TELEVISION TRENDS IN 1982

Net revenues of the television broadcasting industry amounted to an estimated $10.9 billion in 1982, up 11.7 per cent from 1981. Advertisers spent an estimated $14.1 billion for TV advertising during the year, an increase of 11.7 percent over 1981.

Between 1972 and 1982 both advertising expenditures and industry revenues increased at a compound annual rate of 13.2 per cent; advertising expenditures rose from $4.1 billion to $14.1 billion, revenues from $3.2 billion to $10.9 billion. A substantial part of these increases came from increases in advertising rates.

Expenditures for television network advertising in 1982 increased an estimated 12 per cent over 1981 to $6.35 billion, or 44.8 per cent of all TV advertising. Spending for national and regional spot advertising grew an estimated 13 per cent to $4.16 billion, and amounted to 29 per cent of total expenditures. Local television advertising also rose in 1982, reaching an estimated $3.6 billion, an increase of 9.6 per cent over 1982.

Revenues of the TV industry are expected to continue rising during the 1980s at a compound annual rate of 12 per cent, unadjusted for inflation. By 1987 they could reach $19.3 billion and by 1990 about $27 billion.

Competition for the TV audience from rival media continued to gain ground in 1982-83. Cable TV systems, premium pay cable services, broadcast subscription TV and pay programming distributed via microwaves by multipoint distribution services (MDS) all enrolled large numbers of new subscribers.

For details on cable TV's growth, see the special section of this book.

EASTMAN Film.
*There's nothing
to stop you...*

*but your

The Möbius strip—symbol of infinity—also symbolizes Eastman film's ability to capture your unlimited visual imagination.

THE FILM LOOK: It shows you it's better. It reveals reality. It conveys fantasy. It captures everything in between. Eastman color negative film does it—beautifully and believably. It offers the broadest range of imaging—from delicate hues, subtle contrast and controlled depth, to brilliant color, sharp contrast and bold perspectives. This is why the film look is widely preferred for original production.

PORTABILITY: Whether for moon shots, ocean shots, action shots or location shots, the motion picture camera continues to be the most portable and rugged original production equipment.

FLEXIBILITY: Film is the production medium for the future, as well as the present. Your film original can be converted faithfully to videotape for television transmission without losing image quality, because of film's unique wide latitude. The superior resolution of today's original Eastman color negative films not only satisfies all of the technical requirements of existing TV standards, it also surpasses the requirements of the proposed high-definition TV systems of tomorrow.

THE STANDARD: Film represents the standard of image excellence. And the family of Eastman color negative films represents the quality, sophisticated technology, reliability and worldwide service that will continue to help your imagination become reality.

Eastman film—the imperative, not the alternative.

STATISTICS

HISTORICAL DATES

FIRST OVER-THE-AIR TOLL-TV EXPERIMENTS: 1950, Skiatron system tested over WOR-TV in New York City. 1951, Telemeter system tested over KTLA-TV, Los Angeles; Zenith tested its system over its own experimental station in Chicago.

FEBRUARY 10, 1955: Federal Communications Commission started proceedings to determine whether it should authorize TV stations to transmit programs paid for on a subscription basis. Study involved 92 docket volumes reflecting the views of over 25,000 persons on legal, technical and policy questions.

MAY 23, 1957: FCC concluded it had authority to authorize use of TV broadcast frequencies for subscription operations if it found it were in the public interest to do so. Did not define whether this service should be classified as "broadcasting" or some other.

OCTOBER 17, 1957: FCC adopted its first report on the proceedings and declared it would consider applications to conduct trial pay-TV operations over TV stations provided certain conditions were met.

MARCH 24, 1959: FCC issued third report saying it was ready to consider any pay-TV application by a commercial TV station conforming with requirements, among which were limitation of three-year trial authorizations to markets where there were at least four commercial TV stations (including the pay-TV one), and one trial system allowed per market.

JUNE 22, 1960: Hartford Phonevision Co. (later RKO General Phonevision Co.), a licensee of WHCT (Channel 18), Hartford, CT, applied for authority to conduct a three-year trial subscription-TV operation. Application granted February 23, 1961. Operations began June 29, 1962, and concluded in January, 1969.

JULY 3, 1967: FCC's subscription TV committee submitted a fourth report proposing an over-the-air subscription TV service. Rules were designed to integrate subscription TV into the total TV system so good programming would continue to be available over regular TV stations.

DECEMBER 12, 1968: FCC formally established over-the-air subscription TV as a regular broadcast service.

Statistics for 1981 (supplied by FCC)

Operating revenues totaled over $3.5 billion, a 60 per cent increase over 1980 revenues. Total operating expenses were $2.4 billion, leaving an operating income of $1.2 billion or a 33.4 per cent operating margin before expenses of depreciation/amortization, interest and taxes.

Net income before taxes was approximately $40 million and the cable industry's total assets had a book value of $7.91 billion (up 78 per cent from 1980).

Pay cable services yielded revenues of $1.17 billion or 32.6% of total revenues. The percentage of total revenues attributable to pay cable operations increased by 6.9 per cent in 1981.

The national average monthly subscriber rate for basic service was $7.94 in 1981, ranging from an average low of $6.50 in Vermont to a high of $20.01 in Alaska. The national average cable television installation fee was $18.32, ranging from $11.45 in Rhode Island to $40.00 in the Virgin Islands. That national average monthly rate for pay cable TV was $9.56, ranging from $6.00 in the Virgin Islands to $12.93 in Alaska.

In 1981, pay cable services were offered by 2,406 financial entities comprising 9,264 communities in nearly every state. California, New York and Pennsylvania were the leading states in terms of pay cable revenues.

Approximately 12,000 communities with over 23 million subscribers (households) were served by cable television in 1981. These 12,000 communities were consolidated into 3,600 financial entities for reporting purposes. A financial entity is defined as one or more cable TV community systems which report to the Commission as one business entity—upon meeting certain ownership and technological requirements.

The average financial entity had approximately 6,500 subscribers and average operating revenues of $996,900 in 1981.

Tables on the following pages (prepared by the FCC) provide details of financial data.

These financial reports are based on filings covering 88 percent of all cable subscribers in the nation. The remaining 12 percent are subscribers to systems whose filings are incomplete, inaccurate or delinquent. National totals have been estimated for the entire industry predicated on the large number of filings in the data base. The totals appear at the end of the second table under the heading "U.S. Totals Projected to 100%".

Office for Film and Broadcasting (OFB)

Suite 1300, 1011 First Avenue, New York, NY 10022. (212) 644-1880.

