Soulhat, "Bonecrusher," Epic Austin has certainly been a hotbed of talented blues artists over the years, and now the town offers up one of its best known secrets via the funkified rock terrain of Soulhat. A fast rising local sensation, Soulhat has built a fervent following in the Austin region, with two previous albums (Live At The Black Cat-self released and indie released Outdebox). Their reputation pivots on the band's uncanny melding of rock grind with blues-based funk — resulting in a sound that hints at progressive/alternative styles, but floods the brain with total rock endorphins. Formed some four years ago, Soulhat has indeed cultivated a variety of styles, swirling them into a well-oiled, high intensity brew. Their third album, and first major label release, Good To Be Gone, pointedly displays their versatile abilities, with songs ranging from full-on blues soakers, progressive jazzy types, to Chili Pepperish funk ditties and in-yer-face rockers like the first single. "Bonecrusher" rides a hi-speed groove, with fat attitudinal vocals churning along waves of hi-hat percussion, chugging riffs and borderline psychedelic leads. Like Mother Love Bone crashing into Sugartooth during a ZZ Top daydream, it's musical alchemy at its best, and without a doubt Soulhat can tip you down a funky road you'll never want to leave. Understandably, they should be enjoying a crushing good time on the charts in nothing flat. Already on at KMOD, WKDF, WLLZ and KILO.

HARD ACTS To follow

Stone Temple Pilots, "Interstate Love Song," Atlantic The band that stormed the world with the multi-platinum Core album, were not only faced with the task of creating an equally dynamic follow-up for their sophomore effort, but also faced the eyes and ears of critics who too eagerly lumped them in with the other Seattle-files who were also exploding in the early '90s. But STP have more than proven their credibility and integrity as a band, with their amazing new effort Purple. Led by the hard throttling, Top Five track "Vaseline" (at 3* on the Hard Hundred), the album has already scored sales past the platinum mark. And now the song that has already picked up a good deal of airplay nationwide (to the tune of 33* on the Hard Hundred with 15 new adds and 30 increases), is officially getting the nod as the second single. And by the looks of it, the provoking crunch and grind of "Interstate Love Song", could be joining "Vaseline" at the top of the charts in no time. Alive with Weiland's distinctive rasp, and the band's thick and meaty guitar infrastructure, the song takes the ol' hittin' the highway love theme and pounds it powerfully into the '90s with seamless finesse. Yes, STP are the real deal after all, and they continue to prove it one song to the next. FYI, they are currently out on tour with the Meat Puppets in tow, so don't miss the op to catch them blasting out their growing litany of hits.

Sinead O'Connor, "Fire On Babylon," Chrysalis/EMI Sinead has certainly become one of the most controversial female artists of our time courtesy of her outspoken political views and behavior. And while some of her actions obviously raise eyebrows, there's no denying her recent contributions to music and her unmistakably beautiful voice. It is versatile in range, and practically unmatched in expression. The perfect complement to her heavy, psychologically driven lyrics, Sinead's voice can inspire tears, anger, joy and passion with its pure tonal quality and sometimes imperfect wavers. And though she has continued to infiltrate Music News with her personal sagas and dramas, it has been some time since she's released any new music. Until now that is. "Fire On Babylon" from the forthcoming Universal Mother album, is a lovely enigma, in it's almost chantish Mediterranean air, the progressive, jazzy bed of instrumentation and the visual, emotionally sharp lyrics. Of course, the greatest focus is on Sinead's extremely high vocal stretch throughout the song, willowy and soft one second and then soaring high almost to breaking point. Somewhat muted trumpets accent the incredibly high chorus, which eventually winds out in a soft swell of strings. Apparently a very personal and heavy purging of anger directed at her late mother (and her subsequent estrangement from her father and siblings), "Fire On Babylon" is harsh yet beautiful, and painfully revealing.

Great White, "All Right," Zoo When "Sail Away", the title track and first single from Great White's debut album on Zoo, first hit, it blew the minds of all who thought they knew what the band was about. Given their long history (12 years and counting), of blues rock belting with a healthy sexy undertow, it was completely understandable that their very different sound would throw some folks. The band had always hinted at their love of heritage American music — based in acoustic instruments and softer, folkier inspiration, and so, have released a beautiful record that, while it seems a complete 180 in most respects, somehow makes really good sense. Jack Russell's vocals take on warmer, friendlier dimensions in this more stripped down style — and it certainly seems to have been deeply rooted in his musical upbringing. The entire band in fact, seems completely at ease with this much less rowdy instrumentation. And it seems the band's fans, on the air and off, have also fallen easily under the spell of "Sail Away", which soared into the Top 10 at every trade. Now, as the band works their way across the country (their shows are consistently selling out), the light swing of "All Right" picks up the reins at rock radio. It's sweet acoustic flavor and optimistic outlook, should help carry Great White back to the top of the charts, and sweep home a whole new bevy of fans.

Mother Station, "Hangin' On," EastWest While a good portion of the population is still coming unhinged over hot new alternative acts, the pendulum has also swung decidedly back toward more traditional, classic sounding rock n' roll. Helping resurrect the power and the glory are bands like this one. Mother Station were born in Memphis and instilled with the heart of soul searching, blues belting greats like Janis Joplin — an obvious reference given Susan Marshall's blistering vocal style. Behind her powers a bastion of talented musicians led by the razor sharp six string rip of Gwin Spencer (Rick Shelton-drums, Paul Brown-keys and Michael Jacques-bass). As atypical as the line-up may seem at first glance, one spin through any of their tuff tracks will reveal their lean muscular strength. The Mother Station is a group dedicated to the principals of deep rooted R&B and good old fashioned rock n' roll — true grit, heart and soul kind of stuff. "Put The Blame On Me" served notice that a new bunch of rebels had hit town (launching Top 30 on the Hard Hundred and near Top 20 at COR), but it's the high kicking, super catchy "Hangin' On", that's sure to be the real clincher. Building in intensity as it moves along, "Hangin' On" defies you to not sing along, or stomp those feet. We dare ya not to.

Los Lobos, "Lights Out," ("FAST TRACK TO NOWHERE STK) A&M If you subscribe to the cable movie service, Showtime, chances are you've caught a glimpse of their new Rebel Highway series. It features 10 episodes of classic rock-inspired films from the Eisenhower era, remade by contemporary directors. The shows are arty and fast paced, with a decidedly modern edge, though still placed in '50s settings — a unique glimpse back into the rock culture of that era. Naturally with any rock-inspired film series, comes a great cache of songs that reflect the era being documented. Fast Track To Nowhere is a wonderful collection of early rock standards, re-interpreted by a diverse and impressive assembly of modern artists, including Iggy Pop, Sheryl Crow, Concrete Blonde, Blues Traveler, The Neville Brothers and of course, Los Lobos. Their cover of Jerry Burns' rockabilly classic, "Lights Out" has been signalled as the emphasis cut — and it's easy to hear why. Rowdy and infectious, the song responds well to this Los Angeles group's red hot treatment. There's just no resisting that big bad rockabilly groove and searing sax — or that infectious get-up-and-dance quality. The song is showcased on the "Dragstrip Girl" film, directed by Mary Lambert (Pet Semetary), so keep an eye peeled. In the meantime, "Lights Out" should have Los Lobos rockin' all over the charts, within a flick of the pick and swing o' the sax. What a jammin' little tune.

Biohazard, "How It Is," WARNER BROTHERS If you look on the cover of Newsweek this month, the headline reads "Murder — The Death Of America" — that's hard cold reality. It's cold water in your face, and life for a good proportion of inner-city dwellers really does revolve around dodging bullets, drug deals, random violence, and a sad degradation of so many people. Biohazard (Evan Seinfeld, Bobby Graziadei, Bobby Hambel and Danny Schuler) know all of this and more... a band raised on and by the streets of Brooklyn, they have, since forming in 1988, always told it like it is — first with Urban Discipline (Roadrunner) and now with State Of The World Address (their major label debut). Urban, raw, uncompromising and sometimes brutal, Biohazard dish out matter-of-fact hard core grinders brimming with angst, aggression and attitude. A number one band at metal, the label, now hopes to spread the word of 'Haz to the COR/AOR side. The track of choice is "How It Is" — a self-explanatory bullet riddled burner that features rap jams from Sen Dog from Cypress Hill. For Biohazard, life is a matter of survival, but don't be fooled the band also have hope and feel that passivity is out. To make a change, you have to participate, you have to fight back. That's just, "How It Is". Be forewarned there's nothing lightweight about this bunch — play them if you dare.

Alice In Chains, "Don't Follow," Columbia With the band's future up in the air right now, the Jar Of Flies record takes on even greater significance. Is it the last record we'll receive from Alice In Chains? Rumors and speculation are running rampant. Time will answer that one soon enough, but for now, we get the latest single, "Don't Follow". Even farther removed from the dirty dark grind that seemed to typify AIC's very being, "Don't Follow" is a light dreamy acoustic number, seeping with melody and lovely rich harmonies (for which Alice are well known), etched around Layne Staley's somber deep voice. The song does pick up amidst a swell of toasty harmonica, and more impassioned vocals from Staley. As seems the norm for this band, the song is laced with a dark and penetrating sadness... a foreboding sense of finality — which makes you wonder all the more at it being chosen the latest single. One of the most diverse and capable of all the "Seattle" bands that broke out in the first wave, Alice In Chains remain one of the most successful as well (alongside later candidates, Candlebox). We hope for them to endure and sustain and continue creating even more beautiful music such as this, but if they choose not to... blame it on DelBalzo!! Regardless we wish them well as undoubtedly, we watch "Don't Follow" take hold the nation's heart, like "I Stay Away", "Man In The Box" and others have.

Suicidal Tendencies, "Love Vs. Loneliness," Epic Suicidal and its members seem a band for every season — whether moonlighting as Infectious Grooves, churning up a rabid pit of mosh dwellers with their thrashy grinds, or turning alternative and mainstream heads with past works like "Asleep At The Wheel". They've certainly proven that there's more to them than just a "bad" attitude, a singer who's seldom at a loss for words, or a name that sends bible raisers running away in fiery indignation (call 'em ST, if you can't "live" with the name). Coming off a pretty successful crossover adventure with 1992's Art Of Rebellion (and 93's Still Cyco After All These Years), the band seemed anxious to re-crease their mosh seams with an album so verbally challenging it would cause even the band's die-hard fans to blush with fiendish delight. So, out rolled Suicidal For Life and up the metal charts it cranked, almost instantaneously. Ah, but COR and AOR have not been left by the wayside, as Epic now rolls out "Love Vs. Loneliness" — a slow burning but crunchy, not-quite-a-love song, sung only as Mike Muir could. Melodic and atmospheric, Rocky George's guitar lines take flight and enhance very nicely what begins as a very laid back song, but soon develops into a heavier (musically) grind. Ah, "Love..." is in the air... tis the season.

Edie Brickell, "Tomorrow Comes," Geffen Edie is of course, most well known for her stint with the New Bohemians and their smash hit, "What I Am" — the very early predecessor to the Dazed And Confused, hippy type movement that seems to have invaded high schools of late. After the release of a second album and some contributions to soundtrack and benefit albums (including the very successful cover of Dylan's "A Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall"), Edie seemed to fade away from the scene, splitting with the Bohemians almost four years ago. In the interim she settled into marriage (to Paul Simon) and motherhood, and preparation for her eventual solo effort. "Tomorrow Comes" is the first track from the soon to be released Picture Perfect Morning (produced by Paul Simon and Roy Hales), and reflects an obviously matured artist. Gone is the girlish hip-trip of her earlier work, here is a smoother, more adult oriented offering, highlighted by her notoriously soft and lilting vocals. The song flows melodically along a soft trotting beat, ambient guitars, a heavy drum/percussion backdrop and atmospheric accents (organs, acoustic guitars, chimes etc...). The result is a beautiful, swaying tune that is sure to attract plenty of attention, from both the AOR and the Triple A ranks.

MOST ACTIVE

BBM, "Waiting In The Wings," Virgin My, oh my, how much do you love the classic sound of legendary giants, united on a joint collaboration of this caliber? No brainer here folks, BBM of course took #1 Most Added with 40 instant adds (among them KJKJ, KLAQ, KMOD, KQDS, WAPL, DMX, WEGR, WGIR, WLWQ, WMMR, WNEW, WNOR, WTPA, WXQR, WZMT and WZZQ), to bring their airplay total to 50. Increases, by the way, were reported at WBAB, WBCN, WGLF, WKQQ, WPLR, WROQ and WTUE. Perhaps KSFJ's Tony Clayton puts it best when he yells, "Oh Man! Incredible! Phenomenal! Superb! How many superlatives could I possible use! This is the hottest song in a long time... I'm totally sold!" Baker, Bruce and Moore are just getting started too, with a full album yet to explode onto the airwaves in fine time-tested style. As of now they land on the Hard Hundred at 79*, with lots of room to grow. Michael Cross from KJKJ reminds us that its "Cream without Clapton." Lenny Bloch from WDHA wins the segue of the week contest with this little gem, "I played it into Strange Brew. I opened it up to the audience and asked them what it was. The result was they think it's very deep." WIBA's Jack Mitchell says, "It's a great song. I am already getting terrific phones." Captain Kevin at WRCN sums it up with, "What a great, awesome record. It's WRCN's most anticipated record in a long time."

Bloodline, "Stone Cold Hearted," EMI "This is the kind of song that our listeners feed off of." Sez Matt Vaughan of KNCC. The talented boys in Bloodline come out of the chute and are rarin' to go with 16 adds locked in their first week including (KATS, KEYJ, KMOD, KNCN, KQWB, KRRK, WAPL, WGLF, WNCD, WOUR, WRIF, WROQ and WSFL), plus airplay already happening at KJOT, WTUE and WXL.P. No doubt, the funkafied southern soul of "Stone Cold Hearted", and the unbelievable chops revealed there in, were hard to deny. There's no question that these boys inherited some fine blood from their famous kin, but they've certainly got plenty of their own abilities to brag about. One listen to this track will affirm that fact. Here's KEYJ's Paul Hanson, "I love it. Wonderful guitars. It's definitely worth listening to!" Just ask WNCD's Dom Nordella, who calls Bloodline, "Unf'cking believable!"

PANTERA, "PLANET CARAVAN," EastWest Whoa baby, guess you all wanted to play Pantera more than most folks realized. This week righteous Phil Anselmo and the gang land #2 Most Added with 28 adds logged in including (KATT, KEYJ, KISW, KJKJ, KLAQ, KLPX, KNCN, KQDS, KQWB, KRNA, KRRK, KZAK, KZRR, KZRX, WBTZ, WHMH, WKLL, WKQZ, WNCD, WOZN, WRCN, WTPA, WXKE, WXP and WXRX. It was those, combined with 21 increases (with Top Requests already reported at WDZR), and total airplay on over 55 stations that ensure Pantera a move from 67-52* on the Hard Hundred. It's what WXQR's Kris Kelly considers, "The most accessible thing they have done yet. I was like, here's something we can play by Pantera. Ohhh, we can be hip." Michael Cross From KJKJ tells us, "This is a career maker for them. It is true to the original." Finally, from Kevin Thompson at WRCN, "Ever since we first heard it we told Matt Pollack we'd be there when he was ready to roll it out to AOR. It's the most accessible thing the band has ever done."

Pink Floyd, "High Hopes," Columbia #3 in the parade of adds this week, was Pink Floyd's mesmerizing, "High Hopes", with 27 stations jumping on like (KCLB, KCQR, KEYJ, KJKJ, KNCN, KQRS, WBLM, WDVE, WHDQ, WIOT, WKLS, WLUP, WONE, WRKI, WTKX, WTUE, WXKE, WXQR and WXRX). 32 increases (including KEZE, KQWB, KRNA, WIYY, WHJY, WGLF, WLVO, WSHE, WTPA, WNEW, WXTB, WYMG and WZNF) amongst a total airplay tally of 73 stations, made a 60-41* leap on the Hard Hundred a given. Hopefully you're all spending time with this reflective and meaningful song — as it embodies so much of what makes The Division Bell one of the band's most beautiful works. KJKJ's Michael Cross testifies, "This is their best LP since 'The Wall'. I'm pounding it. The video is incredible you have to check it out." From WIBA's Jack Mitchell, "Critically this is a fabulous song." Kevin Thompson from WRCN sez, "It is doing great here. It may be eight minutes long but it's working."

Big Head Todd And The MONSTERS, "IN THE MORNING," (Blown Away Strk) GIANT/550/Epic Soundtrax The spirited and high stepping rumble of "In The Morning" has already got Big Head Todd fans begging for more of the new album, and certainly, kick started this soundtrack in fine style. This week Todd and the Monsters, chalked up 20 adds including (KGGG, KJOT, KQRS, KRRK, WAPL, WHCN, WKQZ, WMMR, WNEW, and WXKE), along with 9 increases (KZOZ, WAVF, WDHA, WGLF, WHDQ, WIZN, WPLR, WSHE, WXRC). All good for a debut at 89* on the Hard Hundred. Get the feeling this one's gonna "blow" wide open... you betcha, and we can't wait for BHT's new LP. Lenny Bloch from WDHA wants you to know that "Not only are we playing it, but I'm wearing my BHT T-shirt today. It's a great song and a great T shirt."

Gin Blossoms, "Allison Road," A&M The light and jangly new follow-up to, "Until I Fall Away", has once again got the Gin Blossoms doing the chart dance, with 16 stations jumping on board for the ride (KFMZ, KKEG, KLOS, KQDS, KQWB, KRRK, KRZZ, KZRR, WBAB, WCCC, WKQZ, WMMR, WOZN, WTUE, WZNF and WZZQ), with increases in spins also going into effect at KISS, KLPX and KIOZ. There's a simple charm about the Gin Blossoms, that seems to translate to radio (and video) beautifully, so no wonder, so many folks have enjoyed every song lifted from their amazing debut. "Allison Road" provides another wonderful and scenic dip into New Miserable Experience, and will surely lead the GB's onto the charts once again. From WDHA's Lenny Bloch, "I Love that song. I gotta find room to play it this week."

Crosby Stills & Nash, "Only Waiting For You," ATLANTIC As you read, the historic (?) Woodstock '94, will have just concluded, and CSN will have come full circle in this, their 25th year together. No doubt the raves will be pouring in, but meanwhile, the band's first single in years, "Only Waiting For You", nailed #5 Most Added honors this week, with 21 stations (KATS, KCLB, KCQR, KFMF, KMOD, KRZZ, WAPL, WCIZ, WEGR, WGIR, WHCN, WHDQ, WHEB, KKEG, WLUP, WMMR, WPYX, WROQ, WTPA, WTUE and WWWV). Alive and well, CSN are sounding as strong and creative as ever, and doesn't it make you feel great hearing songs like this on the air. One of the true originals continues... Here's to 25 more. Let's hear from Dennis Constantine, "First Neil Young, now Crosby, Stills & Nash — what decade are we in? 'After The Storm' will be with us shortly. Until then, we have a new Stephen Stills track to tide us over. This track is better than most of their recent works. It won't be hard to fit this one into your playlist."

NEIL YOUNG & CRAZY HORSE, "CHANGE YOUR MIND," Reprise
Neil and Crazy Horse

are flying these days with their first collaboration in years. "Change Your Mind" is already flowing resoundingly on 96 stations, with 23 more adding this week (KCAL, KEZO, KJKJ, WAOR, WFYV, WIBA, WIMZ, WLUP, WOUR, WRCQ, WRDU, WRFX, WXKE, WZBH, WZXL, WZZQ and WZZR). Also called in were 66 major increases with Top 5 phones reported at CHEZ, CILQ, KEYJ, WBCN, WDHA, WHCN, WIZN, WLVO, WRKI, WROV, WTUE and WZMT. Looks like America (and Canada) can't wait for the full album to arrive either. 49-25* Hard Hundred. WIXV's Jay Sisson, "He's still pretty hip and timeless. This could have come out anytime in his illustrious career." Here's WRXR's Chuck Williams, "Oh man! That's vintage Neil Young. I think it is probably all tied in with that Woodstock type of mindset that's setting in around the country, but it stands well on it's own too." From WIBA's Jack Mitchell, "We're getting phones from diehard fans who want more."

IAN MOORE, "Satisfied," Capricorn We'll take a debut at 100* this week, but we won't be "Satisfied" until we see some major jumps in the coming weeks. Our fave Austin blues rocker is willing and able to keep you happy with his latest single and the new, Live In Austin EP (which you absolutely must spend time with—wow)... so as the song says, "Let me in baby and we'll take it real slow. I'll show you things, if you just let go". How could you resist? This week KDJK decided to take a stab at it, while KCLB, KEYJ, KFME, KKEG, KMOD, KZOZ granted Moore airplay increases (WIZN is also on).

RPLA, "LAST NIGHT A DRAG QUEEN SAVED YOUR LIFE," Collision

Arts/Giant The seedy and wonderful "Last Night..." is slowly but surely picking up speed in the mainstream. New adds were clocked in at KIOZ, KZRR, KZRX, WJRR and WRIF this week, with spin time increased at KEZE, KILO, KNCN, KRRK, WOZN and WXRC. RPLA also has continued interest at KEYJ, WHMH, WVCB, WDZR and Z-Rock. So what are you waiting for — it doesn't get much rowdier and infectious (contagious?) as this. These Brits know how to rock and they've got all the ingredients necessary to rock your shorts and then some. Try them on for size and see if you don't agree.

GREEN DAY, "BASKET CASE," Reprise
One of the biggest buzz bands around today, Green Day continue their meteoric rise on the charts, the popularity polls and the sales reports. Now over a million served (sold that is)... they just keep coming. Chartside, the follow-up to "Longview" takes another hop from 53-46*, while nearing Top 20 at COR (25*), with over 50 stations now playing, 8 of whom just added it (KBAT, KEGL, KZAK, WBLM, WDHA, WMRR, WROV and WXRX). Also giving "Basket Case" a good boost were 28 increases (top requests at KILO, KUPD, WAVF, WMMS and WRZX). From Lenny Bloch at WDHA, "It's a huge reaction record. I think it is the 'over the top' song for this band." MD T.J. adds to the mix with his review of the live show, "I crawled out of the pit covered in sweat, none of it my own. The band was absolutely fantastic! 'Basket Case' finds it's way onto the DHA airwaves as a direct result." Here's WKLQ's Darrin Arriens, "This post-90s retro-punk sound has really taken off and delivers phones. With the certain help from MTV, this record will gain quick and heavy visibility."

