Dean has all the makings of the next country music sensation."

MERCYFUL FATE

LINEUP: King Diamond, vocals; Hank Shermann, guitar; Michael Denner, guitar; Timi Hansen, bass; Snowy Shaw, drums

LABEL: Metal Blade

DEBUT ALBUM: In The Shadows

LATEST SINGLE: Egypt

PRODUCERS: King Diamond, Hank Shermann and Tim Kimsey

KING DIAMOND SPEAKS ABOUT:

THE SIGNING: "Brian Slagel heard from our lawyer that we were working on a new album. He showed a big interest from the beginning but was a little reluctant to get back to us. I sent him a couple of four-track demos with just guitars and he was very surprised to hear how close we had come musically to the early Mercyful Fate. He called us up and said, 'Let's do it right now.'"

THEN: "Hank composed half the music in our early recordings. Michael Denner and I composed the remainder. It was quite a change when the stuff Hank wrote turned into a completely different style. We had to part ways."

NOW: In March of 1992 I heard a tape Hank and Michael had done and it was so Mercyful Fate! We talked about it a lot and I just had to sing the new material. We were able to re-capture the chemistry. We want to achieve something new with every album. My vocal range has grown out of portraying the different characters on the King Diamond albums."

ON THE RECORDING PROCESS: "Hank laid down the rhythm guitars using the same amp and guitar he used back then. He even used the same settings. It was a matter of capturing it better on tape this time with the mics set up properly. Michael Denner has all the emotion you'll ever need in a guitarist; Hank Shermann is the master of the aggressive guitar. In that respect they complement each other perfectly. Since we couldn't record with my King Diamond producer in Denmark, Shermann and I began producing. Tim Kimsey came highly recommended to us as a first engineer, but he became such a big part of the album we credited him as co-producer. From the very first day the atmosphere in the studio was perfect. Working with Lars Ulrich on "Return Of The Vampire...1993" turned out to be an unforgettable experience. It was so spur-of-the-moment. He flew in from Denmark and stayed three days. We did the arrangement in the morning of the first day and recorded it that afternoon. Then we had lots of fun jamming."

ON RADIO RESPONSE: "What's amazing with the radio right now, with this new album, is that some of the big trades are tracking us as number one on five out of six charts. We never had that much airplay before. It just seems that the time is right for this kind of music. Even the old songs we played in Copenhagen turned into singalongs. It seems to be timeless in some way."

ON TOURING: We played for 30,000 in Copenhagen with Metallica. We headlined at the Dynamo Open Air Festival two days later and played to 45,000 people the first day and 48,000 the second day. It was unbelievable. We've never played for that many people before. We will kick off our U.S. tour September 8 on the east coast playing with Cathedral and Flotsam and Jetsam. We'll start with our full production. It'll be something for your eyes. Eight of the songs off the new album will be rehearsed and six will be performed every show, with a couple of new ones thrown in for a nice mix. We'll also play four older songs."

IT'S SAID: "What keeps this band relevant is the fact that they understand the importance of sticking to fundamentals; strong melodies, great riffs, and most importantly, songs."

—Michael Moses of Foundations

CONVULSE Lost Equilibrium (Relapse)

From a small village in Nokia, Finland comes a huge, burly sounding band that embraces death metal with a barrage of blazing guitars and guttural vocals. I usually don't write single reviews, but this highly energized band delivers such a hard-crunching sound I couldn't wait for the full album. The first cut, "Lost Equilibrium," begins with a slow, mesmerizing guitar and bass duel that covers the fret neck like a blanket. The intertwining chords escalate into hyper drive, offering quick, groovin' licks that multiply the deep bass thumps and crashing drums. Guitarist Rami Jamsa is responsible for ghostly growls that preach natural decline and personal introspection. The second cut, "Memories," is just as hard-hitting as the first, with extremely heavy metal guitar hooks and fast bass lines that heighten the broad vocal onslaught into a ghoulish mash of hard rock/death metal grooves that will impress the most ardent fans. Look for the ten song album to be released on Relapse Records sometime soon.

TYPE O NEGATIVE Bloody Kisses (Roadrunner)

Drop to your knees and worship the voice behind this band. I'm a sucker for a deep voice especially when the person sings of gothic and pagan notions. On their latest release, Type O Negative gets a handle on exploring their moods. Their first, Slow, Deep and Hard, showed you their angry side and now Bloody Kisses shows you their side that dwells on loneliness and the sadness surrounding a desire. But the edge they live on is contained in the lyrics. Type O's blunt, trademark innuendos run less rampant, giving the songs a greater impact.