DIRECTOR

Office for Film and Broadcasting (OFB): A unit of the Department of Communication of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and the United States Catholic Conference, was formed in January, 1972, through a reorganization of the former National Catholic Office for Motion Pictures and the National Catholic Office for Radio and Television.

OFB provides a national service of information, for diocesan communications offices throughout the country.

For the motion picture medium, OFB publishes the twice-monthly Film & Broadcasting Review which reviews all current nationally released 35mm films and provides information about resources for film utilization and education (16mm films, books, magazines, festivals). The critical reviews are addressed to the moral as well as artistic dimensions of motion pictures and are the result of a consensus based on the reactions of OFB's professional staff and board of consultants. All films reviewed are also classified according to the OFB rating system. Film classifications appear every month as part of the Review. In addition, the publication carries information and evaluative studies on trends and issues pertinent to television, with an emphasis on educational material.

The division maintains a 16mm film library of Catholic program material and a consultation service for educational and religious film program directors.

For the broadcast media, OFB is responsible for cooperating with the three major networks (ABC, CBS and NBC) in the production of all regularly scheduled network radio and television programs involving Catholic participation: (See Radio and Television).

For the Catholic press, OFB publishes a weekly film/broadcast service consisting of reviews, information, articles and photos. Special projects are undertaken with individual publications, religious and general.

OFB also plays a liaison role for the NCCB/USCC with the film and broadcasting industries, national media, and religious agencies and organizations. It is a member of OCIC and UNDA, the international Catholic organizations for film and broadcasting, respectively. Consultations and information services are also provided for the Pontifical Commission for Social Communications and the communications offices of national episcopal conferences throughout the world.

British Year in Review

BRITAIN'S television industry is heading for a period of growth and change. Already, a Fourth Commercial Channel and a breakfast-time service have been successfully established. Next, cable television will be introduced to permit PAY-TV on a network of 30 local stations throughout the U.K.

This has all inevitably led to fears that the present lucrative business of "free" commercial television, and the BBC (British Broadcasting Corporation) high programme standards, will suffer. Feature films are expected to dominate British cable television. So much so that already pressure groups are pressing for tough foreign quotas.

The IBA (Independent Broadcasting Authority) has gone on record with the statement: "Unlimited foreign material would be a grievous blow. 'Dumping' in broadcasting is easier than in other industries and therefore more of a danger. Opportunities for British production generally would be diminished by falling commercial television revenue affecting the companies themselves and also Channel 4's ability to commission programmes. This would jeopardise employment and a profitable export business.

The BBC echoes these sentiments with "The new technologies must be the servant and not the master of programmes. Nor must they be allowed to deprive our existing viewers of services to which they are already accustomed. The new technologies must bring about a genuine expansion of choice rather than a limitation of existing services in the name of plurality."

But all this is in the future. At this reporting, on a typical day, over 80 per cent of the population in the U.K., on average, watch some television. Over a week, this rises to over 90 per cent. An average audience is around 16 million. Also, nearly 50 per cent of homes now have a second television set.

Moreover, as the accompanying tables show, overseas transactions continue to stand up well. Television companies' overseas receipts less overseas expenditures were £2 million in 1982. Most overseas receipts come from the performances of films, etc., of television companies on overseas television or in overseas cinemas. The most important market is North America and while receipts from this area were unchanged in 1982 receipts from all other areas were halved so that total overseas receipts in 1982 were £33 million compared with £57 million in the previous year.

Overseas expenditure by television companies fell by £6 million to £31 million in 1982. Half of this fall was in payments to EEC residents for production expenditure overseas. Expenditure on foreign-owned films etc., for showing on television in the U.K. was little changed at around £22 million.

BBC Enterprises—the Corporation's overseas selling organisation—achieved gross sales of £23 million, improving on the level set in the previous year's trading. Television sales accounted for nearly 70 per cent of the gross revenue, but BBC Records and Tapes had another outstanding year. "The Royal Wedding" generated worldwide interest and no fewer than 45 countries bought a profile of Prince Charles. Three more countries undertook to purchase the BBC Television Shakespeare, bringing the total to 38 countries.

Sales of American programmes to British television are governed, to some extent, by the limitation by government decree, of foreign material. There is also the British cinema exhibition industry's embargo restricting the televising of any theatrical films to three-year-old productions.

Nevertheless, American films and series—despite the rapidly expanding home video market—continue to be the biggest draws with British viewers. With the likelihood of satellite television being launched in the foreseeable future and a stagnant cinema exhibition business, an unprecedented market is being developed for television producers and distributors. Only a disregard of the vital need for quality programmes is likely to halt the growth of this lucrative business.

INDEPENDENT BROADCASTING AUTHORITY

70 Brompton Road, London, SW3 1EY. Tel.: 01-584 7011.

The Authority was created by Parliament in 1954 as the Independent Television Authority, to provide a comprehensive television service additional to that of the BBC. Under the terms of the Sound Broadcasting Act, 1972, the Authority was renamed the Independent Broadcasting Authority and its functions were extended to cover the provision of Independent Local Radio.

The Broadcasting Act 1980 provided for the setting up of the Channel Four Television Company as a subsidiary of the IBA; it started broadcasting in England, Scotland and Northern Ireland on November 9, 1982. A separate Welsh Fourth Channel Authority was also established by this Act; broadcasting on November 1, 1982. The Broadcasting Act 1981 has consolidated a number of Acts relating to the IBA.

The Authority selects and appoints the ITV & ILR programme companies; supervises the programmes provided by the contractors—and the Channel Four Television Company—and their scheduling; controls advertising, and builds, owns and operates transmitting stations. Fifteen ITV programme companies provide programmes in 14 regions of the United Kingdom (two companies operate in London). As a part of its review of the ITV system, the Authority, in December 1980, offered a contract to broadcast a new national breakfast-time television service, which started in February 1983, to TV-AM. In addition, changes were made to some ITV companies.

By July 1983, 40 Independent Local Radio stations were providing a programme service in areas of the United Kingdom (two companies operating in London). A further 29 areas will be covered by Independent Local Radio during the 1980s.

Both ITV and ILR are financed mainly by the sale of advertising time.

The Members of the Authority are appointed by the Home Secretary and consist of a Chairman and Deputy Chairman and ten other members, of whom three make the interests of Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, respectively, their special care.

ARGENTINA

Television has not eluded during 1983 the chaotic economic, financial and political situation which Argentina has undergone in recent years, and the government has been unable to fulfill the terms provided in the Law N. 22285, which provides the privatization of TV channels. TV has also reflected the problems of the transition from a military government to a civil one.

