It shouldn't happen to a dog!

And yet it does. It happens to the best of us, time and time again. We lavish care and money on original footage to get them just right—only to have prints turn up that are way off broadcast specifications.

The answer is—give your laboratory time and money to do the job right. Then all your release prints will be on the beam 100%.

In America,
the word for
TV entertainment

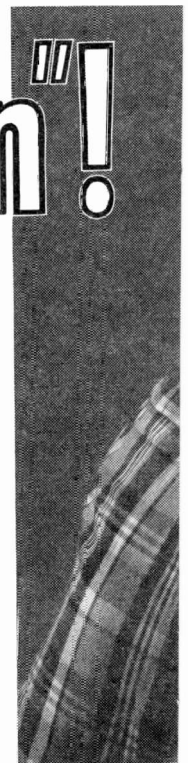

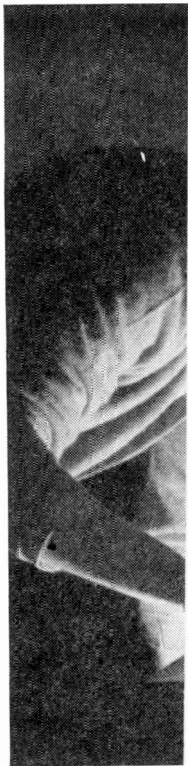

is "American!"

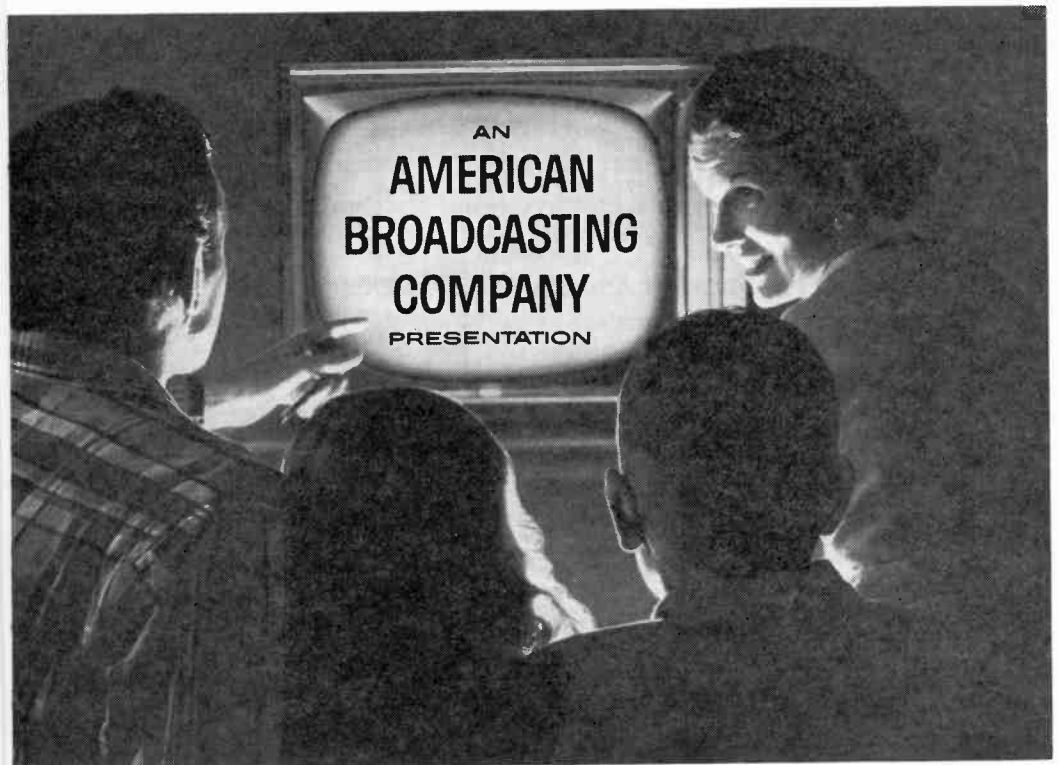

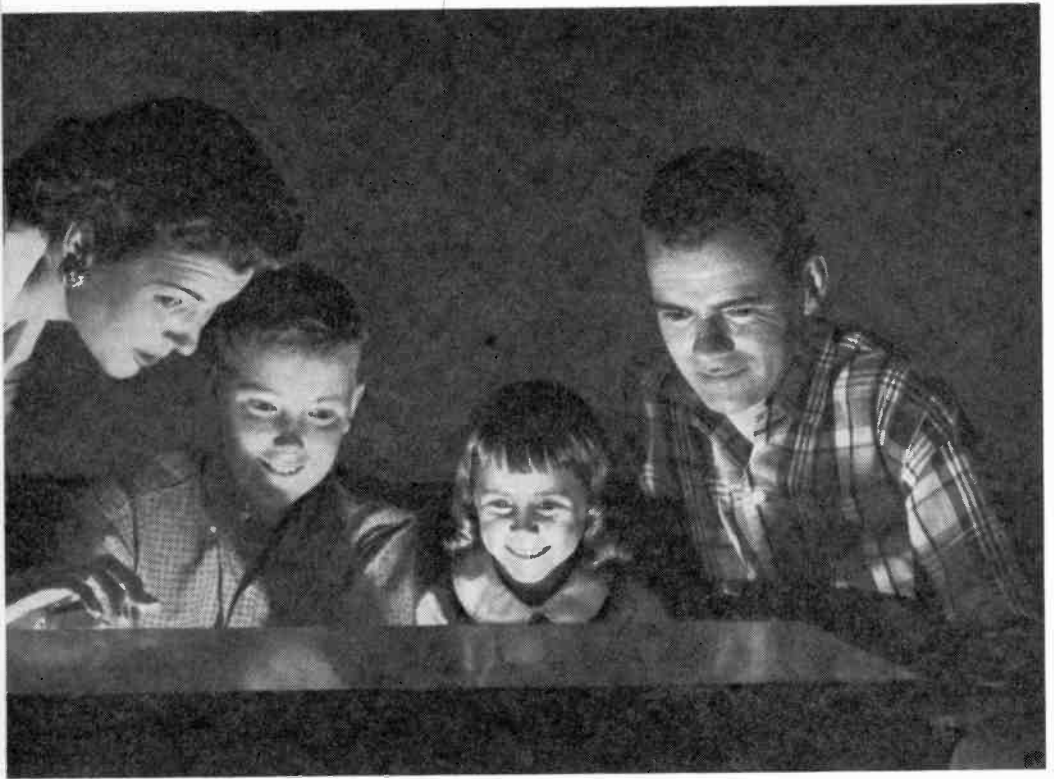

Americans, like people anywhere, come in all shapes and sizes. But this past year, they had at least one thing in common — more of them turned to "American" (the American Broadcasting Company Television Network) than to any other network in the land.

In recent months, ABC has consistently been the most popular network most nights of the week, has had more of the top-rated shows, has enjoyed by far the greatest audience growth of any network.

But audience growth is only part of the ABC picture. When you consider its ever-increasing chain of affiliated stations, its many new facilities and its trend-setting management team, you can see that the network to watch very clearly is "American."

ABC TELEVISION

The statistics herein have been compiled from varied sources within the Television industry and the Government, inclusive of the Federal Communications Commission, U. S. Department of Commerce, Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Association, NBC Research Department, Publishers Information Bureau, Nielsen Television Index, American Research Bureau, Television Bureau of Advertising.

General Data

The Television Bureau of Advertising estimates that at the peak hours of 9 to 10 P.M. on Saturday and Sunday television sets were being watched in an average of 17,100,000 homes in 1955. Their figure for 1959 is 28,500,000.

In the 13 years since 1946 the number of homes having television sets has grown to over 44,000,000. Radio took 32 years to reach that number of homes and the telephone, 87 years.

In 1958, 1,196 brand name advertisers used network television and 5,794 brand name advertisers used spot television.

The first production model of a Videotape recorder (Ampex) was installed at station KING-TV, Seattle in November, 1957. In November, 1959, there were 500 of the machines in use. Between 75 and 100 regular syndicated television features are now being produced and broadcast on Videotape recorders.

Films for Television

The average station uses film 29¼ hours weekly in a year; while all stations will use 685,736½ hours of film in a year.

The amount of film made for television since 1949-50 is more than $304,000,000. This investment covers about 7,600 hours of television-produced film fare available. This does not include 3,017 hours of feature film, 989 hours of Westerns, 216 hours of motion picture serials or 11,494 hours of motion picture short subjects available.

TV Channel Allocations

ON April 13, 1952, the Federal Communications Commission announced lifting of the "freeze" on new television station construction which had been in effect since September 30, 1948. In so doing, it also made public the allocation of the new ultra-high frequency channels and some changes in the existing very-high frequency bands. Theoretically, allocation of the ultra-high frequency channels makes possible 2,053 new stations in 1,291 communities. This includes 242 exclusive educational outlets and is in addition to the 108 TV stations then on the air. Following is the complete list of cities and the channels assigned to each. The population of each community is given in parentheses. The asterisk (*) preceding a channel number indicates a frequency reserved for educational use.

TELEVISION IN CANADA

Toronto, August, 1959

THE PAST YEAR was the most momentous in the history of Canadian television since its introduction in September, 1952. The biggest change has come with the change of the Broadcasting Act, the first since 1936.

The administration of broadcasting was changed with the setting up of a Board of Broadcast Governors, an independent body of 15, including three full-time members, appointed for seven years, and 12 part-time members for five years.

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, the publicly-owned radio and TV system in this country, which formerly also granted licenses, is now administered by a board of 11 members, including a president and a vice-president. It has nothing to do with the granting of licenses.

Major effect of the change in the Broadcasting Act was the announcement this Summer by the Government that the Board of Broadcast Governors would begin accepting applications for TV stations in areas now served exclusively by the publicly-owned CBC. The Government, now controlled by the Progressive-Conservatives, is slowly chipping away at the authority of the CBC for which it has publicly-declared dislike, although it was a Conservative government which originally set up the CBC.

A mad scramble for licenses is expected to follow the announcement, with the hearings scheduled to begin in September, and the construction of the new stations to come next year. Cities expected to receive second stations are Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. Thirty applications are expected for the Toronto Franchise alone.

Many applicants have had their blueprints since the introduction of TV in Canada. Most are well-financed and prepared to operate in the red to take their stations off the ground. They include newspaper publishers, financiers, merchant princes, radio station owners, a theatre chain (Famous Players Canadian Corp., already holding an interest in two TV operations), and fringe operators. In some instances, the Board is expected to ask selected applicants to pool their operations for a single license.