The radio edits are compiled on the Black No. One EP. "Black No. One" is more than a song about hair color; its verses are carried by a heavy, strutting bass line providing an irresistible attraction to the gothic mistress. Singer Peter Steele describes the vamp in various degrees, but my favorite lies with "Lilly Munster ain't got nothing on you." The ingenious line, "Loving you is like loving the dead" suggests the underlying meaning in being attracted to the death-like looks of gothic girls. How long can a woman dedicate herself to Catholicism and refrain from being curious about her body? The answer begins with "Christian Woman," a song that made me feel sorry for the sacrificing female. Don't argue with Steele's affirming line, "Jesus Christ looks like me." Supposedly, it's his response to a comparison he used to hear.

Light the candles and listen to Type O Negative's version of Seals & Crofts' "Summer Breeze." The song drops at ominous veil over any sunny day, leaving you sighing beside your window as dusk falls. "We Hate Everyone" grew from the cancelled shows on a European tour when the band encountered rumors that they were fascists. It sums up their message that they're gonna go on doing what they want no matter what people say about them. The more forbidden you make them out to be, the more Type O will prevail. Finally, the title song, "Bloody Kisses" resembles the classic tragedy of Romeo & Juliet. A massive organ sinks the heart into wallowing loneliness, yet you're gripped with Steele's hungry passion. In between the tracks there's a glimpse into a warped zone of creativity which solidifies Bloody Kisses as an experience you'll never forget. As I extract my tongue from my cheek, I feel I'm shaking from the mystical inspiration this music has left in my mind.

Jazz/Adult Alternative New Releases

GEORGE HOWARD WHEN SUMMER COMES (GRP)

With summer at mid-point, along comes one of the sunniest adult alternative releases of the season. George Howard is easily one of the most productive and consistent horn players for adult alternative, both live and on record. When Summer Comes arrives just in time and contains a funkified remake of Hugh Masekela's summer anthem, "Grazing In The Grass." Howard is one of those urban crossover artists that will fortify many A² playlists. Check out the gale force fingerings on "Three Minute Warning," or try the loping "Hard Times," which feature some seamless dueting between GH's synth sidekick and co-writer, Vance Taylor. Howard's style leans toward the horn's sensual ("Only Human") and syncopated ("Family") tendencies, and few people realize how difficult it is to maintain an accurate pitch on the soprano sax. Howard has a powerful tone. The festive nature of the triggered rhythms, embellished by the simple 4/4 back-beats of real drums, are solid backdrops to some accomplished high-wire, high-octave blowing.

GREGG KARUKAS SUMMERHOUSE (POSITIVE MUSIC)

For Summerhouse, pianist Gregg Karukas's fourth album in less than four years, he's brought in a virtual A² who's who. Each track features at least one top-flight, chart-topping A² name as solo accompanist. The list is long and impressive: sax players Boney James, Eric Marienthal, Dave Koz and Everette Harp; guitarists Ricardo Silveira, Dori Caymmi, Pat Kelley and Paul Jackson, Jr. Summerhouse is easy and breezy, a split between light-handed improvisation, rolling funk bass lines and pastoral melodies. If you're looking for a little jump-start between the pastel tracks, try the jamming "Autobaun," which is fueled by a more plugged-in Kelley and Marienthal.

ALAN RIPA MODERN WOMAN RENAISSANCE MAN (APIRNALA)

In the tradition of Jim Chappell and Gregg Karukas, pianist Alan Ripa is gathering major market Adult Alternative attention with his second home grown release, Modern Woman Renaissance Man. The album was recorded as a basic quartet, and reed player Bob Hartrick alternates with guitarist Dave Robinson as secondary soloist.

When Ripa dabbles with light Latin tempos like "So Fine" or jazz chords on "So Romantic," it's done with the most tuneful and amorous intentions. MWRM is very ornate in its construction and Ripa's piano conversation is very similar to vocal balladry. The most up-tempo track, and our choice as most viable airplay contender, is the closer, "I Wish You Would."

