SINGLES

8

Janet Jackson, SWV and H-Town hold down the 1 through 3 positions in a tight hot-selling battle.

DIALOGUE

Q102 PD Jimmy Steal insists the Top 40 format has a future, though he's not so sure about HITS' honorary Funky Bunch member Connie "Geez Louise" Breeze, who inquires about openings on "Good Morning Cincinnati."

POST MODERN

45

The Posies take their rightful place in Ivana's PoMo pantheon, halfway between the Brady Bunch and Big Star.

55

Kiss explodes, as Gene Simmons' tongue tickles Smell the Glovables Thelma & Louise's fancy.

59

Island/PLG diva Mica Paris croons "I Wanna Hold On To You," only to find herself clutching JAMS' up jelly-tight ruler J.J. "Walking" Johnson's soiled boxer shorts.

It's Janet Jackson blasting into the top slot and dominating the field. Look out for Rod Stewart's "Unplugged," as the battle begins.

Mogul Of The Moguls

Fitness freak, world class skier and EMI Music Worldwide President/CEO James Fifield has been guiding his company through the moguls of the black diamond '90s. EMI Music flexed its muscles this week, announcing record fiscal year profits while enjoying a #1 debut for Janet Jackson's new album for Virgin. Fifield's organization is carving its path towards a new era in the music business ... while we snowplow down the bunnyslope of life.

On The Cover

We celebrate "janet.," the chart-topping debut of the new album from Virgin's Janet Jackson by changing our name to "hits."

TONY TONI TONÉ

TONY. TWO PLATINUM ALBUMS.

TONI. SIX #1 SINGLES INCLUDING THE POP SMASH, "FEELS GOOD."

TONÉ. THE NEW HIT "IF I HAD NO LOOT" FROM THE ALBUM "SONS OF SOUL."

Incredibly Stupid Headline Heralds Incredibly Amazing Week

JANET - PERIOD!!!

EMI Earns Mo' Money

New York-based EMI Music, a unit of London-based Thorn-EMI, reported record year-end results for the fifth consecutive year, with sales up 34%, profits climbing 57% and return on sales increasing to 13.1%. According to the company, over the past five years, EMI's sales have grown almost three-fold, while its profits have risen nearly six-fold.

EMI Music President/CEO Jim Fifield attributed the company's record '92-93 results to three major factors: the company's successful acquisition of Virgin Records, strong operating performances in major international markets, highlighted by success in new artist development, and weekly advertising in HITS.

Commented Fifield: "With five consecutive years of record profits, we are well on the way to our goal of becoming the premier music company in the world. Now, don't bother me. Can't you see I'm busy counting money? A million for me, a million for Charles, two million for me, a million for Charles..."

Asylum Breakout

Soul Asylum: Exploding from Pomo base.

ADVERTISEMENT

The reality finally caught up with the hype this week as consumers put their money where their buzz was and plunked down the dead prezzies for Janet Jackson's "janet."

"Waaaaaaahooooooooo!!!!" said always dignified Virgin President Phil Quartararo, who then returned to memorializing last week's "Music To My Ears" by the equally important Timothy White.

Jackson's Virgin debut outsold the competition by an almost 6-to-1 margin.

"Our best selling release of the year," said National Record Mart's Doug Smith.

"Janet — period," said Abbey Road's Ron Simms, proving conclusively that we'll steal headline material from drooling nimrods.

"The sales are as great as she looks," said an incredibly horny Mike Fratt of Homers in Omaha. "The registers are gobbling up the dollars like we would like to gobble up that picture." Eeeesh. Will someone please give this guy a slab of raw liver?

Top that off with the #1 single on the HITS Top 50 Singles chart, the #1 selling single in the country, the #1 JAMS single, the #1 JAMS album and you've got the year's biggest record so far — period. What's next, Metal?

PIC OF THE WEEK

Greta Signs With Geek

Mercury A&R dork Mike Sikkas (c) holds true to his word and dons a dress for the signing photo with Greta as band members and management neglect to tell him about a last-second jump to Epic. Pictured standing (l-r): Mercury's Bob Skoro, the band's Josh Gordon & Scott Carneghi, Mikee, the band's Kyle Baer & Paul Plagens and Mercury President Ed Eckstine. Seated are two guys who get mentioned in this magazine too often.

QUICK HITS

The Most Added singles this week at Top 40 are #1 Soul Asylum (Columbia), #2 Brian McKnight (Wing/Mercury), #3 SWV (RCA), #4 Dina Carroll (A&M) and #5 Shai (Gas A/MCA). Also, Radiohead (Capitol) came out of the box with strong major market support.

Guerinot's A Yes At A&M

Jim Guerinot turned down the Clippers head coaching job to take a promotion to Senior VP/General Manager of A&M Records. Guerinot was previously Sr. VP of Marketing at the label. Although no formal announcement was made, HITS learned of the promotion by rifling through Daily Variety writer Bruce Haring's in-box, where we found a xeroxed copy of the inter-office memo from CEO Al Cafaro.

Said Guerinot: "Don't bother me. I'm still trying to figure out whether I should trade Danny Manning to the Bullets for Harvey Grant and their sixth draft pick."

In addition to his duties as head of marketing, Guerinot will now oversee sales and pop promotion at A&M, with sales head Richie Gallo and Senior Promotion VP Rick Stone both reporting to him.

In taking the new post, Guerinot commented: "I learned everything I know about this business from Lenny Beer. The basketball business, that is. Now let me get back to my fantasy basketball league. Should I take Shawn Bradley or Chris Webber?"

Cafaro added from the top bunk in his dorm room at Harvard, "What's the difference between a debit and credit, and who the hell took my cliff notes?"

Jim Guerinot: Hopefully, he'll be around longer than Larry Brown.

How Pomo

Japan's Pop superstar and Epic artist Nokko trades nasty Sherwood Schwartz jokes with the legendary Cindy Brady aka Susan Olsen, during one of those moments when child actors stand around and wish they could kick the ass of the lawyer who cut their royalty deal. Naturally, Nokko never heard of Cindy Brady, but she'll pose and smile with anyone.

SILK ELEKTRA

Following quickly on the heels of their #1 single and Top Ten album success, this hot new act is back and already scoring Top Ten numbers in San Francisco, Philadelphia, Riverside, Charlotte and Atlantic City. Major adds this week include KPLZ, KTFM, WWHT, HOT97.7, WWKX and WXKS. Now Richard Alden and company are ready to come for a quick close. Can you say two in a row?

Schulhof's Rising at Sony

Michael P. "At This Level, Your Only Nickname Is Sir" Schulhof was named President/CEO of Sony Corporation of America (formerly Sony USA Inc.), the parent company of Sony's stateside operations, which include U.S. electronics manufacturing and marketing, as well as the company's worldwide entertainment resources.

Commented Sony Corporation President/CEO Norio Ohga before leaving to conduct the New York Philharmonic in a tribute to the music of Shonen Knife: "The combination of all our core businesses in the U.S. under a single American management reflects Sony's strategic commitment to full integration of electronics and entertainment. And no, I can't get you a good deal on a portable Mini-Disc player."

"Mr. Schulhof's background, training and experience have prepared him for this new leadership position within Sony," added the company's Chairman and Co-Founder Akio Morita. "As a scientist, he fully understands and appreciates the important role of scientific research and development for a company like Sony. As a businessman, his experience encompasses a wide range of activities in our electronics and entertainment businesses worldwide. And as an artist, when he does 'When A Man Loves A Woman' on the karaoke, you know you're in the presence of genius."

Michael P. Schulhof:
Sony slipped a Mickey.

Ross Is Boss

QUICK HITS

MTV action this week includes adds on Sting (A&M), AC/DC (Columbia), George Michael (Hollywood), Shai (Gasoline A/MCA) and Proclaimers (Chrysalis/ERG). Rotation increases go to PM Dawn

(G St/IsI/PLG), SWV "Weak" (RCA), UB40 (Virgin) and H-Town (Luke). Soul Asylum (Columbia) moves into Buzz Bin. The AC/DC track is the first from the "Last Action Hero" soundtrack.