Under the law, a broadcasting station in Canada must be 75 per cent owned in Canada. There are now 54 stations in Canada, 46 connected by the world's longest microwave system, stretching 4,200 miles from St. John's, Newfoundland, to Victoria, B. C., costing $50,000,000. It is a composite of the Trans-Canada Telephone system, with seven telephone companies renting their lines to the CBC. It involves 139 microwave relay towers, and is capable of handling 30 TV programs at once. It bridges six time zones, and four videotape recorders are installed at Calgary, Alta., to record programs to make up for the time lag. Of the 46 stations on the English network, the CBC owns and operates nine. The remainder are privately owned and operated stations. Two stations on the French network are CBC owned and operated, the balance being privately owned and operated.

The CBC owns and operates two stations which provide service to American and Canadian servicemen and civilians in their respective areas. They are CFLA-TV, Goose Bay, Labrador, and CFSN-TV, Harman Field, (Stephenville), Newfoundland.

Nine satellite stations serve viewers on the English network. Three of these are CBC owned and operated. All three are located in Nova Scotia. There is one satellite station on the French network which relays programs from CJER-TV, Rimouski. An additional satellite station has been licensed for Clermont, Que., near Quebec City.

Last month, the BBG approved TV stations for Lloydminster, Alta., granting a license to CKSA Television, Limited, and New Glasgow, N. S., with a satellite license granted Island Radio Broadcasting Co. Ltd., operators of CFCY-TV, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

In hearings before a committee of the House of Commons, set up to look into broadcasting in Canada, the CBC said it is planning nine new TV stations, including some satellite transmitters to reach 70,000 homes not already served by the CBC or private broadcasters. Some will be low-power stations hooked to the Trans-Canada TV network.

Effect of the committee's hearings, besides plenty of verbal fireworks, was to call for a top-to-bottom shakeup of the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. and the establishment of an upper limit on the sums annually granted it out of public funds. It counselled the CBC to step up its efforts to earn advertising revenue, to allow commercial interests to produce programs and to refrain from competing for the television rights on sports events. It called for the appointment of a senior officer with clear authority and responsibility for the supervision of all production.

During the hearings, it was revealed how the CBC had lost money on most of its sponsored programs. This problem arose because Canada's population is small and thinly spread.

Board of Broadcast Governors

The Broadcasting Act (1936) was superseded in 1958 by a new Act which created Board of Broadcast Governors whose duties included the recommending of grants of licenses for radio and television stations, and the regulation of broadcasting.

The Board has a chairman, vice-chairman and one full-time member, all appointed for a seven-year term. The other 12 members, part-time, serve for five years.

Chairman, Dr. Andrew Stewart; Vice-Chairman, Roger Duhamel; Permanent member, Carlyle Allison; Part-time members, Joseph F. Brown, Vancouver; Dr. Mable G. Connell, Prince Albert, Sask.; Guy Hudon, Quebec City; Yvan Sabourin, Montreal; Mrs. R. G. Gilbride, Montreal; Colin B. MacKay, Fredericton; Roy D. Duchemin, Sydney, N. S.; J. David Stewart, Charlottetown, PEI; Rev. Emlyn Davies, Toronto; Dr. Eugene Fersey, Ottawa; Edward A. Dunlop, Toronto.

THE BRITISH YEAR IN REVIEW

by PETER BURNUP

London, September, 1959

BRTAIN continues to claim the world's deepest penetration of television among the populace. At the end of June, 1959, no fewer than 9,495,188 domestic reception licences were in operation; representing, for the British Broadcasting Corporation at least, an audience potential around 30 million.

The station-construction programme of the BBC's only competitor—the commercial network controlled by the Independent Television Authority—has not yet been completed. Nevertheless, it is estimated that by the end of 1960 the network's service will have something like a 99 per cent coverage in Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

The profits accruing to programme contractors on the commercial network have mounted to the realm of fantasy. In the first two years of independent TV the contractors lost £10 million and the initial losses were not paid off until the Summer of the third year, 1957. By the end of 1958 the accumulated trading profit was of the order of £30 million. The startling reversal of fortunes inevitably provoked alternate admiration and jealousy of those earnings; with counsel of varying degrees of practicability flooding in on the authorities.

The Committee of Public Accounts—the body of Members of Parliament appointed by the House of Commons as watchdogs on public finance—suggested that initial rents paid by contractors to the Independent Television Authority should have been higher and that future rents should “take account of capacity to pay”. Government spokesmen were quick to throw down the legal doctrine of “unjust enrichment” implicit in the suggestion.

Lord Hailsham, one of the senior ministers in the Macmillan Cabinet, told the House of Lords that the Government stood firmly by the right of the TV companies to the profits they were making under the franchise Parliament had given them. Lord Hailsham said that not only the present Government but any Government should regard as a “moral obligation” the maintenance of the terms given to the original independent operators. But the noble Lord took the opportunity of pointing out that the operators' present franchise ended in 1964 and that it would be “unrealistic” not to consider the scale of profits in a future franchise.

Other extra-mural, though not particularly well-equipped, commentators came in with the suggestion that the public should be given a rebate by the State in the shape of a reduction in the cost of a TV reception licence from £4 to £2. The suggestion went into the discard forthwith; for the income of the BBC derives primarily from the licence fund. And no Government could tolerate the cutting of that income by 50 per cent in view of the fact that the Corporation is the commercial network's sole competitor.

The network's principal spokesman—Spencer Wills, chairman of Rediffusion, Ltd.,—put on a fine show of indignation in dealing with the risks and rewards with which he and his colleagues were met. He said that during his negotiations with the Independent Television Authority during 1954 and 1955 he had told the Authority categorically and emphatically that he did not want a contract at all unless it ran for the full period of eight years and three-quarters and left him and his co-adventurers with the whole of any profits which might be made. In so saying the commercially-minded and adventurous Mr. Wills has logic on his side. But his dictums will not silence the widespread criticism of the quality of much of the programme material he and his fellow programme contractors put out.

Discontent grows among mature viewers who have overcome the initial impact and novelty of the medium. An occasional play is presented on the network with impressive quality. But there is a threadbare air about most of the day-by-day programmes. They carry the tedium, so many commentators claim, of American-style serials which “seem to have been bought like so many sacks of potatoes”. It is pointed out also in responsible quarters that a duty has been laid on the Independent Television Authority by the regulating Act of Parliament to ensure a high standard in its contractors programmes. It is the duty of the Authority, so these complainants aver, to stand up for the unexpressed needs of the viewing public and to ensure that even at peak viewing times (which only means convenient times) there are some high-level, intellectually stimulating programmes.

The programme contractors plan to increase their earnings by extending viewing time from 50 to 71 hours a week and by steeply increasing advertising rates in the peak hours by between 10 and 20 per cent. Advertising agents are well qualified to deal with the latter proposal. The former is a matter for Governmental decision, in the person of the Postmaster General, which requires still to be made.

Also awaiting decision, however, from the Government is a question of infinite importance; namely, the proposed establishment of a third national TV channel. As long ago as 1952 the BBC made a preemptive claim to certain currently unused wavebands; urging that if it—the Corporation—“is to have elbow room to carry on the long-term policy of cultivating minority appeal” the unused wavebands should be allotted to the BBC. Advocates of commercial TV and with no sort of diffidence (in view of the immense profits already accruing to them) lodged a similar claim.

Another suggestion has been noisily canvassed that the third channel, if and when it is conceded by Authority, should be controlled and administered by a presently undefined body, which would gather its revenue from a “pay as you view” or subscription plan. A last minute entrant is the film industry itself. At the instance of Lord Archibald, president of the Federation of British Film Makers, the five associations of the industry have agreed to set up a committee “to investigate the possibility of the Cinema Industry applying for the control of the third television channel”.

The film industry is not unequipped to deal at least with the encroaches which television has made on its preserves. Following vast and involved discussions, an institution was set up—and (with some sense of irony) at the instance of Cecil Bernstein, himself an exhibitor with a considerable stake in commercial TV—known as the Film Industry Defence Organisation.

The operation of FIDO has been to this date an unqualified success. It is financed by a levy of one farthing on paid admissions to cinemas; with relief granted ill-suffering theatres, or to the takings on matinees for children only. FIDO is authorised to enter into covenants for the purchase of any cinema film on offer to television interests. Its influence is undoubtedly buttressed by the public declaration of exhibitors that they will boycott any distributor who sells his product to “the enemy”. All that despite, FIDO’s first report claims that “thousands of old films” have been withheld from TV screening as a result of its activities.

Television’s impact on motion picture earnings here nevertheless appears to be leveling out to a standard of practicability, the suggestion being made that the film industry is given now the opportunity to complete its reorganisation in a less hectic atmosphere than that of recent years. Around 700 theatres have been driven to close down over the last three years, with paid theatre admissions falling in that period from 1,300 million to 732 million. But most of those houses were old fashioned and ill-equipped to accommodate new-dimensional pictures which attract to the box office unprecedented numbers of patrons.

By force of circumstance, the present body of cinema-goers is maybe smaller but more discriminating than in the past. That condition is reflected throughout the country. Motion pictures—and it is fair to say many of them British-made—currently rack up grosses undreamed of in the lushest days of wartime prosperity. Contrariwise, run-of-the-mill movies just die in the choicest theatres of London’s West End and elsewhere. The writing on the wall becomes apparent to the lowliest cheap-jack promoter in the film business, and certainly to exhibitors.

The major film groups—led by Associated British Picture Corporation, which (incidentally reported its latest cinema profits at £2.38 million, only slightly below the average of the four years prior to its entry into television—have entered the TV field. Sidney Louis Bernstein’s Canada Group report immense profits from its operations as a programme contractor on one of the North of England TV stations. Belatedly, the Rank Organisation—whose managing director, John Davis, was among the first some years ago to warn his brother motion picture exhibitors of the dire disasters awaiting them—has joined the gold rush.

Commercial television—opine the shrewdest observers—is now so widespread that its worst onslaught on motion picture’s preserves is past.

We are partners in show business, they say. Evidence goes to show that TV no longer has a captive audience. Given an attraction of quality—disregarding CinemaScope, VistaVision, Todd-AO, or any other showman’s gimmick—people will still leave their front parlours and the anodyne draw of the little black box for a picture of quality along the road.

ARGENTINA

Economic as well as political influences have curtailed the development of TV in Argentina, and the promised authorization of new channels to be added to the only one existing has so far not been granted.

The character of the programs is still very poor and 30% of all air time is taken up by American TV films, dubbed in Spanish, and old local, European and independent U.S. product.

According to an estimate by the Argentine Association of TV Receivers Manufacturers, there are about 350,000 receivers, though a survey recently carried out by a private institute of public opinion, raises this figure to 420,000. Most receivers are manufactured locally by more than 20 factories, representing an estimated capital of over 5 million dollars. The actual production is 100,000 units per year, but it can be almost doubled if certain restrictions are eased.