PHILIP HARPER SOULFUL SIN (MUSE)

Not only is it nice to see that trumpeter Philip Harper has been in the studio again, it's more than pleasantly apparent that the breakup of his and brother Winard's band has had a liberating effect upon the former's compositional and solo style. As a leader, Philip has been able to, in his words, "let out another side of me." While his ability to weave seamless (and beautiful) flugelhorn passages through the contoured landscapes of "The Old Country" and "Mellow Afternoon," come as no surprise, this Art Blakey alum's adventurous risk-taking on the title track is unexpected (and appreciated). Soulful Sin has a collection of inviting chord progressions for Harper to blow, including the scorching Jae Sennett-inspired (and mis-titled) Salim tune, "Blue Jay." Joined by a corps of young talents on his Muse debut, Harper's warm-toned offerings have never been more crisp and confident (and soulful).
—JASON OLAINÉ

HOUSTON PERSON & RON CARTER NOW'S THE TIME (MUSE)

It's only fitting that swingin' tenorman Houston Person and bass icon Ron Carter kick off their second duo date on Muse with a Monk tune. Given the tremendous amount of harmonic and melodic interplay between the two throughout this date, "Bemsha Swing" sets the stage for a jump-and-catch-me type of atmosphere. It's obvious these two seasoned vets have a great love for each other and the tunes they pick out. Carter's "Eibahnstrasse" is a playful altered blues with Person acknowledging the great Charlie Rouse while lightly skipping over RC's rock-solid foundation. A heartfelt, gut-bucketed "Memories of You" is followed by Carter propelling a bouncing treatment of Jobim's "Quiet Nights." The straightest time is kept on the harmonically modulating "Now's The Time," a showcase for RC to create colorful sketches behind Person's unconscious swinging. This fun and lovely disc is a must for any Person or Carter fan; and if you aren't one yet, now's the time.

LATEST RELEASE: Profile

HE SAYS: "Yo, I'm back! Profile is very eclectic, even though the thread running through it is straight ahead jazz. As always, my musical goal is to play the alto as well and in as many styles as I can, but authentically. I find that unlike other horns, the sax can be played in many different ways."

ON COLE'S FOUR AND A HALF YEAR STUDIO HIATUS: "Before recording again, I wanted to straighten aspects of my personal life out. Basically, I needed a break to decide where I'm going, which direction my career should take at this point. I wanted to make a new statement. For years I worked 50 weeks out of the year and put too much pressure on myself being a workaholic. I've learned to slow down and take my time."

IT'S SAID: "This album is vintage Cole, a mainstream jazz date with no pop saxophonists sharing the bill, no madcap renditions of tunes about Hollywood. Here you have just solid, swinging jazz with no frills. Is there any better kind?"

Los Angeles Times

We're all set for a weekend of information and music, a rigorous agenda exploring A³ radio and music. Since we're sold out (meeting space is limited), if we weren't able to accommodate you the experimental year, we promise to be more inclusive next year. Sorry, admittance is limited to those who FAXed back their invitations. No walk-up please!

A lot of you are calling for the agenda. We'll be FAXing the complete line-up. Except for the Friday and Saturday night showcases, all events take place on the Clarion Harvest House grounds in Boulder. For now, here's the short version:

Thursday: 6:00p.m. "Whenjagetin? Opening Tent BarBQ and Mini Registration"

Friday: 8:00a.m. Mini Registration; 9:00a.m. Opening Forum; 11:30a.m. Lunch On The Lawn; 1:00p.m. Ratings & Research; 3:00p.m. On The GRIDle Music Meeting. 5:30p.m. A³ Celebrity Cocktail Party; 9:00p.m. Fox Theater Showcase #1 plus a Late Night Hospitality Chill Out Room back at the Clarion.

A few announcements and changes...Tim Tobin at WKXE regrets to inform us that the station (on the brink of new ownership) has gone soft A/C. In WKXE's place on the Grid we finally add WZEW-Mobile...I promise, I promise more stations will be added to our A³ roster after the Boulder Summit.

A³ New Releases

MELISSA FERRICK Massive Blur (Atlantic)

Once you hit track three of Melissa Ferrick's debut, you know something good is happening. "Hello Daddy" is paced like Dylan's "Don't Think Twice It's All Right" and is a touching back-porch story of a daughter addressing her gruff father. While her life may indeed be a Massive Blur, the stories here are enunciated and clear. Melissa alternates between loud and brash, and sion felt by the socially insecure twentysomething crowd. In other words, the bouncy "Happy Song" really isn't. Helping out on guitars throughout is dB Peter Holsapple. Exploding with ideas, Melissa includes a whopping fourteen songs in a style not to be confused with the other, more prominent Melissa.

