French Industry Figs Show Further Drops

Paris- Overall record/tape unit sales in France dropped a further 11% during the first four months of this year, according to trade organisation SNEP. The LP sector was hardest hit, 32.5% down on the same period of 1986 to 5.93 million units.

But singles were also well down at 15.97 million units, a dip of 14%, maxi-singles and EPs were down 8.3% to 1.27 million and cassettes 7.1% down to just over six million. As in most territories in Europe, CDs provided the one bright spot - up 129.4% in unit sales to 3.3 million, the silver disc format accounting for 28.7% of total industry earnings in the January-April period.

Top UK Pop Shows In Screen-To-Screen Battle?

by Peter Jones & Abi Daruvalla

London- According to normally reliable insider sources, the BBC is considering moving its long-running 'Top Of The Pops' programme from Thursday evenings to Tuesdays where it would be involved in a 'screen-to-screen' confrontation with ITV's first networked chart countdown show 'The Roxy'.

The move looks all the more likely following an announcement that the compilation of the official UK singles chart is to be moved forward two days. This means the Gallup chart will be published on the Sunday instead of Tuesday and will take into account singles sales up to close of business on Saturday. However, a spokeswoman for 'Top Of The Pops' said she could not speculate on whether this would affect the programme and said there were no plans at the moment for any change.

Certainly it is widely known that BBC chiefs are not happy that the Independent Network Chart, hosted on radio (Sundays) and tv (as part of 'The Roxy') by David Jensen, is available earlier than the Gallup chart commissioned by the BPI

German Dealers Demand Returns Policy On CDs

Hamburg- Dealers in West Germany have launched a campaign to persuade record companies to provide a returns policy on CDs to run parallel with that for black vinyl and cassette formats. And they demand industry agreement on the issue by the autumn.

German record companies have thus far been determined not to repeat what they see as mistakes made during the analogue era when they had to accept large quantities of unsold returns. Bui Teldec distribution chief Gerhard Husken says his company has "no intention" of granting similar rights for CD.

And Hans Knappe, Ariola head of sales, says that with the exception of misdirected deliveries and real technical complaints, his firm does not grant a general right of return for CDs.

ZDF To Promote Creativity

Mainz- Germany's second tv channel, ZDF, is to give DM 222 million to independent German producers next year. The announcement came from ZDF Programme Director Alois Schardt who said the idea was to give the independent producers more opportunities to make programmes and to stimulate creativity. The money will be divided between 62 producers and covers the whole of 1988.

Benelux Gets Elvis Releases

Amsterdam-Five Elvis Presley double albums have been compiled by BMG Benelux specifically for the Benelux territories. The packages contain a total of 150 songs and are titled on the format of 'The Definitive ... Album', with subjects covered being low, rock & roll, country, film and gospel. The albums are available in cassette and CD format, many of the recordings coming out for the first time in the latter configuration.

The campaign, costing around £75,000, includes TV advertising and links with the 10th anniversary of Presley's death. BMG is also re-releasing Heartbreak Hotel, Elvis' debut RCA single, first out 31 years ago.

Philips Delays DAT Recorder Launch

by Willem Hoos

Amsterdam-Philips will not launch a Digital Audio Tape recorder until global deals on anti-copying measures have been settled. At a recent press conference here, Bob Spinosa Cattela, a board member of the Dutch multinational, said: "It's useless to produce recorders until there is a good supply of DAT software. And so far, without the anti-copying agreement, the international music industry will not manufacture pre-recorded DAT software".

Additionally, Grundig, in which Philips has a stake of over 30%, has now said it will only market DAT software in Europe through a co-production deal with another European company.

It was announced at the meeting that Philips' financial result for the first half of this year showed net profits up 19% at £131.2 million, despite an 8% drop in gross earnings at £7.55 billion.

Swedish CD Plant Ready To Tackle Majors

Although CD Plant AB, based at Malmo in Sweden was declared bankrupt a month ago, Managing Director Ben Hendeberg is confident that its sister plant, CD Plant Manufacturing, is now in a favourable position to tackle competition. Since the necessity to repay bank loans has been dissolved, CD Plant Manufacturing can offer CDs at a considerably reduced price.

CD Plant AB, the financial division of CD Plant Manufacturing, had been in full operation for a year but escalating costs and the CD price war lead to bankruptcy. Major record companies such as PolyGram and Warner, who can subsidise their own plants, offer overwhelming competition, making it harder for smaller independent companies like CD Plant.