SAVATAGE, "HANDFUL OF RAIN," Atlantic
The powerful imagery and emotion of

"Handful Of Rain" seems to have touched more than a few radio heads these last few weeks, and this week because of it, Savatage once again... rise. They debut at 70* on the Hard Hundred, with new adds at WRCQ and Z-Rock, with spin increases at KBER, KEGL, KEYJ, KEZE, KIBZ, KILO, KIOZ, KMOD, KZRX, WBTZ, WBZX, WDZR, WKDF, WKLL, WLZR, WRZK and WXRC (WHMH and WXTB are also on). So it seems, anyone who sampled success before with "Edge Of Thorns" is giving Tage the green light again, and with good reason — they sound amazing. Grab your "Handful" now. From WKLL's Miami, "With the addition of superior musician Alex Skolnick the band will reach a broader audience and take over the world. What a merging of power!"

MARTIN PAGE, "IN THE HOUSE OF STONE AND LIGHT," Mercury The lovely

"In The House Of Stone And Light" continues to gently infuse the airwaves, with a little help from KSPQ, who added it into rotation this week. They join the already enlightened (KQWB, WGIR, WHCN, WHDQ, WMMR, WSHE, WXRC and KEZE), who've already discovered the spiritually uplifting quality of the song, as well as the stellar musicianship and finely engraved lyrics. Triple A continues to rally around the song (44* this week) and it's sitting just off the Hard Hundred right now, with a debut sure to occur in a week or so. "If you told your listeners it was the new Peter Gabriel, they'd believe it!" sez Guy Dark of WHDQ.

MOTHER EARTH, "SO GENTLY WE GO," Capitol IME are on the verge of cracking the top half of the Hard Hundred with their third single from the critically acclaimed, Dig, LP and is it any wonder. "So Gently" cradles you in a mystical tribal bed of sound, while subtly increasing the intensity and velocity — sweeping you right along its inner melody. What's not to love. This week IME stroll to 53* on the Hard Hundred (up 4 from 57), with 8 more stations joining in (KATS, KLAQ, KNCN, KQDS, KXFX, KZRX, WBCN and WKLL). Of the near fifty stations now playing the song, 26 gave it more spin time (among them KCLB, KILO, KIOZ, KMOD, WGIR, KZRR, WBTZ, WFYV, WHMH, WNCD, WSHE, WXQR and WZZR). WHDQ reports top phones. Here's Miami at WKLL, "This song can fit on any AOR chart. Their live performance transcends any band that's out there. Ask anybody." Away they go...

CHEAP TRICK, "GIRLFRIENDS," Warner Bros. So you wanted to hear a little more of that classic Cheap Trick rock thrustin' back on the airwaves... you got it, "Girlfriends". Pounding, grindin', gritty and rude, here's the kind of ripping rocker we've been waiting to hear exploding from the band's latest, Woke Up With A Monster album. Robin Zander soundin' nastier and more aggressive than ever, surfing easily on top of a wall of guitar — a perfect cruising a light speed to the shore kinda tune. KJOT and WXRX are checkin' it out this week, while WLZR gave it a boost in spin time. Go "Girlfriends".

MORRELL MOVES ON

Congrats to our Marketing/Music man Dave Morrell, now set to join High Street Records as their new NYC based East Coast Promo Manager. Dave's been with the mag for a little over a year now, with previous promo stints at Capitol (ten years plus) and Geffen. High Street Promo Director John Vernile comments, "I'm overjoyed to have someone of Dave's experience and intelligence on the staff. We're looking to strengthen our base of great Triple A and Alternative stations with more mainstream crossover action, and we think Dave's the right guy to help us open some ears." Dave will be working out of the BMG New York offices, along with High Street regional sales manager Michael Kauffman and Marketing Assistant Holly Schmidt. Reach Mr. Morrell in his new digs starting the week of the 22nd.

LOONEY RISES

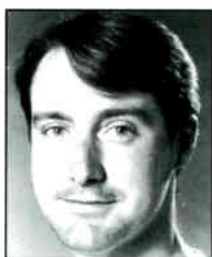

Jennifer Looney has been promoted to Advertising Manager for Atlantic, based at the company's New York headquarters. The announcement was made by Atlantic's Director of Advertising Anne Donnelly. In her new position, Looney will coordinate media planning and buying for Atlantic and its associated labels, while also concentrating on event tie-ins with various magazines. Looney joined Atlantic in September '89 as a secretary in the advertising department, moving to assistant a year later. She was most recently Advertising Coordinator, a position she held since May '91.

TRISTAR'S MANAGEMENT TEAM

Paul DeGooyer and Todd Glassman have been appointed Senior Product Manager and Product Manager, respectively, for TriStar Music, it was announced by VP/GM Howard Gabriel. In their new positions, DeGooyer and Glassman will help determine and create the marketing direction, plans and strategies for TriStar artists, working closely with the label's senior management and field sales staff. They will also supervise the design, production and scheduling of album and singles components and oversee tour marketing plans. DeGooyer joins TriStar from Caroline, where he served as the U.S. Label Manager for Real World Records. Prior to Caroline, he worked in a variety of freelance music production roles in Boston. Glassman joined TriStar in 1993 as a Marketing Assistant. From 1992 to 1993, he worked in the marketing department of Chameleon.

COLUMBIA PROMOTES LANGBECKER

Not officially announced yet, but a done deal — Columbia's new West Coast Associate Director of Album Promotion (replacing Pam Edwards) will be Kim Langbecker, the label's Denver/Phoenix local for about a year, with mostly Midwest local promo work at Atlantic on the resume before that.

THE BYRD IS LOOSE

The Byrd

KSHE and The Byrd have called it quits. The flamboyant morning personality came to KSHE from KDMP/Las Vegas just under a year ago, with high hopes on the heels of a lengthy talent search by the St. Louis heritage rocker. But according to PD Jim Owen, the station isn't picking up Bryd's contract option because "He just didn't fit with the St Louis audience." Apparently, a couple of different research studies confirmed Owen's concern that Bryd's appeal was segmented extremely young. As Owen put it, "18-24 he was very strong, but at 25, it became a Teflon cliff. We simply weren't going to climb it." For the time being, 17-year vet and current middayer and morning info-guy John Ulett goes back to full time mornings, teamed up with Jim Ellis, also one of Bryd's former sidekicks. Just prior to Bryd's arrival, that very show had the station's highest morning numbers in five years, so while Owen is still interested in finding the missing piece, he's obviously in no hurry.

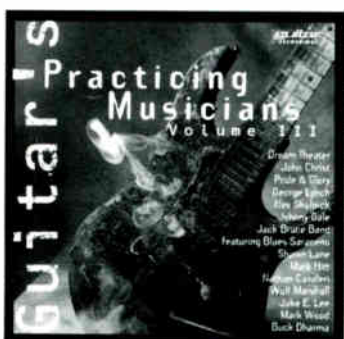

DEUTSCH GOES HOLLYWOOD

Bill Deutsch

Bob Pfeifer, Hollywood Records Executive VP, announced the appointment of Bill Deutsch to Director/A&R, based at the label's Burbank headquarters. Deutsch has relocated from NYC, where he was most recently an A&R Rep at Atlantic, having joined that company in 1989. Prior to his stint at Atlantic, Deutsch worked in International Licensing at Sutra/Buddha Records and was also an artist manager, in addition to working in music publishing and licensing. Pfeifer commented, "Bill's track record speaks volumes about his ability to recognize new talent, and I look forward to the contributions he'll be making to our roster."

Former Easy Rider Dennis Hopper, host of Westwood One Entertainment's Woodstock Retrospective, is joined by WW1 EVP/GM Thom Ferro (right).

RADIO RUMBLE

KFMZ/Columbia Program Director Chris Kellog was unexpectedly relieved of his duties on Friday (8/5). No word on his replacement, but Cyndi Stratton will handle interim PD responsibilities, and Paul Maloney will continue as MD.

KATT/Oklahoma City and Hot AC KYIS have entered into an agreement with the intent of merging the two station into a new company, pending FCC approval. "The combination of these two stations will provide advertisers an excellent outlet to reach both men and women in the Oklahoma City market," stated Cat Communications President/CEO Ken Nichols. "KYIS has positioned itself as an exciting, up-tempo radio station that will complement the aggressive promotional style of KATT." Both stations will be managed by KATT GM Larry Bastida.

WHEB/Portsmouth PD Glenn Stewart was named Director of Programming for Oldies formatted WCQL-FM, all-sports WCQL-AM, and AOR WHEB, following the purchase of the WCQL properties by Knight Quality stations. Scott Mason remains PD of WCQL.

Q104.3/New York announced that Christine Nagy, best known in the New York Metro area as the voice and face of Shadow Traffic, has joined Trent Tyler for wakeup duties as a morning personality. Nagy was most recently traffic reporter for NBC TV's "Today in New York" and "News 4 NY." Her radio background includes stints with WINS, WPAT and WKXW. Nagy commented on her new position, "Q104.3 is the hottest, most talked about station in town and it's great to be a part of it."

FM101.9/Los Angeles tapped fifteen-year Southern California radio Terry Gladstone from crosstown KLSX for on air duties. "At FM 101.9, I get to play all of my favorite songwriters, from Tom Waits to Tori Amos," said Gladstone. "It's nice to work at a station with an open mind towards music."

WXRK/New York hired Chris Washington as Assistant Promotions Director. Washington was formerly the Urban Promotions Director at Motor Jam Records. "We're thrilled to have Chris as a member of the 92.3FM K-Rock team," said WXRK Marketing Director Peggy Panosh. "We look forward to his contributions toward the continued success of the station."

WEQX/Albany added Kevin Quinn as Production Director/air talent. Quinn had been the acting Production Director and evening air talent at 'EQX for the past two months, and officially took over the position on Monday (8/8). PD Alexa Tobin commented, "I hired Kevin because he plied me with alcohol. But, no, honestly, Kevin impressed me with his willingness to go the extra mile for the station, along with his creativity, maturity and sense of humor both in the production studio and on-air. I'm thrilled to have him as WEQX's Production Director."

The Ron & Ron Radio Network has signed another affiliate, Classic Rock KARX/Amarillo, Texas. "This signing represents our first move this far west," said Ross Reback, President/CEO of the network. "We are very excited about the opportunity of broadcasting our programming to 95.7KAR, a station that already has a very strong position in the ratings. We are highly confident that Ron & Ron will launch 95.7KAR to #1 in Amarillo." The network will announce additional affiliate signings shortly, as it continues on its expansion plans. The Ron & Ron Show currently broadcasts to ten affiliate stations.

WBCN/Boston listeners sent the station copies of their much-too-high-priced Eagles concert tickets, checkbook registers and other proofs of purchase as part of "The WBCN Eagles Greed Rebate Offer." The station will award randomly drawn listeners with $50 cash rebates. 104 runners-up will get a limited edition WBCN "Pearl Jam Live" bootleg double CD set. Pearl Jam has given WBCN permission to produce and give away their CD at no charge. Listeners who couldn't afford the high price of the Eagles can also enter to win a WBCN cash rebate by sending WBCN their reasons for not shelling out the big bucks.

CFOX's Mr. Fox with Collective Soul's Dean Roland and Will Turpin, signing autographs after performing on a flatdeck outside a record store in downtown Vancouver.

KQRC/Monterey's morning show was interrupted when an officer from the Monterey County Sheriff's Department barged in with a warrant for host Glenn Schuck and dragged him off to jail. Glenn was charged with playing the most continuous rock... fortunately, his $900 bail was to benefit The American Cancer Society.

WHERE ROCK LIVES

WNEW'S SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

Our many thanks go out to all the people who made our WNEW Summer Concert Series every Thursday night at the South Street Seaport an unbelievable success...

July 7: Thanks to Bill and Rose and the whole McGathy Promotion clan for starting the series off with the Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies. The Seaport was rockin', even though it was 98 degrees that day.

July 14: Thanks to Gina Iorillo and Steve Kline at MCA for delivering Sass Jordan and her band, who were such great sports for playing in the heat and pouring rain.

July 21: Thanks to Neil Lasher and Lisa Millard at EMI. As we knew they would, the crowd just adored Jeffrey Gaines... and he lucked out that day, it was a mere 92 degrees.

July 28: Thanks to Dave Loncao and Laura LaBadia at RCA. With Fury In The Slaughterhouse joining the bill with Collective Soul, it made our last show a tremendous grand finale!

And last, but certainly not least, thanks to Atlantic's Danny Buch, Lea "Womat" Pisacane, Lynn Oakes and Mark Fischer for closing our series with Collective Soul. The turnout was one of the largest that the Seaport's ever had, and how sick it was to hear ten thousand people signing the "yeah" from "Shine" in unison.

Mosh pit and all, the series was awesome, and we think we'll even be invited back again next year. Thanks again to all those who were involved!!!

THE POLLACK PERSPECTIVE '94

Has it really been over three years since Jeff's last full form interview? Think of the changes the industry has seen in that time. Imagine the role the Pollack Media Group, consultants to over 100 radio stations and networks worldwide from Sydney to Moscow, reaching hundreds of millions of listeners/viewers per week, has played. Since leaving the WMMR PD position in 1980, Jeff has continued to expand his empire at an astounding rate. His company currently advises more American AOR stations than anyone by far. PMG have long been dominant media advisors in Europe, with a client base now well established in Eastern Europe and Scandinavia, extending now into production and syndication ventures in China. And we certainly don't need to mention Jeff's annual convention or his social/political endeavors. But given his organization's obviously global perspective, what was top of mind for Mr. Pollack? The new radio station in his own back yard....

I understand you've been listening to the new Triple A in L.A. What are your observations on FM101.9 in particular, and on the format in general?

Jeff: I think it's one of the worst new stations I've heard in a long time. I think the music is terrible, with a lot of incredibly unfamiliar and not very good new music and the jocks can't talk. If I'm going to listen to a radio station that I find eclectically interesting, KCRW is wonderful. I just find it amusing that once again this frequency has put on something that will attract no audience. From a record label standpoint, I would expect them to be a lot more current based. I mean, if you are going to be eclectic, at least be eclectic new. Why play so much old music? Why have third or fourth cuts from Elton John or Springsteen that don't represent their best work? Overall, there's an opportunity to play a lot more new material than I've been hearing.

Have you spent time listening to other Triple A stations?

Jeff: I have. Triple A is an interesting format. It has a nice buzz about it. But, except for a few heritage stations, in its present form, it has been an unsuccessful format. It's very much a niche format in the fact that it attracts a very low cume with extremely high TSL. The lack of familiarity means that the audience is usually pared down to a few loyalists. The average rock fan is going to be uncomfortable with how much new music and how much of the library they don't know. The heritage stations that are AAA have worked because they have a huge built-in audience. KBCO and WXRT have been able to take people with them, and they're the exception to the rule. In most other instances, this format is so hip for the room that most of the listeners have left it. I also don't understand why most programmers who do Triple A say that theirs is an album based format, not a songbased format. People are interested in the best songs from albums. I don't see how these two are mutually exclusive. For whatever reason, too many of these stations go out of their way to avoid songs that people like. And they also seem to not want to rotate these songs very often. So, it's not that Triple A isn't a good idea. It is good, but the way it's being done most of the time is half-assed, and I feel 101.9 is a perfect example of a radio station that, if continued in its present form, will be dark in a year.

But you have to give Dennis Constantine credit. He has done very well in Colorado, obviously, and his Phoenix, Austin and Santa Fe stations just had nice up trends.

Jeff: Well, in Phoenix, the Zone trails KUPD and KDKB 25-54 in the latest book, and that's the key demo. Certainly, KBCO has been a successful station for a long period of time. I admire the station and I like the people there. As you know, Bill, since we both went to college in Denver, I have great affection for that station and for its heritage, but it's one thing to work at a heritage radio station and continue to develop and build it. It's another thing to sign on a brand new format somewhere without a hell of a lot of attention to what the market place has seen before. I live in L.A., so the heritage of stations like KNX FM (in its heyday) is something I would expect a well-programmed Triple A in Los Angeles to acknowledge. As for those other markets you mentioned, the Austin station trails KPEZ 25-54, too. So, what is in fact successful? To me, being successful is being in the top five 25-54. If you are AOR, Classic Rock, or Triple A, that's what matters. That's what really constitutes being successful. If you can't accomplish that goal, you're simply a boutique format — by definition, a format with too small a universe.

Can we infer that Triple A is one format in which you have no interest?

Jeff: Oh, we have a definite interest in it. I'm just saying that, to a great extent, the way it is being done currently precludes enough audience to be a serious player 25-54. But if you're talking about paying attention to what the majority of the demo wants to hear and providing that on the air, we'll be involved in that kind of programming.

Do you buy into the opinion that Classic Rock and Triple A will eventually become merge?

Jeff: No. You're talking about two completely different formats. There is plenty of room in a market for both a station that plays AOR Gold, which is Classic Rock, and a Triple A, which, if done properly, plays a lot of great new music and some strong library material that some of the Classic Rock stations might consider too soft.

Any general observations on the state of AOR music programming?

Jeff: Over the past several years, and particularly the last two, the success of the Alternative rock stations has compelled mainstream AORs to incorporate more new music and the 1994 sound makes the '70s Gold sound more and more outdated. Frankly, when Boston releases a new record, it doesn't quite have the excitement that it did some years ago.

Perhaps, but Boston, ZZ Top, Steve Miller, and Steve Perry sure haven't had any problems topping the charts with their latest material.

Jeff: They certainly have not done as well as in the past, but I think the issue is that as we get further away from the '70s, the pop/rock from that era, like Fleetwood Mac, is incompatible with the new music. We've already seen how little of the '60s music is really workable at mainstream AOR today. Some of the '70s material has become more of a difficult fit, but in general being mainstream anything today is a very difficult position. If you don't have a terrific morning show and you are in a tough, competitive market place, it's very, very difficult to be mainstream anything. You're squeezed by Hard Rock on one side, Classic Rock on the other, as well as by Alternative and maybe even Triple A. It's difficult to have enough of a unique sound and identity to market. Sometimes a mainstream radio station's only unique selling point is its morning show, not its music. It's very complicated, not just in large markets, but in medium markets to sustain and grow a mainstream radio station that is sometimes in a position of being no one's favorite station because it plays everything.

Do you foresee the Arrow format keeping interest in '70's bands alive?

Jeff: In the short-term yes, but that's a Gold format, one I treat as the next step up from Top 40 Gold. It's just another niche format that makes use of '70's music on AOR just that much more difficult to deal with.

You do a variation of Arrow.

How does that format perform for you?

Jeff: So far so good. Being exclusively '70s does create some trepidation among some operators because the universe is so narrow. But at the same time, the span of demographic success these days is often in the 10 to 12 year range. It's very difficult to say that your target is 25-54, when a number of markets can support niche formats targeted '70s or '80s or '90s.

Your group has not been particularly aggressive in the COR arena. Other than the Blitz and a couple more, you haven't been particularly aggressive there. Why not?

Jeff: We've certainly had a lot of experience in doing that kind of format. We signed KNAC on the air with their hard rock format and it's something that we are very comfortable in, but we want to make sure that we are also satisfying the desires of management, in that they have more than just 18-24s listening to their radio stations. But our 18-34 rockers in Columbus, Buffalo, Fresno, etc. have been very successful.

Have you found yourself in situations with certain stations where you've had to encourage your clients to get off the dime and stop living in the '70s?

Jeff: That is sometimes discouraging, when AOR is seen as last to jump on something that is clearly happening. Whether you are a CHR or AOR, you cannot be the last perceived supporter of a band that is exploding. For some AORs, to be this late on Offspring is to me astonishing. Why allow a clear competitor to be playing the hell out of a marvelous record which is creating such a huge buzz? Just because you may be playing more Gold than the other station that's playing a lot more new records, doesn't mean that you abdicate the chance to jump on something that's clearly exploding. The definition of a great radio station is one that continues to flourish creatively and be relevant in the '90s. KSHE, for example, is a station that has always been on top because they constantly evolve with their listeners.

Do you feel that PMG has been appropriately aggressive in recognizing format fragmentation?

Jeff: Yes, we have, both in terms of what we've said in print and in person at our conferences. For instance, we've been well ahead of everyone in terms of saying that Alternative would become the new Top 40. In fact, in many markets, research has proven that the #1 music for 18-34 Adults is Modern Rock. It is a very exciting time to be doing radio. I've certainly never listened to more music, or been involved in hearing as many new things.

Obviously, working with WHFS, The Edge in Dallas, and 99X qualifies as a major coup in that arena.

Jeff: It's exciting to work with three programmers like Robert, Brian, and Joel because each of their stations is so different. It reminds me of how substantially different stations sounded when we first started in the business. Someone plays Haddaway, others play more Grunge. It makes it interesting.

Isn't it interesting that no one consultant has managed to dominate the Alternative arena a la the position you've maintained at the AOR level. How have you managed to keep diverse personalities like those three happy?

Jeff: I have great respect for them, their radio stations and their unique markets. We believe that the role of an adviser or consultant is to share ideas and counsel in important decisions, whether it's marketing, promotions or music. To me, it was always about helping to develop and encourage the next phase in the development of these radio stations. They were successful before we got involved. They are more successful now, and I think what's working is the combined brain trust.

I know you shopped around for a heavy hitter Alternative guy to work out of your office, but you never made a hire. I've heard it rumored that you and Brian Philips have a few side projects planned together. Can you comment on that?

Jeff: As you know, I am an enormous admirer of Brian and his talents. The reason why we didn't bring somebody in is that it's difficult to find somebody who fits with the philosophies that accompany this format. Plus, while I was in the process of evaluating people for the position, I came to the conclusion that I'd really enjoy doing it personally. I know the music really well, and the programmers I mentioned are great to work with, so it's really been a blast.

You're obviously anticipating a huge upswing in the number of Alternative signals?