ANTHONY CRAWFORD (Little Dog)

"I was so impressed by Anthony's music that I started a record company to put it out..." says producer/guitarist Pete Anderson (Dwight Yoakam/Michelle Shocked). On Little Dog's maiden voyage, Anthony Crawford combines hooky songs with tasty acoustics and larger production. Rummaging through the disc, I found a bushel of goodies. The opening "Fit In" is a disenfranchised anthem, perfect from the mouth of a Tennessee boy. "The Noise Around Us" features a wheezy Neil Young harp. "Been So Long" capi-

IT'S WRITTEN: "I swear upon a stack of vintage Patsy Cline and Bonnie Raitt records: You will not encounter a more stunning album by a Texas singer this year than Toni Price's debut." —Dallas Morning News

TONI ON BONNIE: It's the biggest compliment to hear some of her in what I do. I've listened to Bonnie Raitt every day of my life, because she makes me feel better or helps me cry or makes me dance or laugh or whatever."

—Austin American-Statesman

ON SPORTING A KEITH RICHARDS TATTOO: "I was this little girl in a tattoo shop, and there were all these big guys, and when they saw I was getting the name stenciled on, they went, 'Oh honey, please don't do it. You'll regret it.' But I would never put no boyfriend's or husband's name on my arm."

—Austin American-Statesman

ON HER FORMER OCCUPATION AT THE NIGHTHAWK AND LA ZONA ROSA: "I was a good waitress." —The Daily Texan

HOPES AND DREAMS: "I want it to be said when I die that 'She was a good singer. Not that she was funny or cute or nice or mean or any of that, just that I was a good—or maybe great—singer.'" —The Daily Texan

Congratulations to Imago's Leslie Alfano on her recent engagement. She didn't want to go into details, but did mention that Don Rickles was involved. Can't wait to hear this one!

And as KFJC's Les Scurry packs up his belongings to make the big move to Alias Records in L.A., new music director Alan Lowe segues into the position and awaits your call.

Starting in September, The Wizard's (WIIZ-Lafayette) Buzz Fitzgerald and Elizabeth Daubel will have new call hours—Thursdays and Fridays, 3-5 p.m.

September 5 marks CIMX-Detroit's annual X-Fest, scheduled to take place at Pontiac, Michigan's Phoenix Plaza Amphitheatre. Bands contributing their time and talent include The Breeders and Urge Overkill.

In label news, A&M's Jeff Suhay will soon be seguing out of promotions and into the A&R department—a move he's been vying for about two years. Taking over as VP of alternative promotion will be none other than Jack Isquith! Congratulations to both of you.

back?), as it gets set to launch Spin Radio and Spin Radio Network. The former is targeted to commercial alternative stations and will feature music, interviews, news and related features, while the latter is targeted to college radio and will concentrate just on music and interviews. Stations interested in this venture should give Morgan Church of the National Alternative Network a call at (612) 338-2211.

In our news, Nirvana has asked The Breeders, our Most Added artist by a long-shot this week, to tour with them, and The Cranberries will take the stage with Suede this fall. Two red-hot shows for sure!

Speaking of this fall, since so many of you have already been playing the bejesus out of Blur's "Chemical World" (originally slated for release this fall), thereby starting off an import-buying deluge, the company has decided to repackage the album for America. The new version of the album will include some additional tracks not on the English version.

Once again, The Smashing Pumpkins hold on to number one, but The Juliana Hatfield Three's 4-2 move should be taken very seriously. They're already at the top of the Commercial Intensive chart, and the college support isn't waning. It could be anyone's ballgame next week.

Compilations and soundtracks are certainly making their presence felt on the chart. This week the Sweet Relief compilation moves 10-7, while the soundtrack to the movie Coneheads stays at 9 with an underline. Continuing outside the top ten, the Peace Together compilation jumps 21-16 and the So, I Married An Axe Murderer soundtrack stays at 19 with an underline. Whew!

The Cranberries regain their underline this week—just in time for aforementioned tour! Credit goes to stations picking up on the group's new single, "Still Can't," while others continue to support the renegade album track, "Linger."