Many elements used in these receivers are made locally. There are about $60 worth of imported materials in each unit, which sells to the public at an average cost of $25,000 pesos (about $300), the equivalent of 8 months of an average salary. This proportion of imported elements are expected to be reduced to 20/30 dollars in the future.

AUSTRALIA

In the past 12 months television has grown larger and larger on the Australian horizon. In Sydney and Melbourne the two commercial stations and one national station in each state continue to flourish, with the commercial stations, outstripping by far the national station in general appeal. There are now more than half a million TV set licences issued in Australia and this number will be greatly augmented when television opens in Adelaide, Perth, Brisbane and Hobart at the end of 1959 and early 1960.

TV also will go to 13 rural areas in Australia in the next couple of years as a result of moves by the Postmaster General's department to call for applications for licences in specified country centres. The A.B.C. will operate one station in each of the 13 areas and more than one commercial station may operate in each area also, a maximum total of 26 licences in these areas is quite possible.

To get a commercial licence local independent companies have to show that they are not associated with metropolitan stations and that they can provide a service comparable to that available to city viewers.

TV is having its first setback with insurance premiums on TV sets being increased drastically because of thefts of sets and racketeering by certain repair servicemen.

Television continues to eat into motion picture receipts and several Sydney and Melbourne theatres have closed down. It is gloomily expected that when TV starts in other states there will be a rapid closing of theatres, both independent and circuit controlled.

Despite agitation by Actors Equity, the bulk of material on TV—certainly the most popular programmes—are American filmed shows. It is not likely that there will be any change of policy on the part of TV station managers to grant more time to local talent at the expense of imported material.

AUSTRIA

From the organizational point of view the television service of the Austrian Radio forms part of the "Oesterreichischer Rundfunk Gesellschaft m.b.H.", a limited liability company controlling broadcasting in Austria.

In Austria the television service is not merely linked with the radio service but is an integral part of the latter.

The Television Service of the Austrian Radio is administered centrally in the federal capital, Vienna. The main production centre for television programs is in Vienna. As of April 1, 1959 there were 68,106 licensed sets, compared with 49,234 on January 1, 1959.

The television service at present broadcasts for about 20 hours every week. Transmissions take place every evening except Tuesday.

The evening program normally begins at 7:30 p.m. with the pre-evening program of 30 minutes during which advertising spots are accepted. The regular evening program starts at 8 p.m. On Wednesdays and Saturdays there is also one hour afternoon program devoted to subjects of interest to children and the family. The evening program usually ends at 10:30 p.m.

Particularly interesting Euravision programs are occasionally broadcast outside the normal program hours.

A considerable proportion, about four hours in a week, of the evening program material broadcast by the Television Service of the Austrian Radio originates in the German Federal Republic and is relayed from there. This has to be done because the studio-space available in Austria is quite inadequate to provide a complete program for six evenings of the week. Another consideration is that the number of films permitted for television use is very limited.

The cost of advertising spots during the pre-evening program from 7:30 to 8 is, for Austrian conditions, rather prohibitive: 28 dollars per second, with a fifteen second minimum and from then on in fifteen second units only. This means that an advertising spot of fifteen seconds costs 420 dollars and the next possible spot must be thirty seconds at a cost of 840 dollars.

With optimistic voices predicting an annual increase of 100,000 sets per year from 1960 on, the outlook for the future is rather bright and subsequent improvement in programming and presentation will inevitably bring art-conscious Austria into the forefront of European television.

—GEORGE J. WINNER

CHINA (Communist)

The Peking government claims that six TV stations are in operation in Peking, Harbin, Shanghai, Canton, Tientsin and Mukden (Senyang) but thus far there are no TV sets in the possession of private individuals with the exception of high Communist Party dignitaries. Broadcasting hours are restricted and what few sets there are are in meeting places and workers clubs. No imported programs are used outside those of the Communist bloc countries.

BRAZIL

In 1958, the number of televiewers in Brazil is figured at around 300,000 in São Paulo, 150,000 in Rio de Janeiro and 20,000 in Belo Horizonte, which are the only cities having TV stations. So far, there are no relay towers in the country. All of the TV stations are of private ownership, and there are no government-owned stations.

Popular enthusiasm for television has grown considerably since last year, although the number of TV receivers in the cities which have telecasting stations is still very small as compared to their population. Programs have improved and diversified since the introduction of quiz shows of the "$64,000 Question" kind.

The existing TV stations are:
Rio de Janeiro—TV Tupi—owned by Emissoras

Associadas (Associated Broadcasting Stations)—manager Fernando Chateaubriand.

Sao Paulo—TV Tupi—owned by Emissoras Associadas—manager Edmundo Monteiro;—TV Record—manager Paulo Machado de Carvalho;—TV Paulista—manager Vitor Costa.

Belo Horizonte—TV Itacolomi—owned by Emissoras Associadas

DENMARK

Total number of receivers in Denmark: 272,000 (June 1, 1959).

Total number of commercial TV stations: None.

Total number of Government stations: 1.

Total coverage: 90% of population.

The Government station now has six transmitters and two more soon to start for coverage of about 100% of the population.

Three years ago 4,000 receivers were going, today (per June 1, 1959) 272,000 are going. Denmark is expected to have 6-700,000 receivers going when fully covered.

Great plans are ahead for an entirely new television-house which is expected to be opened in 2-2½ years. The construction of the building will be based upon a large-scale architect competition starting in August 1959. Until that time the Government station is operating with 2 studios, 2 reporting vans and 2 film vans. Denmark recently bought as number two country on the Continent 2 new Video tape machines and they are said to be utilized more intensively than in any other country in Europe. The average sending hours are now about 16 per week, and competition from TV in film trade is remarkably felt. The film trade associations have in vain tried to have all feature films prohibited in TV claiming that the Government station has no license to show such films as must any Danish exhibitor have. The claim was turned down by the Government on the plea that in the law for exhibition in Denmark (from 1938) television as an unknown fact was not mentioned at all. It is still prohibited for organized distributors to sell feature films to television which, however, hitherto have succeeded in obtaining feature films from other sources. Only extracts of up to 300 meters may be sold by distributors to TV.

Taxation on television receivers is 15 percent of the wholesale price, plus a tax of kr. 3.15 per tube in each receiver. The license to the State will shortly be increased from d.kr.55.—to d.kr.75.—per year as against d.kr.20.—for radio sets.

Television has for a long time been negotiating with the Danish sports unions for a general agreement, and the two parties seemed to reach to an arrangement a short time ago. Nevertheless, very few sports events have been shown in TV up to now, and no football game at all which is, otherwise, the Danish national game.

Television is controlled by the State, and there is no advertising in the programmes.

—BORGE SLOT

FINLAND

During April, 1957, tests began for the new Finnish TV. Ordinary TV programs began in the autumn of 1957—officially, Southern Finland can see programs from Soviet-Estonia; the Southwest Finland from Stockholm; and the east of Finland from Leningrad, USSR. A television set owner in Helsinki can now see TV programs every day in the week,—without paying any licenses. The Finnish radio plans to build a TV-network during the years to 1960. Then shall the whole of Southern Finland—with the half of the population of the country—2,000,000—see the Finnish TV. Part of the programs shall be sponsored, the Finnish Radio Network will sell some of the TV-time to interested companies. How it will work we shall be able to see in about a year.

FRANCE

There has been an important increase in the number of TV sets and by the 31st of March, 1959, the figure given by the authorities was 1,158,790.

The number of undeclared sets is very small and the number of sets installed in cafes has not increased in proportion. This means that television is now installed in well over one million homes.

The most important announcement of 1959 was the decision to start a second programme before the end of the year. This announcement by the Minister of Information was greeted with some scepticism for the following reasons 1) that it would be technically very difficult and 2) that the money had still to be found.

The second programme will be run by the State just as the first programme. It will carry no advertising and will be mainly cultural and more or less controlled by the Ministry for Culture, the Minister of which is M. Andre Malraux.

Another important development was the change over by Monte Carlo TV. After months of negotiations it was finally bought by Europe No. 1 and Regie Press, both of which are important advertising concerns.

The promoters hope to beam advertising on the whole of the south of France. This has set something of a problem and many deputies are worried and have asked the Government to take action. This the Government appears to be ready to do and a case on the legality of one State beaming TV onto TV sets in another State, when the Government of that State has a monopoly, will be brought before the courts.

GERMANY

Television has made progress in Germany in 1958. The number of registered receivers, which passed the million mark in November 1957, was up to 2,615,978 on May 1, 1959, including West Berlin. This means that there is one set to every 23 inhabitants. Thus Germany is holding its second place in Europe, after Great Britain. More than one and a half million sets were produced in 1958, almost twice as many as last year. This is an all time record. 248,000 sets were exported, mainly to European countries, while the import reached 29,000 sets. The average sales price per set is $180. Thus television is by no means confined to upper income brackets. On the contrary, it seems to be most popular among the lower and middle income groups.

In Germany television is in the hands of the nine existing broadcasting companies, which are licensed regionally but are otherwise independent and politically neutral. There is so far only one program of about four hours daily and six on Sundays. Eight of these companies contribute to it. In addition each station daily carries an hour or two of programming of regional interest. A second general program is envisioned, but whether it is to have the same sponsors as the first one (as the broadcasting stations, the churches and some political parties wish), or private sponsors (as industry wishes), or whether it will be a national station (as the government wishes), is at present still the subject of a lively public controversy. While for a long time nothing was done about this from any side, at the present time both the broadcasting companies and the federal Post Minister are getting busy setting up the facilities for such a second program. The question whether the one or the other are constitutionally competent for this may have to be tested in court.

The present program, which was initiated in 1954, has no doubt improved in recent years, but is still not satisfactory and could well stand competition. According to opinion polls, nearly half of the audience are not satisfied with the program while more than half say they are. There is no colour television yet in Germany. A newly founded Technical Institute for Television in Munich is experimenting with colour television.

Motion picture theatres are now beginning to feel the competition of the new medium also in Germany. While the presentation of current features is, by agreement, limited to six minute runs, a great many pictures of other categories were televised in 1958. Theatre attendance, which used to increase 6 to 10 per cent annually, has decreased for the first time in 1958. On the other hand, some motion picture producers have taken on casting features for television. In March 1959 an injunction was given by a German court against a motion picture theatre which had reproduced a television newsreel on its screen. The court decision was appealed.

In the Soviet zone of Germany there are about 400,000 television receivers. There are four producing television equipment. Fifteen different kinds of receiving set were put on the market by them in the Soviet zone.

