SUN CITY MESSAGE INFECTING EUROPE

by Machgiel Bakker & Cathy Inglis

The Sun City record is on the verge of breaking totally in Europe. The anti-apartheid single masterminded by Miami's Steve Van Zandt, the ex-E Street guitar player, is now getting heavy backing by most of the European deejays reporting to Eurotipsheet. The single already entered a lot of national charts this week and with the support of the very effective and direct video, its impact will grow still further in the weeks to come.

Initiator Van Zandt visited Holland last week-end on a tight schedule set up by EMI/Capitol to publicise the work. In an exclusive interview to Eurotipsheet he talks about his committed beliefs in the entire Sun City project and his views on the South African relocation policies. (continued on page 4)

BBC TWO CHANGING FORMAT

BBC's Radio Two network is to cut back its pop output and play more MOR material in an effort to win back listeners. Station controller Bryant Marriott has ordered the policy change after complaints that Radio Two was becoming too much like Radio One.

"We don't want Radio Two stepping on the toes of Radio One by playing too much from the Top 40," says a BBC spokesman. "It's a question of bringing back more melody, more tunes, and the type of music that would be familiar to listeners aged 30 to 90."

There has been speculation that pop releases might even be banned from the station completely, and replaced by the 'easy listening' material that used to form Radio Two's main output, but most

NEW FRENCH TV CHANNEL SEYDOUX AND BERLUSCONI JOIN HANDS

By Lydia Bonguardo and Machgiel Bakker

The French socialist government has given permission for the establishment of a new 5th television channel. The channel, to be called 'Cinq', will be owned by French industrial Jerome Seydoux and the Italian private television media-magnate Sylvio Berlusconi. The agreement was signed last week by the French government and Seydoux-Berlusconi stating that the free private television will begin its programmes at the latest February 20th of next year. The channel will be entrusted to the company France 5; of which Seydoux owns 60% and Berlusconi 40%. About 20 million French people can watch the new channel, but the programmes will later be transmitted by the satellite TDF 1 (of which Berlusconi will have shares as well), which will run into action next year and cover a very large part of Western Europe.

Seydoux, one of the wealthiest men in France, is president of one of the biggest French transport firms. Further to that he is share holder of the daily paper Le Matin.

Berlusconi is already one of the top media in Italy and owns three private channels, Canale 5 (the most important TV network in Italy), Italia 1 and Rete 4. Recently Berlusconi bought the three biggest TV studios in Madrid.

The allowance of this fully commercial TV channel has met with a lot of resistance from the right wing opposition parties, the communists and even some socialists. The socialists have accused Berlusconi of (continued on page 3)

WORLDWIDE COVERAGE BPI AWARDS SHOW

by Peter Jones & Nick Robertshaw

There will definitely be worldwide television coverage of the second BPI Record Industry Awards show, as predicted in Eurotipsheet a month ago (Oct. 28), following a deal with Los Angeles-based TEN, The Entertainment Network.

The show, produced by Deke Arlon, manager of Sheena Easton and other top pop names including Gerard Kenny, is set for the Grosvenor House Hotel in London on February 10, 1986.

It will be televised live in the U.K., while in the U.S. and other parts of the world, including European territories, via satellite on a tape-delayed basis for integration of commercials. It's estimated the show will hit an audience of around 100 million.

Says Arlon: "This reflects the tremendous prestige enjoyed by the British music business. Great praise goes to the whole industry, and individual performers, producers and composers, for their talents are earning worldwide success and acclaim. Not since the Beatles in the mid-1960s has Brit-

RUSSIANS

While the European Album Top 3 remains exactly the same as last week, Sade's Promise moves in its 3rd week up to no. 4 followed by ZZ Top's Afterburner at 5.

With the recent negotiations in Geneva between Reagan and Gorbachov, many European programmes used Sting's Russians as the background music to documentaries on the top meeting. Simultaneously A&M released the single as well and the airplay on the album rose likewise: this week best played album in Europe putting Sade back to no.2. Kate Bush also re-entered the top 3 best played LP's mainly due to the continued successes of the 'Hill' and the Cloudbusting singles. Other albums receiving good airplay include Simple Minds, Dire Straits, Bryan Ferry (due to the new single release of Windswept), Simply Red, ZZ Top, Grace Jones, Elton John, Talking Heads and Stevie Wonder.