Jeff: We are just getting started. There's going to be two stations in every market within three years, just like in San Diego. I think that some of the Triple A stations that fail will perhaps evolve into a softer version of some of the Alternative stations.

How would you rate Jacob's Edge success in the Alternative arena?

Jeff: They have been basically working in small markets with a few successes. We're obviously a company that works in most of the major markets, which is exciting for us. As the format continues to evolve, it's going to really take people who don't advocate a set formula. If somebody said, 'I can't believe how different the three radio stations are that we work with sound,' I would say, 'They sure as hell better be different. They are all in competitive situations. They all have fine programming histories and are built for their markets.'

Whenever you read interviews with other consultants, they love to imply that a large organization like yours takes away from the 'personal' contact they feel their stations deserve. Are you sensitive to the notion that your global activities could compromise the quality of your advice?

Jeff: That's such an old argument with anyone who hangs out their shingle, 'Oh, we'll give you more personal service.' I always say, 'Yeah, but what happens when the personal service is not very good?' That's just something other consultants use as a sales technique and it always has been. I'd use it if we were small, too. Tommy, Dave, Pat, and I make no bones about having the best client list at all times, and working with the smartest programmers. Tommy Hedges, Dave Brewer, and Pat Welsh are second to none in providing the highest quality of advice, information, and strategies. As for the global aspect of PMG, I believe being able to work in other cultures renews and replenishes our creativity. The experience frequently serves as a reminder of how we can sometimes get away from some of the things that might have made a particular station very successful. For instance, when you get too caught up in reading numbers and doing things in a micro-managed way, that's when you need to pull back and say, 'Now wait a second. I seem to have lost sight of what's really important in terms of how this station sounds.' It's not like we're going to get a great promotion in Prague and bring it back to use in Dallas. It's more about understanding the larger picture and renewing perspective.

I'll bet you had to love going into countries where they had no idea how to format a regular ol' AOR station.

Jeff: Yes, we do. But a lot of these markets are now very competitive. France is unbelievably so. Prague now has 19 stations. But early on, we could get away with trainwrecks like Elvis into Led Zeppelin. When you put on a station in an area where people have never been exposed to commercial radio, you sign on with three thousand songs encompassing thirty years of music. Obviously, these stations have substantially changed since then because there's a lot more competition. When you are the first station in the market, yes, it's hard not to be very successful, but we have to get the station thinking about the future several years down the road. That's what we did in Prague.

Do you have a hard time getting paid, especially when you are dealing with Eastern Block countries?

"I think that it's a combination of things that a radio station does that builds loyalty. Besides having the music on target, it's having a great morning show, sparkling production and great imaging and marketing — all these things."

Jeff: Not really, since almost all of the stations that we work with are involved with a western partner.

How do foreign governments feel about you importing such a huge chunk of American culture?

Jeff: It's not American culture. In fact, it's often a combination of French, Italian, German, and American culture. There are definitely American radio techniques, but not culture. We are extremely sensitive about insuring that what is played, how it sounds and the whole feel completely reflects the city and the culture of the country we are in.

How stiff is the competition? Does anyone present a broad based challenge to your organization?

Jeff: The competitors are more country by country. We've been working in Europe so long that we know all of our competitors pretty well by now. We run into them at conventions, so it's fun. That whole arena continues to get more interesting as additional countries join the fold, in terms of allowing commercial broadcasting. For example, Scandinavia has been a very important growth area for us recently, specifically Norway and Sweden.

How many stations do you deal with there?

Jeff: Eight in Norway and just one in Stockholm. In terms of future markets, as competition becomes more intense and the Europeans themselves are more sophisticated, there will be additional European companies doing what we do. So, it's not that there isn't room for other and Western Europe is training. It's kind of a different kind of advising and consulting, because we are literally taking people who have never done commercial radio before and training them to do it. Once we've trained some bright young people in the commercial basics, then we hope to educate them about what a format does, what a target audience is, those sort of things.

Is rock and roll radio as glamorous an export as blue jeans and Harley Davidsons?

Jeff: Yeah, in Europe and in Japan. In China, rock is not particularly popular. What's more popular is the Asian pop music that you will hear in Japan or Hong Kong. I don't envision putting on a heavy rocker in Shanghai.

Do you do a heavy rocker anywhere overseas?

Jeff: Good question. There is not that many places where that would work. It could work in Germany, maybe in the UK, and possibly Scandinavia.

You don't do much in the UK, do you?

Jeff: MTV Europe is based in London, we have several clients in Ireland, and other project work in the UK.

Let's talk about MTV for a minute. How compatible do you think the Rap and Alternative audiences are at this point? Those seem to be two forces that are most actively vying for channel time.

Jeff: It depends on what Rap and what Alternative you are talking about. Obviously, people who are fans of the music buy both genres, but there's a pretty large difference between the core fans of the two formats. If someone said, 'I want to create a radio station like MTV', it would be very hard to do. How do you marry Primus with Snoopy Dog? It's tough, and complicated and nearly impossible on the radio. But at MTV, it's being done remarkably well by Andy Schuon and his team.

Would you say all the Rap has lessened MTV's influence at the rock radio level?

Jeff: Oh, no, I don't think so. What happens is that MTV has a very significant influence on Alternative and Top 40 radio, and that in turn has its effect on mainstream rock. Again, I mention Offspring, if only because they are the latest band that has organically grown and exploded everywhere. If something like that happens on MTV, it becomes a much larger story, and very difficult to ignore in a market. So maybe with mainstream AOR, MTV has, shall we say, less direct impact than it would on Top 40 and Alternative, but the repercussions of a huge video are undeniable.

Clearly philanthropical considerations have always been a major thing to you. How ultimately do things like your Walden Woods involvement impact the listener?

Jeff: Again, I think that it's a combination of things that a radio station does that builds loyalty. Besides having the music on target, it's having a great morning show, sparkling production and great imaging and marketing — all these things. Then it's 'What else have you done? Have you helped support voter registration. Have you helped to do something for the environment? What sorts of things have you done that tell people you are not just a juke box?' I know that this is a very old theme, but it's undeniable that a radio station that truly connects with its audience on many different levels as possible has a chance to have more bragging rights, in terms of saying, 'Look, we have done this, we've accomplished that, we've informed you about these issues.' Our clients that have been able to be aggressively involved in things other than just music have established very firm bases for themselves. For example, Ted Edwards successfully incorporated these 'between the records' elements at KLOL and KGB, and now his recent arrival in New York will result in a lot of fresh ideas that will be heard on WNEW-FM.

Are you sensitive to criticism that your well-publicized involvement with folks like Don Henley has taken you totally off the street?

Jeff: I would say that I'm more on the street than I have ever been. As co-chairman of Rock The Vote, I have more information at my disposal about what is happening among the young adults in this country than most people have access to. Through referendums and reports I read constantly about what people are thinking, what they are saying, what they are interested in.

You don't need to get your feet stepped on in some grungy club somewhere?

Jeff: If you recall, we are the company that has been involved early in club showcases with bands like Live and Toad the Wet Sprocket and countless others. I feel that we are more in touch than we have ever been. Besides, how can you separate what people think about, what they vote about and what they are interested in from what they want as a listening audience? The two are inseparable.

Were you expecting a better American turnout at last year's convention France?

Jeff: We expected that we would have a relatively small attendance from our U.S. stations. That's a long way for people to travel. It was our eleventh convention, and for the first time we wanted to acknowledge our European clients and the valuable talent on that continent. Furthermore, it also afforded us the opportunity to redesign our annual convention, which we will be doing early next year. When you take off a year, you are able to say, 'Okay, this was really successful, but how can we do things differently?' That's one of the things that I admire so much about people like Andy Schuon who continually reinvents his on-air product even while it is still very successful. In order for our conference to continue to be the best, it has to evolve. It must be interesting and continue to offer unique opportunities for people to get together. We've had many meetings in the past six months, and hopefully, in the next four to six weeks, we'll be able to announce specifically what we have planned.

Your convention agenda has always included a record industry panel and Q&A session. Do you envision broadening label involvement at next meetings?

Jeff: Yes, quite possibly that may happen. We don't have a finalized agenda yet, but certainly that is a consideration.

Could we possibly work in a little more name calling and tail pulling?

Jeff: I love when there is finger pointing and heat emanates from the room.

More and more airplay avails, particularly in the secondary and tertiary markets, are being allocated based on labels' willingness to spend promotional dollars. What are your thoughts regarding the pervasiveness of that practice?

Jeff: Again, it's an individual station decision based on what they feel they need to do.

And you'd consider it a necessary evil in today's market place?

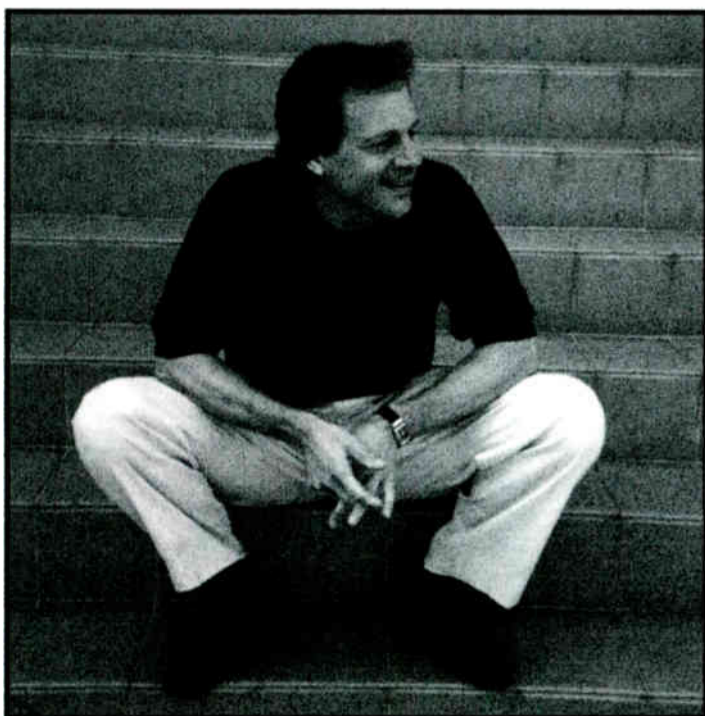

Jeff: We like to think that the best new records are equally considered, and that's always been the philosophy here. We encourage that at all the radio stations. Sometimes there are other factors that enter into the individual equation, and we're really not part of that decision making process.

You generally don't work closely with record companies for obvious conflict of interest concerns, yet you are quite comfortable with your soundtrack involvement. Why?

Jeff: All of our radio stations are aware of our involvement in helping to pick songs for certain scenes and they are all comfortable with it. We always tell them what project we are working on, and the studio is well aware of our policies.

More and more programmers, particularly those out of work, tell me that duopoly has severely cut down on both the number of quality jobs available and on what those jobs are paying. Do you think that trend has bottomed out?

Jeff: I think a lot of the shaking out has already happened. What that has proven in a lot of cases is that the economies of scale that were promised by eliminating a huge amount of the people involved in one of the operations, really doesn't put a station in the best competitive situation. That's why I have always loved the way Mel Karmazin has done his duopolies, with two independent operations even competing with each other and pushing hard to gain the largest part of the marketplace. A major market company, or even a competitive medium market operator, should have two complete staffs. Yes, there are ways of building in some internal structures that can save money, but I think that having two PDs makes a lot of sense. For instance, when you have one Promotion Director, there is no question that one of the properties gets more attention than the other one. That's when one plus one — in terms of properties — ends up equalling something less than two. I'd like to see more jobs in broadcasting. There are some talented people out there who should be working.

Buckwheat Zydeco, "Five Card Stud," Island
Jody Denberg, KGSR, "We're always glad to add some Cajun flavor on our station, and we love Buckwheat. We're starting with the duets with Willie Nelson and the always incredible Mavis Staples. Nice production by Steve Berlin, too." Dennis Constantine, "Stanley Dural Jr., a.k.a. Buckwheat Zydeco, is back with his old label and a great new album. Five Card Stud has the good time music we've come to expect from the master of the squeeze box. 'Hey Baby,' and 'Make It Easy On Yourself,' are two such songs, both of which feature fellow accordionist David Hidalgo on backup vocals. Others that caught our ears are 'This Train,' with Mavis Staples, and the cover of Van Morrison's 'Bayou Girl,' which sounds like it was written for Mr. Zydeco." Bruce Ranes WXPN, "This is the best album they have come out with in a while. It's a lot of fun for the summer and into Autumn. A lot of great grooves." Jim Olsen WRSI, "This is great summertime party music!"

THE HOT CORNER

Rusted Root, "When I Woke," Mercury "This is our favorite album of the week. 'Send Me On My Way,' one of many standout tracks, sounds like Paul Simon meets the Talking Heads. We're also fond of 'Cat Turned Blue,' 'Martyr,' and 'Ecstasy.' Be sure to catch this band at the Fox Theater on Saturday during the A Summit." Dennis Constantine, Mikel Elcessor WYEP, "After working with the band for several years, I've been impressed by how their appeal has steadily crept beyond the obvious H.O.R.D.E. type base that people would associate with Rusted Root. Their shows in Pittsburgh reflect the whole spectrum that people just love live music. They are a lot more broad in their appeal than most people would suspect. A lot of people will hear this record and write them off as just another H.O.R.D.E. band, sell the band short, and not think about what's going on. This is a great band, and you have to sponsor a show to see them live." Bruce Ranes WXPN, "Looks like it's going to be an exciting debut for Rusted Root. I'm looking forward to seeing them live because I hear they rock the house. We expect to have them here on the Cafe in the very near future." Greg Hills WNCW, "They're one of the best Alternative bands for Triple A because of the great music influence. Pittsburgh may be losing the Pirates, but they gained Rusted Roots."

Willy Porter, "Dog Eared Dream," Southwind Records Dennis Constantine, "Wisconsin native Willy Porter's debut, Dog Eared Dream is an understated gem of an album. As soon as we heard the opener, 'Angry Words,' we knew we had a good one in our hands. Try that one, as well as 'Boab Tree,' 'Jesus On The Grille,' and 'Watercolor.'" Pat Gallagher WMMM, "In Madison, Willy Porter has sold 3,000 pieces from our airplay alone. He played on the Wisconsin Terrace recently in front of 2,000 people. He is a success story for this radio station, and he had the good sense to move back to Madison from Milwaukee. In addition to being a great singer/songwriter, Willy Porter is a hell of a nice guy." Dave Leonard WKZE, "This album is new, fresh and familiar at the same time. Really fun lyrics, that have an alternative sound. It just works. My favorite track so far is 'Angry Words.'" Greg Hills WNCW, "This is very sublime writing, the gentleness is almost frightening." Bob Terrill KGSU, "This is a big, full acoustic sound, and I encourage mostly electric Triple A stations to add it to their playlist. What you get from this album is what you get from Willy live. This is him right out in front. It sounds really good. By the way, I know how they shot that dog on the cover."

Lisa Riegel

"'PREY TO YOU' has been Top 5 request since we put it on the air... it's an incredible song." Mike Marrone, KIOT

Triple Crown

Neil Young & Crazy Horse, Sleeps With Angels, Reprise

The album debuts at 14*, with nowhere to go but up: Chris Douridas KRWW, "It is totally refreshing to hear electric Neil Young. Invigorating as hell, I'm excited about it." Don Ferrell KRVM, "The single is so unbelievable! You can't get tired of Neil Young, even though you may have tried. This album is fresh, it's definitely going to grab your audience. This is one of the best things he's done in a while. Neil Young is yet another dinosaur rocker that's proving that he is still King of the Wild."

Zeb Norris WXLE, "Challenging and engaging sounds from a huge rock figure who refuses to quietly grow old and die. By the way, play the long version."

Chad Gilley WCLZ, "I really like this album, it's so atmospheric. My favorite track is 'Trans Am,' it's kind of moody. We just got it in yesterday, and we played it from start to finish, actually it's on the air right now." Dean Carlson KMTT, "This album is great — brutal lyrics, head on, and right on the mark. We got an explosive phone response immediately. There are obviously Neil Young fans here in Seattle." Ian Taylor WKVT, "Neil's back on the scene, and it sounds like his early 80's stuff. Crosby, Stills & Nash came out with a new album, Neil had to come out with a new album. If they get together, we could have a third album on our hands. This is a good album, check it out."

Marcia Ball, Red Beans, Rounder

Marcia Ball's powerful bluesy vocals will blow you away on this sizzling single. Jody Denberg, KGSR "Even if Marcia was from Mars, we've had added this the second we got our hands on it. The fact that she's from Austin and these 'Red Beans' are really cooking, makes this twice as spicy." Jim Disen WRSI, "It's great to have the new album from Marcia Ball. They're keeping the piano traditions alive with Longhair and James Booker, it's a great single." Dave Leonard WKZE, "This is fun music, kind of bluesy, and instantly likable. Only have the single, but we're adding it next week. I liked it from the first time I heard it. Great tune!"

Cowboy Junkies, The Water Is Wide, from The River Wild Soundtrack, RCA

More and more soundtracks are featuring Triple A artists, and the Cowboy Junkies have contributed this stellar track to the soon to be released The River Wild. Dennis Constantine, "This is one beautiful song. Margo Timmins' voice is exquisite on this signature ballad. Check it out." Jim Disen WRSI, "This is a nice version of an old traditional tune." Don Ferrell KRVM, "Every time you turn around, no matter where you go, there is a soundtrack that will probably do better than the movie itself. Cowboy Junkies is one of those bands that can do nothing wrong. They are always on target. This is definitely a popular tune here at KRVM. I'm so tired of movie soundtracks, but this tune is excellent!" Dave Leonard WKZE, "I love it! This is going to be big. I really like the Cowboy Junkies because from their first album to their current album, they have kept the same mood and feel. They're getting more of a mainstream audience, but keeping true to what they do." Zeb Norris WXLE, "This is wonderful, fits between traditional song and a core Triple A artist. Margo Timmin's shines straight to medium."

BBM, Waiting In The Wings, Virgin

That's Ginger Baker, Jack Bruce and Gary Moore for you acronymophobes. Greg Hils WNCW, "Well, it's really sort of Cream without Clapton, but Gary Moore does an excellent stand-in. The years have been good to Jack Bruce, his voice is still powerful as ever." Don Ferrell KRVM, "When I heard this, it felt like someone had taken me back in time with this single from BBM. They're geniuses together. This is not like they're trying to sound like the 60's era, but more like it actually came from the Cream era. Gary Moore does a great job filling Clapton's shoes. If you play it, your listeners will love you for it." Ian Taylor WKVT, "It sounds like Cream, but does it taste like Cream? Their talented musicians, let's give them a chance."

SHE'S LONG

The Local Beat

Greg Hils/WCNW

After only three months of translator service WCNW Radio is taking Charlotte by storm. The annual "Best Of..." edition of Charlotte's entertainment weekly Creative Loafing has honored WCNW with several major critic's choice awards as well as several mentions in the reader's picks section of the poll.

The editorial board of Creative Loafing named WCNW Radio in Spindale, NC., "Best Radio Station For Music" and selected WCNW morning mixer Marshall Ballew, "Best Local Public Radio Personality." The critics also placed WCNW just behind the revitalized club scene for "Best Hope For Local Music" honors.

The readers had tied 100.7FM translator for second in their "Best Radio Station For Music" category and second place for the "Best Hope For Local Music" award. Even the listeners themselves were honored as the community based organization "Radio Rescue" received "The Best Grassroots Musical Organization" kudos for the campaign that raised $17,000, in three months, to finance the translator. WCNW is proud to have such loyal support from the Charlotte area and we appreciate all of our listeners in S.C., TN., GA. and Virginia who make it all possible.

- WAMX went dark as of Friday (8/5), after 18 months on the air as a Triple A station. APD Dave Pekrul explained, "Basically, it came down to money. We had the goods, but we didn't have the vehicle to deliver it." For the next few months at least, Dave will remain with sister station WIQB. He can be reached at (517) 592-4450.
- KGSR/Austin and Jody Denberg have added yet another couple of awards to their mantle - The Austin Chronicle Listener's Poll Best Radio Station & Best Radio Station To Listen To At Work. Congratulations.
- Las Vegas listeners will once again be able to hear their favorite Triple A music on the radio. The former KTHX MD Ken Allen called in to let us know that the staff of the now dark KTHX will be moving down the dial to a different frequency and with different owners, but with the same Triple A sound on Monday (8/15).

Epic execs present the Indigo Girls with gold album plaques for their album Swamp Ophelia. hackery and the

"Trouble Man" Blind Pig

By Dean Barker, Renaissance Endeavors,
Madison

Trouble Man Jimmy Thackery brings the blues home in his second Blind Pig release with his trio, the Drivers. The trio sounds more like a large band and pulls you from in front of your stereo right into the club. The Drivers create a live date sound in a studio album of mostly Thackery originals. Thackery has obviously paid his dues. He's also probably been more than one girl's Trouble Man. After cutting his teeth jamming with Muddy Waters, Otis Rush, and Stevie Ray Vaughan, he spent over twenty years on the road. Most of the songs on Trouble Man are in rocking blues style which unfortunately doesn't showcase Jimmy's considerable guitar skills enough. One exception is the Albert Collins shuffle, "Don't Lose Your Cool." Another instrumental, an original called "Hang Up and Drive," also comes close to hitting the mark. As a lyricist, Thackery pens straight ahead blues tunes with titles like "Wild Night Out," "Loving You Right," and "She Needs Everything." He's also got a gravel-toned Huey Lewis voice that convinces you he's seen some rock and roll in his days. Bassist Wayne Burdette and drummer Mark Stutso hold the groove together with only one or two spots that seem like they were walking a tightrope without a net. Stutso also contributes credible vocals to "Mercury Blues." Unfortunately, the band never really lets loose. They've obviously got chops and a tight sound, but they never let go with the knock-out punch that's missing from this side. That doesn't stop it from being a solid disc for listening and especially dancing, however, I certainly hope they're saving the hit single for the next recording, because it's not here.