Hendeberg believes that once CD prices are lowered

(they are still being sold at the same price they were a year ago), the volume of sales will increase enabling a more profitable turnover. CD Plant Manufacturing is currently installing another production line which will be completed by the end of the month. Their capacity will then be doubled with around 25,000 CDs produced a day.

French Industry

Yet even CD growth has lagged behind the 150% increases of 1986 and SNEP's Bernard de Bosson says this is, "disappointing, because it seems CDs are not the substitute product that was thought".

Fewer retail outlets and 'un-adventurous' dealer stocking policies are largely blamed for the decline of sales in France.

MOVING

Media: Herbert Schnaudt, Helmut Markwort and Harald Yosse have been named MDs of a new state-wide private radio station in Bavaria (working title Bayern Radio) which hopes to go on air next April. * Industry: Rudi Gassner, President BMG Music International, has also been appointed Chief Executive Officer of the division. * After two-and-a-half years as International Marketing Manager at Chrysalis International Department, Celia Baldwin-Smith is leaving to join Go! Discs as head of the international-department. She is to be replaced by Phil Patterson who has been Director Of Promotion for Chrysalis UK for three years. * Julie Pratt has left Capitol International and joined BMG where she will be responsible for publicity, marketing and artist relations for the RCA label. * Caroline Wilson, until recently head of A&R at Polydor, is setting up her own label, Mark 3. * Christine Morgan has replaced Maria Morgan as head of press and publicity at MTV Europe. *

CHAIRS

WEA UK Specialises Divisions

London-WEA's UK operation is to be split into two divisions: one handling US product and the other releases from the UK and the rest of the world. Paul Conroy has been named Managing Director of the American sector and Max Hole heads the other division.

Rob Dickens, Chairman WEA UK, says that as from November of this year, marketing, promotion and press for the two product areas will be treated as separate entities, "creating greater involvement for each individual act".

Product from WEA's worldwide subsidiaries will go through the UK division to allow those companies access to specialist in-house creative services such as A&R and video production.

companies seem to agree.

But retailer spokesman Lutz Wenscher says: "Our trade is being asked to take the full risk for CD, where we have the lowest profit margin. CD already accounts for 30%-50% of turnover in our shops".

With Heart In Hand-Jennifer Rush made a surprise appearance at the CBS Records Convention held recently in Vancouver to personally thank everyone involved in helping to make her current album, 'Heart Over Mind', a success. She is pictured with Bob Sumner, President CBS Records International.

UK RADIO TALK

by Howard Marks

So far it has been a quiet summer for radio news, but come September there will be an explosion in both national and commercial radio. Much movement of jocks and programmes is about to take place - I am not at liberty to say what those changes are, but all I can say is there will be some heads rolling.

Jeff Young has given up his Saturday morning 'Soul Show' on Radio London. Those early mornings were beginning to tell on the old eyeballs, and Young has decided to call it a day. His place will be taken by Pete Tong. Young will be sitting in for BBC's Radio 1 soul jock Robbie Vincent for a couple of weeks. Also at Radio London, Tony Blackburn took a week off, and Radio 1 jock Andy Peebles sat in for him as usual.

Well done Janice Long at Radio 1 who recently announced her very own little production. Long will keep working up until the baby is born and will continue with the station after the birth too. Head Of Radio 1, Johnny Beerling, recently had a hernia operation - all the best to him for a speedy recovery.

Michael Aspel returns to radio for the first time since leaving Capital Radio two years ago. He will return to Radio 2 for a Saturday morning show and LBC for a Sunday lunchtime show.

And finally, Radio Tara is gearing up to broadcast to the UK via satellite next year. The station is advertising in the UK trade magazines for a Programme Director.

Royalties Request

Brian West, Director AIRC (Association Independent Radio Contractors), is seeking information on the royalties paid by private broadcasters in continental Europe to gather material for copyright reform. Private stations should contact Brian West at Regina House, 259-269 Old Marylebone Road, London NW1 5SA. Tel: 1-2626681; fax 24543.

RADIO RAP

by Cathy Inglis

UK's Metro Radio has been hitting the headlines in more ways than one. As part of a feature BBC TV is doing on British trade unions, the crew went up to Newcastle to film at the station since Metro has been playing ads for a union. A few days later Spagna was in Newcastle to do a promo for tv pop show 'The Roxy' and tuning into Metro, she heard Giles Squire announce that the station was the first ever to play Call Me. The Italian artist immediately called up Metro to thank the station and arrange an interview...