The good success of the Level 42 single Something About You paved the way for the album sales in Europe. World Machine makes a good jump to 17 (from 28) and is especially selling well in the UK and Germany, but has good positions in Holland, Switzerland, Sweden and Denmark as well. Their easy mix of pop and funk are welcomed by our album programmers and tracks like Leaving Me Now and Something About You seem to be the favourites. Another Polydor act Shakatak are also mixing pop elements in a mainstream funk setting. The album features Al Jarreau as special guest musician on the track Day By Day and other programmable tracks include City Rhythm and Once Upon A Time.

And to continue with the Polydor label, the Glaswegians Lloyd Cole & The Commotions have this week's highest album entry at 51 with their splendid new album Easy Pieces on which we wrote last week. So far the album is Top 10 in the UK but it looks like Germany and the Benelux will be their next markets.

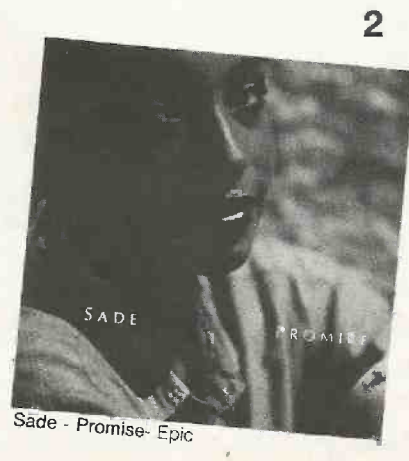

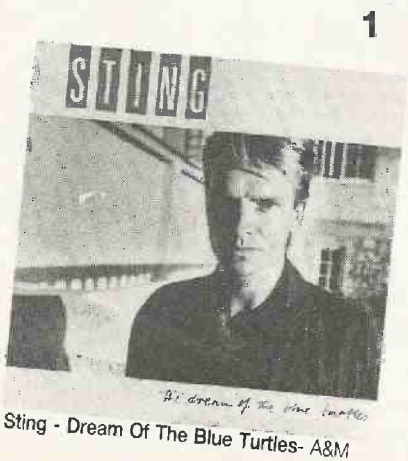

Arcadia, the Duran Duran spin-off, release their first album this week. So Red The Rose proves that Taylor, Rhodes and Le Bon really have formed a creative diversification and the album is not only beautifully designed but also contains a few strong and moody tracks that have considerable dramatic tension and as such are opposed to the heavy rock-disco collision of the Power Station project. Tracks like Lady Ice and Missing carry a free-floating and almost abstract structure that are quite surprising to have emanated from the 3 Duran boys. Watch out for a new entry in the Hot 100 next week.

Pat Benatar has come up with a new album entitled Seven The Hard Way and the title gives a hint of the change in musical direction that Pat took after becoming a mother; a far harder sound than on her last Tropical album. The single Sex As A Weapon is definitely the power cut and the other tracks on her seventh album are something of a return to the early in The Heat Of The Night days. Try Run Between The Raindrops, Le Bel Age and the Four Tops' cover 7 Rooms Of Gloom.

Watch out for the new Stevie Nicks album, out on EMI this week and entitled Rock A Little. So far we only heard the single Talk To Me and I Can't Wait, but these two full blown productions are definitely a good preview of the album.

STRONG NEW CLIPS

This week sees the release of Pete Townshend's latest video White City, a one hour project in which visual imagery is closely connected to the music. In the meantime the video to the Face The Face single gets good coverage on European TV/cable channels. Its an exciting live set with the 40 year old Townshend leading the huge band of musicians all packed together on one small stage. White city is a real estate (Sheperd's Bush, London), where the changing attitudes and morals were a direct inspiration for Townshend to start this project. According to Townshend, White City is an indirect allusion to the issue of apartheid * Paul McCartney's new video Spies Like Us shows several shots of the ex-Beatle in the studio, changing from one instrument to the other. These studio shots are mixed with some hilarious shots of the John Landis produced Warner Bros. motion picture of the same name featuring Ghostbusters star Dan Aykroyd and Fletch actor Chevy Chase * Picture Music presents a full length music video on John Lennon, entitled Imagine - The Film. It features unique footage of Lennon and Yoko filmed in London, NY and Tokyo. In addition to the 10 tracks of the Imagine album, the video also includes 2 tracks by Yoko (Mrs. Lennon and Don't Count The Waves) * Birmingham-based band Fine Young Cannibals are on the verge of breaking in the US with Johnny Come Home. In Europe the clip to their new single Blue gets good rotation and features the band cast in a West-Side Story setting. The rain keeps on pouring on lead singer Roland Gift's face and this Blue' setting really works * Best played videos in Europe this week include A-Ha, Kate Bush's Cloudbusting and Arcadia's Election Day.