HOLLAND

The influence of television in Holland is rapidly increasing. The number of sets at this moment is already more than 500,000, which figure in comparison to other countries, is thought to be quite significant. (Holland has a total population of about 11 million people). There is not yet any commercial TV.

TV in Holland is organized by the Nederlandse Televisie Stichting (NTS), under governmental control, with five sub-divisions: a Roman-Catholic section, a Protestant section, a political (social democratic) section, another Christian division and a neutral section. The broadcasting companies, K.R.O., N.C.R.V., V.A.R.A., V.P.R.O. and A.V.R.O., represented by these divisions, want to keep their influence on TV.

The approximate cost of a TV set, antennae included, is from fl. 650.—to fl. 1,800.—($1 is fl. 3.80). A yearly contribution of fl. 30.—is due by the owners of a set, to be paid to the government.

Feature films are programmed once a week, on Tuesday night. These pictures are old ones (non-American), though of post war vintage. A considerable number of Rank pictures are among them, also Italian films, pictures of four to seven years ago. The Dutch trade organization does not permit new pictures to be televised.

Quality of programs is still poor. Competition to motion pictures is obviously increasing, though the Dutch trade organization is following the development closely.

The purchase of TV sets by installment buying is still popular, otherwise the increase of the number of sets could not have been effected. The Dutch TV station is in Bussum. The most important directors are Max Douwes, Ger Lugtenburg, Fred Bredschneider, Ben Steggerda, Peter Koen, Gijs Stapperhoef and Wim Bary.

Philips is a big manufacturer of TV sets.

IRELAND

In the Republic of Ireland all broadcasting is a State monopoly, and until this year there has been no telecasting service though there are now 90,000 owners of domestic TV receivers. These are tuned into Northern Ireland BBC or to British commercial stations in England 190 miles away. Reception from Northern Ireland is good and that from England varies with weather conditions.

As a result of public pressure, and for cultural and political reasons, the Irish Government now plans the establishment of a TV transmitting service. The government wishes to exercise control over such a service, but to leave it financially in the hands of commercial interests who will obtain revenue from sponsored advertising programmes. The TV service will have to conform to certain specifications in programme planning, including, guaranteeing an agreed percentage of time to be directed to Irish culture and the development of Gaelic language.

A Government nominated commission of varied interests have submitted a report and recommendations. The report also assesses the merits of three different groups which seek the licence for its TV operation. The three groups consist of an Irish Language development Group; a combination of Irish TV set manufacturers and English commercial TV interests; a Scotch newspaper group also allied with English commercial interests. It is possible that the first group would obtain technical assistance and backing from American interests (probably NBC). The Irish TV station will adopt the same line system as that prevailing in Britain at the time of its inception.

The cinema trade claims that it is now feeling the impact of even the current domestic TV viewing and that cinema admissions have shown a noticeable decline. It foresees an acceleration of this trend when Irish TV service begins.

—TOM SHEEHY

ISRAEL

There is still no television service in this country, nor is any contemplated in the immediate future. This year, however, negotiations were reported to have been held with RCA and a French company with a view to the eventual establishment of a service. No details of the negotiations were announced.

—ALBERT de MATALON

ITALY

Italian television is little more than six years old. Its impact and influence can be gauged by the way each political party monitored the news broadcasts during the 1958 election campaign to see that the seconds of air time were evenly distributed. (The Prime Minister had earlier decided that there would be no actual campaigning permitted on TV.)

Ninety-nine per cent of the peninsula and Sicily receive the programs of RAI-TV, the government network. Such good coverage in a mountainous country is made possible by nearly 310 transmitters. Wealthy private groups are at present suing the government in an effort to break the TV monopoly. But since the government can not be sued without its permission, it seems unlikely that the present monopoly will be threatened for some time. It is patterned on the RAI radio monopoly which, however, was never absolute because of the existence of Radio Vatican and the Italian-language broadcasts from other European countries.

At present RAI-TV operates only one channel. Programs ordinarily begin at 5 P.M. and terminate usually around midnight. On Sundays programs begin earlier to include a sports event. Italy frequently joins Eurovision for a special events hookup with other countries. A second channel is expected before 1961.

Commercials are permitted for 12 minutes twice a day and all are confined to one short musical program. In spite of this cramming, there is a waiting-list of would-be sponsors.

The number of sets in Italy is expected officially to pass the million mark soon. Each set owner is required to pay (as in radio) an annual subscription of about $22. If one assumes that there is some bootlegging of sets, the actual number may have passed the million mark months ago.

The number of viewers for each receiver is higher here than in the U.S. because the cost of the cheapest 17-inch, Italian-made set ($180) forces most people to watch their favorite programs in bars and cafes. The most popular shows are also shown in the neighborhood movie theatres.

In quality, Italian TV is usually conceded to be the best on the Continent. One explanation for this is that the government has given it its full support from the beginning. Another explanation is that its best programs are still unblushingly modeled on American shows. For three years the equivalent of the "$64,000 Question" was the leader here. Now it has been supplanted by "Twenty-One" and "Name that Tune." Some American kinescopes have been shown here (either dubbed or with a superimposed spoken commentary) to great success. Full-length operas (complete with 20-minute intermissions of silence) are often given.

In the early days Turin, Milan and Rome equally contributed to the programs. Today signs indicate that Rome will soon dominate.

Censorship became a major issue in 1958 and it is more severe than for films, with the Vatican frequently scolding the network.

—CORRADO BUNI

JAPAN

Television sets in operation in Japan are now estimated at well over the 2.5 million mark, including unregistered sets which avoid paying the 83¢ a month charged by the government-sponsored network, a charge which is supposed to be paid even if you ignore the "official" stations, which are without advertising, and content yourself with the commercial stations and their advertising.

Now that some 120 stations are on the air, about half of them commercial, station expansion is slowing down and a good part of Japan's potential audience of 90 million is covered. Final plans call for a web of microwave and cable circuits to cover the country's four main islands and get through to virtually the whole population with the exception of those on remote islands.

TV broadcasting in Japan is of high quality with much American equipment (but some of local manufacture) in use. Use of video-tape is widespread and there are daily color broadcasts though color sets are still not in the hands of private owners but are posted in prominent places by the TV companies. Manufacture of TV sets is approaching the 1.5 million figure annually with prices, including local sales and excise taxes, still well above comparable prices for American sets despite cheap Japanese labor costs. Without these taxes Japanese TV sets are a competitive export item, especially for other Asian countries, and the Japanese are manufacturing a small 8" transistor portable which they plan to sell for about $100 in the U.S., somewhat cheaper than present American portables.

Since Japan uses the 525-line scanning system American and Japanese sets are easily adapted to either country with slight alterations being made to take care of Japan's slightly different current. Japan is actively interested in the rest of Asia as far as setting up stations goes and hopes to finalize contracts now being negotiated in Taiwan and Thailand.

A large number of American TV programs are imported for use in Japan since prices for these (set at $300 maximum for any 30-minute program, by the government) still remain well below the cost of a Japanese-made show which costs a minimum of $1,100 despite low wages for cast and crews and cheap scenery costs (cost is somewhat more if taped or filmed). These American programs are highly popular and about 85% of them are dubbed into Japanese with the others carrying superimposed captions in Japanese writing. A very few programs are obtained from Britain but beyond that, except for an occasional cartoon from Russia, the programs are Japanese. Very few full length movies are shown due to an agreement among Japanese movie-makers banning sales for TV showings. Of the few movies shown (less than one a week) they are usually pre-1945 American films or somewhat later European films with an occasional Japanese independent producer showing.

Movie-makers claim that TV is cutting into their profits and to counteract this influence they have formed TV companies and are now TV station owners as well (strangely enough they won't sell their films to their own stations). Several movie companies have also founded special sections for producing films especially for TV, and at least one of these companies created a furore by giving these films to cinema theatres free after they had been used on TV.

The future looks good for TV in Japan though there are signs that American producers are beginning to chafe at the $300 ceiling set by the government on half-hour programs no matter what they are. There are no big prize programs on the air (a $100 prize is considered unusual in Japan), but TV still attracts big audiences not only in the home but also around sets in shop windows or in public squares. Sports events are perhaps the biggest draw, with interest intense in baseball and Japanese wrestling starring 200-300 lb. giant Sumo men.

TV is relatively cheap—around $850 for 30 minutes in a large city and down to $500 for a smaller city, with additional charges for premium times of the day. Japanese TV stations only broadcast throughout the day on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays; otherwise they come on the air for a couple of early morning hours, two hours at noon, and then from 5 P.M. to about 11:15 P.M.

Broadcasting studios are modern with some of the best housed in the huge 1,060-foot TV tower in Tokyo, built as the world's largest and slightly taller than France's Eiffel Tower. The tower dominates Tokyo's skyline and is very popular with visitors who can go part way up by elevator.

Trade organizations include the National Association of Commercial TV Broadcasters, Kosoku-doro Building, 8, 7-chome, Nishi Ginza, Tokyo, and Broadcasting Corporation of Japan (NHK), 2 Uchisaiwai-cho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, which is in charge of government non-commercial stations (without advertising).

—A. C. PINDER

KOREA

At present the U. S. Army maintains TV stations at several places in the Republic of Korea and plans are now being made for several civilian stations for Koreans.

LEBANON

A television broadcasting service was launched in Lebanon in May, 1959. Programs are scheduled for three to four hours daily. In addition, Lebanese viewers are able to pick up broadcasts from Cyprus and some European stations. Lebanese National Television, the new company, is owned by shareholders and directed by technicians who studied in the U.S. and Europe.

In 1960 a second station is expected to start operations. This will be government-owned and operated. There are no government controls on the formation of TV broadcasting companies.

TV receivers are expensive, the average price being $300 a set. Sets now on the market come from U.S., England and Germany. By mid-1960 half the population is expected to own sets. Installment selling is expected to make this possible.

—IBRAHIM H. ZEIN

MEXICO

Television in Mexico is on the up and up. 1958 registered the highest sale of TV sets ever had in the country. Restaurants and bars are also bringing in extra clientele by installing sets. This system has not only added a new line of business and a higher revenue to many enterprising showpoppers, but it is seriously affecting the box offices of motion picture houses.

Three new powerful stations were inaugurated during the past year, to cover large territories of the country: XEFB-TV in Monterrey; XELN-TV in Torreon, Coahuila state; and Channel 12, Tijuana.

A new large and important plant, similar to the Televiscentro at Mexico City, has been installed in Monterrey, with very modern equipment.

The first TV station to operate with educational programs exclusively, and to cover a very large percentage of the Mexican territory, was installed in Mexico City. Its most up-to-date equipment, bought directly from the British firm PYE, is transmitting from Channel 11. It needed a total investment of 30 million pesos.

