Widespread Panic, "Everyday" Capricorn The South's best kept secret will no longer have just a regional name after everyone tracks through the album. "Pleas" is the first track, and immediately pulls you in with it's smoothness and Hammond organ. Tracks like this make Widespread Panic shine! "Hatfield" has some sweet production qualities and shows off John Bell's strong vocal qualities better than ever (a true story). "Wondering" is the first single. It picks up the pace quickly with an in-your-face beat that will have you tappin' for days. "Papa's Home" is an epic journey. There are touches of Southern Spirit (a great story too). "Diner" is a strong song with jammin' guitar, and requires intense listening to the lyrics. "Better Off" takes the listener in a new direction and gets down right funky (in a god way)! Matt Mundy adds the finishing touches to the eloquent "Pickin' Up The Pieces" (a big surprise on the album that could be a future single). It doesn't get much easier. "Henry Parsons Died" is traditional Widespread Panic with a killer hook. "Pilgrims" will turn everyone's ear. It has a groove that infects. "Postcard" has a driving guitar lick that can't be stopped (a very strong contender for a future single and one of their best). The final track is appropriately titled "Dream Song" because of the hypnotic vibe you get from just one listen. It's been a long and interesting road for Widespread Panic. Years of touring and the freedom from the label to grow has paid off in a major way. Relax, enjoy and repeat...Everyday!

Lost City, "Watching You" Scotti Brothers The combination of Kofi Baker (Ginger Baker's son), Malcolm Bruce (Jack Bruce's son), Rue Phillips (Phillip's son) and Sloba Svrđian proves to be very lethal on their debut effort. Without sounding trite, it's hard to find a weak track on the whole project. It starts off with "Believer" and could be one of the best songs that Queen never did. It shows the tightness and the harmonic bliss they can lay down with ease. The quality production on the album is very prevalent on "Egypt" (a driving and nasty number that displays Rue Phillip's darker edge). "Last Crescendo" will be the first single from the album and will be embraced quickly at C.O.R. and mainstream. A hit is a hit, and this could turn out to be a monster! "Mad Dog" is proof that there is nothing weak about Lost City and "Change" is a display of Phillip's talented guitar playing. "I'll Be Watching You" has a psychedelic vibe that takes the band to another level (it's almost a mind altering experience). "Barrier" shows off obvious signs of Cream but quickly turns around with a dark and modern hook (it could have multi-format potential). "Nobody There" comes at you, full blast, with not bullshit. It's raw energy is quickly balanced by one of the best songs on the album called, "Shine On." Lost City gets experimental on the epic 6 minutes of "Life" proving they're a real group. "Tears Et T-Cell" shows off psychedelic roots with powerful and controversial lyrics about AIDS. It should have the industry talking. Serious listening is a must! See you on the other side!

The Pursuit Of Happiness, "The Downward Road" Mercury It's been almost five years since we've been blessed by the sounds of Moe Berg and crew. The record's intro says it all. TPOH are back after a long trip. "Cigarette Dangles" is the first, and very overlooked first single. Hooks don't get much bigger than this. A few spins and those phones will be lighting up for more! "Nobody But Me" is loaded with pure energy and funny lyrics. How can you go wrong with "Who's gonna kiss you between the legs like I do?" "I'm Ashamed Of Myself" is great song about lust and desire. We can all relate to it if you have a pulse. "Pressing Lips" is reminiscent of They Might Be Giants and loaded with sweet harmonies (truly modern day love song). "In Her Dreams" starts off innocently with an easy rolling hook, but digs in hard and heavy with some nice chord changes. "The Downward Road (Revisited)" pounds out the mileage while "Heavy Metal Tears" is a sentimental journey through innocence. "Bored Of You" rocks its ass off and so does "Love Theme From TPOH" (the group in all their glory). "Forbidden World" has a deep groove and could be another hard rock favorite. "But I Do" sounds like something from a David Lynch film while "Crashing Down" could have been the main song in the movie Falling Down with Michael Douglas. "Honey Time" delivers its message loud and clear. "A Villa In Portugal" and the gritty sound of "Terrified" wrap up TPOH's latest. It is loaded with a little something for everyone.

THE DEBUT SINGLE FROM TALES OF ORDINARY MADNESS

"Haynes has fashioned an album with plenty of space in which his burning leads and slide rip his songs wide open. Add to that Haynes' previously hidden blues 'n' soul vocal talent, and you get a display of madness that is far from ordinary."

RECORD OF THE WEEK

The Chance, "See Me As You See Yourself" Skydoor Records Take the best elements from Yes, throw in some of Living Colour's edge, and you have a powerhouse combination. The Chance is exactly that! Thick rich hooks with different chord changes make this Los Angeles group's music stand above the rest. WWBZ added it a week early and there will be no denying The Chance airplay once programmers and music types hear the strength in their music. Every now and then, a song rolls across your desk that takes only one listen to realize it's a hit. "See Me..." is definitely a mind blower!

ONES TO WATCH

Aerosmith, "Livin' On The Edge" Geffen Look for the latest from Aerosmith to pound it's way into the Top position next week. It may not be a rocker, but it doesn't get much bigger than this! "Living On The Edge" is a sure sign that Aerosmith has tons of heart, but when you hear the rest of this mother Fuc(%ing album, you'll agree they've hit new heights and haven't lost their harder rock edge.

Collision, "Maximum Respect" Chaos They are doing the tour stops with Ugly Kid Joe on Wednesday. They pick up another 5 adds at KAZY, WBTZ, WKLL, WRZX and WUFX. Many stations are still having a good run with "Chains" but the Collision brigade continues to march on! Give Collision some serious ATTENTION!!!

Trixter, "Rockin' Horse" MCA They may not be everybody's first choice, but any station that has played the Trixter boys, knows of their potential. WVCB has been playing for a few weeks with some early response. Watch for the label to come after those stations who have supported Trixter in the past to help build some more solid stories.

Asphalt Ballet,

"Angry Youth" Virgin Records Early action indicates that the first single from Asphalt Ballet's sophomore effort is going to be a solid single at the C.O.R. level. KIOZ, KNAC, and WWBZ add this week. KBER shows medium rotation while KRXQ and WXZL report it in light. The hard rocking message is loud and clear, so if you're "angry," do something about it and unleash Asphalt on your listeners.

Sleeze Beez, "I Don't Want To Live Without You" At/Atl Group The label is rolling out-of-the-box with the lone ballad from the "Beez" latest album. The Dutch group is ready to build on the strong buzz from their first album. The new single shows off a more sensitive side of the group and testament of their depth. Hey, what's in a name anyway? The Sleeze Beez are ready for round number two in the states, and taking you along for an easy flowing ride!

Peg Pollard/KIOZ-Hey Ho fellow C.O.R. jammers! Howz life? Things are awesome in San Diego. By the time you read this, I'll be on vacation. I'm taking a week off to move - so come out and party with me! OK, musically - the Lenny Kravitz is blowing the doors off around here. Not bad for an artist we've never been able to play here. In the meantime, watch out for another Virgin act, Asphalt Ballet. Kudos to Great White for having the balls to take the Ballerinas out on tour. I wouldn't want them "warming up" for me!! We finally "officially" added Quicksand's "Fazer" - way cool track. In your next music meeting, remember, think locally, not "Is it happening nationally?" Who gives a fuck? Not your listeners. On a final note, STP would prefer you play the shorter acoustic "Headbanger's Ball" version of "Plush". Why'd Atlantic even release the other one? Wanna know the scoop behind Wieland's blinker - orange hair in the "Plush" video? Call me!

KIOZ MD "R+R Peg" Pollard and her man Len get a thrill from meeting a legend. Who cares if he can sing?

Hometown hero Stephen Percy came into the KIOZ studios to give MD "R+R Peg" Pollard the scoop on his new Arcade project.

COR-ELEMENTS

Pantera, "Hollow" Atco/Atl.Group Pantera has a killer week with 9 adds. KAZY, KISW, KRRK, WAQZ, WBZX, WKDF, WRCN, WRXL, and WXZL show off their "Vulgar Display Of Power." KNAC reports Top 5 phones with a rotation increase at KRXQ and medium play at KIOZ, and light at KICT. Trust us when we say this is going to be huge!

Alice In Chains, "Rooster" Columbia AIC are looking for that Number One next week, if Aerosmith doesn't steal their fire. KBPI added this week with 17 stations reporting Street Buzz action.

Stone Temple Pilots, "Plush" Atlantic The latest station to join the C.O.R. section adds STP and stops "pushing" around. 12 stations are getting Top Street Buzz action, as the track breaks into the Top 5.

Dream Theater, "Take The Time" Atco/Atl.Group KIBZ and KQRC add with WVCR showing Top Street Buzz on the track. 3 rotation increases move it to 11* with a total of 30 stations reporting play.

Flotsam & Jetsam, "Wading Through The Darkness" MCA Talk about having tremendous staying power. Flotsam And Jetsam continue to climb with adds from KQRC and WXZL. It's worked for every outlet that has given it a shot. WBTZ reports it as one of their Top Street Buzz records of the week.

Arcade, "Nothin' To Lose" Epic It is a record that was made for C.O.R. and 17 out-of-the-box adds prove that Arcade is exactly what turns on the ears. KBER, KIBZ, and KILO are already reporting it as at Top Street Buzz track.

Billy Squier, "Angry" Capitol The format hasn't forgotten its roots. Squier's classic material always test great and this time around, Squier seems to have his old magic back. 22 stations report, as the song kicks in at 21 on the chart.

Animal Bag, "Everybody" Mercury It's funky and very infectious. KIOZ, WXRC, and WXTB add with KNCN enjoying those Top request. WBTZ and WUFX up the rotation. Check them out with Ugly Kid Joe and Collision on the concert trail.

Extreme, "Am I Ever Gonna Change" A&M They say change is good. Well, Extreme seems to always change for the better. Their latest pulls sown another 11 stations this week and takes a 46-25* bite out of the chart.

Boneclub, "Everything's On Fire" Imago Fired up is the word on Bonelclub. These young rockers continue to make a solid story for themselves on the C.O.R. format. KICT increases rotation with heavy play at WAAF.

Great White, "Love Is A Lie" Capitol It's the big ballad from the album and shows some more growth at the C.O.R. level this week, with KBER and WWBZ being the major players. 10 station report play.

Sacred Reich, "Independent" Hollywood It's been a steady climb for these Arizona rockers, but KICT and KRRK keep things alive with adds. 43-41* is the move for this powerful band.

Saigon Kick, "Feel The Same Way" Atl./Atl.Group The stations that shied away from the last two tracks are warming up this song which is more like the Saigon Kick we've come to expect. KIOZ, KRXQ, WKDF, and WVCR add with a rotation increase at WRZX.

COR-PTIONS

St. Thomas, "I Hate..Part I" Tony Nicole Tony WVCR jumps on this hard driving, state-of-the-art ground pounder. The group just finished up their video and will be doing a few dates in Dallas and Houston. KNAC and KRXQ also report play. Get on it folks. St. Thomas delivers!

Gruntruck, "Crazy Love" Roadrunner You've had some time to spend with the single now do something about it. Ask any of the C.O.R. stations who have already played the track and they will tell you how well it has done. KISW continues to have it as one of their Top Street Buzz records.

Spread Eagle, "Devil's Road" MCA WWBZ takes the road to success with Spread Eagle. If you still haven't listened to the track you're missing a great rocker. In your next music meeting, your mission is to set the tracking on this tune and give it a test spin!

Sonic Youth, "Sugar Kane" Geffen KICT and WHMH go out on the edge and give the "Youth" a chance. Drop any of those pre-conceived notions that the group's music is too Alternative for the format. The record is over 300,000 units and still selling. Give the people what they want!

Life, Sex, Death, "Telephone Call To Jesus" Reprise Get ready for the full on blitz from the label. There are a lot of people who believe in this track. It may have been hard to give LSD that space on your playlist, but "Telephone" is guaranteed to chance all that! WRZK and WVCR add.

The Pinheads, "Hands Off" Alert We introduced them to you last week and KRXQ along with WKLL lead the way. There is something about The Pinheads that grows on you. Get a "head" of your competitor and whatever you do, don't keep your hands off this rocker!

Quicksand, "Fazer" Polygram KAZY, KIOZ, KNAC and WWBZ lock and load this track from Slip. Talk about some serious Street Buzz, Quicksand is coming onto the format in the right way, a little at a time, meaning it could turn out to be a huge record!

Just A Note

what all the fuss is about, but you can find out for yourself by calling them for more information at 215-433-8102. Good things were meant to be enjoyed. Rock on!

I had the opportunity to head up to New York and check out a group from Allentown, PA at the infamous CBGB's. They've been gigging around for a while and proved to me that night they have perfected their craft. Their name is ENDBONE and made up of one of the most powerful singers I've seen in a while. Jody Hawk is the force behind the mic with Joe Cecala on guitar. John Morales brings the bass to life and Frank Sarkozy is a strong percussionist. ENDBONE are four young rockers that are ready to break on the scene. Their music is politically correct and definitely fits into the current hard rock arena. In this business, we have the chance to see a lot of up and coming group's, and every now and then one comes along that has what it takes to turn on people. When I saw ENDBONE live that night, it was quite obvious that Jody and crew had the touch to make things happen. It's all about music, and when a group this close to home is ready to break, it's only fair to bring them to people's attention. Therefore I asked the group if there was anything I could do and they told me to hit the road (just kidding!). They have some A&R types sniffing around to see Widespread Panic, "Wondering," Capricorn Question: In a week where no less than 11 new songs debuted on the A.A.A. Track Chart, what band debuted at 47* a full week before the official add date? Answer: Only Widespread Panic could generate that kind of a buzz throughout the Triple A community. They are the definitive band for this format. Naturally, we looked to one of our favorite Southern Gentlemen, KGSR's Jody Denberg, for our first quote: "No need to be wondering. Everyday proves that the South is going to do it again. (P.S. I love the CD cover.)" And then, we went North of the Mason-Dixon line: WVBR's Spiro Phanos, "Widespread has got the jammy feel that they're so well known for. It's a little bit more accessible than their last album, and should do great in our format." WRNX's Bruce Stebbins, "An excellent follow-up to their last album. Really solid. For any Triple A station, it's as safe as mother's milk. I expect to have them in Heavy next week." Pre-OTB adds come from: KBCO, KFMG, KSPN, KTAO, KTCZ, WKXE, WRLT, WRNX, WVBR, WWCD, KSKE, KGSR and WZEW.

Blues Traveler, "Conquer Me," A&M It's hard to believe that Save His Soul is Blues Traveler's third A&M album. Since the release of their self-titled debut in 1990, they've been a constant at Triple A. Adult Alternative audiences were immediately drawn to the band's unique sound, and their constant touring and legendary three-hour shows definitely cemented a long-time allegiance with the format. WRNX's Bruce Stebbins gave us our first pre-season baseball analogy, "Blues Travelers have always had a following here. I meet people on the street who say, 'I'm hooked on 'RNX because you play Blues Traveler.' It's nice to have more from them to play. It's a home run for Triple A." KMMS' Colter Langan commented, "It's good to see these guys back. They were a staple for KMMS with the last record, and this new one should go Heavy here." WVBR's Spiro Phanos offered, "It's a little bit more understated than some of their earlier work, but has the potential to attract a broader base than their traditional, on the young side listeners." WVGO's Dal Hunter sums up the situation, "Leaves me hungry to hear the full CD." First week adds include KFOG, KSKE, KSPN, KWVS, WKXE, WMVY, WRNX, WVBR and KFMG.

Daniel Lanois, "Lotta Love To Give," Warner Bros. There is no such thing as too much Daniel Lanois. The megaproducer has weaved his unique touch into the albums of countless artists, including U2, Peter Gabriel, Bob Dylan, Robbie Robertson, just to name a few. His 1991 release, Sleeping In The Devil's Bed is still being played at Triple A. He once again puts on his singer/songwriter/guitarist hat for his latest album, For The Beauty Of Wynona. The first track, "Lotta Love To Give" picked up 10 OTB adds — KCRW, KFMG, KGSR, KMITT, KSPN, KTAO, KTCZ, WMMM, WRSI and WYEP — and should begin a nice long run up the chart next week, and an equally long run on KGSR, as Jody Denberg predicts, "Daniel's first record is a staple for KGSR, and I think this one is going to be as well."

American Music Club "Over And Done," Reprise This band has fostered an incredible college/indie reputation with their dark, moody songs. Lead singer Mark Eitzel is the band's songwriter, and his morose personality is reflected in an obsession with drink, despair and, yes, hope too. Their first album, Mercury, on a major label, is far from a "sell-out" as it's one of the most eclectic records they've ever done. "Over And Done" is an obvious single, and the album deserves thorough investigation. Jody Denberg gushes, "Eitzel can't be beat as a songwriter, and Mitchell Froom can't be beat as a producer. What a combination! Spend quality time with this record." His enthusiasm is well shared, with adds also coming in from KCRW, KTAO, WNCW, WRSI, WDET, KGSR, WXPB and WYEP.

"Haynes has fashioned an album with plenty of space in which his burning leads and slide rip his songs wide open. Add to that Haynes' previously hidden blues 'n' soul vocal talent, and you get a display of madness that is far from ordinary."

CHECKOUT TRACKS

Bryan Ferry "I Put A Spell On You," Reprise Bryan Ferry long ago secured his place in music history books as the lead singer of Roxy Music, and his solo releases have always been icing on the cake for longtime fans. At presstime, Triple A was just taking the wrapper off the first single, and KMMS' Colter Langan was the first to comment, "It's great. It's the type of rock and roll tune that lends itself very well to Bryan Ferry's voice. Considering the Roxy Music connections and how wild of a man Screaming Jay Hawkins was when he came out with that tune, it's almost bringing it full circle to have Brian Ferry doing it."

Willie Nile, "Hard Times In America," Polaris Some stations received this EP a few months ago, but for most Triple A stations, this is brand new. Willie Nile is definitely an artist who deserves a serious listen from this format. Whether you favor the piano-driven "Heart Of Wonder," or the electric "Sorry," there's certainly enough fuel in Hard Times In America to fire up any A.A.A. playlist.

Etta James, "One Day, One Step," Island We know there's been an avalanche of solid music across Triple A desks in the past few weeks, but we can't let one of the format's core artists go without a mention. Most of the songs on The Island Sessions have always been in Triple A libraries, and the three previously unreleased tracks are quickly attracting attention. KMMS' Colter Langan offered, "This is a nice touch to a regular blues programming, in that she's one of the few women who can hold her own against the usual blues boys and add some good throaty gusto to anybody's blues programming or show." KERA's Jeff Luchsinger put's it into perspective, "I don't know if we can get enough of Etta James. That kind of sound really brings us back to the roots of the music in a lot of different ways. We play most of the older songs on this compilation, and we're playing two of the new ones."

KQPT/Sacramento was purchased in a duopoly by Brown Broadcasting, owners of KXOA (K108) AM/FM. PD Larry Berger was the only victim in the deal, as both stations will be programmed by K108 PD Don Daniels. MD Carrie Canka, the entire air staff, and we're happy to report, the Triple A format will stay in tact. Carrie called the megacabin to tell us that the deal went down on Monday (3/22), and the next day, KQPT picked up and moved the station to KXOA headquarters. The new address and phone number for The Point are: 280 Commerce Circle, Sacramento, CA 95815, (916) 923-6800. Call times for Carrie are the same, Monday & Tuesday before 10AM and after 2PM.

Rocky Mountain Network continues expanding their Triple A list, adding KSKI/Sun Valley as their 6th full service satellite station, going head-to-head with KECH. We're keeping our eye on the nation's one and only Adult Alternative satellite network, so look for an expanded profile in this section in the near future.

WEQX/Manchester faxxed in some staff promotions: Mary Brace from Overnights/News Director to MIDDAYS/News Director; Gary Schoenwetter segues into full-time overnights; and weekender Joy Johnson adds Promotions and AE duties to her roster. The line-up for one of the best stations in America is now: 6a-10a, MD Kerry Gray; 10a-3p, Mary Brace; 3p-7p PD Jim McGuinn; 7p-12a, Shelly Miller; and 12a-6a, Gary Schoenwetter.

WXRT/Chicago announced the promotion of Ellen Miller to the newly created position of Senior Account Executive, giving her increased input into the operations of the WXRT/WSCR sales staff. Miller joined the 'XRT sales staff in August 1982.

WVBR/Ithaca PD Spiro Phanos is nearing the completion of his pet project, a compilation disc featuring 20 artists from the Ithaca area. All the proceeds from the sales of the disc are going to AIDSWORK, a support organization for victims of AIDS in Ithaca. Phanos says, "It's something I've wanted to do ever since I moved up here, and to see it in the final stages of production is pretty satisfying. We have so much talent in this area, and this will provide the perfect opportunity to showcase some of it." The music on the CD is as diverse as Ithaca itself, ranging from hard rock/alternative to reggae, blues, jazz, bluegrass and country. It is projected to raise $10,000 for AIDSWORK, and its scheduled release date is April 30th.

The Local Beat

The Freddy Jones Band

The Freddy Jones Band

By KSPN/Aspen PD Steve Cole

We'd like to turn people on to a band out of Chicago that has become a local phenomenon of sorts — The Freddy Jones Band. They came through town late last fall and left their CD with one of our part-time jocks, who urged me to listen to it. Seeing it was independently produced and pressed by the band (unfortunately, you develop an attitude about these things), I said, "Well, if you insist.." (i.e., this should take about 30 seconds). And it did, to realize that this band had a great sound. Great 1st cut, great 2nd cut — hey, great album! The Freddy Jones Band is one self-produced effort that has a radio-ready, radio-friendly sound, with refreshing, upbeat tunes featuring intertwining guitars and vocals and a bit of taste saxophone on a couple of cuts, as well. The band describes its sound as "southern fried Chicago rhythm and blues," which is not unlike early Marshall Tucker/Allman Bros., mixed with a little Widespread Panic; familiar, but contemporary. Our favorite trax are "In A Daydream," "Texas Skies," "Light Of The Moon," and "Stepping Stone," although virtually every other cur on the CD is worthy of airplay. Co-leaders Wayne Healy and Marty Lloyd (there is no "Freddy Jones" in the band) came into our KSPN studios and graciously treated our listeners to a couple of live acoustic numbers on their most recent visit to Aspen. Their enthusiasm and talents are infectious. And the lines went around the block for their two night engagement, many people going to both shows. It would be a no-brainer for an entertaining A&R department of a major label to grab these guys and release this CD as is — please!!! For product info, write: The Freddy Jones Band, c/o Erik Enterprises, Box 578096, Chicago, IL 60657. For booking information, call: ((312) 871-6248.

Top Priority

Aerosmith, "Livin' On The Edge," Geffen GET A GRIP! That's the new Aerosmith album. It's also a sentiment the boys drive home with a lot of muscle and a "tough as nails" (check the bizarre CD art) lead single titled "Livin' On The Edge." The band has toyed with the vintage Aerosmith sound and created some very interesting musical qualities. Without losing what brought them their legendary status, they've taken a new direction, showing their ability to grow and adapt. The new angle is "simply awesome" says KSPQ's Jeff Newton. He also shares, "I'm very, very impressed. It's a little bit different and really intriguing. I can't wait to hear the rest of the album." (By the way, neither can we.) One quick look at a recent photo of the group will reveal that the members of Aerosmith have been working very, very hard on their minds, their music and their bodies. The holistic approach has proven to be the right thing (baby) for Aerosmith and for you.

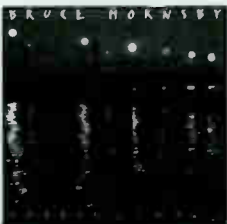

Hard Acts To Follow

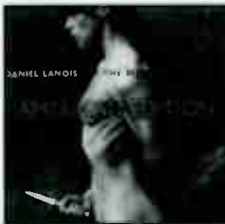

The Kinks, "Hatred (a duet)," Columbia We all know and love the Kinks. Their U.S. Album Discography alone takes up a typewritten page of space. If you were afraid you heard the last of this legendary crew you have a...Phobia. But put those fears aside. Phobia is the new Kinks album and "Hatred" is a witty, fast-paced attempt at clearing up the trouble spots which can occur between two people (brothers perhaps?). Topics which include paranoia, love and retreat have always been the fabric of the Kinks music and are all present in fine form on this Columbia debut album. The aggressive style of the first chosen single will reel you in and keep you reeling as well. If you fear the song may be dated, just check out the reaction of Greg O'Brien from WPDH, "Folks, I'm losing it. I can't believe it. 'I'm over the edge.' 'Hatred' everywhere I look, 'somebody stole my car' the other day, my mind is 'scattered' and it's getting so hot standing next to 'this wall of fire.' All these 'phobias'! Oh, did I mention that there's a new Kinks album?"

Bruce Hornsby, "Harbor Lights," RCA Oh, gee, what a hard decision to make, huh? Do you or don't you add that new Hornsby track? Life sure is tough, eh? Just think, you could have one of dem blue collar jobs where you actually have to lift stuff to make a living. Instead you're sitting there in your little suit making big decisions like whether or not to add this money in the bank smash. Well, we've got some things to tell you. Bruce is back and this song offers a funkier, jazzier feel than his previous efforts. This is more intense and heady, in a Steely Dan way, than the big tunes that made him what he is today. Must've been all that jammin' with the Dead. Sure this tune will be one of the most played when it comes time to tabulate that kind of info at the end of the year. For that matter so will the entire Harbor Lights album. Dig in!

Daniel Lanois, "Lotta Love To Give," WB You know him, you love him, you can't live without him — uberproducer Daniel Lanois. Well here he is with an album all his own and some of you will say, "Wow, that sounds just like U2!" Well, duh! He's the man who slapped all those FX on the band as its producer for all these years. You knew that anyway, as well as his work with Peter Gabriel and a cast of thousands. This track from his album For The Beauty Of Wynona (Ryder? Hmmm) is killer as we say over pizza at Spago. Sure, it's got that Bono vibe to it, but hey, we say don't mess with success. Tweak the ears of your audience with this tune and they'll come back begging for more and more. It's bouncy; it's catchy; and downright cool. Don't confuse this as being a novelty record by some producer guy, Lanois proves himself here as a first rate talent. Thank you.

Blues Traveler, "Conquer Me," A&M Hippies hippies everywhere, kinda makes us want a karma milkshake. Douse yourself in patchouli and dig the sounds of Blues Traveler. Most of you got turned onto 'em during last year's HORDE tour. Well, this track is sure to please in an Allman's kind of way and we let our personal freak flag fly while listening. Sure we stayed away from the brown acid, but there was a birth man! You know the story by now — Princeton High students John Popper and Brendan Hill hook up, graduate, and go to NYC's New School For Social Research (Where all students get to use the NYU library) where they OD on jazz and round out the band with Chan Kinchla and Bobby Sheehan. You'll have flashbacks to your youth while tuning in this track — you'll think of Robbie Robertson before he got into acting and sounding like U2. Rock on and we'll see you at the Love-In.

Widespread Panic, "Wondering," Capricorn/WB The HORDE tour was so much fun last year, that we stocked up on ponchos and wine sacks. Not to mention the fact that we keep listening to our WSP CD over and over again. "Wondering" is one of our favorite tunes and it's what we like to call quintessential Panic. No, not like yelling "Fire" in a crowded theater, more like Widespread Panic. You want adult numbers, scarecrow? Well here they are on a friggin' silver platter. Belly up to the bar, boys — there's plenty for everyone. The best part about WSP is that you will listen to this song for your own personal enjoyment, which we'll be the first to admit is a novelty these days. We know your listeners will eat this up with a soup spoon, so get ready to serve!

Sleeze Beez, "I Don't," Atlantic Okay, when we think Dutch, we think quality paints. You know that little boy with the bowl cut and the cute blue suit and all. But the Sleeze Beez have changed all of that for us and we're thinking of nominating them for some sort of UN award for international understanding. The Beez rock out on this track and there's nowhere to hide. We didn't have enough fingers to plug up the bursting dike of rock and roll we discovered on this track. To continue with the really cheesy line of thought — these Beez really stung us with their attitude as well. Real down and dirty rockers, that's all we have to say. So if you're looking to add some excitement to your signal, try the Sleeze Beez. Now if we could only understand those Benelux countries.

New Emphasis Tracks

Black Crowes, "Bad Luck Blue Eyes Goodbye," Def American First the good news: MTV is going to bang this video, so we're gonna get some backup from them on this track. Now the bad news: this is the last single release from Southern Harmony... and we won't be hearing new stuff from that band for at least a year and a half. The nerve of them taking a vacation! Just kidding guys...ha ha ha. You really deserve the time off, buddies! Well, you don't need us to tell you that this song is just incredible and their performance on the M thing amidst the bikinis during Spring Break was nothing short of spectacular. Retro? You bet. Genius? Natch! Play this one loud, often and on the radio. Yet another in-the-pocket smash from the Crowes to help your station sound wonderful.

MORE New Emphasis Tracks

Trixter, "Rockin' Horse," MCA One of our more cynical friends observed that all the good hard rock bands got old all at once. Well, we've doubled his medication and put him on a steady dose of Trixter. These guys won't be O-L-D for a long time and this track is evidence of that. We rocked, we rolled, and we thought we may have dislocated our hip while bopping to this testes-to-the-plasterboard number. Wanna wake up your listeners? Here's the ticket just in time for warmer weather. All we have to say is don't be left out in the cold on this one. It's going to be blasting out of every rocker's car stereo soon and we want you —THE BIG TIME AOR RADIO STATION— to be the source for that. We wouldn't want that precious cume going elsewhere — like LAME CHR STATIONS — for this track, do we now? Right. Now go add this.