ALEXANDRA'S NEWS CORNER

Hello out there, how ya' doing? Hope the flu hasn't got a tight grip on you for it certainly has on me! BOOM BOOM MANCINI, Holland's new stars who made an incredible entrance with their debut single have just released a follow-up, which undoubtedly will be a great success too. This new track is titled Into The Line Of Fire. And that's exactly where they're heading, mark my words *

THE CLASH came out with a new album with the most suitable title Cut The Crap * MICK JONES, who used to be with them, has formed a new band as everyone should know by now: BIG AUDIO DYNAMITE. Well their debut LP has just been released, called This Is Big Audio Dynamite, produced by Mick himself * A great comeback album from AEROSMITH, and who can't remember them (stand up and come forward for a bit of punishment!) Done With Mirrors was produced by well known Mr. TED TEMPLEMAN, and features all the original members. As for the first single this is called My Fist Your Face, a track which proves that they've still got what it takes. Get it coz all the tracks are candies! *

PHIL LYNOTT has another solo single out called 19, PAUL HARDCASTLE had something to do with it (he actually produced it), even though it's nothing to do with his 19. Apparently, as Phil said himself, he wrote that song after being in a bar somewhere in the States, when a guy, sort of a Hells Angel look alike Leatherboy walked in and demanded, rather loudly, a drink. Well this particular person had 19 tattooed on his arm, which gave PHIL the inspiration. The title seems to stand for Bad, tough, rough. Well this was a long story, but I thought you wanted to know. PHIL and GARY MOORE will be going into the studio to record a follow-up to their last big smash: Out In The Fields. But before that Gary has to finish his tour commitments *

NEW MODEL ARMY have just recently had a new single out, entitled Brave New World. The band is currently on a major UK tour. Apparently the band had planned to tour the USA but all came to a rather abrupt and sad ending when the American Immigration Department refused to grant work permits to them, thus preventing their first US tour. What a shame! * Guitarist MANDY MEYER, formerly with KROKUS has strengthened the ranks of ASIA who just released a new album with the title Astra. The first single off the album is a track called Go, and it does seem likely that it will, direction top that is! *

Mud Will Be Flung is the title to a long promised Comedy LP by BETTE MIDLER, and it stands above everything that this will be dirty FUN! * ERNST JANSZ (his name should ring a bell to Dutch DOE MAAR fans, unfortunately the band is no longer!) produced BLUE MURDER's new album: La La Love * Available is the Double Trouble Live (yip, a Double LP, obviously) from MOLLY HATCHET. Ask for earplugs for X-mas! *

You could use them while in the States at that particular time as MOTORHEAD has just taken off for a tour over there. Which shows that one can make quite a multi-use from x-presies like earplugs! No offence boys! Before they took off though LEMMY amongst others recorded a single, which goes out under the banner of THE EUROPEAN TEAM, in other words besides Lemmy it was ROBIN GEORGE, HEAVIN' PETTIN, SIMON KIRK, PALLAS, DAVE HILL, DON POWELL and members of GIRLSCHOOL. The single's entitled Sport Alive, all funds are going to the victims of the Heinzl drama. Well done! *

Cutie, DEL FUEGOS have a delightful album out Don't Run Wild, (may I ask why not?) It's about time they broke big in other European countries besides the UK where they seem to be growing a bit fond of. Never mind, at present the boys are touring the States anyway but will undoubtedly come over soon (and remember they know where you live and will probably come to get you by force!) *

Let's move to another kind of music. Since she moved to America, which has done nothing else for her than the best, SYLVIE VARTAN, recorded and released a new album under the wings of Hubbie TONY SCOTT: Made In USA. Currently Germany has taken quite a fancy to the single Double Exposure, amongst other European countries. So here's your chance! *

Finally for the weekly concert review: DIRE STRAITS, performed in Holland over the weekend, playing all their best-known tracks to a packed house. Mark Knopfler's mastering of the guitar was as brilliant as always, but possibly the most striking thing about the whole concert was the lighting, a unique display in its own right. Well it's time for bye-bye, keep well, and a big hug especially to J.D. at RCA Toronto! (Bet you thought I wouldn't dare to!!!!) Luv' Alexandra (who is still coughing loud).