Two Photos We Ran Together

Have you ever seen such beauty? No, not the gals on the right, but those two beefcakes with the ties on the left. Yes, it's EastWest Exec. VP Craig Lambert (2nd from l) and The Box's Les Garland (2nd from r) just after a furious fight over who was allowed to stand in front of the mirror longer.

Grammy Goes East

For the seventh time in its history, the Grammy Awards will hold its 36th annual ceremony in New York at Radio City Music Hall on March 1, 1994, marking the third time in the last four years the show has been held in the Big Apple. The show will be telecast on CBS-TV.

Said President Michael Greene: "The energy which New York generates around the Grammy Awards certainly helps take the event to new levels of excitement. And, with the three-hour earlier starting time on the East Coast, my own speech can be that much longer."

"New York has just been more responsive in terms of organizing fund-raising and charitable events and activities than L.A.," added a NARAS spokesperson.

In other Grammy news, NARAS has made several rule changes, including limiting "Song of the Year," and Best Rock, R&B and Country Song categories to tunes which were first recorded or first came to prominence during the eligibility year. That will eliminate the possibility of a re-make of an old song, like Natalie Cole's "Unforgettable," winning a Grammy for "Song of the Year."

NARAS also changed the requirements for "Best New Artist" to include any newcomer who has released an album which established their public identity during the eligibility period. In the past, artists like Whitney Houston were barred from the category because they had recorded with other performers before their own debuts were released. In addition, now only singles or individual album tracks will be eligible in the Pop, Rock, R&B, Rap and Country categories, so that voters won't have to choose between single cuts and full albums.

QUICK HITS

The Top Ten best selling singles of the week are #1 Janet Jackson (Virgin), #2 H-Town (Luke), #3 Silk (Elektra), #4 SWV "Weak" (RCA), #5 Ice Cube (Priority), #6 Dr. Dre "Nuthin" (DR/Pr/Int/Atl G), #7 Duice (TMR/Bellmark), #8 Green Jelly (Zoo), #9 Dr. Dre "Dre Day" (DR/Pr/Int/Atl G) and #10 Inner Circle (BB/Atl G).

Kings Meet Peons

UNCONVENTIONAL WISDOM

Even though nothing was official at presstime, industry wisemen and women were already commenting on Gary Gersh's haircut. Meanwhile, thumbs up to two smashes in the making -- Brian McKnight & Soul Asylum. And Venice residents prove they truly give a duck.

Gary Gersh	↑ Obviously doesn't spend $200.00 on haircuts.
Clinton's Travel Agent	↓ Can get you a plane with a hairstylist -- cheap.
Chicago Bulls	↓ Thanks for the memories.
Brian McKnight	↑ Forget the duet -- he's a solo smash.
Soul Asylum	↑ Top 40 seeking asylum.
Venice Ducks	? Their slaughter ordered by government quacks. We smell fowl play.

Retail Stupidity

Not doing a damn thing to dispel the rumors that retailers can't chew gum and pose for a photo at the same time are the following folks who are in obvious need of something — like a life. Pictured at Universal One Stop in Philly, where the men are men and that horse is nervous are (l-r): WEA Philly's Matt Roller, Universal's Director of Purchasing Frank Falkow, Universal Sales Manager Chuck Burns and WEA Philly's Sue Costello. Please feel sorry for these people.

NEAR TRUTHS

By I. B. Bad, Los Angeles

Amid all the gossip, rumor and innuendo about the Capitol Tower comes this surprising news bulletin — Gary Gersh is in the house. That said, at presstime, Hale Milgrim's future role within the EMI structure was being discussed among all concerned parties. Oddsmakers are laying strong odds Milgrim will unleash his oh-so-golden parachute and jump. Last week, Neil McCarthy officially exited his post, followed by Art Jaeger this week. Despite the sudden flurry of action, speculators speculate that a personnel bloodbath is not imminent... Don't look for Epic to go outside to replace Polly Anthony when she vacates her promotion throne for a senior post at Sony's new imprint. Look for current Epicurians Harvey Leeds and Barbara Seltzer to jointly rule the Promo kingdom.... And speaking of Epic, they pulled out of the Zakk Wyldes derby after a lengthy wait for the guitar slinger to finally choose a home. Wyldes signed on the dotted line with Geffen. Meanwhile, the management derby continues in full gear... Rob Kahane inks a joint venture with Disney for music publishing, records and films...

Proactive

Martin Bandier: EMI Music working records.

Speaking of publishing, EMI Music's taking a proactive approach as the company battles radio, retail and MTV on behalf of their roster. Martin Bandier recently nabbed ASCAP Publisher of the Year kudos while Diane Warren made three straight Songwriter of the Year honors... Is one Epic Coast head of Promotions whose deal is up and stalled contract renegotiations, being lured West?... Chart watchers are busy watching to see what happens next week when Rod's "Unplugged" faces off against current champion Janet... Atlantic's about to embark on a very adventurous big dollars commercial TV campaign on behalf of Stone Temple Pilots. Incidentally, the band scored "most played" honors on MTV this week. And speaking of MTV, look for a shift of attitude toward video content in the area of sex and violence. Rumormongers monger that the channel is looking for said videos to catch up to MTV's social-conscious on-air approach. Expect particular emphasis on the portrayal of women in videos... Allen Citron's new "Company Town" section in the L.A. Times is quickly earning "must read" status in Times town... What's up with Savage Records?... Nick Grainge, who inked Sinead O'Connor, the Waterboys and World Party to the Chrysalis-owned Ensign label, has exited the company... record company president currently the victim of a lawsuit by a disgruntled ex-manager. Is there also a fraudulent "letter of direct payment" being circulated by said ex-manager?... Names in the Rumor Mill: Barry Rosenman, Jon Leshay, C. Passman, Allen Kovac and Mark Kates.

LETTERS

Rose Bushed

Dear Dennis & Lenny:

Please answer this letter ASAP because if my knees are going to bend once again, I must be sure that they're in order. In the past, I've curtsied for Palmese, knelt for Jenner and now, I beg for a sign from you to let me know if I have to bow to Bisceglia. Please respond soon, actually, immediately because I have to find my knee guards. I can be reached at the altar of St. Arista. May the blessings of St. Vinyl surround your favorite 12".

Sister Rose
(Rose Gross-Marino)
VP/Exec. Ass't. to Pres.
Arista Records

Dennis & Lenny reply: Rise up, Sister Rose, as long as you haven't sinned with Sincoff, we believe we can assure you safe passage to digital heaven, where Kenny G. and Whitney Houston sell for the rest of eternity. Of course, you'll have to pay us a small fee to get you an audience with the Program Director, St. Peter. Say... YOUR SOUL!!! Just sign right here... in blood!

Abbey's Road

Janie:

I ran in and ran out. I played the song once for Karen and got hung up with Dennis and had to run to WB for a meeting. I'm a schmuck. You're still #1. Here's my favorite MTV T-shirt as a token of my humblest apologies. The tape is cued to the edit of "Change," the lead track. Listen to it. Hope you like it; hope you still like me.

Damn The Abbey (Kon-owitch)
Maverick Records

HITS replies: Hey, Abbey, don't snow us. We all know the reason you had to run out was to give Madonna her daily 4 p.m. pedicure and leg waxing.

Blowing Smoke

Dear Roy:

I hope your trip to New York was a success. To get you back in the groove, I'm sending you our latest promotional items: the Mad Flava pipe and the Blood of Abraham lighter. So gather up all your goodies and put on the Mad Flava song, "I Like to Smoke Weed and Listen to Hip Hop."

You'll thank me for this. I just know you will.

XOXO,
Lillian Matulic
Priority Records

Roy replies: Gee, thanks, Lil, but you forgot to send something to put in the pipe. Or should we just change the name of that Mad Flava tune to, "I Like to Smoke Rum & Maple #79 and Listen to Barry Manilow"?

Wilde Youth

Dear Lenny:

It was nice seeing you again. I've known you since, I think, 1973... you looked like you were 12 then and 20 years later, you look exactly the same. Have you been hanging around with Oscar Wilde?

Kindest regards,
Shelly Heber
Management Vision

HITS replies: Actually, he's been hanging around RuPaul, Shelly, and while the Lenny you see still appears to be a geeky teenager, the photo below is what Dorian Beer actually looks like today.