Sand Rubies, "Santa Maria," Atlas/PLG Folks who keep every record sent to their station will remember this band as The Sidewinders. Well, here they continue in their tradition of great guitar pop with "Santa Maria." Sure, we would have loved if they would have done songs about the Nina and the Pinta...okay, sorry, we won't follow that one through. The Sand Rubies play a brand of rock and roll that is candy to the ear of any intelligent listener. It will make your airwaves come alive with joy. You will see folks dancing the ancient hiney dance of happiness all over your market once this song hits the airwaves. Take our word for it, we're professionals. "Santa Maria" provides you with the perfect song that rests comfortably between traditional rock and roll and that alternative audience you don't understand but want really bad. Discover the new world with this track.

Impact Tracks

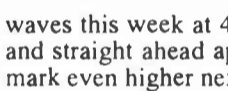

Warren Haynes, "Fire In The Kitchen," Megaforce (9/12) The fire may be in the kitchen, but the heat from the new Warren Haynes single is burning up the Hard Hundred (to the tune of a Debut of 95*). His first solo single is a masterful must for all who are fans of searing guitar leads, terrific vocals and a no-holds-barred attack. Mike Luoma/WIZN says of the single, "...lets his own unique point of view shine through. ...This week we move it into Heavy. The metaphors come almost too easily here: It smokes, sizzles and boils over! If your listeners dig the Allmans, they'll appreciate 'Fire In The Kitchen'."

Big Head Todd, "Broken Hearted Savior," Giant (8/122) Big Head Savior, Broken Head Todd, Big Hearted Todd, Broken Head Savior, Big Broken Head Savior...with band names and song titles as long as these, it's tough to keep everything straight. So we'll make it as easy as possible this week by telling you that "Broken" has broke big! with 13 increases, 13 top 5 phone spots, a Hard Hundred position of 17* and an album number of 24. WMMS's Brad Hanson tells us that this is a band that "definitely has the goods!"

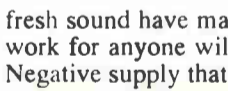

Joe Satriani, "Cryin'," Relativity (6/78) A Hard boost up the Hard Hundred left "Cryin'" at 26* on the heels of adds by KCAL, KJKJ, KZGL, WKQZ, WXRC and WZZQ. KQRS and KTYD were members of the most requested team of the week (6). WRCN's Kevin Thompson tested it, and tested it, and tested it, and said, "...not one negative call. More great emotive guitar work from Satriani." If there's room for a great artist on your station, there's room for the latest from Joe Satriani.

Bone Club, "Everything's On Fire," Imago (4/48) "Everything" is on fire including the waves in major places like WXTB, KLAQ, WHMH, WKQZ and others. The tasty Bone Club burn is turning heads everywhere while making Hard Hundred (heat) waves this week at 48*. The reaction is promising for Imago's latest find. The quick-tempo, scattering drums and straight ahead approach will have you aching to play it. Look for more Club ceremony to boost the chart mark even higher next week.

Collision, "Maximum Respect," Chaos (5/13) Collision made their Hard C.O.R. Debut this week and gained positive ground toward the Hard Hundred with the latest — gaining maximum respect with "Maximum Respect" — which takes only minimal effort on your part. The uniqueness of this band's sound has people talking. KAZY, WRZX, WBTZ, WUFX and WKLL were among the list of new supporters while stations like WRIF, KRZR, KRXQ, WAZU and WHMH continued to pound the song all week.

Jellyfish, "The Ghost At Number One," Virgin (3/24) Hard Hundred apparitions abound as "The Ghost At Number One" shows itself at 58* and the translucent Jellyfish wiggle their way back onto the AOR scene. The swirling production and fresh sound have made the single a Triple A favorite already and now the AOR crossover has begun. This will work for anyone willing to try new things. The need for new blood has never been greater. Here's a type-O-Negative supply that will work for any rock and roll blood type.

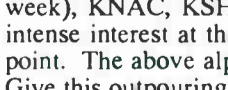

Motorhead, "I Ain't No Nice Guy," Singerman (3/53) With new adds from KUPD, WSTZ and WHTF, 3 increases and 5 stations reporting top 5 phones, Motorhead is gaining exposure and popularity...fast. Another strong showing has made its mark in the history books and this Cinderella story continues to solicit new fans. Power rotations at WIYY and WIMK are just a few examples of the success AORs are having with this Lemmy/Ozzy collaborative effort. Who cares what images your brain conjures up? This song will work for you. (Just listen to it once.)

Brad Gillis, "Honest To God," Guitar (3/18) TJ Bryan at WDHA told us the Brad Gillis "is terrific" and makes him sound great. So did WAQY and KRFD (they added the single this week). Increased rotation from KRQR on the west side of the world is just one simple (yet clear) indication of its positive power. (You don't get increases at stations like KRQR unless you deserve them.) The Hard Hundred says 67* this week and we fully expect a break into the top 50.

John Campbell, "When The Levee Breaks," Elektra (2/17) Need more than the fact that the cover is by the legendary Led Zeppelin? How about the fact that Campbell makes his axe fill up a room with smoke? Or the fact that John seems to fill a very big void left with the passing away of Stevie Ray Vaughan? Or how about the fact that support from KTYD, KISS, KLAQ, WHCN, WRUF, WIXV and others continue for another week? Okay, "When The Levee Breaks" has debuted on the Hard Hundred at 90*...(more next week).

Disturbance, "Resolution," Zoo (2/12) The "already on" list is astounding for this single. It includes AORs like KIL0, KISW, KRXQ, KBPI, KRZR (new this week), KNAC, KSHE, KRXX, WCCC, WXZL (new this week) and more. The Jeffrey Dahmer topic is of intense interest at this point in time and Disturbance has captured the moment in a single that does not disappoint. The above alphabet soup will have "Resolution" resolutely planted on the Hard C.O.R. chart in no time. Give this outpouring of emotion a spin.

Industrial Noise

KLOS GREETS THE GREASEMAN

No doubt an upbeat week for Carey Curelop and the crew at KLOS/Los Angeles. First, the station uncorked their best trend in months, followed by the announcement that the Cap Cities/ABC facility would be The Greaseman's first non-Infinity client. Mr. Tracht will hold down the 6pm to 10pm slot, with April 5th set as the start date. "It's Christmas in March," sez Grease. "I can't wait to get on in L.A. at KLOS, a winning radio station in an exciting town...a disc jockey's dream come true." Current 6-10 host Uncle Joe Benson drops back to the 10pm-2am slot, along with Bob Coburn (10am-2pm), Geno Michellini (2pm-6pm), and J.J. Lee (2am-6am), and, of course, franchise morning team Mark and Brian, who scored a first in this month's trends. Their 5.6-5.8 showing, puts them back ahead of Howard, who dropped 6.7-5.5. To the best of our knowledge, it's the first time anyone bested by Stern has regained the lead, even in a monthly. As PD Carey Curelop says, "You can't overreact to a trend, but it was very nice to have a good one, and we've had two very good ones in a row. By our calculations we've had four increases in the last four months, so we know we're going up." Indeed, KLOS climbed 3.6-3.9, KLSX was down 4.1-3.4 (ouch!) with KROQ 4.1-4.0. Meanwhile, KLAX's rancho assault continues, with an overall increase of 6.2-7.2, with mornings now #1 also 5.6-6.3.

THE ARBITRENDS KEEP ROLLING IN

In New York City, WNEW came through with a very strong month, 2.8-3.6 12+, just a few tenths behind WRXK 2.5-5.4. K-Rock's 12+ was up slightly, 4.1-4.2. Other gainers of note: CBS-FM (oldies) 4.1-4.5, and ABC (talk) 3.4-3.9.

A bad 12+ month for those Bay Area Rockers: Live 105 dipped 2.7-2.5, KFOG 2.0-1.8, KRQR 1.8-1.7, and KSJO 1.7-1.5. Can you say "tough town?" On the upside, KMEL powered up 4.3-4.8, Urban KSOL went 3.1-3.6, soft AC KOIT was 2.9-3.4, and Rush Limbaugh and KMBR climbed 3.7-4.1.

A huge Hispanic showing was the way in San Jose: Urban/Dance Hot 97 hiked 4.7-5.7, with Spanish KLOK up 2.7-4.4 18-34, Hot 97 6.5-8.2 in that demo, ditto KSOL 2.5-3.5. In the rock division, KOME 3.4-3.0, KSJO 4.9-4.0, with The Fox (classic) 2.1-2.7.

If there was a story in Chicago, it was probably WXRT: The Adult Alternative station was starting to feel WKQX stealing some of their 25-54s. 'XRT slipped 3.8-3.5, with 'KQX flat at 3.5. The Loop held 4.0-4.1, with WCKG's 25-54s 2.8-3.4. Overall, it was the Loop FM 2.9-3.0, WXRT 2.5-2.3, WCKG 2.1-2.5, and The Blaze 2.6-3.1.

In Boston, WBOS must be doing something right: They showed just a point behind WBCN's 25-54s. 'BCN trended 5.4-4.7, WBOS was up 3.6-3.9, WZLX 3.7-3.8, with WFNX 2.0-2.1 and WAAF 2.2-2.0.

The D.C. trends featured a truly amazing 4.0-4.3 showing for WJFK. What signal problem? Meanwhile, DC101 transitioned out of the Greaseman in mornings 3.7-3.6 12+. Down the road, WIYY's Russ Mottla might be thinking about bringing that station's currents back. WIYY went 5.1-4.7, outside the Top 5, 25-54.

Buffalo's AOR combo did well at the expense of CHR (7.0-5.7 since last October) and a slow start for Howard. 18-34, Stern's News/Talk home went .2-.4, with 25-54 an equally dismal .7-1.0. As Bob Richards says, "I have three words for Howard Stern in Buffalo — 'Morton Downey, Junior.'"

In Pittsburgh, Gene Romano and WDVE kicked butt 8.4-8.9, with #1 25-54 muscle. Bill Weston and WHJY continue to prove that Fall Book was a fluke with their 6.4-7.4 beauty, and in Cleveland, Howard put a little hurt on WMMS 7.0-6.0, with WNCX's 12+ reflecting 4.4-5.1. And though WYSP dipped a bit to a 6.4, WMMR sunk to a 3.8, with the problematic morning show now in the high 2s. Things are to the stage where the Philadelphia Inquirer media column was even speculating a change to all talk one day last week.

CAPITOL-EMI RESTRUCTURING CLAIMS VETERANS DIAGE & POTTS

A reorganization is shaking up the Capitol Tower, resulting in the layoffs of several staff members along with some roster trimming. At presstime, Capitol-EMI had still not released the names of the newly unemployed, but they did confirm that Senior VP/A&R Simon Potts and industry veteran Mickey Diage, Director of Advertising, are among those exiting. The official word from the Tower read: "In anticipation of the beginning of its new financial year, Capitol Records has taken the opportunity to review its organizational structure with the result being the elimination of positions. We recognize that it is difficult under any circumstances to undergo change, but it was decided that, according to our business needs, this move was appropriate. We wish all those affected the best in their future endeavors. Simon Potts, who has served as Senior Vice President, A&R, Capitol Records for the last six years, has chosen to leave the company with the expiration of his contract. We thank him for his dedication and wish him well in all future enterprises. There are no current plans to replace Potts' position. The A&R department has been under the direct auspices of President and CEO Hale Milgrim since October 1992 and, as such, there will be no interruption of operations or effectiveness with this transition."

GREG MULL ON THE MEND

As reported last week, Greg Mull's friends and associates were stunned by news that the WXTB PD was hospitalized with what turned out to be two subdural hematomas. As of our last writing, Greg was expected to remain hospitalized for at least a couple of weeks while it was determined whether drugs or surgery would be necessary to correct the condition. We're happy to report that Greg was allowed to return home last Thursday, after an angiogram revealed that the "blood blisters" causing all the problems were responding to the medication and were dissolving. Though Greg's tired from all the testing (the angio in particular) he's resting comfortably, has all faculties intact, and, depending on his doctor's evaluation, should be back at WXTB within three to four weeks. Whew!

GEFFEN PROMOTES CRAIG COBURN

Craig Coburn has been promoted to CHR Promotion Manager/Information Director for Geffen Records, it was announced today by Bill Bennett. Coburn will expand his CHR responsibilities as well as trade relations. "We have created a position designed to treat information as a weapon," said Bennett. "To maximize resources such as airplay and sales data, we needed someone to make it useful for the field staff. Craig is the perfect person to fill the bill. Not only is he extremely bright, with an intense background in computer technology, but he loves talking to radio and has an exceptional ability to translate information. Combine these qualifications with a promotion background and you have an asset for the future." Coburn joined Geffen in 1987 as a receptionist in the promotion department, working his way up to calling national CHR secondaries and coordinating advertising.

SAVAGE AND DILEO AGREE TO PART

Savage Records Chairman David Mimran, and Frank DiLeo, President, Frank DiLeo Management, announced that as of April 1, the two entities have amicably agreed to separate their business partnership. Mimran commented, "Since starting New York offices in 1991, both the record label and management company have grown and changed so much, Frank and I decided that our respective rosters would be best served by this action. Frank DiLeo was an integral part of starting this label and, aside from being a great record man, is a great friend." DiLeo added, "David has a natural sense for the record business and I wish him great success with Savage. He has accomplished a lot in a short period of time, and I'm sure will continue this tremendous growth in this industry."

CHAMELEON COMPLETES PROMO DEPARTMENT

Barry Lyons, VP/Promotion at Chameleon Records, has completed staffing the newly-expanded promotion department. Joining the company in NY as Promotion Manager/East Coast is Lynn Oakes; taking the Promotion Manager/West Coast position in L.A. is Mare Jeffries; and Greg Forston has joined the label as Promotion Manager/Midwest, based in Chicago. According to Lyons, the regional staff will concentrate their efforts for the label's cutting-edge roster at "stations that are musically pro-active, stations that are risk takers and ground breakers, particularly in the Modern Rock, Adult Alternative and Album Rock formats." Oakes has previously worked in promotion at Charisma, PLG and Island. Jeffries started at I.R.S. Records with Barry, eventually rising to the position of National Manager Secondary Markets. Forston is also a recruit from I.R.S. where he was Promo Manager for the Cleveland region. Rounding out the metal promotion department, Ray Mancison has been elevated to National Director/College Promotion, and Beth Edelstein joins the label as National Promotion Coordinator. "These additions to our staff will give us the ability to act as a well-targeted 'strike-force' in an increasingly fragmented market," said Lyons. "Working with the Elektra promotion staff, we've got a team that can really deliver for our artists."

KENDALL AND BEGIN EXIT STATIONS

Sorry to hear that old friend Lisa Kendall has left WDIZ/Orlando. She would have been with the station three years as of last Friday. She came aboard during Neil Mirsky's tenure at the station, moving from afternoons to middays when Mike Beck replaced Mirsky. Lisa's a talented, total pro, whose experience includes WYSP, WMMR, WNEW, and WSHE. Call her at (407) 774-1687. You might recall Lee Randall, the station's long tenured MD, also exited a couple of months back. This week the station also announced that Tim Slats was returning to the facility, this time in afternoon drive. He was with WDIZ back in the mid 80s, and was most recently the wakeup guy at Z93/Atlanta... And this late word out of Annapolis: WXZL morning personality Karen Begin is no longer with the station. This Canadian national also has a terrific sense of humor and a great delivery. Before this particular morning show, Karen did afternoons at WXPB/Philly, and continues to do weekend/swing at WMMR. TFN she's available at (410) 267-6412.

CASSANDRA COHEN TRUST

MCA Records has started a trust in the name of Cassandra Cohen, age 5, daughter of Donnie Cohen, the label's National Adult Contemporary Promotion Director, who died in a plane crash off the coast of Southern California Tuesday night (3/16). "Donnie Cohen was a beloved and well respected member of the MCA Records staff," said President Richard Palmese. "He really grew up with us, joining the company in 1983 and beginning in the mailroom. His enthusiasm, dedication and hard work were tremendous, and he is already missed. He was a wonderful father, a great friend and a valued member of our promotion department. His loss is both shocking and tragic." Donations can be made payable to: "Sparky Cohen as Custodian for Cassandra Cohen, under the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act" and mailed to MCA Records, 70 Universal City Plaza, 3rd Floor, Universal City, CA 91608.

WMMS BLANKETS THE COMPETITION

You say you've done every Double Shot...Triple Play...Rock Block...Classic Shot...Four Play...New Rock...Blast From The Past...Songs That Start With X... weekend you can think of and "There just ain't nothin' else left to do!!!" Well here's one you may want to try. WMMS's Michael Luczak and Brad Hanson took advantage of the recent abundance of cover material and came up with a great new angle.

PD Michael Luczak was in usual monitor mode on his way to work one morning, when he was inspired by a few of 'MMS's currents. New music from The Lemonheads, John Campbell and Ugly Kid Joe gave him an idea (so overwhelming he called his own voice mail with the details so he wouldn't forget!). Teaming up with MD Brad Hanson, the two went to work and master-minded a Classic Cover Weekend (clever!). Brad said the biggest challenge was "finding enough material for an entire weekend. Even repeating a few of the cover sets didn't make it easy, but we worked hard and it paid off in a big way." They dug out everything. First Rubaiyat, then Two Rooms...and the list began to grow. The first 20 songs came easily. The next 140 were more difficult.

The covers began early Saturday morning and ran through Sunday (excluding the overnight) non-stop. Taking any risk can be stressful and Brad's biggest concern was the potential for listener turn-off. He explained, "If they didn't like a song in the first place, they may not have stayed tuned in to hear the cover." That was the logic which led them to play the covers first, and then the originals. The weekend was a major success. Said Hanson, "We had a lot of fun. The phones rang like crazy!" Michael shared, "Listener response was phenomenal! We even gave away blankets saying 'WMMS has got you covered!' (get it?)" Brad shared his favorite cover set, "She Said, She Said" by the Beatles and Overwhelming Colorfast.

Michael asked that we print WMMS's entire cover list and pass it along with this special message: "In the spirit of creative radio, go ahead and steal it...No Charge!"

WGRF/Buffalo appointed Heidi Kramer to the position of Director Of Marketing for Rich Communications Corporation. In addition to her current responsibilities, Heidi will oversee and coordinate the marketing and promotional aspects for sister station WGR News Radio 55 and LMA'd stations WUFX 103.3 The Fox and WXBX 1400 AM.

KRAB/Bakersfield picks up Anne Kelly, from KZOZ/San Luis Obispo, for early midday (9:30a-1p) and Promotions Director, Joy Wolf, exits.

WMMR/Philadelphia's original rock music station, will celebrate its 25th anniversary by staging one of the largest free concerts ever held in Philadelphia on Tuesday, April 27, 7pm at the Spectrum. In what will be the concert event of the season, Jethro Tull, The Hooters, Warren Zevon, Paul Rodgers & Company and Jeffrey Gaines will perform exclusively for WMMR listeners. "It's our way of saying thanks to our listeners, the people who helped make WMMR the leader of rock music these 25 years," says Chuck Fee, vice president and general manager of the station. WMMR will be distributing free tickets to its birthday bash throughout the tri-state area via a series of "ticket raids" beginning this week. WMMR disc jockeys will be announcing the locations where free tickets will be distributed each day. Listeners will have a two hour period in which to get to the ticket raid site and pick up their concert passes. Jethro Tull, also celebrating its 25th anniversary this year, has maintained a large and devoted following in Philly over the years. In the 10 times the band has appeared locally in the last 10 years, it has sold-out each time. The appearance at the WMMR event coincides with the band's release of a 4 CD/48 page limited edition box set of their music throughout the years. The Hooters, Philadelphia's favorite hometown band, will be making its first local appearance in two years and introducing their new album, Out Of Body. Warren Zevon, another Philly favorite who has an all-live acoustic album debuting next month, will play a selection of his music. Paul Rodgers will be performing music from the new album, Tribute To Muddy Waters. Rodgers' all-star band includes Journey's Neal Schon and drummer Jason Bonham. Jeffrey Gaines, the winner of three WMMR Street Beat Awards, will round out the bill. WMMR traces its musical roots to April 29, 1968 and the first broadcast of "The Marconi Experiment," an innovative radio program incorporating the "underground" music of the '60s and the mind-set of a new generation. That program eventually became the cornerstone around which WMMR built its rich musical history.

KHOW/Denver has upped weekend talent Teri Landreth to the night slot. "We're building a new show at night on KHOW," said Program Director, Tom Harper. "The show will involve heavy phone use and personality-intensive audience interaction. Teri has extensive experience with this type of format. Her outgoing personality and boundless enthusiasm inspire callers to reveal their own personalities. Teri makes the callers the stars of the show." Teri has worked in Denver radio for the past five years, beginning her career in 1982 in a small market station in North Dakota. Since that time, she has worked her way back home to Denver, with stints at Q103 and KRFX, KXKL and KMJI. In other station news, KHOW has added Music Director duties to the responsibilities of long-time afternoon drive personality Murphy Huston. "Murphy has been an integral part of KHOW for the past seven years and handled the music duty on the AM before we began our simulcast on FM," said Harper. "Our more aggressive approach to current music requires a full time Music Director and Murphy jumped at the chance to take over." Murphy is a University Of Wisconsin graduate and a twenty year veteran of radio, rising from afternoons in Erie, Pennsylvania, to mornings in Milwaukee before coming to Denver and KHOW in 1986. KHOW also added Production Director duties to midday personality Jessica Cash. "In the two years Jessica has been with KHOW FM and AM, she has met every challenge placed before her and excelled in our highly competitive market," said Harper. "This latest promotion is another step forward and it's another challenge Jessica will easily meet." Jessica's expanded duties will include promo production, commercial oversight and production training for new airstaff. Jessica's career began in Carroll, Iowa, and moved through Indiana to Charleston, South Carolina. Two years ago, she came to KHOW.

ABC Radio Networks/Z-Rock added "Loud Debi Dowd" to SMN's Z-Rock format in Dallas. She joins Z-Rock on weekends as the result of an extensive national search for "the right Z-Rock voice" by Z-Rock Program Director Pat Dawsey who said, "After hearing Dowd's demo tape I was floored! I thought she was the kind of jock we need!" Dowd began her career at her college radio station, WVCR-FM/ Siena College, in Loudonville, New York. It was there she became known for her high energy delivery, hence the name "Loud Debi Dowd." From there she went to Z-Rock affiliate WZRQ/ Albany, New York where she was hired as a remote air-personality traveling between events, clubs and client locations. Z-Rock plans to put Dowd on the road immediately. She is scheduled to travel to Detroit March 6 and 7 to make several promotional stops within the market.

WHEB/Portsmouth gets tough. In November of 1992, WHEB initiated a plan to keep the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard off the March 1993 national base closing list. The Shipyard generates roughly $655 million in income to the Maine/New Hampshire seacoast area, and realizing the devastating economic impact the closing of this facility would have on their region, they decided to take positive steps to prevent this from happening. Teaming up with WOKQ FM and the Foster's Daily Democrat newspaper of Dover, NH, they developed a four part campaign to raise community consciousness and influence the decision making process. Part one involved a straight forward educational campaign aired by concerned radio stations. With the help of the New Hampshire and Maine Association of Broadcasters, over 50 radio stations ran a sixty second public service announcement outlining the devastating effect a base closure would have on this area. The spots ran from Portland, to Nashua, and all points in between. Part two consisted of a "cut-out" that appeared in 18 daily and weekly newspapers in the two states. The radio stations continued to inform the public and urge them to complete a cut-out and drop it off at any participating Burger King or McDonald's, both of which WHEB agreed to have act as collection points. Part three was coordinated by WHEB and WOKQ. They brought together local Seacoast radio stations for a live broadcast from the main entrance of the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard during morning drive. In a total spirit of cooperation, 9 radio stations broadcast their shows live, making sure every seacoast resident with a radio on that morning knew of the effort being made to save the shipyard. The site was visited by Senator Judd Gregg and Congressman Bill Zeliff as well as many other political representatives who fully supported the unprecedented broadcast. The final part of the plan sent a group of representatives from the Media Alliance and local Chambers of Commerce to Washington, D.C., to present over 10,000 cut-outs and make a presentation to elected officials. Midday personality and Promotion Director, Lori D., represented WHEB. A brief presentation was made at the Capital building in Senator Mitchell's office, where several of the letters that had been received were read aloud. Each congressional member made a short speech reiterating their support and promising to continue their efforts to try and save the Shipyard. The release of the base closure list on March 12 showed what real community support can achieve. The Portsmouth Naval Shipyard will remain open for business. They do face another serious challenge in 1995, but for right now, it's time to celebrate.

CKLG/Vancouver kicked off the week with British Columbia Premier Mike Harcourt. The Premier and his son Justin are loyal fans of the LG Morning Zoo and joined the zany morning show team along with every television station in the city! A variety of British Columbians dropped by to welcome the Premier to CKLG headquarters including French maids, Thai dancers, and a 200 pound Hawaiian Leeki Leeki dancer. Premier Mike Harcourt consulted with CKLG's "Babe From Beyond"...Kassandra who may be the only one who knows the future of politics in B.C. (L to R) Kassandra, The Coach Stu McAllister, David Kaye, "Zoo Keeper" Dean Hill, Kate Gorman, Justin and Mike Harcourt.

WYSP/Philadelphia will be presenting The Third Annual Classic Rock Art Show And Sale Benefitting The AIDS Task Force Of Philadelphia. It will be showcasing the art works of dozens of classic rock musicians April 3rd and 4th. The event will bring together the works of Jerry Garcia, John Lennon, David Bowie, Ron Wood, Carlos Santana, Stevie Nicks, and many more. Mick Rock, international album cover photographer, will make an appearance at the show where he'll display his works, including David Bowie's Pin-Ups, Queen's Night At The Opera and Lou Reed's Transformer. Cal Schenkel, creator of Frank Zappa's album covers during the '60s and '70s, will also be on hand displaying original Frank Zappa album cover art. There will also be limited edition art print album covers available for sale. The AIDS Task Force of Philadelphia is the fourth oldest AIDS organization in the country. The "Classic Rock Art Show And Sale" has already raised over $100,000 for AIDS research.

WXRC/Charlotte announced that Mary London will be the new Music Director where she does middays. Program Director Bill Conway said, "She works very hard and we know she'll do great!" Previous Music Director Jon Brent went to KOQL/Oklahoma City as Program Director. Other changes included the promotion of morning jock Billy Capone. He assumes the position as Operations Manager and retains morning show duties. Capone has been with Voyager for 6 years.

WIZN/Burlington was giving listeners a chance to spend a week in sunny Cancun, Mexico, with WIZN staffers and Program Director Steve Cormier! For the small sum of $1,000 listeners could enjoy the sights and sounds seaside and a chance to showcase hot up and coming musical acts! Call it a smooth blend of business and pleasure! We hope they took the camera!

KSPQ/West Plains will be giving away a $600 Hamer red guitar autographed by Tommy Shaw and Jack Blades for International Guitar month. Listeners will qualify for the guitar by identifying a certain guitar riff on the air. The promotion will last through April. KSPQ is also getting ready for their "Summer Jam," which is a 15 week long promotion with different prizes given away every week that are tied in with their 94 frequency. 94 CDs, 94 Feet of Canoes (that's 3 of them), and dinner at a local restaurant for 94 friends. It kicks off Memorial Day with a huge float trip to benefit Special Olympics with a BBQ afterwards. KSPQ will be also involved in the "Show Me 100" which is the second largest dirt track in the nation. PD Stacy Hicks and Hooter (her morning partner) will be riding in the pace car.

KZRZ/Phoenix promotes Rachel Rockwell to News Director and morning sidekick for APD/MD K.C. Kennedy. She hails from Michigan where she worked in radio. K.C. said, "She's hot and sounds incredible on the air. It will make our morning show 'The Morning Thing' more competitive in the marketplace. She's great!"

WRKI/Danbury rounds up a killer promotion. How would you like to win a trip to see Van Halen, Bon Jovi, and U2 in Europe? Program Director Tim Sheehan said, "We're making it easy for listeners to qualify for the trip. Anytime we play a song from one of those artists, the listener just has to be the right caller to qualify for the trip. The contest will be running through the 16th!" The station tied in the whole package with Pepsi and their new Crystal Pepsi. The grand prize is a 12 day, 11 night stay in Europe to see Bon Jovi in Paris, Van Halen in London and U2 in Rotterdam.

WRFX/Charlotte announced the syndication of Allan Handelman's "East Coast Live" 2 hour call-in program. The recipient is ABS Communication's WROQ/Greenville, South Carolina. The Upstate's Home Of Rock N'Roll already carries The JohnBoy & Billy Show and beginning Sunday, April 3rd, will begin airing "East Coast Live" from 10p-12m each Sunday night. The show features one on one interviews with the likes of: David Letterman, Ted Nugent, Def Leppard, Jay Leno, Van Halen, AC/DC and U2. Callers are able to actually talk live with guests. Recent shows that attracted nationwide attention included a UFO special with Travis Walton, whose case was the basis for the movie Fire In The Sky. Another controversial show was Frank Zappa with then Presidential candidate Bill Clinton calling in live. Handelman, the show's host was formerly PD of WXRC/Charlotte, PD of KKBB/Bakersfield and spent time in Raleigh on Lee Abrams' original AOR, WQDR. Handelman's a 16 year veteran.

KRFX/Denver recently held a "What's The Craziest Thing You Would Do For Paul McCartney Tix?" contest. Grab your barf bags! They had 4 of the grossest people doing the grossest things and of course we got the pictures. The following is in order of a mild gag to all out hurling!