"Blues and Pain" Wild Dog Blues/Ichiban

By "Tarter Red" Allred, host of "The Beale Street Blues Show," WEGR-FM, Memphis

As we know, blues is reaching out in many directions today. Sometimes you get that longing to return to the hard-driving sounds of Chicago: west side, Maxwell Street style. That's where Jimmy Dawkins' Blues and Pain on Wild Dog Blues takes us. Jimmy cut his teeth on the west side sound, playing with people like Carey Bell, Johnny Young and Big Walter Horton. Blues and Pain has it all: slow blues, blues rock, dance music and blistering guitar solos. Jimmy opens the CD by rocking out with "Right to Quit You," then it takes you in a different direction with "No Pain," a slow blues number with dramatic guitar style that sends you soul diving with each lick. As for party dance music, check out "Blues and Soul," which is a jumping hip-shake number that will keep the party rolling. Also, for all the rock & rollers, "Lovely Guitar Man" is the track for you. This is a good record that doesn't have a bad track. Hats off to the guys at Ichiban and Wild Dog Blues, and to Jimmy Dawkins.

"Travelin' Mood" Flying Fish

By Yancy Yohannan, WRAS-FM, Atlanta

I was home the other night and I decided to mix myself a musical drink. It had been a long day, so I reached for the biggest glass in the cupboard. I cradled it, closed my eyes and conjured the blues gods for satisfaction. I passed out. It could have been oxygen deprivation or I could have been bored to death listening to the same old death chant blues. Anyway, when I awoke, there stood the musical bartender, a gift from the sky. The bartender looked at me with a grin and said, "What would you like?" I had a feeling that this was on the house, so I didn't hesitate. I grabbed my Big Gulp cup from the kitchen floor and slammed it on the counter. I said,

"Mix me some Charlie Musselwhite and Mose Allison. Oh, and put it on the rocks." The bartender replied, "When you say rocks, do you mean the Stones, Elvis or just plain ice?" I said, "A little Chuck Berry and a Big Joe Turner...oh, and a dash of the Duke." The bartender suddenly dropped his shaker glass and said, "Have you ever heard of this guy on Flying Fish Records, Gary Primich? His new CD rocks and the blues gods never lie." With a snap of the fingers, a cassette materialized on my kitchen counter (I don't have a CD player). The bartender said, "Listen, enjoy and call me a cab. I'm late for my appointment with the whining blues guy on the other side of town who insists that everyone should listen to pre-war blues." I thanked the musical bartender and I've been playing that cassette ever since. I listen and dream of smoky dance halls and jazz clubs from the '30s, pre-Elvis rock clubs from the '40s, and sock hops from the '50s. Oh, did I tell you that this guy can play the hell out of the harp? His cover of Ellington's "Caravan" has the Duke smiling while crying tears of joy from the sky. Travelin' Mood by Gary Primich is a wonderful mixture of traditional blues, jazz, swing, and rock... and just remember: the blues gods never lie.

Alice in Chains, "Don't Follow" (Columbia)

In a few short years, Alice in Chains has gone from being a developing band opening up for Van Halen, to one of the most successful bands in rock music and a staple artist at the COR format. AIC is probably the most eclectic and dark of the bands from the explosive Seattle scene. On "Don't Follow", they show their softer side, but still display the somber charisma that made them famous. While this may be a little different sound for them, the impact is just as strong. Jeff Horn of WRZK got on board already, because he felt it was "so cool, I was listening in my car on the way to work, and it sounds awesome on the air. The song hit me the first time I heard it!" He is joined by KEZE and KIOZ who listened to mom when she said "Don't Follow", and are leading the way on this soothing song.

Biohazard, "How It Is" (Warner Bros.)

In case you haven't noticed, Biohazard have been taking the Hard Hitters stations by storm, holding onto the #1 position for over two months now. This Brooklyn based band offer their straight forward, no-frills hardcore based music right from the streets and past the cash registers. The active portion of your listening audience is craving their music, and they are pulling in a big reaction where its getting airplay. Tracy Lea of KZRX has it in rotation and "its doing very, very well, a good response on the phones. "Tales From The Hard Side" did well also - people have been adapting to this record well, it pleases the core fans while at the same time is accessible to a new audience. They are putting hard rock bands on the map again." Having played the opening leg the Pantera summer tour, and now doing dates throughout the Midwest, to go along with an exploding base and MTV airplay on Headbanger's Ball, this is a COR band for the future - don't be the last to see their appeal.

Pro-Pain, "One Man Army" (Energy)

Another band who has been clocking in top ten airplay at the metal format is Pro-Pain. With their last release, Foul Taste of Freedom, they sold over 100,000 units worldwide and developed a steady following through constant touring with Testament and Body Count. Currently the band shot into the playlists of the metal stations with their crunching groove and their grave message. "One Man Army" is paced with an anthem-like guitar rhythm that is spiced up with some funky distortion and even some saxophone play. The band is clocking in some early airplay at KZRX where Tracy Lea feels that "like Biohazard, Pro-Pain are developing well, especially to the heavier segment of our listeners. We are looking to continue the airplay and we think after some time and exposure our listeners will really dig it!" Give this New York trio some airplay - test it out with your nighttime audience - and like a one man army the phone calls will come in.

Thunderhead, "Young & Useless" (CMC International)

This German based band (three Germans and an American) were raised on the '80s metal of Thin Lizzy and Kiss, and they are well named. Their sound exudes the confidence and power that was prevalent in those classic metal artists, with hammering drums, crunching riffs galore, gritty vocals with more than a bit of machismo, and a grabbing melody for good measure. While finding some support among the metal radio ranks, the band shot straight up to the top of the European and Japanese charts, and now the band is touring Germany with Accept and are currently a top five band in the European magazine Burrn. With a frenzied opening riff to stir up the action and a rhythm that will burn inside your brain for hours, "Young and Useless" is a perfect fit for COR stations looking for an vigorous song to ignite their listeners.

THE HARD REPORT

If you were lucky enough to catch Gene and Paul from Kiss performing with the Gin Blossoms on The Late Show with David Letterman, you know what a cool pairing that was! If not, you will just have to spin the Gin Blossom's version of "Christine Sixteen" from the Kiss My Ass LP and imagine! Pictured here after the big show are (L-R) Paul Stanley, Robin Wilson and Scott Johnson of the Gin Blossoms, Gene Simmons, and Phil Rhodes of the Gin Blossoms.

Not to be outdone by any midwest radio stations, WUFX in Buffalo strung together their own chain of over 2,000 bras and stretched them across the Niagara River to kick off the summer! Pictured here are WUFX morning guys Ted Shredd and Tom Ragan as they hold their bras skyward, and the Fox staff bask in their undergarments. So when is someone going to string jock straps across their local river!

Motley Crue are seen here collecting bras for their own bras across ... oh wait, never mind. The Crue are actually missing their soundcheck in Nashville to sign autographs for about 1,000 fans who showed up at Turtles for the party. It seems that The Crue are always looking for new ways to please their fans!

MARILYN MANSON

INTERVIEW BY HOLLY MCCORMACK

THE OPENING LETTER READS: "HELLO FROM THE GUTTERS OF FORT LAUDERHELL WHICH ARE FILLED WITH PISS, DISEASE, AND BROKEN TOYS. HELLO FROM MARILYN MANSON." WITH THOSE WORDS FROM THE BAND FRONTMAN MR. MANSON, I WAS FIRST EXPOSED TO THE ENIGMA THAT IS MARILYN MANSON, AND I COULD TELL THAT THIS WOULD NOT BE YOUR AVERAGE LISTENING EXPERIENCE. AFTER ATTRACTING THE ATTENTION OF MYSTERIOUS NINE INCH NAILS LEADER TRENT REZTOR, THIS FLORIDA BAND WENT ON TO BECOME THE FIRST NON-NINE INCH NAILS RELEASE ON NOTHING/INTERSCOPE/AG - WITH PORTRAIT OF AN AMERICAN FAMILY. CURRENTLY THE BAND IS QUICKLY CLAWING ITS DEMENTED SELF UP THE HARD HITTERS CHART WITH THEIR DIABOLICAL COMBINATION OF GUITARS AND TECHNOLOGY THAT WILL HAVE YOU SLEEPING WITH THE LIGHTS ON. PREPARE YOURSELF TO ENTER THE MIND OF MR. MANSON AS HE REVEALS A BIT OF WHAT MAKES HIM AND HIS COHORTS TICK. OH YEAH, AND WE WON'T TAKE ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY, UM, CHANGES THAT MAY OCCUR AFTERWARDS.

How's everything going so far?

Manson: We are leaving today to start the next part of our tour with Nine Inch Nails, it starts in Atlanta, Georgia tomorrow.

Was the tour difficult at first because it started even before the record came out?

Manson: No, I don't think so, it kind of introduced us before the fact, and got everyone ready for the CD. I think our bands go together real well. We are more of a rock band than Nine Inch Nails, but there's a lot of aggression in both bands and I think that translates to all the audiences, so it's been going real well.

How did you originally hook up with Trent?

Manson: We met five years ago in Florida when he was on tour and we kept in touch. Later when the band started developing he asked me for a tape, but a year and a half ago he called me and told me he was starting his own label and he wanted to sign us and have us be the first band to come out on his label. We really like working with him.

Do you think it is ironic the connection between where he resides (Sharon Tate's former home) back in L.A. and the name of the band?

Manson: Yeah, we both enjoyed the irony in that because I remember my guitar player and I - when we first started the band about four years ago - had speculated we should someday try and record there, at the Sharon Tate house, but at the time it was somebody else who lived there, of course. When he called me and told me he was living there it was a good irony. We got some good use out of recording in that house. It helped bring out some of the feelings that we were expressing on our record and it added to the mood of the album.

So you actually did get to do some recording there?

Manson: Some of it, but a couple of weeks after we finished, they torn it down.

What is the origin of the band?

Manson: Marilyn Manson started about four years ago as two words that I decided to put together to see what would happen. I watched a lot of talk shows and those seemed to be the two "characters", if you will, that stood out most from the '60s and I thought it was interesting that Charles Manson wasn't really his real name anyway, it's Charles Maddock. And Marilyn Monroe's real name was Norma Jean, so I thought putting those two together and taking them on as an identity would be a pretty sardonic kind of jab at Hollywood in general and the sensationalism that people need a flashy name like Marilyn Manson to get their attention. Also on another level, that the dichotomy of the two names together, positive and negative, Marilyn female good and Manson evil for a lack of better terms, putting them together and seeing what you come out with. It provides a real balance which is what my life is about and we've come to grow as a band, and the balance between those two things.

What was the initial response, with Florida being a pretty conservative state, to a pairing like that?

Manson: I think, because it is such a conservative state, it spawned something like Marilyn Manson, because when you put so many restrictions on people they seem to lash out. We have gotten banned from different clubs down here for different reasons, fire, nudity, blood, whatever. But generally I've been surprised to find that nobody really cares, it didn't really make a difference. I mean people care and they like our band, but there haven't been any legal repercussions against us, which I find interesting because there were in the past against people like 2 Live Crew, but they didn't seem to care about five skinny white kids making music.

How did you hook up with the rest of the band? Is it something that you started and eventually recruited people over the years?

Manson: My guitar player and I hooked up and started writing songs together. He took on the musical burden and I took on the lyrical side and we found our keyboard player, Madonna Wayne Gacy, early on and from there we sort of developed into a live band. At first it was more of a studio project and we hadn't decided how far we were going to go with it, it was almost an experiment for us. And then we picked up a drummer and bass player and here we are.

How would you describe a live show by Marilyn Manson?

Manson: I would say only to expect the unexpected because it's usually just at our whim what is going to happen. Sometimes there are more things going on other than the band. And sometimes there's not. Sometimes there is just the music and it depends on what we are really into on any given occasion. But I would say, expect at least to be entertained, that's what we are there for. Expect maybe some violence, that always seems to happen.

Have you ever played a tour with Genitorturers before?

Manson: We have played together. Gen sang a couple songs with me on stage before and I've been on stage with them a couple times, we're friends down here. It's worked pretty well, we've done it a couple times and everybody seems to be into it. Their crowd is a little bit harder than ours, more metal I guess, but we are both presenting a lot of fear and I think people enjoy their fear and like to play for their fear. Marilyn Manson shows are like that sign that you see outside of an amusement park - Ride at your own risk. That makes you want to go in, just hearing the name Marilyn Manson is like saying 'ride at your own risk.' That's what we've always been about from the beginning.

The South Florida market is best known for both death metal and the rap stuff, so when you first started out, what audience originally embraced the band?

Manson: We had to create our own audience, I think, in a way. Ft. Lauderdale is kind of an underrated scene because Miami always gets the credit for where we come from and where a lot of bands come from, but it's not really the case. There's not a whole lot of the scene in Miami right now, there are no clubs you can play really. Ft. Lauderdale is really where it is all happening and where we came from. There are a lot of clubs now that have live music, that we were the first band to play at. There wasn't much of an underground or punk scene down here when we first started out. There were a few bands that had been established and had kept doing their thing, but we were one of the newer bands that really sort of made things take off. Then the scene started developing after we broke through and showed clubs that people want more than just cover bands, heavy death metal, and Gloria Estefan or whatever the hell they play down here, you know.

What kind of influence did you have originally musically: were you more influenced by pop culture or by music in general?

Manson: I think both. I'm always influenced mostly by television and movies that I watch because that's what I spend all of my free time doing. I was influenced a lot by characters like the Child Snatcher and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and Willie Wonka and a lot of those type of childhood Dr. Seuss type characters and things like that. I always find deeper meanings in a lot of those little morals that they put across toward kids and those can really translate into heavier meanings for adults. That's why we have always held onto a real childish mentality in our band because I think there is a lot of power in childhood. Kids are really fearless and you are not worried about getting old when you are a kid and you really believe that your dreams can come true. So I've kind of been like the Peter Pan of our band and tried to keep Never Land happening.

Running around with Pixie Dust.

Manson: Yeah, and musically I think that we were most influenced by the stuff that really made an impact on us in the teenage years. The whole new wave and the whole original heavy metal when it first came out, what it stood for and when it was underground and was something real subversive like Black Sabbath and Deep Purple and stuff like that. We were also into a lot of stuff like Devo and Bowie and The Cars, Gary Newman and stuff like that because those bands were saying different things than the rest of pop music. We didn't want to sound like those bands, but we wanted to experiment in the same areas they were in, but in a newer '90s version.

A lot of what you have in your music is written about how TV in general has wasted the youth and this is how it turned out. What about society do you dislike so much and do you think conservative America is destroying society?

Manson: Well, conservative America in its hypocritical-ness is what's destroying society because we go around believing that "we have these morals and we wear these good guy badges. We're part of this organization and we don't want to eat meat because it hurts the animals and we don't want to hurt the environment and we want to be pro-life and save the unborn babies." People attach themselves to these pseudo-morals just to find some kind of value in their otherwise worthless lifestyle, but they don't really believe in them a lot of times. It's just a never-ending fact of life that people start believing their own lies and we've grown up, and we've been given all this violence and sex, drugs and rock n' roll - and every other cliché you can think about - and it's made us into what we are. Now America wants to blame us for how we've turned out when they made us this way, and they have no one to blame but themselves because we are a part of American society that they want to alienate. They want to say that we are just a small portion of society - the people who don't belong - but it's everybody. It's just we're just willing priority complex because they've made it so far, but Marilyn Manson is definitely about sticking up for the people who don't belong. I don't have time to jump on some band wagon against racism or sexism, I'm busy worrying about people like me who don't belong and that can't fit into any category. We're for individuality and the freedom to do what you want, but to take on the responsibility for your actions. I should be able to listen to whatever song I want, but if I kill myself or I kill someone else that's my fault, I should be a responsible listener, that's what everybody should be. Some kid kills himself because of a song, well, what good was that kid doing us anyway if he's got that kind of a weak mentality. He wasn't contributing to society in any way, his parents didn't teach him to think properly. He didn't find himself in time. We are trying to enjoy life. We may hate society in many ways, but we're not miserable, we're not complaining, we're not saying 'Hey we hate America.' We are saying 'Look America has fucked us up, deal with it. This is the way it is, you've made your bed now sleep in it.'

How do you think that today's kids would be influenced by Marilyn Manson, if at all?

Manson: They could be influenced on many different levels. It's hard to perceive exactly how people are going to interpret us. There's the knee jerk reaction that parents are going to get when they hear the name and they hear a song title like "Cake and Sodomy". They instantly don't want their kids to listen to it. There is a deeper level where kids could misconceive what we are saying and think we are advocating a lot of these things. Not that we are not advocating them, we are just saying this is the way it is. You need to make the decito admit what we are. They are not willing to admit that they have these fascinations and fears with these things that are supposed to be taboo and no one is supposed to talk about.

That's like in the '60s when they had all their decadence and now that they are all grown up, suddenly everything that this generation is doing is wrong.

Manson: They're seeing their own mistakes in us and they're seeing what they've already done and that scares them, because they don't think that we can handle what they handled. They have almost a supesion, you need to decide - do you want to fuck your life up - it's up to you. Then there is the deeper level where kids will actually understand some kind of truth that will relate in their life. There is no one truth I can put out in the music that people are going to say 'I know exactly what he is saying', because everybody is going to get something different from it, but if they could find something that they can relate to and it makes them feel better about themselves, and not like such an outcast, then we can achieve something positive.

Why did you exclude 'Revelation Number 9' from the full LP? It scared the hell out of me on the EP actually, but I noticed it wasn't on the full length.

Manson: That was something that we wanted as something extra to make 'Get Your Gunn' more worthwhile, I mean you can expect more stuff like that. That's a lot of the less organized musical stuff that we do on the side, which works its way into the album here and there. But 'Revelation Number 9' really goes into it and it's whatever you want it to be: it's a soundtrack for our lifestyles.

So what's in store for the band? Are you just going to continue touring with Nine Inch Nails? Where do you plan on heading from there?

Manson: We are doing a three month tour with Nine Inch Nails and after that it's real unsure. Our video [for "Get Your Gunn"] is supposed to be coming on MTV soon. They have given us a lot of restrictions that we've had to deal with. But we are getting ready to do a new video for 'Lunchbox', that a couple months down the road I think we are going to release.

What is the problem that MTV has with it? Is it just the concept of the video itself?

Manson: Just the profanity. I find it really ironic in a lot of things that people do - you can say 'suck my dick,' but if you say 'Jesus sucked my dick' then all of a sudden it's a whole new ball game. I think it is funny that America is still so conservative when it comes to blasphemy and religion that "In God We Trust" is on the dollar bill, I think that says it all. But no, they [MTV] just had a hard time with the language in the song, but we never intended that song really to be something that caught on. We wanted to introduce America to what Marilyn Manson was about and that's about being in your face and not really compromising. Unfortunately we do want to get our message across to a lot more people and MTV is really the only way you can do that. We've had to bend a few things here and there to make it fit, but I don't find that to be selling out. I think selling out would be selling yourself short.

What exactly is the Marilyn Manson Family Intervention Hotline?

Manson: Well, you should call it and find out. It's basically a way that people who have discovered what we are about and want to be a part of it can join us in somewhat of a real cult following. We are trying to establish a family sort of network, our own family values network, across America and eventually when the minority of Marilyn Manson becomes the majority maybe America should be really afraid of what could happen.

That would be interesting.

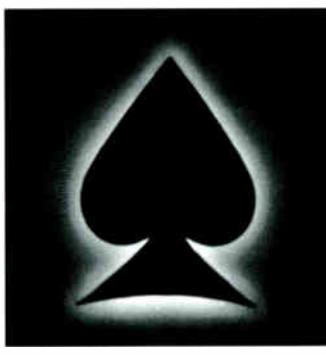

Manson: It could be Helter Skelter after all.

Metal Pick

Spade Ghetto Destruction, Spade Ghetto Destruction (Zoo) The origins of this band began in the rough streets of South Central Los Angeles, which will mature a young life much faster than necessary. Describing their self-titled debut release as an "assemblage of warnings" rather than just a collection of songs, the band's aspirations to educate and enlighten are foremost as you listen to their record. And to think, the core of the band initially hooked up because bass player Damion Cook was notorious for creating a nuisance that all of us have committed at one time or another: playing heavy metal music too loud! In South Central Los Angeles, Metallica blasting out of the windows is not a common thing, but Cook was famous in the neighborhood for that facet of his personality. One day, when Leland Bell (who also loved the hard rock strains of Sabbath and Hendrix) was visiting a friend who lived nearby, the two met and unknown to them, the roots of the band had formed. Bring in an accomplished funk and jazz drummer in Joe Smith, and the addition of Leland's brother Byron Bell - after the original singer left the band - and you have the cross section of influences that makes Spade Ghetto Destruction's sound so unique - even with the growing popularity of rap/metal hybrids. The release, produced by Sylvia Massey - who has worked for Tool and Greta - and the band, has a wallop that hits harder than a punch from Rocky, but you should make a trip to the production studio before tossing this on the air. It is well worth the effort, with songs like "Stop, Look, and Listen", which starts the CD off with an in your face message for the narrow minded, driven home by the dominant drums. The funky bass lines and rough edged, lively guitar melody of "Murder" keeps the pace upbeat, even with the grave message. For those of you looking for a curse-free song to save time in the production studio, the somber, slowed down, and very Sabbath-esque tone of "Time is Running Out" will fill the bill. The strong lyrical content of Spade Ghetto Destruction provides the initial impact on their debut release, but the one two punch of their resounding rhythm section, and the dynamic guitar work will ultimately be what impresses the listener. This is one instance where your trip into the 'Ghetto will most certainly come back to you in spades.

TOP Picks

M.O.D., Devolution, (Energy)

Billy Milano is coming and you're on his list! Back in the mid-'80s this master of the mosh pit created one of the classic underground metal records of all time with the Stormtroopers of Death. S.O.D. songs like "Speak English or Die", and "Kill Yourself" showcased their hardcore based thrash and sarcastic lyrics and made Milano a revered name among metal heads. He then went on to create Method of Destruction - or M.O.D. - and continued to churn out releases highlighting his sardonic humor with songs like "No Glove No Love" - he also found himself all over Headbanger's Ball with the "True Colors" video. M.O.D. hasn't played a live show in the U.S. since 1989 and now with the release of Devolution, Milano storms back onto the scene with a new cast of characters, including Dave Chavari - who played with Laaz Rocket, Gothic Slam, and on the last MOD release - Tom Klimchuck - who was the original Pro-Pain guitarist - and Rob Moschetti - who played with the death metal band Mutilation. Milano set out to update their style, make it more streamlined and assertive (if that's possible) and with songs like "Repent", "Crash N' Burn", "Behind" and "Time Bomb" providing a relentless assault on your senses, the metal radio masses won't be disappointed in the least. Brace yourself for the mouth that roared: M.O.D. is back!