LONDON CALLING

by Howard Marks

Great new competition at Capital Radio recently called "Where In The World": Capital personalities flown to various locations around the World, and members of the public guessing where the place was, to win a holiday of a lifetime. Rockabilly music could be making a comeback in the UK, look out for a new outfit that everybody is talking about, they are called TWENTY FLIGHT ROCKERS. Also on Capital Radios Peoples Choice "The Keytones" won through recently, and a lot of people are talking about this little known band. Also check out the new album from the SKIFF SKAFFS.

On the pirate radio front, it looks like Laser 558 will never return to these shores, the boat still impounded by the powers that be. It looks as though some of the land based pirate soul stations will be back on air before Christmas, and the franchise for the local community radio stations will be announced fairly soon. Word has it that these stations will not be 24 hour a day pop and soul stations, but ethnic and community based programming will be the order of the day.

NEW DUTCH COMPANY DOING BUSINESS FOR PRESTON IN EUROPE

By Willem Hoos

Amsterdam- New Dutch Company D. & K. Consultants, headed by Michel Damen and Dennis Kloeth, is handling the European Business affairs of U.S. act Billy Preston. The main aim of the deal, which was signed in Los Angeles September 10, is to initiate a massive European breakthrough for Preston. For that reason, Preston is living and working in Europe since September 17. He will stay there for at least seven months.

D. & K. will take care of Preston's European recording, publishing and management interests. The company hopes to sign similar European business affairs deals with two or three other U.S. acts. At the moment D. & K. is negotiating such a deal with Canadian close harmony vocal group The Nylons, for which Kloeth, on behalf of Dutch independent record company Roadrunner, created a breakthrough in some European countries in 1983 and 1984.

Says Kloeth: "Quite some American acts underestimated the importance of their European business affairs. Damen and I, both working for some 15 years in the international music industry, know all the ins and outs of the European record trade and know the differences in mentality between the various countries in Europe. We handle all aspects of the business affairs, even the fiscal problems. We think we really have something to offer American groups and solo artists."

D. & K. Consultants can be reached through P.O. Box 1069, 1200 BB Hilversum, Holland, tel.(35)- 4312743937, tlx 73413 CEMO NL.

On November 4th at Bercy Palais, Pay TV Channel Canal Plus celebrated its first anniversary in front of 15,000 Parisians.

Specially requested by Canal Plus, Al Corley was one of the highlights of that special evening, as Corley for the last 12 months has been a regular chartbuster in France, with two singles Square Rooms and Cold Dresses.

SWISS RADIOS INCREASED ADVERTIZING ALLOWANCE

The Swiss government has increased the amount of advertising permitted on commercial radio stations from 15 to 20 minutes daily. But observers believe the meagre allowance may not be enough to save some broadcasters from bankruptcy.

Of the 27 local commercial radio stations on air in Switzerland, only six are operating at a profit. Radio 24 (Zurich), Radio Basiliak (Basle) and Radio Matterhorn (Zermatt) were among those that made money last year, but the accumulated losses of the others totalled 4.1 million dollars, with Radio Z (Zurich) in the worst plight with losses of 1.2 million dollars.

The government move coincides with the second anniversary of Switzerland's commercial stations, but experts believe only half a dozen may still be around to celebrate the end of the five-year trial period in 1988. The problem is that only the successful stations will benefit from the increased advertising allowance. Many of the others cannot sell the advertising time they already have. Individual stations recorded anything from 97.5% down to only 3% of potential advertising time sold, with the average level in 1984 around 42%.

The value of the airtime sold was 6.8 million dollars last year, representing 85% of the stations' total income. Local retailers have booked considerable quantities of advertising, but commercial firms still treat the new medium with suspicion and the Swiss record industry, whose releases are played on most of the private stations, has been particularly reluctant to use radio commercials as a marketing tool.

Some sales executives think a drastic cut in advertising rates could lure advertisers to make more use of the airtime available, but the private stations are still lagging in popularity behind state-owned national broadcaster DRS 3, which does not carry advertising but nevertheless broadcasts a steady diet of pop music 24 hours a day.

BBC TWO

observers expect a change of emphasis rather than an outright switch.