The much talked of new Danish private radio station Uptown FM has finally fixed its launch date. At press time M&M was told that the big day was Monday August 17, although non-stop jingles and spots announcing the station were broadcast on their frequency 103.9 on the weekend before launch. Uptown FM is a daughter company of CDI (Communication Development) which hopes to market and distribute Anglo-American syndicated radio programmes in Denmark as well as eventually producing their own Danish programmes. Both Westwood One and Radio Express have already approached CDI. As for Uptown FM, we have purchased the UK's Capital Radio's Top 30 network show with Kid Jensen.

Italy's Rete 105 "The Most Popular Private"

Italy's largest private radio network, Rete 105, is the third most popular station in the country, following the state-owned national stations, RAI Radio 1 and 2. This is the result of a recent Radiotel survey with 5000 phone interviewees conducted by Telemarc Italy.

Rete 105 was tuned into by 1,856,000 listeners on an average day and by 5,500,000 in an average week, which is 9.6% of the total listeners in Italy. More than 18% of those listening to private radio tune into Rete 105, a high figure when one considers that there are several thousand privates in Italy.

Laser To Return

London - Radio Laser, the off-shore American owned pirate radio station, is set to get back on air in October, following a complete re-fit and a 'substantial' injection of back-up finance.

The station's ship base, the MV Communicator, is moored off the coast of Dunkirk. It was impounded by the British government in November 1985 after its 120 foot radio mast was smashed by gales. The government authorised its sale, on the understanding that it would not be used for pirate radio purposes. But the ship has changed hands again and insiders say the new owners are skilled professionals who can keep Laser out of trouble.

The Smooth Soul Of Jonathan Butler

South African Musician Releases 18th Album

by Machigiel Bakker

Jive/Zomba are mounting a major marketing campaign to support the release of Jonathan Butler's self-titled double album. Released in the UK this week, with continental Europe following one week later, it is expected to meet with high critical acclaim, based on the successes in the US. Both the album and the first single taken from the album, Lies, are Top 50 in the Billboard Charts and Butler's US tour with Whitney Houston is bringing him standing ovations.

The 25-year-old South African musician can boast a long musical career that started at the age of six. Raised in a 16-member family, Butler performed as a child in a traveling variety show and attained national fame at the age of 13.

With some 17 albums behind him, the double set is his second for Jive/Zomba, following the debut Introducing Jonathan Butler. It is to Jive/Zomba's credit that the company spotted the unmistakable qualities of this South African musician. Label executives Clive Calder and Ralph Simon, two fellow South Africans who emigrated to London in 1976 and founded Jive Records in 1985, encouraged Butler to pursue his love for jazz and rhythm & blues, the two ingredients that form such a major part of his current style.

Although Butler's African roots are hardly perceptible for the superficial listener, and American R&B and jazzy pop dominate, songs like Go Home and Reunion do betray his African roots. There are 16 tracks, five of which are instrumental, displaying an accessible and smooth mixture of polished soul and sensual jazz, topped by Butler's distinctive acoustic guitar style in a George Benson/Grover Washington and Earl Klugh type of sound. Although sometimes tending towards anonymity and containing a bit too much saccharine, the material is delivered with a true conviction and rare craftsmanship.

Several merchandising items have been developed to support the album release (priced as a single album) including different sized color posters, a luxury summer jacket, enamel guitar keyrings, slip mats for DJ turntables and a special sampler cassette with 15 minutes of interview (conducted by BBC Radio 1's Simon Bates) and 15 minutes of music.

Norwegian charts, contains nine tracks including Every Time and Play It Cool. The latter is a lingering melody with strong vocals, clearly defined instruments and a good deal of chorus. Another track that might well do well if its German counterpart (Freiheit) is anything to go on, is Baby It's You - a catchy pop tune, with an unforgettable refrain.

Muenchener Freiheit have sold more than one million singles and 600,000 albums - it will be interesting to see how well 'Freiheit' will do.

Freiheit: Free To Sing In English

by Cathy Inglis

One of Germany's most popular bands, Muenchener Freiheit, are to release their first English language album in continental Europe under the name of Freiheit - less of a mouthful than the full German name. The album, Romancing In The Dark, is a compilation of their greatest German hits.

