

ANNE MURRAY MAKES IT LOOK EASY

One definition often given for the word professional is "a person who makes the difficult look easy". The axiom would seem tailor-made for Capitol recording star Anne Murray. Arguably the most popular and successful Canadian singer at present both in this country and abroad, the Nova Scotia-born Murray appears untainted by fame - but her easy manner masks an intelligent, talented, and perceptive person, well aware of the toll a career in the music business exacts.

Anne Murray's current LP, Heart Over Mind, furthers a pattern of success that began almost 15 years ago with the 1970 release of her single, Snowbird. Nobody Loves Me Like You Do - a duet with Dave Loggins taken as the first single from Heart Over Mind - has cracked charts in pop, country, and A/C formats. It promises to be one of Murray's most successful singles.

Raised in a family that included five brothers, Murray's first major exposure as a singer came on the CBC-TV program Sing-along Jubilee. Snowbird - a single penned by Gene MacLellan - positioned her in 1970 as more than just an ensemble singer on the Halifax-based show.

Earlier this year, at the Country Music Awards in Nashville, Murray received the Best Single of The Year award for her release of A Little Good News, as well as Best Album of The Year for the album of the same title.

Murray has spent the last couple of months touring, and recently taped her upcoming CBC/CBS TV special. Her family however, remains a priority.

"I took two months off earlier this year," she explains. "After six weeks, I got itchy feet. I've worked an awful lot this fall . . . probably more than any other fall that I can remember. My family is the priority - I always take time off in March so I can be with them during the school break."

Murray's career has taken off internationally over the last few years. She speculates that the reason for this increased popularity is "probably" all those years of hard work," continuing with "I've been banging away at it for 15 years now, and you can't have a career unless you have a string of successes. For me, even the last year has had so much going on; if you've only had one hit, and too much time goes by, people ask 'who was that?'"

Murray's goals haven't really changed that much. "When you're young, and just starting out, you don't really have goals," explains Murray. "I was caught up in having a hit record (Snowbird) so it wasn't until 1977 or 1978 when I started having real goals. By then, I had a track record. It was easier to sit back and have a look at where I was. I would simply like to go on this way (performing), and it seems the steady growth over the years has paid off."

Murray was asked about the problem of an unwieldy ego in the music business.

"I've never really noticed it in others," she confesses. "For me, it was growing up with five brothers that did it. There was no room for a swelled head. My parents had a wonderful relationship, and the mining people in Nova Scotia face danger on a regular basis - that can be a real leveller, it keeps you down to earth."

Murray began her tour of Western Canada (Nov. 15) in Vancouver. That same afternoon she was presented with a special award by Dave Evans, President of Capitol commemorating sales in Canada - to date - in excess of 3,500,000 units.

One recent international triumph for Anne Murray was her two dates at New York's Radio City Music Hall (Nov. 9, 10), where she packed the hall to capacity (6,000) for each evening. She warmed her New York audience with her opening patter where she referred to the many cities in which she performed: "There are cities," she told her adoring audience, "and there's New York", which brought the house down . . . obviously a professional at work. Lauper charms large turnout of media reps

Decked out in her trademark hairstyle, a sequined top, and red/black-checked pants, Cyndi Lauper met the Toronto media at the Westbury Hotel, prior to her recent Toronto date at Maple Leaf Gardens (Nov. 12).

Introduced by CBS President Bernie DiMatteo as "an absolute delight... one of the nicest people in the business", Lauper charmed one of the largest turnouts from the media ever witnessed in Toronto with her smile, sense of humour, and forthright manner in fielding numerous questions.

Lauper was presented with four CRIA designations - quintuple platinum (sales in excess of 500,000 units) for her debut LP, She's So Unusual, double platinum (sales in excess of 200,000 units), for the LP's first single, Girls Just Want To Have Fun, platinum (sales in excess of 100,000 units), for the second single, Time After Time, and gold (sales in excess of 50,000 units) for the album's third single, She Bop.

In the course of the press conference, Lauper revealed that she has designed T-shirts for a line that will bear her name, and is considering writing a cookbook - although she is most familiar with dishes

Ocean album jacket gets creative change

The Billy Ocean album, Suddenly, has been issued with a new album jacket cover, just as his current single, Caribbean Queen captures heavy A/C and CHR action across the country. The original cover, released on the Jive label, displayed a photo of Ocean, while the new jacket art work is a colour sketch of the artist. The label reportedly didn't believe the original cover was eye-catching enough.