In spite of all its hardships, this government has announced that it has decided to proceed with its aims, but it is doubtful, due to the short time left before the presidential elections, that it can continue with its plans. Most probably a number of appeals will be made before the courts in order that they should declare unconstitutional the Art. 45 of the aforementioned law which bans newspaper owners from buying TV channels.

Also, the political parties, especially the two majority ones, will probably change the decisions adopted by the military government. One of these political parties has already made proposals for the role of TV in its educational and cultural plans. Talks are also mentioned about a mixed system, coexisting in same, private enterprisers and the State, who will withhold channels which will not pursue financial interests.

Actually two channels are administered by civil interventors, placed this year, after seven years of military intervention.

The channels are going through serious financial difficulties, especially Channel 9, which has asked the government to ease its problems. The State has refused help in most cases, due to the fact that it has had to provide important sums to help the refugees of flooded zones.

In spite of the many difficulties, TV by cable has been extended in Argentina and there are two channels functioning. One of them—Videl Cable Comunicación, S.A.—has cables already in a residential district in the city of Buenos Aires, and very soon will reach 3000 clients. The State is also studying the possibility of auctioning during this year five UHF channels. The subscribers to this system have the possibility with the payment of a monthly charge, to view three additional channels to the existing ones: one with news, one with variety shows, and one with films.

Due to the financial crisis the payment of royalties for the sale of film material can only be paid through the subscription of external certificates (Bonex), which represents 80% of the value of the sales.

Argentina has 40 open channels and about 30 closed circuits in the interior. The existing amount of sets is estimated to surpass 7 million, which covers 95% of the country.

BRAZIL

Brazil now has some 20,000,000 sets using PAL. The audience is estimated at about 80,000,000.

Brazilian law requires that all owners of radio or TV stations be of Brazilian nationality. A further law stipulates that all foreign films shown on TV be dubbed, and that no station may transmit more than 22 half hours of foreign films for each 72 hours of weekly transmission time. Stations which transmit less than 12 hours per day have a corresponding lower quota. Seven sound studios, four in Rio de Janeiro and three in Sao Paulo take care of the dubbing of all American and some Italian, Argentine and Mexican films that come into the country.

CHINA (Communist)

Peking TV, opened in 1969, consists of three stations, one purely local and the other two broadcasting by micro-wave to the rest of the country. Color broadcasts began in 1973. Shanghai, China's largest city, has two channels on the air for about 9 hours daily with some 50% of the programs listed as entertainment, 20% movies, news or documentaries, and 20% sports or children's programs, in addition to educational and foreign language-instruction programs. Chinese officials blame the Cultural Revolution for the slow growth of TV and say that after the Gang of Four was ousted in the following decade TV stations were opened in all 29 of China's provinces and private set ownership rose from 3,000 to over 16 million. Initial imports of the American "Man from Atlantis" and "Garrison's Gorillas" were big hits on TV with some 6 million viewers, almost as many as there were for later coverage of sports from abroad. In fact, the response was so great that they felt such a demand might be impossible to meet. Then came editorials about the use of violence in imported TV fare and whether or not such imports should be shown in theatres which would bring in needed revenue. As this is written no decision has been reached to cut TV imports.

A poll indicates 92% of Peking's residents watch TV regularly while in a nearby suburban area with only 6.7 sets per 100 households, 87% of residents watch TV. CBS sold Central TV 64 hours of sports and news which were broadcast on 2 channels to one-third the population at total estimated at 264 million viewers. CTV broadcasts 30 hours weekly, programming news, instruction, cartoons, variety and drama. Audience estimated at 800 million.

China now manufactures some 4.3 million sets annually and it is estimated that the number of sets will soon reach 11 million, including sets open to the public audience. Total number of nation-wide stations (including micro-wave relay stations) is over 40. Black-and-white sets sell for the equivalent of $370 and color sets for about $1,335 and there is a waiting list for the former. Domestic and imported films are broadcast from time to time, including American feature films occasionally.

Central Broadcasting Administration, Hsin Men, Peking, now offers nation-wide TV commercials at rates ranging from about $625 for a 15-second spot to a full minute for $1,800.

CHINA (Taiwan)

Television began in 1962 by the Educational Television Station which later became the private China Television Service in 1971. There are now three networks: Taiwan Television Enterprise (1962), China Television Company (1969) and China Television Service. All three act as private corporations deriving revenues from commercials. These three stations have 24 transmitters with total broadcasts of about 265 hours weekly for some 5.1 million set owners who pay about $1.50 annually for a license. About 80% of the programs are domestic, with most of the imports from the U.S.A. Over one-third of the sets are color. Taiwan has two communication satellite stations. A new rule states that commercials must not exceed 15% total broadcast time. Movie theatre owners complain that the three imported feature films shown weekly on television hurt their box office.

All three networks broadcast in color, TTV and CTV 6 hours 25 minutes weekdays and 12 hours weekends and holidays while CTS broadcasts 10.15 hours weekdays, 15 hours on Saturday and 17 hours Sunday or holidays. News takes an average of 21%, public service over 10%, culture and education 20%, entertainment 48%. TTV has 10 transmitters, CTV 6, and CTS 8, plus an equal number of relay stations.

New rules call for no commercials during programs of less than 30 minutes and all commercials to secure government approval. In the future, 80% of all programs must originate in Taiwan with entertainment programs taking up no more than 55% of broadcast time and 45% or more devoted to educational, cultural or news types.

With relay stations it is estimated that 100% of the island's population of 18 million receives TV reception. About 20% of programs are imports, mostly from America, and these are broadcast in the original English with Chinese captions, which has served to develop knowledge of the English language among the populace.

TV showings of full-length Chinese-language feature films imported from Hong Kong were stopped following retaliatory action by local cinema interests but the government may step in later and permit such showings, except on Sundays and holidays when the theatres reap their largest harvest. Inquiries should be addressed: Ministry of Communications, Taipei, Taiwan, Republic of China, or to: China Radio/TV Assoc., 6-144 Hsin Shen (South) Rd., Section 1, Taipei, Taiwan, Republic of China.

CONGO

The Central station in Cairo transmits about 150 hours a week through two channels covering most of the Egypt areas including Asswan and Luxor.

Egyptian TV follows the European technical transmission with an image of 825 sets.

The TV receivers in use number around 7 million. The Arabic Department shoots a movie news review weekly and it is sent to 35 stations all over the world with which Arab TV exchange cultural and documentary materials.

ETHIOPIA

Ethiopia Television, Post Office Box 544, Addis Ababa. Two stations, 45,000 sets.