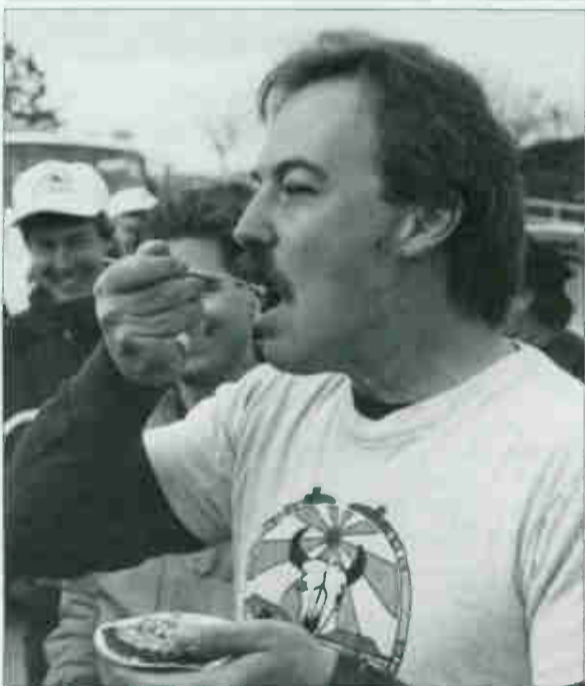

☞ Contestant #1 - Ate a whole doggie bowl of Gravy Train Dog Food. (Pretty mild, but keep in mind it's 6 in the morning!)

☞ Contestant #2 - Ate 12 live night crawlers.

☞ Contestant #4 - Caught, skinned, and barbecued a rat...then he ate it. (Yes, one woman in the audience lost it!)

☞ Contestant #3 - Had his wife shave her &*$#! hairs, put them in a Swanson's pot pie and made a real hair pie! We know the rat sounds more gross, but you should have seen the guy's wife. Needless to say, all contestants won a pair of tickets to the show.

WLUP AM 1000's Kevin Matthews spends some studio time with Jude Cole. It's just another night in the life of a rock and roller.

Interview

By Bill Hard

Bo Knows Broadcasting

While WDVE's Gene Romano and I were discussing Broadcast Alchemy's purchase of WRZX a couple of weeks ago, Gene made an interesting observation. He noted that when major market PD's talked about what sorts of situations might motivate them to look elsewhere, the opportunity to work with Frank Wood frequently came up in conversation. And that wasn't an ass kissin' comment for the big guy's benefit because I've heard it, too. Who wouldn't want to understudy this charismatic broadcasting giant? Bo and his dad Frank, Sr. turned WEBN into a midwest household word. The ensuing Jacor era is a case study in late '80s media economics, just as Broadcast Alchemy's studied acquisitions underscore what it takes to make big moves pay dividends in the '90s. But that incredible history aside, what makes Bo so much fun is that he's just as happy to wax poetic about the new Springer fork he's bolting on to his Low Rider as he is to discuss the state of ownership today. It wasn't easy, but we did manage to put the Harley talk on hold to get Frank rolling....

Frank: We have an hour? I don't know an hour's worth of shit. We can do this in ten minutes.

Why don't I just fill with outtakes from the Dave Crowl interview from the Year End issue? You know, just change a few names and drop it in.

Frank: That was a nice piece. I like Dave.

Yeah, he's a good guy. I have a world of respect for their individual programmers, too. I guess that's why I'm surprised that Great American's not in better financial shape, at least in terms of their stock.

Frank: Like anybody else that bought anything in the mid to late '80s, they were just struggling under a completely fucked balance sheet. That company bought at the absolute peak of the market. Then, everything cratered — including television, and it affected those radio stations. They haven't had any money for a long time. When that restructure is finished, then they're going to be able to move on, like Jacor is. Jacor's restructure is now done, and watch out for that company.

They had to get up all that money together to finish your buyout, right?

Frank: No, that wasn't it. They owed $150 million or something. Mine was a teeny little piece. It was the same thing — over leveraging in the '80s, then a dramatic recession, and a lot of locked-in, high interest rate loans. It just ate them up when the recession hit. But now, they've been restructured. And while the original shareholders ended up with a very small percentage of the company, the company itself is now dangerous. Its balance sheet is fixed. And that will happen to Great American, too.

Do you anticipate that Great American will get as involved in acquisitions and mergers and LMAs?

Frank: I don't know the pace and the structure of their restructuring.

I ask because it sure looks like an "acquire or die" scenario for any organization that wants to remain a serious player.

Frank: I think if they let you, you have to. The people who win take every advantage of what's allowed on the playing field. If you're allowed to own two stations, then you do. The rules allow you to modulate 100%. Those that modulate only 80% don't do very well. So, I think it's a matter of time before you find a huge amount of consolidation going on.

Were you surprised, looking at Indianapolis, that 'RZX came on as quickly as they did?

Frank: No. We knew the vulnerability was there on the lower flank. We had been dealing with them fairly successfully on the upper flank.

When they were Classic.

Frank: Yes. They went right at our heritage, long before I got involved, and Marty and Chris, and all of them did a terrific job of — not neutralizing, but holding damage to a minimum. Any full signal that comes on a market is going to effect you in your programming. We always did think that maybe we were a little bit more vulnerable on the lower flank because we didn't want to give up the money demos to turn down and defend it. That's one of the problems when you're attacked on the younger flank. Do you want to take this huge, monstrously billing radio station and jeopardize 25-54 billing to defend your lower end? That's why the best guerilla tactic is to attack on the least desirable flank.

In terms of?

Frank: In terms of what you can expect the incumbent to defend effectively. When I was at Jacor and we attacked Q105, we deliberately concentrated on the flank that we thought they wouldn't defend. We were horrified and surprised as hell when they turned around and defended it. It killed them.

That's what really catapulted the Power Pig to prominence?

Frank: No. That was a very clever attack, but it never would have worked as well as it did if the other side hadn't reacted emotionally. We thought that, hell, their radio station was billing $17 million or $18 million; we figured they'd defend 12 or 13 of it. Instead, they defended about 3 of it. The teen flank. It wasn't what I would call a terribly rational response.

Did you happen to feel that 'RZX was a particularly well run example of the breed, or could any number of low end approaches have hurt WFBQ?

Frank: I think it's a combination of both. We were going to double up in Indianapolis, there was just no question about it. We had talked to WIN Communications since we first got into Indianapolis. It made sense when they were still Classic Rock. We wanted to buy them. It was my feeling that in the long run, to defend a big, broad rock spectrum, you really need two radio stations to do it. There is a mitosis occurring in AOR, in that the age group is now impossible to serve as one radio station, unless there is only one radio station. But now, we're going to be two. Early on, we knew we would double up in Indy. We talked to a number of people in the market, and were very close to another deal, when finally, WIN became empowered to deal. They had been tied up in a restructure, too, and they couldn't do anything for a while because they were dealing with their banks. At the very last minute, just before we entered into an agreement with another radio station, they got the elbow room to deal. That deal went together in a real hurry. At the very end, we were, literally, three or four days away from buying a different station. Our strategy was going to be to go low end rock and sit on WRZX until they went away.

Is that what Jacor is attempting to do to KBPI with KAZY?

Frank: They clearly want to own a broad spectrum out there. Denver is a perfect market for consolidation because it's so over-radioed. By attacking KBPI, they're going to bring them down. KBPI is standing there alone, and Jacor's got two of them. If Great American doesn't double up, they're going to have to sell because you can't make money with a low end rock station in competition. It's not the profitable demo right now. With young end rock stations, you're swimming against the tide of what advertisers are buying. Right now, they're buying 25 to 54. That's going to change someday. But right now, that's what they're buying.

But one continues to hear that agencies are more and more appreciative of the lower demos.

Frank: When you look at growth, you have to consider the base. A market with three people can double every year for quite a while before it means anything. That trend will certainly be felt over the next few years. In financing multi-million dollar transactions, like radio deals, you have to pay a good bit of attention to the near term, as well as the long term. The fact is that young end rock isn't wildly profitable yet in most markets. I suppose the biggest success is The Blaze. So, I'd expect that they are now making good money, but nothing near what The Loop or 'XRT is making. But Chicago is a huge market and the Blaze is now worth a lot more than they paid for it.

So every stand alone operator can now threaten the heritage AOR with a lower end assault and double their asking price?

Frank: I call that 'the mugging for ransom' theory.

That's the phrase I was looking for. (Laughs) Somehow, a pair of spike heels and a mini comes to mind, as well. But seriously, that's a great way to pump up the asking price.

Frank: That's one. There are a million. The duopolies are really going to change things. It's going to allow formats that might not be terribly profitable on their own to be very profitable. Indianapolis is a good example. WIN wasn't going to make a lot of money with 'RZX'. The hope was to make a little more than they were doing as a 4 share Classic Rocker, but it was never going to make a huge amount of money standing on its own. But if you double it up with something, then it can. With a 4 share, you can't make money in Indianapolis, but if you combine it with a 10, now you've got a 14. You're going to find eclectic radio surviving. Modern Rock surviving. Probably classical music. In Washington, they're going to combine jazz and classical music. That's not a terrible mix to go out and sell in combo, is it?

No. As a matter of fact, in the early days of FM, I know there were a lot of classical stations that did jazz. In fact, your Dad's might have been one of them.

Frank: Right. I used to announce classical music.

So, you first got the FM bug when you were a law student in Chicago?

Frank: No, I didn't even think of going into radio until I was out of law school. I got out of law school, and my father had gotten a short space, class B FM allocation. He was a reformed alcoholic. Did you ever notice when your friends give up drinking they've got a lot of time on their hands? My father was very similar. With his spare time he developed a passion for electronics, jazz and classical music. So, he combined them all and put out this little automated station. And since all his friends liked jazz and classical, he figured other people would, too. It's really easy to make that leap; we all think there is an audience for what we like.

He basically mortgaged the ranch and the dog?

Frank: Yes. He was a lawyer, and he quit his law practice and put what money he had into it. You could put one on the air a lot cheaper in those days. The filing and the legal fees were about $5,000. But remember, he had to build the facility, and then, the thing had losses right off the bat because there are more of us in this conversation than there were FM radios in 1967.

But you got caught up in the excitement?

Frank: As I studied for the bar exam, I worked over the summer, helping construct the station. We all sort of pitched in, sawing and, putting windows in, and wiring shit. I passed the bar exam and went to work for a law firm. Three weeks later, the radio station went on the air, and I thought, 'Nah, I'm not going to practice law in Cincinnati, anyway.' I had a job with a Wall Street firm I put on hold for a year and decided, 'Hey, let's play with this radio thing for a year.' It looked fun. And it was a lot of fun. So much fun, that I never went back.

But it was not profitable for a very long period of time?

Frank: No. We started doing a so-called progressive rock show on Saturday nights, and it gradually ate the radio station. It was on from 10 to 1 every night, and then 6 to 1 every night. It gradually took over the whole thing.

Jelly Pudding was the show?

Frank: That was the original name.

How did you come up with that?

Frank: Jelly Pudding was a combination of two good things — jelly and pudding. It sounded too good to be true.

Yes, with Procol Harum's "Repent Walpurgis" as your theme song. And you were reporting to no one, since there really was no progressive rock format at the time.

Frank: And there weren't five stations in the country doing this. KMPX in San Francisco was doing it. And one in New York, and WEBN doing it part time. Quite a few others started over the next couple of years. It didn't exactly take right off in markets the size of Cincinnati. But we hung on, and got better at it, and developed. None of us had ever been in radio, so we didn't know formats. It was like inventing the wheel with somebody else across the street who already had one. Nobody was going to tell us about it. That also brought amazing creativity. What was going on in early FM radio was a huge creative surge. And it sprung from need. Nobody had promotion budgets. Nobody had research. We didn't know. We were learning by doing. It was a very exciting time. We were way underground of the audience. But part of it was set penetration, too. We just couldn't reach people because not enough people had FM radios. You're probably too young to remember this, Bill, but the first time FM got numbers was nighttime, 7 to midnight, and then, 3 to 7, and then 10 to 3, and finally, mornings. And mornings didn't break in FM radio until about '75. I've always thought there was a technological reason. Where was the first FM radio in the house? It was in the living room. People bought a stereo, remember that? So, that's where our listening was done for awhile. The only time the thing was on was 7 to midnight. They'd punch it up when they got home. It was only when lots of FM radios started proliferating that it became viable in all dayparts. But I really do remember this. We weren't in cars.

The duopolies are really going to change things. It's going to allow formats that might not be terribly profitable on their own to be very profitable. Indianapolis is a good example.

I first did rock on FM back in '73 and the set penetration problem was a big deal, especially in drive times.

Frank: Remember when you used to do promotions centered around those cheap FM converters?

Absolutely. As a matter of fact, I haven't thought of those units for about two decades, but now that you mention it, we made a big deal out of giving them away. Right up there with Bridal Fair in terms of goofy promotions.

Frank: That was a time when you had to learn non-monetary production and promotional techniques, which really served them well. Early AOR programmers invented guerilla tactics, without having read 'The Art of War.'

I'm sure many of those concepts will come in very handy in the '90s, with so many stations struggling with debt service.

Frank: That's one of the problems. When radio in the '80s became big business, and the banks started throwing money at it, everybody, including the creative side of the business, took their eye off that part of the ball and started thinking like bankers. The grey flannel began to enshroud the right brain a little bit.

When did you sell WEBN to Jacor, speaking of big business?

Frank: 1986. Actually, in late 1985, I owned that one and another one in Louisville, 'QMF'. I bought my father out in the early '80s. It was a very friendly thing because Dad and I got along great. WEBN really took off in the mid-'70s and sort of changed the fortunes of the family. God, it was great.

So, you went from being struggling broadcasters to...?

Frank: We went from a 4 to a 9 in one Arbitron book. I went from driving a traded Mercury to a Porsche.

God bless your PD at the time, Denton Marr!

Frank: Denton had been there a long time before that. And it wasn't any great programming epiphany that shifted us from a 4 to a 9. It was the arrival of lots of FM radios and Arbitron's technology finally catching on to what was growing out there. It was the same radio station.

It had to be one of the very first heritage success stories.

Frank: Other than in huge markets, where you could make money with a 3 share. But we couldn't here in Cincinnati.

But if you think about it, most of those big, early heritage signals — the KSNZ's, and the KMET's, and places like that — for whatever reason, they didn't have the wherewithal to hang in. So, you did collect big at that point.

Frank: It didn't make us wild bolting millionaires because we still owned the radio station. At any rate, in 1981, we bought another one in Louisville, and made that 'QMF'. Unfortunately, we bought that when interest rates were 21%, and it was a tough turn. But it did turn around, and that's really the dominate AOR radio station in Louisville now. So, in late 1985, I sold 'EBN' to Jacor for cash and some stock, and then followed it in because Terry Jacobs needed a guy from the radio business. He was from the insurance business. He was a financial guy. That was sort of a nice idea. I liked them because they owned one in Atlanta, and I thought, 'Oh, my God, Atlanta, Georgia!' And Cleveland, and Jacksonville, and some other markets that weren't as attractive. And I sold 'QMF' to the manager. John Otting still owns it and does a terrific job.

Where was Randy Michaels at this point?

Frank: He and Bobby Lawrence and Dave Martin had put together a group of local investors and had bought WLW, and ended up also buying WSKS, which came with it. And then, they bought turnaround FMs in Nashville and Knoxville, WMYU and what is now Y107 in Nashville. That was Republic Broadcasting. The minute I got to Jacor, I said, 'We've got to have WLW. And these guys (Bobby, Dave and Randy) really get it. Let's get them on our side, so we don't have to spend time banging heads.' So, we worked out an arrangement where we bought them, or merged with them, however you want to look at it. So, they came in with those radio stations. Now, we had huge operating firepower. And also, the ability to orchestrate the Cincinnati market because we flipped WEBN's main competitor to Country and then sold it.

Right out from Marty Bender, as I recall.

Frank: Yeah. In fact, there's another story: Marty did mornings on 'SKS' with a guy named Eddie Fingers. My sister Robin was doing mornings at 'EBN'.

She still does, right?

Frank: Yes. Well, I listened to Bender and Fingers, and at some point, a morning team begins to gel, and I heard it when they started to gel, and I said, 'No, no, no, we can't have that. We can use more firepower here.' So, I grabbed Eddie Fingers. And ended up with a lawsuit on a noncompete. It was hilarious. Great public theater, Randy and I fighting in court. But it was just theater. That's where Eddie ended up. Marty stayed on, and he ended up going to Great American, and Marty and I ended up getting together on this deal.

As a matter of fact, I said, 'Marty, when you were working in Cincinnati trying to put a dent in WEBN, when did you really start to get a sense of what Frank is all about?' He said, 'Well, I think it was the day my morning partner didn't show up for work.' (Laughs)

Frank: That really did work, and it hurt them. It did all the things it was designed to do. In retrospect, you're sorry you did it to friends.

But what are friends for?

Frank: At the time, it was business warfare. Then, it stopped.

Shortly thereafter, you brought Randy into the fold?

Frank: Yes. With the Republic merger, he and Bob Lawrence came into the corporate staff. There was all kinds of mischief then. It was unbelievable. If you had to pick the single brightest mind in the radio business, in my opinion, it would have to be Randy.

High compliment, especially coming from you.

Frank: I really do mean that. A lot of people tend to think of Randy only in terms of rooting through a competitor's garbage can — which happened so many years ago, it might not even have happened. But just in terms of all purpose thinking, I don't know anybody equal to that sort of mind power. Have you ever spent any time with him?

I think that an awful lot of so called 'heritage AOR stations' are going to end up being close to talk stations. Greaseman and Howard Stern at night, it's a preview of coming attractions, folks.

I've never really had an extended conversation with Randy, but I'm friends with a lot of guys, like Bill Betts, who have dealt with the business end of the boy. Cagey customer.

Frank: He's very smart, and thinks very fast. He's very direct. You never have to wonder what's on Randy's mind. He'll always tell you.

Jacor's over-leveraging and over-rapid expansion had to be tough for a guy with Randy's ability to deal with.

Frank: There's no question. I will say this, Jacor's radio stations are superbly operated. They really are.

At what point did you exit Jacor?

Frank: I left Jacor in March of 1990.

What was it about the 'DVE opportunity that made it so attractive?

Frank: If you really studied 'DVE, you could see that it was due to have a big growth spurt. 'DVE was the dominant AOR in Pittsburgh, and then, about 1988, somebody came along and kicked it in the nuts pretty good. It took awhile for it to recover.

Who was that?

Frank: It was called Magic at the time.

The Classic Rock?

Frank: Yes. It is now 'RRK. 'DVE wasn't terribly well run at the time, they weren't well programmed. The competition had just hired their old morning show back from Florida. These guys had gone down to Florida and didn't like it. They came back, and now, they're on the Classic Rocker. And it was devastating to 'DVE. 'DVE recovered — they got a new manager, Bob Roof, who hired Gene Romano, and they ended up burying the Classic Rock station.

Gene's one of the best. For a long time, Gene ran the whole thing with the most minimal research at his disposal.

Frank: I know. He's got a terrific gut.

By the way, Gene and Marty are way too nice to ask you, but when I rang them up to research this piece, they made it clear that a raise would be nice. They're just too shy to ask. And Marty wants to know about a company car.

Frank: We offered him a Yugo but he said he couldn't drive a stick shift.

Gene told me a hilarious story about the corporate meetings you held in Cincinnati, where the WDVE managers drove in from Pittsburgh. That sounds like something I would ask my staff to do. But five hours each way does give you plenty of time to bond.

Frank: Hey, there were four of them coming over. Hell, it was Bob's idea. But you know what, it does illustrate something. We have to learn to run broadcast companies cheaper. We really do. There are now way too many delivery systems, and not enough messages to deliver. And a little bit of that isn't that bad. Honestly, if I had been in a hurry, sure, they would have flown. But I thought it was great. It was their idea. I really enjoyed that.

As you look at your radio stations balance sheets, what do you see as the area where most operations could cut costs? And where do you encourage your guys to try and lean things out a little bit?

Frank: Ours are very lean operations. I would pay a great tribute to Great American, in that they ran lean radio stations. They had to because of the balance sheet problems they had, starting after the buyout. After it became Great American from Taft, it left them overleveraged, so they got very lean and very mean.

And they got that buyout money at the peak, didn't they, right around 18%?

Frank: It was the pricing at the times that killed them. At any rate, these were fairly lean radio stations. For their size, there's not a whole lot to cut out anymore. You can always manipulate the promotion budget. That's the first thing that people do. You could, in the short run, do without research. It depends what your goals are. We want to grow. We don't think that those radio stations are tapped out. The whole world, when we bought 'DVE and 'FBQ, said, 'Well, 'FBQ is tapped out. It will be tough to hold that. There may be a little growth left in 'DVE.' I don't look at it that way. I think 'FBQ can grow like crazy. We're enlarging our presence in Indianapolis. We'll do the same thing in Pittsburgh someday, when the price is right. We continue to look for new ways of making revenue, but also, to evolve the radio stations. Ten years from now, we're not going to sound like this. I think that an awful lot of so called 'heritage AOR stations' are going to end up being close to talk stations. Greaseman and Howard Stern at night, it's a preview of coming attractions, folks. A lot of it has to do with the evolution of the audience. You can either recycle the radio station and make it younger, in which case it will remain a primarily music thing. The ones that can follow the rat through the snake, I think will find lots of different ways of evolving, but one of them is likely to be a much higher degree of verbal content.

The Philadelphia Inquirer had a story this week alleging that WMMR was considering going all talk, even after the disastrous numbers their rock/talk morning show is pulling. Think we'll see any AOR to Talk flips anytime soon?

Frank: I don't know about all talk yet. But I'm looking way down the road, and it wouldn't surprise me to see some of them evolve in that direction because that's where the audiences interests are going to go. We may be pushing the downside of the nostalgic curve now because we've narrowed our music lists so much. Yeah, it may be true that people tend to forever like the music they liked when they were 16 to 24, but if you refine it to the core 500, and then play them over and over, eventually, they're going to burn out. That's one of the problems facing the heritage stations right now, core meltdown. And that's why there's a bunch of bored people out there. But they don't really want to hear a lot of new music, either.

What do you think about this Triple A thing, like what Dennis Constantine's doing?

Frank: I used to think that it would take too long to develop at today's prices, that the stations that became successful in that arena started with a no debt load and fought through a long period of time. It took Denver 10 years to do that. I know there was a signal problem, but the thing is, it took them 10 years. You can't develop a music format in today's economic environment that's even going to take 5. Prices are too high. The rate of return on investment is terrible if it takes that long. However, I think that the boredom factor is greater now than it's ever been. You're more than likely to find, particularly in big markets, where you can either make money with a 3 share, or combine that with shares you get doing something else, and end up with a big station. That's the real meaning of duopoly. 'BCO is married already to a station in Denver, although, that was about the worst fit I could imagine. I feel stupid because I don't understand that one.

Maybe it's the thin air out there. I don't get Jacor going after KBPI with that ultra low end thing at KAZY, especially with only one Country station in the market.

Frank: Let me tell you why they didn't do that. Jeff Pilot had already doubled up. If Jacor had gone Country with that, don't you think Jeff would have gone Country the next day?

Probably.

Frank: Remember they bought the ABC station? They kept it Hot AC, or something terrible, a 2 share. It was just sitting there. The thinking was that the minute Jacor went Country with KAZY, Jefferson Pilot would introduce a second Country station, and Jacor would be the third Country station.

KAZY's now narrowcasting defined. No jocks, ultra hard rocking music...

Frank: It was an attempt to force KBPI out of there. Frankly, they will, if KBPI doesn't double up. Put it this way, KAZY may not make money itself, although, it doesn't have to because it's run so cheaply. But KBPI's got a full staff, it makes a little money before this attack. Now, let's take 2 points away from it. Let's not even cut it in half. Now, it's not profitable. Now, you're going to be losing money in Denver. How long does Great American want to stand there and do that?

You have a long history with rock radio. I can't think of how many owners, at this point in time could say that they were at Woodstock, or that they had a progressive show called 'Jelly Pudding.' But are there other formats you'd be just as happy executing?

Frank: Oh, absolutely. I love news/talk. I think that's a fabulous format. I was fortunate enough at Jacor to be associated with one of the most interesting stations in the country, WLW. I don't know if you've ever heard WLW, but it is bizzaro. For what you think of as a traditional news/talk station, it is not. 'LW's 25 to 54 share exceeds its 12+ share. How many AM stations do you know where that happens? It's a young AM, much like the Loop AM. That's a terrific radio station.

What might you hear on WLW?

Frank: You hear bozos. You hear lunatics flailing away. They've got a guy on at night named Bill Cunningham, who will say anything. He's just outrageous. Their sports people are good. They've got a guy named Gary Burbank in the afternoon, who is into a strange brand of humor. It's a comedy show. Finding talent like that is impossible. We encourage them all to buy restaurants, so they'll stay in Cincinnati. How do you keep people in a market this size? We encourage them to buy other businesses.

That's funny. Get them in a house, at least.

Frank: You can't always compete with Los Angeles salaries.

As the baby boomers got older, they became much more interested in verbal content. We can hear the verbal content in Country songs, you can't in rock and roll songs. You can't hear the words in 'Jumping Jack Flash,' you only know the hook. What's that song about? Who knows?

As far as Country, what are your feelings on that?

Frank: I love Country. I personally like listening to the music. As a businessman, I think that the demographics of it are terrific. You can make a lot of money doing Country stations. I understand why it works. Some formats, I don't really understand why they work, like Soft AC. I can't listen long enough. I listen to it for about 20 minutes, and I start itching. I don't like the economics of them, as well, because in each market, there grew to be way too many of them. The reason was that it looked safe to owners. But Country is exciting.

Has it gotten so big, and stayed so big so long that an element of fad-ism has passed at this point?

Frank: Let's talk about that for a second. Listen to Country music, and it sounds like rock and roll from the mid '70s.

It depends on how the station is formatted, though. A lot of Country stations specialize in that weird bubblegum shit — hillbilly pop. And I love Country music, don't get me wrong.

Frank: Why are people who grew up with rock and roll now listening to Country music? One is, as they got older, their ears began to change. They've become much less interested in the excesses of Axl Rose. That no longer reflects what's on their minds. While Country music traditionally was very doleful — it was divorce, and third-rate romance — that has changed somewhat, but also, those themes now apply to middle aged Americans. The other thing is that Country is mixed so that you can hear the lyrics. That began to appeal to an awful lot of people. As the baby boomers got older, they became much more interested in verbal content. We can hear the verbal content in Country songs, you can't in rock and roll songs. You can't hear the words in 'Jumping Jack Flash,' you only know the hook. What's that song about? Who knows? How many times have you heard it? It's true. Rock producers are going to wake up and start mixing the lyrics up where you can hear them again and there will be another Rock Renaissance.

How about things like the ability to digitally dial in any kind of music or programming you might be interested in via satellite? Is that starting to concern you?

Frank: I think we're years from actually seeing that. First of all, how do people really listen to the radio? They don't sit there listening between two big speakers. The reason is that every 11 minutes, we blast the shit out of them with a car commercial. It isn't the audio purist dimension. The cable radio might be, where you're not going to get interrupted by commercials, or anything else, like service, weather forecast, time, temperature — all the things that also accompany music on radio. But inevitably, commercials happen. A satellite thing is going to have to have that. So, let's look at digital. What's the consumer benefit? It's going to sound a little bit better, but is it going to sound a little bit better in the way consumers actually listen to the radio, which is in the bathroom, in the car, on the beach? It's not exactly the difference between mono and stereo, either. I'm not so sure that the consumer is going to direct this thing. The equipment manufacturers are crazy for it. How many radios are there? A billion, maybe, in this country. Hell, yes, if I was making radios, I'd want to figure out a way to make all billion of them obsolete. But what's the consumer going to do?

Speaking of obsolescence, if you had a nice big, fat signal on AM, would you hang on to that given your belief that talk radio is get a lot more popular?

Frank: I think it will happen on FM, too.

Do you think AMs are worth holding onto?

Frank: Good-signal ones. The problem with most AMs is that the band got so shitty that you can't hear most of them at night. In fact, Randy Michaels once postulated — and I'm convinced it's true now — that the cume of any radio station is defined by its nighttime footprint. Most AMs have lousy footprints at night. The ones with big, barnburner signals at night, they're all still huge. Most of them are, anyway. There are some that have been turned off. CBS, I think, is sort of wasting a clear in Philadelphia. But many of the biggest billing radio stations are still AM. Some people also think that on-band, digital delivery is going to be on the AM band, and you won't be able to hear the difference. That's true, except the signal patterns won't be helped.

Do you envision this much like the AT&T breakup at a certain point, duopoly and all that goes with it, the FCC will reverse itself, and divestiture will come down?

Frank: No.

This is it, for keeps.

Frank: You're starting an economic trend, and it's difficult to reverse those things. It's not going to lead to terrible excesses. It's going to lead to some short term displacement. But, again, there are way too many radio stations. Many cities are now net loss markets. The sum of the expense of running all the radio stations exceeds the total income from all the radio stations. It doesn't mean that everybody loses money, but it means the industry as a whole is not healthy. Hawaii was the first net loss market for years, but I think a lot of them are now. There are just too damn many radio stations. Duopoly and LMAs, address that fact, and it lets 2, 3 shares combine to a 6 share, and then you have something big enough to actually sell. If you can run it efficiently. It also will promote diversity. The classical guy with a 2.5 share combining with a 3.5 share jazz station, that's a great idea.