Green Jelly, "Slave Boy/Carnage Rules" (Zoo)

The musical equivalent of being slimed has come out of hiding to assault the senses and infiltrate not only the radio airwaves, but once again the video outlets and even video games. Yes, you reard that right, Green Jelly composed music for, and is going to appear in their own video game available in September on Genesis and Super NES. In fact, limited edition versions of the game will include an audio tape of the music, trading cards, and a comic book. But for now we can enjoy the mayhem in the form of two tracks pulled from their upcoming release, 333. The first song, "Slave Boy", is their own warped pop song that combines the sound of The B-52's (i.e. - "Love Shack") and Bananarama (who for some reason are loved by Beavis & Butthead). The second track, "Carnage Rules", is more to our metallic tastes, with battering drums, plenty of distorted guitars, and a catchy rhythm to boot. You can always expect a tongue in cheek delivery and lots of fun from Green Jelly, and these songs are no exception! With KSHE, WHJY, KZRQ, WDBM, and WVXU already on, join in on the festivities with media conquerors Green Jelly.

RPLA, RPLA (Giant/Collision Arts)

This London based band is surrounded with an air of intrigue and glitz that makes the band accessible yet at the same time just out of reach. Their music injects the spirit of the London nightlife along with the seamy underbelly that goes along with it. Inspired by the classic glam rock (a.k.a. New York Dolls) and punk of the '70s this quartet (James Maker - vocals; Peter Kinski - guitars; Mark Sanderson - bass; Simon Hoare - drums) has taken their native England by storm with their track "Unnatural Woman", among others, that worked their way up the charts. The band have also begun to work their way up the Hard Hitters chart, holding onto the #48 spot from the strength of "Last Night A Drag Queen Saved Your Life" with airplay at DMX, KFMX, KLQL, KSHE, WRLC, WVCR, WFSE, WGLS, WMHB, WMMR, and WTPA. Tracks like "Metal Queen Hijack", "The Bomb and the Gun" and "U.K. Rock City" all combine their infectious melodies, the Astbury-ish vocals of Marker, and their razor sharp guitars that will remain in your head for hours. Now that we have the full release to examine, the true identities of RPLA are revealed, and all you have to ponder is how many times to spin these tracks!

The Toadies, Rubberneck (Interscope/AG)

It looks like the approval rating was high for the Toadies, with 40 adds so far, and airplay already at DMX, KISS, WFSE, WCWP, KDUR, WLFR and WRLC. This Texas based band display a quirky songwriting style that makes you think that they may have spent too many hours in the hot Texas sun, but with feedback-laced guitar theatrics and emphatically emotive vocals, they are a natural for any rockin' radio station. After winning the Dallas Observer Reader's Poll for the best rock act two years in a row and attracting the interest of Interscope records from a showcase at the Whiskey, the band set out to create Rubberneck. The three song sampler gave you a hearty introduction to the band, but metal radio should also lend an ear to "I Come From The Water", with its bubbly melody; the ferociously fast "Velvet", and the oozing passion of "I Burn". The raw indie attitude of the Toadies seethes through, but the big production and memorable songs show that this band is ready for the next level.

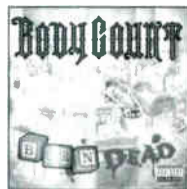

Samiam, "Capsized" EP (Atlantic)

Did you have your green eggs and ham for breakfast? Samiam surely did, and this Berkeley based punk band have enough enthusiasm to fuel the whole block for a month. Emerging from the same scene as breakthrough punkers Green Day, Samiam hope to follow a similar path, but the cutting, churning guitars of "Capsized" exudes a frustration and anger not found in their colleagues from Green Day. The second track, "Tag Along", is flowing and haunting, yet still impresses the senses with its strength. Finally, "Stepson", a song about rebellion, abuse, and fighting back is laden with contagious hooks and driving percussion. Samiam are no strangers to the road, the band has three world tours under their belt (playing Europe, as well as the U.S. and Canada), and just impressed many an industry member with their set at New Music Seminar. For those of us who didn't make that show, all we can do is check out this sampling from their upcoming full length release, Clumsy, and discover what the West Coast scene has known all along: the potency of Samiam.

QUICK Picks

Body Count, 4 song sampler (Virgin)

If you were able to catch Body Count on the Slamfest tour of 1992, you were able to get a preview of some of the material on the upcoming release Born Dead. Finally, a year and a half later the music is surfacing, and it was worth the wait. In your hands now is a teaser for your listeners who may have forgotten the frenzy and the fury of Ice-T and Body Count. The controversy surrounding "Cop Killer" did not cause them to back down one bit, in fact it seems to have energized the strength of Body Count. This medley - which is FCC approved - mixes bits of four tracks from the upcoming release, and not only that, a live video of the medley should come straight out of your mailbox and into the VCR. From the intro of "Masters of Revenge" to the last strains of "Street Lobotomy", after a couple of spins your audience will be begging for more, and by Labor Day you will have the full length, Born Dead in your hands. It's 1994, and BC's in the house!

Criss, "Bad Attitude" (TNT)

It has been a long time since we last heard from the "Cat", but we don't think that much of an introduction is necessary. Despite the talk show appearances of Peter Criss due to the story of a homeless imposter, he is best known for his work in a little band called KISS - who changed the face of rock music in the '70s (and '80s and '90s) - particularly with the ballad "Beth". After the turmoil following his departure from the band in 1981, he has now regrouped to bring us the first track from his latest solo release, The Cat!. "Bad Attitude" has the same vibe as his work with KISS long ago, filled with guitar harmonies and gritty vocals. With 34 adds this week - which would land them at #2 most added - it looks like many of you at metal radio have been anxious to hear from him. Let's just see how infectious this "Bad Attitude" will be!

Napalm Death, "More Than Meets The Eye" (Columbia/Earache)

The band that exemplifies anger and devastation in musical form is bringing you their newest track just as they set out on the heaviest tour to hit the road in recent memory — with Obituary and Machine Head joining the whirlwind trek. Still crushing their way at radio and in the top ten of the Hard Hitters chart, Napalm Death have a sound so fierce and brutal, they make the angriest punker sound like school children. "More Than Meets The Eye" should be working its way onto your playlist, and for extra brutally heavy kicks give a spin (after an edit) to "Nazi Punks F*ck Off". After all, why waste time waiting for the end of the world, when you can check out what it will sound like today!

METAL Filings

What's news? If you are searching for something new and unusual to add to your current playlist — look no further than the RPLA (Giant) self-titled debut album that has landed on your desk. The disc that spawned "Last Night A Drag Queen Saved Your Life" is now ready for some serious spins of its own, and with twelve tunes to choose from there is no doubt you will find at least one that pleases your listeners ears... Fear not, da boyz in Body Count (Virgin) have returned to the metal scene with a 4 song sampler primed for the metal waves. Make some space for any of the following from the Body Count medley — "Masters Of Revenge", "Killin' Floor", "Drive By", or "Street Lobotomy"... With the Toadies (Interscope) rumbling just below the Top 50 waste no time and add the full length LP, Rubberneck, August 15th and 16th. Thirty-one of you jumped on board with the Toadies by already adding the Mister Love EP that arrived a few weeks back, which means the rest of you better get the album on the air. Quick!... Okay, so it arrived with only one radio friendly song, who cares? With a little bit of knob turning you can give your audience one of the finest forms of rap/metal fusion that has ever crossed our desks with the twelve track self-titled album from Spade Ghetto Destruction (Zoo). If you don't have time to stop in the production room before you want to put the disc on the air give the Ghetto air time with the curse-free, emphasis cut "Time Is Running Out"... Just to re-iterate info from last week's ish, Billy Milano and M.O.D. (Energy) found it in themselves to put together 12 songs for the hungry metal masses and deliver it via the Devolution album. Go ahead and add it now... Green Jelly (Zoo) mark their come back with two songs taken from their upcoming 333 record. We have faith that you will drop the disc in the nearest CD player and give either the impact track "Carnage Rules" or "Slave Boy" a whirl. And this is only a drop in the proverbial slime bucket of what is to come from the Jelly — look for the album, a video, upcoming comic book series, and a soundtrack to a video game (the Acclaim release, "Spiderman & Venom: Maximum Carnage" based on the Marvel Comics' 14 part comic book series). You can let Green Jelly fans know that an audiotape of the game will be included in a special kit for buyers who reserve their copy before its release date. Whew... Even if you aren't into green eggs and ham, you will definitely dig the three song sampler from Samiam (Atlantic). Get it? Anyway, you have the trax "Capsized", "Tag Along" and "Stepson" to choose from, that is until the entire Clumsy LP invades your world... Obituary (Roadrunner) are not only perched in the #14 position on the Hard Hitters chart and looking up, but they are planning to bring more mayhem with the arrival of the World Demise album. Add it August 22nd and 23rd... We know you can't get enough of the boys in Mutha's Day Out (Chrysalis/EMI) and that is why another single is on the way. The "Green" CD-pro is scheduled to arrive just in time for August 29th and 30th adds... The Sinister Dane (Columbia) self-titled record will be on the streets August 30th. Make a note of it... Have I already told you that Cathedral (Earache/Columbia) deliver the Cosmic Requiem EP to the stores August 30th. Then you will be required to add it the Tuesday following Labor Day (that would be September 6th)... The wait is almost over — Corrosion Of Conformity (Columbia) give to us the first single from their upcoming album, Deliverance. C.O.C. go for adds September 12th and 13th for the "Broken Man" single... Another September 12th and 13th adds comes from those in Entombed (Earache/Columbia). The band are planning to release "God Of Thunder" as a b-side on the "Full Of Hell" single... Keep in mind that Overdose (Futurist) have been given September 26th and 27th add dates for their upcoming release... New stuff from Leeway (Futurist) is said to be arriving for October 3rd and 4th adds... Look to October 11th for the arrival of the Exit-13 (Relapse) album, Ethos Music... The mailman will also bring the Dark Passages compilation (courtesy of those in the Rise Above/Relapse offices) for radio play October 10th and 11th... Look for the Circle Of Dust (REX) album, Brainchild, to be re-issued in late Fall... October 25th marks the release of The Fourth Dimension from Hypocrisy... Those in the Earache/Columbia Records offices have inked a deal with the English band Dub War. New material from them should be out in January of 1995. 🐛🐛🐛🐛 Looks like now is the time to be catching as many of the fine end of the summer tours as possible — especially with the likes of Pantera (EastWest) and Prong (Epic) wrapping up their cross country trek. The final shows are August 16th in Kalamazoo, Michigan; August 17th in Columbus, Ohio; the 19th in Uniondale, New York; and Saturday, August 20th in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania...

Mercury metal's own Downset wind their tour down with shows August 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 22nd and 23rd in Berkeley, San Francisco, Corona, Huntington Beach, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, San Diego, California respectively... Life Of Agony (Roadrunner) and Carcass (Earache/Columbia) screech to a halt with the final dates of the brutal assault August 16th in Nashville, Tennessee; the 18th in Atlanta, Georgia; on the 19th in St. Petersburg, Florida; August 20th in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida; and finally, August 21st in Orlando, Florida... Look for Pro-Pain (Energy) on the road as they warm up the audiences on the Overkill (Atlantic) tour. Eighteen dates have been booked from an August 19th stop in Cohoes, New York to a September 19th showing in Austin, Texas... Try to catch the August 20th and 21st dates of the Metallica (Elektra), Suicidal Tendencies (Epic) and Candlebox (Maverick) musical extravaganza cuz word is that Fight (Epic) will be warming up the audiences at the Tampa and Miami shows... Looks like a few of you are really into Shootyz Groove (Mercury), considering the band dropped in as the #1 Most Added record this week with 46 adds for the Five From J.I.V.E. EP. Since this is all true you better check the band out as they wander stateside from an August 16th show in Berkeley, California to an August 23rd show in San Diego, California. Other shows you can catch will be in San Francisco, Corona, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Hollywood, California. Oh, and then the Groove are off to the Reading Festival in Reading, England. Before traveling the European countryside for a handful of dates running from an August 28th show at the Lowlands Festival to a performance at the Metropolis Festival in Holland...

DGeneration (EMI) take their brand of metal music to the road with shows August 15th in Buffalo, New York; August 16th in Rochester, New York; August 17th in Allentown, Pennsylvania; August 19th in Hampton Beach, New Hampshire; August 20th in New Britain, Connecticut; and August 26th in New York, New York. BE at one of these shows, I insist... The Skatenigs (Red Light) are taking off on their rampage of the U.S. August 18th with a showing in Houston, Texas. Shows have been booked on the 19th, 20th, 24th and 27th of the month stopping in Dallas, Lafayette, Tampa and Atlanta. Be warned, this is only the beginning!... It has been confirmed that Sacred Reich (Hollywood) will be joining Sepultura (Epic/Roadrunner) when they travel to New Zealand and Australia in September for a slew of dates. Word is that the Reich will be testing out some of their new material. Wow, wish we could be there!

🐛🐛🐛🐛 A point of interest this week comes from the Megadeth (Capitol) camp. It seems the boys worked with world renowned photographer Richard Avedon (who apparently is a fan of the band and was interested in working with them) at his studio in New York City capturing images of the foursome wearing both casual and stage-ready clothing. The portraits are to appear on the band's upcoming album, due out on Halloween... Did you know that Babes In Toyland (Reprise), Sonic Youth (DGC) and 4 Non Blondes (Interscope) are participating on The Carpenters tribute album called If I Were A Carpenter, that coincides with the 25th anniversary of The Carpenters signing with A&M Records. Cool... On the industry front, we send our congratulations to a man named Chainsaw who has been appointed to the Hard Rock/Metal Promotions position at Mechanic Records. And to Darren Marani who now fills the Director of Alternative Promotions chair at Mechanic... And to Beth Krakower who is now heading up the radio promotions department at Mausoleum Records. 🐛🐛🐛🐛 My final message of the week — Body Count is in the house! And they are gonna be at this year's Foundations Forum. Yes!! Anyway, in the immortal words of Tigger, "T.T.F.N." — that would be, Ta Ta For Now - Peace.

In one of those Drown kind of moments, the members of the band were seen sharing wall space with a group of illustrious industry types. Caught by the camera's eye are Dave Ogilvie (producer), Larry Mac, Marco Porcone (drummer), Joseph Bishara (guitars), Rob "Rockfish" Oxford (KISW), Rob Nicholson (guitars), Fitz (KIOZ), Lauren Boquette (vocals), Michelle Meisner (Elektra) and Jessica Harley (Elektra).

We have a feeling that this could be the one and only time you will ever see this particular group of fellas this somber, especially considering those photographed are members of Napalm Death and Obituary. This particular metal line-up was taken during one of the many outings the two bands have had on their current tour together. Oh yeah, Machine Head are also on the bill.

Here are a few of the folks who attended one of the recent Soundgarden, Eleven, and TAD shows at the Armory in NYC - you know the one that was about 800 degrees and had no air conditioning. Anyway, this shot was taken when Hollywood's wonderful Dyana Kass gave folks a respite from the heat and introduced them to members of Eleven. Those pictured include Kim Burke and Mike DePippa (WSOU), Russell Dannecker (Zig Zag), Marina Zobgi (Metal Edge), Alain Johannes (Eleven), Dee Snider (WRCN), Rob Gill (WCWP), the Hard hat's own Holly McCormack, Jack Irons (Eleven), Jimmy Fay (Hollywood), Natasha Schneider (Eleven), Jason (Concrete Marketing), Dyana Kass herself, Jenni Glenn (CMJ) and Ciro Lazella.

We're not sure which is cooler — standing picture perfect with all three members of Eleven, or making a sandwich of WRCN's Dee Snider. Either way this photo captures both of the memory making moments. P.S. from left to right are Jack Irons, Alain Johannes, Dee Snider and Natasha Schneider.

We'll just give you the facts on this one. This shot was when Merrit Gant (of Overkill fame) dropped by the WGLS studios with a coupla buds (Zap and Joey) to chat with 'GLS radio guy Andy Gradel, and it was taken at 1 o'clock in the morning. Which leaves us to ponder the question — what on earth do they have to smile about, it's 1 o'clock in the morning, everyone should really be asleep, like normal people.

This fearsome foursome gathered at the recent McGathy bash for a few drinks, good conversation, a coupla good laughs and basically an all around good time. Those sharing a smile are A&M's Mike Rittberg, Morgan, Capitol's Dave Downey and our own Holly McCormack.

This Picture, "Heart of Another Man," Dedicated/Arista This English quartet encompasses bright, contained pop euphoria, and their latest effort serves as an excellent example of this. Their second full-length record was 18 months in the making, as their working with producer extraordinaire Rupert Hine tweaked their skills and helped them come together as artists. The result is an entirely mature, thoroughly cohesive effort that has these Cheltenham natives poised for States-wide acceptance. Polished yet still infused with identity, the lead track's appeal will come across on first listen. With definite crossover potential, your early entry on this could help you reap some decent success. Already on WEQX, KKNB, WDST, and WWDX.

G Love and Special Sauce, "Cold Beverage," Epic Hip hop's exploration of jazz is by now well known and has been, one could argue, exploited, as masses of not-so inventive artists in the vein have proliferated over the past few years. And in order for subgenres of music to constantly evolve, it takes an artist to reset the trends and expand the field of play. Usually this is done by exploring other elements, and far back at jazz's roots is the blues. What, you ask, are we getting at? Well, here comes 21-year old G. Love, who pushes the hip-hop envelope further by going backward, in touch with and utilizing porchfront blues. Basically, you can't pigeonhole what G. Love does into a specific, predetermined label of music — he is thoroughly infused with originality. Biting, lucid, and keenly intelligent, his debut release showcases the talents of his live trio without effects — just rhymes and the blues. G. Love takes the concepts of understated slide guitar and drums highlighted by a dry, dusty snare, and builds around a smart, cutting rhyming style. Huge. Easily the coolest record we've heard in a long time.

Jules Shear, "Listen To What She Says," Island Over the past fifteen plus years, Jules Shear has consistently evolved and concurrently, his songwriting talents have been refined. One of the most cited influences for the pop masses, Shear has provided many a soundtrack for the disaffected with his material, as he's always been in touch with the subtle nuances of human nature. For his second Island effort, he's delivered a warm, bright record filled with his signature charm and distinctly crisp overall sound. Never one to play to trends, Shear's work for the most part has been embraced mostly by the adult-leaning stations. But we're confident that, as his singing talents take center stage on this upbeat, radiant track, the format is better suited to embrace his artistry. Definitely adds character and fullness to that playlist of yours.

Kill Creek, "Fruitpie," Mammoth Hailing from the extremely fertile locale that is Lawrence, Kansas, Kill Creek blend a decidedly dark musical aura with strong pop overtones. Raw and thoroughly infused with energy, Kill Creek's material maintains a youthful urgency and a total sense of relevance. These elements are showcased throughout Stretch, the band's five song debut EP. Stretch serves as the perfect introduction to this band who, with their full-length debut to be released this Fall, we'll be hearing a lot about. Will break out at college, but we're expecting clueful stations to step out on this high-quality release.

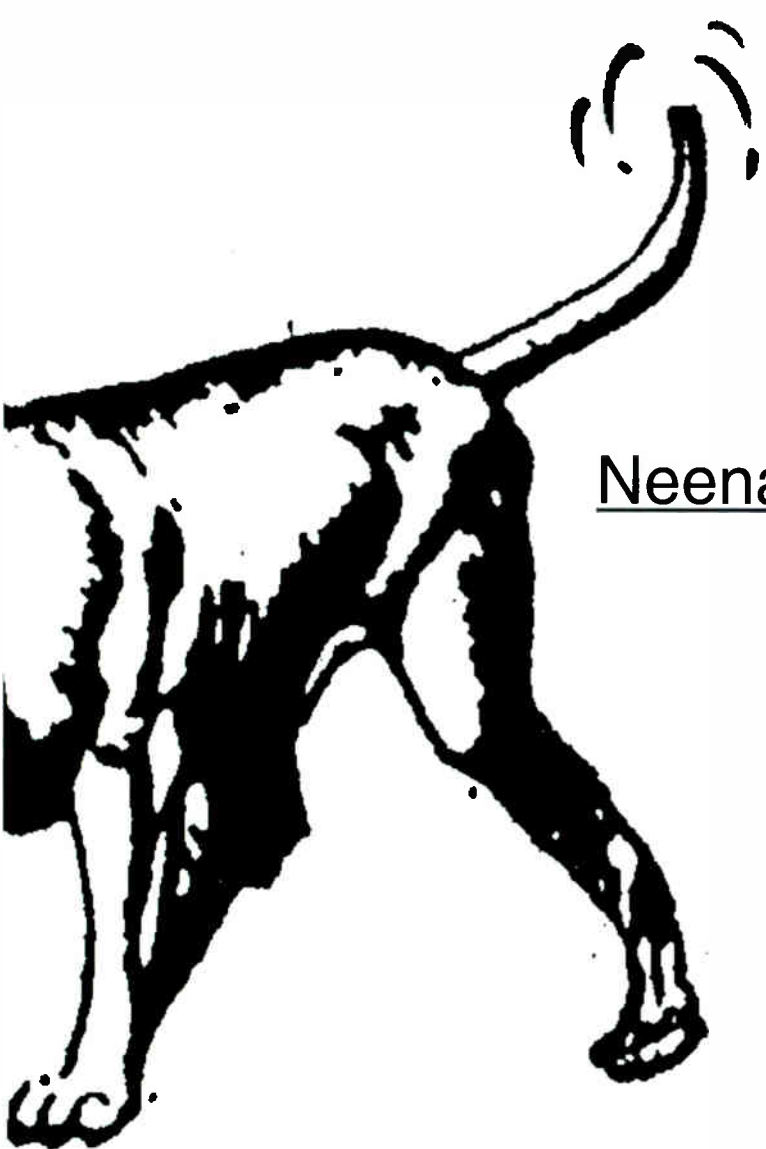

Damn The Diva, "Cure Yourself," Caliber Major score for this label in bringing this incredibly hot, much sought-after Vancouver band on board. Tons of attitude in this band, with a delivery that is highlighted by fiery guitars and vocals pushed out with a gravelly snarl. Their eponymous debut effort is a high-charged record with tons of character and a sharply defined sense of identity, one that is remarkable for such a young band. The first track is viciously direct and gripping in its presentation, with a hook brought about from the scratchy guitar and well defined bottom. Smart money is on the success of the band (huge up north) and the label that has put its efforts behind it.