Four new machines Video-Tapa, the kind that has revolutionized the technique for filming TV programs, were acquired for Mexican plants. Two of them went to Mexico City's stations, one to Monterrey and the other to Guadalajara.

90,000 television sets were sold in Mexico during 1958, making a total of 550,000 operating in the country and bringing to Mexican homes a great variety of shows. The time for shows through the Mexico City channels, was increased by four hours daily, during the morning hours, because of the great demand for their time.

Such is the progress and popularity of television in Mexico, that the Mexican Congress is considering the plan to regard TV and radio activities as "public services" in the new law that is being made to rule this new line of Mexican business.

Figures obtained officially at the Department of Statistics estimate an average monthly number of TV viewers as 2,753,012. That great number of Mexican fans watched day by day, during 1958, the programs of Mexican television.

NEW ZEALAND

TV has taken a step towards establishment in New Zealand. For several months in 1959 a private operator beamed telecasts in Auckland to some hundreds of viewers. However, he was stopped by the Government who themselves set up an experimental station in that city and who intend to follow up with similar stations in Christchurch and Wellington. No attempt is being made to provide regular entertainment but rather to train operators and also to test reception distances and other relative data before launching out into a proper TV service.

The country really cannot afford the luxury of this further means of entertainment just yet, as many millions of pounds of overseas funds would be required to set up the stations and to provide components for viewers. However, there is a suggestion that perhaps the present Labour Government may use TV as a gimmick for the next election—due 1960—holding, out the bait of "put us in and we'll give you TV."

There is still no real evidence of even the slightest public demand for TV yet, although no doubt given the right publicity a demand could be created. Prospective TV manufacturers are doing their best to stimulate public interest. At the moment it would be fair to state that the average New Zealander is only mildly interested and has many doubts as to the value of TV because of adverse reports from overseas and also advice from fellow New Zealanders who have returned from trips overseas. Just when it will be established here, no one can yet say, there are still very good economic grounds for a delay of several years.

—R. A. USMAR

NORWAY

The TV development in Norway is proceeding, although slowly. Approximately 1,000 sets are in operation, but receive so far only trial-sendings once in a while. As both the cinema and the TV industries are officially run—the cinemas by the country's municipalities, and TV by the Government—an agreement will probably be worked out between the interested parties, its aim being that the TV should not hurt the cinema-business. Norway, therefore, is in a unique position as far as protection of the cinemas from TV-influence is concerned. Programmes on a more regular scale may probably start sometime in 1960.

OKINAWA

At present the U.S. Army maintains a TV station for the armed forces which the Okinawans receive. Plans are being made to establish one or more stations with Okinawan and Japanese capital to play Japanese programs. This station will be on a commercial basis and accept advertising. Okinawa is Japanese territory but at present under control of the U.S. Army and with a local administration of native Okinawans who speak Japanese.

PUERTO RICO

There are about 100,000 television sets in Puerto Rico, for a population of 2,300,000. Most of the public places such as restaurants, clubs, have television sets for their patrons and the medium is available in local hotels upon request.

Even though most Puerto Ricans know English, and the number of persons who will increase considerably through intensification of English instruction in public schools and the migration of Puerto Rican families to the United States, and workers who come back from the States with more knowledge of English, television programming is in English and Spanish. WKAQ-TV, owned and operated by the newspaper El Mundo, on channel 4, has 30 per cent programs in English of which 10 per cent have Spanish sub-titles.

Kinescope versions of top North American television shows such as I Love Lucy, Schlitz Playhouse of Stars, Public Defender, The Unexpected, Life is Worth Living, Public Prosecutor, etc., are represented on both stations. Most popular are the 64 Dollar Question and Truth or Consequences, and their counterparts in Puerto Rico.

American manufacturers of cigarettes, electric appliances, soaps, detergents, and other products which use television widely have increased their budgets for this type of advertising medium. Consequently the newspapers and magazines have lost advertising revenue.

The reason for this is that the two leading newspapers operating in Puerto Rico have a circulation each not reaching over 100,000, while there are now over 100,000 television sets in operation and the number is increasing considerably.

—E. SANCHEZ ORTIZ

SOUTH AFRICA

The Union of South Africa is still without television service and likely to remain without it for many years in the future. The director general of the South African Broadcasting Corporation has nothing to report on the matter, while the Government says simply that "progressive research and experimentation in the television field has been and still is being carried out, but purely as research and experimentation." The reasons for the TV lag here are many, including the geographical layout of the country, which would make nation-wide service extremely expensive, and the fact that the South African Broadcasting Corporation has been in financial difficulties with just its radio services.

SWEDEN

The Swedish TV began in the autumn of 1956. One station was organized in Stockholm and one in Gothenburg. An ordinary TV week in Stockholm sees about 14 hours of "live" programmes and six hours of film. Swedish, French, American (USA), British and Soviet pictures have been shown on TV, and serials like "The Perry Como Show", "20th Century", "Perry Mason", "Hitchcock Presents", "Gunsmoke", "Disneyland", "Robin Hood" (British) and "Colonel Flack".

The future for the Swedish TV seems very promising. As of January 1, 1959, Sweden had 240,000 TV sets and 13 transmitters—by January 1, 1960, these figures will probably have increased to 600,000 TV sets and 30 transmitters.

—GOESTA ERKELL

SWITZERLAND

As of April 1, 1959, there were 59,724 TV sets in operation in Switzerland, of which 54,316 were in private homes and 5,408 in public places. Seven stations are on the air, four in the German-speaking part of Switzerland, one in the French-speaking part and two in the Italian-speaking Tessin. The Government also has authorized the construction of privately-owned, small gap-filling stations so that transmissions can cover remote areas; so far, there are five such "boosters" in operation.

The French and German language stations schedule about 18 hours of programming a week, each of which approximately 70 per cent are live and 30 per cent are film. Until the Tessin obtains its own O.B. van and a small studio at Lugano Broadcasting House (probably in 1960), the Italian-speaking transmitters relay, besides joint broadcasts, programmes from the German-speaking and the French-speaking part of Switzerland respectively, with commentary in Italian.

All telecasting in Switzerland is government-controlled. There are no commercial operations. The PTT administration is responsible for the transmitters and technical equipment, while the Swiss Broadcasting Corporation handles all programming. Annual licences cost 84 francs for private sets and 168 for public sets.

THAILAND (Siam)

At present Thailand has two TV stations—the Thai TV Station and the Thai Army Station—broadcasting in black and white on limited hours. Japanese interests are trying to establish a station here but are stymied by the Thai demands that the station broadcast also in color and be on the air within one year of contract. The authorities also want the Japanese to establish TV relays throughout the country and limit their control of the station and relays to eight years.

TURKEY

Since 1950 the "Istanbul Teknik University" of the Turkish Republic, under the leadership of the dean of the faculty, Prof. Mustafa Santur, has started experiments on television not merely as a lesson but as a preparation for a general interest scheme. In 1951 a 100w Phillips set with 625 lines was bought by this University for experiment. Its effect could run 30 kilometres on a straight line. A group of students of the University has started with great enthusiasm. The installations were made and a studio was prepared.

Public television exhibitions have started on an experimentation basis and provoked a real interest not only among the students but among the general public. A little later receivers were placed in the main streets in where the general public could actually see a television program since up to that time they could only read about it. Soon a regular weekly program was broadcast Thursday from 5 to 7 P.M. and the whole affair was regularly organized as a Turkish Television under the direction of Prof. Adnan Ataman, who is actually active in this position.

Since the gift by the "Voice of America" of seven reception sets was made to the Technical University, television programs can be seen in different sections of the city and around it regularly two times a week from the University studios. Besides the public receivers there are about 50 private sets now in Istanbul. There could be sold ten times more if sets were available under the restrictions of importations with foreign currency.

The programs include the fields of education, arts, music, sports and features. It can be said definitely that Television has created a general interest in the Turkish public.

At the current writing (mid-1959), the government has arranged with TV interests in the U.S., Britain and Germany for the construction of a regular TV station here.

VENEZUELA

There are two commercial television stations in Venezuela.

1. Televisa, Director Antonio Cartafa, Pres. A.

Pallades de Latorre, dir. This station operates on Channels 4, 9 and 11. Channel 4 is in Caracas, Channel 11 is Radio Cultura operating on 5,050 kilocycles, and Channel 9 is Televisa del Zulia. Channel 13 will be operating at the end of the year in Valencia. Marconi equipment is used. All installations were made by Venezuelan engineers after extensive investigations in operation and equipment in England. Channel 4 is the only station that presents a live religious program directed by Padre Francisco Hernandez. Mass is officiated by Padre Hernandez.

2. Radio Caracas, T.V. Director Amable Espina, Channels 2 and 10. RCA equipment is used.

There is one government owned station, Director Miguel Toda. This operates on Channel 5 and is called Televisora Nacional. This station operates only about six hours an evening, and has no advertising. The programs are documentary and cultural.

The commercial stations in 1959 had a great deal of unsold time, representing a setback from the previous year.

To date the average cost of equipment and transmission in Venezuela covering all stations is Bs20,000,000 ($6,000,000.)

All receivers are imported.

—MONA LONDON CALDWELL

YUGOSLAVIA

The Yugoslav television network started operations at the end of 1958 with five broadcasting and three studio centres (Belgrade, Zagreb and Ljubljana). The network of broadcasting centres cover for the present the area of the country in which about 40% of the Yugoslav population live. It is estimated at the end of May that that area contains about seven thousand TV sets. Taking into consideration the fact that the Yugoslav television network has just started regular operation and the high price of the sets, almost all of them are placed in public places or in clubs, libraries, youth and cooperative homes, etc.

The programs of Yugoslav television are still experimental. The programs are made jointly by all three studio centres, except the Information centre in Belgrade, which is responsible for the news programs. The TV programs are on the air four times weekly: Mondays, Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays, while on Tuesdays and Fridays Yugoslav television is taking foreign programs from Italy and Austria. The Yugoslav television broadcasts every week between 12 and 16 hours of its own programs.

All three studio centres—in Belgrade, Zagreb and Ljubljana—are operating jointly with the existing radio stations, but the TV programs are using joint lines, while radio stations have their own programs. The Program Commission coordinates everything connected with programs. This commission is composed of a representative of the three studio centres, while the technical matters are handled by technical commission.

The number of TV sets is rapidly increasing and it is clearly felt in the commercial network that the demand far exceeds the supply. Early in 1959 the first sets of domestic make appeared on the local market. This was made possible thanks to the licence secured from Phillips. Despite relatively high price of locally made sets, 150,000 dinars ($500), they disappeared in no time.