Sure, you save overhead, and yeah, in Indianapolis Beau Phillips hits the road and Chris Wheat can take both radio stations

Frank: That gives me great pain, by the way. Beau's a terrific guy. When he was still at KISW, I talked to him about working together sometime. The tragedy is that this isn't the perfect time. I was unhappy when he moved to Indianapolis to become General Manager because I always thought in the back of my mind that this might happen. But in another market, I'd hire him in a second. We are looking.

Your sister, Robin, is still doing that morning show on WEBN. Talk about a tough lifestyle. Could you do mornings?

Frank: I would love to do mornings. I can't imagine a job I'd rather do in life than be a very successful morning person on a big radio station. I think it would be great. I really do. That's when the most listeners are there. There's big money. At 10 o'clock, or noon, whenever you finish your production stuff, you're off. You play a lot of golf. About all you do is you miss a lot of bad, late night TV.

Do you miss that adulation?

Frank: I never got adulated. (Laughs) I was never that good.

Come on, Frank, you did it enough to know that rush I'm talking about.

Frank: Absolutely. That was so many years ago, that I don't really recall it. I miss having a radio station around me day to day, and the lunacy and the creative tension that exists in a hot, fun, well run radio station. I would love to have my office in one. I wouldn't do it, even if we had one here in Cincinnati. I don't think I'd do that to the radio station because no matter what, I'm the corporate geek.

You're right, no matter what you say or how many wheels the vehicle you ride to work has.

Frank: As long as there is a manager, I couldn't do that to the management of that radio station. If I was going to run it myself, yeah. But that's the part I miss the most. However, I've found lots of ways of staying amused. I really do love this business.

Have you ever worked for a losing radio station, a money or ratings loser?

Frank: 'EBN, in the early days, yes.

But you were having too much fun to notice. How about in your fully formed, adult life?

Frank: When I was with Jacor, we had some stations that we couldn't get turned. The Denver FM was a great example. It was counter balanced by the wonderful success we had with the conversion of KOA from an old line station to a modern, younger skewing, big kahuna AM radio station. But we screwed up KLAQ, which is now successful as KRFX. We tried two or three different variations. In Tampa, we tried something first with WFLZ, before it was the Power Pig. We first tried an oldies format with it. It didn't work. A good sounding oldies station, too, but no audience. If you're in this business, you're going to have your failures.

Tell us about your parent company, Lane Industries. What's the source of their equity?

Frank: It's a privately owned holding company. They have a majority interest in a public company called General Binding. They make all of the office binding products. They also own a hotel chain, a 300,000 acre ranch in New Mexico. They also owned a string of banks, which they sold at the perfect time, about four and a half years ago for about $200 gazillion. These are very well-to-do people. They were looking for two new core industries, and radio was one of them, when I ran into them. And we ended up getting together.

Sounds like a little divine providence at play, eh?

Frank: Yes. I was looking to do something on a small scale, and it turns out that didn't fit their thing. We got to liking each other, and they put up an equity pool. I put up some, too. That's one reason they were comfortable with me. Here they had an operator who would also put money into a deal. That gave them great comfort.

Do you have any acquisitions that are imminent?

Frank: No, I can't say imminent. But we look at every deal out there. We're looking for just the thing for our third and fourth markets. And we want to fully exploit every market. We do want to be big wherever we are.

Interview

By Jim Crowe

Widespread Panic's Wondering Daze

Jim Crowe talks to Widespread Panic's vocalist/guitarist John Bell

When do you guys find time to record new material with your constant touring?

John: We used to do 250 shows a year and now we're doing 175 to 200 so we had more recording time.

There's a new breed of rockers that are making a name with tons of touring. But you guys already have a name. Why do you stay on the road so much?

John: So you don't have to get another job. It's a big country and every time you turn around you feel this need to go back to another part of the country and start playing and meet up with old friends. For us, that's part of it, just playing a whole lot. Getting out to people playing live.

So reaching fans is one of the biggest missions with your band?

John: Yeah, and it comes naturally. It's not a decision we made. We didn't sit around and say "We have to do this!" Everybody in the band likes being on the road, playing all the cities, and looking at things. It's a big adventure!

Do you like being compared to the Allman Brothers and how do you handle comparisons like that?

John: Well, comparisons are a cheap way of describing something. You can always go a little deeper and I think when you get deep with us you'll see the guys I play with are all great. We're five guys that have been friends for seven years plus. Mike and I have been together for ten years. You can't help comparisons. People use analogies every day.

Does it get a little frustrating knowing you're doing your own thing, created your own sound, and people still want to compare you to someone else?

John: To a point. You do what you can do. I don't need to preach or anything 'cause I just like playing with these guys and that's it. It's real simple when you get down to it. You play a chord and try to hit new heights. Your music and your relationships are part of the way you picture the world and the way you can help out. It's all about having fun!

Let's talk about your beginnings. David Schools worked the door every Monday night at the Uptown Lounge in Athens.

John: He sure did. We played every Monday together and he worked the other nights.

Was it the both of you who had the vision to start Widespread?

John: Well, actually our guitar player Mike and myself. I was playing for a couple years, doing the troubadour bit. Playing my own songs whenever one came out of me that sounded good. After a couple of years, I met Mike and we started playing together for about a year and a half before a friend introduced Dave to us. It started there.

Was there a certain point in the band when you all realized that there was a magic?

John: No, there is never anything that's for sure. There is always a feeling of hope. You feel it to a certain degree but then there are those times when you're overconfident. It depends on what you're basing the confidence on, I guess. Personally, I'm happy when new songs are coming out that blow my mind and I can really feel it in my heart. That's what I'm in it for. Success beyond that is a by-product.

How has the Athens music scene changed over the years?

John: The B-52s came out around '77, '78 and started the musical revolution in Athens. I was in high school in Cleveland, Ohio, at that point. All of a sudden guys in bands like Devo and others were bringing back some hard ass punk that was kind of noteless at times. Although a lot of it was good, a lot of those bands evolved into a more musical entity. The B-52s seemed to smooth things out. They made music fun without having to do disco. I'll take punk over disco. So, here's this breath of fresh air where you didn't have to have much respect for time and harmony but made the whole thing work. It wasn't just R.E.M., there was Love Tractor, who still play in some configuration, and Dreams So Real. I used to go out and listen to music all the time and saw the actual evolution of it. I stopped being directly involved as soon as the band started playing because we were focusing on our own thing.

Do you miss that?

John: Yeah, I miss it. Then again I was dreaming about days like this where we'd be feeling comfortable and still see hopeful years down the road. It's a good trade.

Dreams So Real was a great band. Two albums, very underrated.

John: Yeah. We play a couple of gigs with them every now and then.

So they're still gigging around, doing local things.

John: Yeah, a lot of bands still keep working. Bands shoot up real fast usually due to the label. The hype might be a little more than the band's capable of covering as far as touring or mismanagement. Things can happen fast when you're not prepared to take advantage of everything that's happened.

When it happens fast I'm sure it's real hard to step back and analyze things that quickly. What are some of the local unsigned bands around the area that you think are ready for the big deal?

John: I'm not exposed to the scene as much as I should or my list would be bigger because there's so much there. I've read about bands in the big trade magazines but the two that really blow me out are Bloodkin and White Buffalo. They write great songs with a very honest presentation. They're playing 'cause they have to. You can see that immediately when you walk in that door. I've known those guys for a long time so I've been watching their evolution.

Tell me about the Athens movie "Inside Out." It was a compilation of bands, right?

John: I really liked that movie 'cause that's got Flat Duo Jets, Barbecue Killers, R.E.M., and the B-52s. It really shows the time I was talking about earlier, right up to when we started playing. I remember I was playing by myself seeing the flyers going up. I was really happy when that came out. A lot of those bands and that vibe is still alive today.

So if anybody wants to see where you were influenced, try and find this movie.

John: Yeah, it's kind of like watching the Beatles '62. It comes right up to '62 and stops when they come to America for the first time. That's the end of the movie. It came out right before we started taking off ourselves and we were just jamming. It's been a slow process for us.

Do you guys consider yourselves part of the resurgence of the Southern Rock scene?

John: Nah. We understand a lot of people do, but it doesn't really jive with what we know. That's like saying, ah, we're a chip off the ol' block. Our whole lives have been sent trying to be ourselves -- as individuals and as a band. I'd say we're more of a product from the Athens scene but the music has similarities to other bands that jam. Some people just like to write songs. Some people like to jam. We like to do both. We have the elements and the talent throughout the band to make it all happen. It's a great thing to be part of.

You were the first group Phil Walden signed to the new Capricorn label. How did all that come about?

John: Well, he got his stuff together with the Warner label and wanted to start new, this was about ten years after the old Capricorn. We got to meet a lot of guys in his operation and as the record president he quoted us properly about the relationship. Other people were down right sleazy but he was really up front.

That's a nice thing to say about someone.

John: There were no big promises from Phil. We were tired of that. We had been in negotiations with SBK up in New York for a year and a half before that. They came to us with a smile and a contract and a check right after our independent release. They expected a signature, and didn't expect our lawyers. It's the '90s and a whole new world. Everybody's educated.

I heard you just got married. When?

John: October 10th.

How has that influenced you?

John: We've been together for almost three years now. We still feel the same. I felt the new responsibilities as soon as I knew in my heart that I was officially undertaking a permanent relationship. That's it. I wouldn't have done it if it wasn't a step forward for either of us.

The road must put a strain on the relationship?

John: It takes a lot of understanding. You got to keep your eyes open and be intelligent about things. You can always react but for us it's a very unusual situation. I'm about to turn 31 and folks may age have 9 to 5 deadlines and they're starting to work on a family. Our situation's different. We're on the road so those guidelines don't fit.

Amy Ray from the Indigo Girls has her own label Daemon Records. Have you ever thought about doing a project with her?

John: That would be great. I'd love that. I've always been impressed with what they do.

So maybe you would do a project?

John: Well they play beautiful stuff. I remember them at the first Athens music festival. It was in honor of this guy who had been beaten up downtown for no apparent reason. They played and even Michael Stipe sat in on a few songs. It was heavy and I've never seen the town of Athens so quite.

Wow, that sounds pretty intense.

John: Yeah, I was amazed. That's the kind of respect they get during a show. It's amazing how good they sound when they perform. I haven't heard them on this tour but I ask Russell about them. Our lawyer, Russell Carter, is their manager. Russell's a good man. He's widely recognized. He just knows what's up.

I understand you're going out with almost 100,000 units on this new album. How do you explain the phenomenal growth?

John: We play a lot of gigs, and people are curious. We had a couple of good albums. Those are still selling 1,000 units a week each. When we're off the road it's not as strong, but we leave a little wake in our path.

You've changed keyboard players. T Lavitz left to play with the Dixie Dregs. Why did he leave?

John: It started out as a day-to-day thing. We wanted to take keyboards out on the road with us. We knew the Dregs thing was bubbling up. Basically he was just supporting that album for the year. We had no qualms about it. Whatever he needed to do take care of himself. The Dregs was a great thing.

Tell me about your new keyboardist Jo Jo and where did he come from?

John: Jo Jo is from Mississippi. He's from the Blues and Cajun tradition. Not intentionally though. I think it's rubbed off on him. He has a killer left hand. It's crazy!

He adds a fresh element to the band.

John: He's just like us, too. He likes to party and he listens. He's not afraid to voice things. You can feel it!

Will you be doing another H.O.R.D.E. tour this year?

John: We were just talking about that. It's presently in the works again. There was some talk about getting new groups but that sounded like it was changing the face of it.

It was basically Blues Traveler's idea?

John: Well, they knew people at Bill Graham's office so they were able to set things up quickly and easily. We had a big meeting between the band members in New York in Bill Graham's office where we sorted out the way we wanted the thing to go. We always talked about getting four bands together but we all had our own opinions about how it would work right. It's tough putting that many bands together and having it run smoothly.

Name some popular groups that you're listening to.

John: I'd say I listen to Van Morrison the most. I just revel in that stuff. We listen to Little Women out in the west coast

-- good friends of ours. We listen to White Buffalo and Bloodkin. The rest of the time we watch Ren and Stimpy. Are you familiar with them?

Of course! When you're on the bus, I'm sure you watch a lot of weird shit that you never thought you would be into.

John: Yeah, whatever tape's working, we pop it in to beat the boredom.

Let's talk about the current album. The first track "Please" seems quite mainstream for you. It's like you guys sat down and said "Let's make a real radio friendly hit."

John: I promise you we didn't. Individually or collectively. The whole album justifies itself. It really flows but there are some wacky parts, too.

I think you made a real fresh album without compromising any of your values.

John: Yeah. We were lucky to get the opportunity to make an album that feels this good. There's a lot of luck involved, even after you play all your cards right. We've got a lot of players and people who work with us. There's so many elements. We're really lucky to be where we are 'cause we still have a lot of creative input on the artwork and the music. There were no requests or questions asked.

You need freedom to grow. If you can't have that then it's time to quit!

John: Yeah, we can't go into the studio and worry about what somebody else is going to be thinking. We're trying to push new material there. Being in the studio is like a brand new feeling after being on the road for awhile. You get used to it in a couple of weeks and the newness of that environment brings out a real performance. I really like the album. A lot of surprises!

"Hatfield" seems to follow traditional lines. I understand that you got the story from The Farmer's Almanac.

John: It's just a story I thought was pretty intense. You always hear stuff about rainmakers being treated like witches. It's still folklore, but this is a story with some validity to it. Usually, the songs that come from me come from anywhere. They're not always a real situation. This song was me reporting on somebody else's story and putting it in the form of a song. We maintained the same key through the whole song with varying shifts and energy

"Wondering" is going to be the first single and seems to be a simple song about the common man.

John: Who knows. Is that what it says on a bio sheet or something?

No, I listen to the music and try to pull out what I feel. Is that what you were thinking?

John: Mike, who does most of the lyrics, let me have my way with it so I could sing with a little feeling. To me it's a pretty straight forward song with a lot of elements from everyday life. I didn't mean to say that, but there it is.

That's what I got from it, too. A song for the guy who gets up in the morning, gets in his beat up Dodge, and goes to work. "Papa's Home" is one of your most emotional songs. Is there something autobiographical about it?

John: It was on a Christmas album we did. That tune has different lyrics to it about Christmas. We really wanted to record it but we were thinking it wasn't very timely now. I felt it would be unique to put in different words to, so that's what we did. It's reflective of life on the road. The other song was reflective of life on the road but it had elements of Christmas.

On your last album there was a picture of you at a diner. Is the song on the new album "Diner" a true story?

John: Yeah, it could be. The song's a bit more like Tom Beggar, the bum. A waitress lets this guy in early, because he's not going to be able to come in during regular hours without getting hassled. It's about being in the company of someone and the beauty of the company being so straight forward and so enveloping. This guy's a bum but he's feeling like a king. He's in the company of this goddess who's a short-order cook and it's blowing his mind. He's hanging onto every moment and he's not worried about yesterday. I like the way it came out. To me that's just a new interpretation. New images may come through when we play it live though and change the whole damn thing around. We play live so much it always keeps things new.

"Picking Up The Pieces" is a change for the band. Matt Mundy from Bruce Hampton is on mandolin.

John: Mike and I sing together, too. That blend is really hip.

So would you say this is your favorite song?

John: I'm not to a point where I could pick a favorite track, but I know the song was smooth. Matt was called in to put that twisted edge he has into it. Until Matt plays with us again live it probably won't sound as good. That's the beauty of the studio. You can do something like that. Favorite. "Dream Song" really tripped me out and came out really well. It's a great thing when a record company lets you put a lullaby on the end of the album. That's trust if you ask me.

That trust really shines through.

John: The good vibe is a reflection of the good relationship we have with Capricorn.

That's great because a lot can get lost without that.

John: Really. It's a great responsibility for the record company to maintain an atmosphere with the band so we can always evolve.

And Capricorn's doing that for you?

John: I think so. They got presses of their own. Shoot, if we had a hit, it would solve a lot of problems. It'd make things a lot easier for everybody. They're quick not to focus on that. You don't get that anywhere.

What's your favorite song from another artist that you wish you would have done?

John: Damn. I kind of think of a handful that are all different. Two that really blow me a way. What's the Zeppelin tune: "I got a woman..."

"Hey Hey What Can I Do"!

John: Yeah! Pick a Zeppelin tune. I'd like to be able to do that. Something that blew me away, the first time I heard it was Joan's "Love And Affection." I know that's in left field but I really dug it. Let me see, "With a friend I get high, with a lover I can hold my head back and really laugh, really laugh" and it goes on from there. Good shit!

Joan Armatrading?

John: She's hot.

Yeah. I could talk about Joan Armatrading all night. She's so wonderful and so underrated. So those are the two that come to mind?

John: Yeah, and Bloodkin. Danny Hutchins, is responsible for the lyrics and melodies. He did "Make Sense To Me" on our last album.

Great tune. I had dinner with Blues Traveler the other night and they wanted to know if you'll do some gigs with them?

John: I called John and he was still napping.

John's been out because of his motorcycle accident down in New Orleans. But the guys wanted to know if you'd do some gigs?

John: We just started considering the H.O.R.D.E. again. So, there's nobody more fun to play with than the Colonel and Blues Traveler. They're just true-to-life folks.

Chan Kinchla told me that Colonel Bruce is one of the most amazing players he's ever seen.

John: Well, it's amazing he can evoke the kinds of responses he does with his activities on stage. I've heard him play nonsensically, and I've heard him play like a virtuoso. He's a phenomena and the oldest guy out of all of us. He's kind of our mentor in a twisted way.

He's a mentor in a twisted way! I like that.

John: He's very spontaneous and crazy.

Anything you want to say to wrap this up?

John: I love everybody and everything.

Heavy Hitters

Asphalt Ballet, "Angry Youth", Virgin...

With their self-titled debut album, Asphalt Ballet came raging onto the scene, swathed in great press, an excellent live show and a sound that merged southern blues with mosh worthy grind. When they released the "Soul Survive" single, the pieces to their newly forming puzzle began to quickly slot into place. Radio caught on, MTV was extremely generous to the moody and beautifully shot video for "Soul Survive", (it had huge success with the Headbanger's Ball), and the band began to garner a slew of followers with a live show full of fire and energy. Lead singer Gary Jeffries' deep smoky voice, touched with a southern twang, had instant appeal and a soulful ring not often heard in the metal realms. And it played an important role in launching this talented L.A. based band. Chapter two of Asphalt Ballet's young career, however, finds them fronted by a new young rebel from Milwaukee by the name of Tommy Dean (Jeffries departed mid-tour in 1992). The rest of the band line-up remains solid (Danny Clarke-guitar, Julius "J" Ulrich-guitar, Terry Phillips-bass and Mikki Kiner-drums), and with the harder more aggressive vocal style of Dean, have gelled into the more metallic style they always seemed best suited to. The band has always leaned towards a much heavier, grind intensive approach from the start, so this transition was not at all a surprising one. The first track off the forthcoming "Pigs" LP (the artwork is rather numbing), is the anthemic angst driven "Angry Youth". A full-throttle rocker, stripped clean of the southern embellishments, it shoots straight along a twin guitar crush. Dean's Axl Rose-ish intonations are the perfect snarling complement to the very rough and tumble nature of the music. He growls, he snarls and within listens to the full album, it becomes even more obvious that he more than pulls his own weight within the band. Not content to ride the trends, or rehash the past, Asphalt are cruising boldly into their future, with a sound and a record, destined to make them a ton of friends at radio. The response already, has been absolutely great, with some mighty influential COR types (WBLZ—The Blaze, KIOZ and KNAC among them) jumping onto the track early. Metal's anticipation is high as well, so you can be sure we'll be seeing some serious action on this rowdy bunch once again (keep in mind they slammed all the way to #2 last time 'round with their debut). Full crushing album in a few.

CRAZED

Single Matters

Therapy?, "Perversonality", A&M... Just as the chart is beginning to hit warp speed and maximum density, we thrust upon you even more wicked genius, to further complicate your lives. See, we (the label and us Hard types) like that all you good people saw fit to launch this band way high on the charts (Top Ten) upon the release of the "Nurse" album. Thing is, with the typical Spring onslaught now in full effect, the record has just begun to dip a bit (it's currently at #15). So what better than to re-ignite your interests, than a very cool new single (the snarling, bizarre and frenzied "Perversonality") PLUS! three neat b-sides to jam to. Among them, "Totally Random Man" (which was broadcast on the BBC in November of last year), a new, more catchy and chaotic version of "Neck Freak" (the original version appears on "Nurse") and "Bloody Blue" (a 1:14 manic pounder). Obviously, many of you are still really digging the grinding intensity of Therapy? a la "Nausea", "Teethgrinder" and the rest of the album, so perhaps this will convince you to explore the band's talents a bit further. How about that wacky artwork...

Deserving Demos

U n s i g n e d... As most of you know, I write up very few demos a year, though I have dozens of them here at the office (some are really good too). Much as I would love to write something about all of them, I have to be somewhat selective given space and time considerations. I wouldn't have passed on this one, however, for all the world. Many of you may recall the name Ken Mari from his drumming work with Fifth Angel, Alice Cooper and House Of Lords among others. He contacted me recently about his new band - the revolution (thank you Mike Moses). Although a highly respected and admired drummer, Ken has stepped from behind the kit to take up lead vocals (and it's amazing to us that he hasn't done so before this - he's a wonderful singer, too). The result is brilliant. About the only thing wrong with these songs, is I wish there were more. People I play it for are instantly impressed, too. I guess I should really point out first and foremost that this is NOT a metal band. Far from it in fact. Ken and his bandmates (pictured are Mark Stratford-bass, Randi Scott-drums, Mari and Ben Ashley-guitar), create instead an atmospheric, floating (commercial/Top 40/MTV) swirl of music, awash with sweeping Beatlesque harmonies and a deep rich sound. The five song tape Ken sent was written and produced in his home studio, and it's one of the best sounding I've ever received. All you A&R types would certainly be remiss not to get your hands on one. As for the songs, they are all based in a kind of neo-psychedelic layered style, and explore Floydish depths ("I Can't Stop The Rain" and "Fisheye Lens"), but a couple are slightly heavier with more discernable edges. "The Machine" is an amazing, up tempo Jesus Jonesish pop/rock monster of a tune, but still lush with melody and harmonies. My favorite on the tape though, is a haunting ballad called "Red" (it has the deep edgy ambience of songs like "Father Figure"). It absolutely kills me. "Silent Haze" rocks a bit more with deliberate riffs and chunky bass lines - multi-layered vocal workouts as well. Keep in mind, please, that I don't even really want to compare them with other bands, because though obviously some influences are noticeable, I don't wish to detract from their sound in any way. This is, bottom line, a tape you must hear to appreciate, so I urge you to run, not walk, to the nearest phone, fax machine or post office to secure a copy of your own. A band like this will no doubt be snapped up pretty quickly, so contact George Gilbert at 212-213-1234 for more info. Don't miss out on this band, they are excellent.

Chart Xshun

If you didn't think the top of the chart could get any more competitive and/or crowded, look again. It is unbelievably thick with huge releases up there in the Top Ten this week, and the congestion is sure to only get worse, as the swarm of releases that hit for adds this past week, quickly begin to clock in. Hollywood's Sacred Reich continue to slam ahead with major points still tallying up, creating quite a moat between themselves and the nearest competition. Still #1 airplay and #1 Most Requested. Speaking of competition however, the Reich is faced with a lot of it. In fact, the whole Top Ten was put into motion this week, with I.R.S.' Nuclear Assault whomping up from 6-3*, positioning themselves neatly behind the rapidly weakening Biohazard. With 20 massive increases and a half dozen moves into rotation, it was no shock they did so well, and they also managed to nail #3 Most Requested... Which brings us to our #2 Most Requested band - Atlantic's Overkill, who also came charging into the Top Five, with an 11 rung leap, 16-5* (11 increases/12 moves into rotation). Check out those three big gangbusters friends - looks like the '80s all over again, eh? Hmmm... Also jumping into the mix were Epic's Infectious Grooves (5-4*) and Rage Against The Machine (8-6*), plus Columbia's Circus Of Power (11-7*).... The rest of the Top Ten are on their way out, but already queuing up to take their spots are Megaforce's Nudeswirl (12-12*), Metal Blade's Desultory (14-13*), and coming on fast and strong, is Futurist/Noise's Kreator, up 10 from 26-16* with 4 new adds, 11 moves into rotation and 12 increases (they're also #5 Most Requested).... Also racing upwards are Capitol's incorrigible Butthole Surfers.

With the album still kickin' in (it picked up 8 more adds this week), the band is already soaring. Aside from new adds, they also gained 5 increases and 13 moves into rotation - sending them up five on the chart from 24-19* (#11 Most Requested). You really must check out "The Annoying Song"... And as predicted Polydor/PLG's new baby, Quicksand came rushing in with our biggest move of the week (thanks to the full album beginning to "sink" in) up 14 from 35-21*. "Slip" picked up 8 more adds, dropped into rotation at 14 more stations and welcomed 6 mondo increases on the likes of WMMR, WHJY, KISS, WHMH, WKLL and WPCR. And it's really just beginning for them.... Roadrunner's Gruntruck and Mercury's Animal Bag were both able to turn it back around this past week too, with moves from 23-22* and 28-24* respectively.... Our big debut of the week belongs to none other than Mercury's Mighty Mighty Bosstones - a band for all occasions and formats; a jovial bunch of ska-core riffsters who cause smiles to creep across the faces of even the most staid and starched of folks. This week they land solidly at 30* with 5 new adds rolling in, on top of 11 moves into rotation and 4 increases - over 40 stations are now jammin' to 'em. What are you waiting for? Requests are rising too.... Still whittling through the chart timber are Zoo's Green Jello (ya can't deny that folks are infatuated with their bizarre antics, no matter how much you might want to) and Relativity's Contagious. The Jello people wiggled their way up a couple more from 34-32*, while those Contagious types spread themselves over six more from 39-33*.... The death contingent keeps pace as well, with Century Media's Samael (38-36*), Tiamat (43-39*) and Sodom (42-40*) all working their way higher into the ranks. Also making small, but significant moves were Mercury's Copperhead (47-45*) and World Domination's Low Pop Suicide (49-47*). Our condolences to the band and all involved on the sad death of founding member/ex-drummer Jeff Ward on March 19th.... Back to biz... Tying the chart up into a very neat and tidy package was Zoo Entertainment's Tool, with their highly anticipated full album "Undertow". The band was #1 Most Added and debuted at 50*, but you can expect them to make strong strides up the chart in the coming weeks.... On the chart horizon, are TONS of new records, including Iron Maiden Live, Pantera (remixes), L.S.D., Soulstorm, Cannibal Corpse EP, Arcade, the Monster Magnet full, Asphalt Ballet, Aerosmith, Primus and on and on and on....

pressing) as well as other tracks recorded at CBGB's during their very last performance. With over twenty tracks, this CD documents the band's career from beginning to end. Keep your eyes peeled... Suicidal Tendencies (Epic) are one busy group of guys. Not only are they on one of the hottest tours around but they are gearing up for the release of a re-recorded version of their first album. This re-recording will be released under the new moniker "Still Cyco After All These Years". This long anticipated release features the re-recorded versions of all the tunes on the first album as well as two tracks ("War Inside My Head" and "A Little Each Day") from their second record "Join The Army". Expect this "Cyco" arrival at the end of May... With the release of the new Death (Relativity) record "Individual Thought Patterns" also comes a new line-up. Names to be found on the album are Gene Hoglan (of Dark Angel fame), Andy LaRocque (from the King Diamond band), Steve DiGiorgio (Sadus) and Chuck Schuldiner... After the demise of Jane's Addiction, guitarist Dave Navarro and bassist Eric Avery took advantage of the situation and put together their own band, Destruction. Drummer Michael Murphy then joined them. Now the band plan on entering the studio this spring to begin work on their debut release. Through a special deal between those at Warner Brothers and Def American, Destruction have had their name added to the Def artist roster. The band's finished product (being co-produced by Ron Champagne and executive produced by Rick Rubin) is hoped to make waves this fall... So, Bad Brains have joined the happy Epic metal family. They are currently recording their Epic debut release in New York City. Stay tuned for more info... Rattlebone (Hollywood) have headed back into the studio to record their full release with the hope of handing over the new material in the fall. Dave Jerden is handling the production chores. ♦♦♦♦♦ Firehouse (Epic) have added a few dates to their current headlining tour. They will be making their way down thru' California (from their show in Fresno on March 31st to a gig in Ventura on April 8th) and then moving on into Las Vegas, Nevada on April 9th and Phoenix, Arizona on April 10th... The Jesus Lizard (Touch and Go) along with Helmet (Interscope) and Therapy? (A&M) are taking the stage on a club tour now until May 10th with a show in Phoenix, AZ... Rage Against The Machine (Epic) are also already on the road. The Machine, who are sharing the stage with House Of Pain (Tommy Boy), are gonna be heading West (after bombarding the East coast) with the last scheduled date (so far) being the April 16th show in Tijuana, Mexico... Somewhere in the midst of it all, Sacred Reich (Hollywood), the Boo Yaa Tribe (Hollywood) and The Fluid (Hollywood) will be joining 32 other bands on a stage in Lake Havasu, Arizona as part of their West coast version of Spring Break. The event will feature 35 bands in 30 days. Wow! The Boo Yaa Tribe have been entered in a celebrity tug-of-war contest. We'll keep ya posted as to the outcome of that... Mordred (Futurist/Noise) will be doing a few Northern California/Bay area dates to coincide with the release of their 6 song mini LP. If you're in the area catch 'em in Sacramento on April 2nd, in San Francisco on April 3rd (this show also happens to be the record release party), in San Jose on April 6th and in Reno, NV on April 16th (with KZAK hosting the show)... Living Colour (Epic) are gonna be leaving their mark on stages to and fro when they kick off a tour with Bad Brains (Epic) April 15th in Hartford, CT. Twenty-two dates have been booked (through the May 16th gig in Atlanta, GA) on this double bill. Be there... The Screaming Trees (Epic) are gearing up for their trek through America. They will be hitting the highways beginning March 30th with a show in Missoula, MI. With dates booked all the way through April and on to May 22nd (with a scheduled performance in Vancouver, BC) you better not miss 'em... The mother of all metal shows kicks off in April. Wanna know what it is? The Bolt Thrower (Earache/Relativity), Benediction (Roadrunner) and Disincarnate (Roadrunner) tour, that's what.