The band need no introduction in their own market where, since their debut in 1981, they have gone from strength to strength. Last year, Ohne Dich, one of their most well known songs, rocketed into the top three of the German charts within three weeks of being released. Their fourth album released last year, Von Anfang An went gold and has sold 300,000 units so far, and their most recent album Traumziel entered the German, Austrian and Swiss charts almost immediately after it was released.

The English version of Ohne Dich, Every Time hit the Norwegian and French charts and convinced the band that their music is now right for the European market. Their current single Play It Cool has been released in Norway, France, Italy and Spain. CBS are currently in the middle of an advertising campaign in these countries. Romancing In The Dark, which at press time had just entered the

Video News

Topping The World Trade Center

MGMM's Jif Morrison has directed the clip to TNT's Everone's A Star. This was shot in London on a roof top near St. Paul's Cathedral and in the streets of London and was produced by Hilary Crozier. Ralph Ziman has directed the video to Pseudo Echo's Listening which was shot in a Los Angeles studio and produced by Kate Thorn. The same team was responsible for Madame X's Just Like A Woman, also shot in a Los Angeles studio, as well as on location in the desert.

Director Nick Morris and producer Fiona O'Mahoney, also at MGMM, have just wrapped up two clips. The first, to Robert Cray's Nothing But A Woman, is a performance piece combined with animation, and the second, to Mason Ruffner's Dancing On Top Of The World, appropriately shot in New York, on top of the World Trade Center.

Freiheit's second single, Play It Cool, off their English language album, Romancing In The Dark, is accompanied by a clip combining black and white shots with colour. The band appears on a beach together with some seductive women and a few memorable scenes show the band in dinner jackets playing violins and other classical instruments.

Promo Palace's Adrian 'Viv' Edmonson has just completed the new promo for Squeeze's Hourglass, out on A&M. The video was shot over two days in London in a lavish set depicting Salvador Dali's famous surrealist images of melting clocks and giant-size fish. Edmonson previously worked on the clip to Zodiac Mindwar's latest single Prime Mover.

Also at the Promo Palace, John Maybury has directed the video to The Jesus And Mary Chain's new single Happy When It Rains.

Jean Baptiste Mondino (famous for, among other things, Madonna's Papa Don't Preach video) directed the clip for David Bowie's new single Never Let Me Down filmed at Los Angeles' well known boxing arena, the Olympic Auditorium.

BSB TV channel plans "Fantastical Assumptions"?

London - CIT Research, a leading UK consultancy company, suggests that plans by BSB (British Satellite Broadcasting) to launch three tv channels direct from satellite to individual dish aerials in 1989 are based on "fantastical assumptions".

The survey insists that even if BSB gets over technical obstacles, the demand for new tv channels will rise more slowly than the consortium (Financial Times, Virgin, Bond Corp of Australia and Reed International) expects.

BSB says it hopes to have 350,000 receivers in British homes by Christmas 1989, with five million by the mid-1990s. But CIT Research, while agreeing that satellite broadcasting would eventually take over from terrestrial transmitters, predicts only half a million houses would have receivers 10 years after the start of the service.

Channel 4 Gets UK 'Bad' Premiere

by Peter Jones

London - The UK premiere of Michael Jackson's latest LP Bad is to be shown exclusively on Channel 4 television here at 22.50 hours on September 1.

The 24-minute special includes a 16 minute extended video for the title track of the long awaited new album as well as an eight minute summary of his career including some previously unseen footage of archive material such as Jackson's original 'Tamba Moutons' audition.

The package is directed by Martin Scorsese who co-produced it with Jackson. Basically, it is the story of a young black New Yorker who starts out as a street baddie, then turns good guy. The premiere goes on Channel 4 via Initial Television, the new indie company set up by ex-'Tube' producer Malcolm

Central TV's 'Late Night Extra' A Hit

London - Central Television's 'Late Night Extra', which runs until 03.00 hours from Sundays to Thursdays and to 04.00 hours on Fridays and Saturdays, is scoring heavily with the 15-34 year-old age group, which comprises 38% of the total audience, according to a survey by British Market Research Bureau. The figure rises to 51% if those who have recorded programmes are included.