FAR TRUTHS

By Rachel Felder, New York

(Ed. note: While Rachel Felder is off in Japan looking for the next Bettie Serveert, this week's column was written by Andy Schwartz.)

"Ekstatis" is the new Axiom album from Nicky Skopelitis, longtime guitar mainstay of Bill Laswell's production crew. Nicky's pan-global fusion instrumental thang was showcased at Tramps by a one-time band of Anton Fier (tubs), Bernie Worrell (keys), Amina Claudine Myers (killer on the Hammond B-3), Jah Wobble (bass!) and percussionists Aiyb Dieng and Giulherme Franco. Despite a dodgy sound balance and minor tech problems, music this deep in groove and rich in chops still puts most live stuff to the curb. Diggin' in were Ornette Coleman and son Denardo, Henry Threadgill, the Last Poets, Axiom's Pete Ekstatis!

Nicky Skopelitis: Deep in groove and rich in chops.

Wetherbee, Island's Matt Stringer, PolyGram's Andrew Kronfeld, and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Maimone. Pere Ubu bassman Tony is on their new "Story Of My Life," but is touring with Frank Black this summer... Columbia threw a gala premiere for Barbra Streisand's "Back To Broadway" disc at the Eugene O'Neill Theater, where Babs took the stage to accept a 7x10-foot plaque from SMD's Paul Smith commemorating her 50-album Columbia career. A fleet of cable cars ferried 300 guests — including Columbians and Sonyites Don Jenner, Michele Anthony, Fred Ehrlich, Craig Applequist, Danny Yarbrough, Rich Kudolla, Jay Krugman, Shelley Selover, Jerry Lembo and Lee Rolontz — to Laura Belle for food, drink and intensive schmoozing. "Back To Broadway" ships one million units on June 29... What good's a HITS guest column if you can't plug your own acts? Epic and Susan Blond celebrated Japanese superstar Nokko's "Call Me Nightlife" at Club USA. DJ Towa Towa of Dee-Lite mixed it up, Nokko's new video, "I Will Catch You," bowed, and the perky pop icon zipped through this obvious smash with real verve and panache. Seen: Sony's Norio Ohga and Michael Schulhof; Epic's Dave Glew, Richard Griffiths, John Doelp, Polly Anthony and Melani Rogers; ex-Milli Vanilli Fab and Susan Olsen aka Cindy Brady... Def American's Jayhawks packed 'em in at Tramps with a set of well-received heartland rock, but it would be tough for any act to follow a natural-born gift to music like opener Victoria Williams. Taking it all in were Def Am's A&R/producer whiz George Drakoulis and Mark DiDia; MTV's Judy McGrath, Van Toffler and Tabitha Soren; WNEW's Lorraine Caruso and WDHA's T.J. Bryan; and Lou Reed (!!)... Longtime Sire Records pillar Shirley Divers died of cancer last winter, and how much she's missed was shown by the strong turnout for a memorial benefit at CBGB's featuring John Waite (newly signed to Imago by Kate Hyman), The Judybats, Lenny Kaye (with Kathy Green & Max, coming soon to Hollywood), Toshi Reagon, Fiona Prendergrast, Bronx Style Bob and erstwhile Bongo Richard Barone (whose "Clouds Over Eden" is out in Europe, still being shopped Stateside). All proceeds went to treatment for Shirley's nephew Luke Mouncey, who suffers from cerebral atrophy. Make your check payable to Ray Mouncey and mail c/o Peter Friedman Entertainment, 1775 Broadway, 7th floor, NYC, NY 10019.

"Unplugged" will no doubt battle for the top spot with this week's champ, Janet Jackson.

MURPHY'S LORE

An exclusive HITS interview with Eddie Murphy

BY LYNN BLADES

Times are a-changin' for Eddie Murphy. Gone are the days when his name attached to a movie meant a guaranteed blockbuster. Also gone are his days as a philandering party boy. He's tempered his image with two adorable children, three month-old Miles and three year-old Bria... not to mention his beautiful wife-to-be Nichole Mitchell. Considering the guy never has to work another day in his life, he's got the serious set-up. So what more could he possibly want? Try a hit album. Well, it's probably a bit of a longshot in light of the fact that his previous efforts as a musician fell on deaf ears. Nonetheless, that hasn't discouraged the artist from giving it another shot with his new album and first for Motown, "Loves Alright." This deeply personal body of work is an emotional journey through Murphy's many love experiences, none of which, unfortunately, were with HITS' resident goddess Lynn "Roller" Blades, who only had enough time to slip the man a demo tape.

Your opening cut, "Yeah," sounds like a feel-good song for the '90s featuring a who's who of the music world on background vocals.

What's that all about?

"Yeah" is a positivity mantra, basically. When people hear it, they'll trip over the different vocalists that are on it. Then, after you've listened to it a couple of times, you'll just hear the different vocal tones all around each other 'cause they're so different. You'll have Julio Iglesias, Garth Brooks and Heavy D all in the same section, and logically it's supposed to clash when something like that happens, y'know... but it all works. It's country, it's street and Julio. And I know there's a lot of people out there goin', "Oh, there's no way that could be entertaining to listen to," but it works.

How did it come together?

It just kind of happened. Michael [Jackson] asked me to do his "Remember The Time" video and it was just a stroke of luck that I said, "Hey Michael, why don't you sing on one of my songs?" So he sang on two of them. He sang on "Yeah," and a song called "What's Up With You?" I did his video and he sang on my songs. Then once we had Michael on "Yeah," we started just asking other people to sing on it and then it got really cool. It turned into getting the best voice from the field. We had Aaron Hall as the new jack voice, Michael as the "King of Pop"... Heavy D, Paul McCartney, Elton John, Barry White, En Vogue, even Emmanuel Lewis is on it. It's a real free and easy, happy song. We're taking all the money from the record sales of "Yeah" and giving to charity... not the rest of the album, I'm keepin' that! I formed the "Yeah Foundation."

Who's the Yeah Foundation giving money to?

People can write to the Yeah Foundation and there'll be a big bucket of names we can pull out and say, "Hey, this looks like something. Let's help this man." We can't help everybody, but maybe we can put someone through school, get somebody off the street, get somebody a gig. Whatever we can do.

What about me?

Yeah, if we pull you out of the bucket, we'll help you if it touches us. But it can't be like I'm Lynn Blades and I'm a high-paid journalist and I would like to have a spare million just to have in my pocket.

Can't blame me for asking. When you first played the album for me in November, I felt like I was on a magical mystery tour through your psyche. Is this album an honest look at the real Eddie Murphy?

When you go to a movie, you see an actor play a character in the movie. When a person writes a song, that's really drawn from life's experiences. This is not Reggie Hammond or Axel Foley or Gumby or something like that. This is Eddie Murphy. You know what I'm sayin'? When I do my standup routine, I talk about things that are real. It's personal and anybody who's followed my comedy, they'll find this album interesting because it's so unlike anything they would expect from me.

In what respect?

People expect you to be the same all the time... that I'm always gonna do comedy, I'm always gonna be funny, I'm always gonna be Ed. But I have to be everything God made me and I can compose music, too, so I do. I'm not doing it to make hit records. I'm just doin' it because I enjoy doing it. If somebody else digs it, cool. You once told me you don't care what people think about your music, but come on, I can't believe that.

No, no, no. I meant that you can't use what people think as a barometer for when something is good or when something is bad. When Vincent Van Gogh died, they thought he sucked and so did he. People in his era thought he sucked and they just sold one of his paintings for 40 million dollars. He was the baddest cat that ever did it.

What was the inspiration for your material?

The songs just kind of write themselves. And if you've been to a certain place emotionally, you can tap into that emotion. Every song is a combination of a bunch of different experiences, a bunch of different people and a bunch of different emotions. These are uncharted waters for those who are observing the Eddie Murphy adventure.

Why is it that you actors always want to be rock stars and vice versa?

An artist knows intuitively that he's multi-faceted, that he has the ability to do a bunch of different things. You tend to nurture the one talent that gets recognized first and let your other talents fall by the wayside. One of the most irritating things is when I hear, "Oh, Eddie Murphy wants to be a singer." I don't aspire to be a singer. I'm an artist. I can sing and express myself musically, so I do that.

How do you think flat-out failure would affect you?