A recent poll commissioned by the Peacock Committee, which has been looking into the question of how the BBC generally is funded, found that out of 2,000 people interviewed, 64% listened to some form of radio every day, with 34% placing Radio Two second in popularity behind Radio One but ahead of independent local radio.

an 'American' way of programming, not leading to an expansion of culture. The communists are against non-state owned broadcasting organisations and the liberals from their side are not particularly happy about the fact that the channel is partly owned by a non-Frenchman.

Obviously the allowance was a political choice for the coming elections (March next year). The government wanted to speed up

SPANDAU BALLET TAKING CHRYSALIS TO COURT

Members of Chrysalis act Spandau Ballet have failed in their attempt to prevent a national TV advertising campaign for their "Singles Collection" album in the U.K. A Court of Appeal hearing on November 15th gave the record company a go ahead to advertise the album, which is already Top 10 in the British charts, in whatever way it wished.

Relations between Chrysalis and the group, which is reportedly unhappy that it has not reached the levels of success attained by U.K. contemporaries such as Duran Duran, have been poor for some time. At the beginning of November guitarist Gary Kemp applied for a legal injunction to stop the company launching its planned campaign for "The Singles Collection" on the grounds that it infringed copyright in songs he had written. The application was successful but Chrysalis still aired the ad in the Yorkshire TV area a few days later, prompting Kemp to apply for the company's assets to be seized and for chairman Chris Wright, international and U.K. managing directors Doug D'Arcy and Roy Eldridge and company secretary Peter Caisley to be committed to jail.

The judge then ruled that Chrysalis had indeed broken the injunction, but not in deliberate defiance of the court. The company's argument that it had permission to use brief extracts from the Spandau Ballet in its advertising campaign was rejected.

The next, and possibly final chapter of the story came with a Court of Appeal hearing in mid-month, which overturned the original ruling and gave Chrysalis rights to advertise the album as it wishes. Since then the company has rolled out its campaign nationwide, while the publicity caused by the prospect of four top record industry executives landing up in a prison cell at the behest of one of their own acts has probably done no harm at all to sales of the album.

the decision in case right wing parties would come to power next year, with their own plans of privatisation.

Discussions for a 6th channel are already under way. Several French companies are bidding for this and it seems that RTL as part of a large group stand a good chance.

SUN CITY INITIATOR STEVE VAN ZANDT VISITS EUROPE

GROWING AWARENESS OF SOUTH AFRICAN APARTHEID POLICY.

1985 definitely is the year of the charity records. It looks like the pop community is finally utilizing the media they, in certain ways, created themselves. Pop artists are beginning to realise the responsibility they have for exerting an influence on young people's lives. Some of the spirit of the 60's has returned, but instead of merely protesting, pop artists are joining hands and taking direct action in trying to change the course of history. Band aid was the first charity project to succeed on a wide scale and many other projects followed in its footsteps like We Are The World, Farm aid, Fashion aid, and recently the Dionne Warwick & Friends single destined to raise funds for the American foundation for AIDS research.

The Sun City single however is the first one to concern itself fully with a direct political message. A message to the world not to play in Sun City, the entertainment centre right in the middle of one of the homelands, Bophuthatswana. A Las Vegas type scene forming a shattering contrast to the surrounding desolation: Sun City as a symbol of apartheid.

Little Steven is a committed anti-apartheid campaigner who strongly re/utes the notion that there could ever be a charity burn-out. When asked whether the time would come when we would be faced with an excess of charity records, Steven correctly retorted that the argument was a non-starter when considering the 385 love songs released this year.

A more serious problem however is the complaint of some radio stations that the Sun City album isn't the easiest one to programme. The record is described by some as being too raw, harsh and dissonant to fit in the stations format. With the danger of being accused of non-commerciality the airplay on the single could be limited to only light rotation. "But the music is supposed to reflect what is going on in South Africa," Steven states firmly, "the situation over there is far from being pretty and sweet. And besides, the music is very varied. There is something to fit everybody's taste, from rap, hip-hop, to rock & roll and funk."

The idea of Sun City goes back many years, to the time when Steven was deeply moved and subsequently influenced by Peter Gabriel's song Biko. "This was actually the first time when I fully realised what was going on in South Africa, it is such a good song and it really moved me."

This new awareness took him twice to South Africa in 1984, where he collected information, spoke to the people and visited the homeland, Bophuthatswana, together with its white, glittering, tourist trap, Sun City. This town, in ludicrous contrast to the surrounding poverty, became the symbol of the unjust division Steven most decried. He explained about the notion of homelands, the ruinous effect relocation has on the Blacks, the inevitable impossibility of any economic or political control of their own destinies in lands unrecognized as such by any country out of South Africa.