Caribbean Queen, supported by a video, has been released both as a 7" and 12" single. The jacket has been stickered to highlight the tracks of Caribbean Queen and Loverboy, the latter expected to be the next single.

Suddenly was produced by Keith Diamond, however, the Loverboy track was produced by Mutt Lange. The single will be released as a 12" in a custom jacket, and a 7" with a picture sleeve.

such as 'pizza in a cup'.

All Through The Night, Lauper's fourth single from the LP, has already garnered heavy North American radio play and is in the U.S. Top 10 - making Lauper the only artist or group since the Beatles to place four singles from a debut LP in the U.S. Top 10.

The tour, which brought Lauper to Toronto, kicked off Aug. 29, and will wrap Dec. 9 in the U.S. Other Canadian dates are Quebec City - off the back of the Toronto appearance - and Montreal, with a date in Ottawa before returning to her U.S. tour.

Brewery lends support for Canadian bands

Three Canadian bands are receiving a corporate helping hand under the banner of the Miller High Life Rock Network as Carling O'Keefe Breweries provide promo support for the bands' tours over the next 12 months.

The bands are Pukka Orchestra, Beau Geste, and Jim Byrnes.

Says Bill Bourne, Senior VP of Marketing for Carling O'Keefe Canada, "There is a definite need in this country for the support and promotion of rising talent. This program is also beneficial for us in reaching that segment of the adult market. These three groups are all on their way up the ladder."

He concludes with "We're pleased to be able to help with the kind of promotional support that will help them get to the top."

Four Pro-Audio manufacturers will provide the groups with a range of products. Microphones, cassette tapes, signal processing/special effects, and multi-track cassette recorders will be supplied by Audio-Technica, TDK, Korg and Fostex, respectively.

The Rock Network is being coordinated for Carling O'Keefe by Gary M. Reynolds & Associates. Those interested should submit itinerary, tape or LP, photos, bios and materials to 60 St. Clair Ave. E. Toronto M4T 1M6, or call Mr. Reynolds at 416-961-2024.

Growing list of presenters, artists for Junos

A growing list of Canadian artists is being firmed to both present and perform at the Juno Awards - to be held this year at Exhibition Place in Toronto (Dec. 5). The ceremonies will be broadcast nationally on CBC-TV, as well as on a network of private radio stations.

Co-hosting this year's Junos will be Andrea Martin and Joe Flaherty, perhaps best known for their work with the SCTV comedy series. They will also be involved in helping write the show.

Among the presenters will be Bryan Adams, Carroll Baker, and Carole Pope of Rough Trade. The video award - a first at the Junos - will be presented by Much-Music VJ J.D. Roberts and Good Rockin' Tonight host Terry David Mulligan.

Many of the performers on the two-hour telecast/simulcast are being drawn from the nominees in the 'most promising' categories.

Signed to perform on the program, to date, are Jane Siberry, Veronique Beliveau, and Sherry Kean - three of the five nominees as Most Promising Female Artist, as well as Honeymoon Suite, Platinum Blonde, and Parachute Club, each nominated in the Most Promising Group category.

Led Zeppelin's legend fuels Honeydrippers LP

Volume 1, the Honeydrippers debut, which represents the reuniting of former Led Zeppelin members Robert Plant (vocalist) and Jimmy Page (guitarist/producer), has become one of the top sellers for WEA.

Donna Speicher, Manager of A&A's Eglinton East (Scarborough) store, reports selling more copies of the Honeydrippers LP in one week, than any other album in that period of time this year.

The album, now established on the RPM 100 was given a further boost with the release of Sea Of Love, the first single taken from the LP - a cover version of the Phil Phillips classic.

The other members of the group are former Yardbird guitarist Jeff Beck and Chic guitarist Nile Rodgers. Page had also played in the Yardbirds, with Led Zeppelin coming about with the splitting of the band in late 1968.

"The Honeydrippers is smokin' and red hot at retail," says Kim Cooke, Atlantic, Elektra Product Manager for WEA Music Canada. "The album should be platinum in a couple of weeks. Obviously the unspoken name value of the people involved goes a long way, but one should take their hat off to the genius of Robert Plant. He's come up with aces and has made two very good LPs. Plant seems to have tapped the vitality of the '50s and '60s. It's great timeless music and a good party LP."

The Honeydrippers are scheduled for an appearance on Saturday Night Live (Dec. 15). A Volume 2 release is now being put together.

AWAHSAYS

How much is "too much"?