Failure is just a word like success. How could I ever be a failure? I'm 31 years-old and if I never made another movie, if I never made another dime, if everything I did from now on sucked... just based on the adventure that I've been on over the last ten years, how could anyone sit around and go, "Oh, Eddie Murphy, he ain't shit. All the boy's movies made is two billion dollars!" When it's over man, you can't be trippin'. I can't be sayin' I was a failure when it's over just 'cause it's gonna stop one day.

Do you sing for your kids?

No, but I play the record for them. I sing for Bria. Bria comes to me sometimes and I'll play guitar for her. But Miles is three months old. You play for him and he looks at the guitar like, what am I supposed to do with this?

Does Nichole ever get sick of you?

I'm sure she does. I think I'm a boring cat. I'll sit around the house forever and ever.

Well, you'll have to get out sometime soon. Aren't you going to tour?

Yeah. My whole thing is going to be a combination of well, I'll come out and do four songs, the curtain will close, then I'll do an hour of stand-up. The band will come back, then we'll do a costume change, become Stevie Wonder, costume change, become Prince and back and forth. There's gonna be comedy and music, real songs and jokes with an audience... and all that stuff's coming next winter. ■

"I'M NOT DOING IT TO MAKE HIT RECORDS. I'M JUST DOIN' IT BECAUSE I ENJOY DOING IT."

Man of Steal

AN EXCLUSIVE HITS RADIO INTERVIEW WITH JIMMY STEAL, PD Q102 CINCINNATI, BY CONNIE BREEZE

After graduating in '83 with a BA in communications from the University of Central Florida in Orlando, Jimmy Steal landed at local station Y106, which he took from an adult contemporary format to the top-rated Top 40 outlet in 18 months. In '88, he moved on to KEGL in Dallas as APD/MD, doing nights and eventually afternoon drive while racking up the highest ratings in the history of that market for his high-personality show. After five years at KEGL, Jimmy packed up and moved to Cincinnati and his current position as Program Director of Q102, where he thought he was far enough away to avoid HITS' inquiring broadcast alumnus Connie "Stiff" Breeze.

"TOP 40 IS ONLY STUCK WITH THE LIMITATIONS WE PLACE UPON OURSELVES IMAGewise."

WHY DID YOU LEAVE KEGL AFTER FIVE SUCCESSFUL YEARS?

In June of last year, the station's owners decided to lean the station more toward "Rock 40," bringing aboard Howard Stern. While I'm a fan of Howard's, I'm more a fan of the Top 40 format. I think it has the most potential to touch people and make them smile and is by far the most entertaining and interactive format. So, it was time to set my sights outside of the building.

YOU'RE DOING SOME THINGS THAT NO ONE ELSE IS, LIKE USING MOVIE CLIPS IN PLACE OF STAGERS. WHERE DID YOU GET SUCH A GREAT IDEA?

I've heard movie clips used in different kinds of imaging before, and I really think that incorporating audio from other mediums will increase the depth of our appeal to different people. It gives your radio station another dimension. When people watch TV, they channel-surf, and there are a million bits of different audio going on at once. It just gives radio a much less linear feel.

HOW DOES YOUR PRODUCTION DIRECTOR, RANDY MARX, BRING THE STATION TO LIFE?

Randy is an extraordinary talent. He puts the promos that I hear in my head onto the radio. He'll be the first to tell you that it isn't always an easy chore. Our on-air imaging is somewhat unconventional. It's got a lot of the feel of MTV, but it's not too hip for the room. It's really a mix between MTV and VH-1. Above and beyond the jocks, Randy makes the station live, breathe, and have a pulse. People's expectations have skyrocketed thanks to things like MTV. ARE YOU DOING ANY TV?

Yes, as a matter of fact since I've been here. Von Freeman, our very talented Marketing Director, and I have been able to create some TV campaigns from scratch, which is really fun. No one can get your message across better than the stations' architects.

YOU HAVE A YOUNG GM.

Jim Bryant is very involved. He is constantly poking his head into my office and saying, "Can we do this?" A great GM always sets the pace of your radio station. If he's on the same page as programming and promotions, you can focus your energies outside of the building rather than trying to convince everyone inside the building.

WHY IS YOUR PLAYLIST SO SHORT?

I don't totally agree with you, but I'll use your word, "short." It's because many records that are over nationally — from a record company's point of view — are still currents here. Most of the community is not interested in what we are tracking that is non-current. We omit a lot of things that nobody cares about anymore, so unfortunately you get a skewed view of what we're playing. In the past, this radio station may have gone through too much music too quickly, which may be part of the reason I'm here right now.

HOW DO YOU CHOOSE THE MUSIC?

Our consultant Don Benson gives me a great national perspective. My APD/MD Brian Douglas and I usually come up with a mutually agreeable list of records. We look at all of the tracking, and we try to be very cognizant of where we are geographically. There are many records we would both like to be playing, and we are both very opinionated. But we have to remember what gets us closer to our target. I rely on Brian a lot because he is one of the sharpest MDs out there. Just as an example of how we work together, last week we managed to get a 20-minute exclusive interview with Paul McCartney before the classic rock or Album stations. That's quite a coup, and we couldn't have done it without Brian. YOU'RE OVERHAULING THE RADIO STATION.

We're in the process of building a morning team from the ground up. Linda Welby came from KQKQ and Dave Mason came from our a.m. station. Linda has the "try anything" attitude, and Dave is a little older with the "been there, done that" attitude. Thank God they're good together because you can't buy chemistry.

"THANK VAN GOGH IT'S FRIDAY" IS A GREAT IDEA.

We do it the first Friday of every month with the Cincinnati Art Museum. We have a band, food and alcohol. It attracts a class of people that most people defy Top 40 to attract. Top 40 is only stuck with the limitations we place upon ourselves imagewise. Everyone does their share of bar promotions but there's got to be something to give the station a sense of equilibrium, and not have the format's appeal perceived as a one-trick pony.

WHAT IS YOUR BOTTOM LINE PROGRAMMING PHILOSOPHY?

The world is changing, and for Top 40 to flourish once again, obviously it has to change, too. Doing what you've always done isn't going to get you what you've always gotten. I think we've seen that with the numerous stations leaving the format. The one dimensional, on-air imaging of ten in a row is over. I mean, all those music positioning statements are fine if you can convince people in their minds to think that they are listening longer, or that you're playing a wider variety of music, but in any medium, talk is cheap. You've got to show 'em. ■

POST TOASTED By Ivana B. Adored

HEAVEN 90210: I did the unthinkable: I spent most of this week's deadline in bed...(with a stomach virus)...which gave me ample time to catch up on my listening, hallucinate, lament the cancellation of "Class Of '96" and watch "Talk Soup" (the PoMo tv show, just ask Jon Leshay).... Maybe I'm still delirious, but what year is this? I mean, like, Tears For Fears and OMD were #1 & #2 Most Added this week,

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY:

they're both really great songs, but weren't most of you geeked-out in braces when the first TFF and OMD records were out? Like, I was sooo beyond that, you know, in college and stuff with an eating disorder and everything, but "Junk Culture" by OMD was one of the first records I ever worked at A&M and I think this new record is totally on par with that.... Nobody got fired this week, but you're next.... Tomorrow I'll be in Boston to judge the finals of the WBCN Rumble, the station's annual band competition, with Howie Klein, Oedipus and the usual cast of characters. Howie and I share the same musical aesthetic, although I'm usually harsher in my critique, hence my nickname, "Ivana the Russian Judge." This year's guest band is Jellyfish, which makes me excruciatingly happy. Was it only a mere four years ago that Soul Asylum was the guest band, and their performance cleared the club? Is this the same Soul Asylum who was #1 Most Added this week at Top 40 radio? Wow!..... Speaking of that other format, did you notice that Stone Temple Pilots and Radiohead are both getting significant airplay at the Top 40 level? Don't be fooled, though, you know that they're just playing these bands to get on the good side of STP's manager, Steve Stewart, and Capitol Records, so they can get the radio station "presents" when the Butthole Surfers/STP show comes to their market..... Thanks mucho to Imago for the opportunity to see Pere Ubu. It was loads of fun to watch HITS' newest indentured servant, Chris Carey, see the band for the first time and be blown-away! Imago should be pretty happy with the early success of the Aimee Mann record. Could there also be a Giant Sand record in their future?.... The Posies charted at #22, just in time for Ken Stringfellow's wedding to Kim Warnick from the Fastbacks. Yay! Yay!..... Things To Do: Wear sunblock, listen to Urge Overkill on vinyl, read "The Virgin Suicides" and get a copy of Matthew Sweet's new record!

