The Week's News In Review

Here are some of the major stories that have appeared in R&R Country Daily since May 24. Subscribe to RBCD by visiting our website, www.radioandrecords.com, and clicking "About Us" and "How to Subscribe."

R&R Country Daily, May 24: Former WYCD/Detroit personality Erin Weber was awarded $10.6 million in her lawsuit against Infinity. Weber charged the company with discriminating against her over a period of months after she was disabled by an allergic reaction to another employee's perfume. The suit, brought in U.S. District Court in Detroit, ended May 23 when the all-female jury returned a verdict after eight days of deliberations.

The jury also determined that Infinity violated the Equal Pay Act and awarded Weber $7 million in punitive damages in addition to compensation for Weber's past and future lost wages and benefits, as well as mental anguish and emotional distress. Infinity spokesperson Karen Mateo told the Detroit News, "We're disappointed in the verdict and intend to make all the appropriate post-trial motions." One such motion would be to reduce the punitive damages to the federal-law cap of $300,000. Visit www.detnews.com/2005/business/0505/24/A01-191461.htm for more on the story.

RBCD May 25: ABC inked a six-year deal to broadcast the CMA Awards, beginning in November 2006. On Aug. 2, the network will air a two-hour primetime special shot during this year's CMA Music Festival. "This move by ABC speaks very favorably about the strength and popularity of country music today," says CMA Exec. Director Ed Benson. "We are thrilled to have been sought after by ABC, and we are looking forward to working with them." The CMA Awards celebrate their 40th anniversary in 2006.

The May 27 Nashville column in R&R provided a detailed look at ABC's months-long effort to move into country with deals for the awards show, the CMA Music Festival special and a Kenny Chesney primetime special planned for this fall. The one-hour primetime show, Chesney's first, will air on Nov. 23 at 8pm ET. The working title is Kenny Chesney: Some- 121 Country reporters. Songs ranked by total points for the airplay week of 5/22-5/28. Bullets appear on songs gaining points and/or plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total points, the song with the larger increase in points is placed first. Songs below No. 1 and down in points and plays for three consecutive weeks are moved to recurrent. Most Added is the total number of new adds officially reported to R&R by each reporting station. Songs unreported as adds do not count toward overall total stations playing a song. Most Increased Points lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total points. Station Weight = AQH Persons + (Market rank X 10) divided by 4180. Total Audience equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Each daypart on each station is assigned an AQH number.