FINLAND

Finland has a two-channel television system that differs considerably from the other countries. There is at present in Finland one radio and television operation licence which has been granted to the Finnish Broadcasting Company, Oy Yleisradio Ab. The existence of MTV, Oy Mainov-TV-Reklam Ab, which is a private commercial TV company, is acknowledged in the same licence.

The basis for official relations between the companies were laid down in more detail in the basic agreement concluded in 1976. Television broadcasting in Finland is under parliamentary control. The Administrative Council of the Finnish Broadcasting Company appointed by Parliament is the highest organ exercising programme policy. It has two functions. The Administrative Council exercises programme policy control over both companies. In addition, as its name implies, it is the highest administrative organ in the Finnish Broadcasting Company.

MTV has its own corresponding administrative council.

As a bilingual country Finland also has programmes in Swedish on both tv-channels.

Some 19 hours per week—out of the total of 75—are sold by Oy Yleisradio Ab to MTV. At the end of 1981 a one-year price agreement was signed, according to which MTV's levy to the Finnish Broadcasting Company is at least 191.2 million marks in 1982. MTV produces nearly 43% of its programmes.

Numbers of color sets is today about 0.9 million (57% of all sets).

GREECE

TV is nationwide and the most popular and cheap entertainment of the Greek public, harming all other kinds of recreation movies.

There are two TV Stations in Athens, the first operated by the National Radio and Television Organization, the "ERT I" and the "ERT II". Both stations are operating in color. TV, like sound broadcasting, is controlled by the state and responsibility for both services is invested in both the above state units.

The "ERT I" Station operates seven channels with 25 relay stations and some more towers and translators. The "ERT II" Station operates six channels and has an equal number of relay stations and towers.

Both stations cast on the air eight hours of programs on weekdays and twelve or less on Sundays and holidays, which are mostly videotaped. Some 60% of this programming is covered by news, educational subjects, discussion panels, local movies and serials and the rest is foreign films.

The "ERT I" Station is a full member of the E.B.W. and transmits all important events of international interest via satellite.

It is estimated that 650,000 color TV sets were sold in this country and the number of B/W sets had reached at two million in a population of 9,000,000 people.

HOLLAND

The number of TV sets was 4,350,121 in 1982 (end of 1981 4,294,453), another increase. The total Dutch population is almost 14,300,000. Practically every Dutch family has a TV set now; two sets per family is no longer an exception.

Competition of TV with motion picture theatres is strong, and the warm 1983 summer in particular inflicted a serious blow to the cinemas. In general TV competition is strongest in winter. Younger people usually don't stay home on Friday and Saturday nights.

German and Belgian TV can be received well by the Dutch border provinces in particular, but also where a central antenna system exists. The market for black and white sets seems saturated. A color TV of 66 cm cost about fl. 2,500 (one dollar is fl. 3.00 now). Various shows sell at lower prices than the "official" ones. There has not been an important raise of prices of TV sets during the last few years.

There are two channels, with commercials under the name of Ster-televisie. Commercials are shown every night on both channels, except on Sundays. A program is never interrupted by a commercial.

The Nederlandse Omroep Stichting (N.O.S.) is the central governmental radio and TV organization, but there are eight main subdivision stations: a Roman-Catholic one (KRO), two political ones (left): VARA and VPRO, two protestant sections, NCRV and EO, and three neutral sections, AVRO, TROP and VOO (with a big number of popular youth programs, pop and country music in particular. This section growing continuously). AVRO has the biggest number of members, closely followed by TROS. There are also some minor TV organizations.

Although NOS has an important part of the playing time, the eight stations are completely independent, as far as their activities are concerned. Of the educational and religious stations TELFAC (series of lessons in foreign languages, popular subjects, mathematics courses, etc.) and IKON (religious) are the most important ones.

The approximate cost of a black and white TV set, antenna included, is unchanged, from 250 (a small one) to 1,000 guilders. A yearly contribution of about fl. 150 is due by the owner of a set, to be paid to the government. This is the fee for a radio set included.

As an average feature films are programmed two nights per week, and, in summer, now and then, also on afternoons (all ages films). On Wednesday nights only if there is no football game. The film industry organization (Nederlandse Bioscoopbond) has an agreement with the TV authorities that pictures can only be shown on TV 40 months or more after the first release date in motion picture theatres; exceptions are possible. Although showings of motion pictures on TV on weekends are not included in that agreement, the attitude of the Bioscoopbond has become more flexible. The countries of origin of pictures on TV differ, but American and English films are shown mainly, also TV series from these countries (Dallas and Dynasty are very popular), and German ones. Quality of programs is good. Also many comments on the political news.

Radio and TV, as motion pictures, fall under the Ministry of Welfare, Social Health and Culture (WSC), the new name of the former CRM. Due to the high standard of living many people can afford to buy a TV set by cash. Buying by installment has never been so popular here, though that system makes more clients gradually, mainly due to the still decreasing economical situation. The Dutch stations are in Hilversum, as broadcasting is. Philips is the most important manufacturer of TV sets. Big import from Germany and Japan. Nederlandse Omroep Stichting (NOS): 53, Emmastraat, P.O. Box 10, 1200 JB Hilversum, Holland.

About six years ago the Nederlandse Bioscoopbond started a lawsuit against a local cable TV company in Amstelveen trying to obtain a sentence from a judge (in court) about the author rights of a producer of a motion picture shown on cable TV; the legal uncertainty is criticized by the Federation. Though a final successful result has been reached by the Bioscoopbond, some conflicts with an Amsterdam cable TV company have not yet been settled definitely. The main American companies had (have) similar processes against cable TV firms. The big problem, piracy of motion pictures, is still very actual.

A special cell has been set up in the ministry which will implement the plan. The plan seeks to set up 112 low power (100 watts) and 13 high power transmitters in different parts of the country. Added to this would be transmitters provided in the sixth five-year plan. At the end of 1984, the country would have 132 low power and 47 high power transmitters. The transmitters will cover more the rural sector than urban. Of the 70 per cent coverage, 50 per cent would go to rural and 20 per cent to urban areas. ## IRELAND

Telefis Eireann is the official name of the television service in Ireland.

Television, like sound broadcasting, is run as an independent State Statutory body and responsibility for both services is vested in Radio Eireann, the Broadcasting Authority. This Authority, appointed by the Government, consists of nine members serving on a part-time basis under a chairman selected by the Government. The present chairman is T. Andrews.

The Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, who is responsible for the autonomously operated Authority, reserves to himself the duties of fixing and collecting license fees from domestic viewers, licenses transmitting stations, and has a veto on the appointment and conditions of the Authority's top executive. The Director-General, Kevin McCourt, is employed full-time.