Mid-Price CD Campaigns On The Increase

The recent success of CDs has resulted in a spate of mid-price campaigns by most of the major international record companies. M&M has compiled a list of the releases for the coming two months (September and October) based on information received. While the following list does not intend to be complete and all releases are subject to last minute change, it does give a picture of the most important pop releases. It is interesting to note that several companies have slowed down their CD single releases since these are no longer eligible in the UK's Gallup chart.

BMG

BMG are to launch major mid-price campaigns on RCA and Arista for pop, Motown and classical product. Up to 50 titles will be included in the special price pop series to be launched in September. Merchandising for the campaign includes special booklets with a distinctive wrap-around and point-of-sale material and leaflets. Both international and local repertoire will be featured including the Eurythmics, Blow Monkeys, Hall & Oates, Mr. Mister, and Elvis Presley (on RCA) and Aretha Franklin, Barry Manilow, Thompson Twins, Dionne Warwick and the Alan Parsons Project (on Arista). The campaign includes product which was previously on full-price CD as well as some not yet released on this format.

Some 40 Motown titles are planned between September and the end of the year with the first 15 to be issued in September. These include major artists such as Stevie Wonder.

Paul Carrack - CBS

CBS

CBS has no plans to launch a mid-price pop CD campaign in the near future though they have had encouraging results from a mid-price classical series called the 'Maestro' which they ran between May and June of this year. 25 titles were launched initially and a second batch is imminent. The campaign was backed with poster displays and catalogues. As for CD singles, CBS has released several in the UK by artists like George Michael and The The.

Tashan - Chasing A Dream
Tammy Wynette - Higher Ground
The Hooters - One Way Home

CHRYSALIS

Chrysalis' first mid-price campaign was between March and May of this year when 24 best-sellers were released including Huey Lewis And The News and Jethro Tull. Says Chrysalis' Celia Baird-Smith: "The campaign was highly successful for the first two months, it then settled down to the rate at which it was before the campaign started. But I do think these campaigns are useful because, for example, from the point of view of a Jethro Tull fan, although he might have all the vinyl, the mid-price gives him an opportunity to build up his CD collection. The cheaper prices do definitely encourage people to buy". It is not yet known whether Chrysalis will launch in Europe a project which they are currently doing in the US; called 'Toofoers', it is a campaign in which the material of two albums is put onto one CD and sold for the price of just one compact disc.

Albums:

Jethro Tull - The Crest Of The Knave

EMI

A mid-price pop CD campaign is in its preparation stages at EMI and the company intends to release between 25-30 pop/rock/MOR titles in early October. This follows a very successful mid-price classical CD campaign which was released throughout Europe in July, and met with 'a phenomenal response'. As for CD singles, EMI has always released these as limited editions with, on the whole, promotional aims in mind. However, since the Gallup ruling that CD singles would not be used in the compilation of the singles chart, Roel Kruize of EMI Music Worldwide, says he is 'convinced they will not take off as a format'.

Pink Floyd - Momentary Lapase
McLean - Jackie's Bag

Amongst the first items released were strong selling titles such as Dire Straits - Communicue, Mark Knopfler's soundtrack to Local Hero, Eric Clapton's - Rainbow Concerts and Bananarama - Deep Sea Skiving. Special Price did not only concentrate on pop but offered the whole musical spectrum from pop to jazz. On the first day of release over one million CDs were shipped worldwide."

VGIRGIN

Virgin issued their first mid-price CD campaign in July this year. Jon Webster, International Marketing Director: "We were the first people in the UK to issue CD singles at a 'sensible' price beginning with Genesis' Land Of Confusion last November. This was sold at the price of a 12" and we have since issued many more. However, since June 1 this year, CD singles have not been eligible for the UK singles chart. We are, however, re-issuing many of them now. These are all issued in gatefold cardboard sleeves." Back in WEA are launching their first ever mid-price CD campaign in conjunction with MCA towards the end of the summer. As well as the mid-price campaign,

Sony - DAT And CD Will Continue To Co-Exist
New CD Plant Opens In Austria

Salzburg - "DAT will have no impact on CD hardware and software sales. Today's consumer wants both digital tape and digital disc and the two carriers will continue to co-exist."

This comment came from Jack J. Schmuclik, President of Sony Europe GmbH during the press conference held to inaugurate Sony's CD plant in Salzburg at the end of last month. The plant, the first Japanese CD software facility in Europe, was built in a record 10 months at a cost of some £28.5 million, 19.5% of which came from subsidies from the Austrian state and the province of Salzburg.