The Ocean Blue are our Top Tip this week, as the band manages a solid debut at 26. Expect support for this project to continue over the coming weeks.

Most Added honors go to The Breeders, who walloped the competition with an amazing 47 adds! They were just a few points shy of a debut this week, so expect one in the top half of the chart next week. From there, it's directly to the top!

ARTIST PROFILE

TIGER TRAP

FROM: Sacramento, Calif.

LATEST RELEASE: Tiger Trap

LABEL: K

THEY ARE: Rose, guitar and vocals, Libra; Angela, guitar, Aquarius; Jen, bass, Leo; Heather, drums, Gemini.

FIRST GIG: As a duo called Tiger Trap, Rose and Angela played the International Pop Underground Convention in Olympia, Wash. in 1991.

IT'S SAID: "Tiger Trap doesn't indulge in analysis, just the unadulterated pleasure of romantic experience. Candy-coated, perhaps, but don't forget the sugar rush."

—Village Voice

ON THEIR LIVE SHOW: "Tiger Trap treats the stage as if it were an elementary school playground: they stand uncomfortably; they joke around, not sure where to look; they awkwardly stare up at the lights while feverishly strumming their guitars. Playing music heightens, rather than diminishes, their self-consciousness."

—City Paper

SHE SAYS: "I don't really associate us with the more political side of women who play music. I adore that; I love that; it's a beautiful thing to see, but (Tiger Trap) didn't form (with politics in mind). We just sort of made a decision to play music, and it was more a creative process than a political one."

STEREOLAB

"Jenny Ondioline (Part 1)" (Elektra)

I've listened to this single so much it's starting to sound like it's sung in French or something. Oh, part of it is in French! (Ever have one of those days?) Between imports and the output on the hip indie Slumberland, Stereolab has earned quite a few fans at College radio. Their Elektra debut, "Jenny Ondioline (Part 1)" should consolidate and expand on that fanbase, as Commercial radio is sure to get behind this jaunty pop single. And yeah, it's a bit out of the ordinary, but follow yer guts and just go for it.

—LINDA RYAN

MANIC STREET PREACHERS

Gold Against The Soul (Columbia)

Taking a more direct approach to their music is The Manic Street Preachers, who, after a rocky start with the British press, have released Gold Against The Soul—ten tightly-played tunes that seem to have won over a journalist or two, as the album was met with warm response in the U.K. On this side of the pond things probably won't be any less complicated, but for markedly different reasons—most of which center around the image vs. the sound of the band. But all that crap aside, Gold Against The Soul—with its chunky guitar riffs and liberal references to drugs, angst and alienation—is everything a great rock album should be. Stations that lean more on the rock side, or any adventurous Top 40 or Album stations that might be reading these pages, might want to check out "Sleepflower," "La Tristesse Durera (Scream To A Sigh)," "Life Becoming A Landscape," "From Deapair To Where" and "Drug Drug Druggy." The last time Manic Street Preachers played in America was during the L.A. riots, and not many people ventured out to see them. I did, and here's my theory: One one strong support tour (what's Guns N' Roses doing these days?) will break these guys wide open.

UNREST

Perfect Teeth (4AD/Reprise)

Upon initial listen, my ears realized this was one of the best efforts I've heard in '93. Mark Robinson had a hand in the truly great Grenadine project earlier this year, and Perfect Teeth proves that twice is no accident. "Cath Carroll" rips ecstatically with guitars pinwheeling at mach speed and Robinson's exuberant vocals cascading into eddies of harmony. Alien abductees will take delight in the drone of "Food And Drink Synthesizer," which is awash in metallic spacecraft hums. "Soon It Is Going To Rain" starts at a prodigious pace with Robinson's voice swathed in a guitar with a characteristically chiming high end. The middle break is an unsuspected jewel wherein the pace picks up and a simple two-chord progression lifts the song into the firmament. This progression kicks in again at the end as Robinson sings, "I have found my way back home," while the bass whirls and curls upward. "Make Out Club" returns to riffing guitar and sputtering persuasion, while the infectious countdown chorus of "Six Layer Cake" will stick to ears and ribs. Look for a fall tour with Stereolab and declare yourself a pud if you pass this one up.