Shawn Colvin, "Every Little Thing He Does Is Magic," Columbia Colvin's viability in the alternative world is definite and strong, and not just with the upper demos. In the five years she's been recording, Colvin has easily proven herself as one of the most respected artists in the singer/songwriter vein. Her material conveys real thoughts and sentiments, and does so in a way that's thoroughly heartfelt, always infused with class and charm. Cover Girl, her third Columbia outing, showcases 12 interpretations of other writers' material. This track is her take on the famous Police song, one that should garner some nice support in the alternative world.

So you might have actually gone. We resisted, realizing that we observe enough exploitation over the course of the week and were in no mood for more. Besides, we've already seen Crosby, Stills and Nash... LIVE 105 is addressing the crisis in Rwanda for Bay area radio listeners with an informational phonenumber and a free concert in Golden State Park on August 6th. The crowd of 3,000 music fans at this show were invited to learn about the issues in Rwanda, and make cash donations at the show... Caroline Records announces the appointment of Matthew Flott to the position of Chief Operating Officer, effective immediately. Flott was previously Chief Financial Officer for the label... Just as Cause & Effect were about to take the stage at the WENZ's anniversary show, the biggest in Cleveland's history, consisting of 17 consecutive performances by bands like L7, Violent Femmes, Gigolo Aunts and Candlebox, the weather took over. Without warning, the skies over the Geauga Fairgrounds opened up, unleashing torrents of rain, thunder and lightning on the crowd of 15,000. Cause & Effect took refuge in a trailer they shared with Candlebox for over an hour. The band declared an end to the storm by performing "It's Over Now," as the skies cleared up almost on cue. Pretty wild, eh? (Alright, it's been a slow news week)... Looks like Thomas Westfall could be nearing a gig sometime in the very near future... WEQX's search is over, as the station has named Kevin Quinn as their new Production Director/Air Talent. He has been the acting Production Director at WEQX for the past two months, and will officially take over his new position effective Monday, August 8th. Kevin came to work WEQX in a part-time capacity in October, 1993, after working as Music Director and evening air talent at WASH in Washington, D.C. Kevin was promoted to full-time air talent in May of 1994... Is anyone actually reading this?... Mammoth Records is poised to release the Jabberjaw benefit compilation Good To The Last Drop, which features previously unreleased tracks from Beck, Helmet, Hole, Jawbox, Teenage Fanclub and Seaweed to name a few. The compilation (out August 23rd) follows a series of limited edition 7" singles that sold briskly at indie record stores and, along with early press pieces in Rolling Stone and Alternative Press, have started a strong buzz on Jabberjaw and the record. All proceeds of the release go to the club, a mainstay of the L.A. music scene... Worked over and paid under... IRS is rockin' aside from the wonderful new Dada record they have coming up, and the building Over The Rhine (noe to mention Pato Banton), you should keep your eyes open for a Go-Go's compilation (featuring B-sides and unreleased tracks as well as 3 new songs), a Kirsty MacColl compilation, and coming up soon is Australia's Single Gun Theory (who've just been selected to open for Sarah McLachlan)... Check out Yousou N'Dour and Neneh Cherry on Letterman this Tuesday, August 16th. We attended his Columbia Radio Hour performance last week and were absolutely blown away by the true master's sheer intensity... The new Liz Phair is awesome. Called Whip Smart, the record will be in your hands in about a month, with the single "Super Nova."... Trevor Rabin says the Concertsonics system that allows some concert fans to listen to the band's shows on headphones has been well-received. "A lot of people have thought it's really good," Rabin says. Roger Hodgson from the band Supetramp came to the show in San Francisco and stuck the headphones on and liked it. "Rabin says the band realizes it may make it easier for people to make bootleg tapes of their shows, but they really don't mind. 'Our main concern is that they use good tape,' he says. 'People do it anyway, so what are you going to do? We may as well have good quality (bootlegs).' The system offers a slightly different mix to what comes through the speakers at concerts, Rabin adds. 'There's just a different emphasis on different aspects,' he says. 'If a solo is being played, it's far more vivid than when you listen to the P.A. And although we have very extensive P.A. on this tour — a monumental kind of quadrophonic sound that comes at you from all sides — if you put the headphones on, it gives you a very different perspective.'

Toni Childs says she's not sure why she chose to go India to record her new album, "The Woman's Boat." "Something in the music and culture called me," she says. "It wasn't a particular musician that drew me there." Childs put together a mobile recording studio though she also recorded parts of the new album at Peter Gabriel's Real World Studios in England. It was there that she worked with Indian and African musicians, including Zap Mama. "For so much of my life, I've been trying to fit in with the boys," Childs says of title to the new LP. "I felt I'd missed the boat — the woman's boat — but now I know I've been on it all along."

The Cranberries will release a new album this fall tentatively titled "No Need To Argue." "(They're) kind of, we think, better song than the songs that were on the first album," says guitarist Noel Hogan. "Not saying we don't like those, it's just that we know more of what we are doing than we did the last time. It varies more than the first album would have. We did some heavy kind of things in some songs that we hadn't done before."

A televised concert in Australia, headlined by John Farnham, raised almost $3 million for CARE Australia to help Rwandan children. "All of the money raised will be used to provide urgent care for these vulnerable children and to implement a long-term resettlement program," says CARE Australia national director Ian Harris. About 6,000 people attended the John Farnham & Friends concert held in Melbourne.

Charlie Sexton has been writing songs with Tonio K for an upcoming album to be produced by Malcolm Burn. It's Sexton's first album since the break-up of the Arc Angels.

Heart's upcoming acoustic live album will include new arrangements of "These Dreams" and "Alone" as well as new versions of "Little Queen" and "Dream Of The Archer." The album, being recorded in Seattle this month, is being produced by John Paul Jones, the former Led Zeppelin bass player. "A lot of people don't know that before he was in Led Zeppelin he used to arrange for the Rolling Stones and a lot of other artists," says Ann Wilson. "After meeting John, he asked us to put together a wish list of songs we wanted to do and he gave us his opinions." The album will also include a new Heart song called "Cherry Blossom Road."

A 15-year-old broke his neck moshing at the Lollapalooza concert in North Kingstown, Rhode Island. Jeremy Libby was apparently dropped while bodysurfing on the crowd.

The Mighty Mighty Bosstones release their fourth album, "Question The Answers," in October. The band's currently on tour. Being on a major label hasn't changed things too much for the band, according to lead singer Dicky Barrett. "We've always made our records on our own and made the exact records we wanted to make. Nobody's made a Bosstones record before, so we're the only ones who know how to do it. We just invite producers to help out," he says.

Crosby, Stills & Nash have covered the Beatles' "In My Life" on their album, "After The Storm," coming out later this month.

Laurie Anderson releases a new album at the end of this month called "Bright Red."

Members of the Rolling Stones never made it to the White House for a planned tour while they were in the area to launch their "Voodoo Lounge" tour. "I don't mean to disappoint all of you rock & roll fans but none of the members of the band were with the entourage today," White House spokeswoman Dee Dee Myers told reporters. About two dozen members of the band's crew did make it by, however, for a tour of the mansion and grounds.

The Toad The Wet Sprocket single "Something's Always Wrong" will include two live songs recorded in the band's hometown of Santa Barbara. The tracks are "Don't Go Away" and "Corporal Brown."

Simple Minds release a new album, produced by Keith Forsey, in October, called "Good News For The Next World."

Johnny Cash withdrew from the line-up for Woodstock '94 a few days before the event because, according to his manager, "Cash's participation in the festival, as now outlined by the producers, is not consistent with earlier verbal agreements."

Grateful Dead drummer Bill Kreutzmann is working on a documentary about underwater sea life, filmed off the California coast. "I've been diving for several years," Kreutzmann says. "There's a spot about 280 miles off Baja that I particularly enjoy. I thought of bringing a professional crew along, so I chartered a boat last November with underwater videographers Wes Shiles and Jeffery Haupt. I discovered they'd both been to shows and are Deadheads, so the mix was perfect. We set out to show people what's going on in the oceans. It was all free diving, breath-held diving, so you don't overstay your welcome with the animals." Kreutzmann hopes the documentary will air on a national cable television channel. It will include a segment where he plays a drum for a school of dolphins. "I stood at the bow of the boat and hit the variable pitch drum," he says. "They can hear anything. It kept them around for an hour, then they got bored and left."

Joe Jackson's next album will be called "Night Music," with songs recorded with no guitars or drums.

The Cowboy Junkies have recorded "The Water Is Wide," a traditional folk song, for the soundtrack for "The River Wild," coming out in mid-September.

Fifty police officers and 27 fans were injured at the opening of the 15th annual rock festival in Jarocin, Poland. Police trying to stop a fight between two youth groups led to a two-hour fight between skinheads, punks and the police, Polish news media reported. "This could be the last festival in Jarocin," co-organizer Piotr Piotrowicz told the newspaper Gazeta Wyborcza.

Motley Crue have been playing smaller venues after a series of arena shows this summer. Bass player Nikki Sixx says it's allowed the band to get closer to fans. "We're going out with two semitrucks, a couple buses, and we're hanging with the kids," Sixx says. "It's so refreshing. We got rid of the jet, we only take buses. We all hang out two, three, four hours after the show every night. We have parties with the kids — it's the best. I'm having the best time of my life. Some people try to tell me, 'Oh, maybe we can put out another single and sell some more records.' I'm like, 'Why? This is great. Let's not let it get any bigger.'"

Carla Olson has a new album, "Reap The Wind," just out (on Watermelon Records). Mick Taylor of the Rolling Stones; Kathy Valentine, formerly of the Go-Go's and Olson's old band the Textones; Percy Sledge; and Mark Lindsay of Paul Revere & The Raiders make guest appearances on the LP.

George Michael has appealed the ruling against him two months ago by a British court which rejected his effort to be released from his contract with Sony Music. Michael contends that his agreement with the label is a "restraint of trade" that is illegal under the European Union Treaty. "It is hoped that that appeal will be heard at an early date," Michael said in a statement. Michael is already facing a $4.5 million legal bill and could be forced to pay even more if his appeal is unsuccessful. Michael is said to have a net worth of about $100 million.

Billy Idol was hospitalized after collapsing from a drug overdose. He was initially listed in critical condition after being admitted to a hospital in Burbank, California. His publicist says Idol was "feeling a lot of remorse and shame about the whole thing," but could not say what drugs Idol had been taking. Idol had been in pre-production on a new album.

A tax attorney for Willie Nelson says the country singer has almost paid off his $9 million debt to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. Nelson now only owes about $100,000, according to lawyer Larry Goldfein. Nelson obtained some of the money from sales of an album called "Who'll Buy My Memories: The IRS Tapes," while other funds came from the settlement of a lawsuit Nelson filed against his accounting firm.

An interactive Bob Dylan CD-ROM is coming out, featuring previously unreleased music and video clips. It will include biographical information and details of Dylan's songs. The CD-ROM should be out by the end of the year.

Courtney Love of Hole reportedly shouted at the clerk of a Philadelphia store selling t-shirts reproducing Kurt Cobain's death certificate. "You can't sell this in here," Love shouted at Steve Gone before storming out of the store with one of the shirts. Meanwhile, Love declined to talk to Entertainment Weekly about the death of her late husband Kurt Cobain. "I'm not ready because I don't want to get...hysterical in front of a journalist," Love said. Love's mother, Wendy O'Connor, told the magazine she worried that Love might also attempt suicide. "I was so worried about her wanting to join him that I stayed in her room," O'Connor says. "I did guard. I thought, I can't afford to lose her. I need her. Frances (Love's 2-year-old daughter) needs her. But she's got motivation and she's trying to get her boat veered in the right direction."

The unlisted track at the end of the Stone Temple Pilots' new album, "Purple," is a song taken from "The Second Album" released a few years ago by Seattle trumpeter Richard Peterson.

German police detained 32 people at an outdoor Pink Floyd concert in Munich for suspected illegal possession of drugs. Small amounts of marijuana, hashish and ecstasy were taken from the 26 men and six women, authorities said.

A small Australian record company has won another legal victory for its sales of "unauthorized" live concerts. Apple House Music of Adelaide, which sells live CDs for less than $4, has won a Federal Court appeal by the Rolling Stones, who tried to stop the company from using the group's name on the cover of its CDs. Apple won a similar victory against Michael Jackson and his record label last year. "You'd think that the major record companies realise by now that we know what we're doing — our fourth victory in a row is pretty good I couldn't be happier with that," says company general manager Noel Forth. "We pay copyright royalties (to artists) in accordance with Australian law and we've paid hundreds of thousands of dollars and I haven't had one check back — it's only the giant record companies that are spewing."

Bookmakers in England are starting to take bets on how long Wet Wet Wet will top the charts with "Love Is All Around." The track, from the soundtrack to "Four Weddings & A Funeral," has been number one for 11 weeks in a row, though it will have to stay in the top spot for another six weeks if it is to beat Bryan Adams' 1991 record for "Everything I Do I Do It For You." Bookmakers have reduced the odds against Wet Wet Wet from 12-to-1 to 8-to-1.

Seattle band Medicine Hat has finished recording a new nine-song CD with producer Don Gilmore, who has worked with Pearl Jam.

The Police will have an album of live tracks recorded over the years coming out in September. There may also be a greatest hits album from Sting in October. Sting opens a world tour in Jerusalem at the Sultan's Pool on September 18.

Bono, Elton John, Billy Joel, Don Henley, Trisha Yearwood, Tori Amos, Sting, Aaron Neville, Daniel Lanois and Martin Gore of Depeche Mode are covering Leonard Cohen tunes for a tribute album called "Towers Of Song" coming out early next year.

Elvis Presley's stepbrother, David Stanley, has published a new book called "The Elvis Encyclopedia: The Complete and Definitive Reference Book on The King of Rock & Roll." It's described by its publisher as "the ultimate information compendium" on Presley, including interview with over 75 family members and friends. Stanley lived with Presley for 17 years as well as going out on the road with him.

Rob Halford and Fight have released a nine-song EP of previously unreleased material. The EP includes five remixes of tracks from Fight's "War Of Words" album, but also includes four live tracks recorded during a live radio broadcast and a new version of Judas Priest's "Freewheel Burning."

Megadeth have shot some photographs with noted photographer Richard Avedon. Avedon is apparently a fan of the band.

The Soup Dragons release a new album in September, called "Hydrophonic."

Trent Reznor of Nine Inch Nails is now a record label owner, as well as a performer. He's formed the Nothing label in reaction to the constraints put on him by his former record label (TVT Records). "The idea was to keep it fairly small," Reznor says, "to try and find bands that had their own thing together, knew what they wanted to do themselves and could benefit from a kind of protective barrier between them and the big major label that would be distributing their record. I'll try to educate them as to how they are spending their own money, which is something the record labels don't want the artist to know." The label is releasing albums from British bands Pop Will Eat Itself and Coil, as well as new American bands Prock and Marilyn Manson and the soundtrack to Oliver Stone's upcoming movie "Natural Born Killers." "I was very impressed by this surreal movie," Reznor adds. "There wasn't a finished soundtrack but various people's music, layered on top of each other three or four at a time. He asked me if we wanted to release the soundtrack, but I thought what is the soundtrack? There's 70 pieces of music he used, from Bob Dylan to Lard — you can imagine the editing! But not being one to say no, I took a big editing system on the road as we toured and I'm just finishing mixing this big collage of the dialogue, sound effects and music. There is a new NIN song in it as well, but I was more an editor than a composer."

The Barenaked Ladies are about to release a new album, "Maybe You Should Drive," as the follow-up to "Gordon."

The Canadian beer company John Labatt Limited is trying to sell its share of the firm promoting this year's tours by the Rolling Stones and Pink Floyd. Labatt cites poor results of its concert unit.

Swing Out Sister releases a new album in mid-September, called "The Living Return."

Melissa Manchester performs her upcoming single, "In A Perfect World," and has an acting role in the daytime soap opera "General Hospital" on August 11 and 12.

The upcoming album from Jules Shear, "Healing Bones," features two songs co-written by Rick Danko of the Band. Shear is backed on the LP by keyboardist Rod Argent and former Cars guitarist Elliot Easton.

A 20-year-old Texas man was charged with suspicion of possession of a controlled substance after he was stopped by police in Rockwall, Texas, for speeding. The arresting officer suspected drugs were contained in the perforated artwork of the booklet accompanying the Plastikman "Sheet One" album (on NovaMute Records). A trial date has been set for August 23.

Corrosion Of Conformity releases a new album at the end of September (on Columbia Records) called "Deliverance." It's their first release since 1991's "Blind." Mike Dean is back in the band for this LP.

Tinsley Ellis releases a new album this month (on Alligator Records) called "Storm Warning." It's produced by Eddy Offord and features keyboardist Chuck Leavell. Ellis plans a tour beginning later this month.

Cher is working on her first film in four years, a comedy-thriller called "Faithful."

A Los Angeles judge has refused to dismiss a lawsuit filed by a production company against Michael Jackson. Smith-Hemion Productions filed a breach-of-contract lawsuit against Jackson and other members of his family over a "Jackson Family Honors" television special last March.

Janet Jackson joins Aretha Franklin as the female artist with the largest number of gold records — 14. "I'm just happy to find myself in the company of Aretha," Jackson says. "It's an exciting step." Jackson's latest single, "Any Time, Any Place," has also set a record by spending 10 consecutive weeks at the top of Billboard's R&B chart, beating her own record of eight weeks for "That's The Way Love Goes."

Attorneys for the late David Ruffin, formerly of the Temptations, have told a court in Detroit, Michigan, that officials of Motown Records falsified his signature on documents in an attempt to avoid paying royalties. The disclosure came in a hearing related to a lawsuit filed last October claiming non-payment of royalties. Motown claims Ruffin signed a release in 1977 waiving all rights to past, present and future royalties. But a handwriting expert testified that the signature had been traced. Certified document examiner Richard Kokochak also testified that other documents produced by Motown attorneys were pasted together from documents prepared by at least two different typewriters. The pending lawsuit in Wayne County Circuit Court will now be amended to include fraud and other charges.

Luther Campbell of 2 Live Crew was served with a grand jury subpoena during a show in Savannah, Georgia. The U.S. Attorney's office has declined to say why Campbell is being subpoenaed. At the Savannah show, two people were arrested on stage for public indecency. 2 Live Crew's record company claims neither was a member of the group.

A Los Angeles judge has extended a temporary restraining order against a man who had been following Madonna, claiming to be her husband. Todd Lawrence faces trial August 16 on charges of trespass, assaulting a police officer and resisting arrest. He was arrested last month on the grounds of Madonna's estate. Superior Court Judge William Allen has barred Lawrence from coming within 100 yards of Madonna or her property for the next three years.

Michael Jackson and Lisa Marie Presley-Jackson reportedly plan to perform together at an Elvis Presley tribute concert taking place at Graceland this fall. They are expected to perform at least one duet at the October 8 concert, which will be broadcast live on cable as a pay-per-view special and then released as an album. "Elvis Aaron Presley — The Tribute" is also expected to feature Elton John, Willie Nelson, Lyle Lovett and Bon Jovi, among others. A spokesman for Graceland denies that Jackson and his wife will appear.

The Associated Press reports that Michael Jackson invoked the Fifth Amendment on allegations of child molestation when he answered a lawsuit by former bodyguards who said they were fired because they knew of his activities with young boys. The five men filed their suit in November, claiming they had been fired without notice in February 1993. Jackson's legal filing claims the men only occasionally worked security for him.

Manic Street Preachers' guitarist and lyricist Richey Edwards continue to dominate music headlines in the UK following of his hospitalization last week. Melody Maker reports rumors of Edwards cutting himself with a knife at the private hospital denied by a Manic's spokesperson, while both MM and the New Musical Express say the musician's from the band's PR and management company also denies that Edwards is on the verge of leaving the band: "Speculation that Richey is leaving the band is completely unfounded. Even from the clinic he is still very much involved with the artwork and other aspects of their new album. He is, however, very ill at the moment and things have developed to a point where the band - but more importantly Richey - have decided that he needs to seek professional psychiatric help to deal with what is basically a sickness." Edwards is not expected to perform with the band until at least October.

Suede's first single since the departure of guitarist Bernard Butler will be 'We Are The Pigs,' scheduled for release on September 12 via Nude. Featuring a horn section, the lead track will be backed with two other new songs: 'The Killing Of A Flash Boy' and 'Whipsnade.' The single's lyric is reported to contain references to the death of Nirvana's Kurt Cobain and Suede's near arrest by British police last year (following articles in the UK music press which saw frontman Brett Anderson talking about drug use). Suede will shortly hold auditions for a new guitarist to replace Butler.

The Wonder Stuff have confirmed the track listing for their forthcoming 'Greatest Hits' album. 'If The Beatles Had Read Hunter... The Singles' will have the following track listing: 'Welcome To The Cheap Seats,' 'A Wish Away,' 'Caught In My Shadow,' 'Don't Let Me Down Gently,' 'The Size Of A Cow,' 'Hot Love Now!,' 'Dizzy,' 'Unbearable,' 'Circlesquare,' 'Who Wants To Be The Disco King?,' 'Sleep Alone,' 'Full Of Life (Happy Now),' 'It's Yer Money I'm After Baby,' 'On The Ropes,' and 'It's Not True.' Released via Polydor on September 19, the album will be preceded by a re-release of the early single 'Unbearable' on August 29. The album covers the whole of The Wonder Stuff's career from their debut single 'It's Not True' right up to their recent split. It's still unclear what the various members of the band will do in the future, although frontman Miles Hunt has been lined up by MTV Europe for some presentation work on the alternative show '120 Minutes.'