Yugoslav television has not yet its own revenue, because it is still operating on an experimental basis. The investment and program expenses are secured from government sources, while the radio station also is securing a certain portion. Certain limited financial means are obtained from the advertisements—carried in separate ordered programs outside regular programs. A system of subscription will be introduced later, similar to the ads on radio. The time when that will be introduced is not yet fixed.

The Television Code

The Television Code

A NEW CODE of standards and practices for the television industry went into effect March 1, 1952 following a series of developments almost a year in the making.

The code is an aftermath of a meeting held in Washington in June, 1951 at which NBC made public a code of its own. Set up as a standard of operations in television, this code bore an essential resemblance to the instrument earlier adopted by the same network for radio broadcasting. Both NBC codes, a Code of Standards adopted for radio by the National Association of Broadcasters—predecessor organization of the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters—in Atlantic City in 1947 and now the industry-wide TV code, drew upon the Motion Picture Production Code for their pattern.

Four subcommittees were active in preparation of the television code throughout the summer of 1951. Their tentative draft was approved by the NARTB board in September and a final polishing job undertaken in Washington shortly before the text was ratified in Chicago, October 19, 1951.

The TV code provides for a review board consisting of five members of NARTB. This board is empowered to enforce the rules governing programming and advertising. There will be issued a Seal of Approval, available to subscribing members whether affiliated with NARTB or not. While the power to hold in check unfair and unscrupulous acts will be vested in the Review Board, the common impression in television is that this will be largely an unwritten power. The Review Board was increased to seven members in June, 1959, effective January 1, 1960.

Intensive promotion on behalf of the seal is contemplated. Subscribing stations will be permitted to televise it so long as they adhere to the code itself. The Review Board will be charged with the policing task and report violations to the board of directors of NARTB who will be empowered to revoke the seal by a two-thirds' vote from which there will be no appeal.

In those phases that deal with programming and its approaches, the code bears striking similarity to the Motion Picture Production Code, conceived and formulated in 1929 by Martin Quigley, and ratified by the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors Association of America, Inc. which became the Motion Picture Association of America, Inc. late in 1945 when Eric Johnston was named president.

Meeting in Bandera, Tex. in February, TV board members of NARTB approved a review board of five and adopted a plan for financing administration of the code as well as an operating budget of $40,000 for the first year of operations.

The review board, designed to be a preliminary hearing group in considering complaints that specific TV programs and advertising practices violate the code, included the following:

John E. Fetzer, owner of TV station WKZO-TV at Kalamazoo, as the chairman; J. Leonard Reinsich, vice-president, WSB, Atlanta; Mrs. Scott Bullitt, owner of KING-TV, Seattle; William B. Quarton, vice-president and general manager, WMT-TV, Cedar Rapids and G. Richard Shafto, president of WIS-TV, Columbia, S. C.

Under the financing plan, each subscribing TV station pays $405 a year. If it is an NARTB member, $250 of this is credited against NARTB dues, leaving $155 for defraying code administration costs.

The Code is copyrighted by the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters. It is reprinted with the permission of the Television Code Review Board.

Text of the revised code follows:

Preamble

Television is seen and heard in every type of American home. These homes include children and adults of all ages, embrace all races and all varieties of religious faith, and reach those of every educational background. It is the responsibility of television to bear constantly in mind that the audience is primarily a home audience, and consequently that television's relationship to the viewers is that between guest and host.

The revenues from advertising support the free, competitive American system of telecasting, and make available to the eyes and ears of the American people the finest programs of information, education, culture and entertainment. By law the television broadcaster is responsible for the programming of his station. He, however, is obligated to bring his positive responsibility for excellence and good taste in programming to bear upon all who have a hand in the production of programs, including networks, sponsors, producers of film and of live programs, advertising agencies, and talent agencies.

The American businesses which utilize television for conveying their advertising messages to the home by pictures with sound, seen free-of-charge on the home screen, are reminded that their responsibilities are not limited to the sale of goods and the creation of a favorable attitude toward the sponsor by the presentation of entertainment. They include, as well, responsibility for utilizing television to bring the best programs, regardless of kind, into American homes.

Television, and all who participate in it are jointly accountable to the American public for respect for the special needs of children, for community responsibility, for the advancement of education and culture, for the acceptability of the program materials chosen, for decency and decorum in production, and for propriety in advertising. This responsibility cannot be discharged by any given group of programs, but can be discharged only through the highest standards of respect for the American home, applied to every moment of every program presented by television.

In order that television programming may best serve the public interest, viewers should be encouraged to make their criticisms and positive suggestions known to the television broadcasters. Parents in particular should be urged to see to it that out of the richness of television fare, the best programs are brought to the attention of their children.

Advancement of Education and Culture

1. Commercial television provides a valuable means of augmenting the educational and cultural influences of schools, institutions of higher learning, the home, the church, museums, foundations, and other institutions devoted to education and culture.

2. It is the responsibility of a television broadcaster to call upon such institutions for counsel and cooperation and to work with them on the best methods of presenting educational and cultural materials by television. It is further the responsibility of stations, networks, advertising agencies and sponsors consciously to seek opportunities for introducing into telecasts factual materials which will aid in the enlightenment of the American public.

3. Education via television may be taken to mean that process by which the individual is brought toward informed adjustment to his society. Television is also responsible for the presentation of overtly instructional and cultural programs, scheduled so as to reach the viewers who are naturally drawn to such programs, and produced so as to attract the largest possible audience.

4. In furthering this realization, the television broadcaster:

- a) Should be thoroughly conversant with the educational and cultural needs and desires of the community served.
- b) Should affirmatively seek out responsible and accountable educational and cultural institutions of the community with a view toward providing opportunities for the instruction and enlightenment of the viewers.
- c) Should provide for reasonable experimentation in the development of programs specifically directed to the advancement of the community's culture and education.

Acceptability of Program Material

Program materials should enlarge the horizons of the viewer, provide him with wholesome entertainment, afford helpful stimulation, and remind him of the responsibilities which the citizen has towards his society. Furthermore:

- a) (i) Profanity, obscenity, smut and vulgarity are forbidden, even when likely to be understood only by part of the audience. From time to time, words which have been acceptable, acquire undesirable meanings, and telecasters should be alert to eliminate such words.
(ii) Words (especially slang) derivative of any race, color, creed, nationality or national derivation, except wherein such usage would be for the specific purpose of effective dramatization such as combating prejudice, are forbidden, even when likely to be understood only by part of the audience. From time to time, words which have been acceptable, acquire undesirable meanings, and telecasters should be alert to eliminate such words.
(iii) The Television Code Review Board (see Regulations and Procedures of the Code, V, Section 3, Authority and Responsibilities) shall maintain and issue to subscribers, from time to time, a continuing list of specific words and phrases which should not be used in keeping with this subsection. This list, however, shall not be considered as all-inclusive.
- b) (i) Attacks on religion and religious faiths are not allowed.
(ii) Reverence is to mark any mention of the name of God. His attributes and powers.
(iii) When religious rites are included in other than religious programs, the rites are accurately presented, and the ministers, priests and rabbis portrayed in their callings are vested with the dignity of their office and under no circumstances are to be held up to ridicule.
- c) (i) Contests may not constitute a lottery.
(ii) Any telecasting designed to "buy" the television audience by requiring it to listen and/or view in hope of reward, rather than for the quality of the program, should be avoided. (see Contests.)

d) Respect is maintained for the sanctity of marriage and the value of the home. Divorce is not treated casually nor justified as a solution for marital problems.

e) Illicit sex relations are not treated as commendable.

f) Sex crimes and abnormalities are generally unacceptable as program material.

g) Drunkenness and narcotic addition are never presented as desirable or prevalent.

h) The administration of illegal drugs will not be displayed.

i) The use of liquor in program content shall be de-emphasized. The consumption of liquor in American life, when not required by the plot or for proper characterization, shall not be shown.

j) The use of gambling devices or scenes necessary to the development of plot or as appropriate background is acceptable only when presented with discretion and in moderation, and in a manner which would not excite interest in, or foster, betting nor be instructional in nature. Telecasts of actual sport programs at which on-the-scene betting is permitted by law should be presented in a manner in keeping with Federal, state and local laws, and should concentrate on the subject as a public sporting event.

k) In reference to physical or mental afflictions and deformities, special precautions must be taken to avoid ridiculing sufferers from similar ailments and offending them or members of their families.

l) Exhibitions of fortune-telling, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, and numerology are acceptable only when required by a plot or the theme of a program, and then the presentation should be developed in a manner designed not to foster superstition or excite interest or belief in these subjects.

m) Televised drama shall not simulate news or special events in such a way as to mislead or alarm. (see News.)

n) Legal, medical and other professional advice, diagnosis and treatment will be permitted only in conformity with law and recognized ethical and professional standards.

o) The presentation of cruelty, greed and selfishness as worthy motivations is to be avoided.

p) Excessive or unfair exploitation of others or of their physical or mental afflictions shall not be presented as praiseworthy.

q) Criminality shall be presented as undesirable and unsympathetic. The condoning of crime in the treatment of the commission of crime in a frivolous, cynical or callous manner is unacceptable.

r) The presentation of techniques of crime in such detail as to invite imitation shall be avoided.

s) The use of horror for its own sake will be eliminated; the use of visual or aural effects which would shock or alarm the viewer, and the detailed presentation of brutality or physical agony by sight or by sound are not permissible.

t) Law enforcement shall be upheld, and the officers of the law are to be portrayed with respect and dignity.

u) The presentation of murder or revenge as a motive for murder shall not be presented as justifiable.

v) Suicide as an acceptable solution for human problems is prohibited.

w) The exposition of sex crimes will be avoided.

x) The appearances or dramatization of persons featured in actual crime news will be permitted only in such light as to aid law enforcement or to report the news event.

y) Treatment of Animals. The use of animals, both in the production of television programs and as a part of television program content, shall, at all times, be in conformity with accepted standards of humane treatment.

Responsibility Toward Children

1. The education of children involves giving them a sense of the world at large. Crime, violence and sex are a part of the world they will be called upon to meet, and a certain amount of proper presentation of such is helpful in orienting the child to his social surroundings. However, violence and illicit sex shall not be presented in an attractive manner, nor to an extent such as will lead a child to believe that they play a greater part in life than they do. They should not be presented without indications of the resultant retribution and punishment.