When you think of Boston, certain things always come to mind: The Boston Marathon, Fenway Park, the Lyres, Cheers, the Rat and of course, the WBCN Rumble, which is our yearly excuse to visit one of our favorite cities, judge the finals of radio's most widely heralded band competition, and kiss the ring of Oedipus, the station's esteemed PD, not because of his far-reaching influence as a programmer, but because he produced the first Real Kids single and brought punk-rock to Beantown!

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

Donald Fagen, "Kamakiriad" (Reprise): Along with his usual reverent allusions to Brubeck, Ellington and Coltrane, Donald Fagen moves into a seductive and simplistic modality reminiscent of Miles on this brilliant album of eight related songs. Each tune is a romantic short story about life in a next-century metropolis (New York maybe?) featuring the trademark Steely Dan shuffle and complex chord substitutions. Walter Becker's production and musical contributions conjure up days of Babylon Sisters and Major Dudes.

Aimee Mann, "Whatever" (Imago): Kiss 'til tuesday goodbye. Except for Mann's predilection for songs about failed romance and unrealized hopes and expectations, the pessimistic nature of 'til tuesday's themes and sound have been replaced by a palpable bounce in Mann's music and impressive sophistication in her lyrics. Producer Jon Brion brought a host of unexpected organic instruments (mellotron, chamberlin, pump organ) to the arrangements and helped Mann create a truly distinctive sound worthy of close headphone listening.

Red House Painters, "Red House Painters" (4AD): Singer/songwriter Mike Kozelek deals in languid, harrowing reality, and does so in the manner of emotional desolation's finest chroniclers Alex Chilton, Morrissey and American Music Club's Mark Eitzel. The result is a double album rich in haunting tales and disturbingly beautiful sounds. Kozelek handled the production chores himself on this San Francisco band's marvelous full(double)-length debut. Beware romantics and cynics alike: you may be in for some revelation.

Sebadoh, "Bubble And Scrape" (Sub Pop): Sebadoh's music eschews the partyline of equal opportunity for band members and will probably be the new post-Nirvana-itis to follow for bands in the coming months—especially after hearing this album. "Bubble And Scrape," the fourth complete LP for Sebadoh, is an extremely competent and strong effort for three guys who originally just wanted to take turns writing songs, playing instruments and singing. Sebadoh is an eclectic balance for your summer diets. Key songs: "Happily Divided," "Flood" and "Sacred Attention." (Meredith Chinn).

JIM OLSEN WRSI, GREENFIELD, MASS.

It's been a mixed bag of blessings this year for our old friend Jim Olsen. First his good pal Clark Kent disappeared, then the Spin Doctors chronicled his experience in a song, which forever immortalized Jim (and his blues). In fact, Jim has barely touched his camera this year and still weeps when he hears "Superman" by R.E.M. His only solace is his beloved winning Red Sox and the guest tutorials he conducts at nearby Smith College and Mount Holyoke. C'mon, let a man have his dreams.

PEDDLE TO THE METAL

SMELL THE GLOVE

Prong is working on their third elpee for Epic, with producer Terry Date (Soundgarden) at Seattle's Bad Animals studio. Date, direct from producing the utterly brilliant new Fishbone effort, "Give A Monkey A Brain and He'll Swear He's the Center of the Universe," is one of the nicest guys you'll find on either side of a 48-track board. The matchup makes perfect sense since new managers Walter O'Brien and Andy Gould have had gold success with the Date-produced Pantera. Recent Prong bassist Troy Gregory split after last year's tour and, while a replacement has yet to be found, Murder Inc./Killing Joke's Paul Raven is doing the record with guitarist Tommy Victor and drummer Ted Parsons. Musical direction, according to O'Brien, is "picking up where 'Whose Fist is This Anyway...?' left off." Once Date completes Prong, he'll be heading to Nashville to do the third Pantera release at Abbott Music studio, which, coincidentally, happens to be owned by father of the band's brothers Vinnie and "Diamond" Darrell Paul. That recording session won't start until six dates with Megadeth are completed. Beginning 6/27, the tour hits Evansville, St. Louis, Kansas City, Detroit, Cleveland and Dayton. Megadeth is then in line for the Aerosmith tour, replacing Jackyl, but, according to someone close to the Aerosmith camp, that'll happen over "his dead body." Now that's an attractive thought... Beau Hill, best known for his work with Ratt, Warrant and Winger, gets the nod with dubwise thrashers Bad Brains for their Epic debut. And what's this we hear about The Smithereens looking at either Butch Vig or Mike Clink to produce their next one? Inside sources are pointing to Clink, but either choice would represent a new direction for the power popsters... Look for new C.O.C. release in September. Once again, John Custer produces... Pearl Jam did a surprise show in San Francisco last week to benefit the Surfrider Foundation. If anyone knows what the foundation is about, please let us know so that we can make up our own benefit for their next show in our living room... 20th Century Fox's "Airheads" starts production 6/22 with director Michael ("Heathers," "Hudson Hawk") Lehmann, starring Brandon ("Encino Man") Fraser, Steve ("Reservoir Dogs") Buscemi and Adam ("SNL") Sandler. The "Wayne's World"-ish plot has a rock band who can't get arrested taking over a radio station that won't play their records, resulting in them getting arrested. A star-studded soundtrack on 20th Century Fox

Walter O'Brien: Smiling all the way to the rock bank.

By THE EVIL TWINS

Records will accompany... And finally, major congrats to A&M's new GM and genuine nice guy, Jim Guerinet... Answer to "Ladder" question: "Itchy Twitchy Twat."

OVER THE EDGE

Shocker! Anthrax nails the #1 slot. Actually, the shock is the Top 40 guys in the front of the office (we're in the back by the kitchen) are listening to it today, so it's just a matter of time until radio totally runs this into the ground. Until then, play and abuse. Reich had a strong, successful run and we recommend they turn over all merchandising profits from their European tour to Dyana Kass. Just kidding! Get well wishes to Reich vocalist/bassist Phil Rind. Everything else moved down a slot through Quicksand, who seem to have comfortably settled in the #8 position. Living Colour takes a jump to 9* (great review in The New York Times), followed closely by Mind Funk, Bosstones and Genitorturers, all taking a bullet. Debuts: Kiss at 19* and Mind Over Four at 25*, but howza about Danzig, who chart at 28* out of the chute as well as #2 Most Added. This is the first time that this has happened on our chart. Reasons? They lead with the full LP rather than a single track, resulting in immediate charting; the band and, of course, Clarissa. Get that raise now, babe-o. Cathedral nails # 1 Most Added and since "The Ethereal Mirror" won't be out until 6/22, ya might as well "Ride" this track 'til then. Retail has STP back on top, keeping Porno for Perry at 2* (but #1 in-store play). Kiss takes the hot debut slot at 5* (musta been Arsenio) with their live one and yes, that was Gene Simmons at the Anthrax show in NYC. Other great debuts from Winger, Priest and those Mighty Bostonian Bosstones. Sturdy moves from Flotsam, who just ended the second leg of their tour last week at the famed Iguana's nightclub in Tijuana and one of our faves, Fear Factory, with their "Mindkiller" remixes... Cheryl seiz, "My name is not synonymous with Ticketron." Mercury maven is justified in her frustration over unused tix. Trust us when we tell you you're better off passing to begin with rather than saying you'll go to a show you have no plans on going to anyway... "Defying gravity" took on a whole new meaning at the annual TJ Martell Softball Game on Sunday. The amount of silicone (that was obviously used in lieu of laminates), got old even with some of our more popular industry sexists. Oh yeah, KNAC got their socks knocked off in both games they played, but what the hell. KISS had nothing but ringers anyway...

Gene Simmons: Hot debuts and Anthrax co.