Sun City was originally destined for Little Steven's own solo album. However, after returning from South Africa, he had the idea of bringing 5 or 6 people together and making a statement to the mu-medium to transcend the barriers of language and culture and I hope that from now on individual artists will begin to integrate their social concerns into their work."

Songs should express a belief, an opinion. Sun City not only decries apartheid, but as Steven explained "we are also trying to dissuade artists from continuing to perform there. By playing in Sun City, musicians are perpetuating the whole situation and helping to justify the relocation policy. A full cultural boycott, as encouraged by the U.N., is now needed."

Not only pop musicians are now concerning themselves with politics. Within the music industry itself comments on the South African situation are being heard more than ever and recently Dick Griffey, chairman of the black U.S. label Solar, strongly shared Van Zandt's views. He has long urged the music industry to act as a meaningful communicator on the issue of sical community. Everything grew from that point onwards: "The response was quite extraordinary and we ended up with over 50 artists." These include amongst others Bruce Springsteen, Africa Bambaata, Ringo Star, Bono, Pat Benatar, Pete Townshend, Herbie Hancock and Grandmaster Melle Mel.

Asked how the selection came about, Steven replied that the group was totally arbitrary. "They are all people I like, musicians to whom I enjoy listening and artists I admire." The result of this is a very diverse group who have come up with sounds varying from funk rap to rock: "We wanted to have different music represented on the record to make the statement to the musical community."

This message to the world is something Steven feels is long overdue. More than exploiting the media, musicians "are utilizing the potential inherent in rock 'n' roll, the most effective communication we have today. Music is the prime apartheid. He believes that although the record companies should not be pulled out of South Africa, they should however not make a profit. All money, he feels, should go towards the liberation of South Africa.

The royalties from Sun City are indeed all going through the Africa Fund and are distributed, as needed, between 3 basic areas: families of political prisoners, South Africans in exile, and anti-apartheid groups in individual countries. Steven expressed his total faith that all the money would reach its destinations, since the Africa Fund is a well-established, credible organization recommended by the United Nations.

Steven's aim in the project has been both to raise financial backing for the African cause and to increase world wide awareness of the South African Apartheid policy. "I hope now that people will think twice before playing in Sun City and that they will become aware that racism is still very much alive.

Steve Van Zandt in an exclusive interview with Eurotipsheet.

- Highlights -

UNITED KINGDOM

A new no. 1, as Wham's I'm Your Man replaces Feargal Sharkey (only in its 2nd week!). New in the Top 10 is D.C. Lee's See The Day; the guest vocalist on the latest Style Council LP jumps from 18 to 4. Talking Heads to 6 (from 10) and Collins & Martin in their 2nd week to 10 (last week new at 25). Arista artist Whitney Houston now finally breaks all over Europe: after the Benelux and Germany, the UK seems to be her next market: Saving All My Love For You in its 3rd week landed in the Top 10 (9-23). Other good moves for Grant & Graham (22-36), Prefab Sprout (25-40) (at last...), Go West (24-41) and Sun City (29-57). Highest entry for McCartney (26) followed by The Cult (new at 30; when will they break on the Continent?), Marillion (31) and Nik Kershaw (33).

GERMANY

A-Ha stays on top and straight after Elton John (2-5) comes Sandra with a gigantic jump: 3-28. The fine L.A. sounds of Cock Robin are the 2nd newcomers in the Top 10: When Your Heart Is Weak in a good move from 18 to 9. Jennifer Rush's The Power Of Love is making a re-run in the German charts: 18-29. New entries for Paul Hardcastle (31), Jan Hammer (37), Alison Moyet (the remixed version of For You Only new at 47) and ZZ Top at 50.

Airplay-wise good reports for Sting (Russians), King, Herwig Mitteregger (ex-Spliff drummer) and Mick Jagger's latest, the remixed Hard Woman.

FRANCE

French group Century keeps on ruling the charts and their slow single Lover Why is Carere's best selling single at the moment. Le-mon Incest has landed at 2 (from 3) and this duet between Serge Gainsbourg & Charlotte comes from the album Love On The Beat which has already gone platinum (400,000 copies).