Rumours have it, and they abound in New York City, that a major, major international company is on the blocks for a mere $5 million. Of course, the buyer has to assume all the debts and look after all the other horrendous mistakes that have been made and which put the company in such a bind.

There will be some changes!!

Still in New York . . . the executive turntable of the record industry might soon resemble their counterparts in the pathetic advertising business. I'm told, that within the next six months there will be so many changes that the record industry could become a high risk business . . . to work in. Some of the top execs that will be moving will no doubt create a bit of a traffic jam north of the border as well.

What's wrong with the Junos?

The dailies are taking their annual swipe at the Junos and the record industry, a few months later than usual. Well, there's a lot wrong with the Junos, but it's "the only award show we have". Does anyone take swipes at the dailies and their entertainment sections, which are so slanted and so badly researched and written that I wonder who reads them? I would really like to know where you can get a Juno Award made for $40 . . . I really would. When I read that remarkable "fact", I stopped reading.

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

Out of sight???

Bud Farquarson was obviously overcome when he saw Peter Behnke at a recent press reception.

Shirley Harrison to be toasted!!

The music industry will get together (Nov. 27) at the Leaside Room of the Inn On The Park to honour one of the "great" ladies of the business - Shirley Harrison. Shirley has been the important link between record companies and Eaton's . . . for 25 years, and that's what we'll be celebrating. It won't be a roast . . . how can you find anything "roasty" to say about Shirley? She's a gem . . . but I'm sure Bud Farquarson will be able to reminisce 25 years for us. Let's make this a big one. Tickets are $30 per person. Send your cheque or money order to Shirley Harrison Tribute c/o RPM - 6 Brentcliffe Road, Toronto. M4G 3Y2, before Nov. 23.

RADIO

Gold Star Award to CHFI-FM

In the Campaign Category of the Canadian Radio Commercial Awards, CHFI-FM 98 placed first, winning a Gold Star award for their station promotion, Can Our Guys Sing?. The promotion was written by Judy Burrell, Director of Creative Services, produced by John Howard, Production Director, and performed by CHFI announcers. "CHFI beat out such illustrious campaigns as Grizzly Beer, British Airways, and Pine-tree Lincoln-Mercury of Toronto," says CHFI's Promotions Assistant Stephanie Fibiger, continuing with, "There were only three 'star' trophies awarded to radio stations, and CHFI-FM 98 was one of the three."

Promotions at CJFM-FM 96

Greg Stewart, Vice President and Station Manager of Montreal's FM96, has announced the appointments of Susan Davis as Program Director and Jody Goodman as Promotion Director. Davis has been with the station for three years and for the past year has been carrying the dual responsibility of Promotion Director and Assistant Program Director. "Susan is the most qualified broadcaster in Canada to handle our adult contemporary format," notes Stewart, continuing with "She knows the music, the market, and is the most reliable person I've worked with in this business."

Goodman replaces Davis. "Jody brings invaluable experience to FM96," said Stewart in making the announcement. "having spent the last five years working as P.R. Director in the competitive hotel industry in Montreal. Jody has a very special way with people, and I am confident she'll make a smooth transition into the business of broadcasting."

A good sign . . . for Prince!!

Just prior to Cyndi Lauper taking the stage at the Gardens, the canned music let go with Let's Go Crazy . . . and the audience went crazy . . . a sure sign that Prince is on a lot of minds today. His two Toronto dates have already been sold out.

Variety to honour Robertson

The Variety Club will honour Brian Robertson at their pre-Juno Awards Luncheon Tuesday Dec. 4th. Brian has looked after the Juno Awards since CARAS took them over in 1977. The record industry and Variety will be honouring Brian for this contribution. Tickets are available at $20. per person with the proceeds going to Variety's charities.

December 7th, 1964!!

Interested in facts and figures? Take a look at the RPM issue dated Dec. 7th, 1964 (Vol. 2 No. 6). On page 7 there's a voting ballot for the poll which later became the Juno Awards. Two days after this year's Junos, the 20th anniversary of the first announcement will occur. December 7th, 1984 . . . and I think we should open a bottle of champagne . . . or do something to celebrate.

DKD & O'Keefe ink concert deal

Don Tarlton, President of the Montreal-based Donald K. Donald Productions, and Pierre Quesnel, representing La Brasserie O'Keefe Ltee (O'Keefe Breweries in Quebec), recently inked a deal resulting in a series of concerts to be presented at Montreal's Le Spectrum.

The series will be divided into 2 categories: The Miller Rock Legends, and The Miller Concert Series.