In response to the on the IFPI Copycode campaign, Schmuclik said that Sony did not believe in inhibiting customers from copying for their personal use. "We are not necessarily in favour of a home taping royalty but we think such a royalty should allay the fears of the music industry. We are in favour of letting the market mechanism work things out."

Michael Schulhof, of Sony Inc. US, said he thought the bill to incorporate a Copycode device in DAT machines would not be passed by the US government. He added that if it became law to incorporate a spoiler chip in digital recorders it would take from 12 to 18 months to modify machines.

In response to other questions, he said that Sony had had no dialogue with its partner CBS on the subject of the Copycode device. He also said that Sony had no acquisition plans as far as pre-recorded software is concerned.

Sony's new factory in Anif, a southern Salzburg suburb, employs approximately 180 people.

MCA Vice President International Stuart Watson, says that they are releasing "hundreds" of normal price CDs in the coming months including the Fixx's Reax, Alice Cooper's Raise Your Fists And Sell and material by The Jets and Gladys Knight & The Pips.

EURO-CROSSOVER RECORDS:

- FREIHEIT - PLAY IT COOL (CBS Germany)
- MICHAEL JONES - HOW COULD I SEE (Epic France)

This will come as no surprise: Michael Jackson's I Just Can't Stop Loving You is the best played single on the European radio stations this week. In three weeks, it has managed to put Madonna's two week Airplay chart topper Who's That Girl back to the no. 2 spot. The last time Michael Jackson hit the Airplay charts was in July 1984 when he and his brothers teamed up with Mick Jagger in the steamy 'Stay Of Shock'.

Three other noteworthy movers in the Airplay Top 10: Tex-Mex band Los Lobos spice up the European airwaves with La Bamba creeping up to no. 4; the King Of Designer Soul, Terence Trent D'Arby makes a significant move with Wishing Well landing at 6 (coming from 11); and the Stock/Aitken/Waterman produced I Heard A Rumour by Bananarama up to no. 7 with a bullet.

As you may have noticed, the productivity of these three producers has been enormous in the last year. After their successes with Dead Or Alive, Mel & Kim, Debbie Harry and Ferris Buell, the PWL production team (also comprising the talents of in-house mix masters Phil Harding and Pete Hammond), currently has four hit records in the European Airplay Top 50 and six in the UK Top 75 (of which five are in the first 25). Apart from Bananarama's 'I Heard A Rumour', Samantha Fox's Nothing's Gonna Stop Me Now, Mel & Kim's F.L.M. and their own first recording for A&M, Roadblock (all in the Airplay Top 50), the UK has, with the exception of Sam Fox, three more: Rick Astley's Never Gonna Give You Up, a very straightforward but ultra commercial pop/disco single for RCA (a definite hit for the continent as well!); Sinitta's Toy Boy; and the (flopped) Shared Glass by Laura Branigan. In the Hot 100 Singles we find another, older, production by the same team: Mel & Kim's Showing Out.

And maybe yet another hit produced by Stock/Aitken/Waterman can be on its way: the new Precious Wilson single for Live Only The Strong Survive, once a UK hit for Billy 'Me & Mrs Jones' Paul in 1977. It's an effective and economic production, putting the mid '70s Philly sound straight into an 80s Euro-disco framework.

Back to the European Airplay Top 50, we find WAX, the enigmatic masters of pure pop, with the catchy Motownesque Bridge To Your Heart, shooting up from 24 to 10 followed by Boy George's Sold at 11 (coming from 15).

The highest Airplay entry is Whitney Houston's new (second) single from the "Whitney" album, Didn't We Almost Have It All, debuting at 29. Other entries are the Pretenders with the delicate, easy-paced ballad If There Was A Man, the second single from the new James Bond film.

Most Remarkable

The most remarkable album of this week is definitely The Kane Gang's Miracle. It is the band's second album, far more consistent and confident than 1985's 'The Bad & Low Down World Of The Kane Gang'. Tapping from musical areas like Philly soul, blue-eyed soul a la Hall & Oates, and mid-70s disco, complemented with an almost obsessive need for designed and immaculate arrangements, this Newcastle based trio will appeal to a wide European audience. The LP has a wealth of commercial hit singles including the current Motorown, the polished What Time Is It?, the simmering soul of Sirically Love and the band's groovy version of Don't Look Any Further, a hit for Temptations' singer Dennis Edwards in 1984 (and recently re-released by BMG).