Kate Bush keeps on 'running up that French chart', a good jump from 41 to 25. It looks very likely that Jimmy Cliff's single Hot Shot is finally making inroads in the French hit-parades; both FM and AM are heavily playing the single and it is currently at no. 36 in the combined French chart. After hitting several European countries, Sandra's Maria Magdalena is now also picking up good radio responses in France and it looks like this will be the next German production after Modern Talking hitting France.

BENELUX

Simple Minds continue their popularity in the Benelux, Alive And Kicking still at no. 1 but A-Ha is on its way to the top as well (2-6). Maria Magdalena stays at 3 and new in the Top 10 is Madonna's Gambler. With Dress You Up (no. 8 in the Benelux chart), Groove (still charted in Belgium) and Holiday (charted in Holland), this makes it Madonna's 4th single to do well in the Benelux market. Also shooting up is Lionel Richie, Wham! and Kate Bush's Cloubusting.

ITALY

With Arcadia releasing their album So Red The Rose this week, Election Day creeps up to the no. 1 spot in Italy, putting Simple Minds back to no. 2. Madonna's Groove is at 3 and Propaganda's P. Machinery jumps from 12 to 4 this week. The ZTT act is suddenly making a renewed impact in Europe with good positions in Italy, Germany and Spain at the moment.

King has a new single in the UK The Taste Of Your Tears but his last release Alone Without You is still doing well in Italy, this week at no. 5. Other 'older' singles include: FYC's Johnny Come Home, Falco's Amadeus and Tina's Hero. New in the Italian charts are Wham! and Sun City.

SPAIN

Just as in Italy Stevie Wonder, Tina's Hero, Madonna's Groove and Eurythmics' Angel remain the best selling singles. Best selling local product for Sergio & Estibaliz (Cantinerio De Cuba).

Airplay-wise Baltimora's Woodie Boogie is best played single on the SER channel followed by the local novelty single by Baron Rojo (Breakhaven). Other airplay faves include Bowie & Jagger, Dire Straits (Money For Nothing), Huey Lewis and local act Gabinete Caligari with the single Caray.

SWITZERLAND

As nearly everywhere in Europe A-Ha tops the chart and in Switzerland Modern Talking follow with Cheri Cheri Lady. A good move for Elton John (3-7) as well as for the Destiny single from Jennifer Rush. New in the Top 10 and getting lots of airplay as well is the new Sandra single In The Heat Of The Night! (new at 8).

The theme to the popular TV series The Thornbirds is new at 21 in a version by Henri Mancini entitled Dornenvoegel. Another new entry for Shakin' Stevens at 26.

Although Jennifer Rush is at no. 6 with Destiny it looks like The Power Of Love single is re-entering the Swiss charts due to the enormous success the single has at the moment in the whole of Europe. Other likely contenders for chart entry next week include Wham!, Bryan Adams & Tina Turner, Madonna's Gambler and the re-mixed version of For You Only by Alison Moyet.

Pete Townshend - White City (Atco)
With the Face The Face single making a new entry in the European airplay at 47 this week, the album is sure to pick up lots of airplay as well. The album is closely related to the accompanying video/film of the same title (see also page 17). Solid pop/rock songs in a production by Chris Thomas. Best cuts: Give Blood and Brilliant Blues.

Charlie Sexton - Pictures For Pleasure (MCA)
Produced by Keith Forsay, this Austin, Texas raised young guitar player is definitely a talent to watch. He has recorded with a lot of celebrities like Dylan, Don Henley, Stones and Joe Ely and with such a voice, such good material (Hold Me and Beat's So Lonely) and good looks there is no doubt this guy is gonna make it on his own.

Simply Red - Picture Book (Elektra)
Very talented new young band from the UK with their debut album containing their first 2 hits. The band mixes a variety of styles like jazz, soul and polished funk into a very sophisticated framework. Lead vocalist Mick Hucknall is a remarkable singer and key cuts include Picture Book, Holding Back The Years and the Talking Heads cover Heaven.

Roberto Vecchioni - Bei Temp (CGD) Italy
publ. Baba Jaga. Master owner: CGD Italy, tel. 2-5084

TUNING IN

Guy Hornsby - BBC Radio London
Guy Hornsby is dj/producer for BBC Radio London where he presents his popular soul shows together with Tony Blackburn, Steve Walsh and Jeff Young. He also co-produces and presents two week-end breakfast programmes called London This Week' and London Week-end'. Recently he was also presenting an afternoon programme.
Together with Tony Blackburn, Guy was two years ago responsible for the change in format of Radio London to one that is primarily concerned with soul and funk music.