The first Concert Series presentation will be Rough Trade on Nov. 20 and 21. The first Rock Legends presentation will be Fats Domino and his Rock 'n' Roll All Stars on Nov. 22.

THE WHO - Rock
Who's Last - MCA - MCA2-8018-J

Very little remains to be said regarding one of the most influential bands in the history of pop music. Contains material from the Mod era (My Generation, I Can't Explain), Who's Next (Behind Blue Eyes, Baba O' Riley), Tommy, and the brilliant Quadrophenia. Townshend is surely destined to be regarded historically as a writer of the same proportions as Lennon or Dylan. Recorded on tour in Canada and the U.S. in 1982. Won't Get Fooled Again alone probably justifies the release of this sadly inevitable, yet exhilarating double set. Appropriately tasteful jacket art.

TOM WAITS - Pop

Asylum Years - Asylum - 96-03211-P
 Final product on Asylum in a 2-record compilation. Key tracks: All. Various production credits. Classy jacket art.

DEEP PURPLE - Rock

Perfect Strangers - Polydor - PDS-1-6410-Q
 Return of the 'kings of hard rock' after an 11-year wait. Produced by Roger Glover and Deep Purple. Key are the title track and Hungry Daze.

DURAN DURAN - Pop

Arena - Capitol - SWAV-12374-F
 Two live sides including one studio track - The Wild Boys - taken as a single. Produced by Duran Duran. The Wild Boys produced by Nile Rodgers. Key tracks: All.

BODY ROCK - Rock

EMI America - SO-17140-F
 Film soundtrack featuring artists such as Laura Branigan, Ashford & Simpson, and Dwight Twilley. Body Rock single is already on the RPM 100. Produced by Phil Ramone. Key are the title track and Why You Wanna Break My Heart.

SHEENA EASTON - Pop

A Private Heaven
EMI America - ST-17132-F
 Strut single has broken Top 40 on the RPM 100. Produced by Greg Mathieson. Key are Strut and the Mathieson-Trevor Veitch penning of Hungry Eyes.

BARON LONGFELLOW - Pop

Prisoner By Design
Ice Records - ICLP-1002-Q
 Canadian singer Longfellow hits his stride in this well-crafted set. Produced by Longfellow. Key is I'm Gonna Need A Miracle Tonight, released as a single.

GOLDEN EARRING - Rock

Something Heavy Going Down
21 Records - TIS-1-9007-Q
 Live set from veteran Netherlands rockers featuring the amazing George Kooymans on guitar. Produced by Golden Earring. Key tracks: Twilight Zone, and the title track.

BRUCE MURRAY - Pop

Two Hearts - Capitol - ST-6512-F
 It's difficult to determine exactly what Capitol is trying to do with Murray - the record fits comfortably into A/C formats, yet there are places where Top 40 acceptance wouldn't be out of the question. His vocals are strong and touching, but the mix gives the impression of a singer at odds with his accompaniment. This is a niggling point however, as there is talent here, and in the course of 10 tracks, Murray shows himself to hold his own with the best. Key are From Now On, Angelina, and Hiding From Love. Sister Anne gives an assist on background vocals with this John Hug production (Eastern Sound/Record Plant).

JOE AYLWARD - Country

All Aboard - Panther - PR-1610
 Powerful country outing by Aylward already drawing programmer attention through title track released as a single. All material Aylward originals with exception of Helping Heart, co-written by Jackson & Weatherby. Produced by Pat Riccio Jr. Also key are Juke Box Blues and All I Need.

JAKATA - Pop

Light The Night - Morocco - C-6060-M
 Euro-style pop/funk displaying instrumental virtuosity and surprisingly diverse musical feels. Steve Krangan's vocals are key in the set. Quality's success at radio (latterly Stevie Wonder) should help in bringing this one home. Produced by Pat Sherlock and Jimmy Felber. The latter is responsible for keyboards and vocals; Krangan contributes horns, with Chuck Coffey (bass/vocals), and Chris Myers (drums/percussion/acoustic guitar) rounding out the lineup.

CAPTAIN SENSIBLE - Pop

A Day In The Life Of - A&M - SP-5026-W
 Ex-Damned member Captain Sensible reaches North America with a compilation. Produced by Tony Mansfield. Key is Wot.

WARRIORS - Rock

Warriors - Attic - LAT-1206-Q
 Hard rock featuring Dusan's powerful vocals. Debut Attic LP. Produced by Fraser Hill and Rick Hutt. Key track: Try Again. Canon.