RADIO KNOB O' THE WEEK

TOMMY DAVIS, WEVL

Memphis, TN

Tommy "I'm A Fool For Tool"

Davis holds all 12,590 watts of public radio power hostage each and every Friday night, featuring the finest in metal, thrash, hardcore, alternametal and hard rap. He claims that WEVL (yes, it rhymes with evil, thanks for asking) is one of the only outlets for metal in Memphis (no kidding), but that the region is starting to wake up and smell the caffeine both on a club exposure level for national bands (he helped promote the Helmet date) and at retail. Tommy claims that Cat's CD's and Tapes have a good selection of titles reflective of his playlist and looks forward to more retail in the area getting a clue. Hobbies include drums, roller skating, bowling and sanity (wrong business, kiddo). While he traveled ten hours to catch the Tool show in Atlanta last year, he claims he's only been to Graceland twice, giving us all the more reason why... we love ya.

When we asked our resident sports maven, Roy "Goy Boy" Trakin about how the Pistons did this season, he took time out from shovelling down a garlic pizza, three bottles of Dr. Brown's Cream Soda and two bottles of Yoo Hoo long enough to sputter "They choked - mainly thanks to Rodman." Since the reason we were inquiring was due to the above shot of you-know-who, we felt compelled to print it anyway and give Dennis some slack by letting him know the next time he's fool enough to sport any metal band's t-shirt, he should take the damn headphones out of his ears long enough to pull it out in the clutch. The fact that the team didn't make the playoffs this year for the first time in many goes to show ya, you can take the shirt off a band's back, but you can't expect them to win the damn game for you. So there..

"I WANNA" EXPLODING!

With her sultry, seductive and expressive voice, Mica Paris has made her mark as one of the leading ladies of modern soul. "I Wanna Hold On To You," the first single from her greatly-anticipated third Island/PLG album, "Whisper A Prayer," complements the singer's magnificent voice with a sexy, undulating groove. "Whisper A Prayer" has everyone shouting "Hit!"

WTLC Indianapolis MD Vicki Buchanon asserted, "This will be the record that takes her to the top! It sounds great!"

In Phoenix, KMJK MD Keith Bell took a break from wiping the sweat off Charles Barkley's head to tell us, "With a ton of ballads riding the charts these days, Mica Paris offers a refreshing change. The single has 'Hit' written all over it!"

At retail, Darryl Chambers of Armand's in Philly told us how he used to be in charge of Charles Barkley's sweat control and then said, "This is a very good album and a hot single!"

PLG VP of R&B Promotion David Linton, who said Charles Barkley isn't fit to carry Patrick Ewing's... uh, jewel box, told us, "Mica Paris is a star who's still on the rise. The new single and album will take her into the stratosphere!"

Here at HITS, we've been traded for a third-string bench-warmer to be named later.

THE MUSIC THING: That E-La-Té "Drop Down" - (Jammsville/Warlock) sure snuck up on us. It's emerging from the south and is definitely worth your consideration. Tony! Toni! Tone! is tellin' some truth on "If I Had No Loot" (Mercury). Billy Ocean is back with "Everything's So Different Without You" (Jive). Check out the Wooten Brothers' "Happy" (A&M). Looks like the jazz/rap hybrid is a real thing. "Loungin'" from Jazzmataz (Chrysalis/EMIRG) will be here any moment. Here And Now is doing well considering the limited airplay with "Are You Ready?" (Third Stone/Atlantic/Atl G). THE OTHER DELIVERY THING: As much as I rant about jocks being one-on-one with listeners, using "real people" talk and

By J. J. Johnson

not being overly subordinate to format, there is another angle. When speaking format stuff, especially liners, slogans and calls, you gotta deliver! Do you run through your station's liners strictly per format or do you inject emotional substance each time you crack the mic? When I say my station's slogans, you should believe that this is special to me and not merely the fulfillment of the PD's instructions. That contest liner, apart from specifics, should always implicitly say, "This is big fun and potentially beneficial!" Certain words are almost always important: "You," "Win," "Now" and "Comin' Up," to name a few. If you don't have conviction, why should a listener believe you? A word is just a word until your emotional input brings it to life. Later.

From the consummate singer/songwriter and vocalist who brought you the classic ballad "Piano In The Dark"

And whose timeless songs have been recorded by such legends as Ray Charles, Chaka Kahn, Herb Alpert, Luther Vandross, Earth Wind & Fire, Roberta Flack, Oleta Adams and others.

SOFT & WARM

STORM WATCH: This week, our Sultry Storm Gal Kandace let us in on her favorite ways to pass a stormy night. Said the Divine Maiden, "Penny Ford's (pictured) voice is reminiscent of the legendary Chaka Kahn and is strong enough to stand on its own. While 'Daydreamin' is making her a household name, there's more to come. Check out the smooth mid-tempo 'This Love' and the sensual 'Wherever You Are Tonight' (Columbia)." Kandace is also warm for Jeff Lorber's "Worth Waiting For," of which she said, "Lorber is dynamic from the sweet sounds of 'Yellowstone,' to the tender 'Punta del Este' and the powerful 'Highwire.' There are so many jazz greats lending a hand on this one, you won't want to miss it."... Smooth sailing.

JUST ONE MORE FOR MY FOURTH COUSIN TWICE-REMOVED ON MY MOM'S SIDE: The very patient Tina Turner came by our Slammin' Oaks headquarters and agreed to a couple of photos with JAMS domo J.J. Johnson—not 47! Said Ms. Turner, "How big a family does this clown have? Sheesh!"

WILL WGCI CARRY THE INFO-MERICIALS?: Here is WGCI Chicago PD Elroy Smith explaining the secret of his success in radio and real estate at one of his famous "How To Borrow Lots Of Money From Your Friends" seminar. Said Mr. Smith, "I started with nothing and I have twice that now!"

DON'T EVEN THINK THE WORD "DONUT": Here are Jason Champion of Men At Large, WJTT PD Keith Landecker, David Tolliver of Men At Large and Road Manager (keeper of the Doritos) Leonard Brooks, hangin' just moments after they were passed over for Doctor Dre's role in "Who's The Man." Said Champion, "That's a damn shame. Leonard, nacho cheese please."

AND YOU ARE...?: Here is the crack KVSP Oklahoma City, OK morning team of OM/PD/morning guy Darnell Swift and his co-host Lee Evans. Seen here, the two take a call from President Clinton. Evans responded by saying, "Well, congratulations, Bill. And what company are you with?"

LABEL PHAT AND ALL THAT: Prized PLG Rap National Sincere has decided to stay with the label after being upped to Senior National Director of Rap Promotion, gaining signing power and being offered deeper shades of green. RCA, which was rumored to have courted Sincere, is now thought to be talking with one of his not-too-distant neighbors about the same Rap A&R position... Eric Skinner jumps from Atlantic to Jive as Manager of Rap Promotion. He takes the place of Jeff Sledge who stepped to A&R to work with the Shaq on his upcoming rap debut. With these two rap heavies in the mix, is Jive hoping to recreate the Twin Tower Attack of the Rockets' glory days? With the departure of Skinner, who will step into the Atlantic spotlight?... I AIN'T NEW TA DIS: Latifah Williams becomes the VP of Promotion and Marketing for Ice-T "Home Invasion" and "New Jack City" producer Aladdin's new Players Convention Records... New Deal Music is gearing up for droppin' the first singles from the DOWN WIT' ...

MARTIN "TAZZY TAZ" MORA: Sharp and passionate about hip-hop, this Sonoma State University student spins the real shit during his KBBF Santa Rosa, CA radio show "En La Casa," which runs from 10 pm to 1am Tuesday nights. Taz is a guardian of hip hop music and culture in an area where hardly any of either exists, and he's especially interested in enhancing the recognition of the important contribution that Latin culture has made to the music. Appropriately, his show features Latin/Spanglish rappers, Bay Area talent and the street underground. "Although there's still a strong underground of real hip-hop coming up, the mainstream influence has watered down the music a lot," he said. Taz hopes to work for a label and "keep passing on the music" to the next generation. On the strength.

WHEELS & DEALS

By Joe Fleischer

INDIE IS AS INDIE DOES: With June 7 looming as the start-up date for the ADA distribution consortium, much speculation is being made regarding what labels will participate. While indies like Restless and Sub Pop would doubtless benefit from a distribution system that promises to be better-positioned than those which they currently utilize, do the involved majors hope that ADA will lend certain "indie-like" records the patina of "indie-like" credibility? It has also been rumored that several of the indies approached have been invited to participate in the overall profits of the system as a means of enticement. Has everyone been offered a piece?