The Television service began in 1962. It has five main high power transmitters and thirteen satellite "transposers," serving areas outside the range of the main transmitters. Its national coverage is estimated at 98 per cent of the population. The national technical standard is a 625 line one, but programs are also broadcast on a 405 line in the Eastern and Northwestern parts of the country.

The Authority, which has the responsibility of providing programs of suitable cultural and national content, transmits 44 hours per week, with occasional additional programs. In addition, educational programs for schools, two and a half hours per week, are broadcast for 33 weeks of the year on behalf of the Department of Education.

Of the 44 hours of weekly programs, 22 are of home origin. The balance are imported mainly from Great Britain and America.

There are about 350,000 receiving sets in operation, of which about 200,000 are able to receive programs from Great Britain's BBC-TV and Independent TV stations as well as Radio Telefis Eireann.

The national annual license fee is five pounds, of which three pounds fifteen shillings is allocated to the television service, and the balance to the sound radio service. Radio Telefis Eireann also earns considerable revenue from the sale of spot advertising to commercial interests. Revenue from all sources in the past year was 2,868,000 pounds. Expenditure was 2,375,000 pounds.

JAPAN

Non-commercial TV broadcasting began in Tokyo Feb. 1, 1953, by the quasi-governmental Nippon Hoso Kyuokai (NHK) followed seven months later by the first commercial TV broadcast of Nippon Television Network (NTV). Broadcast time for NHK, which began with only 866 set-owners paying a fee of Yen 200 monthly, was 4 hours a day compared to six hours by NTV, which was affiliated with the Yomiuri newspapers. By 1960 NHK possessed 60 stations and there were 47 commercial stations broadcasting, while the number of sets had increased to about 7 million, topping the 10 million mark two years later.

Although commercial networks as they are established in the U.S. are legally forbidden, there came about a nationwide grouping of commercial stations with the Tokyo stations acting as pivotal points and providing tieups and programs. Thus in 1959, 16 commercial stations formed Japan News Network which soon spread to other programming areas, with JOKR in Tokyo, followed by three other such groupings centering on NTV, Nippon Educational Television (re-named Asahi National Broadcasting in 1977), and the Fuji TV key stations in Tokyo. It was then apparent that several newspapers with national sales systems, through capital tieups, were virtually in control of the national commercial networks.

Educational broadcasts were begun by NHK in 1959, followed three weeks later by Nippon Educational Television, which later dropped the "educational" pretense and became a regular broadcaster, just as TV Tokyo (JOTX) did later, when it was found impossible to operate a private educational TV station in Japan for financial reasons.

Taking the Tokyo Metropolitan area, which comprises almost 30% of Japan's population of 116 million, we find it served by Channel 1 NHK general network station, Channel 3 NHK educational network station, Channels 4, 6, 8 and 10 operated by NTV, TBS, Fuji, TV Asahi commercial network stations respectively, plus semi-independent TV Tokyo (JOTX) on channel 12 and TVK (UHF) 42 in Yokohama.

NHK's general programming lists 8 regional stations throughout the nation, 45 local stations and numerous relay stations in the VHF range to bring general programming to 3,419 outlets (2851 UHF outlets). NHK educational facilities comprise 8 regional stations, 37 local stations, 2,207 relay stations for a total of 3,343 outlets of which 2,778 are UHF, including use of mini-satellite relays. It must be emphasized that in most cases (but not all) the general and educational services make use of the same facilities.

There are 39 companies operating both radio and TV stations and 63 operating only TV stations. In the VHF sector some 48 companies operate 486 stations, in UHF 51 companies operate 4,998 stations, plus 9 SHF stations, a total of 5,493.

These four "networks" operate in the seven key areas of Japan—Tokyo, Osaka, Nagoya, Fukuoka, Sapporo, Hiroshima and Sendai—which are 4 commercial-station areas (plus NHK). Other stations located in less populous areas use a cross network arrangement by which programs from plural key stations are received. There is Asahi National Broadcasting with 18 stations, Fuji Telecasting with 27, Tokyo Broadcasting System with 25, and Nippon Television with 29 stations. In addition several independent stations have ties and non-commercial NHK covers 30 million of Japan's 37 million households.

Community TV in Japan is still in its infancy with some 20 stations covering 10% of the nation while cable television is confined to few hotels or apartment houses in the largest cities.

While NHK collects monthly fees from over 30 million registered sets, the Home Ministry estimates the total number is 62,415,000 (including households with more than one) of which 9,423,000 are black & white and 52,992,000 color sets. Some 98% of registered households possess one or more color sets for which they are assessed a flat $3.90 a month versus $2.30 for black-and-white sets. It is estimated that over 92% of all households are equipped with TV. Thus, it is no surprise that NHK is by far the wealthiest broadcasting corporation in the world with 16,560 employees and a 23-story broadcasting center in Tokyo. Revenues run about $1,035 billion annually and latest figures show a deficit for the year.

Monetarily speaking with 34.5% of the national advertising budget, TV is the leading advertising medium with designated prime time from 7:00 to 11:00 PM and ad spot buying rates determined on the gross rating point through, with a seller's market, card rates are often disregarded. Top rate for a 60-second network spot is $35,000 and a 54-minute program for a month about $1 million; generally contracts are for 6 months but recently 3-month contracts became available, there being waiting lists for sponsors. Sporting events, especially baseball, in non-prime time bring top prices due to good results. Though rules call for not more than 18% of broadcast time be devoted to commercials, this rule is only loosely followed. In addition some stations persist in intensifying audio volume for favored commercials.

Although an agreement was once reached to restrict broadcasting hours to 16.5 daily to conserve energy, many commercial station are broadcasting past the midnight deadline although NHK sings off by midnight. While TV is undoubtedly the most influential medium for both young and old, various polls disagree when attempts are made to determine the average daily time a Japanese watches the tube. One reports this as 2 hours and 15 minutes daily for the French, and the American time period as 4 hours and 25 minutes; the Japanese national average is given as 3 hours 17 minutes on weekdays and 4 hours 5 minutes on Sundays and holidays. A study of Tokyo households, an area where 15% of the national TV audiences lives, indicates housewives in their 20s average 5 hours 18 minutes daily while women in their 70s spend 7 hours a day. Their favorite shows have veered from soap operas to various kinds of emceed shows orientated to the female audience. The menfolk prefer sports shows, including baseball, sumo wrestling, golf, and recently American-style football, though old-time samurai dramas are still popular with both sexes. The younger audience spends much time watching cartoons before graduating to teen-age singing shows, contests or quizzes. Nielsen, however, gives the average Tokyo family viewing time as 8 hours 12 minutes daily, taking into consideration the viewing by each household member. Additionally, an NHK poll indicated 38% of viewers claimed to be spending less time in front of their sets while 77% of those polled claimed they were more selective in their choices.