Metal Filings

So, ya know the Rage Against The Machine (Epic) single, "Bullet In The Head", that should have found a home in your CD player? Take note that the single has the unreleased b-side "Darkness". Vinyl collectors will be glad to hear that a 7" of the single will be commercially available as well as the promo CD and cassette. Very cool. Back to the good old days when you could get your faves on vinyl, cassette or CD... There is this band, Orangutang, from Boston who have their debut EP "The Rewards Of Cruelty" (being released from the Imago offices) heading your way. This 6 song CD goes for adds March 29th... Don't forget that the Therapy? (A&M) single "Perversonality" (the one that has three b-sides) is also going for adds March 29th... Grab a red marker and put a big X on April 5th. Why, you ask. Because that is the add date for the first single, "Segue", from Mind Bomb (Mercury). The full length self-titled album will be out later on in the month... Another single to slide into your CD player April 5th is the first track from the new Primus (Interscope) LP "Pork Soda". The CD single "My Name Is Mud", set to be shipped at any minute, will be accompanied by a 3 song advance vinyl. Cool... With the full Arcade (Epic) LP at metal radio already, fans will be glad to know that the debut album will be in stores April 6th. For your information, the full LP you have been serviced is not the same as the album being made available commercially, in your hands you hold a collector's item of sorts... In the event you haven't heard, Mind Funk (Megaforce) have their new album "Dropped" set for release May 4th. The first single is the amazing song "Goddess". Hey Missi, I love this record!... The 6 song mini LP, "Vision", from Mordred (Futurist/Noise) has been given April 19th and 20th add dates. The emphasis track will be "Close Minded"... The self titled Solstice (Century Media) album goes for adds May 3rd and 4th... The Danzig (Def American) EP, set for arrival May 11th, is now called "Thrall - Demonsweatlive". Got that? The "Thrall" side of the EP contains three new studio tracks "It's Coming Down", "The Violet Fire" and a cover of the Elvis Presley song "Trouble". You will find live versions of "Snakes Of Christ", "Am I Demon", "Sistinas" and "Mother" on the "Demonsweatlive" side... Set to make waves in the early part of May is the "Prone Mortal Form" album from Only Living Witness (Century Media). The add dates for the record are May 10th and 11th... The Sick Of It All (Relativity) EP "Violent Generation" will be out in May. Included on this will be the remix of "Just Look Around" done by Everlast, DJ Lethal and Danny Boy... The upcoming (and final) Agnostic Front (Relativity) LP "Baptism: Last Rites" will feature the "United Blood" EP (only 500 copies were made in the original

This mosh fest goes full throttle until May 30th where the triple bill takes on the nation's capital... Watch for a month long Vader (Earache/Relativity), Decide (Roadrunner), and Disember (Nuclear Blast) tour to kick off May 5th... After Glenn and the crew in Danzig (Def American) complete their gigs in European festivals the band will head back across the Atlantic for a monster U.S. tour this summer. ♦♦♦♦♦ Has everyone rushed out to the local video store and purchased the Mordred (Futurist/Noise) home video "Mordred - In This Live Video". For the one time fee of $19.98 you can have 55 minutes of pure Mordred with this live video (lensed at London's Marquee Club) containing fourteen tracks such as "State Of Mind", "Killing Time", "Esse Quam Videri", "Every Day's A Holiday" and "In This Life". The video has been out since March 8th and I'm ashamed of everyone who doesn't have a copy!... If you plan on making a trip to the video store why not check out the Kreator (Futurist/Noise) home video "Hallucinative Comas" while you are there. This hour long video is a collage of movie footage, band interviews and live performances. A few of the songs performed are "Coma Of Souls", "Twisted Urges" and "When The Sun Burns Red". If you want it grab an extra twenty to cover the $19.98 video cost... Another home video for your collection is the "Grim Tales" vid containing ten clips from Noise International's band roster. In viewing this you'll find clips such as "Give It All You Got" from Rights Of The Accused, "Falling Away" from Mordred and the Rage tune "Waiting For The Moon" along with cuts from Kreator, Killing Joke, Gamma Ray and Coroner... I just gotta tell you about one more video that will be a definite must have for your home collection. A live Ozzy Osbourne (Epic) "No More Tours" video (to be released with special packaging) will be in stores around the middle of May... Vader (Earache/Relativity), the first metal band from Poland, have completed a video for "Dark Age"... Sacred Reich (Hollywood) are gonna be working with Neil Pollock (known for his work with the Pixies and Belly, this is his first dive into the world of metal) on their mini movie for "The Crawling". ♦♦♦♦♦

Here's a story from the road for ya. When those Dirty Rotten Imbeciles (Rotten Records) headed over to Spain, to do what they do best, they ended up doing it in the wrong place. After performing, D.R.I. decided to do a little wine tasting and baking with the local band who had opened for them. Well, the bar stayed open after the show in honor of the band and as the story goes three of the Imbeciles found themselves in the local jail. Bummer. Is this the end of the story? We'll keep ya posted... Another interesting story comes our way from the Valentine Saloon (Pipeline Records) camp. During a February 27th gig in their home town of Nashville, lead singer William Jewell told the crowd it was his birthday and "invited" everyone over to the band's house for a party. Many of the shows attendees took him seriously and 150 people showed up ready to put the animal into the party. After a few hours of beer drinkin' the party goes began to get out of control and irate neighbors called to local law enforcement officials and they were sent out on party patrol. Upon the arrival of a half a dozen police cars, two paddy wagons and numerous officers in full riot gear the crimestoppers went to work breaking up the party. One cop was heard to say "Whoever the fuck lives here is going to jail tonight!". Thankfully no one was arrested but the boys in the band were served with an eviction notice the very next day. Hey, next time you guys have a party let me know. ♦♦♦♦♦ After all this fun metal news I hate to be the bearer of some unhappy news. Jeff Ward, drummer for Low Pop Suicide, took his own life on March 19th, 1993. A statement offered by his band and record label World Domination Records stated that "Jeff was a truly kind person, and a talented musician". Dave Allen (World president and Low Pop bass player) also said "It is extremely sad to lose him to such a tragic death. We will deeply miss him". Our sympathy goes out to those who knew and loved Jeff. ♦♦♦♦♦ Last but not least, I'd like to thank Dyana Kass for helping me get a double dose of Phil (Anselmo and Rind, that is). It was a great show! Oh, hey Steve Prue - Thank! ♦♦♦♦♦ Peace.

Considering for the past month or so we've been running a Sacred Reich snapshot in every issue, I decided why stop now. This Sacred moment was taken when the band journeyed down the Dallas way to the Z-ROCK studios. Pictured L to R are: Dave McClain (Sacred), Jason Rainey (Sacred), Tiptonizer (Z-ROCK's host of "Wounded Radio") and Wiley Arnett (Sacred).

With a gleam in his eye, Damn Yankees' Ted Nugent put on display, the newest of his trophies -- another Damn Yankee Tommy Shaw along with KNAC's Long Paul and Don Weiner. Do ya think he's gonna have 'em stuffed and mounted, too?

Caught here doing the promo hang thang at the KISS studios in San Antonio are Animal Bag types Luke Edwards and Boo. They are snagging promotional material from KISS' Jave Patter-son. Great score guys!

TOP 50

Porno For Pyros, "Cursed Female" / "Cursed Male," Warner Bros.

The mastermind of Jane's Addiction has revamped his musical vision (hallucination?), and has reappeared with Porno For Pyros. Perry Farrell has lost none of his scathing humor or his artistic sense, and has been up to his usual shenanigans. This double (or single — depending on how you look at it) tracked single is the long-awaited peek at the full self-titled Porno album. What does it sound like? That would be revealing insider information — but in all fairness, Perry himself sounds like, well, Perry. Who did you expect him to sound like? Patsy Cline? Luther Vandross? His cohorts are fellow Jane's and Infectious Grooves drummer Stephen Perkins, Peter DiStefano and former Thelonious Monster bassist Martyn Le Noble. "Cursed Female" and "Cursed Male" are also available in a single track edit, making this a hermaphroditic experience. These two songs embody the differences that are the two sexes. "Cursed Female" starts off with a hypnotic drum/bass cadence and sinewy guitar feedback, the whole thing slithering back and forth like a belly dancer, with harmonicas ringing on top. "Cursed Male" begins with more plucky guitar, and then swings into a rambunctious and almost funky gear, the wah-wah pedal and rough and tumble percussion here and there. A devil of a good time.

" WHY ARE

SONG FROM A REAL
BAND.

AUTOMATICS

Depeche Mode, "Songs Of Faith And Devotion," Sire/Reprise

This past week marked the release of the brand-spankin' new Depeche Mode, and gosh are we excited! Depeche are one of the hugest bands to ever roll across the alternative tarmac, and it doesn't take a clod to figure that this will be another commercial high point for them. Songs Of Faith And Devotion is a far cry from their early bip-bip days — a deeper, more insidious wail that tugs at your darkest soul strings. They've successfully tapped into the enhanced feelings of the adolescent, writing songs of love, control and human frailty. This CD starts off with the squeal of "I Feel You," and then easily grooves into "Walking In My Shoes," in the running as future single (but then, what on this album won't be?). "Judas," "In Your Room" and the larger than life "Rush" are stained darkly and magnified to gothic and gospel proportions. Producer Flood helped the band realize the feedback and pseudo-industrial atmosphere, but it would be a mistake to credit him too much — Depeche have been heading in this direction, as could be heard on Violator, and they deserve all the success they get.

The Fluid, "Mister Blameshifter," Hollywood

Seattle? Where's that? Oh, the center of the universe, if you ask any A&R lemming/penguin/ersatz genius. The Fluid are the tail of the dog (as far as major label signings go) in the Suicide City grunge frenzy. It's been downright insane during the past year. Especially when people are killing each other for Eddie Vedder's home phone number and he's not even from Seattle. And has anybody signed Chris Cornell's brother's band? But that's neither here nor there. The Fluid as many of you know sound like MC5 on Drano and "Mister Blameshifter" will not have you going into denial, it will have you moshing in the comfort of your own home/studio. Our initial forecast is that college radio will eat this up like a free meal and then some adventurous commercial stations will follow suit. Sure we've seen this movie before, but it's always gratifying to know the system (man) still works. A must listen for anyone serious about this thing we call music. Keep an eye out for the full album out next month, Purplemetalflakemusik.

Primus, "My Name Is Mud," Interscope

Here's a band that's knows how to hedge its bets. First: key San Francisco locale with big regional fanbase. Second: key deal with Interscope, a feisty label with a lot of street credibility. Third: an original rhythm-heavy sound that inspires hours of moshing. Fourth: a key Lollapalooza gig will expose them to kajillions of kids this summer. How can you possibly follow that up? How about with a new single that'll bounce into your brain faster than a codeine tablet? "My Name Is Mud" is the first sip of Pork Soda, their third, and possibly most frenetic, album. Bassist Les Claypool is the band's braintrust, and once again, with bandmates Herb (drums) and Larry (guitar), taps into that mental state that is uniquely Primus'. "My Name Is Mud" slams into gear with a forceful bass line, and the guitar whirs around your head like a forty foot mosquito. Look for a 10" (a burgeoning trend) with "Pork Soda" and "Hamburger Train" as well. The single also includes "Pork Chop's Little Diity," something they've been doing on all their records since the terrific Frizzle Fry.

Chris Isaak, "Can't Do A Thing (To Stop Me)," Reprise

Mr. Silvertone is back with his first new single since, gosh, how long has it been? Yes, quite a while. When Reprise was still regularly servicing vinyl. San Francisco Days is the ultra-mega-anticipated album from Chris Isaak, and we can't wait to see what the video is going to look like. This was one of the top added tracks this week on this (and practically every other) format. Surprise. No surprise either that Isaak was recently seen in "Twin Peaks — Fire Walk With Me" with a tantalizingly brief role, given his first real break with "Wicked Game" by David Lynch, who years ago took liberty with a Roy Orbison song in "Blue Velvet." "Can't Do A Thing (To Stop Me)," a lush and swooning song, is right up Chris' melancholy baby alley, and is sure to be the next of many future hit singles. Now that the world has calmed down enough about Chris Isaak's past work he has been able to concentrate on future endeavors. We eagerly await San Francisco Days, and its gloomy, enveloping emotions.

Daniel Lanois, "Lotta Love To Give," Warner Bros.

You know him, you love him you can't live without him — uberproducer Daniel Lanois. Well, here he is with an album all his own and some of you will say, "Wow, that sounds just like U2!" Well.. duh! He's the man who slapped all those FX on the band as their producer for so many years. Well, you knew that any way as well as his work with Peter Gabriel and a cast of thousands. This first track from his latest album For The Beauty Of Wynona (Ryder?...hmmmm) is killer as we say over pizza at Spago. The album has gone out already, giving you programmers a shot to pick your fave tracks. Sure, it's got that Bono vibe to it (did you see Lanois' open shirt, bohemian dress action at the Grammys?), but hey, we say don't mess with success or an unique fashion sense. Tweak the ears of your audience with this tune and they'll come back begging for more and more. It's bouncy, it's catchy and downright cool. Don't confuse this as being a novelty record by some producer guy, Lanois has proved and proves himself again as a first rate talent. Thank you.

Bryan Ferry, "I Put A Spell On You," Reprise

Those who remember Ferry's early solo work realize that this is not the first time he's done an album of all covers. Both These Foolish Things and Another Time, Another Place, from the early 70s, indulged in songs like "A Hard Rain's A Gonna Fall," "Sympathy For The Devil" and even childhood classics like "You Are My Sunshine." So, Taxi, Ferry's first album in nearly four years, is unofficially his third volume of favorites. The former leader of Roxy Music has kept a low profile in recent years, and his return to the fold is very, very welcome. The first single, "I Put A Spell On You," is the Screamin' Jay Hawkins hit (the only one he ever had), and Ferry's poised rendition inspires dreamy nocturnal jungle outings dressed in smart summer suits and straw hats. The swirling winds of female vocals and strings are absolute Ferry — and we wouldn't have it any other way. As for the rest of Taxi, well, let's just say that "Amazing Grace" is included. This is bound to be a bit item both here and on the A.A.A. side, with Ferry's obvious adult appeal.

Suede, "Metal Mickey," Nude/Columbia

Everyone's been telling us how great this band is for so many months, that even our bad memory has remembered to play the advance often. Sure, we get tired of all the hype and gratuitous accolades that we hear everyday on our big white telephone. Well, we're happy to say that Suede blew us away. Of course, we hate to agree with the fickle British press who have built this band up to be kind of like the second coming of Marc Bolan and John Lennon combined. And you know as soon as they hit it big NME will trash 'em. But we'll stand by them 'til the end. "Metal Mickey" does have a sound reminiscent of T Rex meets Secret Affair (who?) and to be honest, that gave us a warm fuzzy feeling inside. Suede also reminds us that there's more to life than granola radio. This band rocks and your mom will never want to polish her crystal collection to this song. Turn on "Metal Mickey" and see what all the fuss is about. Increased at KROQ, and Live 105 went with an import single, "Animal Nitrate," so you know they're way into this band.

Starclub, "Let Your Hair Down," Island/PLG

As much as we like to have bands all to ourselves, we think these guys should be huge. "Let Your Hair Down" did have us reaching for our six string, army shirt and a pack of Juicy Fruit so we could look like Lennon while playing along. If we know anything, it's that "Hard To Get" was a smash of a song and this is a fine follow up. Now it's up to you, Mr./Ms. Hepcat to help make this band what they should be — stars as in STAR-club. You want guitars? They're here. You want attitude? It's here. You want a really great song? Well, you get the idea. If Crowded House or any other right-brain pop has done well for you then you know that Starclub will be just the round tripper you've been looking for. As we used to say back in the 60s when our good friend Rhymin' Freddy Kline worked at the legendary KHJ — "Hey friends, this is a great tune for Springtime. How ya doin'?"

The Cranberries, "Dreams," Island/PLG

With all this fuss going on right now about Clannad (you know that VW commercial and all) and U2 refusing to go away, Ireland is starting to look like a regular hot spot. The Cranberries, while not sounding like either of those bands, are quite pleasing. Lead singer Delores has got strong voice (kind of like Sinéad but without the dumb politics). They're causing quite a stir over there and have and will be hooking up on tours with the popular bands Hothouse Flowers and Belly (one from each side of the Atlantic). Look for their U.S. debut soon. If you're the type who looks for hits from left field, this is one of 'em. Play this in your music pow wow and you'll actually be glad you're there instead of rearranging your sock drawer. Production by Stephen Street (who picks them right, among his recent jobs are the Darling Buds) is strong here and provides the proper forum for the band's intelligent songwriting. Keep your eyes peeled for the long player, Everybody Else Is Doing It, So Why Can't We?

Radiohead, "Creep," Capitol

Radiohead are an Oxford quintet whose antics have been duly noted in the U.K. press, qualifying them for the Stateside Sweeps. Thom Yorke (vocals), Jonny Greenwood (guitar), Ed O'Brien (guitar), Phil Selway (drums) and Colin Greenwood (bass) have released just a trio of EPs in the U.K., proving that a band doesn't have to hammer away in the trenches for too long anymore. Don't let the quiet intro trip you up, not too far in the feedback and chorus kick in. A tender song about loving oneself, the self-bleeped "Creep" has been one of the choice import singles, along with Suede, and Live 105 and KROQ were early supporters with great phone reaction. KACV, KNDD, KPNT, KTCL, WCHZ, WDST, WHTG and others jumped in as well this week. Pablo Honey is the debut album, and it flexes even more of the band's grainy pop muscle. Paging through the band's press clippings easily proves their homeland profile, but you should still listen to the single to realize its white-knuckled intensity. Look for a summer U.S. tour.

CLEARED & PRIMED

This is no typical "indie/garage" record, but it bears out investigation nonetheless. Other Voices, Other Rooms (Elektra) is the latest album from folksinger Nanci Griffith. Her music has always been rooted in the heritage that others have just been "rediscovering." Named after Truman's Capote's first book, Nanci steps further in the act of retracing of her musical footsteps. She pay homage to all her favorite musicians by playing some of her most treasured songs; sadly only a small portion could be represented on record. Included are the familiar (Jerry Jeff Walker, Janis Ian, Townes Van Zandt and Bob Dylan), the unexpected (Vince Bell of Erasure) and the little known (Frank Christian, Ralph McTell and Kate Wolf). John Prine's "Sound Of The Speed Of Loneliness" was the first single, and a wealth of emphases must include "Tecumseh Valley," "Across The Great Divide" and "Do Re Mi." Nanci Griffith is also joined in the studio by Arlo Guthrie, John Prine and Emmylou Harris, among many others. A joyous version of "Wimoweh" is enhanced by a choir of Indigo Girls, John Hartford, John Prine, John Gorka, and Kennedy-Rose. If you can play Killdozer's irreverent version of "American Pie," but scoff at somebody else who does the same with less sarcasm, then you suffer from the same tunnel vision that's pinned on commercial programmers.... Velocity Girl, a much beloved band with seven inch singles and a recent EP on Sub Pop, have just released their first full album,

Copacetic. They borrowed the jaunty musical skeleton from Beat Happening and Velvet Underground and added some ribbons of melody and shimmer. "Audrey's Eyes" is the first emphasis type thing/single, and an EP with a radio remix is available in limited quantities. While spinning the album on cue, check out "Copacetic," "Pretty Sister" or "Pop Loser."... Mystery Machine's debut (Nettwerk) is one of those records that's a reward for everything else. Sweet, speedy and light-hearted, Mystery Machine wisely steer away from seriousness and pretension. Glazed spins around in a tight little circle like 'Mats or the Goo Goo Dolls. Sure, these guys are from Canada, and this album was mixed by Skinny Puppy's Dave Ogilvie, but don't let that association confuse this with any sort of mood-heavy/percussion-banging type of statement. "Shaky Ground," "Invitation," "Floored" or "Valley Song" all deserve a listen. WBNY already has it in medium, and WFDU added this week.... P.M. Dawn's The Bliss Album...? (Gee Street/Island/PLG) reassures their place in the ambient rap niche without question. While "So On And So On" and "The To Love Me More" are some of the highlights, one remarkable moment is the sample of "Father Figure" (the song that all those folks who would never admit to being a George Michael fan admit liking) in "Looking Through Patient Eyes." They even cover the Beatles' "Norwegian Wood" in their unique spirit and groove senses, and even Joni Mitchell turns up sample-bound on "The Ways Of The Wind."... More cultural insight comes by way of the Luaka Bop/Warner Bros. release Zap Mama. This quintet of African women is as every bit as beautiful as the Bulgarian Women's Choir or Miranda Sex Garden. We urge you to not keep this segregated into any cultural/musical ghettos.

Adventures In Afropea I explores the music that was born in the centuries of mixing between European and African cultures. Marie Daulne, Cecilia Kankonda, Delien 'T Hooft, Sabine Kabongo and Sylvie Nawasadio sing in native African languages and English as well ("Bottom"), they sing traditional chants, anti-apartheid songs, nursery rhymes and their own original compositions. An EP has also been serviced, with a longer version of "Bottom" and other different versions of album cuts. Simply beautiful and inspiring — we highly recommend "Bottom," "Abadou," "Take Me Coco" and "Din Din."... Pravda's pride and joy, New Duncan Imperials don't ever say "Look at me, I'm wonderful."

Their Loserville album, number three if you're counting, is a chillingly accurate wacky slice of life for guys who purportedly like to hand out cold cuts and party favors before a gig. Nutty guys. Listen for a good time that makes a night at the Hell's Angels bar look like a Sunday potluck.... A new release from Sharkbait on your desk isn't exactly new. The Crushits CD (Primitich) collects old material from singles, cassettes and albums from yesteryear. Sharkbait's range of instruments, which looks like the inventory of a True Value hardware store, puts them in the true vein of industrial music — no synthesizers here. All the songs here pre-date Sharkbait's Blowtorch Facelift from last year, a record that built on their underground reputation and got them onto the Lollapalooza side stage last summer. Particularly cool to hear on CD are "Car Crash," "Boass" and "Big Rallies."... A single from Tool precedes their first album for Zoo — Undertow.

"Sober" stirs ripples in the aural water like that band Helmet. Tool's album was mixed by Ron St. Germain, who's also worked with Sonic Youth and Bad Brains, talk about indie credibility. "Sober" is the kind of song that will sink into your brain like a pickaxe in a pat of warm butter. How many stitches will that be?

TRACK ACTION

Depeche Mode, "I Feel You," Sire/Reprise (5/41) The release of the full album this week has caused a DMode frenzy throughout the Cutting Edge world. The boys rise to the #2 slot and that cappo di tutti cappi position will soon be theirs. We could tell you who's playing this, but that would take forever. Smash. Now what's with the goatate?

Hothouse Flowers, "Thing Of Beauty," London/PLG (2/41) Our buddies in Hothouse Flowers are beginning to bloom now that it's Spring. They move up the Blimpy Fifty to 7* with the help of heavy reports from KRZQ, KTCL, KUKQ, and WFNX.

Goo Goo Dolls, "We Are The Normal," Warner Bros./Metal Blade (2/48) Could this be the year of the Goo Goo Dolls? They're riding that rocket to stardom by playing dates with Soul Asylum (The band, at last, can you believe it?) and this tribute to "Joe" has the whole country going bonkers. Standing tall at 11* (Everyone's fave position) and preparing for an entry into the top ten shortly.

Boy George, "The Crying Game," SBK/EMIRG (4/26) Stupid, unenlightened programmers would drop this song, but those who want listeners are bangin' away. Hey, when Androgynous Pat from SNL is doing this song, it's got instant recognition come magnet written all over it. It's at 29* with KROQ, KITS, WDRE, WHFS and more pounding away like there's not tomorrow. We know the secret of "The Crying Game" — new listeners!

The Beloved, "Sweet Harmony," Atlantic (2/29) It's starting to build an took a nice jump this week 39-34* and we think it's only a matter of time before this is blasting out of radios everywhere. Bumped up at WLAV and KNNC this week.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Stereo MC's lead singer Rob with Steve Leeds/PLG and the normal everyday Tom Calderone of WDRE. Remember to catch the Stereo MC's on tour with Jesus Jones.

And now here's Tom's evil Modern Rock Live alter ego — dressed in black and baggy denim, just like a b-boy! He's pictured with Alan Korowitz/M.R.L. exec. prod. and members of Depeche Mode when they appeared on Modern Rock Live to preview their boffo-keen new rekkid.

FEED THE BEAST

RECORD OF THE WEEK

Robyn Hitchcock And The Egyptians, "Respect," A&M

It was a slightly strange chart week. With all the debuts and attention on the newer releases, some of the records still moving up didn't quite manage with bullets this week. Robyn Hitchcock, however, kept his momentum with the biggest and highest move, 21-15*. And no wonder! KTCL and WBRU have booted out the rotation, and KCMU, KUCB, KUSF and WFDU have added the album. Reaction is big enough for top five phones at KBAC and WDET, and is proving this record to be a real long term animal. Respect? Robyn certainly has it, and shouldn't even have to ask for it.

BLAH BLAH BLAH

ALMOST AN EXCLUSIVE — The City of Brotherly Love was buzzing this week with news that John DeBella maybe splitting town and returning to Long Island (where he once hosted a wake up show on Cutting Edge ground breaker WLIR) to join Mike Craven's new regime at classic rocker WBAB. That leaves listeners hankering for chatter in the morning to Howard Stern and those wanting to hear music to WDRE. Hmm...Speaking of NYC/Philly — WHO DOES WHTZ (Z100) THINK THEY'RE FOOLING WITH THIS WHOLE ALTERNATIVE SLANT? Get ready, this is only the first shot from lame CHR programmers looking to cover their butts. Remember, fight back quickly and decisively. Cutting Edge Radio's core audience knows this move is bogus and we need them as our foot soldiers on the street to spread the word. Hurry up before fat, outdated Zookeepers start stealing our music and ruining it for everyone...Oh yeah, it was great to hear Leshay on WHTZ's morning zoo playing Ween's "Daisies" ...Cutting Edge outlets across the country sponsored "Midnight Madness" promotions at local record stores to celebrate the release of Depeche Mode's new album. We heard Kurt St. Thomas, the band's numero uno fan, had a ball in Beantown...Check out the April issue of Details (with D.M.'s Dave Gahan on the cover), and read an amusing article entitled "La Dolce Vita" for a mention of the Los Angeles nightclub Dragstrip 66, which evidently the ubiquitous Paul V. of Warner Bros. has been getting involved with on a monthly basis. "Night of a Zillion Jans"? Too good to be true...The Edge in Fresno, or KKDJ, is gearing up for its first anniversary concert, and are still booking bands. If you have an act, call Sat Bisla now...The debate over KCMU's recent programming changes is still far from over. The station's management and a coalition of opposition, CURSE (Censorship Undermines Radio Station Ethics), have both been the subject of much local, national, industry and consumer press, from Billboard to Spin to Details. Several indie and major labels have stopped servicing the station, some citing its deliberate move away from community broadcasting, and station funding has drastically fallen off. Mudhoney, Ween, Eric Bogosian and others have performed at benefits for CURSE and crosstown KNDD has gone so far as to sponsor one benefit. Stay tuned...Pete Weiss, drummer for Thelionious Monster has added a new tangent to his artistic career — he will be a model for the latest Betsey Johnson Fall '93 collection of women's fashion. He's just one of the special guests who have cross dressed for the Johnson runway — MTV VJ Steve Isaacs has apparently shown off his legs, too. The show will be on March 29 in New York City at the Parsons School Of Design. As Julie Brown says, "One, two, three, PIVOT!"...Dave Navarro and Eric Avery, formerly of Jane's Addiction, have formed the band Deconstruction, and were recently signed to Def American, with a release scheduled in the fall...Susan Blonde, Inc. has signed Iggy Pop to their artist roster...Portland, Oregon, band, Hazel, will be releasing their debut album on Sub Pop in July...North Carolina's The Veldt are currently recording their first full album for Mercury with Ray Shulman (Sundays, Sugarcubes, Ian McCulloch, Lulabox) in the producer's chair...Recent video releases from Video Music, Inc. include Mordred, "In This Live Video"; "The Best Of Berlin Independence Days Volume II" including Young Gods and Mudhoney; "Oyster Band"; "Punk In London '77" including The Clash, X-Ray Spex and The Jam; and Superchunk "Take The Tube"...Another video you should watch is "The Will To Provoke" by Survival Research Laboratories. This ensemble hammers new meaning to the phrase "performance art." Mark Pauline founded the group in 1978, which build machines as actors. This video captures two mayhem-riddled European performances. As Pauline says, "Once you've lived through one of our performances, survival takes on a whole new meaning." No kidding, is asbestos included with a ticket? This is the first of three longform videos from Def American, who definitely snagged one of the most extreme visual concepts around when so hard to shock people...WCHZ announced that Todd Wilkinson, formerly with WDRE, has been hired as production director, and will be hosting a club show. Labels are requested to service him with all singles and remixes...RCA has moved its offices to 1540 Broadway, Times Square, New York, NY 10036. Associate Director of Alternative Promotion, Thomas Westfall's new address will be The Bertelsmann Building, 1540 Broadway, 36th Floor, New York, NY 10036. Phone and fax numbers do not change...KRCK/Omaha has moved its studios, and the new address is: 3450 South 82nd Street, Suite 3, Omaha, NE 68124; phone/fax: (402) 399-1746...Remember that Loscalzo's new satellite office phone number is now hooked up — he can be reached at (718) 268-3610.