Probably one of the most delayed albums ever, Def Leppard's Hysteria follows their multi platinum album 'Pyromania' of 1982. Although the band's sound is hard rock based, the long break following the tragic accident of drummer Rick Allen has certainly given them plenty of fresh new ideas. Almost all the 12 songs have strong commercial impact, owed to a considerable extent to the accessible production of Mutt Lange. Strong hooks and striking vocal harmonies all contribute to what will probably become this year's most successful hard rock album. Songs like Women, Animal, Love Bites, Armageddon II and Hysteria prove the band is definitely back on the music map.

A romantic and lingering saxophone sets the right tone on the opening track, Spanish Eyes, of Van Morrison's latest album Poetic Champions Compose. It also ends on a jazzy tune (Allow Me) and the material in between is very atmospheric and intimate with lots of string and woodwind arrangements. Morrison is in very good form, both vocally and as a composer, and his idiosyncratic style is best exemplified on tracks like I Forgot That Love Existed, sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child, the country style Give Me My Rapture and the swinging Did Ye Get Healed?

One Way Home, the second album by the American band Hooters, consists of nine conventional rock songs with harsh vocals in a basic Bryan Adams vein, but also folk undertones due partly to an accordion and pipes in the instrumentation which make the LP reminiscent of Dylan in places. Best tracks include Johnny B. Washington's Day, Graveyard Waltz and Satellite.

Classics Live II by veteran American rock band Aerosmith contains new live versions of eight of the band's classics. Don't miss the electrifying guitar work in Walk This Way.

for use by the BBC and music week. The BBC has two main outlets for the charts: 'The Top 40' countdown on Radio 1 on Sunday evenings and Thursday's 'Top Of The Pops'. Music Week gives October 4 as the start date for the new charts but this is not confirmed by the BPI who can only say it will be "sometime in autumn".

A spokesman for Radio 1 confirmed that a test chart will be in their hands in a few weeks time and trials would be held but could not confirm that they would be incorporating changes in their programming.

With weekend working involved, the cost of creating the chart would be pushed up but this problem could be solved for 'Top Of The Pops' by the sponsorship cash hoped for from Pepsi (see M&M issue 3).

In the last available ratings figures, 'Top Of The Pops' is at number 31 in the national top 100 programmes (week ending July 12) with 7.2 million viewers, while ITV's 'The Roxy' is at 42 with 6.4 million and reportedly catching up very fast.

M & M

UNITED KINGDOM

Belive it or not, Michael Jackson's I Just Can't Stop Loving You storms to the no. 1 spot in two weeks, replacing Los Lobos' La Bamba. At 3 is Italian CBS artist Spagna whose Call Me jumps from 8 in its fourth week. Stephen 'Pet Shop Boys' Hague's remix of New Order's True Faith has climbed to no. 4 while De Leppard's Animal (9-16) and Sinita's disco duty Toy Boy (10-22) are new in the top 10. A remarkable move (11-23) for Someone Out There, the duet by Linda Ronstadt and James Ingram from the movie An American Tail. Another good move for Wet Wet Wet's Sweet Little Mystery (12-31) while the Stock/Aitken/Waterson produced Never Gonna Give You Up by RCA artist Rick Astley is moving from 34 to 14, in just its second week. This producer trio have the greatest number of productions in the UK top 25 at the moment: apart from Rick Astley, they have four others: Sinita's Toy Boy, their own RoadBlock (no. 13), Bananarama's I Heard A Rumour (16) and Mel & Kim's F.L.M. (23). New entries: Bon Jovi (Never Say Goodbye, 29), The Jesus & Mary Chain (Happy When It Rains, 30), Prince (U Got The Look, 38) and the re-released version of the Temptations' classic Papa Was A Rolling Stone (45). Interesting to see the original version of La Bamba, by Richie Valens, moving up (49-56); it's the first time since 1959's 'Donna' that the US rocker has had a hit in the UK.

GERMANY

Pet Shop Boys stay on top for the fifth week but French singer Desretee creeps up to no. 2 from 3. A big move for Michael Jackson (4-15) while Tina Charles' I Love To Love is new in the top 10 (8-13). Highest entry is for Terence Trent D'Arby with Wishing Well debuting at 28. The Italian entry for the Eurovision Song Contest, Tozzi & Raff (the extra 'f' is added to avoid association with the German terrorist organisation RAF) have second best entry (40) with Gente Di Mare.