Robert Forester and Grant McLennan, who were formerly members of the cult Australian band The Go-Betweens, have decided to perform together again. The duo will play shows at Tower Records London Picadilly Circus and Tower Records Glasgow on August 25 and 26. The duo will perform a mix of Go-Betweens songs and material from solo albums recorded since the band's split. The show's are part of a joint Beggars Banquet/Tower Records promotion.

Hole are on the verge of taking on former Fall bassist Brix Smith according to Melody Maker. The report says she was chosen by Hole guitarist Eric Erlandson after two weeks of auditions. Elsewhere, Melody Maker gives a whole page to a review of Courtney Love at JC Dobbs, Philadelphia, written by Assistant Editor Everett True. The review talks about Love trying to get True and The Smashing Pumpkins' Billy Corgan to settle past differences (True has given bad reviews to the band) and quotes Love as saying: "But, Everett, you'd like him. You're both scapegoats, you're both my closest friends. And he's so much like Kurt." The review also refers to the death of Kurt Cobain and that of former Hole bassist Kristen Pfaff.

S*M*A*S'H, the British New Wave Of New Wave band, are considering taking legal action against the BBC's Radio One network, after the station played their latest single '(I Want To) Kill Somebody' in an edited form. The edits were made without the band's permission and saw the radio station taking out one verse which talked about killing the Cabinet and cutting sections where the band swore. Ed S*M*A*S'H commented to the New Musical Express: "They shouldn't have fucking played it. We weren't looking for radio play and we didn't expect it." Indeed, it seems unlikely that Radio One would even have bothered to play the song if it hadn't made the national charts and thus been eligible for inclusion on the station's weekly chart run-down. Ed S*M*A*S'H will perform at an 'Old Wave' verses the 'New Wave' show at London's Highbury Garage on August 11. A benefit for UK Subs roadie Gary McLaughlin who is suffering from cancer, the show will also feature the Subs, The Vibrators, Blessed Ethel, and, according to rumors, a punk supergroup featuring members of Stiff Little Fingers, The Alarm and The Buzzcocks.

Therapy? are reported to be amongst the artists lined up for MTV Europe's inaugural European MTV Awards. Provisionally scheduled to take place in the Brandenberg Gate, Berlin in November, the awards look likely to be similar to their American counterparts. Elsewhere, Therapy? have already begun working on new material for their next album.

Mike Scott, former leader of The Waterboys, will play tour solo UK shows this month. The singer will debut new material at the gigs. One of the shows - on August 28 - is at the Christian Greenbelt Festival.

Pop Will Eat Itself's new single 'Everthing's Cool' (Infectious, August 30) will be followed by an album 'Dos Dedos Mes Amigos' in September. The Poppies will support the release with a UK tour, through September and October.

Jimi Hendrix memorabilia will be auctioned at Bonham's, Montpelier Street, London, SW7 from August 18-25. Items on sale will include guitars owned by Hendrix and clothes the guitarist wore on stage.

The Cranberries have a new album 'No Need To Argue' scheduled for an October 4 release by Island. The album will feature 13 songs: 'Ode To My Family,' 'I Can't Be With You,' 'Twenty One,' 'Zombie,' 'Empty,' 'Everything I Said,' 'The Icicle Melts,' 'Disappointment,' 'Ridiculous Thoughts,' 'Dreaming My Dreams,' 'Yeats' Grave,' 'Daffodil's Lament' and 'No Need To Argue.'

News of Axl Rose's death proved to be somewhat premature last week. The rumor spread through the UK press and Geffen received so many calls from journalist that they contacted the singer at home. Rose is reported to have commented: "It's just wishful thinking on their part."

The God Machine's 'One Last Laugh In A Place Of Dying' will be released via Fiction/Polydor on September 12. The album was recorded shortly before the death of bassist Jimmy Fernandez. The full track listing: 'The Tremelo Song,' 'Mama,' 'Alone,' 'In Bad Dreams,' 'Painless,' 'The Love Song,' 'The Life Song,' 'The Devil Song,' 'The Hunter,' 'Evol,' 'The Train Song,' 'The Flower Song,' 'Boy By The Roadside' and 'The Sunday Song.' The plans of surviving members Austin and Robin are still unclear, although both are reported to be determined to remain in the music business and are currently working on an exhibition of Fernandez's photographs.

Paul Weller has a live album scheduled for release via Go Discs! on September 12. 'Live Wood' was recorded on Weller's British tour last year. The former Jam and Style Council frontman will support the release with a UK tour in November.

Generation X are to reform without original singer Billy Idol (who was hospitalized last week suffering from a reported drug overdose). Guitarist Tony James, drummer Mark Laff and bassist Derwood will be joined by Elizabeth, who previously performed with Westworld. Westworld had a hit in 1987 with 'Sonic Boom Boy.'

Robert Plant and Jimmy Page will definitely record an MTV special in the fall. The long-rumored project will be filmed in London, Morocco and Wales. However, it looks unlikely to be an 'Unplugged' recording as previously reported. Instead, it's believed the duo will record a mix of electronic and acoustic material. Led Zeppelin classics look likely to feature alongside newer material.

Orbital will play both Woodstock II and a French festival. The techno act will fly to Europe via Concorde after their American set and will be able to play both events because of the time difference. Phil Collins pulled off a similar trick on the day of Live Aid.

Sugar's Bob Mould has revealed the band were forced to destroy tapes originally destined to form part of their new album, File Under Easy Listening. Talking to the New Musical Express journalist Simon Williams, Mould says: "Out in Atlanta we were... oh, what a mess. We were in the studio for three weeks and nothing happened. I mean, everything was almost finished but it had no character, it had no personality. And I'm still trying to figure out what happened." Mould continues: "At the end of the third week of nothing going right, the shit with Kurt happened. Then it was just like, look, why don't we forget it. This sucks, I hate this, I hate what I'm doing, I'm going home. I just thought, this is a mess, I've lost it - I don't know how to make records anymore. So I took all the tapes back to Austin and erased them. It was that bad."

PEG POLLARD, KIOZ, SAN DIEGO

Well, I'm off to Woodstock '94 this week. Wish me luck! Yea, I know it ain't really "Woodstock," but what a great concert this might be!.. Glad to add Suicidal Tendencies "Love Vs. Loneliness," Bad Religion's "Stranger Than Fiction," and RPLA's "Drag Queen" this week. All great tunes with massive potential... Ray Koob?! No way, I'm in shock... Thanks to Giant for a fun, weird Saturday in Hollywood. The Lemmy/Rainbow Dinner was a blast, but the Viper Room/White Zombie show was outta control! (Even though WZ only did four songs). What the hell were Tom Arnold and Judd Nelson doing there? The open bar? You'd think Tom could afford his own with his monthly 100 grand from Rosie! Only in L.A.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

Joan Jett played a sold out show on Aug 2nd. In fact, fans wanting to buy tickets were lined up around the block...many turned away. Thanks to Jim Anderson and Kenny Laguna (nice to meet you face to face) for bringing Joan by the station. Everyone at KISW had a great time. We put "Eye to Eye" in this week... The next night, Helmet played with Rollins Band in town. Helmet came by the station and had a private BBQ with the staff and a few lucky KISW listeners. Thanks to Freddie Zaehler and Michael Pappali for making it all possible. "Biscuits for Smut" moves into medium this week. We look forward to Helmet's return to our market... Check out Tea Party "Save Me," we moved to medium this week... We also gave the nod to "Planet Caravan" from Pantera, and The Reverend Horton Heat...proud to have him on KISW... amen

J.D., WONE, AKRON

This past weekend was the fourth annual 97.5 WONE/Sunkist Beach Dig at the Pelican Cove restaurant and bar located in the Portage Lakes. This is where 97 listeners have the opportunity to dig in the sand for prizes buried in petrie dishes. In these dishes were certificates for the prizes including: concert tickets, CD's, Cleveland Indians tickets, Cleveland Browns tickets, and the grand prize a Suzuki 750 Kantana Motorcycle. It was another beautiful day for the beach dig and there was plenty of food, drinks and fun to be had by everyone who came out to either participate or watch. Up and coming, the NEC World Series of Golf at Firestone Country Club...The-Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week...Harry Connick Jr. ("I Could Only Whisper Your Name."

BELINDA SIMMONS, KEZE, SPOKANE

After cranking their CD, Initiation, since it came out, I finally got to see Course of Empire live last week...A killer live set to back up the CD! Don't let these guys slip through the cracks that I know can get real small with all the new music that comes out. Check out "White Vision Blowout"...better yet, get into the whole CD...Then share it with your listeners... They'll thank you for exposing them to some great new rock!!!

T.J. BRYAN, WDHA, DOVER

One of the best shows I have seen this year happened last week as 2,500 people were crammed into the Stone Pony to see Green Day. I crawled out of the pit covered in sweat, none of it my own. I'm convinced that I had sex several times while trying to get through the crowd, but I'm not sure. The band was absolutely fantastic! "Basket Case" finds its way into the DHA airwaves as a direct result... Two big reaction records for us get into heavy this week. Hootie & the Blowfish and the Freddy Jones Band are both pulling down great phones (number one three weeks running for "In A Daydream")... It's good to see Trent Reznor has embraced the true spirit of Woodstock '94 by admitting he's in it strictly for the cash ($250,000). Three more days of Port-A-Potties, Merchandising & Pay-Per-View! As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you!

MIMI GRISWOLD, WKRL/WKLL

Nix the wild rumors that Geffen's Ross Zappin will be replacing David Caruso in NYPD Blue. It's just not true! 1200 K-Rockers saw an actual audition for the butt-bearing roll of Lt. John Kelly last night in Syracuse when Jackyl's Jesse Dupree dropped by and dropped'em! After opening up for the Aerosmith show, Jackyl went wild for another hour-plus on stage at the local hotspot in a special surprise showcase for K-ROCK!.. And speaking of looking good, my hometown rockers Aerosmith did an intense meet and greet pre-show. They look marvelous and they thrilled fans with their patients and sincerity. My life is almost complete now having followed Aerosmith since day one and finally, after twenty or so years, having the chance to spill a few words with Steven Tyler and Joe Perry. Ross Zappin you rock my world... By the way, Jeff "Eraserhead" Gillis is on board as Program Director and it's a beautiful thing! I am enjoying devoting all waking hours to K-ROCK's music. Both Jeff and I are situated at Zappinplex in Syracuse...main headquarters for our six rock stations... Love letters and correspondence to: 555 Route 31, Bridgeport, NY 13030. Or call (315) 633-0047 for an intense game of phone tag!.. I MOTHER EARTH.

GUY DARK, WHDQ, CLAREMONT

I've "spent time" with the Gilby Clarke CD (we laughed, we cried, we beat the tribal drum together and bonded as one) and I tell ya, this guy has the goods! No G&R rereads, just quality rock & roll that ranges from punky to Beatlesque. Wotta pleasant surprise!...If anybody knows the lyrics to "Yellow Ledbetter," please fax them to me at (603) 542-8721. I'll send you an Imus-In-The-Morning, New & Classic Rock All Day T-shirt!

MARILEE KELLY, FM 101.4

Adds are now ready on Mondays: call the main #(213) 845-1600 and ask to be put through to voice mail, or if you call after business hours, call (213) 845-1616 to listen to the add line. Mike and I are just getting settled into our collective space after a month at the new station, so thanks for your patience. Calls are starting to actually get returned, new songs are getting added and the response to the station has been overwhelming. (Ask me or Mike to show you our faxes next time you see us.) Ok, bye.

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE

Like MC 900 FT Jesus says, you always gotta stay one step ahead of the spider. Know what I mean?...How do you spell Boulder?.. B is for Buckley, as in Jeff Buckley whose new album you shall have very soon. Grace is pure godly perfection...Songs like "Last Goodbye" and "Lilac Wine" will caress your inner soul... O is for Over The Rhine and their wonderful new Eye, a tasty pop morsel full of cool tunes... U is for Youssou N'Dour's The Guide: spin "7 Seconds" and "Leaving"... L is for the lush melodies that drip off the new Stereolab album Mars Audiac Quintet...it's like The Association and Velvet Underground all wrapped up in one soaring buzz of delight... D is for Dog Eared Dream by our favorite new singer-songwriter Willy Porter. Willy's got it going on in a big way...you can't lose with "Angry Words," "Jesus on the Grille," and "Glow"...Porter is the Triple A sleeper of the year... E is for Eddi Reader, former lead vocalist for Fairground Attraction. Her self-titled debut is beautiful...check "Patience of Angels" and "The Right Place" for starters... R is for Ride. Their Carnival of Light is the best Byrds record album we've heard in years (except if you're listening to the new Velvet Crush record)... By the way: I'll say it first: Sponge - their debut Rotting Pinata makes Alice in Chains look like The Ohio Express. It's gonna be huge, kids. It's not "A" but it's music that needs to be heard (thanks, Mike!)... The Hit List: The Nields/Bob On The Ceiling; Robert Earl Keen/Gringo HoneyMoon (Sugarhill);

Walter Becker/11 Tracks of Whack (Giant); David Dye endorses Desitin diaper rash ointment and Pampers Ultra-Thins in the 72 count package. If he had time to listen to music it would include Velvet Crush, Eve from Over The Rhine, and still Frank Black and Freddy... Until we meet again, rock on with your bad selves.

ED TRUNK, WDHA - HARD SHOW

YES! Finally new Tesla has arrived. If "Mama's Fool" is any indication than Bust A Nut was well worth the long wait. After just two weeks on the "Hard Show", it's already top five phones. I was shocked to hear that Geffen wasn't working the track to hard rock/metal radio! The song kicks ass, and this band always played great, honest, hard rock. Just because bands have had hits in the 80's, doesn't instantly mean they are "out" in the 90's! My listeners are finding music like Tesla's a refreshing "alternative" to all the music on the hard music charts, that really isn't all that rockin' and is all starting to sound the same!.. Special thanks this week to Doug Pinnick of King's X for being a guest on the show, as well as original KISS guitarist Ace Frehley. Both had local dates in the Jersey area... Top phones as of late include; Tesla, Love/Hate, Soundgarden, Kiss My Ass, Pantera, Overkill, and Gilby Clarke... The new Bruce Dickinson video for "Tears Of The Dragon" is really cool. The song is starting to build nicely, even though this sounds as if it should be all over AOR... And speaking of AOR, I must once again sing the praises of Jeffrey Gaines. I really feel this guy is the most important artist of the 90's. If you don't agree then you probably haven't seen him live, or listened to both of his brilliant releases. I've seen him three times in the last two months, and I'm still in awe. I'm even going to try spinning "In Her Mind" from the new disc on the "Hard Show" to see what happens... Don't forget to call the "Hard Show" hotline for all the playlist info., and to leave messages anytime. 201-455-1055, Ext. 1804. Thanks!

DAVE CIANCIO & SCOTT HAMMER, WDBM, 517-353-4414

Word for the week: Skull Buzz!!! We are in high spirits here in East Lansing because we just got to see a ghostly perfect performance from Slayer. These guys have lost nothing in the past few years. The new stuff was exhilarating. I want to go to sleep and wake up with the new CD in my hands. What a great dream!.. Speaking of great, how many time can I say that W.F.O. is the latest, most intense album to come out this year?!?!? If you're not playing this all the time, your station sux! The next time you call Lauren at Concrete marketing, be sure to ask her for the "Time Life Call of the Wild Animal Survivor Series" on video. Lauren rox and is lucky enough to be working with cool bands like Overkill, Biohazard, Suicidal Tendencies, Marilyn Manson and more!!!! What an easy job... Do you like intense, angry, grinding metal? You could almost program a metal show on Metal Blade bands alone. This year already, chart top-ping Gwar and Cannibal Corpse albums, as well as little hotbeds such as Beats the Hell Out of Me, Desultory, Skrew, Fates Warning and what I consider to be a fu*%@ng intense album, Epidemic's new album Exit Paradise. Check out #9 "Written in Blood." Maria "Mom" is too nifty to touch... The two big requests of the week - Machine Head and Bile. We played both of these and you would have thought an earthquake took place inside our phones because they wouldn't stop ringing. Play these if you want a happy audience!!! Phil at McGathy is a weirdo. If he is one of the incessant little buggers that calls you every week, give him as much flak as possible. He deserves it!!! Phil you kick ass!!! Now go eat some noodles!.. Tip of the week: call Alan "Evil Monkey Boy" at WBUL in Tampa. Evil was our Summer intern. This guy is a dedicated lifetime head banger!! He'll treat you right (or we'll flog him and bludgeon him with a spork!!!) Also ask him about Gravitar and

"Evil Monkey Boy." Call us if you have questions as well... Hammer's last words: "Prong still kicks ass!!" As for me, (name this quote) "We'd love to stay and chat, but we have to go to the lobby and wait for the limo." Ruh!!

JOHN LENAC, KTOZ

Hi there. What's that you say...you've never heard of Cheese On A Stick. No, all you dirty minds, it's not what your thinking. Ask Frank to elaborate... The fair is finally over. I don't even want to think about how many thousands of balloons we blew up (biodegradable of course). While we were smiling at the fair, some very lucky listeners went to St. Louis and Kansas City to see Stone Temple Pilots. Big Channel Z thanks to the two ladies that made it possible; Mary Tripodi and Kim Sanderson... Everybody loved the silliness Deadeye Dick projected on the air when they came into the studio Friday afternoon. Later, over 100 enthusiastic fans showed up for an in-store at Best Buy. Most of them followed us to the venue and there was already a line to get in. These guys out on one hell of a show! It was a huge party with everyone dancing all night. They even ran out of beer (for about 15 minutes while the owner went out to buy more). We'd like to thank Caleb, Mark and Bill for an unforgettable Friday, also Mike Condo and Ichiban Records... That's it for now, time to go set the satellite for Woodstock '94 soundchecks. Have a funny one.

DUG, WPUP, ATHENS

Ok, what did I do yesterday when I dropped my motorcycle on my leg? Easy: I picked the bitch up and rode home. Then I remembered that the bitch weighs 450 pounds and that I'm a wuss. My, adrenalin is a fun thing...We've spent most of the day discussing the fact that our ancestors painted themselves blue, lived in caves and spiked their hair with lime water so that it was hard enough to stab romans with. Descendants of Picts unite... Ok, this weekend I did lots of household chores and re-sewed my robe. My what fun. I don't think I'll tell you about it... Tonight I get to call the Boo Radleys in London or some other unimportant limey village (anyone want Marc Kordelos' calling card number?) and do some interview thing. Like anyone cares that they're in Atlanta with that Dollars from losers shindig... My favorite call of the week (in regard to Milo Z): Caller: This is a damned fine song. What is it? Dug: It's Milo Z. It's named "Dog." Caller: It's great. Play it more... Tomorrow night I get to go and enjoy Black Train Jack and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones... Then on Thursday it's Swell and Fuzzy. Heh. It's almost like a vacation... I wonder if Sugar will ever record Dave Barbe's classic "Western Guns," or maybe "Vomit Clown?"... Sorry for getting distracted for a minute. Someone started up Freddy Johnston and I couldn't resist. I get to work a double tonight. I'm so lucky. That means I'm here from 2pm until 6am tomorrow. I'm just so happy about that I could just give birth... I'm going to go away now.

SCOTT DOUGLAS, VIRGIN, (212) 332-0418

So, we're stoked about the response we've gotten on the Baker, Bruce and Moore CD. Be sure to check a little deeper into the record. This is essentially the best Gary Moore album ever. The fact that it sounds so much like Cream (for obvious reasons) becomes incidental as you get further into it. Check out these cuts... "City of Gold", "Where in the World", "Can't Fool the Blues", "Why does Love (have to go wrong)", "Naked Flame", "I Wonder Why (are you so mean to me)", "Wrong Side of Town". The whole record is pretty amazing even if you don't care for this kind of music. (over 60 rock stations on the lead track...so far)... Gilby Clarke is generating phones like you wouldn't believe. The early stations are getting very healthy phones. It's not a hype...dig into his album (if you haven't already). You'll find depth there as well. We didn't put this record out as a yank...It's good. Check out the Cracker "Let's Go for a Ride" for rock and "I Want Everything" for softer A3 type stations. We're chasing those officially the week beginning 8/22. However, you should know about cut 69 on the CD "Eurotrash Girl." Alternative is eating it up right now... Item last deals with the Stones. "Love is Strong" is about to explode in all the media because of the tour and Budweiser's ad campaign. Remember "Tonight, Tonight, Tonight" from Genesis, or "After Midnight" from Clapton? Huge call-out after those were on the beer spots. This single is only in it's 7th week. We ain't close to done...

DAVE LOMBARDI, WB RECORDS

Top 10 reasons to avoid Woodstock '94: 1) Nobody beats the Wiz running Woodstock contest where you can win a Mustang convertible. 2) Pepsi making soda cans with Woodstock '94 logos: 3) CSN are there again: 4) MTV coverage leads to inevitable on-the-spot reports by Kennedy; 5) Too much print and electronic media around in general to over cover this one; 6) Hundreds of thousands were miserable at first Woodstock, and it costs hundreds of dollars less; 7) A whole new generation will now be able to lie about actually being there; 8) Woodstock Curse could strike again, and half the bands appearing at this one may be dead by the time of the next anniversary; 9) Kids might end up fighting with their parents to get the best pot; 10) Gods Child is not performing. I'm not in Woodstock, but I'm out.

JIM DEL BALZO, COLUMBIA PROMOTION

"High Hopes" carries on the great tradition of Pink Floyd ballads such as "Us & Them," "On The Turning Away," "Brain Damage," "Wish You Were Here" among others. This, the most classic of Pink Floyd tracks, has exploded on the radio and is on over 80 stations already. Stations that have previously aired this track received outstanding research. There's a great film on your desk of "High Hopes" - make sure you watch it!.. The new track from Alice In Chains is "Don't Follow" and based on early reaction it'll be monstrous. It's a great follow-up to "I Stay Away."... There's a nice buzz starting on the next Stabbing Westward track, "Lies." The band just completed a hugely successful club tour and they won over lots of radio programmers. "Lies" is already getting some play at album radio and it's off and running at Alternative... Speaking of buzzes, ask your local Columbia rep to play you "Albatross" from Corrosion of Conformity. This track's coming out in two months, but it's all we can do to keep PDs from putting this on the air now. C.O.C. has a base of over 200,000 units and to this point has not received any significant airplay. That will all change with "Albatross."