Tipper Gore says she has no plans to use her status as "second lady" to campaign against rock music with explicit lyrics. However, she says she does not regret having battled to put warning labels on albums. "From the very beginning, I have always felt good about my involvement in that effort," Gore says in Good Housekeeping magazine. "I felt angry about seeing children exploited and I was glad I was able to do something about it. I think what we did got a lot of people thinking about the way we treat children in our country."

Eric Clapton plays guitar on three tracks on Jack Bruce's new album, "Something Else" (on CMP Records). The "Els" in the title is a local drink near a German studio where Bruce once recorded. "The three songs Eric played on, I wrote them with him in mind," Bruce says. "My son was at home playing guitar, and he sounded so much like Eric using vibrato. The working title of one song, in fact, was 'Eric Come Home,' and when Eric came over, there was no hesitation. We went into the studio with no problems." Bruce, who's currently touring with his own band, says it's not definite that there will be a new Cream album. A new Cream home video is being released soon, including previously unreleased footage from concerts at the Fillmore, as well as in London and Paris. "We're doing interviews for it, and we're talking about doing something else," Bruce says.

Pink Floyd's "Dark Side Of The Moon" album is celebrating its 20th anniversary this month, and a special collectors' edition has been released. Only a million copies of the LP, remastered by David Gilmour, are being made, and only 100,000 are being sold in the United States.

Guns N' Roses have added an acoustic set to performances on their current tour. "It's kind of like what Led Zeppelin used to do," says bass player Duff McKagan. "Not comparing us to Zeppelin or anything, but Slash will sit out front with a 12-string guitar, and we got a grand piano that's rolled out for Axl. We do songs like 'Crazy,' 'Used To Love Her,' 'You Ain't The First,' 'Patience' and 'November Rain.' We're having fun with it." The band's also doing without the elaborate stage trappings it used when touring with Metallica last summer, and has eliminated the use of backing vocalists and horn players. "It's just the basic band again, playing on a small stage," McKagan says. "We lost so much money on the big production tour. We had to cart that whole circus all the way through Europe, and then on through Tokyo and Australia and New Zealand." After the current tour, the band plans a "long, long hiatus," McKagan adds. But the band plans to release an album of covers of punk-rock songs by groups like the Damned, Fear, Steve Jones and the Dead Boys. In addition, McKagan will be releasing a solo album in August, featuring Axl Rose and Slash and Matt Sorum of GNR, as well as Jeff Beck and Skid Row's Sebastian Bach.

Singer Katie Jane Garside has left Daisy Chainsaw, and the band plans to continue as a trio with guitarist Crispin Gray taking over the vocals. "I love Katie and she was so unhappy towards the end that I'm glad she left," Gray says. Gray has written over 20 new songs since the band's "Eleventeen" album of last year.

The Happy Mondays had finished demo versions of eight songs before they split up, but it's not known if they'll ever be released. Mark Day and Gaz Whelan have already formed a new band with ex-Smiths bass player Andy Rourke and have been rehearsing in Manchester, England.

Siobhan Fahey has fueled speculation that she's not planning to return to Shakespears Sister by appearing on a single by the group Vegas, called "Walk Into The Wind." Vegas is a band made up of her husband, Dave Stewart, formerly of the Eurythmics, and Terry Hall.

An official of the Tasmanian Aboriginal Centre has objected to Midnight Oil's song "Truganini," from the new album, "Earth & Sun & Moon." In liner notes to the LP, lead singer Peter Garrett calls Truganini "the last living Tasmanian aboriginal." But the official says Garrett is exploiting Truganini.

Darden Smith, the Austin-based singer, has a new album coming out in the second half of April called "Little Victories." He's currently touring acoustically with Peter Himmelman and Brenda Kahn.

Paul McCartney may have canceled his Australian tour dates, but that didn't stop him from appearing at a record store autograph session in Sydney. A crowd began to form at the store about five hours before McCartney arrived, and police closed the block to traffic.

There will be two new songs on a Styx greatest hits album coming out later this year, while the band looks for a new record contract. In the meantime, Dennis DeYoung is playing the role of Pontius Pilate in a production of "Jesus Christ Superstar." DeYoung says he doesn't expect any backlash from Styx fans about his playing the role. "This is a quality production, and I think that anyone coming to see it will enjoy it," he says. "That was my sole criterion for doing it and has been my sole criterion for doing anything with Styx."

David Baerwald and David Ricketts are writing material together again, so there may eventually be a second album from David + David, whose last LP was 1988's "Boomtown."

Jimmy Buffett is giving ten $2,000 scholarships to a non-profit marine science camp in the Florida Keys to students in Cincinnati, Ohio. Buffett, who played five sold-out shows in Cincinnati last year, will also pay expenses and air fare for the ten students who win the contest.

Dweezil and Ahmet Zappa have teamed up to form a new band called Z. The debut album from the brothers will be released on their father's (Barking Pumpking) record company.

Jon Bon Jovi and Danny Federici of the E Street Band are helping residents of Monmouth County, New Jersey, recover from a storm last December. Federici has signed t-shirts for "Operation Restore The Shore" which will be sold for $17 to benefit about 26 towns in the county. Bon Jovi has recorded a 15-second radio message urging support for the fund-raising effort.

Pete Weiss, the drummer for Thelonus Monster, will appear as a model later this month when designer Betsey Johnson unveils her fall fashion line in New York City. "I'm so excited to have Pete in the show," says Johnson. "He's a real killer, and fits in perfectly since rockers are always the first to be creative experimenters with the visual clothing scene."

Midnight Oil lead singer Peter Garrett is supporting an effort to move a giant sculpture of an egg to Australia's famous Bondi Beach. The late sculptor Brett Whiteley said before his death that it would be sad if "inevitable dissent" stopped the sculpture from being displayed. But local residents say they don't like the sculptured egg. Midnight Oil's Garrett has told the Waverley Council that the egg is a "worthy and relevant work which could contribute to our perceptions and shape our attitudes about fundamental questions our society faces."

Morrissey has reportedly declined an offer to front a re-united version of the Undertones. A major concert promoter has offered the Undertones $500,000 to play a series of six concerts in Britain this summer. Drummer Billy Doherty says all of the proposed shows would take place on Saturdays, so band members could keep their weekday jobs. But the Undertones' original lead singer, Feargal Sharkey, who now works as an A&R man for Polydor Records in Britain, has refused to have anything to do with the reformation. Morrissey was approached last week to appear at the gigs in Sharkey's place, but he has also turned down the offer.

Stone Gossard of Pearl Jam is having to change the name of his side project. He had been calling it Shame, but after receiving a "cease and desist" order from someone already using the name, Gossard is now calling his band Brad.

Dexy's Midnight Runners are getting back together. In the 1980s, the band went through several line-up changes. They lost their entire brass section after the release of the debut album "Searching For The Young Soul Rebels," then added a female violinist to the group for a more Celtic sound. After the band broke up, lead singer Kevin Rowland's solo career did poorly. Rowland says he recently met up with Dexy's original trombonist Jimmy Patterson and decided the time was right to return. The band is now talking to several record labels and is ready to release its first new material in eight years. The material is said to be similar to the band's debut LP. The band is even planning some live dates for later this year.

When NBC-TV rebroadcast the "Saturday Night Live" episode with musical guest Sinead O'Connor last weekend, it substituted her rehearsal performance of Bob Marley's "War" for the on-air performance during which she tore up a picture of the Pope.

The original line-up of the Velvet Underground has announced its first live shows indicating the band is actually getting back together. Lou Reed, John Cale, Sterling Morrison and Moe Tucker will play two nights at the Olympic Theatre in Paris on June 16 and 17. The group has performed together only once since splitting up in 1969. They played "Heroin" at the opening of an Andy Warhol retrospective in New York, but the Paris shows will be their first full-fledged concerts in 24 years.

Karl Mueller says he's surprised "Somebody To Shove" has done so well for Soul Asylum. He says the song was a "complete afterthought." "(Vocalist) Dave (Pirner) had the song and one night, it was about two in the morning and we were about ready to rap it up, I heard him in one of the back rooms of the studio rehearsing," Mueller says. "Pretty soon, he said, 'Come here, you guys, come here, learn this song.' 'We learned it in a matter of 10 or 15 minutes, did it three times to tape and used the second take. It was completely fresh, completely unplanned.' After several years with Soul Asylum, it was only last summer that Mueller decided to quit his job as a cook in a restaurant, just two months before the release of the band's "Grave Dancers Union" album.

Cajun band Beausoleil release a new album, "La Danse De La Vie" ("The Dance Of Life") in late April.

The Indigo Girls are planning two consecutive tours, beginning next month in Atlanta. That's where the band will launch a "Ten-Dollar Tour" of small clubs in the eastern U.S. "We wanted to get back to playing clubs, and these are the clubs where we first got started," says Emily Saliers. "We also wanted to offer our fans a low ticket price and a more intimate show. We're calling it 'The Ten-Dollar Tour' because tickets and t-shirts are $10.00 each." After that tour ends in Chicago in mid-April, the band begins an acoustic tour of college campuses that continues through early May.

Bruce Springsteen plans a European tour beginning March 31 in Glasgow, Scotland. The tour will cover 13 countries in eight weeks. There are no plans for any Springsteen concerts in the U.S. this year, though Springsteen played a benefit concert at a 1,300-seat theater in Red Bank, New Jersey, Tuesday night, to aid a local food bank. At one point in the show, he tore off his shirt and broke into Billy Ray Cyrus' "Achy Breaky Heart."

Atlanta police say they arrested Grateful Dead fans "by the busload" on drug charges involving marijuana, LSD and heroin, as the band played a series of three sold-out concerts in the city.

Former Red Hot Chili Peppers guitarist and songwriter Jack Sherman has filed a lawsuit in Los Angeles Superior Court against the rest of the band over his dismissal from the group in 1985. The lawsuit claims breach of contract, fraud and legal malpractice, and says he's due royalties. His lawsuit contends he was told in 1983 that he would be a legal partner in the group but then suffered "ridicule, verbal abuse and even physical abuse" by lead singer Anthony Kiedis and Michael "Flea" Balzary. Sherman played guitar on the first Chili Peppers' album and wrote some of the songs on the band's second LP.

k.d. lang won the award for album of the year for "Ingenu" at the Juno Awards, the Canadian equivalent of the Grammy awards, and she was the co-winner of songwriter and producer awards for the same LP. Leonard Cohen was named best male vocalist and won the award for best video for "Closing Time." The Barenaked Ladies won for group of the year. Celine Dion and Peabo Bryson won for best single for "Beauty And The Beast," while Dion won for the best French-language album ("Dion Chante Plamondon") and best dance recording for "Love Can Move Mountains." U2 won the award for international entertainer of the year.

Aerosmith will receive a "Right To Rock" award at the Pepsi Boston Music Awards next month. The honor came because of the band's donation last year to fund an art exhibit that had its National Endowment for the Arts grant cut because of the exhibit's content.

James Montgomery is working on his seventh album (for Tone Cool/Rounder Records) and plans to tour the southern United States, Scotland and Ireland. It's been 20 years since Montgomery and his band released their debut album, "First Time Out." "Back then (at Capricorn Records), it was pretty much just us, the Allman Brothers and Marshall Tucker," Montgomery says.

Former Echo & The Bunnymen lead singer Ian McCulloch has been playing some concert dates with 808 State in the U.S. McCulloch sings on a track on 808 State's current album, "Gorgeous."

John Lydon of Public Image Limited has a new autobiography out under his Sex Pistols name of Johnny Rotten, called "Rotten: No Irish, No Blacks, No Dogs." Lydon is also reportedly close to signing a new record deal.

The Charlatans U.K. are unlikely to be able to leave Britain in the near future, since keyboards player Rob Collins has been charged with attempted robbery and possession of a firearm. Collins' passport has been confiscated by a magistrates' court in Staffordshire, England. No date has been set for trial.

A High Court in London has awarded damages to Cat Stevens because of an article in the British satirical magazine Private Eye, which suggested that Stevens had misused Muslim charity money. Stevens, who now calls himself Yusuf Islam, sued the magazine for libel after it reported he'd taken $120,000 from the Muslim Aid charity and spent the money on weapons for Afghan rebels.

Belly are planning to record a new single soon, for release by this summer. A remixed version of "Gepetto" from the "Star" album has been released in Britain, and it will be the last single from the LP in the U.K.

The Orb, Spiral Tribe and Levitation are recording covers of Hawkwind songs for a tribute album called "This Is Earth Calling," which will celebrate the 25th anniversary of Hawkwind. The Orb are covering the band's "Silver Machine."

Former Transvision Vamp singer Wendy James says Elvis Costello wrote all the songs on her new album after only meeting her once. "Elvis is a man with a tremendous amount of insight," James says. "He seemed to understand perfectly everything I had gone through. Some of it is pure story-telling, but overall it's an almost conceptual album which traces the successes and failures of my own career. I've grown up a lot since Transvision Vamp started, and Elvis seemed to appreciate that."

The Cranes are calling their next album "Forever," after recording the album "on a high" after opening for the Cure on the American leg of their world tour last year. The band says it learned that Simon Gallup, bass player for the Cure, listened to the Cranes' album "Wings Of Joy" every day before recording sessions for the Cure's "Wish" album. "Forever" takes its name from an unreleased Cure song. The LP should be out at the end of April.

Dinosaur Jr. and Primus have been added to the bill for this year's Lollapalooza tour. Alice In Chains and Arrested Development are also on the bill for the tour, which starts June 15 at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

Peter Mengede has been asked to leave Helmet in a parting that is described as "not amicable." Page Hamilton says the band wanted "a really tight, abrupt format" and Mengede didn't agree with that direction.

Vocalist Janie Lane has left Warrant to pursue a solo career. Lane wrote the songs for Warrant's three LPs.

Lou Ann Barton's "Old Enough" album from 1982 is being reissued on compact disc for the first time (on Antone's Records). Barton performed with Jimmy Vaughan opening for Eric Clapton at his recent series of concerts at the Royal Albert Hall in London.

Fight, the new band formed by former Judas Priest lead singer Rob Halford, will finish recording its debut album by July. The LP, recorded in Europe and featuring all new material, should be out in the fall. Halford says he doesn't rule out working with Judas Priest in the future but says Fight "will break new ground by creating a unique style of music."

Danzig have changed the title to its upcoming live EP to "Thrall Demonsweatlive." The EP, produced by Glenn Danzig with Rick Rubin, should be out in May. It will include two new songs and a cover of Elvis Presley's "Trouble," which the band has been playing live for years. It also includes four live tracks recorded last Halloween at Irvine Meadows, California. Danzig will be touring the U.S. this summer, after playing some European festivals.

Brad Gillis has a track on his new solo album called "Opus Winfrus." "There are lots of changes so we initially decided to call it an opus," Gillis explains. "Then during a break I walked back into the house...as the opening credits for Oprah Winfrey had just come on the TV. And the opus immediately transformed into 'Opus Winfrus.'" Gillis decided to send an autographed copy of the CD to Winfrey.

Jon Marsh, vocalist and keyboardist for the Beloved, says he doesn't think the band's new album, "Conscience," is "downbeat." "I think it's offering potential hope and an optimistic view of the world, but it's based on a more realistic approach," Marsh says. "Maybe I naively used to think that my own generation had a great desire to change things, and it's now patently obvious that many of them don't." Since the band released "Blissed Out," a remix album, in 1992, guitarist Steve Waddington left the band. Marsh then brought his wife, Helena, into the group.

Overkill worked again with producer Alex Perialas on its new album, "I Hear Black." "Although 'Horrorscope' (the band's 1991 LP) and the new album have similar qualities, Overkill sounds like a different band because we took a whole new approach to composing," says Bobby "Blitz" Ellsworth. "We spent much more time writing, rehearsing, and re-writing as a unit. The album has a different personality, but it's still dark, still brooding." Overkill spent nine months working on the album, and recently recruited drummer Tim Mallare to join the band.

April Wine will be touring Canada in May in support of a new album, "Back with Attitude," which should be out in mid-April.

The Eurythmics' debut album, the 1981 LP "In The Garden," may be released in Canada later this year, making it the first time the LP has been issued in North America.

Widespread Panic recorded its new album, "Everyday," during a six-week period at Muscle Shoals Sound Studios in Alabama. The LP features keyboardist John Hermann, formerly of Beanland, who's the newest member of the group.

Alan Vega of Suicide and Darryl Jennifer of the Bad Brains make guest appearances on Ric Ocasek's upcoming 15-track solo album, "Negative Theater."

A judge has dismissed some charges against 11 employees of Hammer's record company who are accused of involvement in the rape of a co-worker. Charges of assault, false imprisonment and infliction of emotional distress remain in place in the month-old sexual harassment case. Hammer himself has been cleared of a charge of intentional infliction of emotional distress.

Blur, Pop Will Eat Itself, 808 State, Sinead O'Connor and Therapy? are working on a charity project called Peace Together. There are plans for a single, album and three concerts to raise money for young, homeless people in Northern Ireland. Peter Gabriel, Feargal Sharkey, Liam O'Maonial of Hothouse Flowers and Jah Wobble are to perform on a single, called "Be Still," that will be backed by a Therapy? cover of the Police's "Invisible Sun." An album to be released in June will include Blur covering Elvis Costello's "Oliver's Army" and Billy Bragg and Andy White performing "Religious Persuasion."

Kyuss will be opening for Metallica on an Australian tour that begins at the end of the month. The band's record label is about to re-release last year's "Blues For The Red Sun," which Spin magazine named one of the "Top Ten Underrated Albums" of 1992.

Sinead O'Connor appears on a track on Willie Nelson's new album, "Across The Borderline." She performs a version of Peter Gabriel's "Don't Give Up" with Nelson. The LP also features Paul Simon, Bob Dylan, David Crosby and Bonnie Raitt.

Filming begins in April of "Backbeat," a film about the Beatles and original bass player Stuart Sutcliffe, who died of a brain hemorrhage at age 22. Shooting will take place in Liverpool and London, England, and in Hamburg, Germany. Stephen Dorff will play Sutcliffe, Sheryl Lee will play a German photographer named Astrid and Ian Hart has been cast in the role of John Lennon.

State-run television in Czechoslovakia has relegated a popular music video to late night television. At issue is a video by Lucie Bila with a title that translates to "Love Is Love." Even though the clip won the Czech equivalent of a Grammy last year for best video, the government doesn't want it shown until after 10 pm. A review board objected to the lyric, "Love is love when boys go out with girls, boys with boys and girls with girls." The television board concluded the line "massacres the morals of the youth...and endangers the mental and moral development of the young."

The rumored meeting of Prince and Morrissey in Los Angeles around the time of the Grammy awards didn't take place. Morrissey wasn't able to attend because he had a minor cold.

Ugly Kid Joe's cover of Harry Chapin's "Cats In The Cradle" is the first Chapin cover to enter the U.S. top 100.

Rappers Salt-N-Pepa will participate in a four-day "Let's Talk About AIDS" conference in Boston at the end of this month.

De La Soul will have a new album out in the late spring, called "Balloon Mind State."

Vanity, formerly of Vanity 6, has gone Christian. "I have a strong love for Jesus Christ," she's told Ebony magazine. "He delivered me from anguish, death and sin. I get excited by God....I got rid of all my lingerie and cleaned house."

Suede have been unable to use the artwork they intended for their debut album Suede. The band wanted to use a photograph by American photographer Tee Corinne. The picture, which was originally published in "Stolen Glances" (a book of lesbian photography from the seventies), features two naked women kissing, one of whom is in a wheelchair. However, Corinne has allowed Suede to use a close-up of the two women. She does not want the full photograph used as she wanted to protect the women's identity. "Suede" will be in stores on March 29. Advance orders are already 50,000, a silver disc within the UK. The album is expected to enter the national charts at number one.

The British festival season continues to come together with additions to the bill of both the Glastonbury Festival and the Phoenix Festival. Suede, Superchunk, Digable Planets, The God Machine and The Kinks are the latest additions to the bill for Glastonbury. The Kinks replace Crosby, Stills And Nash, who pulled out of the event last week. There are also strong rumors The Lemonheads and The Orb may soon be confirmed for the festival. The line-up for Glastonbury, which takes place between June 25 and 27 in south-west England, is now as follows:

On the main "Pyramid" stage: Friday — The Black Crowes, Robert Plant, Saw Doctors, Green On Red, Barenaked Ladies, 4 Of Us; Saturday — Red Hot Chili Peppers, Lenny Kravitz, Hothouse Flowers, Alison Moyet; Sunday — Christy Moore, Baba Maal, The Kinks, Nanci Griffith And The Blue Moon Orchestra, Bronte Brothers, The Glastonbury Town Brass Band (!). The New Musical Express stage; Stereo MC's, Suede, Porno For Pyros, Belly, Teenage Fanclub, Digable Planets, The Drop Nineteens, Mega City Four, Jamiroquai, Ozric Tentacles, The Rockingbirds, Spiritualizd, Superchunk and The God Machine. In addition, the "Acoustic" tent and "Jazz World Stage" will feature artists of the calibre of Rory Gallagher, Christine Collister, The Black Velvet Band, Michelle Shocked, Michael Bowie, Don Weller, Keziah Jones and The Inner Sense Percussion Orchestra.

Meanwhile, organizers of Phoenix, which runs from July 17-18 at Long Marston, near Stratford, south England, have added The Manic Street Preachers to their bill. The band will play the main stage on the final night. The Black Crowes, Dinosaur Jr and The Disposable Heroes Of Hiphoprisy will also perform on the same evening. Finally, the Manics are currently in a studio in south west England working on a new album with producer John Eringa, the follow up to their Generation Terrorists debut. Speaking to Melody Maker, the band's Nicky Wire says: "The (new) album's in the tradition of English rock groups like the Stones, The Clash and Zeppelin. We've got a few hard songs, but generally, it's a lot sadder, a lot more melancholic, than what we've done before, both in the lyrics and the music. Everything about it seems so much more complete. We've just grown up too quickly."

The Electric Light Orchestra have run into problems over plans to open their European tour in Ballymena, County Antrim, Northern Ireland. Local councillors representing the Democratic Unionist Party described ELO's music as "devil music" and tried to ban the band. However, the councillors were forced to back down after legal advice that their decision could be successfully challenged in court.

World Party's Karl Wallinger has been talking about the band's new single "Is It Like Today?" (which precedes an album Bang!, available via Ensign on April 19). The single is influenced by the British philosopher Bertrand Russell's "The History Of Western Philosophy." Wallinger says: "We're in a state of flux ourselves and we're seeking some sort of reference, some sort of answer. It's the history of white, western thought in a pop song, without being too intellectual about it." The single will come with various b-sides available on different formats. They are a cover of the Lennon/McCartney penned "World Without Love," "Ship Of Fools," "Message In A Box" and a demo version of "The Little Man Within." Elsewhere, heavy smoking Wallinger is reported to have run into hassles on a recent trip to Canada. Wallinger was booked on a smoking flight and into a non-smoking hotel.

Gallon Drunk are giving their support to London's Scala Cinema, who are being sued by Time Warner after showing Stanley Kubrick's controversial "A Clockwork Orange." Kubrick withdrew the film, which tells the story of a violent group of youths, from UK release in the seventies, amidst fears it was provoking "copycat" violence. Gallon Drunk will play at the Scala on April 4 and 11 to raise money for the "orange" fund - legal costs in the case are expected to exceed £30,000. Elsewhere, the band, who will support PJ Harvey on her forthcoming UK tour, release a new single "You Should Be Ashamed" on April 16. Finally, former Higson Terry Edwards, who played saxophone on the band's recent "From The Heart Of Town" album, has joined the band on a full-time basis.

The Velvet Underground drummer Moe Tucker has been talking about the band's recent decision to reform. The Velvets, Tucker, Lou Reed, John Cale and guitarist Sterling Morrison, met for a business meeting in December and Tucker says: "It was a really great meeting, 'cause we were all friends again. We were all fooling around when Lou suggested we get back together to play Madison Square Gardens for a million dollars. It was a joke, but it was the first time any of us had said anything like that in front of the other three. After a lot of thought, we all decided, 'Yeah, a Velvets reunion is a really cool idea.' We all got back together in New York for rehearsal a few weeks ago. By rehearsal, I mean we played music together for five or six hours. Everyone was feeling a bit nervous at first. We really didn't know what was going to happen. None of us had any idea how the others would react. But, in the end, we were all extremely happy with the result. The reunion is basically happening because all four of us really want it to, even if it's just for this one tour." So far, the Velvets have confirmed four dates for European dates for June, two in France and two in Scotland. The band are also expected to play in London.

As the Riot Grrrl movement gathers momentum in the UK, Huggy Bear and Bikini Kill have once again been at the center of controversy. The two bands have been touring the UK together. Performing at the Derby Warehouse in the Midlands of England, Bikini Kill insisted on playing with the house lights up so they could see any aggressive dancers. One man was spotted and the band asked him to be removed. In the foyer, the man's girlfriend allegedly became involved in a fight with Huggy Bear singer Jo. Huggy Bear subsequently played only one song, with Jo claiming she was too shaken to perform. Refunds were given. However, there are two different slants on the incident. Speaking to Melody Maker, promoter John Armitage said that the man was a regular at the venue who was not a troublemaker and also commented he would not be booking either Huggy Bear or Bikini Kill again. However, speaking to the New Musical Express, Huggy Bear's manager Liz Naylor commented: "There were posters at the venue asking people to let women get to the front so they could see and have a good time without getting stamped on. Throughout the tour, we've been asking for people to make space for women, but meatheads still stand in front of you. People wonder why there's friction." Elsewhere, Huggy Bear played a "secret" gig with Hole on Wednesday, March 24 at west London's Subterania venue. The gig was for women only and reports suggest the attendance was disappointing. While in the UK, Hole will record radio sessions for John Peel and Mark Goodier, both of whom DJ on the BBC Radio One network. The band will also confirm an appearance at one of the summer's major festivals.

New Order are trying to buy shares in Manchester's Hacienda nightclub and Dry Bar from the bankrupt Factory Communications. If the deal goes through, New Order will become the biggest shareholders in both concerns. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Barney Sumner commented: "We have more of an input than we'd like because we'd all just like to be musicians. But there's so much money in the Hacienda that if someone was to make a mistake we could lose every penny we've ever earned." Barney also described working with producer Stephen Hague on their forthcoming album Republic: "He is more of a pop producer and (the new album) does have more of a pop feel. If we had done it ourselves it would probably have been a bit more hardcore."

Ozric Tentacles are breaking new ground with the cover for their Jurassic Shift album, which will be released on April 19. Reports say the album will have a paper cover made without the use of wood. Instead, the paper is made from a mixture of straw and cannabis hemp (with the hemp made from high density farmed cannabis plants to keep the narcotic level within legal limits).

Welcome To The Future is the name of a new sampler from One Little Indian Records. Featuring The Shamen, The Sugarcubes, Bizarre Inc. and The Future Sound Of London, the record was cut using 3-D sound, a method to enhance stereo. Welcome To The Future will be released on March 29.

Bad Girl Records are to release a charity record in late spring. Revolution Of Thought will benefit Rape Crisis. Contributions to the album have come from Gallon Drunk, The Shamen, The New FADS, Bleach, Loop, The Senseless Things, Power Of Dreams, The Godfathers, Watt Tyler, Holy Joy, Seven Year Bitch, Foreheads In A Fishtank, Codeine, Lovejunk, Big Ray, Wednesday's Child, The Becketts and Back To The Planet. Bad Girl are also putting out a Who Tribute album in May. Entitled Who Covers Who?, the album will feature Blur, Swervedriver and Alex Chilton. Finally, the label has a new single from The Hinnies "Good Day" in the pipeline.

Radio Comments

Don Davis, WIOT, Toledo

Attention record folks. If WIOT is playin' your band, please send us the band's bio. The more we know, the more WIOT's jocks talk about your band!! Your help would be greatly appreciated... Thanks a ton to MCA's Mark Diller, Colette Comcau from Chaos and Tom Biery from WB for the recent visit... Well, it's off to lamaze class. Tonight's "movie" night - oh boy!! Have a great week.

J.D., WONE, Akron

This past weekend there was a lot of live rock n'roll to be seen and heard. First, Lindsey Buckingham and his nine piece band hit the area for a sold-out show at Peabody's Downunder in Cleveland. What a show! From the opening acoustic chords of "Big Love" and "Go Insane" to the closing riffs of "Holiday Road" (with audience participation) it truly was a special night of some great music. It was one incredible performance which had the audience craving for more after the nearly two hour set. If this show comes to your town, it is definitely one you won't want to miss. Guaranteed!!... Following this show, it was time to travel across town to the Phantasy Nite Club for an evening with Tommy Stinson and Bash N'Pop. Once again, another killer set was delivered, making this night a rock solid night of music. Special thanks to Barb Balchick and Alan Brown of Reprise. Also, to Larry Bole and Tom Biery of Warner Brothers, Dale Connone of Virgin, Marsha, Linda and the rest of the staff at WEA for one terrific night of rock n'roll... This coming week we pick a winner for the WONE Rock N'Fly Contest. The winner and a guest will be able to choose the concert of their choice anywhere in the continental United States. Five runner-ups will receive portable C.D. Walkmans... The Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week is The The's "Love Is Stronger Than Death".