On the album front, d'Arby's album Introducing, is very striking; it shoots up from 61 to 61 in its second week.

FRANCE

At no. 1 for the second week, Vanessa Paradis' Joe Le Taxi, is followed by Madonna's La Isla Bonita and Gerard Blanc's Une Autre Histoire. A static top 10 with the exception of veteran rocker Johnny Hallyday's Je Promets moving from 15 to 10. However, a very high entry for CBS superstar Jean Jacques Goldman with Elle A Fait Un Bebe Toute Seule. Julien Clerc makes a very good move with Helene (15-27) and Herbert Leonard's Quand Tu M'aimes jumps from 24 to 16. Ex-New Talent Tip (issue 6 this year), Balla... Balla! by Francesco Napoli, of the a Neapolitan opera singer, moves up from 43 to 31 with a bullet.

HOLLAND

Madonna stays on top for the third consecutive week with Who's That Girl and Holland's current summer hit, Tony Esposito's Papa Chico, remains at 2. Robert 'Smoking Gun' Cray has crept up to no. 3 with Right Next Door; so far Holland is the only European country charting this bluesy single. Local act V.O.E. de Kunst ('The Art Company', see front page picture) moves up to no. 5 (coming from 9) with Zen Kogya Koffie (One Cup Of Coffee) which could make European impact just like their 1984 European hit 'Suzanne'. Michael Jackson crashes the top 10 (6-17) and Billy Idol's wonderful Sweet Sixteen follows (7-10). Former UK no. 1 The Firm's Star Trekkin is at 10 while Los Lobos are at no. 13. Highest entry is for local Phonogram act Frank Ashton with the happy Let Your Sun Shine (new at 25).

BELGIUM

France's best placed and best selling single Joe Le Taxi by Vanessa Paradis is the new no. 1 in Belgium putting Pet Shop Boys' It's A Sin back to no. 2. Michael Jackson creeps to no. 3 (coming from 5) and Tony Esposito is new in the top 10 with Papa Chico (10-14). Good moves for Los Lobos' La Bamba (12-27) and Schultzeis with La Tri Faire Voir which moves up to 14 from 23. Other good moves are for Francesco Napoli's hit Balla... Balla! (15-22), Heart's Alone (18-25) and Johnny Logan's version of IOC's I'm Not In Love (22-40).

Highlights

SWITZERLAND

Pet Shop Boys have already dominated the charts for three weeks, followed by Madonna and Whitney Houston. New in the Swiss top 10 are Terence Trent D'Arby with Wishing Well (6-13) and Michael Jackson has highest entry with I Just Can't Stop Loving You, new at 13. Prince re-enters with If I Was Your Girlfriend at 15 and his current single U Got The Look has a good chance of entering the Swiss top 30 next week. Other entries are for Mel & Kim (19), Laura Branigan's Shattered Glass (27) and William Pitt's City Lights (29).

IRELAND

Ten-Mex rockers Los Lobos stay at the top for the second week with La Bamba although Michael Jackson is a serious competitor; his I Just Can't Stop Loving You storms to no. 2 in its second week. Highest entry is for local singer Dermot Morgan with Get Outa That Saddle, debuting at 4. Three new entries in the top 10: New Order's True Faith (5-12), Johnny Logan's version of the IOC classic, I'm Not In Love produced by Paul Handstead (8-25), and local singer Daniel O'Donnell with a four track EP (10-28).

SWEDEN

Pet Shop Boys remain on top followed by Madonna's Who's That Girl and Suzanne Vega's Luka which storms up the charts from 12 to 3 this week. Highest entry, as expected, for Michael Jackson (new at 5) and Pseudo Echo are new in the top 10 with Funky Town (9-15). Bananarama make a good move with I Heard A Rumour (12-19) and second best entry for Terence Trent D'Arby's If You Let Me Stay, debuting at 18.

PORTUGAL

A new no. 1 as Pet Shop Boys' It's A Sin is replaced by the local singer Joanna with Um Sonho A Dois. Cock Robin follow at 3 with Just Around The Corner and Madonna's Who's That Girl has a very high entry at no. 6 this week. Also new in the top 10 is Suzanne Vega's Luka (6-11) and Michael Jackson has second best entry with I Just Can't Stop Loving You.