In the previous year 748 full length feature films made abroad and 309 Japanese films were shown on TV. Of these, 612 were made in U.S.A., 87 in Italy, 43 Britain, France 41, Spain 14 and Hong Kong 12—probably one of the largest collections of grade B films ever shown nationwide anywhere. These are dubbed into Japanese but in selected cases may be heard in their original language by use of a multi-plex system receiving foreign dialogue on wavelengths between channels. Some TV features, including the moderately popular "Winds of War," were shown in Japan, including the long-lived "This Is Your World" (part of "60 Minutes"), "CHiPs," "Cannon," "Rawhide," "The Professionals," "Ben Casey," "Charlie's Angels," "Galloping Gourmet," "Bionic Woman" and "The FBI," are shown afternoons or late at night but none have appealed greatly to the Japanese audience since "Columbo" was a hit nationwide. An attempted revival of the failed "Dallas" brought only a 1.8% share of the audience. None since "Columbo" have even come close to the Top Ten.

Financially, commercial TV was a success, racking up $3.8 billion in ad revenues, up 7.9% over the previous year (which itself gained 6.4%). Advertising for household appliances and supplies, automobiles, department stores, cosmetics and detergents gained while pharmaceuticals, and entertainment industries waned, but the largest TV advertiser was the food-beverage industry. Spot commercials more than proved their worth.

Interest in CATV has reached a new peak with a number of large corporations outside the TV industry announcing plans to bring cable TV to various cities. Already 354 stations have been licensed. 17,801 registered and there are 12,833 applications for small community coverage. Originally CATV was considered only for dwellings with poor reception in remote areas or where high buildings interfere with reception or where established stations are unable to reach communities of under 20,000 subscribers. However, owing to the success of cable TV in the U.S.A., several corporations have expressed plans to undertake development of extensive cable TV.

In addition, since the launching of a Japanese communications satellite, NHK and private interests plan to make heavy investments to improve reception by their use for better local reception and overseas offerings. Whether actual pay TV, as operated in America, will be as great a success in Japan is still unknown but it would seem feasible in a country bound so closely to the medium. A joint poll by Nielsen and NHK asked people which they would keep, at the sacrifice of the others, naming TV, newspaper, phone, car or refrigerator. The Japanese polled answered in 37% of the instances that they would keep the TV set, compared to 3% of Americans.

Recently NHK and 4 commercial networks signed a joint contract with Comsat for broadcasting events from America at an annual fee of $853,200 for a 2-year period. A similar contract will be negotiated with Europe.

A survey indicates imported feature films shown on TV cost more than domestic movies but are shown more often so tend to dominate the medium, so it must be assumed their frequency on TV reflects a response to demand, even taking into consideration the reluctance of Japanese movie studios to contribute to the prosperity of what they consider a dangerous competitor to their own industry.

The NHK general network broadcasting hours average 17.28 hours daily with 32.7% of programs news or commentaries, 16.4% educational, 25.6% cultural and 25.3% entertainment. NHK educational network averages 18 hours daily with 15 news, 30% educational and 19% cultural subjects.

Average daily broadcast time for commercial stations averaged 19 hr. 21 min. since late-night broadcasting is not encouraged to conserve energy. Of this broadcasting average over 16 hours consisted of sponsored programs and 3 hr. of sustaining programs. Although broadcasters claimed that advertising commercials (including a daily average of 241 spot announcements) took only 10% of total broadcast time of each station on the average, anyone with a stop watch knows that this is not true and over 60% of Japanese polled indicated an opinion that there were far too many commercials, while 50% objected to the ads shown in conjunction with kiddies' programs and thought such programs should carry no ads.

Commercial stations claimed that 46% of daily broadcasting time was devoted to entertainment, 24% to cultural subjects, 12.9% to news and 3.1% to sports. Sponsors of a 30-minute prime time show pay about $6,500 on a Tokyo station with other spots going for $2,700 per sponsor.

Production cost for a one-hour program is only $60,000, about one-fifth of the cost in the U.S. Payments for authoring a 30-minute script is $200 at NHK and as low as $100 at commercial stations. However, writers with a national reputation get much more.

A study of 107 commercial TV stations reveals that although the UHF outlets located in the periphery of the large cities are doing only moderately well as regards operating profits, the older-established VHF stations, particularly those affiliated with networks and in Tokyo or Osaka, enjoyed a fair year.

Japan exports very few TV programs of its own but it is the world's largest exporter of TV sets and in addition sells TV equipment, complete broadcasting studios and nationwide setups abroad.

While a critic would rate Japanese TV in general as somewhat below the not very high American standard, and take umbrage at the great percentage of time taken by commercials on all stations except those of NHK, the average Japanese is satisfied with it. Lately, the government has taken steps to prevent further intensification by stations of audio volume for commercials and limited them to 18% of total program time. In the past year 497 Japanese feature films and 822 imported features have been televised.

Full length feature films usually have the highest average viewing rate (14.2%), followed by a growing number of quiz games (13.6%), sports programs 14.5%, samurai dramas 13%, specials 13%, action dramas 12.8%, children's shows 12.8%, cartoons 12.1%, variety shows 11.9%, musical shows 11%, news 10.6%, imported TV shows 8.9%, educational shows 8.8%, in the Tokyo area.

Addresses of the commercial networks can be found in the World TV Broadcasters list in this volume and additional information can be obtained from National Association of Commercial Broadcasters in Japan, Bungei Shunjusha Building, 3 Kioi-cho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, All Japan TV Production Companies Assoc., Akasaka White House, 4-1-6 Akasaka, Minato-ku, Tokyo 107, or from Advertising Association of Broadcasters in Japan, 8-10 Nishi Ginza, Tokyo. ## PUERTO RICO

Television started in 1954, and there are about 700,000 sets in Puerto Rico. Most of the public places such as restaurants, clubs, have television sets for their patrons and the medium is available in local hotels upon request.

Even though most Puerto Ricans know English, and the number of persons who will acquire a working knowledge of English will increase considerably through intensification of English instruction in public schools and the migration of Puerto Rican families to the United States, and workers who come back from the States with more knowledge of English, television programming is in English and Spanish. WKAQ-TV, owned and operated by the newspaper El Mundo, on channel 4, has 30 per cent programs in English of which 10 per cent have Spanish sub-titles. There are 10 private stations in all.