"As far as the city London is concerned, soul music is getting more grip on the pop charts. Radio London spends a large proportion of its daily output to soul music. We are able to reflect the great interest for soul music on our station. The station moved nearly completely away from Top 40 material and only spends some of its airing time to it on tuesday when the charts come in.

These geographical differences in musical tastes absolutely exist and music styles like AOR, heavy metal and rock are far more popular up north while the London area favours soul music, black music and funk. Last week-end we had a special day of programming, a charity appeal for deprived children and those at risk. This Children In Need' charity day was entirely soul music based and a lot of celebrities like Paul Hardcastle, Five Star and Smiley Culture visited the shows. Special auctions were held and the day was a big success; it was the biggest fund raising programme on the BBC-local radio and within six hours we raised 65,000 pounds.

My favourite new band at the moment is Simply Red with their debut album Picture Book. The group crosses many musical barriers, although remaining within the same kind of music, soul. They have a very talented lead singer in the person of Mick Hucknall and their versatility of musical styles is to be admired. Other popular records on the station include the David Grant & Jaki Graham duet Mated, Evelyn C champagne' King's Your Personal Touch, Whitney Houston's Saving All My Love For You and Isley Jasper Isley with Caravan Of Love.

Singles Guide

It is getting a bit repetitive but A-Ha are maintaining their domination of the European charts with Take On Me for the 2nd week at no. 1 in the Hot 100 and for 6 consecutive weeks topping the European Airplay Top 50. Both in the Hot 100 as in the Airplay Top 50 the difference with the no. 2 and 3 are unbridgeable. Coming after the Bowie & Jagger charity duet, the single even gained the 2nd highest quota of points a single has ever had in the European Airplay Top 50 this year.

Madonna collects her 5th European Top 10 single this year with the Vision Quest soundtrack single Gambler moving to no. 8 (from 11). Gambler follows in the footsteps of Like A Virgin (no. 1 in the European Hot 100 for 5 weeks), Material Girl (highest position no. 6), Crazy For You (highest position 7), Into The Groove (no. 1 in The Hot 100 for 1 week) and Dress You Up as another likely Top 10 candidate for the Christmas season. With these 5 Top 10 singles and yet 3 others also having reached top positions in the Hot 100 (Holiday-no 31, Angel- 14 and Dress You Up 48 at the moment) Madonna definitely is best selling singles artist of 1985.

We are very happy to see the Sun City single entering at 39, the highest entry this week. So far the single has good positions in the UK, Holland, Denmark, Ireland and Italy but other markets are about to come. Airplay on the single rose considerably and it makes a good jump in the European Airplay from 25 to 13 in its 3rd week, for details on the anti-Apartheid single see page 4 for an exclusive interview with initiator Steven Van Zandt.

While Maria Magdalena holds steady at 23 in the Hot 100, her follow up In The Heat Of The Night is this week's 2nd best entry at 61 and so far charted in Germany, Switzerland, Sweden and Denmark.

The most notable movers in the Hot 100 include Wham! (14-27), only in its 2nd week, Lionel Richie (15-25), Kate Bush (Running Up That Hill moving to 19 from 26 and the Cloud-busting single from 48 to 25), Paul Hardcastle (24-60), Jan Hammer (32-80, due to a new entry in Germany and good positions in the UK and Belgium), Michel Sardou (37-87) and the Collins and Martin duet moving from 60 to 44.

The airplay on the Sade single The Sweetest Taboo has taken a rather unpredictable course now that France is suddenly picking up on the single. The single dropped out on the Airplay charts last week but now makes a surprising re-entry at 25. The new Paul McCartney single is so far charted only in the UK (new entry at 26) but the single gets lots and lots of airplay in Europe and is therefore 2nd best entry in the Airplay Top 50 at 28. No doubt the single will explode on retail level next week.

Talking about the ex-Beatle, EMI released Jealous Guy, John Lennon's 'Imagine' song that was never available before as a single (although it was no. 1 in the UK in a cover by Roxy Music). At the same time EMI releases Julian Lennon's new single Because, from the musical 'Time', written by Dave Clark. This is the 4th single release from Time, after 2 by Cliff Richard and the theme track by Laurence Olivier.

The Starship single We Built This City (RCA), so far has a good position in the UK only (35) but with the large amount of additions on the European heatwaves (the biggest jump in the European Airplay this week: from 29 to 8) the sales on this AOR single will definitely go up the coming weeks.