Morgan, WYNF, Tampa

Best wishes go out to Greg Mull at WXTB from all of us here at WYNF. Get well quick. I can't imagine my Uncle Greg sitting still for five minutes, so I'm sure he'll be good as new real soon. We kinda miss ya.

Cathy Faulkner, KISW, Seattle

I LOVE the new Pantera track. If you are looking for immediate phones and have the guts, go for it... I am also very pleased with Billy Squier's latest effort. "Angry" is an automatic... Also in this week are Def Leppard and Arcade.

Zeb Norris, KRQR, San Francisco

Indies of questionable character - no shortage of names in the Rolodex here. Of course, the fat file of funkiness didn't include such upstanding, well known and deeply loved folks as the lovely and highly moral Judy Libow, the awesome and entertaining Ron Farber, the personable and professional Ronnie Raphael, the macho music lover Jim McKeon, the terrific twosome Cal Lew and Kenny Ryback, the rowdy rocker Ray Gmeiner, the fun loving fossil Artie Kornfeld, or any other actual people I'm phone friendly with. No, I needed to talk to scum, so I selected Jack Toff as the reptile most likely to blab. I decided to give him the honor of a visit to see what we had to say about why programmers wouldn't touch Boopsie's latest, even if their entire bodies were sheathed in latex. As I headed over to his den of rancid record promotion, I phoned in my awesome adds (Chris Isaak, David Bowie, Bruce Hornsby, and a way cool Jagger album track), along with the bumps and drops. I finished the report just as I pulled into Toff's driveway. I already felt like I needed a shower. To be continued.....

Tony Baroni, KSKE, Vail

The house is sold out, like we had at the Raddison, over 1,200 people, all claiming to be of Irish descent. After Todd most people became "Rhas-tacans" and caught a late nite show from Eek A Mouse at The Jackaloupe... Also, From Good Homes did a three day stint with KSKE - this is an independent talent that someone should snatch up in the near future... Speaking of the future, Blues Traveler will be playing to a sold-out house of over three thousand people at Dobson Ice Arena, and Soul Hat, out of Austin, TX is coming soon. As well as Sonia Dada... Finally, we're looking forward to a Denver road trip when Murray Attaway hits Okobojees for a DGC/Geffen premier, to be broadcast on the bad ass Trip-A station, KTCL live. If you're near a Denver radio at the time, the guy in the background screaming OWOWOWOWOWOWOWOWOW!! in a very loud, almost obnoxious voice (only between songs!) is me, Tony Baroni... Hot phones: Phish "Rift", Sister Red, Hothouse Flowers, The Boneheads, Stereo MC's, Young Turk and Michael Hall... KSKE's Hot Picks: The Mighty Bosstones, Katel Keinig, Paul Weller's Television, The Sand Rubies' "Santa Maria Street" and Black Uhuru. We've got less than a month of season left, soon, I'm going to lay down and sleep for a week, then I might go on vacation! Live, love, learn and prosper.

Jim Kallas, KSOY, Rapid City

Let's start off this short story with a huge thank you to David Fleischman, Jeffrey Shane, Michael Idlis, Jeffrey Naumann, Dave Ross and Sam Calle's entire crew. I'm honored to be able to associate with some of the finest individuals on the planet!... Now what you've all been waiting for - KSKY's new line-up! 6-10am Jack Daniels/Tom Collins, 10-1pm Cary Fires, 1-3pm Kim Hubbard, 3-7pm Jim Kallas, 7pm-12am Suzanne Foster, and 12-6am Alec Michel. This is one of the strongest rosters we've ever put together needless to say we are about ready to pee our pants!... Musically, The Pursuit Of Happiness WILL explode! It's about time someone put fun back in rock n'roll!... The new Billy Squier is fabulous!... The new Bowie is exactly what you'd expect from a true music legend. Life is good, isn't it???

Super Frank, WCHZ, Augusta

We love those fun toys the record companies send. We've been dressed in our Star Wars garb and having Jedi laser gun fights. Now, what was the record we were supposed to listen to? Practicing for the upcoming April 1st book, "In Search Of Darth Vader". If only we could be as witty and clever as Karen G, it would sell a million! But we'll have to settle for half a million (the inbred edition). Those X Chromosomes are in the mail (so to speak)... We've had an absolutely delirious week! St. Patrick's Day started with a visit from Joe Babka of Capricorn. We put him to work driving one of the Z Fleet vans in the downtown parade. Our promotions people along with interns plastered hundreds of Channel Z balloons along the parade route in children's hands. What a great site! Front page of the paper! Then, we continued along to our evening cruise on the Savannah River, along with on-air winners. The Cruise was great and our jocks got to spend a lot of time meeting our listeners. Our guest of honor was our afternoon winner of our Peter Gabriel fly away promotion, a 30 year old married professional woman who called within 95 seconds after her name was called over the air. Cool demos!... On Friday, we were thrilled to have Frank Black in our studios for a lunch time acoustic gig with a handful of listeners. Well, another first happened. Groupies! Yes, we had about a dozen groupies flocking to see Frank Black at our "Zoodios". The excitement continues! We love these in studio live acoustic sessions with a small group of invited listeners. Please keep them coming!... Yes, it's true. Ween won Shriek Of The Week. Congrats! Also, six of the Top Ten in overall sales came from the alternative list last week in two of our four reporting stores. Can 10 for 10 in all four stores be far off?... Last Friday night's bash in New York was great fun! Honored guests included Chuck Bliziotis, Todd and Andrea Elmore, Thomas and Andrea Westfall, Jim McNeil with his McCartney haircut, Jerry Rubino, Jetson along with his best friend Jerry, and Mr. Leeds wearing the classiest shirt at the gathering and the only person with a camera! How much for the negatives? No shows Lynn Oaks and Mary Divney broke down on their way to the dinner with Captain Midnight (aka Bill Scoby) in a pick-up truck. Check those adds! Is that the sun rising already? Until next week, may the force be with you!

Mike Luoma, WIZN, Burlington

Ask and ye shall receive. My thanks to Mark and Donna at Def American for the advance of Raging Slab's Dynamite Monster Boogie Concert - very cool! This album's gonna have staying power... Thanks, too, to Missi from Megaforce and Warren Haynes for stopping by and hanging out at The Wizard's penthouse suite. Warren's new album, Tales Of Ordinary Madness, showcases his voices, guitar and vocal, in a setting that makes clear what he contributes to the revitalized Allman Brothers Band, yet also lets his own unique point of view shine through. We've been playing "Fire In The Kitchen" and this week move it into Heavy. The metaphors come almost too easily here: It smokes, sizzles and boils over (making a mess all over the stove, no doubt)! If your listeners dig the Allmans, they'll appreciate "Fire In The Kitchen"... In the avalanche of new superstar material (much of which is very strong, don't get me wrong), don't overlook a great new album from the next generation of southern rockers, Widespread Panic. On Everyday, Widespread Panic fulfills the promise held in their first two releases. The album is more refined and focused than their earlier material, and though the lead track, "Wandering", is a fine example of Widespread Panic's craft (and you should play it, you really should), I think the finest moments are captured in "Diner", especially when the lead guitar comes burning through. "Pleas" is also a tasty bit of work, as is "Hatfield", and that's just the tip of the iceberg!... Also amid the superstars, don't lose sight of The Tragically Hip and Phish; two bands too good and too talented to let slip through the cracks. Playing superstars is easy, but unless AOR gives these new, younger bands room to roam, we won't have the continuing heritage we must have to keep the format viable, thriving and alive through the nineties. The future is now and we must create it, or we will be consumed by it. Over and out.

Greg O'Brien, WPDH, Poughkeepsie

Once I was coo-coo for Coco Puffs, now I'm wacko for Waco!!!!!! Folks, I'm losing it. I can't believe it. "I'm over the edge". "Hatred" everywhere I look, "somebody stole my car" the other day, my mind is "scattered" and it's getting so hot standing next to "this wall of fire". All these "phobias"! Oh, did I mention that there's a new Kinks album?

Brent Petersen, WWRX, Providence

Hey all you ex-WPGUers out there! Check out Living In Oblivion: The '80s Greatest Hits - Volume One on EMI. Just when you've successfully suppressed all memories of Combo Audio, "Romanticide" shows up on this CD. Now, if we could just get a "Best Of..." package from Nix 86!

Kim Monroe, WNCD, Youngstown

Greetings from Youngstown! What a great weekend, Jack Blades and Tommy Shaw from Damn Yankees dropped in to town on Saturday for lunch with 50 of our listeners. Everyone had a great time and the guys were terrific! Thanks again to Jack and Tommy for coming in and of course a big thanks to Grover from Warner Bros. for setting it up!... So far this year, we have given away Ozzy, Metallica, Damn Yankees and a very cool one-of-a-kind Mick Jagger autographed guitars. And now we have a Black Crowes autographed guitar to give away, it's awesome!... Other than that, things are pretty calm around here. Just getting ready for a great spring and summer. Some cool records we added this week - latest Mick Jagger track "Wired All Night" and Goo Goo Dolls' "We Are The Normal". And just checked out the new Aerosmith tune, "Livin' On The Edge", and all I can say is INCREDIBLE!!! We can't wait for the full CD!! That's it for us. See ya!!

Brad Hansca, WMMS, Cleveland

Thanks to Alex Maye of Geffen for a great Aerosmith Get A Grip listening party. This is a CD we'll be hearing from for a long time... Thanks, also, to the one and only Debbie Mason of Giant Records for stopping by WMMS with Todd of Big Head Todd and the Monsters. A band that definitely has the goods... Bruce Hornsby, Mick Jagger, David Bowie, Extreme and Ray Charles all new on The Buzzard this week. Oh, by the way, music calls - any day but Tuesday. Talk to ya!

Frank Huang, WBRU, Providence

Well, our local Rock Hunt is over. The winner is for best local band in southern New England - John Monopoly. One of the industry people described them as a cross between the Red Hot Chili Peppers, Metallica and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones. Also, big thanks to our judges for the finals - Ted Volk of Geffen, Paul Langton of PLG, Karen Durrkott of Def American and Drew Ferrante of Chaos... Hey, if you're in the neighborhood on April Fool's Day, we've got a special show with Ween, Blind Melon, Robyn Hitchcock and Neneh Cherry as host... You know that Frank Black record is really beginning to show life in our area... I also like the sound of Crush... As for the hot heavies - Belly, Depeche Mode and Duran Duran just keep on rolling... Finally, I'm still going with the Kentucky Wildcats in the NCAA tournament. Also, everyone should route for a 12th seed (George Washington) that is in the Sweet Sixteen.

TI Bryan, WDHA, Dover

As I write this we are a mere six hours away from Bruce Springsteen doing a special charity rehearsal show at the 1500-seat Count Basie Theatre in Red Bank, NJ (where Bon Jovi has done his Christmas shows the last three years). I'll fill you in on the whole thing next week!... Other concert stuff - if Adam Ant comes to your town, check him out! He played Irving Plaza in NYC last week and it was truly a flashback to the early '80s. Imago's

MORE Radio Comments

Jocelyn Taub and Interscope's Karen Rait rushed the stage and begged Adam to bear their children - it was not a pretty sight... Adds from Warren Haynes and Brad Gillis w/Greg Allman wreak havoc on my artist separation this week... The new Chris Isaak is wonderfully understated... To Lois Todd of KAZY: Let's start a Ban the Tabs lobby! As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you!

Arvette, WRXK, Ft. Myers

Lynyrd Skynyrd was awesome! Ric Brown, thanks for the label support. Paul, their manager, got his job done, and Leon and Randall did a great relaxed interview with us pre-show. The "Meet & Greet" (God forbid I use the term "Backstage") went very well. I did get a comment from an upper demo male who fell madly in love with Dale Krantz Rossington! He wanted to see more of her in the show!... The 96 KRock Spring Break was really excellent. Brian Howe from Bad Co. spent most days there with us. Also Vince Neil was vacationing in the sunshine on Sanibel, Ft. Myers area and called the station to say "Hi" and give a plug to the new album and the X-Posure sportswear. He was hangin' for about a week, but I never did hear if he and Brian Howe ever got together!... Watch out for a new alternative show bigger, better & longer in the next few weeks... P.S. And especially to Greg - Get better soon! From your friends back in Ft. Myers.

Nickie Cyr, WGRF, Buffalo

One week my name and promotion hits the trades, and the next I'm writing comments - is this as good as it gets? Or, do I need to get out more? Anyway, station news includes 97 Rock Promotions Director Heidi Kramer being named Director of Marketing and Promotion for all of Rick Communications and the addition of Darren McKee (from WKFM) as our Morning Show Producer... Adds this week are Sting's "Love Is Stronger Than Justice" and Billy Squier's "Angry". I'm looking forward to the rest of the Billy Squier album after hearing the preview. I especially liked "Loving You Ain't So Hard"... But, most of all, I can't wait to "Get A Grip" on the new Aerosmith. Thanks to Geffen's Ross Zappin for entertaining the 97 Rock staff last week with the cassette. It kicks serious booty! A new promotion - new Aerosmith - life is good!

Dan McClintock, WZNF, Urbana

I'm very excited about returning to the format, and am looking forward to the challenges of programming four stations, in which WZNF is the flagship. We now provide programming via satellite, with separate inventories to: WZZP/Kankakee, WZNX/Mattoon and shortly, WWDZ/Danville. It's a rare opportunity, in the fact that this approach has never been attempted before! In regard to format, I'm looking to position WZNF/WZZP/WZNX/WWDZ as a 25 plus '90s AOR with sizzle and spark!... Other stations: WOWO AM/FM Fort Wayne, IN PD 2/91-10-92 (Oldies); WNCN Youngstown, OH 3-89/2-92 APD/Promotions (AOR); WFNX Boston, MA 4-88/11-88 Air Talent (New Rock); WWRX Providence, RI 4-87/4-88 MD (AOR); WMAD Madison '79, '83-'84, '86-'87 Air Talent (AOR); Also WIBA, Madison and WZMF Milwaukee.

John Griffin, KEDG, Las Vegas

Back from vacation and ready to burn in Sin City for another summer. Let's talk tunes! The Beloved is pulling phones from both males and females. Speaking of females, have you seen the video? This tune is also filling up the dance floors at our club nights... On the import scene, Bananarama "More More More" is an upbeat windows down tune... Also, on import is a group called Vegas - "Possessed" - no they are not from here! Their sound has a Lightning Seeds feel with killer hooks. If you care to check them out for yourself or better yet your station, call me... I can't forget Bryan Ferry. What can I say, but this is a don't miss tune... P.S. Gabriel is still God. "Blood Of Eden" has female all over it. Until next time, keep roq'n.

Peg Pollard, KIOZ, San Diego

Thanks to Lori Counter for coming to San Diego to hang last weekend. It was great to finally meet her man, Greg Lee - what a cool couple!... The Lenny Kravitz is happening, no? It's taking off like mad here. Not bad for an artist we've never been able to play here... In the meantime, watch out for another Virgin act - Asphalt Ballet. Kudos to Great White for having the balls to take the Ballerinas out on tour. I wouldn't want them "warming up" for me!... We finally "officially" added Quicksand's "Fazer" - way cool track... On a final note, STP would prefer you play the shorter acoustic "Headbanger's Ball" version of "Plush". Why'd Atlantic even release the other one? Wanna know the scoop behind Wieland's blinker orange hair in the "Plush" video? Call me!

Jeff Newton, KSPQ, West Plains

Hey there, Hi there, and definitely HO THERE!! I am now completely planted firmly in the Ozarks at a killer AOR. WE TOTALLY ROCK THE OZARKS!... Anyway, to the music we go - Masters Of Reality is just blowing our phones apart. Cannot wait to see Ginger and the boys in April... Can you say BIG HEAD TODD #2 phones first week!... And before I let myself forget thank to Karen at Geffen for all the help with the Coverdale/Page stuff. We went two tracks deeper with "Shake My Tree" and "Absolution Blues"... I'm happy to be back with a killer crew in the Ozarks... Something to think about - Ragging Slab - simply awesome. Do yourself a favor and check it out. Thank You Ray at Ace Promotions for the disc! Later.

Cyndee Maxwell, KQLZ, Los Angeles

First of all, many thanks to Hothouse Flowers for letting us broadcast their show live last Sunday night. We got a tremendous response to the event. Thanks to Sky & Dave at PLG for all the arrangements. "Thing Of Beauty" is growing into a huge hit!... We have played Sonic Youth's "Sugar Kane" since December and now I see that it's showing up on the charts. My apologies to Geffen that we've now completed our run with this song. However, we are still playing it in recurrent and will continue to support Sonic Youth... Another band that we are doing our own thing with is Dinosaur Jr. Thanks to Dave Lombardi at Warner Brothers for not freaking out because we prefer "I Ain't Sayin'" instead of the single. This track is doing well for us... For the record, I find it important to say that Jeff Laufer is incredibly devoted to his job and stops at nothing for what he believes in. However, Jeff is not the reason that we didn't add Masters Of Reality. Daniel Glass' crusade last week was not the reason we didn't add the record. We make our decisions on the basis of the record itself. Labels will do whatever means THEY think is necessary to get adds, but it doesn't change the record itself and consequently our decision not to add it.

Ginger Havlat, KBCO, Boulder

Wow! What a week. The last time I smiled this much was when I left H&R Block with my federal return. Am I dreaming or did we really get Bowie, Pretenders, Hornsby, World Party, Isaak, Midnight Oil, Daniel Lanois and Widespread Panic all in the same week? Thank you to Savage, MCA, RCA, Chrysalis, Reprise, Columbia, Warner Brothers and Capricorn for thinking of our musical needs because there is plenty of aural satisfaction for KBCO in March. Because of all the adds this week, we have canceled all music meetings until at least May. Just kidding. The competition is intense, however, so if I talk to you on the phone and say "Well, it's a little tight", please believe it's not just one of those music director excuses. Well, not totally... Lenny Kravitz and Murray Attaway made the cut this week after further consideration. Also new is Acoustic Alchemy and an Australian band, Deep Forest... There are baby bands and then there are baby-talk bands and the latter continue garnering top phones for KBCO. dada and Sonia Dada have been neck and neck for most requests in March... Tasmin Archer is starting to get response (okay, you were right Joe Reichling) and Tab Benoit's surprising success story continues... How about those Colorado Rockies? I know it's only pre-season, but I'm quickly catching baseball fever. Make your plans now (I've already warned Doug) and let me know when you want me to take an afternoon off so I can entertain you at a Rockies game.

Gari Calvert, WVCR, Loudonville

What a week it has been here at "The High Voltage Zone"! Lots of great new metal has come into the mailboxes of WVCR and I just don't know what to do with it all! WAIT - I know, I'll play it over the air! What a great concept I've just come up with! Open the mail and what comes out? Pantera, Iron Maiden, Soul Storm and Cannibal Corpse. Some great CDs to play at 9 o'clock in the morning!... Thank to Mike Rittberg at Metal Blade for hooking my DJs up with Cannibal tix at Boscoe's in Rochester. Should be a killer show... Apologies in order to Suzanne at McGathy Promo. As you were told, I'm a "Country Bumpkin", but that is not the whole story on why I didn't make it down early, although you missed a killer show by Attica!... Apologies also to Nancy at Mechanic for not showing up at the Chance. Speaking of Mechanic, Kreator doing real well on the charts here at 88.3, as well as Overkill, Nuclear Assault and Gorguts. Gotta go open some new mail! Bye!

Todd Sciore, WLFR, Pomona

Hmmm, let's see. What if I shoot her in the head? Oh hello, I'm just planning how I might assassinate Miss Abril and take her job. Let's discuss a lighter topic - music... Bolt Thrower kicking much ass here in Pomona (Bolt Thrower is the band which spawned the name of my show - The Realm Of Chaos). Other true jams of late: Nuclear Assault, Overkill, Desultory, Testament advance and Monster Magnet... What kind of music is Cop Shoot Cop? I like it but I can't figure it out. I'm one for labels and this is making me crazy!... Heard the new Mind Funk - it sounds good... I can't wait for Mordred... Anyway, let's discuss one more point - why is everybody stealing Mike Rittberg's famous line about needing anything - think of your own outro... Stuff I've been playing too loud lately: Mighty Mighty Bosstones, Kreator, Nuclear Assault, Butthole Surfers, The Fluid and Samael... Now where is the number for that mosque in Jersey City - lookout Maria, I'm calling in the "Bomb Squad" war - I'm outta here.

Guy "G-Ster" Giuliano, KZRX, Phoenix

Flamethrowing action this week as our KZRX-FM Turbo-Hydro raced at The Phoenix Firebird/Mission International boat races... Also new staff addition "Twisted Tim Andrews" joins us from Nashville, where he was the PD and morning man at former AOR WDNS-FM. A killer addition to our air staff... I understand that the trends indicate KZRX-FM picking up in the 25 plus demo! Hmmm???... New stuff to check out: Quicksand, Billy Squier, Live Iron Maiden. Hot Stuff for the Arizona heat. K.C.'s doing music. C-Ya.

Lenny Bronstein, Virgin, 213-275-9127

One of the great joys I miss most about the old days of "progressive rock" radio is the brilliance and artistry of great segues. With so much impersonal Selector scheduling and the rush to pre-program days on end, the exhilaration of a breath-taking song transition remains rare. Well, permit me to suggest one that first hand stopped me in my tracks, and if not for both of our illnesses, John Duncan would have made it into the studio & on the air at WLZR with 55 seconds to go. We were spinning some tunes in his office during a break, we heard the end of Coverdale/Page "Pride And Joy" building. I was just about to turn him onto a second Kravitz track so that he knew Lenny was not just a one-rocker record. We were too hobbled to make it to the studio, so we cued it up to begin and blast as soon as "Pride & Joy" ended. And you could not tell where one began and the other faded. PERFECTO! Besides the obvious value of a second Lenny track for "Two-fer Tuesdays" and block party weekends and the such, the fact that "Is There Any Love In Your Heart" was such an absolute match for something as mainstream and rocky as Coverdale/Page should prolong the life at AOR of this whole project. Try it as a segue, try it on your "new music" shows, try it on some battles but make sure you use it on Tuesdays so you don't skip "Are You Gonna Go My Way". And just announced is Lenny Kravitz on Saturday Night Live on Saturday, April 17th. Stay HEAVY!!

Kid Leo, Columbia, 212-833-6632

HERE KOME THE KINKS!! (I figure that little plug is good for an add, Nenni.) "Hatred" is their most lovable tune in years. One listen has removed the skeptical smirks off many a PD's face. They have delivered a true Kinks album in the Classic fashion with Phobia, their Columbia debut. "Hatred" is autobiographical and certainly applicable to any long lived relationship. Musically, it's as fresh as anything you're likely to hear on the radio, including your station. A Comeback, yes, but more importantly, it sounds like they never left... Alice In Chains' "Rooster" and Soul Asylum's "Black Gold" both have now firmly established themselves as major hits and career songs. The conversion factor and BDS play on both tracks show an astounding growth pattern that proves they are real. The sales picture is incredibly real. Make sure you're real in tune with the facts and your stations reflects 'em... Be on the lookout for "Truganini" from Midnight Oil. It's coming at you quickly. Later.

Blues Traveler - Their newest release out now, "Conquer Me", already conquering the ears of radio. This track from their upcoming release, Save His Soul, is sure to hit the mark. With more than 600,000 copies sold previously and sold-to-capacity shows all over the country in the past three years, look for Blues Traveler to make their move for the brass ring with this release. This band is nothing short of a phenomena. Don't miss a live performance from this band - touring the states now, through May. They are the best there is!... Another spectacular Sting week. Even the hard core guys are looking at this one, it's working so well. And sales!!!! A Billboard debut at #2 - not bad!... Extreme is going to drill home their third from III Sides... - "Am I Ever Going To Change" picks up another multitude, including The Blaze, WWBZ, WHJY, WRFX, WMMS, KSHE, KBPI, KRXQ, WZZO, WRCO, WTKX, WKLO, KILQ, added to the seventy-plus on this track in its first full week at the format... Gin Blossoms come off of their strongest increase in rotations in BDS tracking, jumping from the 80th to the 43rd most spun track. "Mrs. Rita" is a real one. Research, phones and sales wherever we see SOLID AIRPLAY. Hot markets include New York, Chicago, Charleston, Memphis, Grand Rapids, Detroit, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Dallas, Los Angeles and of course, Phoenix. REAL AIRPLAY and results coming from KQRS, KYYS, WLWQ, WLAV, WKLO, KTXQ, WZEW, KUPD, KDKB and KFOG. The band just performed on Letterman for the second time in the past six months to an enthusiastic and almost gushing Dave. Heck, they even outperformed Mary Tyler Moore and her dog!!!!... Go back and listen to Therapy? Nausea. A top five metal track now poised for you rockers as their tour with Helmet commences April 15.

Warren Christensen, Geffen/DGC, 310-285-2791

A big thank you to New England radio for their hospitality last week. I had a super road trip and got a chance to hear some great radio. Dinosaur Jr.'s "Start Choppin'" kicks ass on the air. Way to go WAAF!!... When you are working as many records as we are, sometimes you forget to stop and say thank you. So thanks for all your help rock radio for making Jackyl a Top 10 record this week and helping us sell over 300,000 pieces in Soundscan!... Get ready for a major touring summer. Starting in June, Aerosmith hits the road (speaking of which, we're looking for those HEAVY adds this week!) followed by Peter Gabriel and Coverdale/Page. I'm looking forward to seeing you then!

Dave Lombardi, Warner Brothers, 818-953-3711

Dinosaur Jr. is still screaming for your attention! Sales are now past 160,000 units, and "Start Choppin'" is Top 5 at alternative radio (a format some of you are in competition with, yes?). Have you really listened to this song? Obviously, I have, and I believe in it more every time I hear it! Could it be possible you're more afraid of the idea of playing this record than the actual sound of it? Don't let that hold you back! And use your imagination! If you can come up with any good promotion ideas dealing with dinosaurs, give us a call... Also lending itself to clever promotional activities is Superstar Car Wash, the name of the Goo Goo Dolls album. Want a good idea? Throw a car wash for your listeners, and have celebrity look-a-likes doing the scrubbing. It's fun, it's easy, and your station will sound hip for being involved with this band and its breakthrough song, "We Are The Normal". Among the ten-plus adds this week are WLUP, KXRX, WLWQ, WKLS, WKLO, KRXQ, WNCD, WXKE, WZBH and WRFL. We're serious about this band folks - please be sure you're at least discussing the Goo Goo Dolls in your music meetings. And don't forget to catch them on the road with Soul Asylum! Both bands are well worth the time. Other than that, I just can't wait to see what KISW adds this week! I'm out.

Jordan Zucker, RCA, 800-666-2814

Bruce Hornsby's "Harbor Lights". Official add date: March 30th, 1993. You should all have received the CD single by now. If not, please contact your local RCA Records representative or Jordan at 800-666-2814, 212-930-4791 or 404-414-6283.

Jeffrey Naumann, Virgin, 310-288-2446

Attention Rock radio. The new and much improved Asphalt Ballet is now officially out for airplay. New lead singer, Tommy Dean, looks and sounds great, belting out the vocals on Asphalt's first single, "Angry Youth". "Angry Youth" has already been added to such cookaahhs as KBER (already getting phones), KRXQ, WWBZ, The Blaze, KIOZ, and WXZL, among other before the boxers. Asphalt Ballet lays new effort. Pigs (Not to be confused with Pigs on Corn) is much harder and leaner than last year's debut. I think you'll find the music on Pigs, as well as the cover, quite poignant... Can you believe the Lenny Kravitz CD, Are

You Gonna Go My Way is almost Gold!? Retail is going through the Kravitz like hotdogs on opening day. I can't remember the last time the same song was added in the same week by the likes of KBCO and The Blaze. "Are you Gonna Go My Way" will be the smash of 1993. Heavy rotation at this point makes sense for all... By popular demand, the new smoker from Keith Richards is "999". Even Tom Owens is playing this one... Finally, by now, you have that super smash from Pigs On Corn, and yours truly's version of "They're Coming to Take Me Away Ha Ha." Isn't it great? Why, this could be more active than herpes on a person that hasn't slept in a month. I will do interviews and track dates, so book early. April Fool's is just around the corner. Oh yes, BDS is watching you on this one... Furthermore, Naumannclature is great drop-in material. If you need a copy, call me at 310-288-2446. Pigs on Corn rules!

Jeff "Day After Day" Cook, Capricorn, 404-873-4798

The new Widespread Panic album is called Everyday. The track we are working is "Wondering". We're going for adds Tuesday, March 29, added that day. Play it the next day and the next day and the next day and the next day. In fact, play it EVERYDAY! Advance orders total almost 100,000 and tour plans will be announced shortly. In fact, any day now... 311 continues to have a hey day at alternative radio. "Do You Right" is selling the debut album more each day. Maybe today is the day you should play it on your alternative show. Thank you and good day.