TOM ROBINSON - Pop

Hope And Glory
Geffen - XGHS-24053-P
 Latest from British singer perhaps still best known for 1977's 2-4-6-8 Motorway. Produced by Robinson and Robin Millar. Key track: War Baby, released as single.

AC/DC - Rock

'74 Jailbreak - Atlantic - 78-01781-P
 Early efforts from Australia's most notorious hard rock export. Produced by Vanda and Young. Key tracks: All. Strong jacket photo.

Although his Canadian tour wrapped Oct. 11, Tembo recording artist Roger Whittaker is maintaining a high profile with a new single, a new LP, and a new Christmas album.

The new Roger Whittaker pop album, Take A Little Give A Little, features his recent single Bitter And Sweet, as well as the new single, which is the title track. The new Christmas album is titled Tidings Of Comfort And Joy.

Both LPs were produced in Germany by Nick Munro, and both will be distributed by RCA in Canada.

On Whittaker's return to England, he will prepare a video on Take A Little, fly to Berlin to perform his current German hit Eloisa, and then fly to Australia (Nov. 7) to begin a month of touring.

Prior to their Lloydminster appearance, Brian Good (l) and Bruce (r) dropped by CKSA for an interview with Brian Klibank.

CBS scores big with Cancon releases

Including their distributed labels, CBS Records Canada has released more than 15 Cancon projects during the course of 1984, and already have several on tap for early next year.

Just shipped is the latest Burton Cummings' album, Heart, which was given a prior boost with the release of Love Dream as a 12" single.

In early November CBS will issue a new single, Danger Zone, from the debut Everest album. The single will be supported by a video as well as a 12" single.

"The Everest project has been developing nicely," said Art Graham of CBS. "I was pleased by the rough footage for the video. They're quite a live band and they'll attract a lot of attention on their tour."

Everest has only received limited airplay but their audience draw at Toronto's El Mocambo recently was quite impressive.

"Although Shiver, the first single from Everest, wasn't a chart item, it did open doors for the band," noted Graham.

The first Cancon project for 1985 is expected to come from Larry Gowan, an album entitled Strange Animal, produced by David Tickle at Startling Sound Studios in England. Graham confirmed that Gowan will be touring to support the album, which may be preceded by the release of a single or sampler the latter part of December.

Currently in pre-production is Platinum Blonde, who scored platinum on their debut album, Standing In The Dark. Not In Love is the trio's latest single. The producer for their next LP is not yet confirmed.

Also in the studio working on their next album is the Vancouver-based Loverboy, who will be releasing their first album in over a year. Entitled Steal The Thunder, the album was co-produced by Loverboy's Paul Dean, and Mike Shipley, the latter a co-producer for Def Leppard. The session was taped at Le Studio in Morin Heights.

With 4 gold albums and a possible double platinum Blonde, plus an expected gold for Kick Axe's Vices LP, Graham feels that overall, the company did well with their Cancon projects for 1984.

"I think we've done very well with our domestics," noted Graham, "Records seemed to stay around longer. I'm not as concerned about a record if it doesn't happen right away. The time factor isn't detrimental. This isn't just with Cancon: Night Ranger, Cyndi Lauper and the Eddie & The Cruisers soundtrack are all examples."

Graham admitted there was a down-side on some releases, but that the company had experienced a significant amount of success.

"We're more selective on our international material," he explains. "more so than in past years. Radio stations are also sticking with stuff a bit longer. They stuck with the Lauper. It all gets back to the point of how good the records are."

Graham went on to explain that in the case where radio takes a long time to get on a hit, sometimes they realize a record is good, but it wasn't the right time to air it.

"As soon as you reach a critical mass, the record goes. We're being paid off by the artists we were really committed to last year," he continues. "We really believe in our artists and we went out with the same commitment as the first time. Eventually it pays off. Sometimes though, it can be a fairly frustrating game."

It is Graham's belief that the barrier between black and dance music has dissolved, and he finds that the emphasis is now on the song itself. "We went through a period when radio didn't want to play black music. Tina Turner's a hit in the same way that Bruce Springsteen is. There was a change when Marvin Gaye's Sexual Healing became such a hit."