Kinescope versions of top North American television shows are represented on both stations.

Cable television is on the rise here. The largest operator is Cable TV of Puerto Rico, which by the end of 1982 had 66,000 subscribers. It is owned by Harris Cable of Los Angeles, which bought the San Juan franchise in 1976, starting with some 8,000 customers.

Cable programming is also being expanded. At first the cable company offered only HBO and Virgin Islands stations. Receiving stations were built to bring in programs by satellite and by 1980 programs were being funneled from the states. Puerto Ricans now have a choice of 21 cable channels.

Cable TV charges its subscribers $11 a month for a basic package of 12 channels. HBO and Galavison cost $9.95 each additionally. Cable currently reaches greater San Juan, Bayamon, Carolina, Trujillo Alto and Guaynabo, which have an estimated 300,000 homes.

SOUTH KOREA

Commercial TV broadcasting began in 1956, but the station burned three years later and it was not until 1961 when the government established the Korea Broadcasting Service (KBS-TV) network. The commercial network of Tongyang Broadcasting Co. (TBC) began in 1964 and was followed by the commercial Munwha Broadcasting Co. (MBC) in 1969. The American Forces Korea Network (AFKN-TV) was also established to serve American troops, and now comprises 6 stations.

KBS-TV has its key station in Seoul and 21 local stations and there are 5 other local stations, making a total of 26 TV stations, including those operated by MBC and the former TBC. Color broadcasting started in 1980. Almost 10 million sets are in operation, covering almost every household. If armed forces of USA are counted, the total stations number 32.

Korean broadcasts are limited to 6.5 hours of evening time and 4 hours mornings on weekdays, 11 hours on Saturday and 17 on Sunday. Monthly fees of about $1.00 are collected and advertisements accepted.

In 1981 the Republic of Korea "consolidated" all news media and took over the private stations, so daily listings read: KBS-1 TV (7 cities), KBS-2 TV (2), KBS-3 TV-UHF (6), MBC-TV (6). Korean Broadcasting Advertisement Corporation handles all TV and radio advertising.

SIERRA LEONE

Sierra Leone TV Service, New England, Private Mail Bag, Freetown. One station, 29,000 sets.

SPAIN

The first time Televisión Española—(now Radio-Televisión Española, RTVE)—transmitted on a regular basis was October 29, 1956, on a scan system of 625 lines at 25 frames per second. That program lasted three hours with a range of 70 kilometres, broadcasting for about 400 sets. The First Channel (VHF) was followed by a Second Channel (UHF) in 1967, complementary at first, but then sort of competitive and with a clearer trend towards "culture." Channel 1 covers now all of Spain, including the Balearic and Canary Islands. Channel 2 is reaching 80 per cent of national territory. According to the Director of Television, Channel 2 has a ceiling of 85 per cent of territory, since the investment costs double when the 70 per cent level of covering is reached.

RTVE is now an autonomous agency under the Ministry of Culture, Paseo de la Castellana 109, Madrid 16. All programs are controlled by a Censorship Board. Drama, films and episodes of series are classified according to ratings: "general" (no sign on the screen), "older than 14" (a small lozenge), "older than 18" (two small lozenges).

The official number of sets was 9,970,000 at the beginning of 1983. There are no official figures for color sets (German PAL system), but the Director of International Technical Relations told this correspondent the color sets are gradually substituting old black-and-white one which no factories produce now, except for small, portable battery sets.

In 1984 the production of programs will be entirely financed by advertising and tie-in merchandising if the government withdraws the annual subsidy of 7,000 million pesetas, as it did for 1983. The 1984 RTVE budget will be 59,412 million pesetas. Televisión Española will gross 49,353 million for ads, plus 850 million for sales of its own production and other activities. Both channels carry ad spots. Due to nocturnal habits of Spaniards, the costliest time comes around 10:30 p.m. In 1982 the audience peak was 21,663,000 for both channels on Tuesdays: the American "Dallas" series on Channel 1 won over 74.3 per cent of the audience. The ad spots appear on the screen at regular half-hour or one hour intervals till 7 p.m. Later the spots' rhythm accelerates, mainly during feature films in spite of audience and film directors protests. TVE-1 has a penetration of 95 per cent with a maximum of 57 minutes allowed per day. TVE-2 has a 65 per cent penetration and a ceiling of 42 minutes daily.

RTVE built in Madrid a 210 meter high tower ("Torre España") to broadcast the World Soccer Championship, which took place during 29 days of June and July of 1982 in 17 Spanish stadiums. This "Towerspain" is now one of the landmarks of the capital of Spain.

Staff and Studios: Triumph of Spanish Workers Socialist Party (PSOE) in the General Election of October 1982 brought drastic changes to the TV executive level. Director General of the Autonomous Agency RTVE (officially called "Ente", Italian style) is José María Calvino, target of constant attack from the ousted center-right party. Director of TVE is Antonio López.

PSOE controls the TVE Council, a multi-partisan body which applies the 1981 Statute of Television. Home rule in the Basque provinces opened the door to the first regional independent TV (Euskal Telebista). The Andalusian government asked also for a Third Channel covering the South of Spain.

TVE has ten news broadcasting stations in provinces. The Canary Islands set up their own programming. National Headquarters are at Prado del Rey, Madrid 24, with general offices and nine studios with total area of 3,000 square meters. Additional studios are in Barcelona.

Fixed, salaried personnel is about 2,300, with other estimated 5,000 contributing freelancers. An important group of steady contributors got permanent status by sentence of the Supreme Labor Court.

Programming Schedule and Contents: Channel 1 broadcasts 76 h 45' weekly, with accent on week-ends. Same happens with Channel 2, which broadcasts 46 h 45' weekly. Total of weekly broadcasting time: 123 h 30'. Special programs such as prize boxing bouts, sports championships, bullfights, royal and political messages, etc., move or remove normal programming.

Many broadcasting hours consist in filmed foreign production, with plenty of repeats in daytime during the 1982-83 winter and spring seasons, for lack of foresight by the new heads of TVE. Anyhow, since 1981 TVE is coproducing miniseries with Spanish film companies, and even with foreign companies, like the Spanish-French "Guerilla," a series about the Peninsular War against Napoleon.

Price range for half hour of screening time is $1,500-$2,000. One-hour series generally brings twice the half-hour price. Price range for feature films is $7,800-$17,000, dubbed into Spanish at Madrid studios. Only "Film Society" screenings (Channel 2) accept foreign prints with Spanish subtitles.