GHOST OF AN AMERICAN AIRMAN Skin (Hollywood)

This Belfast band has just delivered one of my personal faves of the year, the wonderfully rich album, Skin. A number of songs on Skin seem to have been influenced by the band's last tour of America—not directly, but rather in a compare/contrast sort of way, which allows their Irishness to shine through. Case in point is the band's first single, "King Of Nothing." Written in Los Angeles while the band was recording, the song is a series of observations about the town's jaded and/or misguided inhabitants, starting with the classic line "He's got a Jesus tattoo." (That line kills me!) Other faves include the James-Dean-as-an-icon-inspired "1955'er," "Clown 2," "Fairytale World," "Warboys" and the reverent cover of Glen Campbell's "Wichita Lineman." One helluvan album!

—LINDA RYAN

"Slackjawed" (TVT)

I've always liked the Connells' style of jangly-guitar pop. It's been a while since we've heard from these guys, and I think they've been taking some assertiveness training classes as their sound is more self-confident and sure-footed this time out. And, I might add, they wear this new-found confidence well. A breezy pop song enhanced by a weaving guitar and thumping rhythm section, "Slackjawed" sounds like a radio winner. Check it out!

—LINDA RYAN

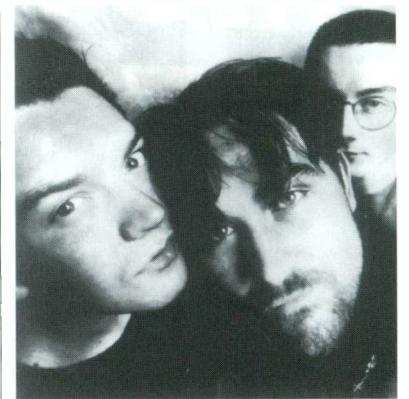

CRACKER Kerosene Hat (Virgin)

It's been nearly three years since we've heard from this Bay Area band who promoted their first offering with boxes of crackers. Cracker's sometimes southern-fried, sometimes countrified and oft-times amplified brand of straight ahead rock refuses to be classified. "Low" is the first single, with an anthemic chorus that combines thick guitar and vocals that sting with abandon, and I'm told that the band recently shot a video that features Sandra Bernhard in a boxing scenario a la Raging Bull. "Movie Star" picks up the pace and lays a foundation of thumping bass and rousing drums before erecting beams of meaty guitar with walls of tamborine to round out the sound structure. The title track is a slow, deliberate ode to fuzzy reminiscences, tinged with haunting images of cloven skates and medicine lamps. "Lonesome Johnny Blues" is a saddle-happy country stomper, and "Go For A Ride" is a sheer rocker with a show swiping chorus. There's something for longtime followers and curious newcomers willing to don this Kerosene Hat.

Therapy's version of "Invisible Sun" from the Peace Together compilation, so the time is right to check out the band's latest, "Screamager." Believe it or not, Therapy? have written a pop song, well, as pop as this hard rockin' (I saw Megadeth's Dave Mustane at one of their shows in New York) band gets. "Screamager" is a melodic offering—relatively speaking, of course—that, with its chorus of "Screw that/forget about that/I don't want to think about anything like that," should have listeners requesting it like crazy! Others to check out include "Opal Mantra" and "Auto Surgery." Boy, are you going to be pleasantly surprised!

THE OCEAN BLUE Beneath the Rythm and Sound (Reprise)

The Ocean Blue has always reminded me of the band the boys in the Dead Poet's Society would have formed: clean cut, East Coast boys playing solid-yet-whimsical tunes. After their first album, the band kicked Nuwanda (read: saxophone) out—no more ya-ohs or jaunty flower songs, either—and headed for a more mature sound. The songs on their third offering, Beneath The Rythm and Sound, remain youthful, though, and continue to rely heavily on the wavering vocals of David Schelz, and the melody is artfully shuffled between guitar and synthesizer. The saxophone does make a guest appearance on the dancy and vaguely Haircut 100-esque "Bliss Is Unaware"—a personal favorite. Others to tune in to include the catchy single "Sublime," the Doppler effect synth "Don't Believe Everthing You Hear" (check out the nah-nahs), the dark, echoe "Listen, It's Gone," and the chiming "Crash." Get under, over and inside this album, but don't go around it.