Industry Gods...

De Savia and Trakin.

with swiftly... THE SECRET'S OUT: What do School Of Fish, Gin Blossoms, Rage Against The Machine, Greta, Wax and the Odds have in common? They've all been signed to label deals due at least in part to their performances at ASCAP-sponsored showcases at L.A.'s Coconut Teaszer. Kudos to ASCAP's Tom De Savia, Mike Badami and the Teaszer's Len Fagen for making a difference... 'SUP: Len Fico has been named VP of A&R for Island Records. He will maintain offices on both coasts and will continue the operation of his company, the Producer Group... Rodney Bingenheimer is touting and playing the Clover demo on his show... Don't miss the June 4 Troubadour date of the "In Their Own Words" tour, featuring Johnny Clegg, Lisa Germano, the transportive Freedy Johnston (one of Ivana's faves) and conspiracy theorist extraordinaire David Baerwald, which is billed as "A bunch of songwriters sitting around singing"... Seattle's C/Z Records is releasing "Grunge Lite," a compilation of all your favorite grunge classics set to Muzak. Among hits by Temple Of The Dog, Pearl Jam and Alice In Chains, synthesist Sara DeBell also recorded renditions of Soundgarden's "Rusty Cage." Mudhoney's "Touch Me I'm Sick" and that grunge hallmark, "Smells Like Teen Spirit" by Nirvana. Pass me the novacaine... MCA inks Water to a Greta-sized deal... Imago picks up Giant Sand (groovy!), Elektra harpoons Moby... Weezer, Rust and Inch are moments away from closing escrow on label homes... RIGHT ON!: To MCA Records and Famous Music for nabbing Kinky Machine... BUZZIN': Honey Pot, Craig Aronson, Tammy Lester, Mitch Brody.

Stay tuned... HOUSE IN ORDER: Despite the departure of Gary Gersh, there is surprisingly little commotion over the disposition of the many stellar acts that he's left behind. This is largely due to the high level of care Gersh took with each artist and the nearly complete state of all his artists' projects. Who will inherit his roster will be decided on a case-by-case basis, with the input of both the label and the acts themselves. Priority acts like Peter Gabriel, Nirvana and Hole will doubtlessly be dealt

MINI MUGS

MICK UNDER D-INFLUENCE: Atlantic Records artist and rock & roll legend Mick Jagger asks East West labelmates D-Influence to re-mix a track off his current "Wandering Spirit" album in exchange for holding hands with him in the studio. The soul groove band just released their debut album, "Good 4 We," as the following proclaim, "When he said he'd grease our palms, we didn't know he meant it literally" (l-r): band members Ed Baden Powell and Sarah Webb, Jagger, the group's Kwame Kwaten and Steve Marsten.

INMATES TAKE OVER ASYLUM: Posing as Asylum Records President Kyle Lehning (l), an escapee from the Nashville Mental Health Institute gets Emmylou Harris (c) to sign an order releasing him into the custody of the famed singer/songwriter and her manager Monty Hitchcock (r). Shortly afterwards, the men in the white suits carted the Lehning impostor back to the loony bin, where he signed Syd Barrett and Brian Wilson to recording contracts.

ACT OF AGGRESSION: Recent Priority Records signing Engines of Aggression learn the first rule of the record industry: if you want a pic published in HITS, be photographed holding the magazine and making a funny face. Seen learning that said photo will cost them about $10,000 recoupable against future royalties and that their faces will stay that way for eternity are (l-r): band member Craig Dollinger; Priority Division VP IGM Jeff Neben; the group's Rik Schaffer and Bulldog; Priority Exec VP Stephen Drath; EOA's Tripp and in-house counsel Andrew Shack.

MINI MUGS

RHINO RULERS: No, not the kind that seem to be keeping "Wild Palms" star Jim Belushi up at night, but the ones we gotta stroke if we expect to stay on the label's mailing list and keep getting invited to Eric Gardner's fab parties. In other words, Todd Rundgren hangs with "Team TR-1" on the occasion of a preview for his new "No World Order" interactive project, set for release on Rhino's Forward label. There, does that cover everyone? (l-r): Forward/Rhino VP Mktng. Chris Tobey, Rundgren, Gardner and Forward/Rhino Pres. Richard Foos.

WHO ORDERED THE ANCHOVIES?: So you thought recording was just a bowl of cherries. Just wait until that intrusive label A&R exec stops by to offer suggestions on "mixing." Which is exactly what happened during this Concrete Blonde session at Larabee North, where the band recorded their Capitol debut and dreamed about the good ole days at I.R.S., when they had to pay for their own pizzas (front, l-r): Blonde's Johnette Napolitano, producer Tim Palmer and the band's Jim Mankey. (Back, l-r): Capitol A&R exec. Tim Devine and Worlds End Pres. Sandy Roberson.

THE BUCKS STOP HERE: Relativeity artists the Buck Pets learn the hard way about recording for a small label, as they're forced to do their new disc, "To The Quick," in producer Ted Niceley's basement on his kids' boom box. Here, the boys discover not to touch the the control board when standing in an inch of water (l-r): B. Pets Ian Beach and Chris Savage. Niceley, the band's Ricky Pearson, engineer Steve Palmieri and Pet Andy Thompson.

BEAT'S ME

by Roy Trakin

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS (THE ANGLE): The current sad state of celebrity-styled journalism reached its nadir last week with the "Nirvana album rejected by Geffen" non-story, which started with producer Steve Albini's gripes to the Chicago Tribune, was reprinted in the Village Voice and blew up in a page-and-a-half spread by Jeff Giles in Newsweek magazine, of all places. The fact that the latter was riddled with the usual anonymous industry sources didn't cover up the fact this kind of back-and-forth between artist and label goes on all the time, albeit mostly behind the scenes. It just goes to show you the mainstream press has become as bad as the tabloids when it comes to trying to come up with "dirt" to fit their premise. In this case, it was the time-worn, oversimplified cliché of the predatory record company vs. the principled artist, fueled by a spurned producer. Geffen PR chief Bryn Bridenthal, in the midst of feverish damage control, insisted one reporter actually told her he didn't want to know the real story because it would ruin his original angle.

STATE OF FOURTH ESTATE: Ex-Melody Maker and Face editor Ian Birch exits Us magazine, replaced by Jim Meigs, while W.C. Editor Jef- frey Ressler ankles for an entertainment slot at Time. What's happenin' over dere?.. Bruce Britt accepts an L.A. Daily News buyout, while the upping of Newsday's Dave Herndon opens up a Music Editor's slot there... Malibu Comics launches a rock star line, with issues devoted to Lita Ford, Metallica and others...

B'way Bound?

Madonna: The Lady is a very rich tramp.

FLACK ATTACK: Larry Jenkins and Leyla Turkkan's move to Columbia publicity begins a veritable domino effect. Turkkan insists she's leaving her own successful indie, Set To Run, because "it was time for a change" and she relished "a new challenge." Not to mention the security of a steady paycheck and the lack of headaches from running your own business. Jocelyn Lobel will carry on under the STR banner, handling such PoMo clients as New Order, the Cure, the Fluid and God Machine while Ursula Smith will be opening her own, as-yet-unnamed, pubbery, handling the likes of LL Cool J, Intro, MC Lyte and Pete Nice. STR's West Coast rep Ellen Zoe Golden was recently reunited with long-time publicity client Billy Idol when he split from Sarah McMullen's firm. Meanwhile, the line for the Tower opening forms on the right...

BROADWAY FOLLIES: With "Tommy" making hay on the Great White Way and Madonna and Anthony Kiedis crooning "The Lady Is A Tramp" on "Arsenio," could it be that rock & roll and legitimate theater are finally coming together? And, if so, could "Pearl Jamania" with Stone Temple Pilots be far behind? Would you believe RuPaul in a musical based on the Kinks' "Lola"? How about Lenny Kravitz in "Will Rogers Follies"? Dylan in "Fiddler On The Roof"? Kurt Cobain in "Hair"? Just asking.