Foreign Markets: If TVE foreign sales in 1981 grossed about $2 million, the estimate for 1984 is $3,860,000. The whole TVE sales team goes in force to world markets like MIP-TV. But the main problem in Spain is the proliferation of video-recorders and the underground market of hothead cassettes, in spite of frequent raids by police and Justice officers. Cable TV is not even mentioned here, and for the time being the Socialist government has ruled out private TV networks.

SRI LANKA (Ceylon)

The introduction of television marks a milestone in the history of media in Sri Lanka. It has not only helped to bridge a gap in communication, but ushered in a new era in social communication in the country. TV sets have become an essential feature in the home of the people throughout the country.

Today there are more than 250,000 sets in operation in city, urban and rural homes reaching an estimated audience of over two million. Television has brought the world to the village.

The Educational Television service of the Sri Lanka Rupavahini (National TV Network) commenced its regular telecast from May 16, 1983. These telecasts, for which preparations were made over two years, concentrated on 450 pilot schools with General Certificate of Education Advanced Level classes in science and mathematics. All these schools have been given at least one TV receiver. Additionally 50 schools were given video cassette recorders as well, so that programmes could be recorded and used when convenient. These educational programmes were drawn up by the Curriculum Development Center of the Ministry of Education in cooperation with Rupavahini. Solar-powered TV sets were installed in rural schools where no electricity is available. The Ministry of Education plans to provide 5,000 TV sets within the next two years.

Quiet success is evident in Independent Television Network, the pioneer in TV in Sri Lanka. Now at a new location called Wickramasinghepara, ITN looks over a wider domain. Its reach has nearly been doubled and its programmes improved in its contents so much that it is sometimes preferred to Rupavahini. ITN now has an audience of about five hundred thousand rating 6-7 viewers per set and counting 80,000 sets in and around the 60 miles it can reach. This means a massive reach as an advertising medium, a fact the marketers already appreciate.

During the past four years there has been a massive boom in local commercials over ITN, and more recently Rupavahini. In the years 1982 ITN collected Rs.7,000,000 (US $291,666) from TV commercials, while Rupavahini, which is just over one year old, collected over Rs.15,000,000 (US $589,499) as its revenue from TV advertising. A survey of TV advertising shows that Rupavahini spots account for an average 55 minutes per day out of about 4½ hours of total telecasting. ITN averages 24 minutes of spots per day out of 4½ hours of telecasting each day.

The National Film Exhibitors Guild claims that television is now hitting the cinema trade where receipts are declining sharply. Ceylon Theatres Ltd., one of the country's best known and best established cinema operators, who have been in this field for over fifty years, reported that cinema operation today is losing business. The company, which owns an extensive circuit countrywide, reported a trading loss of Rs.1.8 million (US $75,000) on film exhibition for the year 1982. The Film Exhibitors Guild states that the proliferation of videos and the screening of Sinhalese and Tamil films on TV on weekdays is hurting them.

Videopeaters have struck gold in Sri Lanka. Many video libraries shot up in the country. The most successful Western (English, French, Italian, Swedish, American) films are available here in these libraries. Sir Richard Attenborough's "Gandhi" film is offered in long distance buses to their passengers.

SWITZERLAND

The Swiss Broadcasting Corporation (SBC) holds a State concession for sound and television broadcasting. The SBC handles all programme matters, while the PTT enterprises are responsible for the transmitters and relay facilities.

As of April 30, 1983, there were 2,072,181 TV sets in operation in Switzerland and 1201 transmitters and booster on the air. The French and German language-stations schedule about 65 hours weekly, each. The Italian language transmitters have about 60 hours of programming each week (without Eurovision—European TV Programme exchanges.)

February 1, 1965 commercial TV was introduced on a limited basis. From January 1, 1974, 20 minutes on weekdays at the utmost, at 17,400 francs per minute from 1/1/80. Annual licenses cost 174 francs from 1/10/82 for private sets.

About 81 per cent of all households have colour TV sets.

TAHITI

Office of Radiodiff-Télévision Française, Papeete, operates four channels 34 hours weekly to serve the estimated 20,000 sets of this French possession. It is owned by the government and buys its canned programs in Paris.

THAILAND

Thai Television Company (government-owned) opened its first station in 1953 and now operates four stations (two using color) and 8 relays on a commercial basis. Stations are also operated under names of Bangkok Broadcasting & TV, Bangkok Entertainment Co. and Thai Army, all located in Bangkok. Sets are estimated at 2.4 million, some color.

In 1980 a ban on broadcasts from 6:30 to 8:00 PM, as a power-saving measure, allegedly improved "family relationships" so at present broadcasts are limited to 8 hours on weekdays, and 16 hours on weekends and holidays.

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

Established 1969 by Thompson TV International and Abu Dhabi TV Service. In 1971 United Arab Emirates TV Service, P.O. Box 637 Abu Dhabi established separate facilities which now consist of three stations and three relays. Dubai Radio and Color TV, P.O. Box 1695, Dubai, now broadcasts on two channels from 1 station and 1 relay in Arabic, French and English.

VIETNAM

Since 1968 the Government Information Department of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam has operated one non-commercial station in Hanoi. Number of sets is about 510,000.

A second station was added in Saigon (now known as Ho Chi-Min City) when South Vietnam was "liberated" and the divided country became one.

WEST GERMANY

Latest statistics on television in Germany:

TV Households: Out of approximately 24,000,000 German households, 23,000,000 have at least one television set. Of these, about 16,000,000 have at least one color set. Some 23,000,000 households have at least one radio. Total TV set sales per year: about $2.2-billion.

Transmission: Only over-the-air TV transmission operates in Germany. Cable and satellite transmission is being planned, but neither form is likely to appear in significant commercial terms until after 1985. After five years of discussion, pilot cable projects are underway in Ludwigshafen, Dusseldorf and Berlin. First German TV satellite won't be launched until 1984, with serious technical consideration of the form getting underway in earnest by about 1986.

TV Networks: Germany has no networks similar to webs in the U.S. In fact, there are no privately-owned commercial TV stations; all telecommunication is state-owned. Basically, the two national TV outlets are: ARD, the national hookup of nine regional stations; and ZDF or second channel, a single nationally-beamed station based in Mainz near Frankfurt. ARD's nine stations each contribute to one joint national broadcasting operation, five regional channels and several radio channels. ARD has a budget of about $1,640-billion; ZDF, $556,000,000. Commercials are aired on both stations in sharply limited timeslots. Stations are supported largely by $6.50 monthly license fees paid by TV set owners.