ASS PONYS

Grim (Safe House, P.O. Box 5349, West Lebanon, NH 03784-5349)

The artwork is slightly different, but content-wise, this version of the Ass Ponys' Grim is identical to the one that appeared on Okra a few months back. Okra, because of distribution difficulties, didn't get it into stores or service it widely, so you may be getting your first copy—this time from Safe House—and with it an opportunity to play what is certainly one of 1993's finest releases. Chuck Cleaver, head Ass Pony, writes songs that report Weekly World News-type luridness with Flannery O'Connor's compassionate eye, and he sets lyrics like "She took a razor to her leg/You could hardly read it through the blood/It said 'I Love Bob'" against the Ass Ponys' blend of roots-rock, bluegrass, blues, folk and garage that is both familiar and somehow unlike anything you've ever heard. Betwixt tales of a lonely man too obese to leave his home ("Azalea") and an exceptional woman covered in dark hair ("Julia Pastrana"), Cleaver tucks slices of criticism ("Just listen to that Jesus Jumper sing/He's got angels in his throat/But the Devil's down there in his scrote") and his down-to-earth philosophy ("You look like a million bucks/But where can you go like that?"). This outfit's lauded last record, Mr. Superlove, while brilliant, doesn't out-shine Grim. On this release, the Ponys have done away with cheeky filler like Mr. Superlove's "We All Love Peanut Butter" and concentrated on the strong stuff. If you've just gotten Grim, pound it. If you're receiving a second copy, do it justice and spin it again.

DEADBOLT

Shrunken Head (Cargo Records, 4901-906 Marina Blvd., San Diego, CA 92117)

This San Diego-based trio occupies their own gnarled branch of the big guitar splatterbilly tree planted by bands like the Cramps and the Fuzztones. Shrunken Head's ten brief tracks would be right at home on the soundtrack to a snuff film, as

Harley Davidson's surfy guitar slithers around "Shrunken Head" like Igor on the prowl for body parts. "Down

In The Lab" features a wicked drum/bass tonic and "El Sadistico" will have you doing the shoulder roll. Sinister vocals surface on "Hank Watson Stalks The Earth," and "Zip Code" comments on the life of a postal worker who shoots his dog, then his wife. Reverbed guitar tinges "Slap," and "Blue Light" is a forbidding concoction of surf percussion and rumbling bass. Deadbolt's music unearths visions of Frankenstein's laboratory, Jacob's ladders, bubbling beakers and Ed Gein's upholstery. This reviewer gives Shrunken Head two thumbs up—and severed.

BUICK Sweartertongue

(Lather Records, P.O. Box 4877 Davis, CA 95617)

This Sacramento duo does their cow tipping by means of sonic waves, and their music always seems to be racing to get somewhere. In the unrelenting, distortion guitar tradition, Buick is content to flex its considerable musical muscles with mostly instrumentals. "Theme...Homage To Lucien Freud" draws a bow and lets arrows of raw guitar rain amidst punishing drums and "Variation...Lucy Conrad, Excellent Liar" finds Kim Anderson reciting questions like "If it is evil, why is each torment so sweet?" as tribal percussion lurks in the background. "Variation...Phrenology" is a distortion-added instrumental that molts into "Variation...Brown Blackstars," the pinnacle of a record filled with jutting high points. "Blackstars" perfect marriage of tom tommish drums with sinewy guitar girders is inspired. "Variation...The Graves At Lamphead" and "Variation...The Moon Is Not A Yellow Saw" are further delights not to be missed. Buick is sort of like if Sonic Youth glanced at their Swell Maps and then up at the Black Sun Ensemble.

EN VOGUE featuring
FMob
Runaway (eastwest)

It'll be a month before their new EP drops, but by then the queens of the hip-hop jams will already own the airwaves with this track. Writers Thomas McElroy and Denzil Foster continue to demonstrate their production genius.

JOHN MELLENCAMP
Human Wheels
(Mercury)

The title track from Indiana's favorite son's (and you thought it was Dan Quaye, huh?) album is a folksy-flavored entry that stands a good chance of being Mellencamp's biggest Top 40 hit in recent memory. The thought-provoking lyrics are a far cry from some of his early work.

BLIND MELON
No Rain (Capitol)

In case you've been on vacation or too busy to notice, there's a major buzz on this song, and for good reason. The influence of music from the '60s and '70s is apparent, yet their sound is distinct and totally '90s. 99X-Atlanta is the first to take it to #1, while Z100-New York ADDs only one record this week—Blind Melon's "No Rain."