RERAP

By Mark Pearson

As Uni joins the anti-used CD brigade with a letter going out this week to customers, Wherehouse is also upping the ante with a huge four-day Memorial Weekend promotion offering customers $3 off any new CD if they bring in a used CD. The promotion is running in all 314 Wherehouse locations (five western states), with full media ad coverage. "This does not mean we will be selling used CDs in all 314 stores," says Wherehouse's Bruce Jesse. "And this should not be construed as aggression against the labels. This is not much different than if we ran a coupon in the paper the customer had to redeem." Currently, Wherehouse is selling used product in approximately 150 stores. Wherehouse also makes official the acquisition of the Record Shop chain (29 stores in 11 markets), taking them into the Midwest... And what about the formation of IMRA (Independent Music Retailers Assoc.) as a response to WEA, CEMA. Sony and now Uni's policies against sales of used product? The co-founders are Northern Lights' John Camahan, Repeat The Beat's Roman Kotrys, Independent Music Assoc.'s Don Kulak, Waterloo Records' John Kunz, Record Exchange's Don Rosenberg and Kevin Stander

Used CD Battle Cry!

Bruce Jesse: Wherehouse on the offensive.

of Record & Tape Traders. The IMRA is calling for other retailers to "refuse to carry marginal titles and break new acts for these labels."... OK, so we all read about the joint venture of IBM and Blockbuster. (Ed note: Except for Mark, who had someone read it to him.) The new companies are Fairway and New Leaf. Fairway will provide the technology to give retail stores the ability to make audio CDs on demand (deep catalog, no floorspace). New Leaf will be the liaison to suppliers (of music, games, etc). The plan, according to Chris Clough of IBM, is to be implemented by early '94 and would not be proprietary (in other words, not only Blockbuster Music stores would be using the system). Retailers' immediate concern is that, ultimately, the middleman (meaning them) will be cut out completely and the consumer will get the data directly into the home. Does that mean this column would be renamed DataRap? (Ed note: No, it means you'll be writing it from window "E" at the unemployment office.) "That certainly is a possibility for the future," says Clough, "but not yet. We are going to focus on retail outlets for a number of reasons. In many cases, they have data-links already established that would enable them to receive the information and they would also be able to amortize the cost of the equipment over many customers." Fairway has the fulfillment time down to three minutes from the moment the customer requests a title, but it looks like New Leaf is going to have an uphill struggle convincing labels to license the copyrights. PGD would seemingly be a slam dunk since its owner, Dutch-based Phillips, is an investor in Blockbuster, but Uni, WEA and Sony have said they will have no part of it, apparently upset by not being consulted before the announcement.

MINI MUGS

INDECENT EXPOSURE: No, this is not a meeting of Cyberpunks Anonymous or the Hair Extension Club For Men, but a show of support for ex-Mötley Crüe lead singer Vince Neil's (c) just-released solo album, "Exposed," at an L.A. listening party, where Billy Idol (c) and ex-mate Steve Stevens, who played guitar on Vince's record, tried to explain the plot of "Wild Palms" to Neil. Shortly after this shot was taken, it was discovered the three were actually holographic projections, while the real Neil, Idol and Stevens were home watching Rush Limbaugh.

STEREOS IN MONO: Members of Gee Si!s!/JPLG recording group Stereo MCs discover the secret to why they're still in hock to the label as they greet some of that administrative overhead after their recent appearance at N.Y.'s Roseland opening for Jesus Jones. Guzzling the band's beer and recouping its cost from future band royalties are (l-r): EMI Publishing Worldwide Exec. VP of Talent Acq. & Mktg. John Sykes, Stereo MC's Owen if and Rob B; PLG Exec. VP John Barbis, PLH President/CEO Rick Dobbis, Stereo MC's Nick "The Head" Hallam and Island Sr. VP Matt Stringer.

HOME DELIVERY: Satellite-delivered digital music to the home is still in the future, but don't tell that to Arista Sr. Director of National Field Sales Jordan Katz, whose wife Ellen Schleifer bore him a son, Evan Zak Schleifer-Katz, in his own home when his mother-in-law was too busy cooking chicken cutlets to get there in time to take care of their two-year-old son Lee. And, while they always planned a home delivery, young Evan came out so fast, Jordan had to deliver the baby himself before the midwife even got there. Oh, yeah, the chicken cutlets burned.

Former HOT977 San Jose's Kelly & Kline join WTIC Hartford. Kevin Clay exits KISK Fayetteville leaving a morning opening. T&Rs to Rich Walton.... Atco is about to strike again with 1 Of The Girls.... Will Maurice Starr finance Sunny Joe White in the purchase of a radio property in Boston?.... We've been warning you about the momentum that was building for the Brian McKnight ballad. Congrats to David Leach and staff as lightning struck with a big first week.... At B947 Redding, Melanie Mackert from KWNZ Reno joins as

MD/morning co-host.... Look for an internal staff promotion this week at WAPE Jacksonville.... Well-liked (hmmmm) 93Q Syracuse MD Jim Meech is out.... Congrats to STAR94 Atlanta's Tony Novia and Lee Chesnut whose four month Arbitron gains have gone from 3.6 to 6.6 in the latest trend report. Their demos are sensational.... Midday personality Al Bandiero exits HOT97 New York and is replaced by Bugsy Buggs (nice name) from weekends.... Q102 Cincinnati and Jimmy Steal continue to gain Arbitrend numbers: 5.9-6.3, while many industryites are calling the station's on-air production work the best in the country. Steal is interviewed this week on page 38.... WMMZ Gainesville names Chris Cor- son formerly of KQV Pittsburgh as GM.... Ex-WLAN Lancaster PD Pete Michaels joins sidekick Hank Bastian as APD at WQIC Lebanon.... KZIO Duluth ups night jock Christine Dean to middays.... KIXY San Angelo seeks a night jock. T&Rs to Michael Steele.... Promo director Paul Anthony exits KFTZ Idaho Falls due to budget constrictions.... Shane DeWayne exits WSSX Charleston. More changes coming when the sale is complete.... Condolences to InterScope's Marc Benesch on the loss of his mother, 5/20.... Congrats to KHTN Modesto MD Alan Chase and new bride Alda Silva on their wedding, 5/22.... WYNONNA JUDD, WYNONNA JUDD, WYNONNA JUDD.... Blowin' In

The Wind: Keith Clark, Clarke Ingram, Don Benson, Shellie Hart and Ricky Leigh.... And here's WWHT Columbus PD Tom Gilligan, staggeringly gorgeous fiance Nicole and illegitimate son Jordy.

HITS

by Lenny Beer & Michael St. John

Top news of the week comes out of Z90 in San Diego as Operations Manager Billy Burke resigns his management position but stays on air. APD Gnarley Charley exits the building, and Rick Thomas from KSOL San Francisco will now consult the station for Jerry Clifton. No staff replacements are anticipated.... If you're looking for Andrea Ganis this week, she'll be the one with a grin as wide as the Atlantic Ocean. She's smokin' hot with Inner Circle, Robin S, Crosby/Collins, the fast-breaking Stone Temple Pilots and more.... Action in Cleveland where Zapis Broadcasting has assumed control of WJMO. Zapis President Lynn Tolliver is sending mixed signals as to the direction of the station. Look for a more mainstream approach with PD candidates surfacing including Chuck Field, Tom Mitchell and John Chris- tián.... Lots of people are asking what's up at Epic and with Epic's new label (Polly Records?). Look for the team of Barbara Seltzer and Harvey Leeds to assume control of promotion at the main label, while Ms. Anthony segues into the creation of the new entity. Anthony is seeking to staff up, in case anyone is interested.... John McFadden is out as PD of WKEE Huntington. Q106 San Diego PD Tracy Johnson is now consulting.... The moves and reaction to the Proclaimers single are astounding. So is the amount of stations not yet playing!.... Steve Janas is out as PD at 99KG Salinas.... The Request reports on Columbia's Jordy are staggering.... OM Dave Allen exits WJMX Florence. Dave Baker from WMFX Columbia replaces him.... The buzz is building on

The incredibly charismatic Ken Benson of KKRZ Portland is shown sporting new plastic surgery with Atlantic's Tim Dalbec & Danny Buch. While it's obvious that Tim is a geek and Ken never looked better, Danny's too sensitive to comment about.