2. It is not enough that only those programs which are intended for viewing by children shall be suitable to the young and immature. (Attention is called to the general items listed under Acceptability of Program Materials.) Television is responsible for insuring that programs of all sorts which occur during the times of day when children may normally be expected to have the opportunity of viewing television shall exercise care in the following regards:

- a) In affording opportunities for cultural growth as well as for wholesome entertainment.
- b) In developing programs to foster and promote the commonly accepted moral, social and ethical ideals characteristic of American life.
- c) In reflecting respect for parents, for honorable behavior, and for the constituted authorities of the American community.
- d) In eliminating reference to kidnaping of children or threats of kidnaping.
- e) In avoiding material which is excessively violent or would create morbid suspense, or other undesirable reactions in children.
- f) In exercising particular restraint and care in crime or mystery episodes involving children or minors.

Decency and Decorum in Production

1. The costuming of all performers shall be within the bounds of propriety, and shall avoid such exposure or such emphasis on anatomical detail as would embarrass or offend home viewers.

2. The movements of dancers, actors, or other performers shall be kept within the bounds of decency, and lewdness and impropriety shall not be suggested in the positions assumed by performers.

3. Camera angles shall avoid such views of performers as to emphasize anatomical details indecently.

4. Racial or nationality types shall not be shown on television in such a manner as to ridicule the race or nationality.

5. The use of locations closely associated with sexual life or with sexual sin must be governed by good taste and delicacy.

Community Responsibility

A television broadcaster and his staff occupy a position of responsibility in the community and should conscientiously endeavor to be acquainted fully with its needs and characteristics in order better to serve the welfare of its citizens.

Treatment of News and Public Events

News

1. A television station's news schedule should be adequate and well-balanced.

2. News reporting should be factual, fair and without bias.

3. Commentary and analysis should be clearly identified as such.

4. Good taste should prevail in the selection and handling of news:

Morbid, sensational or alarming details not essential to the factual report, especially in connection with stories of crime or sex, should be avoided. News should be telecast in such a manner as to avoid panic and unnecessary alarm.

5. At all times, pictorial and verbal material for both news and comment should conform to other sections of these standards, wherever such sections are reasonably applicable.

6. Pictorial material should be chosen with care and not presented in a misleading manner.

7. A television broadcaster should exercise due care in his supervision of content, format, and presentation of newscasts originated by his station, and in his selection of newscasters, commentators, and analysts.

8. A television broadcaster should exercise particular discrimination in the acceptance, placement and presentation of advertising in news programs so that such advertising should be clearly distinguishable from the news content.

9. A television broadcaster should not present fictional events or other non-news material as authentic news telecasts or announcements nor should he permit dramatizations in any program which would give the false impression that the dramatized material constitutes news. Expletives, presented aurally or pictorially such as "flash" or "bulletin" and statements such as "we interrupt this program to bring you . . ." should be reserved specifically for news room use. However, a television broadcaster may properly exercise discretion in the use in non-news programs of words or phrases which do not necessarily imply that the material following is a news release.

PUBLIC EVENTS

1. A television broadcaster has an affirmative responsibility at all times to be informed of public events, and to provide coverage consonant with the ends of an informed and enlightened citizenry.

2. Because of the nature of events open to the public, the treatment of such events by a television broadcaster should be effected in a manner to provide for adequate and informed coverage as well as good taste in presentation.

Controversial Public Issues

1. Television provides a valuable forum for the expression of responsible views on public issues of a controversial nature. In keeping therewith the television broadcaster should seek out and develop with accountable individuals, groups and organizations, programs relating to controversial public issues of import to its fellow citizens; and to give fair representation to opposing sides of issues which materially affect the life or welfare of a substantial segment of the public.

2. The provision of time for this purpose should be guided by the following principles:

a) Requests by individuals, groups or organizations for time to discuss their views on controversial public issues, should be considered on the basis of their individual merits, and in the light of the contribution which the use requested would make to the public interest, and to a well-balanced program structure.

b) Programs devoted to the discussion of controversial public issues should be identified as such, and should not be presented in a manner which would mislead listeners or viewers to believe that the program is purely of an entertainment, news or other character.

Political Telecasts

Political telecasts should be clearly identified as such, and should not be presented by a television broadcaster in a manner which would mislead listeners or viewers to believe that the program is of any other character.

Religious Programs

1. It is the responsibility of a television broadcaster to make available to the community as part of a well-balanced program schedule adequate opportunity for religious presentations.

2. The following principles should be followed in the treatment of such programs:

a) Telecasting which reaches men of all creeds simultaneously should avoid attacks upon religion.

b) Religious programs should be presented respectfully and accurately and without prejudice or ridicule.

c) Religious programs should be presented by responsible individuals, groups, and organizations.

d) Religious programs should place emphasis on broad religious truths, excluding the presentation of controversial or partisan views not directly or necessarily related to religion or morality.

3. In the allocation of time for telecasts of religious programs it is recommended that the television station use its best efforts to apportion such time fairly among the representative faith groups of its community.

Presentation of Advertising

1. Ever mindful of the role of television as a guest in the home, a television broadcaster should exercise unceasing care to supervise the form in which advertising material is presented over his facilities. Since television is a developing medium, involving methods and techniques distinct from those of radio, it may be desirable from time to time to review and revise the presently suggested practices:

- a) Advertising messages should be presented with courtesy and good taste; disturbing or annoying material should be avoided; every effort should be made to keep the advertising message in harmony with the content and general tone of the program in which it appears.
  - b) A sponsor's advertising messages should be confined within the framework of the sponsor's program structure. A television broadcaster should avoid the use of commercial announcements which are divorced from the program either by preceding the introduction of the program (as in the case of so-called "cow-catcher" announcements) or by following the apparent sign-off of the program (as in the case of so-called "trailer" announcements). To this end, the program itself should be announced and clearly identified, both audio and video, before the sponsor's advertising material is first used, and should be signed off, both audio and video, after the sponsor's advertising material is last used.
  - c) Advertising copy should contain no claims intended to disparage competitors, competing products, or other industries, professions or institutions.
  - d) Since advertising by television is a dynamic technique, a television broadcaster should keep under surveillance new advertising devices so that the spirit and purpose of these standards are fulfilled.
  - e) Television broadcasters should exercise the utmost care and discrimination with regard to advertising material, including content, placement and presentation, near or adjacent to programs designed for children. No considerations of expediency should be permitted to impinge upon the vital responsibility towards children and adolescents, which is inherent in television, and which must be recognized and accepted by all advertisers employing television.
  - f) Television advertisers should be encouraged to devote portions of their allotted advertising messages and program time to the support of worthy causes in the public interest in keeping with the highest ideals of the free competitive system.
  - g) A charge for television time to churches and religious bodies is not recommended.
- f) Because all products of a personal nature create special problems, such products, when accepted, should be treated with especial emphasis on ethics and the canons of good taste; however, the advertising of intimately personal products which are generally regarded as unsuitable conversational topics in mixed social groups is not acceptable.
  - g) The advertising of tip sheets, race track publications, or organizations seeking to advertise for the purpose of giving odds or promoting betting or lotteries is unacceptable.
    - 2. Diligence should be exercised to the end that advertising copy accepted for telecasting complies with pertinent Federal, state and local laws.
    - 3. An advertiser who markets more than one product should not be permitted to use advertising copy devoted to an acceptable product for purposes of publicizing the brand name or other identification of a product which is not acceptable.

Advertising of Medical Products

- 1. The advertising of medical products presents considerations of intimate and far-reaching importance to the consumer, and the following principles and procedures should apply in the advertising thereof:
  - a) A television broadcaster should not accept advertising material which in his opinion, offensively describes or dramatizes distress or morbid situations involving ailments, by spoken word, sound or visual effects.
  - b) Because of the personal nature of the advertising of medical products, claims that a product will effect a cure and the indiscriminate use of such words as "safe", "without risk", "harmless", or terms of similar meaning should not be accepted in the advertising of medical products on television stations.

Contests

- 1. Contests should offer the opportunity to all contestants to win on the basis of ability and skill, rather than chance.
- 2. All contest details, including rules, eligibility requirements, opening and termination dates should be clearly and completely announced and/or shown, or easily accessible to the viewing public, and the winners' names should be released and prizes awarded as soon as possible after the close of the contest.
- 3. When advertising is accepted which requests contestants to submit items of product identification or other evidence of purchase of product, reasonable facsimiles thereof should be made acceptable.
- 4. All copy pertaining to any contest (except that which is required by law) associated with the exploitation or sale of the sponsor's product or service, and all references to prizes or gifts offered in such connection should be considered a part of and included in the total time allowances as herein provided. (see Time Standards for Advertising Copy.)

Premiums and Offers

- 1. Full details of proposed offers should be required by the television broadcaster for investigation and approval before the first announcement of the offer is made to the public.
- 2. A final date for the termination of an offer should be announced as far in advance as possible.
- 3. Before accepting for telecast offers involving a monetary consideration, a television broadcaster should satisfy himself as to the integrity of the advertiser and the advertiser's willingness to honor complaints indicating dissatisfaction with the premium by returning the monetary consideration.
- 4. There should be no misleading descriptions or visual representations of any premiums or gifts which would distort or enlarge their value in the minds of the listeners.
- 5. Assurances should be obtained from the advertiser that premiums offered are not harmful to person or property.
- 6. Premiums should not be approved which appeal to superstition on the basis of "luck-bearing" powers or otherwise.

Time Standards for Advertising Copy

- 1. In accordance with good telecast advertising practices, the time standards for advertising copy are as follows:

Acceptability of Advertisers and Products—General

1. A commercial television broadcaster makes his facilities available for the advertising of products and services and accepts commercial presentations for such advertising. However, a television broadcaster should, in recognition of his responsibility to the public, refuse the facilities of his station to an advertiser where he has good reason to doubt the integrity of the advertiser, the truth of the advertising representations, or the compliance of the advertiser with the spirit and purpose of all applicable legal requirements. Moreover, in consideration of the laws and customs of the communities served, each television broadcaster should refuse his facilities to the advertisement of products and services, or the use of advertising scripts, which the station has good reason to believe would be objectionable to a substantial and responsible segment of the community. The foregoing principles should be applied with judgment and flexibility, taking into consideration the characteristics of the medium and the form and content of the particular presentation. In general, because television broadcast is designed for the home and the family, including children, the following principles should govern the business classifications listed below:

- a) The advertising of hard liquor should not be accepted.
- b) The advertising of beer and wines is acceptable only when presented in the best of good taste and discretion, and is acceptable subject to Federal and local laws.
- c) Advertising by institutions or enterprises which in their offers of instruction imply promises of employment or make exaggerated claims for the opportunities awaiting those who enroll for courses is generally unacceptable.
- d) The advertising of firearms and fireworks is acceptable only subject to Federal and local laws.
- e) The advertising of fortune-telling, occultism, spiritualism, astrology, phrenology, palm-reading, numerology, mind-reading or character-reading is not acceptable.