CYNDI LAUPER

Maple Leaf Gardens - Toronto - Nov. 12/84

It was obvious that Cyndi Lauper was "having fun" and equally obvious that her 14,000 fans were doing the same. The age group was surprising - anywhere from toddlers up to and into the forties, and the Lauper energies were all encompassing as she romped through her material, all of which were hits to this particular crowd: She's So Unusual, Girls Just Want To Have Fun, Time After Time, She Bop and her current RPM charter, All Through The Night. The squeaky voice, the colourful costuming topped by her now familiar tumbling coiffure, set the stage for her very dynamic show. Earlier in the day, CBS handed out metal goodies to this young Brooklynite, including quintuple platinum (500,000 units) for her She's So Unusual LP, double platinum for her first single, Girls Just Want To Have Fun, platinum for her second single, Time After Time, and gold for the LP's third single, She Bop, Not bad for a high school dropout.

FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD

The Concert Hall - Toronto - Nov. 3/84

Frankie Goes To Hollywood quickly laid to rest any rumours they were a studio band unable to reproduce their sound onstage. The group highlighted material from their debut album, Welcome To The Pleasuredome, with backing tapes used for sound effects only. For a band that was performing their first live concerts in some time, the group played with a tightness and precision of veterans. The group has raised eyebrows with their fusion of pop, rock, new music, African rhythms, and classical influences, all of which they displayed here, along with slide projections. There was good response to much of their material: The Only Star In Heaven, War, The Power Of Love, Two Tribes, and Welcome To The Pleasuredome, but the most response was for Relax. Frankie also performed the Bruce Springsteen number of Born To Run as an encore. The show was opened by The Great Imposters, a male quartet doing takeoffs on female rock singers, lip syncing to the sound of pre-recorded music. Despite the impatience of the audience the group managed to keep the crowd entertained.

PROMO PROFILE

Prince - five times platinum heads WEA's hot list

JoAnn Kaeding is the National Marketing and Publicity Coordinator for WEA Music of Canada. She reports to Dave Tollington, who is Domestic Label Manager and National Publicity Manager. Kaeding's position involves working with promo reps nationally, dealing with day-to-day publicity concerns, and coordinating all activity regarding Canadian product and distributed labels' product.

JoAnn Kaeding

A native of Burlington, Ontario, Kaeding worked there for the now-defunct Muntz firm. In 1976, she moved to Calgary, where she was employed as a buyer for two Sam The Record Man outlets. Locating in Toronto the following year, Kaeding was employed as a buyer and assistant manager for the Sam's chain. Following a stint with Roblans, she went to WEA as a new release coordinator, and was appointed to her current position earlier this year.

The retail business has returned to one of strength, thanks in part to the powerhouse releases from WEA as Kaeding explains in the following report.

Prince has sold over 500,000 copies in Canada of the Purple Rain LP, with the first single, When Doves Cry, going platinum. The second and third singles - Let's Go Crazy and Purple Rain - have gone gold. We're shipping the video for the Purple Rain film very shortly - it's the best selling full-length movie for us to date. His only Canadian shows - Dec. 2 and 3 at Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto - are sold out.

Madonna is doing well - her first LP has gone platinum after 13 months on release, and the second LP shipped gold. Everyone here is really 'up' on the project, and I think radio will give a good listen to Madonna after the success of Lucky Star and Borderline. No tour is set at present, however Madonna will be seen in a film, Desperately Seeking Susan.

As we speak, Honeymoon Suite is a hairbreadth from gold with their self-titled debut LP, and the second single - Burning In Love - is just breaking. The video for the song is now available. The band will be doing some Toronto area dates in December. The U.S. has also been supportive of Honeymoon Suite, with the first single, New Girl Now, scoring well on trades and at radio.

The Cars' LP, Heartbeat City, is over 300,000, and the new single, Hello Again, is out. I think the across-the-board action on Drive, the last single, has really given the LP legs.

Julian Lennon has been a pleasant surprise - the Valotte LP has gone gold after only a few weeks. The music is being accepted on its own merit, I think.

We'll have a new studio LP from Foreigner before Christmas, entitled Agent Provocateur. Foreigner haven't had a studio release in over three years, so you can imagine the anticipation building over this one.

ZZ Top should be delivering a new LP sometime in the first quarter of 1985.

A&M videos include DeYoung and Y&T

Videos for October from A&M include Dennis DeYoung's Desert Moon, rapidly ascending the RPM 100; a 5-song compilation from ex-Damned member Captain Sensible; the second single from the Chris deBurgh LP Man On The Line; I Love The Night (The Ecstasy Of Flight); Y&T's Don't Stop Runnin'; The Go Go's Yes Or No; and veteran American guitarist Rick Derringer's I Play Guitar.

Eliminator is now above 600,000 units, and is a contender in the Best International LP category at this year's Junos.

It remains a good year for us, with a lot of interesting things happening now, that should carry over into the new year.