JOHN KNAPP,

SONY 550 MUSIC, 310-449-2816

The Velvet Crush rolls on with KNPT, WWDX, WCHZ and WVBR joining over 20 stations on "Hold Me Up." The boys from Providence hit the road this week...8/14 Philadelphia, 8/16 Washington DC, 8/17 Hampton VA, 8/18 Wilmington NC, 8/19 Raleigh. The band travels with Mitch Easter on board! Have you read about the great reviews on this band in People and Musician! This is a classic guitar pop record. If you need an extra copy of Velvet Crush's "Teenage Symphonies To God," call me, Knappy at 310-449-2816. Velvet Crush will work for anybody that has success with Gin Blossoms, REM or The Jayhawks... XC-NN is coming soon with "Young Stupid & White." There should be no hesitation in playing this anthem...adds August 23... Look out for the saucy goddess of comedy Sandra Bernhard and her "Manic Superstar" coming August 29. Enjoy. See you after the strike. Knappy.

HOWARD, ARISTA, 212-830-2274

As a rule, you guys know I don't write these on a regular basis. I prefer the more intimate ("So, what are you wearing?") approach rather than the addressing the masses ("Gimme an A, Gimme a R...") one. However, every so often, especially when I have something important to communicate, I turn to our pals at the trades to help spread the gospel. And speaking of religious experiences...you can't imagine the spiritual satisfaction we experienced when learning Sarah McLachlan's Fumbling Towards Ecstasy went gold. By now, Sarah is as much a part of AAA as a Van Morrison or even a Crash Test Dummy. And I know, ever since "Possession" (a #1 AAA track) you guys have gone track surfing all over the disc playing a bunch of different tracks, but Hallelujah, I'm here to guide you. Her new single, "Good Enough," which some of you have played, features a distinctive new remix that brings up the tempo. Plus, there's something even more special on its way to you that I can't write about in print because you guys are the only ones getting it and it's pretty damn special. The point is, Sarah should still be a major part of everybody's playlist and this track is a great one to focus on now, especially with the success of the album, her sold out tour and airplay on VH-1. Don't let anyone else take credit for her. You and your listeners have supported her from the beginning and are still her biggest fans... By now, most of you should have the acoustic This Picture, featuring a number of tracks from their City of Sin release. This disc really brings out the songwriting and playing talents of these guys and confirms their place in this format. Just listen to it. You all promised... Also on the religious side, if you can consider "Holy Cow" a religious reference, The Tractors. Every AAA playlist ought to have one good ol' fashioned, no pretension, up the volume, brain on hold, granola eatin' grin inducing record. This summer it's The Tractors. World Cafe agrees, KTAO, WCBE, WFUV, KFAN, KPIG, KCSU, WRSI, WEBK, WKVT and others. For anyone who ever played Jimmie Dale, Nanci, Iris or any other real slices of Americana this is a natural. With guest musicians like Ry Cooder, Leon Russell, J.J. Cale and oh, yeah...Bonnie Raitt!!! You really ought to give some serious attention to a record that's a lot of fun.

MIKE MENA/EMI RECORDS

So Blur is poised for combustion. If you're an AOR, don't let the Top-40's have all the fun with this one. "Girls & Boys" is a SMASH! Ask WDRE or Z-100. Alternative radio, it's time to dive into a tasty album that's got more going for it than a hit single. Check out the title track "Parklife" as well as the nifty "Tracy Jacks." Incidentally, in BLUR's home country (England), they are up for album of the year at the Mercury Music Awards... Moving on to SUPERSTAR. This band has been in the states since June performing both electric and acoustic. It's a very special record that's also very subtle. If you won't get it on one listen, but chances are that if you give SUPERSTAR some time, you'll listen to this album for the rest of your life. Honestly. "Feels Like Forever" is the emphasis track but wherever you drop the laser will impress... Lastly, BLACK 47 are ready to launch their next phase at ya. It was produced by Jerry Harrison (Talking Heads, Live, Crash Test Dummies) and it's exactly the kind of progression you'd hope to see from a band. They're true to their core while maturing and growing. Great concept right. Their first single, "Losin' It" will be in your hands on October 3. Contact your local EMI rep for a sneak listen. Remember over 130,000 people have already bought into BLACK 47's previous effort... Dinosaur Jr. rocks my world. Pay attention to them already! The new single by HOLE "Doll Parts" is easily as good as anything Patti Smith ever recorded. Cheers.

DAVE MAC,

GUITAR RECORDINGS, 914-935-5241

Early returns are in after a couple of days of working Guitar Practicing Musicians Vol. 3. The acoustic version of "Don't Fear The Reaper", done by Buck Dharma (guitarist, vocalist and writer for Blue Oyster Cult is leading the way, followed by a close second by "The Wizard", the Black Sabbath cover done by Pride and Glory... Adds on the compilation project include the DMX system, the Utopia Network's "Instrumentals Of Rock" show (12 stations including KNAC, WAPQ, WMTE, KDUX, WJVO, KILO, KFMX and WABT). Wes Nessman of KFMX called and said, "Nothing gets more phones for us than the new Buck Dharma!" The track is being swapped at Classic Rock too - these are even the people who won't add "Voodoo Lounge"! "The Wizard", minus the harmonica intro, is exactly 3:30 - perfect for your local Z-Rock window!.. Oh, by the way...Are You Overworked and Underpaid?

WAYNE PIGHINI, ATLANTIC RECORDS
PROGRESSIVE MARKETING, NEW YORK, NY
(212) 275-2112

The world of Atlantic records continues to get crazier and crazier! By the time you read this, Savatage's Handful of Rain, Samiam's Clumsy and Jerky Boys 2 will be on the street... The demand for Samiam keeps growing as the buzz spreads. Keep your eyes peeled on this one!.. Bad Religion is back with Stranger Than Fiction! Fans of this legendary band will be overjoyed at what they hear. The record hits the streets on September 6th!.. The new Liz Phair entitled Whip-Smart will be hitting on September 20th as well. As if that wouldn't keep us busy enough, the number of bands on the road continues to grow... Overkill is about to embark on a full U.S. tour... Collective Soul is opening for Aerosmith! Hootie and the Blowfish, the pride of South Carolina, are quite the hot item. Sales increase every week and not one person has been disappointed by Cracked Rear View. Look for them to continue touring the south... Just when you thought you couldn't get any better, we have Stone Temple Pilots selling out venues across the country with label-mates Jawbox! Every other band on the Atlantic group is on the road (or so it seems)... New Testament on the way...

LINNEA NAN,
WARNER/REPRISE METAL (818)953-3692

Yes, it's good to be back in the land of the living (I heard the new Slayer record and had to take a few weeks off. It's amazing)... I promised Jenni Glenn at CMJ to set the record straight on Life, Sex & Death. Yes, LSD is in the process of making a new record for Reprise; Stanley is still the front man with a new band line-up. From what we have seen and heard, it will be worth the wait. The new record will hit early '95... L7 is tearing it up on Lollapalooza. Keep cranking Hungry For Stink. It's the only way to go. RPLA - the full CD will be on your desks next week. Check it out. No pressure on an add date, just spread the word!.. Atomic Opera will be supporting Dio on this next leg of the Strange Highways Tour... Candlebox rages on with Metallica & Suicidal... Biohazard hops to Europe for a few weeks. I'll have killer tour news for Biohazard in the U.S. in the next week. So, look for the "How It Is" video and keep delivering your State of the World Address.

JON NARDACHONE,
ATLANTIC (212) 275-2135

Overkill is blistering the Metal charts... Savatage is starting their dominance at AOR and Metal radio... Stone Temple Pilots have sold six million units in less than two years... Collective Soul has gone platinum... Bad Religion is the biggest buzz band at radio and retail in 1994... King's X and Collective Soul are playing at Woodstock... New Testament (low) and Melvins (Stoner Witch) out in the fall. Now that's exciting!!!

CHERYL VALENTINE,
EPIC METAL, 212-833-5987

Pert near died from heat exhaustion in Austin and Houston, I did. Suicidal and Fight were nothing short of amazing. In Austin, Suicidal had at least 5 pits and the Fight boys played one of my all time favorite Priest tunes, "Victim of Changes" along with the always causing a ruckus Fight tune, "Into the Pit" (see first tune on the Mutations EP). Speaking of Suicidal, we're goin' for adds this week (Aug. 15 & 16) on the edited version of "Love Vs. Loneliness." If you don't add it, you don't get a lollipop at the end of your visit... XC-NN has a rockin' tune called "Young, Stupid & White" at your station. Find it (in case the Alternative types snagged it), listen to it, play air guitar and add the puppy already. Without a doubt, their NMS performance at the Wetlands was stellar. Everyone that I knew at the show called me the next day to say how great they were. Don't delay...add today!.. Paulo's still on tour, but Sepultura isn't thus extending Prong's set... Satchel's full LP should be in your CD player on repeat. Once you check 'em out, you'll agree that somethin's up and it's smells very big. The album is entitled EDC. Locate it, get into it and get others into it... Nice to see that some of you are actually listening to the Alice Cooper record. Funny how once you hear it in it's entirety, it tends to get played more... Look for Mother Tongue tour dates in your area as they hit the pavement with Orangutang!

MICHAEL J. SCHANPP,
EMI RECORDS, 212-492-1812

So, I figured, a 19-hour bus ride from Dallas, Texas to Tucson, Arizona...Fun! Thrills! Excitement! Hangin' with the Mutha's Day Out guys on the road, talkin' about "Green," the next track from Mutha's Day Out, and watching the new "Green" video, as well as good old road stories. So, this is Mutha's Day Out's first bus ride and it turns into an oven. Driving from Dallas to Tucson you go through the desert. The desert's hot. In the desert you need air conditioning. In Mutha's Day Out's bus, the air conditioning decided to break down for the last 10 hours, leaving the temperature inside the bus at 100 degrees; it was only 90 degrees outside. (We knew the temperature was like that 'cuz our bus driver Billy Bob had a thermometer. By the way, Billy Bob cooks a mean beer dog)... So, picture this: Mutha's Day Out band and crew and yours truly Schnapp, inside a big metal bus at 100 degrees for 10 hours, baked like a potato. We were baked and fried. But we made it and Mutha's Day Out rocked Tucson and Phoenix...and will continue to tour with Sugarfoot and Godspeed through mid-September... Also on the EMI rock front are Bloodline, with "Stone Cold Hearted" jammin' in your ears now!! And Moist - out soon!! Also, Degeneration on the Airheads soundtrack... EMI rocks harder than 8-tracks!

SMITTY, EPIC RECORDS, 212-833-5988

Ok kiddies, listen up! Some of you have been slackin' on your support of the new Suicidal Tendencies album...What's up with that?! Save your excuses for some lame band, this is S.T. back with an aggressive, angry album (it's what you've been askin' for!) and there is no acceptable reason not to jam S.T. Call me if you're not so we can work on it 'cause I've got a list on non-supporters and if you want tickets to go see any of my bands I'll remember!.. Another problem area is Alice Cooper - didn't I scream about this before? This is a classic Cooper album, if you're not on it look in the mirror (NOW!), see those big donkey ears? Get a clue!.. Fight rules, they floored 'em opening for S.T. and Metallica, now floor your listeners!.. Sepultura - get well soon Max! In the meanwhile, keep jammin' Sepultura Prong has completed some great tours this year, the sales have been picking up steadily each week, and another killer tour is on the way... Full Mother Tongue out for adds 8/23 and a new Arcade album on your desks the first week of September (trust me, it rocks hard!)... Call me for more info and/or general abuse (I won't yell at ya - promise).

JASON MARTIN, W.A.R.?

Dearest Kats & Kittens in AAA/A3/PAR radio land, The Samples have a new album out, Autopilot. The first single, "Water Rush" will be in your hands by the time you read this nitty bit of tripe (see Websters). For those of you from Squaresville that are unfamiliar with The Samples let's get ya up to speed. The Samples have been touring constantly, for the last five years. In this time they've managed to build a humungo and loyal group of fans, about 37,000 on the mailing list alone. Sales for previous records hang around 100,000 per release. Plus they always wear clean skivies. For the rest of you that aren't from Squaresville, "Water Rush" is two minutes and fifty-three seconds of pure listening pleasure. Enjoy.

MARIA MOM ABRIL,

METAL BLADE RECORDS, 805-522-9111

Fates Warning "Outside Looking In" is the shit!!! The fans have spoken. Answer them now. Play "Outside Looking In" from the new LP Inside Out. Tour plans are brewing for early Fall in The States. A video too. The rules for the Fates Warning contest are on the way. Don't miss the opportunity to win amazing prizes. Catch Fates Warning at their first U.S. gig at Foundations Forum '94... Skrew's "Picasso Trigger" video has gotten rave reviews. Understandable...it's killer! Add in "Seeded" next to "Picasso Trigger" and do something that sucks for Skrew in my Skrew contest... I think I spoil you guys too much... Milwaukee Metalfest was great!!! Skrew, Broken Hope, Thought Industry, Epidemic and Cannibal Corpse played phenomenal sets for a very cool crowd... Broken Hope's new song will kick your ass. Heavy riffage at its best... Cannibal are kings of the "not so underground anymore" movement. Since its release in April, The Bleeding continues to sell at least 1,000 units a week through soundscan. Not so underground anymore, eh?... A new tour coming in October. Epidemic's "Vulture" sounded devastating live. Spin the f'ck out of that tune!.. Desultory's "A Closing Eye" rages up the charts. How cool are all of you?... Thanks to Ray & John @ KNAC for the time!.. Gwar's Carnival of Chaos looks like it'll include Green Jelly and The Genitorturers supporting. More details later... New track "The Issue Of Tissue." Add it now... New Mercyful Fate titled Time and Joey Vera (Armored Saint) titled A Thousand Faces. Live by the blade, die by the blade.

JILL & JEANNIE,

RED LIGHT RECORDS, (708) 297-6538

Look! Skatenigs Dales! They are starting to trickle in here goes, 8/18 Fitzgerald's in Houston, 8/19 The Galaxy Club in Dallas, 8/20 Metropolis in Lafayette, LA., 8/24 Riiz Theater in Tampa, 8/27 The Masquerade in Atlanta. CALL ME FOR IN STUDIO INTERVIEWS ETC.!! We also just got back from the Milwaukee Metal Fest. Gutted and Opressor ruled the Rave stage Friday night, ask anybody. They both truly played so well. Paul from WRSE and I were up on stage before each band tossing out Red Light promo stuff and the crowd went wild! I only wailed one guy in the mouth and chipped his front tooth. Hey, he should've ducked! It was great hanging out with Alan WBUL, Mike WRPR, Chris KSTO, Don WLSO, Pete WRST, Paul WSUW, Aaron WXAV, Lauren "the biggest OPPRESSOR fan in the world" from Concrete, my good buddy Chainsaw from Mechanic and Jesse from Century Media, you are a sweetie... GUTTED is on the road now with A.C. and INCANTATION call me for tickets & interviews. Jeannie is back!!

MARNI HALPERN,

ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077

Machine Head had an amazing debut this week, and it's all because of you DJs knowing how amazing this record is. Concentrate on "Davidian" and see the phone lines light up. As you all know by now they are supporting the Obituary/Napalm Death tour and I want everyone to see them live and do interviews. I am doing mega giveaways as well. Obituary will be a #1 record. The full will be in your hands the week of the 15th and ready to go for adds on August 22/23. Many of you are not reporting the actual airplay because you don't have the whole record yet, so I expect you to play the whole album on your show to make it up to me. Pretty funny huh? But possible, because every track is devastation. Just wait - you'll see... Madball - the true blue godfathers of hardcore are starting to get a lot of heavy play across the land. Right now they are touring Europe, and will be back in September and ready to do some interviews for ya!.. Buzzov-en are buzz'n up the charts. Please check out "Unwilling To Explain," "Should I" and "Broken" on their Sore LP... Dog Eat Dog are on the road with the Beatnuts, call me if you want to go... I will be sending out giveaways, along with DED remixes of "No Fronts" done by the Beatnuts... Black Train Jack are currently on tour with Mighty Mighty Bosstones and playing sold out venues!!

JESSE LOMBARDI,

AGGRESSIVE NATIONAL MARKETING, (310) 457-8155

I have just returned from the land of Jeffrey Dahmers (However it's spelled), Genuine Draft, the yearly cover meeting of Midwestern deathmetal worshipers. The key acts, were reminiscent of 7 years ago in L'amours. Slayer, Overkill, Murphys Law and Biohazard raged in that "O so" Brooklyn way. Dead Orchestra played a very intense non-stop 35 min. set of caged rage. I was very impressed by this bands live ability to take control of their stage, music and audience. All of you should be playing "Praise Hell Fun" on the Sound Like Time Taste LP. This record has tracks for all hard formats. Expose this band to your audience, it's your obligation, there is no other outlet... Wargasm, Spudsmoisters, and Psychosis rock the Metal Fest. Unsigned talent Hostility played a great set. Thanks go out to Jack Koschik and Sector 2 for a great time in Milwaukee. Chris KSTO, John WBWC, and Alan from WBUL it was definitely cool to hang with you guys. WWSP - you guys broke my bank, come to Foundations. I have a full wallet for drinking... Peace Out... NEW DEMOLITION HAMMER KICKS ASS, LOOK FOR IT.

DENNIS CONSTANTINE & JASON PARKER, CONSTANTINE CONSULTING, (303) 440-5470

Thanks to Elektra and Lisa Michaelson for inviting us to attend the Katell Keineg showcase in L.A. this week. Katell was wonderful, and won over the whole room. "Franklin" was definitely the highlight of her performance. What passion, and what a voice! However, if I had known that I would have to share a plane and limo with that Benson guy... Our favorite album of the week is When I Wake (Mercury), the major label debut from Rusted Root. "Send Me on My Way," one of the many standout tracks, sounds like Paul Simon meets the Talking Heads. We're also fond of "Cat Turned Blue," and "Ecstasy." Be sure to catch this band at the Fox Theater on Saturday during the A3 Summit... Maybe You Should Drive (Sire/Reprise) is the title of the new one from Canada's Barenaked Ladies. The single called "Jane," is a sweet tune, and more on the serious side than some of their material. Steven Page's vocals are intensely recognizable, and should remind you and your listeners how talented this band is... Wisconsin native Willy Porter's debut, Dog Eared Dream (Don't Records), is an understated gem of an album. As soon as we heard the opener, "Angry Words," we new we had a good one in our hands. Try that one, as well as "Boeb Tree," "Jesus On The Grille," and "Watercolor."... Widespread Panic is quickly becoming a core artist for AAA. They have distinguished themselves as one of the hardest working and most talented bands around. The lead track from their forthcoming release Ain't Life Grand (Capricorn) is "Airplane." The smooth harmonies and laid back groove of this one knocked us out. This album promises to be their best to date... First Neil Young, now Crosby, Stills and Nash — what decade are we in? After The Storm (Atlantic) will be with us shortly. Until then, we have a new Steven Stills track out called "Only Waiting For You" to tide us over. This track is vastly better than most of their recent works. It won't be hard to fit this into your playlist... Stanly Dural Jr., a.k.a. Buckwheat Zydeco, is back with his old label and a great new album. Five Card Stud (Island) has the good time music we've come to expect from the master of the squeeze box. "Hey Baby" and "Make it Easy on Yourself" are two such songs, both of which feature fellow accordionist David Hidalgo on backup vocals. Others that caught our ears are "This Train," with Mavis Staples, and the cover of Van Morrison's "Bayou Girl," which sounds like it was written for Mr. Zydeco... The Songcatchers are a multi-ethnic group of performers who have come together to share a dream and a vision. The music on their album Dreaming In Color (Horizon/A&M) combines traditional Native American chants and drums with rock, jazz and R&B. Charles Neville handles the production and saxes, and guides the group through various styles and emotions. Check out "Three Generations," which is the most likely candidate for air play... On the forthcoming soundtrack River Wild (RCA), you will find a new Cowboy Junkies tune called "The Water is Wide." This is one beautiful song. Margo Timmin's voice is exquisite on this signature ballad. Check it out.

MUNSEY RICCI, JOHN LARUSA,

SKATEBOARD MARKETING LTD., (516) 328-1103

So you love the new Peter Dinklage, if all of you who did not add it, do it this week... Wicked Maraya and Cyclone Temple will be heading out on the road the end of August. "Face In The Mirror" will be the next single from the Wicked Ones... Drown's tour is doing fine. There will be a new single out in September... The Toys started their tour last week. We have giveaways for all of you... Gilby Clarke is in your face. The record still grows every week. Dig on it big time... Rhino Bucket's "What'd You Expect" is on the full length, change over to that track... Add's this week on the Treacherous Human Underdogs, it's a cross between Biohazard and Bodycount, dig on it... Next week is the new medley from Bodycount. It's not the single but a mix of four songs in one... Cya next week.

CHUCK AND TOMMY,

VIRGIN METAL, NY, NY, 212-586-7700

Beautiful day here at the Virgin Offices... Bryant Gumball was here today.. Yea!!! He says early picks for Superbowl XXIX are the Raiders and Niners.. I guess he's another non-believer in the three-peat. Are you sure you've done of Gilby today? Please pay strict attention to Lord Gilby's crusade for the Holy Grail. He must receive much airplay if he is to confront Sir Galahad. Pawnshop Guitars must be a priority on everyone's list!! Body Count will be in your hands next week!! You will learn to love the medley CD... It will be your initiation to the syndicate... You will love the record even more. Ice and BC are back with a vengeance. No prisoners! By any means necessary!! You will know how it feels to be born dead!! Is it just me, or does Natural Born Killers look like the film of the decade? Special Agent Cooper, over and out...