Length of Advertising Message
(Minutes and Seconds)

Length of Program News Programs	All Other Programs
	Day (Minutes) and Night	All Other Hrs.
5	1:00	1:15
10	1:45	2:10
15	2:15	3:00
25		4:00
30		4:15
45		5:45
60		7:00

2. Reasonable and limited identification of prize and statement of the donor's name within formats wherein the presentation of contest awards or prizes is a necessary and integral part of program content shall not be included as commercial time within the meaning of paragraph 1. above; however, any oral or visual presentation concerning the product or its donor, over and beyond such identification and statement, shall be included as commercial time within the meaning of paragraph 1. above.

3. The time standards set forth above do not affect the established practice of reserving for station use the last 30 seconds of each program for station break and spot announcements.

4. Announcement programs are designed to accommodate a designated number of individual live or recorded announcements, generally one minute in length, which are carried within the body of the program and are available for sale to individual advertisers. Normally not more than 3 one-minute announcements (which should not exceed approximately 125 words if presented live) should be scheduled within a 15-minute period and not more than six such announcements should be scheduled within a 30-minute period in local announcement programs; however, fewer announcements of greater individual length may be scheduled, provided that the aggregate length of the announcements approximates three minutes in a 15-minute program or six minutes in a 30-minute program. In announcement programs other than 15 minutes or 30 minutes in length, the proportion of one minute of announcement within every five minutes of programming is normally applied. The announcements must be presented within the framework of the program period designated for their use and kept in harmony with the content of the program in which they are placed.

5. Programs presenting women's services, features, shopping guides, market information, and similar material, provide a special service to the listening and viewing public in which advertising material is an informative and integral part of the program content. Because of these special characteristics the time standards set forth above may be waived to a reasonable extent.

6. Even though the commercial limitations of the Code do not specifically prohibit back-to-back announcements, such a practice is not recommended for more than two announcements, either at station break or within the framework of a single program.

7. Any casual reference by talent in a program to another's product or service under any trade name or language sufficiently descriptive to identify it should, except for normal guest identifications, be condemned and discouraged.

8. Stationary backdrops or properties in television presentations showing the sponsor's name or product, the name of his product, his trade mark or slogan may be used only incidentally. They should not intrude on program interest or entertainment. "On Camera" shots of such materials should be fleeting, not too frequent, and mindful of the need of maintaining a proper program balance.

Dramatized Appeals and Advertising

Appeals to help fictitious characters in television programs by purchasing the advertiser's product or service or sending for a premium should not be permitted, and such fictitious characters should not be introduced into the advertising message for such purposes. When dramatized advertising material involves statements by doctors, dentists, nurses or other professional people, the material should be presented by members of such profession reciting actual experience or it should be made apparent from the presentation itself that the portrayal is dramatized.

Sponsor Identification

Identification of sponsorship must be made in all sponsored programs in accordance with the requirements of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission.

O. Films, Transcriptions, etc.:

Films, kinescopes, records, transcriptions, or other mechanical reproductions of television programs, properly identified, shall be accepted into evidence when relevant.

P. Continuances and Extensions:

Continuance and extension of any proceeding or for the time of filing or performing any act required or allowed to be done within a specific time may be granted upon request, for a good cause shown. The Board or the Presiding Officer may recess or adjourn a hearing for such time as may be deemed necessary, and may change the place thereof.

Q. Findings and Conclusions:

The Television Board of Directors shall decide the case as expeditiously as possible and shall notify the subscriber and the Television Code Review Board, in writing, of the decision. The decision of the Television Board of Directors shall contain findings of fact with conclusions, as well as the reasons or bases therefor. Findings of fact shall set out in detail and with particularity all basic evidentiary facts developed on the record (with appropriate citations to the transcript of record or exhibit relied on for each evidentiary fact) supporting the conclusion reached.

R. Reconsideration or Rehearing:

A request for reconsideration or rehearing may be filed by parties to the hearing. Requests for reconsideration or rehearing shall state with particularity in what respect the decision or any matter determined therein is claimed to be unjust, unwarranted, or erroneous, and with respect to any finding of fact shall specify the pages of record relied on. If the existence of any newly-discovered evidence is claimed, the request shall be accompanied by a verified statement of the facts together with the facts relied on to show that the party, with due diligence, could not have known or discovered such facts at the time of the hearing. The request for rehearing may seek:

- a. Reconsideration
- b. Additional oral argument
- c. Amendment of any findings, or
- d. Other relief.

S. Time for Filing:

Requests for reconsideration or rehearing shall be filed within ten (10) days after receipt by the respondent of the decision. Opposition thereto may be filed within five (5) days after the filing of the request.

T. Penalty, Suspension of:

At the discretion of the Television Board, application of any penalty provided for in the decision may be suspended until the Board makes final disposition of the request for reconsideration or rehearing.

U. Disqualification:

Any member of the Television Board may disqualify himself, or upon good cause shown by any interested party, may be disqualified by a majority vote of the Television Board.

Section 5. ADDITIONAL PROCEDURES

When necessary to the proper administration of the Code, additional rules of procedure will be established from time to time as authorized by the By-Laws of the NAB; in keeping therewith, special consideration shall be given to the procedures for receipt and processing of complaints and to necessary rules to be adopted from time to time, taking into account the source and nature of such complaints; such rules to include precautionary measures such as the posting of bonds to cover costs and expenses of processing same; and further provided that special consideration will be given to procedures insuring the confidential status of proceedings relating to Code observance.

Section 6. AMENDMENT AND REVIEW

Because of the new and dynamic aspects inherent in television broadcast, the Television Code, as a living, flexible and continuing document, may be amended from time to time by the Television Board of Directors; provided that said Board is specifically charged with review and reconsideration of the entire Code, its appendices and procedures, at least once each year.

Section 7. TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

All subscribers on the air at the time of subscription to the Code shall be permitted that period prior to and including the earliest legal cancellation date to terminate any contracts, then outstanding, calling for program presentations which would not be in conformity with the Television Code, provided, however, that in no event shall such period be longer than fifty-two weeks.

IV

Affiliate Subscribers

Section 1. ELIGIBILITY

Any individual, firm or corporation, which is engaged in the production or distribution, lease, or sale of recorded programs for television presentation, subject to the approval of the Television Code Review Board as hereinafter provided, shall be eligible to become an affiliate subscriber to the Television Code of the NAB.

Section 2. CERTIFICATION OF SUBSCRIPTION

Upon becoming an affiliate subscriber to the Code, subject to the approval of the Television Code Review Board, there shall be granted forthwith to each such affiliate subscriber authority to use a copyrighted and registered seal and declaration, in a manner approved by the Television Code Review Board, identifying the individual firm or corporation as an affiliate subscriber to the Television Code of the NAB. Such authority shall not constitute formal clearance or approval by the Television Code Review Board of specific film programs or other recorded material.

Section 3. DURATION OF AFFILIATE SUBSCRIPTION

The affiliate subscription shall continue in full force and effect until thirty days after the first of the month following receipt of a written notice of resignation. The affiliate subscription to the Code shall be effective from the date of application subject to the approval of the Television Code Review Board.

Section 4. SUSPENSION OF AFFILIATE SUBSCRIPTION

Any affiliate subscription and the authority to utilize and show the above-noted seal may be voided, revoked, or temporarily suspended for the sale or distribution for television presentation of any film or other recorded material which by theme, treatment, or incident, in the judgment of the Television Code Review Board, constitutes a continuing, willful or gross violation of any of the provisions of the Television Code, by a vote of three members of the Television Code Review Board at any regular or special meeting. The conditions and procedures applicable to subscribers shall not apply to affiliate subscribers.

Section 5. REPRESENTATION OF AFFILIATE SUBSCRIBERS

Any affiliate subscriber or group of affiliate subscribers may authorize an individual or association to act for them in connection with their relations with the Television Code Review Board by filing a written notice of such representation with the Board. Such representation, however, in no way will limit the right of the Television Code Review Board to suspend individual affiliate subscribers in accordance with the provisions of Section 4."

V

Rates

Each subscriber and affiliate subscriber shall pay 'administrative' rates in accordance with such schedule, at such time, and under such conditions as may be determined from time to time by the Television Board (see Article VI, section 8, C. Television Board (3) and (4), By-Laws of the NAB); provided, that appropriate credit shall be afforded to a television member of the NAB against the regular dues which he or it pays to NAB.

VI

The Television Code Review Board

Section 1. COMPOSITION

There shall be a continuing committee entitled the Television Code Review Board. The Review Board shall be composed of seven members, all of whom shall be from the Television membership of NAB. Members of the Television Board of Directors shall not be eligible to serve on the above specified Review Board. Members of the Review Board shall be appointed by the President of the NAB, subject to confirmation by the Television Board of Directors. Due consideration shall be given, in making such appointments, to factors of diversification of geographical location, company representation and network affiliation.

During the year 1960, four members shall be appointed to serve until immediately following the annual NAB convention of 1962.

Starting in 1961, and every odd-numbered year thereafter, three members shall be appointed for two-year terms; and then in every even-numbered year thereafter, four two-year members shall be appointed.

All appointments take effect immediately following the annual NAB convention.

A. Limitation of Service:

A person shall not serve consecutively as a member of the Review Board for more than two two-year terms or for more than four years consecutively after April 30, 1953.

A majority of the membership of the Television Code Review Board shall constitute a quorum for all purposes unless herein otherwise provided.

Section 3. AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Television Code Review Board is authorized and directed:

(1) To maintain a continuing review of all television programming especially that of subscribers to the Television Code of the NAB; (2) to receive, screen and clear complaints concerning television programming; (3) to define and interpret words and phrases in the Television Code; (4) to develop and maintain appropriate liaison with governmental agencies and with responsible and accountable organizations and institutions; (5) to inform, expeditiously and properly, a subscriber to the Television Code of complaints or commendations, as well as to advise all subscribers concerning the attitude and desires program-wise of accountable organizations and institutions, and of the American public in general; (6) to review and monitor, if necessary, any certain series of programs, daily programming, or any other program presentations of a subscriber, as well as to request recordings, aural or kinescope, or script and copy, with regard to any certain program presented by a subscriber; (7) to reach conclusions, and to make recommendations or prefer charges to the Television Board of Directors concerning violations and breaches of the Television Code by a subscriber; (8) to recommend to the Television Board of Directors, amendments to the Television Code.

A. Delegation of Powers and Responsibilities:

The Television Code Review Board may delegate, from time to time, such of its above-specified responsibilities, as it may deem necessary and desirable, to a Staff Group of the NAB.

B. Meetings:

The Television Code Review Board shall meet regularly once each quarter of the calendar year on a date to be determined by the Chairman. The Chairman of the Review Board may, at any time, on at least five days' written notice, call a special meeting of the Board.