Things that make ya go HMMMMM! Just when you think you have it all figured out, something really outlandish happens and it leaves you caught in a stupefaction. For instance, Ice Hockey. From what I've seen, it is a sport of skill and killer tendencies. Slamming, sliding, crunching, beating; most players are toothless by the time they're 20. And above all, they spend half their lives on ice. Who better to conquer ice than a hockey dude? So, as if our country, world, ozone & economical spirit aren't in enough trouble, the lead story on the news the other night tells the plight of a N.Y. Ranger becoming injured and out of commission for weeks. Why? Because he got out of a cab and SLIPPED ON SOME ICE. HMMMMM... Then there's Lea. Ever since I've known her, she has been awaiting a call from Jimmy Page. She's met them all - Robert, Roger, Pete, you name it. All, that is, except the indubitable "HIM". After working at HIS record company for 4 years and a semi-truck load of anticipation, Jimmy was scheduled to go up to Atlantic for a meeting. Her chance had come! Not so fast, he canceled. It seemed not meant to be and Lea, being the karmically superior being that she is, took it in stride, lived her life, banged her head, went to L.A. for the Pollack Convention. It was there, exiting one of the manifold trendier-than-thou stores on Melrose Ave. into a barrage of "Bikers For Jesus" members, that it happened. Through the leather and crucifix tattoos was what looked like an apparition drifting by. However, it validated itself to be Flesh and Blood; Led Zeppelin flesh that is, although I can't speak for the blood. There was JIMMY, casually shopping while subliminally calling those two syllables that were the reason she purchased her answering machine years before... "LEE-A". (That Jimmy, he's such a subliminal message kind of guy). Karmic communication led to verbal and the rest is history. HMMMMM... There is irony everywhere you turn. Take many of you radio honchos fervidly predicting doom for The Samples for instance. Yet, NBC tells us that they have been flooded with calls for tickets from fans who want to come to The Tonight Show from as far away as New York. They are so impressed with the glut of enthusiasm that they want to do a media promotion with us around the ticket line on the morning of the show. Hello America, word of mouth has entered the arena! HMMMMM. The revolt against cynicism has begun. Wonders never cease. Don't you ever forget it. Tuesday, March 30th is the date of the Tonight Show appearance and for those of you in the N.Y.C. area, there will be a coast to coast screening party at the Caliente Cab Company on Waverly Place. They will have larger than life drink specials from 11:30-12:30 if you break out those yellowedged dust-ridden college I.D.s. HMMMMMM!

Jon Scott, Music Awareness Promotions, 818-883-7625

I had the chance this week to hear 2 new records that both could qualify as Record Of The Year. The first one would be Billy Idol's new album which is absolutely amazing and the second album would be Vince Neil's latest effort which is beyond my wildest expectations. These both smoke!!

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce & Crazyd Mgmt., 908-972-3456

Thanks to all for your support of Warren Haynes! "Fire In The Kitchen" is tailor-made for Rock Radio! The track gets great phones! The album was produced by Chuck Leavell (Clapton, Stones) who also plays keyboards on the record! Warren will be on tour with the Allman Brothers this Spring and Summer, opening with his band, then doing his usual great job with the Allman Brothers. And don't just think of Tales Of Ordinary Madness as a guitar record, anyone who has seen him knows, Warren is most definitely a singer and songwriter. Bye!

Paul W. Brown, Virgin, 212-586-7700

Wow. Spring. Where hope springs eternal. Great new projects from Widespread Panic, Daniel Lanols, American Music Club and the alltoobeautifulandhip World Party... And can there be any shred of doubt left about Lenny Kravitz' "Are You Gonna Go My Way"? My opinion is that huge phones and, more importantly, blow-out sales are, as they say, the sincerest form of research when sales are this explosive, when the phone story is growing in leaps and bounds (as it has been) and when we're selling SIXTY THOUSAND units per week, it's a gross understatement of fact that to say that something is goin' on. We highly recommend spinning the hell out of "Are You Gonna Go My Way". Do the right thing. For your station... On another front, "Angry Youth" from Asphalt Ballet has jumped onto the radio prior to our official add date. WWBZ, KBER, KIOZ, KNAC, WXZL, KRXQ all jump the gun. If you get harder at night, check this out. A lot of developmental work was done in the course of the last album and it feels like the payoff is right around the corner. Check out this song. Check out Asphalt Ballet. The album is called Pigs. And when they come to your town, you gotta see them because these guys take no prisoners. No prisoners. They're on tour with Great White and coming through... Finally, there's "999". Big, fat, nasty, grungy, opulent, evil, wicked "999". "999" is a major sukkah, as we're wont to say around here... You'll notice that there's been no mention of inflatable trousers this week. No insidious mentions of executives sporting duds that can be augmented by the introduction of oxygen. Not even a tip of the hat the dreaded "freeps and sisslers". I guess we're just too damn busy. Something we can live with.

Michael Ehrenberg, High Street Records, 415-329-0647

Greetings to all my colleagues at radio and labels from High St. After consolidation and relocation, things are more downhill at the hill. I've moved to headquarters up in northern Cal - my big chance to live in what everyone calls "A real city". I must say that my view to the Golden Gate Bridge, Pet's Coffee, and endless list of eateries, KFOG and Live 105 have grown on me in a big way... Thanks to all of you who continue to support John Gorka's latest release, Temporary Road. He keeps winning new audiences all of the time... Look for Kristen Hall's Fact And Fiction to be reservised May 25th. Wow, what a voice! This collection of tunes includes featured guests from fellow Georgians like the Indigo Girls and The B-52's... Also upcoming is Patty Larkin's new release with Ben Wisch (of Mark Cohn fame) manning the boards. Another High St. artist should be inking a deal now and any service requests or inquiries should be directed to me or John Vernile at (415) 329-0647... Burning my wires: Belly, Tasmin Archer, Soul Asylum, Phish and JJ Cale.

Music Awareness Promotions is proud to be part of rock-n-roll history. We are currently coordinating promotional trip packages for radio stations across the U.S. in conjunction with "Concerts For The Environment" and it's national Earth Day event featuring Paul McCartney at the Hollywood Bowl, April 16, 1993. Music Awareness Promotions will be donating a portion of the proceeds from the trip packages to "Earth Day '93". It is rumored that numerous major artists will be performing with McCartney for this event. Call us at 818-883-7625 for more details. Also, check out McCartney's new album entitled Off The Ground, which is smack "On The Bulls Eye". This album is really sweet!

On your desk and in your hands is the new CD from Vigilantes Of Love, Killing Floor. Produced by Peter Buck and Mark Heard, VOL's carefully crafted songs come from a Dylan/Violent Femmes/Waterboys inspirational foundation. The emphasis track is "Real Down Town", an ode to VOL's hometown, but it could be anybody's hometown. Add date is April 6. Some stations early on VOL include KLZR and WCBR... Also watch for a Swans live CD, Omniscience; a compilation, Marijuana's Greatest Hits Revisited (a topic that has come back into style lately); and Insane Jane's second release, Each Finger... Also just to make sure everyone is aware, Sky Records is now solely distributed by Relativity. Until then, keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars.

Gary Jay/Loretta Windas, AIM Alternative, 800-275-0091

Still shaking from the Superchunk show in Philly last week. I wonder if Laura noticed the enormous woodie I had pressed up against the stage? Hmmmm... The God Machine's throbbing, pulsating rhythms have been creating legions of new fans. This trio's U.K. import EPs were just a taste of the soul damage found on Scenes From The Second Story. Tracks like "Home" and "She Said" will shake up those listless listeners!... Tool, Tool, Tool!! Last year's Opiate EP turned many PD/MDs on the new record, Undertow, is devastating. Let your DJs grab a hold of Tool; this band intimidates, but never imitates. We're serious about taking Tool to the masses, give this LP major airtime!... Play Funland's Sweetness CD (or we send the cover girl to your house!). Those Dallas boys have a way with a groove. Maybe you saw them w/Flowerhead, Rage Against The Machine, and The Fluid back at the CMJ Marathon?... I've got two words for you: Ethyl Meatplow. Happy Days, Sweetheart - the most unique and innovative sounds you're likely to hear in '93. Nuts and bolts meet flesh and fantasy. Ethyl Meatplow is madness. Ethyl Meatplow is an androgynous power tool. Ethyl Meatplow is getting undressed. Ethyl Meatplow is on Dali/Chameleon Records. Ethyl Meatplow is on-the-air. Everything, as we know it, is different. And that's the news. We love to love you, and we do go all the way.

Chuck P. & Margaret Parker, Caroline, 212-989-2929

Where ya been? Spring Break? Well, have you got some catchin' up to do! Springhouse takes to the road to spread the word on their wonderful second album (hey, who took the inner CD booklet photo?). Postcards From The Arctic - a treat for all fans of alternative pop - see them in your town soon!... The Auteurs get ready to set foot upon our shores for a very short but very swank first U.S. tour - call us for the details!... Also visiting from abroad - The Legendary Pink Dots! A coast to coast trek filled with bohemian psychedelic mind-meanderings and experimental song structurings from their most recent Malachai (Shadow Weaver pt.2). Dates to be announced soon!... Also setting trends from Caroline: Excursions In Ambience A Collection Of Ambient-House Music, featuring the trance-inducing music of Psychlek Warriors Ov Gala, 777, Ultramarine and Future Sound Of London. Perfect for techno-shows, house-shows, ambient-shows and production work... What's Chuck P. been liking/listening to recently? Try Pioneers Of Electronic Music CD (CRI), James Brown's Black Caesar s/t CD (Polydor), David Dunn's Angels & Insect CD (What Next?), C.C.C.'s Cosmic Coincidence Control Central CD (Endorphine Factory), Canada: Inuit Games & Songs CD (UNESCO) and also Wynton Marsalis' Citi Movement CD and The Tsinandall Choir CD (Realworld). Hook us up!!

Beaster, the new short-form album from Sugar will be on your desks next week. Let Bob Mould describe his project: "It's been a long and crazy year. A new band, some familiar faces, loads of live shows around the world, the beginning of what will hopefully be a long and prosperous relationship. But not all relationships are prosperous. Enter Beaster. The picture that I wanted to paint of Sugar would not be complete until these songs were finished. Maybe I get tired of what other people think I'm about, or what I should be doing. Maybe I'm so thoroughly disgusted with how life moves on that I wish it would go away. Sometimes painting the darker pictures helps you see the good side of life. This is the other side of Sugar that some people haven't seen yet, a style that we really enjoy. The presentation of the material is very demanding, very open to extrapolation, very fresh to us. You can make whatever you want out of it, that's what music is supposed to be about. Sometimes the experience of making music, or listening to music, shouldn't be overanalyzed and dissected. To me, that's what this piece of work is about. Sorry there's no better explanation. This one will have to do for the time being. Enjoy." That about sums it up nicely, don't you think? If your station embraces what is actually happening instead of letting the same old six-week classic hybrids get shoved down your throats, then please listen to a very influential statement by Sugar. If not, then please pass this CD along to someone at your station who cares about contemporary music, thankyou.

Derek Ault, Alligator, 312-973-7736

C'mon smile!! Enject some fun into your playlist or morning show with "My Next Ex-Wife" and "I'll Never Do That No More" from Little Charlie And The Nightcats!! You don't need research or some consultant to tell you that your listeners like to laugh. Why not give 'em some Fabulous Thunderbirds-ish boogie blues that is truly hilarious?! Keep in mind that this isn't just novelty material. This internationally touring band is musically incredible and will be blues rockin' for a long time to come. Already on WRLT, KGSR, Rocky Mountain Net., KBCO, KZON, WMMM, KRFD, MORE!!... Upcoming: New ones from Maurice John Vaughn and The Alligator Anniversary Tour Collection, featuring awesome live tracks from Elvin Bishop, Koko Taylor, Lonnie Brooks, Lil' Ed And The Blues Imperials and Katie Webster!... Thanks to Bonnie Hart at WMID, Atlantic City for the great new blues show! Would you believe that makes OVER 160 blues shows on AOR so far?! How about your station? Thanks for reading. Buenas Knockers!!

Kid Seth, Atlantic, 212-275-2086

No bullshit today. It's raining outside, my job sucks and I'm just in one of those grumpy moods. If you've yet to give Eleventh Dream Day's "Makin' Like A Rug" the attention it deserves than you must be on crack or something. Let's go folks. This is the only sure hit from a band that hasn't already had a multi-platinum record. If you can play stuff like Belly or L7, then this should be easy for you. Guitar rock with the harmonic, layered female vocal. Later.

Artie & Jim, Alert, 716-885-5200

Great moments in Pinhead History Part I - While touring the southwest, Zip, America's foremost Pinhead, stops by the space center in Houston for a tour of the facilities. At first startled, then intrigued by his unusual physical characteristic - the technicians there become fixated on his sleek and somewhat aerodynamic design. As a result they scrap previous blueprints which were at that time merely a reinterpretation of the round soviet sputnik and go with new plans based on The Pinheads unique dome. This, of course, alters the course of Apollo Space Exploration forever. Proof positive that you don't have to be a rocket scientist to recognize the value of a Pinhead when you see one (though it may help). The Pinheads - changing the course of history & with every turn, help them, help you. Bye now.

Carolyn Wolfe, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

Finally, a weekend of relaxation! Got a chance to rent Until The End Of The World this weekend. Aside from a brilliant soundtrack, the film was absolutely fantastic! One of those movies that really makes you think. About what, I'm not really sure, but it definitely got me thinking... Can't think of a smooth segue into talking about my bands, creativity at an ultimate low this morning, so here goes an uneasy transition into the business at hand. The Moon Seven Times debut CD seems to be agreeing with you as much as it is with me. Dreamy and beautiful but also strong and individual. There is no reason why your listeners (and djs) wouldn't love this, and please don't assume that because it is on Third Mind that it belongs to your "dance show" WRONG!! College support is amazing, and for now, your specialty shows should be playing them over and over. Keep it in mind, this one is headed for regular rotation!... Gruntruck's new single for "Crazy Love" is in its "test" phase for most of you. This is one that should be gracing your music meetings now! They've just shot the new video, and will be back on the road to do over 50 dates starting mid-April. Give it some air-time, and you'll see just why there is so much hype on the 'truckers. More news on future releases and tours will be coming soon.

Jay Hughen, A&M, 213-856-7139

Yes, I did eat Taco Bell this weekend. Yes, I did play soccer. No, I did not stop at Vinyl Fever, I bought my weekly armload at Aron's. Yes, I did double down on a 9 when the dealer showed an 8 and I won. Personal habits aside, can I just say that Monster Magnet rules my world! You are now the proud possessor of the "Twin Earth" CD single. Place it on your tongue and let it seep into the bloodstream for maximum desired effect. You may have seen them on the road with Soundgarden, or maybe on the current White Zombie dates. If you didn't, you missed a live show combining the stimuli of Epcot's World Of Imagination and a meat packing facility... Therapy? have a new EP containing "Perversonality", the new single, and 3 new tracks to play to warn people of their impending arrival on the Helmet tour. Tickets I got!... Hammerbox's Numb has a track for your show! "Attack..." and "Hole" rock with a purpose... Stay tuned for Paw, Damn The Machine and Soundgarden but until then, do the right thing...

Michael J. Schnapp, Epic, 212-833-5987

Records, records, records - yes, you all actually should get vinyl this week. Rage Against The Machine's "Bullet In The Head" CD Pro with unreleased B-side is in your head on CD, cassette, and seven inch vinyl, and Rage Against The Machine is on tour with House Of Pain and Wool... The "Busload Of Freaks" CD sampler is in your face with tons of Suicidal Tendencies and Infectious Grooves and the tour continues to rule... Living Colour's LP, Stain, is HEAVY and when you listeners hear "Go Away", "Mind You Own Business", "Postman" and "This Little Pig", they be havin' a big old "Stained" smile. Look for Living Colour on tour April 15th. Look for the new Epic signing Bad Brains in the opening slot. Killer!... Arcade music is in your hands at Metal radio with a special promo disc for adds and airplay. Arcade LP will be in stores April 6th but Arcade is on the airwaves now... Bakers Pink are making the "Soul Connection" on the road to "Euphoria". You will meet Brad soon, too... New later this year: Ozzy live LP and Fight with Rob Halford. Music of Epic proportions.

Rob Tarantino, Epcy, 516-845-1234

Some suggestions: Plece Dogs' "Sick Of It" or "Mentally Sound". Don't be afraid of 6-7 minute songs. 6 minutes isn't really that long (just ask your girl/boyfriend)... Also, check out Pro-Pain's "God Only Knows". I think you'll find it quite fascinating.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood, 818-560-5670

Let's start with some Sacred Reich tour quotes from my week out on the road - "Gee Ray, do they rip up seats at venues in Philly? No Dy, they don't!" The rest is history, just ask the Palace Theater. "Oh my god, Sacred made the National Enquirer this week....hmmmmmm." (Miscellaneous girl in bathroom at the Auditorium Theater in Rochester). "Did you see Sacred Reich? They were great! By the way, I'm only stripping part time now." Let's just sum it up by saying that the shows were amazing and get ready for "Crawling" next Monday and Tuesday. This record is requesting and selling across the country and with your support, we will stay on top!... Have you all been hit with a bit of Purplemetalflakemusic? If you haven't delved into your advance cassettes from The Fluid, get on it 'cause the first single "7/14" is coming up on April 26th. These guys play powerchords that would make most metal bands split their stretch jeans and send them screaming back to G.I.T. so don't rule them out as one of those "whimpy alternative bands that people are trying to push on metal"!... Keep up the play on Rattlebone and Reich and roll!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic, 212-275-2135

Ladies and gentlemen, the mighty Savatage hits radio today with their new single "Edge Of Thorns". This baby needs no whipped cream or sprinkles to sweeten it up. Full record on April 6th... Did you catch STP on MTV's Spring Break??? Stone Temple Pilots' "Push" will launch Core even further into the stratosphere! Remember that "metal radio" is the only format to have the acoustic version of "Push", so make use of it boyz and gals!... At an Overkill in-store in N.J., close to 200 I Hear Black CDs were sold! Radio is tellin' me they love "Spiritual Void", "I Hear Black", "World Of Hurt", "Ignorance And Innocence" and "Just Like You" the best!!! Thrash this record until your head throbs with pain. Over-

Attention metal breath! The new and much improved Asphalt Ballet is now officially out for airplay. New lead singer, Tommy Dean, looks and sounds great, belting out the vocals on Asphalt's new single "Angry Youth". "Angry Youth" has already been added to such cookaahs as KBER (already getting phones), KRZQ, WWBZ (the Blaze), KIOZ, and WXZL among other before-the-boxers. Asphalt Ballet's new effort, Pigs (not to be confused with Pigs On Corn) is much harder and meaner than last year's debut. I think you'll find the music on Pigs, as well as the cover quite poignant. "Angry Youth" will be more active than herpes on a person that hasn't slept in a month. See Asphalt Ballet on tour now with Great White... Don't forget Lenny Kravitz - what a great record.

Jesse Lombardi, Restless, 213-957-4357

The Restless Nation Tour is getting ready to devastate your local hood. The tour will include Uncle Slam, Mind Over Four and Dumpster Juice. This will be an amazing tour. All these bands kick live. Dumpster Juice played a kick ass show at SXSW. Dumpster Juice shipped. Please add for April 5th! Please Add on April 4th! Please add on April 5. See ya #1 Most Added! Dumpster Juice are like Pantera and Biohazard on angel dust. Play what is best for your audience, report the full length. That Not So Fresh Feeling... Get ready to switch Slam tracks if you have not already... The Flotsam show was a great hot sweaty pit! Thanks Susan! Peace!

Steve Aprea, Rockworld/Sony, 212-861-0100

Dirty Looks' new single, "Five Easy Pieces", starts to rear its head with some critical C.O.R. play (is that radio foreplay?). Top 5 phones at WWBZ and a fresh add at WLZR compliment the prophetic visions of KBER, Z-Rock, WHMH and WSUP, who got on without a boarding call. Big thanx going out to all the folks at metal radio who continue to rip the airwaves with one record that makes many listeners feel good. High Five (easy ones) going out to the PA posse of Karen Tepsic at WRLC and Tom Sheeder at WXMJ not to mention the Munsey dude for going above and beyond the fire marshal's suggestions. The Dirty ones are on the road. Give me a buzz for anything your hearts desire and if you haven't listened to "Five Easy Pieces", I'll have to my job that much better.

Steve Prue, Concrete Marketing, 212-645-1360

First of all, a big shout out to Neil, Joanne, Mike and all the folks at Round The Globe for letting me use the phones when some crazy neo-terrorist tried to blow up 1133 Broadway. Butthole Surfers are having a wild romp at Metal Radio - T20...am I weeping or what??... Pantera Remixes - the Vulgar Display Of Phil as seen by Godflesh and Foetus... Slammin' it live and airwave-wise Infectious Grooves - Get on 'Sip's Ark and kick it out raw like sushi with "Slo-Motion Slam"... You got a Fazer gun, you got a Quicksand CD, which part don't you understand?? "Fazer" is shoot (er, I won't even say it) screaming up that thar metal chart thing... Iron Maiden - live, quick, and back for radio love. Thank you for the support this week! Fear Of The Dark live is what Eddie drinks beer to at home... Staining my head, staining my life, staining your charts, Living Colour. Keep pounding on "This Little Pig" and "None Of Your Business"... Circus Of Power on the phones, on the road, on the charts - way the fuck up there, I might add. "Heaven & Hell" is a no-brainer... Wool is also on the road and grabbing firm handholds on the metal charts. "SOS" and "Slightly Under" are the black sheep of this metal family (I can't believe I wrote this)... Our condolences to the family and friends of Low Pop Suicide's ex-drummer, Jeff Ward, who passed away this week. Thanks to all the metal folk who have supported this record. The way to go is, of course, "Kiss My Lips"... My Landlord's boys - Spread Eagle still rocking the Top 10... New single for Style Monkee is "Style Lord" - adds are 4/5. It's not Ratt nor is it Cinderella. It's Arcade. Calm Before The Storm is the CD and it will be in your world, right? Right... Those smooth boys from LA - Tragic Romance are on the "on your desk" tip now! "Love And Revolution" - cool v'cals with a great live feel... On the way tip: Monster Magnet, Bosstones, Mind Bomb (great 10" cover, Lulu!), I Mother Earth. Gotta run, as Jenni Glenn would say - "What is this, a novel?!!!"

Joanne Grand, Round The Globe Music, 212-947-5575

Life, Sex & Death! Thank you for all those who have added the new single, "Telephone Call" into your shows. P.S. - I also have tour dates for 'em, so if you'd like to go interview and see Stanley and Co. yourself, please call me... And you're Dig-in it! Yes! It moves up again from 43 to 39! Thank you. If you need anything, or want to know what's new and happening here (and it is) please call me. See ya!

John Butler, Futurist, 212-226-7272

Green still gains and gains. Are people warming to this band or what? Check out the CD Pro "Hear What You Want To Hear" now at Triple-A! Green had a tremendous show at Cabaret Metro on Friday night w/ Too Much Joy and there will be more dates to follow, so listen up!... Kreator has been an overwhelming success so far thanks to radio. "Renewal" is a departure from what many have come to expect from this band and the response from the radio community solidifies our commitment to develop this ever-changing and talented artist... Mordred's new disc, Vision, hits soon at alternative and hard rock formats. Be prepared for surprise number two!... You should get very psyched about this: Philadelphia's Brother Eye is coming soon. Managed by Steve Garvey, yes The Buzzcock's Steve Garvey!, Brother Eye has scored big time on their debut, Soapdish Antennae. We expect everyone will have a wonderful relationship with this artist. Look for it soon! You can live on Quaker Oats!

Mert Dunne, Megaforce & Crazy Mgmt., 908-972-3456

I saw Warren Haynes last night! I can't express it in words!... Nudeswirl, however, is a band I won't quit talking about! The video for "F-Sharp" is finished and will start running on the Headbanger's Ball! Nudeswirl are still running amuck on the charts, let's keep them up there! The more you listen to them, the more you will like them! Play Nudeswirl again. They are touring with Flotsam And Jetsam right this minute, if you want to see the show or do interviews call me now! We will be releasing the next single, "Buffalo", very soon!... Did I mention that I've been listening to the new Mind Funk album, Dropped, non-stop for a month now? I will be able to back up my talk very, very soon! Mind Funk is "Goddess".

Mark "Psycho" Abramson/Tom Gates, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

GRUNTRUCK. On tour in April doing 55 dates in 60 days co-headlining with Circus Of Power! They will play everywhere! I will have dates any second now, so call me for info! "Crazy Love" is definitely the new track to be on, so get with the program! This record is NOT (yes, I will repeat, NOT) done yet, so keep this record in your Top 10! New video on MTV to coincide with the tour!... Biohazard is still on tour and destroying the country! I want this record back at No. 1! No questions, no arguments, just DO IT! You finally have the clean edits, so do what you gotta do!... Disincarnate comin' your way soon! Also on tour with Bolt Thrower and Benediction in April/May... Obituary touring in April/May with Fear Factory! There is only one word to describe someone who misses that tour - FOOL!... Also on tour, coming in May, is Deicide with Dismember (gods!) and Vader. Call me for info, dates, etc... Gorguts is still picking up momentum so call me if you want to do some giveaways... Gruntruck - there is no other!... I saw almighty lord Pete Steele and Type O Negative this weekend, they ruled as did Cannibal Corpse on L.I.!... Life Of Agony... Cannibal Corpse (new EP)... Monster Magnet... Meathook Seed... Gruntruck. The new single is "Crazy Love" and it is HOT! KISW is getting top phones and KNAC couldn't even wait for add week to get on their second track! They will head out in April to do 55 dates in 60 days co-headlining with Circus Of Power and will play EVERYWHERE!! Sales are getting serious now and it is very noticeable in markets with regular rotation airplay! You play 'em and we sell 'em! Now this, we may be an independent but we can support our band like any other label you deal with. See ya.

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing L.T.D., 516-825-5549

So yo yo yo, what's going on here. Nuclear Assault is still climbing the charts, more re-orders at retail. More airplay, more everything. Do you love it.

Yes! You know you love it. Jam on it heavy. Anything radio needs, we are here to help. Call us, the tour is coming your way... So, what did you do this weekend. Me and Steve Aprea hit the first Dirty Looks date in Seilensgrove, PA. Dig this, it was at the Fire House Hall. There were so many people, the fire department over sold the show at walk up. But not only that, ask uncle Tom from WXMJ, and Karen WRLC what they thought. As Sinbad said, "I can not believe you not playing in Heavy." The band was way tight and loud - dig it. And we made it in Steve's 300:00 BMW... Talking about road trips, St. Thomas has some dates booked on the west coast. Don't miss this band live. I swore to myself, and I know you will, if you miss the venue you'll hate. We picked up 15 new stations this week. On top of the 46 we already had. We will start telephone interviews in a few weeks. Dig on these records big time. Till next week, yo C-ya.

Judy/Bill, AIM Metal, 800-275-0091/908-679-9111

Bill recovered from last week's fainting spell. Nikki promised to mellow out on the aerosol sprays. They spent this weekend waxing Nikki's red Camaro while Bon Jovi was blasting out of the Alpine speakers... March 29th is the add date for Asphalt Ballet's first single, "Angry Youth", off their Pigs LP. Their new set of lungs brings an even heavier edge to the band... Boston's own punk/metal band Orangutang go for adds 3/29 also. Check out tracks 1, 4 and 5 off The Rewards Of Cruelty EP... Tool had an impressive first week out with #1 Most Added across the board. Under-tow is full of great tracks, so play anything your heart desires... Monster Magnet gobbled up #2 Most Added across the board on the strength of their first single, "Twin Earth". The full LP, Superjudge, is on it's way... The Jesus Lizard made a nice jump in the Hard Charts last week, the video is out and the tour will start soon, so let's keep it moving forward... Therapy? have sent out their next single "Perversonality" with 3 B-sides. The art work is a trip of course. You have new songs, which means it's not old, which means it should be Top 5 in everyone's chart... Animal Bag made some really nice moves on the metal chart this week - way to go! The new track is "Darker Days", so start spinning it. They are on the road with Ugly Kid Joe, call here to set up interviews and guest lists... Spread Eagle is still going strong, keep up the support!... Enuff Z'Nuff is starting to rumble, so all you skeptics may want to check out "Master Of Pain", "Takin' A Ride", "Black Rain" and "Superstitious"... Every Mother's Nightmare new metal track is "I Hate Myself" - get all over it! The band is doing interviews while on the road. Check them out live, you'll be glad you did... 3/29 we go for adds on Mindbomb and Primus. Later!

Paula Hogan, Century Media, 818-988-3691

Tragic Romance should now be added to your playlist! Thanks to Crankin' Craig at KNAC for his support of the band. Don't forget, those in the L.A. area are invited to the band's record release party on 3/30 at FM Station. Door open at 8:00pm. Giveaways and interviews will be available starting 4/5... GOD IS LSD is up next for Century Media. A unique blending of industrial, techno and metal, this German four-piece would make a great addition to your programming. Add dates are 4/5 and 4/6. Mark it on your calendar... EyeHateGod, Samael and Sodom keep picking up great numbers. Let me know if you are in need of extra material. All will be touring in the summer. Stay tuned for details... Again, keep on Tiamat. Clouds is too good an album to lock away in your library. No excuses will be accepted!... Congratulations go out to KTEQ, WQAO and WXPL for winning the Unleashed radio contest. A new contest will be coming up shortly.

Nancy Twomlow, Futurist, 212-226-7272

KREATOR! KREATOR!! KREATOR!!! KREATOR!!!! KREATOR!!!!! Huge thanks to you for your support thus far. But hey, there's still room for improvement. As you read this, Renewal should be on the top of your charts. If it's not on the top or you're not on the record, you should clean your ears. I have Q-tips if you need them.