MEAT LOAF
I'd Do Anything For Love
(But I Won't Do That)
(MCA)

Who can forget hearing "Paradise By The Dashboard Light" for the first time? Fifteen years after that landmark production, writer/producer Jim Steinman hands Meat Loaf another creation with similar dramatic impact. The video is exceptional, too.

THE PROCLAIMERS
I'm On My Way
(Chrysalis/ERG)

No one will ever know what would've happened if the movie Benny & Joon hadn't resurrected "I'm Gonna Be (500 Miles)," but after four years these twin brothers finally have everyone's attention. Why this 1989 release didn't happen the first time around is a mystery, but those searching for music that's fun and upbeat can't do better than this.

CYNDI LAUPER
Who Let In The Rain
(Epic)

After a four-year absence, those wondering, "Whatever happened to Cyndi Lauper?" have their answer. With a foundation built at A/C, Lauper sets her sights on Top 40 with this warm, sensitive and mesmerizing performance.

OLETA ADAMS
Evolution (Fontana/PLG)

No sophomore jinx with this brilliant set. Oleta's "overnight" success was two decades in the making and she's not about to coast through her second volume. She writes some powerful ballads, borrows a couple of classics from Billy Joel and James Taylor, and, for a little insurance, dips into the bottomless inkwell of Diane Warren. The result is one of 1993's most consistently attractive discs. Oleta's voice is perfect for the kind of soul-stirring ballads that have distinguished her recording career to-date. She's most at home with lushly decorative production pieces like the fully validated sentiment of "My Heart Won't Lie," the embracing comfort zone of "Hold Me For A While," the last moments of a "Friends & Family" relationship set to music on "I Just Had To Hear Your Voice" or the unforeseeable future of "The Day I Stop Loving You." Oleta shows her vocal flexibility on more rhythmic treatments like the dulcet summons of "Come When You Call." Her covers of Taylor's "Don't Let Me Be Lonely" and Joel's "New York State Of Mind" are just what you'd expect from someone who, as a perennial lounge singer, has probably been singing these gems for decades. In other words, they're more interpretive than they're faithful to the originals. —RON FELL

OTTMAR LIEBERT + LUNA NEGRA
The Hours Between Night + Day (Epic)

With 19 tracks and over 70 minutes of music, flamenco heartthrob Ottmar Liebert releases his most ambitious recording thus far. Some tracks are pastoral, others are gritty and percussive. The hand-claps and strumming chord changes are authentically Moorish, yet there is an explosive contemporary aura on tracks like "Snakecharmer" and "Havana Club." Check out the laid-back cover of Peter Green/Fleetwood Mac's "Albatross." Ottmar's latest is guaranteed to burnish him onto the Adult Alternative top five for many weeks to come.

JOHNNIE JOHNSON AND THE KENTUCKY HEADHUNTERS
That'll Work (Elektra)

A perfect pit-stop for the platinum Kentucky Headhunters, who mix it up with Johnnie Johnson, an aristocrat among rock and roll pianists. Johnnie takes the lead voice on the opening title track, which sets an even tone for something real as opposed to over-produced. Afterward, Mark

S. Orr handles the vocals while guitarist Greg Martin reconstructs Chuck Berry riffs as heard on "Johnnie's Breakdown." After a lifetime with Chuck, Johnson has a natural feel when it comes to riffing with a guitar band. —KENT ZIMMERMAN

LISA KEITH
Walkin' In The Sun
(Perspective/A&M)

Lisa Keith's voice has been on countless songs over the past decade—hits from Herb Alpert, the Human League, Janet Jackson and Karyn White to name a few—and now it's Lisa's turn to shine in the solo spotlight. With credit to executive producers Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis, her debut album is a perfect combination of pop and soul that showcases her wonderful voice. The first single, "Better Than You," has already found a home at Top 40 and A/C, and the lead cut, "Love Isn't Body—It's Soul," is getting airplay at Urban Radio. Other instant favorites include the dance-oriented "I'm In Love," the mid-tempo grooves of "True To You" and "A Love For All Seasons" and the optimistic title track. Plus, "World Of Joy" and "Days Like These" have potential to be career singles. In all, this album is deep; expect to hear Lisa Keith's name and voice for many years to come.
